OBITUARY

MRS. WILLIAM H. YERKES

While the death of Mrs. William H. Yerkes, who had been ill many weeks, was not unexpected, the announcement of her passing brought its weight of sorrow to many Northville people who had enjoyed her acquaintance for many years. She possessed so many womanly graces that she won a warm place in the affection of all who knew her and who were pleased to call her friend. Quiet and reserved in manner, she exemplified in her daily life the highest type of christian womanhood and many will cherish her friendship as long as memory shall last.

Helen A. Blackwood was the daughter of Isaac Newton and Elizabeth A. Blackwood, pioneer residents of this community, and she was born on the Blackwood farm five miles west of Northville, on April 7th, 1860. When she was two or three years of age her parents moved to a farm east of South Lyon, where they resided for a few years and then moved to the farm now owned by John Christensen. Here she grew to womanhood, assisting about the farm work working in the house and out of doors as her services were needed. Her father at that time being well known as the owner of a fine flock of Merino sheep. She attended the Normal school at Ypsilanti for one year and soon afterward the family moved to the village occupying the house at the corner of Main street and Linden avenue, now occupied by Mr and Mrs. Murphy. She was married to Mr. Yerkes on February 20th, 1883, and they remained on the farm for about five years working hard winter and summer. Her health was never very robust and the farm work became too hard for her and Mr and Mrs. Yerkes moved to the village, occupying the home where she spent the last happy years of her life. In 1903 they moved to Seville, Ohio, where Mr. Yerkes was engaged in the milling business, returning to Northville nine years later and continued to reside here.

Funeral services were held at her late home on Wednesday afternoon and were largely attended by neighbors and friends. The many beautiful floral tributes expressed in a very special manner the love and esteem of those who had known her and loved her.

The tenderest sympathy of the people of this section is extended to the bereaved husband in his great sorrow.

A DETROITER DROWNED IN WALLED LAKE SUNDAY.

There was great excitement at Walled Lake Sunday afternoon about three o'clock when an alarm was given to the effect that Edward Kaup, a young man from Detroit, who resided at 5079 Crane avenue, had dived into the lake and disappeared. The unfortunate young man was rowing in a boat with the Misses Rose Yosek, Virginia Armsbuster, Martin Stackman and Jack Kress of Plymouth, all being in their bathing suits. Young Kaup dived from the boat into about six feet of water and did not come to the surface. His companions were, of course, thrown into a panic and gave the alarm as best as they could, but they failed to mark the place where the young man went down and some time was required to locate the body, in fact it was not found until Monday morning when searchers went out in boats to drag the lake in the vicinity where the accident occurred.

The body was taken to the Farmer funeral parlors at Pontiac and was prepared for burial. The young man whose life was so quickly taken was 19 years of age.

NORTHVILLE GIRL WON HONORS AT TORONTO.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Cassie and daughter, Lillian, motored to Toronto, Canada, last week to attend the Toronto exposition, where Lillian took part in the children's dances. She won third place in the "fling" and first in the sword dance. The Toronto Telegraph contained the following complimentary notice regarding her dancing: "Lillian Cassie of Northville, Michigan, executed with remarkable skill a clever sword dance, amid shining blades, and won the prize for this event for children under 12 years."

Mr. and Mrs. Cassie and Lillian were also at Ford City, Ont., on Monday and the latter won first and second prizes in the contest there.

Maurice Woodworth, Harold Bloom and Merritt Young and Miss Geraldine Young will attend the Ferris Institute at Big Rapids the coming year.

NEXT THURSDAY IS PLYMOUTH DAY.

Our neighbors over at Plymouth are planning for a big time at the celebration to be held in that city next week Thursday, and committees in charge of the affair are hard at work preparing a program that will be a hummer. Numerous free attractions will provide entertainment and there will be band concerts galore to entertain all who come and plans are being made to accommodate thousands.

The new Plymouth highway will be opened at that time and appropriate ceremonies will take place at the village limits where the new highway enters the town.

It is expected that many Northville people will attend in fact all our people are urged to co-operate with the local committee in making a creditable showing. We owe this to the people of Plymouth for their hearty co-operation at that time and this is the first opportunity we have had to express our appreciation. Every person who owns an automobile big or little is urged to fill the car to its capacity and to join with their neighbors. Decorate the cars if you can, but if you cannot find time to do so, fill it with gas and come along.

This is your opportunity to help your town and to express your appreciation for the assistance rendered by your neighbors.

HE WAS A MEMBER OF THE OLD TWENTY-SECOND MICHIGAN.

The Boston Sunday Post of August 31st, contained an interesting account of the life of Major-General John Clem U. S. A., retired, who was the original drummer boy of Shiloh. When a lad of eleven years Johnny Clem joined the Union forces, and he soon attached himself to the famous old Twenty-second Michigan, with which organization he remained during the war. His father came after him at one time when he was with the boys of the Twenty-second and he declared if he was compelled to leave he would run away from home, which he had done upon a previous occasion. Members of the old regiment named their boy recruit Johnny Shiloh. He was the youngest soldier that ever served under the Stars and Stripes, and he was the last Civil War veteran to leave the army, having served his country until 1915, when he retired with the rank of brigadier-general. General Clem was at the National encampment at Boston, Mass., and met with the survivors of the Twenty-second.

FARMERS ENDORSE JUDGE TUTTLE.

In addition to the endorsement of the Michigan Anti-Saloon League which was given Judge Arthur Tuttle, who is a candidate for the nomination to the office of United States senator to succeed James Couzens, he has been endorsed by L. Whitney Watkins, N. P. Hull, A. B. Cook, C. H. Bramble and Lee Noble, who are at the head of the farm organizations of Michigan. In a statement these gentlemen state that Judge Tuttle now owns and successfully operates the farm where he was born and that he is in sympathy with the policies advocated by the farmers of Michigan.

The statement also states: The farmers of Michigan are dry and believe in upholding and if necessary strengthening the Eighteenth Amendment. That Judge Tuttle is in hearty accord with this view is shown by the endorsement of his candidacy by the Anti-Saloon League of Michigan. His wonderful record for law enforcement, as prosecuting attorney, state senator, United States district attorney and federal judge shows conclusively that he is eminently fitted for the position he now seeks.

BACK HOME AGAIN.

After a wonderful trip as far south as Atlanta, Ga., down by the way of Knoxville, to Chattanooga, through Kentucky with her lovely roads (mostly cobble stones). At Chattanooga we went upon Lookout Mountain to look into seven states, but after going up and down on the elevated railroad I don't know just how many states we did look into, as we were so thrilled by the ride. We stopped in Rome, Ga., where we were treated with such hospitality that it was like leaving home to go on.

While there we attended a real Georgia camp meeting held by the Methodist church, and as far as we could guess four or five hundred people were present.

We went from there to Atlanta for a few days, and saw the wonderful carving on Stone Mountain, and when you think of a barbecue for eighteen people being held on General Lee's hat you can imagine something of the size of the carving.

Went thru the federal prison and were really locked in, but didn't mind it much as we could see they were cooking supper, but they turned us out without asking us were we hungry.

From there to Washington, D. C., and found it the most beautiful city of all with such easy streets to drive on, why I thought there must be a dozen capitols, not knowing till later that every street led to the capitol.

We could have spent a week there and not have seen half, so after camping on a real camp ground (there were about 700 tents and 2,500 people) from every state in the union, I think we were thru eleven states, and with the exception of picking up a couple of tacks that didn't belong to us, we had no trouble and I think Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Elliott will agree with Teddy and I that we saw no place quite so beautiful as our own Northville. MRS. J. B. WATTS.

THE OFFICERS STILL WINNING.

The House of Correction defeated the Windsor Beavers last Sunday to the score of 12 to 2. Hammond for the officers shut the Beavers out till the eighth then Jaska relieved Hammond and before he could get his stride the Beavers scored two runs.

Labor Day the officers defeated the strong Northville team by a score of 6 to 5. Jaska throwing for the officers and German, Jr., for Northville, made the game a close and exciting one.

Next Sunday, September 7th, the House of Correction will play Brightmoor at the Farm grounds at 3:00 p. m.

Here is the Secret of Oakland Success

Since the first True Blue Oakland saw the light of a parlor, a little less than a year ago, more than forty thousand have been delivered and have made good on every road in America.

Back of the True Blue Oakland were years and years of six-cylinder experience.

And back of it also were instructions to design the best medium weight six that ever nosed its radiator into traffic.

No ordinary six would do—plenty of them already!

Advanced, unhampered, engineering thought produced a car that leaped to leadership!

A year in advance of its field a year ago—refinements have been added from time to time to keep it so.

The True Blue Oakland fulfills the Oakland determination to build one of the world's very finest motor cars.

If you intend to spend around a thousand dollars—see and drive the Oakland before you decide.

MOTORCYCLE HILLClimbing ON SEPTEMBER 7TH.

Another hillclimbing contest will be held on the hill adjacent to Randolph street, Northville, on September 7th, when the public will again be able to watch the motorcycle cowboys in action. This coming contest is the Michigan state championship for the season and considerably more riders will compete than at the last climb on this hill. Adolf Lemaigre who rode an Indian and was the star of the last contest, is confident that he is going to put his bucking redskin over the top this time. Oscar Lenz of Lansing, who is a veteran and star performer will be on hand with his Harley Davidson and it is certain that the Indian riders will have no competition.

All the hillclimbing stars from throughout the state will be on hand to thrill the crowd with their spectacular efforts to go over the top.

The rain failed to drive the spectators away from the hill during the last contest and the officials are confident that this coming event will be even more interesting than the last.

"THE SHAME WOMAN" AT THE GARRICK.

While it was originally announced that "In the Next Room" would remain at the Garrick two weeks, a sudden change in booking sends this play to Chicago and it is replaced by Lily Vollmer's powerful human document, "The Shame Woman," which created a sensation at the Comedy theatre in New York City last season.

Miss Vollmer is the author of the play of Kentucky mountain life, "Sun Up," and she goes to the south for her characters in "The Shame Woman." It is a story of youth and age, of the latter trying to impart to the former the prefalls that certain deeds are sure to bring.

Read the announcement of the Penniman-Allen theatre of Plymouth in today's Record. "The Covered Wagon" will be the attraction there several days next week.

CHRIST—THE MOST POWERFUL BROAD CASTING STATION

Tuning oneself with the aims and purposes and desires of the man of Galilee brings the best the universe affords. Over the invisible distance comes a message of hope and faith and satisfaction. You may have stated times for tuning in with Him or you may do so whenever the opportunity comes. Out of the ancient record we are told of the nobleman who came to Jesus on account of a sick son—how he was treated—what results the man obtained. Jesus sent a radio of health to the boy—a radio of faith to the father—a radio of help to his followers. What do you expect of your faith—your faith in God—yourself—men and women whom you know—the world in which you live.

A Better Way to Buy Gasoline

The Power Behind Your Motor

Many motorists take the quality of gasoline for granted, when they should think of buying it in terms of power, mileage and economy.

The individual excellence of AMERICAN CERTIFIED QUALITY Gasoline refutes the "just as good" argument and proves it distinctively a better gasoline.

We urge you to make the most rigid tests and the most extensive comparison, filling your tank with AMERICAN, then you will know what you can always expect from this gasoline.

Drive to an American Service Station or dealer and get this guaranteed quality gasoline. You will avoid the trouble often encountered with the ordinary motor fuel.

Avail yourself of the courteous prompt attention and the friendly personal interest always accorded every patron. Do it today.

WHEELER TRIAL IS DELAYED

Case Against Candidate for Vice President Goes Over

Great Falls, Mont.—Trial of Finton K. Wheeler, junior United States senator from Montana and candidate for vice president on the Lincoln ticket, during the present term of federal court which opened Monday, became a possibility regarded as remote when Judge Geo. W. Borquin disqualified himself from presiding in the case.

Judge Bouquinn's action places jurisdiction of the Wheeler case with Judge Charles N. Pray, who left Sunday for an absence from the state of a month or more.

Senator Wheeler was indicted several months ago on charges of having, after his election, to the senate appeared before a government department as an attorney in matters in which the government also was interested.

FRANKS MURDER TRIAL IS ENDED

JUDGE CAVERLY WILL RENDER DECISION ON SLAYERS' FATE SEPTEMBER 10.

CLOSING ARGUMENTS BITTER

Prosecutors' Final Remarks Stricken From Records Because of "Reflection On Court."

Chicago—After portions of the closing arguments of Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, had been stricken out by Judge John R. Caverly as a "cowardly, dastardly" attack upon the integrity of this court and an attempt to intimidate it, the court took under advisement the penalty which he must decide for Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, confessed kidnapers and murderers of Robert Franks.

In Mr. Crowe's closing remarks he referred to the testimony of James Conland, a detective attached to the state's attorney's office, who on the stand had sworn that Leopold had said he hoped to escape the "boose," by pleading guilty before a friendly judge.

He pointed out that the attitude of the defendants throughout the trial had indicated that they felt the case was being heard by a "friendly judge." These remarks were ordered by Judge Caverly to be stricken from the records because they reflected on the honesty and integrity of the court.

Judge Caverly announced that his decision on the fate of the murderers would be given on September 10th at 10:30 a. m. "unless illness prevents."

Only the defendants, the attorneys for both sides, court attaches and newspaper men will be admitted to the final scene of the famous case.

P. M. RAILROAD IN MERGER

Becomes Part of Nickel Plate Lines Controlled by Van Sweringen

New York—Directors of the Pere Marquette Railroad company have approved the offer of the Van Sweringen interests of Cleveland to join the proposed "Nickel Plate" merger, assuring completion of one of the greatest railroad consolidations in history.

The last of five railroads to accept the Van Sweringens' offer, the Pere Marquette, will be combined with the Erie, Chesapeake & Ohio, the present Nickel Plate, and Hocking Valley, into a great new "Nickel Plate" system. The new combination will have total assets of $1,500,000,000 and more than 14,000 miles of trackage traversing the eastern section of the country.

Unified control and operation of the properties will be directed by O. P. and M. J. Van Sweringen who later will effect a complete physical consolidation of the roads.

HOME OF ZR-3 WILL BE OHIO

Large Reg'd Will Be Contributed At McCook Field

Dayton O.—McCook field officials were informed that Dayton would become the permanent home of the ZR-3, the world's largest dirigible. In plans for the relocation of the field, provision has been made for the giant craft which has just been completed in Germany.

Plans for the Dayton field include a large steel hanger at least as spacious as the naval hanger at New Jersey.

The ZR-3 will be delivered to the Navy for a six months' test period and after that it will become the property of the United States Army Air service. Until the new field is completed the dirigible will be housed at Scott Field, Belleville, Ill.

FRENCH APPROVE LONDON PACT

Confidence Voted in the Herriot Government 206 to 40.

Paris—The senate voted confidence in the Herriot government, 206 to 40, after a long debate in which M. Poincare scathingly criticized his successor's handling of France's interests at the international conference on reparations in London.

The little ex-premier, though enjoying the confidence of the majority in the senate, was unable to overcome the power of the burly Herriot, who in a two-hour speech countered his predecessor's four and a half hour diatribe against the promise to evacuate the Ruhr within a year.

Ann Arbor Railroad Valuation Upheld
Washington—A valuation of the property of the Ann Arbor Railroad of $11,127,277 was sustained in a decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission. The company originally claimed a value of $17,918,057, which was dictated by its outstanding capitalization of $17,271,538. The road has a bonded debt of slightly more than $10,000,000 and $7,250,000 of capital stock outstanding. It has never paid any dividends on its capital stock.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Congressman Grant M. Hudson's name will appear on the official ballots which will be presented to Republican voters at the primary election next Tuesday, he being a candidate to succeed himself as congressman from the Sixth district. Mr. Hudson was elected two years ago, and he has been a faithful and efficient representative. For a "new man" at Washington Mr. Hudson stands exceptionally well and he is regarded as one of the most efficient congressmen of the Michigan delegation. He is a hard worker, continually on the job, and he is not led astray by every scheme and ism that is proposed. He believes President Coolidge is a safe and sane leader and he will do what he can to put some of the President's policies into effect.

If you appreciate ability and efficiency you will vote for Mr. Hudson next Tuesday.

The Republicans will have a large field from which to select their candidate for governor next Tuesday, but it is the general opinion about the state that Governor Groesbeck will be nominated to succeed himself. If the editor of this newspaper were given a commission to select the man best fitted for the position from among the several candidates who present themselves he would select Alex J. Groesbeck because Michigan has never had a governor who has worked so hard, who has gained the knowledge of the state's business and institutions as has Governor Groesbeck. This is a fact that can be proven by asking men who know some of whom do not endorse all the governor has done and men who have not always agreed with him regarding certain policies, but they all admit that Governor Groesbeck has been on the job continually and that he understands the conditions and the needs in Michigan. He is a business man. He cuts red tape to get at the real issue. He is at his desk early and late he studies conditions, he studies business principles to state business. He does not spend his time in investigating and finds out for himself. It is business training and experience are worth anything to the people of Michigan in the conduct of state affairs then Governor Groesbeck will be nominated and elected to succeed himself this fall.

It is most unfortunate that two such splendid men should have entered the senatorial race against Senator James Couzens, as Hal H. Smith and Judge Arthur Tuttle, because it is not easy to "pick" one in preference to the other but the situation in Michigan demands that a choice be made between these two men who are asking the people of Michigan for their votes. To support both of them will practically insure the nomination of Senator Couzens and as far as "The Record" is concerned we do not feel that he is entitled to this honor from the people of Michigan. He has advocated five per cent beer he has ignored President Coolidge, he has declared he would vote as he pleased regardless of what the people of his own state wanted and when any representative assumes that attitude it is as time he was permitted to return to private life. To accomplish the defeat of Senator Couzens the voters must center upon one candidate—not divide their votes between Smith and Tuttle. Therefore, "The Record" believes that the interests of all the people of the state will be best served if all who are opposed to the Couzens policies cast their votes on Tuesday next for Arthur Tuttle. His public life is well known and his private life has always been clean and wholesome. He is an admirer of President Coolidge and is willing to follow his leadership.

Hal H. Smith issued a statement to the public on Wednesday announcing his withdrawal from the race for United States senator at next Tuesday's election. This leaves the field to Couzens and Judge Arthur Tuttle. Let everybody rally under the Tuttle banner now.

MANY BANDS AT LEGION CONVENTION

More than 300 bands from all over the nation will be massed into a composite band to play the Star Spangled Banner and the Stars and Stripes Forever at the American Legion convention in Saint Paul, September 15th to 19th.

The massed band performance will be held before the grandstand of the state fair grounds Tuesday evening of the Legion meeting, and will be conducted by a leader from the 300 competing bands. "To establish cadance and 'tune in' this tremendous organization" said C. O. Kalkan, chairman of the Saint Paul committee on the band arrangements, "will be a task never attempted before by any band leader in America." From the training of the American Legion boys and their quick response to authority, I am sure that this rendering of the National Anthem and the Stars and Stripes Forever will be one of the most unique musical features ever staged in America.

RALPH HERALD CANDIDATE FOR STATE SENATOR

Criticizes Corporation Control of Legislation. At Meeting Through the First Senatorial District.

Roy Herald, candidate for state senator is attacking his opposition, by saying that a certain trust company had, for the past two seasons of the legislature, had a lobby at Lansing, working for the passage of a law to allow trust companies to do a banking business without complying with the present Banking law. Walter J. Hayes, state senator for this district for three terms, now deceased, worked against this bill, and it was largely through his activity that it was killed. Now this trust company has conceived the idea of sending one of its own employees to the state senate to take the place of Walter Hayes. Some one is spending hundreds of dollars for advertising, which is at least against the spirit of the law, in order to elect this young man state senator, so that their personal selfish interests may be forwarded at the expense of the electorate of the district. It is a nice situation when the bigger corporations start in to control legislation for their own benefit.

This campaign to elect this particular man is being backed by a flood of letters written by the employees and friends of this man's company to people throughout the district. The idea of the whole thing is that this particular candidate will be a "man in the corporation" he works for now, and he will doubtless continue working for them and take up his old job when the season is over. If this company can put this proposition across, that is sending an employee of theirs to do their bidding, when he is supposed to represent the people of his district, then what are we to expect next. Of course if this is what the majority of the voters of this district want they should have it. All I wish is a fair verdict at their hands, with all the facts before them.

Our banking law should not be weakened. Michigan has good banking laws at present and they should not be torn down. It is hard enough for the average man to get a hundred dollars in the bank, and keep it there, and not leave it open so that some bank may fail and lose his money. He can lose it himself fast enough, without outside assistance. The banking laws should be strengthened instead of weakened, even to the point that private banks are abolished, or properly supervised so that the people's earnings could not be deliberately thrown away by men operating a banking institution without proper financial backing.

Mr. Herald also stands for the amendment of the garnishee laws, so that no workman can be garnisheed until after judgement has been taken against him, that is until he has had a fair trial. This will eliminate thousands of garnishments, will save the different employers from making disclosures, and will eliminate the loan shark and all others with illegitimate claims from garnisheeing. If they cannot garnisheed until after judgment, then only those having an honest claim will sue. As it now stands, a man is threatened with garnishment. He pays a bill which he does not owe, rather than take the chance of being garnisheed and thereby losing his job. This procedure is un-American, and has been abolished by other states many years ago. It is time that Michigan awakened to the progress her sister states have made in this regard. In the state of Ohio they abolished this relic of barbarism over thirty years ago, but Michigan still clings to it because some selfish, unscrupulous interests do not want the law repealed.

Mr. Herald is the one candidate picked by the Detroit Civic League as "preferred" out of sixteen contestants for state senator in the First district.

OTTO STOLL DESIRES RE-ELECTION

Otto Stoll, in his candidacy for reelection as Register of deeds for Wayne county, is following the same policy that he has pursued for the past ten years, namely, sticking strictly to business. It takes all of his time to give the public the efficiency, service and attention to which he feels the taxpayers are entitled. This office now handles 10,000 papers on an average each month and that has been the case for several years. Forty typists are required these busy days just recording papers and one new book of 600 pages is filled every other day. Yet in spite of this great volume of business, recorded papers make the route through the tract index department, the county abstract and private abstract forces, and are returned to the owners in ten days—a record unequalled in any city in the entire country. Being on the job every day looking after office details, Mr. Stoll, during the recent busy years, has found that daily service is about the best campaign document, so he does not make many political meetings, except during the national campaigns, when he takes an interest in the entire Republican ticket.

STRESS LAID ON VOTING SEPTEMBER 9TH

Frederick A. B. Brown, Republican Candidate for Prosecutor, Says it's Important.

Too much stress cannot be laid on the necessity of every voter casting his ballot on Primary day, September 9th, points out Frederick B. Brown, Republican candidate for prosecutor, who says that in many respects this voting date is more important than the general election.

It is on primary day that the people select those whom they wish to engage in the final race for the official positions they seek, says Mr. Brown. It is then that the great field of contestants is narrowed down and the campaign is on in earnest.

The voters should by this time have had ample opportunity to hear all candidates or at least know of what they stand for in seeking office. The newspapers have pretty well laid before the voters the many issues involved and have done their best to give to the public the platforms of the men running for office.

I have had the pleasure of using the columns of this paper for the past several weeks, in setting forth my views of how the office of prosecuting attorney for Wayne county should be conducted. I know there have been campaign promises but I also know that if elected, I will be called upon to take an oath that I will uphold the laws as they are written on the statute books and in keeping that oath I am enough of a God-fearing man to take my oath seriously.

Everyone is aware of the fact that Wayne county today is overrun with lawless and is in need of a fearless prosecutor, a man who will enforce the laws without fear or favor. Because of the many issues before the people at the present time some are losing sight of the fact that the office of prosecutor is the most important in the county for it is there that the people look when they call for protection for themselves and their property.

I therefore again call your attention to the importance of casting your ballot on Primary day and assure the voters of the county that if elected I will see to it that myself and assistants will have but one goal—to enforce the laws without fear or favor.

CHARLES A. PARKES, CANDIDATE FOR STATE SENATOR

Charles A. Parkes, republican candidate for state senator, First District, is pledged for re-appointment for Wayne county and lower taxes. Mr. Parkes, who lives at 1219 Fischer avenue, Detroit, is 52 years old and has lived in Detroit 49 years. He was educated in Detroit public schools and has spent many years in public service.

"I was a member of the board of supervisors for four years," he said, "and was on the board when the question of Wayne's representation and its share of taxes became acute. I was twice on the board's tax committee because of my experience as clerk for three and a half years in the city assessor's office."

"I also was employed by the water board, the boiler inspector's office and in the county auditor's office. I am now an investigator in the prosecuting attorney's office."

"This experience has brought me in contact with all sections of the county and I am familiar with its problems. I was the last chairman of the old Republican city committee, before the advent of non-partisan politics in municipal government, and now am representative of the Republican Wayne county committee and have been for three years."

"On the proposed gasoline tax, I would not vote for such a bill unless it was fair and endorsed by our automobile clubs and interested citizens. I am opposed to the Meggison plan for the distribution of primary school funds because I believe Wayne county is not getting too much of that fund."

"As for gambling, I do not gamble myself and am against book-makers and race-track gambling. I think there should be a change in the constable system. I have thought that some advantages might accrue by giving the sheriff's office the duties now performed by the constables."

"I also believe the Primary election law should be amended to prohibit the purchasing of names for nominating petitions."

Mr. Parkes said he has received the written indorsement of Harry C. Bunkley, 749 Seminole avenue, B. E. Hutchison, 1823 Burns avenue, vice-president and treasurer of the Maxwell Motor Co.; James O. Murfin, 744 VanDyke avenue, and George B. Russell, 400 Burns avenue, resident vice-president of the National Surety Co.

RECORD LINES PAY—TRY ONE.

Representative Grant M. Hudson with the approach of primary election, the splendid record of service made in the present Congress by Representative Grant M. Hudson of East Lansing, is being pointed out by his friends of the Sixth District, which he represents in Washington, in connection with his candidacy for re-nomination on the Republican ticket.

Among the thousands of voters of the Sixth District who are actively engaged in forwarding Congressman Hudson's candidacy are included those who have had cause to seek his co-operation in Washington since he was elected two years ago. More than many members of the Lower House, Representative Hudson has made it a point of duty to give personal attention to the official affairs of his constituents in Washington whenever he is called upon. This has helped to make him the "thousand-dollar" friend among the voters of his district, many of whom are now devoting their time to assisting in his campaign for re-election.

Other than giving his personal attention to the official business in Washington of his constituents, both individually and as an entirety, Representative Hudson has given himself unstintingly to his national duties as a congressman. Among the important committees on which he is serving are the following: Civil service, insular affairs, accounts, and alcoholic liquor traffic. The first of these committees, a part of the economy program of the Coolidge administration, is engaged in the reclassification of all government employees' salaries and in the government retirement bill, civilian employees. The belief in Congress is that many federal employees are receiving too high salaries, and that the salaries of others are inadequate. The purpose of this committee is to work toward standardization of salaries paid to government employees, thus doing away with favoritism, promoting justice, and effecting economy for the benefit of the taxpayer. Representative Hudson is chairman of a sub-committee of this important committee. He is also the only member from Michigan on it.

The insular affairs committee, of which Congressman Hudson is a member, controls legislation in the House, dealing with our colonial possessions, including Porto Rico, the Philippines, the Virgin Islands, and Alaska. In regard to the question of independence for the Philippine Islands, the committee has reported a bill favoring a plebiscite after 20 years.

Another of the committees on which Representative Hudson is serving—the committee on alcoholic liquor traffic—is very actively co-operating with government agencies in the suppression of rum-running into this country from the high seas, Canada, and Mexico.

The following announcement to the voters of the Third District in regard to his candidacy has been issued by Representative Hudson: "It has been a great privilege and a high honor to serve this District in the present Congress, and I am seeking re-nomination in the Republican Primary of September 9th, and trust I may be re-elected in the November election for a second term. I trust my former record as a public servant as well as my work in the present Congress will merit your continued support.

I stand for the most rigid economy in public expenditures, the doing away with waste and extravagance in the duplication of government commissions and bureaus, the most efficient and strict enforcement possible of the Eighteenth Amendment, without any modification of the Volstead law, the passage of suitable legislation for the carrying out of the Child Labor Amendment when adopted by the states, further reduction in the nuisance taxes placed as war measures, the abolishment of tax-exempt securities, the deep-sea waterway, an International World Court and further international conferences looking towards reduction in armament.

It is a great honor to be glad to hear from any constituent at any time on matters affecting the district or pending measures before Congress.

With the exception of George J. Foster of Lansing, Representative Hudson is running without opposition for re-nomination on the Republican ticket. The similarity of name between Representative Hudson's opponent and ex-Senator Charles W. Foster of Lansing, who was Mr. Hudson's campaign manager two years ago, has caused some misunderstanding. The matter of names has been cleared up by Mr. Charles W. Foster, who has issued the following statement, which appeared in the Lansing papers on August 26: "I am not and never have been a candidate for congress and this applies to all my relatives. Congressman Grant M. Hudson has made a splendid record in the House and ought to be returned by an overwhelming vote."

Representative Hudson is being assisted in his campaign by his daughter, Miss Helen Hudson, who has made several talks before voters in the Third District.

AT ORCHESTRA HALL.

The Gus Hill and George Evans Honey Boy Minstrels combined, will be the attraction at Orchestra Hall for one week starting with Sunday matinee September 7th. All told it is a glorious combination of music, revelry, frolic, a golden flood of novel contributions, reviews, travesties, and a stupendous unity of burn cork innovation and advancement. For three solid hours, at a buff bang speed, yet with a continuity and coherence that must needs appeal to even the beauvais, this surpassing offering looms superior to the so-called far excellence enterprises one-use to read about in the days when New York and our vast country was quite young. Matinees will be given on Monday, Wednesday and Saturday and popular prices will prevail, matinees 25c and 50c. Evenings 50c, 75c and $1.00 plus tax. A free band concert will be given daily.

The splendid film is presented by Adolph Zukor and Jesse L. Lasky, in regular theatres only, and it will not be shown in any other theatre in the vicinity of Detroit during the current season.

The chief roles in "The Ten Commandments" are played by Theodore Roberts, Rod LaRoche, Richard Dix, James Neill, Robert Edison, Charles DeRoche, Lawson Butt, Leticia Joy, Vita Naldi, Estelle Taylor, Edythe Chapman, Julia Faye, Clarence Burton and Agnes Ayers. The musical score was arranged by Dr. Hugo Riesenfeld.

TOMS STANDS ON RECORD.

"Pre-election performances should outweigh pre-election promises with the general voting public and that thought has been the keynote of my campaign for prosecutor," said Robert M. Toms, chief assistant prosecutor and candidate for prosecuting attorney.

"Some of my opponents have promised a widespread clean-up of vice resorts and blind pigs. They have ignored the fact that the necessary evidence must be secured by the police before the prosecutor can act. The abatement act, usually called the padlock act, has been a very effective weapon in dealing with the disorderly house and blind pig situation.

At present proceedings to padlock 14 resorts are in course of preparation. Since the first of the year 44 places have been padlocked and 28 other establishments, against which proceedings were instituted, have been vacated by the obnoxious tenants."

"Some of the more notorious establishments padlocked were the Paris cafe on Grand River at the Townline road; Hattie Miller's at 495 Alfred street, Detroit; the LaBelle Inn, on the Six-Mile Road. The Elorado Hotel on Winder street, Detroit, in the rear of the Woodward avenue Baptist church, was hurriedly vacated after proceedings against it were started. These proceedings were directed by Toms."

During Toms' six years in the prosecutor's office, he personally handled 600 cases of various sorts successfully. Only 915 cases out of more than 23,000 handled by the prosecutor's office last year resulted in acquittals.

Northville electors will do well to remember that James Lawrence Johnson of Plymouth, who is well and favorably known here, is a candidate for the republican nomination as representative. He will appreciate the support of his old friends here.

A new cement drive is being constructed leading from the main building at the Detroit Municipal Satorium over the hills to the children's unit, and it will be continued to the main highway at Northrop's corners. Other drives about the grounds are also contemplated.

One of the land marks of Northville disappeared this week—the old elm tree which had stood for years near the Park Hotel was taken down as a safety measure. The old tree had shaded many a weary traveler and many other "weary" persons who delighted to sit under its spreading branches and discuss questions of state. Many important and grave questions have been discussed there and, doubtless, settled to the complete satisfaction of those who took part in the argument. The removal of the beautiful tree seems like the passing of an honored pioneer, one who was held in high esteem.

FAIR NOTES.
On Wednesday there will be the greatest horse show ever held in Wayne county—outside of Detroit, of course, and there will be a large number of entries in all the classes and events.

The free attractions this year will be those anything ever attempted here and that is saying a good deal. These free attractions will be presented in a delightful and new manner on the grand stand.

As usual the Better Baby contest is attracting a great deal of interest and everything now indicates that the display of babies will be larger than at any former fair—how could they be better? All babies entering this contest will be required to have application blanks filled out and presented. These blanks can be obtained and filled out at the office of Secretary E. L. Smith until the 20th, or they can be secured by mail by addressing Mrs. Flora Larkins, or phoning 186, any time. Entries may be made at the tent on the fair grounds on Wednesday, September 24, until 11:00—none can be filed later. These regulations have been adopted to get nearer in line with the State fair contests. The classification of babies will be left entirely with the doctors in charge. Liberal prizes will be offered in the several classes this year and all parents are urged to take an interest in this contest.
