HONORED OUR AGED VETERANS

Northville Paid Tender Tribute To Its Heroic Dead on Monday—Old Pioneers Also Remembered.

THE OLD GUARD.

(By T. C. Harbaugh.)

Hats off! Here they come to the tap of the drum, A thin and wavering line; They stood long ago in the face of the foe, In the shade of the battle-struck pine. There's many a ridge on their brows as you see. Their features by time have been mair'd; And the ivy is green with a daisy between. On the graves of the gallant Old Guard.

They were boys when they charged on the fort on the hill.

And sabred then way thru the foe,

Toss were stalwart and true, in their garments of blue.

In the days of the long, long ago—

A sadness comes on and the night settles down.

As the diamond dew sparkles the sword,

And freshly they march beneath the stars sprinkled a'.

These men of the sober Old Guard,

They dreamed of the battle camp,

The faray, prison and roof,

The night will fall fast, it will claim them at last,

And summon to "mustering out."

They hear the wild bugles that blew

In the morn,

As clear as the notes of a bard:

They laugh as they come to the tap to the drum—

The remainder, of F'dom's Old

Guard,

The wind soft'ly blows 'long' their now-sprinkled hair.

As slow as the tide down the street,

And there's on 'em a look that may last as the pine—

It meet

Time! Time! Time!

The old guard

is gone,

Startled

At once over bairns, as their old,

old bairns,

The last of the righted to Edward

Forget them! No, no, no, Col-thee not,

With tears on her pretty cheek,

And heart full from the hands of Aficion's command.

A breath for the noble Old

Guard,

Northville was honored by the presence of many of the members of the Old Guard on Memorial Day this year. George Grindell, Fred Cornell, E. W. Woodward and Morris Smart, the three heads of pillar, rich sacrifices and devotion, were all gratified by the presence of this section. A more delightful day could not have been selected and our people were early, making their visit to the site of the dead in this section, Oakwood Cemetery. At 10 A.M. Captain Thayer and his wife, and the young couple, found a bright bow 'long above the graves in memory of the Old Guard. No only was the grave of our departed veterans fittingly decorated but there was scarcely a grave in either of these cemeteries that did not bear some evidence of kind remembrance from some one. In the early morning the graves were decorated Sunday and the evening news reflected the fragrance of flowers thus placed and received their beauty on Monday.

School children, Auxiliary, World War Veterans, Spanish American, W. R. C., G. A. R., Boy Scouts, Citizens.

The procession started at the grave of A. M. Harmon where the Grand Army memorial service was read and an evergreen wreath placed above the grave in memory of the departed comrades.

The procession then proceeded to Rural Hill cemetery.

As the procession crossed the bridge over the River Rouge flowers were strewn upon the water in memory of the sailors and marines.

At the cemetery the American Legion memorial service was rendered.

The procession returned to the village and disbanded when the business portion was reached.

At five o'clock members of the W. R. C. and American Legion auxiliary entertained Comrade and Mrs. Goodell, members of the Legion and a few invited friends to a hot-dog supper.

Remembered our Old Pioneers.

At the conclusion of the memorial services at the soldier's grave in Oakwood cemetery, Mrs. J. B. Cook in behalf of the Northville Women's Club placed a handsome wreath on the grave of Hiram E. Robinson, who died October 22, 1832, at the age of 32 years. In a few well chosen words Mrs. Cook explained the purpose of the remembrance, that of commemorating the memory of our old pioneers who laid the foundations for the many blessings and priviledges we enjoy to-day. The members of the club are to be commended for their interest in this matter and it is hoped that they will continue to do so for many years to come.

Preceding the afternoon services the Northville band played a number of selections on the street and at the appointed hour appeared on the stage of the theatre and rendered "The Star Spangled Banner." Chas. M. Murphy was chairman of the meeting and announced the program. Rev. F. P. Knowles offered a fervent prayer. Luther Lapham read Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. Alfred Copperwaite sang "The Trumpeter," and for the closing number of the program the audience sang "America."

The procession formed on Main Street and led by the band proceeded to Oakwood cemetery in the following

UNION MEMORIAL SERVICES.

A large audience attended the union memorial services at the N. E. church

Sunday evening, members of the G.

A. R., American Legion, W. R. C. and

Legion Auxiliary occupying seats of honor. The platform and altar rail were handsomely decorated with flowers and potted plants and the service throughout was very fitting for the occasion. Mrs. John Timm presided at the organ and rendered a prelude as the honored guests took their places. Pastor Richards made the opening prayer and the choir and congregation sang "Onward Christian Soldiers," followed by the Apostle's creed and prayer by Rev. A. K.

MacRae. Alfred Copperwaite sang

"The Trumpeter," and Rev. F. P.

Knowles led in the responsive reading.

Following the reading of the scripture lesson by Rev. William Richards the choir rendered an anthem appropriate for the solemn occasion.

Pastor Richards delivered the sermon of the evening, taking his text from Jef. 22:10. "Weep not for he dead neither bemoan him, but weep sing for him that goeth away, for he shall return no more, for see his nature country." The speaker in respect reviewed briefly some of the causes and the effects of the great wars, and paid a tender tribute to the valor and heroism of the men who had defended the Stars and Stripes at home and abroad.

MR. BOB WELL PRESENTED BY THE JUNIORS.

The members of the Junior class ac-quited themselves splendidly in the presentation of "Mr. Bob" at the High school auditorium Wednesday evening. A large audience greeted the youthful players and every one present enjoyed the entertainment thoroughly. Mr. Schmitz and his orchestra sang greatly to the pleasure of the audience and a most pleasing feature of the usual program was the singing of "Five Little Girls upon the Picket Fence" during the violin to which the girls were dancing.

Those audience in the past were Ernest Lewis, Tom Woodbury,

Lorraine L. Taylor, also to Vivian for Ruth Julian and Margarette

Warner and they all did excellently.

ADDITIONAL MAIL SERVICE FOR NORTHVILLE.

Beginning next Monday, June 7th, through the efforts of Frank Miller

the village will have additional mail service both in and out, a bell will ring at noon from Miller and the rest and one will be despatched for Detroit and Chicago at 10 A.M. by bus.

This will give a morning, noon and afternoon service.

However no one can tell how long this service as arranged at present will be in vogue.

There is a prospect that the Post Office will never will be changing in the middle of this month, which will probably put up the present schedule.

Truman Grindell and wife and Mrs.

Flora Marion of Detroit, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ure, Tuesday Monday.

600 MEN AND BOYS HEAR DETROIT JUDGE.

Representatives of 16 Catholic parishes, comprising the Jackson district of the Detroit Diocesan Union of the Holy Name society, met in St. Thomas parish hall in Ann Arbor, Sunday in the regular spring rally. Delegates and visitors numbered nearly 600 men and boys.

The Rev. Fr. J. Richard Commando, pastor of St. Thomas church, delivered the address of welcome and the response was given by the Rev. Fr. G. Warren Peek, pastor of St. Patrick's church, Northfield, and spiritual director of the district. The principal talk of the afternoon was given by Judge John V. Brennan, of the Detroit Municipal Court. Judge Brennan's subject was the Eucharistic Congress which is to be held in Chicago, June 19-21st.

Parishes represented at the meeting were: St. Thomas' and St. Mary's in Arbor, St. John's Arbor, St. Peter's and Corpus Christi's, "Binkie," Hill Crest, Sacred Heart, Cass, St. Charles, Coldwater, St. Joseph's, Delray, St. Ambrose's, Hillsdale, Sacred Heart, Hudson, St. John's, St. Mary's, St. Josaphat, and St. Stanislaus Jackson; St. Mary's, Manchester, St. Patrick's, Niles, and St. Mary's, Pinckney.

PERHAPS THE WORST AT THE MEETING

RESERVE OFFICERS TO MEET.

The fifth annual state convention of Michigan Chapter, Reserve Officers Association of the United States will be held at Battle Creek, Mich., July 9 and 10. From present indications the convention this year will be the largest ever held in Michigan, and every Reserve officer is urged to attend.

Blood in Cold Climates.

The public health service says that there is truth in the statement that people living in cold climates have thicker blood than those living in warm climates.

This replica of historic Independence Hall in Philadelphia is a fine example of the baker's art. It was made by the chef of one of Philadelphia's leading hotels to advertise the Sesquicentennial International Exposition, which will open in that city June 1 and run to December 1, to celebrate the 150th anniversary of American independence. The "State House" stands on a table at the entrance to the main dining room of the hotel.

TIGHT SHOES.

When a shoe pinches a sponge dipped in hot water and placed on the part of the boot which draws most, it expands the leather and makes it more comfortable.

HISTORY IN CAKE

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Sol Hooper Trio Help Make Movie.

Sol Hooper and his famous steel guitar trio furnished the inspirational music for Robert Z. Leonard's production of "Dance Madness" during its making at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios. This picture is coming to the Penniman-Alten Theatre Thursday evening next.

Leonard has long been an admirer of Hooper's vaility or sycophany, and left on account of the nature of the story, that the actors would do better work under the spell of the Hawaiian music. Hooper's true has doubtless been heard in being broadcast from Los Angeles radio stations.

Conrad Nagel and Olaile Windsor play the romantic roles in "Dance Madness." The play is based on a typical story by S. J. Maclaren.

"The King of the Thin," A Great Picture.

Strong, courageous and the sturdy jackets in brilliant colors, thronged over their mounts. Laboring long and hard in fields, plowing, plowing horses.

Great, brawny horses expanding the last ounce of courage, the last straining breath in their necks.

And decked in their pastures, judges stand.

That is the opening of "King of the Thin," the first production which will come to the Penniman-Alten Theatre on Sunday and Monday next.

And the climax even more exciting than the start.

"Flat" which begins this stirring classic of horse show is a steeplechase, the most sensational of races.

John Joseph Vance and John Brown

also have turned over great material in this story to J. Grubb Alexander for transportation to the screen.

James Hogan has taken Mr. Alexander's scenario and giving vivid relatable characters and situations.

Valentino Blitting in "The Eagle"

Film.

Ralph Valentine had to do many things in his film "The Eagle" which brought him to the stage of Valentino Blitting.

SALEM SAYINGS.
The mother and daughter are given in the town hall Wednesday evening by the Congregational church was a decided success. The various toasts and responses, the witty remarks of the toastmistress, Mrs. Pennell, the deeply impressive address of Mrs. Ross of Farmington, and the music were all greatly enjoyed by the guests. The different committees and especially the men, who served in such an efficient way, merit much credit.

The Primary class of the Congregational Sunday school was royally entertained with a May party on the beautiful lawn of the R. Pennell home on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Pennell, the teacher, and Mrs. Payne were joint hostesses to the children. They had a frolic around a May pole with purple and white streamers, real marshmallows growing on a tree, and lollipops and peanuts in the tall grass around the tree, to be searched for by the youngsters. Pine, eats and ice cream served on the lawn. Plenty of games and the party closed with a marshmallow roast. The grown-ups were present and enjoyed themselves equally as well as the tots. Little Ruth Pennell was chosen May queen.

OAKLAND COUNTY WOMEN PLAN ACHIEVEMENT DAY AT WALLED LAKE

An affair of more than local interest will take place at the High school building in Walled Lake today, when Oakland county's first annual achievement day will be observed. Women from all over the county will gather and take part in a program of achievement in home economics, says the Pontiac Press. All those who during the past year have engaged in the courses outlined by the home demonstration department will participate in the exhibition and program. A business meeting will be held in the morning, to select district chairmen. The nominating committee has already supplied names of district chairmen to re-elect ion. They are: Mrs. George Swartz of Oxford, Mrs. William H. Co. of Milford, Mrs. Charles Parsons of Royal Oak. Mrs. J. K. Keeler of Pontiac. Mr. Arthur Green is nominated for re-election to the office of city chairman.

A panel of six speakers has been scheduled for the program and include: R. J. Baldwin, director of extension at the Michigan State College; Carrie C. Williams and Agnes Sonnen, clothing students at M. S. C.; Mrs. Frank Keph of Gladstone, Mich., of the Michigan State Farm Bureau.

The county organization includes 300 members and 40 local clubs. Six training centers are used in bringing the women together.

OAKLAND COUNTY'S HOSPITAL SOON TO OPEN

Mrs. Ethel Johnson of Clinton has been employed by the county board of health as the manager of the new hospital which it is hoped will be ready for occupancy June 19th. The hospital will cost over $100,000.

The great fund is comprising expects to be $150,000. The money for the purchase came in the following districts: Clinton, Grosse Pointe, Hamtramck, Highland Park, Royal Oak, and the city of Detroit. Those in those areas have contributed heavily. The amount accepted a place unless action taken is provided for in the by-laws where the sum stands the same they are not to do.

Beds are to be 25 and for the hospital to have been completed as soon as the building is completed.

PONTIAC PRESS

GAS TAX TOTAL JUMPS.

A new increase of more than $10,000 was registered in gasoline tax collections for April as compared with the same month in 1925, according to a report compiled by the department of state. The net yield for last month was $123,183 as compared with $630,747 in 1925.

Revenues from the two cent levy are climbing steadily. For the four months of January, February, March and April 1926, the tax yielded $2,462,993 net. These months are the poorest in point of revenue of any in the year. May is expected to show a sharp increase and the months of June, July, August and September probably will produce in the neighborhood of 1,000,000 each.

CLASS OF 1926 HAS THIRTY-ONE MEMBERS.

Thirty-one young people will graduate from the Northville High school on Wednesday evening, June 22nd. The baccalaureate address will be delivered by Rev. Wm. Richards at the M. E. church on Sunday evening, June 20th, and the class night exercises will take place on Tuesday evening, the 22nd. The class has chosen for its motto "Now launched let's sail," for its colors blue and gold and for its flower the rose. The following are the members of the class:

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

Lansing—Three members of the Michigamme township school board have been ordered removed from office by Thomas E. Johnson, superintendent of public instruction; it has been announced. They were charged with misappropriating schools funds.

Harrison City officials here have been notified that President Coolidge has signed the bill which relinquishes the right, title and interest in a small island in Budd lake owned by the United States to the city for park purposes. The island will cost the city less than $125, as it is smaller than an acre.

Port Huron—Compensation proceedings have been authorized by the city commission with a view to obtaining sufficient land on South Saginaw street to permit widening that thoroughfare from Michigan street to South boulevard to 20 feet to conform with the wider Woodward pavement. The street is 66 feet wide.

Flint—Flint taxpayers have approved a proposal to bond the city for $522,000 for the construction of the first unit of a sewage-disposal plant, the final steps in a construction program covering 10 years to free the Flint river of pollution. The city has been ordered by the Circuit court to complete the work by the first of next year.

Kalamazoo—Judge Edward J. Molinet has signed a formal decree ordering repayment to 38 plaintiffs in the Michigan-Coloado Copper Mining Company case of approximately $50,000 which it is declared they invested in stock of the now defunct company. The signing of the decree followed a settlement of its terms in accordance with an opinion recently filed by Judge Molinet, by attorneys on both sides and by the court.

Ann Arbor—Several hundred manufacturers of the state gathered here May 27 for a meeting with members of the engineering department of the University of Michigan to hold a technical discussion on the relations of scientific research of industry. Industrial committees were established through which it is hoped more complete cooperation between industry and the research department of the university will be attained.

To the 10th annual meeting of the county board of supervisors the Piney Peninsula met recently to decide to close its plant for further manufacture of lumber products, the purpose being a return to lumbering. It is noted that the maximum demands which usually come from lumber by tax collectors for individual plowmen and lumber contractors by placing in a bank a large sum.

Monroe—The "Michigan" electric rail, as originally planned, is to be completed here and the original company that will abandon its line in and between the two towns and cities of its route. The company said the line has been a losing one, and that it could no longer live up to the requirements of its franchise. Bus service will be substituted for the street cars. The buses will be operated by the Owosso-Bridge Bus Line, Inc., an Owosso company.

Wayne—Following the recent visit of W. B. Penegel, chairman of the city planning board of Flat, to Wayne, concerted action by civic organizations and the district association has been taken toward adoption of a drainage plan of city planning for the area. Tentative proposals are being drafted and will be submitted to the village commission within a few weeks as the foundation of a general movement to mold the growth of the village, it is said.

River Rouge—River Rouge cannot pay its bill for water amounting to $4,991 rendered by the Detroit water board, due to the fact that no funds remain in the treasury for this purpose and taxes will not come in before July 15. As a result, George H. Fenkell, superintendent of the Detroit water plant, will make some suggestions for improving the financing of the sale of water in River Rouge. That city now pays more money for water than it is charging the residents to whom it is resold, Fenkell said.

Lansing—Petitions prepared at the suggestion of Frank F. Rogers, State Highway Commissioner, has been filed with the Michigan Public Utilities Commission charging that freight rates on gravel, crushed rock and sand handled at the state are excessive. It is felt that the lowering of freight rates would aid in lessening the cost of materials used on Michigan roads. The gravel men have complained of high freight rates and charged these rates. If lowered, would enable them to sell their product more cheaply.

Holland—The "Pageant of 1926" by the senior class of Hope College May 31 and June 2 and 5, will be the biggest production ever staged in western Michigan. There will be 400 characters. The production will cost more than $3,000, and it is to be staged on the campus, which will be fenced off. Elaborate fire works have been received and large loudspeakers are to be used. The pageant is to celebrate the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, the founding of Holland in 1846, and Hope College in 1855.

Saginaw—Knights of Columbus of Michigan, at the close of their annual convention here, named Detroit as the 1927 meeting city. Alpena preceded for the convention in 1928 and Grand Rapids offered to entertain the state delegates in 1929.

Roomeo—Walter Yale Durand, 52 years old, formerly first assistant chief economist of the United States Federal Trade Commission, and widely recognized authority on coal and other commodities died at Washington May 25. He was born here.

Grand Rapids—Bids for operation of commercial air mail service, between Grand Rapids and Detroit, have been called for by Postmaster General New. Mail service between the two cities will only take an hour or two, New said. The bids are returnable in 30 days.

Grand Rapids—Irving Hansen, 13 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hansen of Stanton, is in a critical condition in a hospital here, his skull fractured. The boy was hit on the head accidentally with a baseball bat by Charles Miller, a playmate, during a game between school hours.

Kalamazoo—Grand Rapids was chosen as the 1927 Masonic convention city by the grand lodge of Michigan, in annual convention here. The convention was attended by more than 1,000 delegates and visitors, and more business was transacted than at any meeting in several years, it is said.

Pontiac—The largest commencement exercises ever held by eight grade graduates in Oakland county schools were held in the Oakland theatre Saturday, May 29. A class of 19 received certificates. Dr. Ernest Burnham, state director of rural education, delivered the commencement address.

Flint—Henry B. Marks, 53, of Chicago, manager of the "Home" complete exposition, now being staged in this city, and an electrician, Eddie Cantrell, 31, of San Jose, Calif., were accidentally electrocuted May 26.

Marks had attempted to draw Cantrell away from a live wire of high voltage. Both men died instantly.

Fay City—A radio ordinance, tabled by the city commission several weeks ago, probably will be taken up again by that body. A number of radio dealers and fans are urging adoption of the regulations provided in the resolution, which would improve reception conditions. Circuit Judge August Hobson leads the campaign of radio enthusiasts.

Alpena—The state public utilities commission has authorized the capitalization of the Citizens Gas Company of Adrian. The petition completes the reorganization of the utility interests of New York City. The company plans to spend about $100,000 in the reconstruction, and modernization of the system.

Macomb—Bill will be opened here on July 3 by the state highway department for paying West Elm Avenue. The section to be paved is a half mile long and 40 feet wide. The state will pay for paving 20 feet of this and the city the other 10. It is expected the cost will be $50,000. The new paving will give Monroe another outlet to the west.

Grand Rapids—James Higgins, 22 years old, former city fireman, pleaded guilty to a liquor possession charge and was sentenced to serve 60 days although two gallons of "evidence" in the car has disappeared at police headquarters. The court asking him whether he could solve the mystery Higgins deplored any knowledge of what became of the confiscated liquor.

Alpena—Levi Bailey, 18 years old, of Cass City, a student at the normal college here, lost his right leg and received other serious injuries as a result, it is believed, of "hookers" ride on a D. U. Freight train from Ann Arbor to Ypsilanti, May 24. He is now in the Bayley Memorial hospital here where physicians say he has a chance for recovery. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bailey of Cass City.

Owosso—Police here are holding William Gilman, 33 years old, no home, who insists he is a human radio receiver set. He said in the morning he got stations in Europe and in the afternoon he gets them all over the world. He will be "hooked up," he told officers, June 3. He also claimed to be a mind reader, but fell down when asked to read the mind of Judge R. S. Day. No charge has been made against him.

Port Huron—The state highway department has promised W. W. Cox of Clair County, highway engineer and Frank Beard, county road commissioner that it will construct 37 miles of concrete highway on state trunk line M-27, the river road leading from Port Huron to Detroit. This means that, with the exception of a short stretch near St. Clair, a dedicated concrete highway will extend from Port Huron to Detroit along the St. Clair river.

Ann Arbor—More than 30 students of the University of Michigan will spend the summer making a survey of the industrial situation of Detroit through actual contacts with the workers and employers. Those selected for the survey will be given positions in Detroit factories where they will have opportunity to gain first-hand information. The survey group of the university is one of the several from other colleges throughout the United States which will be in the Detroit situation this summer.

You Will Save Nothing by Using Inferior Lumber

Whatever the difference in the first cost may be, you can never expect to save money in the long run by using inferior quality lumber and building material.

The ravages of the weather soon reveal the weaknesses of cheaper lumber. A house worth building is worth the trouble of sound construction for permanence and lasting beauty.

Experience has taught us the economy of good quality lumber. We handle none other.

When she was about eight years of age her parents came to America, settling at Bedford, where she made her home until her marriage to Anthony A. Kohler on September 16, 1872, at Detroit. They resided in the city until they came to Northville about 38 years ago. To this union nine children were born, three sons having preceeded their mother in death. Her remains were brought to the old home and funeral services were held at Our Lady of Victory church in this village last Thursday morning. Solemn requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Schuler, assisted by Father J. Dowdell of Dearfield as deacon, Father Thos. Lee of Detroit as subdeacon and Father T. P. X. Hanly of Highland Park as master of ceremonies. A very consoling and instructive sermon was preached by Father Hanly.
