Are Now Using

the "EASY"

Than Any Other Electric Washer

Think of it! More families have their washing done by the EASY than by other makes of electric washers—and their number is increasing. No electric washer has ever been in such great demand as the EASY!

WHY?

Because housewives know the EASY is a washer in which they can place absolute confidence—a machine based upon a principle of washing discovered half a century ago and followed successfully ever since.

NORTHVILLE LOSES A GOOD TEACHER

Miss Alpha Yerkes who has been a first teacher in the Northville High school for a number of years past, resigned last week to accept a responsible position with the J. I. Hudson Company at Detroit as assistant buyer in the children's department of the store.

Miss Yerkes is held in high esteem by the pupils of the school and by our citizens generally and all will wish her abundant success in her new position although all deeply regret that she is giving up her work in our schools. She has been coach of the debating team and has always taken an active interest in all movements looking to the advancement of the pupils and the success of our school.

A BRIDE'S SUNDAY AFTERNOON WEDDING

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Castorline was the scene of a very pretty wedding in the presence of the immediate family of the family when their daughter Ruth was united in marriage to Ivan Albee Brakes of Farmington by Rev. William Richards on Sunday afternoon, March 21st, at 4:00.
The ring ceremony was performed which united the sacred bond.
The bride was adorned in a beautiful dress of white tulle and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas with maiden-like grace.
The bridegroom was the sister of the bride, Esther, who was attended by green tulle and carried a bouquet of pink and white flowers.
A number of friends and family members were present and the happy couple will reside in Northville for a time and later the bride will return home in Farmington.

NORTHVILLE DEBATES LOST TO LESLIE

Northville High school debated the proposition "I am a Jersei Bull" by Russell Anderson and Paul Peterson, accompanied by their coach, Miss Alpha Yerkes and a number of local supporters, matched over at 10:30 last Friday afternoon and the team of "war place in debate" by winning. For some unknown reason, three judges were selected from the faculty of the Michigan State college and it was the opinion of all the Northville people who were present at the debate that our team was handily defeated. Every member of the local team did exceedingly well while one of the Leslie's debate became so rattled and confused that he did not know what side of the question he was to present.
The Northville people did not reach home until about three o'clock Saturday morning.

CHRIS NYLSEN BABY INJURED BY A JERSEI BULL

Nearby afternoon while Chris Nylsen manager of the Breckan, Fitzgerald & Sisk Jersey farm in Farmington township was doing the chores, except the cattle barn he was attacked by a two-year-old Jersey bull and was badly bruised and cut about his limbs and body. The animal knocked Mr. Nylsen down and then charged him before he could regain his feet. By grasping hold of the ring in the animal's nose he was able to pull himself up where he could make his escape.
A physician was summoned to attend his injuries and it was necessary to take eighteen stitches in the wounds made. Mr. Nylsen considers his escape from death most remarkable.

Concrete work will be started on the new bank building within a few days.

Sipping, Like the Tasters

By EDGAR I. MONTFORT

TASTER. One who tests the quality of teas, etc., by tasting, for trade purposes. Persons who engage in this work can only pursue it, for a short time as the constant repetition of new flavors confuses the taste senses.

Jim Langston tossed his cigarette stub in the direction of the waste bin, but it landed in his chair. His face tense as he stared at the "bug" at his feet. For five years he had been a business tramp—a hobo in the world of affairs.

After graduation from college he had gone into the office of a real estate man. A few months and he was fired. Next came hotels. He had no facility for judging people and was sending them to hand over their money. Certainly he was no salesman, and after weeks of struggle he found that he had earned exactly $48.50 in commissions.

He had a bitterly disappointed son, a son who had said, "I was sure that if I did the work for you, there is a chance for me to get on my feet."

Stop That Backache

Many Northville Folks Have Found the Way. A dull, nerve-racking, backache, wearying you out? Do you feel older and slower than you should be? Are you tired, weary and nervous, and it impossible to be happy or enjoy the good times around you? Then there's something wrong and likely it's your kidneys. Why not get at the cause? Use Doan's Pills, a stimulant, diuretic, for the kidneys. Your neighbors recommend Doan's. Read what this Northville resident says: "Mrs. Sarah P. Green, 8 East Cady Street, says: 'When I bent over sharp pains caught me in my back and it was hard to straighten. Mornings my back was lame and sore. The constant pain tired me out and nights found me weary irritable and all night. Dizzy spells came on occasionally and my kidneys acted too often. As soon as I used Doan's Pills from Horton's Drug Store I felt such better.'"

FIVE RACE RECORDS BROKEN.

Five recently established speed records were broken at Colver City, Cal., Sunday in the 250 mile automobile race, a check of the figures revealed. Bennett Hill won the race in a non-stop drive. He covered the 250 mile distance in one hour, 54 minutes and 14 8/10 seconds, an average of 131-296 miles an hour, eclipsing the record of 129 5/8, made by Peter DePaolo at Miami. It was a blazing farewell to the 152 cubic inch piston displacement cars, as there is to be a new era in track racing, the inauguration of the 21 1/2 cubic inch machines, and the records that were set Sunday probably will remain unbroken for a time.

WHY SHOULD WE BELIEVE ANYTHING AT ALL?

Belief in yourself - in your job - in your fellow man is the basis of value in commerce - education - religion and all the other great forces for human advancement. Belief that Abraham from his home in Ur at Chaldea and sent him across fifteen hundred miles of desert to a land rich in opportunity for starting a nation of worshippers of one God only. Belief sent Columbus across crackling waters to find a new path to the Indies. He is honored today because he dared for his belief. Belief sent Moody and Jerry McAuley and Sam Jones and Billy Sunday along the avenues of life to tell hungry hearts of eternal life which was theirs. Belief sent Jesus into the world to show in His life the eternal character and purpose of God. Study over your beliefs and confer with us next Sunday at noon.

First Presbyterian Church. NORTHVILLE, MICHIGAN. Fifteen centuries have passed since the triumphal entry of the Carpenter's Son into Jerusalem and history has not as yet revealed the name of all the men who have so stirred the hearts of men as Jesus. He though some men have received Him and denied Him, though they have set up other gods before Him and said all manner of things against His followers, yet He looked upon by men of every nation and of all faiths and creeds as the "one altogether lovely" - the Lily of the valley - the bright and morning star and the fairest among ten thousand. The shifting sands of change that the centuries have brought to the world have brought no satisfactory substitute for the religion of Jesus Christ. His gospel is the only care for the things that are troubling the world. Let us - this Palm Sunday - lay aside all other things and worship Him who alone is able to bring order out of chaos. HANG ARMY OFFICER FOR GIRL'S MURDER

Lieut. J. S. Thompson Pays Penalty on Scaffold.

Manila, 22. Second Lieut. John S. Thompson of the United States army was hanged here for the murder of his seventeen-year old fiancée, whom he said he could not live without or marry because of his insufficient salary. He was the first American officer to be executed in peacetime.

Calmy, and without making a statement the young officer, who was twenty-five years old, walked to a scaffold in a warehouse at Fort McPherson after a day spent with his spiritual adviser and his lawyer.

Thompson met Miss Audrey Gardner at Manila in the early part of 1925. She was the daughter of a U. S. Army officer and was a member of the Philippine army band.

Thompson's home destination in Manila was to be in the Philippine army band. He had been decorated with the Philippine Legion of Honor.

Thompson was tried by court-martial on charges of the murder of Miss Gardner. A plea of not guilty was entered, although Thompson admitted that he killed Miss Gardner. The court sought to prove absence of intent.

When the court reassembled the prosecution read a signed confession by Thompson.

Thompson was supplanted from the ranks to the military academy at West Point. He was graduated with the class of 1921.

The body will be sent to Thompson's parents at Far Rockaway, N. Y., on the next trip of the army transport Thomas.

Alaska's Trade Shows U. S. Made Good Deal

Juneau, Alaska—Trade figures compiled by John O. McBride, collector of customs for the territory, show that Alaska, for which the United States in 1925 paid $7,200,000, exported $62,223,735 worth of products in 1925 alone.

The territory closed the year with a favorable trade balance of $29,024,224. There was an increase of $1,828,133 in the total value of the merchandise shipped from and into Alaska.

The territory's total commerce was $85,223,246, of which $33,199,611 was imported and the balance exported.

Cold silver and copper production materially increased.

The fish industry showed a slight decrease, the total being $38,163,645 in 1924 and $37,600,451 in 1925. The shortage was attributed partly to a small salmon run in the Bristol bay district and to restrictions made by the government for preservation of the industry.

POPULAR COUPLE MARRIED AT SALEM

Salem people were pleasantly surprised by the marriage of Henry Whittaker, a highly esteemed resident of our community, and Mrs. Clara Crockett, a lady who has been a resident of Salem since last fall and who has won a firm place in the regard of the community.

Mrs. Whittaker is the mother of Clifford Crockett who is a dental student at the U. of M. and husband of the teacher of the upper grades in the Salem school.

Mr. and Mrs. Whittaker were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crockett on Monday evening at 8:30 and from 7:30 to 10 o'clock their friends in the Salem Federated church and from the community at large gave them an informal reception in the parlors of the Federated church.

A very pleasant time was enjoyed and light refreshments were served and the happy couple were the recipients of many presents and wishes of good wishes.

After a sojourn at Edmore, the former home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Whittaker will be at home in the village of Salem.

COOLIDGE'S FATHER IS LAID TO REST

Simple Rites for President's Parent; Interred in Family Cemetery.

Plymouth, Vt.—The funeral of Col.
John Calvin Coolidge, sturdy Vermont pioneer, was held from the home in which he had lived for so many years and in which, three years ago, he had sworn his distinguished son as President of the United States.
In keeping with the wishes of the deceased, so often expressed, and also in accordance with the wishes of President Coolidge, the services were a simple, immediate, and of the nature of the President returned to Washington.
Rev. John W. Rice, the Episcopal minister who conducts services at the church across the road from the Coolidge home, conducted the services except the precise time for the rites had been dictated by the Colonel himself several weeks before he died.
There were no hymns at the funeral.
The President insisted upon this.
There were no hymns for his mother when she was buried, he recalled, and he wanted none for his father. There were no church services. The simple rites were inside the old home, after which the body of Colonel Coolidge was taken up to the little cemetery of the hill a quarter of a mile away.
The Colonel died while his son Calvin was spending by special train to his bedside, from the White House in the vain hope of clasping his father's hand in farewell. The President was accompanied by Mrs. Coolidge, their son John, and party.
At the deathbed were Doctor Cream, Mrs. May Johnson, the nurse, the Colonel's housekeeper, Miss Pierce,
and Deputy Sheriff Angus Macaulay.
And beside him, been his faithful attendants during his illness.

Both houses of congress, government officials and foreign diplomats paid tribute to the memory of the President's father. From all parts of the country came the words of messages of sympathy to President and Mrs. Coolidge.

The Senate today a resolution of condolence on the death of Mr. Stratton, the speaker, and on that with other resolutions, was passed. The House adopted a resolution of condolence on the death of Mr. Stratton, the speaker, and on that with other resolutions, was passed.

The Colonel died ostensibly peacefully, although a man of substance.
Neighbors say that all property other than the land was made over to the President during his lifetime. They say that the Colonel's estate, and the house property was transferred to the case of the Colonel's property.

In addition, to the home-land which the President has his home land which is the (sugar) sugar orchard. This tract had belonged from his grandfather.

(Cancer), a form of cancer, was found in the case of Colonel Cool-idge's death. It affected the region of the bladder, his physician said, with metastasis, an inflammation of the heart, muscles, a contributing factor.

WASHINGTON BRIEFS
The house voted against inserting an amendment to the District of Columbia appropriation bill to withhold the salary of any teacher or official who permitted the teaching of "disrespect to the Bible, partisan politics, or that ours is an inferior form of government."

tionship between the United States and Mexico is expected by President Coolidge.

Collecting the delay in the constitution of an outlet to the sea for the Atlantic West. Senator (Senator Ill.) told the rivers and harbors board of the War department that what the West wants is less talking and more action.

President Coolidge has accepted as a gift a young wildcat, which until recently roamed the Great Smoky mountain of Tennessee, but he specified that shipment was to be made direct to the National Zoo.

Proposals to provide for local option votes by congressional districts in the elections this fall on the wine and beer question have been introduced by Representative Hill (Rep., Md.), leader of the wet group in the house.

230 Quakes Since January 1
Washington.—A total of 230 earthquakes occurred in the United States,
its territories, and adjacent regions
during the quarter ending March 31, 1925, according to a report issued by the coast and geodetic survey.

Bridegroom, 16, Takes Life
New York.—A few hours after his parents had taken steps to annul this marriage to his sixteen-year-old bride, Louis Cavello, sixteen, of Brooklyn,
killed himself in the girl's presence.

Ann Arbor—Herman Crossie was found not guilty of murder in connection with the death of Harry C.
Augusta township store owner, by a jury in Washtenaw county circuit court Saturday morning. The jury reached its verdict after 18 hours of deliberation.

Short Obituary

his chum, suddenly interrupted the ball game by saying, "But you don't know

"What?" the other boy asked. "My

"He died." And the ball game was

Tommy's Great Secret

By H. IRVING KING

LORRETTA'S parents were hotheadedly opposed to her marrying Clinton Dawes. Their opposition was just what was wanted to make Loretta determine that she would marry him.

"He's not at all the sort of a man Loretta ought to have for a husband," said Mrs. Lawder.

Loretta was a superb young lady, cast in the heroic mold and with a determination of her own which had not been properly chastened in childhood.

"You'd think he'd be a good deal better than that," said Loretta.

"Don't be silly," retorted Loretta.

"I'm speaking figuratively," of course, Clinton, and I have talked the whole thing over and am going to write to each of her every other day.

"You'd think he'd be a good deal better than that," said Loretta.

Conditions of Trust

If he has a good reputation and bears himself like a gentleman, trust him, provided he agrees with you in religion and politics and is not your competitor in business or your rival in love.

Bible Thoughts for the Week

Sunday. Riches Do Not Satisfy. He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver, for he that loveth abundance will not cease. This is also vanity.

Monday. How to Overcome Evil. Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honor preferring one another; rejoice in hope, patient in tribulation, faithful in love.

Tuesday. Humility of Christ. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus. Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than himself.

Wednesday. Revere the Creator. Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power for thou hast created all things, and for thy righteousness they are and were created.

Thursday. Curse or Blessing, Which? He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him; out blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it.

Friday. The God of Peace. Now the God of peace, make you perfect in every good work to do His will.

Saturday. How to Get On. Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find.
