NORTHVILLE PAYS TENDER TRIBUTE TO ITS DEPARTED

A grateful nation does not forget its defenders, and a grateful community does not forget its dead or its living. Following the custom established many years ago the people of Northville paid a very special tribute to the memory of its brave soldiers who are sleeping their last long sleep and they did more than that. They paid a most worthy and tender tribute to the splendid men who are still living men who are our neighbors and our friends who give themselves in defense of their beloved land that justice and equality of opportunity might be established forever. There are but a few of these men of the Civil war remaining to whom we can pay our tribute and their diminishing ranks have only served to make their presence with us more appreciated and their passing more deeply regretted. From the ranks of all the splendid men who responded to Lincoln's call in this community but 6 were present Tuesday. At best they have but a few years to remain with us before they, too, will enter into the last long sleep in which their comrades have been entombed, and all who attended the services on Tuesday seemed to sense that fact and to realize that within a short time we shall not have these honored veterans present at the annual festival of flowers.

The weather conditions could not have been more perfect or more inspiring with the spirit of the occasion. The exercises of the afternoon were held in the Algoma theatre and were well attended. Rev. H. J. B. March made an eloquent and fervent prayer, Rev. Van Valkenburgh rendered a solo and W. H. Upton gave Lincoln's Gettysburg address in a good voice. Lester D. Stage Jr., commander of the Lloyd Green Post American Legion, presided and announced the program. Rev. J. Halladay, chaplain of the 42nd regiment in the Rainbow division, was the speaker for the day and his address held the closest attention of the large audience and it was fitting and appropriate. It was really more than an address—it was a sermon, and Chapman Halladay made a strong appeal for better citizenship, choosing for the theme of his discourse "The Patriotism of Peace." Unlike most speakers upon this occasion he did not recount the glories of the accomplishments of past wars in which this Republic has engaged for humanity's cause but he made bold to declare that lasting peace would only come in the world when each individual citizen had fought and won the "fight within themselves." He declared it did not require great courage to be patriotic in times of war. Everything impelled us to be patriotic then—the marching hosts, the flying banners, the drum beats, all contributed toward our desire to show our patriotism and no one could resist these forces. But in times of peace it was quite another thing. We must decide the great questions which come to each of us as the days and weeks and months pass individually alone with only God to guide and direct our thoughts and impulses. If then we must win the "fight within" it is then our hearts must become attuned to those nobler aspirations and inspirations if we are to measure up to the glorious heritage handed down to us by those heroic men who have offered themselves in defense of the Union. When this "fight within" has been won there will be no more wars, but men and nations will dwell together as friends and neighbors, one helping the other to solve the great problems as they shall present themselves.

At the close of the service the procession formed and headed by the band marched to the cemeteries first to Oakwood, whence the ritualistic service of the Grand Army was rendered, and then to Rural Hill where the American Legion service was given. The procession was formed as follows and made an imposing sight.

Band.
Knights Templar, on right of line
World's War Veterans
School Children
W. R. C.
G. A. K.
At the close of the exercises the procession re-formed and returned to the business section and disbanded. The G. A. R. and W. R. C. with a few guests enjoyed a supper at their hall.

WAS A GALA DAY AT WALLED LAKE

WALLED LAKE LAID CORNER STONE FOR NEW CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL SATURDAY.

Saturday was an ideal day and for the people of Walled Lake the day marked an epoch in the life and advancement of the entire community. In the afternoon the corner stone for Walled Lake's consolidated school building was laid with impressive ceremonies and a large crowd was present to give their approval to the exercises of the day. The handsome new building will be located on a five-acre tract of land lying between the business section, proper and the railway and when completed will be a structure to which every citizen may point to with feelings of personal pride. This building is of fire proof construction and is 140x120 feet in size, two stories and basement, and in its arrangement nothing has been omitted that would in any way add to its adaptability and efficiency for school needs. There will be an auditorium and a gymnasium. The basement will be nine feet in the clear and the ceilings on the first and second floors will be 12 feet with the ceiling in the gymnasium being 21 feet. The exterior of the building is handsomely built and in all its appointments it will represent the "last word" in school architecture. The new building is to be the consolidated school building to be opened in Oakland county, and is situated on the site of Walled Lake, the home of her neighbors.

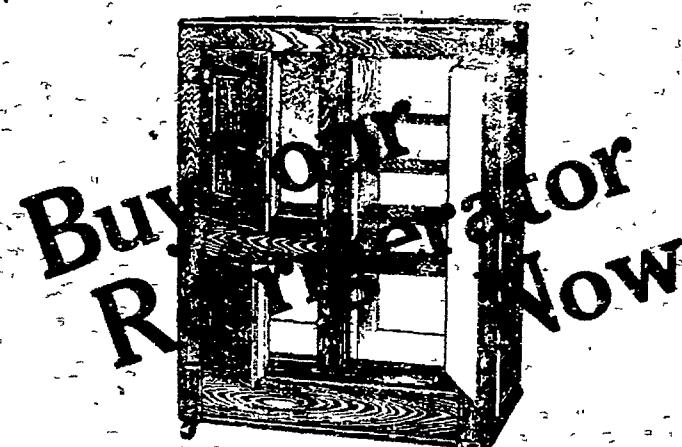

Under the direction of Rev. Cope, as pastor of the church, the procession formed down town about three o'clock and headed to the Cass Tech High school field in Detroit, marched to the school grounds. Members of the board of education who have worked faithfully and diligently for the erection of the new building—Glen Buffmyer, F. J. Schmidt, Bert Welfare, Willard Campbell and Ray Riley led the procession and they were followed by school children, Nellie Grotta of Pontiac, a highland uniforms member of Committee Lodge F & A. M., and citizens. Upon arrival at the grounds the band played a selection or two and then the assemblage was called to order by President Buffmyer of the board of education who announced the program of the afternoon. Rev. F. A. Brass offered prayer, and at its conclusion the audience joined in singing "America," being accompanied by the band. Rev. Sidney Era of Farmington was introduced as the first speaker and in opening his inspiring and uplifting address he declared his desire first to congratulate the people of Walled Lake upon the advance step they have taken in providing the splendid new building which marked a new achievement for the whole community. He told of the great benefits to be secured from the public school and expressed the hope that other villages and towns might follow the example set by Walled Lake and thus provide for the boys and girls of our rural communities the very highest advantages and the greatest benefits and blessings during their school years.

Miss Minnie Northrop of the Tech High school who possesses a wonderfully sweet voice favored the audience with a solo and very kindly responded to the generous encore given. A selection by the band followed.

Brief talks were given by Prof Ford, assistant superintendent of public instruction, John Andrews of the Oakland county commissioner of schools office, Byron E. Mills, architect, W. W. Blackney of Flint, Alfred H. Upton, who is to be the superintendent of the school, and Mr. Wesson, representing the contractors. All spoke very highly of the fine community spirit displayed in the erection of such a building and Messrs. Mills and Wesson especially commended the members of the school board for their zeal in behalf of the project and for their efforts to secure the very best building possible for the money expended.

Charles Richmond, worshipful master of Commerce Lodge, F & A. M., took charge of the ceremonies of laying the corner stone. In the box which was placed in the stone there were numerous documents deposited and when the invitation was given for all who desired to contribute something to the box, many responded. Little Lucile Mercer displayed her patriotism by offering the little dog she

ANNUAL MEMORIAL SERVICE

The Presbyterian church was filled Sunday evening on the occasion of the annual memorial service and the exercises were most impressive and appropriate. The church was fittingly decorated and three chairs draped in black bearing a wreath were arranged on the platform in honor of the three members of Allan M. Harmon Post, G. A. R., who have answered the last call during the past year—George Johnston, Charles Crozier and E. K. Starkweather, their passing being announced by George Gedell.

The services were opened by singing "The Star Spangled Banner" by the choir and congregation and at the conclusion of the singing Rev. H. Greenwood of Red River, then sang and Rev. D. T. Belles read "The Prayer of the Republic" which was followed by the singing of "Jesus Healed Ten Lepers" and Rev. E. V. Jones, here read the course of prayer, taking the text from Mark's gospel in chapter 10, verse 47.

What made it a unique feature was the opening remarks by a blind ex-combatant who, though he could not see, recited the words of the poem "I Am a Soldier" in Spanish, American and the great world war and the names of the S. R. C. who were given seats of honor. He expressed a great honor and a great privilege to have these leaders of America present at the service and expressed the thanks and appreciation of the people of Northville for the service they had rendered and the sacrifice they had made.

HAVING FINE TRIP.

A letter from Fred M. Warner from Seattle, Wash. tells briefly of his very helpfulouting the Warner sign in California when they visited a number of former inhabitants, Northville and Novi people. After finding out many details in Los Angeles, they visited the wonderful beauty of Northern California and again found friends to be a pleasure.

While enroute east into the Rockies they had the pleasure of visiting with John St. Rose, Willard P. E. Quigley and Mrs. A. N. Tremper and other former residents of this section. Mr. Warner expressed his deep regret upon learning of the death of George N. Schmid of Novi. They decided to return to Michigan by July 1st.

NOVI PIONEER PASSES AWAY.

One of Novi's pioneers, Samuel Bassett passed away at the old homestead on Tuesday afternoon, May 22 at the ripe old age of 85 years of illness of five weeks. The funeral was held at two o'clock on Friday afternoon at the home of his son, George.

Mr. Bassett was born February 18, 1837, and lived all but seven years of his life in this community. He was married October 11, 1867 to Dovinda Holmes who died on January 8th, 1910. He leaves to mourn his death four children, George, Edith and Charles of Novi township and Emma B. Lamb of Windsor, Cal. Thirteen grandchildren and two great grand children.

He was eldest of a family of thirteen children of whom four are left.

Mrs. E. O. Durfee of Detroit, Mrs. M. B. Davis of Waco, Texas, Mrs. O. S. Hulett of Novi and Mrs. C. V. Verseray of San Diego, California.

SUBURBAN BUS DRIVERS DISAPPROVED.

Jesse Jacobs, 12625 Lincoln avenue, and six other men complained Saturday to Z. Lewandowsky, assistant prosecuting attorney, that they had each given Leroy R. Rogers $100 for the privilege of operating their cars on a bus. Rogers is alleged to have agreed to establish between Detroit, Plymouth, Northville and Walled Lake. Rogers, they say, was to furnish half the gasoline used and provide dispatchers and stations. They asserted they had had their cars in service since May 7, but that there had been no passengers. Lewandowsky recommended court action. Free Press Rogers made a lot of promises as to what he proposed to do. He was to have a fleet of twelve Packard cars operating over the new route and the people were to be given real service, but it is evident the people did not respond.

Mrs. E. C. Hilborn of Coldwater, who has been visiting relatives here the past week, returned home Monday accompanied by her father, T. A. Gifford.

HOME BANDAGE PRESESSES.

In the dress making contest conducted by Charles A. Poundsford for school girls of 12 years old and over, Miss Berwick won first prize. Beverly Tom, second and Conella Waterman third. Margaret Schoutz nine years old submitted a dress and had been active years older it would have pleased the judges to have made a division.

All of the dresses submitted were very creditable and the workmanship was exceptionally sparseworthy, demonstrating the fact that Northville girls can do a whole lot of things once put to the test.

This contest created a good deal of interest and, doubtless another year should one be conducted a larger number will take part.

SUMMER!

These are glorious days. Days when all nature is calling us out into the open and every tree and every flower beckons. These are days when the round of daily tasks seem irksome. We long to get away from the everyday, common things of life—out into the open to commune with nature.

Why should the wife or mother shut herself in her kitchen and for hours work over a hot stove doing the family baking when you can secure all your baking needs right here—fresh every day? Let her get outdoors and enjoy life these glorious June days. We can supply you and supply you well.

Tea Tea

We have a very full and complete line of Teas. You will find our brands equal to, and superior to many. Our special brand for Ice Tea cannot be equaled.

PROGRESSIVE BANKING

Organized in 1907 this bank adopted a policy of paying interest at the rate of three per cent on Savings Deposits for the full time.

August 1, 1919, to meet the demand for a higher interest rate, we changed our rate to four per cent on all Savings Deposits remaining three months or longer.

September 22, 1919, our Capital Stock was increased from $25,000.00 to $50,000.00.

December 15, 1919, we became a member of the Federal Reserve System.

These changes were all made with a view of giving our customers better Banking Service.

We now realize the need of more complete Banking offices and have contracted for remodeling and enlarging our present quarters.

The inconvenience caused during remodeling will, we hope, be offset by still better service in the future.

Wonderful Pageant of War

After the Civil war had been fought and won, the soldier of the Army of the Potomac and of Sherman's army, to the number of more than 200,000 marched in a grand review through the streets of Washington. This crowning ceremony of the war, reviewed by President Johnson and by Grant and Sherman and other generals, was the supreme pageant of all time to the soldiers and the people who had fought in support of the Union. It was an American pageant pure and simple. It was viewed by the representatives of foreign nations but curiously, and with respect for the sorely tried and now triumphant power of the American republic. For

The Patriot Dead

This is the memorial to the Ameri cans who died in the World war, erected in New Orleans by the Ameri can Legion posts of that city. Opposite the memorial inscription at the base of the shaft is the first verse of "In Flanders Fields," and a bed of poppies surrounds the monument. At the top where the world-surrounding eagle of the marines is shown, are also on the other sides, the emblems of central effect is to carry out the idea of the dead holding on high the torch of patriotism.

Deeds Will Be Remembred.

The World war veterans join with those of the Civil war in Memorial services with a more personal and sympathetic feeling than they knew five years ago. The Civil war is a more real event than it was when they studied about it in their school history or even when they heard its tales as told by those who had fought its battles. As they miss and mourn for their own lost comrades, they realize little the grief that the loss of thousands in the other war brought to every community. They have a reverence for and a tenderness to the aged veterans that they did not have before, and if they have imagination they will look forward and see themselves advanced in years and will wonder if their own services will be remembered.

They may be sure that they will not be forgotten. America never forgets her soldier sons.

Youths in Civil War Armies.

The fact that thousands of men are still alive who fought in the Civil war is perhaps one of the most illuminating facts which we can

FORD TURNS OUT 6,000,000 MOTORS

And the Next One Comes Through in 1-3 Seconds Later.

Ford Motor number 6,000,000 was listed from the assembly line in the Highland Park plant at 9:14 a.m. May 18th. Just 5-13 seconds later number 6,008,001 was finished.

The unusually heavy demand for Ford cars and trucks at the present time has necessitated the building of 5,400 motors daily. These are shipped in carload lots to the various Ford assembling plants throughout the United States.

The first model "T" Ford motor was completed on October 1st, 1908; number 1,000,000 left the assembly line December 10th, 1915; and number 5,000,000 came through May 28th, 1921.

Although the Ford Motor company turned out a number of different models prior to 1908, the present numbering system began with the first model "T."

THERE WILL BE REAL FUN.

On Sunday afternoon Howlett's Detroit Clowns, a team of pretty girls, ball players, will come to Northville for a game. The clowns are real fun makers and they promise the fans a whole lot of laughs. Your home team will appreciate your presence.

TEPLIARS VISITED MILFORD.

Northville Commandant F. K. Tu, atton & Associates Day services at Milford on Sunday about fifteen members came in line. After the services were over which were addressed to the 18th & 19th, the members of the church were served a hearty meal at the Hotel Milford. The clowns were invited and honored by the Milford band the commandant said he would like to have the band play at the cemetery where a brother of a member of the church was interred. After returning to the church an exhibition drill was given which was witnessed by a large crowd. The clowns were royally entertained by Milford people and the feelings extended and more cordial.

YOUNG PEOPLE DOING SPLENDID WORK.

Last Thursday evening the delegation team of the Wesley Guild, an association of Methodist University students, held their end of the season dinner in the Guild hall at Ann Arbor. These young people, over seventy in number, have gone out week-ends since last October in teams of three and four and had inspirational meetings among the young people of the churches in the vicinity of Ann Arbor. Northville has had the privilege of having them on two occasions. Rev. Clark and Rev. H. J. B. Marsh were the guests at the banquet from Northville and they report a very fine time. It was certainly inspiring to come in contact with this group of splendid young men and women of keen intellect and clean lives. Their leader is J. R. Dunn, a native Korean, who made a splendid appeal for Christian service in giving his annual report. Over fifty churches including some in Detroit have been served by the teams and many young people have been helped in the attainment of the highest ideals of life.
