A VERY PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING WAS CELEBRATED HERE.

The First Baptist church of this village was the scene of a very pretty May wedding last Saturday afternoon at three o'clock. The contracting parties were Miss Alma M. MacRae, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. K. MacRae, and Mr. William Meldrum of Detroit, who has a responsible position as a motor designer in that city. The bride has made her home in Flint for the past eight years, where she enjoys a large circle of friends and where she has held a lucrative and responsible position.

The church was most daintily and beautifully decorated with palms, smilax and branches from the tall Southern Gaylussacia, which were artistically woven among the lattice work on the back of the platform, giving the appearance of a beautiful garden with its scarlets and bright Spring flowers. Tall, stately basket bouquets of white peonies, lupines and roses graced either side of the approach to the altar upon which rested the snow white satin pillow where the bride and groom were to kneel during a portion of the ceremony.

The bride's gown was of white imported crepe chiffon and the skirt was fashioned of many petals of that material, and on the right shoulder was a large silver rose. From this rose a shower of knotted silver baby ribbon hung to the bottom of the petal. She wore silver slippers and hose. Her veil was of Grecian style and made up of silver rose petals and orange blossoms. She wore pearls, a gift from the groom, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses, valley lilies and forget-me-nots with a shower of silver and white baby ribbon.

Her honor maid, Miss Irene Firmin of Toledo, Ohio, wore a peach shade crepe de chine over satin and an ivory hat trimmed in peach satin. Miss Lillian Price of Sarnia, Ontario, Canada was bridesmaid and wore of child crepe de chine over satin and an ivory hat trimmed in orchid. Both carried Colonial bouquets of roses and lace.

The bride's mother wore a black and orange gown with tan hat trimmed in orange and wore a corsage of Ophelia roses and valley lilies. Little Miss Beona Mae White acted as flower girl and looked very sweet and dainty dressed in white, wearing a coronet of silver with spring flowers and carried a basket of roses.

Mr. James Meldrum, brother of the groom, assisted as groomsman, while Mr. Everett MacRae acted as the groomsman's attendant. Robert MacRae was usher.

Miss Anna Charlesworth of Flint played the wedding marches and the Misses Anna and Alice Charlesworth sang as duets, "I Love You Truly," and "At Dawning," preceding the ceremony, which was conducted by Rev. A. K. MacRae, father of the bride the ring ceremony being used.

About 50 friends from Flint and Detroit were present, also a cousin of the family, William Kidd of Buffalo.

A reception followed immediately after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents on Wing street. The dainty refreshments were served by Mesdames E. L. MacRae and C. B. Turnbull, assisted by the Misses Ruth Biey and Marguerite Warner. The color scheme being carried out in silver and white in the luncheon.

The happy couple will make their home in Detroit after a trip through the east.

REMEMBERS THE FIRST ISSUE OF THE RECORD.

In a letter to The Record in which he enclosed check for renewal of his subscription W. H. Hutton of Walled Lake writes: "We have had The Record in our house since the first copy was printed which, I well remember, though a very small boy. It was printed in a back room on the second floor of a wooden store building that stood where the store now owned by T. G. Richardson and occupied by the White store, at that time occupied by L. N. G. Randolph as a dry goods store. My father was among the first subscribers. The Record is a welcome visitor and we surely do enjoy the twenty-five years ago."

LET'S HAVE A TWILIGHT LEAGUE.

Now that the business places of the village are soon to close at 6:30 there is some agitation for the organization of a twilight play ground base ball league. It is hoped to form at least eight teams of ten players each and to have a series of games after supper.

If you are interested in the project talk it up and get your team in shape. Coach A. K. Miller of the High School will be glad to tell you all about it.

MRS. EMMA L. WILLIS DIED MONDAY.

Mrs. Emma Willis, who had been ill since last July, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Humphries, on Monday. Previous to making her home with Mrs. Humphries she was a resident of this village.

She was born in Canada in 1852 and came to Michigan at the age of twelve years. She was united in marriage to Clark L. Willis at Caro, Michigan, in 1875, moving to Northville in 1887 where the greater part of her life was spent. Four sons and two daughters survive her—Ernest and Frank Willis of Detroit, Ralph and Mark Willis and Mrs. Flora VanDyne and Mrs. Ruth Humphries of Northville. She was a kind and devoted mother and an obliging and considerate neighbor and friend. Funeral services were held at the Humphries home on Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock and were conducted by Mrs. L. H. Doty of Detroit. Burial took place at the North Farmington cemetery.

DETROIT MOTOR BUS CO. NOW SERVES NORTHVILLE.

The Detroit Motor Bus company has arranged to take over the business recently established by the Detroit, Northville and Milford Motor company and will continue the service. In another column of today's Record appears the new schedule and the rates of fare.

The Detroit Motor Bus company is one of the outstanding companies operating busses in America today and have made a wonderful success of their business. Messrs. C. R. Radcliff, assistant general manager, and Thomas B. Bedford, assistant to the president, were out to Northville the first of the week perfecting their plans to give the people of this section first class service to and from Detroit. They will put some handsome new six-wheel busses on this run and will connect with the city bus line, thus giving fast service in commodious and comfortable vehicles.

MAY FESTIVAL WILL ATTRACT MANY MUSIC LOVERS.

Ann Arbor's thirty-second annual May Festival which will take place in Hill auditorium, Ann Arbor, May 20th, 21st, 22nd and 23rd, is attracting an unusual amount of favorable comment from critics and music lovers far and wide and a large number of distinguished personages from various parts of the country have indicated their intention of being present. Representatives of music journals from New York and Chicago as well as many of the country's great newspapers will be on hand while officers of various music schools will gather for the purpose of not only hearing the concerts but gathering first-hand information as to the problems involved in planning and carrying out such an important event.

GAS COMPANY TO MAKE EXTENSIONS.

The Plymouth & Northville Gas Co. will commence work next week on extending the gas mains on a number of streets in the village, and when the work is completed, which will be in about six days, about everyboar in the village will be able to obtain gas service if they desire it—Plymouth Mail.

It is expected that the company will also make some extensions of their service in Northville this season. The new management of the company is evidently anxious to serve the public a fact that will be appreciated by those who now live off the main lines.

STORES TO CLOSE EARLY BEGINNING MONDAY NIGHT.

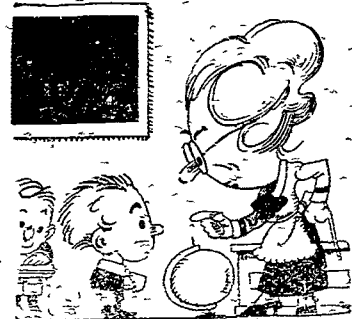

Beginning with next Monday night the stores of the village will close on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday nights at 6:30. On Wednesday and Saturday nights they will remain open as usual. Nearly all the business places have joined in the agreement to close for the purpose of permitting clerks and proprietors to have some evenings during the week for their own pleasure.

Stores in other towns have observed the early closing movement for some time and by adopting this plan Northville merchants are keeping step with their neighbors.

NORTHVILLE BOYS TO PLAY WITH SAGINAW.

Two Northville young men have joined the Saginaw base ball team and will "play ball" this season. Loyte German and Glen Hammond were with the Saginaw team at Evanston, Ind., training for the opening of the season.

KROGER STORES TO CLOSE EVERY WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON DURING THE SUMMER MONTHS.

Officials of the Kroger Grocery & Baking company have just announced that all of their stores will close on Wednesday afternoons during the months of June, July and August.

The decision to do this makes the Kroger company the first large grocer, (ham) to adopt such a measure.

Regarding this new policy a high executive of the company said:

"The most progressive mercantile enterprises are realizing more and more every day that the most important link in the proper functioning of any organization is the employee who meets the public. It is our belief that the most efficient ones are those who are satisfied and know that the firm employing them is interested in their personal welfare.

The very nature of our business is one of service to the public and therefore necessitates this measure—especially on Saturday. We believe that the public will in no way be inconvenienced by this Wednesday afternoon closing of our stores. We believe rather that they will benefit on other days and on Wednesday morning this business service and efficiency that cannot help but be rendered by men and women who have enjoyed a half-week half holiday."

This announcement of Wednesday afternoon closing comes close upon the heels of the establishment by the Kroger company of a protective and benefit plan comprising death benefit, sick benefit and old age pensions basing the amount to be paid upon the length of service. This plan has been put into effect at no cost to the employee.

The Wednesday half holiday as well as protective plan effects every one of the 240 Kroger stores located in Cincinnati, St. Louis, Detroit, Columbus, Dayton, Marion, Cleveland, Toledo, Indianapolis and 450 smaller towns.

EDISON MARSHALL'S LATEST STORY.

"Deep, far-carrying, like the roar of an ocean god the whistle of an inbound ship rolled in surging bursts out of the sea's mist." So opens Edison Marshall's new story—"The Sleeper of the Moonlit Ranges" on a note of mystery and suspense to which the whole novel is attuned. Out of the fog the ship brings to that lonely port in Bering Sea three strangers from the world outside and to Bred Bert, who watches it from the dock, it brings a long-awaited destiny.

Reared among his squaw mother's people, Bert has never heard the expression "When my ship come in," yet he has always felt that some day a ship's coming would change his life. For the white blood in his veins has cried for better things, through hatred of the white race seems to be the man's ruling passion. From the hour he sees Grace Crowell arrive with her lover, Paul Fieldmaster, his life is changed. In that same hour, Bert saves Grace from a hideous edath, and Paul, who has played a coward, hates the darkskinned man for his courage. Thus their fates are interlocked.

Upon this old triangle Edison Marshall has shaped a story of gripping force. It is the more effective because of the unusual scenes where it is laid—the Aleutian Islands which, on the map, spatter off the coast of Alaska like a Milky Way. The Fieldmaster party of three, guided by Bert in charge of the Indian packers, make their way toward Mt. Pavlov in the interior of a mission at once strange and dramatic.

NEWS FROM THE STATE CAPITAL

Governor Entertains Legislators With Harmony Dinner At Country Club

Lansing—Gov. Alex J. Groesbeck has reversed himself in the matter of entertaining as chief executive of the State. At each of his three inaugurations he cut out the customary festivities, simply taking the oath of office New Year's Day, then starting work for the two-year term. No inaugural balls or formal receptions. The reversal of his policy was when he had all the members of the Senate and House, and their wives and other women of their families, also many State officials and their wives and legislative clerks, altogether about 300, at a dinner at the Lansing Country Club.

It was a strictly informal affair; no dress suits or tuxedos. Just the ordinary everyday attire that the senators and representatives wore in their daily occupation for the past four months of passing or killing bills. The Governor made a three-minute talk, in the course of which he complimented the members of both houses for the harmony that provided and the constructive work done during the session.

State Tax Levy Increased

The state tax levy for the coming two years will be somewhere between sixteen and twenty millions annually. The levy last year was fourteen and a half million dollars.

From figures obtained from the senate finance committee, it appears that appropriation bills will total $50,000,000 for the next two years.

From the corporation tax and other revenue sources aside from the annual state tax going into the general fund, the state will receive nine and a half million dollars a year. It is conservatively estimated. This reduces the tax levy to $50,000,000 yearly.

Further reductions are expected when Governor Alex J. Groesbeck approves the veto to a million or so of the appropriations as it is reported that he will do. This and the possibility of the corporation tax and other fees going close to $12,500,000 mark, will place the state levy somewhere near $16,500,000 a year, it is believed by several of the committee members.

Condemnation Bill Passed

The Alwood condemnation bill, stripped of its most radical features by a half hour amendments was passed on general orders. The bill was based on a house judiciary committee report which attacked the usual condemnation practices but the governor vetoed it passed to expedite condemnation proceedings along Woodward avenue. There a wide highway from Pontiac to Detroit is being constructed. The committee was urged by word from the executive office to release the bill.

Henry Ford came into possession of a city directory of the cities of Pontiac and Flint printed in 1861 when he took the volume for a $20 bid at the Harry Hill auction sale west of Flint, Wednesday afternoon. The bid was sent by mail.

cities and contained names of all the early pioneers of both places, besides advertisements of early firms and stage coach lines.

Mr. Ford will place the directory in the collection which he is forming at the old Ford homestead at Detroit. Pontiac Press.

The House and Senate Friday adopted a conference committee report, granting the University of Michigan $1,800,000 for buildings and improvements in the next two years. The items specified were, $400,000 for an architectural building; $900,000 for a museum and $500,000 for land. The appropriation now goes to the governor for approval.

REBUILDING DAM AT FRENCH LANDING.

The work of rebuilding the earth-work adjoining the Detroit Edison dam, which went out two weeks ago, is being rapidly pushed and officials state that the entire job of rebuilding it will be completed in less than three months. Reconstruction will include the use of concrete and sheet piling in order to prevent a repetition of a break—Ypsilanti Record.

TRAGEDY AT WALLED LAKE.

After finding a bloody knife and a bowl of blood in his room, a search was started Wednesday morning for Theodore Marchetti, a farm hand living at the Glen-Buffmeyer farm at Walled Lake. The dead body, with throat cut, was found in the barn. Boze was blamed for the tragedy, as Marchetti is said to have been seen in an intoxicated condition at Walled Lake Tuesday night. He had apparently inflicted the wound while in his room and went to the barn unnoticed.

He was employed on the Buffmeyer farm last year and had just returned to begin work this season.

TIE UP YOUR DOGS

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors, at a recent session, adopted a resolution requiring all dogs be kept on leash or tied up on the owner's premises at all times during the year. The sheriff's office, together with the county prosecutor and various municipal police departments in the county have pledged their support of the resolution. A fine of not more than $100 or sixty days in jail or both, is attached to any violation of the new county ordinance. Farmington Enterprise.

If this is a good idea in Oakland county why will it not prove beneficial here in Wayne—only about a half-mile from the county line. There are a lot of dogs running about this community that ought to be taken care of before a serious situation results.

A NEW HIGHWAY PROPOSED.

The Detroit Free Press of Sunday stated that a 120-foot wide road, 150 miles long, extending from Toledo to Port Huron, passing near Detroit as in prospect, as result of a suggestion that the right of way owned by the Imperial Pipe Line Company of Toronto, be made to serve the interests of state travel.

The road as proposed would extend through Wayne county for a distance of about seven miles, passing between Belleville and Romulus west of Wayne, and out of the northern boundary of the county at Redford. It would cross Woodward avenue just south of Birmingham, and run thence to Port Huron. Wayne and Oakland counties have already approved the project and engineers of both counties have been instructed to require dedications of sufficient land in each subdivision opened, to carry the road.

SUNDAY WILL BE MOTHER'S DAY.

Next Sunday, May 10th, will be observed throughout this country as Mother's Day, so universally will the event be celebrated. Men and women, boys and girls, will give special thought and consideration to Mother. They will commune with her in memory if she has passed beyond and will give expressions of their love if she still remains to guide, to comfort and to bless.

We often overlook the excellent qualities of our own mothers because we have been accustomed to them from birth and accept their solicitude, care and attention as our due and as a matter of course.

There is no one like the mother. She is the one who brings us into the world—the one who guards and trains us from infancy to maturity—the one who gives of such love as no other human being may ever know.

No pedestal is too high and no consideration is too great for the mother of man.

For mother is mother, the most wonderful work of Him who creates all people and all things.

COUNCIL CONSIDERING STREET PAVING AND MUNICIPAL BUILDING.

There is a considerable sentiment with reference to paving the streets and also regarding a new city hall.

The village council will call a special meeting of citizens to go over these matters and get an expression from those who attend as to their wishes on these important items.

One thing is very certain—the cost of maintaining our unpaved streets is very large. The amount needed to keep these dirt roads in fair shape would pay interest on a large portion of the money needed to pave the major portion of our streets.

Any paving proposition would involve the payment by the property owner of his or her just share of the cost. This assessment would be spread over a term of years.

A municipal building is a needed improvement. It can be made to add to the attractiveness of the Switzerland of Wayne county.

Think this matter over and when the meeting is called be ready to give your reasons for or against these community matters.

CHAS. A. DOLPH, President.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES.

Mothers' Day.

This is what we call a special Sunday and an invitation is extended to all Methodist mothers of our church and congregation to be present with us. A Mother is a Mother Still. The Mothers' Day will be a day of prayer, as well as an opportunity to give to the pastor what he needs. A special offering will be taken for the occasion.

A welcome is extended to all at the church school at 12 noon.

In the evening is the anniversary of our Epworth League thirty-five years old.

A special program is the order of the evening service which will commence at 7:30. The program will consist of songs and anthems by the choir, a reading by Duane Dunbar, a song by the Epworth League young people, Our Anniversary by our president, Grace Triffin, and a twenty-five minute address by our district president, T. Oliver Huckle, of Eastland. Everybody turn out and help the young people in this rally. The offering will be devoted to the young people's treasury.

Now what shall we say about Monday the 11th. Commencing at 11:40 a. m. will be the Northern District convention of Ann Arbor, when ministers and delegates will come from Ann Arbor, Pontiac, Clarkston, Walled Lake, South Lyon, Franklin, Stockbridge, Munn, Whitmore Lake, Uadilla, Chelsea, Newburg, Grass Lake, Plymouth, Dixboro. This will be a workers' conference to which all our people are invited. Dinner will be served in the church parlors at 12:00 noon and the conference will be continued until 4:00 p. m. Dr. Wickham has kindly invited the conference to Eastlawn at 4:30 to inspect the Sanatorium and will serve refreshments before the delegates leave for home.

In the evening at 7:30 a great public meeting will be held for the community when Dr. McCombs of South America and Dr. Musser of India with Dr. Hugh Kennedy of Detroit will speak. Everybody is welcome to this meeting. The choir will be present and give us some special music.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES.

MOTHER'S DAY.

(By Bonnie J. MacClelland)

Every day that I am far away

I think of you

How every day your prayers have followed me

Faithful and true:

How tenderly you soothed our baby's griefs

How lovingly you shared our childhood joys

How ceaselessly you labored, bringing up

Your girls and boys

If wearing flowers could tell the debt I owe

Or if a loving tribute could repay

I'd have to put on all the flowers that grow

And wear them EVERY DAY!

All the Sunday services will be in harmony with Mother's Day—music, flowers, sermon. Come and help us do honor to whom honor belongs.

The Woman's Union will meet on Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors. Subject: "South America."

Mrs. John Christensen: "Spanish Speaking People in U. S." Mrs. F. A. Northrop

Mid-week services on Thursday evening.

The Westminster Guild will meet next Monday night with Miss Helen Backham at her home on the Base Line. Mrs. L. A. Babbitt assisting.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES.

The lectures on the book of Revelation are being well attended. Miss Perkins knows her subject and presents it in a forceful, quiet manner.

This book of mystery is being unfolded in a way that is within the reach of all who will take time to read it.

We are glad to report average attendance last Sunday.

Notwithstanding the stormy weather last Thursday the prayer meeting was well attended although not up to the average. This could hardly be expected under the circumstances.

The pastor's subject for next Sunday morning will be "Mother's Influence." Special music at both morning and evening services.

A special Mother's Day program will be given by the Sunday school of the Baptist church at 11 a. m. after a short sermon by the pastor.

Miss Perkins will speak Sunday evening.

ON THE WAY TO ETHIOPIA MANY THINGS HAPPEN

A man may run away to Ethiopia to avoid arrest or he may go for pleasure or business or he may live there.

One of the high officials of Queen Caudea had been to Jerusalem for a visit at the Jewish capital.

While visiting the leaders of that city he became interested in the Jewish prophets and took some of the ancient scrolls with him on the trip home.

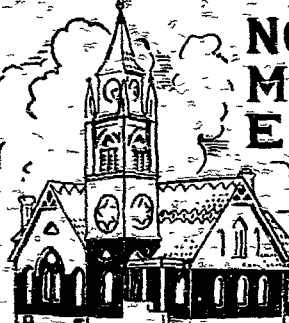

One of the leading men of the new Christian sect was providentially directed to join this long reader and be of such assistance as he could in the search for more light.

Philip and the Ethiopian had a famous visit and the time spent together has been recorded for the help of many sojourners in this old world of ours.

Small things set the mind wheels in motion. Unsuspected events flash the light upon paths we have not known. The Ethiopian is a good example of the fact that "The Entrance of Thy Word Giveth Light."

Catching Cash Customers

A show window, of course, is intended to attract the eye of people passing by and thus induce them, either then or later, to enter and buy. Not all who stop and look can be expected to come inside and buy, but it is clear that a store window stopping, say 50 people an hour will gather in more customers than a window stopping 25 people an hour.

Whether a show window will stop 50 or 25 people an hour—or perhaps none at all—is primarily a question of its lighting. In a recent test it was found that 200 persons an hour stopped by a window lighted to 18 foot-candles; 40 foot-candles, 244 were stopped; at 100 foot-candles, 284 were stopped.

Seven Michigan Names Added To Telephone Hall of Fame List

The Theodore N. Vail bronze medal has been awarded seven employees of the Michigan Bell Telephone company, who last year performed outstanding acts of public service beyond the line of duty required of them. They are, top, left to right—Nathan C. Strong, Hillsdale; and Yvonne E. Farman, Marine City. Center, James Walter Ryckman, and Frank W. Mikolajeska, Detroit. Bottom, Eulia M. Diem, Marine City; Maxine Turner, Carleton; and Elsie T. Peltier, Mt. Clemens.

VAIL MEDALS GIVEN TELEPHONE WORKERS

MICHIGAN BELL HONORS SEVEN
EMPLOYEES FOR OUTSTANDING
ACTS IN PUBLIC SERVICE

RISKED LIVES TO SAVE OTHERS

Seven employees of the Michigan Bell Telephone company, four women and three men, have been awarded the Theodore N. Vail bronze medal for 1924. It is announced by Franz C. Kuhn, president of the company. Letters of commendation for meritorious acts performed last year have been written eight others.

The awards were made for the performance of outstanding and unusual acts in the public service and in the application of practices and principles a knowledge of which was acquired in the line of duty. The medals are given as follows:

Eulia M. Diem, operator, Marine City.
Yvonne E. Farman, operator, Marine City.
Elsie A. Peltier, night operator, Mt. Clemens.
Maxine Turner, operator, Carleton.
Nathan C. Strong, plant man, Hillsdale.

Frank W. Mikolajeska, cable splicer, Detroit.
James W. Ryckman, plant man, Detroit.

The citations announced by the Committee of Award, Theodore N. Vail Medal, show that in each case the act meriting presentation of the medal, while performed in the line of duty, was not required by duty but was inspired by unselfish devotion to public service and humanity.

Eulia M. Diem and Yvonne E. Farman were working at their switchboard in the Marine City central office, early the morning of January 5, 1924, when fire started in an adjoining building. They notified the city officials and fire department and business people whose properties were threatened, and called nearby towns for assistance in fighting the blaze. Not until the central office was in flames, did the two brave young women leave their posts.

The suspicious actions of a bandit gang, attempting to gain entrance to a building across the street from the Mt. Clemens telephone office at four o'clock in the morning of May 6, 1924, attracted the attention of Elsie A. Peltier, night operator at Mt. Clemens. She called the authorities resulting in the frustration of the attempted burglary and the capture of all but one of the band of criminals.

Yvonne E. Farman, whose mother is the operating agent for the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. at Carleton, stayed at her switchboard during the dark hours of the morning of July 25, and by her calls to townspeople and to the fire departments of nearby communities for aid in a fire emergency saved the business section of Carleton from destruction.

Nathan C. Strong, of Hillsdale, in charge of service maintenance saved the life of a janitress, September 10. The woman's clothing had taken fire and Strong succeeded in putting out the flames. He was badly burned.

Frank W. Mikolajeska, of Detroit, saved the life of a drowning companion at White Lake, on August 3, 1924. The victim of the accident had gone down the second time before Mikolajeska could reach him. Artificial respiration, practice of which was learned in the telephone first aid course, restored consciousness.

James W. Ryckman, hearing cries of distress from the Clinton River, Mt. Clemens, the morning of July 4, rushed to the bank of the river, and seeing a woman's hair floating on the surface of the stream, plunged in and saved the life of the victim.

The eight letters of commendation, inspired by unusual performances in the line of duty but not sufficiently outstanding to call for the medal award, were written to the following: Lee O. Gallagher, lineman, Flint, for attempting to save the life of a fellow employee who was electrocuted when he touched a live wire.

Evelyn Giles, operator, of Fenton, prompt action in a fire emergency. Joseph Wagner, formerly a cable splicer's helper, Detroit, for saving a little girl from probable drowning in the Fox Creek canal.

Andrew Johnson, installation foreman, Detroit who, through the practice of artificial respiration, restored to consciousness a laborer employee of the Detroit City Gas Co., who had been overcome by gas in a trench.

Gordon L. Mast, lineman, Battle Creek, for an act similar to that performed by Mr. Johnson.

Mrs. Clara Armstrong, operating agent at Athens, for prompt and intelligent action in connection with an attempted burglary.

Sadie and Daisy Cairns, operators, Farmington, for prompt and intelligent action when the Farmington State Savings bank was held up.

The Theodore N. Vail medal award was established four years ago by Mrs. Vail to perpetuate among the quarter million employees of the Bell System, the high ideals and principles of service of the System's former head.

Heating Advice Saves Fuel

We believe we can help owners if they will give us a chance to talk with them about the regulation of their boilers. The important thing is the accurate and sensitive control of fire so that it does not "run away" or "smolder out."

Make the coal pile last longer by better firing and fire control. You may need more advice this year because of the necessity of burning less coal and a different kind of coal probably, than you have been accustomed to. Be prepared and have your plant "tuned up."

If you have an OLD house—let us submit an estimate to you for installing a modern labor and fuel saving Ideal American Heating Outfit in it. It is easy to heat old homes because they are usually well built and it is a quick and easy matter to install radiator heating.

Please do not hesitate to call us in. Our heating advice is free and you will be under no obligation whatever. We stake our reputation on our work and OUR PRICES ARE REASONABLE.

NORTHVILLE SCHOOL NOTES.

The Elson Art exhibition held under the auspices of the Northville High school was a tremendous success. Miss Watson had complete charge of the refreshments which reflected much credit on the Home economics department.

The annual material is about ready for the printer. The book this year will be better than ever before and it is hoped that the sale will be well received by both school and the public. The price is $1.25 and is well worth the money.

A REMEMBRANCE TO MOTHER.

In the garden of life there bloometh a rose,
As pure and as perfect as any that blows;
Like the perfume of flowers that are blooming in May,
Is the thought of our mother at close of the day.

Yes, mother's akin to the fragrance of bowers,
That shed sweet perfume in mossy grown bowers,
And the thorns of her life are her crosses of gold,
That beareth no sting when life's petals unfold.

A mother lies sleeping beneath the green sod,
As roses are blooming, as sweet flowers nod,
Her tenderness lingers through life's dreary hours,
And the lessons she taught are the sweetest of flowers.

So "Mother's Day" a message will bring,
Of blooming of flowers, of birds on the wing;
Let us wear a carnation, the emblem of love,
In remembrance of mother on earth or above.

PLANTING TREES ALONG COUNTY HIGHWAYS.

Arbor Day, last Friday, witnessed the beginning of extensive tree and shrub planting throughout the county in a program designed to beautify Wayne's roads and parks, according to Edward A. Hines, chairman of the Wayne county road commission. Our plans for this spring include the planting of 21,500 trees and shrubs with American elm and hard maples predominating, and Mr. Hines Saturday. We are following out a definite systematic plan which is being carried along as rapidly as funds become available. On this number we plan to plant 9,000 trees along county roads, 2,500 trees in the town parks and 10,000 shrubs in the town parks.

parkways, road-sides and parks. We believe that as time goes on the aesthetic value of trees will become a tremendous asset to the county, and all the soil is tested so that trees indigenous to the locality can be planted. In addition, all trees planted are given considerable care in the matter of watering them, while they are so situated at regular intervals particularly during the first two years, and Mr. Hines' Sycamores, Orientals, Plane and Birch trees, are also included in the planting program. CONFERENCE WEEK FOR W. A. C. ANNIVERSARY.

Commemorating significant dates in the history of the Michigan Agricultural College a special series of conferences has been called, or the state board of agriculture for the week of May 13th. The college was first opened for students 63 years ago on May 13th, the date is known as "Founders Day".

A number of important anniversary dates are included in the list to be recognized during the week. They will include the 7th anniversary of the passage of the act establishing the college, the 40th anniversary of the incorporation of a course in engineering, the 25th year of the home economics course, the 30th anniversary of the passage of the law establishing a state-wide system of Farmers Institutes and the 10th anniversary of the acceptance of the Smith-Lever Act by the state legislature, and the consequent inauguration of the present state-wide system of extension work in agriculture and home economics.

The special conferences called in recognition of the anniversaries and to plan programs for the future, include:

Conference on engineering education and the relation of the college to the industries of the state—May 13th and 14th.

Conference on the education of women and on the civic and social interests of farm women—May 13th and 14th.

Conference on extension work and continuing education—May 14th and 15th.

Conference on rural community organization—May 15th and 16th.

A special radio program planned for alumni and friends of the college may be located with our college number. We plan to plant 9,000 trees along county roads, 2,500 trees in the town parks and 10,000 shrubs in the town parks. An address by J. J. de K-von L. Butterfield and music by student organizations will feature the program.

The name of the college will also change officially on May 13th from Michigan Agricultural College to Michigan State College of agriculture and applied science.

A general invitation has been issued for all those interested in the subject matter of the conferences to gather at East Lansing for the meetings.

DETROIT MAY TAKE OVER SUBURBAN RAILWAYS.

The Detroit News of Wednesday contained the following which will be read with interest by people living out in the suburban districts now being served by the D. U. R. system.

Negotiations with the D. U. R. for taking over their service to such points as Halfway on Gratiot avenue, Dearborn on Michigan avenue, and Redford and possibly Farmington on Grand River avenue, will be recommended as a course of procedure for the D. S. R. by Ross Schram, general manager, in his report to the council on the road for new extensions.

Mr. Schram was asked to make such a report to the council May 4th at a luncheon with officials of Dearborn. He would want D. S. R. service extended to that city, Mr. Schram made public the department's plan for Gratiot and Grand River, as well as Michigan avenue.

The D. U. R. is favorably inclined to relinquishing its limited interurban service farther east than Dearborn on Michigan avenue. Mr. Schram said shortly before his death, Elliott G. Stevenson late president of the D. U. R., expressed a desire that the D. S. R. extend its Michigan avenue service to Dearborn. Mr. Schram said the D. U. R.'s franchise on Michigan avenue expires in two years, but with the opening of the new Oakman line running to the Ford plant in Springwells there will be little need for the continued operation of the interurbans farther east than Dearborn. Mr. Schram said.

"The D. U. R. service is being discontinued more and more this side of Dearborn. Farmington and Halfway," he said. "As soon as the D. S. R. can take over this metropolitan service, it should be done. There is also no reason why our bus feeders in the outlying sections should not be extended in answer to demands being made for such extensions."

"In our report to the council we will recommend this extension of the D. S. R. to follow negotiations with the D. U. R."

MUST DISPLAY LIGHTS ON ALL VEHICLES.

Farmers and all other citizens will be vitally interested in Senator Martin's bill which in its final form requires all vehicles on all public highways to display lights from one hour after sundown to one hour before sunrise. The old law applied only to trunk line highways and village streets but the Martin bill, as amended by the house applies to all highways. The penalty for violation was increased to a fine of $25 or thirty days in jail. Many members felt that it was going a step too far. The final vote was 55 to 23. 51 votes are required to pass a bill so this measure had but 4 votes to spare.

School Census 1917-1924

Percent Increase = 43% Net gain 188 Pupils

—Northville Public Schools—

To the Qualified Voters of Northville District No. 2, Fr.

(Published by authority of Board of Education).

Last week's issue of The Northville Record acquainted the reader in a general way with the needs of our school system. Based upon an intensive study of the situation two distinct recommendations were made as follows: First, the present school site was enlarged; second, a suitable site on the north side obtained at the earliest opportunity.

Before it is the intention of the Board of Education to get along with the building of at least one new building for at least one year. This will be made use of half day sessions and by the use of our school plant the increased attendance interests of the community will best be served by making adequate preparation now for the future. When the time has arrived for expansion we want to be ready so that our schools may be located with a minimum expense to the taxpayers.

A school system is expected to serve the educational interests of the community. Before an expansion is undertaken it is essential that those planning it should know what the probable educational needs of the community are at the time and what they may be in the future. In order to know how to plan for the future growth of the school it is necessary that present and past school census, enrollment and attendance be considered in order that the percentage of growth over a series of years be determined. It is the purpose of this article to give the reader the exact figures of the school census over a period of years. By school census is meant all children between the ages of five and nineteen who are residents of the district fifteen days prior to June first of each year.

By consulting the graph above you will note an increase of forty-three plus per cent from June 1st, 1917, to June 1st, 1924. The figures for 1925 will not be available before June 1st. This represents a net gain of one hundred eighty-eight children to the district. You will also note from the graph that the census remained more or less stationary during the years 1917 to 1921. Since that date the upward climb has been rather rapid, representing a numerical gain of one hundred fifty-eight pupils, or 33.8% up to June 1st, 1924. As the school census in the index for both population and school enrollment the reader will readily gain some idea of Northville's future.

Next week's issue will contain additional information that will be of interest to the citizens of this community.

WAYNE WINS TWO NEW SEATS AS SESSION ENDS:

Wayne county and Governor Groesbeck's administration were triumphant in one of the most interesting and bitterly contested conflicts which has been staged in the Michigan state legislature for many sessions, when the house passed, 57 to 33, the Wood bill which allows Wayne two additional senators and groups the rural counties into larger senatorial districts to make possible these additional Wayne county seats.

The relentless and uncompromising pressure brought to bear upon many up-state representatives caused them to change their original attitude and to support the bill. However, the battle was a merry one to the very last and when the final vote was cast, the friends of senatorial redistricting had but six votes to spare.

WAYNE COUNTY SCHOOL NOTES.County Seventh and Eighth Grade Examinations.

The Seventh and Eighth grade examinations for Wayne county this year will be held Thursday and Friday, May 14th and 15th, in the High school buildings at Belleville, Dearborn, Flat Rock, Northville, Plymouth Redford, Romulus, Wayne and Wyandotte, beginning at eight-thirty o'clock each day.

Pupils will be required to furnish pencils and legal cap paper, and should be instructed by each teacher how to fold the paper properly. When finished, writing the name and subject outside above the red line.

In addition to the High school where the examinations have been held in other years, that of Romulus is added this year. This will relieve the congestion at Wayne, and teachers of schools convenient to Romulus are requested to send applicants to that school for the examination this year.

The following is the program of the examination:

Friday, May 15th—Eighth Grade.

An average standing of seventy-five per cent and not less than sixty per cent in any subject is required.

OAKLAND COUNTY ODDFELLOWS HOLD CEREMONIAL.

Between 250 and 400 Oakland county Oddfellows and Rebekahs gathered here Saturday noon for the first annual banquet of the county association. Grand lodge officers of each lodge were present.

Plans were instituted for a new lodge August 15. Place of meeting was not determined Saturday but will be selected at a meeting of the public committee in Royal Oak the next two weeks.

During the afternoon, meetings of various committees held conferences in the headquarters of Oakland county lodge No. 82 at Orchard Lake avenue and south Saginaw street. At 6:30 the assembly convened in First Methodist church where the banquet was served in splendid style by the Methodist women.

A program of music and jollification followed, at which all of the state officers were heard in brief talks. A feature of the program was the work of the Windsor Centennial Lodge drill team. This splendidly drilled staff conferred the first degree upon a class of candidates using the church gymnasium as the scene for their exhibition. Another fine drill was offered by the team from Canon No. 3. Patriarchs Militant—Pontiac Press.

SALEM WOMAN SPEKS DAMAGES FROM JUDGE SAMPLE.

An Ann Arbor dispatch to Tuesday's Detroit Free Press stated that a declaration was filed on Monday accusing Judge George W. Sample, of the Washtenaw county circuit, of slandering the character of Mrs. Neta M. VanVorce of Salem township.

A month ago Mrs. VanVorce filed through her attorney, Oscar A. Ruppelle, of Detroit suit for $20,000 damages alleging that the judge had written, while VanVorce was an inmate in Jackson prison for violating the prohibition law, a letter which had, according to Mrs. VanVorce, damaged her reputation.

The defense maintains, however, that the declaration is of no effect, as the judge's attorneys Cavanaugh & Burke and Jacob N. Fahrner, entered a default in the case when the plaintiff failed to file the bill within 15 days after commencement of the suit. It is thought that the judge's lawyers will file a motion to strike the declaration from the record.

It was VanVorce and his wife, it is stated, who started an investigation in Jackson prison 10 years ago, which resulted in the resignation of the prison chaplain and several others of the prison staff. At that time, while VanVorce was serving another sentence of writing letters to his wife.

ence there, he accused the chaplain
