IT WAS INDEED A MERRY CHRISTMAS

One could scarcely have hoped for a more delightful Christmas than the weather man gave us this year. The ground was covered so these who had wished for a "white Christmas" had their desire gratified, and the weather was just cold and snappy enough to make Christmas shoppers and Christmas visitors move along with energy and enthusiasm. Saturday was a good trading day for those who usually do their Christmas buying the last day, and for all others who were about planning for the feast to be enjoyed the following day.

The observance of the merry festival began Friday night when appropriate and interesting programs were given by the Sunday schools of the village. On Saturday night the young people of the Presbyterian church enjoyed the novelty of caroling and on Sunday services of special interest were given in all the village churches.

There were many family reunions held on Sunday, which was a most delightful day with sunny skies Monday was also observed as a holiday by a great many and the banks and stores were closed during the day.

On Friday afternoon the King's Daughters distributed a liberal supply of well-filled baskets about town and also a large amount of good warm clothing to a number of families where there were little ones. One little girl an orphan, was kindly remembered and as she received her gift her song of joy made a big lump come to the throat and tears to the eyes of those who had charge of the distribution. The joy expressed by this little unfortunate girl paid for all the effort and for all the sacrifices put forth by the good friends who made the distribution possible.

The ladies in charge of the work of packing and distributing baskets are very grateful to all who so kindly and generously assisted them, and they desire to express their appreciation to all.

BUS FIRE CREATED EXCITEMENT.

Out at the Sanatorium Wednesday night workmen were engaged in burning a plot of rubbish, on the gravel pit to enable them to dig the earth on the following day. Some one passing in the highway noticed the flames and sparks as they shot into the night air and with great haste came to the village and gave an alarm of fire. The citizens of the village are belt soon brought a great many people from their homes and within a very short time trucks and autos were hurrying toward the scene of the conflagration bearing willing fire fighters. Within a very short time more than forty automobiles were in the grounds about the Sanatorium buildings, but fortunately there was no fire to extinguish.

W. H. Maynard received word of the fire at his Detroit home and he was but eighteen minutes so they say in reaching the Sanatorium after he left the Boulevard at Grand River Avenue. Compared to that of the midnight ride of Paul Revere was a small pace.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS PARTY.

Out at the handsome new Sanatorium there was a merry party on Christmas when thirty-two children from the Herman Kiefer hospital in Detroit, were given a party and received numerous gifts. The children ranging in years from 6 to 16 were brought to the institution the week before to make room for others who needed the special care which can be given at the Kiefer hospital, and they will remain out here among the Northville hills as long as their physical condition requires the special treatment they are receiving there. One of the interesting features of the treatment is "occupational therapy" instruction in handicraft that takes the mind off the patient's troubles as well as educating it. Under the new system they are permitted one-half day of play for every day of work.

WALLED LAKE WARBLERS.

The Baptist Sunday school has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Superintendent, L. V. Johnson; assistant superintendent, William Young, Jr.; secretary, Miss Irene Young; treasurer, Fred Pratt; pianist, Miss Hazel Gahoorn; chorister, Forrest White; librarian, Miss Irene Cole; custodian for supplies, Orson Cope.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Carroll and daughter, Donna of Detroit, spent Christmas at the E. B. Carroll home.

MRS. WILLIAM RICHARDSON CLAIMED BY DEATH.

After an illness of several weeks, Mrs. William Richardson died at her home in this village on Thursday night last, and the funeral services were held at her late home on Saturday afternoon at 2:30, being conducted by Rev. E. V. Deilles. Burial took place at Rural Hill cemetery.

The deceased was born in Ireland on March 20th, 1847, being the eldest of a family of eight children, seven of whom survived. She was united in marriage to Mr. Richardson 32 years ago the 3rd of last May. Besides her husband she is survived by two sons, Roy Handricks of Pontiac and Guy Handricks of Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson moved from Holly to Northville a number of years ago and, during the years of their residence here, made many friends who sincerely regret her passing and who extend to the grief-stricken husband their tenderest sympathy.

Those from out of town who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lowry of Clarkston, Offie Richardson of Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Handricks of Pontiac, Mrs. Lizzie McNeil and daughter Marlan, Mrs. Geo. Norman, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Murphy and Mrs. Louis Wiget of Detroit.

TO PERFECT COUNTY BASE BALL LEAGUE.

An organization for base ball league for Wayne county is in action. Recently a meeting was held at Wayne and officers elected for such an organization. The villages to be represented in the league thus far are Springwells, Dearborn, Wayne, Plymouth Northville, Farmington Redford and Flat Rock.

Another meeting will be held at Northville on next Wednesday night at eight o'clock as the village council rooms. It is expected that all villages in the league will be represented at this meeting and also the public is invited to attend. Further work of the organization will be completed and it is hoped that a successful league for the coming summer will be carried out.

All teams are to be composed of local players with the exception that each town will be allowed two outside men who are not considered professionals. This will give each little extra money. If they do not already have one, and will help strengthen other clubs that are the members of ours.

Interested Northville men will no doubt, take advantage of this call and will be present at the coming meeting.

TWENTY-NINE YEARS OLD SATURDAY.

The Northville State Savings Bank celebrated its twenty-ninth birthday Saturday in a quiet manner but feelings of pride and appreciation on the part of the officers and directors pride in the success which has crowned their efforts and a sense of appreciation for the good friends who have been the patrons of the institution during all these years.

Each year as witnessed a steady growth in the business of the bank and each year there has been added a snug sum to its resources until today with capitol, surplus and undivided profits the capital amounts to nearly $75,000.

President Babbit and Cashier Wilber received the congratulations of many patrons of the bank during the day.

HELD CHRISTMAS SHOOT.

The poultry shoot held by the Northville-Plymouth Gun Club on Monday, Dec. 26th, was a very enjoyable affair, and fourteen entries were made.

Outside the local club members Rockwood, Detroit and Lansing was represented.

Harry Happ of Lansing won the first leg on the Hoiznagle trophy. Recently Mr.

Frank Holzagle of Burnington, presented this trophy, a silver cup, to the Northville-Plymouth Gun Club.

Three "wins" are required to give the holder permanent possession, and it is to be shot for only at the local traps.

At the conclusion of the program the visitors, at the invitation of the club, did justice to a fine dinner at the Ambler House, after which a business meeting was held and the following officers elected for the coming year:

AGREE THAT JITTERY IS A MENACE

The Board of Street Railway Commissioners of Detroit has agreed that the so-called jittery is a menace on the streets of the city. It was not long ago that city officials of Detroit gave every encouragement to the jittery, the result was that approximately 5,000 of these freelance confections have been in operation. This was when the city and railway commission were seeking to oust the D. U. R. and make that corporation the goat. Then it was anything to bring the company into disfavor and to drive it from the streets of the city.

Now, the city and railway commission have come to an amicable agreement which could have been accomplished years ago—and the city railway system is placed upon a more stable basis because the D. U. R. was willing to observe the rights of the people of the city. And as the M. O.

system is given privileges that enable it to serve the people better, by cooperation with the D. U. R. it has suddenly been discovered that the jittery is a public nuisance. It is strange how conditions alter a viewpoint.

The Board of Street Railway Commissioners is right for once. The jittery is a serious menace to public safety on the streets of Detroit. The drivers run practically wild, without any regard for the safety of pedestrians. And it is apparent that the eyes of traffic officers are blind to

THE RECORD

HAS BEEN A FRUITFUL YEAR.

The old year which is now drawing to a close has been a most fruitful one for this community. Our people have been well employed most of the time our merchants have enjoyed a good business, and the health of the community has been good with no epidemics of any kind to bring their weight of suffering or sorrow. From a material point of view the year 1921 had been one of the most prosperous if not the most prosperous this section has ever enjoyed. There has been a lot of money expended for new buildings—new houses, new buildings, etc., at the Sanatorium, and at the House of Correction, besides there has been a great deal of money expended in improving residence about the village. These improvements have all contributed toward the prosperity of our people and have helped to make the year a prosperous one. At least to enjoy new facilities have been completed in Northville during the last twelve months and while all credit for same will be given to the men of the home built up here.

I enjoyed a ride who have given the name to our township and who did not think you would like to see it. I have passed by next Spring just in time to see what we were displaying in front of our city. Let me assure you that nothing can compare to it. It is a sight to see. To make the place agree to the picture of a small community. It is a picture of a large business block, and requiring no employment you can help conditions along. I am having the work done because you will be a good employer to labor, having a general and you will also be good for your demonstration of your 5% in better times.

In the slogan of 1922 be considerate of us and let's go.

My first solo concert was a success. I played the "Sorcerer" and "The Blue Danube." I am very anxious to play again.

On Saturday, December 24th, I will be in Northville. I will be playing at the Hotel Union Inn.

It is a long and lingering process which I do not wish to narrate. Just as I am about to finish, Judson D. Taylor comes to my home at Waller Street, New York. He says, "I am going to play in New York on December 25th."

IF YOU PAID
TAXES IN 939 B. C.

You would have had one reason to complain than you have in 1922.

Those men in the days of Israel's greatness had to give for Solomon's splendor.

The people had awakened to the fact that the burden of tax was too great. The state for relief.

The lead among men of the nation had their big chance to better conditions and each rallied.

When a real statesman as Solomon had to give to the king to raise a tall sum, it was tragic.

What a great unrest among men—why the gods dissatisfied—who is to blame or to trouble?

What elements in a community could predispose the conservative or the radical? Would a combination be better or can't they be combined?

Interesting features to this lesson. Don't you think?

To be put back on patrol duty after fourteen years of steady desk work, and when one is approaching forty and conscious of an increasing girth, is enough to distress any ordinarily constituted policeman. Dennis Flaherty was no exception of the rule. He told his wife the news at dinner: "They haven't got grudge against you, Dennis," she asked, fearful as all women are at the thought that their husbands' positions are insecure.

"No, it's Commissioner Everett, bad luck to him," said Dennis. "Nine teen of us, North Women, turned out of our berths and set to pound the sidewalks."

"But, Dennis," suggested his wife, hopefully, "forget the doctor—your eyes won't fail for patrol duty and you'd have to do desk duty instead?"

"That was Doc Flanagan," is good a dark man as ever breathed. The new does a Scotchman."

"If I can't do desk work I'll show 'em they're not the best cop in town down in the quiet North," he said to his wife at the end of the first day.

"They've never put you up post down there," explained his wife, in honest admiration.

There was the name locally known to all by which he crossed the green between two factory districts, the short road constantly endeavoring to cross it in parallel, but each time it had been repelled. However, on the morrow, as they had planned, he intended their meant to march over the bridge in a grand procession to the City Hall, and it is the mayor who would they should not do.

"There'll be no such a hundred of us," announced Flaherty. "I guess I'm taking care of myself, woman."

He is a man than ever, of his former the thin whom stand tall, a captain who comes to the middle of the lower deck. There was the music of the music a Melodeon and friend. With this was playing "The Wreck of the 'Woolly'."

RATS PROVE MILK VALUE.

The lives of thousands of children may be saved from the story of rats. We are used to the illustration of sermons in stories, "books in the running brooks," but it remained for the common rat to pave the way for better feeding of our children, by proving its value in milk in the diet of the young.

In a recently concluded nutrition experiment, a family of baby rats was divided, half being fed on bread and prepared food, and half on bread-milk and orange juice. The first group registered slight, but any improvement. The second responded at once to the diet. Their coat became glossy, their eyes brighter, and their activity more marked.

The second group was divided, the first half being fed meat, potatoes, bread, bacon, turnips, and beets—to all appearances a balanced ration. Group number two was fed the same diet, but with the addition of milk. The difference was noticeable from the start, number two gaining twice as rapidly as number one, because of the milk diet.

Similar experiments with the mother rats proved the value of milk, the more rapid the development of the young. Interesting experiments of this nature are being started at the Michigan Agricultural College now, and will be displayed during Farmers' Week at the college, January 30 to February 3, in demonstration to show that milk is vital in the child's diet.

DETROIT THEATRES.

"The Last Waltz," with Eleanor Painter, will be presented by the Messrs. Shubert all next week at the Garrick theatre, with a special New Year's Day matinee and the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees.

This latest work of Oscar Straus was on view at the Century theatre all last year and comes here practically on the run to Chicago for an indefinite run.

It is generally credited as having the most splendid musical score that the author has yet composed, and is without doubt the most delightful musical piece the Messrs. Shubert have ever produced.

No musical piece of recent years contained so enchanting a score or a story so enthralling. The Messrs. Shubert have given this new work by the Waltz King one of the most lavish productions that has ever been seen on the stage.

Eleanor Painter, who is the featured member of the cast, has been supplied with a role which has been given to her the greatest opportunity of her life.

Besides having a wonderful opportunity from a musical standpoint, she is given a splendid chance for emotional acting.

"The Last Waltz" was staged by

by C. Hoffman and Frank Smithson,

the musical numbers staged by Allen

K. Foster and Jack Mason, and the stage settings were executed by Water Barratt. The book and lyrics were supplied by Harold Attwells and Edward Delaney Dunn.

"Maytime," the novel play with music which ran two years in New York, and which has played in Detroit more than once to capacity audiences, comes to the Shubert

Michigan theatre next week, commencing Saturday night, with matinees on Sunday and Saturday.

This exceptional attraction is under the direction of Messrs. Lee and J. A.

Shubert, and has already established itself as the most successful musical entertainment the American stage has known in a long time. It is the work of the talented Ruth Johnson Young, who wrote "The Soldier Boy,"

"Naughty Marietta," "Capt. Kidd,"

"Little Old New York" and other musical settings came from

Sigmund Romberg, composer of "Her Soldier Boy" and many other tuneful melodies in the popular "White

Gull."

Edward P. Tansey staged "Maytime" under the direction of J. J. Shubert.

This extraordinary vogue in annual shows among population has accorded "Maytime" would seem to be due to the fact that as one New York critic wrote, "It has, that rarest of all things—a new stage story."

"Maytime" is indeed a play with music for its musical composition embed-shes the dramatic themes so cleverly fittingly that the action of the story.

Now you can see it.

It's coming at last!

The photo-

play that has stirred more comment than any other picture of the year, and which has set a new mark for producers of American melodrama to
