NORTHVILLE PAYS TENDER TRIBUTE TO ITS DEPARTED

"Memorial Day," President Harding stated some days ago, "marks our recognition of those who, from our national beginnings, have deserved the most that the nation could give of gratitude and appreciation. It reminds us that in every generation from Lexington to the Argonne, our valorous sons have well deserved the highest tribute that a nation, fortified, defended, preserved, could give to them."

The people of this community have never failed to properly observe this day so sacred in memories so rich in love and appreciation, nor did they fail this year. The day dawned bright and beautiful with a cool, crisp air which kissed the unfurled flags and gave its embrace to the fairest flowers. Northville people were out early, visiting with each other in their efforts to make the occasion fitting the purpose for which it was set apart.

All day Tuesday and on Wednesday forenoon people visited the village cemeteries and those in the outlying districts, bearing rarest flowers to decorate the last resting place of some loved one, because Memorial Day has a special significance to nearly every family, whose circle has been broken by the silent messenger. Wednesday forenoon the band gave a concert and in the afternoon the people gathered at the Alseium theatre at two o'clock to take part in the program arranged for the day. The stage had been decorated in a manner fitting the occasion and the services throughout were interesting and impressive. The band rendered "The Star-Spangled Banner," at the conclusion of which Rev. Wm. Richards offered prayer. Lysle Alexander gave Lincoln's Gettysburg Address in an impressive manner.

L. C. Mead presided and during his remarks he expressed the belief that owing to the fact that there were but three members of Allan M. Harmon Post, G. A. R., able to be present at the services it would be necessary to pass to other hands the making of the plans and arrangements for succeeding Memorial Days. His remarks brought feelings of sadness and a realization that but few of the grand old men of the great Civil war were left to witness such manifestations of devotion and loyalty as the people of this community were paying to its aged and honored veterans. He expressed the thanks of the members of the Post for the kindly interest the people of Northville had always manifested in the observance of Memorial Day and urged all to "carry on" that the spirit of the day might continue to be an inspiration to all who should come after.

Mr. Mead then introduced the speaker of the day, Rev. A. K. MacRae, pastor of the Baptist church, who gave a most interesting and impressive address, speaking in a good full voice that all could hear distinctly. By way of introduction the speaker suggested that on an occasion of this kind it is sometimes advisable to do the unlooked for thing and he suggested that the audience arise and give three hearty cheers for the old veterans upon the platform, and he led the cheering in which all gladly took part. For his theme the speaker had chosen "A Monument to Liberty and Union," and declared that the veterans of all of America's wars had erected a monument for themselves and that monument was typified in Memorial Day. He related the history of how Moses had commanded his followers to erect a monument as a nexpression of their thankfulness for their deliverance and how they built this monument on the river bank, using twelve stones in its construction. America's soldiers had also builded a monument in the hearts and affections of the people whom they had defended and for whose safety they had offered themselves as a living sacrifice. The stones with which this monument had been erected were designated as devotion to country, loyalty, sacrifice, obedience, perseverance, courage, unity, utility, ability, cheerfulness, honor and humanity, and he related in a most interesting and inspiring manner how these several stones were placed together with a love that shall know no ending.

Rev. Wm. Richards led the audience in singing "America" and the services at the theatre were brought to a close. A procession was then formed headed by the band, members of Northville Commandery, Knights Templar, acting as escort. The procession proceeded to Oakwood cemetery where the ritualistic services of the Grand Army of the Republic were conducted at the grave of Allan M. Harmon. After taps had been sounded the procession re-formed and marched to Rural Hill cemetery where the American Legion services took place.

The procession returned to the business section of the village where ranks were broken.

The members of the Post and Corps, American Legion and band, with some invited guests enjoyed a bountiful dinner at 5:30 prepared by the ladies of the W. R. C.

There was a great crowd in the village and members of the Post and Corps and Legion are very grateful to all who assisted in making the day one that not only honored them, but by its proper observance honored the whole community.

LARGE AUDIENCE ATTENDED MEMORIAL SERVICES.

The Methodist church was filled to its capacity on Sunday morning when the people of this community gathered to pay their tribute of respect to the memory of those who have crossed over the dark river. The churches of the village united in the services of the morning and they were most impressive. The church had been attractively decorated with flags and potted plants and flowers and members of the G. A. R., American Legion, Spanish war veterans and W. R. C. were given seats of honor. The choir and congregation sang "America" and Rev. Jaquess offered the opening prayer. Rev. Jaynes read the scripture lesson and Rev. A. K. MacRae offered prayer. Rev. William Richards led in the responsive reading and the choir sang an anthem. Miss June Wilkins contributed a solo to the program of the day.

Rev. William Richards gave the address and his words were full of inspiration and helpfulness.

MARIONETTES PLEASED GREATLY.

The Juniors of the High school are to be congratulated upon the success of the Marionette entertainment given at the auditorium on Friday evening last by young men-students of the U. of M. Edward Elliott rendered a number of piano numbers while the crowd was gathering and he was given generous applause at the conclusion of each selection. The entertainment was both unique and interesting and the large audience present expressed its approval by frequent applause. The charming old fairy tale "The Three Wishes" and the play "Androcles and the Lion" were especially well staged and given in a most interesting and amusing manner. Each number on the program was introduced by a charming little announcer, dressed as an agile little clown.

The young men who presented the entertainment were Harry Burnett, Robert Henderson and Forman Brown.

BAND CONCERT SATURDAY NIGHT.

The first Saturday night concert of the season will be given by the Northville municipal band Saturday night of this week and they will be continued each week all summer. In former years these concerts have been very popular and a great many people are attracted here each week as a result of this special entertainment. Manager W. H. Safford always brings together a band composed of men who are experienced and who play a program far above the average village band, in fact the programs given weekly in Northville in former years are as good as are given in any city.

Come to town Saturday night and enjoy the first concert of the season.

PRISON FARM BASE BALL.

Sunday, May 27th, Redford baseball team was defeated by the House of Correction officers, score 15 to 14. Wilkins for the visitors pitched a good game, but the breaks were against him and Light was substituted in the 8th inning in an effort to save the game. A batting rally of the Redford team in the 9th nearly tied the score, but it was nipped in time. Denniston for the officers pitched a consistent game and until the futile rally of the 9th was never in danger.

Last Saturday afternoon the scheduled game of the D. H. of C. officers team with Paramount Picture Corp. of Detroit was cancelled at the last minute by the Paramount team by inability to assemble their players. A few of the Plymouth boys organized a team and a practice game was played instead.

TO MEET IN FARMINGTON.

The next meeting of the Lam Enforcement League of Oakland county will be held at Farmington, June 1st, in the Methodist church. A banquet will be served at 6:30 in the evening. A program of interest has been prepared.

pared. It will be an important meeting as vital matters are to be discussed.

Gold Not All From Gold Mines.

A large part of the gold produced in the United States comes from by-products in copper and lead mines.

Walled Lake Warbles.

Dr. Clayton Bullard is suffering an attack of rheumatism and has been quite ill.

It is expected that fully two car loads of wool will be pooled this week by the Oakland County Farm bureau. Wool was received at Wixom yesterday and on Friday and Saturday farmers can market their clips at Holly and Oxford.

Superintendent Upton and members of Walled Lake's consolidated school board went to Novi on Wednesday night and presented facts and figures relative to the cost and maintenance of the new school to members of the Novi Progressive Club and other citizens of Novi.

George Erwin, for many years a resident of this section, died at Pontiac May 21st, after a long illness. Funeral services were held at the home of the deceased's nephew, B. J. Boynton, at Pontiac last Thursday and burial took place at Walled Lake cemetery. He is survived by his wife and one son, Edward of Detroit.

NOVI TOWNSHIP BOARD DOING GOOD WORK.

The members of the Novi township board are to be commended for their action in deciding to gravel the road around the south side of Walled Lake and the work is now being done under the supervision of Highway Commissioner William Mairs. This section of this popular resort has been neglected for a number of years, not intentionally of course, but because so many other places were demanding improvement. There are now many cottages on the south side of the lake and with the improvement of this stretch the number will doubtless be increased. When the improvement is completed it will afford a most delightful scenic drive around the lake.

TURKS TO FIRE ON ALLY SHIPS

WARN VESSELS NOT TO VIOLATE ORDER TO APPROACH COAST AFTER SUNDOWN

GREECE WANTS CLAIM SETTLED

Will Withdraw from Conference Unless Satisfaction is Guaranteed

Constantinople—The Turkish government Thursday officially notified the Allies that ships are prohibited from approaching the Turkish coast after sundown. The Turkish outposts are instructed to fire upon ships violating this order.

The Allies officially have informed the Turks that diplomatic representations have been made to Athens to prevent the Greeks from carrying out their threats.

However, the Turks do not expect great effects from the allied protest. They are reminding that the Greek leaders ignored the allied appeals to save the lives of the former ministers.

Lausanne—M. Venizelos grimly notified the Allied delegates that Greece is withdrawing from the conference, resuming liberty of action, unless given satisfaction.

By liberty of action the Greek leader means the army will march upon eastern Thrace and Constantinople.

What the military government of Greece demands is that the Turkish claims of reparations on account of the devastation done during the Greek retreat in Anatolia be entirely withdrawn or cancelled against the Greek claims, and that this understanding be inscribed in the treaty before the conference continues further.

In face of the gathering war clouds the allied delegates at Lausanne have absolutely failed to reach a solution and the two opponents are further apart than ever before.

The question is now in the hands of the governments who are putting pressure on Athens.

The conference has also practically broken down on four other major questions which remain to be settled. The Turks firmly refuse to give up the island of Castellorizo to Italy, who refuses to make peace without getting the island.

RED DEATH WAVE SWEEPS RUHR

Communists Outbreaks Spread Over Occupied Territory.

Gelsenkirchen, Germany—A red wave of terror, sweeping over the Ruhr with increasing fury Sunday, had resulted in 25 killed, innumerable wounded and a huge property loss.

Strikes are spreading feverishly through Gelsenkirchen, Bochum, Dortmund and Essen—the heart of Germany's industry.

Disorders are reported in increasing numbers in villages and towns throughout the region occupied by French forces.

Municipal authorities only succeeded in aggravating the situation with their small police and fire forces. The force of defenders is too small to quell marauding bands who are stalking through the district looting stores and pillaging.

Deserted mine pits are flooding. It is estimated that more than 300,000 former workers are idle or have joined the Communists.

SOVIET YIELDS TO ULTIMATUM

Concedes Most Demands of British in Second Reply.

London—Soviet Russia's second reply to the British ultimatum accepts the majority of the British demands, and suggests the holding of a conference to consider points in dispute.

The Soviet expresses readiness to conclude forthwith an agreement granting British citizens the right to fish outside the three mile limit of the Russian coasts, pending settlement by an international convention of the dispute over the extent of territorial waters.

Diplomatic circles continue their attitude of extreme reserve regarding the ultimate outcome of the present controversy between Great Britain and Soviet Russia declaring the decision rests with Moscow.

In other quarters the predictions are about equally divided between a break and continuance of relations.

TO HOLD HEALTH EXPOSITION.

A great child health conference will be conducted at the Michigan Health Exposition in the General Motors building from June 7th to 16th, under the auspices of the Wayne County Medical Society, co-operating with the Detroit Dental Association, the Detroit Nursing Association, the Michigan State Department of Health, the Detroit Department of Health and other organizations, departments, institutions and associations engaged in public health work. It is expected that bring together the greatest, the finest and healthiest collection of babies ever seen together at one time.

"The purpose of this conference," says Dr. Duffield, "is to develop a definite community consciousness concerning the health and welfare of children throughout the state of Michigan."

"Whether or not they have children, every family has a definite interest in this child health conference. The future of America depends upon the mental, physical and moral health of our children. Therefore, every citizen is invited to aid us in developing a system whereby the information and experience of the whole scientific world is placed at the disposal of the mother."

"To stimulate the interest of the fathers and mothers in the state and in order to confer the benefits of complete physical examination upon the largest possible number of children the exposition is offering a large number of valuable prizes for children of good health between the ages of six months and three years. The child whose size, mental condition and health habits approach the nearest to perfection, will receive the first prize of $50 in gold and the blue ribbon of honor. The second prize will be $25 and a red ribbon of honor, the third $10 and a green ribbon, the fourth $5 and a lavender ribbon, after which there will be ten prizes of $1 each and white ribbons to the next ten healthiest babies."

Camr Eaton is and Lake Mich. May 21. Visitation on a week-day could almost be compared to the land and consequently they are crowded. Today, Saturday, two young men acting as escorts to two pretty girls were in recent enough to wear a very red hat and a very red dress.

They were out for the soldiers. Whole companies were "Where did you get that hat?" The jokes flew across the company's faces like fire bugs. The girls seemed to enjoy it.

WALL PAPER. WALL PAPER. Spring patterns now in stock. 22c. See Harold White for prices. New.

the boys blushed painfully. The men of the Thirty-third regiment company gave them a very formal salute, some one hitting the base drum a terrific boom at the same instant. The above is from the Sunday News-Tribune. Two of Northville's jolly and well known young men, Lou Miller and Glenn Richardson, have hats of the brightest red and purest white respectively, and as they were at Island Lake Saturday it would only be fair to guess that they were the two young men referred to. It is safe to say, however, that they took the silly unfinchingly and without turning.

A cordial welcome to all.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES.

Have you read our ad? This is the first of the series of sermons on the genuineness of the Bible. Because of union services, etc. during the month of June these will not be given on successive Sundays. One of these sermons will be devoted to the answering of objections but hear the sermons before you send in your objections.

Something unusual and novel in the way of a children's day program will be given in the church. Watch for the program.

God is giving us fine weather, let us give Him one day a week (Sunday). It is what He asks of us. Go to church Sunday.

Our attendance continues to be very gratifying.

The pastor has not resigned and has no thought of doing so. For some unknown reason this report has been circulated in some quarters. No harm done and no offence taken.

Why Not Have the Best

When the best things in Groceries and Vegetables, Baked Goods and Fruits cost no more than the other kind why not have the best?

We do not strive so much to offer the cheapest goods—though our prices compare favorably with those asked by others—but we do strive to offer the best goods in our respective lines that the market affords.

Upon that basis we are building our business and we invite you to become a member of our happy family of patrons.

A. BECKMAN

JEREMIAH AND THE JEWISH SAFETY CAMPAIGN

Only last Sunday a reckless and thoughtless lad plunged seven young folks to a quick and tragic death—and it was a few days after a vigorous attempt to teach folks to be careful.

Why should people take such chances? Why endanger one's own life and many others? Why violate the rules? Why be so selfish and disregard the other fellow?

The Jews were rushing madly towards ruin. Jeremiah saw the road ahead and tried to make the nation stop—look—listen—but the traffic was too slow for their car and the Assyrian limited hit them full tilt.

As the main highways are crowded with those who are coming and going many Jeremiahs are needed to guard and guide the travelers.

Why get mad because the preacher speaks out—points the right way—commands obedience?

It is a he-man job to be good. There are many dangerous curves in life—many bad corners—many unguarded crossings—many deep ruts, Jeremiah found it so. You probably see some of it.

IS THE BIBLE A FAKE?

If it is, millions of people have been and are being deceived, a vast sum of money is being wasted, valuable time and lives are being thrown away and have been thrown away. If it is not a fake, millions of people are eternally lost because they do not follow its teachings.

A large majority of the world's greatest men believe it to be the genuine word of God. Are they deceived? Are they fools?

Do YOU Believe It Genuine? Do YOU Believe It A Fake? WHY?

Starting Sunday evening the pastor will preach a series of sermons, the subject of which will be

"Is The Bible Genuine?"

Historical, recent discoveries and scientific proofs of its genuineness will be given Sunday night.

The subject of the sermon Sunday morning will be

"THE MASTER'S LILLY"

The church of Jesus Christ is likened to a lily in the Bible. What is the church of Jesus Christ? Why is it like a lily? These questions will be answered Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Ovid McDonald moved to Saginaw this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Montgomery are spending the week with relatives at Rose City.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Tom McKay of Detroit, were in Northville, Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul Alexander will leave today, Friday, for a few days outing at Lansing and points farther north. His office will be closed until his return.

The annual banquet of the Northville High School Alumni association will be held on Friday evening, June 29th, at six o'clock. Invitations will be issued within a few days.

Cars driven by E. M. Starkweather and Clyde Carey "came together" on the Fishery road in front of the Starkweather farm Sunday afternoon. Both cars were damaged somewhat and Mr. Carey sustained some cuts and bruises to one of his hands.

Miss Iris Balch closed her school at Bell Branch on Friday last with a picnic for the children and the patrons of the district. She has been engaged to teach there for another year and was complimented by the board of education by being tendered a very substantial increase in salary. Miss Balch will attend the Detroit Teachers' College summer school.

Northville has been given a good "house cleaning" this spring due largely to the efforts and the energy of Dr. R. Schuyler, village health officer. The alleys in back of the stores have been cleaned and the property owners about the village have responded cordially to Dr. Schuyler's appeal to clean up the town. Dr. Schuyler deserves a great deal of credit for the interest he manifested in this important matter.

The handsome new front in Schrader Brothers' furniture store was completed last week and on Saturday it was "all dressed up" with a very attractive dining room suite, which attracted a great deal of attention. The new window makes a great improvement in the appearance of the store and will show Messrs. Schrader an opportunity to properly display the very choice offerings in furniture they are continually offering the public.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Summers on the Bass Line road was a scene of a very enjoyable family reunion a few days ago. Those present to enjoy the fellowship of the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rice and family and A. C. Hamilton of Lansing, Bert Rice and family, Stanley Simmons and Miss Lucile Smith of Detroit, William Greer and family of Farmington and Frank Rice and family of Novi. A bountiful dinner added greatly to the pleasure of the day.

The semi-annual state convention of the Exchange clubs of Michigan will be held at Benton Harbor on Monday, June 11th. In order that the meeting may be one of more than ordinary interest and pleasure the Exchange club and citizens of Benton Harbor have arranged a program of entertainment starting with Saturday the 9th and continuing over Sunday, closing with the meeting on Monday. Elaborate plans are being made for the entertainment of Exchangeites and their ladies and the three days will afford a most delightful outing to those who can get away.

Mesdames John Walker, Al Zimmer and Hugh K. Babbitt tendered Miss Marion Mulford a linen shower at the home of Mrs. Walker one evening last week, and the guest of honor received many very beautiful gifts. On Thursday night the boarders at the Tremper home tendered Miss Mulford a happy surprise at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Nelson, when she was presented with a handsome lined table spread. Miss Mulford has been supervisor of music and drawing in the Northville schools for the past three years and has decided not to remain next year.

J. A. Huff has been confined to his home by illness part of the past week.

Mrs. Helen Klod of Rochester spent Tuesday and Wednesday with Northville friends.

Miss Pearl McDonald of Yale was the guest of Miss Grace Tremper a part of last week.

H. R. Bogart has let the contract for the erection of a handsome new residence in Orchard Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. John LaRue and children of Wayne spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Seley.

The regular afternoon meeting of The King's Daughters will be held June 5th at the home of Mrs. George Alexander.

Mrs. Eugene Edwards of Farmington and daughter, Mrs. Fred Follette of Detroit, were callers at the Tremper home Saturday evening.

C. C. Yerkes is able to be at his office forenoon these days. Many friends will be pleased to learn that his condition is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Read and daughters, Ruth and Gwynn and son, Robert of Detroit, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Miller, Sunday.

Mesdames Lea Joslin and W. E. Ambler have returned home from California, where they visited for several months. They left all of the former Northville people well.

Northville defeated North Farmington in the local grounds last Sunday.

The score being 9 to 7. Loye German pitched a good game for the home team. Next Sunday our team will go to North Farmington.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Library association will be held on Friday afternoon, June 8th, at 3:00, in the library building. All card holders are entitled to vote at this meeting, and a good attendance is desired.

County Agent Carr of the Wayne county farm bureau was a Northville visitor Tuesday afternoon. He has arranged a county corn growing contest among the farmers of the county this year and already has a number of entrants. To the farmer making the highest yield per acre the Northville Fair will give a cash prize of $25. All entrants in the corn club will exhibit their corn at the fair in September.

The home talent play, "A Womanless Double Wedding," recently presented at the Alceum theatre will be repeated on Wednesday evening next the 13th to accommodate those who were unable to secure tickets at its first presentation. Seats will go on sale Saturday morning at the Northville Drug Co's store. Admission, 35 cents. If you enjoy a good hearty laugh you will not fail to secure your seats in time.

While they said nothing about the happy event, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Richardson observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary quietly at their home in this village last evening. They were married at Holly and have been residents of Northville for the past 41 years. Many friends in this section will join The Record in extending hearty congratulations, with the wish that they may be spared to celebrate many more anniversaries together.

TROLLEY KILLS SEVEN PEOPLE

FOUR WOMEN, THREE MEN—VICTIMS OF CRASH AT FIFTEEN MILE ROAD.

INTERURBAN R-O-D-E-R-S IN PANIC

Bodies Mangled and Burned When Gas Tank Explodes—Many Witness Accident.

Birmingham, Mich.—Four girls and three youths on a holiday pleasure trip into the country were killed instantly Sunday night when an interurban car crashed into their automobile at Fifteen-Mile road and Woodward avenue.

The bodies burned and mangled almost beyond identification, and with the clothing cut to ribbons, were not identified in Birmingham undertaking rooms until early Monday morning.

The accident took place in view of hundreds of motorists and pedestrians, many of whom were injured slightly by flying debris or in the panic that followed the crash.

The seven young folks killed were in a big blue car being driven north in Woodward avenue. The thoroughfare at that point is wide enough for only two machines. There was a steady stream of both south and northbound holiday traffic.

A small south-bound automobile stalled. It held up a dozen or more north-bound machines which were behind it. The driver of the wrecked car, who is believed to have been impatient at delay or else struck a rut, swerved suddenly to the right and on to the interurban tracks, which run parallel to the avenue. He apparently did not see the interurban which was coming from the north and only about 100 feet away.

Motorman Thomas Maxwell, on the interurban, saw the automobile, filled with laughing young folk, but it was too late to stop. The heavy street car struck the automobile amidships, and carried the wreckage about the length of two city blocks.

With the impact the air brakes on the street car were broken off, and the motorman was forced to let the car run its course.

Before the car came to a stop the gasoline tank in the automobile exploded and burned badly the bodies of two of the young women.

A few feet from where the impact took place the blue automobile broke in two.

The accident took place near Eco City, and was witnessed by the residents of that suburb, as well as by scores of motorists. Traffic was tied up for hours after the crash, and the throngs on the scene at the time were steadily augmented as new machines arrived.

MAIL ROBBERS SEIZE $50,000

Outlaws Kidnap Postmaster—Possess Search For Thugs

Stanton, Ill.—Posses in automobiles prowled through the country around here Sunday in search of five outlaws, who escaped with $50,000 in a bold mail robbery early Sunday.

Two mail pouches, containing the payroll of the Mount Olive and Stanton Coal company, were taken when the robbers attacked two postal offices.

The officers, Postmaster George A. Roberts and Harry Keenan, his assistant, were kidnaped and driven 15 miles south of station before they were tossed out of the machine. Although the postmaster was armed with a shotgun, he got no chance to use it.

The robbers were driving a large touring car. They first fired a salvo to terrorize pedestrians and then forced the small car of the postmaster to the curb as he was returning to the postoffice from the Wabash depot.

Occupants of residences were thrown from their chairs, and one man was hurled from his porch and tumbled into the yard.

The factory, consisting of eight small buildings, is wrecked. The exact damage is not known.

New York—By the end of the summer, approximately 170,000 miles of roads in the United States will have been designated as part of the Federal aid highway system. Secretary of Agriculture Wallace told the American Automobile association. ### BRIDGE MATTER EXPLAINED.

Northville Mich., May 28, 1928.

Editor Northville Record,
Dear Sir: Much criticism has been made in the past two years of the deplorable condition of the Pere Marquette overhead bridge east of town on the Griswold road. This criticism has been justified by the dangerous condition of the planking. The people using this bridge are asking who is responsible for the neglect. The village has been blamed, no doubt, for either not repairing the bridge or taking steps to compel the Pere Marquette Railroad company to do it. I am writing this as an explanation to the situation.

When the Flint & Pere Marquette railroad was constructed, about 1870, the highway crossed the tracks just east of the house now occupied by Peter Wall. After a short use of the highway at this point, it was determined that the crossing was dangerous and the railroad asked that it be changed to its present location, in which event it would construct the overhead bridge and also construct the approach from the east, and maintain the same.

About 1871, the railroad company did construct an overhead bridge where it now is, which was later replaced, in 1901, by the present structure, and also the approaches on either side; the eastern approach being about forty rods in length.

Since its original construction, the railroad company has at all times maintained the bridge and later, when it became unsafe, replaced the old structure with the present one.

Some two years ago, the bridge being badly out of repair, F. S. Neal, representing the Northville Auto club, began corresponding, both with the Pere Marquette Railroad company and the Michigan Public Utilities commission regarding the dangerous and unfit condition of the bridge. In response to such correspondence, the Pere Marquette Railroad company, through its present general manager, in a communication to the Public Utilities commission, recognized its obligation to make temporary and permanent repairs to the bridge and did, in the summer of 1921, repair and replace the surface of such bridge by new planking.

While temporary repairs, in 1921 were being discussed, Mr. Black, supervisor of bridges and buildings of the Pere Marquette Railroad company, visited the bridge in question and wrote to C. J. Rust division engineer, Saginaw, Michigan, a letter containing his findings as to the bridge, as follows:

Saginaw, Mich. Sept 14, 1921.

Mr. C. J. Rust, Division Engineer.

Saginaw, Michigan.

Dear Sir: As per instructions from the superintendent's office yesterday I met F. S. Neal, secretary of the Northville Auto club and another man representing the Road commission and went over the question of having the planking on the overhead bridge just north of the Northville depot.

This is the bridge that I recommended to you, be rebuilt next summer, after the plans of our Court street bridge at Flint.

I believed I convinced Neal and the commission that it was not practical to plank the bridge lengthwise on account of the greater span of this bridge and its decayed condition. It is about 207 feet old and that is about the limit of a wood structure.

I would recommend that this bridge be replaced with concrete similar to the Court street bridge at Flint.

Very truly,
S. S. Neal, J. D. Black

Supr. Bridges and Buildings

The Auto club and the village then assumed that the matter was settled—that the bridge would be rebuilt of cement not later than 1922—but during 1922, the bridge being often out of repair and no progress being made in the reconstruction of the same, the matter was again taken up directly with the Pere Marquette Railroad company and, on October 24, 1922, Frank Alfred, president of the Pere Marquette Railroad company in a letter to Mr. Neal as secretary of the Northville Auto club wrote as follows:

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 24, 1922.

Mr. F. S. Neal, Secretary,

Northville Automobile Club,

Northville, Michigan.

Dear Sir: Referring to your telephone conversation with my office today, complaining of the condition of the planking on overhead highway bridge crossing our tracks at Northville.

The maintenance of the planking of this bridge is a matter to be taken care of by the township or village. I would call your attention to provisions of Compiled Laws 1915, Section 4776, which provide that the surface and approaches of bridges over which the street or highway passes shall be constructed, maintained and kept in repair by the township or city, within which the same are situated. In the absence of any agreement covering this matter, the provisions of the above referred to Act should apply.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) FRANK H. ALFRED,

Pres. and Gen'l Manager.

The statute mentioned in Mr. Alfred's letter was one that had been in force for a number of years. The Railroad company had maintained the bridge in question for many years after the statute was in force. The claim that this statute relieved the Railroad company from any obligation to repair the surface apparently was an afterthought and was never made until Mr. Alfred's letter in 1922.

Complaint was then made to the Public Utilities commission at Lansing and an order was asked for compelling the Railroad company to resurface the bridge. A hearing was had and testimony taken, but no final order was made by the commission. It should be remembered that orders made by this commission are appealable to the supreme court and an appeal involves much delay. It was said at this hearing that a parallel case was then pending in the supreme court and that its decision would govern this matter. Nothing more was heard from the commission and, in May of this year, the bridge becoming impassable, I wrote the commission asking if a temporary order could not be made, requiring necessary repairs until such time as the case was finally decided. The following reply was received:

Mr. C. C. Yerkes, Attorney,

Northville, Michigan,

Dear Sir: This will acknowledge receipt of your favor of the 14th inst. regarding the case pending before this commission involving the construction and maintenance of the overhead bridge over the Pere Marquette right-of-way just east of Northville.

We had a case at Grand Blanc, Genesee county, identical with this, and an order requiring the Railroad company to maintain a suitable overhead bridge. They took the matter direct to the supreme court and the case was submitted at the last term and we have been looking for a decision in the matter before the court opens the June term.

If the commission should make an order in this matter to be consistent, it could have to make the same kind of an order that it did in the Grand Blanc case, viz., require the Pere Marquette to maintain a suitable and safe overhead bridge. We realize the company would immediately take the matter to the supreme court and in the interim of delay, much work decision in the matter from the supreme court, which could not be had until the end of this year at least. If the supreme court should sustain this commission in the Grand Blanc case and we should make an order requiring the Pere Marquette to build and maintain this overhead bridge, the company would undoubtedly comply with our order.

I note what you say about this commission making an order directing the company to make necessary repairs and in case the supreme court should not sustain us in the Grand Blanc case, that the company should be reimbursed. We could do that, but as this is not a court reimbursement might not be enforceable.

It would seem to me that if the bridge is in use and some necessary repairs are needed, that the village should notify the Pere Marquette to make them at once, and that if not made, the village could make them, and charge the same to the company.

We want to see no expense to you in every way possible under the circumstances, and that it would be advisable for the commission to make an order which would give the company a chance to do so in the supreme court, and if not sustained in this matter.

Very truly yours

MICHIGAN

In 1882 Mrs. Sutton was again united in marriage to David C. Weng of Jackson, who died June 21st, 1897. Since that time she has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. C. A. McCullough. She was a member of the Lady Macabees and the W. R. G. and was highly esteemed by the large circle of friends, both in this community and elsewhere.

A. N. KIMMIS SERIOUSLY INJURED WHILE RIDING A COIT.

The following letter from Mrs. A. N. Kimmis of Pasadena Calif., will be read with much interest as well as with keen regret by the many friends of Mr. Kimmis in this section:

Pasadena, Calif., May 20, 1923.

Mr. E. E. Brown, Northville, Mich., My Dear Sir: It occurs to me that possibly enough of your readers would be interested in knowing the facts to warrant me in writing you that on Saturday, May 12th, Mr. Kimmis was very seriously injured. He was riding a coit which he has been training this winter. On the highway the coit became frightened and reared so violently that he fell over backward carrying Mr. Kimmis beneath him, fracturing the left leg almost at the hip joint. The fracture is of such a nature that it cannot be set and the process of heavy weights from the limb is necessary to bring the bones onto place. He is in the Pasadena hospital where it is probable that he will have to remain a long time. At the end of one week he is still suffering intensely but the physicians say he is doing as well as can be expected.

Very sincerely,
MRS. AUSTIN N. KIMMIS

NORTHVILLE'S CHAUTAUQUO PROGRAM.

For a number of years past Northville has had a five day Chautauqua, but for this year the local committee has arranged for a three day instead. It was thought that five days was too long a period for people to attend the chautauqua and that three days were long enough and to meet that demand a contract for three days—six entertainments—was signed by about fifty of Northville's citizens. The following is the program for the three days:

First Day.

The inimitable Emerson Winters Co. will furnish the music and entertainment features on this day. This company which has been on Community Chautauqua circuits for many seasons, has invariably proven its surpassing ability. Emerson Winters is an entertainer with a smile and personality that gains at once the confidence of his audience. His musical monologues, his readings and his spoken songs are superb. Alice Sture Winters is a solo vocalist and bird caller of the highest rank. In selections she uses birds of every kind, are imitated in a manner remarkably true to nature. Many of these selections were written especially for Mrs. Winters. In addition to her work as individuals in the acts of these two is combined in a splendid act play, "Happiest Thru Sacrifice," a charming story, well acted which will appeal to every one.

Following the musical prelude by the Winters Co. in the evening C. E. Weaver cartoonist and crayon artist, will present a program of sketches and cartoons, both humorous and serious. Tears and laughter are combined in Mr. Weaver's splendid chalk lecture.

Second Day.

The four Thrasher Sisters, an orchestral quartet, composed as the name indicates, of four members of the same musical family, will present the full afternoon program and the prelude to the lecture in the evening. Miss Thelma Thrasher, violinist and pianist; Miss Melba Thrasher, soprano, cornetist and pianist; Miss Alberta Thrasher, cellist and reader and Miss Harietta Thrasher, piano soloist and accompanist, make up this splendid organization.

Dr. Alexander Cairns, the "Cheerup-tomist" has a lecture of optimism and thoughtfulness to present on the second night. Dr. Cairns has a personality and style exclusively his own, inimitable, because there is no other man quite like Dr. Cairns and no one except a man like him could put over such a message in such a way, with the vim, vigor and virility of this big, cheerful Irishman. Your sides will ache from laughter and your mind will be stimulated by this marvellous but though provoking lecture.

Third Day.

The Melody Masters in a program of music and mirth will have the full afternoon program and the evening prelude of this day. This company of instrumentalists, vocalists and entertainers is distinctively different than anything you have had on your chautauqua program heretofore. Mr. Allen, the manager of the company, has for several years been a band director and for two seasons played solo cornet in Kyril's band. His cornet solos, his xylophone solos, as well as his work in the ensemble selections will delight every one. Mr. LeBarge, another member of the company, in the ensemble numbers plays a baritone horn or violin and is master of each. He also plays the banjo, ukulele, leolin, an instrument of his own invention, one string broom fiddle and other novelty instruments. His character impersonations with wig and grease paint are delightful. The third member of the company is a pianist and baritone soloist of recognized ability.

In the evening Dr. C. C. Mitchell, author and lecturer, with a long record of successful chautauqua experience on the best chautauqua platforms of the country, will deliver his lecture "The Millionaire of Us," a study in picnics and penics, motives and millions—the world's oldest drama modernized and popularized. There is nothing else like it on the platform. It is indeed "full of humor, sense and vision" as the late Dr. Gunsaulus remarked.

NOVI NEWS.

The members of the Novi Progressive club, and all taxpayers of the township, who care to do so will meet with the Walled Lake school on Wednesday evening, June 13th, to discuss the matter of consolidated schools. It is hoped there will be a good attendance. At the meeting on Wednesday night at the Novi town hall there was a good crowd present and the matter was discussed in detail. Superintendent Upton of the Walled Lake school was present and presented some interesting data. The people of the township are becoming more and more interested in this project and that is the purpose of these meetings.

You Can Help to Lessen Accidents at Railway Crossings

AMERICAN Railroads are conducting a nation-wide campaign to minimize the number of accidents at highway crossings. This intensive campaign to save individuals from their own folly will continue throughout the months of June, July, August and September.

The Railroads are doing their part; won't you do your share? All of these accidents are due to sheer and wanton carelessness.

Do not attempt to cross a railroad track without heeding the advice STOP, LOOK and LISTEN to see if a train is coming, and after a train has passed make sure no other trains are approaching in either direction.

Do not walk on railroad tracks or bridges.

Do not allow children to play around tracks, stations, turn tables, cranes, cars or other railroad property.

Do not crawl under or between cars.

Do not crawl under crossing gates after they are down. Stop until train passes.

Use the streets and highways instead of the railroad tracks in going to and from your destination.

This is but one of many problems which our complex civilization imposes upon the railroads and this, like the other problems, cannot be solved except with the sympathy and co-operation of citizens generally.
