THERE WERE DANCING FOOLS CENTURIES AGO.

Dr. W. E. Main handed us a copy of the Humboldt Library, published under date of August, 1885, which contained for its leading article a discussion of "The Dancing Mania of the Middle Ages." The story is told that "So early as the year 1374 assemblages of men and women were seen at Aix-la-Chapelle who had come out of Germany, and who, united by one common delusion, exhibited to the public both in the streets and in the churches. They formed circles, hand in hand and appearing to have lost all control over their senses, continued dancing regardless of the bystanders, for hours together in wild delirium, until at length they fell to the ground in a state of insensibility." The mania made itself manifest at Liege and Tongres, Metz and Cologne, and at the latter place it is said there were eleven hundred dancers who took part in the wild orgies.

Thus it is evident that the mania was not advanced as far as we sometimes think in the past centuries.

GRAND RIVER CLOSED BETWEEN FARMINGTON AND NOVI.

Due to moisture in the base and failure of the gravel surface at several points on Grand River road that highway between Farmington and Novi was Friday afternoon closed by the Oakland County Road Commissioner to all truck traffic until further notice.

Although well drained, according to L. V. Bellnap, county highway engineer, the base between the two towns has not yet become free of frost, and is soft and rubbery. The strain placed on the surface by heavy trucks operating between Detroit and Lansing has resulted in pitting of the surface, and considerable damage. Truck traffic will not be permitted to use this section until all moisture has left the base.

Truck operators are advised to detour when going to Lansing by way of Seven Mile road to Northville, then to Novi and again by way of Grand River to destination.—Pontiac Press

Northville, Redford, Farmington and Plymouth.

Doc's Tigers, another Northville team, captured first place in the Junior League. The team was composed of Dr. Snow, Van, Ward, Crève-alter and Moshammer. They also defeated Redford, Farmington and Plymouth.

A FORTUNATE FIRE.

Tuesday afternoon about 2:30 the fire alarm was sounded and the people of the village were aroused because fire had been discovered in the roof of the building occupied by Jim's Tire Shop and owned by C. R. Horton. The fire started about the chimney from some unknown cause but the blaze was soon put under control when four fire-fighters reached it with a stream of water.

A good breeze was blowing at the time and but for prompt action it might have become quite a serious matter. Chas. Stanberg of the tire shop is very grateful for the assistance rendered.

MAJOR GENERAL BALDWIN DIES.

Major General Frank D. Baldwin died at his home in Denver, Colo., Monday night of cirrhosis of the liver, aged 81 years. He was retired, but during his years of activity took part in three wars and was twice cited for bravery and awarded suitable medals. Mrs. Baldwin is a sister of Mrs. M. T. Walline, who formerly lived in this township, and she spent a number of summers on the farm here. General Baldwin was also a frequent visitor at the Walline home, and will be remembered by many of our older residents. He was born in Manchester.

BURIED IN DETROIT.

Mrs. Catherine Shurburn died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Dixon on Sunday, aged 68 years. She was born in Detroit and her whole life has been spent in this section of the state. Funeral services were held at the Catholic church in Plymouth on Tuesday morning and interment took place at Mt. Elliott cemetery in Detroit.

The Lady Maccabee public installation will be held Monday evening, May 7th.

EXCHANGE CLUB MET AT THE SANATORIUM.

The members of the Northville Exchange club were guests of Dr. Walker at the Sanatorium on Wednesday and a very bountiful and enjoyable luncheon was served to upwards of twenty-five members. The members were urged to come early so they might make a tour of inspection of the buildings and grounds and under the leadership of Dr. Walker this proved a very delightful part of the day's outing. He explained in detail just how the institution was handled and took his guests over wooded paths with enchanting vistas, through great long corridors leading from one building to another, into tunnels which connect the various units of the great structure to the kitchens, where the food for the employees and the patients is prepared, into the recreation rooms, and the sunny and attractive dining room, through the bathshop and into the refrigerator and store rooms where great stocks of supplies are constantly kept on hand, into the laboratories, and finally into the public waiting room where a half-hour was spent in social intercourse before luncheon was announced.

The ride in the embracing air and the walk through the buildings and about the grounds had sharpened any dull appetites that may have been lurking among the members and the sumptuous repast was partaken of heartily. The tables were made attractive with cut flowers in baskets that had been made in the institution and which were very unique.

After all had been served the company was called to order by President C. A. Dolph, who expressed the appreciation of the members for the kind invitation to meet with Dr. Walker and he complimented the management of the institution for the splendid and helpful work that was being done. Mr. Dolph stated that Northville people owed special thanks to Mr. C. C. Yerkes for his efforts in securing the sanatorium for Northville and that he had been invited to enjoy the luncheon with the club but pressure of business prevented him from accepting the invitation. It was the plan of the club to give Mr. Yerkes a little surprise at the luncheon and all regretted that he could not have been present. In his remarks Dr. Vaughan endorsed what Mr. Dolph had said with reference to Mr. Yerkes' activities in reducing the committee having in charge the selection of a proper site to visit Northville even after a location had been practically decided upon over in the lake region of Oakland county.

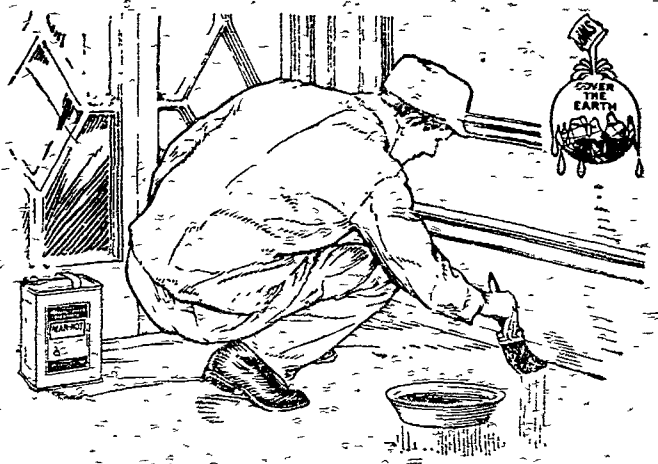

Dr. Forrest of Colorado Springs, Colo., was present as the guest of Dr. Vaughan and very kindly consented to address the meeting, and during his remarks he stated that the Detroit sanatorium was regarded as the best and most improved institution of its kind not only in America but in the whole wide world and he complimented Dr. Vaughan and Dr. Walker upon the fine work they were doing in the great health movement in Detroit. Dr. Vaughan also gave an interesting talk, reviewing briefly the accomplishments of the health board of Detroit for the past few years. He stated that the duties of the health department of every community was largely a matter of education—showing people how they might help themselves to get well and to keep well.

The number of deaths in the great city of Detroit for the year 1922 were 4,700 less than for the year 1900, in spite of the very great increase in population during the intervening years. This condition was brought about largely through the channels of public health instruction, and he regarded the matter as being one of the most important that confronts all centers of population, and he was proud to be associated with such a movement.

SENATE PASSES PRIVATE BANK BILL.

Senator Walter J. Hayes, president of the American State Bank of Detroit, has succeeded in having his private bank bill passed by the senate. Heretofore the senate has always been the stumbling block in the enactment of legislation against private banks. It is believed the house will accept the Hayes measure, as it has always been favorable to private bank legislation. The bill provides that all banks in cities of more than 5,000 population must incorporate under the state banking law. The measure will not effect the private bank in the small community. It is said that about 60 private banks in the state will be effected. Many of these banks are in the city of Detroit. The banks affected will have two years in which to reorganize.

M. A. C. COW SETS NEW COLLEGE MARK.

With the highest seven day production record held by any state agricultural college or experiment station in the country to her credit, Pauline Jane Pontiac, pure bred Holstein-Friesian in the M. A. C. dairy herd, has earned a place in the dairy world hall of fame and wonderfully brought high honors to Michigan.

Pauline produced 731.1 pounds of milk, containing 26.58 pounds of 80% butter, during the seven days of her official test. This is the best of many high records hung up by members of the M. A. C. herd in the past, and also set a mark for college cows the country over to strive for.

Other members of Pauline's immediate family have been record breakers. She was sired by Pauline's Sir Pontiac, M. A. C. Holstein herd sire. Pauline Segus Payne, another of Sir Pontiac's daughters, produced over 21,000 pounds of milk as a junior two year old, thereby breaking the state record for that age. Still another daughter, Pauline Colantha Payne, made 19,000 pounds of milk as a junior two year old, and Pauline Fayne Colantha recently checked in 26 pounds of butter in seven days as a junior three year old.

All of which shows that blood will tell, according to J. B. Burnett, of the M. A. C. dairy division, who supervises the record test work of the college herd.

The Wire Chief Keeps Your Telephone Working

THE TELEPHONE WIRE CHIEF plays a vital part in your daily existence. His is the responsibility for keeping your telephone working.

He has at his call, linemen, repairmen and installers who are working on wires and equipment constantly. And a word about these workmen: We believe you will find them thoughtful and courteous, always.

Occasionally your telephone troubles are corrected without a visit from the repairman. Perhaps he locates the trouble in equipment or lines outside your home and makes necessary repairs.

Electrical storms, ice, sleet, snow and water are frequent causes of impaired telephone service, and when storms come, telephone men are on the job for days after—often without rest—until service is restored.

The Telephone Wire Chief's first job is to see that telephone service is maintained, so that public safety and convenience may not suffer.

Will you help him with his important task in your service by being patient in time of bad weather or other trouble?

HARRY BOOPERS PLANNING BUSY SEASON.

The Free Press of Sunday last carried pictures of Harry Bopp, 33, of Northville, who is planning to shoot a record in the Michigan State shooting competition. Harry Bopp is a well-known shooter in the state and is expected to win the championship.

With the arrival of the first spring days interest awakens in many outdoor sports, one of which, trap shooting, takes a strong hold on many Michigan people who follow the scatter gun game.

During the past season Michigan qualified for a place among the leaders in the sport of breaking targets. Reports of the American Trapshooting association show that Harry Bopp of Lansing finished 15th among the shooters of the United States and Canada. Shooting at 2150 targets he finished with an average of 97.25.

These records show that Bopp was less than a point behind the second place shooter and only a fraction more than one point back of Frank Troch, the high average winner. Bopp takes shooting as a pastime and does not shoot every day as do those who lead him in averages.

Lansing produced another high marksman last season in Howard Benson, who ranked 25th in the state. Benson and Bopp tied with Troch and Frank Hughes, and posted both their stamens and ability by winning from these two leaders.

Despite the fact that he devotes most of his time to aiding in running off registered fountains by measuring the office work—Howard Hall of Northville found time enough to win the Michigan professional title in a race with C. E. Parmelee of Iron Mountain.

Although he dropped two targets in the first 50 J. N. McLaughlin of Detroit shot with an unbroken run of 170, giving him 198 out of 200 targets and won the state championship for 1922. Several other shooters broke into the final shot, among them being Dr. H. Watson of Jackson, state handicapper George Weller of Bay City, state doubles champion, C. A. Galuth of Bay City, who broke 98 out of 100 at Northville, R. C. Miller of Lansing who made a perfect score at 100 targets at Kalamazoo, and Howard of Grand Rapids, who followed with 97 breaks. T. E. Houghton of Flint who lost but one bird in 150 at Petoskey, and H. A. Barknecht of Muskegon who broke 148 at the same shoot.

Women Take Up Sport.

This sport is not confined to members of the male sex, for Michigan can produce at least one widely known worker of blue rocks in Mrs. L. G. Vogel of Detroit. When the handicaps lists are made out at each tournament, Mrs. Vogel is never to be found shooting from the 16-yard mark.

More women are being attracted to the sport each year. Miss Alice McCabe of Petoskey, although but 14 years of age, displayed unusual ability as a shooter. Mrs. Newton Root is another woman who has developed considerable skill in handling a shotgun.

Several Michigan clubs have already received sanctions for registered shoots. The Jackson Gun club opens the season with a tournament May 6 and Dr. Mitchell, secretary of the club, has prepared an attractive program. Detroit Pastime club, headed by Dr. J. T. Wray, will hold shoots each month and is planning a big tourney Labor Day. Preparations are being made for the state shoot at Petoskey. It is planned to hold it the same week as the annual Indian shoot. The latter event is scheduled for July 2, 3, 4 and 5, with the state shoot tentatively set for July 7 and 8.

It Should Be Hint Enough.

When people begin to ask us how much we weigh, there comes over us a sad and solemn feeling that it's about time to cut down on the starchy stuff.

Old Einstein's Moving Day

By AUSTIN FLEET

(© 1922, Western Newspaper Union.)

"Skinner, I got somepin'll make your mouth water," said Larry the Blood to his friend. "Y' remember Einstein, that pawnbroker guy what done us out of about a thousand berries over that little deal we pulled off last July?"

"Yup, what about it?"

"Well, I got in touch with a guy what works for Einstein, and what'd he think? Old Einstein's got a house full of furniture—antique stuff—uprown, and his family's away at the seaside, and the place's empty."

"Well, what good'll that do us?"

"Jest this. This guy, Aronson, figgers it's about time to beat it before Einstein gets wise to his pickings, and he's in with us on this play. That furniture of Einstein's all French imported, and it's worth twelve thousand berries—real antiques, no kidding, Skinner."

"Aronson's rented a house in Brooklyn, one of them respectable, old-fashioned parts where half the population's asleep all the time, and the other half just waking up. Aronson's brother has the moving business on East Fourteenth."

"Now here's the game. Aronson comes with us to Einstein's house tomorrow, and we takes the stuff away. The son-of-a-bitch—Aronson, and his don't know me; he's a green cop from Cork. We takes the stuff out, and moves it over to this house in Brooklyn that Aronson's rented in the name of Jones. We leaves it there for two or three months, till the hys and crys died away. Then it's easy 'nough to wrap it up and ship it to Boston, where we can get five or six thousand for it."

"That don't make my mouth water," answered Skinner. "Waiting two or three months don't make no hit with me."

"Aronson's offered to buy it for five thousand down," answered Larry. "How'll twenty five hundred hit you with this hot weather comin' on and rollin' chairs at Atlantic City?"

"Now you're beginnin' to talk," said Skinner. "Lead me to it."

The plans were made for a few days ahead. At the appointed time Larry and Skinner met Aronson with the van and drove to Einstein's house. Aronson had the key, and there was no difficulty in gaining admission.

"Phev!" muttered Larry, wiping the sweat from his forehead. "This sure is some job, Skinner."

They had been at work nearly three hours, and had just succeeded in carrying out an enormous French sideboard.

"Go easy—with her, boys," said Aronson. "That bit's worth two thousand berries alone. Mind you don't scrape her."

"Scrape her?" muttered Larry. "I'd like to scrape the guy that made her!"

The van was just large enough to contain the contents of the Einstein home, but at last the job was done. It was packed full, and nothing remained inside the Einstein house but the usual litter of papers, decrepit pails, broken shovels, and rags.

"Giddap, Aronson," muttered Larry, sinking down upon a thousand-dollar rug. "I guess that job's finished."

"Say, I didn't know a guy could raise such a thirst as mine," said Skinner.

"You wait," said Larry cryptically. They drove downtown with their plunder, crawled across the Brooklyn bridge, after passing through several streets about the Heights, Aronson got down and indicated a house at the corner, with drawn shades.

"I got the key," he said. "You wait here, boys, till I see if the coast's clear. Then I'll open the door and wave to you."

"Alright," said Larry, wearily. The two friends had waited about ten minutes when Aronson opened the front door and waved to them. Larry drew the van up to the curb.

"Sall right?" he asked.

"Sure," answered Aronson. "Come in and have a wet one, boys."

The "boys" obeyed the invitation with alacrity, entered the empty house, and went into the bare living room in front.

Before them stood Einstein, uncorking a bottle of whisky.

Petrified, they stood and stared at him.

"Einstein grinned. "You deserve one, sure, boys, for bringing all my stuff over the bridge free," he addressed them. "What'd you think of my new house? Nice little place, what? I want it moved in quick, because the missus is coming home tomorrow."

Larry and Skinner halted breathless fourteen blocks away.

"You—" said Skinner.

"You—" said Larry.

Fine Tapestries in Rheims Cathedral. In the sixteenth century the weavers of tapestry in Belgium were obliged to mark their work, and this also became the law for Flemish and French weavers. This has enabled us to identify some of the finest of the old productions. Among the most magnificent tapestries of the world were those in the cathedral of Rheims. The tapestries were removed to safety before the destruction of the cathedral.—Exchange.

Warned.

"She has refused to marry me," said the young man desperately. "Do you suppose she really means what she says?"

"I don't know," replied the woman-hater promptly, "but I wouldn't take any more chances if I were you."

When My Dreams Come True

James Whitcomb Riley

When my dreams come true—when my dreams come true—shall I lean from out my casement in the starlight and the dew,

To listen—smile and listen to the tinkle of the strings
Of the sweet guitar my lover's fingers fondle, as he sings?
And as the nude moon slowly, slowly shoulders into view,
Shall I vanish from his vision—when my dreams come true?

When my dreams come true—shall the simple gown I wear
Be changed to softest satin, and my maiden braided hair
Be raveled into flossy mists of rarest, fairest gold,
To be mingled in kisses, more than any heart can hold?

Or "the summer of my tresses" shall my lover liken to
"The fervor of his passion"—when my dreams come true?

ARBOR DAY PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

For more than half a century our people have been accustomed to observe in appropriate ways a day proclaimed as Arbor day. This year we are asked also to name the week which begins on April 29th tree planting week. The purpose of these observances is, of course, to call attention not only to the economic value of our forests once the pride of the commonwealth, though now sadly depleted, and to the need of reforestation, but to encourage the individual planting of trees shade trees, fruit trees and trees.

We need a comprehensive, workable forest policy, and our state department of conservation is intelligently and steadily working toward that goal.

It is fitting too since birds and trees are intimately associated in our minds that Bird Day should be combined with Arbor day.

Therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me as governor of the state of Michigan, I do hereby designate Friday, May 4th, 1923, to be set apart as Arbor and Bird day, and I urge it upon the people of Michigan in general, and the teachers of our schools in particular that suitable Arbor and Bird day programs be arranged for the day.

AT THE CROSS ROADS OF THE HEART—RUTH AND ROMANCE

The story of Ruth of Moab is a winsome one concerning domestic affections and loyalty.

The misfortunes of an obscure family of Judah brought Ruth to be the great grandmother of King David and the ancestress of the Christ.

No sweeter romance has been recorded in history than that of Ruth. It is a real story of real folks.

Home life is a severe test of character. All the faults, selfishnesses and weaknesses are here revealed. You have to summer and winter with folks to know them is the way the old adage has it.

The world needs many of the Ruth type—who reverence the past but are not bound by it.

Such souls as Ruth are the only ones for that universal community called Heaven.

MILLIONS OF FAMILIES

"I will build a car for the multitude"

Said Henry Ford in 1903—Read how the fulfillment of that prophecy is now made possible through the

FORD Weekly Purchase Plan

For many years it has been Henry Ford's personal ambition to make the Ford the universal family car—to put it within the reach of the millions of people who have been privileged to enjoy the benefits of motor car ownership.

During the past fifteen years over 7,500,000 Ford cars have been placed in the hands of retail customers—more than a million and a half of them the past twelve months—and yet there are still millions of families who are hopefully looking forward to the day when they can own a Ford.

And now the way is open.

Under the terms of this plan you can select your Ford Car, set aside a small amount each week and you will be surprised how soon you will own it. In the meantime your money will be safely deposited to your credit in one of the local banks where it will draw interest.

Think it over. Five dollars will start an account. The whole family can participate in it—father, mother, brothers and sisters each doing a little.

Why not start today. Stop in and talk it over with your local Ford dealer. He will be glad to fully explain the details of the plan and help you to get started toward the ownership of a Ford car.

FLOOD SWEEPS UPSTATE TOWNS

HUNDREDS ISOLATED BY RUSHING WATERS—FOOD SHORTAGE IS FEARED

MANY BRIDGES WASHED AWAY

Huge Dam Periled as Torrent Gorges Great Moles in Earth Banks—Train Service Cut Off.

Onaway, Mich.—A roaring, tumbling, fighting swirl of muddy water, the Black river, emptying into the South Channel near Cheboygan, Sunday, tore out huge sections of its banks, swept away bridges, railroad tracks and breakwaters and destroyed farm buildings, as it cut for itself a new course through the counties of northern Michigan. The east side, which was isolated from the west Sunday night, and as the situation steadily became worse, fear was expressed for the welfare of the rural communities, cut off from their source of supplies.

At Tower the torrent carried away the railroad embankment, disrupting train communication on the Detroit and Mackinac line. After the floods of last spring, the railroad company filled in a ledge across the river, 150 feet long and 20 feet wide. When the water began to eat its way into the fill, every man available in the district was mustered to build a breakwater of sand bags. The men worked frantically, but in vain, to stem the terrific rush.

While the new dam of the Onaway Electric Light and Power company still was holding, Sunday night, the water had gouged out the banks from behind the great concrete walls, built last summer to strengthen the dam and prevent the river washing away its foundations.

Every possible outlet in the dam was opened, and a gang of men was kept on the scene, breaking up ice jams. The heavy walls now are in midstream, and the company is unable to do anything to relieve the peril.

Train service between Onaway and Cheboygan is suspended. A fill, 150 feet long and 25 feet deep, having been swept away. This was the only connecting link by rail across the northern section of the state.

Many bridges on smaller streams are gone, so that the farmers are unable to drive to the villages for their supplies. Even should the flood abate immediately, it would take a long time to restore the lines of communication. Because of the season few of the farms, it is said, have any surplus supplies, being dependent on the towns and villages.

ST. LOUIS MAIL LOOT RECOVERED

Spectacular Raid Nets Nine Men for Robbery of Truck.

St. Louis—Nine men were arrested and more than $2,000,000 in securities stolen in the daring robbery of a mail truck here on April 2, was recovered in a spectacular raid by post-office inspectors and deputy sheriffs in St. Louis county, west of the city.

The loot was found in a luxurious bungalow at Richmond Heights, occupied by William F. Doering, 29 years old, a tire salesman and alleged gangster, who was taken into custody with Theodore Weisman, 28, proprietor of a shoe store in Johnson City, Ill., and William D. Williamson, 49, who said he was employed as a yardman by Doering.

In addition, six other men were arrested on suspicion at Clayton, the county seat, in connection with the hold-up.

According to Inspector Reuter, whose employees are busy checking up the recovered bonds, all but $30,000 of the $2,000,000 loot taken in the robbery has been returned.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run-down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Tonic and Blood Purifier, and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.

CULT MARRIAGE PERJURY BARED

LICENSE AFFIDAVIT SAYS, GIRL IS SEVENTEEN; SHE DECLARES SHE IS FIFTEEN.

SCHOOL RECORDS CONFIRM HER

State Law Fixing 16 Year Limit Is Violated In Israelite Group Weddings.

St. Joseph, Mich.—Countess Drake, one of the House of David brides, wed in "group marriages" last week on the eve of the investigation of charges of immorality against "King" Benjamin Purnell, is only 14 years old, according to the public school records of Berrien county. Confronted with this proof, while she was testifying here before Judge Harry J. Dingeman, of Detroit, sitting as a one-man grand jury, the girl is said to have admitted she was but 15 years old.

In this connection it became known that the licenses for the 14 couples were obtained from County Clerk Frank L. Hall by Francis Thorpe, assistant secretary of the House of David.

None of the contracting parties themselves appeared at Hall's office. Thorpe had the necessary affidavits from each of the brides and grooms. The affidavits for the seven licenses taken out last Friday were acknowledged by Justice Forbana. In all of them it was stated under oath that the girls were 17 years of age or older.

James Tucker, who is in charge of the office of the House of David, is understood to have purchased 14 wedding rings for the brides at a jewelry store in St. Joseph.

There is a possibility that the state may prefer charges of perjury and subornation of perjury because of the alleged false statement in some of the affidavits filed with the county clerk.

Under the Michigan law, a girl can not legally contract marriage until she is 16 years old.

FOREST FIRES IMPERIL MINES

Boy Scouts, State Troopers and Volunteers Fight Blaze.

Hazleton, Pa.—The great coal fields about here are rimmed with forest fires.

State police, game and fire wardens, boy scouts and hundreds of persons are fighting the flames which threaten the high tension power lines supplying current to 90 communities. Coal, water and electric companies have hurriedly called their employees to battle the onrushing flames.

The towns of Branchdale and Brockton have been saved from destruction by desperate work of state wardens and an army of volunteers. All citizens summoned by the state police for fire duty are compelled to serve as fire fighters.

For a time Cranberry and Harwood, mining towns, were threatened. Anthony Kerish 15 was burned to death while working with a gang of men to stop the onrush of flames in Shepland township, near Hazleton.

Delano mountain, heavily forested, is ablaze, and 500 men were fighting the flames.

Truck loads of men from Allentown saved the high tension wires which furnish power to Allentown. and the cement and slate belts of the central part of the state.

Officials blame careless fishermen and railroads for the epidemic of fires.

GENERAL FRANK B. BALDWIN DIES

Retired Michigan Soldier Passes Away at Denver Home.

Denver, Col.—Major General Frank Dwight Baldwin, U. S. A., retired, 81, noted Michigan soldier, a veteran of the Indian, Civil and Spanish American wars, died here.

As an Indian fighter he was a close friend of General Custer, next to whom Baldwin was said to have been the greatest Michigan soldier, and an intimate of "Buffalo Bill" Cody.

Baldwin was the commander of the first civilized troops to reach the south shore of Lake Lanao, island of Mindanao Philippines.

3 WOMEN ON HUNGER STRIKE

Dublin Insurgents Reported Very Weak But Holding Out.

Dublin—Mrs. Maude McBride, Nellie Ryan and Mrs. O'Callaghan, three of the republican women on hunger strike in Free State jails, were reported to be in a very weakened condition, but still holding out.

Miss Mary McSwiney, sister of the late lord mayor of Cork, is again on a hunger strike also, but so far has suffered no ill effects.

The Free State government offered to release all the women prisoners if they would consent to adopt constitutional methods in the future instead of waging actual warfare against the state, but they refused.

Revolutionary War Cannon Sold.

Martinsburg, W. Va.—At an auction sale in front of a plumber's shop at Winchester, near here, a revolution-ary-time cannon that once boomed over Fort Mifflin, built in that town by General George Washington when he was in command of the militia defending this section from the Indians, was sold for $25. Build a Home

Here are some interesting government figures:

1 per cent of all men in this country die wealthy.

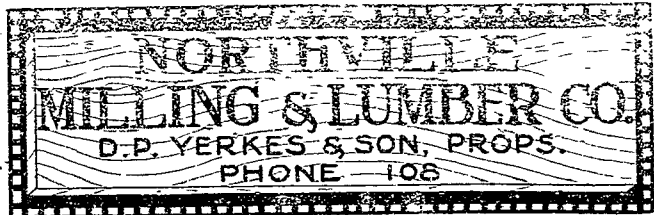

2 per cent of those who die are in "comfortable" financial circumstances.

15 per cent have from $2,000 to $10,000.

82 per cent have Nothing.

There are few men who pass thru this life who are not at some time in position where they MIGHT save and buy a HOME. And the fact that 82 per cent of the men who die have nothing proves that entirely too few of them take advantage of this opportunity.

Those who selected this week as "national garden week" did not figure on the backwardness of the season. While some very enthusiastic individuals may plant their gardens this week, the majority will wait until mittens and ear muffs can be put aside with safety. Think of planting garden while wearing the same suit of heavy underwear you have worn since last fall. Nix.

There are a lot of people in this community who are driving cars who have no operator's license, and it is about time that some of them were brought up standing. Human life is held as being of very little value by a whole lot of people who sit behind a steering wheel. They toot their horn and expect everybody to get out of their way. Pedestrians have some rights or at least they ought to have, that drivers of cars ought to respect.

An Essex sedan driven by a Mrs. Williams, who was learning to drive, collided with a big Paige driven by Paul Lovewell at the corner of Main and Wing streets Monday noon. A little girl riding with Mrs. Williams was thrown from the sedan, but fortunately escaped with only a few bruises on her arms. That the old veterans of the southland were being royally entertained and having a good time was shown by numerous illustrations printed in the paper. In discussing the theme "The Unpardonable Sin" at the Baptist church Sunday night Pastor MacRae declared the sin of neglect was the one that could not be condoned, and this was true of the material things of life as well as of the spiritual. In nature about us we must not neglect plant life if we would produce the flower or the fruit and grain, in our personal habits we must not neglect the laws of nature unless we are willing to pay the penalty, and in the spiritual relationship we must not neglect God if we desire to receive his blessings and to claim his promise.

Pictures you will not soon forget, at the Baptist church Sunday night.

J. H. STEERS WRITES FROM CALIFORNIA.

In renewing his subscription to The Record, J. H. Steers writes as follows from Hollywood, Calif.: "I had expected to have been on my way back to Michigan about this time, but when I read of the weather you are having there, I am in no hurry. We haven't had any cold weather here - I don't think the thermometer has been lower than 30 or 32 above, and for one or two nights only during the winter. The summer is the nicest here. The days are warm, but in the shade it is comfortable anytime. At about 4.00 p. m. it begins to get cool. At night I sleep with a half-dozen thicknesses of blankets over me all summer. We are only about 12 miles from the ocean and get a breeze every afternoon.

There are a good number of people from Northville and vicinity here. Mrs. Power and I called on Byron Power and A. N. Kimball last Wednesday. They are at Pasadena and are delightfully situated. We called on Roy Ambler's place of business, but he was gone. He runs a place at Pasadena. Mrs. Jennie Schaffner, was Mrs. Frank Butler of Northville, is living at Long Beach. W. F. Markham lives on the corner of Vine and Sunset Blvd., and within a block of the famous Players-Lasky Studios. He is the Plymouth air conditioning engineer. He has a beautiful residence and large spacious grounds. I am told that he owns about 100 houses, also a 32 room office building. I called on him two years ago. Have called at his office twice since, but he was not in.

"UP IN THE CLOUDS" COMING AGAIN.

"Up In The Clouds," a new musical comedy produced under the personal direction of Jos. M. Gaites, which comes to the Garrick theatre next Sunday night as the last musical comedy attraction of the Garrick season, is by W. I. B. Johns, the author of "Take It From Me" and "Up In The Clouds." This brilliant writer has surpassed his former effort and the book contains some of the most scintillating dialogue and witticisms that have ever flowed from the pen of the delectable humorist. It is a comedy that has amused thousands of readers of the New York Evening World.

"Up In The Clouds" leaves the Garrick theatre on Sunday night, and will run one week at the Lyceum and 44th street theatre New York and six months at the Garrick theatre, Chicago. The cast were unanimous in proclaiming it the best musical comedy New York and Chicago have had in years and considering that some of the biggest hits in this line were presented in these cities last season this is indeed a compliment.

Mrs. Nummela resides in Detroit and had not been to her cottage for some time. A number of articles of household furniture are missing.

The W. M. B. class of the Walled Lake V. E. church will present a three act comedy "Safety First" at the High school auditorium on Friday evening, May 4th, under the direction of Mrs. Iva Carnes. A good cast has been chosen and the piece will be well presented.

NOVI CHURCH NEWS.

If you failed to hear the sermon on "The Meaning of the Two Church Ordinances" at the Baptist church last Sunday, you still have a chance to get part of it as the topic will be continued next Sunday. The scriptures set forth a meaning to baptism which all should know. Bring your Bible and see how much meaning is expressed in four consecutive verses.

The Worker's conference planned for last Sunday was postponed until next Sunday and will be held after the Sunday school. The B. Y. P. U. meets at 7:15 and the preaching service will begin at 8:00 p. m.

It is a sale where you buy an item at the regular price—then another item of the same kind for 1c. As an illustration: The standard price of Klenzo Tooth Paste is 50c. You buy a tube at this price, and by paying 1c more, or 51c, you get two tubes. Every article in this sale is a high-class standard piece of merchandise, just the same as we sell you every day at regular prices and have sold you for years.

A NEW WAY OF ADVERTISING—This sale was developed by the United Drug Co. as an advertising plan. Rather than spend large sums of money in other ways to convince you of the merit of these goods, they are spending it in this sale in permitting us to sell you a full-size package of high-standard merchandise for 1c. It costs money to get new customers, the loss taken on this sale will be well spent if the goods please you.

GREEN SPROUTS SAVE WEEKS WITH POTATOES.

Potato plants can be made to appear above ground from five to seven days earlier when properly green-sprouted seed is planted than when the tubers are planted dormant. The yields secured from these green-sprouted potatoes are often larger also, since there are fewer missing and backward hills the plants have a longer period in which to produce their tubers.

"Seed potatoes placed in a cool, well ventilated place, where they will be exposed to sunlight, will develop stubby, green sprouts," says H. C. Moore extension specialist in potato culture at the Michigan Agricultural college. "Such tubers are excellent for seed purpose, as the potatoes will remain firm and the sprouts will not break off when the seed is planted. High temperatures cause the potatoes to wilt rapidly and impair the vigor of the sprouts. Lack of ventilation and warm conditions injure the stock for seed.

LEGION HOSPITAL AIDS 200 VETERANS

BATTLE CREEK HOME CALLED ONE OF FINEST INSTITUTIONS IN THE UNITED STATES

WOMEN OF MICHIGAN TO ASSIST

Regarded as one of the finest hospitals for tubercular patients in the United States, the American Legion hospital at Battle Creek is now at the very peak of its usefulness. Nearly 200 Michigan heroes who incurred the white plague while in service are being treated—amid surroundings which suggest a club or a home as much as they do a hospital.

Under Legion management, this hospital has been freed from all the red tape and irksome discipline which has caused complaint against the usual government or contract institution.

Hospital is Home-like.

The men in the hospital feel that they are at home. The treatment is the accepted one of fresh air, rest and nourishment. The hospital is located on a lofty ridge of hills—one of the highest spots in southern Michigan. The scenery and views are among the most beautiful in the state. This of course has a highly favorable effect on the patients' morale.

The Legion keeps in close touch with the institution. From his professional viewpoint, he regards the hospital as a wonderfully efficient enterprise, and his interest—as well as that of other Legion officials—is to keep it at its top usefulness.

During war days, the present hospital was the splendid Community House which cared for the social interests of the men at Camp Custer. It has been enlarged and rebuilt, and the site increased by the purchase of 30 acres.

The whole enterprise has challenged the friendly help of the citizens of the state, from the very first. The practical interest of the women of Michigan is testified by the gift of 28,000 quarts of home canned fruit, a quantity sufficient to meet an important need for the entire year.

Extensions Being Planned.

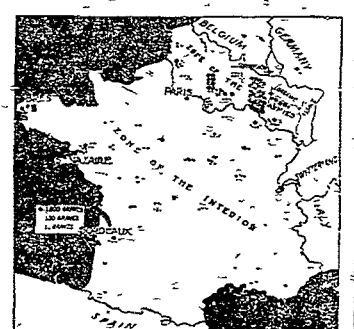

Extensions to accommodate 450 patients are now in preparation. This has been accomplished by joining together in long rows the Camp Custer cottages, hundreds of which were left vacant at the close of the war. For the purpose these little individual cottages are said to be ideal. They consist of one room adequately lighted and heated and accommodating two or three cots. The unity of the institution is maintained by the broad airy covered portico which runs the entire length of each row of cottages.

Nourishment is directed by an expert. The food is abundant and of the kind and quality best calculated to meet the needs of the patients. Each has his diet prescribed for him in accordance with his daily condition.

"We have cut out the red tape," said Manager E. F. Welsh, "and are trying to do everything to make the boys feel at home."

THE GRAVES OF YANKS WHO DIED IN FRANCE

The spots on this map show the location of graves of "Yanks" who died in France during the world war. It will be noted that the greatest concentration of graves is in the region of the Meuse Argonne offensive, where United States soldiers smashed through the German lines and turned the tide of the war.

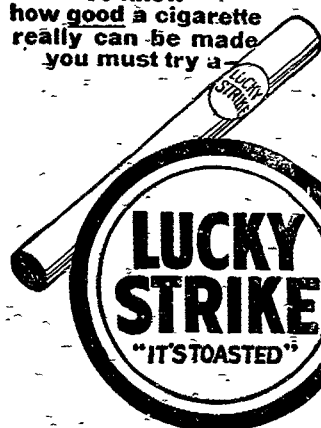

The American Legion is seeking to keep alive the memory of the heroes who gave their lives in the world war, by raising an endowment for the permanent care of their graves.

Contributions may be made to local posts or forwarded to Dr. Frank B. Broderick, state welfare officer, 214 Lincoln Building, Detroit, Mich.

FUNDS OF INCOMPETENT VETS TO BE GUARDED

The American Legion national rehabilitation committee has started a campaign to see that money allotted to mentally incompetent ex-service men, administered through their guardians, must be spent in the proper manner, and if it is not action will be taken against the guardians by the committee. Joe Sparks, chairman of the committee, has stated that in a number of cases, guardians of the unfortunate veterans have diverted the funds assigned by the government to their own use, affording the man for whom the money was intended only the bare necessities of life.

QUAINT DOORWAYS ARE FASHIONABLE

Quaint looking old-doorways of this type are becoming more fashionable all the time for both brick and frame houses. The two little trees set in green-painted tubs and the flag-stone walk give the proper touch for a colonial house. The fan-shaped transom of leaded glass furnishes a pleasing overhead illumination for the reception hall or corridor.

No Rest—No Peace

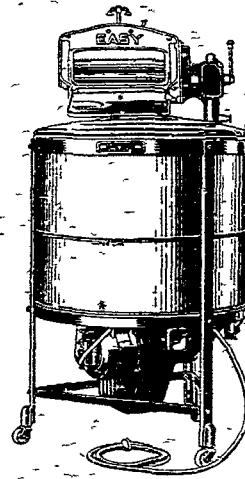

There's no peace and little rest for the one who suffers from a bad back, and distressing urinary disorders. Northville people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor. Be guided by their experience.

Henry VanSickle, farmer, Mill St., Northville, says: "I had my first experience with Doan's Kidney Pills some time ago and I can say they did me a world of good. I had been doing some extra heavy work on the farm and I blame this for starting my kidney complaint. My back ached terribly and nights I could get no sleep, as the misery was still there. I had blinding dizzy spells and didn't have any ambition to do a thing in the way of work and my kidneys didn't act regularly, either. A friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, so I went to Horton's drug store, and got three boxes. They fixed me up in good shape, so I am only too pleased to recommend Doan's."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. VanSickle had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

What Every Woman Should Know

About Elec. Washers

The reason why washing machines are built is primarily because they save work.

In choosing an electric washer, therefore, it is important to investigate its labor-saving features, with a view to determining which machine, of all the different makes, actually saves the most work.

It is this that we ask you to keep in mind when you investigate the EASY—the electric washer with ten-sheet adjustable capacity, four-way wringer and gas heater attachment. These and other noteworthy advantages combine to make the EASY, in our judgment, the greatest labor-saving washer on the market today.

It costs you nothing to have a demonstration of the EASY in your home with your own washing. Just telephone us.

Enuresis (Bed-Wetting) and Enuresol Tablets

Incontinence of urine in adults commonly known as bed-wetting in children is more common in boys than in girls. Incontinence or bed-wetting has been considered incurable when it persists beyond maturity.

Incontinence of urine is more common in women than in men. Constant or very frequent urination day or night indicates some abnormal condition or disease.

Enuresis may be caused by paralysis, the secretion of a large amount of urine, as in diabetes, calculus (gravel), cystitis, irritation, worms, unduly sound sleep, dreams of gastric disturbance.

It is claimed by many people that bed-wetting will be outgrown. This is true to a certain extent, bed-wetting may stop, but the cause remains. ENURESOL TABLETS removes the cause of which bed-wetting is only a symptom.

This theory has been proven correct by the uniformly good results obtained with ENURESOL TABLETS in young and old, as the following typical cases from our records show, names of which will be furnished upon request.

R. D. Minnesota. Girl, age 14 years, had always been a bed-wetter, although apparently well otherwise. Her parents tried many treatments, medical and mechanical, without benefit. Seven weeks after beginning to use ENURESOL TABLETS she stopped wetting the bed, but continued the treatment six weeks longer and she has had no return of the trouble since.

R. G. Wayne, Michigan. Boy, 11 years. Three years ago his mother ordered four boxes of ENURESOL TABLETS and four months later reported the boy had not wet the bed for six weeks, and since reports the trouble has not returned.

Mrs. W. Milwaukee, Wis. Age 44 years had never had a full night's sleep having to get up four to eight times a night. Visited Hot Springs, mud baths, sanitariums and was operated on in six or seven different hospitals without benefit. Six weeks of ENURESOL cured her completely three years ago, and has had no return of the troublesome nuisance.

F. J. Minnesota. 75 years old is no less interesting. For over 25 years F. J. suffered with incontinence of urine, day and night. As he grew older the trouble increased, having to pass water every half hour or often. Had a stroke of paralysis which increased the trouble to such an extent that only a few drops of bloody urine could be voided with intense pain causing surgeons to suspect cancer of the bladder. Being placed on ENURESOL at the dose of two tablets every two hours with a glass of cool water or milk, the trouble disappeared in twelve hours and he had a good restful sleep the night after. Fully recovered perfect health in the next three months. Mr. F. J. is now 85 years old and at last report was still alive and well.

It is important to regulate the diet and overeating, coffee and acid foods should be used sparingly.

ENURESOL TABLETS are absolutely safe and harmless, being a tonic for the kidneys, bladder and nervous system.

It is dependable for weak nervous, restless, slow growing, languid children. A fair trial of ENURESOL TABLETS will convince you of their value.

WHY NOT TRY A 25c LINER IN THE RECORD?

HON. FRED M. WARNER LAID TO REST.

Many Northville people attended the funeral of Hon. Fred M. Warner which was held at his late home in Farmington last Friday afternoon. Northville Communion, Knights Templar, acted as escort and led the funeral cortege from the house to the cemetery. There was a large attendance of neighbors and old friends who were there from all sections of the state. It is seldom that so cosmopolitan an assemblage gathers to pay respect to the memory of anyone. In the great crowd that filled the spacious home and porches and overflowed upon the lawn were Governor Griesbeck, Ex-Governor Albert Sleeper, members of the Michigan Supreme Court, members of the house and senate at Lansing, men prominent in the business and industrial life of Detroit and Pontiac, as well as the laborers of the village and country folk who had enjoyed the acquaintance and friendship of Mr. Warner for many years. The floral tributes were profuse and beautiful, great banks of fairest flowers expressing the love and esteem in which the deceased was held by his neighbors and friends.

Services were in charge of Rev. Sidney D. Eva, pastor of the Farmington Methodist Church, assisted by Rev. George E. Gullen, pastor of the West Grand Boulevard Church, Detroit. Clyde Nichols, former Farmington resident, and long-time friend of Governor Warner, sang "Alone With Me" and "The City Foursquare."

The active pallbearers, all of whom were friends of the former governor since youth were: Floyd H. Nichols, Fred L. Cook, M. B. Pierce, T. H. McGee, Frank Botsford and William Bosford, residents of Farmington. The honorary pallbearers were former Governor Albert Sleeper, Hon. Patrick H. Kelley, Charles Pierce, clerk of the state house of representatives, John Haggerty, Detroit; Junius E. Beal, of Ann Arbor; Leonard Freeman, Flint; Charles R. Talbot, vice president of the Detroit National Bank of Commerce; Henry M. Zimmerman, Pontiac; Major A. P. Loomis, Ionia, who was Mr. Warner's secretary during his governorship; Luman W. Goodenow, Detroit; Clinton McGee, Pontiac; Charles Kaehen, Detroit; Judge Glenn C. Gillespie; George A. Brown, Pontiac; former Representative Samuel Smith, Pontiac; James Slocum, Holly; T. G. Richardson and Frank S. Neal, Northville; LaVerne Bassett, Pontiac; George W. Dickinson, Detroit; A. Peck, Nathan Power, E. S. Pierce, C. W. Withers, H. N. Mc-Cracken, Isaac Bond and Dr. E. F. Holcomb, Farmington, Amos Otis, C. W. Chamberlain, Gale Collins, H. Schroeder, and Marie Murray, Lansing.

Rev. Eva eulogized the memory of Mr. Warner as a man who possessed to a high degree a spirit of loyalty to high principles and a kindness and friendliness that drew all men to him. He was essentially a workman who needed not to be ascribed a man of intense action and broad business connections, a man of boundless energy with a strong spirit of service, which actuated many of his actions. Mr. Warner's labors live to honor him. No duty was too irksome, no task too great for him. His life was devoted to public service, and the cause of social and economic progress.

The stores of the village were closed during the hour of the funeral and the Farmington schools were closed and the pupils accompanied by some of the teachers marched to the cemetery to pay their tribute to one who had always been a friend of the village schools and of the boys and girls. The presence of these young people spoke eloquently of Mr. Warner the man and neighbor.

Walled Lake Warbles.

Cottage building is on in earnest around Walled Lake.

Indications are that nearly everybody will have a new car this spring. Ed Coe of Commerce has sold his 40 acre farm for a consideration of $40,000, it is understood.

Mr. and Mrs. Burr Tuttle and May Tuttle are home from Florida. With Dan Bentley as pathmaster and Charles Wedow with his tractor, put the streets of Walled Lake in fine shape last Wednesday.

Duane W. Coe died at his home near this place on Thursday last, death coming to him without notice. His lifeless body was found by his grandson in the garden where the deceased had been working in the morning. Mr. Coe was 71 years of age and came to Michigan with his parents in 1832. Funeral services were Saturday afternoon at the Baptist church of this place. Three daughters, Mrs. William Vreeland, Detroit, Mrs. Bessie Johns, Orchard Lake, and Mrs. George Whittemore, Pontiac; and one son, Carson Coe, of Commerce; four grandchildren and one great grand child survive.

NORTHVILLE SCHOOL NOTES.

on Friday, May 11th. Finzel's orchestra of Detroit has been engaged to furnish the music. Be sure and save this date. More particulars later.

On the weekly ten-minute typewriting tests given Wednesday, April 25, the following wrote: Norman Kurehoff, 45 words per minute; Edward Elliott, 40 words per minute; W. C. A. Dolph of the Globe Furniture Co. spoke to the Bookkeeping class last Friday. He emphasized the value of preparedness before entering the business world.

A large amount of enthusiasm in the Eighth grade penmanship class has been produced by the announcement that Irene Gotts and Alvera Smith have been awarded Palmer Method certificates. This means that they have earned high school credit equivalent to one subject, or 10 hours' credit. Several other members of the class are also writing drills for certificates.
