THE DOG MENTIONED LAST WEEK HAD RABIES.

The dog, about which we had a notice last week had rabies. That is the report received by Village Health Officer Schuyler the first of the week. Before the dog was killed the animal had bitten upwards of twenty dogs and killed some chickens. Other dogs and other animals outside of the village might have been attacked before the beast went on a rampage. Some owners of dogs which were bitten last week decided to take no chances and they had their animals killed right away, while others naturally waited for the report from the university.

Now that the report has been received there is but one safe course to adopt. Every dog that was bitten ought to either be killed or kept shut up away from people and animals, and every other dog in the village ought to be kept on the owner's premises and carefully watched, while the owners of ownerless, homeless dogs ought to be killed without delay.

It is horrible thinking for a person to be bitten by a dog with rabies. The treatment requires daily attention for a period of six weeks and the horror of the thing is more terrible than the treatment itself. A notice appears elsewhere in today's Record calling upon dog owners to keep their animals shut up as a matter of public safety, and every citizen who values the life of human beings will heed the warning. Your children and yourself may escape, but your neighbor's family may be sorely afflicted if you fail to exercise due care.

If you think more of your dog than you do of your neighbor, you are not a good neighbor.

YOUNG MAN DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Elnor R. Fisher, 17, Eastlawn Sanatorium on Tipton, died yesterday and the funeral was held in Schmidt Brothers' funeral chapel where he was buried Friday morning. He died Saturday in Rev. William E. Schmitz, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Schmidt, of Rural Hill, who died suddenly last month. He is survived by his mother, James L. Fisher, two brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Fisher, of Northville, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Fisher, of Tipton. He had been ill for a long time, but he had been improving, but the change in his recovery, his health, but in spite of this fact that everything was done for him, he was called to the Eternal Home. He received his education in the Athol Grammar School, and was an active member of the Southern Methodist Church, where he sang in the choir and as a youth of sterling character. He was born in Franklin on September 10, 1907. His sister, Mrs. Adele Fisher, resides in Woodward, D. C., where she has a residence convenient to her, to be near and to place him in the aid and comfort of his family.

BUSINESS MEN ASK RETRIEVAL OF HOUR PARKING BILL.

A petition was circulated among the business men of the Village last Friday by the village council not to enact the plan for hour parking on the streets of the village as proposed by a motion carried at the meeting of the council. The motion of the council was passed on the part of the business men that they would take their own cars on the street and thus give the sun used for parking cars for those who have business in the village, and the ordinance will put into execution a good many along the streets during the day, and it is sincerely hoped that this practice will be continued. If the business people keep their pledge, and we believe they will it will not be necessary to enforce the plan for hour parking.

WHICH WAY ARE WE GOING?

Some six years or more ago mail was sent from Northville by bus to Wayne, from which point it was distributed over the Michigan Central to distant points. Then came the Pere Marquette railway and the mails were sent out over that line. When the main schedule was torn into shreds a year or so ago the D. U. R. was used to get mail in and out of Northville. At the present time we are using buses again and the question arises whether are we bound

The Sands of Waikiki

BY LOUIS RAYBOLD

(Copyright)
IT IS something to be thirty-five and look twenty-six. Far better than to be an heiress Anne Lawton was born. Yet she was unmarried and unattached. There had been men—oh, yes, several, but they had come and gone. She had known fortune hunters and she had resolved to remain single longer than to wed for any other reason than love on both sides.

Of course, in addition to these dismissed suitors, there was always George Stanley, who could never be called a fortune hunter because of the fact that he was the owner of the second largest sugar plantation in Hawaii. It was as a member of his party that Anne was now staying at Waikiki, although it was rather through friendship for George's sister than for George himself that she had consented to come, not wishing to raise false hopes in George's ample bosom. To wed George would be to banish the last hope of romance forever. For George was forty and looked fifty.

Anne sat this morning on the beach, lifting the shining sand in handfuls and letting it sift through her fingers.

Not far from her a party of bathers had thrown themselves down and Anne watched them idly. A couple of middle-aged women, a slim brown girl, and a clear-skinned, nice-looking young fellow—all Americans from the States, judging by their conversation, much of which drifted unavoidably to Anne.

Suddenly she saw one of the women notice the other, and both looked as casually as possible in her direction.

"Oh, yes," Anne knew exactly what they were saying. "My dear, that's old Lawton's daughter. Her picture was in the photograph section Sunday."

All could see that the young people weren't especially interested, but the women couldn't help judge each other and wonder.

Anne met that evening the most interesting mixture of society. They sang songs from the visiting war ship in Pearl Harbor when Captain Lawton, the head of the hotel, had come down at the hotel, having just left and returning home after a long absence. Anne was in a daze of admiration before the hotel was mentioned again on the radio. "It's a great place," she said faintly.

Now two days Anne had nothing to do but sit and dream and watch the world go by. She was alone in her room, in her old friend, Mrs. Lawton, her maid, and the maid's son, Jerry. The maid was now too old to have to go to work.

"It's like old times," Jerry said. "We're all alone now, and the old friends that used to be around are gone. The maid is dead, and the boy is dead."

"It's like old times," Jerry said. "It's like old times, but she's broken up. I'm afraid I'm the only one left in the old family. I'm the only one left in the old family."

For Anne knew that a proposal hovered on Jerry's lips and she had already decided upon her answer. Never again, she knew, would Jerry be at her feet.

Anne was going to a yacht club dance that night with Jerry. It was during intermission that he led her out to a little balcony hidden from George and sweet with the perfume of Hawaian night.

"Anne darling," he began at once, "Anne darling, I love you. If you don't think I'm too much of a kid."

Anne shivered suddenly. Did Jerry know her age? "You're a dear, aren't you?" she said innocently.

"I've always complained," he went on merrily, "that people aren't happy where the discrepancy in their ages is too great. And if you're really as much as twenty-five or even twenty-four, I must seem frightfully young. Yet I'm almost twenty-five."

"Twenty-thirty-five," Anne mentally made the dreadful calculation. It wasn't fair—to feel so young and be so old. It wasn't fair.

"Poor Jerry," she murmured. "Weighed down with years!" Then lighter she took George's gift and hung it to another. I could possibly marry you, dear child. If you think I've led you on, hate me, get back to Joan and let her comfort you."

Next morning she led the amiable George, her host, down to the beach. "Isn't sand wonderful?" she said, lifting it, sift shining through her slender fingers. "It's so agreeable. Age means nothing to it. Nothing. And now," she became brisk and business-like. "If your many offers still hold good, just when would you like me to marry you?"

SOLOMON'S ADVICE STILL STANDS

To the countless young women and young men who are graduating from High schools and colleges throughout the country we especially commend the reading of King Solomon's argument for education as set forth in Proverbs III. These words were spoken a thousand years before the Savior of the world and the world's greatest Teacher appeared upon the scene, but they are just as true today as they were at the time they were uttered. Young people will find these words worthy of their consideration.

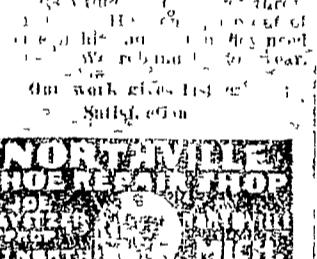

GREEKS ARE PHILANTHROPISTS

In Greece the wealthy men made gifts to the nation and leaving legacies to cities, temples in a way that ensures the rich men of his generation in Europe. This is due only to the natural desire of the Greeks to improve themselves and to render assistance to their country.

ARE HOMES AS GOOD

AS THEY USED TO BE?

Does the 1926 home give value received? Are the boys and girls equipped to meet the stress and strain of life? Are they able to put up a sturdy fight against evil?

Does the modern home teach obedience, honesty, truth, respect, fair-mindedness and are these qualities exemplified by the parents?

Some folks say the American home is slipping and others say it is marching properly for our day and its demands. What is your opinion?

Joseph lived in an atmosphere of envy and jealousy and he was sold into slavery. As years went on this boy came to power and leadership and was thereby enabled to save the family that so despised him at one time.

Because of his character, and early training Joseph came through most trying experiences and his name is writ large upon the scroll of fame. The home should help us young to achieve results.

NOTICE

TO ALL

Dog Owners!

Owing to the fact that the dog killed in this village last week after some twenty or more dogs had been bitten was afflicted with rabies it has been deemed advisable as a matter of public safety to ask all owners of dogs in the village to either chain their dogs securely or shut them up on their own premises and not to permit them to run at large or mingle with people or animals of any kind for a period of six weeks.

All dogs found running at large after this date will be reported to the village marshal and they will be gathered in and unless the owners will promise to comply with this request the animals will be killed.

Some will complain and make all sorts of excuses because this order has been issued, but if they could witness just one case of rabies as it affects human beings or animals they would be willing and anxious to co-operate in every way possible.

The treatment for rabies requires daily attendance for a period of thirty days—not just one day—but for every day during that period and the thoughts of what the outcome may be are terrible to contemplate.

If due care is exercised and other developments are promptly reported, the matter can, doubtless, be easily controlled, but every dog owner must help.

If you value your dog keep the animal on your own premises and if you value your children you will not permit them to play with any dog during this six weeks period.

Citizens of Northville are asked to co-operate in this matter and to report to the undersigned all dogs they discover running at large or not properly under control on the premises of their owners.

Village Health Officer.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

Lansing—At a Gen. Andrew B. Dougherty ruled recently that when automobile drivers' licenses are revoked for recklessness or driving while intoxicated they must remain invalid for the period designated by the trial judge. Neither the court nor the Secretary of State has the power to reinstat the license prior to the expiration of the term, he held.

Monroe—The fortieth reunion of the famous Seventh Michigan Volunteer Infantry, formed here in 1861, is to be held here during the historic pageant June 23-24, according to a letter received here from President Major Robert C. Klaggs, permanent president, Evart, Mich. Burton S. Knapp, general chairman of the pageant, has invited the veterans to participate in the parade.

Detroit—A load of experimental cattle which were fed at the Michigan State College during the past winter, were sold recently at the top figure of $11 per hundred pounds.

These cattle weighed over the scales at an average of 887 pounds, and were classed as prime baby beef. Their average weight at the beginning of the experiment in November was 400 pounds, and the cost in the lots $3.50 per 100 pounds.

Lansing—The Michigan Education Association is working out plans for a uniform distribution of reading books for schools of the state's fall and winter. At a recent meeting of the executive committee action was taken to bring about the service. Distribution of the books will be handled through a special reading curric board which will maintain an approved list of books from which each school may make its selection.

Northeast—Miss Avis M. Brown, daughter of E. E. Brown, editor and publisher of the Northville Record, will be valedictorian of the class of 1927 at the Northville High School at graduation exercises June 28. Her average attained to is far above that of the school regulars. In the school year beginning 1922-23 Brown is serving in chief of the local annual paper, the Record, as the accompanist for the band.

South—Miss Virginia Frazee, a young member of the faculty of the City Emporium in the presence of Mr. H. H. Johnson, president of the Michigan Welfare Association, has addressed the ladies group of the commerce department of the University School of Music. Frazee pointed out that modern music, like modern painting, lacks beauty, and goes no argument to the efforts of musicians seeking to satisfy a pleasure-loving and apparently hating public.

Grand Rapids—Increased competition among Grand Rapids milk dealers has forced the city down to the point that some of the smaller dealers are offering milk at eight cents a quart at 11 sald that there were never so many dealers in Grand Rapids as at the present time. A plentiful supply of milk, a good demand for the product and the competition has so upset the market that the retail price ranges from 12 cents per quart to the new low figure.

Lansing—Failure of several bus companies to enforce compliance with speed laws for motor vehicles may result in license revocation.

Stevens T. Tracy, director of the Pat. & T. Library, Grand Rapids, Michigan, is advising the cities of the state to banish the use of the automobile to combat some of the auto accidents. Since then, a grain dealer and a man of warm heart have been of no use. Some accident has been referred to the committee.

Lansing—Possibly the first real seed difficulties may arise as State highway plans are seen in an injunction granted by the Michigan Supreme Court to Charles A. Lender, agent of Jackson county commissioners, to stop work on the state highway commission. From competing work on land condemned for highway purposes. He had sought an injunction under the contention that land can be condemned only for highway purposes by a jury of twelve men and men only in the case of necessity.

Ypsilanti—Construction work on the railroad bridge to connect the lake side of the Ypsilanti Central with the proposed new Ford automobile plant three miles southeast of here, is expected to begin at once. The Ford Motor Co. recently acurred for men to work on the railroad. It is proposed to erect a $3,000,000 plant near here for the weaving of upholstery cloth for enclosed cars. It is to be operated by power furnished by a hydroelectric plant on the Huron River south of Ypsilanti.

Clare—The State Association of Farm Mutual Insurance companies held a two day session here, June 9 and 10. It was largely attended by delegates representing the companies in every section of the state, insuring 332,000 farms carrying $1,000,000,000 insurance. The attendance was larger than any previous meeting of the association. Efforts extending over a period of nine years to adopt a standard form policy were successful after a full afternoon session by a 75 percent vote.

Flint—Flint's summer tax rate for 1926 will be $19.50 for each $1,000 of assessed valuation. The rate is based on a valuation of $164,285,692. This is an increase of $1.50 over the 1925 summer rate.

Jackson—Guard Arms of the Republic veterans and 10 other patriotic organizations will meet in Benton Harbor for next year's convocation.

It was decided by delegates to the forty-eighth G. A. R. Encampment

Young At 60,
Or Old At 40?
Diet Decides

Women are as old or as young as their stage of health. A woman may be young at sixty years or old at forty. It all depends on her physical well-being.

Youth and beauty have a foundation in sound health. And food is easily the most important item in health. In giving consideration to the subjects of diet and beauty, women should not forget the food essentials that make for the preservation of teeth, hair, figure and complexion.

Blame for round shoulders, flat chests and poor teeth among women is due in large measure to faulty diet, or, specifically, to a lack of lime and phosphorus. Milk, or evaporated milk, which is simply cow's milk with 60 per cent of the water taken away, is especially rich in lime.

Because of the concentration of evaporated milk, which is regulated by government standards, it is of double the richness of ordinary market milk, as is shown in the following table:

	Ordinary Milk.	Evaporated Milk.
Fat	2.5 to 4 per cent	7.8 to 8.2 per cent
Sugar (lactose)	4.5 to 4.7 per cent	8.5 to 10 per cent
Proteins	3.5 to 4 per cent	1.4 to 1.6 per cent
Minerals	to .75 per cent

A quart of milk a day for adults is recommended by doctors not only because of its high mineral content, but for the reasons that it helps keep the digestive tract in proper condition, strengthens the body, prevents disease and gives proper balance to the diet.

Salad Lettuce is an important part of the diet. Some sort of a salad, lettuce, radish, fresh fruit, cabbage or a pickle, must be eaten at least once a day. Neither is the daily consumption of fruit a guarantee of health. Fresh fruit juice, valuable for those who cannot eat solid fruit, also have very beneficial properties.

If a woman follows out the rules of diet, it helps to her with her health more than anything else.

ECZEMA

MILFORD WOMAN DIES SUDDENLY.

Starting out last Thursday morning to visit relatives in Toledo, O., Mrs. Lelia Cronk, 65 years old, who resided at Milford, with her sister, Mrs. Charles Teeter, suffered a heart attack and died within five minutes after leaving her home.

WEST POINT YIELDS RELICS OF INTEREST

Found on Camp Site of Patriot Soldiers.

Many unique relics of the Revolution have been unearthed in the site of the original camp of the Continental forces at West Point. After lying buried for a century and a half these objects today throw an interesting light on the life of the old garrison.

Hundreds of relics of the old camp have been discovered. The commonest of these are the buttons from the uniforms of the soldiers, which make it possible to identify the regiments encamped here. One of the most interesting of the finds were the tools used in manufacturing buttons which form a primitive button factory.

The tools were cut from bone by means of a cutting tool some six inches in length. This cutter made it

HAGENBECK-WALLACE CIRCUS AT DETROIT, JUNE 20TH.

Brilliant and highly colored circus posters throughout the city and countryside proclaim the coming of the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace circus to Detroit for the afternoon and night performances on June 20th. Hagenbeck-Wallace is known universally as the "highest class circus on earth."

During the week advance representatives have been in this community heralding the appearance of the big circus in Detroit for two exhibitions. Advance men state that the Hagenbeck-Wallace troupe this year has more novelties and features than ever before, and the exhibition will mark epoch in trained animal feats and equestrian acts. A menagerie containing practically a specimen of every living animal today is being carried while the performance is said to be the last word in gorgeous costumes, pretty ladies and beautiful horses.

During the three months previous attention was paid to the wild animal portion of the program. A corps of trainers, including Claude Beau, the rough-and-ready and Bob McPhee, noted European subjects worked extra hours at the Peru Indiana winter quarter insuring new tricks, feats and stunts into the savage jungle beasts.

In the rings and on the stars, as well as the hippodrome track, there will be features of international reputation including the Orkin, Davenport family of equestrians and the Ward-Kimball troupe of daring acrobats. PRIMARY COST PUT AT OVER $2,000,000

Record Sums Are Shown to Have Been Expended in Pennsylvania.

Washington—Revelations to the Senate committee which is making an investigation into the political slush fund, brought the total expenditures in the recent Pennsylvania senatorial primary struggle, thus far disclosed, to over one and a third million dollars. The total, as read into the record by Senator LaFollette, was $1,591,000, and the end had not been reached.

The total expenditures thus far brought out for the Pepper-Fisher ticket, in themselves soared above $1,000,000. They are computed at $1,046,000. Adding to these $195,000 for Puchot and $71,000 for Vare's personal contribution, and $79,000 expended for him in Allegheny county, makes the total of $1,880,000.

It is now generally expected that it will be shown the total expenditures in the recent primary exceeded $2,000,000, the largest ever brought to the attention of a committee of Congress.

The possibility that Mr. Vare, a selected senator, will be subjected to a senatorial committee investigation because he is accused of holding his seat as being discussed.

Walled Lake Warbles.

Mrs. Irene Jones, wife of Clark Jones, who died here four years ago, passed away at the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles Harmon in Milford last Thursday, after an illness of three years. She was 73 years of age. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon and interment took place in the Walled Lake cemetery.

A class of fifteen graduated from the Walled Lake High school Tuesday night. The baccalaureate address was given by Rev. Dr. C. F. Draper on Sunday night, and class night was observed Monday evening. A picnic at Frains Lake Friday will close the school year, which has been a very successful one.

The cottages about the lake are filling up for the summer season. A number of new residences are under construction in this section.

The Walled Lake Civic Welfare League met at the home of Mrs. W. N. Pringle Wednesday.

Walled Lake Exchange Club was well represented at the state meeting at Bay City Sunday and Monday. The young men and women composing classes in the M. E. Sunday School were pleasantly entertained by Miss Margaret Tisdale of Oakley Park, where games and music were enjoyed. A camp luncheon was served the cemetery company.

PLANS BEING PERFECTED FOR "AMERICA"

More than 1,000 persons will take part in the production of "America," the first national Shadulton Grotto annual, an elaborate spectacle and circus, which will be held June 19 to 23 at the Michigan State Fair grounds, Detroit, Mich.

This vast number of men and women are required to give a realistic presentation of the stirring scenes of Revolutionary days with full importance as part of the program. American engineers, the Indians, the slaves, the founders of the nation, etc., will work a giant out of 1,000 feet of limestone with hammers and chisel.

Rev. Dr. John C. Winter, chairman of the planning committee, said: "It is a great pleasure to see how the work is progressing. It is a great honor to be associated with so many fine people in this project."

In leaving his residence to welcome the papal legate, Cardinal Hayes violated a tradition of the church which says that a visiting cardinal is received at the palace of the residing cardinal.

The departure from custom is a tribute to the high office of Cardinal Bonzano, who has only one superior, the pope.

How do they "figger"

Some people say: "It's cheaper to rent than to own a home of your own."

If that's true, think of how much money the poor landlord must be losing to make it possible for his tenants to rent instead of having to own homes of their own!

Yes, strange to say, we don't find many landlords at the poor farm!

Nelson of Detroit, will take place Saturday noon, June 19th, in the Presbyterian church in this village. Mrs. Joseph Maxwell Sherron, who will be Miss Steffy's matron of honor, gave a bridal party, and linen shower last Thursday evening at her home on Lakewood avenue, Gross Pointe. LOCAL MEMBERS BEWARE.

An exchange reminds us that most luncheon clubs such as the Royal Exchange, Lions, etc., do not typify a new idea according to records. Luncheon Clubs were well established in Anderson's day when "Spectator Club" flourished under rules that if a clubber "None shall be admitted into the club—that is, of the same trade with any member of it, if any member wears or carries his neighbor that give him a kick in the hind and a hard blow while inspecting a man-note on Mill street." NORTHVILLE 12 TO ANN ARBOR 4.

Northville defeated the colored team of Ann Arbor easily last Sunday. Both teams used three pitchers, but the visiting twirlers got the worst of it, the score being 12 to 4.

Next Sunday the Wayne team, which defeated Northville recently, will come here. This will mean a good game. Then, the following Sunday the Detroit Firemen, who played havoc with the House of Correction team, will come.

Both the Wayne and Detroit are semi-pro clubs and tough teams to defeat.

Base ball fans who are up with the times know that Northville, Wayne and Detroit Firemen are three high-class ball clubs composed of good amateur and professional players. These teams will on next Sunday and then Sunday following give the ball patrons of Northville some good contests.

AL PETERS OVERCOME IN MAN-HOLE.

Al Peters, who was employed by Weston & Montgomery, sewer contractors, had a narrow escape Tuesday afternoon while inspecting a man-hole on Mill street. He had inspected a number with no ill effects, but in this particular one he was overcome with gas and he was rescued by fellow-workmen who were working above ground. He went down in the man-hole on a ladder and as soon as he reached the bottom he realized his danger and started to climb back up the ladder, but when he had ascended about half way he became unconscious and fell to the bottom of the pit, which was about fourteen feet deep at that point.

W. L. Benner secured a rope and one of the fellows went down the ladder and fastened one end around the body of the stricken man and, by heroic effort he was finally pulled out. He was unconscious, of course, and it was thought he was dead but he soon revived and within a short time he was alright again except his right ear had been bruised and the back of his head was hurt by the fall.

A QUIET WEDDING THIS AFTERNOON.

The marriage of two of Northville's young people, Floyd Lanning, assistant cashier of the Laporte State Savings Bank to Miss Marjorie Hancy, announced to take place this afternoon in the Methodist church. Their passor Rev. William Richards, will perform the ceremony and they will leave by auto for a tour through New York state, winding up with a visit at the bride's old home near Ovid.

On Friday night of last week, Mrs. E. S. Neal entertained in honor of Miss Hancy at a kitchen shower, participated in by the Sunday school class of which she is a member. On Monday night the Sunday school class which she teaches, surprised her with another entertainment and shower at the home of Mrs. Wendt, and on Monday afternoon a number of the employees of the Phoenix Ford plant gave her a neat surprise in the shape of a venice roast and utensil shower in the Phoenix Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Lanning are building a new residence in Orchard Heights and soon after their return home will begin house-keeping in a handsome new home. They have many friends in this community who will extend hearty congratulations.
