SEES RESTORATION OF PRE-WAR TRADE

Head of National Foreign Council Issues Call for Convention.

New York.—This is the second which bids fair to see the restoration of international trade to the volume it held before the outbreak of the World War," declared James A. Farrell, chairman of the National Foreign Trade council, in his call issued a few days ago to the 1926 national foreign trade convention to be held at Charles-ton, S. C., April 28 to 30.

"The world did more work last year than it did the year before," Mr. Far-rell says, "and its trade grew correspondingly. Expanded production and the importation of raw material by the great industrial nations of both hemispheres indicates further expansion of production and consumption for this year. Every step of this recovery and advance carries with it its own problems, demanding continued study and thoughtful examination."

According to the estimates of the council, the world's export trade for the current year will exceed $28,000,000,000, plus equaling in volume, allowing for the decreased real value of money, the export trade of $16,422,000,000 denoted in 1913.

Mr. Farrell also announces the preliminary program of the 1926 national foreign trade convention which is to be held on the south Atlantic coast for the first time since these conventions were inaugurated in 1914. The council has fixed its annual gathering, five in the north Atlantic coast, twice on the Pacific coast twice on the Gulf and six in cities in the interior.

The program of the Charleston con-vention lays special emphasis on accelerating American exports. The general and group sessions are planned to promote intensive attention to foreign trade in southern products and especially exports originating in the southeast where foreign trade in recent years has been in unusual vigor.

The American Wool and Wool Ex-association, the National Wool and Wool Council, the Export Wool Council of No. 1 Wool, and national and other associations engaged in foreign trade, will be represented at the convention.

Northville School Notes.One More Victory on Our List.

When the Northville girls went to Birmingham earlier in the season, they were introduced to a new kind of basket ball, which our team was not allowed to play. So our girls decided that when Birmingham came here they would show them the kind of basket ball they wished to display. Last Friday night the two teams met on the local floor. The game started at 7:30 sharp and was fast and snappy from start to finish. Both teams were confident of winning, but the splendid team work of the Northville girls simply bewildered their opponents, so that when the whistle for the half blew the score stood 12-4 for Northville. In the last half the N. H. S. girls came back strong, holding their opponents to the score of 23 to 8.

Next Friday night both boys' and girls' teams go to Plymouth for the return game of the season; so come and support your home team. Get behind them and help them win.

Annual Tax Day.

Wednesday, February 24th, will be the red letter day at the High school. This is the day when everyone who has the school spirit, and is loyal to the ideals of Northville High school will become interested in the Palladium.

dium—your Palladium, for that is what it really is.

Here is your chance to express your faith in Northville High school. The Palladium for 1926 is a concise record of the events of 1925 and 1926. If you are interested in athletics, debate, social events and school humor, why not buy an annual?

Wednesday the 24th, is tag day. Everyone who shows his loyalty by making a payment of seventy-five cents on an annual—the balance to be paid in June when he receives his Palladium—will be given a tag in our school colors.

The Seniors will want annuals because there is a complete record of all your achievements for four happy years spent in High school. The Palladium will be a source of pride in years to come, it will bring back pleasant memories.

The Freshmen Sophomores and Juniors will also strive to furnish them with the trophies of their whole school.

"So townspeople when you see the students wearing tags, you will appreciate what is being done by the students of your own school by immediately making a payment on a Palladium, and you too, will wear our school colors. Here are some of the features of the annual for 1926:

The Senior class—class will class prophecy, class oration, valedictory, and salutatory, athletics, debate, school calendar, school humor, social events, alumni department and best of all, a leather cover.

N. H. S. Wins from Wayne.

The Northville High boys' basketball team met the Wayne High school team and gave them a thorough beating on the evening of Friday, February 5th.

The Wayne boys were rather hasty and probably could not dig a good scrap if they knew a little more about basket ball scrapping and not so much about personal scraps. However, on to the forward tanks centers around life-sized standards made a conclusion that Wayne could not do better, consequently our fellowmen circled around Wayne, permitting them to do but one goal, and that after our running guard was taken out with indisposition leaving a team of three to play Wayne, the last half hour of the game.

At the final whistle the score was 31 to 5 for Northville and our team in our credit.

SELLING OF 2026.

The February meeting of Zone A football was held at Wayne school on Monday evening. The following speakers addressed the audience:

Mr. Harry Smith of Aviation High, and Miss Eva Zimmerman of Wayne school as guest speakers.

After the meeting, played a game of football with the Wayne team.

At the final whistle the score was 31 to 5

for Northville and our team in our credit.

WORLD COURT WILL CUT U. S. EXPENSES.President Coolidge Cites Advantages to Country.

Washington.—Enthusiasm of the United States for the world's court and the cause of Nations' development increased with John in the opinion of President Coolidge, and in the favor of sovereignty of the United States.

That the entry of the United States into the League of Nations will reduce the expense of the United States in foreign negotiations to you with every nation, and likewise add to the national prestige at the same time that it will increase national security, the President believed.

Mr. Coolidge thought it fitting to end his speech by saying that the League will be a great benefit to the country.

The Northville Record

E. E. BROWN, Publisher.

NORTHVILLE, MICH., FEB. 12, 1926.

AN APPRECIATION.

As a representative of this community The Record regards it as its duty as well as its pleasure to speak a word of appreciation in behalf of Mrs. Kate Allen of Plymouth, whose interest and enterprise made the new physician possible at Northville. Mrs. Allen had the means to erect the handsome new man's clinic, and the new theatre at Northville, but happens the heart to do the same. She has no means save very much about the little home town these days. She is outraged city-wise for their investments and very often all their interests are outside of the communities in which they reside, or in which they have accumulated their money. Now go with Mrs. Allen. She was interested in her home town and gave Plymouth a building that any city in the state might well feel proud to possess, and now she has become interested in Northville and has given this community a theatre that has but few equals in the state, and no equals in towns the size of Northville! These buildings will be more enduring than any shaft of granite that could be erected because countless thousands rear in and out will realize and appreciate that a woman's enterprise and kindly interest made these places of amusement possible, and the influence of the entertainments given will be far-reaching.

The love of children will be heightened and broadened with the lives of the dear folk will be enriched. To Mr. Kate Allen I pay much and cordial thanks. The people of this community are deeply grateful.

DON P. WOODMAN HAS LONG SERVED THE RECORD.

From a recent report of the Capital Times, which had a favorable review of the record, it can be told how much credit is given to the paper which will be read with much interest by Mr. Woodman's many friends in this community.

In this issue of the paper, something more may be said. Valentine's Day is here. Mr. Woodman appears to be too poor for that date, but he will have completed his jubilee record of 25 years of service for the glories.

In a quarter century record edition of art he must well be proud for he has deserved his due in my judgment.

He is in the office of several offices through Don P. Powers administration, and during part of James E. Bradbury's.

When John T. Fitch was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Frank P. Glazier at the time of the latter's trouble, Mr. Woodman entered the state treasurer's office, remaining in that department until at the present time it occupies the office of deputy state treasurer, which he fills with unqualified success.

Mr. Woodman has been in the state treasurer's office for about ten years, serving under A. B. Sleeter, J. W. Haarer, Samuel Odell, F. E. Gormah and the present state treasurer, F. D. McKay, and if his splendid record is a criterion, undoubtedly he will serve many more years in the employ of the state, with further advancements coming his way.

NORTHLVILLE LOSES A GOOD CITIZEN IN THE DEATH OF CHARLES H. COLDRIDGE.

After a few weeks illness Charles H. Coldridge, a well known and valued citizen of this village, passed away at his home on Main street Sunday night, bronchial pneumonia being the cause of death.

Mr. Coldridge served this village faithfully and efficiently as president for two terms and though he had extensive interests of his own to occupy his time, he was always willing to give of his time for the public welfare.

He served for a number of years as director and vice president of the Northville State Savings Bank, where his counsel was highly regarded, and was a prompter and stockholder of the Bell Furnace Company.

Charles Henry Coldridge was born in the township of Salem, Washtenaw county, January 12, 1850, and grew to manhood in that community.

His father was Peter Coldridge, who, as a young man, had come to Michigan from New York state and settled on the well known farm near Salem.

His mother was Mary Jane Wilder, who was born in Plymouth township in 1874. Mr. Coldridge was united in marriage to Adelia M. Ryder, daughter of Joseph and Sarah Ryder. To them two children were born—Mabel, who after graduating from the university and a few years of teaching, became Mrs. Harry Hobbs and Clarence, who died in infancy.

After more than fifty years spent upon the home farm, Mr. Coldridge with his family moved to Northville in 1916, where he resided until his death. He was a devoted member of the Knights of Pythias Lodge of this place and was held in high esteem by those who knew him. He is survived by his wife and one granddaughter, Charles Coldridge, Nellie.

Funeral services were held at his late home on Wednesday afternoon and were conducted by Rev. F. F. Knowles, who was assisted by Rev. Willard Richards, interment taking place at Royal Hill cemetery.

FORESTERS DEDICATED THEIR NEW HALL THURSDAY NIGHT.

If every man and woman in Northville could become infected with the spirit of determination and cooperation, which has marked the activities of the members of Court Northville, Foresters of America, during the past few months no one would need to ask what is the matter with Northville, because this community would forge ahead by leaps and bounds. Nothing could delay the upbuilding and progress of Northville.

When the Foresters lost all their furniture and Lodge room equipment at the time of the big fire last spring which destroyed the Princess pink Ford block and the Alseum theatre, the members of the order did not sit down and mourn over their loss and wonder if some one would not come along and give them a lift. Instead, they began to make plans for a new hall before the fire which had destroyed their Lodge home had burned itself out. There was no suitable place or building available for immediate occupancy. After looking about for some weeks they decided to take the room on the third floor of the Lowell block, but it would require a lot of work and the expenditure of a considerable sum of money to put the barren room into condition for Lodge purposes.

The Foresters had some money in their treasury, and the individual members of the order had many hours of work which they freely offered. Upon that basis they went to work and within a few weeks the walls to the building were lathed and plastered, floors were laid, partitions placed, electric lights and attractive fixtures were installed, and other conveniences were provided, and by the time of the meeting of the Grand Court here in June the new home had become an actual fact, and not one dollar had been expended for labor—the carpenter's work, the plastering, the electrical work, the plumbing and the altar and officers' stations had all been donated by the members who very often worked way into the night after they had done a good day's work at their usual vocations. That was the spirit that provided the new hall and that is the spirit that is now born to us.

It was deemed advisable to dedicate the new Lodge house, with suitable ceremonies and last Thursday night was the date selected for the dedication. A dedication dinner was served from 7 to 9 and all had been provided for, and it was a bountiful meal, and one that was thoroughly enjoyed. In the interim of the dinner and in dedicating the Lodge were also served by the ladies and their assistance has been a great inspiration during the month of establishing the Lodge. After the dinner was over, at 11 o'clock, the ranger of the four Ours, called the assembly to order and stated his job. Members of the Grand Court of Michigan were present and they were announced and escorted into the hall. Taking their places before the altar the very impressive dedicatory ceremonies were rendered by Past Chief Ranger S. S. Coughlin of Pontiac, Past Grand Chief Ranger, P. T. Bertram of Detroit, Grand Secretary A. H. Saunders and Grand Ranger A. B. Yacht of Detroit.

At the conclusion of the dedicatory exercises a very enjoyable program was given. Mrs. Harry Blaize celebrated her birthday with Mrs. E. H. Lippman at the piano. C. R. Van Valkenburg sang a number of selections with Mrs. Van Valkenburg as a companion and Rev. William Richards gave a very interesting address. Members of the Grand Court were called upon and made fitting and appropriate remarks, among them being our own Lester D. Stage sr., who is now grand sub-chief ranger of Michigan and Dr. F. G. Pacific of Detroit. The visitors were all enthusiastic in their praise of Northville and its Foresters and the officers and members of Court Northville were commended for the efforts they have put forth and for the results they have accomplished.

It was indeed a happy gathering, a sort of a family reunion, and all were pleased with the new Lodge home. Just before the program had been concluded Mrs. Amie Gitzel presented the grand court officers with a handsome layer cake, a real work of art, and the officers and a few friends repaired to the dining room where the cake was cut and served with coffee and a social hour was pleasantly spent.

Messrs. Bertram, Saunders and Pacific were accompanied by their families.

LOTS OF RAIN IN FLORIDA.

Frank Perrino writes The Record from Daytona Beach, Florida, that the weather down there is awful this season. It rained four days and nights with no let up and they have had but eight days of sunshine in seven weeks. Well, we have had more sunshine up in Michigan than that. He states that Stewart Montgomery has erected a handsome new house and garage on the lake, and he has been elected a member of Northville Record down there. (A true copy).

SEEKS $14,000,000 FOR AIRSHIP WORKDirigible Program Is Given Congress by Moffett.

Washington—Spurred by a flood of criticism that the United States is not keeping pace with other nations in aircraft power, Rear Admiral William A. Moffett, chief of the naval bureau of aeronautics, has asked Congress to provide $1,600,000 for a five-year program in developing lighter-than-air ships.

Testifying before the House Naval Affairs Committee, Admiral Moffett recommended:

Construction of two 600,000 cubic-foot dirigibles for training purposes at a cost of $600,000.

Construction of a 12,000 cubic-foot dirigible for racing purposes at a cost of $1,000,000.

An appropriation of $450,000 for a dirigible base on the Pacific coast.

Admiral Moffett also urged $1,000,000 be made available immediately for the training dirigible, $3,000 to start work on the west coast air base and $100,000 for the two larger dirigibles.

An appropriation of $1,000,000 annual for continued operation of the Lakehurst dirigible station instead of closing it, was urged.

Admiral Moffett also asked for $500,000 for experimental work in helium, which is used in dirigibles. The admiral favored San Diego, Calif., for the proposed dirigible station.

The entire program called for only a third of the cost of a battleship, Moffett pointed out.

White House was appearing before the committee. Representative Randolph Perkins (Rep.) of New Jersey, examiner for the Lampert aircraft committee, told the military affairs committee America ranks third in aviation. He advocated a department of national defense embracing a sufficient force of air forces.

Several navy and army officers refused to testify before the Lampert committee for fear that they would be discriminated against by higher-ups who favor surface warships over aircraft, Perkins said.

On February 1st, twenty-nine years ago, Seth Jacobs, minus any newspaper experience, took over the Brighton Argus in partnership with Edwin W. Many New Highways Being Proposed

A number of new highways are being proposed in this section of Wayne and Oakland counties. Among the later, is the Fordson Highway running from River Rouge direct across country to Brighton connecting with Grand River at that place. This highway will cross the Seven Mile road, just east of the Fisher farm so as to keep away from the golf links and will diagonally cross Novi township to Livingston county. The Eleven mile road is also well under way, so far as preliminary surveys and right of way are concerned. This new highway will run from Lake St. Clair to Novi, striking Grand River at the four corners in the business section, and its supporters are bold enough to declare that it will be continued across the state to Lake Michigan.

Still another project upon which active construction work will start this spring is the Eight mile road, running from Lake St. Clair direct west on the base line so far as possible and its promoters also declare that this highway will be constructed across the state within a few years. This will come into Northville on the East Line road, of course.

It is also reported upon good authority, that the Oakland county highway commission have agreed to pave the South Lyon road from its intersection with the Novi gravel road to Grand River in Farmington township.

Twelve mile road has been approved and it is expect that it will be constructed within a year or two. This will run from Woodward avenue to Grand River, striking the later high way at the Power farm west of Novi. Meetings were held at Novi on Saturday and Monday to discuss with the property owners the new Southfield Park road, which will connect with Grand River at Novi.

Michigan Railroads Welcome Good Roads

MICHIGAN is one of the states that has made the greatest progress by the extension of its good roads. Its industrial importance has been greatly fortified by the development of a system of internal communication. It can still advance under a careful and judicious extension of this program. With the passing of transportation from the mud age to the hard road age there are indications that we are experiencing in the United States an industrial revolution as important in its effect as was that which marked the introduction of the macadam road and the steam railroad in England. This is evinced in the expansion of our national income.

For instance, the wealth of our nation—investment on our plant—in 1912 was 186 billions of dollars while our national income—the annual turn-over—was 30 billions of dollars.

The wealth of the nation in 1922 was 321 billions of dollars, and our national income over 80 billions.

It took a six-dollar investment to make a dollar in 1912.

It took only a four-dollar investment to make a dollar in 1922. An increase in efficiency of 33 per cent. in a decade.

THE utility of the railroad, as a freight carrier, has been increased many times through the complementary agency of the good roads system. The traffic in the old days could only be drawn from about eight miles on either side of the right-of-way of a railroad. Now, the railroad's range of activity is five to six times greater. True, these new transportation agencies present some problems that embarrass at times, but better transportation in whatever form it may be, operates to the general good.

The railroads do ask for reciprocal regulation.

Michigan is in the vanguard as an industrial state. Let us retain that position.

The Michigan Railroad Association approves the state's proposed program for more good roads because it will yield a large return on the investment.

Announcement

It is with great pleasure that we are announcing to the general public of this vicinity, the opening of our new Studio on Main street, Saturday, February 13th.

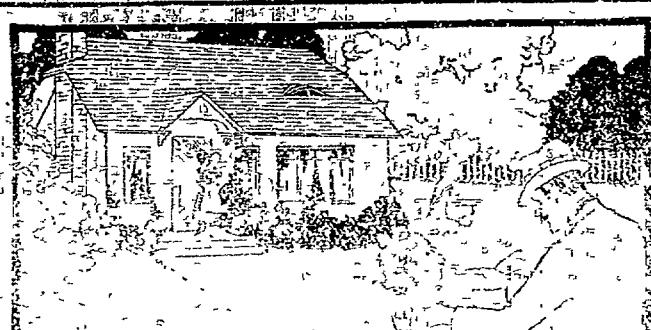

It has taken considerable time and expense to prepare the rooms we are occupying for Studio purposes, and while there are many small details yet to finish before everything will be complete, we hope to be in a position by the above date to take care of business that may come.

Much of our equipment has not yet arrived but we trust that by Saturday we will at least have the place presentable to the public.

Your visit to the new Studio will be welcomed at any time and we sincerely hope you will be pleased at our efforts to give the people of Northville an up-to-date Photographic Studio which will be open ever day.

Yours for "Better Photographs."

When you "get a hunch" to build yourself a house, we want to talk to you about plans, elevation, conveniences, material, etc. Don't put it off. You can wait and be too late.

FATHER AND SON BANQUET NEXT THURSDAY NIGHT.

On Thursday night of next week, the 13th, at 6:30 sharp, the fathers and sons of this community will meet again at a coronet table to celebrate father and son week. For the past few years, these annual gatherings have been very enjoyable and plans are being perfected to make the affair this year one that all will enjoy. Lewis Reiman of Ann Arbor, or 100 miles and whom a worker with boys in the Y. M. C. A. of his home city has been engaged as speaker of the evening, and the program will be augmented with a number of special numbers, and of course there will be community singing when the men and boys will join in singing some old familiar songs. The program will not be long so the smaller boys attending may get home in good season.

Tickets for the banquet this year will be $1.50 for two—father and son. In case some desire more than the one ticket they can procure them at 75 cents each, but it is distinctly understood that every man attending must be accompanied by a boy—either his own or one that he can "borrow" for the evening. And it will not require much looking about to find some boy who may not go unless you invite him to accompany you.

Tickets are now on sale at Horfon's Drug Store, Northville Drug Company's store, J. W. McClintock's jewelry store and at The Record office. It will be necessary for the committee to know just how many tickets have been sold by Wednesday morning, so all are asked to secure their tickets not later than Tuesday night.

Let's make this a real community affair this year with every man and boy on hand to enjoy the good fellowship.

VIEW ROTARY CLUB TO RECEIVE ITS CHARTER MONDAY NIGHT

Next Monday night, there will be a grand meeting in Northville. That is the date selected for the presentation of the charter to Northville's new Rotary Club, and the Rotarians are a busy lot. Let a good time may be expected. The banquet will be served at the High school gym at 7:30 P.M. in hours, and local members invited to the auditorium at 6:30. For this happy event a very enjoyable program is being prepared. Hon. Paul Karp of Detroit will be the master of the community singing and will be joined by a live-wire Rotarian from Highland Park, and one that knows how to make them sing, Mr. Walter Gougher, W. R. Vendell of Lodi, Ohio, will present the charter. The Royal City Rotarians will accomplish this task, and it is to be hoped that the other Rotary clubs throughout the country will be represented. The dinner will be served at the Walled Lake High school at 6:30.

No refreshments will be served to members of the chapter.

The date is also the regular meeting of Orville Chapter.
