IT'S THE BIGGEST FAIR YET HELD

The sixth annual Northville Wayne County Fair opened yesterday morning under very happy auspices. The weather conditions could scarcely have been more inviting and the exhibits in all departments were tending the efforts of all superintendents to care for them. Additional space was provided in nearly all departments on Tuesday to accommodate the displays as they came pouring in from all directions. The concession space is filled and every nook about the grounds is occupied with something.

The fruit exhibit is the largest and best ever seen here and but few fairs in the state have ever exceeded our show in this department this year. The displays are arranged most attractively and is worth your time for a visit. The stock department has a wonderful show this year and the poultry house and the dog tent have exhibits that will thoroughly enjoy.

The baby show on Wednesday attracted a great deal of attention and the number of babies brought it far exceeded that of any previous year. The auto exhibit is large and is well displayed and auto fans will have a real feast giving the new models the once over this week.

FAIR NOTES.

The U Girls will be glad to serve you lunch at their booth.

The Baptist ladies are serving good meals under the grandstand.

Do not fail to visit the King's Daughters' booth. Everybody is wearing a King's Daughters' badge this week.

The new poultry building is a most attractive place and the exhibits so well arranged by E. A. Fuller and G. E. Richardson are attracting a great deal of attention.

The tents were all erected Saturday, and some of them were being filled Sunday. A number of the concessions also arrived Sunday and put up their stands and lights on Sunday.

The American Legion is running a refreshment stand and the "boys" will appreciate your patronage.

The ball game to day ought to draw a large crowd. The two winning teams will decide the contest this afternoon.

Secretary Smith and his force were on hand early Monday morning and many entries were received during the day.

Everybody ought to enjoy a ride this year. There are plenty of them on the grounds and there are some thrills among them.

McGraw, G. Hills, and E. C. Hinckley have a booth at which they are surveying hot lunches.

The ladies of the Salem Congregational church again, hand again this year find are serving lunches to a lot of people.

Floyd G. Sharer has a very attractive display of electrical appliances and fixtures in the main building.

Schaefer Bros. have a handsome display of furniture and rugs in the main building.

The Main Street Garage, local agents for the Gray and Duran cars, had a display at the fair and their cars attracted many visitors.

The exhibit by the Northville schools is worthy of your inspection. You will find it in the woman's building adjoining the antique exhibit.

The Wayne County Institution at Eloise has sent a most unique and interesting exhibit in the agricultural hall in which a great array of baskets made by the inmates and some articles of furniture are shown. In the woman's department are also a number of pieces of needle work done by the women there.

The Wayne County Library has an attractive booth in the woman's building and young women in attendance are explaining daily the aims and objects of the library.

Mrs. C. Wolfe & Son have a very attractive display of pianos and Edison talking machines in the main hall.

The Michigan State Telephone Co. has one of the most attractive displays in the main building in connection with its "pay" telephone booths.

Schrader Brothers have an attractive exhibit of furniture and rugs.

Space in all the buildings was sold out Tuesday night, and superintendents were wondering what they would have done without the new buildings.

Friday and Saturday's races promise to be exciting and hotly contested. There is a large field of horses here.

The Civic Community Club and the Livonia Community Club have very attractive displays in the agricultural building. The Detroit House of Correction Farm also has a good exhibit of vegetables and fruit.

C. D. Kilgour, the clothier, has an attractive exhibit in the main hall where he will be glad to meet his customers and friends.

The Detroit Tuberculosis Society and the Sanitorium management have a generous space in the main hall.

Messrs. E. J. VerDuine and Harry Rakeman certainly knew how to arrange a fruit display.

Ralph Carr, county agent, and Mr.

Wagner, boys and girls club superintendent, worked hard to make the agricultural display attractive, and they succeeded admirably considering the crowded condition of the space available.

TWAS ARMY AND NAVY NIGHT.

Northville Lodge, F. & A. M. observed army and navy night at the meeting Monday afternoon and extending the occasion being explained in honor of the initiation of five ex-servicemen into the mysteries of the Master Mason degree.

Officers and members of Army and Navy Lodge, No.

11, of Detroit, were the special guests and many other ex-soldiers were present also, the Civil War, Spanish-American War and the Great War war having its representatives present.

The soldier-brothers were attired in their uniforms where it was possible, and when the uniform was brought out and dusted off a bit it was found to be just a little too tight in a places in a number of instances.

The first supper was conferred upon the individuals during the afternoon and at seven o'clock a chicken dinner was served the visitors and the tables had to be re-set to accommodate all who were present to enjoy the meal.

After the first table had been served the guests were formally welcomed by Brother E. E. Brown and the greetings were responded to by the Senior Warden of Ash and Navy Lodge.

The piano orchestra furnished music before dinner and while the meal was being served Wayne VanDyne favored the company with a vocal solo. It was after midnight before the works of the evening had been completed and the last night was said

To be the most successful and the most pleasant night was said.

The exterior of the Masonic building was appropriately decorated for the occasion with Old Glory and in the concluded and short night was said the Duke of Marlborough flags were used.

In all 40 lodges were represented by the visitors.

FORMERLY RESIDED IN NORTHVILLE.

Thomas Shaw, mention of whose death and burial was made last week, was a resident of Northville for a number of years, having been from Big Rapids in 1908 and remaining eight years.

During his residence here he took an active interest in the affairs of the G. A. R. and the Masonic fraternity and he was held in high esteem by his comrades and brothers.

While a resident of Big Rapids he was a member of the city council and later served as court clerk and probation officer.

During the Civil War he served as chief bugler under General Oliver in the Sixth Michigan Cavalry.

He was a brother of Dr.

Frank Shaw, formerly head of the National W. C. T. U. and who was also prominent in woman suffrage activities for many years.

Mr. Shaw had reached the age of 90 years when death claimed him.

Besides his wife he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. S. N. Carlisle of this place.

Interment took place in the Verber's cemetery, the Knights Templar having charge of the services at the grave. Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon.

BASE BALL NOTES.

The Forester Ball team will travel to Monroe next Sunday and play the star team of that city. The Monroe club has lost but a few games this season and the Northville boys will be strengthened some to meet them.

It is just fifty one miles from Northville to Monroe connected all the distance by cement road through Belleville, New Boston, Rockwood and Old Port.

A fine drive along the Huron river for the fans who will accompany the ball team.

The Plymouth team were defeated by the Northville Foresters last Sunday, the score being eleven to five.

It is reported that both clubs played rather ragged ball here on the diamond that is almost perfect after the remodeling.

Sunday, October 8th, and October 15th, both games to be played here,

FORD TO MAKE

TIPLERS AND BOOTLEGGER'S CANNOT CONTINUE IN THE EMPLOY OF THE FORD MOTOR COMPANY

Tiplers and bootleggers will find but little comfort in an order recently issued by the Ford Motor Company to the effect that the company would wage aggressive war against the use of intoxicants among its tens of thousands of employees.

Information in the hands of the company's agents that federal and state authorities have been only partly successful in enforcing prohibition, and the production of intoxicants in Highland Park and Dearborn, reveals the two cities where the Ford plants are located. Now, so far as the company's employees are concerned, Company vs. itself enforces its eighteenth amendment.

The nod as will be seen is simple but full—the order of intoxicants on a workman's breath, the possession of any form of intoxicants on his person or in his home will be cause for discharge.

Henry Ford is much in earnest about the matter. Of late there has come to his attention several flagrant cases of stills in operation, sales of liquor, and general laxity of regulation enforcement on the part of the county, state and federal authorities.

In several cases liquor carried into the shops has resulted in accidents.

One workman died after he drank a concoction bought near the Rouge plant. Another, driving an automobile under the influence of liquor, caused a series of traffic accidents.

Men working for Ford have found it possible to purchase, almost openly,

raw liquor made from corn raisins and other mesh when a store's brew of the flats.

This has gone too far. Mr. Ford has declared, "and we're going to end

it." The first correspondence to the South

Lyon Herald has the following to say:

"Watch us, cut them come."

Frank Macomber has something to talk about.

"Observe that for a hen to lay an egg every other day is perfectly normal and nothing to crow about. We all admit this is a little too soon, however, and it is premature. Now look at this. The order of beer wine or liquor on his breath or to taste any of these in-more than three days is one which has never been met before. Bring him along the eighteenth amendment to see graduation, says EVERETT, and an exemption is a part of the fundamental law of his country. It was meant to be enforced." Politics has interfered with the enforcement of Prohibition in Northville.

But so far as our dear chickens are concerned, it's going to be enforced to the teeth.

I have always been opposed to all forms of intoxicants beer, wine and liquor never did anybody any good—and have caused incalculable misery

in the world.

So far as our plants are connerned, it's going to be enforced to the teeth.

Preliminary plans are now under certified, we're going to stamp out this business. If the government hasn't enough men to do it, we have, and they should be warning to those making intoxicants and selling them to our men—and to our men themselves—that we will not tolerate present conditions any longer."

WATERFORD MAN WAYLAID.

One night last week James Heaney, a farmer living at Waterford, was waylaid by some one in his barn yard while engaged in putting away his buggy and horse. Mr. Heaney's assailant struck him over the head with a broken or short-handled fork and rifled his pockets, taking therefrom a check and a few dollars in change. In the struggle Mr. Heaney claimed to have recognized the fellow who had attacked him and later in the evening he swore out a warrant for the arrest of David Tolls, a farm laborer residing west of Northville.

Tolls was able to furnish bonds when arraigned before Justice Baker and he was released and having pleaded not guilty his hearing was set for Tuesday afternoon.

A day or so after Tolls' arrest a stranger to Mr. Trebil, the grocer, went to his store and after purchasing a lot of goods rendered a check in payment. The check did not have enough to cover the balance, due to the man having paid for the groceries.

The man stated that he would call in the balance on the following day.

In the meantime, however, he became ill and died in the hospital and the check was never cashed.

Mr. Trebil, who is a grocer, was unable to identify any of the men he saw in the store.

He said he had a check for $100 which he had given to Mr. Heaney.

At the hearing Tuesday afternoon

Tolls was bound over to the circuit court for trial.

HOW MUCH DOES

PARENTHAGE COUNT?

Speak of cattle and most minds will think of blooded stock—a long line of purely bred animals.

Speak of horses and the hearer thinks of racers that are famous—winners on many courses—animals that made great names for themselves because they had great fathers and mothers.

Think of any other thoroughbred animal and it is parentage that counts.

John—the Baptist—was a great man—his words and work hit hard today, 2,000 years after he is dead.

That man was born in a good home—had sound healthy body

a vigorous mind—had a teachable spirit. He was a thoroughbred man.

Worthy parenthood is the demand of today. Shame on the folks who think any other way.

WORLD'S RECORD SPECTACLE FOR THREE DAYS DURING NATIONAL AIRPLANE RACES AT MT.
CLIMENS.

Unprecedented preparations to meet emergencies have been made for the National Airplane Races which will be held at Selfridge Field, Mt. Clemens, October 12th, 13th and 14th according to officials of the Detroit Aviation Society which is sponsoring the events with the assistance of the War and Navy Departments.

Due to the terrific speed and extremely low altitude which the competing planes will maintain during the three days of racing and aerial exhibition flying, extraordinary precautions have been made to afford immediate medical and hospital facilities in case of accidents. Besides the staff of Army, Navy and Marine Corps surgeons, hospital doctors and nurses detailed to Selfridge Field, a complete staff of specialists is being organized by Dr. Angus McLean of Detroit. The field and ambulance service will not only care for the pilots of the 150 airplanes participating in the meet, but will supervise the sanitary and health conditions on the great reservation lands made available to receive what is considered predicted to be the greatest gathering in the history of outdoor sports in America.

ACCUSED HERRIN MINERS GET BAIL

26 BUSINESS MEN RAISE $3,000,000
BONDS FOR ACCUSED IN ILLINOIS MASSACRE

35 FREED, EIGHT DENIED BAIL

Expected That Cases Will Be Tried
Late in October, Judge Hart
Well to President

Marion, Ill.—An unmistakable demonstration of the power of the miners' union in Williamson county and the sympathy with which the men accused of murder in the Herrin riots are held by a responsible portion of the community, was staged in the court-house here Monday afternoon when 35 of the defendants were arraigned and their bonds guaranteed by men worth in the aggregate $1,000,000.

For days a committee of miners headed by Mayor A. T. Pace, of Huron, a member of the union, has been making the rounds of the merchants and bankers seeking sureties for the prisoners on the plea that would show who stood with the union in this trouble. The response Monday when defendants were lined up before Judge D. T. Hartwell, was impressive, with 35 men, including most of Herrin's business community, stepping forward. They offered bonds to the extent of $1,000,000. Some of the sureties are worth little, others are millionaires.

An agreement was reached by two attorneys, ratified by the court, in which eight men were held until able six were given freedom on $20,000 bonds each, 20 more were bonded at $10,000 each and 18 at $5,000 each. In condition they are out on bonds at $1,000, on rioting charge.

At the show-up in court, 23 of the 74 persons indicted were unaccounted for. These include seven indicted for murder. The date of the trial it is believed, will be set for the latter part of October and a special court set up Marion. Judge Hartwell announces he will preside at the first trial at least.

Veterans to Exchange Reminiscences
At National Encampment

Des Moines, Ia.—With three days of reunions, reminiscences, parades and camp fires ahead of them before they settle down to the transaction of official business on Thursday, the Veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic and the men and women of auxiliary and allied organizations meeting here for the fifty-sixth annual G. A. R. national encampment Monday had taken complete possession of the city.

Seasoned observers of the encampments of recent years predicted that this year's gathering would bring to Des Moines more than 20,000 Grand Army men and 50,000 members of auxiliary orders.

MARGERY MAE THORNTON

Stargers, Mae Thornton, whose funeral was held from the Northville N. E. church on Thursday of last week, was born on the 20th day of May, 1897, at the old Thornton farm in Northville and lived the earlier part of her life in Northville. She was united in marriage to Howard Edmundson of Perry, Iowa, on the eighth day of July, 1918, and lived in Adrian, Mich., where she passed away, leaving a little son, William Howard. She was laid to rest in Rural Hill cemetery by the side of her mother, who had gone before.

Miss Jeanne, notable success at the was last May by the acquisition of the lines of the D. U. R. a clause was inserted in the contract to allow the company to operate its interurban system to the downtown district paying to the city a stipulated sum per car mile. This clause provided that the city or company could terminate the arrangement by giving two years' notice. The D. U. R. will now be given that notice.

We do not believe the mayor or his commission dare to carry out that threat, but it will be a good thing for the small towns and cities surrounding Detroit, if they do, judging from purely a business standpoint. If the cars are not permitted to enter the city many people will find it convenient to do their shopping at home and thus the trade of Detroit's merchants will be cut off. Pontiac, Anson, Arbor

Jackson, Ypsilanti, and many of the smaller towns will benefit by this arrangement. It may take some time for the business firms of Detroit to awaken to the fact, but they will find the mayor is planning to do them a very great injustice.

NEW PHILHARMONIC ARTISTS
