BLACKMAILERS THREATEN BIS. HOP GALLAGHER.

Letters demanding $20,000 from Rev. Michael J. Gallagher, bishop of the Roman Catholic diocese of Detroit, are not the product of a crack, but are from professional blackmailers. It was disclosed Monday by E. E. Fretter, post office inspector.

As a result of the receipt of the letters by Bishop Gallagher, police and private detectives are guarding the episcopal residence in Palmer Woods, and strangers approaching the bishop's house are closely scrutinized.

GARDINERLY.

Last Thursday morning the marriage of Leonie Grant of Milford and Miss Bernadine Ver Duren, of Novi, was solemnized at the Our Lady of Victory Church in this village. Rev. Father Joseph Schreiter officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Helen Newbold of Novi, and Rialto Albert of Milford. Miss Ver Duren was the best man. Miss Ver Duren wore a lovely gown of cinnamon colored georgette with picture hat of the same fabric. After the ceremony the wedding party of eighteen were served to an elaborate breakfast at the bride's home at Novi. The young people will spend a few days at Van Lutjen Lodge, near Tawas, and after a week at the bride's home will spend the coming year at Milwaukee, where Mr. and Mrs. will continue their studies in the dental department of Marquette College.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Ver Duren of Novi and has many friends in this section who will extend hearty congratulations.

VAST CROWDS JAM STREETS TO SEE MICHIGAN THEATRE

Not since the visit of Charlie Chaplin a few years ago has downtown witnessed such enormous crowds as thronged to the opening performances of the new Michigan Theatre. The theatre, a $6,000,000 place that combines its glories with art and music, is the world's most outstanding theatre surpassing any that has ever been built in the world. It is operated by the John H. Kuppen Enterprises of Detroit, and Balaban & Katz of Chicago.

The opening program consisted of a feature picture, a 20-minute concert by the 50-piece symphony orchestra, a stage production of operettes featuring four famous Chicago and New York opera stars; a stage production stars from Ziegfeld Follies, musical comedies and vaudeville. The huge pipe organ is the first in the world to equal a 200-piece orchestra.

NORTHVILLE FAIR NOTES

The better baby contest and the baby clinic will take place on Friday this year, nor on Wednesday as in former years. Application blanks may be secured from Mrs. Flora Larkins, superintendent, anytime or at the office of the secretary on the grounds after September 10th. Every father and mother are urged to take an interest in the feature of our fair because the boys and girls of his community are truly the best crop that is being raised here.

The tree, acts this year will delight all the visitors, and the fireworks each night will afford many thrills.

A number of teams have already been signed up for the base ball tournament, and the fans will have six days of real sport.

Know Thyself

Turn thine eyes unto thyself and separate thou judge not the deeds of other men. In judgment of others a man labored in vain often erreth and easily smirches, but in judging and examining himself he always laboreth fruitfully.—Thomas à Kempis.

Man Who Counts

The man to whom an executive is most grateful—the man whom he will work the hardest and value the most—is the man who accepts responsibility willingly.—Clifford Punchot.

BASE BALL NEWS.

The Northville ball club took part in three games on three consecutive days and made an excellent showing in all contests.

Last Friday at the Milford Fair tournament they defeated the strong Pontiac team six to five. The following day our local team were placed against Milford who had won from Holly on Wednesday. The battle between Northville and Milford was a real contest, going ten innings and our neighboring team coming out victorious five to four. The winning run coming across the plate after two men were out. This gave George Hulke's team or this village second money in the fair tournament and only losing by a narrow margin.

Having played Friday and Saturday,
Sunday was open for the Thos
J. Dorle Club of Beeton, that came here with their nine and also accompanied by a band of musicians. The band played well but the ball team was not equal to the occasion and were beaten twelve to three. Edgar Frederick caught the last game and did a good job for a catcher who had not been behind the bat this season.

MANY TONGUES HEARD IN CATHOLIC CHURCHES.

At least 15 languages are used in the Roman Catholic Churches of Michigan, according to statistics recently compiled from official investigation. Owing to its large foreign born population Detroit has a large number of churches attended by people to whom English is the adopted language and many other communities throughout the state provide for the spiritual needs of foreign language groups.

The earliest Catholic church in Detroit was French. This was, much ago, in many of the settlements of the southern part of the state. Then came the so-called Irish parishes

where English was the language used.
Later there were established many

German, Polish and Belgian parishes.
In Detroit alone there are today

churches where Polish is the language of a majority of the parishioners.

However, in every Catholic parish in the state, with the exception of those just mentioned, there is the same number and proportion of Latin in the Roman Rite. In the language of the Mass and in ceremonies whether the celebration is American, English, Latin, Albanian, Peterite, African, etc., Latin is used.

The first Latin church in the state was founded in 1812 in Detroit and consists of the Detroit and Albanian parishes.

The Melkite, the Greek in the official language, and Syrians used in the Services in the Maronite church. The ancient Romanian—the language

used in the Roumanian Greek church.

In addition of these churches however, irrespective of language, the order of services follows the Byzantine rite, a ritual as old as the Catholic Church itself.

Some of the nations represented
among Michigan's Catholic churches are Poland, Lithuania, Italy, Hungary, Croatia, Slovenia, Slovakia, Romania, Bulgaria, Syria, Mexico,
Belgium, Malta, France and Germany.

WASHTENAW COUNTY FAIR NOTES

The seventh annual Washenaw County Fair which will be held Aug. 31; September 1, 2, 3, and 4 will indicate the agricultural progress Washenaw County has made in the past year. Organized and operated solely for the purposes of adding and fostering the improvement of all branches of livestock, horticulture, agriculture, and domestic arts and for the building of a greater home, community and country spirit, the 1926 Washtenaw County agricultural exposition will break all previous records for quality of exhibits, educational displays and wholesome entertainment and recreation.

The exhibition space for the 1926 Washenaw County Fair will be filled with quality exhibits which it is believed will represent progress never before equalled in Michigan. Considering the last year's the Washenaw County Fair has been in operation. Financial gain given by Washenaw County has made it possible to provide suitable exhibit space for a number of departments which heretofore have been seriously handicapped for room.

In keeping with the growth development of Washenaw County Fair the management has contracted the highest possible class of entertainment and attractions for the exposition. Horse racing for the lovers of the sport or kings, a clean midway with all the modern features Washenaw County Fair can accommodate grandstand attractions of unusual merit, ranging every evening in the splendid new grand hall and to close every day's entertainment the most up-to-date and gorseous displays of fireworks obtainable.

In planning a greater Washenaw County Fair officers have borne foremost in mind the which will represent the township town and city in Washenaw County. Baseball teams, girls and misses from every part of Washenaw County Fair a full truck equipment of Washenaw County

ROSENWALD, CAPPER, PRESIDENT CONFER

Needed Legislation Chief Topic of Session—Market Plan Is Boosted.

Paul Smiths, N. Y.—Divergent views on farm relief legislation were reported to President Coolidge by Julius Rosenwald of Chicago, chairman of the board of a large mail-order firm, and Senator Arthur Capper, Republican, of Kansas.

Mr. Rosenwald came to White Pine

at the President's invitation.

Mr. Rosenwald in his talk with the President advised stronger measures to strengthen the co-operative marketing movement in the country. He urged especially a bank on roads and suggested state action or complete reorganization of the farm co-operative movement.

Mr. Rosenwald also discussed the general business conditions of the nation with the President. He noted

Mr. Capper's chart that he had prepared before the first session. The chart covered the period from July 1 to August 14, and showed a general healthy increase over the same period a year ago in the mail-order business, advertising, retail trade, and 23 percent in the Northwest, according to Mr.

Rosenwald was the only section of the country that did not show a satisfactory increase in volume of business.

Senator Capper told the President that the farm bloc will try for two pieces of legislation after the November elections. He said there would be an effort made to adjust the tariff to aid the farmer, and that the McNary-Haugen bill, perhaps in another guise, would be put forward again.

In an interview after his talk with the President, Senator Capper said:

"The farmers of the West are protectionists, and do not desire to tear down the tariff wall that has been built for the safety of this country's business. At the same time they feel they are not getting all the benefit they should from its protection."

For example, they believe there should be a duty on beef and lardes.

Also, the tung oil on wheat should be raised.

The carliss tree is getting nothing like his share of the general favor of prosperity because he is not sufficient to produce. Argentine beef and Argentine hides are sold in Kansas City and other places throughout the West in direct competition with American products.

"Wheat from the Argentine is not as good as the wheat from the Midwest," Senator Capper said.

Argentina's form of state ownership of railroads is not good.

For instance, Argentina's tariff is likely to harm the farmer, and it is apt to put him at a disadvantage

to the wheat of the United States.

The wheat of the United States

is not as good as the wheat of Argentina.

WORLD WILL NEVER BE WITHOUT FOOD

No Limit on Synthetic Products, Chemist Says.

Williamisport, Pa.—The world will always want food. There will always be enough to eat for everybody, and if we ever reach the very unlikely situation when there will be too many mouths to feed because of increase of population over the available food supply, we can live on yeast food products, which the chemist is now ready to supply in the illness of science.

This is all science, w is the cheerful statement made before the Institute of Politics by Dr. H. E. Barnard, president of the American Institute of Baking and Food Technology, in a discussion of the world food problem.

To the chemist the nutritional doctrine is but the old collection of a post-humous world," said Doctor Barnard, to the approval of many scientists in the audience. "It may be possible theoretically to force a time when our food supply will not be sufficient to feed the increase in population, but that time cannot be measured in terms of the extension of areas available for the production of cereal grains nor the ability of tillable lands to produce forage for conversion into meat."

"It is not too soon in the development of the synthetic food industry," Doctor Barnard continued, "to predict that if the need ever comes, the chemist will find a way to convert the light of sun and the nitrogen of the air into food for the human family. Already processes have been developed for the production of human food through the growth of the yeast plant which makes it possible to produce food at a very low cost and in enormous quantities."

Retail Food Prices on Decline in 44 Cities

Washington.—For the month ending July 15, retail prices of food in the United States declined in 44 major cities for which government records were kept, it was announced by the Labor department. The department's food price index for the period showed a decline of more than 2 per cent to a 157 index, as compared with 159.7 June 15, the report said.

Fourteen articles, the report said were cheaper during the month: potatoes leading the decline with an 18 per cent drop. Thirteen articles increased 3 per cent advance in fresh eggs being the highest. Fifteen showed no change.

Of the 44 cities showing decreases, Cleveland, with a 5 per cent, had the largest, while Kansas City was second, with a 4 per cent drop in average costs. Butte, Manchester and New Orleans, with a 3 per cent average increase, and Birmingham, Houston, Los Angeles and Mobile, with less than one-half of 1 per cent, were the cities where prices were higher.

45,064,000 Acres Wheat
to Be Sown This Year

Washington.—According to reports received by the Department of Agriculture from about 40,000 farmers, a total of 45,064,000 acres will be sown to winter wheat this year.

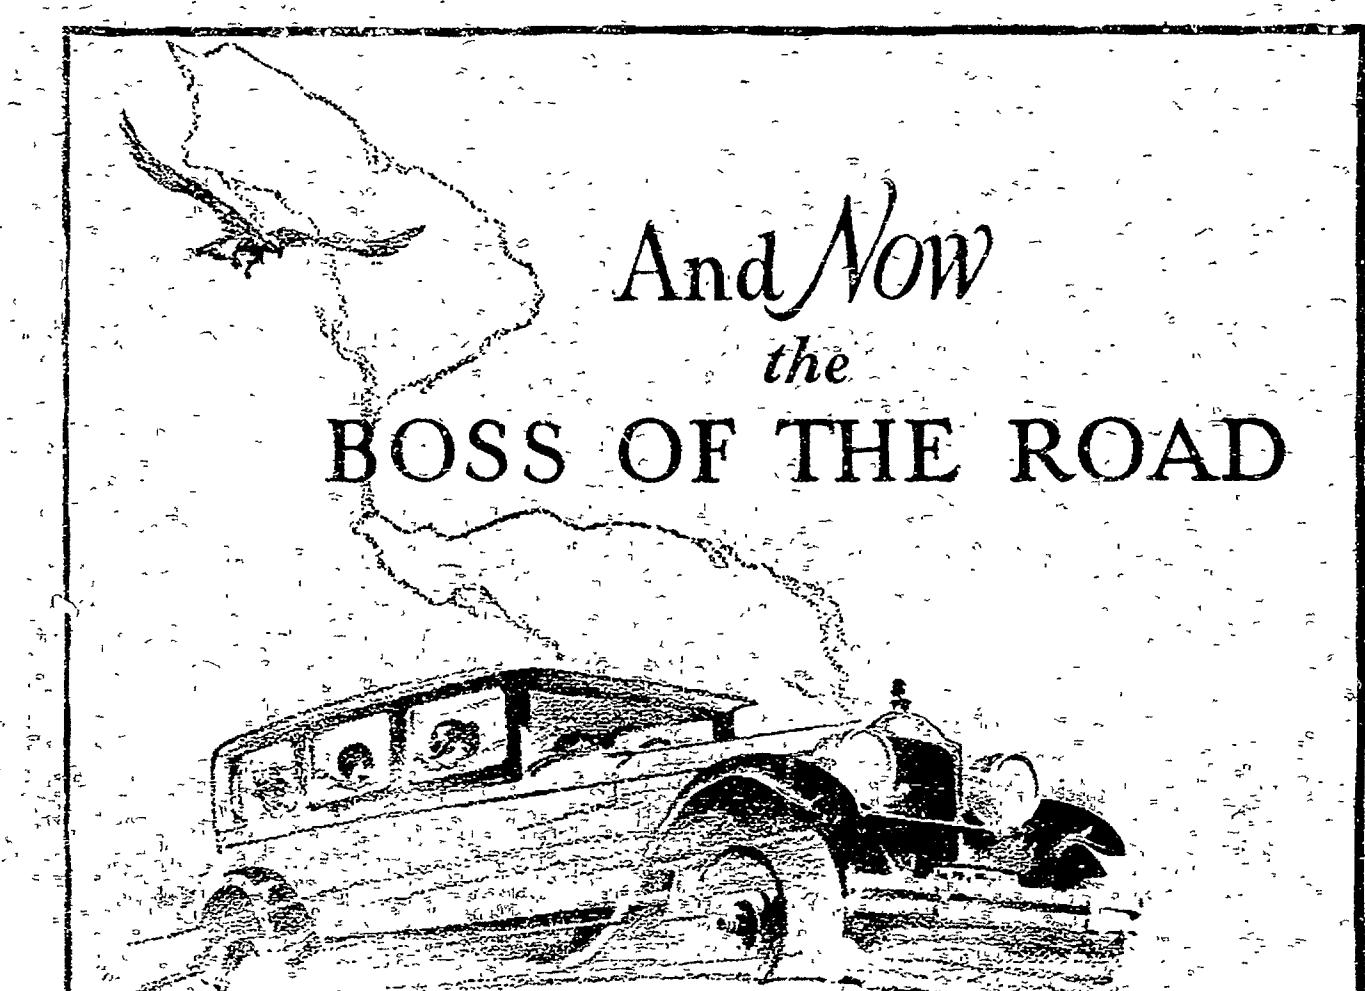

The acreage is 144 per cent in excess of that sown last fall and, if the intentions as indicated by the report are carried out, greater than the acreage of any year except the years of 1918, 1920, 1921 and 1922.

THE STORMING OF THE GATES

This picture is typical of many such scenes enacted daily at the main gates of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition in Philadelphia where the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence is being celebrated. The "shot" was made from outside the gates and shows the long sweep of historic Broad street, the main artery of the exposition. To the left can be seen one of the capitals of the Palace of Liberal Arts and Manufactures which covers nearly eight acres of ground and which houses some of the finest exhibits ever seen. The Exposition will continue until December 1.
