LAPHAM BANK TO BE RE-OPENED THURSDAY

On Thursday of next week the people of this community will be given an opportunity to inspect the handsome new home of the Lapham State Savings Bank, and it is the desire of the management of this strong growing institution that all avail themselves of the chance. Visitors will find that the interior of the building is as handsome and complete in all its appointments as any city bank, and we are very sure all will be delighted with the arrangement of the re-modelled bank.

The officers and directors of the bank will be on hand to extend a cordial welcome to all who may call and to show them through the building and to explain fully what the new arrangements will mean to the patrons of the bank and the general public. The day will be a sort of holiday and a very cordial welcome will be extended to all.

In May, 1907, when the first statement was called for by commissioners of banking, the total assets of the bank amounted to $45,392.98. Had a similar demand been made upon the bank on Monday of this week the total assets would have been more than one million dollars. To have made such a remarkable growth in fifteen years is a most gratifying record and clearly demonstrates that the people of this section have the utmost confidence in the men who are managing the affairs of this bank.

PASTOR AND FAMILY GIVEN HEARTY WELCOME.

On Thursday evening of last week Rev. and Mrs. William Richards and family were tendered a reception at the Methodist church by the members of the church and congregation and a few people from the other churches of the village. At seven o'clock a very appetizing dinner was served by the Epworth League of the church and the officers and members of the organization received many compliments for the manner in which the evening meal was prepared.

After all had been served the assemblage was called to order by C. A. Dolph, who officiated as chairman of the evening, and an interesting program was given. There were musical numbers by a male quartet composed of Messrs Charles Hutton, Ralph Richardson, Richard Kilgour and C. G. Masters and vocal solos by Miss June Filkins and Mr. Hutton, and each selection rendered was heartily applauded.

Words of greeting were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Richards by Mrs. F. S. Neal, representing the Ladies' Aid society, by W. D. Stark, representing the Sunday school, by Mrs. George Groth for the Epworth League, in which all pledged to the new pastor their loyalty and co-operation and expressed their pleasure because they had been sent to this field. Rev. Herbert Grimwood and Rev. E. V. Belles brought greetings from their respective churches and E. E. Brown spoke in behalf of the business interests of the village.

Both Mrs. Richards and Mr. Richards responded graciously to the cordial greetings extended and expressed their appreciation of the manner in which they had been received by the people of Northville.

Mrs. Richards was presented a basket of handsome chrysanthemums by the ladies of the church and a very pretty potted plant by Mrs. Benedict of the greenhouse.

A prayer by Mr. Dolph while the guests remained standing closed the delightful program and good night was said.

METHODIST LADIES TO SERVE CHICKEN PIE.

The Methodist ladies will serve their annual chicken pie supper in Forester hall, at 5:00 o'clock next Wednesday evening, November 15th, until all are served.

Besides the chicken pie there will be mashed potatoes, cabbage salad, cranberry sauce, pickles, rolls, coffee, pumpkin pie and cheese.

This is a dandy supper (or dinner) and the cost is only 50 cents. Everybody invited.

Anyone desiring a supper served at home must bring their own dishes.

A bazaar will also be held during the afternoon and evening and many useful and appropriate articles will be offered for sale.

Mrs. Henry German, whose condition was thought to be improving until Tuesday, was not so well yesterday.

PROSECUTING ATTY MAKES EXPLANATION

TELLS WHY BOSTWICK CASE WAS DISMISSED—NOT THE FAULT OF HIS OFFICE.

The editor of The Record received the following letter of explanation regarding the Bostwick case from Prosecuting Attorney Paul Voorhes, which we are pleased to publish:

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 4, 1922.

My Dear Sir:—My attention has been called to an article published in your paper dated October 27th, entitled "Eugene Bostwick Case Dismissed," in which serious reflections are cast upon the sincerity of this office and criticisms are made of the writer personally, and his assistants, which are wholly unwarranted. I am of the belief that the article in question was written by yourself, without full information in the matter, and I am therefore going fully into the facts involved, in order that you may be given a right view of the situation, and so that you can, in turn, correct the wrong impression which must have been created with your subscribers and readers.

In the particular case of The People against Eugene Bostwick, the facts are as follows:

The President of the Village of Northville, together with the village marshal came to this office on the 3rd day of July of this year. The writer was not here on that day, but he had been called on the Saturday before by Mr. Dolph, and arrangements made whereby Mr. Dolph and those with him were to see Mr. Toms, chief assistant prosecuting attorney, regarding the matter. When they arrived they were given as prompt attention as could be given understanding of course, that in a busy office such as ours one is, matters must be taken up in turn and disposed of in that way.

Mr. Toms went over the matter carefully with Mr. Dolph and the officers and an affidavit for search warrant and the search warrant itself were prepared here. At the time, it was stated to Mr. Toms that a man by the name of Peter Keller would swear to the affidavit for the search warrant, and the affidavit was drawn with just name inserted and a statement on his part to the effect that the dwelling house of one Eugene Bostwick was being used as a place of public resort and for the unlawful manufacture, sale and possession of intoxicating liquors, and that the grounds of his belief were as follows: "Deponent, on June 30th, 1922, saw intoxicating liquors, to-wit, whiskey, sold to deponent's father on said premises." This same allegation was inserted in the search warrant itself, and the papers left this office in that form.

When the officers arrived at the office of Mrs. Phoebe L. Patterson, justice of the peace at Plymouth, it developed that Peter Keller would not swear to the affidavit and therefore one Edward L. Horan did swear to the affidavit, but the same, without consultation with this office, was changed so that the grounds of belief of the said Edward L. Horan that the dwelling house of the said Eugene Bostwick was being used as a place of public resort, were changed to read as follows: "Deponent on June 30th, 1922 saw intoxicated men coming from said premises." This change was made by Mr. Dolph and is in his handwriting. A like change was made in the search warrant itself.

The officers made a search using as a basis the search warrant as altered, the defendant when arraigned by the justice of the peace at Plymouth waived examination, and after the return was made to the Circuit Court, a petition was filed by the attorney for the defendant, Bostwick, asking the court to declare the search and seizure as made as illegal and return the intoxicating liquors taken by virtue of said search, to the defendant. The matter was continued in order that this office might make a thorough investigation in the matter, which investigation resulted in our ascertaining that the changes as above set forth, had been made in the affidavit for the search warrant, and the on the motion to dismiss the search warrant was finally adjourned to the same day set for the trial of the major case against Bostwick. The court, before whom the matter was heard, ruled that an affidavit merely stating that "Deponent on June 30th, 1922 saw intoxicated men coming from said premises" was not sufficient as a basis for search of a private residence, stating that such men may have gone there intoxicated. In other words, that there was nothing to show that anyone had secured any intoxicating liquors at the dwelling house in question or that the same was used as a place of public resort. The court therefore granted the motion as made by the attorneys for Bostwick setting aside the search warrant and ordered the return of the liquor seized. Inasmuch as the only evidence against Bostwick was secured by virtue of the search warrant in question and this had been ruled to be illegal by the court, there was nothing that this office could do except to dismiss the case against Bostwick.

"You state in your paper 'Had Mr. Voorhes or his assistants who handled this case, been alive to their duty and responsibility, they would have discovered this mistake, and might have had it corrected before the case was called and a whole lot of Northville people humiliated.' From the above, you will see that the mistake as made was not a mistake made in this office, and that it had not been

Order Your Coal Now!

It will be a help to your local dealer if you will place your order for coal now, if you have not already done so. We are receiving some Soft Coal and Coke these days and hope to secure some Hard Coal soon, but it is scarce and hard to get.

Our advice is not to wait for Hard Coal. Let us put some Soft Coal in your bins so you will have some fuel when cold weather comes.

Like every other coal dealer we are doing our very best to supply our patrons, but the task has been a difficult one. Very little coal compared with former years, has been mined during the past few months, and now everybody wants coal.

LOAD OF BOOZE WAS WRECKED.

The 6 30 westbound M. C. R. R. passenger train played a cruel Halloween prank on a load of choice Canadian beer, on Tuesday night.

An auto load of the amber was struck at the Reckner road crossing. The back end of the truck was demolished, but the driver escaped into the night with his health. His load was scattered to the four winds, and his glass packages were shattered, their contents emptied into the ditch along the railroad track.

WIXOM FARMERS' CLUB MET WEDNESDAY.

The November meeting of the Wixom Farmers' Club was held at the home of Rev and Mrs. H. J. Thibout on Wednesday, the 8th.

The program was as follows: Song by the club, invocation, by Rev. H. J. Thibout, secretary report, business, election of delegate to attend the state association at Lansing; talk by Mrs. M. J. Furman; a continuation of her western trip; music by Mrs. Clarence Pettys; recitation by Mrs. J. W. Hopkins; flower fund collection; reading by Miss S. B. Fuller; question for discussion "How Can the Farmer Lessen the Cost of Production?" led by H. A. Smith followed by Charles Sturman; question box conducted by L. N. Bogart.

WOUNDED VETERAN RECOVERS MEMORY.

Mr. and Mrs. George Straw, summer residents of Lake Orion, who but a few months ago became resigned to their belief that their son, George, Jr., war, were startled recently, to receive a letter from him from Philadelphia, where he had just recovered from aphasia.

George was wounded in France and gassed and was sent to Philadelphia. As a result of his experiences he completely lost his memory, could not tell his name, his home or remember anything about his parents. As soon as his memory was restored by improving health, he wrote to his parents—Pontiac Press.

TWO WIFE DESERTERS SENT TO PRISON.

Wife desertion was responsible for two Pontiac men Monday, drawing from one to three years sentences in Jackson prison. Frank Fuhr and John Sullivan were before Judge Covert Monday morning for sentence, having several weeks ago pleaded guilty.

"There is too much of this wife desertion," remarked the court. "There is something wrong with a man who will go away and leave his children to the public care or to starve. The statute unfortunately makes the minimum a year. Otherwise I would make it six months."—Pontiac Press.

Handing out prison sentences to these fellows may make wife desertion unpopular in Oakland county.

ANNOUNCE DATE FOR M. A. C. FARMERS' WEEK.

Farmers Week, the annual winter round-up at the Michigan Agricultural college which has grown during recent years into the state's biggest agricultural conference, will be held from January 29 until February 2 this year, according to announcement made this week by Ashley M. Beridge, chairman of the committee in charge. That last year's record attendance of more than 5,000 for the week's meetings will be surpassed this winter, is the prediction of college authorities. More state agricultural associations and groups than ever before are scheduling their annual meetings for East Lansing during Farmers' Week, and all signs point to a huge attendance.

New features in the way of entertainment and instruction are being planned, every effort being made to make the occasion one which will appeal as strongly to those who have attended the gatherings before as to those who are attending their first Farmers Week. The old standbys, such as the mile-long agricultural parade the special farm exhibits, and a speaking program headlining some of the country's leading agricultural authorities, will, of course, be found on the program again.

The Michigan State Farm Bureau will head the list of farm associations, which will meet during Farmers Week. A dozen other leading state groups have also scheduled their meetings for the same dates, with more expected to follow suit during the next two months.

William Day Wilkinson was born in Northville, April 20th 1879. He attended the schools here until about 16 years of age and then went into the factory and became an expert wood lathe operator. Later he went to Detroit, for the Farran Organ Co. and after similar companies.

On December 27th, 1921, he was united in marriage with Miss Mabel Allen and to them were born two daughters, Marion and Dorothy.

Mr. Wilkinson has been ill for two years or more and finally wished to come to his mother's home for his remaining days.

Besides his wife and daughters, he leaves his mother, Mrs. Mary Wilkin son, two sisters, Miss Annie and Mrs. Gertrude Wade and three brothers, Samuel, Bert and Fred.

WHO SHALL REPLANT THE BRIDGE?

The officers of the Northville Automobile club have endeavored to secure an order from the Public Utilities Commission at Lansing compelling the Pere Marquette railway company to re-plant the overhead bridge, which crosses the company tracks on Griswold road in this village. Every since the bridge was erected the railway company has kept the structure in repair, but officials of the company now claim that under the provisions of a law passed relative to grade separations that the township or village or city having jurisdiction over the matter must keep the bridges in repair. The officers of the Auto club and the village officials contend that the railway company should make the necessary repairs.

The matter has finally reached a point where a hearing of the matter

FERRIS WINS A GREAT VICTORY

The result of Tuesday's election was really not much of a surprise for those who have been able to sense the drift of public opinion for the past few months. There has been a growing sentiment against the Harding administration for months especially since the coal situation became so acute and while people did not say much they thought a lot and decided to vote for a change. The victory of Mr. Ferris was conceded by many republicans in every part of the state, even among Mr. Townsend's most earnest supporters. Townsend was punished because it was believed he was in some mysterious way connected or that many of his supporters were connected with the Newberry campaign and no amount of argument could change their minds.

In Northville township, there were only 429 electors who took the trouble to go to the polls. The state and county republican candidates received large majorities except in the case of Senator Townsend, who tied with Mr. Ferris, each receiving 213 votes. Mr. Ferris had a majority of 14 in precinct No. 2, while Mr. Townsend received a majority of 14 in precinct No. 1.

George Walters, republican candidate for sheriff, received a handsome vote here, and was elected by a big majority.

The proposition to shift the interurban cars out of Detroit was defeated.

The democratic candidate for the state was defeated.

R. S. Copeland, who was elected United States senator from New York state, is well known to many in this section. For many years he was a resident of Ann Arbor.

The democrats elected governor in Ohio and the republicans elected their candidate for United States senator. The democrats carried all but 13 counties in Michigan for governor. Many of the strongest republican counties in the state voted for the democrats.

The democrats elected their entire ticket in Oakland county while the republicans carried the rest of the county.

Some people are trying to argue the point now whether Abraham Lincoln was "wet" or "dry." It is our guess that if he could have lived to have seen the evil effects of the open saloon in every section of his beloved country, he would have been one of the first to have led the fight to put the institutions out of business.

Could Do Without Her.

Jane's uncle was just married, and the child's mother was attempting to explain to her that Ruth the young bride, was no longer just fluff, but was now to be called "Auntie Ruth." The child was perplexed and seemed unable to grasp the change in family relationship. After a long pause she sighed and said "Never mind mother I have enough aunts now. I don't need her."

ARE YOU USING THE GOLDEN RULE?

That is the daily question for every person. You deal with folks every twenty-four hours.

You have an assortment of enemies—do you wish them harm—off the face of the earth—annihilated or will you deal generously with them—in fact love them?

The golden rule calls for a merciful spirit—the exercise of forbearance—the restraining of the impulse to crowd another to the wall. One cannot be ruthless and keep a merciful spirit.

The ancient formula warns us to omit unjust faultfinding—the better spirit—the suspicious us judger spirit—the suspicious judgment—the wholesale condemnation and replace them all with a well balanced consideration.

You can count on it that you are going to receive the kind of treatment that you pass out. Roll out snarls and growls and grunts and you will get like results. Radiate sunshine and good will and gladness and the day and the people will do likewise.

This question will be discussed Sunday at the
