THE JUNIORS BANQUET THE SENIOR CLASS.

The gymnasium of the High school building was the scene of a very pleasant and enjoyable gathering last Friday night, the occasion being the first annual Junior-Senior banquet, at which the members of the Junior class of our High school entertained the members of the class of '23, members of the board of education and their wives, teachers of the High school and a few other guests. The young people were ably assisted in their planning by Mrs. Roy Larkins, Mrs. F. A. Northrop and Mrs. C. R. Ely and in all its appointments the affair was a success. The tables were handsomely spread and the colors of the Seniors—blue and gold—were used with pleasing effect.

About eight o'clock the guests were invited to find their places at the tables and this feature created a good deal of merriment. The members of the Senior and Junior classes were seated at special tables and the two groups of happy, bright faced young people presented a pleasing picture. Rev. William Richards offered the invocation. The guests were served by the girls of the Sophomore class and they did splendidly. The following appetizing menu was served:

Fruit Cocktail.
Pressed Meat Escalloped Potatoes
Vegetable Salad.
Rolls Ice Cream Cake
Coffee

At the conclusion of the feast Superintendent Helfrich, as toastmaster, announced a very enjoyable program. Miss E. Lyle Moore gave an address of special interest to the young people. Mr. Parrie of Wayne a violin number and responded to the hearty encore given. Lyle Kestell gave a very amusing and interesting class prophecy in verse, and if his "dream" comes true his class-mates will occupy many important positions in the years to come. Miss Dorothy Taylor favored the company with a vocal solo, Miss Mulford playing her accompaniment, and was compelled to respond with a second number. Miss Taylor possesses a remarkably sweet voice and she will, doubtless, be heard often in Northville in the future. Kathleen Juhl gave the "gitty" and owing to her generous nature presented each member of the class with "gifts" that will, doubtless, prove both useful and ornamental. As Miss Juhl concluded the tribute of the gifts, Cleon Dey in behalf of the class presented her with a miniature spinning wheel, with the suggestion that she might be able to "spin as good a yarn" in the future. Raymond Watts gave the rarewell in which he expressed the thought and the wish that the friendship formed during the school days might continue to draw the members of the class together as they should take their places in the world. Ada Ely, as president of the Junior class, gave a fitting response and before concluding her remarks the Juniors arose and drank a toast to the Seniors.

At the conclusion of the regular program Toastmaster Helfrich seemed to take delight in "getting revenge" upon members of the school board and other invited guests and the following were called upon for impromptu remarks, greatly to their embarrassment: L. A. Babbitt, D. P. Yerkes, Mrs. E. H. Lapham, C. L. Dubuar, Carl Bryan, E. E. Brown, Rev. William Richards and Rev. A. K. MacRae. Each speaker took occasion to congratulate the young people and to wish them every thing good as they leave school life to enter into life's great school.

The gathering was planned to take the place of the usual class day exercises which have been given on the night preceding the commencement. It proved to be a fine affair and reflected credit upon both Juniors and Seniors, our schools, and upon all who assisted in the arrangements.

STATE FAIR WILL HAVE GOOD RACE PROGRAM.
The Michigan State Fair management has decided to give a race program this year that will attract nation-wide attention. Purse are being offered ranging from $1,000 to $3,000 and some of the fastest pacers and trotters in the country are already entered for the several events.

H. S. German of this place has been appointed secretary of speed and will have charge of the trotting and pacing race program. This will insure a good field of horses and some royal sport.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren VanDyne of Plymouth have purchased the Gorton residence property on Rogers street from William Scott.

FORESTERS OBSERVE MEMORIAL DAY.

Last Sunday, which had been designated as Foresters' Memorial day, was observed by Court Northville, when upwards of thirty members attended services at the Methodist church. An interesting order service had been especially prepared for the occasion and the services throughout were impressive and inspiring. Mrs. John Tatham rendered the organ prelude "Andante" while the people were gathered. The choir led the congregation in singing "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow" and the pastor offered the invocation. That old familiar hymn, "He Leadeth Me," was sung by the choir and congregation and other musical numbers given was an anthem by the choir and a vocal solo by Richard Kugler.

Rev. Richards took for the subject of his very interesting discourse "Discover no Secrets" being a portion of the advice Solomon gave to his servants. The speaker paid a very worthy and fitting tribute to secret societies and related many incidents showing the great good they had accomplished and the brotherly service they had rendered to those in need. He declared that the trouble with a good many communities, churches and organizations was that people talked too much, repeated too many ugly rumors, abused the confidence of their friends, and thus brought sorrow to some who were innocent of any intended wrong doing. He said it was perfectly natural for men to band themselves together into lodges and fraternities and that he regarded it as a helpful and proper thing to do. The only organizations of men which were harmful were those that met to debauch themselves and society or to plot against the state. He said he was familiar with the aims and purposes of the Ancient Order of Foresters, from which the Foresters of America had taken their leave some years ago, and that he was also familiar with the splendid service the order had rendered on behalf of its members in our own community.

A good organization attracts good men and a bad organization attracts bad men. Good God fearing men will make a good organization better and will broaden its fields of usefulness. The choir and congregation sang "Fight the Good Fight" and at the close of the service the Foresters marched out and took autos to Rural Hill cemetery where graves of their departed members were decorated with flowers.

CHAUTAUQUA MELODY MASTERS

MR. HOWARD ALLEN, for two seasons solo trumpet with Kryn's band, and the director of a university band, is the manager of the Melody Masters, who appear on the third day of the Chautauqua. With Mr. Allen is J. A. LeBarge, a veteran of the platform, who has for years, by himself, entertained audiences with programs of an hour and a half to two hours in length. The third member of the company is Mr. Walter E. Paine, formerly accompanist for Geraldine Farrar of the Metropolitan Grand Opera Co., and recently a member of the New England male quartet Brass Trios, vocal trios, character impersonations, xylophone solos, humorous readings and impersonations of Schumann, Beethoven, Melba and other great singers by Mr. Paine, are some of the features of the programs by this remarkable company. Don't miss them.

The Value of Chautauqua

Why Everyone Should Attend and Boost to Make it a Success

THE revival of community spirit, the promotion of acquaintanceship and friendship, the neighborliness and good fellowship under the Chautauqua tent, are some of the most pleasant features of our Annual Assembly. Under the big, brown tent, as at no other place, we can meet and mingle, regardless of our religious, political or social affiliations and in so doing we come to know and understand one another better, which means that all of us can work together better for the ultimate good of our community. If the Chautauqua offered no other advantage than this, it would be well worth while, but when we combine with these valuable features, inspiring music, informative lectures and wholesome entertainment, the Chautauqua, indeed, becomes an institution of inestimable value to us.

If by the music but one boy or girl is inspired to accomplish something really worth while in musicanship; if by one of the lectures but one boy or girl is given determination to be a great statesman, a great literary man or woman, a great orator; or inspired to be a better citizen and of greater service to his country, the Chautauqua has more than repaid our community leaders for their effort. Any one would agree to this if that boy or girl were his own boy or girl. We must remember that the ultimate good accomplished is just as great whether it be ours or that of another. These are but some of the far-reaching possibilities of the Chautauqua.

Let everyone get behind the Chautauqua and make these things possible while they, at the same time, enjoy the remarkably good things that the program provides.

The Program at Chautauqua

Remarkable Array of Entertainers, Lecturers and Musicians

It would be difficult to imagine a program of more pleasing variety and more genuine merit than that which has been arranged for our Chautauqua. A glance at the list of celebrated orators, musicians, and entertainers, will readily convince anyone that the $1.50 season ticket which permits the hearing and seeing of all these programs, is the greatest bargain ever offered the public.

The Melody Masters, a trio of artists, which includes two men who have themselves directed large bands, a man who has been musical director of some of the largest army training camps of the United States, and another who was formerly accompanist for Geraldine Farrar of the Metropolitan Grand Opera Co., will offer a program of splendid music and entertainment.

C. C. Mitchell, nationally known orator and author, will present his lecture, "The Millionaire of Uz," which, by the press, pulpit and public, has been classed as a masterpiece.

The Four Thrasher Sisters will present a musical program of such harmony and rhythm as can be rendered only by master musicians, of the same family who have worked together for years.

Dr. Alexander Cairns, witty Irishman, and known as one of the best orators on the American platform, will give us his lecture, "The Goose That Lays the Golden Eggs," and the Emerson Winters Co., inimitable entertainers, in a great variety program, will entertain Chautauqua goers.

Another attraction will be G. E. Weaver, cartoonist and chalk talker, whose art pictures and funny cartoons always please.

WITTY IRISHMAN AT CHAUTAUQUA

DR. ALEXANDER CAIRNS

A 100% American of Irish extraction, with all of the wit and pugnaciousness of his forefathers, is Dr. Alexander Cairns who will deliver his celebrated lecture, "The Goose That Lays the Golden Eggs" on the second night of our Chautauqua. The ingredients that go to make up this famous address are said to be equal parts of the Irish love of fun, American enthusiasm and English matter-of-factness flavored with the tabasco sauce of Spanish impetuosity. To hear this forceful orator is to get a fresh grip on life and to more clearly understand and profit by the opportunities that come to every man and woman every day. Dr. Cairns is a preacher, unlike any other preacher you ever heard. He is the type of preacher who calls the press reporters of the great metropolitan dailies from New York to Newark, N. J., to get material for full-page write-ups and illustrations for their publications.

CHAUTAUQUA ORATOR

C. C. MITCHELL

C. C. MITCHELL, lecturer, author and humorist, comes to us this year as one of the principal speakers on our Chautauqua program. The late Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus of Chicago said: "The Millionaire of Uz" is full of humor, sense and vision." Gov. Henry J. Allen of Kansas said: "A most unique approach to one of life's greatest problems but he lands on both feet." In this lecture, "The Millionaire of Uz," Mr. Mitchell takes Job, one of the most famous Bible characters, and discusses his experiences from the standpoint of the modern business man. Whether you are a Bible student or not, read the Book of Job, then hear Mitchell's address: It will be worth dollars to you in your business.

Press Comment
"This epigrammatic lecture is shot through with wit, wisdom and eloquence and places a new, bright light on one of the world's most famous characters."—The Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

"He is as funny as Josh Billings, as epigrammatic as Emerson, as terse in moral earnestness as D. L. Moody."—The Parkersburg (W. Va.) News.

will be observed during the first week of July—2nd, 3rd, 5th, 6th, 7th. The products of Northville will be displayed under big tent. No admission charged—free. The public is invited.

Allen--Fred E. Fulkerson, 47 years old, a member of the village council, was killed last week, at the Ideal Furnace factory, when he was caught in the freight elevator. Fellow workmen left him alone for a few minutes and when they returned he was hanging dead.

Grand Rapids--A 20-acre tourist camp site, adjacent to the Reed's Lake boulevard, owned by the city of East Grand Rapids and occupying a strip of water front around the lake, will be acquired this summer by popular subscription, it has been announced by the allied improvement association.

Lansing--The state administrative board last week referred plans for the new athletic stadium at the Michigan Agricultural college to its building committee, with authority to accept plans and make arrangements with the college for the advancement of money in the shape of a loan, as authorized by the legislature.

Pontiac--Harvey Scribner, 15 years old, was instantly killed in Armada last week when he climbed one of the new poles of the Edison company, not knowing the current had been turned on and came in contact with a high tension wire. The boy was an orphan and made his home with his sister, Mrs. Ashley Smith.

Forest fires--Forest fires were raging last week in Washtenaw, Washtenaw, and Gogebish counties. Michigan large areas of over land were consumed and the burning flames threatened valuable timber tracts between Lac Vieux Desert and Watersmeet. Hot ashes fell in those towns which are several miles from the scene of the fires.

Kalamazoo--Preliminary plans were made last week for the launching next year of a campaign to raise $500,000 in Michigan for the support of the 90 or more superannuated ministers and their widows in the Michigan Methodist Conference. The Rev. W. T. Puffer, of this city, was made chairman of the committee which will have charge of the campaign.

Detroit--John R. Sneathen, 35 years old, manager of the Shaw-Walker company, plunged to his death from the twenty-second story of the Dime Bank building last week, striking the roof of the Peninsular bank building, and though thousands of persons swarmed the streets in the heart of the financial district where the tragedy occurred, only one man was a witness.

Ironwood--Judge Landis has definitely consented to speak at the Michigan state convention of the American Legion here next August, according to word received here. Theodore Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, will be here and General Pershing will come providing he is in the middle west when the convention convenes. Governors of three states have been invited to take part in the big program.

Bay City--If the Detroit Trust Co., receiver of the Detroit, Bay City and Western Railroad, is permitted to discontinue the operation of this road, and that seems probable now, for the bond holders refuse to furnish any funds for further operation and the receiver has no means of providing the money to keep the road going at a loss, business men, chiefly elevator owners along the road, stand to lose hundreds of thousands of dollars, for without railroad service their elevators and hay sheds will be of little value.

WORK OF REMODELING OLD JAIL IS COMPLETED.

"Alterations in the old jail building are complete and the county can take possession of the building next week," said George F. Brondige, member of the office in the building and the committee, Saturday. "There are any number of county officers who are both willing and anxious to occupy the office in the building and the committee has not yet decided just which ones will be moved there. The county road commission will occupy offices in what was formerly the two cell blocks."

FIND POULTRY TO BE MOST POPULAR CROP.

That the farm poultry flock is the most popular and widely distributed "crop" in Michigan is shown by statistics just released at the Michigan Agricultural college which indicate that 180,000 of the state's 190,000 farms, or 92%, maintain a poultry flock.

The fact that the average number of birds per flock is given as 62 is further indication that poultry subjects are of almost universal interest among the farmers of the state.

Estimates place the value of Michigan poultry at the surprising total of $11,000,000, while the value of poultry buildings and equipment is placed at almost the same total, according to H. M. Root, farm management specialist at M. A. C. who has been making a detailed study of the state's poultry industry. This brings the total investment to more than $20,000,000.

Products from this investment in 1919 totaled $34,900,000, divided into 123,300,000 worth of eggs and $11,400,000 worth of poultry proper according to the 1920 census.

A feature which adds to the universal interest in poultry raising in Michigan is the fact that thousands of people in the small towns and cities, and do not class as full fledged farmers, keep a few small flocks.

THE AMERICAN LEGION CHILDREN'S CAMPAIGN.

A campaign to raise funds to care for the needy children of deceased and disabled service men will be put on throughout the state beginning the morning of June 20, 1923. Campaign committees have been appointed in every city and village in Michigan, and it is expected that on that date to raise money enough to care for at least one hundred children this year.

The American Legion now has a beautiful tract of land near Otter Lake Michigan, upon which is being erected cottages to be used as children's homes. These cottages are in charge of competent house mothers to whom are assigned a little family of orphans. The children are just, insofar as possible, being given ideal home life; they go to school like other children, and are expected to be useful about the house being taught to work as well as play. Special attention is given to the physical welfare of the children and every effort is made to do away with the curative institutional idea.

It has been found, upon investigation, that a large number of children whose fathers paid the supreme sacrifice have been kept about among relatives or in orphanages, where they are not given a fair chance. The American Legion has determined that the children of fallen soldiers are no longer to be neglected. The movement to care for the orphaned and abandoned of both houses of the state legislature and an appropriation to assist in this work is authorized.

This plan, which originated in Michigan, has already aroused nationwide interest and a number of other state are watching the developments here with the intention of starting similar movements if Michigan succeeds.

This is a cause that ought to appeal to every patriotic man and woman in the state. It is hoped that the full amount desired will be raised and thus a good work accomplished and a worthy example set before the rest of the nation.

"DULCY" AT THE GARRICK.

"Dulcy," a high voltage producer of mirth, will be the offering of the Bonstellers Company at the Garrick this week, beginning Sunday night. The title role is founded on the character of Dulcinea, created by Franklin P. Adams, columnist of the New York World, better known as F. P. A. It served Miss Lynn Fontaine to further her particular individuality and talents, and should equally fit Miss Katherine Alexander.

Laughter begins about ten seconds after the rise of the curtain and never ceases, for "Dulcy's" "boneheads" are irresistible and thoroughly enjoyable from the standpoint of an audience. It is pure fun that approaches farce, yet belongs in the happy comedy class as lines and situations rather than slapsticks go to make the continuous laughter.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES.

Sunday will be a happy day at this church. It will be children's day and the children and young people of the Sunday school will present a very interesting service. Dr. Jaquess will preach in the morning.

The regular meeting of the Woman's union will be held in the church parlors on Wednesday afternoon, June 13th, at 2:30. Mrs. Morris of Detroit, Presbyterian President, will be the speaker for the afternoon.

The Westminster Guild will hold its regular meeting at the home of Helen Rackham, with Marion Power assisting, on Monday evening, June 11th, at 7:30. All members are urged to take 7:30 car.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES.

Notwithstanding the heat and other attractions we had a good sized congregation last Sunday night.

Do you know how a preacher builds a sermon? Come to prayer meeting and find out. Bring pencil and paper; you will want to take notes.

Monday evening the men made a good start on clearing the church yard. They will finish the job in the very near future.

On Friday the H. F. boys and G. G. girls will have another outing. Meet at the church after school and bring 20 cents for car fare as we will go on the D U R car which leaves Northville at 4:30.

Children's Day will be observed on Sunday evening the 24th. A big surprise is in store for both young and old.

Sunday morning Mr. Duncan S. Comrie will speak. Mr. Comrie is a world-wide traveler and represents the "Near East" relief.

Mrs. Webb Taylor will sing at the morning service.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES.

The class will have their hike next Tuesday to C. A. Ponsford's woods, under the leadership of the pastor.

The Methodist ladies Aid will meet with Mrs. F. S. Neal next Tuesday at 2:00 in the afternoon.

The Queen Esther's meet with Marie Shultz next Tuesday for a pot-luck supper at 6:30.

The Home Guards will meet with Mrs. A. L. Upson on Wednesday at 3:30 o'clock.

Next Thursday the Epworth League will have its business meeting at Walled Lake with a pot-luck supper. Cars will leave the church at 5:30. All League members keep this in mind.

CHILDREN'S DAY

On one of the best programs prepared for this day by the scholars of the Sunday school Mrs. Charles Schoutz, Mrs. Cron and Mrs. R. C. Richards and Roy Clark, who have been in charge of the program, will be present. The children's day is a day of fun and games, and the children are cordially invited to be present.

In case of a sick child being sick or prevented from coming, send a note to the pastor to be read on in the last moments. This will help greatly.

The center aisle of the church will be reserved for the school. Remember the time, 10:30.

Don't fail to be at the Epworth League at 6:30. A good company of young folks graced last Sunday's League with their presence in face of the oppressive heat.

All aboard for "Albion Institute," at the end of the month. Announcement will be made later.

Now, what shall we say for the evening. Well, we're going to talk about an "Hypocritical Church Discouraged by a Fearless Preacher." No polished truth for him. They did not believe him. But ultimately made to believe him later. Time, 7:30.

Prayer, praise, social service on Thursdays at 7:30.

The church is the only saving institution in the world. "No Man Cometh unto the Father but by Me," saith Christ. In the face of this, grand rituals, gorgeous funerals and fine flowers, and oratory with an uncertain note is a joke. Truth always stands.

NO ONE COULD STOP THIS GUY

Nehemiah—cup-bearer to the King of Persia—one of the numerous Jews who have held responsible positions in King's palaces—heard of the trouble of his brethren in far-off Jerusalem. He determined to help them at any cost and was given authority to do a great work and he went.

He found the walls of Zion an heap—the will of the people broken—their hopes dispelled. His challenge to rebuild the walls was accepted and the immense task started.

The neighboring leaders who did not like to see these improvements ridiculed the leader and the workmen—but the attack failed.

The loyal workers were threatened by the outsiders and plans were laid to invade the city—but that course failed. The leader Nehemiah was then invited to a conference on the plains of Ono. He did not accept because he was too busy with a great work—the third attack thus failed.

The enemy now had no other resource than the age-old method of slander. They tried over and over and it too failed.

The walls were finished—the people made safe—and the other matters of warfare were taken up.

You cannot stop the Nehemiah brand of man. He thinks—plans—executes—gets results.

WORLD POWERS ACT TO SAVE CAPTIVES

INTERNATIONAL MILITARY COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE BRIGAND SITUATION

OUTLAWS ON VERGE OF SPLIT

One Faction Would Take Victims Farther Into Hills—Demand Separate Ransoms.

Tsao Chuang, the international military commission, sent here to investigate the brigand situation, has arrived here. Brigadier-General William D. Connor, U. S. A., who heads the mission, declared he had come to obtain accurate information.

"As military men and trained observers," he said, "we shall obtain information which would be impossible for others to obtain. We shall have no dealing with the bandits, directly or indirectly."

A serious difference exists among the brigands, one element preferring to continue their outlawry holding the remaining captives.

Leaders Kuo Chih Sai and Han Kang Ching, the latter an elder brother of Sun Mai Yao, head of the band, visited Tsao Chuang Sunday afternoon, telling the deputy Tuchun of the opposition of certain elements to further releases and also their objection to joining the army.

The international military commission has decided to await developments before making reconnaissance. The split in the band worries the consuls.

Representatives of the Chinese government last Saturday began enrolling members of the bandit band in the army. Groups were brought into a village in the neutral zone, six miles from the mountain fortress, where the army oath was administered.

The government finally consented to take into the army every man who desired to join. The remainder will be granted full pardons and returned to their homes.

Villagers, who joined the band and whose homes were destroyed by bandit troops, have been granted full compensation.

The brigands demanded separate ransoms for the 26 Chinese captives still held.

The Chinese chamber of commerce is expected to furnish funds for their ransom.

Sixty Chinese children and five other adults are also held for ransom by relatives.

FRENCH FACE CABINET CRISIS

Government Refuses to Investigate Fascist Movement.

Paris—Decision of the Poincare government not to ferret out the royalist Fascist movement in France has laid the foundation for a new ministerial crisis.

Despite the declaration of Minister of Interior Manoury that clear evidences had been found that the royalists were plotting overthrow of the French republic, the ministry has decided it will keep hands off.

Communists and socialists are up in arms. They are strong in the French senate where they recently forced the temporary resignation of Premier Poincare by voting down his anti-communist program.

The chamber, too, regards the decision as a "direct slap in the face," one of the leaders said Sunday. It is also considered as a repudiation of Manoury, who promised that the royalists would be quelled.

Extremists have for a long time contended that Deputy Leon Daudet, the royalist chieftain, holds Poincare and the government in the hollow of his hand.

They are preparing now for a showdown.

MICHIGAN MEN FINISH COURSE

Sixteen Enter Class Four Years Ago, Only Seven Survive.

West Point, N. Y.—Seven cadets who are on the records of the United States Military Academy, as being representatives from the State of Michigan, and who are members of the West Point class of 1923, are among the 262 young men who will graduate from Uncle Sam's big war school, on the banks of the Hudson, on June 12.

This class, which entered the academy 479 strong four years ago, is one of the largest ever to be graduated from the academy, and the seven Michigan men are the survivors of a lot of 16 cadets from that state.

Two of the 16 graduated last year, thereby exercising an officer which congress gave every cadet in the class a few years ago. The other seven fell by the wayside.

WOMEN IN BRITAIN ARE TURNING TO ENGINEERING

Fair Relative of Peer Runs Machinery on Coast Liner.

London—American women who find dressmaking, office work, school teaching and similar pursuits boring or unsatisfying may be attracted from the book of their English sisters, who are rapidly turning to engineering and machinery. The phenomenal success achieved by Miss Victoria Drummond, a young English woman, as a marine engineer has inspired new interest in the possibilities of engineering for the educated woman.

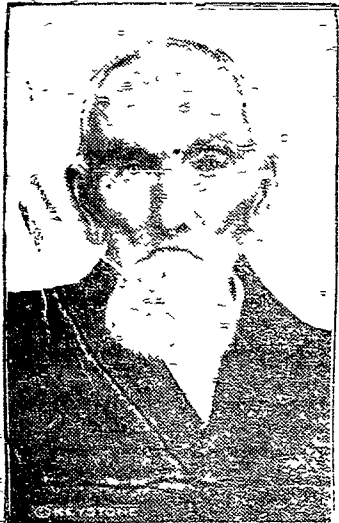

Women's engineering societies are springing up in the larger manufacturing and industrial centers, and one of the largest employers of labor in England said recently that no capable woman need fear lack of employment in this branch, where she has successfully completed her training.

Miss Drummond, who is a grand daughter of the late Lord Amberst of Hackney, is now a first engineer on a large ocean steamer, and soon will apply for a license as a sea captain. But in spite of her success, English educators do not advise women to specialize in marine engineering with its peculiarly severe demands upon the physique and general health. Rather they are urged to choose the electrical branch of the profession.

For not only does this work involve less physical strain than any other form of engineering these educational authorities say, but the employers are, as a rule, far less conservative in their ideas and far more willing to give women their opportunity.

The women's engineering course includes applied mathematics, mechanics, drawing and design, magnetism and electricity, pattern making, the working of iron and steel foundry work, electrical measurements, strength of materials and theory of structures. Upon completion of her training the woman finds many openings in draughtsmanship, X-ray work, automobile, patent inventions, electrical power stations and aircraft work. Many women are today carrying on small engineering businesses in England on their own account with considerable success.

Claims to Be Oldest Farmer in America

That is the title claimed by George Elkins of Buncombe, Indiana. He is ninety-eight years old and is still active in his farm work, doing plowing and other work around the property. He has a very good memory, being able to end the dates, names and other data regarding the Presidents of the United States he has voted for. He claims his longevity can be credited to keeping cool and not worrying, which tends to cut down a person's years. Also, it is his contention that some of the people push themselves into an early grave by being mean and mean on the lookout to even up with the next man. Mr. Elkins does not drink and has not been smoking since the age of sixty.

May Lift Skirts Even if Collision Results

Regardless of accidents skirts may be lifted on a muddy street and the law will not interfere according to Judge Fellette, of Los Angeles, Cal. This victory for beautifully-skirted womanhood was won by Helen Holt, who is said to have been "careless and negligent of public safety" when she lifted her skirts while crossing a muddy street, causing the drivers of two motorbuses to forget where they were going and to crash into each other.

A couple of weeks ago the American Legion bell team caught the High school boys out of form because of the absence of some of their players and engaged them in a rather one-sided game of ball. Last week the tables were turned and Hilrich's Colts romped all over the sharpshooters, giving them good measure; well packed down. The "rubber" will be some game and we will bet the peanuts that the school boys win.

Last Saturday afternoon a number of Chevrolet cars passed through Northville enroute to Pennsylvania and the driver of one of the cars had a peculiar experience and one that he will not care to have again. At the P. M. crossing near the condenser his engine was stalled out before he could get his car off the tracks the fast train came down upon him from the north. The engine struck the auto and cut the vehicle in two as neatly as could have been done by mammoth shears. Fortunately the driver of the car was not injured, nor was he thrown from his seat.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' CLUB HELD PICNIC.

Boys and girls of Wayne county who have been doing club work during the winter finished their activities Saturday, May 26th, with a program and picnic at Plymouth. Two hundred and fifty members who were enrolled in the club, including making and handicraft, finished their projects, wrote a report, and were awarded certificates of achievement from the County and State departments. The work of boys and girls in each project was judged and championships awarded.

Early Saturday morning the club boys began to arrive at the Plymouth High school building. Upon arrival they were escorted to the Methodist church auditorium where three reels of moving pictures from the United States Department of Agriculture were shown. This was followed by a meeting in the high school auditorium.

The meeting was called to order by President Miss Lucile Stucky of Redford high school. Roll call of clubs was taken by Secretary Miss Amy Sanderson of Hale's garment making club. Two boys from the Redford hot lunch club led the assembly in club songs and yells. The following championships were then announced:

Handicraft—Leo Canes, Denton.

Garment Making—Kathryn Brewer, Denton.

Hot Lunch—Melvin Hawker, Cherry Hill.

Each of these champions read a report of their work.

This was followed by a short discussion on plans for the state and county fairs. Upon motion of Miss Marble Durham of the Elwell garment making club, the president was instructed to appoint a committee of two members to work with the County Club Agent, to plan and arrange exhibits.

Ray Turner, State club leader, and Miss Barbara VanHeulen, assistant State Club leader, each responded to a call with short addresses. They congratulated the members on their recent achievements, and commented on the quality and consistency of their work for the past five years. Some future plans were briefly touched upon, and an outline of activities for Club Week at M. A. C. July 9th to 13th, was given. The ten champions from Wayne county will be given a free trip to the college at that time, as will also champions from other counties in the state.

WHY NOT TRADE AT HOME.

"Trade goes by forever" is an old saying. If a man makes no effort to throw business advantages in the way of his neighbors, he cannot expect that they will be much interested in his prosperity. Yet a great many people who are dependent on the industries of this town for their success, will buy in some other city, merely because they think they are going to save a margin of a few cents. The chances are that if they gave their alleged "bargains" the same careful examination they would apply to them in a home store, they would never pay down good money for them. But that is another story.

When you buy goods away from home, you cut yourself loose from the business interests of your town. You declare that you have nothing to gain by the friendship of your neighbors or the prosperity of your community. On the purely sentimental side, one has little admiration for this lack of town spirit. There is an element of disloyalty in refusing to help build up the community which provides you your home and the comforts and conveniences of civilization.

NORTHVILLE TO HAVE SECOND-CLASS POSTOFFICE.

The fact that Northville's postoffice is soon to be re-classified and placed in the second-class on July 1st, does not mean that we have had a third-class office so far as service is concerned, though the office has been classified as a third-class office for many years. The business of the office has grown year after year until it has now reached a point when it can be placed in the list of second-class postoffices. This will mean a larger salary for the postmaster and a larger allowance for an assistant postmaster and a clerk. In fact many second-class offices have three people in the office besides the postmaster and in order to observe the hours prescribed by all governmental departments it is almost necessary to have four people employed in the office in order that there may be at least two persons in the office all the time to serve the public.

The new classification will mean better service to the public because there will be more help allowed. However, the mail service now afforded Northville by the Pere Marquette railway by consent of the postoffice department is deplorable. We can receive no mail from Detroit after ten o'clock in the morning until the next morning. After ten o'clock in the forenoon no mail can be dispatched from Northville until 7:30 at night, and the postoffice officials—the so called higher-ups—have consented to this kind of service. They had better take a vacation and turn their jobs over to the janitors.

AUTO RACES SUNDAY AT DETROIT.

The one hundred mile automobile race on the Michigan State Fair mile speedway Sunday afternoon, June 10, is attracting attention all over the middle west. Twenty-two of the leading pilots have entered their cars and twelve of them, the fastest dozen in the qualifying trials, will compete for $10,000 in prizes. This is the largest prize offered outside the Indianapolis speedway and is the medium that has attracted the leading drivers to Detroit. The track is hard and fast and wonderful time may be expected. The cars will qualify at three o'clock and the one hundred mile race should start about four o'clock.
