RENGROVANNI ACQUITTED AND RETURNS TO HIS FAMILY HERE.

From January to April is a long time to wait, especially if your wife takes place behind prison bars far away from your wife and children. That was the fate of Frank Rengrovanni, who was arrested here by local officers on January 14th, at the request of New York officers, who had a warrant for his arrest on the charge of murder. Rengrovanni had been president of Northville for more than two years, and was held in high esteem by those who knew him. He was a good citizen, devoted to his family, and at the time of his arrest he admitted that he had killed a fellow at Pittsford, N. Y., but that the act was committed in self-defense. Northville people believed his story and there followed him to New York state, where he was taken and incarcerated in the Monroe county jail to await trial. A number of letters telling of his good behavior while a resident of this place.

After many weeks of patient waiting the case was finally brought to trial in the district court of Monroe county, and after all the facts had been presented the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty and Rengrovanni lost no time in returning to his wife and children here. He arrived in Northville Sunday morning and the homecoming was a most happy one.

For the many expressions of sympathy extended by the people of Northville during these weeks when he was shut out from the world, he is very grateful and he declares he will prove to all that their confidence has not been misplaced.

He was employed by the Ford Motor Company under the name of Gilmore, when he was arrested.

Other improvements were made consisting of tandem toll service to Detroit and telephone equipment and an enlarged distributing frame to handle additional lines made possible by the new switchboard.

SIOUX DEMAND MANY MILLIONS FROM U. S.

Tribal Claims Are Based on Treaty Rights.

Sioux. S. D.—Millions of dollars would be due to the Sioux if the Indians—if they can establish their claims against the government in the courts now—before the court of claims on the showings they make.

This action started on the day of the Sioux for compensation for the Black Hills territory which they say was taken from them in violation of treaty rights and on the signatures of the heads of a few bands of the Sioux instead of a general agreement. The value they put upon this tract is $150,000,000, with interest from 1776.

Go Back to 1851.

Besides the claim for the Black Hills the action carries with it claims which have been made by the Sioux under different treaty regulations dating back to 1851, with interest running back that far on some of the claims. The direct claims without interest amount to approximately $217,000,000 for the general tribal funds and approximately $5,000,000 for various bands, and the interest charge will more than double this. The government will present offers which will wipe out a portion of the claim, and just how much even with come to the Indians is a problem.

These claims are the result of a debt made by the Sioux for pay for the Black Hills section. When the issue came up for an agreement was reached by which they were to gather up all the old claims they made and put them into one action.

Claims for May.

Several claims are made for huge thousand dollars each for money cut upon the reservations for teams used by the early military expeditions in the upper Missouri River country, and another good sized bill for wood cut for building forts and for fuel by these expeditions.

Still another item is an enormous amount which should have been spent for education of the young tribes between the years 1868 & 1878 under a treaty of 1868. Then there is a charge for the 172 improvements and fees which are to be paid and the same before the date of the dispute plus estimating the number of Sioux who were ready and willing to farm but could not do so account of lack of the proper equipment.

Irishman 125 Years Old

Walks Mile for Pension

London—British, famous, breeding grinder of hogs and hens, William Smith of Draycote, County Leicestershire, who has celebrated his one hundred and twenty-fifth birthday. He was suddenly seized, according to ordinary standards, when he went off to fight in the Crimean War. His most strenuous exercise afterwards is walking a mile each Friday to receive his pension.

Ireland has produced many long lived persons but few in the West could be a whole match longer lived than Mr. Smith. He is about ten times as many centenarians as male. Persons and peers seem to live longest. The number of men of such age is but one-half of that of women and young couples.

Mr. Clegg, Londoner, died on May 18, 1888 at the venerable age of two hundred and four years. He had been ill for about ten days. His family and relatives made frantic efforts to save him.

Heads of state and other great persons have also died in the last few years but on the list of prominent young couples there is a record of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Clegg of London, who died on May 18, 1926 at the venerable age of two hundred and four years. They had been ill for about ten days.

The couple went to Hollywood

Cal where he got a job in the movies.

He fell in love with a girl who killed him. Then he returned to prison to complete his term.

THIRD in the World and Sales still mounting

During the first three months of 1926 Dodge Brothers, Inc., built and sold more motor vehicles than any other manufacturer in the world, except Ford and Chevrolet.

74,180 retail deliveries were made by Dodge Brothers Dealers in the United States and Canada between January second and April third. This represents a gain of 37 per cent over the same period last year and 69 per cent over the first quarter of 1924.

Third largest in the world! And sales CONTINUING to mount week after week to new record breaking levels.

In fact, during the week ending April 24th retail sales reached the remarkable total of 9,566—the greatest single week in Dodge Brothers history!

These figures are all the more significant when you realize that the gain of the industry as a whole over last year is only 12 per cent.

There could be no more convincing evidence that today's products are regarded as better than ever before and that the present prices make it the most impressive value Dodge Brothers have ever offered.

FORD TO RAISE FLAX ON LANDS NEAR IPSILANTI.

Seven hundred acres of waving blue flowered flax between Ypsilanti and Rawsonville is the site promised as Ford employees this spring prepare land along the flats southeast of the city for the new crop to be in rotation this season. The land is already plowed and is being prepared for sowing. Several tractors are being used on the farm, harrowing the land and putting it in shape for the next crop.

Flax is a new crop in this section, but agriculturists have assured the Ford Company it can be grown in Michigan climate and Michigan soil. Accordingly the land along the shores of the artificial lake to be formed by the Ford dam is under stood this season to be planted to flax.

With the coming of favorable weather, work on the Ford property is being carried on with renewed vigor. A force of about forty men is engaged in clearing the land and headquarters area maintained at the Barlow farm.

Trees are being taken down daily and ten men are busy on the saws cutting logs and putting wood in shape for use, as another force of men cut the trees and brush. About 6,000 feet of lumber is being sawed daily and taken to the plant at Pontiac.

All land is being cleared of brush, tents are being taken down or removed and the property in the vicinity of the dam and support factory piled on the Barlow farm is the scene of constant activity.

Work thus far has been suspended on the right of way which was secured from the factory site to the Michigan Central tracks where grading had been started earlier in the season.

Whether a track will be built to the Michigan Central is not definitely known.

Rights of way to the Wabash line south of the factory we have been nearly all secured, and it is expected by Ford representatives that grading for a spur line to connect with this road will be started during the coming few weeks.—Daily Ypsilanti Press.

This experiment will be watched with much interest. Over in the vicinity of Port Huron flax was grown some years ago.

Supreme Commander A. W. Frye will preside over the ceremonies, which will be attended by leading Maccabees state and national officials from all over the United States and Canada. Supreme Past Commander D. P. Markey will deliver the oration. Governor Alex J. Groesbeck of Michigan, Senator Frank B. Willis of Ohio, Congressman John B. Sosnowski and Clarence J. McLeod of Michigan, and Mayor John W. Smith of Detroit will be among the speakers. Numerous delegations from tents in nearby states are expected to attend the ceremonies, which will end with a mammoth parade.

CORDS

No other word so adequately represents the reason for Firestones' popularity over all other tires made.

Firestones deliver greater mileage at least cost per mile—they're really tires.

Bear these facts in mind when replacing a worn tire—remember that no tire delivers more miles than the quality of its rubber and cord material will permit—quality governs mileage, service and economy. Firestones are the equipment to buy.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

Grand Rapids—A joint meeting of the Michigan League of Nursing Education and the Michigan State Nurses' Association will be held here April 24 to 26. Speakers will include Miss Mary E. Gadsen of St. Paul, and Dr. Caroline Heiger of the Elizabeth McCoshen Foundation, Chicago.

Lansing—State parks are to be officially opened May 15, according to an announcement of the State Conservation Department. The park, in which no improvements are to be made during the season, will be opened May 1. Most improvement work will be done in parks in Oakland County.

Mid-Clemens—Approximately 11 miles of two-lane concrete pavement will be laid from Mt. Clemens northward to Five Points this year, according to the Macomb County Road Commission which has approved plans for the work. The highway connects with Ninth Avenue in this city and traverses a rich farming and dairy country.

Pontiac—Adjournment of one week has been taken in the municipal court hearing for Raymond Wurster and Albert Haar, officials of the Wurster Auto Sales company, held on charges of forgery growing out of transactions in automobile financing. Wurster was president and Haar secretary-treasurer of the company. The adjournment was agreed to by both sides.

Lansing—Andrew B. Dougherty, attorney general, is at Washington to try to prevent congressional approval being given the diversion of Lake Michigan waters to the Chicago drainage canal through enactment of the omnibus rivers and harbors bill. Rep. John B. Sosnowski of Detroit and Rep. Theodore N. Burton of Ohio has previously telegraphed urging Dougherty to come to Washington immediately.

Iowa—The "Green for Governor" movement of Iowa counts, sponsored by the Young Men's club, was strengthened considerably when the Farm Bureau men, farmers, guests and American Legion members, generally favored the general resolution for the 10¢ wage and voted a unanimous resolution in favor of the same.

Indiana—Edward S. Lakin, of Cedar Rapids, has been appointed recreational director of the city, succeeding G. H. Noyd who resigned early in the year to take a similar position at Indianapolis. Also Lakin is former athletic star at Muncie State College and has been in charge of recreation for 16 years. In Grand Rapids, however, recreational activities are planned for Purdue this summer.

Michigan—The frayed edges of Indiana's roads and bridges, like the rest of the state's, are the subject of much concern to Gov. elect George A. J. Gruening, who had begun to plan how highway costs could be cut by placing a 2-cent toll on motor vehicles. Robert Quigley, a friend of the governor's, invited him to do a compromise that would add 5 cents to tolls that are held up by traffic that is held up by state highway construction.

Michigan—F. W. Tolson, chief of the FBI, has reported to the office of the attorney general of the state. Tolson, who has been called a "dog-dog" by the press, has called the dog-dog's office a "doghouse." The dog-dog has called the doghouse a "doghouse."

Lansing—A highway program comprising 200 miles of new pavement and 140 miles of new gravel road has been prepared by Frank E. Rogers, state highway commissioner, for approval of the administrative board at its next meeting. This program, he estimates, will absorb the $800,000 released for new contracts by the action of the road committee members recently when they agreed to mortgage $6,000,000 of the 1927 highway receipts to continue road building this year.

Ann Arbor—In addition to caring for the critical situation of the university by approving of the stadium with a seating capacity of 75,000, the board of regents at the last meeting accepted several gifts and made several changes in the university activities. A new course in library science was approved, and the dental college requirements were tightened so that beginning in 1927, two years of college work was three years, of dental work alone will fit a candidate for the degree.

Flint—Flint residents are discussing a plan to recommend Miss Viola Gregory, 19 years old, for a Carnegie medal for her part in the recent fire which destroyed the Dryden Building here. Miss Gregory, the elevator operator in the burning building, displayed remarkable courage and presence of mind by continuing to run her elevator until taken by the arm by firemen and pulled from her post. At the time she made the last trip she was smoke filled, though she could only guess at the proper places to stop.

Greenville—An attack of hiccoughs, which lasted two weeks, caused the death of Elias Keat, 75 years old, a farmer. The hiccoughing started as he was recovering from influenza.

Saginaw—Saginaw now has an assessed valuation of $91,000,000, according to figures made public by City Assessor Charles Spindler. This is an increase of $2,600,000 over last year. Of the new valuations, $71,000,000 is real and $20,000,000 personal.

Marquette—Because he failed to pay income tax for two years and refused to file a return although ordered to do so by Federal officers Frank Etzina, of Cispian, was sentenced to serve four months in the Detroit House of Corrections by Judge Fred M. Raymond, in Federal Court.

Monroe—The village of Dundee by a vote, 118 to 86, defeated a proposal to build an addition and make alterations to the high school building in school district No. 5. The building which was erected 40 years ago, has been overcrowded for some time, and it is believed a new proposal will be presented for a vote.

Pontiac—South American editors will visit Pontiac on the party of international journalists now on a tour of the country. They will visit the big automobile plants here, including General Motors, Truck, Fisher Body, and Oakland Motor companies. An informal reception will be tendered the newspaper men at the Oakland plants.

Macomb—The city attorney has been instructed by the city commission to prepare a petition to the state public utilities commission requesting action necessary to obtain an equalization of fares on motor buses running into Monroe. It is claimed that fares on certain routes exceed ten cents charged on others.

Macomb—The Macomb county seat commission has let the contract for delivery of 226,000 barrels of oil for the season's road construction. The contract was at a cost of $1.22 per barrel. The original estimate was that a saving of $2,000 had been accomplished in the contracts.

Michigan—Governor Alex J. Groves is on in place of the state commissioners of agriculture. The new state of quality between the commissioners and the state agricultural department has been established in the person of Andrew C. Morris, formerly general manager of the state agricultural department. The administration maintains that the change would take place July 1, 1928, the fact that at that time the officials will have received only half of their annual $2,000,000 appropriation.

Michigan—A highway program comprising 200 miles of new pavement and 140 miles of new gravel road has been prepared by Frank E. Rogers, state highway commissioner. The head of the administrative board at its next meeting. This program, he estimates, will absorb the $800,000 released for new contracts by the action of the road committee members. The state agreed to more than $6,000,000 in 1927 highway receipts to continue road building this year.

Michigan—A great deal of a new telephone system at South Haven is to be installed from the existing system. The new system will be a long distance system, the first in the state, and will consist of 120 exchanges, each with a capacity of 1,000. The exchange will be connected to the main system, and will be connected to the main system. The main system will be connected to the main system, and will be connected to the main system.

Michigan—The car over the telephone lines of the Great Lakes Telephone Company of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company to automatic service is scheduled for May 1, complete actual installation of the Bell Telephone system. The telephone system will make it possible to call any of the 26,000 telephones in the state from any other. The consolidation of comes at the conclusion of two and a half years' work of rehabilitation or new construction, which cost upwards of $5,000,000.

Michigan—Evidence that state tax revenues will run faster in 1928 than last year was reflected in a report compiled recently by the Department of State showing state receipts in March were $1,500,000 greater than in March, 1926. The total state receipts in March, 1926, amounted to $4,674,430, in the month of March, 1927, amounting to $6,175,430. The difference in the two months in which the state has been in session.

At the most recent meeting of the military committee in charge of the third annual fair show to be staged May 26th and 27th at Novi High School College it was determined to go through with the fair and show, and if possible.

The present plans are to hold the exhibit in the newly-constructed band hall, following the completion of the newly-constructed gymnasium. In view of the heavy rain the day will be spent on the plain. Work on the stadium will be completed with the aid of students and also assist a suitable place for the riding exhibition, where ever the weather be upon us.

That the show is fast becoming popular among citizens is evidenced by the many visitors to the local fairs. Already the committee is filling orders for lots, although the entry blanks have just been issued. The first purpose to buy a box was there listed price being the minimum of $100.00.

FORD MOTOR CAR FOR SEVEN YEARS.

A non-stop ride of 7,000 miles, the equivalent of 300 miles a day, and the actual wide open road and extreme normal load, is the punishing test for a motor, yet it exactly what happened to Ford motor receiver is the Ford Motor Company Highland Park plant. Although the test was a ranged primarily to test a steel frame for use in a part of the motor, produced results which were most interesting from the standpoint of engine performance.

Except from the experimental part being tested, the motor was stock, having been picked at random from the motor assembly line. Thus equipped the motor was coupled to a dynamometer and started.

Inasmuch as the trial was devised to wear out the experimental part all the punishment the motor would withstand under normal conditions was intensified. With throttle wide open, the motor was made to carry about three times as great as load as by the car under normal driving conditions.

Cooling was purposely retarded so that the radiator at all times registering a boiling temperature and the exhaust pipe were constantly red hot.

For seventeen days and nights the motor roared while Ford engineers waited the inevitable result. Not to allow any respite from the intense heat, even the oil was changed on the run, the speed was not varied from thirty-six miles per hour, and the load was at no time reduced.

At the end of 112 hours of this grueling punishment, the motor was stopped and disassembled for inspection.

Examination disclosed that the part to be tested had been burned by the terrific heat. But aside from the experimental part, the engine was practically unaffected and apparently ready to repeat its performance.

BRITAIN IN GRIP OF GREAT COAL STRIKE

Walkout of Million Miners May Paralyze Industry of Every Kind.

London.—One million British coal miners have carried out their threat of a strike, and as a result the entire industry is paralyzed. The cessation of coal mining activity constitutes the greatest labor upset, and precipitates the greatest labor crisis since the chaotic days of readjustment immediately succeeding the World war. It means that one-fifth of Britain's union workers are idle, with the remaining 4,000,000 subject to orders for a general strike in sympathy with the miners' action.

Recognized as a national catastrophe, a calamity as great as another international conflict, the strike comes as a sequel to weeks of futile negotiations between the mine owners and workers. In these parlors the government, latterly, took an important part and former Stanley Baldwin recently stated, that there was none of an agreement being reached.

The premier, in making the announcement that the strike was declared, that the government stood ready to act under the emergency powers law. In effect this makes the prime minister a dictator, and enables him to call up in the army, navy, and all forces to operate industrial plants or to fight them against the strikers.

Police and municipal authorities, on behalf of England, received instructions from the government to hold themselves in readiness for service.

Censorship of the mails, of telephone and telegraphic communications, and even of radio are measures being used in preventing disorders from radical elements concerned in the disturbance.

To England, a compact and essentially industrial country, coal is the breath and blood of industry. Manufacturers of all classes of goods are solely dependent upon coal for motive power because oil and electricity are facilities existing only in the cities and in scattered industries. Cessation of coal production means one-third of the ultimate transportation of a country for every kind.

The rating of gravity in the coal mines throughout the nation is still very good.

On the 1st July of this year, payment on a 2½ per cent basis was agreed by treasury experts to be $2,000,000,000. This, it was stated, is markedly 50 per cent of the principal of the debt as compared with the May settlement of 26 per cent.

The English payments start at $30, then a 22,000,000 for each of the next five years; $10,000,000 for the fifth

FRANCE IS TO PAY U. S. $6,847,674,104

Agreement Provides for Last of Major World War Debts to America.

Paris.—The French cabinet has approved the terms of the agreement for refunding the debt to the United States. The government has nothing before it but preparation for the fight for ratification, beginning when parliament recovers late in May.

Washington.—Funding of the French debt to the United States, on terms satisfactory to the French government, the American debt commission, and to President Coolidge has been announced.

The agreement provides for a payment over 52 years of a grand total of $6,847,674,104, beginning with an initial payment of $30,000,000 during each of the first two years and rising to a maximum beginning with the seventeenth year of $125,000,000. This is an increase of $627,000,000 over the total payments offered in the Calixte negotiations last September.

Settlements have now been reached on all the large debts to the United States resulting from the World war, only those with Greece and Yugoslavia remaining to be funded.

After six years, Vaca, with two companions escaped. They reached the coast of California and turned southward, arriving at Mexico City, July 24, 1536.

As a reward for his exploring services, Vaca was appointed governor of the provinces of the Rio de La Plata in South America. Here he incurred the jealousy of his compatriots, and was sent back to Spain in irons, remaining in prison six years awaiting trial.

Two editions of the first portion of the book are known to be in existence—one in the New York public library and the other in the British museum at London.

in Ancient Book.*

Clemont, Calif.—A rare volume containing the story of what purports to be the first transcontinental foot journey for a white man in the conquest of North America is the latest addition to the William S. Mason collection of Western Americana in Pomona College library.

The book tells of the adventures of Cabeza de Vaca, Spanish explorer, in journeying through the southern section of the United States between the years 1528 and 1536, and of his explorations in the River Plata countries of South America after his appointment as governor of the region in 1530.

An expedition, of which Vaca was a member, left Spain in 1527 headed for Florida and Louisiana. It was wrecked on the Florida coast. Fifty survivors drifted to the coast of Texas in crudely constructed boats and made shore November 8, 1528. All but 15 died of disease or starvation and these became slaves of the Indians.

Be a stroke of good luck, Vaca stayed on, threatened death for himself and companions by posing as a divine healer, usually being able to cure minor maladies.

After six years, Vaca, with two companions escaped. They reached the coast of California and turned southward, arriving at Mexico City, July 24, 1536.

As a reward for his exploring services, Vaca was appointed governor of the provinces of the Rio de La Plata in South America. Here he incurred the jealousy of his compatriots, and was sent back to Spain in irons, remaining in prison six years awaiting trial.

Two editions of the first portion of the book are known to be in existence—one in the New York public library and the other in the British museum at London.

Centenarians Will Be

Commemorated Next Century

London.—Men and women one hundred years old will be the aim of business and social life by 2000, it is predicted by Sir Edmund Wood, parliamentary secretary to the British ministry of health.

"In the next century there is no doubt in my mind that the average expectation of life will be one hundred years and a person of seventy-five will be regarded as comparatively young," said Sir Kingsley, who has recommended more physical exercise for members of the house of commons.

"Good health and good temper go together," he continued. "I find if the members of parliament took more exercise fewer members would be suspended, and wild and excited scenes in the house would disappear."

Announce New Method of Painless Childbirth

New York.—A method which it is claimed will make childbirth painless and is in no way different by reason was described by Dr. James T. Gwathmey of this city. Doctor Gwathmey spoke at the convention of the Medical Society of New York state.

Whereas twilight sleep depended on amnesia to bring about insensibility, the new method accomplished its ends by the actual elimination of pain, he said.

This method, Doctor Gwathmey continued, consists of three injections, two of magnesium sulphate and one of a mixture of the sulphate with small quantities of morphine and quinine. The combination of drugs was new, said Doctor Gwathmey, and the danger element less than in twilight sleep.

What Is a One-Cent Sale?

It is a sale where you buy an item at the regular price, then another item of the same kind for one cent. As an illustration: The standard price of Klenzo Dental Creme is 50c; you buy a tube and by paying one cent more, or 51 cents, you get two tubes. Every article in this sale is a high-class standard piece of merchandise, just the same as is sold everyday at the regular price.

A Profit-Sharing Method of Advertising

This sale was developed by the United Drug Co. as an advertising plan. Rather than spend large sums of money in other ways to convince you of the merit of these goods, they are spending it on this sale in permitting us to sell you a full size package of high standard merchandise for 1 cent. It costs money to get new customers, but the sacrifice is justified, as we know the goods will please you.

OBITUARY

LaVern Robert Buinon

A deep shadow was cast over home-going of little LaVern Robert Buinon aged 6 years, 10 months and 28 days. He died in the Sessions hospital in Northville but Tuesday evening April 22nd, at 8:55.

He was in the first grade of school and also a member of the Congregational Sunday School of Worden where he was much beloved by his teachers, the minister and all his classmates, as well as older friends and relatives. LaVern was a general favorite in the community, possessing an unusually happy countenance and loving disposition. He shall be greatly missed by all.

He is survived by his parents grandparents, two sisters, Beatrice Eileen and Mary Elizabeth beside a host of relatives.

The largely attended funeral service took place at the residence in Worden
Sunday afternoon. Rev. Lucia M.
Siron, pastor of the Congregational church officiating.

Mrs. Muhi and Miss Kauer contributed two beautiful daisies. Many lovely floral pieces evidence the love the people in the community bore him.
Eight boys from the neighborhood and school males acted as pall-bearers.
Interment was made in the Worden cemetery.

THE PRESIDENT GIVES PARENTS SOME GOOD ADVICE.

In addressing the National Council of Boy Scouts at Washington Saturday night President Coolidge gave American fathers and mothers some very good advice—and some that can well be taken to heart by some Northville parents.

After paying a fine tribute to the Boy Scouts the president declared the movement can never be a success as a substitute but only as an ally of strict parental control and family religious influences. While he said there was no substitute for the influence of the home and religion but parents cannot shut their eyes to the fact that the people around us do not care so much for them.

He further advised that many of the heart of this great movement is the influence of the leader of home and of the lack of disipline—all tending to bring down a and respect for the laws of God and man," the president continued.

He thought it had been able to give the subject and such observations, as have done without my exper-ence to have convinced me that there is no substitute for the influence of the home and of religion. These are the basis of the inner-most nature of the individual and play a dominant part in the formation of personality and character.

The more I have studied this movement its inception purposes, organization, and principles the more I have been impressed—not only by its based on the fundamental rules of right thinking and a ring of seems to embrace in its true sense every virtue needed in the personal and social life of mankind. It is a convenient instrument for good.

If every boy in the United States between the ages of 12 and 17 could be placed under the wholesome influence of the Scout program and should live up to the scout on a and articles we would hear fewer pessimistic words as to the future of our nation.
