Better Be Safe Than Sorry

In buying Furniture or Rugs it is always better to be sure you are getting just what you want, than to be sorry ever afterwards.

If you make your selections here you can see just what you are getting. You can examine the material, the workmanship, the design and pattern, and best of all you can satisfy yourself regarding the quality of the article you desire.

When you buy from a catalogue or a photograph you cannot do this and very often you are disappointed when the article you have selected is placed in your home.

Better buy here and have no regrets.

COULD A CHILD BE HAPPY IN YOUR HOME?

The Children's Aid Society, 71 West Warren, Detroit, Michigan, needs boarding homes for children of all ages in both town and country.

Requirements:

1. Good locality (convenient to street car if in country or on a paved road).
2. Good sanitary home conditions.
3. Ability to give intelligent care—to enter into the interests of the children.
4. A spirit of service for the rate of pay is only $5.00 for children under three years; $4.00 for older children (clothing and medical care supplied by the Society).

In addition there is a generous reward in the love of a little child and in the joy of service.

The Society is just now particularly in need of real homes where older boys and girls will find true friends.

G. A. FOX RESIGNS AS MANAGER OF GAS CO.

At the annual meeting of the Plymouth & Northville Gas Company held at Plymouth on Wednesday, C. A. Fox tendered his resignation as manager, and it is understood that he contemplates selling his interests in the company. A new manager will be selected within a few days. C. A. Dolph was elected president; Coelia Hamilton, vice-president; C. S. Filkins, secretary; and John Fisher, treasurer. The officers and directors will meet again next week to make further plans for the company.

SILAS WILL BE THERE.

Say, Silas," said Farmer Plowfield to his son, "I've been thinking, seeing you have been a pretty good boy all last summer and all this winter so far, and because we will be mighty busy next summer, that you might enjoy going to that country bowling tournament that Hank German has planned for next week. I'll like to go we will plan to get the chores all out of the way early so you can be on hand when the first ball goes rolling down the alley. After you have palled the cows, fed the calves, watered the pigs, put up the sheep, shut up the hens, gotten the turkeys off the roof of the barn, cleaned the stables, fed the horses, given the pigs some new straw, shut old Carlo in the barn, and finished all the other little jobs there are to do on the farm these quiet days, you may go. I know you'll have a good time because I remember one of them tournaments I attended when I was a young fellow. Better take along a little money, enough for a few hot dogs, some candy and soft drinks, but do not be foolish enough to take your roll, because them city fellows will bear watching. "I received a circular from Hank stating that the tournament would open next Monday afternoon and continue each afternoon and evening until Thursday, and then he will give the bowlers a few days rest and let them go to it again on Wednesday, the 31st and on Thursday, February 1st. Of course you cannot very well stay at the alleys all the time, because you'll have to tend to the chores, but as you get time you may go for all I care. It'll soon be spring and we will have to work like all git out."

DEMOLAY OFFICERS.

The following were elected by Demolay Chapter at the meeting held on Thursday evening, January 4th.

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS HELD ANNUAL MEETING.

Mizpah Circle of The King's Daughters held its annual meeting at the spacious new home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Lovewell on Tuesday evening. At six o'clock a bountiful dinner was enjoyed by upwards of 40 members who braved the severe cold and who were well-repaid for their labors. After the feast the annual meeting was held at which reports were submitted and officers were chosen for the ensuing year. The following officers were elected: Leader, Stella Stark; vice-leader, Mable Hills; secretary, Bertha White; assistant secretary, Louise Safford; treasurer, Alice Hinkley.

LET SCHOOLS REST—FERRIS.

(By the Associated Press).
Chicago, Dec. 30.—The United States seems to have "gone wild" over legislation, United States Senator-elect Woodbridge N. Ferris of Michigan, declared yesterday before the National Commercial Teachers' federation. Referring to what he termed the tendency on the part of the government to centralize education, he said "there is nothing in the country so in need of a rest" from legislation.

The trustees of the Baptist church will receive bids for the work of repairing, altering and painting and decorating the interior of their church. Plans and specifications may be seen at the Northville Record office.

A COMMUNITY BANQUET FOR FATHERS AND SONS

Northville will observe Father and Son week this year with a community banquet in addition to other festivities which will be announced later. Every father in the community—village and township—is urged to bring their son or sons, and every man who is not blessed with a son is urged to borrow one for the occasion. The banquet tickets will be on sale soon and will cost $1.00 for two—father and son. The men of the community are expected to buy the tickets and it is hoped they will enter heartily into the spirit of the occasion and assist in making the affair a success. In order that the committee having the matter in charge will be able to provide room for all who may desire to attend an advance sale of tickets will be made, a full announcement of which will be made next week.

PLYMOUTH'S POULTRY SHOW A SUCCESS.

One of the most successful poultry shows ever held in this section took place at Plymouth last week, opening on Wednesday and closing Saturday night. There were about 400 birds entered, with quality above the average. The display was so good that Judge Wise of the M. A. C. said they were the best lot of birds taken as a whole, he had judged this season. A number of silver cups were offered by the people of Plymouth and they certainly brought out a fine lot of birds, and when the prizes were awarded Northville received its share of them.

Among the Northville winners was E. H. Lapham with his Chicago grand champion Partridge Wyandottes, winning 1st on cock, 1st on hen, 2nd on hen, 1st cockerel, 1st and 2nd on pullets. Hugh L. Babbitt had a fine display of White Crested Black Polish Copping and received 1st on cock, 1st on hen, 2nd on hen, 1st on cockerel, and 1st and 2nd on pullets. Will Smith had good showing of Hamburgs and in hot competition received his share of the prizes. Peter Ely and Claude Ely made a fine display of their Brahmas, landing 1st cock and 1st hen.

The fight of the show was on White Plymouth Rocks with over 50 birds in the class. Zeller from Albion, Mich., came with a string of Detroit and Grand Rapids winners and joined hands with Oldenburg's good ones to clean up on A. E. Fuller. This was a neck-and-neck race with 22 birds each and when they were all through Mr. Fuller had just one trump card left which won for him the much sought for Chamber of Commerce cup for the best display in the show.

Mr. Fuller declares "hen fever" is not as bad as hay fever, even in the winter time.

COUNTRY SOBBUSTERS AND CITY SLICKERS.

That is a part title given by Harry German in his coming big country bowling tournament. In that he has undertaken and will succeed in getting some of the best bowlers of Detroit and the best bowlers from the suburbs and country in contest at the Northville bowling alley.

All entries are made and over 400 bowlers will be here either afternoon or night between January 22nd and February 3rd, contesting in five men, doubles and single teams.

Bowlers have entered from Monroe, Ypsilanti, Wyandotte, Plymouth, Redford, Northville, Farmington, Pontiac, Flint and several teams from Detroit. The Woodward Lady Bowlers of Detroit have also made entry and will bowl in Northville again. Their opponents next time will be the South Lyon team composed mostly of business men.

More seats or a bleacher will be placed in the alley so that no one will have to be turned away as happened the last time the lady bowlers were here. The program for the following afternoon and evening will be announced each night. On Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock the Northville Finngians will bowl the Ypsilanti team and the night program will find Harry German's Country Five contesting Al Hanna's Crows of Detroit. These two teams will surely make the pins fly and some big scores are looked for.

This tournament will be handled very much like the Detroit city tournament was run and it will set Northville out in front as the first country tournament of its kind yet held.

Free admission to the alleys.

This is thrift week—a splendid time to pay your subscription account, as well as all other accounts due you can.

DISTRICT INTEREST SEEKING HOME RULE BILL.

The county home rule proposal, made its biennial appearance in the senate last Wednesday, in the form of a joint resolution by Senator George M. Condon of Detroit, asking a constitutional amendment to be sent to the people at the 1923 election, giving counties of more than 150,000 population the right to abandon the present form of government and control their activities by a charter.

The proposed amendment, which failed to receive the consent of the last legislature, provides that, following the adoption of the amendment, the proposed form of government must be adopted by the people of the county and then presented to the state legislature for final ratification.

A bill similar to this one was presented to the legislature two years ago and was defeated by the county members of that body, and it is to be hoped enough votes can again be mustered at this session to put the proposition to sleep. If adopted the plan would apply only to Wayne and Kent counties, and we have never seen anything in the management of Wayne county that has led us to believe that the affairs of the whole county can be better managed from the court house, than they can by our present system of supervisors and township officers.

RESOLUTIONS.

In the death of Mrs. Jessie Ponstorf on December 25th, 1922, Mizpah Circle has lost one of its most devoted members and earnest workers. Through years of service as a daughter of the King, she has gone forth in His Name, ministering to the needs of the community, not simply in a perfunctory way of doing her duty as a member of an organization, but with a genuine personal sympathy which reached beyond all formal bounds and won for her the respect and love of those whose lives she touched, helped, and brightened.

We wish, therefore, as a Circle of The King's Daughters to express our appreciation for the service which she rendered and our keen sense of the loss we have sustained in her death. We pledge ourselves to hold sacred her memory and to endeavor in the same spirit which she manifested, to carry on the work so dear to her heart.

We wish to express to the loved ones who mourn her loss our appreciation of her life and our deep sympathy in their sorrow.

Having gone on she yet speaks and inspires to noble endeavor. May we all catch that inspiration and strive to make over lives a blessing in the Name of Him Whom we are and whom we serve.

Therefore, be it
RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be placed upon the records of Mizpah Circle, a copy printed in the local paper and a copy given to the bereaved family.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

Grand Rapids—Sipping from the foot of a four-story business block, John Smith 30 years old an employee of the Consumers Power company, was instantly killed.

Marquette—A decrease of 25 per cent in the death rate of Marquette, in 20 years is brought to light in the annual report of the city health officer, Charles P. Drury.

Kalamazoo—Joseph "Buckholts," 13 months old strangled to death, while his mother was dressing him. He began coughing and his mother put him through a convulsion, on a phlegm in his throat.

Lansing—William Cameron, local attorney, has signed his duties as bill drafter in the state legislative reference department. Mr. Cameron will draft bills for members of both house and senate.

Detroit—Secretary of State Charles J. DeLand has given full approval to the suggestion made by Judge Charles L. Barfoot of recorder's court that persons applying for driver's licenses be subjected to a psychopathic test.

Grand Rapids—John Rothenthaler, 45 years old, Alpine township farmer, was instantly killed when he fell on the head by a limb in his wood lot. The tree had become lodged against another tree but was released by the wind.

Ut. Clemens—The Business Men's association has taken up the matter of reducing the price of mineral baths here. Before the war the price was 70 cents but with general upward trend the charges were increased to $1 and promises to remain at that figure for some time to come.

Lansing—The Michigan State Farm Bureau has mailed questionnaires to its membership seeking information regarding the general attitude of the farmers of the state toward legislation pending and proposed. In the state legislature. The answers will shape the activities of bureau in supporting or opposing suggested laws.

Pontiac—The first of what is expected to develop into a series of rural fire companies has been started at Walled Lake. Numerous fire companies in the country, which is a farming and lake resort district, led to agitation for a fire department and a 350 gallon pumper has been purchased for use in the surrounding territory.

Lansing—H. K. Duff, executive secretary of the Michigan Securities Commission, and Samuel D. Pepper, deputy attorney general, are collaborating in drafting a bill designed to strengthen Michigan's Blue Sky Law by correcting the defects which have been revealed since the law, the second of its kind in the United States, went into effect in 1915.

Lansing—Participants in the Michigan state farm bureau 1922 wool pool have been paid off at the average net price of 54 1/2 cents a pound, for all grades of wool it was announced. The average price for the five best grades was 39 1/4 cents a pound. The average price paid producers by local wool buyers was 31 1/2 cents according to the bureau statement.

Mt. Clemens—Airmen from Selfridge daily are turning machine guns loose on targets on the ice of Tucker's bay. The airmen, flying the fastest type of pursuit planes in the army service are in the air one and one-half hours each morning in machine gun work as part of the regular curriculum of the first pursuit group in the fighting branch of the army air service.

Glenwood—All dental records have been broken in the belief of local practitioners, by the case of a daughter, born eight weeks ago, to Mr. and Mrs. Vennie Garvin. Shortly after birth, the child began cutting its teeth, until now it has six double teeth. Physicians declare the development of back teeth ahead of front teeth is more unusual than the development of any teeth at the infant's age.

Lansing—Termination of day-to-day prison labor contracts was given at a meeting of wardens and members of the prison board here. General Fred W. Green, of Ionia, who has held contracts for his factories at Ionia and Jackson for many years was present and offered to help the state get started in the furniture making business on its own account. Work of installing the machinery was ordered started at once.

Saginaw—The street car motor bus franchise, on which the people voted at the last election stands defeated. The result of the opinion announced by Circuit Judge Ernest A. Snow and Clarence M. Browne. The defeat of the franchise is the result of the incorrect initialing of ballots in the first and sixteenth wards, more than 1,000 ballots being technically void, due to the errors of inspectors, although the voters had marked them properly.

Lansing—The first bill to be reported out of committee this legislative session is House Bill No. 13, making it a misdemeanor to throw stones at railroad trains. The bill was introduced by Rep. Robert B. MacDonald, of Houghton, and grew out of labor troubles in one of the copper mines. Discharged workmen are alleged to have thrown stones, breaking windows in an engine cab. When a warrant was applied for it was found that under the present law it is legal to throw stones at everything but passenger cars.

POLICE ARREST 100 SUSPECTS

Authorities Making Crusade on Underworld in Effort to Find Perpetrators of Crime.

Detroit—Spurred to action by the ghastly murders of Abraham Fleischman, 63 years old, grazed a 39 1/2 St. Antoine street and his wife, Golda, 50, police Monday night engaged in one of the most sweeping crusades against the underworld in Detroit's history—a crusade aimed at crushing out a dangerous crime wave. One hundred prisoners were taken in the dawn before Tuesday morning.

The Fleischmans were seen in death with a heavy bullet wound in the head. The couple in the night cell, bloodied members, he said, "I saw look time to see if they were in the family, at the rear of the store, for hidden money."

When Sam P. Fry, a brother-in-law of the slain man entered the building shortly before noon Monday, he found the body of Fleischman in a pool of blood near the cellar at the rear part of the store. His head had been crushed almost to a pulp and his body crushed. His body was still in the high unconscious.

In the bed in the living apartment behind the store section of the building Mrs. Fleischman was found in her bed after head had been crushed in and she was in a high unconscious. The body was found in the room where the couple had been sleeping. The body was found in the room where the couple had been sleeping.

COAL PRICE I GLED, CHANCE

Commission Declares Both Operators and Dealers Are Profiteering.

Washington—The United States coal commission on Tuesday issued its first report to congress, the "profiteering by both operators and dealers is responsible for present high prices of bituminous and anthracite."

The commission made no recommendations with a view to stopping the unwarranted profit taking to which it referred, but announced that a "thorough examination of the profits of production and distribution, including the revenue derived from associated enterprises, is already under way."

FIND BODY OF DEAD BANDIT

Denver Mint Robbery Partly Solved By Bullet Riddled Corpse.

Denver, Col.—The slain man's body, whose frozen body was found Sunday night, seated in an automobile in a private garage, and regarded by police as the master mind of a desperate gang of criminals, was identified Monday as J. C. Sloan, of Casper, Wyoming. Ruggs, chief of Denver's police department, announced he was one of the men the police have sought since December 13 last when robbers made away with $200,000 in cash from a Federal Reserve bank truck in front of the mint, killing Charles T. Linton, a guard.

HUSBAND 15, SUED FOR DIVORCE

Unusual Case Started in Detroit—Wife, 19, Charges Desertion.

Detroit—Suit for divorce and temporary alimony was started Monday against 15-year-old James Albert Chadwick, by his 19-year-old wife, Mary E. Chadwick. She charges desertion and non-support.

The couple were married May 5, 1922. According to Mrs. Chadwick's attorneys, Chadwick gave his age as 19.

Attorneys say this is the first time in the legal history of Michigan that a 15-year-old boy has been sued for

The following was printed for benefit of the bowlers who appreciate the comedy connected with it:

The gal derved alleys may be better than you think, by hink. Or they may be worse than you expect, by heck. But what do you care. The city ginks and country gauks will bowl over the same alleys. The sweetest tempered, best footed artists whose hearts, minds and muscles are working in harmony will win anyhow.

Cy Haytedder bet Rube Plowfield three bushels of alfalfa that "Hank" German's tournament would be successful and an annual affair. The Northville city commission ruled out the bet. They declared that Cy was wagering on a sure thing.

The alleys will be like glass, only different. The pin boys will help kick the pins over for you—may be.

The scoreman will be as good a man as ever cracked a safe.

The foulman will be as foul as you want him. If the manager is asleep when you settle, slip your money in his north pocket.

But for all that, large apples will not be placed on top of the basket nor black suckers sold for trout.

City visitors wearing plug hats and overalls will be held on suspicion.

Farmers adorned in leather boots wearing buttonhole bouquets will be questioned.

The Bartenders' League has been discontinued until after the tournament.

The first lady who points out two bowlers who bowl exactly alike will be presented with a $100 gold piece.

Everything Points to The Greatest Spring Demand for Ford Products in Company's History

1,202,517 Ford Cars and Trucks were delivered to retail purchasers in the United States alone during 1922—Actual deliveries for last month greatly exceeded any previous December in the history of the Ford Motor Company.

It was the ninth consecutive month in which more than 100,000 Ford Cars and Trucks were delivered—keeping the Ford Plants working at capacity to meet dealer's requirements.

In many parts of the country dealers are already finding it necessary to specify later delivery dates on certain types because there are no reserve stocks to draw from.

Commercial users, business houses and farmers, anticipating their future requirements, are placing orders and taking delivery of Ford Cars, Trucks and Fordson Tractors to insure against delay.

Everything points to the biggest shortage of Ford Products this Spring that has ever existed.

We have given you these facts as they actually exist so that if you are planning to purchase a Ford Car, Truck or Tractor for use this Spring or Summer, you can list your order now and take advantage of D. B. BUNN'S first opportunity to make delivery.

Walled Lake Warbles.

On Saturday evening of this week a hard times dance will be given at the Walled Lake hotel.

Millford basket ball team recently defeated Walled Lake on the home floor by a score of 28 to 15.

On Tuesday afternoon at 2 30 the women of Walled Lake had the pleasure of hearing Miss Davis of Seattle, Wash., who gave a very interesting address in the M. E. church.

The Embroidery club held its annual meeting at the home of Mrs. Clarence Chaffy on Wednesday afternoon. At a previous meeting the members of the club voted to contribute $50 toward a fund to furnish the women's rest room in the new high school building.

Mrs. Charles Payne was a Northville visitor, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kherl visited in Detroit a few days last week.

Maebel Sessions visited her aunt and uncle in Northville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Dudley of Redford visited at the home of Levi Dudley last Sunday.

Miss Zola Smith and Albert Schroeder of Northville, and Miss Lillie Schroeder and Frank Schroeder called on H. Schroeder and family, Sunday.

At the meeting of the Federated Aid held at Mrs. Dwell Smith's last Thursday, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Judson Taylor; secretary, Mrs. George Roberts; treasurer, Mrs. Charles McLaren.

OUR EXPERIENCE.

Some months ago the Mission Band, At Mrs. Hulet's met and planned to earn some money somehow, some where.

In place of having bazaar or fair, But how to do it was the question, Till Mrs. Hazen made a suggestion. A sum be earned by every member Of three dollars or more by first of December.

Each wondered how she'd pay the "toll,"

Or what we'd do to reach the goal, For, to raise the quota by December Meant work for each and every member.

We then discussed it pro and con, And studied how it could be done. Each must report upon that date And her experience then relate.

One said "a contest!" that would do. Teams we must have and captains too, Who should take sides and choose her workers.

For surely there would be no shirkers. The president should her captains choose.

To work with teams to win or lose. She looked us over—then in sweetest notes.

My captains—well, Mylio and Coates. The captains looked along the line And each one chose her valiant nine.

Our colors should be pink and blue—By which we'd stand both staunch and true.

And strive with all our might and main—To do our bit and not complain.

With kindly feeling—keeping sweet, The losing side to give the eats.

For myself, I pondered long and pondered well, And said "I've nothing I can sell To swell my purse or make my pile But I'll get busy after awhile."

So forth to Effie Root's I went, To work and plan with good intent. Some work for all the blues to do The following day—with pay in view.

And on that day there was no "kicking." For there we feasted well on chicken. Then at the close of that bright day We were paid off by Effie Vae.

But each one thought it "beat the Dutch." As she had paid we thought too much, But she was satisfied—and we Were glad to get it. Don't you see?

My funds—as yet seemed somewhat shallow. So kept house a week for Ethel Salow And this laid by upon my pile With hopes for more to add ere while.

To get some goods I sent to Ward's, But when it came was much to large. So back to Ward's it quickly went, And soon "with thanks" my check they sent.

Then as I pondered o'er and o'er Methinks I'll add this to my store. A little quilting now and then. That added to my sum again.

One dollar more for an apron got. To add to what I now had thought Must be my all, the time was spent. So here's ten dollars, fifty cents.

Benefit May Be Almost Blown.

There is a gift that is almost a blow, and there is a kind word that is munificence; so much is there in the way of doing things.—A. Helps.

Small, but Powerful.

Germs are not little animals. They are tiny plants, the smallest living things known. They are sometimes called bacteria or microbes. You might have some idea of the size of a germ if you could take a grain of sand and split it into a million pieces. Of course, some germs are larger than others, but the largest cannot be seen without the aid of a powerful microscope.

Home of Building and Loans.

The first building and loan institution was organized in Philadelphia in 1831, and Philadelphia is today the greatest and wealthiest building association city in the United States. There are 2,200 in Philadelphia, with assets or resources upward of $500,000,000 and over 750,000 members. These associations were helpful in completing the purchase of close to 75,000 properties in Philadelphia last year alone.—Thrifty Magazine.

FRANCE DELAYS DEMAND FOR CASH

GERMANY GIVEN UNTIL JAN. 31 TO MEET PAYMENT OF REPARATIONS.

FURTHER SEIZURES EXPECTED

Troops Ready to Take Over Other Industrial Centers—Berlin Mobs Become Unruly.

Paris—France has taken a more lenient attitude with regard to expropriating cash reparations from Germany, but appears determined to seize additional territory in the Ruhr to insure delivery of coal.

Although the "official" reason is to give the French delegation more time in which to prepare new moratorium conditions, it is believed the increasing passive resistance by Germany to the French occupation of the Ruhr has much to do with it.

The situation is: The Reparations Commission voted to postpone until Jan. 31 Germany's next cash payment of 500,000,000 gold marks, so that in the meantime Premier Poincaré can secure assent of Belgium and Italy to his plan for a conditional moratorium.

The French propose to seize Bochum, site of Hugo Stinnes' great industrial plants in the Ruhr, so that additional mines will be brought within their control.

Mobs Yell, "Down With France."

Berlin—A monster demonstration was staged Sunday in front of the reichstag. Members of the mob attempted to break the police cordon which has been placed about the French embassy, shouting, "Down with France!" The crowds were repelled by the police only with the greatest difficulty.

The mob, which was numbered by the thousands, was practically beyond the control of the police, as it milled up and down the boulevards, and listened, cheering, to the speakers in front of the reichstag. Everywhere half masted flags were in evidence, a symbol of the "Fatherland mourning its invasion by hostile forces."

MOTORISTS ARE DELINQUENT

Nearly One-Third in State Have Not Applied for 1923 Licenses.

Lansing—Michigan motorists, who have accepted the 30-days' extension of time, announced by Secretary of State Charles J. Deland in the matter of 1923 automobile license plates, as an invitation to further procrastinate in applying for their licenses are out of luck.

Explaining the 30-day extension, which expires February 1, Mr. Deland declares the rush of applicants for licenses, during the closing days of 1922, was so great the department was literally swamped and required additional time to clean up 1922 business.

But the tardy motorist, who decided, then, to postpone making his application until the last few days of January faces the prospect of being without his car for several days. There will be no new extensions of time.

Approximately one-third of the 600,000 motorists of the state are still without their 1923 license plates.

MONROE FIGHTING SMALLPOX

Drastic Steps Taken to Check Epidemic in City and County.

Monroe, Mich.—State and township officers have taken steps in fighting the smallpox epidemic, which has raged here for some time.

Doctors Jacobs Kassam and Richard Kimpton, of U. of M. have been detailed by the department of hygiene and public health of the university to study the epidemic and assist in checking the disease. The economic loss sustained by Monroe citizens since the epidemic started has been fixed at $25,000, and will be much greater unless decisive means are taken.

Commencing with this week a systematic campaign has been instituted by state officials in the townships, and those refusing to be vaccinated are being reported to the authorities.

2 DEAD, 7 HURT, IN TRAIN WRECK

Pere Marquette Passenger Hits Freight Near Toledo.

Toledo, Ohio—Two men were killed, seven others injured and a dozen passengers suffered bruises, when a Pere Marquette passenger train crashed into the rear of a Pere Marquette freight train near here Saturday.

The dead are Charles Frederick, Saginaw, Mich., freight conductor. Clarence Mauley, Detroit, brakeman on the passenger.

The injured: Charles Brown, Saginaw, Mich., brakeman on freight; Walter Elliott, Saginaw, conductor of freight; Mrs. Amelia Marr, 31, of Highland Park; Stanley Ankoviak, Detroit, fireman on the passenger; F. T. Martin, Detroit, brakeman; W. S. Elton, Toledo, passenger; Henry Smith, 35, St. Marys, Ohio.

SHERIFF'S FORCE RAIDED GRAND RIVER INN AND TURNED GAMBLERS OUT.

Sheriff George A. Walters, accompanied by 20 deputies, armed with axes and riot guns, raided the Grand River Inn, at Grand River avenue and the Meyer road early Wednesday evening, and seized or broke up gambling paraphernalia said to be valued at $10,000. The second floor of the building, alleged to have been given over exclusively to gambling, was wrecked.

Benny Klock, former Detroit saloonist, who said he was a partner with "Doc" Brady and several other Detroiters in the ownership of the place was taken to the county jail for investigation.

Twenty-six men and three women were engaged in games of chance when the raiders entered according to Sheriff Walters. Deputies stationed at the various exits barred them escape. The raid, according to the sheriff, followed numerous complaints against the inn. The complaints alleged that games were nightly occurring at the place. One of them, according to the sheriff, asserted that a bus line, offering free transportation to the inn, was operated by Brady.

NORTHVILLE, MICH., JAN. 19, 1923

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Items taken from The Record files of 1897 for the week corresponding to this week.

Ezekiah Dingman has been granted a $6 pension.

Art Nichols was home from the Normal over Sunday.

P. W. Doelle has returned from Cleveland for a short visit.

Truman Stilson is the new telephone operator at Northville's central.

Mrs. C. C. Turner leaves tomorrow on her homeward trip for Jackson.

Jennie Leadbeater, who has been ill for the past week, is convalescing.

Miss Lucy Hawthorne was a guest of Mrs. E. M. Peck last Saturday.

Bruno Freydl was called to Vernon, Ohio, this week by the death of his father.

Mrs. W. H. Yerkes has as her guest, Mrs. I. A. Milne of New Brunswick, Canada.

The village election this year does not occur until March 14, the latest date possible.

Mrs. A. C. Northron was called to Ludington this week by the illness of her mother.

Miss Laura Andrews spent the latter part of the week with Florence Brown of Novi.

Mrs. Mary Murdock, whose illness was mentioned last week, died yesterday afternoon.

Oscar Murdock from the west is here. He was called by the serious illness of his mother.

Milt Brown is soon to give up the laundry business and will move on his father's farm near Novi and try his luck as a granger.

Mrs. George S. White of Jackson, is visiting her children, Mrs. E. N. Root and A. D. Brooks.

She is accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Arthur Dunlap of Ovid, N. Y.

The candidacy of Senator Fred M. Warner of Farmington for the nomination of secretary of state is warmly welcomed by the republicans of this part of Wayne county.

The sad news reached here Sunday of the death of Rev. George W. Hutton of Saginaw, formerly of Northville, where he preached in the M. E. church for three years.

With but one office at his command for a score of applicants, Postmaster-elect Hutton has for the past week been growing grey hairs and a bald head.

Mr. Hutton says that the applications, the recommendations and qualifications in each individual case were carefully considered and he finally selected Miss Jennie Barley as his assistant.

Miss Barley is a well-known Northville lady, and has a pleasing and obliging manner that wins her many friends.

The Record believes that this appointment of deputy postmaster will give general satisfaction to every citizen of the Northville office.

While skating on the Ambler pond last Sunday, Miss Lillian Sorot and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lyman had a narrow escape from drowning.

He got to near the edge of the thin ice and went through it.

Chumps of ice and has not yet been rescued.

Wood and Mr. Conroy who were nearby, seeing the danger, came to his rescue.

The two formed a hold on him with pike poles and Mr. Conroy, having flat attempted to reach the lad but the ice gave way and into the chilly stream he also went.

He finally got hold of Jerry with one hand then Wood and Kidney with the aid of their poles hauled them both out in safety with a result of nothing more serious than a chilly bath each.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES.

Rev. A. K. MacRea of Atlas, will preach next Sunday both morning and evening.

Mr. MacRea comes as a candidate for this pastorate. A good attendance is desired at both services.

Sunday school at the usual hour. Let's all be on hand.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES.

Sunday morning worship at 10:30, with sermon, "Turning Back."

Sunday school at 12:00. Epworth League at 6:30.

United evening services in the Presbyterian church at 7:30, with the University of Michigan Extension speakers. Everyone welcome.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES.

Next Sunday, January 21st, will be a big day. Plan to get all you can out of it.

Which means, of course that you must plan to put something into it also. Regular services in the morning.

At 10:30 o'clock we will talk about "John Three Sixteen Around the World."

The Sunday school at 12:00 offers its usual splendid opportunity for studying God's word with other people—mutual helpfulness in getting its truths. In the evening we are to have a group of young people from the U. of M., representing the Extension Service department of the young people's work. They will conduct the Christian Endeavor service at 6:30 and will also be given the full time of the evening service at 7:30. A Japanese student will speak of the history of Christianity in Japan. There will be special music and other features. It will be well worth your while to come. Come to the 6:30 meeting if you can. (If you're young you're expected to be there, of course) but—young or old—don't miss the 7:30 meeting.

The 8th annual banquet of the Westminster Guild will be held at the church parlors Monday, January 22nd, at 6:30 o'clock.

Northville School Notes.

The different classes of the High school are taking advantage of the fine sleighing for sleighride parties this week.

Monday evening the Juniors chaperoned by Mrs. Larkins and Miss Frances Yerkes, drove out to Russell and Harry Lykes.

Tuesday the Sophmores, chaperoned by Miss Dorothy Whipple and Miss Aletha Yerkes, had a sleighride party and Wednesday evening the Seniors, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Helfrich, had a very enjoyable party at Bloom's cottage at Walled Lake.

Mr. Winn, Mr. Ensign, Miss Whipple and Miss Aletha Yerkes also acted as chaperones.

Northville won her second debate of the season from Williamston by forfeit last Friday evening.

Williamston was scheduled to meet our team at this place, but cancelled the engagement.

A number of students, teachers and parents attended the Plymouth-Ypsilanti Normal High debate at Plymouth last Friday night.

Mr. Helfrich acted as one of the judges.

Emory VanValkenburgh, attended the funeral of his sister at Walled Lake last Sunday.

Harry Shafer and Harold Doelker took care of the school during his absence and Mr. Van reports he found everything in fine shape upon his return Monday morning.

The present semester ends one week from Friday, January 25th.

Examination in all departments of the High school will start Wednesday morning of next week.

Monday, January 29th will be registration for new classes, payment of fees, tuition, etc.

Teachers are now busy with a thorough review of work covered in anticipation of the coming examinations.

There will be a mid-year conference for teachers at the Normal College this (Friday and Saturday).

As this is not an institute our school will not be closed on Friday.

Our hot lunch club has been re-organized under the leadership of Mrs. Cooke.

The following officers have been elected: President, Alvina Staman; vice-president, Starr Northrop; secretary, Lottie Millard; treasurer, Harry Lyke.

The lunch room will be run on the same plan as heretofore—serving at least one hot dish each day for the benefit of all those who bring their lunch to school.

Miss Christ's pupils will give the next entertainment at the Sanitarium the last of the month.

Schedule of other entertainments which will be given for the benefit of those unfortunate children as follows: February—Miss Dubeau's room; March—Miss Parnalee's room and Miss Mrs. Zimmerman's room.

These programs will be supplemented from time to time with others.

The High School O. C. has been engaged to play for a Parent-Teacher meeting at Clarencerville this coming Saturday evening.

The Northville-Plymouth games at Plymouth last week Friday were two of the best games the two schools have had.

The "dope" before the boys' game was all for Plymouth but the game proved that everything can't be told from "dope."

Northville outplayed Plymouth during the whole game. Plymouth could hardly get hold of the ball although they did make quite a rally in the third quarter of the game, but it soon fell away and Northville held them down.

There were no outstanding "stars" on either team—they were both well balanced teams. The final score does not tell so much about the game as anyone would think.

It shows only the ability of the two teams for shooting baskets. That is Northville's weak point, but they are improving.

The final score was 17-14 in favor of the N. H. S. This year's team is due to be the fastest team on record at the Northville Hi.

The "dope" on the girls' game was not all one-sided before the game—as much could be found for Northville as for Plymouth.

They were as evenly matched as two teams could be, although Northville did out-play them a little, but sometimes the best team does not win.

The time was called at the end of the fourth quarter with Northville at the end of a 29-23 score.

The guards, Geraldine Young and Madeline Lauray, played a wonderful game and our pair of wonderful forwards, Helen VanAtta and Virginia Smith, stood out against the Plymouth guards. Our centers, Irene Thomson and Vivian Parmenter, are nothing to be laughed at.

WIXOM WHISPERINGS.

Walter Farley and sister-in-law Mrs. J. Farley of Holly, spent Saturday at the home of the latter's daughter, Mrs. Caris Allen.

Frank Sugden of Clarkston was a visitor at the home of his mother, Mrs. Alice Sine, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Banfield entertained their Sunday school class Friday evening.

School was closed this week to prevent, if possible, epidemic of scarlet fever.

Ezra Bryant was taken sick with the disease at school Thursday.

Mrs. D. Dwyer of Detroit spent Tuesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. VanWagoner.

TREES AND SHRUBS.

Are you thinking of planting shrubbery, trees, hedges or flowers this summer?

I have a complete list of all kinds of trees and shrubs, all guaranteed for one year, as well as several specials, such as hedges and vines that blossom all summer and green all year, odd and foreign plants that are unusual, beautiful and that do well in this climate, odd trees (such as weeping willows that can be grown in the yard and that touch the ground in one season), and started and grafted fruit trees that give an essentially good flavor to the fruit.

Grabbing Unearned Money From Dad
For Speedy Spending in the Far Country

The eager, assertive, so-called prodigal emerges into life with a demand on his life. He wants his portion of his father's estate, so that he can be his own boss with time and money.

Taking his possessions he plunges headlong into living and uses his days with utter abandon. Passion and pleasure and power were welcomed fervently.

His money faded and with it all his friends—he had struck bottom—he began to be in want—he tasted pitiless distress—his quest for adventure was ended.

Home now called him—Dad was a good old scout after all—he discovered that he could work—he found himself.

Human nature is a storehouse of surprises. The distance to the far country is very small. The great exhaustless father heart is worth earnest thought. Folks are, altogether too ungracious and unforgiving.

—FRESH ROASTED COFFEE—

The Rexall Store

Rexall Cherry Bark

Cough Syrup

The vast majority of coughs, some of which might eventually prove very harmful, are caused by disease germs.

The ordinary uncomplicated cough with which everyone is familiar, lasting from a few days to a few weeks, is the condition for which Rexall Cherry Bark Cough Syrup was designed.

The milder forms of catarrh germs when once in the air passages multiply rapidly, producing irritation and cough. When you feel a dryness of the throat, tightness of the chest, a feeling of smothering, fever or headache, combined with a tight rasping cough, you have a cough that should be treated immediately.

Rexall Cherry Bark Cough Syrup is a good cough treatment for this condition and one that will check the needless violent spasms of the bronchial tube.

Contains a well-chosen combination of medicaments which soothe the irritated membranes, and relieve congestion.

It loosens and liquefies the thick secretions and enables the phlegm to be raised without pain or exertion.

Rexall Cherry Cough Syrup contains no alcohol, opiates or other narcotic drugs and may be given even to children with perfect safety.

Not only is it very efficient, but a thoroughly agreeable pharmaceutical preparation, being very pleasant to take.

C. R. HORTON

NORTHVILLE, MICHIGAN.

LOCAL.

The O. E. S. will meet tonight. Raymond Westphal, who has been ill with tonsillitis, is recovering. Mrs. Katherine S. Gibson has moved to Northville to make her future home. Rev. Wm. Richards has been confined to his home part of the week with a bad cold.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Westphal, January 15th, a nine pound daughter, Hilda Grace.

Bigger and better—a million dollar show for a whole lot less money—the Foresters' minstrels, Wednesday evening, January 31st.

Mrs. A. Beckman was called to Detroit the first of the week owing to the serious illness of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Beckman.

Ferdi Hedge was in Detroit Tuesday consulting a specialist regarding one of his eyes which has been troubling him a great deal lately.

We have had some pretty cold weather during the past week with plenty of snow. Thermometers about town registered at zero Wednesday morning.

On Thursday evening next Guy C. Filkins will give an organ recital at Central M. E. church in Detroit, in which he will be assisted by Mr. Harry Leiter, baritone soloist.

Wednesday night, Jan. 31st, is the date selected for the presentation of the Foresters' minstrel show. A fine program has been arranged and those who are to take part, have spent a lot of time in rehearsals.

Miss Doris Beckman has resigned her position in the city and will assist her father, A. Beckman, in the grocery store.

who will be pleased to learn of this fact. Mrs. Estelle Dowling of the Ypsilanti Normal College will speak before the members of the Northville Woman's club and their guests this Friday afternoon, on the subject, "Realizing Our Possible Selves."

This evening at the High school gym the Northville Hi basketball team will contest with the Alumni team—the warriors of last year. Game will be called at 7:30 and the admission will be 25 cents.

On Monday evening next the Royal Neighbors will install their newly elected officers. After the ceremonies of installation cards will afford the diversion. All members are requested to be present to help make the affair a success.

A number of Northville Masons were guests of Farmington Lodge Tuesday evening. Supper was served at six o'clock and a school of instruction was held in the evening. Farmington Lodge conferred the M. M. degree upon a candidate.

Messrs. C. A. Dolph and E. E. Brown attended the noon luncheon of the Detroit Exchange club at Hotel Statler on Monday. Representatives were present from the clubs at Ann Arbor, Monroe, Highland Park, Royal Oak, Jackson, Lansing and Kalamazoo.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Green returned last week from their wedding trip to Cass City, where they spent a few days with relatives of the bride, formerly Miss Maule Hargrave. Many friends in this community will extend hearty congratulations to the happy couple.

The notice in last week's paper regarding the meeting of the O. E. S. should have read Friday evening, the 19th—tonight. After the regular order of business has been transacted a social hour will follow with cards and games. All members are urged to be present.

At the meeting of the Exchange club club Wednesday noon it was decided to observe father and son day in February and the date selected will be announced later. Rev. Wm. Richards gave a very interesting talk on the British Tommy and told some new historical incidents regarding them.

C. A. Ponsford has an important announcement in today's paper which you will do well to read over carefully. He is offering a lot of good, new merchandise at prices below wholesale costs today. Prices of all kinds of merchandise have been steadily advancing for the past few months.

H. C. Tinsam, a former resident of this village and who was well known to many Northville people, died at the home of his daughter in Detroit on Tuesday afternoon after a short illness of pneumonia. He was a brother of Messrs. John and W. L. Tinsam of this place. Funeral services were held yesterday and burial took place at Lansing.

The new balcony at the Alceum theatre was formally opened to the public last night, when that remarkable picture, "The Storm," was presented. The picture will be repeated tonight. The handsome new chairs add very much to the comfort of the patrons of the theatre and the additional room will prove of very great convenience to the public.

The balcony will not be open for every performance, because it will not be required, but it will be used whenever the attendance is large enough to require the additional room. Mr. Thompson is to be commended for the enterprise he has displayed in making the extensive alterations and improvements that have been made to the theatre during the past few months.

Peter Perkins played with Eckert's orchestra in Detroit Wednesday night. Mrs. N. C. Schrader spent a couple of days last week with friends at Ann Arbor.

Frank Perrin and Ernie Lyke have been appointed deputy sheriffs by Sheriff Walters.

Supervisor Durfee and Township Treasurer Clark of Novi were Northville business visitors last Saturday.

Messrs. Louis and Emory VanValkenburgh were called to Wayland last Saturday to attend the funeral of their eldest sister, Mrs. Sarah Stonehill. The funeral was held Sunday.

Married, at the residence of Justice of the Peace John O. Knapp, in this village on Wednesday evening, Alexander Graham of Clarkson and Mrs. Loretta Green of Davisburg.

John Schoutz entertained the members of the Hueston hunting party at his home on Wednesday evening with a bountiful dinner and a good time. Stories and experiences of the woods were related and re-told and the gathering proved a most enjoyable one.

Thomas Underhill & Son of Salem and the Maple Hill Farm of Farmington will have an auction sale of Duroc Jersey swine at the fair grounds in this village on Wednesday next, the 24th, commencing at 12:30 sharp, rain or shine. L. W. Lovewell of South Lyon will have charge of the sale.

FASTIME DANCE NEXT WEDNESDAY.

Members of the Pastime Dancing club are urged not to forget the next dance to be given on Wednesday evening next, the 24th. Each member is requested to bring an extra couple.

On Wednesday evening, January 24th, there will be an old-fashioned masquerade party. Keep the date in mind and plan to be present.

PIONEER SOCIETY MEETING IN YPSILANTI.

At the meeting of the State Pioneer society in Ypsilanti today, three Michigan professors are on the program for papers. Prof. Arthur L. Cross will speak on "Is County History Worth While?" "Primitive Man in Michigan" is the subject for Prof. W. B. Hunsdale. Prof. Carl Sauer will talk on "The Geography of Michigan in relation to its settlement and development."

W. R. C. NOTES.

The second regular meeting of the Woman's Relief Corps will be held on Wednesday, January 24th, at the usual time and place.

The first meeting of the year having been adjourned without the transaction of any business, there will be many important matters to discuss relative to the opening of the work for the year 1923.

Let us rally around the new president and her assistants and show our willingness to assist by a large attendance.

$20 Gold Marks Worth $26,000 Paper Berlin—The reichbank's price for the 20 mark gold piece has been fixed at 26,000 paper marks.

Former King Constantine Dies Palermo, Sicily—Former King Constantine of Greece died suddenly here last week of cerebral hemorrhage.

Read Bible Through 38 Times Georgetown, Del.—George M. Mesick, 77, retired baggage master, who has just died read the Bible through 38 times. He would begin reading on New Year's and finish at Christmas.

Baby Born With Full Set of Teeth New York—What is believed to be the first case in medical history of a baby being born with a full set of teeth occurred here, when a son was born to Mrs. Henrietta Stone with a complete set of upper and lower teeth.

Kiss On Bald Head Kills Man Pittsburgh, Pa.—An office pal's favorite joke of grasping his fellow employee's bald pate and pretending to kiss it brought about the death of Harry E. Fisher. Fisher, in squinting to get out of the hold on his head, broke his neck.

Vermont Bank Gives Each Child $1 Rutland, Vt.—The slogan "Catch 'em Young," is being applied to thrift promotion in this city. The Vermont National Bank directors have voted to give a bank book with a deposit of $1 credited to every baby born in Rutland this year.

Tangled Towrope Kills State Trooper Grand Rapids—Injuries suffered when the towrope to his motorcycle became tangled in the wheels of his machine, causing it to overturn, proved fatal to John Clifton, 26 years old, a member of the state police, stationed at Grandville.

Prefer Term in Jail to Work Québec—Fifteen men all able-bodied were sentenced here to a month each in jail for vagrancy, bemoaning their lack of employment. An employer for a lumber camp offered to hire them at $50 a month each. "We'll take jail," said the 15. And there they went.

Radium Price Declines One-Third Paris—A plant near Antwerp taking radium from a new ore found in the Belgian Congo, has so improved methods that the Americans controlling the works decided on a shut-down soon after the discovery the price of radium then $107,000 a gram declined to $70,000.

Dollar at Discount in Philippines Manila—On account of the excess of exports over imports, requiring American dollars in settlements, telegraphic transfers on United States points are being sold at a fourth of 1 per cent discount, the first time in nearly three years that gold has been at a discount as compared with the peso.

Soldiers Guard $4,000,000 Grave New York—A detachment of soldiers from Fort Hamilton Reservation last week was ordered to express Hills cemetery to guard the grave of Seamon James Jones in whose coffin crown jewels of the Romanoff dynasty of Russia valued at $4,000,000 are reported to have been hidden by snugglers.

Congress Favors Farm Loan Bill Washington—Disregarding Secretary Mellon's opposition, the senate banking and currency committee reported favorably the Lenroot-Anderson agriculture credits bill to the senate. An amendment was adopted increasing the capitalization of each of the proposed 12 land banks credit departments from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000.

Toothache Cure Nearly Kills Girl London, Ont.—Miss Mildred O'Dell, of Toronto, a former resident of this city, had a narrow escape from death when she swallowed some toothache medicine. Miss O'Dell, before retiring placed a piece of cotton batting soaked with this formula in the cavity of a tooth. During the night she swallowed the batting. Physicians were called and for a time her condition was regarded as precarious.

Slight Fall Paralyzes Workman Albion Mich.—Donald Burns, employed at the Hayes Wheel company's plant here was partially paralyzed, the result of an accident while at work. He started to sit down, but either from accident or as a result of a practical joke, his chair was not behind him, and he fell on the floor on his spine. He was picked up unconscious. He cannot use his legs and other parts of his body also are partially affected.

Goes a Millionaire, Returns Broke New York—With just 60 cents in his pockets, George Pirocaro, 40 years old, who left this country last July a millionaire, has returned a pauper. He lost his wealth in Smyrna when the Turkish hordes came in. He said he could not even afford to bring his wife home. Pirocaro came here first in 1905 as a stoker. He went into the tobacco importing business and when he left last summer, he says, he owned more than $800,000 worth of property in Smyrna alone.

SONG DURING SHORTAGE

At seven o'clock in the morning
The man delivers the Coal—
There's a bang and a crash and a rattle and a smash
As it slides down into the hole.
I spring out of bed in a twinkling
And sing with a merry din,
Hi lee! hi lo! for the joy I know
When the Coal slides into the bin.

At seven o'clock in the morning
The man delivers the Coal—
There's a whoosh and a bang and a rush and a whang
As it slides down into the hole.
The darn noise gives me a headache
And it's broken my sleep to boot,
Oh, I'm mad to my soul when I hear the Coal
As it roars in my neighbor's chute.

The Missing Yellowback
By ANTHONY REIMERT
(©, 1922, Western Newspaper Union.)
"There's a twenty-dollar bill missing from the petty cash. I put it there to be changed."
Miss Searies, who was in charge of the petty cash, looked around the office with scared eyes. It represented more than half her weekly wage.
"How did it happen, Miss Searies?" asked Mr. Graves, the head of the department.
Graves was easy-going, irresolute. Nobody was afraid of Graves, and nobody respected him very much.
"I—I just laid it there, and it's gone," said Miss Searies with a strangled sob.
"Didn't you lock the box when you went out to lunch?"
No, Mr. Graves, you know I told you yesterday that something had gone wrong with the lock, and you said you'd have it attended to."
Well, you should have reminded me," answered Graves with a snarl.
"Think I've nothing else to do than look after your cash-box? Who was in here when you went out?"
"I was," said Mr. Henderson, one of the junior clerks. "But I went out five minutes later, and I'm positive no one went to the cash-box while I was here."
Henderson and Miss Searies gave each other the once-over. "I bet she took it," Henderson was thinking. "She came back in a new hat."
Miss Searies was thinking. "If it wasn't Mr. Henderson, I don't know who it could have been except Billy."
"Billy?" called Mr. Graves.
The office boy came in, wiping the back of his hand across a smeary mouth. He looked innocently into Graves' face.
"Billy, who came into this office after Mr. Henderson went out?"
"Nobody, sir," faltered Billy.
"Well, it's very strange, that's all I've got to say. A twenty-dollar bill is missing from the petty cash."
Instantly a hang-dog look came over the face of the office boy. "I don't know nothing about it," he mumbled.
Miss Searies and Henderson both looked at him and each thought the same thing. You can't trust those boys. It must have been the temptation of seeing it lying there.
"If you'll confess immediately that you took it and hand it back, the matter won't go any further, except, of course that you'll have to leave, each of them was thinking of saying but nobody dared to.
"Tom Snooks come in for a minute—I forgot," said Billy.
Tom Snooks was the elevator boy—a hard bitten husky fellow whom every one was afraid of.
"What did he come in for?" asked Mr. Graves.
"I dunno," said Billy. "I think he wanted to see you, sir."
"How long was he in here?"
"About a minute, sir."
They all looked at one another. Snooks of course. But nobody was going to beard Tom Snooks without decisive evidence.
"Well the matter will have to be reported to Mr. Jones," said Mr. Graves.
"Mr. Jones. I—I'd rather make it up out of my own money," said Miss Searies in a faltering manner. "I—Mr. Jones would put the blame on me."
They looked at Miss Searies and read guilt in her eyes. "Poor little girl," thought Henderson, who was characteristically inclined to view that that came from somewhere.
Mr. Jones entered, an elderly man with a thinning white moustache. "What's all the confabulation about?" he asked. "Well, Miss Searies."
"There's a twenty-dollar bill been taken from the petty cash," faltered Miss Searies.
"What d'you mean, taken? Don't you lock the cash box?" demanded Mr. Jones.
"The lock's broken, sir, and—"
"Yes," interrupted Graves. "You should have reminded me of that again, Miss Searies." He was trying to clear himself.
Miss Searies looked at Mr. Graves indignantly, and Mr. Henderson in vast contempt. Mr. Jones grew sarcastic.
"I should think you'd be able to take charge of this department without having broken locks on cash-boxes, Mr. Graves," he said. "Let me have a look at it. Where was the twenty dollars?"
"Here, on top of this pile, sir," faltered Miss Searies.
Mr. Jones turned the little pile of dollar bills over. "What d'you call this?" he snarled. There was the yellowback, lying at the bottom.
"Oh!" gasped Miss Searies.
Mr. Jones stalked indignantly out of the office. "Have that lock mended," he called from the door.
"Miss Searies," said Mr. Graves, "will you take a letter, please?"

Dog's Sight Restored in Fight.
A New Brunswick reader says that a Pomeranian dog had an encounter with a cat, which resulted in restoring the dog's sight. The dog had been blind for two years. It had been suffering from cataract and a vicious blow from the cat was as good as an operation.

When They Made the Discovery
By JUSTIN WENTWOOD
(©, 1922, Western Newspaper Union.)
Anne Gilchrist was dead, and Gilchrist was sitting in the empty room, thinking how fatally life enmeshed one. They had been married twelve years, and Anne had died a week before.
Their marriage had not been a happy one. They had found that out a week after their marriage. Gilchrist was a sculptor, and temperamental. Anne was cold. She had never given him that love that he had had a right to expect. That was the one thing he found it hardest to forgive.
All their bitter words he had forgotten. If only she had had love, in her nature everything might have gone well. Love could have overcome his irritability which he had vented on her. He knew that. He did not defend his own unkindness; he only felt that, lacking love, Anne lacked justification. And now she was dead. They had only two friends in the village—people of Gilchrist's type. Mr. and Mrs. Fairleigh were authors, and did very well at it. They had understood him—and Anne. They had lightened the heavy burden of their lives by their companionship. Fairleigh was coming over to sit with him that night.
Gilchrist was going through the things Anne had left behind her. She had known she was dying, but the end had come with tragic suddenness. Every little memento of the past was a blow to Gilchrist.
"If only you had loved—loved any one!" he soliloquized to the dead woman. "Even if you had been unfaithful it would have been better than that eternal coldness."
Turning over her bills, receipts, papers, he came upon an envelope sealed. He opened it and read, at first without understanding, then with a sudden rush of emotion.
"My dear"—it ran—"When you open and read this I shall be dead. I can't pretend that my life has been a very happy one, but at least I am prepared to go wherever we go without malice, without unkindness, without uncharitableness."
"I want you to know that, though life has dealt so harshly with me that the capacity for demonstrating my feeling has almost been destroyed, I do love you. I have always loved you since the day when we first met. I wonder if you remember that. You have always been in my thoughts—first and foremost."
"And so this little message of farewell takes all my love with it. No other man has ever entered my heart. I wish that I could tell you—but I cannot."
It was signed "Anne."
Gilchrist read the little note with a wildly beating heart. So she had loved him after all. She like himself had been under that unhappy illusion which forbids one to tell of love to one's own dearest.
And memories surged through his brain—memories of their early meetings, of their courtship. He had always admired Anne, in spite of her apparent coldness. He had always believed that some day he could awaken her to love.
That hope had been destined to die appointment. Still, they had had periods of happiness.
He remembered once when she had turned to him and put her arms round his neck asking forgiveness for her coldness.
Then there was the time when their hope of a child had been frustrated. They had clung to each other then.
But the years of married intimacy had worn them both down. Little by little even the pretense of love had died. At the end they had been frankly hostile. And he had not kissed her before she died—somehow he had felt he couldn't go through that lie.
A tap at the door. Fairleigh entered. The men shook hands. Gilchrist, who was on the most confidential terms with Fairleigh, stammered out his emotions. He spoke of the letter.
"I can't tell you how it makes me feel," he said. "If it had been some other man, even I should have been glad to think poor Anne had the capacity for love. But this—this over comes me, Fairleigh. It makes me feel that I've been a brute to her."
But Fairleigh was staring at the envelope of the missive which Gilchrist had tossed across the table. And Gilchrist's eyes wandered to it and then fixed themselves in amazement on his friend's face.
The envelope was addressed to Fairleigh. The letter had been for Fairleigh.

Common Ailment.
Samuel Gompers was bemoaning his failure to get certain pet bills through congress. "Sometimes," he said, "congress reminds me of an incident last June. Coming home from a summer resort we were informed the train was one hour late.
Warren, a restless little chap, remarked, 'Gosh, not a thing to do and a whole hour to do it in.'"
Lives on Both Sides of Road.
How would you like to live in a house in which you sleep in a room on one side of the road then cross to the other side to have your breakfast? This is what happens in Sir H. Rider Haggard's house at St. Leonards, England. The rooms are connected by a bridge—this also containing a room, by the way. So the house is on both sides of the road.

When Trouble Comes.

By ELLA SAUNDERS

Copyright, 1922, Western Newspaper Union.

Sawyer was roused. The combine that he had hoped to smash had smashed him beyond repair. He had hung up the telephone in his office
for the last time.

Mechanically he put on his hat and went out. Everybody knew. The clerks and typists had received their two weeks' pay in advance, with notice.
There was a subtle change in their deportment. They no longer bent over their work when Sawyer passed. They were gossiping noisily about him.
The office boy forgot to open the door.
Why should he? He was no longer in Sawyer's employment.

The negro elevator boy grinned at Sawyer when he took him down. Sawyer was amused. There was probably no last tip in Sawyer's pocket for him. There wasn't. Sawyer passed out into the hall.

His eyes lit upon a beautiful, fashionably dressed lady came toward him.
This was Mrs. Eaton—a very intimate friend, perhaps his most intimate.
There was a strange look on her face.
What was it? "Hello about you, Jim?"
She asked.

He said whatever you've heard,
Helen, Sawyer answered. "I'm blown up myself."

She stared at him incredulously.
"And that are you going to do about it?" she asked.

Sawyer drew her into an alcove,
away from prying eyes. "Listen, Helen, I've five thousand left. The bank might raise five thousand more. Will you come away with me to that little paradise of an island we spoken of?"

Yes, I'll toss her head confidently. Well, I guess not," she said. "I'm in a tropical cottage to make things."

And that's exactly before her employer. This struck him more bitterly than anything in the world.

He was going to do for me," Sawyer continued. "How's my alternative?"

He looked on her fiercely. "It isn't a word," he said. "You're swandering. I'm not of more you're going to do."

He was pending threatening
Sawyer with contempt
Sawyer's phrase at him and
he looked at the building.

Sawyer's wife's lawyers. "Tell me, what's the suit will not be settled. This is James Sawyer."

He went to his lonely apartment in the city. Months since his wife had left him. Miss Eaton had been a friend. Miss Eaton was only a friend. A long series of loves Sawyer had had and began thinking of a new romance.

At the time when he had loved each of them, it was when he was a prince. But now they had a prince. He had been happier with her than at any time afterward when they lived in luxury. They had been a family of ten. Their only child —a son—had gained out bad and
disappeared years before.

That had severed the last bond between them. Sawyer had been surprised when Marian left him. He had not thought that she would mind about Miss Eaton. He had even thought she would know. But what a fool a man was to follow false lines!

He sat alone in his study. The servants were expecting notice, there was only the man and man relationship between them now. He had always known there was hate beneath the man's smooth exterior.

Well, there was only one thing for-
it. A man could not live alone, and Sawyer had not even a dog. He opened a little drawer in his desk, took out something shining—some one was in the hall. He replaced it hastily. The door opened. Marian stood in the room. She came forward. "You're rained, Jim?"

"That's right, Marian. I've told Heath & Hodges not to contest your suit. I'm sorry it'll have to go so hard with you."

Marian came slowly toward him.
Her lips trembled.

"Aid I—I've told Heath & Hodges not to proceed," she said. "Oh, my dear, my dear, let me comfort you!"

"She knelt at his side. "Let us forget each other," she whispered.
"When trouble comes whom should I stand by but you? I've failed, too failed you in my love. We've got what we deserved. Do you remember the
—the little flat uptown in the old day? Let's go back and begin all over again. We're young enough—with love!"

Sawyer snapped the drawer that held the shining thing into position.
He drew his wife into his arms.
"Trouble's gone," he answered. "Nothing can ever trouble us again."

Preparedness.

Brother Joe came forward to be married.

The parson said: "Yoh done been baptized twelve times, Jo. An' again yoh come forward into de fold. An' dat de truf, dat yoh has been baptized hefch?"

"Dat's de truf," said Brother Joe.
"How often do you expect to be baptized, I ax yoh?"
"I reckon every year," said Brother Joe.
"De oftener I gets dish morfin'
an' soaked, de safer I'll sure be from de sparks on de great day when de world am all on fire. Hallelujah!"

Week's News in Brief

Steel Workers' Wages Increased.

New York—The United States Steel Corporation announced that the wage rate of day labor at all its manufacturing plants would be increased 20 per cent Sept. 1, and that other rates
would be equitably adjusted.

One Leader Willing to Resign.

Peking—The republican cabinet has announced that President Li-Yuan-Hing was willing to resign in favor of Sun Yat Sen, deposed head of the South China government, provided parliament approves such action.

Channel Swimmer Gives Up.

Dover, Eng.—T. W. Burgess, the Englishman who swam the English Channel in 1911, again essayed the feat, starting from the French shore.
He had to give up in mid-channel,
however. Jean Mitchell, a Frenchman, also started the swim, but failed.

Wrenches Shoulder in Berth.

Buffalo—Dr. R. F. Flack of Asheville, N. C., threw his shoulder out of joint trying to dress in his berth on a Pennsylvania train. He could not set the shoulder without assistance,
and he suffered greatly until the train
reached Buffalo where he got medical aid.

English Beauties Take to Air.

London—Britain's famous beauties are deserting rail and auto traveling for the air routes. Elsie Mackay daughter of Lord Inchape, and one of the beauties to his millions, has won her official pilot certificate and now travels in her own airplane.

Mother of 10 Children at 30.

Plainfield, Wis.—Triplets, two boys
and a girl, were born to Mr. and Mrs.
Irvin Wilson here. Mrs. Wilson is only 30 and is the mother of 16 children, 11 of which are living. She has three sets of twins. Mr. and Mrs.
Wilson reside on a farm 16 miles west of here near Kellner.

Amazon Bound Plane Wrecked.

Washington—The cruiser Denver
picked up Walter Hunter and his companions of the R. bound seaplane, Sampao Correa wrecked en route
from the Bahamas to Haiti reported to the navy department that she was proceeding to Guantamo Cuba, with the disabled plane in tow.

Finds Husband Gored By Bull.

Castle Rock, Wash.—Alarmed by the long absence of her husband, Mrs.
Hazel Johnson instituted a search at the Hazel Dell ranch and found Johnson had been gored to death by a bull.
Following the attack he was able to drag himself to a corn field but died
just as his wife reached him.

Places Bed Across Tracks.

Chicago—Michael Durokovich was told in plain words by a judge that his method of campaigning for a 5
cent street car fare while quite "original," was "all wrong." Durokovich dragged a bed across the car tracks and retired to peaceful slumber. A sign said he'd move when the nickel
fare was granted.

Cox Abroad Studying League.

London—James M. Cox of Ohio Democratic candidate for president in the last national election, has begun preparation of a statement setting forth the results of his study of European conditions and the work of the league of nations. Mr. Cox favored entrance of the United States in the league of nations.

136,441 Enrolled in Clubs.

Washington—A total of 136,441 boys and girls were enrolled in agricultural extension clubs in 1921 for training in various phases of livestock work,
according to the department of agriculture. These junior farmers last year owned 76,18 head of farm animals and 554,286 fowls, representing an aggregate value of $3,605,176.

Would Execute Train Wreckers.

Washington—The death penalty for train wreckers when passengers or employees are killed is provided in a bill introduced in the senate by Senator Sterling, South Dakota. The bill was referred to the senate interstate commerce committee. The introduction of the bill was prompted by the alleged deliberate wrecking of trains, particularly the one near Gary, Ind.

Teachers Invade Flapper Campus.

Chicago—The summer campus of the University of Chicago is different from the winter campus, not because it has green lawns and shade, but because it's "deffapertized." Dignity invades the halls and dormitories soon
after the commencement exercises, when teachers take possession of the classrooms that only a few days before swarmed with bobbed hair coeds.

Father and Son Claim Wife.

Marion, O.—Father and son battled in Mayor George W. Neely's court for a woman both claimed as their wife, and the mayor compromised by turning her over to a man who said he was her brother. It was the old story of gypsy law, which the mayor refused to recognize. Frank Elie, Jr., Cleveland, said the woman was his wife according to gypsy rites. The elder Elie, who came here from Chicago, said she was his wife, according to gypsy law.

DETROIT TO HAVE POLO GROUNDS

Polo, which invaded this country about two years ago, has come to stay. The first serious polo step here was taken by the Detroit Polo association when Capt. L. A. Young, of the Gold Hat team, turned sod, a few days ago, for a comprehensive polo establishment. It will rank among the best polo layouts in the country.

The ground is located on the Nine-Mile road, just east of Southfield road. According to plans there will be two standard playing fields and a smaller practice field. A clubhouse, grandstand and pavilion with seating capacity of 500 will be located between the fields. Box seats on the roof of the

"Frank" German, director and general manager of the Country Bowling Tournament to be held in Northville next week. By thunder it will be some tournament, too.

A FURNISHED HOUSE.

To every soul that comes to this little earth
There is given at the date of its birth
A lease of a completely furnished home,
Fitted for use for the years to come.

No preference for any race or clan is shown,
Peasant and prince, pauper or millionaire,
Are served alike with an equal share
Eagerly they grasp it and tightly clasp it
As their own.

Its heating plant sends its ruddy glow
To every vein and nerve from tip to toe.
Its doors and windows are guarded well
By device far beyond the scope of human skill.

The lease holds good for many a score
Of years; as we count time, seventy or more,
And whether the occupant is awake or asleep
The watchman and the helpers their vigil keep.

The structure can move about at the will
When the tenant has any needs to fill,
And is fitted complete in every detail
From a tasty tongue to a finger nail.

When this life lease has reached its end
And at the bar of Heaven's Court we stand,
What recompense for the leasehold shall we bring
To show our loyalty for our God and King?

If we had some coin of some other valued thing
Gathered by grasping hands and sweltering brow
To tender as a thank-offering to our King,
We might hear the verdict—these have no value here.

Did you smoothe the path of decrepid age
Or bind up the wounds made by furious rage?
If you have saved a soul from sliding in
To the slimy pits of heinous sin.

If you have soothed the woes of a bleeding heart
Or healed the wounds made by Satan's dart,
Or brightened the gloom in a pilgrim's way
Or lightened the load and saved the day.

For a weary toiler on life's highway
Or brushed the gloom from a burdened heart
Or guided the steps of an infant's way
Or hushed the cry of beggars' tale.

If you have filled your hungry neighbors' needs
Or done to others such kindly deeds
You have the coin from the mint of Goodwill
To pay for the use of Earth's Domicil.

LODGES TO HAVE DINNER.

On February 12th an eight o'clock dinner will be served by the I. O. O. F. lodge at Dearborn in their temple, to which the other members of the Interurban League are invited and at which the cups will be awarded to the winners of the various contests held at the Field meet at Dearborn, Labor Day. It will be remembered that Wayne lodge won the tug of war. The league is composed of Plymouth, Dearborn and Wayne I. O. F. lodges. All members are urged to attend the dinner.—Plymouth Mail.

WIXOM TO HAVE FACTORY.

With two railroads and plenty of room to expand, Wixom offers good location for factories and there is a prospect that one will be in operation in a few weeks. The Thornton Rotary Motor Co., organized to build a new air-cooled motor, has acquired an acre of land and building and will first install a foundry and machine shop.

Raf F. Thornton of Sylvan Lake is inventor of the motor and president of the company. Dr. Aaron Riker, Wm. Daniels, A. Floyd Blakeslee and Rev. C. S. Knight, all Pontiac people, are interested in the company.—Milford Times.

THE DOG TAX COLLECTOR IS ABROAD.

Henry West of Commerce appeared in Justice Coe's court last Saturday on a charge made by Deputy Coe of Walled Lake of harboring a dog, on which the 1922 license had not been paid. The defendant protested a good deal at being asked to come across with three big dollars for one little dog, but on Tuesday he paid the $3.00 plus a $5.00 fine which the court imposed.

The penalty for the non-payment of the dog license can be as high as $100 or an imprisonment of 90 days or both if the court sees fit. Deputy Coe of Walled Lake has been commissioned to collect dog taxes of 1922 and he states that other arrests are impending in cases where dog owners have neglected to secure the license.—Milford Times.

"THE BAT" AT THE GARRICK THEATRE, DETROIT.

Wagenhals & Kemper, who present "The Bat" at the Garrick Theatre for a return engagement of one week, our beginning Sunday evening, lay claim to being one of the few entitled to use "World's Greatest." There are many stars and attractions billed thus, which have never been presented outside the country. "The Bat" has qualified in every civilized country on the globe, and many uncivilized, since its last appearance here. It has set new high records in London, all over the continent of Europe and throughout Scandinavia and the Far East, consequently that is why Wagenhals & Kemper feel justified in billing it as the world's biggest dramatic sensation and the world's greatest mystery play.

Since "The Bat" was presented here last season it has completed a tour of one solid year in London. This with a two year and three months run in New York City over a year in Chicago and other long runs in Boston and Philadelphia make it as big a metropolitan favorite as it has been in the other cities of the country. Contrary to all traditions of mystery plays "The Bat" has been as popular upon return engagements as during its first presentation.

FARM BUREAU GIVES 1922 WOOL RESULTS.

The Michigan State Farm Bureau has paid members of its 1922 wool pool in full account of the sales made in 1922 and has announced the average prices received by the wool poolers. The 1922 pool paid the farmer an average net price of 39 1/4 cents a pound for the five best grades of wool and an average net price of 34 1/4 cents a pound for all 13 grades of wool including discounts, according to the announcement from the State Farm Bureau office.

According to local crop reporters' advices to V. H. Church, U. S. Crops Estimator at Lansing, the average price paid farmers for wool by local dealers during the 1922 season was 31 1/2 cents a pound up to November 1st, last.

The Bureau has a number of letters from its 1922 wool pool members. F. E. Terrill of Charlotte, Eaton county farmer, said that he was offered 34 cents a pound locally when he put his clip of 1,564 pounds into the Farm Bureau's pool. The first week in December the Farm Bureau pool returned him an average of 38.08 cents a pound for his clip, or an additional return of $63.31.

Farm Bureau officials declare that the direction and sales service of the 1922 pool effected considerable savings over previous pools. Preparations are well under way for the Farm Bureau's 1923 wool pool.

Milford.—Mrs. Kate Gorman Ferrigan, aged 63 years, a native of White Lake, and a daughter of one of the first settlers there, died Tuesday morning at 8:15 o'clock at her home on Commerce street of pneumonia after a serious illness, which started last Friday.

Something You Have Always Wanted

All Finished Family Washing Service

—NO MARKS—

You can now have your entire family washing, including wearing apparel and flat work, carefully laundered by a responsible laundry, for less than it has cost you to have it done at home.

Under this new service all wearing apparel and flat work are first separately weighed, then each family bundle is individually washed in the softest water, with purest soap, the entire cost being decidedly economical.

5 Pounds Wearing Apparel

5 Pounds Flat Work

Both for $2.00

For excess weight over the minimum 5 pounds, a small charge of 10c a pound for excess flat work, and 20c a pound for excess wearing apparel, is made. This service includes all family wash except starched collars, starched shirts, and lace curtains. The average family wash costs between $2 and $3. This service is new in Detroit but growing in popularity every day.

Clearing AND Stock Reducing SALE!

IT IS OUR AIM to make this sale the Greatest Sale since the pre-war days. We find that our stock is far too large and our bank account is far too small. The buying public knows fully as well as we do that all markets are advancing, but in the face of that, we have decided to cut prices to the quick. In addition to the above stated reasons, there is also this: The people of this vicinity have long looked to this store for dependable merchandise, and we feel that they are entitled to a Big Bargain Event. Since our last big sale there has come into our community a great many new people. Perhaps by some chance they have not become thoroughly acquainted with this store. We are going to make this a real Get-Acquainted Event. But shall sell and sell at Sale Prices our Regular Dependable Stock of Merchandise. This is not a money-making event. It is a Stock-Reducing, Money-Getting event. It will open with a bang Saturday Morning, January 20th, 1923, and Close Sharply at 9:30, Saturday Evening, February 3rd, 1923. Thirteen days of Quick Action and Brisk Selling.
