AN APPRECIATION.

On Saturday, June 12, 1920, we sold our Drug and Stationery business to C. R. Horton of this city. On retiring from this field we take this opportunity of thanking the people of Northville and surrounding country for the generous patronage they have given us and the kindly feeling that has already been expressed towards us. The fifteen years spent here in the business have been happy ones and we hope our retirement from this community will be but temporary. We bespeak for our successor, Mr. Horton, the same generous patronage which has been accorded us and hope that his business will continue to prosper in the future in fully as large measure as in the past.

Very sincerely yours,
A. E. STANLEY,

SCHOOLS CLOSE AFTER A SUCCESSFUL YEAR

The annual commencement week for the Northville High school opened under very happy and favorable auspices Sunday evening. In spite of the intense heat a large audience gathered at the M. E. church to listen to the baccalaureate address and all were well repaid for their effort. The services were opened with song, a splendid choir leading the congregation. Rev. E. V. Belles read the scripture lesson, the 23rd chapter of Job, a most appropriate selection for the occasion. Rev. H. Grimwood offered an earnest prayer, in which he invoked the divine blessing upon our country and its splendid educational institutions. Miss Ruth A. Green rendered a solo in fine voice, and a male chorus of five voices sang "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus," and that inspiring hymn was never better rendered in Northville.

Rev. H. J. B. Marsh delivered the address to the class, members of which occupied seats of honor. He spoke with much earnestness and if the young people will take his words of admonition as their guide through life their pathways will be strewn with acts of mercy, service and usefulness. He took for the theme of his inspiring address the words addressed to Elijah as he was found under the juniper bush—"What are you doing here" and from them gave a discourse full of helpfulness and sound, practical advice.

The church was decorated with noted plants and the whole service was a credit to the community.

The class day exercises were held at the High school auditorium on Tuesday evening, when the following program was given in a creditable manner by members of the class, each participant doing exceptionally well and won the hearty applause of the large audience present:

A. E. STANLEY SELLS DRUG BUSINESS.

A few weeks ago A. E. Stanley sold his residence on Dunlap street to Detroit parties and on Saturday last he sold his drug business to Ralph Horton who assumed possession at that time, and who will continue the business. Mr. Stanley came to Northville fifteen years ago and by careful management, painstaking efforts to please his patrons, and courteous treatment of the public he had established a very prosperous business and a large circle of acquaintances in this section. He regrets to learn that he is to retire from business in this village. He has not fully decided as to his future plans, but for the present he contemplates taking a good vacation, something he has never been privileged to enjoy before. The Record hopes matters may so shape themselves that Mr. and Mrs. Stanley will continue to be residents of Northville.

Mr. Horton is a Northville boy and needs no introduction to the people of this section who have long known him and by whom he is held in highest esteem. He is a practical druggist and was for many years associated with the Michigan Drug Co. of Detroit. His old friends here will be glad to welcome him into the business circle of his home town.

DETROIT TO ESTABLISH FRESH AIR COLONY.

In order to provide fresh air, good recreational recreation for children from the congested parts of the city who have developed tuberculosis, or are afflicted with the disease, the council Tuesday authorized the expenditure of $3,000 by the health department for a summer camp at Northville.

According to Dr. Vanecko who appeared before the council Tuesday morning 100 army tents could be obtained from stores in and about Detroit. He said it was proposed to erect these on the health department's Northville property, furnishing facilities for the care of about 500 children during the summer.

A physician and two nurses will be supplied by the health department, while the recreation department will send two playground directors to teach the children how to get the most good from their outing.

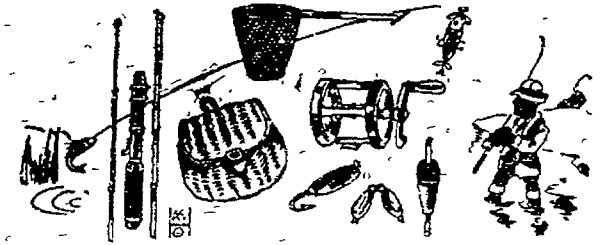

The money appropriated by the council will complete the equipment and pay the running expenses of the camp for the summer.—Free Press.

CATCHED WITH THE GOODS.

Saturday forenoon Deputy Sheriff Perrin received a message from an officer at Plymouth that two negroes had broken the seal on a freight car in the yards at that place and after fitting themselves out with new overalls had started out to see the country. Mr. Perrin passed the word along and it was not long before Elmer Perrin discovered the fellows on the P. M. tracks near Northville. After a spirited chase they were apprehended and brought to the village and were afterwards turned over to the state police at Plymouth.

The fellows were dressed in brand new overalls and looked like millionaires.

The O. E. S. held a very enjoyable special meeting last Friday night for the initiation of candidates. During the ceremonies of initiation Mesdames S. E. Cranson and E. E. Brown sang "Star of the East." Ice cream and cake were served after the evening's work had been concluded.

PLATFORM ON WHICH G. O. P. MAKES STAND

Party's Principles Enunciated by National Convention at Chicago.

"UNPREPAREDNESS" CHARGED

Plank Covering the League of Nations Is Considered in the Nature of a Compromise—Strong Stand on Mexico.

Here is the platform adopted by the Republican national convention in session at Chicago:

The Republican party, assembled in representative national convention, re-affirms its yielding devotion to the Constitution of the United States and to the guarantees of civil, political, and religious liberty therein contained. It will resist all attempts to overthrow the foundation of the government or to weaken the force of its controlling principles and ideals, whether these attempts be made in the form of international or domestic agitation.

For seven years past the government has been controlled by the Democratic party. During that period a state of unparalleled misgovernment has shaken the foundations of our civilization and left a stain on our national honor and suffering second only to war itself.

Unpreparedness for War.

The outstanding features of the Democratic administration have been complete unpreparedness for war and complete unpreparedness for peace.

Incessant failure to make timely preparation for the inevitable and inevitable war, the chief indictment against the administration of the Democratic party is its complete unpreparedness for war. Had not our associates protected us, both on land and sea, during the final twelve months of our unpreparedness, the nation would have been a shambles.

Unpreparedness for Peace.

Peace found the administration as unprepared for peace as it was for war. The vital needs of the nation were neglected and systematic failure to make timely preparation for peace was the result.

"Flounders Hopelessly."

The administration has floundered hopelessly in the face of the inevitable and inevitable war. It has failed to make timely preparation for war and peace.

Constitutional Government.

The Republican party stands for a government of laws and not of men. It will resist all attempts to overthrow the Constitution of the United States.

Congress and Reconstruction.

The Republican party stands for a government of laws and not of men. It will resist all attempts to overthrow the Constitution of the United States.

Reorganization of Federal Departments and Bureaus.

The Republican party stands for a government of laws and not of men. It will resist all attempts to overthrow the Constitution of the United States.

War Powers of the President.

The Republican party stands for a government of laws and not of men. It will resist all attempts to overthrow the Constitution of the United States.

Passed Suffrage Amendment.

The Republican party stands for a government of laws and not of men. It will resist all attempts to overthrow the Constitution of the United States.

Reduction in Tax.

The Republican party stands for a government of laws and not of men. It will resist all attempts to overthrow the Constitution of the United States.

trade, and finally, amended the rules of the senate and house, which will result in a more efficient and responsible government.

Agriculture.

A large and contented body of farm proprietors is the backbone of the nation. The demand for a population distributed between industry and the farm, and sharing on equal terms the products of the soil, is a national imperative.

Banking and Currency.

The fact is that the war to a great extent was financed by a policy of inflation through certificate borrowing from the banks, and bonds issued at artificial rates, sustained by the low discount rates established by the Federal Reserve Board.

Industrial Relations.

There are two different conceptions of the relations of capital and labor. The one is that of partnership in a common task. The other is that of bargaining in a contest of power.

Public Utilities.

In public utilities we favor the establishment of an impartial tribunal to regulate the rates of public utilities. We favor the establishment of a public utility commission to regulate the rates of public utilities.

National Economy.

A Republican Congress should reduce the national debt to a minimum. It should reduce the national debt to a minimum. It should reduce the national debt to a minimum.

Regulation of Industry and Commerce.

We approve in general the existing laws which regulate industry and commerce. We favor the establishment of a Federal Trade Commission to regulate industry and commerce.

International Trade and Tariff.

The uncertainty and unsettled condition of international trade is a serious menace to the peace and prosperity of the world. We favor the establishment of a League of Nations to regulate international trade.

Merchant Marine.

The merchant marine is the lifeblood of our commerce. We favor the establishment of a Merchant Marine Act to regulate the merchant marine.

Immigration.

The standard of living in the United States is the highest in the world. We favor the establishment of an Immigration Act to regulate immigration.

Naturalization.

The naturalization law is a fundamental principle of our government. We favor the establishment of a Naturalization Act to regulate naturalization.

come genuinely American, and adequate tests for determining the alien's fitness for American citizenship should be provided.

Free Speech and Alien Agitation.

We demand that every American citizen shall enjoy the ancient and constitutional right of free speech, free press and free assembly, and the right to petition.

Public Roads and Highways.

We favor liberal appropriations in cooperation with the states for the construction of public roads and highways.

Conservation.

Conservation is a Republican principle. We favor the establishment of a Conservation Act to regulate conservation.

The Service Men.

The service men are the backbone of our nation. We favor the establishment of a Service Men Act to regulate the service men.

Civil Service.

The civil service is the backbone of our government. We favor the establishment of a Civil Service Act to regulate the civil service.

Postal Service.

The postal service is a fundamental principle of our government. We favor the establishment of a Postal Service Act to regulate the postal service.

Woman Suffrage.

Women have special problems of employment which make necessary special legislation. We favor the establishment of a Woman Suffrage Act to regulate woman suffrage.

Social Progress.

The social progress of the nation is the foundation of our civilization. We favor the establishment of a Social Progress Act to regulate social progress.

Women in Industry.

Women have special problems of employment which make necessary special legislation. We favor the establishment of a Women in Industry Act to regulate women in industry.

The League of Nations.

The League of Nations is a fundamental principle of our government. We favor the establishment of a League of Nations Act to regulate the League of Nations.

essential to our own honor and self-respect and the respect of other nations. We favor the establishment of a League of Nations to regulate the League of Nations.

Will Reform Taxes.

The will reform taxes is a fundamental principle of our government. We favor the establishment of a Will Reform Taxes Act to regulate will reform taxes.

Long Felt Want.

The long felt want is a fundamental principle of our government. We favor the establishment of a Long Felt Want Act to regulate the long felt want.

Home Town Helps

GARDEN CITIES HELP TRAFFIC

Transference of Part of Population Relieves Congestion on Cars in London.

Dense London traffic has been relieved by the new chronic congestion of passenger traffic to make Londoners realize too vividly the inconveniences of an over-centralized population, remarks the London Times. London is undoubtedly too large for health, for happiness and for economical living and production; and, although the advantages of life in this and other great cities have in some ways been increased by providing dormitories at a distance from the work room, the problem of daily transit has been proportionately intensified.

Each is to be said for the garden city, but even more for the garden city. The two are often confused or falsely identified, but from the point of view of transport the difference between is fundamental. Garden suburbs represent an extension of the daily traffic of a great town to a more distant circumference; garden cities, a permanent transference of a section of the population to a less crowded center.

Every inhabitant of a garden suburb who works in the city, contributes twice a day his or her share to the ever increasing problem of traffic congestion. The inhabitant of a garden city, on the other hand, definitely relieves the overcrowded centers of the duty of transporting him and from his work and catering for him and his. Dwellers in garden suburbs are exiles; those in garden cities are emigrants. If it is the nature of the community to which he belongs that he shall not only sleep peacefully and comfortably in his own home, but shall work there as well, and for his reward as a pioneer he opens the strands and stretches of the straggler.

TOWNS' NEED OF WOODLOT

Would Be Paying Proposition in These Days of Railroad Strikes and Coal Shortages

Is there a little woodlot in your town? Zurich, Switzerland has had one for some 100 or 150 centuries and it is still paying big dividends. There is a great lesson in this, the American people are suffering from a lack of woodlots and coal shortages.

Many countries are familiar with the "town forests" of Europe. One of the best examples of this is the community forest belonging to the city of Zurich, in Switzerland which has an area of 2500 acres, yielding on the average an annual income of nearly $20,000, or about $700 per acre; and this is almost remarkable because most of this income is derived from the sale of wood which is perhaps the cheapest product of a forest.

This tract of forest land has been under management since the year 1300, and it has been steadily increasing in value during the six centuries. Prof. John B. H. of Cornell, in the Annals of Forestry Magazine. In this country the number of towns and cities that are practicing forestry is still small and their efforts have been confined chiefly to the protection of watersheds from which the city's water supply is drawn.

Billboards Versus Beauty

Thus it comes about that people who ride out into the country, eager for the rest and refreshment which only the open country can give, find every field and every little hill dotted by V-shaped signs, erected in the most approved fashion, and ornamented with the approved moldings and machine-made corners, while the beautiful vistas that might otherwise make each turn in the road a new delight are cut short by successive examples of the approved "head-on" "Sb. v. n. s. s." One needs but to test his own sensations on such a motor ride to know how completely the billboard men are stifling his power to enjoy "natural scenic beauty spots. All their scruples have not preserved to him his native rights in the open country.—CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR

Where Did the Colors Go?

John's mother was washing some of his garments. Holding up one of his new wash suits, she exclaimed: "Oh, dear, dear, John, the colors in your pretty new suit ran." John, who was having a hard time in controlling a fiery steed in the form of a broom handle, apparently paid little attention. A little while later, he came to his mother and said in a much puzzled manner: "Mother, I can't find any place." "Find what, dear?" asked the mother. "Why the colors, answered John. "You said they ran, where did they go?"

The Northville Record. E. E. BROWN, Publisher.

An Independent Newspaper published every Friday morning at Northville, Michigan, and entered at the Northville post-office as Second-Class matter.

NORTHVILLE MICH., JUNE 18, 1920.

"ONCE UPON A TIME"

Twenty children—boys and girls—squatted on the slope of a little knoll, made themselves comfortable and turned to the Lady in the Gypsy Dress. "Once upon a time—" she began. The children gave her their undivided attention. "There was a very wise King. You could have heard a pin drop. He had several handsome sons. The King wanted to teach them Wisdom. The Tale went on. The Lady in the Gypsy Dress told the youngsters how the King showed his sons the object lesson of the bundle of sticks. First, he caused one to break a single stick. It snapped easily. But when hidden to break a bundle of sticks, the sons beat their efforts against it. One stick alone the Lady told the children broke easily, but all the sticks together resisted the best efforts of the strong youths. Underlying the Tale, as the Lady told it, there was a message—the message of Community Service. Individually, men and women may accomplish little. Organized, intelligently-trained in the methods of Community Service, they can unite their fellows in one happy purpose—the creation of a real community spirit. Community Service is seeking to show American communities the way to greater happiness and content. It seeks to solve their leisure time problems, to break down the barriers of selfishness and social prejudice, to make all elements of the community meet in a common cause. The Good of the Community. What are you doing to improve the conditions right here in your own home town?

Newspaper publishers throughout the country, whose business is just now more in jeopardy than at other periods in the country, will have cause to rejoice that Senator Harburn of Ohio whom the republicans have chosen as their candidate for president, is a small city newspaper man. He knows the needs of the country newspapers today and he also knows the serious condition thousands of them are in at the present time. Mr. Harburn is publisher of the "Morning Ohio Star" and he has not only a practical publisher but he is also a practical printer and as a printer, who could take material for his paper. He learned to printing trade when a young man and when he had mastered the art his father bought him the home paper for him. He is a worthy son of a woman who and a people become to know her before we believe we will grow in public esteem.

FORD LAND BEY REPORTED. Some time ago Howard Ford and a party at some of his technical advisers visited the Upper Peninsula. At the time it was reported that the trip was for the purpose of purchasing timber land, but nothing was given out by name of the Ford entourage. Now a report comes from Calumet that Mr. Ford has bought the controlling interest in the Michigan Land & Iron Company, or what the Lord Brassey estate, of England is reported to have owned 85 per cent. It is stated that Mr. Ford, through this deal becomes owner of 32,000 acres of timber and mineral land but chiefly timber, in Houghton, Baraga and Iron counties—Michigan Manufacturer.

CHO-CHO AT PLYMOUTH. Cho-Cho, the health clown, will appear at the Plymouth High school auditorium, Friday morning, at 9:00, under the auspices of the Junior Red Cross. The entertainment will be free to pupils of the first, second, third, fourth and fifth grades of the Northville and Plymouth school. He brings a special message for children and presents it in such a manner that all are delighted and impressed.

DEATH OF MRS. MARY NEAL. After an illness extending over a period of many months, during which time she was almost entirely dependent upon the care of others, Mrs. Mary A. Neal, widow of the late Henry Neal, passed away Sunday afternoon, June 13th, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Reynolds, on Dunlap street. Funeral services were held from the chapel at Grand Lawn cemetery, Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock.

LOCAL.

Mrs. Robert Smitherman, formerly Avis Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Green of this village died at the hospital in Milford Tuesday morning at ten o'clock, death being due to complications following an attack of influenza. The funeral will be held from her home at Commerce this Friday afternoon at 2:30.

JEALOUS HUSBAND KILLS HIS WIFE

Enraged by jealousy, it is alleged, because he had driven her from his home by his ill-treatment, Arthur Sprague of Plymouth shot and killed his wife at the Arthur Hood cottage at Walled Lake Saturday afternoon. The Spragues has quarrelled often, so it is reported, and a separation finally followed. A few days previous to the fatal shooting Mrs. Sprague had gone to the cottage to get things in readiness for the family of Mr. Hood, and it was understood that she was to remain there during the summer as housekeeper. Saturday, Sprague left his home in Plymouth and armed with a revolver proceeded to the cottage where his wife was busily engaged. Stealing in upon her without any warning he discovered her on the stairs leading to the upper rooms. Pulling his revolver from beneath his coat he fired two shots, both of them taking effect in her head, and she fell mortally wounded. She succeeded in crawling under a table which was standing near the stairs and her lifeless body was found when Mr. Hood, who had heard the shots, summoned some of his neighbors and entered the house. After he had shot his wife Sprague turned the smoking weapon upon himself, but his arm was not true and instead of killing himself he only succeeded in shattering his jaw and dislodging a number of his teeth. Officers were summoned and Sprague was soon on his way to the county jail at Pontiac. Justice Morgan selected a jury and after the viewing of the remains an adjournment was taken until Tuesday morning. The Spragues were married 13 years ago, but their matrimonial journey had not been a happy one so their neighbors declare. Several times they separated only to forgive and forget and start life over again. The fact that Mrs. Sprague had left Plymouth, it is believed enraged Sprague to such an extent that he planned to kill her and then to take his own life. Mrs. Sprague was a daughter of the late Jacob Slaight, a former resident of Northville and who died in February, 1911.

Observations of Connecticut Naturalist
 There is a reason why cats walk on stone fences in their peregrinations. A cat will often travel three or four miles in search of prey. By walking on a stone fence they have a better chance to get the by of the land. Thus, when the cat desires to return, if it once strikes a fence upon which it has traveled, its way home is then clear. A cat generally has a good reason for everything it does.—Farmington Correspondence Ridgfield Press

Nature's Color Scheme
 Imagine the grass of the field and the leaves of the forest—green, blue, or magenta, or scarlet—instead of green. Some speculative scientists think the foliage of the planet Mars is red, and that the people there are seeing red continually. It would not be difficult to believe that keeping the peace on this good green earth is not as hard as it would be had our planet been painted red in the beginning.—Minneapolis Journal.

DISCUSSED COUNTY ROAD PLANS
 County road commissioners and engineers from all the counties in Eastern and Southwestern Michigan attended an important highway meeting called by Frank F. Rogers, state highway commissioner, at the Wayne County Building Friday. Great good is expected to come from this meeting in helping in the development of Michigan's roads in this section.
 Several important subjects were one of them vital to the several counties, were discussed at the meeting, which was held in conjunction with a regular session of the Advisory Board of the State Highway Department.
 The first topic taken up was that relating to types of pavements adequate for present day traffic, including motor trucks. It was agreed by all the road builders present that the time is at hand when heavier and wider roads must be built on the main lines of travel in order to properly handle the traffic which is increasing in volume daily.
 Treatment of subgrades of pavements on different kinds of soils was the next subject under discussion. It has been found that in instructing permanent types of pavement the subgrades have a very decided effect on the surface itself. In certain cases the pliability of the subsoil has caused the highways to show signs of disintegration after one year of use. All of these problems must be worked out, it was asserted, and one of the best ways to avoid breaking up of new roads is to do the grading work a full year in advance so that the grade may have time to settle before the pavement is laid. This method is being used now by the State Highway Department. Reinforcing of concrete pavements was also talked over, it being suggested that reinforcement of roads over pliable subsoils was a good idea. This plan has been in use for some years where laid over by fills in a right of way.
 Enforcement of traffic regulations and limiting of loads was the last subject taken up at the meeting. This topic was discussed in a spirited manner, many of those present asserting that a limit should be placed on loads, and that trucks should have made a thorough study of the problem declared that the roads should be built to carry the loads and that to do this the truck lines must be built heavier and wider.
 The Detroit Automobile Club board of directors acted as hosts to the visiting commissioners and engineers at a luncheon in the Detroit Athletic Club at noon Friday. Club representatives also attend the road conference at the invitation of Commissioner Rogers.—Sunday News.

What Is Telephone Service

It is because the telephone is so intimately yours—because the daily benefits from this service are so far-reaching and vital, that we are coming to you with a message.

This is in line with our wish to give the people of Michigan the very best and most extensive telephone service that could possibly be desired. And to do this we must have your friendly and complete co-operation.

In order to give that co-operation you naturally need and are justified in asking an intelligent understanding of the telephone business.

It is our purpose, therefore, in this and succeeding announcements, to tell you, among other things, exactly what the Michigan State Telephone Company is, what the giving of service involves, and to discuss with you present conditions and plans for the future.

The conduct of any public service corporation carries its share of unending problems—problems that are as vital to the public which it serves as to the company itself.

These problems cannot and in fairness should not be solved by the corporation alone. The public is too vitally interested and where public interest is so intimately involved, the public's judgment must have every consideration.

It is our purpose, therefore, to make these announcements as though we were all in council, where all have free opportunity of discussion.

Among the problems that will undoubtedly come before us are matters of service—why it is that there sometimes are apparent delays in getting a number, why you sometimes get the wrong number, etc.

The problem of telephone extensions also is a very vital one. Everyone should know why it is impossible under present conditions to install apparatus promptly for every new subscriber.

And we will want to discuss with you very frankly the rate problem, and tell the real facts that confronts us in the face of constantly increasing costs of labor and material.

But it is neither our desire nor our intention to limit the discussion to published statements of our own.

We invite you to ask us by letter about those points that we may overlook or may not have made sufficiently clear.

To care for these answers promptly, we have established a special service to provide you with the necessary facts.

Where a large number of questions on any one subject indicate a general interest in that point, we will publish the questions and answers in these columns.

We will likewise be pleased to have you visit any of our exchanges and see for yourself some of the things telephone service involves, and how we endeavor to meet the demands placed upon us.

It will be our purpose to speak frankly, to acquaint you with every phase of the "telephone problem," and to maintain this open-minded attitude permanently.

We believe that this will result in a relationship that will make our mutual ideal of good telephone service for Michigan a practical reality.

FARM BUREAU TO BUY COAL
 As shortage of coal is apt to be a serious handicap to Michigan farmers in plowing and for other uses this summer, the Michigan State Farm Bureau has arranged for purchase of hundreds of tons. A representative now in the coal districts investigating the tangled transportation conditions. This coal will be handled by the same manager as the wool pool and operated a cost basis.
 Work is being done into the State Farm Bureau warehouse at Lansing in such amount as that arrangements have been made for the security of another building in the capital city. Already more than a half million pounds of wool have been assembled for the pool, indicating that early estimate of a total pool of 2,000,000 pounds. The extra-cooperative Farmers of 47 counties in the state are cooperating in the pool, the first ever attempted on a state-wide scale in Michigan.
 Definite arrangements for the operation this year of a State Cooperative Elevator Exchange will be made June 29 and 30 at East Lansing, when representatives of the memberships of twenty cooperative elevator associations will be called together by the State Farm Bureau. A preliminary meeting was held two months ago at Saginaw.
 With completion last week of campaigns in Mason and Washtenaw counties, where 1,400 and 1,900 members were obtained, the State Farm Bureau's membership swelled to $7,441. Campaigns are now under way in Huron, Grand Traverse and Benz e counties.

ASKS READJUSTMENT OF RATES.
 At the regular meeting of the village commission, last Monday evening, representatives of the Plymouth & Northville Gas Co appeared before the commission, asking that a special election be called to vote upon a proposed amendment to the franchise held by the Gas company, that will allow the price that may be charged for gas under the terms of the existing franchise to be revised and adjusted at the expiration of each three year period during the life of the franchise. Such revision to be made by mutual consent between the Gas company and the village commission. The first revision and readjustment to be made for the three-year period beginning July 1, 1920.
 The commission granted the request of the Gas company to put the matter up to a vote of the people, and a special election has been called for Wednesday, June 30.—Plymouth Mail.

MANY LEAVE DETROIT.

According to reports which every moving van and storage house operator must file with the Detroit police department, families have been leaving Detroit in March, April and May at the rate of 500 a month.

These people moved directly out of the city.

During the same period 1,746 families moved from their homes into storage.

According to the storage companies, who ask all persons storing furniture to leave their future address, fully 80 per cent of those storing their furniture have left the city.

The remaining 20 per cent have stored their goods in order to "double-up" with another family and thus split the high rental rate, or have been obliged to leave their homes and store their goods until another home is available.

Eighty per cent of 1,746 is 1,398, which added to the 1,500 who have moved out, makes a total of approximately 2,898 families who have left since March 1—Michigan Manufacturer.

The Whole Secret of A Better Tire

Simply a Matter of the Maker's Policies

This you will realize—once you try a Brunswick—that a super-tire is possible only when the name certifies that the maker is following the highest standards.

For tire making is chiefly a matter of standards and policies—cost plus care. Any maker can build a good tire if he cares to pay perfection's price.

All men know Brunswick standards, for Brunswick products have been famous for 74 years.

Formulas, fabrics and standards vary vastly in cost. Reinforcements, plies and thickness are a matter of expense. And these variations affect endurance. It rests with the maker how far he wishes to go—how much he can afford to give.

For there are no secrets nor patents to hold one back.

To ascertain what each maker offers one must analyze and test some 200 tires—as our laboratories have done.

Then it is a matter of combining the best features and building according to the highest standards.

Once you try a Brunswick you will understand how we have built model tires, regardless of factory expense.

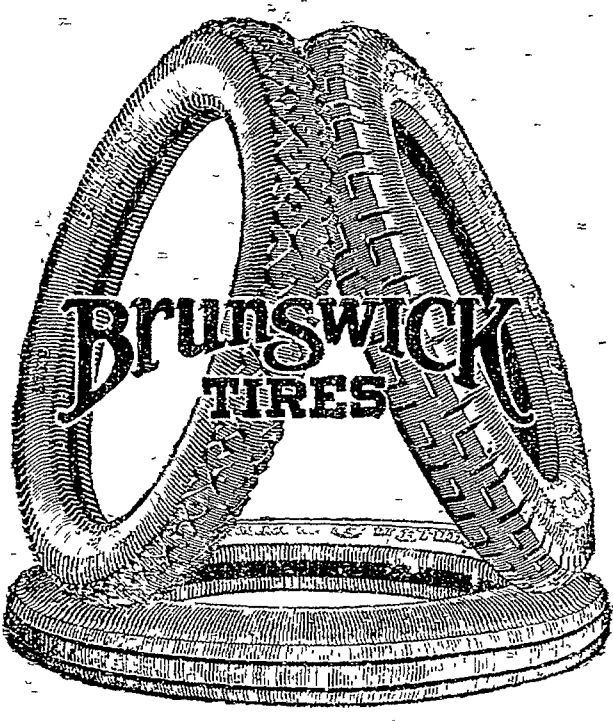

Yet Brunswick Tires cost you the same as other like-type tires. Our saving is on selling cost, through our nation-wide organization.

We realize that you expect more from Brunswicks, and we assure you that you get it. ONE Brunswick will tell you the story.

And then you'll want ALL Brunswicks. No other tire, you'll agree, gives so much for your money.

Booleggers in our day have devised all sorts of contrivances in which to smuggle booze about the country, but have any of them "hit" upon the plan adopted by some fellow down Boston way as long ago as 1886?

In a copy of The Record dated October 1st, 1886, appeared the following item: Several cases of eggs were tipped off a truck by accident on Tremont street Boston, last week.

On picking up the eggs they were found to be made of porcelain. Instead of containing the legitimate products of the barnyard fowl, however, they were filled with whiskey, each egg holding a good drink.

The driver of the truck said he was taking his load from a liquor establishment to the Providence depot.

REPUBLICAN NOMINEES

HARDING AND COOLIDGE ARE THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEES

Naming of Ticket Closes Five Days of Strenuous Political Battling at the Party Convention in the Coliseum at Chicago.

By WRIGHT PATTERSON.

For President—Warren G. Harding of Ohio.
For Vice President—Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts.

Convention in Chicago—the Republican party has chosen its 16th president and 17th vice president. The nomination of Warren G. Harding for president and Calvin Coolidge for vice president was the result of a five-day struggle in the Coliseum at Chicago. The convention opened on Tuesday, July 10, and closed on Saturday, July 14. The delegates, numbering 1,200, were divided into 100 caucuses. The first ballot was taken on Tuesday night, and the second on Wednesday morning. The third ballot was taken on Wednesday afternoon, and the fourth on Thursday morning. The fifth ballot was taken on Thursday afternoon. The delegates voted for Harding and Coolidge by a large majority.

League of Nations Fight.
It was the League of Nations plank that proved the breaking stumbling block. The League plank, introduced by Senator Johnson, was opposed by the League of Nations Reservationists. The reservationists argued that the League of Nations would surrender American sovereignty to a world court. The reservationists argued that the League of Nations would surrender American sovereignty to a world court. The reservationists argued that the League of Nations would surrender American sovereignty to a world court.

Battle of Ballots.
The balloting began on Friday night and four ballots were taken at that time. On these ballots General Wood was the leader, with Governor Lowden a fairly close second. After the first ballot a motion to adjourn was made, but was promptly voted down by a combination of the Wood and Lowden delegates who felt that their only chance to win lay in preventing further conferences on the part of the leaders. Another effort to adjourn was made after the second ballot and a roll call of the states demanded. The roll call was voted down by the same combination of delegates. At the close of the fourth ballot Senator Smoot advanced to the front of the speaker's stand and moved an adjournment. A roll call was again demanded, but the demand was ignored and an eye and no vote called for. Both sides in the controversy exerted all their lung-power in an effort to enforce their will on the chairman, but after a conference of senate leaders on the speaker's stand, the chair ruled an adjournment had been voted.

led by Senator Watson of Indiana, fought back and forth. Appointed at the session of Tuesday, it was expected to report at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning and the Coliseum was packed to capacity at that hour. A few other opponents were composed and an adjournment taken to 11 o'clock of Thursday. Again the heated contest was on. The convention convened, Senator Johnson offered an adjournment, and the convention adjourned to four o'clock. With a never ending interest the crowd was again back at four o'clock only to wait for two long sweet hours for the fight on the platform when they were disappointed but would not get into the arena. The fight had a been made behind the closed doors of the council rooms, and still the exception of the presentation of a minority report by a member of the committee from Wisconsin, to which no particular attention was paid, there was no evidence of a struggle and the platform was occupied with less than half a dozen dissenting votes.

A Day of Oratory.
Friday gave promise of being a red letter day for the audience and the fight for the coveted bits of beautiful parchment and cardboard was hot and heavy. At nine thirty in the morning the session opened, every seat was filled every aisle was thronged with an expectant multitude. It was to be a day of oratory, and it was. The first order of business was the call of the states for the naming of candidates for the nomination for the presidency. Arizona, Illinois, and Kansas Governor Allen took the platform to name General Wood. The audience heard what Governor Allen had to say, and attention was given to the succeeding speeches and to the speech of Congressman Robinson on behalf of Governor Lowden.

When Judge Wheeler of California, started to present the name of Senator Johnson the audience had had enough of oratory. The distinguished Californian referred to the League of Nations plank as Senator Johnson's plank, and both delegates and the audience objected. He referred to the campaign funds of other candidates and there was a roar of disapproval. He fought back and the audience and the delegates fought with him. From that time to the close of the long seven-hour and more of nominating speeches the orators might as well have said nothing as the audience heard nothing of what they said. Despite the efforts of Chairman Lodge the convention continued until the last orator had named the last of the eleven candidates whose names were placed before the convention.

A feature of the nominating and seconding speeches was introduced by Mrs. Robinson of New York, a sister of the late Theodore Roosevelt. In seconding the nomination of General Wood she referred to him as a friend of her brother, and from that time on practically each candidate was referred to as a friend and heir of the departed ex-president.

DAIRY
MILK RECORD IS EXCELLENT
Shipment Made From Los Angeles to Chicago Found Sweet Eighteen Days Afterward.
(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)
When a bottle of cream shipped from Los Angeles to the national dairy show at Chicago, was opened and tested 18 days after it had left the cow, it was pronounced in perfect condition by those who examined it. Other samples of milk and cream entered in the national milk and cream contest and examined 15 to 18 days after production were also found to be sweet.

Because of the number of bacteria present ordinary milk will not remain wholesome for such a long time, even if kept cold. The milk and cream which made such long keeping records were produced under very sanitary conditions, and every precaution was taken to keep them clean and to keep the bacteria count low. Furthermore, the milk was cooled to a low temperature immediately after it was drawn, and held there. The success attained in producing milk of such long-keeping qualities and low bacterial count is due in a large measure to the educational value of the local milk and cream contests which have been especially popular in cities of the Pacific coast states.

The bottles of milk, which were placed in boxes, and surrounded with crushed ice, were kept at a temperature from 32 degrees to 34 degrees F. at all times. The boxes were shipped in baggage cars to Chicago, and most of them were not opened along the route. An inspection of the samples on arrival at Chicago showed that of the various methods of packing, the insulated box filled with crushed ice was the most effective. The bottles of milk in these boxes were entirely surrounded by the ice, which was packed in as tightly as possible. One or two samples packed in ice and sawdust arrived in a spoiled condition, due to the fact that a low enough temperature had not been maintained. The ice in the insulated boxes lasted well, and one box from Portland, Oregon, which was reloaded at Minneapolis on Thursday did not arrive in Chicago until the following Saturday, but was still in good condition.

When milk is produced and handled under the right conditions it can be shipped to almost any part of the United States, or to foreign countries, and arrive in good condition. At present considerable quantities are being shipped to Panama and are used on ocean liners plying between this country and Europe.

FAVOR ONE-STORY BUILDINGS
Recent Survey of Milk Plants Indicate That Low Structures Are Most Satisfactory.
(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)
A recent survey of more than 100 milk plants, made by the Dairy Division, bureau of animal industry, shows that for establishments handling more than 1,000 and less than 5,000 gallons of milk daily the typical structure is two stories high; where less than 1,000 gallons of milk are handled daily, the plants are usually housed in one-story buildings. Although there are a few plants of three or more stories, this record would seem to indicate that fewer stories prove more satisfactory in most cases. One of the most noteworthy disadvantages of a milk plant having several stories is the increasing quantity of labor needed, in proportion to the size of the business.

BALANCED RATION FOR COWS
Combination of Ground Oats, Gluten, Bran and Cottonseed Meal Is Quite Economical.
A balanced ration for dairy cows used largely by New York farmers who feed silage, hay and some corn fodder for roughage, consists of 200 pounds ground oats, 200 pounds gluten, 100 pounds bran and 100 pounds cottonseed meal. Considering nutritive value it is about the cheapest ration a farmer can buy.

"I feel it my duty to write you a letter of thanks for your wonderful Peterson's Ointment. I had a running sore on my left leg for one year. I began to use Peterson's Ointment three weeks ago and now it is healed."—A. C. Gibbard, 303 Reed St., Erie, Pa.

For years I have been suffering through Eczema of the face, neck and hands. Peterson's Ointment for 35 cents. The healing power in this ointment is marvelous. Eczema goes in a few days. Old sores heal up like magic. Piles, hemorrhoids, etc. do not seem to even relieve as speedily conquered. Pimples and nasty blackheads or "pearls" in a week and the distress of chafing goes in a few minutes. Many other ailments Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N. Y.

Suits for Summer Journeys.

AMONG other good things turned out for the benefit of June brides there were some new designs in taffeta suits to be worn on the wedding journey. But June brides can't have a monopoly of good fortune and other women have been quick to see the advantages of taffeta for summer journeys. These suits are cool, shed dust easily, cleaned, sewed made and they are that "something different" that makes you "stand out" in this season.

One of these taffeta suits, together with an attractive cloth suit, is pictured above. They are interesting because both embody some new style features. The taffeta is a recreation of separate machine stitching as used to supply the decoration and in the cloth suit embroidery is managed in a new way. Fourteen rows of stitching at the bottom of the taffeta skirt put in with a perfection of workmanship that delights the eye and repeats ed above the hem of the coat. They finish the flaring sleeves. But the bands of stitching in herring-bone pattern that adorn the coat are even more difficult to achieve and there are groups of vertical lines above the parallel rows at the hem. The coat is set on a small, plain rose and has a narrow silk ankle covered with stitching.

A detachable cape of duvetin lined with touch of striped cotton is the outstanding novelty in the suit. The lining is of the same taffeta. A narrow band of fabric is about the neck under the rolled-over taffeta collar. French hems of soft wool fabric makes the second suit. A braided trim, simulating embroidery, appears in a band which curves over the hips on the full portion. The same work adorns the front of the coat and the collar. On the coat covers that give a little in the hand a row of buttons make an unexpected flash.

Summer Hats for All Tastes

IT IS everyone to her taste in millinery for fashion is easy-going. Lured this way and that by lovely summer hats of all descriptions. Speaking generally, headwear is more trimmed than for many summers, but there are so many exceptions to this that the devotee of plain hats will not find her choice peculiar. There are many hats that have no trimming except a twisted band of velvet ribbon about the crown or an embroidered motif on brim or crown, or a single large ornament of jet or composition placed in lonely and conspicuous state on the hat shape. The simpler models have a steadfast following. But whether hats are simply or elaborately trimmed, their making is rarely simple. There is a demand for hand-made hats which require delicate and precise needlework.

Just now navy-blue hats in silk (both taffeta and georgette) are making their annual appearance for mid-summer wear. Often they are faced with a plain white straw facing and this year finds them beautifully decorated with white yarn, used for embroidering them and in separate ornaments. Sometimes an entire trim is made of the yarn woven over wire. A lovely example is shown in the picture above, made of navy blue taffeta with embroidery on the crown of white silk and wool yarn, and a visor made of yarn. A small bit of similar character, to be worn with all sorts of dresses appears with round crown and upturned brim made of soft rough braid. Little garden roses are hanked against the brim and veiled with malines having rows of broad stitched on. A twist of velvet ribbon completes it.

Midsummer translated into millinery compels us to admit the designers' art in the lovely hat of georgette with roses and grapes posed on the crown. It has a facing of figured chiffon and long ties of narrow black velvet ribbon. Its companion is one of those well beloved, wide brimmed black hats that throw a protecting shadow over the face. Wide moire ribbon with a satin edge makes a becoming finish for the brim edge and narrow ribbon furnishes a cash about the crown.

Gray Popular Color.
 Gray is the predominating color in the few tailored suits seen here. These suits have pointed skirts, which are generally ten inches from the hem.

Linen Holds Favor.
 Linen for summer blouses continues to hold front place as the exclusive favorite fabrics.

INVESTMENTS

In the present period of the adjustment of the country's industrial and commercial affairs it is well for investors to exercise the utmost caution in the selection of investments.

Investors should scan these securities very carefully. Where there is the least doubt, caution will dictate looking a little farther for an investment where safety and peace of mind are absolutely assured. Preferring to sacrifice a part of big income to a greater degree of safety, the conservative investor prospers to a larger extent in the end than the investor whose first thought is income, the quality of the security being a minor consideration.

Write for booklet, "Investment Steps," and for detail circulars describing the First Mortgage 6% Real Estate Serial Notes of $100 and $500 denominations we are offering and recommend as conservative, high-grade, safe investments.

The Mercantile Trust Company is a member of the Federal Reserve System, and by reason of such membership is under the supervision of the United States Government. This means that every loan we make, including "First Mortgage Real Estate Serial Loans," is subject to examination by Government Bank Examiners. These loans are also examined by the St. Louis Clearing House Bank Examiners and the official Bank Examiners of both the State of Missouri and the State of Illinois.

We particularly invite comparison between these loans and the average real estate mortgage loans, with reference to excellence of location, class of construction and actual (not estimated) income.

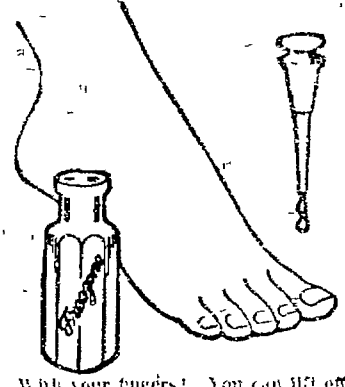

Delivery of notes purchased by non-residents will be made at our own risk to any bank or post office. Send for Circulars describing the First Mortgage 6% Real Estate Serial Notes we are now offering.

Doan's However Brought Complete Recovery and Trouble Has Never Returned.

"My kidneys were weakened by exposure in Alaska," says Hermann Schrader, 328 Park Ave., Hoboken, N. J., "and my misery at times became so great I thought I would lose my mind. I had terrible pains in my back, and a constant desire to urinate. My back felt as if it were in sections with each crushing against the other. Finally I was taken desperately ill. It seemed as if something were eroding my life. Before long I passed a gravel stone the size of a pea. If the pain had been any more intense I think I would have died. I was having practically no flushing of the kidneys and my weight had reduced from 178 pounds to 125. The doctor told me I had gravel and small stones filling up the passages of the bladder. After all of this I began to use Doan's Kidney Pills and soon improved. In a short time I was well and my cure has lasted fifteen years. Today I am in perfect health." Sworn to before me.

The Secret of the Columbia-Grafonola

The qualities that lead musicians of discrimination to the choice of the Columbia-Grafonola are qualities hidden beneath the surface.

Outwardly, the instrument is a beautiful piece of cabinet work, distinguished by perfect craftsmanship and a satiny sheen of finish, but beneath its singular grace of proportions is the correctness of acoustic design that makes the Columbia-Grafonola as responsive to every graduation of sound—as exquisitely sensitive to the slightest vibration as a rare Cremona violin.

C. S. JOHNSON DIES SUDDENLY.

Death came suddenly Tuesday afternoon at 4:10 to C. S. Johnson aged 62, well known Pontiac business man and former proprietor of the Johnson photographic studio on north Saginaw street.

He went out to Cass Lake on Monday night was taken ill and died in an automobile while being removed to the Pontiac City Hospital. Mr. Johnson had been in the best of health and had been subject to heart trouble. It is thought that not feeling well was the cause.

Born in Wisconsin, Mr. Johnson graduated from the Northville High School, took a two year course in the University Normal college, and was employed in the Wixom Baptist church for 15 years and had always been a member in that church.

He took an active interest in the work of the First Baptist church in Pontiac and was one of the founders of the West Sec. Baptist chapel, now the Retiree Baptist church. One of his closest friends was that he might live to assist in the building of the proposed new First Baptist church—Pontiac Press.

First Use of Ether.

The first successful operation with ether was performed on Elisha H. Frost, who resided at a hamlet called Stratford with the mysterious somniferous discovered by Dr. Morton, was pressed to his nose and he became unconscious, awakening only to find that a diseased tooth had been extracted. Frost is known for nothing about it. The drawing of Mr. Frost's tooth was the initial operation which preceded the grand demonstration at the Massachusetts general hospital October 16, 1846.

Sandpaper Label.

A device for protecting people from taking doses from poison bottles by mistake is a sandpaper label. The ordinary label is pasted in a piece of sandpaper large enough to go all around the bottle, so that when any one takes up the bottle in the night, no matter how dazed from sleep he may be, the rough, unfamiliar feel of the sandpaper rouses him and he recognizes at once that the bottle contains poison of some description. The printed label tells the kind of poison in the bottle.

NOTICE.

For the benefit of some people in Northville who have so little business of their own to attend, that they generously assist in minding other people's affairs, I make the following statement: When I returned from army service, my physical condition was such that I could not drive a car for any length of time, without being completely exhausted. Also owing to the fact that for nearly two years, my salary of $200 per month fell far short of keeping my family and myself, and in consequence, my bank account was so depleted that I could not afford to hire a chauffeur. Consequently my boy came to the rescue, and has driven ever since, without an accident, although at that time under the age prescribed by law. This matter was taken up to the governor and the state police but a special permit was not issued in time to prevent some nasty criticism. His birthday has arrived since then and he is now the proud possessor of a driver's license for 1920, and thereby authorized to drive any place in the state of Michigan.

Signed THOMAS B. HENRY.
