PLYMOUTH HIGH SCHOOL BURNED

METHODIST CHURCH ALSO DESTROYED AND PARSONAGE JUST ESCAPED

EARLY THURSDAY MORNING FIRE FROM AN UNKNOWN ORIGIN; LACK WATER PRESSURE.

Fire from an unknown origin was discovered on the engine room of the Plymouth High School about four o'clock Thursday morning. The fire department could have saved the building with little damage if the water pressure had been sufficient. However, as it was, the school and the Methodist church were completely destroyed. The parsonage had a close call but the wind changed about the time the fire got to that end of the church and by keeping the water flooding on the end nearest the house the parsonage was saved.

The origin of the fire is a mystery due to the fact that school closed last Friday for spring vacation and there has been no fire in the school house since. The general belief in the village is that it was incendiary.

The insurance on both buildings and contents amounted to $26,500. Nothing was saved from the high school but the piano and pews in the church were carried to safety.

Arrangements have not yet been completed for the housing of the pupils, but in all probability a temporary building will be erected similar to that now in use here.

INTERESTING LETTER.

The Record received this interesting letter from Mrs. E. S. Hakes who went from here to North Bennington, Vt. for an indefinite stay with her brother, Em. Hakes. Mauteson:

"Owing to the weather conditions I have not been able to send my subscription money earlier but will do so now.

We have had the most snow here in years. Drifts are from twelve to fifteen feet deep and there is not a particle of bare ground anywhere.

The roads are impassable in many places and as we live in the country we are shut in.

Enclosed please find one dollar.

MRS. E. S. HAKES.

OBITUARY—MRS. A. K. CARPENTER

Mrs. Minnie Hathorn Carpenter died Sunday night at her home on Rogers street, after a long illness with heart trouble. Mrs. Carpenter had for many years been prominent in the social life of Northville, and will be greatly missed. Northville has been Mrs. Carpenter's home for the larger part of her life—with her parents when a child, and in later years as a teacher in the Northville schools, a position she filled satisfactorily for several years.

About 24 years ago, she became the wife of Alfred K. Carpenter, who survives her. Mrs. Carpenter was an active and useful member of the O. E. S. and was a Past Worthy Matron of Orient Chapter. She had also filled other offices in that order. The funeral was held from the home Wednesday afternoon, with Rev. J. E. Webber as the officiating clergyman. Interment was made in Rural Hill cemetery.

MR. FISHER DEAD.

Arthur Fisher died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Hills, on Wednesday, his seventy-fifth birthday. Mr. Fisher's home was in New Hudson and he had been visiting here for a short time. Beside Mrs. Hills he leaves two other daughters, Mrs. Carl Parker of Farmington, Mrs. Mildred Richardson of Detroit and one son, Dell, of New Hudson.

A prayer service will be held at the Hills home this morning and the body taken to New Hudson for burial.

FERRIS AND HEMANS LAUD EDWIN O. WOOD

SIGNED INTERVIEW FROM THE MAN WHO ONCE CAME WITHIN 9,000 VOTES OF BEING ELECTED GOVERNOR OF MICHIGAN.

THE NAME OF LAWTON T. HEMANS IS A HOUSEHOLD WORD IN EVERY DEMOCRATIC HOME IN MICHIGAN.

To the Democrats of Michigan. For twenty years at least, it has been my privilege to have intimate acquaintance with the man who in the larger sense have contributed the energy and the means to further the interest of the Democratic party in Michigan, and of both energy and means no man in the state in that time has made as large a contribution as Edwin O. Wood of Flint.

Political parties are made potent through their organizations, and organizations are perfected and kept intact through the liberality and sacrifice of their members. If the Democratic party in Michigan has been to any degree impotent, it has been because it has had too few men of the loyalty, energy and liberality of Mr. Wood, and too many men like the few who now constitute themselves his critics, who during the same years, have contributed nothing to make the party as potent as it has been.

Political disintegration either through promoting fractional differences or supporting candidates of the opposition has never been furthered by Edwin O. Wood; he has always supported loyally the candidates of his party.

Twice I was honored by the party as its candidate for the governorship, and I have never been aware that there was factional division within the party in the support which I received. In both campaigns, the first contributions to advance the work of the State Central committee came in the form of remittances from Mr. Wood which aggregated from five hundred to a thousand dollars for each campaign and constituted from a fifth to a tenth of all the funds received by the committee.

ED. O. WOOD AND THE DEMOCRAT PARTY.

For the first time in a thousand years or less the Democrat party in Michigan is having trouble in its own camps. For National committee man E. O. Wood of Flint has opposition for re-election in the person of A. H. Coombs of Albion. The trouble occurs next Monday at the regular town meeting. A special ballot is provided for the purpose by virtue of the Hon. Elias S. Osborn and a special session of the legislature. It was about the biggest punk Michigan's lawmakers ever put out. Every party ought to elect its party heads—or tails either for that matter—in any old way they see fit.

Well, anyhow, the committee election and preference for president takes place, as we said, at town election time, next Monday.

E. O. Wood is a Democrat leader and he is a cracker-jack, at that. If that party doesn't elect him by a tremendous big vote, it ought to be wiped off the map. Wood is a prince. He is a mighty good fellow and he has a head full of brains. He knows what they are there for. He ought to get the entire Democratic vote. Ed Wood is of the class they make governors and presidents of. Some day the Democrat party will put him up for Michigan's chief executive and it will not be a bad thing, as he is elected.

OAKLAND VOTERS SHOULD SAY YES.

Every one who has been to the Oakland school building, where the Democratic party is holding its headquarters, will be sure to have seen the large sign which reads "Oakland Voters Should Say Yes." This sign is a masterpiece of art and is a fine example of the work of the Oakland school building committee.

Pontiac Has a Stick Together Club.

Needless to say the members are just completely stuck on the organization. Detroit ought to pay about half the state tax. It possesses over forty per cent of all the saloons in Michigan.

And Detroit is still using Windsor time, rowboats to Belle Isle park and cutting down school appropriations.

Touch wood, with your fingers crossed and you can whisper spring's here.

FERRIS AND HEMANS
LAUD EDWIN O. WOOD.

while the names of most of the gentlemen who now are asking that the direction of party affairs be given over to them, were not on the list at all.

If loyalty to party principles and candidates, the sacrifice of time, energy and money, and the promotion of party solidarity as against factional division, entitle a man to consideration in the party organization, Edwin O. Wood has pre-eminently earned a reelection as a member of the Democratic National committee.

LAWTON T. HEMANS.

Governor Ferris Gives Endorsement for Edwin O. Wood for Re-Election as Member of the Democratic National Committee.

Executive office Lansing Mich. Mar. 29, 1916.

To the Democratic Voters of Michigan, Governor of Michigan, Hon. J. M. Smith.

In 1904 I made my first campaign for Edwin O. Wood, of Flint, Michigan, as Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee. He made extraordinary personal sacrifices. Furthermore he organized Michigan Democracy so that the results of my campaign were flattering indeed.

In 1908 Mr. Wood was elected Democratic National Committeeman. Since then he has given his time and energy freely. No other Democrat in the State of Michigan has in my judgment made greater sacrifices for the party.

It is acknowledged that his influence has been wholesome and constructive. His loyalty to Democracy is beyond question. His large experience in national affairs is a valuable asset to the Democratic party just at this time.

The coming election affords the first opportunity that the Democrats of Michigan have had for expressing their appreciation of Mr. Wood's splendid services.

The Democrats of Michigan cannot afford to swap noses at this particular time. His election as National Committeeman means further progress and further success for Michigan Democracy.

And then as they look at the record of his splendid services, they will be sure to say "Yes."

Yours very truly, J. M. Smith, Governor of Michigan.

Edwin O. Wood, Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee.

WHY THE HATCHET?

(By Della F. Harmon.)

All our land has just been flung With talking and with singing In laudatory voices, 'bout that peerless man of power—

Who engineered this nation Through its natal agitation Watching 'er the new-born country in many a trying hour.

'Twas, in sooth, a lusty baby Though in garments rusty, maybe— And it caused its famous father lots of wakeful, troubled nights. For it has its pains internal; Its eruptions, too, external; Nor was it always easy to enforce parental rights.

But the youngster grew, and flourished By the milk of Freedom nourished And the Daddy of his country saw with pride his plans succeed. But he scarce could have detected— If he modestly suspected— How the future generations would rise to own his story.

He may possibly have wondered— Since he very seldom wondered— Whether history would justify his action and his word. To his wise and forceful teachings, His achievements and his preachings Would, in future be remembered and adown the years be heard.

But alas! and thus his ever None so great that his endeavor Can attain to best fruition immune From chance of spot. Somewhere, somehow discovered, And ruthlessly uncovered, Must appear on every record at least one little blot.

Thus, since no one can escape it, As inquirers will shape it, We are forced to know that stories even of our Washington, Into family matters raking, Prate of childish mischief-making, Tricks that in his thoughtless boyhood he's accused of having done.

Now, suppose the boy did hack it— With his bright, new hatchet, what it, That said true—Why bring upon it for a hundred-fifty years? And had that worth the raising dust of things that don't need raising?

Why couldn't they let George do it— And then as they look at the record of his splendid services, they will be sure to say "Yes."

Yours very truly, J. M. Smith, Governor of Michigan.

this sacred institution, are none other than those given in the scriptures; viz: "Let Each Examine Their Own Heart and Let Them Partake."

We leave the question of baptism to the individual conscience, as far as this service is concerned. We do not believe all Christians are in the Baptist church. In baptism we are immersed.

Well, spring is here, and spring suggests a new beginning. Let us make April the Go-to-Church-Month, and beginning Sunday let us start a new epoch not only in the history of the Baptist church, but also in the history of all the churches of Northville. You Methodists and Presbyterians are not breaking the limit by any means—and some of us Baptists. Oh dear! let's stop this subject with a declaration for a better history.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.
(By the Pastor.)

There will be no services a week from Sunday, and the Salem services will be postponed one week.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY.

Christian Science service in the Ladies' Library Sunday morning at 10:45 o'clock.

PLYMOUTH EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Next Sunday morning there will be special memorial service to the late Mrs. A. V. Lapham at St. John's Episcopal church, corner Dodge and Union streets at 10:15 o'clock.

There will be special hymns with anthem. H. McDworth of Detroit, missionary in charge, will preach the sermon.

The late Mrs. Lapham was one of the first members of St. John's mission and until her death was a devoted and earnest Christian worker in the mission. She was also president of the Ladies Guild.

It is hoped that a large gathering of friends and acquaintances of the late Mrs. Lapham and family will avail themselves of this opportunity by being present next Sunday morning.
