NORTHVILLE BOYS VISIT THE INTERNATIONAL LIVE STOCK EXPOSITION.

The Record is glad to print the following accounts of the visit of the members of the Michigan Boys and Girls' clubs to the International Live Stock Exposition, held in Chicago early this month. Northville had the honor of being represented by Starr Northrop and Harold Clark, who have kindly written accounts of their visit to the big show.

(By Starr Northrop)

We started out from Lansing Saturday, November 25th, at 11:00 o'clock, and arrived in Chicago at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon. We registered at the Y. M. C. A. Hotel, where we were to stay during the week. On Sunday we visited relatives and saw the flower show at Garfield Park.

Monday morning we assembled in the Y. M. C. A. lobby and left shortly after for the stock show on a special train. We spent the entire day there, looking at the fine animals and watching the judging. This exhibit was said to have been worth over two million dollars.

The Grand Champion of the show was not a steer as has been the custom in past years, but was a Short-horn bull named Angus Leifer "Lulu Mayflower," entered by the University of California.

Here we saw the hay and grain show with over six thousand samples of grain, including one thousand specimens of corn. Michigan carried off twenty-five of the thirty prizes offered in the and Montana received the highest scoring in wheat.

Monday evening we all met at the Y. M. C. A. Hotel for the National Boys and Girls' Club rally. At this rally there were between seven and eight hundred boys and girls, many coming from six states.

The principal speakers of the evening were R. R. Noel, president of the National Board of Trade, and F. W. Wallace, secretary of Agriculture. Mr. R. A. Turner, Michigan State Club leader, had charge of the vowing and song contest, each state represented responding to roll call by an original yell or club song.

Tuesday was packing home day. The club members were divided into four groups, Swift, Armour, Wilson and Morris, each entertained a group and also served luncheon. This was a very interesting trip, following as we did the animals from the time they entered the packing houses until we left them in the cool pens. That afternoon was spent at the stock show and in the evening the entire group was entertained by Wilson & Co. for dinner.

(Written by Harold Clark.)
On Wednesday morning we left Chicago to visit the Montgomery Ward mail order house at the new Field museum. I love the museum, which is built on the shore of Lake Michigan, costing about $1,000,000. They have nearly every kind of animal birds and some known. They have a diamond about the size of a quarter in the neck of William II carried on it. It took the man five years to do the work.

The Philippine Island collection was also very interesting—one could spend about two days there. At 12 o'clock we went to the Chicago Board of Trade pit, it being the world's greatest grain market. Every country in the grain region is represented by a commission man. The noise was deafening—everybody was buying or selling grain by hand signals. From there we went to Central Y. M. C. A. for luncheon. At 3:00 p. m. we visited the Art Institute where we saw many statues and paintings. At 4:00 p. m. we went to the general office of the Farm Bureau where a reception was given by President Howard and staff. At 5:00 p. m. we went to the Chicago theatre and later to Blackstone and saw a play called "Lightning."

Thursday morning we assembled at the Y. M. C. A. at 8:15 and at 8:30 left for McCormick Harvester company's works, where we saw all kinds of farm machinery made and had a luncheon as guests of the company. We had a special car to the Dickinson Seed house and seed plant and from there we went to Lincoln Park but as it was raining and dark we could not see as much of the park as we had hoped to. In the evening we went to see Mary Robert Rhinehart's famous play "The Bat," a mystery play.

Friday morning we packed our satchels and left on the 11:45 train for Lansing, where we arrived at 5:00 p. m. We had supper in Lansing and about 6:00 left for Plymouth, and was in time to catch the car for Northville. I feel that my club work

CHAS. H. YOUNG DIES WHILE RETURNING HOME.

While not altogether unexpected, the news of the death of Charles H. Young brought great sorrow to the people of this section when his passing away became known here Friday morning. Accompanied by Mrs. Young and his children, Bud and Geraldine, Mr. Young had left Phoenix, Arizona, for home and while the Santa Fe train was bearing the family eastward the death messenger claimed the beloved husband and father. Mr. and Mrs. Young went to Arizona a number of weeks ago in hopes that the change of climate might prove of benefit to the former, who had been a great sufferer from asthma and heart trouble for some months. At first the change seemed to benefit him, but soon a change for the worse appeared and with each passing day his condition became more and more alarming to his family. A message summoned the Young children to Phoenix a couple of weeks ago and their presence was a great comfort to Mr. Young who loved his family dearly and especially idolized his children.

Realizing his condition he was anxious to be brought home and it was finally decided that it was the best thing to do. A special car was secured and the family started homeward and Mr. Young soon became ill in the thought that he would soon be with his old friends and amid tender scenes. When the Tucson death claimer him and a body was prepared for burial in the city and after a delay of a day the funeral proceeded eastward, arriving at Ann Arbor Monday afternoon. The remains were taken from the train and conveyed to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Young (Chas. H. Park), the funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon. Burial was made in Grandview cemetery, Redford.

Mr. and Mrs. Young have been residents of this community during the summer of 1919 when Mr. Young became associated with the hospital, I. H. Young at Detroit in the purchase of several hundred acres of land in this township, which had become well and favorably known as a Union Farms and which was converted into one of the best stock farms in this state. The owners specializing in Short Horn cattle, Dutch Friesians and Percheron horses. The farm found their place in the hearts of this section and by their good nature and generous hospitality soon won a large circle of friends. Now his death is a great personal affliction. Mr. Young was very active in all of our business and civic affairs of his time and efforts for a worthy cause presented in his person. He was a man of sterling worth and a citizen that was one of the truest honorers to his own community. He was a member of the Northville Farm club and was always ready to assist in the work of the club. He was a true friend, a good neighbor and an upright citizen. His passing is a great loss to the community in which he lived but a few years has suffered a great loss by his death.

To Mr. Young and his children a collective tenderest sympathy is commingled is extended. He enjoyed his acquaintance for a true friend, a good neighbor and an upright citizen has passed to his reward, and that the community in which he lived but a few years has suffered a great loss by his death.

has been very profitable as it has enabled me to take this trip, also during the summer visited Elmore, Jackson State Fair and two trips to W. A. C. at Lansing in stock judging.

WOMAN'S CLUB GAVE CHRISTMAS PARTY.

On Friday evening last the members of the Northville Woman's Club entertained their husbands at a Christmas party in the parlors of the Presbyterian church, the club being in keeping with the good cheer. The Presbytery, you day school orchestra contributed number of selections to the jolly program presented. A. Northrop extended a very welcome to the gentlemen and pronounced the program which consisted of a very interesting paper up the subject of "Christmas Legend," by Mrs. E. H. Lapham, a Christmas story by Mrs. John Tinham, a vocal solo by Miss June Filkins and a spelling contest conducted by Mrs. F. S. Harmon. Of course the gentlemen permitted the ladies to win the honors, rather than seem selfish in the matter. Refreshments were served and a social hour followed.

OLD AND NEW CHRISTMAS DAY

Nobody Has Been Able to Decide Whether January 6 or December 25 is Correct Date.

CHRISTMAS day seems weirded to December 25. A summer or a springtime Christmas, with no holly, no mistletoe, and frost no snow, would not be the real thing at all, of which London knows.

The majority of our beautiful Christmas cards, too, represent as they are of the winter—Sung amid the Winter's Snow—would be hopelessly incongruous. Elizabeths' to Australia from the middle country have confessed that it was taken from a party to be held on what is practically a mid-winter Christmas.

On December 25, 1870, and in connection with the birthday of Christ—Christmas Day, the year 1000 is wrong. Most people would take it to be January 6, Christmas as being in A. D. 1—line of course, the year of our Lord No. 1.

But our chronology is four years off. This should be 1925 and not 1921, because, Christians, they could not, on indisputable historical testimony have been here, than February 28, C. 41. This is the year of the first Christmas, but all attempts to fix the actual day or month of Christmas have failed.

And, as regards the present date, Christmas, like Easter, took some centuries before a settlement was arrived at. In the first century of Christ, many several important Eastern Churches observed January 6 as Christmas day. The Armenian Christians do so still.

Gradually, however, uniformity was attained, but not before the fifth century. In that connection it must be remembered that for quite a long period this country was divided on the question of Christmas. Some people persisted in observing "old Christmas day."

But all will agree that December 25 ever if it is not the actual date of Christ's birth, is a happy choice.

Our present day Christmas festival and holiday, breaks the long winter, and what better thing could there be for family reunions? The cold and unpleasantness outside make it all the more agreeable to keep warm and snug inside. It keeps us together, in every sense.

THE CHRISTMAS TREE CUSTOM

Use of the Young Evergreens is Regarded More as a Matter of Sentiment, Not of Economics.

THEY are young evergreens that are a national holiday and that are a national custom. It is a national custom of the United States. Yes, it is a national custom of the United States. The United States probably would be more wealthy for the continued growth of the evergreens. However, we believe to better return ever came from trees, as the true tree which all mankind is a part of all holiday seasons.

Now, young evergreens are a national custom in New York and the New England states, and it is a national custom for an individual to be a part of it. In our annual resources, the evergreens of this country are a national custom. It is a national custom of the United States. The United States probably would be more wealthy for the continued growth of the evergreens. However, we believe to better return ever came from trees, as the true tree which all mankind is a part of all holiday seasons.

Honey Drop Cakes.

One cupful of sugar, two cupfuls of honey, one-half cupful of shortening, four eggs, two cupfuls of milk, two teaspoonfuls of vanilla, one-half teaspoonful of salt, four cupfuls of flour, four teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Cream the honey, sugar and shortening together; add well-beaten eggs and vanilla, sift dry ingredients and add, alternating with the milk. Mix well; bake in greased muffin tins. These are good if flavored with chocolate, using four squares of baking chocolate, or ten tablespoonfuls of coco for a large recipe. They are good uniced.

Christmas

If we were to fancy a wholly Christmized world it would be a world in which the spirit of Christmas—a spirit of charity, beneficent generosity, sympathetic, mutually helpful world, for us, clinging to Christmas all the more as a day of the spirit which in every age some souls have believed to be the noble spirit of human society.—George William Curtis.

"SOME PLACE"

Say Ed: "What is this 74 per cent that the Loan is talking about?" "Does the council know of it?"

"Sh." "Keep it quiet, Tom, and I'll tell you." "If you should pay $1.00 a week into the Loan for 560 weeks, then you—"

Yes. "What would I get then—Left?" "No. No one gets left—except those who do not join—you would receive $801.13."

"And what does $1 a week for 560 weeks amount to at 4 per cent compound interest?"

"It amounts to $699.12, a profit of $139.12 or $102.01 less than you would receive in the Loan. This $102.01 is about 74 per cent of $139.12."

For the Love of Mike, "How do they do it?"

"What do you call it—production?"

"I don't know, but that is certainly one swell place to save money." "Why, that company must make the hills with the brakes on so the other fellow can keep in sight."

When Christmas Comes

By Abigail William Burton
in St. Nicholas

WHEN Christmas comes I never mind the cold. I like to get up prompt on ' go to school, Ah! do my sums, An' clean the walks 'thout waitin' to be told— Though I like sleddin' better as a rule, Or buildin' forts—but nothin' an't so bad, When Christmas comes.

When Christmas comes I'd just as lief give half My cookie to the baby, an' take care About the crumbs. It's fun to make the little fellow laugh, An' I don't mind his raggin', where ' He can't help bein' little! I'm not mad When Christmas comes.

When Christmas comes I don't forget to give My shoes a wipe, an' scrub my ears a lot Till my head hums. An' mother says, "That boy's too good to live!" But I'm not 'fraid of dyin', cause I'm not No different from always—only glad, When Christmas comes!

"Glory to God in the Highest, and on Earth Peace."

Home for Christmas

OUR hearts are all a flutter, for faces all aglow, The weather doesn't matter, it may rain or it may snow; Dad and mammy, lad and lassie, and we babies laugh in glee At the hails of the students, hastening to the old roof tree— All going home for Christmas.

And the old folks in the home rest, be it cot or mattress wide, There open door sending welcome, as the food of Christmas tide, To him and his and sometimes stranger, for this day of merry cheer.

Kept in hope and faith and love, this one day in every year— All welcome home for Christmas.

Tis the birthday of the Christ-child, we have kept two thousand years.

Tis the glory of his life's work shining thru a mist of tears, Tis the fragrance of the lilacs that has come across the sea;

Tis the love we bear, our brother that brings peace to you and me.

I'll wait all home for Christmas.

H. D. N., in Wallace's Farmer.

CHRISTMAS NIGHT

All day the children deer did play With toys that came from Santa's bag, From Noah's Ark, Until quite dark The beasts were ranged, all two by two, Each doll and game, And every one quite tame— Young folks were tired, grown folk, too, Then on a very hour, Knock wild uproar, Came down a ball of Tuddy Bear, It crashed the biggest doll, fell so fair, Snuff'd monkey out balloons all free, They jumped the ceiling, and to see, Jack-in-the-box was ready, too, And girls and boys, and a few, The rag doll caught for ice cream junk, The parrot screamed, "I must a drink, This cannot stand quite same or right— The children's dream on Christmas night." —Philadelphia Record.

GIVE!

IF it be true (and folks there are This legend who believe) That every year the Christ Child walks Our earth, on Mary's Eve, How much of suffering He finds To make His kind heart grieve!

So many starving babies, pinched And whimpering with cold, Such piteous wee faces drawn With hunger, gray and old! A hundred needy cases? Oh, The half has not been told!

And we, whose homes are holly-wreathed, — And gay with Christmas trees, What have we done to merit cheer And comfort—more than these? (The Child with sad and puzzled eyes Must wonder, as He sees!)

Then, are the birth-morn of the Babe, Give gladly, every one, As this past year has prospered you, That some poor little one May know a taste of Christmas joy Before the Day is done!

—MAZIE V. CARUTHERS.

CHRISTMAS THOUGHTS

"Come soft and low, glad Christmas bells! We, too, will sing, With bring our gifts more precious far Than frankincense or costly myrror To Christ our King. Our concentrated lives we'll give, With trusting, loving hearts we bend To plead for grace and strength to live, And honor Him, our precious friend."

MUCH DAMAGE IS CAUSED BY STORM

WIND GALE HITS BUFFALO AND HEAVY PROPERTY LOSS IS REPORTED.

WIRELESS TOWER DEMOLISHED

Windstorm Hates From Building Falls on Automobile, Killing One Injuring Another.

Buffalo, N. Y. — A 95-mile an hour gale swept the city Sunday, uprooting trees, tearing down chimneys, smashing plate glass windows and piling up the water in the harbor to an unprecedented stage.

The damage throughout the city was great but heaviest losses occurred along the water front, where a 300-foot wireless tower was demolished, boat houses and small docks were swept away and several hundred pleasure crafts smashed or carried down river.

Property loss will run into hundreds of thousands of dollars. A window hatch torn from the top of a business block fell on a passing automobile, killing Frank E. Kiefer, one of the two occupants and injuring the other seriously.

Two women were caught under falling trees on Porter avenue, near the water front. One of them, Miss Margaret Cochran, sustained two broken legs. Her sister, Katharine, was internally injured.

The wind blowing from the southwest directly down Lake Erie, piled up the water until Bird Island pier and Squaw Island were almost submerged. Nearly 100 squatters' shanties were carried out into Niagara river.

Three ferry boats used in the service between Buffalo and Fort Erie were piled upon the rocks between the river and the canal.

CHRISTMAS BAN IN 1643

Yuletide Observance Was Not Permitted by Edict of "Roundhead Parliament" in England.

IN THE northern part of Europe the ancient people kindled great fires to their gods. Odin and Thor, and sacrifices of men and cattle were made.

The ancient Goths and Saxons termed this festival or feast "Yule" and we still use the word "Yuletide" in our day.

Christmas was not among the early festivals of the church. We find the first evidence of the feast from Egypt, according to the historians of the church, and December 25 was not the day on which it was universally celebrated.

It was not until the Fourth or Fifth centuries that the celebration of the festival on this day spread to the East. The Nativity was celebrated December 25 at Rome before 304, and at Constantinople, not prior to 379.

As paganism began to be supplanted by Christianity, many of the old customs were taken and handed down through the generations. In the Anglo-Saxon days of King Alfred the holiday season began December 18 and closed January 6.

When Puritanism arose in England the fate of Christmas was threatened for a time, and even extended to this country, since the Puritans brought along with them a New England feeling against the celebration of Christmas.

In 1643 the "Roundhead" parliament in England put a ban on the observance of Christmas. The court of Massachusetts in 1659 followed England's example and Christmas was put under a ban there.

With the restoration of the English monarchy the restoration of Christmas was brought about and Massachusetts again followed England's example and in 1691 the ban was lifted.

A Christmas "Suppose"

It would not change the children's Christmas. But suppose, all the grown up people were to say to the mother: "This year, instead of my giving you a present, let us all give you a present."

Let us all give you a present, let us all give you a present.

Let us all give you a present, let us all give you a present.

Russia's Christmas Comes Late

In Russia Christmas occurs 13 days after our own. Perhaps one of the most interesting customs of the season is the Russian Christmas feast, for old and young alike, for which they dress themselves in various masquerade costumes and visit house after house accepting the hospitality of their neighbors.

The Christmas season is also notable for the fact that the young girls try to find out whether they will be married during the ensuing year or not. Some of them at twelve o'clock on Christmas Eve, secretly go out into the street and ask the first man they meet what his name is.

Whatever name he gives will be that borne by their future husbands—such is the belief. Some of the girls are very much disappointed when the name is not a nice one, or when the man, as he will sometimes, calls himself Satan or something similar.

"Making many Christmas presents this year?" "Yes, it's much cheaper than buying them."

The NEW EDISON

This marvelous victory is easily explained. The New Edison is the only phonograph which has proved there is no difference between its RE-CREATIONS of music and the original music. But, if you wish to reassure yourself completely, do what Dr. Bingham did. Listen to Frieda Hempel, as she sounds on the ordinary phonograph; then hear the New Edison RE-CREATION her voice. Compare, in the same way, with other artists who have made both Edison RE-CREATIONS and talking-machine records. Score each result, on a Phonograph Comparison Card. You will discover that Miss Hempel is indeed Miss Hempel on the New Edison, while on the talking-machine, she is something entirely different.

The New Edison, because of its perfect realism, brings you the true beauties of every kind of vocal or instrumental music. Compare, compare, compare! We will gladly supply you with a Phonograph Comparison Card. If you can't come in, send the coupon, today!

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

LOUIS ROTH had become a money-maker. Mrs. Roth missed doing her own work. She liked to do the earning. She was nervous in a motor car, and a chauffeur depressed her. She had tried having one once, but she not only felt like a fool when she "dressed up," as she expressed it, but she was frightened when she saw the chauffeur's look of disgust when she told him she had no calls to make and no shopping to do except to the corner store.

She didn't care about going to a smart hotel for tea in the afternoon. Now, and again, she liked to have a bite in a pastry shop.

Louis was a musician. He was one of the most popular of dance conductors. He made money from royalties on his popular songs, a great deal of money. She had been often told that musicians were temperamental, flirts. But the ones she had seen were not. They liked cigars and pinochis and fat checks. That wasn't so temperamental. Neither was there anything temperamental about the music publishers and the friends of Louis who came in an evening for these and crackers.

She was nervous when the maid broke dishes, though she knew there was lots of money to buy more. She was naturally a careful housekeeper, and the money had come a little too late or else she was one of the rare kind who couldn't spend it! Very rare, but not at all pleasant.

When she went to show slip fell asleep. She longed to dust behind corners and under the rungs of chairs. She liked to make a good rake.

But prosperity was hers, and she didn't want to let Louis know how hard it was for her to be prosperous. He came in this time when Mrs. Roth was sitting strumming corn for the little tree she had bought. It was Christmas eve.

Louis was very evidently excited. He asked his wife to come into the little bedroom so no one would hear. Louis hadn't become used to talking before a maid. His wife noticed that he looked rather worried and troubled.

"It's Going to Be Hard on You," He Said.

"What's the matter?" A sharp thrill of pleasure went through her. She perhaps had speculated, lost his money in Wall street, or on the curb! So many people did, she had been told.

Louis would be poor and she would darn his socks and get his meals, and they'd live in the old flat and keep the cosy red plush furniture. Louis had been talking lately of moving to better quarters.

He took her hands in his. "It's going to be hard on you," he said.

"Oh, no," she answered, trying to repress the exultant note in her voice. "I'll be glad."

She was about to tell him how oppressive the riches had been, how they had almost suffocated her. How much happier she would be to have to save money, rather than try to spend it for Louis' sake, to make him feel she enjoyed it.

"Wife," he said finally, "they want me to tour Europe. It's a great chance. There's big money in it, and the boys all want to go with me. Do you suppose, wife, I know you're awful seasick, and a poor traveler." His face looked worried. "But do you suppose you could stand the seasickness and sail for 'I'd be so alone, some leaving you home? They want me so much—and they know I wouldn't want to go without you—that they're going to pay your expenses and make that a little Christmas present for you!"

She gave a look at the beloved red plush furniture. Would there never be any rest from prosperity? Her fate was sealed.

"I guess I can't stand it, Louis," she said bravely. But in her heart there was hopelessness. Money, Europe, riches and more riches, a limousine future and a street car soul! And a Christmas present of such a trip! And she, also, would have so much preferred a street car ride and a sewing basket from the boys such as they had given her that first Christmas after she had married Louis, when they hadn't been rich!

TRIED GENERAL PRISON DELIVERY

"GYPSY BOB" HARPER AND TWO OTHER INMATES WANTED TO BURN PRISON.

HARPER ADMITS KNIFING DEPUTY

States to Bring Murder Charge Against Rioters Following His Investigation of Trouble.

MARQUETTE, Mich.—Had Arthur, "Gypsy Bob" Harper, Jasper Perry, and Charles Roberts, inmates of Marquette Prison, who a week ago Sunday attacked Warden T. B. Catlin and Deputy Menhennitt with knives during a moving picture show in the chapel, escaped, the box factory would have been burned and a general delivery of Harper's plot had a two-fold purpose, according to the State's investigation.

Harper's plot had a two-fold purpose, according to Clare Retan, assistant attorney general, who late Monday concluded his investigation. The first was to get Warden Catlin, the second to open the gate to outside.

Harper planned to attack Warden Catlin and force him or some guard to open the gate. The burning of the box factory would attract other officials, as well as a number of convicts, some of whom might possibly go to the aid of the warden.

With Warden Catlin out of the way and with the gate open, a general delivery of prisoners would be possible. That's the way he had the affair doped out, Harper told Mr. Retan.

Harper confessed that he stabbed Deputy Warden Menhennitt, who died the following day from his wounds, although the attack was directed against Warden Catlin, who is still in a Marquette hospital suffering from knife wounds. The deputy warden came to Catlin's aid, using only his fists, Harper said.

Harper stabbed him but once, he said, but it has been established that wound was the cause of Mr. Menhennitt's death.

Arthur Menhennitt, son of the deputy who was visiting his father when the attack occurred, rushed into the fray and got Harper on his back. Menhennitt, who weighs only 120 pounds, had the best of the argument, until Perry and Roberts went to Harper's aid. Roberts has confessed that it was his knife that caused the younger Menhennitt's wounds.

Major Marsh left Monday afternoon for Lansing, leaving Captain Archie Downing of the state police to charge. The three men are being held in solitary confinement and are subsisting on bread and water, which possibly will continue a number of weeks.

It was announced by Mr. Retan, who will return to Lansing, following this inquest tomorrow, that charges of murder will be brought against Harper, Perry and Roberts.

APPEAL KIRBY GUILTY VERDICT

Attorney Contends Judge Should Not Have Permitted Evidence.

Adrian, Mich.—Contending that the corpus delicti was not established, except through versions of statements made by the defendant, admission of which was in error, attorneys for Mrs. Mattie Kirby, who Monday was convicted of manslaughter, will appeal to the supreme court, J. N. Sampson, of the defense, announced late Monday. The defense will argue that Judge Burton L. Hart, should not have permitted evidence, showing that the defendant had admitted that the child born to her unmarried daughter, Alice, was dead.

Mrs. Kirby will appear before Judge Hart for sentence, December 27. A maximum penalty of 20 years imprisonment is provided for manslaughter. Mrs. Kirby is still at liberty under $5,000 bail.

FRANCE ACCEPTS SHIP RATIO

Threatened Storm Averted When 5-3 Plan is Agreed To.

Washington—The French delegation has communicated officially to Secretary Hughes its conditional acceptance of a capital ship ratio under the 10-year naval program of around 40 per cent of the British and American quotas.

The Italian delegation likewise has made it known that, while Italy believes it should have a navy equal to that of France, it does not intend to delay the Conference with quibbling over a few decimal points.

Thus, on the face of things, the storm threatened with the dramatic demands of France for a capital ship strength greater than that of Japan appears to have about blown itself out.

Christmas Collars

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

Copyright, 1921, Western Newspaper Union.

I LOVE HIM, I love him, I love him," Agnes Allen said. And as she was alone in her room, and as no one could hear her, naturally there was no answer to her statement which she had repeated several times. She was speaking of George Farwell. George was so good looking with his wonderful blue eyes, his brown hair, his fine erect figure.

Wherever she saw men she thought how insignificant they looked beside George. She was also that she thought that was about the way they had for their everything would be so smooth and so simple.

She wanted everyone to like her George. In herself. But it would be embarrassing if everyone thought just the same about her as she did.

The wedding was to be held in the afternoon. Then they had planned to go to their own new little home which they had just finished.

George called her life now. How wonderful it would be. She wondered that was why brides weep so often because they felt they had so much to give.

It was a glorious happy thought. She thought how much time she had. She was only ten minutes late. The few friends were at the Christmas party.

And she had a little surprise for him. Just a little bit of a surprise. But she knew he would like it.

"Open that box there, George," she said. He opened it. And looked at some collars, many, many collars. Oh, much too big for him.

"When I was buying my wedding clothes in town that time, George, I remembered that you'd spoken of a wonderful kind of collar you liked. I remembered the name too. I was a little puzzled when the man asked me your size. I told him though that as long as he had the right kind, the size didn't make any difference. When he asked me if you were big or small I told him you were big of course."

"Why, George, what is the matter? Won't they fit you? Is the size so important?"

"Oh, darling little girl, he laughed. What does it matter what the size is? That is—it does matter about wearing them I'm afraid my love. But to think you were getting of me even when you were thought of the wedding finances, and remembered the name of the collar."

"They're my Christmas collars," he exclaimed. "and I'll put them away in the box with the Christmas bouquet we're going to save. Such a pretty new gift from a dear little wife should never be mangled in a laundry."

"What a silly I am," she laughed gaily. "But such an adorable little girl," George answered as he kissed her.

BRITISH AMBASSADOR WILL SPEAK AT N. A. C.

The week between January 20 and February 2, has been set as "Fanner's Week" at the Michigan Agricultural college. An annual event for the gathering of agriculturists, this year promises to overshadow all others in the matter of interest and attendance according to college authorities. Among the speakers listed on the tentative program are President Martin L. Burton of the University of Missouri, President David M. Fisher of the N. A. C., Sir Andrew Geddes, British ambassador to the United States, Henry Wallace United States secretary of agriculture and Congressman Gabriel Kelley.

Michigan women will have a complete program of their own during Fanner's week this winter. For the entire week there will be a local chapter. For a complete program of the week with the men holding the reins of their own holding farms women are being invited to the local chapter home.

Walled Lake Warbles

The men and the students of the farm at George Sherman of the Farmington, Mich. burned to the ground the Walled Lake Warbles. What Mr. Sherman is doing his chum does it. Both the farm and the chum threw up a wall of everything being to the left of the line of the expression. Sherman was compelled to jump from the top of the wall and in doing so he was so badly injured that he was unable to release the stock in the barn, a horse and a Jersey cow. The animals and a lot of farm tools and fodder were burned.

Chalk is as Coal Substitute. By treating chalk with a patented process by which it is blended with a rich carbonaceous matter. A British company finds it can be produced as efficient as coal for household use, at a price of $8.75 a ton. The fuel has a double by-product in that the ash remaining after combustion can be utilized as cement or fertilizer. Popular Science Monthly.

Water is now going over the dam and dam which was just recently raised on the property formerly owned by the W. H. Ely. The dam is now about 10 feet higher than it was a few years ago.

Miss Olga Schulz presented her husband with a little son as a Christmas present at the Woman's Hospital in Detroit, Friday. The little lad has been named William Ambler Schulz. We may expect Grandpa Ambler home from California soon.

Orson Polley left a few days ago for Phoenix, Arizona, where he will visit Earl VanDeCar and family. From there he will go on to the western coast. Early the first of the year, Miss Regina Polley expects to go to Ogden, Utah, and they will return home together—Plymouth Mail.

Mrs. C. C. Yerkes served a most delightful luncheon Thursday to members of the Stitch and Chatter club at her home on the Base Line. Messdames E. H. Lapham and Harry Blake contributed to the brightness of the occasion by the rendition of several musical numbers.

Adelbert Siver an old resident of Northville, died at Harper hospital in Detroit, Saturday, having been taken to the institution a few days before for treatment. The remains were brought to his home in this village by Schrader Brothers and funeral services were held from the house Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. Interment took place in Rural Hill cemetery.

Through the efforts of Albert W. Fenske and the generosity of the people of the Northside The King's Daughters' Christmas fund has increased to the amount of $67.00 last Saturday. Mr. Fenske gave a check for $27.00 and solicited subscriptions for the remainder. This fund is for the benefit of the poor and is distributed by the committee, giving the distribution of Christmas baskets in charge.

Do you suppose that stockings that have been "rolled down" all summer will keep their place when hung in the chimney corner?

William Hibborn, a former resident of Northville, died at his home in Coldwater, the first of the week. Burial took place in that city.

The electric generator has been installed in the power house at Phoenix and we shall soon see "a heel going around" at that Ford plant. It is expected that small parts for Ford cars will be made there.

It is reported that John Dandley, a former resident of this village, and for many years a member with the Globe Furniture Co., was recently killed by a brace in Chicago. Soon after leaving Northville he became interested in the manufacture and sale of pneumatic tools and became very wealthy.

The children's hospital being erected at the fresh air camp in the Northville hills is nearly completed and the building will be turned over to the city within a few days. This is one of the most modern and complete buildings of its kind in America and represents the very best and most advanced thought in hospital construction and planning.

WANT TO BE REMEMBERED 2,000 YEARS?

Why be forgotten when the winds of summer have passed over our resting place?

Why let the chilly blasts of winter breeze out all remembrance of us?

Why? The study of Paul closed with the last lesson. Yet many characters of history stand out like his does. You could spend another six months, and not exhaust the subject.

Paul had a cause. He gave himself to it. As a result, Christianity is a world force. It becomes increasingly so as the years come along.

Paul never lost hope. Beatings, imprisonments, sufferings of fruitless variety—single or in combination—never made him waver.

What have you gained by knowing Paul? He has been remembered by what he has done.

ASK'S $7,000 WOULD BE GIVEN BACK. George Newbould, prominent Novato newspaper farmer, has brought an injunction suit in circuit court against the Peninsula Fire Insurance company. Newbould claims to have purchased 60 shares in the insurance company in May and June, 1915, with the understanding that the company would appraise the stock and the dividends on the stock. He claims it was also represented to him that he would be given 100 shares in the company for which he would not have to pay but for which the dividend on his former stock would pay. He targeted in his 60 shares and signed a paper he claims he later learned was a note for $7,000 and says he has nothing to show for his original 60 shares or the additional 100. He asks the court to compel the insurance company to re-assess the stock and the appraiser for the company. He is also represented to him that he would be given 100 shares in the company for which he would not have to pay but for which the dividend on his former stock would pay. BOXES, OLD CHRISTMAS FAD

Ancient Custom, at One Time Developed into Demand for Right and Decorous Nuisance

THE old custom of Christmas boxes is one that has been in vogue for many years. It was a time when we were willing to contribute something toward the industrious.

Later the fad came to be demanded as a right and became somewhat of a nuisance. Long ago the Roman Catholic priests had masses for every thing, and if a ship went to the West Indies, they had a box in her honor.

The protection of some patron saint, into which the sailors put money or other valuables in order to secure the prayers of the church. At Christmas these boxes were opened and were thence called Christmas boxes.

In England the day after Christmas is known as "Boxing day," from the Christmas boxes which used to be in circulation, and in the British museum can be seen boxes covered with green glaze with a slit in the side for money and presents.

CHRISTMAS BAG FOR GUESTS

Container for Presents Attached to Backs of Chairs With Bow of Red Satin Ribbon.

THIS Christmas bag is an innovation planned by one housekeeper. The breakfast table is to be decorated with a mirror in the center, cuttings as a star by holly sprigs, and with slenderest glass vase in the center holding red chrysanthemums.

Long-stemmed flowers also radiate from the center star with the blossoms toward the plates of those for whom the flowers are intended. Every napkin lies beneath a Christmas card with a sprig of holly tied upon it with red ribbon, and to the back of every chair is tied a bag with a bit of red satin bow.

The bags are of all sizes, and each is full of individual gifts. One is an egg bag, another a hopping bag in black and gold, still another is a bag for baby and gold embroidery.

The Glad Yuletide

Darius Earl Maston

TALK about the joyous May time with its blossoms on the trees, With the strumming and the humming of the little honey bees Piping in all the sweetness of the orchard over there, And the summer breezes talking little love words everywhere. Yet there's something more heart-thrilling in the Yuletide's silver chime Calling all hearts to be merry for the joyful Christmas time!

O, the sweetly scented summer with its breezes soft and mild, And the laughing little brooklet dancing like a happy child, And the summer of the sunshine over all the happy land, Tossed grasses in the meadow, leafy wood so green and grand, Make you think there's nothing grander—summer is just superlative! But it doesn't stir your pulses like the happy Christmas time!

O, the happy days preceding, when there's secrets everywhere, Love-light beaming in all faces, drowning out all petty care; There's a love and lift and lightness that no poet has expressed, There's harmony and gladness that the summer never guessed, There's a something most appealing in the Yuletide's silver chime That makes every heart beat happy for the joyful Christmas time!

CHRISTMAS

LOW in the east, amidst a white, cold sky,
The black-lined silhouette of woods
And on the dreary waste,
Of frosted streams and hillsies bare
and brown,
Through their cloud-films a pallid ghost looked down
The waning moon self-faced in that pale sky and serene
a tiny earth,
What sign was there of the unmar-
tal birth
What herald of this over-
Lo' swift as thought the hi-venty rainbow came
A rose-red splendor swept the sky
like flame
Up rolled the round bright sun

And all was winged from a han-gry world
The moon, just fled, the smoke of home-hearth curled
Up the star air unblown
In Orient warmth and brightness,
did that dawn
O'er, Nain and Nazareth when Christ was born,
Break faver 'tis, our own?
The mornings promise noon and eve fulfilled
In warm, soft sky and landscape
hazy-hilled
And sunset fair as they;
A sweet reminder of His holiest
time
A summer miracle in our winter
clime,
God gave a perfect day.

The near was blended with the old and far,
And Bethlehem's hillside and the Magi's star
Seemed here as there and then—
Our homestead pine-tree was the Syrian palm,
Our heart's desire, the angel's midnight psalm,
Peace and good will to men!
—John Greenleaf Whittier.

Old Christmas Returned

ALL you that to feasting and mirth are inclined,
Come, here is good news for to pleasure
your mind,
Old Christmas is come for to keep open house,
He scorns to be guilty of starving a mouse;
Come come boys and welcome for sirl the chief,
Plum puddings, goose, capon, mince pie and roast beef.
—Old Carol.

Looking for Santa Claus

I'M looking for dear Santa Claus,
I hope he'll surely come
With jacks of nuts and so nice cause
I want a nice big draw!
A trumpet and a train engine,
A horse that makes a howl,
I wonder if the blinkin' stars
Can see where he's now.
I'm waiting for dear Santa Claus
To bring a lot of things,
Toys, knives, a dog with shaggy fur
And flying boats with wings
Then I can give some toys to Ned
Who left our school last year,
He works because his father's dead—
To help his mother dear
I'm watching for dear Santa Claus;
I'd like to get a lock,
When from his sack he shyly draws
New skates, a sled or book,
But mother says he'll dash away
If I should dare to peep,
And so I'll just kneel down and pray,
And then go off to sleep.
—By Louis M. Groe, a Illinois State Regent.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

GLAD Christmas Day is here again,
With loving word and deed,
When all get much they do not want, and little that they need.
The baby's jacket cousin sent, we can't get on at all,
And mother's slippers are too large and father's are too small.
And sister Zella got a hood she'll be afraid to wear
Because its color clashes with the color of her hair.
And brother Henry got some books from pious Uncle Ned,
And after he had told him, too, he hoped he'd send a sled.

CHRISTMAS GREETING

"If wishes were horses then beggars might ride."
So says Mother Goose in her well-known rhyme
But it wishes mean! Therefore, this glad Christmas
Should bring to you joys past all telling of mine.
That giving is better than wishing I know,
And a "will for the deed" never paid a debt due
But when one is bankrupt in all save "good-will,"
To give the "good will" may be heaven's true.
So I wish for my dear ones they wishes fulfilled:
That of every good thing their share may be best;
And hearts love them truly, till all hearts are stilled
In the dreamless, untrobbled, and infinite rest.
Can friendship be better? Could love ask for more?
I know nothing better, than what you can be;
If you do, ask St. Nick when he stops at your door,
And say it was "specially ordered" by me.
—ANNA HUSTED SOUTHWORTH.

Task of Time.

I thought I'd make my Christmas gifts,
and surprise them all, you see,
I love to sew" said little Tellee.
But I guess I'll have to hurry, 'cause
tomorrow's Christmas day,
And I haven't got my needles threaded
yet!"
—St. Nicholas.

ENJOYED A GET-TO-GETHER.

Officers, directors and superintendents of the Northville Wayne County Fair Association enjoyed a get-together-dinner at the Ambley House last Thursday night, and all were present except two. After partaking of the very appetizing feast spread before them, matters pertaining to the future and past of the fair were discussed and plans were outlined for the coming year.

The past year was a very successful one for the association and the society entered upon the new year with a snug balance in its treasury. In addition to the balance of approximately $1,700 improvements to the grounds, and additions to the buildings costing $2,200 were paid for and all other indebtedness was taken care of from the receipts of the 1921 fair.

For this splendid showing the officers and directors are deserving of the hearty thanks of the community, because the fair is distinctly a community affair in which all are interested.

BOWLING RESULTS WERE THE BEARS, 2; FINS, 1.

And it came to pass, that on the first night after the first day of the week the big Bears and the big Fins met in an alley. It was a bowing alley and is still a bowing alley. Some one laughed out loud one day in this bowing alley and he was faintly heard by a passerby. It was positive evidence, maybe, that it was more than a ho-ho, laugh a real white mule, ha, ha. So officers seized the wood alcohol bottle and it is up to the new manager to wash off the bowing balls with wood or gold dust. Of course, that has nothing to do with the two captains who had met with their bowing arms to bowl Edgar can bowl a fairly good game about a gallon of wood alcohol in his hand.

The Fins captured the first game by a small margin over the Bears, thus giving the first of the Bears, thus giving the Bears for honors in the school. The only odd game were played through the evening. The boys were in the habit of calling in Washington, but nothing is recognized by that name except when it is pronounced in Washington. The boys were in the habit of calling in Washington, but nothing is recognized by that name except when it is pronounced in Washington.

Capt Hamilton headed in the series of trials, but received a telegram just as he was about to take a good throw and substituted another man. The captain said he would not telephone himself, receive a telegram and the contents were kept to himself. Capt Woolley substituted a new man in the first game in the person of Nelson Schrader for the one who was not up to his usual standard. Schrader, it is said, was a bowler when he lived in the City of Cery Hill. However, that it and we never that. No one doubted, he bowled like a champion without picking up a ball, and going in with all the way. With good luck and regularity he made a score that no one was ever to see. He picked up a ball and he will keep it on his back. It looks good on the terrace. He picked up a ball and he will keep it on his back. It looks good on the terrace.

All other teams of the league were telling on their home alleys last Thursday night and all teams broke about even, thus leaving the percentage about the same in their standing. Next Thursday night the Huckleberry Fins will journey to Farmington to play the Lapham Five, while the Trolley Liners will come to Northville and meet Jim's Bears. John Clark and Arthur Lamb are two of the Trolley Liners who are considered as notch bowlers and the Bears will have their haqqs until they meet the Farmington aggregation.

JUST SHOW CAUSE.

The members of the Novi township unit school board have been summoned to appear in the circuit court at Pottawac today, Friday, to show cause why an injunction should not be issued restraining them from selling the bonds of said township for the erection of a township unit school building and furnishing the same. This action was started by a few of the residents of the township who were opposed to the proposition of bonding the township for the new school.

The members of the board have employed competent legal advisors as have also the opponents of the proposition and the matter will be fought out in the courts.

Christmas Sonnets

CHRIST
Day spring, Deliverer, Just and Holy One,
The way, the Faithful Witness, Prince of Peace,
The bread of God, Lord of our righteousness,
Our Passover, True Vine and Cornerstone,
Adam the Second, only-begotten Son,
Image of God, Desires of every race,
Our Chancellor, our advocate for grace,
The Morning Star, Horn of Salvation,
Root and offspring of David, Israel's Lamb,
Shepherd of souls, Romanus, the I Am,
The First and Last, Salvation's only Name,
O yesterday-today-for-aye the same,
Light of the world and conqueror of death,
Author and Finisher of our Faith

JESUS
Christ-dazzled eyes we turn how comfort-ably
To Thee, O Gentle Friend, sweet Nazarene!
John-like upon thy bosom slain to lean,
O eyes we love to look in! eyes that see
Beneath our facis our human frailty—
Forgiving eyes! And hands so strong and clean
We love to feel our frail hands nesting in;
We kiss the white scars where thine agony
Once flowed for us, and in our grateful bliss
So filled are we with Christ love we are
To separate even Judas from his kiss,
And if we have them, say to our enemies,
"Tomorrow meet with me in Paradise."

CHRISTMAS IN THE HEART
Oh, the Christmas in the heart
Don't you feel it, don't you know
All the glow of its spell,
All the magic of its glow?
The Christmas feeling stealing
From your head into your feet—
Alike to all that light the world,
To all that delects the street!

Oh, the Christmas in the heart.
That long that lasting voice
That sang through all the long-ago years,
And sang — "Rejoice! Rejoice!"
That Christmas glory creeping
From finger tips to toes—
The music of the world awake,
And the bells across the snow!

Oh, the Christmas in the heart.
That you've got to have to be
One with the spirit of the love
That makes all Christmas glow;
That Christmas gladness ringing
Through every heart you love—
That spirit of the golden power
That cries, "I love! I love!"
—By the Beantopia Bard, in Houston Post

A Quitter.
Oh Santa Claus, that generous soul,
Creates a joyous din,
But hastens homeward to the pole
Before the bills come in

Holy Night

Silent night! Holy night!
All things sleep save the bright
And most holy adorable pair,
Holy Child, with ringletted hair,
Sleep in heavenly peace,
Sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night! Holy night!
Shepherds first saw the light;
What the angels hallelujah
Loud-responds from far and near,
Christ, the Saviour, is here,
Christ, the Saviour, is here.

Silent night! Holy night!
Son of God, Ah! how bright
Smiles Thy love on heavenly hosts,
'Tis the first Advent! Hail!
Christ, the Saviour, is born!
Christ, the Saviour, is born!

WHEN CHRISTMAS COMES
THE hand of the world seems hard,
The heart of the world seems cold,
Of selfish schemes seem all its dreams
And its only goal seems gold
Yet whenever Christmas comes,
The world the magic removes
From the trade, craft of is kind true heart,
And we learn how much it loves,
We see it's a good old world
Which truly plays a game,
Though it loves the race and it keeps
the pace,
It is tender all the same,
Though it struggles hard to win,
The dream in its heart is sweet;
And on Christmas Day it is glad to lay
The prize at its Saviour's feet.
—LEE SHIPPEY in Ladies'

THE CHRISTMAS WATCH
SAVE for the engine's rhythmic beat
The ship is wrapped in dreams,
Behind it on the darkened deep
A wake of silver streams
I walk my lonely watch; and hear
The voices of their voices wail
Old wharves chant their wails
In tones of wind and wave
God seems a little nearer here,
Far out upon the grand
Blue sea than when I used to keep
My Christmas on the land;
For—so it seems to me—the stars
Are shining angel eyes
That watch above the mariner
Firm stations in the sky.
