THE GLOBE CO. IS RE-ORGANIZED

One of Northville's Substantial Industries Changes Its Corporate Name.
Growth Has Been Steady and Sure.

The corporate existence of the Globe Furniture Co., Ltd., expired late in December and a new company has been organized to take over the assets and good will of the old corporation. The new company will be called the Globe Furniture and Manufacturing Co. and will be capitalized at $75,000. Of this amount only $45,000 will be issued at this time as payment for the property and accounts of the former concern.

During the twenty years past the Globe Co. has gone along quietly, sometimes winning and sometimes losing, but always providing steady employment for those who were on its pay roll. Their product has gone to all parts of the country and has proven very acceptable. The backlog of the enterprise has been its church furniture department. To this has been added its well-known brand of upholstered lawnports and chairs and the automobile cushion springs. Both these lines have given a good account of themselves. Over a million and a half dollars has been brought into town in the past 20 years, and thirty per cent of it retained here as wages. The company was originally organized by Robert C. Yerkes, who is still the president and manager. The other officers are A. B. Ransom, vice-president; Spencer Clark, treasurer and Charles A. Dolph, secretary.

There are men employed in the Globe shops today who have been with the company since its inception and they will, doubtless, remain as long as their services are needed. The company has acquired an enviable reputation for high-grade work and because of this fact has received many "repeat" orders during the past twenty years. Northville is fortunate in having an institution of this kind, and we trust the next score of years may witness a steady and substantial increase in its business.

CLAUDE W. SEELEY DIED IN WEST BLOOMFIELD.

After an illness of only six days Claude W. Seeley, a highly respected young farmer of West Bloomfield township, succumbed to a severe attack of pneumonia, Wednesday evening, December 13th. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Seeley of Novi township, who, together with his sister, Ethel, and brothers Edward and Guy, survive him. He was born June 9th, 1885, and with the exception of a few years living on the Dingman farm west of Northville, his entire life was spent in the immediate vicinity of his home. On August 15th 1912, he was united in marriage to Lulu Dabrow, who, with their little son, Roy, remain to mourn their loss. His funeral was held at the home Saturday, December 16th, at 11 o'clock, with interment in the North Farmington cemetery. Rev. Blake of the Walled Lake M. E. church officiating. —Farmington Enterprise

SEWER WORK STOPPED UNTIL SPRING.

Work on Northville's new sewer system has been discontinued until next spring. The severe cold weather in December made construction work most disagreeable and expensive and it was decided to stop work of all kinds, both on the sewage disposal plant and on the sewers. The streets of the village are in a very bad condition in some sections of the village because of the settling of the sewer trenches and the Shullo Construction Co. has been notified to make needed repairs without delay. If the company fails to do so the village will make the necessary repairs and charge the expense to the company.

W. R. C. NOTES.

The annual installation of officers of the patriotic order of Northville, will be held on the evening of January 10th, at Forester Hall. A banquet will be served at six o'clock to members of the G. A. R.; American Legion, Women's Relief Corps and invited guest. Exercises of the evening will commence at 7:30 sharp with the few remaining veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic as the "guests of honor." Owing to its fast diminishing ranks the Post will hold no installation, the present officers in charge to hold command for another year.

Lloyd Green Post, American Legion, and Allen M. Harmon Woman's Relief Corps will each in turn install its officers for the ensuing year. Members of both organizations are requested to be present and help make this a most enjoyable evening. "In union there is strength," so let us stand united as separate branches of the great purpose to make this a year when loyalty to "God and Country" shall be our aim and Northville will know we honor and uphold "The Flag."

MICHIGAN SETS THE PACE.

The industrial year of 1922 comes to a close in Michigan with a greater number of men employed than at any period since the Great War. A survey of the factories and mills of Michigan shows that this number will be increased with the beginning of the New Year as the result of an existing nation-wide demand for finished products.

The closing year was somewhat in both agriculture and industry despite the depression brought on by the railroad shopmen's strike and the cessation of work in the coal mines. With these obstacles now out of the way the industries of Michigan are attaining new records in production each month in preparation for what many industrial leaders predict will be the best year in their history.

The automobile industry is speeding into 1923 with a momentum that is being felt down the line into many other industries, especially the steel, iron and lumber fields. —Michigan Manufacturer's Record

OAKLAND COUNTY FARM BUREAU PROSPEROUS.

The year 1922 has been one of accomplishment for the Oakland County Farm Bureau and the local organizations affiliated with it, according to C. B. Cook, county farm agent.

During the 12 months just ended, Mr. Cook says that the co-operative phase of farm life has been mainly dealt with, and the 64 local co-operative organizations which are a part of the bureau have held 327 meetings, which have been attended by 15,216 persons. The community program has been urged and discussed in all of these meetings with excellent results, he says. Boys' and girls' farm clubs have also been pushed during the year with success. —Pontiac Press engagement... day night, is an event... for music-lovers... organization, now the only one of its kind in America devoted to... numbers one hundred people and now includes in its personnel many of the most distinguished European and American opera stars of the day... some from the Metropolitan Opera, New York; others from the Chicago Opera, a number from the great opera centers of the Old World... Among the foremost of these is Mme. Marie Rappold, late first dramatic soprano at the Metropolitan Opera, New York; Tamaki Miura, celebrated Japanese prima donna; Anna Fittz, late leading dramatic star with the Chicago Opera; Manuel Salazar, the rich-voiced Spanish tenor, now engaged with the Metropolitan, New York, but who comes to Detroit with the San Carlo this time as a "guest" artist; Josephine Lucchese, coloratura—many others whose names are synonymous with their achievements in the domain of song.

The truly great singers of last season's San Carlo forces have been retained, these including Mme. Stella Deyette the American mezzo soprano; Sofia Charlebois, lyric soprano; Anita Khnova, contralto; Romeo Bosgacci, the Italian dramatic tenor; Mario Valle, baritone, and those two brilliant basses, Pietro DeBiasi and Natale Cervi. The conductors are Carlo Peroni and Aldo Franchetti.

There will be nine different productions. Sunday night's offering is Verdi's popular "Il Trovatore," which will be sumptuously staged, and produced with a most eminent cast of principals including Mmes. Rappold and DeMette, and Messrs. Salazar, Richard Bonelli, noted Italian baritone, and the two first basses, Peroni will conduct.

The operas for the remainder of the week are as follows: Monday evening, Madame Butterfly, with Mme. Miura; Tuesday, La Boheme, with Mme. Fittz; Wednesday, Mat. Lucia, with Mme. Lucchese, Wednesday evening, Aida, with Mme. Rappold and Salazar; Thursday, Faust, with Mme. Charlebois; Friday, Carmen, with Mme. DeMette; Saturday Matinee, Jewels of the Madonna, with Mme. LICENSE TIME EXTENDED

Time for securing 1923 licenses for automobiles was extended to February 1st, by Secretary of State Chas. DeLand, Friday. His action was taken in view of the fact that thousands of motorists failed to secure certificates of title, which must be obtained before licensees will be issued, and would have been unable to secure new plates for weeks after the first of the year.

Following a conference with Governor Groesbeck, Mr. DeLand issued the following statement:

"In view of the unprecedented number of motor vehicles in Michigan this year, approximately 600,000, and the fact that each application for automobile license must be accompanied by proper certificate of title showing ownership of the car in the name of person to whom license is issued, which has necessarily made the issuing of licenses slower than in former years. I recommend and request of all sheriffs, chiefs of police and law enforcing officers throughout Michigan, that for no arrests of automobile owners for not displaying 1923 license tags be made until after February 1st, 1923.

"At this time there is no reason why every automobile owner in Michigan should not have a proper certificate of title and license for his automobile, and no further extension of time will be granted by this department."

FORD MOTOR COMPANY HAS BIG EXPANSION PLANS.

Henry Ford's decision to construct a 6,000,000 plant near Chicago for the building of automobile bodies and assemblies of automobiles is only a step in a gigantic program on the part of the Ford Motor company "that will rank as one of the greatest industrial developments the world ever has seen," it was stated at the Ford company offices in Detroit Friday by persons in authority.

"As long as Mr. Ford lives," it was said, "this expansion program is to go on. The fundamental idea back of the whole scheme is to create more jobs. As long as there is a possibility of putting more men at work, the Ford policy will be to build more plants."

It was pointed out that other development projects have been undertaken recently by the Ford company, including the start of a great industrial plant at New Orleans, a contemplated unit at St. Louis and water power development at St. Paul. Land along the river at St. Louis now is being condemned with the idea of placing a Ford plant or plants there, it was said.

Mr. Ford has no idea of withdrawing from Detroit, it was made clear. His interests in this city are to be the hub in a great wheel of industry that he eventually hopes will extend to many cities of the country.

In this connection, it was recalled, that the statement was made at the Ford offices some time ago to the effect that a corps of engineers and other experts in the employ of the Ford concern were on the lookout constantly for sites that might be adapted to the company's needs.

Water power and other sites are being scrutinized closely.

Coal mine properties are being examined. This is being done with the expansion idea always in mind, it was made known.

Asked how far the Ford development program might go, persons in authority at the company offices replied:

"God only knows that. Mr. Ford himself doesn't even know. He does feel, however, that as fast as he makes money he is morally bound to put that money back into business, to provide more families with incomes and to enhance the prosperity of the entire country. The Ford development will go on just as long as business conditions make it possible."

PLYMOUTH TO HAVE POULTRY SHOW.

The Plymouth poultry fanciers are planning for their fourth annual poultry show in that village, January 10, 11, 12, 13, 1923. Among the prizes to be competed for are sixteen beautiful silver trophy cups. The grand prize of the show, a most beautiful trophy cup, has been donated by the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce.

Anyone desiring entry blanks, premium lists, or any information regarding the coming show, please or write Wm. P. Wernett, secretary, Route 4, Plymouth.

OAKLAND TEACHERS TO HOLD INSTITUTE.

Arrangements are now being made for the Oakland County Teachers' Institute, which will be held in the High school auditorium, at Pontiac, February 2, with both day and evening sessions. Ray Morton Hardy, one of America's great speakers, will be the speaker of the day, unless the date conflicts with his other engagements. Cameron McLean, the Scotch baritone, of Detroit, will have charge of the musical program.—Pontiac Press.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

Monroe—Needle ice, forming in Lake Erie, at the source of the intake pipe from which this city gets its water supply, shut off the water December 13. Wells were resorted to for water in the homes.

Albion—Announcement was made last week of the gift of $10,000 to Albion college by S. S. Kresge, Detroit millionaire chain-store owner. The money will be used toward paying the current expenses at the college.

Bad Ake—Muriel Luedtke, 33, charged with killing her father, George Luedtke, was acquitted by a jury. It was charged that she cut her father's wrists in self-defense when he attacked her while intoxicated. The father died of death.

Lansing—According to figures in the secretary of state's office, approximately 35,000 automobiles have failed, to date, to obtain certificates of title for their cars. Unless these certificates are obtained and presented when application for 1923 license plates are made the application will be turned down.

Marquette—Howard Ruedge, state attorney general, and R. C. Scott, his assistant, of Lansing, arrived in Marquette to investigate the cause of the six fires which destroyed much property here recently and for which a $75,000 fire insurance policy was being investigated by them. He will make known his findings later.

Port Huron—A vote on a proposition to incorporate the village of Port Huron in the county clerk's office, reported that community desiring to take the village form of government. They will be passed on by the supervisors. A petition has been filed for a vote on annexation of more territory to Port Huron.

Traverse City—J. H. Hargen, clerk of the court, has made figures for the year public, showing that a total of 9,730 men and women appeared in that court during 1922 on charges of being drunk. This total is against 7,172 during 1921.

Former Assistant Secretary of War Accused of War Time Graft.

Washington—The indictment by Federal grand jury of Benedict Crowell, former assistant secretary of war, and other former war-time government officials in connection with cantonment construction, will be followed by prompt court action, it was stated by government officials.

The action of the Federal grand jury in indicting Crowell and his six fellow "conspirators," charging them with having "unlawfully and feloniously conspired to defraud the United States," was the result of more than 18 months of work by the Department of Justice in accumulating evidence calculated to prove that gross frauds had been perpetrated against the government during the great war emergency.

In addition to Crowell, who was president of the Crowell-Lundoff-Little company, and assistant secretary of war from November 11, 1917, until after the armistice, November 11, 1918, in which capacity he was a number of times, acting secretary of war, the other men indicted were: William A. Starratt, Morton C. Tuttle, Clements W. Lundoff, Clair Foster, John Q. McGibbons and James James A. Mears.

TURKS AGAIN MASSING TROOPS

Reported to Be Ready to Make Move On Constantinople.

Athens—Angered by the firm demands of the Allies, the Greek military preparations and the latter country's refusal of a "dishonorable peace," Turkish Nationalists have concentrated troops in preparation for an attack on Constantinople, Mosul and other strategic points, according to reports here Monday.

Besides the menacing moves toward the Moslem "holy city" and the great oil regions, the latter in principal dispute at Lausanne, the Kemalists plan a drive to converge toward the Bosphorus, unless the Greeks and Allies back down, it was said.

NEW STATE REGIME UNDER WAY

State Officers Elected in November Sworn in New Year's Day.

Lansing—The new Michigan State Government has gotten under way this week.

Gov. Alex. J. Groesbeck, and other state officers, all of whom won new terms in the November election, were sworn in New Year's Day, by Chief Justice Howard Weist. The ceremonies, which were simple, were held in the capitol.

NEW YEAR'S EVE "DRY" IN STATE

LARGER CITIES REPORT FEWEST LAW VIOLATIONS EVER RECORDED.

MANY VIOLENT DEATHS IN 1922

Year Just Closed Marked By Large Number of Accidental Killings in State's Metropolis.

Lansing—The "arm" of the law, hovering over the Up-State sections of Michigan, resulted in a "safe and sane" ushering in of the New Year of 1923.

Reports from Grand Rapids, Flint, Bay City, Saginaw, Jackson and other centers were that, outside of the usual round of festivities such as dances, house watch parties and roadhouse parties nothing happened that could be construed as a violation of prohibition laws, except Bay City and Flint. Raids were made on three homes in Bay City and 14 or 15 in Flint and eight were arrested in Flint.

The calmest, quietest introduction to a new year has ever been made in Detroit. The fear of Mr. Volstead and the loudly voiced defiance that permeated the downtown atmosphere up to Sunday night were conspicuous by their absence as the mystic hour of midnight drew near.

The threats of the police department, sheriff's office and Federal prohibition agents to have men in every downtown and county cafe, roadhouse and hotel, were not idle. Not only were the men present, but they stuck—and their presence was not unknown.

Many Violent Deaths in 1922

Detroit—Violent deaths to the number of 837 were recorded in Detroit and its environs in 1922, an increase over 1921 when the list totaled 797. The list in 1920 numbered 927, the highest in the history of Wayne county.

Deaths who ago died in recorded courts during 1922 exceeded the number during 1921 by an average of seven a day.

Charles W. Cassgrain, clerk of recorder's court, has made figures for the year public, showing that a total of 9,730 men and women appeared in that court during 1922 on charges of being drunk. This total is against 7,172 during 1921.

INTERESTING FACTS

106,327 Ford Cars and Trucks Retailed in November

Approximately the Same Number Scheduled for Delivery This Month.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN ?

This volume of deliveries to actual owners is entirely unprecedented for this time of the year—

It has taxed the manufacturing ability of the Ford plants working at full capacity—

It indicates a volume of business during the rapidly approaching months of "heavy demand" which will be far beyond the maximum of production schedule which the Ford Motor Company has set—

And that means a Ford shortage even more acute than the one which existed last spring and summer.

Dealers' stocks all over the country are low—there are no reserves to draw upon to meet the demands for delivery—

There is no way in which dealer reserves can be built up, as deliveries have been made to customers as fast as cars could be manufactured since last April.

The only way you can protect your desire to obtain prompt delivery of a Ford even at this time is to place your order immediately.

This emphasizes more strongly than anything we could possibly say the necessity of your making prompt arrangements with D. B. Bunn, your Ford dealer, for the listing of your order, particularly if you are contemplating the purchase of a Ford car or Truck for use this spring or summer.

We believe you are entitled to know these facts as they actually exist.

FORD BUYS $10,000,000 MINE

Coal Mining Lands in Kentucky Taken Over by Motor Company.

Boston—The Ford Motor Co. has acquired the coal lands approximately 28,000 acres; mining plant and equipment of the Pond Creek Coal Co. in Pike county, Kentucky, in a transaction involving approximately $10,000,000.

The Pond Creek Coal company's properties are situated in the eastern part of Kentucky, adjoining the states of Virginia and West Virginia. For the last two years the Ford Co. has purchased coal from this company for its plant in Detroit.

While the purchase price was not announced, President Davis of the Ford company announced that on final liquidation the net worth of each share of the company's stock would be $45. There are 212,920 shares of common stock.

Rumors that the Ford interests were attempting to obtain control of the Pond Creek company's properties, which were largely owned in Boston, had been current here for some time. The coal property is situated in a non-union mining field.

STATE BUDGET IS LOWERED

Action On Requests for Buildings However Is Left to Legislature.

Lansing, Mich.—A tentative budget, approved by Governor Groesbeck and the state administrative board, calls for appropriations from state tax funds of $33,453,067, for the biennial period, beginning July 1, 1923. While the figures represent a decrease of approximately $5,000,000, from the levy of approximately $38,000,000, for the current biennial period, they do not include large items for various institutions and departments, submitted to the legislature without recommendation by the administrative board.

The tentative budget recommends appropriations totalling $16,691,126 for the fiscal year 1923-24, and $16,761,941 for 1924-25.

More than $16,000,000 has been asked by the state institutions for building purposes. This included $7,277,000 for the University of Michigan. These items among others are left to the legislature for action.

LOWER RAIL RATE ON POTATOES

Decision By I. C. C. Gives Michigan Growers Reduction.

Washington—The Interstate Commerce commission has upheld the complaint of Michigan potato growers through a decision handed down in which the Akron, Canton & Youngstown Railway Co., et al., were ordered to suspend the existing high freight rates on potatoes in carloads from points in the lower peninsula of Michigan to destinations east of the Illinois-Indiana state line. The commission ordered the railroads to return to the old rate.

The case was brought against the carrier by Andrews Brothers, Attorney Clare J. Hall, of Grand Rapids, represented the complainant. Others who filed protests in conjunction with those set forth by Hall included the Michigan State Farm bureau, which was represented by C. C. Burdick.

DAVIS STARTS BOOZE CLEANUP

Down River District Raided By Federal Prohibition Agents.

Detroit—Prohibition Director James R. Davis made a cleanup of Wyandotte last week, seized all the hard liquor in sight, destroyed all the beer and locked up the proprietors or employees of about a dozen inns and soft drink places.

The raiders in automobiles, drove singly to a lonely spot near the Eureka road. Here they gathered, and at a signal raiding parties sped to various destinations.

Following the raid, Davis said that this was only the beginning of a general cleanup of the down river district.

Congressman Sidney Anderson of Minnesota, chairman of the Joint Congressional Commission of Agricultural Inquiry; Eugene Davenport, former dean of Agriculture at Illinois University and famous writer, Dr. G. F. Warren, nationally known farm management expert from Cornell University; Signora Agresti of Rome, Italy; Charles E. Snyder, editor of the Drovers Journal, Chicago, and President David Friday of M. A. C. are among the leading speakers who will address one or more of the general meetings at the big conference.

Thirty state farm associations and groups will meet at M. A. C. during Farmers Week. What Will You Do with the Twenty-Four Hours Called Sunday?

Is this day of more value than any other? Who ordered this particular day? Is the Sabbath day an arbitrary dictate of a Higher Power for making us work six days only?

Is a rest period for the human machine—mental and physical—of importance to the race, and was it appointed because there is a real commonsense reason?

Shall we divide the Sabbath day as other days whereby a portion shall be spent in refreshment and sleep, a portion for our usual avocation and a portion for the service of God and distressed fellow traveler?

Shall we extend the first two items and crowd the other out entirely? Is rest and pleasure and work the prime considerations in life?

Remember the Sabbath Day—says the commandment That covenant between God and the chosen people pointed out the fact that the Sabbath was known before Sinai—that the Creator designed the rest period for man and nature and that it is a necessity for humanity.

How use Sunday—thoughtlessly—heedlessly—uselessly—or—well come and discuss it with us

We have planned to make 1923 the best and biggest in the history of this store and we hope to reach our goal. If giving good service, supplying good, reliable goods at reasonable prices, giving the people what they want when they want it, will bring success then we shall succeed for that is our policy.

Our Baked Goods have established a name for themselves in this community and our Special Fresh Roasted Coffees are fast winning their way into public favor, while our Canned and Bottled Goods are recognized as representing the very best brands on the market.

C. A. McCullough, who severed his connections with the sheriff's office on January 1st, is enjoying a vacation. He has a number of good positions offered him and after spending a couple of weeks at home he will, doubtless, accept one of them.

Miss Eliza Mordock, teacher in Livonia district No. 2, gave a very successful entertainment on Friday before Christmas. The children were delighted when Santa Claus arrived, bringing each one a present. The evening was enjoyed by parents, teacher and children—Farmington Enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Eckles entertained their children and grandchildren at their home east of town, Christmas day. Seventeen guests were present and dinner was served at one o'clock. Yule-tide colors decorated the house and the day was pleasantly observed. Out of town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Shearer and son, Albert of Redford, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eckles of South Lyon—Plymouth Mail.

Whether one endorses all of Coue's teachings or not here are some pretty good suggestions—Bast slowly, never worry, look on the bright side of things, think sane and wholesome thoughts. If people would follow these suggestions a whole lot of sickness and bad health would be banished from this old world of ours.

Representative Milo N. Johnson was given the chairmanship of the important committee on roads and bridges at the opening of the legislature. He was also named as a member of a number of other committees. Mr. Johnson is now serving his third term and is held in high esteem by his colleagues.

Tom Green, who has been employed at the sanatorium left Northville very mysteriously Christmas morning, leaving behind his wife and two small children. Mr. and Mrs. George Washington Hill are being congratulated upon the birth of a son in their home 570 Park avenue, New York City, on Sunday, December 17th, 1922. NON-EXPANDED RATES TO SAVE "BOOTLEGGERS"

Mrs. Nancy Bradner's fight to save her chauffeur, Ray McCourtney, from going to prison as a bootlegger ended last Thursday, when he was taken to Michigan Reformatory at Ionia to serve a sentence of six months to one year. Following McCourtney's conviction in Lansing six months ago, Mrs. Bradner, Plymouth's wealthiest resident, financed an appeal to the State Supreme court. The court recently affirmed the conviction.—Detroit News

THREE MARRIAGES TO ONE DIVORCE IN OAKLAND.

There was considerable marrying in Oakland county during the year 1922, but the total number of marriage licenses issued by County Clerk W. Harry Cryderman could not come up to the bumper years which immediately followed the war. The year 1922 saw only 808 licenses and compared with 819 the year before. In 1919 they ran over 1,000, which shattered all records.

The divorce mill was busy during the past 12 months and a total of 261 bills of divorce were filed during that interval.—Pontiac Press

Detroit—Despite the imposition of jail sentences and heavy fines by city court judges to discourage careless and illegal driving by motorists, 45 more persons were killed in automobile accidents in 1922 than in 1921. A compilation of statistics for the year shows 186 persons, a majority of whom are children, were killed during the year in automobile accidents.

U.S. MOVES TOWARD WORLD CONFERENCE

PROBLEMS OF REPARATION NOW
CONCERNING AMERICAN
OFFICIALDOM.

SUGGESTION INFORMALLY MADE

Hughes Suggests Meeting in Speech
Before Historical Society—Borah
Withdraws Offer.

Washington—The official announcement of this government's program for meeting pressing problems confronting Europe and America was the climax of a series of highly important developments last week. Among them were:

1. Positive assurance given by Senators Lodge, Watson and McCormick that the administration was moving as decisively as possible toward an international economic conference.

2. Acting upon these assurances, Senator Borah withdrew his amendment to the naval appropriations bill requesting the president to call such a conference.

3. An address to the American historical society by Secretary of State Hughes in which he outlined America's proposal for a reparations survey to precede a possible world conference on economics.

4. White House announcement of America's willingness to participate officially in a settlement of the reparations questions through a delegation to be appointed by the president.

5. A further White House announcement that the president believes he, in his own authority, can take part in such a conference without further act of congress.

6. Refusal of the administration to have the proposed conference, sit in Washington since it is not empowered to discuss debt cancellation or any phase of the debt question save that of refunding.

Almost as soon as it was learned at the senate that the administration had concluded to confine its new foreign policy to the country and to the world, Senator Lodge, chairman of the foreign relations committee, took the floor to assure opponents of the measure the president was moving in the direction of a settlement of the reparations problem.

At the same time there were indications of willingness on the part of the senate to get behind the administration or at least to stand aside and permit a development of the new foreign policy without further consideration of measures that might embarrass or hinder the president.

The American proposals, outlined by the White House and by Secretary Hughes in New York, were laid out in detail before governments of Great Britain, France, Italy, Germany and Belgium.

TAKE HEART.

When the breezes blow contrary, and you're stranded on the beach where there isn't a sign of light-house, or a harbor, in yer reach.—When yer haversack is empty an' you can't produce a dime.—Remember, that we've all been there—many a time.

When you think yer lot is harder than yer mortal frame can stand. An' it's plainer every minit that you're runnin' out of sand.—It makes me want to cheer ye with a soul-spirin' rhyme.—Remember that we've all been there—many a time.

We got to have a spirit that is able to contend, if we'd reach the crown of glory that is jest around the bend.

There never was a mountain-top that courage couldn't climb.—Remember that we've all been there—many a time.

Thirty-three years ago on New Years day William Chafy and Elizabeth Barnett were united in marriage at Commerce, and for a number of years the anniversary has been the occasion of a very happy family reunion. This year proved no exception and on Monday their three sons, Messrs. Harley, Clarence and Glenn, all residents of this place, with their wives and two granddaughters, Mathilda and Doris Chafy, a daughter Mrs. Bessie Pomeroyville and her husband of Pontiac, and Mr. Chafy's mother, Mrs. Julia Chafy of Walled Lake, motored to the old home and spent the day in a most delightful manner. A beautiful dinner, visiting and merry making, filled the day to overflowing.

RECORD LIXERS PAY—TRY ONE. ADD CHEER TO THE EXTRA ATTIC ROOM

An extra room in the attic, which is used for a sewing room and occasionally for a sleeping room, was made ever so cheerful by a happy combination of ruffled curtains with a cretonne valance and tie-backs. A gray cretonne printed with large roses is used and the skirt box under this window is covered with plain gray combined with the flowered material. Gray braided rugs are used on the floor and several cast-off chairs from the living room with slip covers of cretonne give a homey look.

WHAT ABOUT NORTHVILLE'S FUTURE

Some Timely Suggestions Looking Toward Future Expansion of This Community—Something to Think About.

What will 1923 mean to Northville? That is the question that has been asked a great many times during the past week by every thoughtful citizen who is looking toward the future development and growth of this section. The beginning of the new year is an opportune time for Northville to be looking to its future. There is just about time enough to prepare for enlargement of the community if the public awakens to the need.

The future expansion of Detroit and the consequent increase of the suburban population will gradually effect Northville.

The next ten years will show a marked growth in all the territory surrounding the great cities, according to Mr. Bapson, the business expert. The time to plan for this future is at hand. Northville is now in a position where it needs to be done, and that should be considered in the following.

More modern dwellings for home owners and for rental purposes. People would come here if they could buy a home or rent one at reasonable rates. More pavements are needed, and especially on the streets which lead to the main highways. Provisions for wider streets in the newer sections of town and for the widening of some of those already laid out is one of the imperative needs. At least two parks in sections that will make them accessible to residents should be secured. One plot for this purpose is available at as low a price as will be possible.

A new hotel is one of the necessities for a growing town. It should be of sufficient size to transact trade and that would afford ample restaurant and banquet purposes. Such a hotel can be financed if the proper steps are taken.

A new city hall with auditorium and suitable offices for the various departments. The need is very apparent to those who have studied the case. There is no good place for the storage of tools and apparatus or of keeping the fire engine and equipment. Storage for records is also very necessary. A new hall could be built at a comparatively small outlay of public funds.

The water works system will need to be enlarged and extended as the territory of the town enlarges. Ways and means can be outlined now the steps are taken.

A new fire truck and equipment of various sorts would make a bad fire very near impossible. The water pressure is good when there is water in the reservoir, but it should be supplemented by a fire pump that will get the water to flames promptly. A chemical tank will do effective work and save many hundreds of dollars in water damage.

Hydrant's back of the stores should be put in without delay so that the business section can be more promptly protected in case of a fire should break out.

Additional school buildings will be a necessity within a comparatively short time.

Northville has a big future and every red blooded citizen wants to see the best things done. Let the best ideas prevail—let the spirit of team-work always govern and the result will be a steady gain—Citizen.
