Who?

Who wants to be tied to the house by a spool of thread and a length of dress goods when the warm summer days call for outdoor roaming? That is a good argument for buying Gingham and Percales right now while the assortments are at their best. We have a very beautiful line of both fabrics on our show tables and our invoices show that there is far over a thousand yards of Percales and Gingham in transit for us at this time.

ALUMNI-RESERVES BATTLE.

Last Friday evening the Northville High school reserve basketball team met and lost to the Alumni in one of the closest and most exciting games of the season. The Alumni was represented by G. Moffitt, L. German, E. Freydl, E. A. Chapman, J. Litsenberger, M. Hall and G. Hammond. H. German, R. Wood, J. Wood, L. Kestell, A. Buckley, C. Schultz, R. Smith, C. Fry and A. Stage made up the reserve squad. When the teams took their places on the floor probably nine out of ten local fans would have doped it an easy victory for the "grads" but it proved to be a close contest. At the end of the first half the Alumni led 7 to 5. The score then became tied and within three minutes of the end of the game the score was again tied 10 to 10. Here Moffitt scored a basket from the center of the floor giving the Alumni a two point lead. Hall caught a rebound off their backboard and dropped it in for the final count of 14 to 10. The height of the Alumni players proved to be a decided advantage over the shorter High school boys, especially in close work around the basket, where they made 6 of their 14 points. Good sportsmanship was shown throughout the game and the losers were game to the last.

MRS. WILLIAM BEYER DIED AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS.
While it was known by her friends that Mrs. William Beyer had not been in good health for some years, yet the news of her death, which occurred last Saturday, was a very great surprise. She had been the victim of heart trouble for some years, but her condition was not considered serious by members of her family, until just before the grim messenger came. The deceased was born in Losco county, Michigan, December 19th, 1856, where she grew to womanhood. Mr and Mrs Beyer came to Northville to reside a number of years ago. Besides her husband she is survived by one grandchild, Mrs. Richard Veale, and two great-grand children, Geraldine and Elizabeth Veale, three brothers, William, Theodore and Edwin, Burns, and one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Allen.

Funeral services were held at the home on Thursday afternoon, being conducted by Rev William Richards. Interment took place at Rural Hill cemetery. To the bereaved husband and relatives the tenderest sympathy of the people of Northville is extended.

LEGION TO GIVE MINSTRELS.

Wednesday night, April 11th, is the date selected for the American Legion minstrels. For weeks members of the Legion have been rehearsing for this affair and a chorus of 35 male voices will be heard in a program of popular musical numbers in addition to numerous solo numbers, duets, quartets, etc. The public may be assured of an entertainment all will enjoy. Paul Alexander, Charles Altman, Harold White and Lyle Alexander, who will officiate as end-men, have a lot of funny hits. Seats will be placed on sale next week-Saturday morning at nine o'clock. All seats will be reserved.

THIEVES VISITED WATERFORD SCHOOL HOUSE.

Sometime during Monday night some one forced an entrance to the school house at Waterford and besides taking a phonograph belonging to the school, carried away a number of ever-ready pencils and some small change. They left no clue.

The matter was reported to Deputy Sheriff Ernie Lyke Tuesday morning and he made an investigation Tuesday afternoon two boys of the district reported they had found the phonograph in a near-by field and the instrument was returned to the school building.

FORD TO BECOME COAL MINE OPERATOR.

Henry Ford of Detroit has recently acquired 120,000 acres of coal lands in Kentucky and will soon become one of the largest mine operators in the world, if present plans go through, and Mr. Ford has a way of putting his plans through. It is estimated that these coal lands have a reserve supply of 500,000,000 tons.

The coal will be made to do double duty, so far as possible—to produce commercial gas and also coke, the latter of which will be offered to the general public.

Another cold wave came Sunday afternoon. Snow came about five o'clock and the temperature took a decided downward turn. Monday morning thermometers about town registered ten above.

THE BELLES-FAMIL TENDERED FAREWELL RECEPTION.

On Monday evening Rev and Mrs E. V. Belles and sons, Harold and Donald, were tendered a farewell reception in the parlors of the Presbyterian church and a large company of friends gathered to wish them success and happiness in their new home at Kenton, Ohio. The people congregated in the auditorium of the church where wraps were laid aside and at the appointed hour the guests filed into the parlors where they were received by the honored guests and by members of the officials of the church and their wives. The High school orchestra rendered a choice program during the receiving hour. After an hour or so had been pleasantly passed visiting and renewing acquaintances the ladies of the church served refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake and coffee, being ably assisted by the young ladies of the society.

In behalf of the church and the Woman's Union, E. E. Brown presented Mr and Mrs. Belles each with a purse, the contents of which were sufficient, they were assured to buy a return ticket whenever they became homesick or desired to return to the field where they had spent six years in the vineyard of the Lord. The gathering was likened to a large family circle gathered not to mourn the departure of those who were so soon to leave, but rather to rejoice in the friendship and the fellowship which had bound the church family together during the years of Mr. Belles' pastorate, and to extend their best wishes as he entered upon his labors in a larger field. The purses contained $50 each—the one for Mrs. Belles being filled with bright and shining gold pieces and the one for Mr. Belles being the long green kind, so attractive at moving time. Mr. Belles responded in a most happy manner to the kindly expressions of good-will extended by the guests present and by other friends who were unable to take part in the reception.

Along about ten o'clock good night and good bye was said and the guests took their departure. Mr and Mrs Belles and Donald left for Kenton, Ohio, Wednesday forenoon, and Harold returned to his studies at the U of M Tuesday morning. The best wishes of many Northville friends will accompany them to their new home.

DELIVERED FAREWELL SERMON.

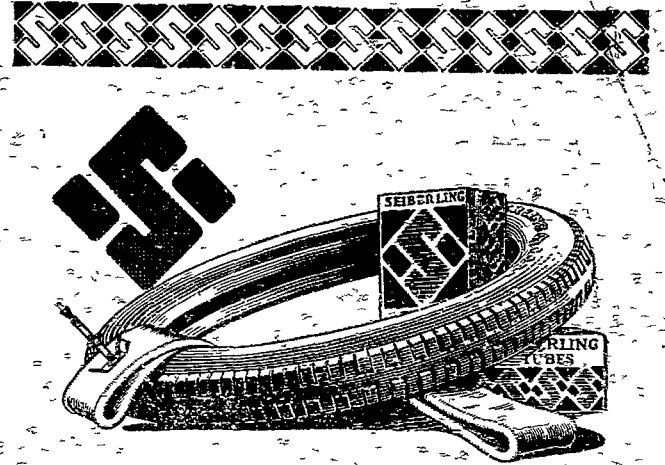

Union services were held at the Presbyterian church Sunday night as a compliment to Rev E. V. Belles, who closed his pastorate with the local church at that time, and in spite of the unfavorable weather conditions there was a large audience present. The Methodist and Presbyterian chorals joined forces, Rev A. K. MacRae of the Baptist church read the scripture lesson and Rev. William Richards of the Methodist church offered prayer. Miss June Fikens contributed a vocal solo to the evening's program. Rev E. V. Belles delivered an interesting and appropriate sermon, taking as his theme Paul's words to the Corinthians, "Watch ye, hold fast, quit ye like men." He prefaced his remarks by expressing his appreciation for the good fellowship and kindly interest expressed by the pastors and members of the other churches, who had gathered to take part in this final service of his pastorate.

GLOBE FACTORY A BUSY PLACE.

The factory of the Globe Furniture & Manufacturing Co. of this village has been a pretty busy place for the past few months and the company has a nice lot of orders still on its books. During the past two months pews and furniture have been supplied to two new churches in Rochester, N. Y., and work of completing the furnishings for two Detroit churches is being rushed this week so they may be in readiness for Easter. A week ago last Sunday the handsome new Baptist church at Redford was dedicated and the Globe company furnished the pews and pulpit furniture for the structure. The Bethany M. E. church on Gratiot avenue and the North-western Baptist on Grand River will be dedicated Sunday, Easter.

The quality of the work turned out by the Globe shops has been a great factor in securing "repeat orders."

On Saturday afternoon of last week, Northville High school boys' and girls' basket ball teams were guests of Coach Ensing at a theatre party in Detroit, after which the members adjourned to the Hotel Cadillac, where a six o'clock dinner was served.

JUST AVERAGE FOLKS

Most of the wealthy used to be just plain folks like those we rub elbows with in the shop, the factory, and on the farm.

They weren't blessed with any particular luck but won by sticking to a resolve to invariably spend less than they made.

This bank always has been especially anxious to help the average folks who save persistently for the day of opportunity or need.

It has no higher mission than to safeguard and profitably employ such savings and to keep them constantly available.

SPRING SUGGESTS New Furniture!

Spring suggests house cleaning and house cleaning suggests New Furnishings for the home—New Rugs, New Curtains and Shades, New Furniture for the Living Room, the Bedroom or the Kitchen. We have endeavored to anticipate your wants for this Spring and have on display a very complete assortment of Furniture and Floor Coverings for your inspection.

An Extra Special

Bedroom Suites and Single Pieces at 25% Discount

We are redecorating our store and just as soon as the weather will permit we shall put a new front in the building. Before this work is started we have decided to have a special sale of Bedroom Suites and Separate Bedroom Pieces at which we will give a discount of 25 per cent from our regular prices. This will help us to reduce our stock and thus give us more space to work. You will find it a good investment to take advantage of this reduction of 25 per cent.

Floor Coverings in Many Patterns

There is a very great difference in the value and quality of Axminster Rugs. We do not buy the cheap, shoddy kind, that look good for a few weeks and then go to pieces, but we select our assortment with the idea of giving our customers their money's worth with every Rug purchased here and we shall continue that policy.

Armstrong's Linoleum
for Every Floor

We have the Celebrated Armstrong Linoleum in a number of Patterns

A CAR LOAD OF MATTRESSES

We invite you to call and inspect our large new stock of Mattresses. Do not be deceived by the claim of low prices and the allurements of pictures in catalogues and newspapers. There is but one safe way to select your Mattresses and that is by a personal inspection. We court your inspection of our line of Mattresses.

In Dining Room Furniture

We are offering a very attractive assortment in the full Suites and in Separate Pieces. We have Chairs and Tables and Chiffonnières in a variety of styles and woods—articles that will add greatly to the attractiveness of your home.

CEDAR CHESTS

These Chests are just the thing to pack away your winter garments in and thus protect them from the dust and moths. We have a good assortment.

We shall be glad to have you visit this store at any time. We are sure you will be quite surprised to see how complete and attractive our displays in all lines are this Spring. We stand behind every piece of Furniture we sell—they must give you good service.

AN EASTER LILY

Flower of loveliness, in perfect bloom
Thou art a benediction in this room

Festive of harmony, thou dost give
A calm glow to our mortal life

Symbol a part of our life's journey
The perfect peace of Paradise

Such are loved ones who have gone
And stand upon the glad eternal shore

Flame flowers there they are lit
Glowing in radiant immortality

Perpetual miracle of nature, fresh and fair
Distilling sweetness in the fragrant air

In essence of Heaven, yielding hope and cheer
Innocent with a light serene and clear

Celestial messenger, thou dost fulfill
In a quiet grace, thy Maker's will

Not all the riches that the earth can hold Nor Solomon surrounded by his gold

Within a precious palace, yet could be Gravely in glory that is like to thee

No wonder the Angelic of old
Made their annunciation angels bold

A light, token of the love divine
That into every human heart must shine

The love of Christ who rose on Easter Day
To show to us the Truth, the Life, the Way

Into the Father's presence—and the seat
Of the New Earth and Heaven in the light

Of peace and love, by angel hosts adored
And ever all the glory of the Lord

JUSTICE OF EGG-ROLLING

Of past no of Washington Chapter
but There Are No Records of Its Origin

Washington children were the first to play the rolling eggs, but there is no record which sets forth when and how the pastime came to be

The first reference to egg-rolling which has been found occurs in the Evening Star of Easter Monday, 1874

and that reference has to do with some interruption of the egg-rolling at the capitol by ruffians. The reason of rolling eggs at the capitol was then an old one. When Washington was young the small, fenced park about the capitol was the only one in Washington unimproved with turf, trees and flowers. It was the habit of school children to have an Easter picnic, and with their teachers and their baskets of lunch they would go to the capitol park. At the west front of the capitol were steep, sodded terraces. In sitting at the top of these terraces and

and eating their lunches, of which diced Easter eggs formed part, some child or children discovered that the colored eggs would roll down the terraces. In that way the custom started and became a part of the Easter festival in Washington. When the incident of 1874 occurred there were several thousand children rolling eggs down the sodded lawns. Congress in 1875, noting that because of the Easter egg-rolling it was hard to keep grass on the terraces forbade the practice, but egg-rolling festivities were observed in 1876 and 1877 just the same. On Easter Monday, 1878, the children were turned away from the capitol grounds. The word passed from child to child, and the march to the White House was taken up. They invaded the executive grounds and began rolling eggs, and the custom survives.

Wilma Otteson, 17 years old, daughter of O. Otteson, of Niles, died last week from "sleeping sickness," after a two week's illness. Until the end physicians worked with the girl in an effort to combat the strange malady.

Three House members ran the engine from Lansing through Jackson to Ann Arbor in record-breaking time. Chester A. Ferris acted as fireman, while Milo Johnson and Charles L. Barrett took turns as engineer. At times they ran the train

65 miles an hour. The three are members of the railroad and labor committees of the House, and they did the stunt to see if the Michigan Central engine equipment was up to the requirements of the law.

The state administrative board last week authorized I. Whitney Watkins, commissioner of agriculture, to complete the survey of state farms, started

some time ago and discontinued because of lack of funds in the department budget. Approximately $1

900 has been spent to date, and it will take $400 to complete the work. The survey, when completed will be available for estimating the needs of the farms in the matter of equipment and personnel.

With only 13 Wayne county representatives and five others voting in opposition, the house of representatives last week passed by a vote of 79 to 13, the Warren two-cent gasoline tax bill. Under terms of the bill, there will be a cash in this special tax alone, the sum of $7,000,000 annually, an amount exceeding the aggregate levy for all state purposes just a little more than a decade ago.

Announcement was made last week
by L. V. Bellman, for the Oakland county road commission, that motor trucks will be restricted to one-half gross loads on Oakland county highways. At present trucks are allowed three-quarter gross loads. The more drastic restriction has been decided upon to further protect the county's road system from damage while the

Marshall, Mich. and St. Louis, Mo., was in sight, with announcement of the district highway engineer, Richard Steketee, that bids had been asked on a nine-mile stretch between Paw Paw and Lawrence. Five miles of the road will be finished this summer, and the remainder next year.
The new road will follow the line of the present Detroit Chicago road
but will pass directly past Lake Cora,
one of the largest lakes in southwestern Michigan.

Mary Purnell, wife of Benjamin,
head of the House of David colony at Benton Harbor, has announced that she will appear in Federal Court in Grand Rapids when the first of the suits by former members of the cult against Purnell to recover funds alleged to have been turned over to the cult leader is heard. Mrs. Purnell declared she would go on the stand and defend Benjamin against the charges that have been made against him.

FIRE AT ELOISE DESTROYS BUILDING.

The lives of more than 250 women, inmates of the psychopathic ward of the Eloise hospital, were endangered at 10 a. m. Tuesday when building E of the hospital was destroyed by fire.
The fire, of undetermined origin,
started on the top floor of the 3-story building. All the patients were removed from the building without a casualty.

There was little or no confusion in taking the inmates from the building, according to Dr. J. E. Bennett, superintendent of the hospital.

The Detroit fire department was called after the Wayne and Dearborn departments believed the flames were getting beyond control and were likely to spread to other buildings.

Building E is a three-story brick building, located just west of the administration building. It was built about 10 years ago. Damage to the building is estimated at approximately $250,000.

The fire started in the attic. It was not noticed until the roof had taken fire.

The inmates were lined up and marched from the building in 15 minutes.

The fire was under control at 11:15,
soon after the arrival of two fire companies from Detroit.

DETROIT THEATRES.

"Kempy" the comedy with Grant Mitchell and the three Nungents which ran for so long at the Belmont theatre, New York, will be the attraction at the Garrick theatre for the week commencing Sunday, with the usual matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

The best thing about this comedy is said to be its genuineness, for the characters are all genuine and human.
There is not a count, a prima donna,
or any of those high and mighty creatures in it—not even a villain.
Every character is "just folks." And therein lies the joy of it. You laugh at the suspicious native humor that bubbles up in the course of an ordinary person's conversation and often at the amusing and somewhat pathetic bewilderment of some of the characters.

Heading the cast is Grant Mitchell, remembered here for his fine performances in "The Champion" and
"The Tailor Made Man." Besides the Nungents J. C. and his son, Elliott, who wrote the play and will be seen in the cast is the daughter, Ruth,
Isabel Withers, Patricia Goring, Rose
Lee Allen and Jessie Cromette.

The airy A. A. Milne comedy, "Mr.
Pim Passes By" will be given as the offering for the final week of the Bonstelle Company at the Shubert
Michigan, beginning Monday, April 2nd, and closing Sunday, April 8th.
This delicious tidbit represents Mr.
Milne at his best and though the action covers only a few hours of a single day and requires but one setting, it has been hailed everywhere as one of the sprightliest bits of writing offered for several seasons.

Do You Feel Tired After Eating?

A tired nervous feeling may be a sign of poison in your system which prevents proper digestion. Food turns into more poison and gas, making you nervous and weak. Simple buckthorn, bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adlerka, expels poison and gas from both upper and lower bowels. Removes old matter you never thought was in your system, which poisoned stomach and made you tired and nervous.
Adlerka is EXCELLENCE to guard against poisonous habits. C. R.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Items taken from The Record files of 1897 for the week corresponding to this week.

Albert Bafnham's home from Detroit.

Miss Lada McRobert visited her sister at Milford, last week.

Fred Tousey has gone into the grocery business in Salem.

W. F. Lockwood and Clay Canins visited in Detroit one day last week.

Thad Knapp and Claude Burgess were home from the U. of M. over Sunday.

Master Jamie Dubuar celebrated his 7th birthday March 17th, with a little company of friends at tea.

The marriage of Miss Lena Keller to Mr. Henry Everett occurs at the bride's home next Monday.

During the absence of Miss Covert, Mrs. Carpenter is teaching in the grammar room this week.

Married, January 17th, in Windsor, Earl Phelps to Florence Tuttle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Tuttle.

C. A. Downer left Tuesday for the Klondike country. He expects to catch Messrs. Abbey and Biery within a week.

Dr. M. A. Patterson was called today to assist Dr. D. A. McLagan of Detroit in an eye operation at Carlo Canada.

Jasper Elliott made an application through J. K. Lowden last September for a pension and this week he was notified that it had been allowed.

The marriage of Miss Emma Finar and Will Newbound, both of Highland, occurred at the home of Ed Lockwood of this place last week Tuesday.

Harvard German, aged 14, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry German, died Saturday night.

An operation was performed on him Tuesday morning which was successfully accomplished, but later blood poisoning set in and he grew rapidly worse until the end came Saturday night.

MRS. MAI NOBLE DIED IN DETROIT.

Mention was made in The Record last week of the fact that Mrs. Mai Noble had undergone an operation at Grace hospital in Detroit on Wednesday.

Up until Friday night her condition seemed to be encouraging to members of her family, but on Saturday morning she was not so well and she continued to fail until death claimed her soon after midnight Sunday morning.

When the news of her death became current about the village Sunday morning it brought great sorrow to many Northville people who had known her from infancy and who had through many years of intimate association learned to love her dearly.

To those who had enjoyed her acquaintance and friendship for a shorter period the sad news also brought its weight of sorrow. She was universally esteemed by all who knew her, and she represented the highest type of Christian womanhood.

Faithful and devoted to those of the same class who always were given her first consideration she was none the less devoted and faithful to every worthy cause to which she willingly and cheerfully gave much of her time and effort.

She was a member of the Eastern Star, of The King's Daughters, and of the Presbyterian church, and these organizations were greatly aided by her efficient leadership.

For many years she was organizer at the church of her choice and she had charge of the music and her efforts to make her part of the service both helpful and enjoyable will not soon be forgotten by those who know of her labors.

She greatly loved music and believed that through the service of song people were brought a little closer to the realization of the higher and finer things of life.

At Christmas time, at the glad Easter season, and all the other festivities of the church, she desired to present a musical program that would not only entertain, but one that would also inspire.

And thus it seems doubly sad that she should be taken away just at this time when all the world was awakening to the spirit of Easter and the followers of the Master are being quickened and inspired by the songs of His resurrection.

Let us hope that in that fair land, where sorrow and strife are unknown, she is being blessed and comforted by the celestial choir.

May Belle Coldren was born on the Coldren homestead west of this village, 43 years ago last August, being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Coldren.

She spent her childhood and youth there and after graduating from the Northville High school entered the University of Michigan where she graduated in the literary and music departments. For a number of years after her graduation she was supervisor of music in the public schools at Carney, N. J. In 1910 she was united in marriage to Harrison Butler Noble and they took up their residence at Crookston, Minn., where they resided until the poor health of Mr. Coldren called the daughter back home.

To the union was born one son, Charles. Mr. Noble died about eight years ago.

The deceased was a devoted mother, a loving and dutiful daughter, and a true and generous friend, and by her death this community has suffered an irreparable loss.

To the bereaved parents and little son the warmest sympathy is extended, and may they find comfort and solace in the knowledge that their loved one filled her life full of the richest and best things and rendered a loving service to all who came within the circle of her activities.

Funeral services were held at the home on Wednesday afternoon and were conducted by Rev. J. E. Webber of Royal Oak, a former pastor of the church.

The remains were placed in the vault.

CATHOLIC CHURCH NOTES.

On Easter there will be services at 10:00.

Catechism every Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES.

Sunday morning services at 10:30. Evening service at 7:30.

Dr. W. T. Jacques will preach both morning and evening. Will have appropriate music for the occasion.

Sunday school at 12:00. Christian Endeavor at 6:30.

Subject for morning sermon, "Sleep." For evening, "The Voyage of Life."

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES.

Elsewhere in today's Record will be found the program and order of exercises for Easter.

We invite the public to worship with us.

Good Friday services will be held at the church this Friday afternoon, at two o'clock, to which all the people of the community are cordially invited.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES.

The Easter service entitled "Light of Hope" will be given in the main room of the church. Although the work on that room is not finished it will be made fit for this occasion.

It was a woman who preached the first Easter sermon. "Do you know who she was?" The first Easter sermon will be the subject of the pastor's evening sermon.

The pastor's Sunday school class has almost trebled in size and that means about three times as many boys who are anxious to earn money for their camping trip this summer.

Do not forget the Northville shore boys when you have a job that a boy can do.

Few buildings will be lighted better than the church will be when the work is finished. The indirect lighting of the platform is a feature that is creating much favorable comment.

Remember the opening and rededication on Sunday April 8th.

NEW PLAN FOR ROAD BUILDING.

The Northville town board this year are intending to adopt a new scheme in the way of road building.

They have made arrangements with the House of Correction authorities to do the work of road building and repairing with prisoners and the board figures that the saving in expenses will be more than half what it has been under the old system.

The prison authorities will also be able to furnish the teams and men to do the hauling of gravel for both road building and repairing.

Supervisor Yerkes believes that in this manner the town will be able to build some permanent roads that will be a credit to the town and at a very small cost.

Heretofore the town has been expending a lot of money on roads with not much permanent results. It has been rather in the nature of a patch work system and it is to avoid this sort of a thing that the board this year will try out the prison labor system which has been already used with such remarkable success in the building of county roads in the vicinity of the prison farm.

Supervisor Yerkes urges all voters to get out on election day and to express their favor or objection to this plan.

At the town meeting hour, (2:00 o'clock), Superintendent Denniston of the House of Correction farm will be present and an adjournment will be taken for an hour to the Ladies Library where Mr. Denniston will tell the people of the township what he will be able to do for us.

NEW VILLAGE PLAT TO BE DISPLAYED.

There will be a plat of Northville village on exhibition at Lovewell & Smith's office on election day, April 2, 1923.

James Gibson, head of the title-index department at the Wayne County building, will be there to give any information required by home owners. It is earnestly requested that owners of land in the village of Northville look the plat over carefully, in the hope that any possible errors may be discovered. The reason being that if it can possibly be done legally, the county auditors wish to have the plat adopted as the legal plat of Northville village.

ENTERTAINED GRAND WORTHY MATRON.

Last Thursday afternoon and evening Orient Chapter, O. E. S., had the honor of entertaining the grand matron of the Grand Chapter of Michigan, Mrs. Ada Sangster of Cheboygan, as well as guests from Bay City, Detroit, Redford, South Lyon, Plymouth and Farmington. The meeting was opened at four o'clock in the afternoon and four candidates were initiated. A bountiful dinner was served at 6:30 and after spending a pleasant social hour the chapter again convened and the mysteries of the order were exemplified to four candidates, the work being done in a most creditable manner.

The high school orchestra furnished music during the serving of the dinner.

Modern Cleaning—Electric

Old-fashioned cleaning day, with its upset rooms, its tiresome rug beating and sweeping, is a task all women shun. Modern housecleaning—with the Electric Vacuum Cleaner—is simple and pleasant.

Rugs, carpets, draperies, curtains and upholstered furniture are cleaned with a new degree of thoroughness without moving them from their usual place. And it is sanitary because there is no scattered, germ-laden dust, as with other cleaning methods.

THE DETROIT EDISON COMPANY

A Corner in Easter

By F. H. SWEET

"After things equal," said Helen Westlake, "I would like to see you without lowering the price to the exclusion of her two immediate companions." "I would marry a man who was particular—fastidious, even in matters of fashion, and with some individual taste and the firmness to maintain it; and all that equal, a man of quick decision and push in business. Gentleness and softness is all very nice, but I prefer a husband who will crowd his way into the arena and lead it, even though his possessions should make such energy unnecessary. Men grow rusty just as rapidly as unused tools."

Two gentlemen were standing in an alcove examining some prints. As the words ceased, one of them looked at his companion quizzically.

"That's for you, Tom," he said in a low voice. "I'm out of the race. She made that plain a week ago."

"Oh, I don't know," said Tom Fallon, "carelessly. The words were rather sweeping, and the Toms, Hicks and Harrys are numerous. Miss Westlake is a very popular girl and as she says herself, has opinion. I am too hopelessly sluggish to even come within range of her benevolent leverage." "But after they had left the house, and he was walking down the sidewalk, his pleased expression showed that the words were still on his mind, and that he did not feel he was within range of her thoughts. Indeed, of late he had fancied there had been a new look in her eyes and a new tone in her voice when he was near. But they had been elusive."

Westlakeville was very aristocratic, very small and very remote from commercial centers. A hundred miles of uncomfortable railroad traveling, and two days' absence, were the necessities of out-of-town shopping on the two dry goods stores and the one small millinery establishment were to a large extent the sources of supply in the last court of appeal of local Suppose we draw up the papers at once. There's a lawyer next door."

Billy stared, then laughed incredulously, and with some relief. "It's you who're talking now," he rejoined. "You've never done a day's work in your life, and you couldn't run a store if you tried. Besides, you've got too much money to fool with business."

"I'll have a try at it, anyhow—unless you back down on your word."

"Oh, I won't back down," declared Billy. "You really mean it?"

A half hour later the papers were made out and signed and the money

Had Spoken Disparagingly of the Toms. Then Tom turned briskly to the late proprietor.

"What are you going to do now, Billy?"

"Don't know," he replied, "unless I get a tickling somewhere unless I can find a place to start again. I'd never have said what I did to a regular business man. It's enough, anyway, I suppose, but I didn't want to let it slide away from the corner."

I am glad to hear that, Tom. Now I'll engage you to manage the store for me. First I want you to pack away everything you've got with you on it, those high-top shoes, those everything. Pack them away so that roughly they can't be got at under two or three months at least, then I'll let you have a thousand dollars to go and buy some cream and gray goods with. You know more about buying than I do. We'll make such a display of cream and gray as Westlakeville never knew before."

"But—good Lord, man! It doesn't look like that would ruin the store! Green is fashionable now, and cream gone."

"We'll force it back then," said Billy, "hurry along and push the new goods down my throat. And say watch the other side and put prices fresh. We want no competition. Put some of the new goods at cost and dilute the rest with Easter bargains. And oh, don't mention this sale for the present."

He went out and sought the other dry goods store. An hour later that was his also, with the proprietor engaged and given similar instructions. Then he went to the millinery establishment.

It still lacked five weeks of Easter, and the fashionable people were waiting for the first of the month to bring their new magazines with the latest possible hints on Easter costume. When they came there was a general rush to the stores and millinery establishment.

Tom Fallon was running up a column of figures when Helen Westlake

"We'll Force It Back, Then."

hurried into the millinery store, her face worried and full of consternation.

"Show me some goods in green," she said to the girl behind the counter—"anything. I never heard of such poor business men! There isn't a bit of green in either of the stores, and even your window here is filled chiefly with hats in all combinations of cream and gray. But it's green that's in fashion, not cream. Surely you must have something in green packed away."

"Not in green," the girl answered. "We have goods in all other colors and shades; but all except the cream and gray are put aside for our dis-

An Income Every Day

How many days of the year does your farm lay you off without pay? E. V. Wilcox, who has been studying this problem for years, cites some surprising facts in

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

And then tells how your farm may give you a better and a more regular job—as a matter of fact, an income every day.

Briefly, the trouble lies in the fact that, with a one-crop-system, it's too long between pay days. One needs a home garden, fruit trees, poultry, dairy cows—anything that will round out the seasons and bring in the extra dollars—but read what Mr. Wilcox has to say about it.

There's another article in next week's issue which will also pay you to read—it's about how our present high tariff costs farmers $301,000,000 a year. And for only one dollar you can get 52 numbers which will help you make more money in '23.

EASTER DAY

Words cannot utter Christ His returning—
Mankind, keep jubilee—
Strip off your mourning,
Crown you with garlands,
Set your lamps burning.

Comes, His sheaf bringing.

Puts on her flowers,
Leads out her lambskins,
Builds up her bowers;

"The girl shook her head."

"You'll have to ask the proprietor,"
she said.

Tom came forward gravely.

"Won't you?" began Helen; then she stopped, stared, and began to com-

Tom Fallon, what are you doing here behind the counter?" she demanded.

"Crowding my way into the arena,"
he answered mildly.

Helen colored and bit her lip, then started resentfully toward the door.
But half way there she paused, choked and broke suddenly into a ringing laugh.

"You may show me the prettiest things you have in cream and gray," she said to the girl, as she returned,
again to the counter. "After all, it will be in fashion—Vestibule fashion at least."

"When she left, Tom accompanied her to the door."

"I hope," he began.

Significance of Easter Egg.

The colored Easter egg, which is today chiefly a means of entertaining children, has in reality a profound sacred significance. The egg has from the remotest ages been regarded as the symbol of creation or new birth, and all the ancient religions possessed ceremonies in which the egg figured in this emblematic sense.
The Christians adopted it as the symbol of the resurrection of Christ and in the early ceremonies, it was colored red in allusion to His blood shed for sinners on the cross.

Through the centuries since the beginning of Christianity various games and contests have been played everywhere in Christendom in which the egg held a prominent part.

Egg-Rolling Is Old Custom.

The custom of coloring eggs, rolling them, battling over them is really as old as the goddess Eostre and is among the inheritances common to all Germanic tribes whether on the continent or in the British archipelago.

In this country the Pennsylvania Germans were enthusiastic followers of the ideas and customs of Easter-tide from the days of William Penn.
In 1850 and until 1855, in Philadelphia on Easter hill—now leveled, lost and forgotten among the thickly built-up residences on Broad street north of Girard avenue—rolling colored eggs marked when held in hand and fighting joyfully in the egg contests made up an annual feast of merriment.

Palestine Always Holy Land.

Whoever form each different creed may adopt in celebrating its Holy week the dominant note is the same—it is the spring of the year, the time for freedom, the true resurrection, the dawn of life and hope. To Christians, Moslems and Jew alike Palestine will ever remain the Holy land, the cradle of so many faiths, for which so many have faith for the future.

ing that the swollen Missouri river is rising as new ice gorges form in the river around Home, Neb., Omaha industries and residents along the river front here were laying plans for an immediate evacuation.

A special steam whistle signal has been arranged by the Western Smelting and Refining Co. to warn employees of other firms located along the river front that the danger point has been reached.

At the sounding of the signal all employees have been warned to leave their work and seek higher points.

The river will rise higher suddenly,
if it does at all, it was said.

Sioux City, Ia.—Hundreds of residents of the bottom lands of Sioux City and the farming country surrounding are homeless driven from their places of abode by Missouri river ice gorge floods. Three lives are reported lost.

More than 5,000 farmers on the Nebraska and Iowa shores of the Missouri have left their homes, driving their stock to the highlands where they are camping until the flood recedes.

Waters are backing up on the town of Vermillion South Dakota, as the result of a gorge in the Missouri
a few miles below the city.
Damage to farm property in Iowa alone is estimated at $5,000,000.

Lincoln, Neb.—A dispatch from Blair, Neb. last Saturday reported that the huge ice gorge which made many families homeless and flooded much valuable farming lands in Iowa and Nebraska, broke with a loud detonation and swept down the Missouri river.

PERSONAL TAX IN STATE ASKED

Individual To Be Responsible for Filing His Return.

Laurens—Compulsory listing of personal property by the owner, as called for in the bill introduced in the house of representatives, by Representative
Howard E. Baxter, of Grand Rapids.
It is one of the most important tax measures introduced this session, seeking as it does to transfer from the assessing officer to the individual assessed, the responsibility for making the return.

Under the present law the taxpayer is required to make his disclosure only on demand of the assessing officer.

The Baxter bill would require this disclosure to be sent to the assessing officer, and would penalize negligence in so doing or falsifying of the return.

Ohio and Indiana have incorporated into their tax laws provisions of this sort that have placed millions of dollars of taxable personal property not previously taxed, on the rolls.

As in the case of the federal income tax, the burden of making a true return is placed squarely upon the taxpayer.

General Round-Up of Tribe Has Been Effectuated—Chief Wounded.

Moutico, Utah—Desperately wounded in the leg, "Old Posey," leader of Utah's latest and probably last Indian uprising, was hiding in the rocks with Bishop's oldest boy as he sole remnant of his little band haunted the pile face" law, and led with two prisoners convicted in a S. N. Juan county court.

A general round-up of the Plute tribe has been put into effect. Reports from Bluff stated 20 squaws and apaches had been captured and sent to the e.

One, include Posey's little boy,
son of Joe Bishop's boy, Old Posey's other son and Sanup's little boy. The rest of the two men convicted and whose escape was the cause of the trouble.

Members of the tribe are in hiding at Blushing, and the tribe in battle are en route.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Tonic and Blood Purifier, and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.

LIFE BEYOND DEATH

Easter's Revelation Has Opened
New Vistas.

Natural Science Silent in the Presence of the Great Belief and Expectation.

Easter brings completion to the sciences.

All the secular sciences conduct man as far as death, and there they stop. The door of the tomb is a wall, tall, strong and insurmountable by them.

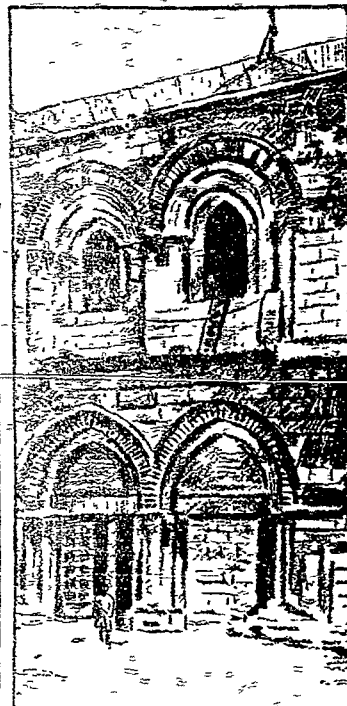

Geology, geography, astronomy, chemistry, physiology, biology and its other divisions bring us on, with an always increasing precision, to an understanding of life's functions and activities, up to that point. There they drop us, for beyond death natural science has not learned to travel. It has no formulae to express anything on the other side of the closed door of death.

And after much bruising of brain, and vain beating of hands against that obstacle, it confesses itself beaten. It has come to an impasse, it declares that because it cannot pass, that there is no passage, nothing beyond—the tomb is the end of all.

Either that, or it accepts the Easter miracle as it must, if it will be fair to the evidence, towards historical revelation and towards theology, "the queen of all the sciences"—and acknowledges that Easter's revelation owns all human knowledge, and opens before it new, endless vistas for exploration and future progress.

It would be a sorry conclusion to all science if it brought us only to an ending in the corruption, the annihilation of death. And an unsatisfactory ending.

For the great majority of mankind, never has, and never will believe that the closed tomb ends everything. Life here is too full of inequalities to make that just. The analogies in nature, which had no definite ending for any thing else but life, help to prove it untrue. And justness and truth are the keynotes upon which natural science builds up all its theories to arrive at ultimate fact.

—Oldest Church in Jerusalem.

Science, which is perhaps the projection of the ripest and best of humanity, heeds Easter.

For science cannot avert death! Men live to their threescore and ten, or beyond that for a few years of labor and sorrow, as they did in the Psalmist's days, before science had traveled very far along the roads of development.

But since Easter rolled away the wall from the tomb, science may now claim to bring men onto the threshold of a new and glorified life, the resurrection life. The tomb is now but an episode in lives which were—always were—immortal.

Easter shows the tomb is open on the other side from us—open onto a new garden of Edenic soul life, the Paradise of God. And some day it is to open on our side also, and let those blessedly resting ones out into renewed bodily life, which cannot be bound between a birth and a death.

For one man actually, undeniably went through the tomb into that Paradise, and came back at Easter with an everlasting, undying body!

Just as the little crocus looks up stiff and straight, as a prophecy that all the temporarily dead bulbs and roots and seeds will arise in their own time.

Science teaches the imperishability of matter, and it is true logically endowed when, advancing a step, it teaches also the immortality of man.

Then there is but another step onward, to a grateful acknowledgment of the truth taught by the well attested fact of the Resurrection, that as He rose so shall all our dead also arise at the great Easter, which shall fulfill the promise of all the Springs!

It is the mission of the Church which is His Body here and now to complete the thus inspired teaching of the natural sciences, and show us that every one who really desires so to do may spend eternity along with its King and Owner, after the last Easter has opened for ever the tomb of death! —Montreal Family Herald.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

Marshall—It was 61 years ago, this month that Marshall became a city, with the late Charles P. Dibble first mayor.

Lansing—The capital punishment bill, which was voted down in the house last week, has been reconsidered by a vote of 45 to 40 and laid on the table.

Grand Rapids—John Toeller, of Battle Creek, was elected president of the Michigan Retail Dry Goods Association which met here last week in its fifth annual convention. Mr. Pleasant—The Annual Rural Life conference was held at Central Normal here. It was an effort of the Normal to harmonize and co-operate the rural school and the community.

Flint—Survey by the Flint real estate board last week showed that this city's population has reached 126,000 and probably will increase to 152,000 by August 1. The 1920 census placed Flint's population at less than 100,000.

Flint—The semi-annual convention of the Michigan Secretaries' association was held in Flint last week. Fifty delegates, representing Chamber of Commerce organizations in the larger cities of the state were in attendance.

Ann Arbor—Milton Madden Detroit, is one of 10 University of Michigan students selected as members of Company E, Fourth Regiment of Scabbard and Blade national honorary military fraternity. It was announced here last week.

Owosso—Mrs. Lydia Turner Crane, 82 years old, widow of Edward Payson Crane, former American consul in Stuttgart, Germany, died here last week. Mr. Crane was appointed American consul by Grover Cleveland during his first administration.

Lansing—A bill increasing the rabbit season one month decreasing the bag of ducks to 10 a day and 25 a season, and prohibiting the shooting of quail, which are closed as song birds was adopted last week by the house by a vote of 68 to 21.

Ann Arbor—The 1923 Michigan year book of senior students at the University of Michigan will be dedicated to William L. Clements of Bay City, regent of the university and honor of the Clements Memorial Library which will cost approximately $700,000. The building is to be dedicated in June.

Owosso—James Oliver Garwood, author and conservationist, has been requested to confer with Henry G. Wallace United States secretary of agriculture, on plans for preserving the Superior national forest in Minnesota. The particular advice sought is in regards to highway construction through the preserve.

Port Huron—Morton Slav, 61 years old, Great Record keeper of the Great camp of Michigan of the Maccabees, died suddenly last week at his home following a stroke of apoplexy. Mr. Slav has been afflicted with Maccabee circles since 1888, when he became an officer of Calhoun tent of Battle Creek.

Detroit—The biggest exemption claim that has come in this year to the income tax office here was that of a workman who made his return last week. He claimed $2,500 exemption for himself and wife and $400 for each of his 10 children under 18 years. This made the total exemption $6,500, or much more than the man's income.

East Lansing—First of a series of six weekly programs which will be broadcast from the Michigan Agricultural college radio station was given last week. The college department of electrical engineering is handling the mechanical end of the broadcasting over the college equipment. The station, known as WKAR, broadcasts on a 360 meter wave length and has a radius of several hundred miles.

Lansing—Associate Professor A. C. Conger, of the department of zoology and physiology, has been named acting head of the department, at the Michigan Agricultural college to fill the position vacated by the death of Dr. Walter B. Barrows, a week ago. The state board of agriculture at the same time this appointment was made, named L. Whitney Watkins, commissioner of agriculture as the representative on the New M. A. C. union board.

Lansing—Representative Ate Dykstra, of Grand Rapids, introduced a bill last week to require county treasurers to subdivide among cities and villages, the amount of automobile license money returned to the county by the state, in proportion to the amount paid, with the provision it must be expended for street improvement work.

Representative William Rasmussen, of Montcalm, offered a bill exempting up to $2,000 the property of farmers in the preparation of the assessment rolls.

Detroit—Nearly 210 tons of spoiled food, purchased by dealers in this city at a low price in the hope of selling it to customers as palatable and safe, was condemned during the last year by inspectors of the food division of the department of health under C. W. Chilson, chief inspector. The majority of the food was in the hands of dealers when condemned and included 52,196 pounds of pork, 50,509 pounds of fruit, 38,492 pounds of beef, 36,936 pounds of candy, 18,473 pounds of veal, 6,332 pounds of canned goods.

REDS' DEFENSE GIVEN A JOLT

FOSTER PROSECUTION GRILLS COMMUNIST ON ALLEGED CONSPIRACY MEET.

STATE ATTACKS FOSTER'S ALLY

Radicals Plan To Send Members to Join Klan, American Legion Claimed by Attorney.

St. Joseph, Mich.—The prosecution in the trial of William Z. Foster charged with criminal syndicalism, threw a bombshell into the ranks of the defense, when it brought into the case the report of another government spy, who, like "K-97," star witness against Foster, is posing somewhere in the councils of the Communists, as a "Red" and informing the department of justice of their every move.

According to this report, some 40 or 50 Communists met secretly in New York city, a week ago Sunday when the Foster trial had been under way a week and discussed plans for "the distribution of arms in the event of an uprising."

The state moved to bar further testimony by Charles E. Ruthenberg in the trial of William Z. Foster, charged with criminal syndicalism, and asked Judge Charles White to strike out Ruthenberg's testimony of last week.

Charles Gore, prosecuting attorney, cited Michigan authorities to support his contention that a co-defendant is not a competent witness.

The testimony showed that at the meeting in New York last week, that hereafter the Communist party of America was to consist of a very confidential committee, which was to direct its illegal work, distribute illegal literature, send men into the American Legion, the Ku Klux Klan, the army and the navy and in case of uprising take care of obtaining and distributing arms.

RHINE EXPENSE PLAN DRAFTED

Allied and U. S. Negotiations Over Army Cast About To Bear Fruit.

Washington—A settlement of the army cost problem seemed nearer than it has been at any time since this government and the Allied powers have been in controversy over the payment of the $250,000,000 due America.

There are important issues yet to be worked out, it is learned, but the negotiations have taken a decidedly favorable turn, state department officials admit, and an agreement may come within the next week or ten days.

Washington officials withheld any and all details of the proposal pending, taking the position that diplomatic negotiations of this character cannot be successfully conducted in the open.

The Allies still insist, it is stated, that they cannot raise the full amount due America at one time.

Originally it was proposed by the British, French and Belgians that the United States reimburse itself out of future reparation payments which Germany is expected to make.

MME. SARAH BERNHARDT DEAD

Famous Tragedienne Passes Away in Paris—78 Years Old.

Paris—Mme. Sarah Bernhardt is dead. The great actress died at her home here Monday after a lingering illness. She clung grimly to life, and continued to breathe for hours after doctors had abandoned all hope.

Bernhardt was 78 years old. Despite advice of physicians during the last year that all strenuous activities be given up, she insisted upon appearing whenever possible.

For more than 60 years Bernhardt had been before the public, admired by the world, courted by kings and princes in her younger days, and in her wild personality fairly typifying the spirit of her country.

Mme. Bernhardt was born in Paris October 23, 1845, and christened Rosine Bernard.

Her first professional appearance was at the Comedie Francaise.

DEATH PENALTY GIVEN BISHOP

Russian Church Head and Sixteen Priests Are Convicted.

Moscow—Archbishop Zepiak, head of the Roman Catholic church in Russia, and all the 16 priests on trial with him charged with opposing the soviet government, were found guilty Monday. Archbishop Zepiak and Vicar General Butchavitch were sentenced to death. The Central Executive Committee ordered a stay of execution of the death sentences.

Five of the prisoners were sentenced to ten years' imprisonment. Eight others received three year sentences, while two were given a six months' term, the latter including one choir boy, whose sentence was commuted.

As the supreme court is the highest judicial authority, there is no chance of a new trial being granted, but the Russian executive committee has the power of pardoning the convicted men or commuting their sentences.

Week's News in Brief

Former Michigan Congressman Dead
Seattle, Wash.—George F. Richard, son, 72, former representative in congress from Michigan, died at the home of his daughter at Bellevue, near Here last week.

Judge Fines Self for Being Late
Savannah—Seven minutes late in court, Judge Guy B. Park, of the Platte County Circuit Court, fined himself $1 for each minute as the first official act in opening sessions.

Entering Norwegian Cabinet Resigns
Christiania—The Norwegian government has resigned, following rejection by the Storting of its proposal for a commercial treaty with Portugal. The proposal was voted down 119 to 22.

States Demand Truck Mirrors
Detroit—Fifteen states and the District of Columbia now require mirrors on motor trucks. The states include California, Delaware, Indiana, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Vermont and Washington.

Snake Breaks 2 1/2-Year Fast
London—A monster python at the zoo has broken a two and a half years fast by devouring a pigeon. He has celebrated the feat by eating three more at one meal. Snakes have notoriously erratic appetites, but this particular specimen is evidently bent on making up for lost time.

Firebell Brings Witnesses to Court
Horton, Kas.—In order to subpoena 1,650 witnesses in the trial of two snop strikers, who are accused of violating the industrial court law, the sheriff of Brown county, Kansas, rang the fire bells here, where most of the witnesses live, and when the crowd had assembled virtually every person in it was notified to be in court.

Would Link Mississippi with Atlantic
Washington—Representative Kelly of Pennsylvania, introduced a bill in the last session of congress to authorize an appropriation of $45,000,000 for a waterway connecting the Atlantic Ocean with Lake Erie. The waterway would begin at the junction of the Ohio and Allegheny rivers and would connect with French creek in Pennsylvania and Lake Harbor.

Air Mailman One Day, Is Killed
Salt Lake City—Paul M. Connors of Salt Lake City, who joined the United States air mail service here, was fatally injured at the local air mail field when the machine he was piloting fell 200 feet. Donald A. Templeton of Jackson, Mich., a passenger, was seriously hurt. Connors served in the air during the war and held a lieutenant's rank in the air service reserve corps.

Michigan Postoffice Vacancies
Washington—Names of the most important postoffices in Michigan appear on a list issued by the civil service commission of vacancies for which examinations are to be held shortly. Among the cities enumerated are Albion, Ann Arbor, Battle Creek, Bay City, Cheboygan, Grand Haven, Grand Rapids, and Muskegon. Many smaller offices are included in the list.

Bull Terrier Is Movie Fan
Ponce, City of La.—Judge William H. England of La. city, oil operator and livestock man, has a Boston bull terrier that is a picture show connoisseur and does all three theatres here daily, including Sundays. As a rule his visits are short and it would seem that he is acting in the capacity of a censor, although thus far he has voiced no disapproval of anything on the program.

Must Bag Timber Wolf
Fort William, Ont.—Frank De Vera of New York big game hunter and crack shot arrived here on a wolf hunting expedition. He left last week for Ozone, with two guides determined to protect his $10,000 wager that he can take a timber wolf's hide back to Brooklyn. He has six weeks to fill the contract or suffer loss of prestige in the "New York Big Game Club," of which he is president.

English Refuse Award Won
Crystal Falls—Stanley Phillips, a boy born in Crystal Falls, now residing with his parents in London, Eng., won a free technical course in a college in England in competition with England-born boys. He has been notified by the English authorities that he cannot have the prize, because he is American born. The young man moved from Crystal Falls about ten years ago, when his parents went to England.

Cuba Has First Ambassador
Havana—For the first time in the history of the republic, Cuba has a diplomatic representative accredited to her bearing the rank of ambassador. Maj. Gen. Enoch Crowder U. S. A., retired, presented his ambassadorial credentials to President Zayas at the presidential palace. Gen. Crowder in a brief address said his instructions were "constantly to advance the interests and prosperity of both governments."

BELIEVE IN RABBIT

American Children Are Firm in Their Faith.

Impostor or Not, the Youngsters of the United States Will Not Be Shaken.

The Easter rabbit is a impostor, a mere fly-by-night pretender, to the place of being the magic creature that brings gifts to children on the day that closes the Lenten season. The rabbit's title was made in America and is no more than a couple of generations old. Confectioners and the printers of Easter cards have combined with toy-makers to put the hoax across, says a local book shop proprietor who is an antiquarian of some note, according to a New York Sun writer.

It has been possible, he says, to make the children of America believe in the bunny because of a most striking resemblance to the real hare to the ancient traditions of every land about the coming of spring, the Easter eggs and all that sort of thing. The rabbit is only doubling in America for the hare, which holds the real title. And a hare is not the same thing as a rabbit. It happens to have somewhat the same habits, happens to look like the white hare featured in German tales for children.

The hare, he says, is born with its eyes open; it never sleeps. The rabbit is born as blind as a kitten and cat naps continually.

There is the lore of old Egypt, where the hare was the fabular of the moon even as the cat was her favorite. Pasht, the moon, kept the night watch, so did the hare, which was called "un," meaning opener, or "to open."

There are other tales of the moon and the mystical hare tales which were old when they were just begun, tales that the Sphinx had to hear when she was only in her teens. In all North America legends the rabbit is out of the running in so far as the myth is concerned.

Even in England the rabbit had no standing in the early days—the days, say, when Chaucer was raving about the sweet showers of April, the roadhouses the jolly pilgrims. In those days they were feeding sleepy heads doses of hare brains to make them wake up a little.

But, at any rate, American children believe in the rabbit and no country in the world begins even to supply so many effigies of the little creature in cotton and in plaster and in candy to children or so many pictures of it on all sorts of Easter greetings for grown-ups, as does the United States. Maybe the title has changed hands despite old world tradition.

Preparations for Easter.

Peasants of Central Europe carrying home green boughs for Easter decorations.

Palm Sunday.

Palm Sunday, the Sabbath before Easter, commemorates the triumphant entry of Jesus into Jerusalem, when he was greeted by a great multitude who spread their garments in the line of progress and cut branches from the trees and "strewed them in the way," crying: "Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest." This enthusiasm waned, however, and five days later occurred the crucifixion.

From a very early date this day has been called Palm Sunday, for it was ordained by the church that palm branches should then be carried in procession in imitation of those strewn before Jesus in Jerusalem. It is still the practice to preserve a portion of those palms and burn them for holy ashes to be placed on the head on Ash Wednesday of the following year.

WALLED LAKE MAN SUFFERS NERVOUS BREAKDOWN.

Walter Board, aged 45 years, a butcher of Walled Lake, was brought to Oakland county jail early Saturday morning by Deputy Sheriff Roy Coe, and is being held there pending application for admission to Pontiac state hospital.

Board, it is said, lives on one of the places by Coe, and according to that officer is laboring under a continuous delusion that his former wife and her second husband are near him, and that he is chasing both of them.

American Kerosene Burns Freely and Uniformly

Every user of Kerosene knows that to give satisfaction, whether used for illuminating, heat or power, it must burn freely, dry and with a steady uniform flame.

American Kerosene, because it does burn freely and uniformly, is the ideal oil for use in your incubator or brooder. It burns with a steady blue-white flame, which insures an even temperature twenty-four hours a day. American Kerosene is a pure oil that is odorless, smokeless and absolutely safe to use.

As a tractor fuel, American Kerosene has proven economical and dependable. Economical, because it develops more power per gallon. Dependable, because of its uniform quality.

These quality features of American Kerosene makes it also desirable for lighting and heating purposes.

American Kerosene is a product of superior excellence. Because, it is refined from selected crude oil.

Why?

Because, Of the skilled methods employed in its refining.

Because, It is rigidly laboratory checked and tested.

Because, It must conform to the American Certified Quality guarantee.

Because, This product must be uniform in quality.

Because, American Kerosene has proven satisfactory to thousands of discriminating users it must be a product of unusual excellence.

If you want the assurance of absolute satisfaction (and you do) use American Kerosene. Secure it at any American Service Station or dealer in your vicinity.

Your Telephone Manager Is Responsible to You for Good Telephone Service

Your Telephone Exchange Manager is directly responsible to you for your telephone service.

We urge you particularly to meet and know him.

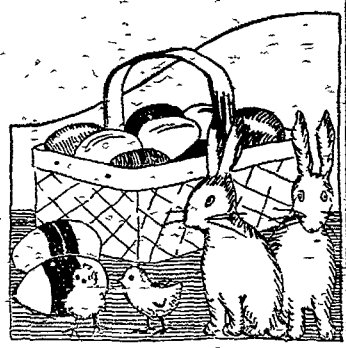

Sometimes, there may be little, irritating difficulties with the service that the ordinary trouble report does not seem to quite clear up. In such cases the Telephone Manager will make it a matter of personal attention to see that service is restored to your satisfaction.

But don't wait until then to make his acquaintance. Drop into your telephone office, some day, and meet him. If he is not in, capable representatives will gladly attend your telephone needs. Or leave your card, and the Manager himself will call on you.

The telephone people will give you any information about your own telephone service or about telephone matters in general.

They are animated with just one purpose—their primary and most important business is to serve you.

LOCAL

Have you paid your water tax? It must be paid before April 1st.

The condition of Mrs. T. E. Murdoch is greatly improved this week.

There will be Good Friday services at the M. E. church this afternoon at two o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Perkins and baby visited Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Murphy in Detroit, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. LaRue of Wayne spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Sealey.

The churches of the village will observe Easter Sunday with appropriate services and exercises.

We are due for another freeze up soon. The outing flannel sheets have been packed away for the summer.

Miss Ruth Sevens of Flint, a teacher in the county normal school, is spending her vacation with Rev. and Mrs. A. K. MacRae.

The King's Daughters will hold their regular afternoon meeting on Tuesday, April 3rd, at the home of Mrs. P. R. Alexander.

Mrs. A. C. Balden was brought home from the hospital Friday night, and her condition is very encouraging to her family and friends.

Mrs. Roy Terrell and daughter, Beverly, returned a few days ago from Pensacola, Florida, where they spent several months with the Kohlers.

The next time we plant parsnips we are going to plant a spade or a fork in the same row. Then in case of a backward spring we can dig 'em out without difficulty.

Mrs. C. J. Keyser returned home Sunday from an extended visit with relatives and old friends in New York state. While absent she visited at a number of places throughout the state.

Mrs. W. A. Parmenter and children motored over to Williamston for the week-end, the former returning with Mr. Parmenter and her sister, Mrs. Grant, Putnam who remained here until Wednesday.

The annual convocation of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Michigan, will be held at Flint this year, June 5, 6 and 7 being the dates chosen. Elaborate plans are being made by the Flint templars for the entertainment of their guests.

The Young People's society of the Presbyterian church held its annual election of officers on Monday evening with the following result: President, Ray Van Valkenburgh; vice-president, Doris Beckman; secretary, Ruth Verkes; treasurer, Margery Hoarhe.

This evening members of Court Northville, Foresters of America, will enjoy their twenty-first annual banquet and get-together. There will be a large attendance and lots of fun for all. Foresters never do anything in a half-hearted way and these annual gatherings have always proved most enjoyable.

Last week Wednesday the Northville Exchange club had as its "uncheon guest" Charles A. Berkley of Detroit, who originated the Exchange club idea several years ago in his home city, and who was first national president. From that beginning the exchange idea has spread into nearly every state and in many cities of many states.

On Tuesday evening next there will be a banquet in the Baptist church to which the public is invited. This has been designated as inspection banquet and a good program of music and toasts is being arranged. The tickets will be but 50 cents and the feed will be worth much more, of course. The good fellowship will be thrown in for good measure.

Friday evening, April 6th has been selected as the date for the annual Junior hop to be given by the Juniors of the Northville schools. Finzel's five-piece orchestra of Detroit has been secured for the event, and the young people are making every effort to make the ball an enjoyable affair. Tickets will be $1.25, with 50 cents for extra lady and spectators.

Last Saturday was Edessa Daggett's birthday and she was tendered a very happy surprise by an number of her girl friends who had been invited by Mrs. Daggett to spend the afternoon with her. The guests brought many pretty and useful gifts and extended their heartiest good wishes to their little friend. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Daggett, who was assisted by Miss Ada Ely.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Keyes of Milford are spending the winter in Florida, and a few nights ago thieves forced an entrance to their home and removed great quantities of furniture, bedding, silverware, dishes and other household articles. Everything about the house was ransacked as if the thieves were looking for valuables. No clue was left by the visitors.

Perhaps it just happened that way, but at a recent service given as a farewell to a certain highly esteemed pastor the choir and congregation sang as the opening hymn that familiar song, "Oh, Happy Day." It reminded one, however, of the pastor who had been called to become chaplain of a state prison. At his closing service he selected for his theme the words "I go to prepare a place for you, that where I am you may be also."

Today is Good Friday.

D. M. Winn is spending his vacation at his home at Lumn.

Miss Marion Mulford is spending the week with her parents in Chicago.

Howard Helfrich is spending his vacation at his home in Columbiaville. Mr. and Mrs. Don McLean and children spent two weeks with relatives in Detroit.

Mrs. T. R. Carrington and children spent Wednesday and Thursday with Detroit relatives.

Robert MacRae of Flint is spending the week with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. K. MacRae.

A. E. Keeney and daughter, Isadore, are spending the week with the former's parents in Iowa.

Mrs. William Montgomery, who underwent an operation last Saturday, is now doing nicely.

There will be no meeting of the Northville Woman's club this (Friday) on account of Good Friday.

Dearborn has been promised fifteen minute car service to Detroit by the management of the D. U. R.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Helfrich and Doris are spending the week with the former's parents at Columbiaville.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Van Valkenburgh of Royal Oak, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Van Valkenburgh, Sunday.

The father and mother of former Sheriff Irving J. Coffin died within a few days of each other. Both were buried at Rochester.

Miss Lillian Lyke is home from Ypsilanti, having graduated from the Michigan State Normal college last Thursday, March 29, and now holds a life certificate.

Work on Northville's new sewer system was started again this week after the winter's shut down. An effort will be made to complete the system as soon as possible.

The N. C. C. will give an Easter party at the high school gym in this village on Saturday evening, April 14th. Music will be furnished by Delaney's orchestra of Detroit.

GOOD PROGRESS BEING MADE.

Dr. W. E. Walker of the sanatorium staff was the guest of the Northville Exchange club on Wednesday and gave a very interesting talk regarding the aims and accomplishments of the institution. A year ago the first of March, the first adult patient was received there and the results of the year's work have been most gratifying and gives great encouragement to those in charge. The monthly salary account amounts to about $15,000 and the number of patients has steadily increased.

Dr. Walker assured his hearers that it was the desire of the management of the sanatorium to cultivate the most friendly and cordial relationship with the people of this section and that the grounds would be open to the people of Northville at any time.

CONFIDENT THAT THERE IS ANOTHER WORLD

The great heart of humanity refuses to accept death as the terminal. All human instinct expects a renewal of life after this.

We, ourselves, determine with what equipment we start the experiences of the life beyond. Our training as to the control of temper and passion and all the relationships is going on now.

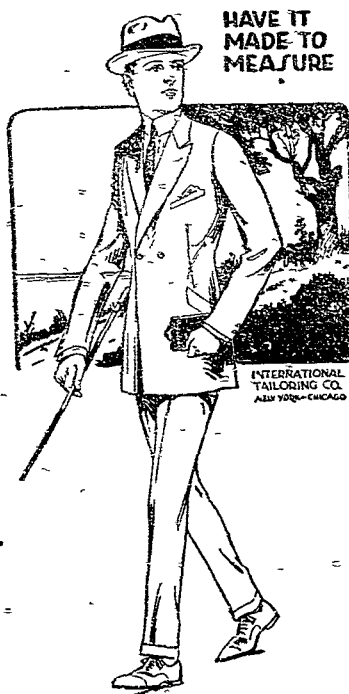

Jesus Christ exhibited the very best specimen of a human life that has ever existed. He came thru the ordinary door into human existence and He left the door into the future life with Him open for all who will go that way.

Two people were walking to Emmaus one Sunday afternoon. A wayward traveler joined them and the despondent pair received such a flood of new ideas that their whole life was changed.

The story is attractive—it is true to life—it will interest all who like to view good situations.

CHILDREN IN NEED OF HOMES.

Leon W. Frost, secretary of the Children's Aid society, Monday issued a call for more homes to accommodate children now on the waiting list of the society.

"We now have 35 children for whom we are unable to find boarding homes," Mr. Frost declared. This is the longest waiting list in the history of our organization, and it is growing daily. "We have now about 100 more children in our care than we had at Christmas time, and the total number is getting close to the 700 mark."

"Our boarding homes number between 400 and 500 but these are filled and we are in immediate need of from 35 to 20 more. The 35 children on our list must remain in their present unfavorable surroundings until we can find homes to place them in. We have investigated all cases and know that the need is urgent in each."

The greatest number of children waiting to be placed Mr. Frost said, are either infants or boys and girls over 10 years of age. "Homes have been found for most of the children between the ages of 3 and 10, but the appeal is particularly for infants and growing boys and girls," Mr. Frost asserted.—Detroit News.

Why That Lame Back?

That morning lameness, those sharp pains when bending or lifting, make work a burden and rest impossible. Don't be handicapped by a bad back. Look to your kidneys. You will make no mistake by following this Northville resident's example.

Mrs. C. B. Turnbull, First avenue, Northville, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in my family with splendid results and I have personally taken them when suffering from disordered kidneys. My back ached and was so lame, I had to get off my feet and sit down to rest. I had awful pains in the back of my head, way down to my neck and my kidneys were acting regular either I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and they soon had me feeling all right. I have never had Doan's fail me, as they always regulate my kidneys and drive away the backache." Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a grey seal—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Turnbull had. Post-Office Box 100, Northville, Mich.

LET US FORGET

JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY

Let us forget. What matters it that we Once reigned o'er happy realms of long-ago
And talked of love, and let our voices low,
And ruled for some brief sessions
royally?
What if we sung, or laughed, or wept maybe?
It has availed not anything, and so
Let it go by that we may better know
How poor a thing is lost to you and me.
But yesterday I kissed your lips,
and yet
Did thrill you not enough to shake the dew
From your drenched lids—and missed, with no regret Your kiss shot back, with sharp
breaths failing you:
And so, today, while our worn eyes are wet
With all this waste of tears, let us forget!

WALLED LAKE—MAN AND CALF MIX.

Last Friday Ira Carnes, one of the best fellows of the Walled Lake group of good fellows, met with a peculiar accident and one that he will, doubtless, never be experienced again. He attended an auction sale and purchased a registered calf, and the animal not being very large Mr. Carnes thought he could take it home in his sedan. He loaded the calf and taking the wheel of his car started down the road. He had not progressed far, however, when the animal objected to riding in the back seat and in giving vent to his (or was it a her) feelings made things so interesting that the car was ditched. Mr. Carnes finding it impossible to control the calf and to manage his car at the same time. By the very best of good fortune Mr. Carnes escaped serious injury when the car overturned, but he was severely injured about the hand and arm. The calf was not injured. Mr. Carnes will either go out of the registered calf business or he will lead the brutes with a rope hereafter.

CERTIFIED POTATOES. PAY ING. HAM FARMER.

It pays to plant high grade seed potatoes in place of the "any old thing" seed stock so often used on Michigan farms, if the experience of M. B. Clark, a farmer living near Williamston in Ingham county, holds good for the test of the state potato growers.

"I have always been like a lot of others, farmers, planting any old thing in the line of potatoes," said Clark the other day in discussing his venture with certified tubers. "Sometimes we didn't raise enough for our use. Last spring I heard of certified seed potatoes and purchased seven and one-half bushels of Golden Russets from a farmer in the northern part of the state. I didn't really believe that the certified seed would pay for the extra cost but decided to give it a trial.

"Now, I'm just an ordinary hay-seed, and don't pretend to be an expert potato grower, but I raised 356 bushels to the acre with the certified stock I planted. As a result of this experience, I say now that the best and purest seed is none too good. What these Russets did for me ought to produce a big yield for any other farmer in the state."

The certified seed Clark planted is raised by members of the Michigan Potato Producers' Association, under field inspection by members of the extension staff at the Michigan Agricultural college.

A BLISSFUL ROMANCE SHATTERED—SISTERS PULL HAIR.

One divorce and one marriage were wrecked Tuesday morning at Farmington by a sweetheart's hair-pulling contest on the street.

The wreckage included the arrest of John Patten, 18 years old, 107 west Grand avenue, Highland Park, and Mrs. Ethelene Davis, 19 of Rochester. Both are now being held in Oakland county jail while the prosecutor decides what charge to make against them.

According to Deputy Sheriff Roy Coe of Walled Lake, who made the arrests, Patten and Mrs. Davis had gone to the home of his father, Stephen Patten of Walled Lake, Monday and announced their marriage. The next morning a sister of Mrs. Davis arrived at Walled Lake and attempted to persuade her sister to return to Rochester. Incidentally she informed the Pattens that the couple were not married. The result was the departure for Farmington, and their fight on the street, which was ended just before noon by the officer.

While being brought to the jail both admitted their intention of getting a divorce for Mrs. Davis from her husband, whose whereabouts she does not know; and of getting married at once. Mrs. Davis says she has been married five years.

"I have the divorce papers all ready," Mrs. Davis informed the jail matron.

Patten was financially entrenched for matrimony to the extent of 74 cents.—Pontiac Press.

SCHEDULES COURSE FOR METERMEN.

Ypsilanti Central won in the Class B. competition which closed at Ypsilanti Saturday. The victory was wrested from Birmingham in a two-period time game.

Third place in the meet went to Mt. Clemens, who defeated Monroe 19 to 10. Ypsilanti, Birmingham and Mt. Clemens will be entered in the state meet at Ann Arbor this week. Jackson won the Class A title by defeating Highland Park, 24 to 16. The game was very hotly contested throughout the first half, but the Jackson team forged ahead in the third period and used their second string in the last quarter.

NOVI PEOPLE MAY VOTE AGAIN.

Novi school district in Novi township is to have an opportunity to vote on whether it shall rescind the $135,000 bonding proposition which carried by only two votes at an election held November 22, 1921. Judge Glean C. Gillespie so ruled Wednesday morning in an opinion handed down in two suits heard by him involving the school controversy. The court ordered a writ of mandamus issued direct to the school board of the district compelling them to submit to the electors at a special vote the question of whether the previous bonding proposition is to be rescinded. The opinion disposes of three civil suits, one of which is still pending.

The Novi school board started shortly after the special election in November, 1921, when by a vote of 129 to 127, residents of Novi village and immediate surroundings were able to put over a bonding proposition to build a consolidated school. Larger property owners in the township were displeased over the outcome and stirred up enough sentiment against it so that Frank C. Hamilton and several other residents of the district filed a bill in court to have the election annulled, claiming fraud and illegal voting.

On June 27, 1922, enough signatures were obtained to present a petition to the board of education asking it to submit to the electors the question of whether the bonding proposition should not be rescinded. This was voted down by the school board on July 3. George B. Yerkes and others then applied to circuit court for a writ of mandamus to compel the board to submit the question.

At the annual meeting on July 10, 1922, the school district by a vote of 143 to 36 directed that the school board take no step to contest in court the Hamilton suit. When the school board ignored this resolution, Clara I. Chapman and other residents brought an injunction suit in circuit court asking for an injunction to compel the board to obey the instructions given at the annual meeting.

Judge Gillespie in his opinion disposed of the Yerkes and Chapman suits. He held that the electors have a right to vote again on the bonding proposition and can vote to rescind their former action if they can muster a majority of the votes. On the other question he held that the district could not interfere with the board's action in defending a suit. The bonds have never been sold. If at the special election the court has ordered, the bonding proposition is rescinded there will be no necessity for proceedings with the Hamilton case, which seeks to test the legality of the previous election.—Pontiac Press.

SALEM MAN DIED SUDDENLY ON THE STREET.

George Carey of Salem township came to Northville Tuesday afternoon with his nephew and had intended going from Northville to New Hudson. Mr. Carey was to meet his nephew in front of the post-office after he had done some trading about town. They met according to agreement and as the old gentleman was about to get into the auto at the curb in front of the post-office he was stricken with heart trouble and sank to the sidewalk, exclaiming "I am going." Death came before any one could get to him. A crowd was soon attracted to the scene and the unfortunate man was taken into the post-office and a physician was summoned who announced that death had called him without warning.

The remains were taken to Schrader Brothers' funeral chapel and prepared for burial. Mr. Carey was 80 years of age and was born in Commerce township, Oakland county. In 1862 he was united in marriage to Elizabeth Buell of Highland and to the union four children were born, three of whom survive—George of Salem, Frank of Northville, and Mrs. Charles Paulger of Plymouth.

Funeral services were held at the Chapel on Thursday morning and were conducted by Rev. William Richards of the M. E. church. Interment took place at Milford.

EASTER FLOWERS

Easter of 1923 brings the same rare message of the flowers—the sweet song of fragrance and melody. The loving kindness of the Hand which paints the lily and gives to it the grace to shed abroad its fragrance, round its abiding place, has writ therein a message to cheer the soul of man, and every flower proclaims it could we the writing scan. So let your home be filled with the beauty and perfume of some rare flower on Easter morn.

George Pearsall was down town on Monday in his wheel chair, it being the first time he had ventured out since last fall.

Mrs. Mae Lanning is being treated at the Osteopath hospital in Detroit, instead of the Highland Park institution.

Master Grandon Vandewalker of Ypsilanti, visited his friend, Master John LeRue, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Seeley, Tuesday.

Mrs. Arthur Simmons and two children are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Simmons at Claremont, Fla. They were accompanied by Mrs. Simmons' sister.

Mrs. Jare Sessions had the misfortune to fall in her home a few days ago, and though not seriously injured, she has been confined to her home since the accident occurred.

Mr. and Mrs. Edvard Teshka and Aloud Teshka spent the past week at Rochester, N. Y. at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Paul Leitza.

They were called there on account of the death of Mr. Leitza.

At the meeting of the Pastime Dancing club last Wednesday night D. B. Bunn was elected president and Dr. Paul Alexander secretary and treasurer.

The club will give another dance within a few weeks.

The Rev. H. A. Simpson, field secretary of the Presbyterian Synod of Michigan, visited the Rev. Wm. Richards last Thursday and renewed their acquaintance, both being pastors together at Deckerville at one time.

A. M. Whitehead, a former Northville resident, will soon return to the old town and open a tanning and plumbing shop in rooms over J. A. Huff's hardware.

Mr. Whitehead was employed by a number of different Northville firms while a resident of this village.

Next Monday is township election. In addition to the annual township officers to be voted for there will be both state and county officers. There will also be an amendment which provides for the establishment of port districts and their incorporation.

A card from Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Babbitt states they are at The Miramar, at Pass Christian, Miss., "fronting Gulf of Mexico," and that they are having a delightful time. They have met a number of people with whom they became acquainted in former years, and thus their outing is especially enjoyable.

A week ago last Sunday the Northville municipal band gave a delightful concert at the sanatorium and a large audience enjoyed the splendid program given.

At the request of Manager, W. H. Safford, members of the organization, very generously tendered their services for the afternoon and contributed their share in providing an entertainment for the "shut-ins" at the institution. It was a fine service to render and all who were privileged to enjoy the program are very grateful.

E. J. Friar, representing the dairy department of the State Board of Health, was in Northville on Wednesday and inspected the sources of Northville's milk supply, or to be more exact inspected the premises of those who deliver the milk to the people of the village.

To a representative of The Record he reported that he found some conditions very bad and others very good. The great need is for better facilities for sterilizing the bottles properly and for bottling the milk. He made some recommendations and suggestions to local dealers which he stated he believed would greatly improve our milk supply.

MEMORIES

As the evening star is gleaming high up in the western sky, Moonbeams o'er the lake are streaming.

While the soft night breezes sigh, Countless silvery stars are shining, And the great dipper is poised it seems high up in the northern heavens, Where the north star brightly gleams.

Now the silvery clouds are stealing on their way across the sky, Drifting on the moon concealing darkly, while they're passing by; While I dream amidst these wonders, Visions often come in vain.

Of a true and worthy comrade, whom A year ago at rest was laid.

He was a pal, a real companion, A regular prince among his friends; Though he has this world abandoned, Friendship for him never ends; And our hearts are filled with sorrow, Though the best of us must go.

Still in memory he is with us, So I dedicate this to Joe.

In memory of Joe Watts, who passed away April 3rd, 1922.

DETROIT CITIZENS HAVE A DUTY TO PERFORM.

Every good citizen of Detroit has a duty to perform next Monday that cannot be delegated to any one else. That duty is to go to the polls and cast their ballot for a clean city government. The thugs, the rum runners, the hold-up artists and the prostitutes of the city have laid their plans to control the election, but they can only succeed if the decent, law-abiding people of the city remain away from the polls. Voting is a job that cannot be turned over to George, or to Tom, Dick and Harry, but each individual citizen must take the time to go to their polling booth.

if they desire that the right type of men are chosen to administer the affairs of the city.
