NORTHVILLE EXPERIENCED AN EARTHQUAKE SHOCK.

Saturday night the people of this community, in company with countless thousands of people throughout all the eastern and central states, experienced an earthquake shock which lasted for about 30 seconds. Houses creaked, chairs in which people were seated moved, light fixtures in some of the stores swayed, people in two-story buildings were frightened nearly out of their wits and in fact a great many people experienced a strange sensation during the progress of the shock. A slight earth tremor, beginning at about 9.22 was recorded on a number of seismographs throughout the country, the one at the University of Michigan being among the number.

Of course the shock lasted but just a few seconds, probably not more than 30, but it was distinctly felt in many cities and towns. In many of Detroit's skyscrapers the people were badly frightened and some of them rushed into the halls and some into the streets in their eagerness to seek places of safety. At the Wayne County hospital at Eloise patients became panic-stricken and were quieted with difficulty. At the Detroit Athletic club's building pictures fell from walls and the hats and coats of the guests were thrown about.

The tremor was felt as far west as Denver, Colo., and south to Virginia. The center of the disturbance was said to have been in Maine. It was regarded as one of the most severe shocks this section of the country ever experienced.

It was really a very queer experience and one that will not soon be forgotten by those who were disturbed by the shock.

MANY PEOPLE ENJOYED INAUGURATION CEREMONIES.

By the use of the radio countless millions of people throughout the country were privileged to hear and to enjoy the inauguration ceremonies at Washington on Wednesday, when President Calvin Coolidge and Vice-President Charles Dawes took their oaths of office.

Station WWJ of Detroit broadcasted the ceremonies and both at the High School and at the Exchange Club meeting the music of the Marine band, the cheering of the people, the oaths and the responses thereto and the masterful address by the President were clearly and distinctly heard and enjoyed. C. B. Turnbull very kindly placed a Grebe symphonette set in the dining room at the Park House, and the DeWangites and their guests were delightfully entertained.

T. Glenn Phillips, of the city planning commission of Detroit, and who is now a resident of this section, having built a very attractive home on the hills at Grand View subdivision, was present and gave a very interesting address on the subject of "City and Community Planning," showing by maps what is proposed for Detroit and the outlying districts in Wayne and Macomb counties. Mr. Phillips is an interesting speaker and he is very earnest and enthusiastic regarding the work of proper planning—of looking ahead through the coming years.

HARLEY D. JOHNSON DIED SUNDAY NIGHT.

Harley D. Johnson, a familiar figure in Northville and a man who was well liked by those who enjoyed his acquaintance, died Sunday night, aged 52 years, leaving two sons, Edward Johnson of Detroit and Charles Johnson of this place, to mourn his passing. He had been employed by the Ford Motor Co. for the past few years and was a faithful employee. He had served Northville township for the past few years as overseer of highways and was an official of good judgment.

Before coming to the village to reside he was a resident of the township and his whole life was spent in this community. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, being conducted by Rev. F. P. Knowles. Interment took place in Rural Hill cemetery, beside his wife who preceded him to the grave some years ago.

TIME FOR PROCURING LICENSES EXTENDED.

In order to work in harmony with the police department of the city of Detroit the time for procuring new 1925 auto licenses has been extended until March 15th, by the sheriff's force of Wayne county.

This will give auto owners and drivers two weeks longer in which to secure their licenses and on the 15th the lid will be clamped down hard.

Next Monday will occur the annual village election.

WILL L. TINHAM DIED IN DETROIT THURSDAY NIGHT.

There were many expressions of sorrow about the village last Friday morning when the news of the death of Will L. Tinham passed from friend to friend. All had known that his condition had been most critical since he was stricken, yet they had hoped he might be spared and that he would soon be able to return and take his place in the life and activities of this community, because when men of this type pass to the great beyond the community from which they take their departure suffers in many ways. Mr. Tinham was a good citizen, and his passing is universally regretted.

He was born in Novi township, east of the village, and after some years the family moved to a farm near Livonia Center, where he grew to young manhood. He attended the Northville schools and in 1888 he became a resident of this village, where he has resided constantly until his death. He was united in marriage to Georgia Palmer, the devoted wife who survives him. He engaged in different mercantile pursuits until 1912 when he was appointed postmaster and he served the public faithfully and efficiently for nine years. He was active in politics for a number of years and served as deputy sheriff, village marshal and township clerk, filling each of the positions with credit to himself and with honor to those who had assisted him.

Socially Mr. Tinham was genial, warm-hearted friend, and he was a member of Northville Lodge, F. & A. M., Union Chapter, R. A. M., Northville Commandery, Knights Templar, and Moslem Temple Order Mystic Shrine, and the Exchange club.

Besides his wife he is survived by two brothers, Alexander Tinham of Detroit and John B. Tinham of this place. The remains were brought to his late home here on Friday and funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon, being conducted by Rev. F. P. Knowles. Members of Northville Commandery officiated as escort to the members of Northville Lodge and the procession to Rural Hill cemetery was an imposing one. The impressive Masonic burial service was rendered at the grave.

Mr. Tinham had been the local representative of the Plymouth & Northville Gas Co., for some months past and was offered a better position just before he was taken ill. He was quiet and unassuming in manner and he will be missed in many ways. Let us

Think of him still as the same,
I say—
He is not dead—he is just away

NORTHVILLE YOUNG MAN MARRIED IN DETROIT.

On Tuesday evening at six o'clock Ross L. VanValkenburgh, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. VanValkenburgh of this place, was united in marriage to Miss Margaret Dible of Detroit, the ceremony being performed at Amity Temple in the presence of 150 relatives and friends. In all its appointments the wedding was a pretty affair and the solemn words which united these two young people were spoken by Rev. Ralph M. Pierce, a former pastor of the M. E. church of this place.

Immediately following the ceremony and after the large company had extended congratulations a bountiful wedding dinner was served. The young people received a great array of valuable and useful gifts, among them being a gift from the Packard Motor company, of which organization Mr. VanValkenburgh has been a valued employee for some years now occupying the important position of manager of the service division. Mr. and Mrs. VanValkenburgh will make their home in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. L. VanValkenburgh and son, Franklin, attended the wedding.

NEW BULLETINS OFF PRESS AT M. A. C.

Among the new agricultural bulletins just off the press at M. A. C. are two which are attracting particular attention among farmers of the state. One on "Profitable Pruning of the Concord Grape," written by N. L. Partridge of the college horticultural department, is of interest to the grape growers of this state, while potato men are calling for "Marketing Michigan Potatoes," a comprehensive bulletin edited by J. T. Horner of the M. A. C. economic staff.

These bulletins may be obtained by writing to the Bulletin Clerk, Michigan Agricultural College, East Lansing.

The Exchange club will not hold its usual luncheon at the Park Hotel next Wednesday noon. In the evening the members and their ladies will have dinner at the High school cafeteria.

FOUR WOMEN KEEP PLEDGE FOR FIFTY-NINE YEARS.

A Pontiac dispatch to the Detroit News of Monday contained the following bit of interesting news showing how four former Oakland county girls have kept a pledge they made 59 years ago:

Friendship has outlived the years. Fifty-nine years ago Sunday five young women stood on the timbers which had been drawn to build a schoolhouse at Four Towns, Oakland county. There they decided to meet or write to each other every March 1 as long as they live.

Every one of them kept the bargain Sunday. Mrs. Mary Dewey Simpson, Mrs. Ella Miller Voorhes and Mrs. Ella Colvin Carpenter held their reunion at the Simpson home at Union Lake. They each had a letter to read from Mrs. Emma Colvin Heath, of Comona, Calif., the only other living member of the group. Mrs. Margaret Hunt Hollingshead died in California several years ago.

The oldest member of the group is 81 and the youngest 76.

OUR COUNTRY STILL BEST.

"Big Bill" Haywood would rather come to America and face prison, than to stay in the communistic Russia of his muddled dreams. Emma Goldman, sick at heart over the failure of the soviet oligarchy to give or even dream a people's government, wants to come "home" to the land she said she despised. Theodore Petroff, a vulgar swindler caught in Wisconsin, pleads for life imprisonment in this country rather than deportation and freedom in Russia.

Only the blind man will say that everything is "all right" in Our Country. There are many things that need fixing, things that need the golden rule and the rule of common sense and the teachings of experience. But it is still the best country. It can be made still better when more realize this in the same sense that any sovereign realizes the responsibility for the charge committed to his care. More active participation in every public move, an intelligent vote in every primary, a realization that every broken law is a personal assault on the national life, would greatly improve social and political conditions in Our Country.

Philosophy and Fishing

By RUBY DOUGLAS

(Copyright.)

"FISHING is spelled with an F. I don't see why philosophy has to be all dolled up with a ph," remarked Betty as she strung a long, curling angle worm onto her hook.

"What dignity would the word philosophy carry if spelled with an F?" asked her companion. "Wouldn't my name, for instance, sound cute if I wrote after it 'F. D., doctor of philosophy'?"

Betty laughed merrily enough to frighten away all the fish in the bay. She had not meant to tread on the newly graduated toes of Donald Callahan.

"Fley'd think you belong to the fire department instead of to the class of '24, Princeton university," she chaffed. "That would be funny."

"Everything seems to be funny to you today, Betty."

"Everything is funny today, Don."

"Including me, I suppose."

Betty nodded. "Mostly you."

"You know I didn't want to go fishing. Neither do you. But for some reason or other you have acquired a mad penchant."

Betty promptly interrupted him.

"Mad what?—I understand English perfectly."

"You have gone crazy," the subject of fishing this summer, and all you ever catch are flounders. It can't be the sport that fascinates you, Betty."

Betty pulled up her line with a fat and wiggle flounder, dangling from it.

"Don't you call this sport, Don?"

Her companion looked disgusted.

"No, I don't, and neither do you. You can't tell me that a girl of your esthetic."

"Another wonderful word," laughed Betty.

"Tastes and ideals—can enjoy stringing slimy worms on fishhooks in order to drag up from the muddy bottom of the bay these ugly, tasteless fish."

"I suppose it does seem funny to a person who wears large horn-rimmed glasses with a drooping black tape on them."

Nothing was said by either of the two who sat in the flat-bottomed boat. Silence that would have appealed to the oldest fisherman on the shore reigned supreme.

Flounders strung on a line like so many beads, plashed and raveled in the water at the stern of the boat. They were making an effort to regain their freedom.

"They can't get away," said Betty, leading his thoughts.

"No one can get away from you," said Don doggedly.

"Very pretty," said Betty, bowing low.

Silence again. "Some old granny or other has said something about folks who bit on an unbaited hook," began Betty.

"That's philosophy, Betty. It seems that many persons go on about things that are not so at all—about things that never happened. In other words, they make things out of whole cloth."

"I wonder what the good sisters up on the hotel porch will have to say about you and me—strolling in just in time for dinner with a string of fish and, oh, just no chipmunk."

"I don't care what any of them say, Betty. All I care for is what you will say when I—"

Betty would not let him go on. "Don't Donald—please. You would always hold it against yourself if you let yourself do anything out of the picture." There was a half-second's note in her voice that the man detected.

"Out of the picture? What do you mean?"

"I mean just this: Ever since you have been away at college you have been smeared over with a sort of veneer that I don't like. You have become snobbish—unreal. You are what the girls all call 'stuck up'."

Don, and I don't like it one bit. You were a regular fellow before you went away from home and began to look down on us back in your native town. Fortunately, I believe it is only a temporary affliction, and I have been trying all summer to get you down to real ideas and real life again. I have put off listening to you, because if you don't get over this pose I'll never be able to stand you."

Don looked at her in amazement. "Has it been as bad as that, Betty?"

Betty nodded. "As bad as that," she agreed.

"And that is why you have been disciplining me all summer? Am I worth it?" he asked.

"If you're such a philosopher, figure it out for yourself," she said.

"Don't do that—reply at once. Obviously, he was thinking. He was very much in love with Betty, and he admired her immensely.

"I say, Betty," he began at last, "will you give me another chance?"

Betty was quick to reply. "Of course—stupid."

"All right—I'm on. You'll find me a regular fellow from now on, but—do I have to go flounder fishing again?"

"No—I hate it myself, but I couldn't think of anything that would give us a better chance to work out our mutual problem and give us a better chance to understand each other than this," she said.

"We'll have flounders for our wedding breakfast if you say so, Betty."

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES.

We trust Sunday evening will prove to be a good second chapter, the banquet having been the first in the fraternal and spiritual life of the men of the church. The Men's club will act as hosts at the evening service. The pastor will sing "The Men of the Times." Special music.

The morning service will be a Great V. R. on Sabbath school and V. P. S. C. at the usual hour.

The Westminster Guild will meet on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Eaton. A full attendance is desired.

Annual meeting of the Woman's Union will be held on Wednesday. Hostesses Stewardship committee.

The Westminster Guild recently elected the following officers for the ensuing term: President, Alice Eaton; vice-president, Vera Bush; secretary, Ruth Henry; treasurer, Helen Sweet.

Tonight the young-people's society will hold its monthly meeting.

Next Thursday afternoon the Ladies' Aid will meet at the residence of Mrs. Charles Miller.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES.

Let us be devout to our attendance at the services and worship of God every Sabbath and mid-week.

The pastor is not announcing his subjects these days in print, but helpful evangel addresses will be given to stimulate our Christian experience.

Special appeal will be made to our young people and we trust Easter will be a resurrection for many a needy soul.

Church services at 10:30 and 7:30 Bible school, 12. Mid-week service, 7:30.

Spiritual Viewpoint.

Sin blinds and sin narrows. God always helps the man in a hard place.

Some men would refuse heaven if the Lord would offer to carry them. The secret of eloquence is truth.

Idleness is always a master excuse maker.

Man does not have to be enticed to be a dead one.

Remember the Sabbath day to keep it Holy.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES.

The Junior choir, under the leadership of Miss Marguerite Warner, made a good showing Sunday night. About thirty little folks were on the platform. The Junior choir has charge of the music the first Sunday evening of each month. Rehearsals are held every Friday afternoon after school.

Mrs. Ralph Beeman will work with Miss Warner in the Crusaders' Band and with the Junior choir.

The men's class is building a fine room in the church basement and expect to have it ready for meetings in the very near future. They are doing as the work themselves, working on the room in spare time.

The only room in the church that is not being used by the Sunday school is the kitchen. Kitchen furniture and utensils about fill that room.

The young ladies' class is meeting at the parsonage for Sunday school.

The attendance contest between the men's and women's class is creating considerable interest. The men are in the lead, but only by two.

The contest will close on the 22nd of this month. Sixteen is the smallest attendance either of these classes have had in over a month.

Can't we make the one hundred attendance mark at prayer meeting? Certainly we can let us do it. The prayer meeting is the most important meeting in our church. We will probably be able to report definitely on the Bible campaign next Thursday. Report and learn a lesson and what you are expected to do.

The young people's meeting, held Sunday at 8:30 is growing rapidly in attendance and interest.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

Any person having some machines or other property on my farm in Lyon township are notified to remove the same at once. Also anyone wishing to rent or buy land write to me. Mrs. Marie Moore, Milford, Mich. 34w1c

OBITUARY

Mrs. C. Ralph Horton.

Phoebe Beal was born in Livonia township March 25th, 1878. The family moved to Northville when she was a small child and she was educated in Northville, graduating from the high school in 1895.

In June, 1897 she was united in marriage to C. Ralph Horton of this village, and they made their home in Detroit. About ten years ago, the family moved to the home on the Novi road, where her last days were spent.

She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Martha, and one son, Edward, and by a brother, Emory Beal of Ypsilanti, and sister, Mrs. Charles Booth of New York City.

Funeral services were held at the family home on Monday afternoon and were conducted by Rev. F. P. Knowles. The floral tributes were beautiful, expressing the regard in which the deceased was held by the people of this community, and the sympathy extended to the bereaved family. Interment took place at Rural Hill cemetery.

The Conscience of a World

THE CONSCIENCE OF THE WORLD. No fact of the past 2,000 years has a more vivid place in the hearts of men and women than THE DEATH on Calvary.

The crucifixion revealed the hate of the Jewish rulers—the political misdeeds of Rome—the personal defects of Judas and Pilate and Herod.

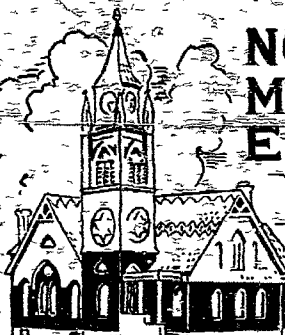

The man who went about doing good—the man with whom Pilate could find no fault—the man whom ages have praised and to his death because He chose the way that would save men.

The cross has become vocal along all the corridors of time. The call is echoing every day and every sensitive mind radio receives the message.

You cannot forget Calvary. You cannot evade Christ. You cannot dodge your conscience. As Jesus suffered alone so must each human soul carry its own burden—win its own victory.

Heating Advice Saves Fuel

We believe we can help owners if they will give us a chance to talk with them about the regulation of their boilers. The important thing is the accurate and sensitive control of fire so that it does not "run away" or "smolder out."

Make the coal pile last longer by better firing and fire control. You may need more advice this year because of the necessity of burning less coal and a different kind of coal probably than you have been accustomed to. Be prepared and have your plant "tuned up."

If you have an OLD house—let us submit an estimate to you for installing a modern labor and fuel saving Ideal American Heating Outfit in it. It is easy to heat old homes because they are usually well built and it is a quick and easy matter to install radiator heating.

Please do not hesitate to call us in. Our heating advice is free and you will be under no obligation whatever. We stake our reputation on our work and OUR PRICES ARE REASONABLE.

CAPITAL MOURNS DEATH OF SENATOR McCORMICK

SENATOR JOSEPH M. McCORMICK

Washington—Medill McCormick, senior United States senator from Illinois, died suddenly here Feb. 25.

He was found dead in bed in his apartment at the Hotel Hamilton. It was stated the senator had died of myocarditis, the contributory cause of which was acute dilation of the heart.

The tragic news shocked the capital. Although he was about to pass from the congressional scene with the retirement from the senate on March 4, next, he was not yet 48 years old.

Pioneer and Senator Passes

New York—William Andrews Clark, former United States senator from Montana, died at his home here of pneumonia after a week's illness.

William Andrews Clark was the last of the three great Montana mining magnates—Helm, Daly and Clark. Arriving in Bannack, Idaho, in 1863, with $5 capital after an overland journey of 65 days in a prairie schooner, he became, 40 years later, a millionaire and a United States senator. He was born in Connellsville, Pa., on January 8, 1839.

Bolting Senators Return

Indianapolis, Ind.—The Indiana Democratic senators, who fled into Ohio trying to business in the upper branch state legislature in protest against attempts to pass a Cerrymander bill, have arrived here after an eventful trip to Dayton. The party left Dayton for Indianapolis after receiving assurance that the bill which would give the Republicans an advantage in the second congressional district would not be passed, it was said.

Crack Train In Crash

Brookville, Ont.—The Canadian crack Canadian Pacific passenger train No. 20, bound from Chicago to Montreal, was reported by long distance messages to this station to have crashed head on into a waiting freight train at Glen Bay, three miles west of Perth. Four trainmen and several passengers were injured, two perhaps fatally. The latter, both Canadians, were taken to a hospital in Perth.

Death Takes German President

Berlin—Fritz Ebert, socialist, sadler and first president of the German republic, died Feb. 28 of peritonitis following an appendix operation. Masses of mourners darkened the streets and flags were half masted.

There is much speculation as to who will be his successor but former Chancellor Marx is thought to be the likeliest candidate.

Founder of Elks Dead

Springfield, Mass.—Joseph L. Norcross, 81 years old, one of the founders of the Benevolent and Protective order of Elks, and charter member of New York lodge number one, died at his home here. He was an old time minstrel and up to a few months ago appeared on the vaudeville stage as "America's oldest minstrel."

Stone Takes Oath of Office

Washington—Hiram Fisk Stone, of New York City, has resigned as attorney-general and took the oath as an associate justice of the Supreme Court. The court room was crowded when the new justice ascended the bench at the opening of the session. The simple ceremonies were conducted by Chief Justice Howard Taft.

Fliers Reach Florida

Miami, Fla.—The 12 airplanes under the command of Maj. Thomas G. Lamphier have arrived here after an overland flight from Selfridge Field, Mich. All planes and men arrived in good condition, though they were prevented from making the flight in one day on account of one of the machines developing motor trouble.

Warship Runs Aground

San Francisco—The United States cruiser Huron, flagship of the Asiatic fleet, was aground in Malampaya sound, island of Palawan, about 200 miles southeast of Manila, according to word received at the headquarters of the Twelfth naval district here. The ship is said to have been en route from Manila to Java.

CURRENT NEWS TERSELY TOLD

Earthquake Wrecks Buildings And Is Felt By Half The Nation.

Detroit—An earth tremor of great intensity was recorded over almost the entire Eastern half of the United States early in the evening of Feb. 28. The disturbance was calculated to have centered somewhere in the great Lakes region.

While no damage was reported here or throughout the state, the time system at police headquarters was put out of order. Telephone service was also interrupted in various parts of the city. It was not felt by pedestrians nor by persons on lower floors of buildings, but only in the upper stories beginning as a rule, on the fourth or fifth floor.

Reports from Quebec indicate that several buildings on the outskirts of the city were wrecked and that the roof of the Union station was partially damaged, while in Montreal many plate glass windows were broken.

The earthquake was one of the most pronounced that has ever taken place in continental United States.

New Dirigible Designed

London—Innovations in dirigible design, making the airships faster and safer and more feasible for long distance flights, have been submitted to the government. Experts are quoted as saying it would be possible with the new design to make the journey to New Zealand in nine days. The new design, it is explained, eliminates the gondolas with the exception of those carrying the motors, thus reducing resistance. They provide space for the pilot and navigating room in the ship's nose. The passenger salons are also within the ship's skeleton.

Navy Weak In Pacific

Washington—An enemy could capture the Philippine Islands before the United States could get its fleet there, Rear Admiral Hilary H. Jones, head of the Navy general board, told the House Aircraft Committee. This admission was made only after much questioning.

Admiral Jones defended the recent report of the special Navy board on the comparative values of surface vessels, submarines and aircraft, and challenged criticism of the report made by Brig. Gen. William Mitchell, assistant Army air chief.

Dynamite Explosion Kills 600

Rio de Janeiro—Six hundred and twenty-one persons were dead, 1,373 wounded, nine women had gone insane, and damages totaling $2,000,000 had been inflicted as the result of the explosion of 33 tons of dynamite and 186,500 litres of gasoline on Casajus Isle, three miles from Rio de Janeiro.

The blasts resulted from the burning of two lighters containing 900 cases of gasoline. The blazing fluid spread over the harbor and reached toward Casajus Isle, where dynamite, powder and stocks of oil were stored.

Fliers Bomb Ice Jam

Mt. Clemens, Mich.—The inundation of Selfridge Field, the army air base was prevented when army fliers dropped bombs on the ice floes jammed at the mouth of the Clinton River which had risen to flood heights as a result of the torrential rains that had prevailed. With the breaking of the ice jam, the level of the river dropped six inches after a phenomenal rise from the lowest level in history to within three feet of the Mt. Clemens bridge spans in a period of not more than three hours.

Coolidge Signs P. O. Bill

Washington—The postal pay and rate increase bill has been signed by President Coolidge. It increases the pay of postal clerks and carriers numbering more than 600,000 by about $326 each a year, adding about $68,000,000 to the government payroll. The raises are effective at once and back pay from January 1, 1925 under the new scale will be paid as soon as possible.

Wreck Costs Three Lives

Newark, N. J.—Three railroad employees were killed and about 40 passengers were injured, a few seriously, in a rear-end collision between two Pennsylvania railroad passenger trains at Manhattan transfer. A local train from New York to Philadelphia crashed into the Atlantic coast line express, from New York for Washington and the South.

Legion Adjutant Appointed

Des Moines, Ia.—The appointment of James F. Barton of Fort Dodge, Ia., as national adjutant of the American Legion, has been announced by National Commander James A. Draln. Mr. Barton has been adjutant of the Iowa department of the Legion for several years. He will succeed Adjutant Crevison, who has expressed a desire to resign.

Australia to Sell Ships

Melbourne—The Australian government is inviting tenders for the purchase of the commonwealth line of steamships on condition that it be retained in the Australian trade.

NEWS FROM THE STATE CAPITAL

Move To Bar Municipalities From Polluting Waters Is Launched

Lansing—Precipitation of a fight in the legislature over pollution of the waters of Michigan by private concerns and by municipalities was scheduled. Representative Harold Smedley, of Grand Rapids, announced that he was ready to introduce companion bills on the subject in the house.

If these bills are enacted into law, municipalities all over the state will have to concentrate on study looking to the building of sewage disposal plants and scores of private corporations will have to actively plan ways and means of disposing of their wastes, other than into various streams and lakes.

In the case of Detroit, these bills preclude expenditure of millions of dollars, for at conservative estimates a tremendous sum will be involved in a change of Detroit's sewage disposal system. The Detroit river now is used.

Primary Law Reform

The expected move for primary election reform was launched in the legislature when Rep. Charles Evans, of Lenawee, introduced a measure providing for party enrollment, pre-primary conventions and election of delegates. This program coincides with one recently endorsed by the Michigan State Farm Bureau, the State Association of Supervisors and other organizations.

The Evans measure provides that the pre-primary conventions shall in each case be held for each office whose name will appear on the primary ballot. This endorsement would not shut off other candidates nor would it make the convention endorsement necessarily equivalent to election. Other candidates of the same party could enter the primaries by securing nominating petitions, as they now may.

It is expected, however, that the pre-primary convention endorsement would carry a tremendous advantage and that few candidates would be likely to enter the field against him for nomination.

Proposed Amendments

Five proposals are already before the legislature to amend the Constitution. They are for: The creation of metropolitan districts, to limit regular sessions of the legislature to 90 days; to curtail the right to bear arms; to permit sheriffs to be elected for more than two consecutive terms; and to provide that fines assessed for breach of the penal laws shall be paid in the general fund of incorporated villages instead of in the library fund. The first of these, the metropolitan district proposal, has been approved by the Senate for submission to a referendum. The House has voted to submit the fourth and fifth proposals. Then there is a mandatory proposal to submit to the voters on general election day in Nov. 1926, the question of having a general revision of the constitution.

Vandals' Bill Hits Snag

In a brief skirmish on the floor of the senate, Senator Frank L. Young, of Lansing, declared a bill introduced by Senator Arthur Wood to provide for breaking and entering, or entering without breaking into dwellings without permission of the owner, as "vicious in intent" and declared his determination to oppose its passage. The bill, which was up for third reading, was passed for the day on the motion of Senator Wood, "to allow Senator Young to consider it further during the next few days."

More Farmers in Legislature

Farmers are more numerous in the 1925 legislature than any other class, as shown by the legislative handbook issued this week. There are 36 of them, of whom 23 are in the House. In addition there are half a dozen more who combine farming with other lines. The legal profession has the next largest representation, there being 20 lawyer senators and representatives. Mrs. Cora Reynolds Anderson, the only woman legislator, is recorded in the handbook as "housewife."

Lobbyists Barred From Floor

By the ruling of Speaker Wells, only persons will be admitted to the House who are entitled to the privilege of the floor at all times or for whom the privilege is requested by members for a day or a few days. All others must go to the galleries. At not many previous sessions have the lobbyists been more numerous than this year. There are all sorts. Some of them do most of their lobbying in hotel corridors and rooms.

Bill Hits Drug Men

All members of partnerships of corporations or individuals owning and operating drug stores, pharmacies, or apothecary shops would be required to become registered pharmacists under provisions of a bill introduced in the senate by Senator Horatio Karcher, of Rose City. The bill is not retroactive in effect, and exempts from its provisions persons already owning such shops or pharmacies, administrators of estates, or heirs to pharmacies, and drug stores.

Bible Thoughts for the Week

Sunday

These six things doth the Lord hate; yea, seven are an abomination to Him: A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, A heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running into mischief, A false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren.—Prov. 6:16-19.

Monday

Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to the house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh?—Isa. 58:7.

Tuesday

Jesus Said Unto Her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; And whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die.—John 11:25.

Wednesday

Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.—Gal. 6:1.

Thursday

Thou Shalt Love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and the neighbour as thyself.—Luke 10:27.

For the Lord God is a sun and a shield: the Lord will give grace and glory; no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.—Ps. 84:11.

Saturday

The Grass Withereth, the flower fadeth, but the Word of our God shall stand for ever.—Isa. 40:8.

Nerves All Unstrung?

Northville Folks Should Find the Cause and Correct It.

Are you all worn out? Feel tired, nervous, half-sick? Do you have a constant "backache," sharp twinges of pain, too, with dizzy spells and annoying urinary disorder? Then there's cause for worry and more cause to give your weakened kidneys prompt help. Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys.

Northville folks recommend Doan's for just such troubles.

Mrs. John Trumbull, 60 Rogers street, Northville, says: "At times sharp pains went across my back, especially when I stooped. Lameness in my back prevented me from sweeping or dusting and I felt worn out and nervous. Attacks of dizziness bothered me and my kidneys were sluggish, too. Doan's Pills from the Northville Drug Co. drove away the backache and restored my kidneys to normal."

No Stated Sum for Church

The government of England does not appropriate any specific sum of money in support of the church. One of its important sources of income is the Queen Anne's bounty, a fund formed by Queen Anne in 1704 to augment the poorer livings of the Church of England. There are also large endowments. Church rates, are voluntary and cannot be recovered by law.—Washington Star.

Keeping Homes

Healthy

Remember the old days,

how stoves baked you on one side while you froze on the other? Doors were closed

so the cold couldn't creep in from the next room.

Modern heat by radiators

means every room properly warmed, healthy and comfortable. Saves coal, too.

Let us tell you just how little it would cost you.

Detroit—Charles C. Kellogg today has been appointed acting postmaster at Detroit, succeeding Peter Wiggle, who was suspended by Postmaster New. Kellogg now is the superintendent of mails at Detroit.

Ann Arbor—Dr. Marion LeRoy Burton, president of the University of Michigan, will take a leave of absence from the university for possibly as long as a year. It has been announced here. Mr. Burton has been ill for some time from influenza.

Sturgis—Basil Stead, 18 years old, of LaGrange county, Indiana, is dead as the result of a hunting accident in which a load of buckshot from a clown's shotgun accidentally discharged, struck young Stead just above the ear, killing him instantly.

St. Joseph—Warren A. Morford, 18 years old, son of ex-Mayor Allen R. Morford, of St. Joseph, was found guilty and has been sentenced to from one to two years in Indiana reformatory for attempting to blackmail J. O. Wells and Waldo V. Tiscornia, wealthy St. Joseph manufacturers, last November.

Negaunee—In excellent health, although he has been blind for the last 12 years, Richard Grant, native of County Waterford, Ireland, recently celebrated his one hundredth birthday here. Five generations were represented at the celebration. He spent the day singing Irish lullabies to a great-grandchild.

Monroe—The semi-annual report of Clayton C. Gold, former prosecuting attorney of Monroe county, recently filed, discloses that 971 criminal cases were begun in the last six months, out of which number, there were 801 convictions, no acquittals, 30 discharged on payment of costs, four not disposed, 136 discharged on examinations.

Mt. Clemens—A complete survey of conditions pertaining to the life of crippled children in Macomb county, has been begun by the Mt. Clemens Rotary club. James Bugess, chairman of the committee, conducting the survey, has announced here that a special clinic with prominent Detroit surgeons in attendance will be held in February.

Lansing—Senator James M. Wilcox, of the Okanagon county district, in the Upper Peninsula, who has arrived here on the legislative session, says that a large number of deer in the northern counties are suffering for want of food, and it is surmised, some may be dying of starvation. The early winter with a snow fall of two feet has made it difficult for the animals to obtain food.

Lansing—The Michigan Public Utilities commission has declined to take immediate action towards the abandonment of the entire Manistee & Northwestern railway, as the junking of the road by the receivers, would probably net only $400,000. Testimony given at the hearing showed that the receivers had been offered a total of $500,000 for only two of its branches as a going concern.

Detroit—Governor Alex J. Groesbeck has granted a temporary parole to Mrs. Alice Eyer, who has already served two years of a 10 to 20 year sentence at the Detroit house of correction for complicity in a Grand Rapids bank robbery. Due to the fairly confession of the two men who robbed the bank in question, Mrs. Eyer will now be released until authorities have determined whether or not she is entitled to a pardon.

Lansing—Party enrollment, to prevent a member of one political organization from voting in the primary election of another party, is one of the provisions in a new codification of Michigan election laws that has been introduced in the Senate by Senator Arthur E. Wood, of Detroit. The bill provides that when a voter registers he shall state his party preference. Then, at the primary, he can only obtain a ballot of that party, unless he has notified election officials of a desire to change his affiliations.

St. Joseph—Charles E. Ruthenberg, prominently known radical, was sentenced to serve from three to 10 years at the Michigan State prison at Jackson and pay a fine of $5,000 by Judge Charles E. It was charged that an "underground" convention of radicals under order from Moscow, was the purpose of the Bridgeman gathering which the officers interrupted.

Removing Ink Spot.

A large blot of ink was removed from a delicate handkerchief in the following manner: Absorbent cotton saturated with cuticle remover (a gentle article for skin use) was applied carefully and the ink was absorbed. The cotton powder was rubbed into the wet rough paper, until the bluish ink faded up and became smooth. A hot water used for mounting pictures finished the job of smoothing.

CONGRESS PULLED A RAW DEAL.

When the President was urging economy in national affairs during his inaugural address Wednesday noon a whole lot of senators and congressmen, sitting near by, must have left pretty cheap. The salary grab they pulled off a few days ago was about the rawest piece of legislation that has ever been pushed through at Washington. If they needed extra pay, and but few will question but they did, why did they not vote like men instead of acting like a lot of hi-jackers, who send some one in to commit the robbery while the gang hangs on the outside and divides the swag? The American people are perfectly willing to pay their officials for their services but they do not like to have them adopt the methods of the highwaymen to get the money.

NORTHVILLE WATER USED IN MAKING GINGER ALE.

"We are the only manufacturers of ginger ale that is using spring water in our produce," declared W. L. Beamer, president of the Silver Spring Water company, 6280 Third avenue, in an interview Saturday. "This water comes from our springs at Northville and is of the highest quality as far as clearness and purity are concerned."

"At the present time we are installing a complete line of new equipment which will increase our production over 300%. Our business in 1924 gained more than 300% over the preceding year, and we look for the same or a greater percentage of increase this year. We have approximately 450 dealers in Detroit handling our product, and more are being added to our list every day."

The Silver Spring Water company has been in business in Detroit for the last nine years, and the ginger ale trade was added only two years ago, according to Beamer. Included in the new equipment which is being installed at present are bottle washing and sterilizing machines, filtering machines and an ice-making plant capable of producing 12 tons of ice a day.

"We are taking every means possible to increase our production to meet the demand for our ginger ale," said Beamer. "Our new equipment is among the most modern in the city and will greatly increase the number of bottles we can produce in a day. At present we are capable of turning out 18,000 ten-ounce bottles of ginger ale in a 10-hour working day." Free Press.

FAMILY NIGHT AT THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

The gathering of the families was a unique occasion on Tuesday evening, when everybody felt happy in the co-operative spirit which prevailed among children, youth and older people. The community spirit is essential in the life of a church where everybody can feel free with the other. This was manifested throughout. The dinner was served by the men who proved equal to the task of waiting on the ladies. Of course there were instances where "it was not good for man to be alone" but outside of these the men did credit to themselves.

The children were ably provided for in the primary room by Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Cobb and Mrs. Dolph with some of the young ladies looking after the interests of this young life of the church.

At the close of the banquet a pleasing musical program was given by the choir under the direction of Richard Kilgour, with Mrs. John Tinhard at the organ. This consisted of an anthem, a solo by Miss Christ, trio by Mrs. Lee Hickok, Mrs. Lee Shipley and Miss Christ, and a male quartet by Richard Kilgour, Lee Shipley, Roy Clark and Lee Hickok, who responded to an encore.

Dr. H. Addis Lesson of Ann Arbor then gave an address that had an evangelical note sounding throughout. He based his remarks on the twelve spies, ten of whom recanted from duty, leaving only two to perform the task. He asked if anyone could name either of the ten. No one could. He said not one in a thousand could. Why, because they did nothing to immortalize their names. They were simply mentioned and there it ended. There was no value to sustain the name. The sad thing was the doers are usually in the minority. How much that applies to certain projects today, Christian or otherwise. And how much the church is depending on the Caleb and the Joshua. He encouraged us in our steady growth. Twenty-six have been added to our church this year with a good class in progress for Easter. And for a second time a balance in the treasury unparalleled in the history of the church. May God be praised.

FORMER NOVI PEOPLE CELEBRATE WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

A particularly charming and pleasing social event of Monday was the celebration of the fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Becker, 447 South Saginaw street. Mr. and Mrs. Becker were most and hosts to 50 guests at dinner at noon Monday and received 125 guests at a reception during the afternoon and evening. They were married in North Farmington, February 25th, 1875, where they lived for five years, going from there to Novi and coming to Pontiac to make their home 21 years ago. They have lived during that time at their present address.

Mr. and Mrs. Becker are very active and in the best of health. They have a family of three children; Frank, who lives at 476 West Huron street; Miss Lulu Becker, who teaches at Southwestern High school, Detroit, and Miss Clara Becker, who lives at home. They also have three grandchildren, Virginia, Margaret and John. Mrs. Becker wore her wedding hat Monday. It was made of pearl gray felt trimmed with a fringed silk scarf, a white rose and a white ostrich feather. She also wore her black satin gown a dainty corsage of Ophelia roses, maiden hair fern and yellow

HER PLAIN GOLD BAND WEDDING RING, WORN THIRTY-THREE YEARS AGO.

The house was gay with plants and flowers sent by friends and they received many gifts. The long table, where dinner was served was centered with a low mound of yellow daffodils and tulips tied with yellow tulle. Yellow candles were placed at either end of the table, in quaint crystal holders that are very old and belonged to Mrs. Becker's mother. The dishes used were presented to Mrs. Becker's mother and father on their twentieth wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Becker was Miss Florence Cooley before her marriage and was born at North Farmington 72 years ago. Mr. Becker was born 10 miles outside of Detroit on the Plymouth road 75 years ago and was living near Redford at the time of their marriage. An unusual feature of the celebration was the presence of guests who were also present at the wedding 50 years ago. They were Henry German of Northville, who was best man; Mrs. Belle Chamberlain and Mrs. Mary Noy, Detroit; Horace Becker of Bay City; George German and Miss Mina Cooley. Pontiac Press, February 26th.

AN ARBOR MAN KILLED BY AUTO IN DETROIT.

David Killins, 67 years old, 235 East Huron street, Ann Arbor, was instantly killed when he was struck by an automobile driven by Carl F. Baish, 2579 Cassper avenue, at Cass avenue and Lafayette boulevard. Killins was with his son, Glen, 40, of Ann Arbor, when the accident occurred. Killins was in Detroit on his way to Florida when he met his death.

Baish made a statement to the police after the accident and was released. Detroit Free Press.

Mr. Killins was a former resident of South Lyon and was well known to many people in this section. Two years ago he was instrumental in organizing a sand and gravel company in which a number of local people became stockholders.

GUY C. FILKINS Praised in Poetry.

Sunday's Detroit News contained the following happy reference to Guy C. Filkins under the caption "Majors and Minors."

Guy C. Filkins
The famous Micawber (of course you recall him).
His first name, I'm certain, was Wilkins.)
Would lazily wait for good luck to befall him,
Which isn't the way with Guy Filkins.

He is slender, not tall, and surprisingly young.
(I'm speaking of Filkins, not Dickens.)
And his energy I am much pleased to have sung,
For my pulses it frequently quickens.

Oh, a bundle of pep it this musical weight,
On his lofty and musical perch,
A comforting, bland, indispensable sight
In the dignified Methodist church.
—R. J. McL.

W. R. C. NOTES.

Members, remember the regular meeting Wednesday, March 11th, is to be a celebration of our birthday and a hard-times party, so dress accordingly. Past presidents and officers will fill the chairs at this meeting. The committee hope for a large attendance. At our last meeting we added four new members to our roll.

The February committee gave a program in observance of Lincoln's and Washington's birthday and also entertained the Boy Scouts (22 in number) with their two masters. Comrade Meade presented the Boy Scouts with a flag which had been the G. A. R.'s for their Scout rooms. Comrade Goodall was not able to be present to our regret.

THREE FRIDAYS THE 13TH IN THE CURRENT YEAR.

Nineteen twenty-five is going to be a bad one on superstitious folks. In the first place there are three Fridays the 13th, the first one having been in February. Even Christmas will fall on Friday, making April 5 Palm Sunday. Lent began February 25th. As George Washington's birthday fell on Sunday, Monday, February 29th, was a holiday. Inauguration day for President Coolidge comes on Wednesday, March 4th. Both Memorial Day and Fourth of July fall on Saturday, and Labor Day is September 7th, the latest it can be. Thanksgiving comes on November 26th. South Lyon Herald.

Limburger Cheese

The unpleasant odor of Limburger cheese is due to specific fermentations induced during ripening. This cheese is made from sweet milk, the curd being formed into cakes about five inches square and two inches thick and not pressed. The main cause of the putrefactive fermentation is the extremely moist condition in which it is kept.
