CHARLES A. DOLPH ELECTED PRESIDENT

Monday was an ideal election day and an unusual large number of voters, both men and women, went to the polls. One year ago a total of 586 votes were cast for president, while the total number of votes polled on Monday was 648—of this number, 347 were cast in the first precinct and 301 in the second, and a great deal of "splitting" was indulged in during the day.

The contest was quiet, and good natured, but friends of both tickets worked hard throughout the day. The two tickets presented were composed of a splendid lot of men—men who would be a credit to any community, but when the votes were counted it was found the Workingmen's ticket had been successful, electing every candidate by majorities ranging from 180 for Charles A. Dolph for president to 75 for Charles L. Blackburn for trustee.

The following is the result of the day's contest, the names of the successful candidates appearing first:

For President.....	588

IT WAS A FINE AFFAIR.

The members of the Northville Exchange Club entertained their wives and guests at the Archer House on Wednesday evening and the gathering was a most enjoyable one and was held in the ball room of the hotel. The food was handsomely prepared with a variety of delicacies. The entertainment was of the highest order and the room was decorated with flowers and bunting. The evening was most enjoyable and very profitable to the club. Each of the 48 ladies present and her husband, friends and children, who attended the affair, which was held in the ball room of the Archer House.

President and Mrs. McKenney of the Northville College of Ypsichant, were the guests of honor and their presence added greatly not only to the social part of the gathering but Mr. McKenney's very interesting and inspiring address provided a real fact of reason. After the guests had been served President McKenney was introduced by Secretary C. A. Dolph.

During the service of the dinner very enjoyable music was furnished by Fred Post and Walter Tschaecke of Detroit on the piano and violin, who rendered an appropriate program of popular Irish and old-fashioned melodies.

MACOMBER MADE HEAD OF OHIO TRAFFIC LEAGUE.

L. G. Macomber, traffic commissioner of the Chamber of Commerce, returned from Dayton Thursday weighed down with the presidency of the Ohio State Industrial Traffic League.

Mr. Macomber was elected at the convention of the organization Friday. The organization, composed of the traffic representatives of civic organizations and industrial companies of the state is one of the most important and most effective of its kind in existence. It confines its activities entirely to traffic matters as they affect Ohio.

H. B. Felton, traffic manager of the Jennison-Wright Co. of Toledo, was elected a director of the organization—Toledo Blade.

FRUIT GROWERS TO HOLD MEETING.

All fruit growers and others interested are invited to attend a meeting to be held at the High school auditorium on Tuesday evening next, March 21st, at 7:30. T. A. Farrand of the M. A. C. will give a talk on "Fruit Culture" and kindred subjects. He will bring a message of special interest to the commercial orchardist as well as to the owner of a few trees.

Fruit prospects in this section seem to be very good just now and if favorable weather conditions continue we may expect a bumper crop again this season.

TWO GOOD TICKETS NAMED SATURDAY

For the annual election in Northville township this year there will be two full tickets—Republican and Democratic. The caucuses held last Saturday were well attended and good tickets were named.

The Republicans held their caucus in the afternoon and D. F. Griswold was chosen chairman. F. E. Hills was elected clerk and Miss Lyda Colgren and F. A. Northrop were appointed tellers. After the officers were sworn in the caucus proceeded to nominate W. H. Yerkes for supervisor, Ernest Miller for clerk, Mrs. Helen Morris for treasurer, O. B. Colgren for highway commissioner, and Harley D. Johnson for overseer of highways, without opposition.

The nomination of a candidate for justice of the peace was the first contest of the day and when the votes were counted George H. Baker received 27 to 26 for Mrs. Linnie Cook. F. A. Northrop was nominated without opposition for member of board of review for the long term and M. A. Porter was named as a candidate for members of the board of reviewer for the short term.

George Whipple, Horace S. Greene, Frank Pepin and Perry Austin were nominated for constables. D. F. Griswold, J. W. Perkins, Mrs. Bertha Neal, Mrs. Grace Dolph and Mrs. Mary Stewart were chosen executive committee.

The Democratic caucus was held in the evening and C. A. Sessions was chosen chairman. F. L. Newton, secretary and Charles VanValkenburgh and Geo. S. Sifer were appointed tellers. The following nominations were made: D. F. Griswold for president, C. A. Sessions for vice president, F. L. Newton for secretary, Charles VanValkenburgh for treasurer, Geo. S. Sifer for clerk, and D. F. Griswold for member of board of review for the long term. The caucus was held in the evening and C. A. Sessions was chosen chairman. F. L. Newton, secretary and Charles VanValkenburgh and Geo. S. Newton for secretary, Charles VanValkenburgh for treasurer, Geo. S. Sifer for clerk, and D. F. Griswold for member of board of review for the long term.

FRANK SHAFFER DIED TO REST.

After suffering for more than five years with heart trouble, Frank Shafer of 111 E. Maple, died Monday, March 17, 1929. He was born in Michigan and spent his whole life here. He had been sick in the community two years ago he went to Florida hoping the change of climate would prove beneficial to his health, but in that he was disappointed and after a few months spent in the south he returned to Northville. During all the long years of his last illness he was cheerful and patient, but the grim messenger finally came to him as a welcome guest and he fell asleep.

Mr. Shafer was a farmer and plumber by trade and for many years was employed in the hardware stores of this village. He was a good workman, efficient and courteous, and won a large circle of acquaintances who will regret to learn of his death. Besides his mother, Mrs. Daniel Shafer, he is survived by his wife and four children—Floyd, Clarence, Harold and Mrs. J. D. Thompson. Two children preceded him to the grave, some years ago. Funeral services were held from his late home on Wednesday afternoon, being conducted by Rev. H. Grimwood. Burial took place in Rural Hill cemetery.

THE SECOND DOLPH FOR PRESIDENT.

Thirty-four years ago this spring John W. Dolph, who is now residing in Los Angeles, and father of President-elect Charles A. Dolph, was elected president of Northville village. That was quite a while ago and many changes have taken place since then, not only in Northville but in all of the surrounding country.

When Charles A. Dolph assumes his new duties he will be following in the footsteps of his esteemed father, and the question just naturally arises, when shall we find the Dolph No. 3 for this honor?

Mrs. John E. VanSickle died at her home in Salem village last week Tuesday, aged 69 years. Funeral services were held at the Salem M. E. church on Friday and her remains were brought to Northville and placed in the vault in Oakwood cemetery. She is survived by her husband.

ALLIES IGNORE U.S. CLAIM FOR ARMY

DIVIDE GERMAN REPARATION PAYMENT OF BILLION MARKS AMONG THEMSELVES.

GOVERNMENT TO FORCE ISSUE

President Harding Determined That $243,000,000 Cost for Rhine Army Must Be Paid.

Washington—The refusal of the allied reparations commission to consider the American claim for $241,000,000 on German assets as reimbursement for the cost of the American Army of Occupation on the Rhine, has aroused the administration. The commission has proceeded dividing up the German billion gold mark payment, ignoring the claim of the United States.

The administration does not intend to take the rebuttal lying down, it was learned Monday, and will have some forceful representations to make to the Allies. Not altogether unlikely also is an accelerated withdrawal of American troops from the Rhine, if not a decision to discontinue the maintenance of any forces in Germany.

Under the terms of the armistice it was stated authoritatively that the Allied armies of occupation remained in Germany with the explicit understanding that the costs were to be paid by Germany. The United States did not wish to keep its forces on the Rhine, and had no direct interest in doing so, but on the urgent representations of the Allies, that those forces were necessary to maintain good order, consented to do so. If there had been no treaty at all, no reasonable person could contend that the Allies would be justified in taking all the assets of Germany without making some provision for reimbursing the United States. Such a contention would have no justification either in morals or in law.

It is a fault for this government to understand statements from abroad that the American claim came as a surprise to the Allies. The United States maintained all along that the cost of the army of occupation should be paid by Germany. It has taken that position from the first and has never wavered. The question of reimbursement of the forces on the Rhine has already been regarded as a matter to be settled separately from the question of liability of the Allied countries. The United States, and it has been pointed out, what else could be expected, has made, with respect to making the debt payment, no demand for the cost of maintaining that army.

DODGE RELEASED ON $7000 BOND

Son of Lyle Auto Maker Faces Trial at Kalamazoo

Kalamazoo, Mich.—John Duval, son of the late John Dodge, guilt in the fire auto manufacturer of Detroit, was released Monday night on $7,000 bond following a disastrous midnight "joy ride" early Sunday morning with three Westra State Normal school boys.

Dodge's companion, Rex Earl, Kalamazoo's night club assistant, also was arrested on bail. One of the girls, Miss Lucretia Kwakernack, of Grand Rapids is recovering in a hospital from several injuries she sustained when she jumped out of Dodge's car. Two warrants were issued, one charging the Detroit man with driving an automobile while intoxicated and the other charging him with possessing, transporting and furnishing intoxicating liquors.

Rev. Earl was held on two counts, one charging him with drunkenness and the other accusing him, jointly with Dodge of possessing, transporting and furnishing intoxicating beverages. The car, belonging to Robert Everard, was held by the federal officer, and may be confiscated under the statute authorizing the seizure of automobiles used to convey liquors.

CANNOT AVERT MINERS' STRIKE

Officials Fail To Arrange Conference With Operators

Washington—Governmental officials Monday night were resigned to the situation in the coal fields and frankly admitted that they have done everything within their power to avert the impending strike. Refusal of coal operators to accept the invitation of Secretary of Labor Davis to go into conference with the miners over a new wage scale, is taken by officials to mean stoppage of all efforts at reconciliation.

MICHIGAN'S NEW FIELD HOUSE.

With the building of the proposed field house, recently authorized by the Board of Control of Athletics, the University of Michigan will have the best equipped indoor sports center in the Middle West. The cost of the building will only be approximately $1,500,000. The building will be approximately 175 feet wide and fully 100 feet longer. The running track will be an eighth of a mile in length and seven-eighths yard straight-aways will be provided. Indoor sports, which are now held in Waterman gymnasium, where the facilities are admittedly inadequate, will be held at the new field house. Practice space also will be available for the baseball squad when weather prohibits the use of the outdoor diamond. The cost of the building has been estimated at between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000. It will have a seating capacity of 8,000. It is to be used only for athletic contests and for practice purposes, and is not intended to displace the present gymnasium as a place for physical training.

SUNDAY MOVIES WIN IN PLYMOUTH CONTEST.

Plymouth's motion picture theatre may continue to operate on Sunday, a majority of the voters of the village decided at the election Monday. Judging from the big vote, more than 1,250 taking the trouble to go to the polls, it was the most important issue in many of the villages which held elections Monday.

The proposal was to close the theatres on the Sabbath. The vote was 749 "no" and 509 "yes." It was the hardest fought battle in the village since the wet and dry fight in the spring of 1915. Opponents of the measure took their campaign seriously and their victory joyously. As soon as the results were known the band was called out and paraded the streets for more than an hour while voters fell in line behind it.

It is said contest was only just begun, however. The courts will

What a Man Seeks.

What a man seeks through his education is to get to know himself and the world; next, that for his knowledge it is before all things necessary that he acquaint himself with the best which has been thought and said in the world; finally, that of these best the classics of Greece and Rome form a very chief portion, and the portion most eagerly satisfactory. With these conclusions lodged safe in one's mind, one is staunch on the side of humanities.—Matthew Arnold.

Record of Irish Regiments.
All but two Irish regiments bear on their colors the record "South Africa." One is the Fourth (Royal Irish) Dragoon Guards. The other lacks this and other battle-honors for a very sufficient reason; it came into existence in 1900 by command of Queen Victoria, to celebrate and to commemorate the honorable exploits of the other Irish regiments in the Boer war. This is the Irish Guards and it was added to the Brigade of Guards as a special distinction to all Irish troops.

American Playing Cards.
Early American playing cards, according to an article in the American Printer, showed the national sympathy to kings and queens by presenting, instead of the conventional figures with which playing cards are now adorned, the following pictures: "President" of hearts, George Washington; of diamonds, John Adams; of clubs, Benjamin Franklin; of spades, Lafayette. The "queens" were Venus, Fortune, Ceres and Minerva. The knaves were represented, appropriately reflecting the general feeling among the whites, by pictures of Indian chiefs.—Outlook.

A number of relatives and friends were present.

Negotiations which have been pending for some time between Messrs. Fell & Son of the Raysonville Woodmen Mills, and several enterprising Northville gentlemen, have been completed, whereby the factory will move to this place very soon. They will occupy a part of the Columbia Refrigerator Co's big building and expect to be in operation in April.

Northville's best talent will take part in the Legion's musical comedy and revue. There will be catchy music and graceful dances. March 29th is the date for its presentation.

IT IS A JOB FOR ALL

My sincerest thanks to the voters of our village for the splendid results of Monday's election. First, I thank those who made me sweeping victory possible. Secondly, I thank those who were unable to come to the polls because of illness. Their intent to help is greatly appreciated. Thirdly, I thank the opposition who made election day worth while.

Now that the election is over it is well to remember that one's duty did not end with the ballot you marked. That vote extends 360 days in the future. As a citizen, you have no right to thrust all the responsibility upon the several men who hold the offices. It is the definite duty of every voter to keep their eyes open and report on the conditions of which they complained so much during the interval between nominations and election. If you have the facts on which to act your help will be very welcome.

Doubtless you will not agree with some things that are done. If you do not know the facts in the case wait until you do before you get into a wild fit and denounce every one. As someone has phrased it: "When people talk to and not about each other, you will have a better community." Deciding the hundreds of questions affecting the welfare of the people of the village is not the easiest thing in the world. No set of men, ever scored 100. Should they reach or go beyond the passing mark of 85 that should be appreciated.

The co-operation of every citizen is desired. We are hooked up for a year anyway, so come, or with your good will, your real suggestions for betterment and "Boost Northville." CHAS. A. DOLPH

Explosion Kills Three. Seattle—Three men were instantly killed by an explosion at the duPont Powder Plant near Camp Lewis this morning.

Ford Pay Car Bandits Foiled. San Francisco—An attempt of five bandits to hold up a pay car of the Ford Motor Co. in which $10,000 was being carried from the Wells-Fargo Nevada National Bank to the Ford plant here, was frustrated when the car speeded up, throwing one of the bandits from the running board.

More Textile Workers Strike. Providence, R. I.—The textile strike spread when 225 employees of the Glen-Lyon Dye Works walked out. They were workers in the steam dye department. Seven hundred and fifty more employees of the plant will be thrown out of work by the action of the steam dye house workers, it is expected.

Read Bible in Illinois Schools. Springfield, Ill.—Permission would be granted for the reading of the Bible in the public schools under a provision adopted by the state convention at Frankfort a new constitution. The vote was 52 to 3. Under a decision of the state Supreme Court, the Bible at present can not be read in the public schools.

Movie Saved Child Near Death. Atlanta City, N. C.—The movie was given credit at the children's sea shore home for the recovery of Kathryn Hartwell, aged 7 years, who was in a coma and near death. During a flash of semi-consciousness a movie film that was being shown in a special effort to arouse her, caught her attention and she reacted to the "interference" appeal. It was the girl's first movie show.

Says "Humanizing" Prisons Pays. Washington—It pays to "humanize" the federal prisons. So thinks Attorney-General Daugherty, who pointed to these results in one year: 1,000 paroled prisoners, who have earned $1,000,000, and are again useful members of society. Productive endeavor created through the government's policy of aiding them, has helped to cut the cost of prison operations $77,000 below the appropriations.

Six-Year-Old on Movie Spree. Chicago—A city-wide search, following a general police alarm resulted in the return to her home of six-year-old Frances Chyzy. She explained to the policeman who found her weeping on the street, that she had found a dollar and had gone to five movies. "And now it's all gone, and I wanna go home," she sobbed. The police supplied the missing carfare and she was returned to her parents.

Woman Smuggler Carried Fortune. Riga—A veritable treasure trove was discovered when authorities arrested Alice Kahlberg at Walk, an Estonian border town. The police found diamonds worth $4,000,000, three famous and valuable Russian stamp collections and several paintings, including a Rubens, sewed up in the woman's negligee. It is stated Miss Kahlberg was enroute from Petrograd to Paris. This is the biggest smuggling attempt yet discovered.

Auto Too Much for Puncher. San Francisco—Hereafter Ray Hill, cowboy and "bronco buster" from Texas, is going to stick to "horses." Hill was thrown through the windshield of an automobile, when it struck a safety station. "I just naturally can't hang on to those things when they get to backing that way," Hill told the Central Emergency hospital doctor who sewed up the gashes in his hip and cheek. Robert O'Neill, who drove the machine, was uninjured.

HUGHES EXPLAINS 4-POWER TREATY

SECRETARY IN LETTER TO SENATOR UNDERWOOD SAYS HE WROTE PACT.

"STRAIGHTFORWARD DOCUMENT"

Declares It Attains Most Important Object American Government Has Had in View.

Washington—Secretary of State Hughes wrote the four power Pacific treaty.

In a letter to Senator Underwood, Democratic member of the American delegation, Secretary Hughes disposed of the authorship issue and denies insinuation that the American delegates were induced to accept a cunningly contrived foreign scheme opposed to American interests.

"A very poor and erroneous conception of the work in connection with the conference," the secretary wrote. Failure to ratify the treaty, he declared, "would be nothing short of a national calamity."

There isn't the slightest mystery about the treaty or basis of suspicion regarding it," the secretary said in his letter which Senator Underwood read to the senate.

"It is a straightforward document which attains one of the most important objects the American government has had in view, and is of high importance to the maintenance of friendly relations in the Far East upon a sound basis."

"I understand that the course of debate in the senate upon the four power treaty questions have been raised with respect to its authorship. It seems to be implied that in some way the American delegates have been imposed upon, or that they were urged to accept some plan cunningly contrived by others and opposed to our interests."

"Apart from the reflection upon the competency of the American delegates such insinuations betray a very poor and erroneous conception of the work in connection with the conference no part of which—whether within or outside the conference meetings—was begun, prosecuted or concluded in intrigue. Nothing could be farther from the fact."

"The treaty itself is very short and simple, and is perfectly clear. It requires no commentary. Its engagements are easily understood and no ingenuity in argument or hostile criticism can add to them or make them other or greater than its unqualified language sets forth. There are no secret notes or hidden meanings."

THREE DROWN, TRAPPED IN AUTO

One of Crew Rescued From River After 20 Foot Plunge

Ontario, Ont.—In a sudden auto accident, two men and a woman plunged to death in the Detroit river, from River Front road, near River to Ontario bridge Sunday night.

A fourth occupant of the automobile, Miss L. M. K., was rescued from death in the water by a man known as "Speedy" Miller of River street. He risked his own life by diving in darkness into a depth of 200 feet to help Miss Koch in suffering from exposure and nervous shock.

RUSH LEADER JEERED BY MOB

Dark Crowd Calls Colours "Traitor," Fires Guns Under Nose

Col.—Rush Cook gave an ugly reception to Michael Collins and his associates in Lough on the Free State. Scores of men equipped with small arms took the poss of the chairman of the provisional government, had jeered as the fighting leader of the Sinn Fein. They sang songs cheered and jeered, so that his voice was unheard, and hurled invectives.

Men in the crowd called him a traitor and yelled scornfully when he said he was as good as the republicans. If the people rejected the Free State at the coming election he would work with them just as unobtrusively as before the treaty, he said. He was called a deserter when he made this statement.

WAYNE COUNTY CURES FOR ITS INSANE.

The most propitious surroundings that modern institutional architecture can provide for those heretofore reason are furnished in the handsome new building recently completed at the Wayne County Hospital for the insane at Eloise. The cost of the structure was $400,000 from a bond issue authorized by the voters two years ago.

A constantly increasing number of cases of insanity has been taxing the facilities of the institution to the limit. It is feared that even with the addition of the new space, other buildings will be necessary within a year to take care of the demand.

The increase in insanity was attributed by Dr. Joseph E. Bennett, superintendent of the Eloise Infirmary and Sanatorium, to a corresponding increase in new population. Another physician at the institution ventured the opinion that the war had acted as a "disturbing factor" by uncovering mental defects in many persons who under stable conditions might have passed through a whole life-time without having their reason unsettled.

A total of 1,605 cases of insanity are now being treated at Eloise. The sexes are about equally represented. The foreign population furnishes a disproportionate number of patients. Although theoretically the new building adds a capacity of 220 beds to the present facilities, much of the new space will be required to relieve previous congestion. The amusement hall has been used as a ward and the inmates have been deprived of their games and moving pictures. The new building embodies a number of new architectural features that are unique in an institution of this kind. A complex heating system provides both direct and indirect heat in addition to the radiators, an electric automatic ventilating system forces a warm air through the wards and dormitories. The wards are light and cheerful and arranged in a central coloring scheme.

The thoughtful care of doctors for the insane was referred to by Dr. Bennett in a recent report. He said: "The new building is a model of modern hospital architecture."

Two radio sets are being installed in the building. The arrangement is to have the radio sets in the building to give music for the inmates. Dr. Bennett said that the system of bedding is no longer suffering from the old-fashioned method of bedding by having the patients in the dormitories distributed by the floor. The new building is a model of modern hospital architecture.

Dr. Bennett called attention to the urgent needs for a building containing receiving wards and laboratory facilities, where incoming cases could be placed under observation until properly diagnosed.—Detroit Sunday News

Thinking leads man to knowledge; he may, see and hear, and read and learn, as much as he please, he will never know any of it, except that which he has thought over, that which by thinking he has made the property of his mind. Take away thought from man's life, and what remains?—Pestalozzi.

Dorothy and the Fisherman

By MALCOLM BROWN.

Copyright, 1922, Western Newspaper Union.

He was reading the front page of a newspaper, and it was headed "No News of Dorothy Lamont."

It gave one a creepy feeling to know that one was being searched for all over the United States, that the sudden disappearance of the millionaire's daughter had aroused the interest and apprehensions of 90,000,000 of people, while the girl in question was resting quietly at a little, un-fashionable seaside resort in Massachusetts. But Dorothy had no compunctions whatever.

"I won't marry Harold Curtis," she said, twisting herself upon her side and looking out at the leaping waves. "I don't care if father will go bankrupt unless the Lamont and Curtis interests are affiliated," he called it. It isn't right."

"An American girl has certainly the inborn right to choose her husband and to be true to it. Dorothy's parents were not altogether insistent upon the marriage. But it would mean bankruptcy otherwise for Curtis, mindful of old scores to be paid off, had been pushing Lamont, P. U. C. and he had him at his mercy."

"If only they'd give me a chance to fall in love with Harold," sobbed Dorothy. "But she had only seen him once, and she didn't even remember what he looked like, except that he was not quite a monster."

"No, he isn't a monster," Dorothy truthfully admitted. "As a matter of fact, Harold Curtis had fallen desperately in love with Dorothy at first sight."

She had then, as all girls dream, of a possible future.

The tide was breaking against the mouth of the bay.

Some looked on the water, Dorothy could see the waves and the freshening wind was sending huge rollers breaking into the bay. The waves which would be a joy to her, filled at high tide, Dorothy screamed again and again. A black streak appeared in the distant rocks.

Dorothy started, and she saw a man in a hat and a long coat, and he was running head toward her. She had a few quick strokes, and she was out of the water.
