NORTHVILLE, MICH., FRIDAY, AUGUST 7, 1925.

$1.50 PER YEAR, IN ADVANCE

THIS morning our ATTENTION was drawn TO A young woman who WAS standing over in FRONT of White's DISPLAY window and she WAS gazing earnestly AT something and we FIGURED that Harold HAD put in another ONE of his splendid DISPLAYS and that she WAS being held there SPELLBOUND by the BEAUTIFUL things inside AND so we walked up A LITTLE closer to SEE what the show was AND just then we noticed HER pull her hat a LITTLE further over to ONE side and fix a SMALL curl that hung OVER her forehead—and WE tumbled then that SHE wasn't looking at THE merchandise in the WINDOW at all, but at HER own reflection in THE plate glass—Oh, VANITY, vanity!

GOOD CROWD ATTENDED ANNIVERSARY REUNION.

In spite of the threatening weather all through the forenoon hours a good sized crowd gathered at the fair grounds in this village last Saturday afternoon to join in the anniversary reunion, planned by the management of the fair in honor of Harry S. German, who enjoys the unusual distinction of having played base ball for 35 years in this section of Michigan, pitching his first game as a member of the Northville High school team when a student here 35 years ago this summer. Had Friday's storm been a few days later there would have been a much larger attendance for messages of regret were received from many people living at a distance expressing disappointment in not being able to be present. The rain, of course, flooded the grounds but in spite of that fact the program arranged was carried out in full. The right field of the ball diamond was under water and boys were employed to "dive" for some of the balls which were thrown or batted in the "deep." The track was worked and by the time the races were called was in a very good condition.

Milan and Milford ball teams played a seven-inning game with the victory for the furnace makers of Milan. Between games a short program took place at the home plate on the base ball diamond. E. E. Brown called the assemblage to order and in a few brief remarks stated the purpose of the gathering—the honoring of Harry S. German, the ball player and the citizen, who for many years has given freely of his time and talents to support and maintain an interest in our great national game in this community, and who has rendered loyal service in many civic enterprises. Stephen W. Ankenbrandt, secretary of Mayor John W. Smith of Detroit and an old friend of Mr. German, when they were residents of Carleton, was first introduced and he expressed his appreciation for having been invited to participate in the festivities of the day and spoke in complimentary terms of Mr. German as a ball player and a citizen. S. S. Cronin of Pontiac was next introduced and he stated he was always glad to visit Northville and to meet its citizens and he also paid his respects to Mr. German, telling his hearers that twenty-five years ago this summer he was the manager of the Pontiac ball team and that his players had not been defeated until they met the boys from Carleton, who were being directed by Mr. German. On that eventful day so many years ago Pontiac was given a good trimming and Mr. Cronin declared he had never forgotten the occasion. He complimented the people of Northville for having conceived the idea of paying this tribute of respect and appreciation to one of its citizens and before he had concluded his very fitting remarks he presented Mr. German with a picture of the old Pontiac ball team—the old rivals of 25 years ago. When Mr. Cronin had concluded his remarks J. E. Ready of Detroit stepped from out of the crowd and presented Mr. German with a handsome floral horseshoe as an expression of the good will and appreciation from the old ball players of Carleton, Lane and Carleton. The floral piece was a beautiful creation and its presentation was a great surprise on "Harry" as everybody called him that day. The chairman called upon Mr. German and he responded by expressing his thanks for the kind remembrance and for the honors that were being shown him and assured his hearers that in the game to follow with Wyandotte he was going to do his best to win the honors of the contest, but win or lose he intended to continue to play the game as he had played all these years—honorably and in a manner that would meet the approval of all who enjoyed good clean sport for the sake of the sport itself.

As the Northville and Wyandotte teams gathered on the field all the ball players present—those from Milan, Milford, Wyandotte and Northville, were signaled to gather about the home plate when Dick Henderson, who was a member of the Pontiac team 25 years ago, and who is now a resident of Wayne, presented Mr. German with an arm bouquet of handsome gladiolas.

At the conclusion of this part of the program Umpire M. A. Brown gave command to "play ball" and the contest was on, though it proved an easy victory for Northville. The Wyandotte club was composed of young men who played a snappy game but they were not able to put their plays across in a winning manner. The final score was Northville 14 and Wyandotte 4.

GAS COMPANY EXTENDING MAINS IN NORTHVILLE.

The Northville & Plymouth Gas company has a crew of workmen in Northville this week laying mains on Rogers street, Eaton Drive in Orchard Heights and on Griswold road. It is the desire of the management of the company to supply all with gas who care for the service. Since early spring the company has added 176 new customers in Plymouth and it is hoped to add as many or more in Northville.

The company has recently added to its equipment a new compressor as an emergency measure. Two new 10,000 foot storage tanks have recently been added to care for Northville, making a total storage capacity of 25,000 feet for this section, thus assuring a good pressure and good service at all times.

Northville people who desire to be served with gas should make their wants known and if enough patrons can be secured new mains will be laid.

REMAINS OF MRS. SMITH BURIED AT CHAYERS.

Remains of Mrs. Nora Smith of Owosso were brought to the Chayer cemetery at Salem for burial Monday afternoon, July 27th. Mrs. Smith, who was 68 years of age, died very suddenly last Friday at her home in Owosso. Funeral services were held there Sunday. The deceased was the widow of the late Joseph Smith, who died about 17 years ago. They at one time lived on what is now the Elmer Jones farm, in East Lyon, residing there and in South Lyon for many years. South Lyon Herald.

NORTHVILLE YOUNG PEOPLE MARRIED AT ROYAL OAK.

Announcement was recently made of the marriage of Miss Bernice Henry to Cleon V. Dey at an informal dinner at the home of Mrs. Jos. Przybylowski, 7703 Dexter Blvd., Detroit. The couple, accompanied by Miss Myrtle Olson of Manistique and Averell Henry, brother of the bride, slipped quietly away on July 15th and were married by Rev. J. E. Webber at Royal Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. Dey are graduates of the local High school and their friends in this community will extend hearty congratulations.

WALLED LAKE DEPOT ROBBER GETS 1 YEARS.

Archie Hyatt, 28 years old of Chatham, Ont., pleaded guilty Friday morning to robbing the Grand Trunk depot at Walled Lake, July 17, and was sentenced to four to 15 years in the Michigan Reformatory at Ionia. Arnold June of Pontiac, who was accused with him, has been turned over to Lapeer county to answer to a charge of burglary at Romeo. Hyatt served a year in Ionia in 1924 for burglary in Detroit and was deported last February.

BELLE BARCHUS PLAYERS COMING NEXT WEEK.

The Belle Barchus Players who present under a big tent a good class of dramatics, will be in Northville next week opening Monday night. The tent will be pitched on the Square near the Park Hotel and the company will present entertainment each night that will be enjoyed by all. In towns where the company has appeared annually they are spoken of in highest terms.

MOVED TO NEW LOCATION.

Miss Clara Beard of the Northville Fashion Shop has moved from the Nixon residence on Main street to the Cattermole building on North Center street where she will be pleased to greet all her old customers and friends. The room has been made very attractive and with her new fall stock of millinery Miss Beard has a store she may well feel proud of.

As the program of three racing events was given on the track and a good sized crowd gathered in the grand stand to witness the sport Ernest Miller officiated as starter and he did exceedingly well exercising good judgment and was able to get the horses away without a great deal of delay.

The Northville band gave an enjoyable concert during the afternoon and also gave the usual Saturday night concert up town in the evening, furnishing music for those who cared to dance on the pavement.

Taken altogether the celebration was a very successful and enjoyable affair and it must have impressed Mr. German with the fact that Northville people appreciate his efforts in trying to maintain a good winning ball team here and conducting the games in an orderly and sportsmanship manner.

New Things for Old can easily become a pleasing reality. All it takes is a little spare time, a brush and a single application of

Sound Advice

About Buying An Electric Washer

In buying an Electric Washer, make sure to select the one that will save the most work—for, of course, the saving of work is the only reason why you want an electric washer at all. Investigate carefully the size of the washer, because size has an important bearing upon the time it will take for you to do your washing. See to it also that the washer you buy has a gas heater, because this feature eliminates the work of boiling the white clothes in the washboiler. And do not overlook the fact that, if a washer is to be easily kept clean, it must be simple in its construction, free from corners and corrugated requiring painstaking cleaning. In all of these respects you will find that the EASY possesses marked advantages. See it before you make your final choice of a washer.

Canada's Capital

Queen Victoria selected Ottawa as the capital of Canada. It had been founded in 1827 by a Colonel By, and named for him as Bytown. It changed its name to Ottawa in 1854, and about four years later the queen chose it as the site for the capital. The selection was ratified by parliament in 1859. King Edward VII. as prince of Wales, laid the cornerstone of the Dominion parliament buildings in 1860.

Racial Divisions

Dr. Ales Hrdlicka, curator of the division of physical anthropology, National museum, says that there are only three grand divisions of the human race, the population of the white, Indo-Germanic, Aryan and Semitic being 896,000,000; yellow-brown, including Mongolian or Turanian, Malay Polynesian, American Indian (?), 713,000,000; black race, including the negro and the Bantu, 132,000,000.

DESTROY LIQUOR TO SAVE STORAGE COSTS

State Rids Itself of Stock Accumulated in Raids.

The finest collection of liquor in the central part of the United States was destroyed recently at East Lansing. It was the accumulation of confiscated beverages taken by the State Police since the Michigan prohibition constitutional amendment went into effect and amounted to thousands of quarts of whiskeys, wines and other liquors. The work of breaking it up required several days and was supervised by Commissioner Alan G. Straight in person and by a representative of the attorney general's office.

This hoard of liquor was kept for a time in a basement downtown Lansing but for the past two years had been stored in a building at State Police headquarters where it was a source of considerable worry as well as some expense since it had to be guarded. Withdrawals from it were made for the use of hospitals and public institutions under proper inspection.

There had been no additions to the stock in a long time, as it has been the practice of the department to break up liquor as seized and condemned. Just how much of a task this is may be deduced from the fact that the routine work for June included the destruction of 21,223 quarts of whiskey, 93,439 quarts of beer, 895 quarts of wine, 393 quarts of gin, 14,460 quarts of mash and a considerable quantity of other liquor.

SAVE REPUTATIONS OF TWO YOUNGSTERS

That it is better not to make arrests when results can be obtained by other methods is a part of the courtesy policy of the Michigan State Police. Here is an instance.

Captain I. H. Marmon and two other members of the "free lance squad" which operates against disorderly roadhouses and gambling places came upon a parked car near a roadhouse in which were a young man and a young woman, both unconscious from liquor.

Because of their youth, Captain Marmon decided not to arrest them. The young woman was taken to a respectable hotel while the young man was taken to the home of his father, a well known banker. Next day both of the young people told their parents that it was the first time they had ever been under the influence of liquor and that they would not repeat the experience. They had been given a salutary lesson without being made the victims of scandal.

RUM SMUGGLERS USE TRAFFIC LIGHT CODE

State Police have discovered that the liquor smugglers along the Canadian border have copied the system of lights employed to direct traffic in city streets and made it a safeguard for their vessels. Red, green and yellow lights are shown on the boat, house or dock where the cargo is to be received at night.

A red light indicates that police are in the vicinity, a green light that the smuggling vessel may come to dock safely while a yellow light indicates that the smugglers had better stop on the Canadian side of the line for awhile.

Inasmuch as Detroit and St. Clair Rivers are in places less than a third of a mile wide the traffic system works to aid the smugglers in making quick dashes.

ARSONIST CONFESSES, DRAWS STIFF SENTENCE

Russell Boyer, pool room owner, confessed to firing his place to secure insurance after evidence had been obtained against him by Lieutenant Joseph Kearney and Trooper Aldrich of the Michigan State Police. He was sentenced to Ionia reformatory. It was three months after the fire, and after other officers had failed to solve it, that the troopers secured the evidence. Boyer also confessed firing two other buildings in the vicinity.

INSPECTOR SHOT AT

Inspector William Watkins of the Michigan State Police, was recently ambushed and fired upon at night near Mt. Clemens, several shots passing through his automobile. The men escaped in a fast car. Watkins has been active in prosecuting liquor and graft cases and has been threatened.

DUTY COMES FIRST

"OUR RESTRICTIONS ARE YOUR PROTECTION"

INDEPENDENCE

First—what is Independence?

Webster says that it is a state of being "not subject to the control of others" or "not dependent on others."

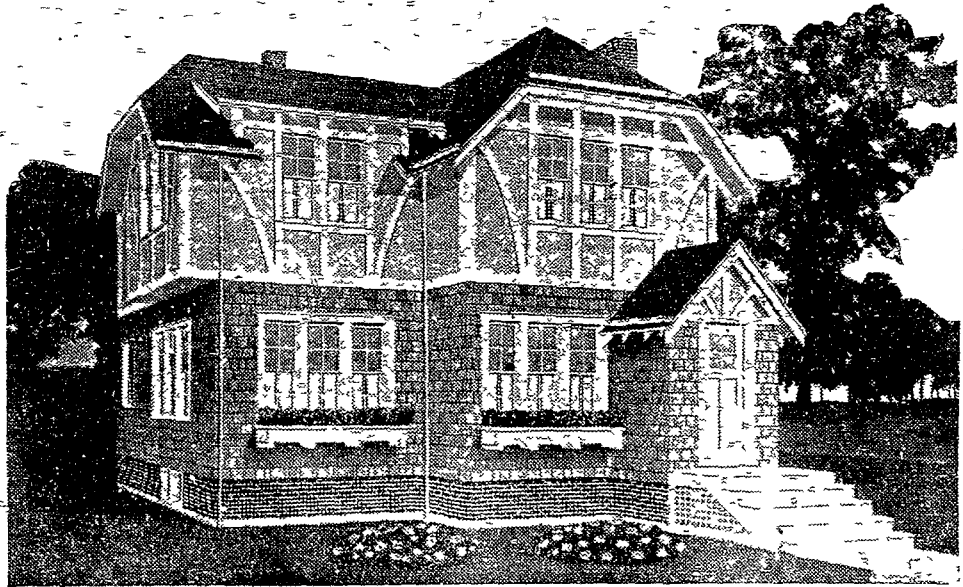

Every person of normal intelligence and ambition, sometime in their lifetime have hopes of being independent someday, but few realize their hopes. Statistics show us that less than ten people out of every hundred are independent at the age of sixty. The reason for this is that when people are young and could save they don't do it, and the result is when they are old and unable to save they are partly or wholly dependent upon others for means of support.

No Person in this world is entirely independent for the supply of their wants. Every person is dependent to hundreds of others for the Supply of their wants, but many people are independent for the Means of that supply.

The Independence which we mean is independence which makes a person independent of others for the means of their support.

There is only one way to reach that state of life, and that is by systematic saving. There are many ways to save systematically, but one sure way is to invest a few dollars a month in Good Real Estate.

VETERAN EDUCATOR BORN HERE
HONORED AT ANN ARBOR.

A picture of Prof. Fred M. Taylor of the economics department of the University of Michigan, was presented to the university Saturday night at the Michigan Union on the occasion of a banquet given in the professor's honor. The picture is an oil painting by H. M. Valerio, an artist living this summer in Ypsilanti. It was given by Prof. Taylor's associates in the department and by some scores of former students and instructors, now scattered throughout the country. The dinner was attended by associates and friends.

Prof. Taylor was born at Northville, Mich., and has identified with the cause of education in Michigan most of his life. Immediately following his education at Northwestern, Michigan, and John Hopkins, he went in 1879 as professor of history to Albion College. In 1892 he transferred to Ann Arbor as professor of political economy and finance, and has remained in that work ever since. As acting head of the department for many years, and teacher of the difficult but popular elementary courses on which all other economics courses are based, he is given credit for much of the success of the department and that of the men who have gone out from it.—Detroit News.

STOPS TO REPAIR MOTOR KILLED ON HIGHWAY.

Elmer Craig, 29 years old, of 356 Nagle Court, Grand Rapids, was instantly killed when he was struck by an automobile on the Grand River road near Novi at 12:30 a. m. Sunday. The police found an abandoned automobile with Michigan license 102-916 beside the road near the point where Craig was struck. An investigation is being made to determine the owner of the abandoned car.

Craig was driving to Detroit from Grand Rapids. He encountered motor trouble near Novi apparently, and had stopped beside the road to attempt to fix his motor. He was standing beside the car with the hood raised when struck.

According to the story told by Mrs. Craig, her husband had driven his car off the pavement while he fixed a tire. She was asleep in the rear of the car. She felt a shock which awakened her and thought that the car had been pushed off the road.

Shortly one of the men stepped up to her car and spoke to her, asking if she was hurt. She replied she was not and he hurried away, she said. When she awoke from her car she saw her husband lying face down on the pavement.

Craig was hurried to Farmington but he was thought to have been killed when the automobile struck him.

AT THE GARRICK.

"Abie's Irish Rose" seems likely to duplicate the success that has attended its presentation in other cities. Sunday night it will enter its fifteenth week at the Garrick theatre, Detroit. The business done by this attraction for the past fourteen weeks is nothing if not phenomenal, nearly capacity of the theatre at most all performances. Anne Nichols, author of "Abie's Irish Rose," claims that in writing the comedy she followed the line of least resistance. Feeling that the public was tired of bedroom farce, mystery dramas and sex-problem plays, she started out to write a humorous drama concerning everyday affairs, basing her play on the triple marriage of a young couple. The husband's father is an orthodox Hebrew and the young wife's father is an Irish Catholic. The couple are married by a Methodist minister, a rabbi and a priest, while their respective families wrangle. At last the rabbi and the priest succeed in breaking down the antagonism, bringing the warring fathers into a much-needed haven of peace. To tell the complications and more of the plot of "Miss Nichols' comedy would only lessen your enjoyment while witnessing this, the biggest laughing hit of recent things theatrical. Matinees are given at the Garrick each Wednesday and Saturday, and it is good judgment to place your order for seats well in advance. Tickets can be purchased two weeks in advance.

Dr. and Mrs. Leroy Childs sailed from New York Wednesday for Berlin, on board the Cunard R. M. S. "Beren-gara," the largest boat afloat.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES.

Dr. MacLean of Edinburgh, said while visiting the United States, "A man rises to the greatest height of which he is capable when he enters a church."

At 10:30 Sunday morning there will be another set of pictures shown. All who attended last Sunday were delighted and instructed. Come and see something new and have something better to think about.

A free will offering for the Missionary work of the church.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES.

The Sabbath school will meet at 12:00 noon. At the close of the session we will understand all about our picnic, when we want for it to be convenient for everyone to attend.

Our Spiritual Viewpoint.

Work is hard to a lazy man. The peace of Christ is poverty-proof. Worry is the devil's chief grave digger.

Hard work is easy work when you put your heart to it.

The man who says he can't be a Christian in his circumstances confesses that he doesn't want to be a Christian.

Every spiritual victory is a character asset for service expenditure.

NORTHVILLE EXPRESSES ITS APPRECIATION.

Northville business men are going to honor Harry S. German, a ball player, at a big celebration Saturday, August 1st. German is a pitcher and the records show he has been in the game with more or less success as an amateur and professional for thirty-five years. This is a decent thing to do and reflects credit on the good sportsmanship of both Mr. German and his home folks. Base ball in small towns is largely due to the efforts of a small group of players and fans and generally speaking their efforts are too little appreciated. That Northville is going to recognize this old time player is a good testimonial for the town.—Charlotte Republican.

HOW MUCH DO YOU
HINDER THE CHURCH?

Whether you belong to any church or not you are a help or a hindrance and the question is—Which?

Your life is shaped and molded by the church from infancy to the grave and you cannot escape this influence. The church is of divine origin.

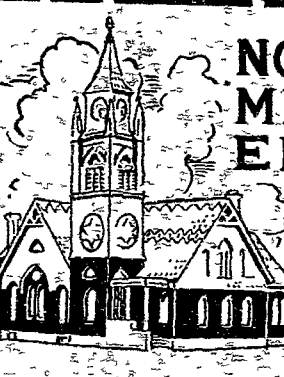

The foundation and the frame-work cannot be destroyed. The ornamental work which is of human material is frequently chipped off.

When you criticize the church just reflect that you are assailing your own short comings. You can see the faults of others which are most prominent in yourself.

Paul established many new churches and after a year or two revisited these folks and instructed them again as to good churchmanship.

ONE DOLLAR

Is what your old, worn electric iron is worth whenever you decide to bring it back and buy a new one.

Your old iron may have been too long in service; it may be so worn as to be beyond repair; it may be in such condition as to cause you loss of time, of satisfaction with its working, of even a little temper at times.

You need not stand that sort of thing; it is quite unnecessary. All you have to do is to bring back the old iron, pick out a new one which you don't have to pay for all at once and receive credit for one dollar on the first installment. Just that easy!

NEW FORD MILL EMPLOYS 6,600 MEN.

The new pressed steel plant of the Ford Motor company at River Rouge, with floor space of 378,000 square feet, now is in full production. In this building, which is one of seven large units occupied at the Rouge within the last year, the manufacture of a large proportion of all steel parts for Ford products is being concentrated. More than 1,000 presses, some of them capable of exerting 400 tons pressure and 500 or more machines of other types have been installed. Approximately 6,600 men work in the building.

The new building is located a mile west of the Fordson switch yards, which form the eastern boundary of the plant, and is across the River Rouge from the foundry and motors buildings. It is 1,206 feet long and 300 feet wide, of steel, concrete and brick construction. The height of the roof monitor ridges is 60 feet, although the building is of one-story construction throughout. This is significant of the unusual facilities for lighting and ventilating which are provided. There are three cranes in the building, the middle was being paralleled by two five-ton cranes while the outer ways are provided with a five-ton unit each.

Adjacent to the east wall are an electric substation, capacity 15,000 kilowatts, and an oil-cooling and pumping house through which quenching oil will be supplied. Nine large tanks near this structure will hold the fresh oil supply. Two railroad tracks enter the building at the north end and run nearly to the south under the middle crane way, the tracks being in depressed pits to facilitate loading and unloading of cars. All motors are motor operated and controllable from individual stations—Michigan Manufacturer.

MANY COUNTIES GIVEN VALUATION BOOST.

The state tax commission, at its session held in Lansing last week, recommended an increase of $353,163,000 in the valuation of the state for taxation purposes. A tentative value of $7,361,050,000 was submitted to the state board of equalization as compared with a present value filed last year of $7,007,917,000.

Nearly three-fourths of the proposed increase in value would fall on Wayne county. The present equalized valuation of Wayne is $3,165,333,000. The tax commission recommended it be advanced to $3,425,000,600. The percentage of the state tax to be borne by Wayne would jump nearly 1 1/2% from 45.13 to 46.52.

Seven other counties, Oakland, Washenav, Dickinson, Macomb, Ingham, Bangor and Ottawa, would suffer by the recommended valuation. They would be compelled to pay an increased percentage of the state tax, while virtually all the other out state counties would pay a smaller share than under the present apportionment.

Oakland county valuation has been placed third in the state—next to Wayne and Kent.

AMERICAN LEGION DRIVE GETTING UNDER MOTION.

The American Legion Endowment Fund drive has opened in Michigan with every indication of success according to Hon. Joseph B. Fordney, former member of congress, who is the state chairman of the drive, and John F. Roehl, state commander of the Legion. Oxford is the first town in this state to select a city chairman, and everything is moving fast in that little city in an effort to interest the Legionnaires and citizens generally in the American Legion's work of caring for the disabled veterans and orphans of those who "went West" overseas and in this country during the World War and since the Armistice.

Every man, woman and child in Michigan can contribute their mite to this fund and know that every year the interest from their contributions is helping some needy person to regain their respectable standing in the community.

Oakland county women, interested in the work of the home demonstration department of the county farm bureau, in their annual picnic at Stony Lake, O'ford, Tuesday, elected a county chairman and three district chairmen. ## IMPENDING TAX CUT ANNOUNCED

Mellon Aid Outlines Action
Advocated by the Treasury.

Washington.—The Treasury department is in favor of abolishing the entire federal inheritance tax and reducing the surtax on incomes to a maximum of 20 per cent.

It advocates a maximum normal and surtax combined of not more than 25 per cent. It is against a graduated income tax for corporations.

These views are set out by Garfield B. Winston, undersecretary of the treasury, in a letter to R. A. Crawford of Des Moines, president of the Iowa Tax club.

Many southern Democratic senators, including Fletcher of Florida, Tyson of Tennessee, Caraway and Robinson of Arkansas and Underwood of Alabama, are expected to join the Republicans in supporting repeal of the federal inheritance tax. It was stated here.

Numerous southern congressmen, including Poirer of North Carolina, ranking Democratic member of the rules committee of the house, and Byrnes of Tennessee, ranking minority member of the appropriations committee, are quoted as feeling sure that a tax not exceeding 20 per cent on income would finance the government.

The South, it is pointed out, has become a great industrial community, with a total property value of $75,000,000,000 or five times the entire wealth of the United States when Lincoln was inaugurated.

Rumor That Secretary Mellon Is to Retire

Washington.—According to gossip in this city, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon will retire from the cabinet next spring. By that time it is expected that a tax revision bill will have been passed embodying in large measure Mr. Mellon's ideas. It also is expected substantial progress will have been made toward the funding of the foreign debts and the Treasury department will be in excellent position with respect to the national debt.

In support of retirement rumors, it is pointed out that Mr. Mellon is now past seventy, that he has large business interests and that next spring will find him probably as favorable a time for his retirement as could be selected.

New York.—Secretary Mellon, spending the summer at Southampton, L. I., announced through his private secretary that there was no truth in the published report that he was contemplating resigning his post in the cabinet.

Nation May Acquire
New Warfare Weapon

Washington.—The Navy department has afforded facilities to Dr. Edwin R. Scott of San Francisco for carrying out experiments with an arrangement reported as promising a new method for warfare.

This device is akin in principle to the so-called "Furze" death ray. It was said, but no definite plans had been made permitting Doctor Scott the use of a battleship in his work.

The department also has the experimenting involved the use of ultra-violet rays.

Doctor Scott was quoted as saying: "It will set fire to any dry lumber holes through two miles or more of water distant and it is so deadly that all but the most sturdy could be sent in any desired direction for miles."

Grain Combine Goes
Out of Existence

Chicago.—The Grain Marketing company, formed a year ago to aid the farmer by co-operative selling of his grain, dissolved into the companies of which it had been formed. The combine had failed to produce $4,000,000 cash necessary to take up an option on the plants of the four marketing companies through which it had operated for the last year.

DEBT DISCUSSION
BROUGHT TO END

French and British Are Unable to Agree.

Paris.—The French debt-funding negotiations with London were broken off after four days of discussion.

The British asked the French government to make a temporary agreement for three or four years under which France would pay $5,000,000 ($25,000,000) annually until the French capacity to pay is known, but Joseph Caillaux flatly refused.

The breakdown in the negotiations certainly will have some effect on the funding negotiations in Washington which are based on the London agreement.

The negotiations with London may not be resumed until next year.

Sensational Raid on Leading Chicago Hotel

Chicago.—Frank Blair, Rodger, a clerk in the Drake hotel, was killed, two bandits were shot dead, a third was captured, two others escaped. $10,000 was seized, and a throng of onlookers were thrown into panic when a robber crew, armed and holding up the hotel, shot and killed Blair. The raid was described as the most sensational in the history of the city.

New Canadian Grain

The Northville Wayne County Fair is offering cash prizes this year for the growers who can secure the largest yields per acre of potatoes. PRODUCTION.

Michigan ranked fourth among the states last year both in the production of butter and evaporated milk, according to figures made public by Herbert C. Hooks, secretary of the Evaporated Milk association. Michigan was sixth in the production of cheese.

Total production of cheese in the United States was 417,340,000 pounds and of evaporated milk 1,153,755,000 pounds, said Mr. Hooks. Wisconsin was first in the production of cheese and evaporated milk, producing 288,214,000 pounds of cheese and 442,583,000 pounds of evaporated milk. Michigan produced 7,419,000 pounds of cheese and 85,642,000 pounds of evaporated milk, which means that the evaporated milk plants used approximately double that amount of milk since the evaporated product is merely fresh cow's milk with 60% of the water removed.

Minnesota was first in butter production with 229,985,000 pounds, while Michigan fourth from the top of the list produced 110,678,000 pounds.

Butter production last year in the United States included 690,000,000 pounds of farm butter, or enough to supply every man, woman and child in the country with over twelve pounds each. Enough cheese was produced to give over 37 pounds of cheese to every man, woman and child. Evaporated milk to distribute over 10 1/2 pounds to each person.

FARMERS' DAY BIG SUCCESS.

Although a heavy rain fell all day, the eighth annual Farmers' Day held at the Michigan State College on Friday, July 25, was a huge success. Eight thousand Michigan farmers and their families attended the program which was carried out as scheduled.

While the visitation to college experimental fields and plots was curtailed when the heavy downpour came, inspection of the new college buildings and their equipment furnished a way of keeping the campus visitors out of the rain, at the same time utilizing their time to advantage.

Woodland Methodist church choir won the first prize of $100 in the town and country church choir singing contest. Mason Baptist choir placed second winning the $60 prize. Tyndale Methodist won the third prize of $30 and Oleans Methodists the fourth prize of $20.

President Butterfield of the college made his first address before a summer farm gathering. He welcomed the many visitors and then briefly outlined the work the college experimental station is doing in the field of crop marketing and economics.

"A farm is worth just what it produces, but what is it worth as a home?" asked Samuel R. McKelvie, former governor of Nebraska, who spoke in the college gymnasium. In his work for the material things in life the farmer often overlooks the value of his home, which compared with city standards the former governor said is worth $200 a month. He pointed out three primary essentials of modern efficient farming, the maintaining of a money reserve, diversity in farming, and good marketing.

MILFORD PLANNING FOR BIG FAIR THIS YEAR.

Plans are now complete for the Oakland County fair to be held in Milford, August 12-15 inclusive, Pontiac Day is Friday, August 14, and a large number of citizens are expected to make the trip to Milford on that day.

There will be horse racing every day of the fair and every night there will be fire works. Exhibits of grain, produce, canning, bakery goods, needle work, automobiles and farm machinery will be in place and awards will be made in each class. The live stock exhibit, horses, cattle, hogs, sheep and poultry will be one of the features of the exhibition.

Articles for exhibit will be arranged the opening day, Wednesday, August 12th, entries closing that night. There will be three horse races Thursday afternoon, Friday afternoon there will be four, and Saturday-afternoon three.

Three ball games will be played, a Pontiac team playing Friday afternoon. The winner of this game will meet another team Saturday afternoon for the Championship of county. Three free outdoor acts will be staged each afternoon.

LIVED ON ONE FARM 57 YEARS.

For 57 years Albert O. Bowen has lived on the farm he now occupies one and a half miles west of Walled Lake. He and Mrs. Bowen were married there 51 years ago last March. For more than half a century they have been readers of the Daily Press, or its predecessors.

Mr. Bowen was born in Milford and was 51 years old last November. His father, Cromwell Bowen, was born in Vermont in 1798 and died in 1873 when he was 80 years old. The father helped Mr. Bowen buy the farm where he now lives. There were 48 acres at the first and Mr. Bowen lived on the farm six years alone, largely because he was unable to support a wife. After his marriage he bought more land and his farm today contains 88 acres.

The price paid for the original 48 acres was $66 an acre. Today it is worth $1,000 an acre. Mr. Bowen would sell the land but for Mrs. Bowen, who is an invalid. It is her desire to die in the house which has been her home for more than half a century and for no reason no amount of money would buy the farm. —Pontiac Press.

HENRY FORD CELEBRATED HIS 62ND BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY.

Henry Ford's 62nd birthday was celebrated today.

So, as he quietly celebrated the sixty-second anniversary of his coming into the world, he was disinclined to make any particular comment on business, success, how to stay young at 62, or other stock subjects.

"Never felt better in my life," he declared in answer to inquiry of the United Press. "I'm living in today tomorrow will take care of itself and yesterday is taken care of."

His birthday found Ford apparently as vigorous, healthy and ambitious as in the days of his youth and interested in the relatively unimportant things as well as in the important things in life.

Ford does not attribute his splendid physical condition to golf. While his son Edsel, is considered rather proficient as a golfer, Ford himself never has taken up the game. He keeps an trip by taking brisk walks in early morning, chopping wood, and doing farm chores.

"He never has put himself on a diet. He eats moderately but what and when he pleases. One of the favorite recreations of the multi-millionaire is dancing. His friends consider him a graceful dancer."

SHOE PEDDLERS HEADED THIS WAY.

Within the next few weeks Michigan is likely to be invaded by a small army of shoe peddlers who make a house-to-house canvass for what is claimed special bargains in both men's and women's shoes. In one community they solicit for ladies' slippers, while in others it is for a new style of men's oxfords. A special outdoor shoe for men is also one of their leaders. It will be well for you to scrutinize their wares very closely in case they should invade this community. Other places report a lot of dissatisfied people who were led into purchasing through their specious arguments. —Ev.

After the program there will be a ball game and other contests. —Pontiac Press.

Final Funeral Services.

Washington.—William Jennings Bryan came back to Washington, where final religious services were held, before he began his long rest in the Potomac hills amidst a great company of the nation's soldier dead.

When the funeral train which had borne him from Dayton, Tenn., where he died, reached the Union station it found a transient throng in waiting.

The bronze casket was taken from the station to an undertaker's parlors, but later it was removed to the New York Avenue Presbyterian church where the body lay in state until shortly before the funeral services.

Assent to this plan of the friends of the Commoner in Washington was given by Mrs. Bryan in a telegram she sent from the funeral train to Ben G. Davis, who is a confidential clerk to Mr. Bryan when he was secretary of state.

An hour before the scheduled arrival of the funeral party crowds began to gather in silent tribute at the station, as they had in every hamlet and city throughout the long route of the train through Tennessee and Virginia.

At the church here the bronze casket, the top of which was covered by an American flag, was placed upon a slightly raised platform in front of the pulpit where thousands passed to view his body.

The funeral services at the church were conducted by Rev. Dr. Joseph R. Sizoo, the pastor who returned here from his vacation in New York state.

It was estimated that 2,000 persons an hour passed the casket during the afternoon, but this number was greatly augmented when the government offices disgorged their thousands of employees after 4:30 o'clock.

Directly behind the bronze casket, on the far front, was the inscription: "In Remembrance of Me."

Down the right aisle the people passed. Up the left aisle they went out, some dabbling handkerchiefs to eyes, others slipping into their seats now and then to bow in prayer.

In front of the lectern and in the choir loft at the rear were the microphones through which the nation heard the eulogy and sermon of Rev. Dr. Joseph R. Sizoo, pastor of the church, the only one who spoke.

The doors of the church were swung open again at nine o'clock in the morning, and the body lay in state to the public from that hour until noon, when the doors closed again and the church made ready for the services, which began at three o'clock.

When the service was over, the body was placed in a hearse instead of a military caisson, and the procession started for Arlington. Mrs. Bryan objected to a full military funeral, and the use of a caisson would have necessitated a detail from Fort Myer. An escort of noncommissioned officers from the regular army accompanied the casket from the gate to the grave-side.

No volley was fired over the grave, but the service at the cemetery concluded with a soldier's farewell in the blowing of taps by an army bugler. Because of his leadership of a Nebraska volunteer regiment at the time of the Spanish-American war, the great Commoner was entitled to full regimental burial honors, but Mrs. Bryan would agree only to a semi-military service in the cemetery.

The active pillars were former Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels, Senator Duncan U. Fletcher of Florida, Col. P. H. Callahan of Louisville, Charles A. Lord of Lincoln, Neb.; M. E. Dunlap of Jacksonville, Ill., and State Senator Charles E. Hull of Salem, Ill.

Items taken from The Record files of 1899, for the week corresponding to this week.

Gus Oldenburg shot a blue crane one day this week which measured six feet from tip to tip of wings.

Roy Clark, Mace, Grace Lowden Ruth Gilis and Ida Clark attended the Wild West show at Pontiac, Monday.

Ed Shafer and Will Ely are over to Straits lake for a few days' outing and promise to bring back all kinds of fish.

Miss Ellen F. Thompson's class of girls (?) gave tea in her honor on the lawn at A. N. Randolph's Wednesday afternoon.

B. Cohen has moved his family here from Lake Odessa and has settled in the W. G. Yerkes house at the head of Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Johnson leave Saturday for an up-the-lakes trip of two weeks. They will visit Mackinac and other "cool" points.

Miss Susie Woolley Miss Emogene Williams, Angie Smith and Jessie Clark of this place are attending the teachers' institute at Wayne these days. The attendance so far has reached 85.

F. H. Purdy has bought the Fred Simmons' and the H. E. Cady peach orchards. Both contain some of the best early and late varieties of the fruit to be found in Michigan. This is an investment of a good many hundred dollars and is a matter of much enterprise on the part of that energetic young merchant. Purdy's shipment of peaches each season has a state reputation.

Wm. Phillips & Co recently received an order from Scotland, making at least three or four ironing machines sold in that far away country. Mr. Phillips' little business here of a few years ago has grown to proportions that dreamed of until today. He is one of the leading manufacturers of laundry machinery in this country, and unquestionably his machines have no rivals and but few equals.

While tied to a telephone pole on Center street Monday a horse belonging to Milton West of Novi, took it into his head to have a little circus all by himself. It broke the halter, backed into the road and galloped around the big maple tree on the Methodist parsonage lawn until the surley was wrecked and the harness broken in numerous places. An hour's work on the harness and surley made repairs sufficient to permit Mrs. West and daughter to drive home about six o'clock.

The opening of the Northville Driving and Bicycle club at Starkweather Park Saturday was not only a success, but it was a great big one at that. The initial matinee was all that could be wished for, and the 2,000 people who thronged the park gave repeated expressions of their unqualified approval of the manner in which every feature of the opening was carried out. The program consisted of horse racing, athletic sports ball games etc. The ball game between Northville and Detroit was won by the former. German and Curran were Northville's battery and Guthard and McDermont did a like act for Detroit.

JUDGE WEBSTER EXPLAINS WHY CHEVALIER WAS LIBERATED.

The editor of The Record wrote a letter to Judge Clyde I. Webster of the Wayne circuit court, before whom Daniel Chevalier made his appeal for a writ to secure his liberty from the sentence imposed upon him by Judge Patterson of Plymouth. The following is his reply to our letter, which we publish in justice to Judge Webster, so the people here may know just why, and how Northville's bootlegger was given his freedom.

Dear Sir:—Northville, Mich.

Dear Sir:—Yours of the 23rd inst. received. I am interested in the contents of your letter because it shows how easy it is for people to blame someone, for something which they do not know the facts.

I would certainly be glad to co-operate with you and the good people of Northville as I always have been. The trouble in this case was that my name was tied through to a legal sentence of your justice of the peace. Of course, I have to follow the statutes and the decisions of our Supreme Court. I went into this matter very carefully before I released him. I had Mr. John Brennan of the prosecutor's office file a return and a brief and the action that was finally taken was upon his advice. Mrs. Phoebe Patterson, the justice of the peace imposed an illegal sentence, that is a sentence that she had no right to impose under the statute. Mr. Brennan and I decided, however, that she could correct this and Mr. Brennan got her to correct it and to make a proper sentence under the statute, which he attached to his return. Chevalier served the time of this corrected sentence. I really did not let him out. I simply co-operated with the prosecutor's office to have a proper sentence imposed and then, of course, at the expiration of that he was entitled to be released. Mr. Brennan took this up with Mrs. Patterson and I am sure she understands the matter now and will not make any more improper sentences.

The circuit court, you know does not review decisions of justices of the peace except on appeal. A circuit judge would have no right to release any prisoner by habeas corpus unless there was an illegal sentence, or something wrong with the papers or the commitment. This case, of course, was a proper case for habeas corpus because it was an illegal sentence. She sentenced him for 30 days and to pay a fine of $100, and if the fine was not paid to serve an additional time of 90 days. It was this last part of the sentence that made it illegal. She could not make that kind of a sentence under the statute.

I am sure that when you receive this you will not blame me, or permit anyone else in Northville to blame me. There was absolutely nothing else that I could do under those conditions. As a matter of fact, I really did not release him on habeas corpus; the sentence was corrected and he was released at the expiration of his legal sentence.

Trusting that this satisfactorily explains the matter and with very best wishes and kind personal regards, I remain,

Very truly yours,
CLYDE I. WEBSTER.

A second letter was addressed to Judge Webster asking him to explain what was meant by stating that Chevalier had served his legal sentence, when he was in the Detroit House of Correction but a day or so. In reply to that inquiry we received the following letter Wednesday morning:

"If he did not serve his 30 days then someone made a mistake at the House of Correction. That was the purpose of correcting the sentence, so as to make a legal sentence of 30 days, which he was to serve. The sentence was not, as you say, 30 days and to pay a fine of $100, but the sentence was 30 days and to pay a fine of $100 and if the fine was not paid to serve 90 days additional. It was this last part that made the sentence illegal. The corrected sentence was proper, namely 30 days and to pay a fine of $100. It certainly was the understanding, both of Mr. Brennan of the prosecutor's office and myself, that he was to serve this 30 days. If he did not serve the 30 days the officers should take him back to the House of Correction for he certainly should serve the 30 days under the corrected sentence.

Who was there at the Detroit House of Correction who has the right to liberate prisoners, or in other words who made the mistake referred to in Judge Webster's letter? According to this letter Chevalier ought to be serving time and if that is true it ought to be some one's duty to see that he is locked up.
