FATHERS AND SONS HAD A MERRY TIME

Two hundred and thirty fathers and sons enjoyed the third annual community banquet at the High school gym last Thursday night. Fathers and sons and men with "adopted" sons began to arrive at the school building soon after six o'clock and the number constantly increased until dinner was announced. The merry company of men and boys gathered in the auditorium and in the corridors of the building and spent a happy half-hour visiting and getting acquainted. At seven o'clock dinner was announced and to the strains of a march played by the Normal College orchestra of Ypsilanti which was secured through the efforts of Howard Heltich who is a member of the organization, the guests found their places at the handsomely arranged tables. Rev. F. P. Knowles offered the invocation while the company stood with bowed heads. At each place were found a toy balloon, a whistle, or some kind of a noise maker and the banqueters were not slow in bringing the various articles into use. First there was just a little squeak as some timid boy tried his favor, then there was the louder squack by someone a little more bold and finally all got into the swing and the noise was comparable only to about a dozen poultry yards on a spring morning with all the fowls doing their bit. The noise-making devices not only created a great deal of merriment but they also helped all to get acquainted, to break down any formalities that sometimes creep into a gathering of that kind. The orchestra very kindly rendered a number of selections while the dinner was being served by the young ladies of the High school, assisted by the teachers. The tables have never looked more inviting and the committee in charge of the affair is very grateful to the F. A. Benedict Son's company for their kindness in loaning a number of potted plants and ferns for the occasion. The dinner served was a substantial one and all were urged to have a second helping.

At the conclusion of the dinner and a selection by the orchestra Toastmaster Elmer L. Smith called the assembly to order and announced the very interesting program. He thanked the seniors and those who kindly assisted them for the manner in which the dinner was served and his remarks found ready response from those gathered about the tables. Rev. William Richards gave the address of welcome expressing the pleasure of those who had sponsored the affair for the good attendance and assuring all of a cordial and hearty welcome. With the expressed wish that the gathering might prove of great benefit to all who were privileged to be present and that its influence might make itself felt in the life of the community.

The male quartet composed of Messrs. Ray VanValkenburgh, C. H. Bryan, J. N. and Wayne VanDyne sang and were compelled to respond with a second number. Wayne VanDyne followed and gave two vocal selections which were greeted with hearty applause. Northville people always enjoy hearing Mr. VanDyne sing and it is a real pleasure to observe that he is making rapid strides in the training and cultivation of his voice.

Prof. M. S. Pittman of the Ypsilanti Normal College was the speaker of the evening and for more than an hour held the closest attention of the men and the boys. He announced as his theme "Questions and Answers" and his address made a strong appeal—getting down to the boys and up to the men. He stressed the necessity of faithfulness to duty, of doing one's work well and of applying one's self to whatever work they have to do with a spirit of enthusiasm and helpfulness. His address was practical and helpful—an inspiration to the boys and young men and a benediction to the older men who experienced some of the struggles during the years of their boyhood and young manhood which the speaker so aptly portrayed.

The gathering was a most enjoyable one and was a distinct credit to all who had any part in its planning. Such gatherings do not just happen in any community. Some one must be responsible for their success and the officers and members of the Exchange Club are to be commended for the interest they have shown in these annual get-to-gathers for fathers and sons.

Spring weather prevailed here for a few days during the past week. Monday night snow came again, covering everything in a white mantle.

TWO VILLAGE TICKETS PLACED IN NOMINATION

With a population of more than 2,000 inhabitants less than 30 electors of the village took the time and trouble to attend the two caucuses held on Monday and Tuesday nights and yet people will grumble because village affairs are not conducted just as they would like to have them. The utter indifference of the people to matters pertaining to local government is distressing, not only here but in about every other town in the country. People seem to be perfectly willing to "let George do it" and their only concern is when something occurs, or when something is done, that they do not like. Then they find fault and sputter. As a rule people are given about as good local, state or national government as they deserve. The time to take an interest in local affairs is when the candidates for the various offices are chosen. After the caucuses have been held and the election results have been declared is a poor time to complain.

"WORKINGMEN'S" CAUCUS

Only sixteen electors could find time to attend the "Workingmen's" caucus on Monday night. The meeting was called to order by Committeeman F. W. Lyke and he was chosen permanent chairman. E. E. Brown was elected secretary and C. L. Blackburn and F. E. VanAlta were appointed tellers. There were no contests for any of the nominations and a majority of the candidates were named under a suspension of the rules. The following well known citizens were placed in nomination:

President—Charles A. Delph
Trustee, short term—George Hotelling.
Trustees, full term—Stewart Montgomery, Carl E. Elz, and Charles S. Filkins.
Clerk—Thomas E. Murdock.
Treasurer—Carrie Litsenberger.
Assessor—Charles A. Sessions.
Committee—N. C. Schrader, F. W. Lyke, Mrs. Ed. Sessions, Mrs. Bertha Neal.

"THE PEOPLE'S" CAUCUS

Owing to the rush and importance of other matters but eleven electors could find time to attend the People's party caucus held on Tuesday evening at the council rooms. The meeting was called to order by Chairman S. W. Knapp of the committee and W. E. Matheson was chosen Chairman and Geo. Hotelling secretary. John Hanna and S. W. Knapp were appointed tellers. There were no contests for the various offices and the nominations were quickly made, some of them under suspension of the rules. The following is the ticket chosen:

President—Conrad E. Langfield
Trustee, short term—George Hotelling.
Trustees, full term—George Hicks, Fred Carpenter and Lester D. Stage, Sr.
There were no nominations made for clerk, treasurer or assessor, and these places will remain blank on the official ballots.

S. W. Knapp, John McCully, Geo. W. Hotelling and Mrs. Minnie Hotelling were chosen members of the village committee.

Mr. Hotelling has withdrawn from the "Workingmen's" ticket and will be a candidate on the "People's" ticket. George Hicks has withdrawn from the "People's" ticket and his name will be substituted in place of Mr. Hotelling on the "Workingmen's" ticket.

MICHIGAN SUFFERS A GREAT LOSS

Every loyal son of Michigan feels a keen personal loss in the death of President Marion Leroy Burton of the University of Michigan, which occurred at his home in Ann Arbor early Wednesday morning after months of illness. He possessed those attributes of mind and heart that drew all men to him and those associated with him, if for only a brief time, felt an inspiration by his presence. His was a life of great accomplishment. The remains will lie in state in the Alumni Memorial hall today from 9:30 to 5:00 and the funeral, which will be private, will be held at the Burton home tomorrow. Burial will take place in Forest Hills cemetery, Ann Arbor.

Regular meeting of the O. E. S. tonight. All are requested to be prompt on account of the annual ball. Saturday night there will be two basket ball games at the High school gym. The Pontiac DeMolay team will engage the DeMolay first team and the A. C. E. team of Detroit will play the second team.

A BAD GANG CAPTURED AT HOWELL FOR BURGLARY AT NEW HUDSON.

In the arrest of four men at Howell Sunday night, Livingston county officers believe they not only have a gang whose dealings in moonshine have been extensive, but who are thought to have had a hand in several crimes in the county the past year. Three of the number are said to have confessed that they were concerned in the robbery which was foiled at the Miles store at New Hudson on the night of February 1st. The trio, giving their names as Day, Markey and Mankin and Plymouth as their home, were turned over to the Oakland county officers and are in Pontiac jail. They waived examination and have been bound over to the circuit court for trial. Each gave his age as 22 years. The fourth member of the gang gave his name as Charles Ray or Detroit and he is held at Howell on a charge of transporting liquor.

On the night of the attempted robbery Officer McKinley intercepted two men in the act of robbing the gas station at New Hudson and while busy with them became aware that another robbery was in progress at the Miles store. Three men made a hasty getaway in a car as he approached and it was found that about $2,000 worth of merchandise had been taken from the store to a shed in the rear and had they not been discovered it would soon have been loaded into a car. Officer McKinley accompanied the Howell officers on the "raid" Sunday night when they captured the men and a quantity of intoxicants. Milford Times.

These fellows had been carrying pretty high sail here for some weeks previous to their arrest. The Sunday morning before their capture at Howell local officers helped them get their car out of the ditch near C. A. Ponsford's farm. Markey had purchased the car from B. B. Warner and still owes for the vehicle. He will be remembered as having been very active in connection with the Northville athletic club rooms. This community is particularly fortunate in being rid of the gang.

SENTENCED TO IONIA.

Three young men, all of whom had police records, were sentenced to terms in Ionia reformatory when they appeared before Judge F. L. Covert in circuit court Monday afternoon. Harry Markey, 22, Northville, and Russell Mankin, 22, Plymouth, were both sentenced to two to 15 years with a recommendation they serve the minimum. Alton Day, 22, Northville, was sentenced to one and a half to 15 years. They admitted they broke into the Perry-Mills general store at New Hudson on the night of February 1st for purpose of robbery. Markey had been in trouble once before at Cheboygan. Mankin had served a term in Ionia for stealing an automobile. Day had served time in the Detroit house of correction for prohibition violation and had been arrested once before for breaking and entering.—Pontiac Press

"HIGH STAKES" AT THE GARRICK THEATRE.

The next attraction at the Garrick theatre, commencing Sunday night is Willard Mack's new play, "High Stakes," in which A. H. Woods is starring that eminent actor, Lowell Sherman. This announcement, linking together in its presentation a duo of showmen who have for years held conspicuous places in the American theatre, promises playgoers considerably more in the way of writing, acting and directing than is to be found in most of the plays passing this way in the run of a season.

Willard Mack a strange combination of artistic talents, possessing in his nature a mixture of the serious, analytical thinker with the sensationalism of the yellow journal's city editor's sense for dramatizing the world, tragic life as it makes the news of the day. This is Mr. Mack's first stage play since his "Tiger Rose," "Kick In," etc. From many reliable sources come the reports that "High Stakes" is the author's best work, and long and highly successful engagements in New York and Chicago would seem to justify this advance information.

FORD PUTS ON OCEAN BOATS.

The Ford Motor company has bought the steamer East Indian of the Emergency Fleet corporation as a step towards its plan of trans-Atlantic shipping. "We will proceed with our plans at once," says Edsel Ford, "and will enlarge our fleet to several ocean-going vessels. Our decision in the matter has been prompted by the successful operation of our two small ships, the Onondaga and the Onondago. These ships have been used in carrying parts to our assembly plants in South America. They were put into service on an experimental basis and have proved the feasibility of extending our own shipping service to Europe.—Michigan Investor.

ENJOYING LIFE IN CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Chas. Caldwell writes from Pasadena, Calif., that they are having delightful weather out there and that she is enjoying the sunshine greatly. She had her garden planted last week and sweet peas are in bloom. Oranges are just getting ripe and lay under the trees rotting just like apples do in Michigan in the fall. Can buy a half-bushel for ten cents and lemons for five cents a dozen, grapefruit three for ten cents and potatoes eight pounds for 25 cents. There has not been a day this winter that she could not get out doors and pick roses in her yard.

Madame Le Brun

Mme. Le Brun was a French painter who gained considerable reputation in Paris. Her paintings, historical pieces as well as portraits, were exhibited in the Louvre. Mme. de Genlis speaks of the talents of Mme. Le Brun with much warmth of praise, and complains that the men "sought to depreciate her paintings because she was a woman."—Chicago Journal.

NEWS FROM THE STATE CAPITAL

Bill Would Enlist State's Aid In Fighting Corn Borer Pest.

Lansing—Drastic measures to control the European corn borer in Michigan would be made possible by a bill which has been prepared under the direction of L. R. Taft, state horticulturist, and which will be introduced in the Legislature in the near future.

"The commissioner of agriculture and his duly authorized agents," says the bill, "are empowered to enter the field, yard, building, garden or other premises of any person, firm or corporation for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act."

Would Prohibit Aid In Voting

The Wood election law codification bill, which includes a party enrollment provision and amends the presidential primary law, was reported to the senate with the recommendation that the bill pass. Consideration of the bill was not held up pending introduction of a substitute bill at present being drawn in the attorney-general's department.

"As the bill now stands, it virtually would disfranchise the present voting population," particularly in Detroit, which cannot read or write. Until the present such voters have been able to obtain the assistance of election inspectors. The Wood bill would permit such assistance only in cases where the voter is physically disabled.

Real Estate Legislation

Upwards of 20 bills have been introduced so far this session, which relate to a greater or less degree to real estate. This is more than are now before the Senate and House combined on any other subject. The more important of these bills are: To strengthen the act regulating building and loan associations, for the protection of houses under construction; to make it a misdemeanor to wilfully assess property at more or less than its true value, for super-highway legislation, for extending the time for closing estates.

Revision of State Boards

Reorganization of the state tax commission and the state board of equalization, several changes in the state tax laws, affecting new securities of a nature now exempt and mortgages, establishment of state supervision and control of local bonding propositions made in a legislative program decided upon at a conference that included the governor, the state tax commission and legislators in the house and senate. Bills will make their appearance on all of the subjects in the next few days, as a result of the conference.

Conservation Program Sought

Adequate fire protection for the State and private forest lands, and legislation seeking solution of the State's waste land problem are the two main questions facing the legislative committees on conservation. Senator William Pearson, chairman of the Senate Conservation Committee said he, with other members of his committee and the House committee have returned from junkets into the northern section of the state, inspecting fish hatcheries, parks and State forests.

District Bill Introduced

Rep. Charles H. Culver, of Detroit, introduced the reapportionment bill on which the Wayne delegation in the House will base its fight for constitutional representation for Wayne, Genesee, Muskegon and Iron counties. The bill would give Wayne 25 seats in the House. It is an exact copy of the measure that the Wayne delegation sponsored in both the regular and special sessions of 1923.

Bonds For Motorists

All motorists would be required to carry at least $5,000 public liability insurance, under the terms of a bill introduced by Sen. Frank L. Young of Lansing. The purpose is to compensate for life and property loss where the driver causing the accident is not financially responsible.

Increase Number of Judges

The Condon bill, providing for more Recorder's Court judges for Wayne County, passed the Senate unanimously. It carried an amendment which provides that new judges will be appointed to sit until the expiration of the terms of the present judges.

Suits By Auto Guests Hit

A bill before the house relieves auto owners driving a car not for hire from responsibility for passengers riding as guests in case of accident and injury unless it is proved the driver wilfully caused the accident.

Wedding Notice Bill

Further modification of the laws governing marriage is sought in a bill presented in the Senate by Senator James Quinlan, of Grand Rapids, which would require all persons desiring to marry to make written application at least two weeks before the license may be issued. The bill is aimed to prevent the hasty marriages of young men and women by making public the intentions of the parties in time for interference by parents or others.

Petoskey—Petoskey's new municipal charter now is in effect and the present officers are working under the new rules and regulations until their successors are elected in April. Nominations will be made through ward caucuses March 16 and at city-wide convention to be held March 18. Each ward will nominate and elect its councilman and supervisor and the city-at-large the mayor, clerk and treasurer. The new city manager must be a registered engineer and will serve as engineer-manager of the city.

A WELL PAYING INVESTMENT

As a general rule, the higher the expected rate of return on an investment the higher is the risk. To this rule the store lighting investment is a brilliant exception, for the risk is practically nothing, while the return is usually high enough to pay back the investment in a short time.

You cannot lose on a store lighting investment. Experience has shown time and again that raising the standard of illumination infallibly results in increased business and a higher ratio of profit.

Come in and talk with us about your store lighting. It will be well worth your while to do so.

F. S. HARMON SATISFYING HIS HOBBY.

Have you ever longed to give your attention to some special work or hobby for which you have never had time to spare? Most busy men have, and occasionally they find time after they retired from the active duties which have engaged their attention for years and years. F. S. Harmon is just now among that happy group of men who have dreamed of doing something different than just the common every-day tasks. He is giving his attention to fine cabinet work and he has recently completed and presented to the Lapham State Savings Bank, of which he is president, a handsome book case made of solid walnut some of the material used having alone service in the old Armory which were erected here in 1831. The wood is finished to match the handsome fixtures and paneling of the bank and the whole job is exceptionally well done.

Mr. Harmon has made some library tables, a kitchen table and in his work room in the basement of his home he is regaining his youth with saw and plane and chisel. He has long desired this vacation and these happy hours spent in doing the things he has always wanted to do.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES.

Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, religion and morality are indispensable supports. BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES.

"Nothing succeeds like success." We are very grateful to a loving God for the success He has given us.

Last Thursday fifty were present at prayer meeting.

Last Sunday one hundred and twenty-one were present at Sunday school.

Sunday morning about one hundred and fifty were present for preaching service and about two hundred at the evening service.

The young people's society are having a series of debates on religious subjects that are very interesting and instructive. This organization meets every Sunday evening at six thirty in the church parlors.

Last Sunday evening we had an old fashioned testimony meeting and the way the new members took part proved that the old time religion is not a thing of the past.

The Junior choir meets every Friday after school. Miss Marguerite Warner is in charge.

Last Sunday morning, Marguerite Warner was presented with a Thompson Chain Reference Bible for the best set of notes on the pastor's sermons. This is one of the best Bibles that money could buy.

When you come to prayer meeting, bring your Bible, you will need it.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES.

On next Sunday morning the pastor will speak on "Marriage Without Civil Law." The choir will render the usual anthem. Time 10:30. At 12 noon, the Sabbath school invites every person to stay. The highest attendance was maintained last Sunday in the history of the pastor, although some went visiting. Let us attain to a full enrollment. We have had to kindly question some we thought of other Sunday schools, but discovered that are strangers come to stay among us. We welcome them.

In the evening at 7:30 the pastor exchanges pulpits with the Rev. D. D. Nagle, of Plymouth. We trust a good congregation will greet him. He will speak on "The Possible You." Come and hear this sermon and give him good encouragement.

Tomorrow, February 21, the Ladies' Aid will have a Washington bake sale at the Palace Meat Market, beginning at 2:00 p. m. Special efforts are being made to have a large display of cakes, buns, coffee cakes, pies, baked beans, etc. A good chance to get a fine Sunday supply.

Mrs. Hannah Greer is ill with bronchitis.

SPIRITUAL VIEWPOINT.

The way some men live makes hell necessary. Good habits help many a man to walk in the dark.

A man may go back on his word, but he cannot deny his own deeds.

Many a man thinks he is enjoying personal liberty when he is chained to the will of a perverted appetite.

Tithe your time and pay your debts to God.

Safe pleasures are always accompanied by responsibilities.

It is easy to believe in the devil when you see how some men live.

The man who sees more good in others than he does in himself, is on his way to heaven.

OPEN NORTH CENTER STREET AND AVOID TWO DANGEROUS CROSSINGS.

The question of extending North Center street for about a half mile to the Christensen farm and then turning east across the Horton farm to connect with the Northville-Nowi highway has been discussed considerably of late and the plan seems to be a practical one. The new highway would eliminate two dangerous crossings on the Pere Marquette railway for a great amount of traffic, and as the distance covered by the proposed new road is not great it would seem to be a wise move.

An effort will be made to try and interest the Oakland county highway commission in the project and to secure their co-operation in the matter.

THE BLACK TRAIL THAT INJURES THE SOCIAL FABRIC

Since the time when Adam and Eve disobeyed the plain law of the Garden of Eden until 1925 the trail of law-breaking has continued.

There is the simple law of the family which provides a training that will be of lasting good to the individual if properly administered.

The law of the community is a broader application of the family idea. The several family groups associate under rules and regulations which restrain and restrict and promote the best good of the combined families.

The State and Nation are still wider applications of the family idea. The activity of the larger groups is molded and shaped for the good of the commonwealth or the country.

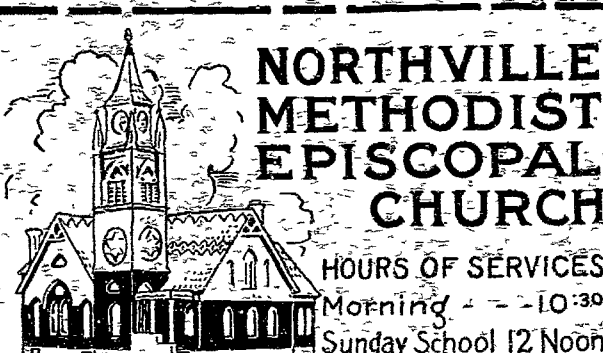

The entire organization of law is planned for the greatest good to all. Some things must be given up in order to secure other benefits.

If all families—communities—states and nations obeyed all laws, whether it seemed individually good or not, we should have a better land than we do now.

So many put a halloo on conscience when it comes to obeying all the laws. The risky road is so attractive—the hazzard—danger—excitement—all have a lure.

WASHINGTON

We cherish the memory of this noble patriot in our hearts not only because he placed his name indelibly upon the pages of our national life by heroic deeds of unselfish patriotism, nor because of his integrity as a statesman, but because he was acquainted with God from whom he received the inspiration and power that enabled him to accomplish the things for which we shall honor him as long as we as a nation hold fast to Washington's God.

You can do no greater honor to the memory of Washington than to go to church on Sunday as was his custom.

Every holiday of Nation recognition has some custom or distinguishing feature symbolic of the event celebrated. February 22nd is a national holiday set aside to commemorate the birth of George Washington, Father of his Country and first President of the United States.

The famous story of George and his little hatchet with which he cut down the cherry tree, will live long in the memories of the American people. Thus, Cherries are symbolic of the day.

Washington's birthday is not complete without a box of Maxixe Cherries for the kiddies and folks at home.

Maxixe Cherries are big red, ripe Maraschino Cherries in liquid cream, coated with a thick shell of rich chocolate. They fairly melt in your mouth. It is considered the most appropriate package for Washington's birthday. An appetizing package every day.

In the honors accorded him in the infancy of this Republic were shown the affection, the esteem and the trust in which George Washington was held by the people of his day.

As the years have multiplied, greater and greater tributes paid to the memory of the great Revolutionary General and First President have spoken eloquently of the debt this nation acknowledges to this steadfast, far-visioned, resourceful leader—in truth one of the founders of Liberty of the World.

Giving the Dairy Cow a Square Deal

News Bureau of Animal Husbandry

A scene on a scientifically conducted midwest dairy farm. (Inset) Fifth quickly takes to bank's new and improved, tenfold stables.

There are now 25,375,000 dairy cattle in the United States. Of these, a recent report, only about one-half are cared for in a manner to enable them to return a fair profit to their owners.

Many a milk cow has been accused of being a boarder when the owner had only himself to blame. Unlike human beings, dairy cows never shrink intentionally, and frequent tests reveal that seemingly unimportant details in the care of milk cows have startling effects on milk production.

It is worth considering why any of your milk herd because you believe them to be unproductive, all in the questionnaire below for your own satisfaction. If you can write YES as an answer to all of the questions, it is safe to assume that if your cows are not diseased, they are getting a square deal and therefore ought to repay you generously.

Are you feeding them a properly balanced ration?

If not, or if you are not quite sure of what makes up a properly balanced ration for milk cows, get in touch with your county agent. It will pay you to do this.

Are the stables kept clean—especially during the months you keep the milk cows in?

Clean stables and good ventilation are essential if the cow is to give full returns. Clean gutters, clean bedding and lots of pure air are important.

Has your milk herd access to all the fresh water they will drink? If not, give it to them. Water is cheap, and they will repay you with more and better milk.

Do you keep the cows clean?

With adhering to flanks and udders, takes money right out of your pockets. Impurities are absorbed into the system, that means poor feed conversion, milk that is not marketable, and a cow is unclean.

On a strict interpretation against the law. In just a few minutes you can clip the udders, flanks and underlines of the cows. Thereafter it is only a matter of seconds to wipe off all clinging foreign matter with a damp cloth. Farmers and dairymen who follow this practice say it increases milk flow and enriches the milk. And the cow is certainly more comfortable and contented.

Are you giving your cows a square deal?

Walled Lake Warbles.

About sixty members of the Wixom Farmers' club met with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wedow on Thursday, February 11th, for their monthly meeting. About 11 o'clock the people began to gather in with their arms full of cakes, pies, sandwiches, pickles, coolies, potatoes, beans and many other sweets and trimmings. At the hour of twelve the Wedows selected their serving committee and all of a sudden the orchestra of the Walled Lake school came walking in with their instruments of music. They said: "We have come to give this company two selections." This all enjoyed immensely. Then the orchestra was taken to the dining room and treated to cream cake and ice cream. You should have seen the men smile when the committee began to bring forth the eats. After all had partaken of this sumptuous repast to their satisfaction Mr. Wedow brought forth his home-made ice cream. Then an ear to ear expression appeared on the men's faces and the women looked somewhat similar.

Promptly at two o'clock the meeting was called to order by President R. E. Pearfall. The minutes were read by the secretary. Roll call. All answered.

First to appear was Mrs. Charles Wedow with a poem, "Abraham Lincoln." Then followed readings: "Lincoln's Boyhood," Effie Root, reading, "A true story of Lincoln," Mrs. Floyd Fisk; recitation, "A boy's thoughts of Lincoln," Billie Mercer. The topic, "Lincoln" was ably handled by Marvin Bogart of Novi township, an old member. A discussion then followed. At this time Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Sayles of Plymouth sang two selections as also did Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Chapman.

Those who were visitors: Weyer, Mr. and Mrs. Beacher Mackey, South Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Strong of Walled Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wedow of Pine Lake; Mr. and Mrs. John Wedow of Novi and Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Sayles of Plymouth, and Mrs. Charles Carr, and Walled Lake school orchestra.

The Wedows were highly honored by the presence of old lady 93-year-old Mrs. Frank Heath of Wixom who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Bert Holden. She said to Mrs. Wedow, "I am 93 years old and am an old member of this club and enjoy going as well as ever." At the previous meeting held at Rev. Thibault's at Wixom, she gave a long talk regarding what she used to do when a girl, such as going to church in an ox-drawn vehicle, sitting on a board laid across the wagon box and living in a log house without windows or floors. She also told that she emigrated here by ox-drawn wagons. She very eloquently pictured those old days in comparison with modern days, which was very interesting. She seemed to enjoy her dinner at this meeting as well as anyone. The day was cold and stormy but Mrs. Heath came just the same, while younger ones lost their courage.

The club adjourned promptly at five o'clock, and the president tendered thanks to the host and hostess for their efforts in making the meeting such a happy success.

A goodly number of Walled Lake men attended the Lincoln club banquet at Pontiac Tuesday afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Kreuter entertained a large company of friends at a valetine party at their home last Saturday night.

The monthly meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association was held last night at the High School building. Prof. Hoppes of the Normal College at Ypsilanti was the speaker.

Hon. Joseph B. Moore of the Michigan Supreme court addressed a joint meeting of the luncheon clubs at Pontiac on Monday. Judge Moore was born in the village of Commerce and afterwards he was circuit judge for Lapeer and Oakland counties.

Dorothy Rose entertained the members of her Sunday school class at a very enjoyable valentine party in the parlors of the church Saturday afternoon. Twenty-three children were present to enjoy the occasion and all received valentines. Ice cream and cake were served.

Walled Lake's scare when some of the children of the schools began to "break out" proved nothing more serious than a few cases of chicken pox. The school board and teachers are to be commended for the prompt measures taken, however, to prevent a spread of the malady until it was definitely known just what the affliction was. Some children were vaccinated during the excitement and that is a good thing to do any way.

Heating Advice Saves Fuel

We believe we can help owners if they will give us a chance to talk with them about the regulation of their boilers. The important thing is the accurate and sensitive control of fire so that it does not "run away" or "smolder out."

Make the coal pile last longer by better firing and fire control. You may need more advice this year because of the necessity of burning less coal and a different kind of coal probably than you have been accustomed to. Be prepared and have your plant "tuned up."

If you have an OLD house—let us submit an estimate to you for installing a modern labor and fuel saving Ideal American Heating Outfit in it. It is easy to heat old homes because they are usually well built and it is a quick and easy matter to install radiator heating.

Please do not hesitate to call us in. Our heating advice is free and you will be under no obligation whatever. We stake our reputation on our work and OUR PRICES ARE REASONABLE.

OH, BOY! OH, JOY! BUT IT WAS FUN.

Plymouth's two High School basketball teams came to Northville Friday night confident of carrying home the honors of the meet, but they returned home defeated and humiliated. In fact, the members of the girls' team felt so badly over their overwhelming defeat that they "enjoyed" a good cry after the game. As girls usually feel much better after having cried, they finally pulled themselves together and enjoyed themselves until the last few minutes of play in the boys' game, but the outcome of that contest was so disconcerting to them, they cried some more before taking their departure from the gym.

The Northville girls played a wonderful game and simply buried their opponents under an avalanche of scores, the final figures being 49 to 19. Northville tried hard to secure, just another point, but failed, but such a little failure caused no tears to be shed by Northville fans at least.

The boys' game was about as lively an exhibition as has been staged on the local floor this season and the contest was "nip and tuck" from start to finish. The first half ended with the score at 10 to 8 in favor of Plymouth. Northville came back on the floor strong and in good condition and the second half was an exceptionally fast one with the Northville fans cheering their boys to victory. When the whistle blew at the close of the last quarter the score was a tie—19 to 19—and everybody was on their toes. During the five minutes of overtime play Northville shot two baskets, making the final score 23 to 19. And then the noise broke out afresh, and what a racket. Northville had defeated Plymouth and every Northville fan was nappy.

SENIORS EXPRESS THEIR APPRECIATION.

The Seniors wish to express their sincere appreciation to all who furnished for the father and son banquet. They feel especially grateful to their mothers, Mrs. Flora Perkins and the ladies who so willingly and kindly worked Thursday and Friday. Also to the teachers and High school girls who assisted in the dining room and to Mr. Benedict for his liberal floral table decorations.
