

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD.

VOL. XLV. NO. 22.

THE RECORD: NORTHVILLE, MICH., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1914.

$1.00 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE.

WILL L. TINHAM NEW POSTMASTER

APPOINTMENT ANNOUNCED IN WASHINGTON DISPATCHES.

MILJO JOHNSON'S TERM OF OFFICE
EXPIRED THE MIDDLE OF THIS MONTH.

The announcement of the appointment of Will L. Tinham as Northville's new postmaster has been made and Mr. Tinham will probably take hold of the job about January 1st.

In retiring from the position he has held for eight years Milo N. Johnson leaves a record as postmaster second to none other in the United States. He has been on the job every minute and his affable manner and business like ways have won for him the unanimous approval of the patrons of the office as well as the approbation of the United States officials. It was however, only in the regular order of things that another political government being in power he should, at the end of the term of appointment, be succeeded by a man of other faith.

Will L. Tinham who succeeds Mr. Johnson is no stranger to Northville people. He is a very popular citizen and has held offices in the Masonic, K. P. and Maccabee orders. He also has fine clerical ability and will no doubt make a splendid postmaster. The selection by the democratic administration meets general approval. Mr. Tinham will have the distinction of being Northville's third democratic postmaster, Avery Downer and Ham Woodman being the others. At least the memory of none of the present generation of Northvillites runs further back than that. But even so, the republicans have had only that number during the past thirty odd years anyhow: - E. S. Horton, W. H. Hutton and Milo Johnson.

Mr. Johnson will devote his time to the Starkweather farm south-west of town, which he has purchased.

JACKSON-VOIGHT.

Mrs. Ida Voight and Horace Jackson, both of this place, were united in marriage by Rev. Mr. Brass at the home of the bride's father, Truman Garfield, Monday evening.

They will make their home in Mr. Jackson's house on Cady street.

TESHA-MEISNER.

Miss Helen Meisner and Amel Tesha were united in marriage Wednesday evening, Dec. 16. They left immediately on a wedding trip to Rochester, N. Y.

4:30 CHRISTMAS MORNING

OLD YEAR OUT NEW YEAR IN

EASTERN STAR PARTY NEXT
THURSDAY NIGHT.

PROMISES TO BE REAL EVENT OF THE SEASON.

The old year of 1914 may be danced out and the new year danced in with jollity and good cheer at the annual Eastern Star party to be given in the rink Thursday evening, Dec. 31.

In an effort to please all their guests, the committees have arranged for an equal number of both the old and the new dances. The Northville orchestra will make its first appearance at a formal party in Northville that evening, and will render the best of dance music.

A supper will be served at 11 o'clock to the dancers and to judge by past O. E. S. affairs, it will be most satisfactory.

This is the second big party of the season and will no doubt be largely attended by both home and out-of-town people.

SIGNS HIS NAME TO THOUSANDS OF CHECKS.

Deputy State Treasurer Frank Gorman has to sign his name to every state check and each check has to be countersigned by Hoyt Woodman, cashier in the office of the state treasurer.

As a general rule these two men sign their names to approximately 65,000 checks issued by the state which total during the course of a year about $16,000,000. However, they will sign approximately 50,000 state checks this year, as the refunding of the automobile fees as the result of the new law being declared unconstitutional. Nearly 15,000 licenses were issued under the law providing for a tax per horsepower before the statute was declared unconstitutional and all money in excess of $3 had to be returned. As a result Deputy Gorman and Cashier Woodman had to sign their names 15,000 times more than in the course of an ordinary year's business. Lansing Journal.

ONLY TWO WEEKS MORE.

Only two weeks more at the old Alseum theater, says Manager Thompson. He expects the new theater will be ready for occupancy by January 10.

The feature of opening week at the New Alseum will be an Amateur talent vaudeville contest between Pontiac, Plymouth and Northville.

Alseum open this Christmas, afternoon as well as evening, with Mary Pickford in the leading roles.

To Be Expected.

"The pretty popular favorite who has gone in for suffrage seems to impress very much with her addresses. 'Well, why shouldn't a belle make ringing speeches?'"

From Our Exchanges.

Penton, also has a Christmas Greeting club.

The Orion Review was the only one of the Record's exchanges that came out last week in a real holiday suit, gay with Christmas trimmings. Looks very nice.

The Farmington school Prof. who was appointed to sound the curfew whistle each evening, has backed out of the job. He probably discovered that it was as much as he could do to manage the young idea during school hours.

Holly farmers are arguing over the variety of an ear of corn on display. The corn was raised by an Oxfordville man who last year shot a wild goose and planted some kernels of corn found in its crop. Besides the main crop a party of 100 or so were enclosed in a little house. Oxford Leader.

That's a pretty husky story, but just think of having to husk each kernel of corn separately. It will certainly never be popular.

A divine healer from the species, has quite a large following here who swear by her curative powers of laying on of hands—Oxford Leader.

In former years the average adult female could cure some pretty bad cases by the "laying on of hands" with sufficient motherly or teacher's emphasis.

The latest expedient of the anti-saloon workers to keep a township or village dry is that of purchasing a saloon license. That has been done at Three Oaks village by E. K. Warren and dry workers have now done the same in Three Oaks township. As the population is not great enough to allow a second license, the drys remain in command of the situation. Milford Times.

In spite of the fun poked at us by city papers, some of our exchanges continue to affirm that "an enjoyable time was had."—Northville Record. Don't you have any "enjoyable times" at Northville.—South Lyon Herald. Sure, Mike! But then that isn't what they make fun about. It's because of "was had." The expression has a similar effect on a city paragraphist to that produced on a turkey gobbler by a kidlet wearing a red garment.

Fred Leek, who runs a hotel at Highland, was summoned to Pontiac Wednesday to answer to a complaint that he was "operating a gambling table and a slot machine in his place." He admitted the charge and was allowed to pay a fine of $25. The information through which Leek was accused of the offense is said to have been given by the men accused of the Kori and Wixom burglaries. Milford Times.

Such things are bound to Leek out someday.

SENATOR TOWNSEND TO AID TABINSKI

VISITS STATE DEPARTMENT AND GETS AID OF U. S. GOVERNMENT

MAY GET RELEASE ON CONDITION OF BECOMING FULL FLEDGED
U. S. CITIZEN.

The following letter received by the Record from Senator Charles E. Townsend of Washington relative to Joe Tabinski's case will be of interest to Northville people.

JOSEPH TABINSKI.

"After a visit to the State and Labor departments in behalf of Mr. Tabinski, now confined at Halifax by the Canadian authorities, I find that he arrived in New York Oct. 15, 1907, and declared his intention June 12, 1909. The records do not show that he was ever fully naturalized which they would if such were the fact.

In view of this condition—his not being a citizen of the United States—the attorney connected with the State department said we were not in a position to demand his release, but that they would try to bring it about by having the Canadian authorities consent if they would, to release Tabinski if he would make oath that he would return to the United States with the intention of becoming a citizen thereof.

"The powers at war have drawn all lines very strictly, and are hard to deal with. But they will try to bring it about as I have indicated, and as soon as any results are obtained, I will at once inform you."

Sincerely yours,

CHARLES E. TOWNSEND.

Northville people are not alarmed for Tabinski's life but are interested because of the fact that his endeavor for humanity has gone for naught and his career, time and money seem to have fallen in the discard through no fault of his.

But He Thinks He Is.

The man who calls his wife Kantippe isn't necessarily a Socrates.—Boston Transcript.

KRUPPS WORK DAY AND NIGHT TURNING OUT ENGINES OF DEATH

Interior scene in the Krupp works at Essen, Germany.

LOOKING FOR LOVEY DOVEY

A Nearly 7-Foot Woman Searching For a Nearly 700-Pound Man.

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—A man weighing 657 pounds would seem to be the average mind to be a rather conspicuous personage—entirely too prominent, as it were to get lost. Yet that is what Miss Amelia Fliner, of Buffalo, claimed happened to a man in this city whose name she gave to the police as George Coleman. Incidentally, Miss Fliner is 6 feet 5 inches high and weighs 119 pounds.

She asked the North Side police to aid her in ferreting out Coleman, who she said met her six months ago in Buffalo. Recently he wrote her, she said to come to Pittsburgh and look over the skyscrapers here directing her to a house in Carson street. On going to that address Miss Fliner avers she found the house vacant and her portly friend nowhere to be seen.

Capt. John Dean assisted her that every night and evening in his hall wick would be, searched for her and pose friend.

AN OSTRICH STAMPEDE.

The Birds Kill a Woman and the Team She Was Driving.

PHOENIX, Ariz.—Three hundred ostriches stampeded from an ostrich ranch near here and scoured over a carriage driven by Mrs. L. D. Rosseau, instantly killing the woman and both of the horses she was driving.

The huge birds became frightened at something in their stockade and started full speed down a country road.

A panic ensued on the ranches in the neighborhood and families of ranchmen fled in terror. An alarm was sent out and all the cowboys in the vicinity rushed out on fast horses to round up the birds. This was only accomplished with the greatest difficulty.

Eight Sets Of Twins.

COSWELL, N. C.—The wife of West Graves, a negro living near Ridgeville, has just presented her husband with the eighth consecutive set of twins. They have been married about thirteen years. A remarkable fact is that in each set of twins was a boy and a girl. There are eight children, one of each sex having died.

HOW BRITISH BAYONET CHARGE LOOKS TO GERMANS IN TRENCHES

Look at this picture of some of Scotland's brawny sons rushing to a bayonet attack and then think of yourself as a German in the trenches. Wouldn't it make you a bit nervous? According to reports from Belgium and France the Scottish troops have engaged in several bayonet charges, which were bloody affairs for both sides.

NO NEED TO HURRY.

Theatrical Manager Imprisoned in Crush Gives Reason. Theatrical folk's love to tell of a Western manager, now prominent in the business, who made fame and fortune as proprietor of a small variety-house in San Francisco.

The thrifty German had accumulated considerable money, and was about to open a new theatre. Several hours before the first performance the entrance was packed, and the manager in trying to reach the front door, became hopelessly imprisoned in the crush.

"Here, here," he yelled, "peoples, peoples, it's me—it's Mr. Warner!" As no one appeared to take any notice of him he again yelled at the top of his voice.

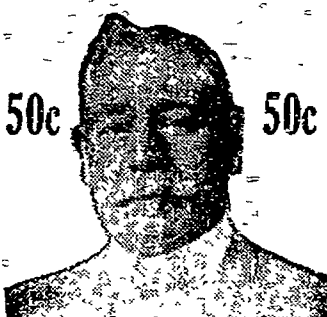

"Wait a minute peoples. Wait's de use of poosching lige dis? Take your time—de first two acts is rotten."

Cleaning White Paint.

The work of cleaning white paint should be divided between two people, one doing the washing and the other the polishing. The washing should be done with soap and warm water and a piece of flannel, the drying with a piece of old linen, and the polishing should be done immediately with a soft duster.

MICHIGAN NEWS

MORE SHAWASSEE RECORDS FRACTURED

Owosso, Mich. — Miss Nancy Thompson, who resides three and a half miles north of Perry, broke several records when she drove 12 miles to Corunna recently. It was the first time Miss Thompson had been in a buggy for 15 years. She had not been in Perry for 15 years, and she had not seen an electric car until the Owosso Interurban scooted across her startled vision. Miss Thompson lives on the farm where she was born, 60 years ago. The trip to Corunna was made with a neighbor, Mrs. H. B. Stevens.

THREE LADS DROWN IN PORTAGE LAKE, SKATING

Calumet, Mich. — Three Hancock boys, skating since yesterday morning, were found to have been drowned in Portage Lake while playing on the ice. The bodies were recovered this evening. The boys drowned were Alfred and John Koski, 8 and 9 years old, sons of John Koski, and Arthur Haskley, 6 years old, son of Mrs. John Haskley.

NINETEEN GIVE SKIN FOR BURNED WOMAN

Battle Creek, Mich. — When the 1000th graft of skin was placed on Mrs. Louis Thompson here today, physicians expressed the belief that her life was saved and she would soon be discharged from the hospital. Twenty-seven machinists of the American Steam Pump Co. volunteered to give their cuticle and 19 were used before the grafting was finished. The pump company gave the men time off on full pay. Mrs. Thompson was terribly burned four weeks ago.

INSPECTORS OF LIVE STOCK ARE NAMED

Niles, Mich. — Michigan veterinarians co-operating with the federal bureau of animal industry, will inspect live stock shipped under the existing regulations and intended for immediate slaughter. A selected list recommended by the state board has been forwarded to Washington by Dr. H. C. The Michigan men selected are: Dr. W. T. Graham, Niles; Dr. H. L. Schuh, Grand Rapids; Dr. G. W. Murphy, Lansing; Dr. J. C. Whitner, Hillsdale; G. D. Gibson, Adrian; Robert Cassels, Rochester; Dr. C. R. Clark, Kalamazoo; Dr. James Drury, Ypsilanti; Dr. Andrew Dean, Marshall; D. W. S. Newton, United States veterinarian stationed at Coldwater, has been designated also to co-operate with the state men in this work.

INSANE, HE IS HEIR TO VAST ESTATE

State Trying, Through German Authorities, to Establish That Man in Asylum Is One Sought.

Lansing, Mich. — Michigan, through its attorney-general, is out to establish that Ernest Richard Matthiessen, an inmate of the Pontiac state hospital, is one of the heirs to a vast estate in Hamburg, Germany, and if the state can prove its claim, Michigan will not only be reimbursed for Matthiessen's keep since 1891, but will endeavor to have a Michigan guardian appointed. A chance was dropped by Mrs. Matheson Lang of Philadelphia in 1894, started the proceedings.

Matthiessen is 55 years old, and was admitted to the asylum in 1891. Records show he was single, a gunsmith by trade and a native of Australia. His father and mother were born in Germany. A sister is confined in an asylum at Sydney, Australia.

St. Johns. — Rev. Amos Watkins of Bay City has accepted a call to the pulpit of St. John's Episcopal church here. He has been pastor of Trinity church at Bay City for 14 years and has three sons, one of whom received a Rhodes scholarship and is a graduate of Oxford. The present pastor of the St. John's church, Rev. C. D. Bishop, has tendered his resignation to take effect the first of the year. Rev. F. W. Bates, pastor of the Congregational church at Ovid, has resigned to go to the Reed City church January 1. He has been at Ovid one year.

Owosso. — Friends of Edward L. Mason, who is under arrest for $99,000 in bonds, where he was president of the Fox & Mason Furniture Co., charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, by misrepresenting the condition of his firm, which failed a year ago, say the case will not be pushed as the company has announced its intention of paying a final dividend of 12 per cent. When arrested Mason was held in Pontiac charged with a similar offense. It is said he borrowed $2,700 from a Holly bank. The case is still pending in Pontiac.

Ionia. — That the Ionia reformatory will be crowded before spring and convicts sleeping in the corners was the statement of Warden Fuller in commenting on the transfer of 20 convicts here from Marquette. There are 581 prisoners in the Michigan reformatory and 624 cells. Owing to the fact that other prisons are crowded and more than usual are being sent to the local institution, the warden believes that the prison will be filled by Feb. 1.

Owosso. — Jerome J. Davis, 67 years old, a dry goods merchant of this city for 30 years, died at his home here Monday. He had been ill for several days suffering with pneumonia, but doctors had announced he had passed the crisis and would recover. After a relapse he sank rapidly until he died. He was prominent in the affairs of the Episcopal church, having for years been vestryman and lay leader. Three children survive. He was a member of the Masonic lodge and I.O.O.F.

Corunna. — Charles Pease, 17 years old, of Corunna, was sentenced to assault with intent to do great bodily harm to Archer Smith, whom he assaulted with a rock several weeks ago. Smith was injured so severely that it was thought he would not recover. A companion who was mixed up in the trouble will be brought into court later.

Owosso. — Jonathan D. Wood, Corunna's oldest resident, went fishing three weeks ago and fell in the river pneumonia resulting, from which he died. Mr. Wood served through the Civil war with the 140th New York infantry and has lived in Corunna 26 years. One of three surviving children, Charles Wood, of Lansing, was stricken with paralysis and is in a critical condition.

THE VOTE ON PROHIBITION.

Although the necessary two-thirds majority was not obtained, prohibition supporters have reason to feel encouraged by the vote on the Hobson amendment. The measure failed in the house by but 61 votes.

If a mere majority of those present had been necessary, the amendment would have been carried by eight votes. In fact, the strength mustered on the very first vote on national prohibition by United States representatives, was surprising. One hundred and ninety-seven members, out of a total of 433, going on record as opposed to the sale of intoxicants, notwithstanding the argument of a violation of "state rights" used as the principal attack on the issue, is no mean showing.

Equally significant was the large number of members present, there being but 47 absentees. It may be presumed that some of these were men who did not care or did not dare to vote according to the convictions of their constituents. Their presence would have had no effect on the outcome, however, as even if all favored prohibition, the two-thirds majority would have been lacking. Eleven members of the Michigan delegation, voting for the measure, with one who voted adversely declaring he was not against prohibition but against the measure, is also significant.—Detroit Tribune.

Once again we celebrate the greatest of all Birthdays and symbolize, by our gift giving, the Great Gift of all. It is wonderful, yet inevitable, that even after nineteen hundred years, the inestimable value of that Gift and the spirit created by it should so permeate our lives that the atmosphere of Christmas over all the civilized world has something different from that of all other anniversaries. Even among those who do not personally appreciate the great Gift, those who never think of what the Christmas means in its fundamental relation to humanity, that spirit of good will and happiness is diffused with its joy giving power. And while, there is, inevitably, a certain amount of perfunctory giving, actual, giving—a paradoxical term but one which expresses a real state of mind that, unfortunately, prevails to some extent—yet we are glad to contend that the great birth of Christmas is inspired by the true Christmas spirit, the spirit of joy, or love, or gladness that finds expression in doing good to others. Most of us give at Christmas time, not because we love to, because we may thus exemplify that truth that never grows old—"It is more blessed" and here's hoping the readers of the Record have had a joyful Christmas, and that the New Year may bring added happiness and prosperity.

MORE AUTOS THE HERRIER BUSINESS.

The real attraction for visitors to Detroit, or at least one of the biggest ones, is the sight of so many autos lined up along the streets. And now the police commissioner is going to drive them off. In Northville we point with pride to the number of cars and horses standing in the business section as indicative of a busy day. If it weren't for the autos and auto industry in Detroit, that city would look like Windsor on a rainy Sunday. If we're in business in Detroit we would be thankful to have autos standing in front of our store or office ten deep.

It's about time now to get out your annual New Year's resolutions and "the same thing over and over again."

Some people think their schemes will hatch out all right if they only set their minds on them.

Christmas day will be gone but the spirit of it should exist all through 1915.

Arrow and Bow.

(By Ella Wheeler Wilcox in Cosmopolitan)

It is easy to stand in the pulpit, or in the closet to kneel,
And say: "God do this; God do that!
Make the world better; relieve the sorrows of man; for sake of thy Son,
Oh, forgive all sin!" Then, having planned out God's work, to feel
Our duty is done.
It is easy to be religious this way—
Easy to pray.

It's harder to stand on the highway or walk in the crowded mart
And say: "I am He. I am He.
Mine the world-burden, mine the sorrows of men, mine is the Christ-work
To forgive my brother's sin," and then to live the Christ-part
And never to shrink
It is hard for you and me
To be religious this way,
Day after day.

But God is no longer in heaven; we drove him out with our prayers.
Drove him out with our sermons and creeds, and our endless plaints and despairs.
He came down over the borders, and Christ, too, came along
They are looking the whole world over to see just what is wrong
God has grown weary of hearing his praises sung on earth,
And Jesus is weary of hearing his praises sung on earth,
And the way to win their favor that is surer than any other,
Is to join in a song of Brotherhood and praises of one another.

No; God is no longer in heaven. He has come down on earth to see
That nothing is wrong with the world he made; the wrong is in you and me
He meant the earth for a garden-spot, where mill and factory stand;
Childhood, he meant for growing-time—but look at the toiling hand!
Woman was meant for mother and mate—now look at the slaves of lust.
And the good folks shake their heads and say, "We must pray to God and trust."
God has a billion books of our prayers unopened upon his shelves,
For the things we are begging of Him to do, he wants us to do ourselves.

WEEK'S CALENDAR

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES.

(By the Pastor.)

Sunday morning sermon-topic:
"The Second Coming of Jesus."

In the evening the subject will be:
"How Many Christians Are There In Northville, and Who Are They?"

Be ready for Family Church Day, January 3. We want every member of every family in our church to be present that day. The probationers will be received into full membership on that day.

The Christmas program for this year was of unusual strength and attractiveness. It was well given, and too much credit cannot be given to the three committees, who made the affair so successful. The collection taken has been sent to Belgium in the hour of her great suffering.

At this Christmas time, let us all be reminded of the birth of Jesus, and let us make room in our hearts for the birth of the Christ—a Christ who shall grow in our lives and help us to mature in the likeness of God.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.

(By the Pastor.)

Children's Christmas exercises this Friday evening, at seven o'clock, standard time. The program will be both English and German.

English services next Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, standard time.
Our English services have been a success so far, and we are looking forward to a large attendance next Sunday. The subject, "Your Account With God," will be of special interest. You have an account with God, everybody has. Come and hear how your account stands.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES.

(By the Pastor.)

Sunday morning's sermon-topic will be, "The Making of a Saint."

The Sunday school hour will be devoted to the election of officers for the Sunday school. We desire a full representation of the school at this election.

The Young People's service at 6:00 o'clock is a very interesting service.
You are welcome.

In the evening the pastor will preach on the Great Refusal. Baptist services will follow.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES.

(By the Pastor.)

Morning subject—"Our Debt to the Future." The morning service will be appropriate to the thought of the New Year. A good way to finish the old year and get the church-going habit would be to attend this morning service.

Sunday school at the usual hour.
The Christian Endeavor at six o'clock.
These meetings are helpful. Awelcome to all.

Evening topic—"A New Year's Resolution."

The Christmas entertainment given by the Sunday school last Tuesday night was an unusual success. The committees in charge are to be congratulated on the fine program that was presented. All who had a part in the program are worthy of the heartiest commendation. An offering of over eleven dollars and provisions to the amount of twenty dollars, was received; due to the liberality of the Sunday school. These will be divided between the King's Daughters and the Florence Crittenton

Home of Detroit.

The annual meeting is something now to be looked forward to. Date announced later.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY.

Christian Science service in the Ladies' Library Sunday morning at 10:15 o'clock.

Value of Goodness.

It is not easy to be good. If it were goodness would be worth very little.
It would not mean struggle, persistence, aspiration, development, character, as it does now. Real goodness —efficient, beneficent goodness—is valuable because of what it costs, day by day, and it never comes at a bargain.—Selected.

A Fair Warning

One That Should Be Heeded by Northville Residents.

Frequently the first sign of kidney trouble is a slight ache or pain in the loins. Neglect of this warning makes the way easy for more serious troubles—dropsy, gravel, Bright's disease. This will pay attention to the first sign. Weak kidneys generally grow weaker and delay is often dangerous. Residents of this locality place reliance in Doan's Kidney Pills. This tested remedy has been used in kidney trouble over 50 years—is recommended all over the civilized world. Read the following:

Mrs. R. E. Cole, Horton Ave., Northville, Mich., says: "Different ones of my family have used Doan's Kidney Pills with splendid results. One of us had a lame back and soreness across the loins. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved him of the trouble. Another suffered from trouble with the kidney secretions and in this case, Doan's Kidney Pills also gave quick relief. We are all pleased to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills because we know just how good they are."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Cole had. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.—Advertisement.

BOON FOR FAT AND LEAN PEOPLE

CAN BUY THE REMEDY "VILLANE" FOR 50 CENTS THE HALF BARREL.

STATE DAIRY AND FOOD DEPARTMENT HAS ANALYZED THE STUFF AND HANDS OUT INFORMATION.

Dr. Lewis Bakes of Ohio has joined the Mae Martin class in Michigan and through advertisements in the leading dailies is answering "all correspondence" mythical and otherwise, with remedies for most of the diseases that human flesh is heir to.

In a recent ad "Kit" writes she is in danger of qualifying for a place in a side show as a living skeleton and becoming a real kitten and she suffers from headaches.

The doctor advises a thorough course of Hyponurine tablets. Our chemist has examined Hyponurine tablets and was unable to identify any active drug or drug principle.

These tablets when placed in a 4 per cent solution of Hydrochloric acid (which is the natural acid of the stomach) required over 96 hours to dissolve. It looks like "Kit" might trade off her headaches for stomach aches. Nine cents is the price of sixty three grain tablets.

Miss T. R. is evidently afraid she may qualify as the fat woman in the side show. She confesses to the modest weight of 150 pounds and is gaining. She wants the doctor to cure her, but she is afraid of the doctor's regular dose of 5 grain Arbolone tablets.

Analysis of these tablets show that the active principle is the Thyroid gland of the sheep. The National dispensary says that Thyroid gland when used in quantities sufficient to cause decrease in weight, often causes ill health, changes the skin to a yellow hue and also causes wrinkling of the skin. If Miss T.

R—wishes to swap her 30 lbs of healthy flesh for a skin like a Chinaman and wrinkles like a Merino sheep, thyroid gland will probably have a tending to produce the result. But just take it from us, "Miss T. R." that if you wish to reduce flesh, just stop eating. Any Arctic explorer can give testimonials to that effect.

"Maud" has got a real affliction in a bad case of catarrh. Her nose runs and her breath smells until she is obliged to eschew all osculatory performances with any gentleman callers. But the doctor has the stuff for "Maud," the afflicted. All she has to do is to dissolve half a teaspoon of Villane powder in a pint of warm water two or three times a day and "presto change," back comes health and action and the pocket handkerchief can be used for a napkin.

Our chemist says that Villane powder on examination were found to be composed of common salt 40 per cent, baking soda 35 per cent, borax 15 per cent, and salicylate of soda 10 per cent. Selling price 50c. Estimated cost 2 per cent. Mix your own dope, "Maud," and for 50c you will have a barrel full of solution, enough to cure all the running noses in an average 4700 village—provided it works.

Christmas Memory

(With apologies to Alice Cary.)
Of all the beautiful pictures
On childhood's memory's wall
Is one of an evergreen Christmas tree.
That standeth broad and tall;
In whose very topmost branches
A blue-eyed dolly swings,
While lower down to a friendly bough
A Teddy bearlet clings;
And there, quite close to Teddy
Hangs a soldier-bird, of tin;
A drum, with sticks suspended,
To make a warlike din;
A life with wondrous music
Quite hidden away inside;
A sled so strong and splendid
That at least four boys may ride;
A picture book of fairies,
An engine that will run;
A toy piano with real keys,
A tool chest and a gun;
And from the gay, green branches,
Festooned as ribbons bright,
Hangs strings of soft white popcorn
That glistens in the light,
And everywhere hangs candy
For children, great and small.
Of all the Childhood's memories,
This seemeth the best of all.
—Maud Walker, in the Birmingham Age-Herald.

Wear a Christmas Face!
Holly, mistletoe, mistletoe,
Decorations, up they go!
Leave your irritation where Till be comrade for your care,
Into troubles' ample pouch
Stow away your ugly grudge, Leave behind you frown and
scowl;
Put away each sneer and
growl,
Angry frown and fretful word,
Put them where they won't be heard.

Christmas

Origin of Christmas Cards.
Is the originator of the first Christmas card destined to become as great a subject of controversy as the inventor of the adhesive stamp and the safety bicycle? Up to yesterday most people who took an interest in the matter would have credited either the late Sir Henry Cole or Mr. J. C. Horsley, R. A., with the production of the first card, and they would have put the date down to-day—the late Mr. W. A. Dobson, R. A., and his claim is supported with circumstantial detail in World's Work.
The birth of the Christmas card is put back two years, to 1844. Mr. Dobson was a lonely young man, who one day conceived the idea of acknowledging the kindness of a friend by sending him a picture illustrative of the festive season—a cheerful family group, surrounded by the familiar Christmas accessories.
The distant friend was delighted, showed it to other friends, and Mr. Dobson was encouraged, the following year to secure the aid of the local lithographer. Then came imitations one after another, until ten years after the business man stepped in to make money out of what was originally a work of love. But the ambitious Christmas cards of today are a long remove from the primitive Father Christmases and Robin Redbreasts of sixty years ago.—London Chronicle.

Old Santa Claus is on his way, Sledding or no sledding! He'll be here Christmas Day.

Santa Claus.
(Since its original production The New York Sun has refrained from reprinting the article on Santa Claus which appeared several years ago, but this year the requests for its reproduction have been so numerous that we yield. Scrap books seem to be wearing out.)

Is There a Santa Claus?
We take pleasure in answering at once, and thus prominently, the communication below, expressing at the same time our great gratification that its faithful author is numbered among the friends of The Sun:
"Dear Editor: I am 8 years old.
"Some of my little friends say there is no Santa Claus Papa says, 'If you see it in The Sun' it's so. Please tell me the truth; is there a Santa Claus?"
—"VIRGINIA O'HANLON," 115 West 25th St.

Virginia, your little friends are wrong. They have been affected by the scepticism of a sceptical age. They do not believe except they see. They think that nothing can be which is not comprehensible by their little minds. All minds, Virginia, whether they be men's or children's, are little. In this great universe of ours man is a mere insect, an ant, in his intellect, as compared with the boundless world about him, as measured by the intelligence capable of grasping the whole of truth and knowledge.

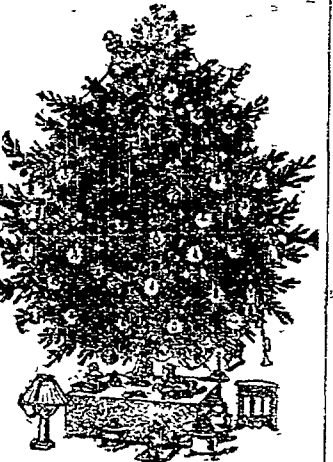

Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas! how dreary would be the world if there were no Santa Claus! It would be as dreary as if there were no Virginias. There would be no childlike faith then, no poetry, no romance, to make tolerable this existence. We should have no enjoyment except in sense and sight. The eternal light with which childhood fills the world would be extinguished.

Not believe in Santa Claus? You might as well not believe in fairies! You might get your papa to hire men to watch in all the chimneys on Christmas eve to catch Santa Claus, but even if they did not see Santa Claus coming down, what would that prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign that there is no Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are those that neither children nor men can see. Did you ever see fairies dancing on the lawn? Of course not, but that's no proof that they are not there. Nobody can conceive or imagine all the wonders that are unseen and unsearchable in the world.

You may tear apart the baby's rattle and see what makes the noise inside, but there is a veil covering the unseen world which not the strongest man nor even the united strength of all the strongest men that ever lived, could tear apart. Only faith, fancy, poetry, love, romance, can push aside that curtain and view and picture the supernatural beauty and glory beyond it. If all real life, Virginia, in all this world there is nothing else real and abiding.

No Santa Claus? Thank God! He lives and he lives forever. A thousand years from now, Virginia, nay, ten times ten thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood.

The Outdoor Christmas Tree.
Even in books it is hard to find a Christmas tree so perfect as one that is left still growing and decked outdoors exactly where it stands. Such a tree Louise Morgan Hill describes as having been arranged by a family in Washington for their two children, an assembly of friends, and some little orphan visitors. Mrs. Hill describes the tree, which was real enough, in her Harper story-book "Sunnyfield," telling how it was suddenly uncovered from its canvas wrappings, and how it stood forth, clad with gold, silver, and color, and with light from tiny hidden electric bulbs, dazzling against a velvety dark sky. The tree that grew in the sunny field was a hemlock, and as the little group watched that night they sang the carol Longfellow translated from the German, "O hemlock tree! O hemlock tree! How faithful are thy branches," while the round-eyed pickaninies, peering over the fence, said one to another, "Did you ever see such a thing in all your born life?"

N. Y. FASHION HINT

A balmacan coat of pepper and salt material; a high black hat trimmed with a black spray of feathers; a fur set of raccoon with the favorite round muffs; gray gaiters buttoned on the side—this describes the wearing apparel of the correctly dressed girl in the picture, who was photographed while walking down Fifth avenue, New York, last week.

AT THE CEMETERY GATE.

Invitation To Visitors And Passers By To Call Again.

FAIRMONT W. Va.—"Thank You Call Again" is a sign over the entrance to a local cemetery. Signs with that legend on one side and "City Limits. Please Respect Our Laws. Drive Slowly" on the other have been placed on all roads leading to the city. One side is meant as a warning to automobiles entering the city and the other as an act of courtesy to visitors leaving the city. The sign is placed just the same on the road leading to the cemetery entrance.

Turkeys Cause Big Fire.
PITTSBURGH Pa.—Turkeys waiting for the ax, and which were temporarily confined in the basement of the First Apartment Building, 105 Charles Avenue, kicked over the stove in the basement and the building was thus fired, resulting in a loss of $75,000 and the making of seven families homeless. A number of women were injured. Mrs. O'Leary's cow kicked over a lamp and caused the great Chicago fire of 1872. These turkeys are certainly inconsiderate, if not so expensive.

It is an immense blessing to be perfectly callous to ridicule; or, which comes to the same thing, to be conscious thoroughly that what we have in us of noble and delicate is not ridiculous to any but fools, and that, if fools will laugh, wise men will do well to let them.—Doctor Arnold

I WENT THE ENTIRE 300 MILES WITHOUT A SINGLE STOP, THEREBY ESTABLISHING A NEW WORLD'S NON-STOP ROAD RACE RECORD AND FINISHING IN SECOND PLACE. THE MAXWELL CAR BEHAVED IN PERFECT SHAPE, RAN COOL AND SMOOTH THROUGH THE ENTIRE RACE AND HAD PLENTY OF SPEED FOR ANY RACE. I HAD IT COPE THAT 85 MILES PER HOUR, WOULD WIN THE RACE; THAT WAS THE REASON I AVERAGED ONLY 85-MILES. CAR I DROVE WAS THE MOST CONSISTENT PERFORMER IN THE RACE. TIRES SHOWED PRACTICALLY NO WEAR.
