NORTHVILLE'S VALUATION INCREASING.

Village Assessor C. A. Sessions turned the tax roll over to Village Treasurer Ernest Miller on Tuesday, having completed his work of carrying out the assessments and the amount of taxes due. The total assessed valuation of the village is $1,707,450.00, an increase over last year of $90,000.00.

The tax rate will be $1.81 on each hundred dollars valuation or $18.10 for each thousand dollars, an increase over last year owing to the sewer project.

NEW BUILDINGS AT THE FAIR GROUNDS.

Under the direction of T. G. Richardson, superintendent of buildings, workmen are engaged in the erection of three new buildings at the Northville fair grounds. Two of the buildings will be used for poultry and pet stock and the other, which is really an addition to the main hall, will be used for whatever purpose needed. The buildings are each 28x70 feet in size and will add greatly to the attractiveness of the grounds and the exhibits.

The several superintendents are working on their parts of the premium lists and copy will soon be in the hands of the printer. Fair time will be here before we are aware of its approach.

TRACK MEET AT DEARBORN.

Plans for the 4-square league track meet, to be held at Ford Field here next Friday, are well under way. Dearborn, Farmington, Northville, Plymouth, Redford and Wayne will take part, all strong teams, in different events. The meet will probably be won by a small margin by Dearborn High, the winner last year. In addition to the boys' track teams, each of the above schools is sending a team of girl tracksters. Dearborn

FRANCIS G. TERRILL DIED SATURDAY NIGHT.

After an illness of but a few days duration Francis G. Terrill died at his home in this village Saturday night. Though he had been in failing health for a number of years his last illness came so suddenly that but a few of his neighbors and friends knew of his condition until the news of his death became current Sunday morning. During the years when life seemed to be slipping away from him he was kindly cared for and watched over by his faithful wife and son, to whom the sympathy of the community is extended in their sorrow.

The deceased was the son of Lyman and Catherine Terrill, and was born in the township of Northville on February 24th, 1844, and his whole life has been spent in this section. On February 24, 1875, he was united in marriage to Lillian Bubbing and to that union two children were born, one son in childhood, and Roy N. Terrill, who resides on the home farm. Besides his wife and son he is survived by one granddaughter, Beverly. Mr. Terrill was aggressive and active anti-slavery health compelled him to live a more refined life. He was for a number of years a director of the Lapham State Savings bank, and took an active interest in the affairs of the community. He was a charter member of Northville Lodge, F. & A. M., and was always interested in the growth and advancement of the fraternity.

Funeral services were held at his late home on Tuesday afternoon and were conducted by Rev. W. H. Shannon of Lansing, an old family friend, assisted by Rev. E. Y. Belles. Interment took place at the Thayer cemetery west of town. The Masons attended the funeral in a body and rendered the Masonic burial service at the grave.

CLERK H. TIFFIN MARRIAGE.

Miss Ethnah Tiffin and Irving Ulrich, both of Plymouth township, were quietly united in marriage at the bride's farm home, three miles west of town, Thursday afternoon, June 1st, at 2:30 o'clock, in the presence of only a few intimate friends. Rev. Conger Hathaway, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony. Miss Tiffin is the daughter of the late Charles Tiffin, and has lived near Plymouth her entire life. She is a graduate of the Northville High school, also the State Normal at Ypsilanti, and since her graduation has been a very successful teacher. The groom is one of the officers at the Detroit House of Correction Farm, and after a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich will reside on the Tiffin farm—Plymouth.

WORK TO START SOON.

Work of remodeling the building of the Lapham State Savings bank will be started within a few days. The contractor is expected to be on the ground and to begin active operations by the 15th. It is expected the offices of the bank will be located in the building now occupied by the LoveWell Farms Co., while the alterations are being made.

Work will also soon be started on the improvement and rebuilding of the Joslin block recently purchased by a company of Northville men.

VILLAGE HALL IN BAD CONDITION.

The village building is in a very bad condition and it is believed to be unsafe by a great many people who have made an investigation of its walls. Both the east and west walls have settled and judging from appearances they are spreading gradually.

Something will have to be done quickly to save the building if it can be saved at all.

Asks Fund to Prosecute Graft.

Washington—Steps have been taken by the executive and legislative branches of the government for the investigation and prosecution with vigor of war time fraud cases. President Harding sent to the house a request for a special appropriation of $500,000 to be used by the department of justice to investigate and prosecute all cases, civil or criminal, growing out of the war.

Jailed Agitator Refuses Liberty.

New York—James Larkin, labor agitator, serving 5 to 10 years for criminal anarchy, refused an opportunity to gain liberty under $15,000 bail pending appeal. He held he had been "discriminated against" in a message he sent to Supreme Court Justice Cardozo to say he would not accept liberty. Other radicals convicted of criminal anarchy had been admitted to $5,000 and $7,500 bail.

Woman Pastor Praises Flappers.

New York—American flappers were given a message of cheer when the Aquitania sailed with Miss A. Maude Ryden, Britain's first woman minister. "Your flappers look at them!" she exclaimed. "Those girls dress smartly but their secret is that they are as smart in mind as they are in dress. They have brains. If American girls will take up religion as seriously as they have dress and business, religion will have the greatest constipation as disease of modern life, a product of immaturity, faulty habits of eating and a diet of too little bulk."

In the selection of such a diet the two important facts to be remembered are that the food must be coarse and rough as possible, and that all sorts of fats are very valuable in promoting ease of evacuation. We may choose them from the following:

"Vegetables—All vegetables are good. Raw, celery, coleslaw, all vegetable salads, cooked cauliflower, turnips, asparagus, carrots, onions, spinach, parsnips, and all beans. A good rule is for people with symptoms of this disease to have a double portion of vegetables."

"Meats—Fat meats are best, unless it is important to keep down the weight."

"Fruits—Apples (raw one often being taken at bed-time), oranges and grapefruit (eating sections and inner peeling of orange), pears and melons, as well as all fruit salads. Dried fruits of all kinds, (especially prunes and figs), dates, raisins, all berries (except blackberries, which are constipating)."

"Cereals—Cereals from which the bran has not been removed, such as rolled or cut oats and wheat, whole wheat and bran breads. When still more bulk is needed bran itself may be mixed with the cereal, in soup, or may be used in bread, muffins, or biscuits."

"Fats—Fats of all sorts, animal, vegetable and mineral (unless it is important to keep down weight), as well as all kinds of nuts."

"Water—Drink one cup of water before breakfast and six to eight cups during the day."

"Finally, habit plays a large part in normal intestinal movement, as in other digestive processes. If the normal warning is disregarded, it soon becomes ineffective and recalling it becomes more and more difficult. Take a hot foot bath into the stomach at once to excite intestinal movement and perhaps a breakfast time. Thus the 'no breakfast' habit may be overcome."

RALPH MAKES GOOD LATE SEASON HOG PASTURE.

Rape, a crop which may be sown until July 1st, or even later if weather conditions are favorable, is one of the best hog pastures, according to Prof. W. E. J. Edwards, of the Michigan Agricultural College's animal husbandry department.

"For best results, however, this crop should be sown at once," says Edwards. "Use about five pounds of seed of the Dwarf Essex variety broadcast per acre. If the soil is light, it is often preferable to sow in drills about twenty-eight inches apart, using three or four pounds of seed to the acre. By cultivating between the rows, the weeds can be kept down and a stronger crop is produced.

WANTED TO KNOW.

It was the last lecture of the term and the professor was urging his students to put their time in preparation. "The examination questions are now in the hands of the printer," he said. "Now are there any more questions you want answered at this time?"

Voice from the Back Row (after moments' silence): "Who is the printer?"—Exchange.

FORD INTERESTS BUY OAKLAND COUNTY WATER POWER.

Following out his plan of several years' past of acquiring the small water power rights in various sections of the state, Henry Ford, Detroit automobile manufacturer, has purchased of Edwin Denby, secretary of the Avery, valuable mill and water power rights in the villages of Waterford and Clarkston.

Five deeds covering the several tracts of land and water, including power rights, were executed recently by Edwin Denby and Marion Thurber Denby, through their attorney, Joseph J. Kennedy, to Henry Ford and Mrs. Clara J. Ford of Fair Lane, Dearborn Township, Wayne County. The total consideration as indicated by the revenue stamps was $13,000.

The transfer includes 2.24 acres of land in Clarkston village with frontages on Washington and Main streets and touching both the Clinton River and Park Lake. The Waterford land comprises 2.32 acres and is located on the Clinton River and the Saginaw Turnpike. The properties are in the heart of the villages and the power is supplied from mill ponds—Pontiac Press.

RURAL COURSES WILL FEATURE M. A. C. TERM.

Special work for school principals and superintendents, who are preparing for positions at the head of Michigan consolidated schools will feature the summer school curriculum at the Michigan Agricultural College this year. Other courses for rural teachers and for instructors of agricultural and home economics subjects will also be given, according to announcement of Prof. E. H. Ryder, director of the M. A. C. summer term.

Sand Lake—When he opened the Sand Lake Exchange Bank to get some dags to be used in a Memorial Day parade, Frank Shatuck, president of the bank, found robbers had entered during the night and stole $135.

Lansing—Pioneer residents of Michigan many of whom have had a hand in the past or present development of the state gathered here to attend the forty-eighth annual meeting of the Michigan Pioneer and Historical Society.

Kalamazoo—A demand that railroad crossing protection be provided by the Michigan Central Railroad at every crossing in the county will be made by Marvin Schaberg, city attorney, at the next of the Kalamazoo city commission.

Traverse City—A ban has been placed on women knitters on the roads of this city by Major L. Swanson who has given Chief of Police John instructions to arrest any girl or woman on the streets in knitter. "The morals of the present generation of boys are being attacked," Swanson said, "and I propose to see that they are no longer tempted by immoral dress."

Cadillac—Joseph Widgren, of this city, was driving his automobile up the Glen Garry Hill, 30 miles west of here. At the top of the hill, the automobile plunged from the roadway and rolled down a 100 foot embankment. The machine turned over three times before it reached the foot of the embankment, where it crashed against a stump. Widgren was removed from the wreckage with only slight injuries.

Saginaw—A search and seizure warrant for evidence thought to be in private dwellings for violation of the prohibition laws must contain some positive information instead of "information and belief," according to a decision of Judge C. M. Browne of the Saginaw circuit court handed down in the case of Fred Rohm, of Jonesfield township, who was being tried on a charge of possessing liquor.

Grand Rapids—Although the 10 percent reduction in freight rates announced several days ago, will have no bearing on the rate hearing before the Michigan public utilities commission, William A. Slater, traffic manager of the Association of Commerce, declares it will benefit business generally in western Michigan. The new rate, Slater points out, does not remove the alleged discrimination against shippers of this state.

Lansing—The Lansing city council has taken steps to prevent the dependent poor of the city from buying gasoline for their automobiles. According to a report to the council, supposedly destitute families have received bounty from the city and when social workers went to pay the customary follow-up call, it was found the family was out auto-riding and that money advanced by the city actually had been spent for gasoline.

Lansing—The State Department of Public Safety will give the radiophone system, according to Col. Roy C. Vanderhook, commissioner. Automobiles and motorcycles of the State Police will be equipped with receiving units which will be sent from the Michigan Agricultural College station. If the plan proves successful, it is probable that the department will erect six large sending stations to be used permanently.

Ludington—Mason and Manistee counties, in which are located the cities of Ludington and Manistee, promise to become one of the chief salt producing sections of the world as a result of recent developments. Ludington already has two salt companies in operation, one producing about 1,000,000 barrels a year and the other half that amount. A new plant is being constructed in Manistee the output of which will equal that of both the Ludington concerns. This will mean that two counties will market about 3,000,000 barrels of salt a year.

Keep Coal Dry.

If coal is kept in a dry, airy place it will burn much better than if placed in a close, poorly ventilated cellar. Coal is excluded from the air soon gets rid of its gas and the absence of this renders it more waste when burned.

Groveland, Calif.—Tom McKeown, engineer of the Hetch-Hetchy railroad, has six young chickens hatched from the heat of the locomotive boiler. Farm-Land Rate Is Reduced.

Washington—Reduction in the rate of interest charged farmers by federal land banks from 6 per cent to 5 1/2 per cent was announced by Commissioner Lobdell, of the Farm Loan Board. Snake Unwelcome Bed Partner.

Porterville, Cal.—To awaken from a night of peaceful sleep to find a rattlesnake sporting nine rattles coiled at the foot of his bed, apparently preparing to make a spring at its victim was the harrowing experience of R. He was brought to local hospital for treatment.

REINFORCEMENTS BEING SENT

Looping of Border Towns and Uprisings in Northern Ireland Make Open Break Seem Likely.

Belfast—Infantry, cavalry, artillery and whippet tanks took part in the first offensive action of the British troops on the Ulster borderland early Sunday afternoon, when Pettigo, which straddles the line, though a large part of the town is in Free State territory, was stormed and retaken from troops of the Irish Republican Army.

Reinforcements for the British troops in northern Ireland have been pouring into Belfast since last Saturday. The record for last week was 2,117 and 74 wounded in the various outbreaks.

There has been a consternation at Belfast over the recent raid on Pettigo, which has caused a general alarm throughout the country.

PROGRESSIVE BANKING

Organized in 1907 this bank adopted a policy of paying interest at the rate of three per cent on Savings Deposits for the full time.

August 1, 1919, to meet the demand for a higher interest rate, we changed our rate to four per cent on all Savings Deposits remaining three months or longer.

September 22, 1919, our Capital Stock was increased from $25,000.00 to $50,000.00.

December 15, 1919, we became a member of the Federal Reserve System.

These changes were all made with a view of giving our customers better Banking Service.

We now realize the need of more complete Banking offices and have contracted for remodeling and enlarging our present quarters.

The inconvenience caused during remodeling will, we hope, be offset by still better service in the future.

ANTI-TRUST LAW INCLUDES UNIONS

LABOR ORGANIZATIONS LIABLE SAME AS CORPORATIONS, SAYS SUPREME COURT.

DECISION COMES IN COAL TRADE

Decision Against United Mine Workers Growing Out of Strikes in 1914 Upheld by High Court.

Washington.—Deciding the Coronado coal case, the supreme court Monday held labor organizations although unincorporated, are amenable to the Sherman Antitrust act and that under its provisions such organizations may be prosecuted for restraint of interstate commerce. The court also held that labor unions are liable. Chief Justice Taft, in announcing the decision, did not indicate any dissent.

The case which presented the questions passed upon by the court was an appeal by the United Mine Workers of America from a decision of the United States district court of Arkansas approved by the circuit court of appeals, holding them guilty of violating the Sherman antitrust act during coal mine strikes in Arkansas in 1914, and assessing damages of $100,000, which were trebled under the antitrust law.

The effect of the decision will be to set aside the damages because, of the finding that the acts which caused the destruction of property were not intended for the purpose of restraining interstate commerce.

During the strike lawlessness prevailed and property damage was done to the Coronado and eight other mines controlled by the Backe Denman Coal company. The United Mine Workers of America contested the jurisdiction of the federal courts on the ground that being an unincorporated association of mine workers it was not subject to prosecution under the Sherman antitrust law.

LILLIAN RUSSELL MOORE IS DEAD

Famous Stage Beauty of Years Ago Passes Suddenly.

Pittsburgh.—Mrs. Lillian Russell Moore, wife of Alexander P. Moore, publisher of the Pittsburgh Leader and noted stage beauty, of a score and more years past, died at her home Tuesday morning after an illness of several days.

Following a relapse in Mrs. Moore's condition Saturday night, her physician had expressed doubt that she would rally, but late Monday night it became evident that she had suffered a relapse. While it was recognized that the situation was grave, members of the household nevertheless waited known late in the evening that no alarm was felt.

It was said that her illness was caused by a fall on board ship while she was returning from Europe a short time ago, where she went to make a personal study of the immigration problem for the United States.

Complications did not set in until a few days ago when she was taken ill. Lillian Russell, "The Queen of American opera," in private life Mrs. Alexander P. Moore, for more than 30 years starred in various operatic roles in the United States and England. She was 61 years old.

VALENTINO IS FREED BY COURT

Bigamy Charge Against Screen Star Not Substantiated.

Los Angeles—Rodolfo Valentino, screen actor whose principal roles have been of love heroes, was liberated from a charge of bigamy here Monday when the felony complaint was dismissed after a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Hanby. The justice ruled that the evidence presented was insufficient to support the complaint.

The dismissal of the case followed three days of testimony concerning the marriage in Mexicali, Mex., May 13, of Valentine and Miss Winifred de Wolf-Shaughnessy-Hudnut.

The bigamy charge was filed against Valentino by the district attorney here because the Mexicali marriage occurred before a final decree of divorce was granted Valentino by Jean Acker, screen actress, in whose case he was awarded an interlocutory decree last January.

OFFICERS MAY DISPLAY LIQUOR

Supreme Court Says It Is Legal If Done to Secure Evidence.

Lansing—Prohibition officers may display liquor while attempting to secure evidence against liquor law violators, the Michigan Supreme Court held Monday in affirming the decision of the lower courts in the case of William McIntyre, a hotel proprietor of Grass Lake, Jackson County.

McIntyre was convicted of violating the liquor law. He asked a new trial on the ground that the two officers arresting him came to his hotel and displayed liquor. When they had disposed of it, they asked if McIntyre would sell them a bottle. He did and was arrested.

VETS' HOSPITAL IN MICHIGAN SURE

May Go to Ann Arbor, But Other Cities Make Offers of Large Sites.

Detroit—Prospects for the erection in Michigan, probably in Ann Arbor, of a government hospital for ex-service men with mental diseases, brightened with the announcement of Senators Townsend and Newberry that President Harding now favors Michigan over Illinois in his plans for hospitalization of World War veterans.

President Harding's original plans called for the erection of this hospital at Great Lakes, Ill., despite the fact that Illinois already has far more government hospital facilities than Michigan.

That the hospital will be located in Michigan is due to the earnest efforts of the American Legion.

Orders Cancellation.

President Harding told Senators Newberry and Townsend that he would instruct the hospitalization committee of the treasury department to cancel plans for constructing such a hospital at Great Lakes, Ill.

Dr. Frank B. Broderick of Detroit, state welfare officer of the Legion, announces that a site of approximately 200 acres is needed. The Ann Arbor Chamber of Commerce has pledged co-operation with the Legion in securing such a site near Ann Arbor, and other cities are expected to make similar offers.

Barrett to Aid.

Dr. A. M. Barrett, head of the university psychopathic hospital, at Ann Arbor, one of the greatest authorities on nervous disease in the country, has agreed to work with the government and the Legion if the hospital is built there. It has been necessary to send disabled veterans from Michigan to Illinois, Wisconsin and other states, for treatment. Michigan has the greatest percentage of disabled veterans in proportion to its military strength in the war of any state.

LAUDS HOSPITAL IN BATTLE CREEK

Layton Commander Says Attacks Are Without Foundation

Detroit—No man who attacks the Veterans Legion's hospital at Battle Creek is fit to be a legislator," Paul A. Martin, state commander of the Legion old members of Charles A. Leinenweber here.

"Attacks such as have been made recently are absolutely without foundation. All that those in charge ask is that you come and see for yourselves."

A visit will convince all that the Legion hospital is more than a hospital—it is a home for the ex-service man making the hard journey back to health."

Learned Post, the largest in the state, is installed in its new home, in the Wheelman's club.

Commander Martin complimented the post on its growth, and referring to the recent differences between Learned Post and the Wayne County Council, expressed his thanks for the action of the post in standing behind the constituted authorities of the Michigan Legion.

Fred Z. Pantaud of Grand Rapids, chairman of the Legion hospital committee. Other members are John G. Eriey, former national commander of the Legion, and Alton T. Roberts of Marquette; Frederick M. Alger of Detroit; Wilbur M. Brucker of Saginaw; Clarence V. Sawyer, M.D., of Benton Harbor, and O. G. Johnson, M.D., of Fostoria.

EFFECT OF POISON GAS IMPAIRS VOICE

Stricken Veterans Urged to Have Throats Examined.

Washington—Poison gas, inhaled by American soldiers in France, is beginning to show its effects by causing service men to lose their voices. The bureau has asked the American Legion to inform gassed veterans whose ability to speak is becoming impaired to report to the nearest Bureau physician for examination. American Legion posts will give information as to where these may be found.

The Bureau stated that a large number of young veterans have recently been found suffering from tumors of the vocal cords, apparently in their inception. The growth prevents vibration of the cords due to pressure, and thus affects the voice.

The Legion is asked to spread the information and to get service men suffering from a growing inability to speak to go before Veterans Bureau doctors for prompt examination. If the case warrants, the Bureau announces, the former soldiers will be sent East for operations.

A post of the American Legion was organized at Reeds, Michigan, on Feb. 10th by "Mike" Murray, District Welfare officer. The post has already secured an enrollment of 75 members.

The Missing Cuffs

By CALVIN HENDRICKS
Copyright, 1922, Western Newspaper Union

John J. Martin, a mortgage banker shrewd and careful man of business, sat facing his bookkeeper, Ralph Terhune, a pleasing, clear-minded young man, in the estimation of Eunice Martin, at least, although the money absorbed father knew nothing of that.

The two men were seated in the private office of the banker. This had an anteroom and both apartments connected with the residence of John Martin. In the anteroom was a lurking figure.

This man was Burton Beale, a bachelor cousin of the banker, who had been the guest of his relative for nearly a month.

"You understand, Terhune," the banker was speaking within the private office.

"Perfectly, Mr. Martin," replied the young office man.

"I have never trusted any employee as I am trusting you. It is necessary that I should, for some important transactions will have to be handled by you during my absence."

"You will not be gone long, I presume?"

"Perhaps a week. Leave a little closer, Terhune. The combination of the safe is 12-18-19."

Ralph Terhune nodded comprehendingly. While the banker spoke he had carelessly scribbled the numerals on a slip of scrap paper. Instantly his employer drew the tell-tale slip from his hand.

"Memorize it."

"To aid me, I will make a temporary notation, then," said Terhune, and he marked the numbers on the white surface of his shirt cuff.

The modest but pretty cuff button holding it together met his glance as he did this, and his eyes brightened. Those buttons were a birthday gift from Eunice a week ago.

When the banker and Ralph passed through the anteroom, Beale was not there.

"Let us take a little stroll, Terhune," she suggested as, apparently casually, she left with his intended victim in the street rear his hotel.

"Wait for a time of blinds, at least," said Beale.

"Oh, yes. I have a full hour oflets now."

"Come on, then."

Beale disclosed the fact that he was an expert in the game. He made it interesting for his opponent by some clever manipulation, and Ralph's interest so deepened that he threw off his coat and cuffs and became absorbed in watching his adversary.

Ralph allowed Ralph to win, and kept up a flutter of talk. At 5 o'clock they left the place. Suddenly Ralph halted upon the public street.

"Shucks," he exclaimed. "I left my cuffs in the back seat at the bit third half."

His face was grave and anxious all the time later while he sat conversing with Eunice or listening to her piano playing at the Martin home. As he arose to leave she looked appealingly into his face.

"Terhune," she said, "what is troubling you this evening? Something, I know. Won't you tell me what it is?"

He told Eunice of the loss of his cuffs. She realized how sincerely he grieved the loss of her first gift to him. "I have offered a liberal reward at the bazaar hall for their recovery," said Ralph.

He did not tell her of the safe combination which he had scribbled on one of the cuffs. For the life of him he could not recall those numerals.

This put him in a state of anxiety and to some decided inconvenience. Fortunately no business came in that required reference to the contents of the safe, but large amounts were paid and these Ralph locked up in a strong box.

Mr. Martin returned at the end of ten days. He looked surprised when Ralph made his report. He opened the safe. Then he turned upon his bookkeeper with a dark, suspicious face.

"I left a package containing twelve hundred in cash in this safe when I went away, and it is gone," he said, sat down grimly, wrote out a check for a month's salary and added: "Terhune, you are discharged."

Ralph was given no opportunity to explain.

Two days later Peale, borrowed a thousand dollars on a note from a banker. Two days still later Martin learned that the note was a forgery. He began an investigation. At its termination he was satisfied that his fugitive relative was a conscienceless swindler.

Just after the sight of Beale, however, Eunice came to him with flaming eyes.

"Papa," she said, "I want you to send for Mr. Terhune at once—and make some atonement for misjudging him so cruelly."

"What do you mean—" began her father.

"This: I can prove who opened that safe," said Eunice placed before him a pair of cuffs and a card covered with figures.

The maid found these in the waste basket in cleaning the room that Mr. Beale occupied, said Eunice. "The cuffs he stole from Ralph, the card shows how he distributed that missing twelve hundred dollars."

Within the hour Ralph Terhune was restored to his old position—and a new one—as prospective son-in-law of John Martin.

THE CLOWNS MADE FUN FOR ALL

On some of the Forester's Clown ball game does not fully rate that the game last Sunday amounted to much but the entertainment was great. The Foresters were very much out of their usual form and the Clowns were right at themselves and certainly walloped our home boys. Perhaps the clown's yodels upon the diamond were so laughable that our boys could not get set and those clowns not only made the spectators active in the side but the players as well. Morelli's team of masqueraders were not only real clowns but real players and it would have taken a real professional team to have beaten them.

Sunday Post of Los Angeles numbers 400 and there are three other Posts. There was a big turn-out on Memorial day. Fine exercises at the Boys' Institute. I marched in the parade with the veterans some of them over 60 years old. Large numbers of the old boys come to Southern California to spend their remaining days. Many live at the Soldiers' Home, a most beautiful place on high grounds within a few minutes ride of the ocean and near the Santa Monica mountains. Please tell the boys I have not forgotten them.

Yours very truly,
