NORTHVILLE WILL HONOR ITS DEAD

To muffled drum and measured tread With grief Columbia bows her head In memory of her honored dead.

From Alaska snows to pine-clad Maine.

A Nation lays her tasks aside In honor of her sons who died.

And prays to Him whose hand doth guide.

Who may they not have died in vain

Memorial Day will be fittingly observed in Northville next Wednesday and the people of this community are urged to join with their neighbors in paying a tribute to the memory of those who have given their lives in defense of their country and to those who are still living who offered themselves in the cause of freedom and justice.

The services of the day will be held in the Alseium theatre at two o'clock sharp, when the following program will be given:

Star Spangled Banner—Northville Band

Prayer—Rev. Wm. Richards

Music—Male Quartet

Lincoln's Gettysburg Address

Lysie Alexander

Address—Rev. A. K. MacRea

America—by the Audience

At the conclusion of the program a procession will form and march to Oakwood cemetery where the ritualistic services of the Grand Army of the Republic will be rendered. The procession will then reform and proceed to Rural Hill cemetery where the American Legion will render fitting ceremonies at the grave of a World War veteran.

FAMILY NIGHT WAS ENJOYED.

"Family night" was observed at the Methodist church last Thursday evening and the affair proved a very enjoyable one. A pot-luck supper was served by the ladies of the church at 6:30 and after a pleasant social hour the program of the evening was taken up and two hours were spent in a most entertaining manner. The High school orchestra rendered a number of selections and then followed a community sing, under the leadership of Lee Shipley with Roy Clark at the piano. The audience then enjoyed a visit to the national capital and were shown many interesting views of Washington with its magnificent buildings. A trip thru tropical Florida with the camera was also taken by means of the pictures. Richard Kilgour sang a solo and then followed the real treat of the evening—the address by Rev. Julian West, pastor of the Methodist church at Birmingham. Mr. West is a fluent and interesting speaker and he brought a message that will not soon be forgotten by those who were fortunate enough to be present.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. William Richards and thus a most delightful evening was brought to a close.

FORESTERS TO HONOR THEIR DEPARTED.

Sunday, June 3rd, will be observed as memorial day by members of Court Northville, Foresters of America, upon which occasion the departed members of the court will be especially remembered and their graves decorated in local cemeteries. Members of the order will attend services at the M. E. church in the morning at 10:30 when Rev. William Richards will deliver a sermon appropriate to the occasion. At the conclusion of the services a procession will form and march to Rural Hill cemetery where the Foresters' ritual services will be rendered and the graves of deceased members strewn with fairest flowers.

All members of the order are urged to be present at this memorial service.

N. HERENDEN TO OPEN EXCHANGE HOTEL.

N. Herenden, who conducted the hotel at Novi for a number of years, selling the property some months ago to Detroit parties, has taken a lease with an option to buy on the Exchange Hotel property in this village and is now busily engaged in cleaning and refurbishing the building. Mr. Herenden intends to conduct the hotel in a manner that will merit the patronage of the public and will make a special feature of serving meals to the general public.

He is giving the property a thorough cleaning and as he has had many years experience in the management of hotels he will receive a good patronage.

REPRESENTATIVE JOHNSON GAVE AN INTERESTING TALK.

At the luncheon of the Exchange club Wednesday Representative Milo N. Johnson gave a very interesting and informative talk on the procedure in legislative matters at Lansing and related in a most entertaining manner how measures are prepared and the methods that are followed in securing their enactment into laws.

He discussed some of the more important legislation of the past session and told of the ups and downs of those who sponsored the several measures proposed.

Mr. Johnson has served this legislative district for three sessions of the legislature an honor that comes to but few men in Michigan, and he is held in high esteem by his colleagues. He has not sought to submit a lot of bills for enactment into laws, but has acted upon the theory that we had about all the laws that were needed to meet present day conditions.

As the bills come before the house and the committees of which he has been a member he has given them careful consideration and has endeavored to represent the people of his district and Wayne county without seeking to gain any personal exploitation. It would be to the very great advantage of the people of Michigan if we had more men of Mr. Johnson's type in both branches of the legislature.

NORTHVILLE 8-HOLLY 14

The Northville Forester ball team went to Holly last Sunday and suffered defeat by their club 14 to 8. Our boys were not disappointed, however for they are just rounding a good team together and by the time that Holly comes to Northville for a return game some midweek way they will have to play top notch ball.

Northville outthit the neighbor team and secured two home runs and two three-base hits but it was the Foresters' ill-luck by having but one man on the bases when these big hits came.

Sunday the North Farmington boys, who defeated Redford last week, will be here to line up against the Foresters. They have a good left-hand pitcher and also an underhanded right-hand thrower. This team also defeated Franklin last year so a good game can be looked for here Sunday with out boys.

May 30th the Havalin Oil Co's team will be here on the local grounds and it is not forgotten that they gave Northville some tough competition last summer.

The two Light boys of Redford have signed with our local boys and will play all summer here and from now on Northville will have a creditable representative team.

TO ORGANIZE DRUM AND BUGLE CORPS.

At a recent meeting of the American Legion it was decided to form a drum and bugle corps in Northville and the matter of completing the organization was placed in the hands of C. D. Kilgour who has urged the formation of a corps here for some time. Twelve members have already signified their desire to join and it is expected to have a membership of twenty or more within a few months.

Any Legion member who would like to join may confer with Mr. Kilgour. There are but four drum and bugle corps in the state and it is the desire to make the Northville organization second to none.

PRISON FARM BASE BALL ACTIVITIES.

The House of Correction Farm team defeated the Chamber of Commerce of Plymouth in a twilight game Tuesday evening at the fair. Score, 12 to 2. Batteries for farm, Denniston and Long; for Plymouth, Honey and Finn. Umpires, Thompson and Crossman.

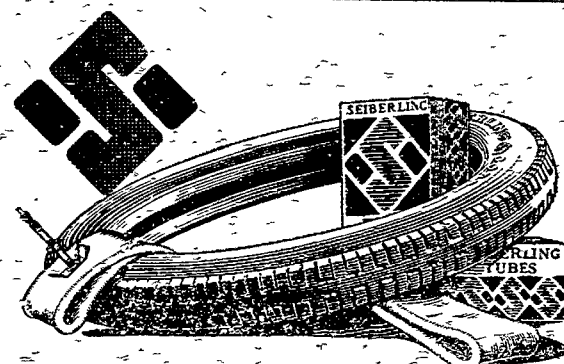

The House of Correction Farm team will play the Paramount Film Exchange of Detroit Saturday afternoon, at 2:30, on the farm grounds.

The House of Correction Farm team will play Redford, Sunday afternoon at 2:30, on the farm grounds.

REV. AND MRS. SLACK GOING TO ENGLAND.

Rev. C. A. Slack, pastor of the Baptist church of this city, has resigned the pastorate, effective early in July. With his wife he will leave for his native home in England, where they came from seven years ago. They have made many friends here who are sorry to have them take their departure.—Otsego Union.

W. R. Dickerson is building a new residence on North Center street. Mr. Dickerson tore down the old house and will have a handsome and commodious residence when completed.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

An adjourned regular meeting of the Village Council was held Saturday night, May 19th. The president and Trustees Blackburn, Ely, Vardatta, Simmons, Montgomery and Filkins were present.

Bids for the work of making connections to the village sewer were received. E. R. Perrin and Earl Montgomery and Joe Weston presented bids.

Mr. Perrin's proposition was as follows:

In accordance with bids desired for the construction of lateral sewers in the Village of Northville, I, the undersigned, party of the first part and Edwin R. Perrin, party of the second part, do hereby agree to the following:

Party of the first part:

1. To pay a sum of $1.95 per foot for each connection filed with the clerk, alley connections to be determined later. Second party must have every connection during the life of this contract.

2. To allow tunneling, shoveling overhead and laying of 12-in. terra cotta pipe under pavement.

3. To allow use of jacks, maul and other small equipment that is not in use by the Village with a guarantee to return in good condition.

4. To terminate the contract on November 1, 1925, to which party of the second part agrees.

5. To allow use of cranes when there can be a fall of 12 inches to the foot from the beginning of the connection.

6. To take in consideration the labor, situation and consider, than like other contracts, this is based on the number of applications to be filed. Many applications at once would be impossible to complete to the satisfaction of applicants if men were not available.

Party of the second part:

1. To furnish 6-inch crocks, curves elbows and T's excavate, lay crock, refill ditch up to six feet of lot lines.

2. To advertise, solicit and use reasonable effort to secure labor according to number of applications filed.

3. To give surety bond of $1,000.

Earl Montgomery and Joe Weston submitted the following:

To the Village Council:

In regards to putting in the sewer connections we will put them in for $2.25 per foot and will do the work as fast as the applications are made to the Village Clerk. We will be in the streets in the best possible shape where connections are made.

Special
EARL MONTGOMERY,
JOE WESTON.

After giving the two propositions consideration it was moved by Trustee Ely and supported by Trustee Simmons that the bid of Earl Montgomery and Joe Weston be accepted.

Nothing further business appearing the council adjourned.

T. E. MURDOCK, Clerk.

Folklore of High Importance.

Incumbent value has been derived from the study of folklore in all its branches, and principally from its music and poetry. Where history studies deeds of extraordinary importance, folklore with its songs enables us to analyze the elements that were responsible for them and uncovers the causes for these deeds. While history deals with the outward action of men, folklore deals with the thoughts.

PREMIERSHIP OF BONAR LAW ENDS

CABINET CHIEF SENDS RESIGNATION TO KING—LORD CURZON LIKELY TO SUCCEED HIM.

VERDICT SURPRISES COUNTRY

Crisis Comes When Parliament Is Dispersed—King Expresses Regret.

London—Andrew Bonar Law, the prime minister, sent his resignation to the king Sunday night, because of ill health. He was unable to present it personally. Thus ends his brief but eventful administration, and he ends with important and perplexing problems, particularly Great Britain's relations with France and Russia, unsettled.

The crisis comes upon the government in the midst of a holiday when parliament is dispersed and few members of the government are in London.

Two days ago, when the result of Bonar Law's consultation with his physicians in Paris, became known, this end was forecast, but the country was not prepared for it and will await developments with anxiety and regret over the untimely demise of a trusted pilot.

Mr. Bonar Law's resignation was taken to the king at Aldershot by Colonel Waterhouse, the prime minister's private secretary, and Sir Frederick Sykes, his son-in-law, who motored from London. They had a long audience with the king, who appeared much moved by the news of the aggravated condition of Bonar Law's health.

It is understood that he will not resign his seat in parliament and will thus remain a member of the house of commons. But it is definitely decided that his political career is closed.

Lord Curzon has been mentioned as Bonar Law's successor.

CHINA GIVEN STERN WARNING

U. S. Minister Demands Release of Captives Held By Bandits.

Tsao Chwang, Province of Shan-Tung, China—Get the foreign captives out of the grip of the Peking Express bandits, and talk terms, afterward, otherwise there will be "drastic action" was the ultimatum laid down to Chinese government officials here Thursday by Dr. Jacob G. Schurman, American minister to China.

Shanghai—American and British captives of the Shan Tung bandits will be shot if the Chinese troops are not withdrawn, according to the "final ultimatum" of the bandits, brought from the mountain stronghold by Marcel Oliver Berube, a Frenchman, one of the prisoners, released for the purpose.

Bandits last Thursday attacked Tawenkov, 90 miles north of Lincheng, and seized a number of captives, according to a report received here.

Washington—A Peking dispatch to the State Department said that Consul J. K. Davis and Maj. Philpott, assistant military attaché, at Lincheng, had reported that the bandits had stated they were ready to negotiate with Chinese authorities for the release of Americans and other foreign prisoners recently captured.

The message said that a representative of the Chinese government was due Thursday to begin the negotiations.

The dispatch said the Chinese minister of communications admitted that he did not know exactly the terms the bandits proposed, but that he "blames the magnitude of them on foreign interference."

STORM FLOODS TIE UP TRAFFIC

Roads Swept Away, Rivers Rise and Dike Washed Out.

Reed City—The huge earth dike at the Hersey dam below here was washed out and the flood from Saturday night's cloud burst seriously endangered the Reed City dam.

As a result of the break at Hersey the county seat will have no electric lights or power for several weeks.

Two culverts on the Mackinaw trail running through here were washed out within the city limits. There were many cars stranded on nearby roads in ditches and washouts.

Saginaw—Already higher than it has been in several years, the Saginaw river rose here Monday, and threatened heavy damage to roads and farm land along its route.

The river was within a few inches of the 23-foot stage here.

The greatest damage will be to road beds and bridges, the local farm bureau declared.

A continued rise will flood the streets of Saginaw.

Cadillac—Highway M-13 was badly torn up by the rain storms over the weekend and these breaks will not be repaired for several days. Near Big Rapids is a chasm 50 feet long and 15 feet deep.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

Muskegon—Chiropractors of Michigan will meet at Muskegon in their annual state convention, June 15 to 17, it was announced by Dr. William A. Firth.

Owosso—Harper Cook, 70 years old, one of the earliest pioneers of the county, died last week, at his home in Bennington township. He had lived on one farm 70 years.

Traverse City—Northwestern Michigan lake ports are finding their water level this year the lowest in history. Some dredging has been necessary at practically all docks.

Kalamazoo—Bishop John N. McCormick, of Grand Rapids, head of the Episcopal Diocese of Western Michigan, has been appointed bishop in charge of all American Episcopal churches in Europe.

Saginaw—Andrew J. Scott, 84 years old, pioneer of the lumber industry in the Saginaw valley, and at one time one of the largest logging operators here, dropped dead in the lobby of the Vogue hotel, while talking to a friend.

Reed City—John Murphy, 67 years old, died last week in the Reed City hospital. Murphy and his wife were to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary last December. Ill health caused a postponement.

Frankfort—There is a possibility that the county seat of Benzie County may be moved from Beulah to Frankfort as a result of a recent election when the voters refused to purchase the office building now used as a court house at Beulah.

Owosso—Fred Kilpatrick, farmer, living near Ovid, may lose the sight of both eyes as the result of injuries suffered while blasting stumps last week. As he leaned over a stump a delayed blast went off, hurling him 20 feet. He also is injured internally.

Owosso—Boys' week was observed here last week under the auspices of the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, the program took in the church, school, factories and other institutions. A father and son banquet was held, when Thomas P. Johnson, superintendent of public instruction, acted as toastmaster.

Owosso—A. L. Chandler and S. S. Miner, Owosso attorneys, observed the forty-second anniversary of their entrance into the legal profession here last week. They made the same trip that they made 40 years ago when as youthful lawyers they drove to Bancroft to try a justice court case, opposing each other.

Cadillac—Through the co-operation of a lumber company, a forest fire fighting crew of 20 men has been organized at a logging camp in Antioch township. A watchman now is on duty at the state fire tower in Selma township. Edward Thalman has been appointed for the fourth season as fire warden for Wexford county.

Kalamazoo—Prof. Allan A. Hobbs, president of Kalamazoo College, in a talk to the students last week, urged that the pictures of Washington and Lincoln be placed in every home. Prof. Hobbs also declared that the birthdays of Washington and Lincoln should be celebrated as are family birthdays, making these great men, in effect, honorary members of every family.

Flint—For the first time in Flint's history, the G. A. R. will not have charge of the Memorial day program, this year. They have stepped down for the more active Oakley Traynor post, American Legion. While the veterans of the World war will prepare the plans and look after all the details of the occasion, the "boys of '61" will occupy the place of honor on the program.

Fremont—Under the supervision of the state conservation department, J. A. Summerfield and S. A. Brown, of Saginaw, are in Newaygo for the purpose of stocking the lakes with walleyed pike, caught below the dam in the Muskegon river. Permission has been granted to use nets to catch the walleyed pike and the state will pay 20 cents for each pike more than 16 inches long. All under 16 inches go back in the river.

Traverse City—Farm labor shortage may decrease crop production materially in northern Michigan this year, it is feared. Applications for help from farmers throughout the region are piling up at labor agencies, W. W. Smith, in charge of the state employment office, stated last week. The Negro labor, reported pushing steadily northward, has not appeared in northern Michigan and apparently would not be welcome.

Lansing—Governor Groesbeck last week vetoed the Thomas bill to permit boards of supervisors to suspend local highway improvements under the Covert act. In his veto message he asserted that if the bill became law, boards of supervisors might prevent the raising of money to meet outstanding bonds, and that the measure proposes giving local officials power outside the districts in which they were chosen. He also held the measure unconstitutional. The Wayne county superior court bill was also vetoed by the Governor.

RADIO SPEAKER ASKS HEALTH ENLISTMENT.

"Enlist as an older of health," was the appeal made to young people in the speech which was broadcasted from the Chicago Board of Trade station in the all-state radio test conducted there May 17th.

Fans in every state, in the Union were asked to tune in for this speech, and early reports indicated that the test was probably successful in establishing an all-state record.

The speaker, Charles M. DeForest, national executive of the Modern Health Crusade, was heard at several points in Michigan, according to reports received by the Michigan Tuberculosis association, which had arranged to take charge of the reports from this state.

"It seems," the Crusade leader said to his radio audience, "as if our government was calling us Americans to a great crusade to rescue our land from disease. More than six times the number of our soldiers who gave their lives in the World War die each year from preventable disease."

As if in anticipation of a national call to stamp out disease, seven million boys and girls in this country have joined a crusade for health called the Modern Health Crusade. These crusaders wear an armor of good health habits and they have the opportunity to serve as modern knights in battling against disease, an enemy of our country that is no less formidable than were the robber barons who assailed King Arthur's realm.

"I hope that all the boys and girls as well as the older boys and girls who hear me tonight from Maine to California, and from North and South will resolve, if they wish to be good Americans, that they will be healthy Americans and will join the Modern Health Crusade."

YPSILANTI TO GO BACK 100 YEARS TO FOUNDING.

Ypsilanti city will celebrate the 100th anniversary of the founding of the first settlement in Washtenaw county, July 1 to 4 inclusive.

The settlement was made in Ypsilanti and the event will be marked by a pageant now being written by Thomas Wood Stevens of Carnegie Technical Institute, Pittsburgh. D. L. Quirk, Jr., originator of the Little Theatre in Ypsilanti, will direct the production. The churches are planning to bring back hundreds of their former parishioners and leaders of the clergy. St. John's Catholic church, which for years was the home of the venerable priest, Rev. Frank Kennedy, will lay the corner stone for the beautiful memorial church to be erected in his honor. The Emmanuel Lutheran congregation will dedicate its new church on River street. Other churches will hold special services for former pastors as honor guests. Methodist people are hoping that health will permit the presence of Rev. Seth Reed, former pastor, now in his 100th year, who resides with his daughter in Flint.

An old-time stage coach used in the postal service a century ago, from the city hall of Detroit to the tavern in Ypsilanti will be called into service to make one more trip and driven over the old route. Governor Alex. J. Groesbeck has been invited to ride in the conveyance. He will also attend the ceremonial ball, Monday night, where attendance may be had only by those wearing a costume of the early eighties.

LACK OF FUNDS TO HALT HIGHWAY WORK.

Hope of being able to proceed with the ambitious paving program planned for this year on the Detroit-Lansing highway, known as M-16, rapidly is fading in the minds of state highway officials.

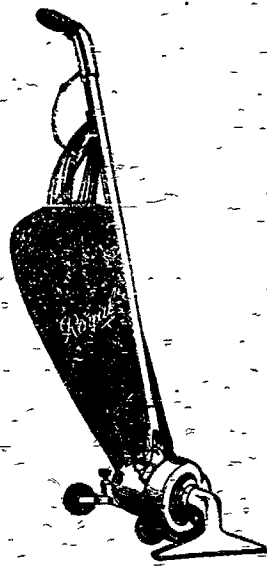

The department has let contracts for the gravel and some other materials. Great stores of it are piled along the route. But it is without funds, except enough to run it to July 1. No contracts for construction work on M-16 have been let, nor will they be until the administration board indicates that funds will be available.

Indications are that no matter what the board does the funds for building this year will be scant, and the 32 miles of pavement proposed for the heavily travelled road probably will not be laid for a year or two at least.

Try Northville first.

To Property Owners of Northville

Having secured the contract to make connections with the new sewer system from the village we are prepared to complete the job inside the lot line and to connect your house with the sewer.

We shall be glad to look over your sewer requirements and to make an estimate on your job. We guarantee a good job and you will find our charges will be as reasonable as labor conditions will permit. While we are making the connections for the village we can complete your work, thus doing away with the necessity of digging up your yard just for your house connections.

Detroit—President Warren G. Harding has been invited to open the Michigan Health Exposition which will be held in the General Motors Building from June 7 to 16. An official invitation to the president has been extended by Dr. William M. Donald, president of the exposition, and by Mayor Frank E. Doremus, who is deeply interested in the success of the exposition.

Girl's Life Saved by Dog.

North Brookfield, Mass.—The life of Little Florence Coderic was credited last week to the devotion of her shepherd dog "King." Seeking mayflowers in the woods north of here the child was caught in a quagmire. She began to sink, and grasped the dog. As Florence went deeper into the swamp "King" stood firm to his task. All night child and dog remained there, too exhausted to make a sound. Both girl and dog recovered rapidly.

Rare Old Bible Published Again.

Madrid—A magnificent edition of one of the rarest Bibles in the world has just been printed in Madrid. It is a translation in Castilian Spanish made directly from the Hebrew text between 1422 to 1433 by the Rabbi Meir Aragel de Guadalajara. This work is one of the treasures of the Duke of Alba's collection. The present duke, who is a member of the Spanish Academy, is also a member of the Rosburgh Club of London and other prominent clubs.

Healed

The bitter years have passed away.
The scars have slowly healed.
New blood has grown upon the tree.
Fresh sod upon the field.
And laws of hate the soldiers made
The soldiers have repealed.

Congressman Charles M. Steadman of North Carolina and Congressman Henry Z. Osborne of California, once bitter war enemies, are now fast friends in congress. Congressman Steadman, born in 1841, enlisted as a private at the outbreak of the Civil war, serving with Lee's army and being wounded three times, winning the rank of major. Congressman Osborne was born in 1848, enlisted as a private at the age of sixteen in the state of New York.

Honor Silent Heroes

Thousands of persons in Clay county attended the unveiling of the Liberty memorial at Liberty, Mo. Memorial day last year. The picture shows the statue erected at a cost of $4,000 in memory of the "silent heroes" of Clay county who took part in the World War. Clay county furnished more than one thousand men for the war.

From James Russell Lowell's Commemoration Ode.

Not in anger, not in pride,
Pure from passion's mixture rude
Ever to base earth allied,
But with heart and voice renewed,
To heroes living and dead martyrs dead.
The strain should close that consecrates
our brave
Lift the heart and lift the head!
Little right has he to sing
Not without a martial ring.
Not without a prouder tread
And a peal of exultation,
Through whose heart in such an hour
Beats up march of conscious power,
Sweeps no tumult of elation!
'Tis no Man we celebrate,
By this country's victories great,
A hero half, and half the whim of Fate.
But the fifth and marrow of a Nation,
Drawing force from all her men,
Highest, humblest, weakest all,
For her time of need, and then
Pulsing it again through them,
Till the nearest can no longer cover,
Feeling his soul spring up divinely tall,
Touched but in passing by her mantle—
Come back, then, noble pride, for 'tis her dower!

Wounds Healed by Time.

Evolution of Memorial day from an observance which at first served to keep alive the old contentions of the Civil war into an observance which leads our thoughts away from our own home land to quiet resting places in other lands across the sea, is a remarkable illustration of the changeless law of change and progress. Try as it may, the human heart cannot keep its hatreds its opposition, its narrowness. Time, holding his hourglass, watches his worldly children climb the immortal heights of betterment. They can do no other! Whether we will or not, the quiet processes of change go right on, the wounds are healed, the graves grown over.—Exchange.

Fratricidal Strife Forgotten.

The war with Spain, in which Grand Army veterans and Confederate veterans, and the sons of both, fought, and the World War, which pitted our young men both North and South, practically closed us to forget that this great country was cursed with war in the Sixties.

MEMORIAL DAY PROCLAMATION.

(By the Governor).

Lee's surrender to Grant at Appomattox marked the close of the Civil of treasure and many, many millions of treasure and many, many thousands of precious lives. Three years later Memorial Day was instituted to honor the memory of the brave men who had given their lives in the Union cause.

A generation passed and America again found herself in arms, not to put down rebellion but to establish the liberties and maintain the rights of a young, sister republic.

Less than a score of years saw the outbreak of the great world conflict and, while it seemed that we might be able to keep out of it, as the war progressed it became more and more evident that the fruits of liberty, so dear to the heart of every American, were seriously menaced and that to insure our national independence we must take our place by the side of those who were battling for the freedom of the world. We all know the story. We know how splendidly on land and sea our gallant soldiers, sailors and marines upheld the honor of the American name.

Memorial Day is for the men who took part in all these wars, but our first thought will be for the grey-haired veterans, that fast thinning blue line whose step is growing feebler year by year, and in this thoughtfulness for the old soldier we will not forget the young men of more recent wars.

Therefore, in order that we may pay a tribute of respect and affection to the surviving veterans of the Civil War the Spanish American War and the Great World War, and do honor to the memory of their fallen comrades, I hereby sincerely urge that Wednesday, May Thirtieth, 1923, be fittingly observed as Memorial Day; and I earnestly appeal to the people of Michigan for hearty cooperation in plans for the observance of the day in their respective communities.

On Memorial Day flags should be displayed at half-mast until noon and then hoisted to the top of the staff.

ROYAL ARCH MASONS TO KEEP OLD RITUAL.

Michigan Grand Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, in session at Flint last week, voted against adoption of the new ritual approved by the General Grand Chapter of the United States, which has been in optional use during the last year.

Many Michigan high priests witnessed the conferring of the Past Master and Most Excellent Master degrees in Detroit May 12, and the Royal Arch degree was conferred in Flint by a team organized by Frank P. Wilcox of Detroit, past grand high priest and made up entirely of high priests of Greater Detroit.

The work was much admired, but officers of chapters in smaller towns around the state feared it would prove too elaborate for their resources.

BOULEVARD STOP ORDINANCE.

People who have occasion to drive in Detroit will be interested in the proposed "boulevard-stop" ordinance which probably will be enacted shortly. This will require cars and trucks of all descriptions to come to a full stop before entering or crossing certain of the main avenues including Grand River, Cass, Michigan, Jefferson, Woodward, Second, Gratiot and Mack avenues, as well as John R., Fort and Charlevoix streets, Lafayette and Grand Boulevards. Traffic accidents in the city are more numerous this spring than ever.—Ex.

OAKLAND COUNTY CAMP DATES.

George H. Kimball, Jr., county Y. M. C. A. secretary announces that the tentative dates at Camp Boyville this year are June 27 to August 31. There will be three boys' camps and two girls' camps. The girls' camp will be open from July 9 to 23 and the farm girls' camp from July 24 to August 3.—Milford Times.

Holly.—The men of Holly Grange who were the losers in the recent membership contest served a banquet to about 80 members in the dining room of the Methodist church.

Lansing.—Dr. Augustus W. Ives, of the Detroit College of Medicine was appointed superintendent of the state public school at Coldwater by Governor Groesbeck, last Friday. He succeeds Dr. J. B. Montgomery, who has headed the institution for about 25 years.

Detroit.—Directors of the Michigan State Fair have plans to expend upwards of $1,000,000 in new buildings and improvements on the Detroit fair grounds this year. The improvements will include rebuilding and additions to the grand stand at cost of $175,000, machinery hall $10,000, coliseum $50,000, floral hall $10,000, paying $20,000, sewers and drains $6,000, sheep and swine pavilion $200,000 and $75,000 for other additions.

Farmer's Handicap.—The farmer deals with the earth open-handed; he deals with commerce with his hands tied.—Liberty Hyde Bailey.

Walled Lake Warbles.

C. E. Rose opened his real estate office doors Saturday evening and was fortunate to make one sale that evening. He sold the pool room, formerly run by Seth Rerendine to Frank Moss.

A carnival was held at the school house on Wednesday which afforded a lot of fun for the pupils and patrons. In spite of the continued cold weather Walled Lake people are "all set" for a big summer's business. Walter Stevenson has opened his bakery for the summer and Mesdames Green and Carter have opened a restaurant in the Rattenbury building.

George Rattenbury has completed his new building and his new stock of general merchandise is meeting with a ready sale.

Memorial Day will be fittingly observed at Walled Lake, with the usual memorial sermon Sunday morning and appropriate services on Wednesday next.

As Neil Martin played for several seasons in "Seventeen" and is a particularly youthful player he should find the role of William Sylvanus Baxter particularly suitable.

"Seventeen" is an uproarious comedy which at times approaches tragedy, at least it would seem so in the mind of Billy Baxter, who experiences his first love when the baby-talk lady visits the little village, accompanied by her dog and Billy becomes a devoted slave, even learning how to bark in order to imitate her poodle.

Bible Thoughts for This Week

Sunday.

ALL IS WELL.—Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if I were not so, I would have told you I go to prepare a place for you.—John 14: 1, 2.

Monday.

WHY WILL YE DIE?—As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked. Turn ye; turn ye from your evil ways: for why will ye die? O house of Israel?—Ezekiel 33: 11.

Tuesday.

PEACE WITH ALL MEN.—Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord.—Hebrews 12: 14.

Wednesday.

THE WAY TO PEACE.—Acquaint now thyself with Him, and be at peace: thereby good shall come unto thee.—Job 22: 21.

Thursday.

PROCLAMATION OF PEACE.—Glory be to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.—Luke 2: 14.

Friday.

REFUGE, STRENGTH, HELP.—God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.—Psalm 46: 1.

Saturday.

PERFECT PEACE.—Then will I keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee; because he trusteth in thee.—Isaiah 26: 3.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Tonic and Blood Purifier, and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.

HAIR NETS
FIT BETTER
AND LAST LONGER

Fit, wearing qualities and size are the things most women look for in selecting their hair nets. That is why we feature and recommend the GOODFORM.

GOODFORM HAIR NETS possess unusual elasticity. This holds the net in perfect shape, making it fit perfectly on your coiffure.

The small, perfect diamond-shape meshes and the double knot which holds the meshes securely in place, make the GOODFORM the longest wearing of all hair nets.

In size, the GOODFORM is the largest hair net on the American market today.

Single and double mesh, cap and fringe styles, the usual shades—we have them all. And we are never too busy to see that you get the one which suits you best.

C. R. Horton, worshipful master of Northville Lodge, F. & A. M., was in Kalamazoo the first of the week in attendance at the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Michigan.

A ready good many lots have been sold in Oakwood subdivision. Of course some are being for investment but many are buying with the intention of erecting homes there.

Rev. Seth Reed of Flint a Methodist clergyman of whom all Michigan Methodists know, will celebrate his 100th birthday on June 2. He was pastored here a number of years ago.

Grand Chapter O. E. S. held a very enjoyable meeting last Friday night, when a number of candidates were initiated. Dinner was enjoyed at seven o'clock and the work followed.

The name of Robert R. Brown should have appeared in the list of directors chosen at the annual meeting of the Northville Auto Club in last week's Record. In copying the list his name was unintentionally omitted.

Rev. and Mrs. A. K. MacRea of this village, Rev. F. I. Osborn of Nova and Rev. C. W. Thompson of Farmington motored to Hillsdale last week to attend the state convention of Baptist churches held in that city for three days.

W. H. Elliott & Son have Fry & Boillat's crew busy this week remodeling the room recently leased adjoining their store on Main street and when all changes and improvements have been made they will have a very attractive place of business.

The entertainment which will be given at the High school auditorium tonight for the benefit of the Juniors by students from the U. of M., was presented on "Dad's Night" in Ann Arbor recently and was enjoyed by a distinguished company of prominent men from all sections of the state.

This is safety week in Detroit and it might be a good idea to observe it in Northville also. Drive right, walk right, look before you start to cross the street whether on foot or driving a car. Thus far Northville has a splendid record, and by the exercise of proper caution on the part of every one it is hoped we may maintain our good name.

The people of Northville are especially requested to unfurl Old Glory next Wednesday.

George Grinnell is building a new residence in Oakwood subdivision. He is the first to start actual building, although a number of other citizens are planning to build there this summer.

Straw hats this season seem to be different. They have to be kept from freezing. There is a secret compartment in the top in which coals may be placed to keep your head warm.

If the party who sent to Montgomery, Ala., along about the 18th, a money order for $5.77, and who failed to sign their name to the letter enclosed, will confer with Postmaster Tunham they will confer a favor upon our obliging postmaster.

Mrs. Ida Putman and son, Gilbert Putman, and Miss Carlotta Cranston of Williamston, Mrs. Emma Wesley and son, Fred, and granddaughter, Gladys Wesley of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Fuller were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Farmer.

On Sunday, Monday and Tuesday nights A. H. Snow's great picture "Hunting Big Game in Africa" will be presented at the Alceum theatre. This picture will close four weeks of continuous showing at the Broadway Strand, Detroit, and it has received the highest commendation from those who have witnessed its production.

On Tuesday evening of last week the employees of the local telephone office tendered Charles Daly, who recently resigned his position as plant chief, and who has accepted a position in Ann Arbor, a farewell gathering.

In Ann Arbor, a farewell gathering took place in the local exchange rooms and a pot-luck supper was enjoyed at six o'clock. After supper the plant room was cleared and dancing was the order of the evening, a phonograph furnishing music. Mr. and Mrs. Daly were presented a handsome reading lamp by members of the local telephone staff. Guests were present from Ann Arbor and Farmington, and the affair was a very enjoyable one. All join in wishing Mr. Daly success in his new position.

The young people class of the Baptist church will hold a bake sale at the Palace Meat Market on Saturday, May 26th. Potted plants will also be on sale. 45x1c

The Chimney-Swifts

By MYRA C. LANE

Copyright, 1922 Western Newspaper Union

Every spring, as soon as Mrs. Hale had ceased to burn the fire in the parlor stove, the swifts would build in the chimney. Sometimes there was the flutter of wings against the iron pipe, sometimes the "tweet! tweet!" of Reddings.

"There's the swifts' back again," the old woman would say to her daughters, Muriel and Rachel.

She liked to hear them, and however cold that spring might be, of course the advent of the building swifts made fires impossible.

Mrs. Hale lay in her bed upstairs. She would never leave it again, but she might live months, even years, the doctor said. Rachel did all the housework. Muriel was a stenographer in the mill.

Burton Hendricks was coming to see Muriel. He was twenty-five, and a traveling salesman. He was considered good-looking by the girls of the village. Muriel knew as well as Rachel did that his reputation was not the best. But she was tired of the mill. And Burton was infatuated with her. There was no doubt she could marry him.

Rachel found him nice too. But Rachel was different from Muriel. She believed in love, which, to Muriel, meant only a flat in town, a maid, perhaps a car some day. Anyway, a good time. Rachel, who was only eighteen, wondered.

She wondered what Burton could see in Muriel. Did he not see how shallow, how empty she was? How blind all men were!

He was coming to see Muriel for the first time in a month. He had written that he had made a "killing" on the road. He was to be made sales manager for his firm.

That week was freezing cold. In the pipe the baby swifts were twittering. "Mother, we must have a fire in the parlor for Burton. What will he think of us?"

"Are the swifts come yet, Muriel?" The old woman looked at her anxiously.

"They haven't built yet. A little smoke will scare them away. They haven't made their nest, and Burton's coming, Ma."

"If you're sure, Muriel." Rachel had not heard. Her sister had sent her to the village for provisions. It was four miles to that particular shop where alone you could buy things good enough for Burton. Rachel trudged drearily through the slush. How blind Burton must be!

She loved him. She was jealous of her sister. She thought her unworthy.

When she came back she saw smoke pouring out of the parlor chimney. She threw the provisions on the kitchen table and ran to Muriel in the parlor. Her face was white.

"Muriel!" she gasped. "You—you've lit the parlor fire. The swifts—"

"Bother the swifts!" said Muriel.

A little brown body, then another, tumbled down the pipe and quivered upon the logs. With a cry Rachel picked them up and carried them to the door. The eyes of the fledglings were glazed. Their hearts had ceased to pulsate.

Rachel stood there in horror. Then, deliberately, she carried the dead birds to the hedge and put them under a heap of loose soil. Her eyes were blazing. Burton ought to be told. Why shouldn't he be told? Muriel was not fit to marry Burton. Not fit for any man.

How long she crouched there she did not know. Long afterward, when she returned she heard Burton's voice in the parlor.

"Where's Rachel, I wonder?"

"Day dreaming somewhere, I guess," answered Muriel carelessly.

"Say, Muriel, did I ever tell you the story of the dreamer and the sea?"

Rachel listened. Muriel burst into shrieks of laughter and Burton joined in. How coarse his voice sounded.

"Say, Muriel, when is it to be?"

"Be? What be?"

"Why, you and me—church—parson—ring—nice little flat for two—happy as turtle doves!"

Through the doorway Rachel saw Burton's fat, jovial face. She shuddered. How had she ever dreamed she cared for him?

She was glad Muriel was going to marry Burton. They were well suited to each other. Her eyes were opened, her heart, her understanding. She had become a woman—through the understanding of suffering, through sorrow.

The Social Sponsor.

Many seeking social position fall into the clutches of a "professional friend." He has a speaking acquaintance with many men and women of the social world, and knows where to go in order to mix with the smart set, how to do things in the best style. He dresses well and is a glib talker.

The professional friend undertakes to pilot his clients about for, let us say, the winter season in New York. No mention is made of money, but, of course, the clients pay all the bills, while the professional friend lives on the fat of the land.—A "Society Editor" in the Atlanta Constitution.

The Political Boss.

"What has become of the political boss?" "The political boss," replied Senator Sorghum, "reminds me of a friend of mine who is in the hospital. He got careless about starting something and managed to get run over by his own machine."

GREECE HURLS DEFI AT TURKS

GOVERNMENT DECIDES AGAINST PAYING TURKISH
INDEMNITY

CURZON ORDERS REDS TO YIELD

Demands Russian Government Meet
Terms of Recent British Note Unconditionally.

Lausanne—If Turkey insists on war to settle the question of the indemnity she claims is due from Greece, then Greece will accept the gage of battle, M. Alexandris, the Greek foreign minister, said.

The Turks have given no indication of an intention to recede from their reparation demands and M. Alexandris's declaration that Greece was resolved not to pay one cent of indemnity brought increased pessimism in conference circles.

The Greek foreign minister said the Greek army had been reorganized since the overthrow of Constantine, and was now well equipped and armed and able to take care of itself.

The seizure by the Turks of the impoverished refugees' funds in the banks of Constantinople, continued the foreign minister, and the "abominable treatment" of Greek prisoners of war recently arrived from Asia Minor, constituted such provocations.

The Greeks and Turks had signed a separate convention at Lausanne in January for the compulsory exchange of populations, with the distinct provision that it should be inoperative before May 1, yet the Turks have sent an additional 70,000 refugees since the signature of the convention in gross violation of its terms.

The latest provocation, according to M. Alexandris was the steady despatch of Turkish troops into eastern Thrace, violating the Mudania armistice.

M. Alexandris repeated the Greek contention that Turkey and Greece should mutually renounce reparations as the only possible solution.

The second month of the second conference will open tomorrow in a troubled atmosphere with none of the great issues settled.

London—Lord Curzon has demanded that the Russian government fulfill unconditionally the terms of the recent British note or submit to a rupture of relations.

Preparations were said to have been made so that British light cruisers and mine sweepers might be rushed to Russian waters from Portsmouth and Chatham.

CREW SAVED AS BOAT SINKS

Take To Boats After Vessels Crash
In Fog in Lake Huron.

Sault Ste. Marie—Rigged out in clothing from Sault Ste. Marie stores, 27 sailors, including Captain Joseph E. Burke of St. Clair, Mich., left here Monday for Chicago. Captain Burke and his men narrowly escaped death in Lake Huron when their steamer, the Edward U. Demmer, of the Milwaukee Western Steamship company, sunk 10 minutes after it was hit, starboard and forward, by the steamer Saturn.

After drifting about in life boats, the men were picked up by the steamer Agassie. The first man to leave the ill-fated steamer was picked up by the steamer Eads and arrived here several hours before his shipmates. He believed at first the rest of the crew had perished.

The captain of the Agassie cruised about for three hours searching in the fog for the men whose cries he could hear but whom he was unable to see.

BELGIANS BALK ON WAR IN RUHR

Refuse to Send More Troops Into Rhineland with French.

Paris—The difference between the French and Belgian governments slight a month ago, has become decidedly greater.

While the Theunis cabinet is thoroughly in sympathy with Premier Poincare, nevertheless the Flemish part of the Belgian population supplies a consistent opposition to following closely the French policy.

As a result of this definite opposition to the Ruhr plans the Belgian cabinet, despite the overwhelming vote of confidence, decided not to participate in further strengthening the hold on the Rhineland.

Baron Gailfrier D'Heustroy, Belgian ambassador, called on Premier Poincare and presented a formal refusal by the Belgian government to send any more troops to the Ruhr.

The French cabinet already had decided to send 20,000 men, but in face of the Belgian abstention, it is possible that the move will be postponed.

Belgian sources confirm the desire of the Theunis cabinet to avoid alienating the opinion of Flemish Belgians.

WRITES INTERESTING LETTER FROM CALIFORNIA.

Mojave, Calif., May 11, 1923.
Editor Record: The promised letter giving account of my trip to sunny California was written some time ago while in Los Angeles, but later I discovered it was not posted like some others I overlooked till some days later.

Left Plymouth at 8:30 a. m. December 12, arriving in Grand Rapids at 11:50 to wait till 6:10 for Chicago train, and as a farewell to old Michigan, for a time we encountered a blustery driving snow storm and by no means a warm one.

Having the afternoon free, after lunch, I called up my nephew, J. R. Thompson, who is in the automobile business. He coming to the rescue and wishing to show the city and call on some friends we started out. We drove through the drifting, blinding snow around much of the downtown as well as the residential part of the city and indeed found it to be a beautiful clean city far beyond our expectation, it being our first visit there and regardless of the cold, unpleasant day we enjoyed the drive and scenery very much. Returned and boarded the train at 6:30 p. m. arriving in Chicago at 9:30 p. m. where we had only 30 minutes to wait in which time had to re-check trunk and secure tickets, and then was ready for Pullman and glad to have a chance to rest after the busy days before leaving home. Had a very pleasant trip to Omaha, and Burlington, Iowa, arriving there Wednesday at 5:00 p. m. to wait till 1:20 a. m. for Union Pacific train for the great West. Met some very nice people after leaving Chicago and we spent the day Wednesday very pleasantly. Saw almost no sunshine or only for a short while at a time until Saturday. Left Omaha at 1:20 a. m. Saw snow in places through Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Wyoming, Colorado and Utah. The most scenic part of the trip we passed in the night time. The sky being so overcast and dull made the trip less pleasant but the passengers were all in good spirits, making the time pass very pleasantly. We stepped from the train whenever an opportunity presented itself and thoroughly enjoyed the trip, arriving in Los Angeles Saturday at 9:30 a. m. where our friends met us giving us a royal welcome.

Will first mention the fact that when our train pulled in Saturday morning at San Bernardino we were greeted by the high school band and entertained with several selections of music which all appreciated. Remained in Los Angeles until Monday, December 18th, leaving in afternoon for the great Mojave desert, a wonderful drive over mountains through canyons, valleys and over paved roads, 120 miles, then 13 miles to the Conklin ranch, where we are enjoying the pure mountain air and sunshine, and hot sunshine, too. Have taken some most delightful drives over the mountains and we never tire of their beauty. They seem to speak volumes to us of the wonderful workings of God—such a beautiful world that He has created for the human family to enjoy. Called on Mr. and Mrs. Will Nash and family formerly of Northville the next day after arriving in Los Angeles. Have met many Michigan people some of them at Michigan picnic March 17th. Among them Mrs. Albert Vradenburg of Northville, John Strong, formerly of Walled Lake. Did not learn of the picnic until about 1:00 o'clock on afternoon so when arriving at Sycamore grove many people were gone. Learned from the Oakland county register that F. B. Quigley and A. N. Kimmis had been there but were gone.

Called on Mrs. Elnathan Webb, a former Novi resident, at the home of a son. Did not see Mr. Webb, he being away from home. The family have been in California 23 years. Went to Los Angeles February 21st to remain two or three weeks and was there two months and in that time did not miss a day that was not out some where. Attended the great revival services in the beautiful Angelus Temple where Mrs. Aimee Semple McPherson is pasty and it was she who had the vision of the temple and is its founder. Thousands of people flock to the services every day and evening, there having been more than 5,000 people, who have given their hearts to Christ in four months. Los Angeles is being stirred as never before as well as many other places; people coming from other states just to attend the services, and indeed we have been truly glad to have had such an opportunity to enjoy so much. Took a two-day trip (boat) to Catalina Island and one day to Mt. Lowe and attended the Mission play at San Gabriel enjoying all to the fullest extent. Will write of those trips for the friends when we are again in Michigan. Had some delightful trips and saw much beautiful scenery.

The past few weeks has been very warm, though the nights are cool, and much high wind, and the same surely blows here on the desert. May 2nd Mojave was visited by a fire which burned nearly one whole block including the post office. Two other villages, Randsburg and Jehanburg had quite a loss by fire just one day before, but fortunately no lives were lost. While in Los Angeles attended the opening of the new Bank of Italy, a wonderful piece of workmanship. Never saw such a profusion of floral pieces and cut flowers sent from many other states, including Virginia, Massachusetts, Colorado, Kansas, Texas, Kentucky, Maine and others, not forgetting to mention Michigan among the number. Some of the floral pieces were several feet in height, one being seven feet or more. It was a marvel of beauty. Spent much time in several of the city's beautiful parks, basking in the warm sunshine.

Enjoy reading The Record each week, thanks to you for the kindness in mailing it to me. Expect to leave for Michigan soon. Would have gone before but the weather reports from there were not very encouraging for one to leave this sunny place in such a beautiful world, and now, as the time draws near to leave, the writer is not at all in a hurry to go from such a delightful scenery and we must admit that the "lure of the desert" and the love for California's foothills and mountains have gripped us hard. We do not expect this to be "printed" in The Record—too lengthy and mixed up. Do not mail paper to me here after this week, but at home address.

Sincerely,
MRS. LIZZIE COATES,
Mojave, Calif.

D. C. R. CAR BURNS AT ROCHESTER, N. Y.

A lighted cigar or cigarette butt left in the smoking compartment of a Detroit-Flint interurban is blamed for the $237,000 fire which Saturday morning destroyed the car shed inspection and repair department of the Detroit United Railway at Rochester, six of the latest type limited interurban cars and a large quantity of car repair parts and expensive repair machinery.

Ann Arbor.—Rumor is current on the campus here that Gustave Holst, English composer and guest-conductor at the thirtieth annual May Festival is to become director of the University Musical Society, replacing Dr. Albert J. Stange, resigned. Negotiations to that effect are under way it is said.

Nation Can Never Forget

Once more comes Memorial day and while the gallant deeds of our noble young soldiers in the late World war naturally are fresher in our memories, the sacrifices of our patriotic defenders in 1861-65 will not be forgotten while the nation endures. The passing of those veterans in blue has been rapid, and it is saddening. Each day sees 100 of these old veterans, and two-thirds as many of their wives carried to the grave. For them the end is not far off; another decade and scarcely a veteran will remain. The officers who led the Union troops averaged several years older than the enlisted men, many of the latter, as is well known, being mere striplings at their entry into service, and few of the higher officers of volunteers now remain alive.

Great Soldier Honored

A memorial group, the central figure of which is to be Gen. George G. Meade, who commanded the Army of the Potomac during the Civil war, is soon to be placed at a chosen site in the capital. The completed statue and memorial is the work of Charles Grafly of Philadelphia, who was delegated by a special commission to execute the work. General Meade, the central figure, is surrounded by symbolic figures of military courage, energy, fame, loyalty, chivalry and progress.

WEDDING COMPLETE IN ALL ITS APPOINTMENTS.

"Thank goodness that function is off our hands," a member of the Busy Bee society was heard to remark to a friend Thursday morning, while she was discussing the day's news over the back fence. "They say that old man Winton is tickled to death to think that he has finally got his daughter off his hands, because she was such an expensive, high-strung young thing that all the members of the family fairly detested her."

"Yes," said Mrs. Doolittle, "but how is Harvey Ford going to support her is what I would like to know. And she knows nothing about house work. She can't cook or bake or sew, and I think it an outrage that Fairy Winton should have been allowed to vamp so prominently a young man as Harvey always seemed to be. But I suppose they'll get along somehow. I am not going to worry about their troubles. They will probably rent furnished apartments somewhere, but I'll miss my guess if the old man doesn't have to shell out to help Harvey support his fair bride with her fiery."

The wedding of Miss Fairy Winton (Claude Ely) to Mr. Harvey Ford (Richard Kilgour) took place at the Alseium theatre on Wednesday evening and the ceremony was witnessed by a large crowd. The announcement of the wedding created a great stir in Northville's "society circles."

The "prominence" of the contracting parties made everybody desirous of receiving an invitation and judging from the size of the audience no invitation was declined. What was at first expected to be a "simple" church wedding became a double marriage ceremony and Miss Millie Gallagher (Harry J. Green of Plymouth), whom the public believed had been most cruelly treated by the young Mr. Ford, and a prominent member of our local bar, Attorney Grabit (F. J. Cochran) also presented themselves and asked to be "joined" also. It was whispered about town the following morning, however, that the $5,000 that Miss Millie received from Fairy Winton was the prize that Lawyer Grabit desired, and not Millie herself.

The ceremony was complete and the affair was well staged and the parts were splendidly taken. Nothing has been given in Northville in recent years that has created more real merriment and fun and the members of the Woman's Union of the Presbyterian church under whose auspices the play was given are to be congratulated upon its success. The presentation of the comedy revealed what the writer has always maintained—that Northville has a wonderful lot of fair and beautiful women. There were some striking "figures" among the guests at the wedding and if some of the men in this community are not "vamped" it will not be for lack of "vampires."

The High school orchestra furnished music and the Hinman-Brothers—Walter, Mahlon, Harry and Clyde—rendered a number of selections to the delight of all. Al Zimmer sang "O Promise Me" just before the wedding ceremony took place and Lillian Cassie and Margaret Stessor gave Scottish dances, accompanied by Piper Cassie. The little girls did wonderfully well and were generously applauded.

The ladies having charge of the affair are very grateful to all who assisted them in making the "Womanless Double Wedding" such a success.

Novi News.
