MONDAY'S ELECTION RECEIVED BUT LITTLE ATTENTION.

There being but one ticket in the field at the annual township election, which took place on Monday but it is attention was paid to the matter of the electors of the village and township. Only 84 voters residing in precinct No. 1 took the trouble to go to the polls and but 35 in precinct No. 2 turned out to cast their votes. There were but few "Split" tickets in the first precinct and none in the second. All the republican candidates were elected, of course.

The following officers will guide the affairs of Northville township for the ensuing year:

Supervisor—William H. Yerkes.
Clerk—Ernest E. Miller.
Treasurer—John Litsenberger.
Highway—Commissioner—Joseph Montgomery.

Overseer of Highways—Mark R. Seely.

Justice of the Peace—Carl R. Ely.
Member of Board of Review—Barton A. Wheeler.

Constables—Horace Green, Frank N. Perry, Perry Austin, George Whipple.

About the usual business was transacted at the annual township meeting held at the library building at 2:00. The sum of $2500 was voted for road repair fund; $400 for highway purposes and $400 for the poor fund.

The township board recommended the raising of $3,500 for the contingent fund and from that amount it is proposed to procure a fire proof safe in which to keep the township records. The recommendations of the board were all adopted and a fine spirit of co-operation was manifested throughout the meeting.

The Wayne county Red Cross had asked that the sum of $1,000 be appropriated for Northville's share for the community nurse this year, but there was a great deal of opposition to the request. No one especially opposed the idea of having the nurse, but many were not in favor of paying more than was paid last year—$840. It was finally voted to raise $850. This amount with the balance remaining in the fund will make $855 for the year.

The members of the township board expressed their appreciation of the manner in which the people of the township have co-operated with them in the management of the township's affairs. Township Clerk Ernest Miller presided at the meeting and he explained fully all the propositions submitted by the board, with the result that people knew just what they were voting for and for what purpose the funds asked for would be expended. The members of the township board are to be commended for the manner in which the business entrusted to their care is being handled.

NORTHVILLE TO WAGE WAR ON RATS.

Keeping step with other towns and cities of the state Northville will wage a war on rats this spring, the battle to be preceded the regular clean up campaign. The village council, acting in conjunction with Dr. Schuyler, village health officer, has arranged with F. M. Place to conduct the campaign. Mr. Place recently closed a similar campaign in Ann Arbor when 33,000 rats were killed, and still another one in Grand Rapids when 300,000 rats were destroyed. Mr. Place will bring with him a force of men skilled in the work of killing rats and they will direct the work in the down town section. They will also instruct the citizens of the village in the proper methods of killing rats in an effort to drive them from all the homes of the town. Barium carbonate will be the poison used and this will be distributed free to all whose homes or business places are infested with rats and will be sold at a moderate price to any one living in the country who may be troubled with these pests. Further announcement will be made next week.

J. W. LAY DIED MONDAY AFTER-NOON.

Northville people were greatly shocked on Monday afternoon when the news of the death of J. W. Lay became current about the village. He had been ill but a short time, having suffered a relapse from the attack of pneumonia and but few of his friends or acquaintances knew of his illness. He leaves to mourn his passing his wife and daughter, who have the sympathy of many Northville friends. Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon and were in charge of the Foresters of America of which organization Mr. Lay was an enthusiastic and faithful member.

A suitable obituary notice will appear next week.

ECHOES FROM NORTHVILLE'S BAD FIRE.

Mrs. Ida Ware, who was forced to move the equipment and stock of her restaurant out very hurriedly, moved back to the old location on Friday and is again demonstrating that the Ware restaurant is a "good place to eat."

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Thompson spent a few days with his sister in Detroit. Mr. Thompson expects to rebuild his theatre, but it will take some time to get matters in shape so he can announce definitely just what he can do. He will begin to clear away the debris soon. In lack of the scenes, a new organ had been placed a few days before the fire which Mr. Thompson had planned to install on May 1st.

Mrs. Ford had but $4,000 insurance in all, not $5,000 as she thought last week. She has not fully decided just what she will do.

Northville people greatly miss the entertainment given four nights a week at the Alhambra theatre. Let us hope that this loss to the community may soon be remedied.

The Lady Macabees suffered a pretty heavy loss, their equipment, robes, dishes and piano having been destroyed.

Fortunately the W. R. C. will be able to save a goodly portion of their silverware and some of their table linen that had been loaned was not in the hall at the time of the fire.

Northville's need for a community building was never so great as it is right now. With the Foresters' hall destroyed we have no place for public functions except the library building and the school house.

The intense heat of the fire broke the plate glass in the front of the store occupied by the Northville Drug company across the street from the Ford block. The paint on the front was also blistered.

Floyd Shafer is nicely located in the basement of the Huff block with his electric shop where he will be pleased to meet his old customers and friends.

F. E. Hills has associated himself with R. H. Baker in the real estate business and they are located in the old Exchange Hotel building.

The total amount of the loss sustained by the fire will never be known because it cannot be ascertained. Then there was the loss of personal effects upon which no value can be placed. Many things were destroyed that were priceless to those who had possessed and cherished them for years.

Now that the excitement caused by the big fire has subsided and men are again able to think clearly why not plan for the future? Our fire department should have a few good ladders and they should be long enough to reach to the roof of the highest building in the village. We should also have some more nozzles with which to equip as many lines of hose as conditions require. Then our firemen should be provided with waterproof coats to protect themselves when called out to fight a fire. They often must stay on the job until the fire is up and with their clothing very soaked with water the task is not a very pleasant one. They fight heroically for the whole town and go out into the country. Let's provide them with coats to protect themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cerie, Mr. and Mrs. Bedor and daughter and John Clark also had apartments in the Ford building and they did not save anything.

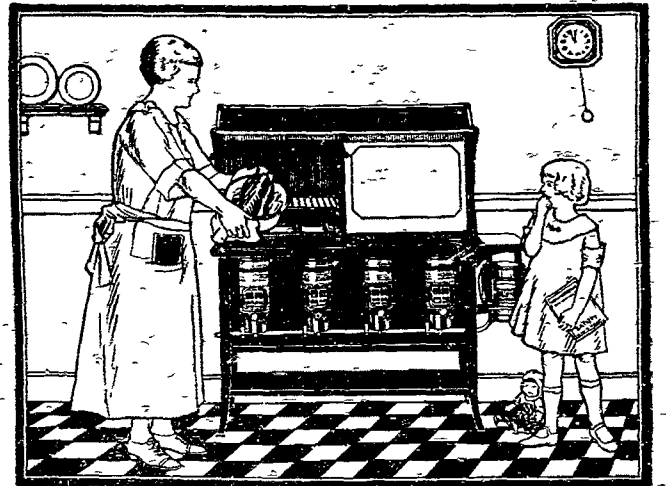

Mrs. Amelia Ford and daughter desire to express their thanks to the firemen, the citizens, and all who worked so heroically to save their building from destruction especially do they want to thank the kind friends who have offered sympathy and assistance.

The members of the Northville fire department desire to express their thanks to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cowell and Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Gillispie for their thoughtfulness in supplying them with refreshments during the progress of the fire, and they are especially grateful to the members of the Plymouth, Redford, Walled Lake and Farmington departments for the assistance they rendered. Should occasion ever require their assistance the Northville department will gladly respond to any call for help from these neighboring communities.

BE CAREFUL ABOUT GRASS FIRES.

The local fire department was called out twice Monday to fight grass fires. The first call came from the Holmes farm on the Base Line road and the second from the Griswold farm just outside the village. Grass and leaves are very dry and people should be very careful about starting fires about their premises.

DETROIT EDISON ERECTING GREAT PLANT AT BELLEVILLE.

The sixth link in the Detroit Edison company's chain of electric generating plants on the Huron river is nearing completion at Belleville, Wayne county. The new station, which will cost about $750,000, will add 3,200 horsepower to the power reserve at the disposal of eastern Michigan's light and power users. Construction progress now indicates the plant will be in operation about the first of May.

Two generators, one of 1,200 and one of 2,400 kilowatt-amperes capacity, are being installed. They will generate electricity at 4,600 volts, which will be "stepped up" to 23,000 volts for transmission in the Detroit Edison company's system. The effective head at which they will operate will be about 32 feet, with an average stream flow of about 500 cubic feet per second. At this point on the river, the effective drainage area is estimated at 825 square miles.

The dam will create a 1,500-acre lake, extending about six miles up stream. Preparations for flooding this area included raising roads and rebuilding bridges at a cost of between $125,000 and $150,000.

Ample insurance against floods is afforded by two unique electrically-controlled gates, each 32-feet wide which can be lowered 12 feet. Although the gates weigh 100,000 pounds each, they are easily controlled by the station attendant.

The plant was designed and construction supervised by Gardner S. Williams, consulting engineer, Ann Arbor.

Diameter of Sun and Moon

The sun is immensely larger than either earth or moon. Its diameter is more than 100 times that of the earth and its volume more than a million times as great. Its mass is 332,500 times that of the earth. The moon has a diameter of 2,163 miles, about a quarter that of the earth. Its volume is about one forty-ninth that of the earth.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

Owosso—The Consumers' Power Co. is rebuilding its entire system here, in anticipation of the city becoming one of 20,000 population within a few years.

Grand Rapids—Vernon Nederveld, 9-year-old son of Gerrit Nederveld, was injured today when he fell from a hay mow through to a cement floor, at the farm of Peter Dewys, in Walker township.

Jackson—Fire, starting in the town hall at Grass Lake, destroyed the structure and endangered the business district of the town. The loss to the building is estimated at $5,000, covered by insurance.

Detroit—Steamer Eastern States, of the Detroit & Cleveland Navigation company has sailed for Cleveland on the opening voyage of the season. Over 250 passengers boarded the steamer for the pending voyage.

Day City—Though it voted to instruct the superintendent of schools to give preference to single teachers, the City Board of Education has voted against banning married teachers for which there had been an agitation.

Ypsilanti—Joseph Sackman, former State Trooper and for some time stationed at Wayne, has joined the Ypsilanti police force as a traffic officer. Last year Sackman had but one motorcycle officer, but this season there will be two and possibly more.

Sault Ste. Marie—Water has been let into the American and Canadian locks at this port in preparation for the coming of the first boats. There is no ice in St. Mary's river between the two locks. The ice in Mud and Hay Lakes is still about 15 inches thick but is soft.

Lansing—A total estimated income for the year of $18,000,000 from the income and weight tax laws was the figure arrived at by the department of state following the issuance of its quarterly report. When the highest income plan was adopted by the legislature estimates ran as high as $200,000,000 or $240,000,000.

Ann Arbor—The University of Michigan during the preceding year cut down on maintenance of its buildings away below the point of good business. Still, it has a deficit of $200,000. All this is due to lack of sufficient money, and that was caused by an arbitrary limitation on its revenue from the mill tax.

Muskegon—Circuit Judge John Underberg has issued a permanent injunction restraining the city from paying Justices Robert E. Gile and J. E. Tupper $400 a month increase in salary. The suit was brought by John Bennick, a taxpayer, on the grounds that the salaries had been increased during their term of office.

Calumet—They lived together and were buried together. Such sentences the lives of two old cronies, mill employees for the same company, for 30 years. Frank Victor, 57 years old, died March and his companion Adolph Ericson, 63 years old, died late the same day. Each succumbed to pneumonia following an attack of influenza.

Lansing—Judge William F. Stearns of Municipal Court notified the city council that he is not satisfied with the salary fixed in the 1925 budget. It remains the same as when he was elected $22,000. The council refused an increase of $600 when it declined to raise the salaries of any judicial officials. As a result Judge Stearns may resign.

Bay City—The Detroit & Mackinac railroad has not given any thought to the subject of discontinuing any of its passenger train service, said John McCray, of East Tawas, assistant to the general manager, in explaining why the company had asked the Michigan public utilities commission for permission to operate a bus line between this city and Alpena.

Bad Axe—Joseph Schwann, in accepting the office of city treasurer, said that he would be willing to accept a lower salary than the office was providing the difference was turned over to the firemen for a fire hall fund. The amount, $600, was placed in the hands of the city council by the firemen. An amount equal to the sum presented by the fire department will be added yearly to the fund to erect a new fire hall.

Lansing—Upon the request of Mrs. John J. Cox, of Ann Arbor, chairman of the conservation committee of the Michigan Federation of Women's Clubs, for an extension of privileges to the Boy Scouts of Michigan, the state conservation commission offered the state's game and forest reserves as free grounds for the establishment of summer camps for the scouts. Mrs. Cox appearing for the Federation, asked that the scouts be given the privilege of studying the state's program of reforestation at first hand.

VET REPAYS HIS DEBT TO CANINE

Saved by Animal in Argonne, Returns Service.

Chicago—When Horace Love, torn by machine gun bullets, was waiting death in No Man's Land, a dog saved his life. Recently he saved that dog. Love now a student at Northwestern university, was wounded severely while fighting in the Argonne, when the dog, Bolivar, then working for the German Red Cross, found him, went back to surgeons and took him to the stricken man. Later American forces captured the position, and when Love returned to this country he brought Bolivar with him. About a month ago Love, with another student, lost Bolivar while exploring the desolate regions of Skokie valley. For days they searched in vain.

Meanwhile reports were brought in by motorists that a "wolf" had been seen running across the back land.

Love still at his quest, was stopped by a policeman because his car lacked a license tag. At a suburban police station he explained his search.

"Why, we've got a dog like that," the sergeant said. "Caught him—look half a dozen of us—after he had scared folks on the roads. He looks half-starved; he's scheduled to be shot this morning."

"You'll have to shoot me first," Love said. Bolivar was brought in. He was a skeleton. But he begged the policeman to be bound and almost fainted his master with his piteous assault.

There will be no "execution."

Unemployed Poles Are Protected by State

Through a law which came into effect recently, manual workers in the Polish republic are insured against unemployment. Non-manual workers and persons in seasonal occupations who work less than ten months in the year are not covered by the new law. Agricultural laborers and others working for concerns employing fewer than six persons also fall to be protected.

Of the 2 percent of the wages of the workers collected by the state for the insurance fund, the workers pay one-quarter and the employers three-quarters. A worker with no dependents draws 50 percent of his usual wages; a family of two, 40 percent; of three and 30 percent; of four and 20 percent. To be eligible for unemployment benefits a worker must have been employed at least twenty weeks during the year immediately preceding his enforced idleness, and he must notify the labor exchange within four weeks after his discharge.

Sweden Plans Material Reduction in Its Army

Stockholm—Drastic reductions in the personnel of the Swedish army have been proposed by the government in line with a general policy of economy.

It is regarded as probable that a bill reducing the army from six to four army corps will be introduced in parliament during the coming session. The navy, under present plans, will not be affected.

The government plan is to cut down the number of infantry regiments from 30 to 18, and artillery regiments from six to three. Training for the infantry would be decreased from 255 days to 140 each year, and for the artillery and other troops from 265 to 240.

The plan is based upon the theory that Sweden's military position is greatly better now than in 1914 and the fact that Sweden has no common frontier with Russia.

Belles of a Century Ago Notable for Small Feet

Berlin—A controversy about the relative size of the feet of modern woman and the belles of a century ago has been started by an exhibition here of the shoe styles of 1925. Many of the shoes of celebrated actresses and beauties of 160 and even 50 years ago are so small that the women of today refuse to believe they were really worn by normal persons. Few of the old-time slippers and shoes are larger than a modern No. 3, and many of them are shorter.

Scales 23,290-Foot Peak

Buenos Aires—Mount Aconcagua, the highest peak in the Andes, towering 23,290 feet above sea level, has been scaled by M. F. Ivan, an English railway engineer who had made two previous attempts to conquer the peak.

The summit of Aconcagua has been reached by only two other climbers.

Court Rules Teeth Not Part of Body

Potsdam, Germany—It's no crime here to knock a man's teeth out. A local court decided that there was no "bodily injury" involved when a piano player clipped a guest in a cabaret so hard that eight of his teeth came out. The court reasoned that the teeth—anatomically speaking—were not a part of the body. The learned judge opined that it was simple enough to buy some store teeth to replace the missing eight.

DOG QUARANTINE IN FIVE TOWNSHIPS.

Five Oakland townships are affected by the dog quarantine recently placed by the department of agriculture of the state of Michigan. These townships are Lyon, Novi, Farmington and Royal Oak. Sheriff Frank Schram who with his deputies are putting up signs in the townships, announced the quarantine here today. It will last until June 1st.

The conditions of the quarantine are that all dogs must either be vaccinated for rabies by a registered veterinarian, kept chained on the owner's premises, or must be muzzled; to protect other dogs. The finding of a dog which was infected with the germ of rabies is the cause given in the report from the department of agriculture for placing the quarantine. No dogs will be permitted to be taken from these townships by their owners.

The communications are signed by L. Whitney Watkins, commissioner of agriculture. H. W. Norton, director of the bureau of animal industry and B. J. Kilham, chief state veterinarian. —Pontiac Press.

Farmington and Novi townships being pretty close to Northville it will be prudent for all to exercise care with reference to dogs and stock.

LOCAL.

Ray Johnson who will be remembered by many Northville people as the left-handed pitcher for the old C. N. ball team years ago, has recently completed a residence at Los Angeles, Cal. which he sold to Mary Packford's mother. Mr. Johnson is a contractor and builder and old friends here will be glad to learn of his success.

The members of the Senior class of the Northville High school left last Saturday forenoon for Washington, D. C. accompanied by Superintendent and Mrs. A. J. Hulford and Miss Aleria Verkes. They arrived in Washington about noon on Sunday and remained in that city until Tuesday night. Wednesday was spent in New York City. Cards received by friends here indicate they are having a wonderful time. The merry party expects to reach home again Saturday.

EASTER

HUMANITY'S HAPPIEST DAY

Nothing in our existence is more needed than this day which brings anew the idea of a great and useful future life.

Just to be born and spend a few years on earth and then die is not a cheerful prospect. Humanity insists on more than that and continually cries out for life.

Some where—some how—some time—we must see the completion of the present limited existence—must know what possibilities we possess—must see those mansions—the many rooms in the Great Beyond.

Christ was the first to show the world that life does not end at the station called Death. He made it plain that life was continuous—was an expanding affair—reached great heights.

Nature publishes a yearly story of resurrection and that wonderful narrative is now in process of unfoldment.

PLANTING SHRUBBERY.

If these times when hours of labor have been reduced, people should have more time to make their places more attractive.

One of the easiest ways of beautifying a home is to plant shrubbery around it. Once you get a bed of shrubs well started, they need little attention.

A little spading, trimming and perhaps fertilizer, and these sturdy and independent little bushes take care of themselves and ask no favors from anyone. At their own appointed time, every shrub in a well selected arrangement will burst into a rich mass of bloom.

If correctly chosen, the bank of shrubbery should have some bloomers at every period in the season. It transforms a bare and cold looking dwelling into a cheerful center of radiance and beauty. Every home in this community should be adorned with pretty shrubs.

NEWS FROM THE STATE CAPITAL

Senate Approves State's Buying D. G. H. & M. Railway Property

Passing—By a unanimous vote, the Senate passed the Howard Resolution declaring the intent of the state to purchase the property of the Detroit, Grand Haven and Milwaukee Railroad. The vote was taken after the bill had been reported out of the Committee on Rules and Resolutions with a recommendation it be passed. The vote which brought the resolution out of committee with recommendation of passage was unanimous, although it is understood that Senator George G. Hunter of St. Johns, chairman, was opposed to the recommendation, as was one other member. Finding themselves outnumbered, they agreed to make the vote unanimous.

Split On Rapid Transit Bill

After lengthy discussion, members of the Wayne delegation in the house and spokesmen for the Detroit rapid transit commission were still disagreed as to what financial limitations should be incorporated in the new enabling act that has been drafted at the governor's suggestion and which it is proposed to introduce in place of the bill that the governor had threatened to veto because of belief that it was unconstitutional. The legislators plan for financial restriction of the rapid transit commission roughly would provide for the raising of a $50,000,000 fund and the building of approximately 12 miles of railway.

Solons Indulge In Horseplay

The foggy atmosphere of April Fool's Day provided self-entertainment for 30 members of the Michigan state senate. Senator Harvey B. Penney of Saginaw and his antigas station bill were the objects of the sprightly remarks. While the boisterous capers were enacted into legislative history 30 members of the senate, seven newspaper correspondents and an unlimited number of senate employees looked dubiously at cigars passed through the chamber by Senator Walter Trustner, of Bessmer. The cigars faded miserably to explode.

Primary School Bill Passes

A new system of distributing the primary school fund was enacted by law, save for the Governor's signature, by the legislature. The Bon Carter-Turner measure, providing that 5 per cent of the fund be set aside for distribution to the poorer counties under the so-called Extra nassa plan, passed by the House by a vote of 83 to 6. It had previously passed the Senate. The change will permit the apportionment to the counties which need state aid in the most of about $750,000 a year, in addition to their regular quota of the fund.

Prohibition Enforcement Cut

That prohibition enforcement in Detroit and other parts of Michigan will be curtailed this year was indicated when the senate finance committee reported out an appropriation bill allowing only $150,000 for this branch of law enforcement. At the same time it was announced that the department of public safety is to be reorganized under the direction of state administrative board.

State Fair Number Approved

The appointment of John W. Smith, of Port Huron, as a member of the board of managers of the State Fair was confirmed by the Senate on presentation by Gov. Alex. J. Groesbeck. Several other appointments to minor boards, made by the Governor since the adjournment of the 1923 Legislature, were referred to the Committee on Executive Business.

Senate Passes Courts Bill

The Callender-Wood-Darrin County Court Bill, aimed to effect a reorganization of Justice Courts in counties of 100,000 or more inhabitants, and pointed particularly at Detroit, passed the Senate by a vote of 22 to 8. The measure is now in the House. The new bill changes the name of the court to the County Court, and makes it a state institution.

Finance Measure Amended

Senator Charles E. Greene, of Richmond, asked a reconsideration of the vote by which his bill to license and regulate finance corporations was passed by the Senate. The reconsideration was granted and Mr. Greene presented an amendment to the bill, specifically exempting real estate companies and private banks from the operation of its provisions. In this stage, the bill was repassed by a unanimous vote.

Governor Calls Conference

Gov. Alex. J. Groesbeck took a hand in the legislative appropriations tangle when he called a conference of the Senate Finance Committee, the House Ways and Means Committee, Lieut. Gov. George Welsh, Speaker Fred B. Wells and Henry Croft, Jr., director of the budget, in the offices of the State Administrative Board in the State Office Building. The immediate cause of the conference, it was reported, was the question of rebuilding the State Sanatorium at Howell.

Dodge Motors Sold to Banking
Syndicate—To Remain
Independent

Detroit—One of the biggest deals in the history of the automobile industry has been consummated here with the purchase of Dodge Brothers, Inc., by the Dillon, Read & Company, bankers, of New York City.

Formal announcement of the purchase has been made by A. C. Schwartz, representing the purchasers, and confirmation has come from John Ballantine, president of Dodge Brothers, Inc. Confirmation with any other company or companies is not contemplated, they state, and rumors to the contrary are without foundation. Back of the meager statement of the bankers that an agreement for purchase had been reached there is believed to have been a spirited contest for ownership indulged in between the successful bidders and the General Motors Corporation. This ended when the bankers outbid the motor company.

None of the interested parties would discuss the price to be paid for the property. The best information obtainable is that it is $105,000,000. According to New York reports the price is $147,000,000 cash.

Glorious Gospel of Easter Day

By Rev. Stephen Paulson
in Gift

And when the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had brought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint Him. Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified? He is risen, he is not here: Behold the place where they laid Him.—Mark 16:1-6.

The Sabbath came and went over the grave of its Lord. Silence reigned in Joseph's garden, broken only by the muffled sentinels who chattered and laughed by the sealed sepulcher. We do not know what the disciples did on the Sabbath day. Probably they spent the day in close retirement in some upper room. Their thoughts were nailed to that Cross on Calvary, and their spirits were under the heavy pall of that tragedy of Good Friday.

We can never understand the utter misery and desolation of those hours between Christ's death and His Resurrection. Our faith rests on the centuries; and when we read of the Crucifixion we have in mind the glory of Easter morning. But to the disciples, all their hopes had been shattered—all their plans frustrated—and all their love buried in Joseph's tomb. A resurrection did not enter into their thoughts at all, and therefore their testimony is the more valuable. True, they had heard Jesus say that He would rise again, but they had interpreted that in a sort of future and symbolic sense.

Before dawn the women mentioned in our text perhaps with some others, started for the sepulcher bearing their spices and ointments with which they expected to finish the embalming of the blessed body of their Lord. A resurrection had no place in their thoughts. They came to minister to the dead, not to greet the living. Their one great concern was: Who would help them to roll away the stone which sealed the tomb, and which was too great for their united strength? As they drew near they saw that the stone was rolled away, and so little did they think of a resurrection, that the open tomb brought them only perplexity and grief.

The Gospels were not written for the curious, but for the devout. They are most silent therefore, where myth and legend would be most glibly told. Here we are told nothing of the so-called Resurrection. Did He awake alone? Or was He attended by the hierarchy of heaven? We are told only what concerns mankind, viz., the sufficient manifestation of Jesus to His people of His Resurrection.

We can reconstruct something of the events of that first Easter morning from the Gospel accounts. First five women came and found the tomb empty. Mary Magdalene immediately runs back to the city and tells Peter and John about it. They rush out to the garden of Joseph, John, the younger man, taking the lead. The women have left Peter enters the tomb, and sees the linen clothes which had covered the body of Jesus, and there begins to dawn upon them something of the meaning of the words of Jesus: "On the third day I shall rise again."

Mary comes back and Peter and John have gone, and no one is there to explain what has taken place; so she stands by the sepulcher and pours out her distress in tears.

Now comes the first revelation of the risen Christ. "Mary," He says, in the well-known voice of love and tenderness, and in a moment all her sorrow is turned into joy. It is always so when the risen Christ comes into a life. The living Christ is the world's great joy-bringer. Without Him, our thoughts can only be thoughts of death. With Him we enter into the conception of the larger life, of which this is only the outer court.

Life! Death! They seem to be the very antipodes of thought. We have come to look upon them as mutually exclusive, but Jesus has taught us that out of life death is to arise.

The Resurrection of Jesus is the anchor of our Christian faith. We live in a day when men seek positive grounds of thought and action, and the enduring power of the Resurrection is not a sentiment but a fact. A sentiment has its day. Phases of mere feeling pass rapidly over the generations of men, like clouds over our heads, but the fact of the Risen Christ remains. In the strength of that certainty Paul went forth to his great missionary labors. In the strength of that, Peter went unafraid to his own crucifixion. In the strength of that, the soldiers of Christ in all ages have stood fast in the faith, quit themselves like men, and endured unto the end.

The Easter Gospel is the Gospel of all comfort. "If Christ be not risen then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain." So says St. Paul, and then comes his triumphal shout of certainty: "But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept." That is the Gospel of comfort which this world of sorrow and death needs so much. That is the glad and glorious Gospel of Easter Day. Today we seek, not a dead Christ, but a living one, and then, may it soon be our bliss to see the Risen Savior face to face, as did Mary on that very first Easter morning.

You might as well get $25 twice a year on the thousand as $20, it don't take any longer.

Buying By Sight

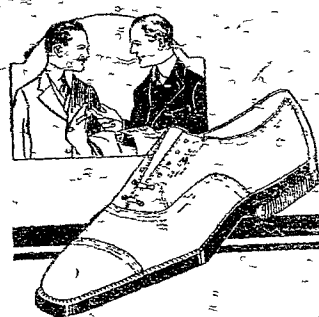

More people buy by sight than are induced to buy by argument. Good lighting sells goods. As a rule the storekeeper is not a competent judge of his lighting. He lacks the necessary special training in the first place. He is, besides, so accustomed to, and familiar with, his surroundings that he often fails to observe deficiencies which may be causing him steady loss of sales.

Careful tests have shown that a well lighted store should have an illumination of 10 foot-candles or more, according to the character of the goods.

It will pay you to have your light measured by foot-candle meter. We will do this for you without charge.

Heating Advice Saves Fuel

We believe we can help owners if they will give us a chance to talk with them about the regulation of their boilers. The important thing is the accurate and sensitive control of fire so that it does not "run away" or "smolder out."

Make the coal pile last longer by better firing and fire control. You may need more advice this year because of the necessity of burning less coal and a different kind of coal probably, than you have been accustomed to. Be prepared and have your plant "tuned up."

If you have an OLD house—let us submit an estimate to you for installing a modern labor and fuel saving Ideal American Heating Outfit in it. It is easy to heat old homes because they are usually well built and it is a quick and easy matter to install radiator heating.

Please do not hesitate to call us in. Our heating advice is free and you will be under no obligation whatever. We make our reputation on our work and OUR PRICES ARE REASONABLE.

NORTHVILLE'S SAFETY MEETING WAS A GREAT SUCCESS.

When Deputy Sheriff W. H. Safford stated that the Northville safety meeting would be one of the best and most successful of the campaign he evidently knew what he was talking about, because the gathering at the High school auditorium on Wednesday night was not only well attended, but a really wonderful program was given.

For more than three hours those who gathered were entertained and the entertainment provided was all high-class.

Through the kindness of the Ford Motor company a reel of educational films was shown and then followed a Ford safety film, and among the pictures was one of the Phoenix plant showing "our own girls" at work. These pictures were enjoyed by old and young and the closing feature of the program—a comedy film—was a real scream and held the crowd to the very last.

The musical part of the program included solo numbers by Little Eddie Baynes and Maurice Blomquist, of radi fame, the Friendship orchestra, Sam Comella and his string orchestra and a duet on saxophone and accordion piano, and every number given was a good one and received hearty applause.

At the beginning of the Eighteenth century Paris equaled London in population and no doubt surpassed it at some earlier periods. The footing which England gained in India gave London a fresh source of wealth through its rich commerce with the Orient; it was then that London forged permanently ahead of Paris in the number of inhabitants.

A WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITY FOR NORTHVILLE PEOPLE

To Hear Miss Eunice M. Perkins at the Baptist Church, May 4 to 15.

Miss Eunice M. Perkins of Detroit, will be in Northville May 4th to 15th, giving her series of Bible lectures on the Book of the Revelation, at the Baptist church. You will want to hear her. Miss Perkins is a wonderful Bible woman. She is a member of the council for the Hebrew Christian Mission at Detroit. She comes to Northville well recommended.

Here is her own statement as to this Book—"I am convinced that the Book of Revelation is God's most vital message for the church and the world in this time of transition; politically, economically, socially and religiously. It is a marvelous study." God's own word says—Rev. 1:3—"Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein."

Following are the names of some of the prominent Bible scholars, each of whom has written a commendatory letter or review of Miss Perkins' Comprehensive Chart Commentary on the Book of the Revelation: Rev. G. Campbell Morgan, D. D.; the late Rev. W. H. Griffith Thomas, D. D.; Dr. Howard A. Banks, associate editor of the S. S. Times; Rev. W. B. Riley, D. D.; Rev. Max Wertheimer, Ph. D.; Rev. James D. Jeffrey, D. D.; Rev. A. E. Merriam of the Christian and Missionary Alliance; Rev. Cassius E. Wakefield, D. D.; and many others.

Several churches and communities, where the lessons have been presented, have also given hearty expression of thankfulness for the clear opening up of this last magnificent message of the Sacred Scriptures.

Which lectures on the Book of the Revelation in hall or church. Miss Perkins uses a large copy chart 8 1/2 feet, consisting of only the diagram and headlines.

This is interdenominational. Everyone is welcome to attend and enjoy the study. Meetings start at 7:30 each evening.

The piece has proved to be a great laughing success, both in the course of most witty, delightful entertainment Mr. Hodge conveys across the footlights a moral lesson which has earned unstinted praise and congratulation from all the best elements of contemporary America.

ENJOYS THE OLD HOME PAPER.

The Record received the following very welcome letter from Rev. E. V. Belles of Keaton, Ohio, a few days ago:

The Northville Record April 1st reminds me that another year has rolled round since the time of leaving your fair city. The Record has been a very welcome weekly visitor again thru the past year, and of course, we could not do without it, so here is a check for $1.50 in payment for the ensuing year.

We are glad to keep in touch with old friends and acquaintances, and it seems to us that during the past year there has been recorded the passing on of an exceptionally large number from the scenes and activities of this life. But this only reminds us of those changes that are constantly going on, which are perhaps a trifle more noticeable to those who are looking on from a distance.

With all good wishes for you and yours, and kindly remembrance to any inquiring friends, I am,

Very truly yours,

EDWARD V. BELLES.

Easter Bunn

By Elsie Tash Sater

"Tis Easter Day, the lives
Are glad, and long
Let every heart be glad
But in 333's year away,
Heaven's who once was built and gay
My heart with hope is sad
What means the Easter dawn to me?
I asked in gray despondency,
My life is drenched and dead
The blues quivered as in pain,
The one you love will live again,
And ever live," they said.
Since Jesus lives, we cannot die,
For us he came on earth to buy
A life eternal there
Within a mansion safe, they too
Now live, the dearest ones we knew,
Secure from pain and care
"O, life, teach my heart to sing
This anthem of your risen King
That I may learn to live
Their fragrant censers looked at me
In love and whispered tenderly:
"Yourself more freely live"

Jerusalem,
Holy City of the Jews

EW cities in the world have had a history so varied and tragic as Jerusalem, the holy city of the Jews and the sacred city to which all Christian eyes are turned. So catastrophic have been the changes that have taken place that the modern traveler in Jerusalem can scarcely visualize the city as it existed in the time of Christ. So complete was the destruction of the old city that it has been only with the greatest difficulty that the sites mentioned in the life of Christ have been even approximately identified.

It was probably in the year 29 that the crucifixion occurred, and in 70 the city was completely destroyed by Vespasian and Titus. With the exception of several towers left as monuments to Titus, and a quarter of the city on high ground, Jerusalem was razed to the ground, and for a period of 60 years lay in ruins. It was not until 122 that the Emperor Hadrian built on the old site the new city of Aelia Capitolina as a home for veteran soldiers. Jews were rigorously excluded from Aelia, which became a typical Greek city, reflecting all the phases of Byzantine development. When the emperors became Christians the name of the city was changed back to Jerusalem, and Christian rather than Jewish memories were cherished.

In the seventh century the Saracens captured Jerusalem, holding it until 1099, when it was wrested from the Moslems by the Crusaders, who held it for a stormy and uncertain 90 years. The Crusaders were driven out by Saladin in 1187, and from that time until the capture of Jerusalem by the British in the great World War the city was under the rule of the Moslems. Saracen caliphs, Egyptian sultans and Ottoman Turks in turn were masters of the Holy City, but it was not until 1840 that the European powers officially recognized Moslem sovereignty in Jerusalem. Through the long centuries of misrule and oppression, Christian and Jew dreamed of the day when the crescent would be driven out of Palestine forever, a day that has only recently dawned.

Taken as a whole, the Jerusalem of today is a typical Saracen city. Its more conspicuous features date from the time of Saracen occupation, and even where Saracen builders used old material they gave the remodeled architecture their own peculiar stamp that makes it Moslem. The Temple area is Saracen; the old city walls are Saracen, although the foundations are Roman. The older churches and a number of substantial structures date from the occupation of the Crusaders. Of ancient Jerusalem there is little to be discovered and much less to be seen. Little remains as it was prior to the coming of the Saracens and the Crusaders. Only a few tombs and the substructure of the Temple are left to tell the story of the Jerusalem of Christ, of David and Solomon.
