NORTHVILLE MASON CELEBRATE THEIR 60TH ANNIVERSARY

The Sixtieth Anniversary of Northville Lodge, No. 186, F. & A. M., was fittingly observed last Friday night when nearly 300 people gathered at the High school gym to enjoy the bountiful dinner and the very interesting program prepared for the occasion. Sixty years is a long time but during all that time the local lodge has flourished and its influence and teachings have been helpful and inspiring to a vast number of men.

In fact it would be difficult to trace these influences as they may have touched the lives of the members who have kept at the "Elks" of Masonry in Northville and his become identified with the great work of spreading men in all parts of the world who have found inspiration and truth at their Masonic shrines. The growth and expansion of Masonry has been steady and upward during all those years and today the organization occupies a unique place among fraternal societies.

Owing to the fact arrival of some of the invited guests who were to share a part in the program and two members of the order, it was not until when the guests had their places at the banquet, while the guests remained. Rev. William Robert, a past master and invoker of the Order, was present. He is the Past Master of the Elks Club. All that could have been done to make the gathering attractive and in the preparation of the dining room and the decorations of the room and some of the decorations of the hall were done by the members of the Lodge. Mr. W. H. Miller, Past Master of the Lodge, Mr. P. R. Alexander and Mr. G. C. Donaldson, Past Master of the Lodge, were present and a few visitors who extended greetings to the members and friends and relatives. All the members and friends and relatives held themselves in a most dignified manner, introducing each member with some of the pleasure that kept the atmosphere so good, however, the quartet composed of Messrs. C. R. VanValkenburgh, V. H. Bryan, S. G. Way and Undine sang two numbers and were warmly applauded. Past Master C. R. VanValkenburgh gave a very interesting history of Northville Lodge, reciting many interesting incidents which took place during the early years of its existence. Wayne Van Dyna favored the company with a vocal solo and kindly responded with a second number in response to the hearty applause given. Worshipful Grand Master Charles A. Donaldson of the Grand Lodge of Michigan was next introduced and gave an interesting address on the theme, "The Grand Master's Viewpoint on Michigan Masonry." He told of some of the work that has been accomplished and related some of the principles for which he was striving. He complimented Northville Lodge upon its progressiveness and stated that Michigan is the fifth largest Grand Lodge jurisdiction in the world and that four of the six largest lodges in the United States were located within the borders of the Wolverine state. He stated that the committee appointed to select a site for a new Masonic home for Michigan had not decided upon a location, and that every section of the state might still present their claims for the location of the new home.

During his remarks Toastmaster Hay stated that Northville was the smallest town in Michigan to have five Masonic bodies—Northville Lodge, Zion Chapter, Northville Commandery, Orient Chapter, O. E. S., and the Order of DeMolay. George E. Bushnell, president of the Past Masters' Association of Wayne County, was next introduced and gave a very interesting history of the Grand Lodge of Michigan, which received its charter 100 years ago. Worshipful Master George C. Conroy of Zion Lodge, No. 1, Detroit, brought greetings from the oldest lodge in the state and the third oldest in America. At the conclusion of the program the tables were cleared away and dancing was enjoyed until after midnight. In spite of the unfavorable weather conditions the affair was a real success and one that will long be remembered by all who were present.

Just before the close of the program Agent S. Miller presented, on behalf of the Lodge, a check to B. A. Wheeler and Fred K. Geese and a gold watch chain which was sold for the benefit of the Lodge.

L. G. Macomber guest of the Exchange Club.

L. G. Macomber is a former Northville boy, who is now traffic manager of the Detroit Chamber of Commerce, was a guest of the Exchange Club at its meeting on Wednesday evening, men gathered about the tables. With Scott Montgomery at the piano, and S. Neal, director of songs the members enjoyed a singfest that created a whole lot of merriment. Mr. Macomber recalled some of the happy incidents of his boyhood in Northville and stated he was always glad to get back to the old home town. Like everything else the old town is changing—it is no longer a small country village, but a part of the great Detroit area and within a few years he predicted, this section will be included within the borders of the city of Detroit. He urged all to speak a good word for their home town wherever an opportunity presented itself, and he expressed the opinion that this section would continue to grow and develop as the years passed.

THE REMOVAL OF OLD GARAGE MAKES A GREAT IMPROVEMENT.

Workmen have been busily engaged in removing the old stone building on the property now owned by the Ford Motor Company at the corner of Main street and Huron Avenue. The grounds will be filled in leveled and seeded and the corner will become a direct spot next season when the sidewalk on Main street will be raised and made to conform with the established grade. The foundations of the old school house, to a point just north of the corner on Huron Avenue, have been removed thus, and workmen will be engaged in the removal of the rock on the rear portion of the wall to be used as a foundation for a new building.

A PRINTING BUILDING TO BE OPENED SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred V. Taylor was the scene of a pleasant meeting—Worshipful Master of the Lodge, Past Master P. R.

Alexander and the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Michigan, who are around for a few days, were present and addressed the meeting.

LINCOLN FAMILY
FACTS REVEALEDFound in Records of Berks County, Pennsylvania.

Springfield, Ill.—The Lincoln tradition of Berks County, Pennsylvania, reviewed by the recent death of Robert Todd Lincoln, the Emancipation's last surviving child, has caused renewed historical researches into the Berks County records of early days.

Ancestry of Robert Todd Lincoln was studied in view of the fact that he was the last surviving member of the Lincoln family to serve in the state legislature a few years after the Civil War.

The first Lincolns came into Chester County from New Jersey about 1720. These early arrivals were Mordecai and his brother Abraham.

Mordecai's family comprised four children: Mordecai, Thomas, Virginia John and Abraham, born after his father's death. "Virginia John" was the great-great-grandfather of Robert Todd Lincoln.

After the death of Mordecai, the four sons moved to Berks County and the county records show the extent of the influence which the family exerted in the affairs of the county. Mordecai and his wife, Mary, were owners of property in Reading, and Thomas was elected county sheriff in 1755.

The younger Abraham, however, was the politician of the time. From 1772 to 1779 he served as county commissioner. Later he was elected to the state assembly and he represented the county during 1782, 1783, 1784 and 1785.

At the close of the Revolutionaries war he was chosen to make an address to General Washington on a visit to Philadelphia. In the original draft of the Pennsylvania Constitution of 1776 his signature is found as a member of the constitutional convention from Berks County.

Between the years of 1765 and 1768, "Virginia John," cited by the explorer Daniel Boone as a neighboring farmer, left the country and moved to Virginia. Some years later Abraham, son of the younger Abraham, left Virginia for Licking county, Kentucky.

In the meantime, a person had been in here who Abraham and Anna Boone, son of Daniel Boone, state writer, and wife, resided in the little cabin, a man who was not identified, and who was reported to be a member of the notorious gang of highwaymen known as the "Licking Gang."

He ignored $25,000.

George Gray, a tramp, dweller in the railroad yards of Dallas, Texas, ignores a legacy of $25,000 to remain with his soldering tools and his sheet iron shelter tent. The money was left Gray by a former customer and he was told four years ago to call at the county clerk's office to get it. He refuses to go after it, saying he will wait for it to be brought to him. He is still waiting.

GENERAL MOTORS PLAN FALL SHOW.

Colonial Exhibit Arranged for the Record Crowd Which is Expected.

Preparations for the fall showing of General Motor cars, which will be held simultaneously in the General Motors buildings, Detroit, and in dealers' showrooms within a 50-mile radius of Detroit, October 9th to 16th, are nearing completion. Officials in charge of the big displays announce preliminary plans for the show were made at a recent meeting presided over by Alfred E. Sloan, Jr., President of the General Motors Corporation.

The show will be open from 10:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. daily except Sunday, October 10th.

The General Motors buildings, located just off the exhibit, will be decorated to the hilt and its exterior will be illuminated completely around the roof eaves, towers, by a battery of 521 foot lights which imaginary arc installations.

Each of the lamps will be of 50-watt size and the aggregate will require 1,000 to 1,200 watts average.

Homes situated on the hilltops will be illuminated completely around the fifth story and directed upward and inward so as to illuminate the Corinthian columns and the surrounding corner, forming a band of light more than 100 feet in length, visible to thousands along the thoroughfares which radiate from the General Motors buildings.

THE MICHIGAN HIGH SCHOOL DEBATING LEAGUE.

The Michigan High School Debating League was organized by the board of regents of the University of Michigan in 1917, and this year begins its tenth year of activity.

Any four-year high school in the state may become a member of the league by sending a fee of two dollars to G. E. Densmore, manager, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

"Applications for membership will be received up to and including October 25th.

Debates are sponsored by the League and each school will participate in the four preliminary debates of the League.

These schools winning the highest records in the preliminary debates will enter the elimination series which will be successively reduced to 16 schools to 10 schools which will come to Ann Arbor for the state championship debate on May 1st.

The dates for the preliminary debates will be as follows:

First—November 19th, 1926

Second—December 10th, 1926

Third—January 14th, 1927

Fourth—February 11th, 1927

The question that will be debated this year is... Resolved, That the United States Government Should Own the Coal Mine.

SUPERHIGHWAY REPORT MADE

The first annual report of the Macomb-Wayne and Oakland-Wayne superhighway commissions was made public Tuesday with a complete resume of the work done by these bodies since their start in December, 1925.

Following the proposed superhighway plan for Greater Detroit, the two commissioners have been working together and, in conjunction with the three counties concerned, plan a complete system of superhighways throughout Wayne, Oakland and Macomb.

According to the report, there were 217 miles of superhighways in the system in 1924. Wayne County had 103.1 miles; Oakland, 39.6 miles; Macomb, 37.4 miles; and Detroit, 31 miles.

HANDSOME NEW SEDAN PRODUCED BY PAIGE

A new Paige, the 6-65 four-door sedan, a five-passenger car of striking appearance and unusually complete appointments, has been brought out by the Paige-Detroit Motor Car Company. Heretofore, only one model, the popular two-door Paige Eight, has appeared on this chassis.

The new 6-65 sedan marks a distinct advance in style. Contour colors and trim have been combined by the makers to produce an ensemble that is at once strikingly modern looking and unusually spacious and comfortable.

Particularly noteworthy is the appearance of length, skillfully attained through the artful combination of long and sweeping curves with low-hung masses, and carefully balanced colors

Mrs. Fred Fry is spending a couple of weeks with friends in Detroit.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. William Zanning, Tuesday, October 8th, a daughter.

Mrs. Ida Joslin, is at Grand Rapids this week in attendance at the grand chapter, O. E. S.

The chicken pie supper given by the Baptist ladies at the rink Wednesday evening was a success despite the rainy weather, nearly $22 being realized.

The Yarnall Gold Cure Company is enjoying an unprecedented boom. There were 22 patients at the institution last week.

Ed. Starkweather is the proud possessor of a young Hal Dillard colt that promises to make a famous pacer. It is rare record of better than 205.

Tuesday morning while William Elly was sitting in a buggy in front of the Park House, his horse, which was very restless, became suddenly unmanageable and ran away, going down Main Street at a pace which gave him the right-of-way at sight. Mr. Elly tried to regain control of the animal and would perhaps have succeeded, but the bug ran, striking, on the stone road with such force as to render him unconscious. He was taken into Dr. Henry's office and was found to have received a bad cut on his head from a sharp stone beside the curb stones.

HALF ADVERTISING SCHEMES.

One class of advertising that should receive the closest scrutiny of every business man are the fellows going around selling so-called advertising services. They come bearing into the store or office and under the spell they weave make a well-heeled business man believe he is getting a golden stream of dollars flowing in his direction, only to wake up later and find it a cataract and a snare.

These people are not worth the cost paper they are printed upon. Their big stock ads give you a bit of local color in them and cost nearly as much as a legitimate newspaper campaign would cost, advertising space and all. Your local newspaper stands ready to co-operate with you in putting over your advertising story and won't charge you a cent for it's service. The next time one of these fellows puts in an appearance show him the door—he has nothing you want.

Nearly every month some fellow visits Northville with some sort of advertising service to sell and they frequently make a sale but they never renew the contract for the second year because those who have had them they have been saying what a terrible waste of money it is to have these services.

FAVORS SURVEY OF DRAINAGE SYSTEMS

Secretary Hoover Urges Permanent Improvement.

Omaha, Neb., sponsors and supporters of the Missouri river waterways project who took part in a series of conferences with Secretary of Commerce Hoover here were advised by him that "it is high time the drainage system of the United States is made the object of a national wide survey." Hoover declared such surveys could be quite inexpensive or even unneeded, and that almost unneeded for settlement could be used to support the new drainage systems.

Concluding the two-day meeting of which he is president, said Mr. Hoover, "We must study the drainage problem in its relation to other factors determining how to start should be made in a way that both engineering and then the political branches do their duty and that the program is given for those works which will bring the greatest good to the greatest number."

"I believe it is possible," Mr. Hoover added, "to set up some kind of a definite body that will give immediate consideration to each of the drainage systems, in order that a general national program may be drafted as soon as possible."

New York G. O. P. Goes Wet; For State Option

New York—Reflecting the reaction against long dry prohibition in these parts the Republican party of New York went wet in convention as settled.

Hoover, by this means to prevail in contest with the Democratic party, which has opposed both dry prohibition in this state for six years, the Republican state convention adopted a platform too wet for the Republican party to stand on. This action definitely divides the Republican party from the Anti-Saloon League.

The platform, which was unanimously adopted, declares for enforcement of national prohibition so long as it remains law, but conforms to the voters' referendum on the question of modification, so as to permit individual states to define intoxicating liquor.

QUALITY AT LOW COST

Four Wide Doors—and the luxury of Fisher craftsmanship

As a contribution to luxurious low cost motoring, only the final perfection of the Pontiac Six itself exceeds in importance the introduction of the new Pontiac Six Landau Sedan.

Its rakish appearance has been achieved by mounting on the low swung Pontiac Six chassis an ultra-smart body by Fisher—finished in Sedge Green Duco, with the rear quarter trimmed in dull leather and embellished with Landau irons.

If your preference is for a four-door enclosed car, quality built, ultra-styled, commodious and low in price—you will find exactly what you want in the Pontiac Six Landau Sedan.

Pontiac Six Sedan or Coupe, $1,025. Oakland Six companion to Pontiac Six—$1,025 to $1,295. All cars at factory. Easy to pay on the liberal General Motors Time Payment Plan.

$100,000 PAID FOR ARMY-NAVY BOXES

Auction Sale of Seats for Big Football Game Brings Out High Bidders.

Washington.—It was reported from the White House that the President would be unable to attend the Army-Navy football game in Chicago on November 27. There was a feeling expressed, however, that the Middle West would probably exert a tremendous pressure in the hope of causing the President to change his mind. Secretary of War Davis and Secretary of the Navy Wilbur, together with the high ranking officers of both services, will be in attendance.

Chicago.—Society women, leaders in the mercantile world, politicians and sportsmen joined in spirited rivalry at the auction of tickets to the Army-Navy football game to take place here November 27, and paid thousands of dollars for the coveted tickets.

The highest price paid was $2,500.

The lowest price paid for one box of six seats was $150.

When the five hours of bidding was over, the arithmetic of the auction stood something like this: 10 boxes with an average of 6 seats apiece, sold for approximately $10,000.

"Four boxes remain to be sold. Bidders will have an opportunity to get these remaining boxes before October 31," the auctioneers announced.

Four hundred and thirty boxes were knocked down under gavel, wielded by South Park board commissioners. About 300 persons crowded the gold room of the Congress hotel, where the sale was conducted.

Buyers studied charts of Soldier field and offered highest prices for seats near the boxes of President Coolidge and members of his cabinet.

The first box, No. 1 in Section I, which cost $2,500, was bought out of the President's box on the Army side field for $2,500.

No. 2 was sold for $1,250 and No. 7 by night $100.

The average sale per seat was $2.50, on the basis of the average bid. The Army bid at the field noted about 7 per cent more than the Navy bid.

U. S. Envoy Declares

Germany Is Prosperous

Washington.—Two hot dogs, coffee, bread and fruit, the American ambassador to Germany, in his optimistic report on the economic, financial and political condition of the country.

Mr. Schuman said Germany's financial conditions are good and that the government will keep its next reparation payments prompt. His audience were probably, and the country politically, "in the dark." The Dreyfus plan, he said, will stand at least another year. In summing up the situation, he said:

"Germany appears much more prosperous than it was in 1919. Unemployment with 1,500,000 out of work, furnishes the only problem. This compares with conditions before the war."

A change of sentiment toward France is noticeable, Mr. Schuman asserted. This, he said, is noticeable in diplomatic circles, and is reflected in the newspapers.

"The people are beginning to realize," he said, "that unless conditions are changed the two nations must go on indefinitely tearing each other to pieces in fight, and that this is not worth while."

"They hold me," he said, "I wouldn't engage a girl driver if she knew her job as well as some men. A girl has far more audience with an invalid and—"

"They hold me," he said, "I wouldn't engage a girl driver. It was you who peevish because I don't happen to be a lady. I'd have to take another look for someone who wants a driver. But just the same," he added, "I can't see any fair reason why a man won't engage a girl driver when she knows her job as well as some men."

"If you're spindly," he said, "you wouldn't have such a strong desire to fight with me to readjustment." Mr. Schuman said soothily, "So if you want me to drive you into a brighter outlook, I'm ready any time you want to start. I want you to do me always at home as a champion and to treat me as such."

"And you have got to remember that I am a crotchetty invalid and must be crossed too much or I'll get mean and order you all over the place." He seemed already to have started his tour toward the brighter outlook. Mr. Schuman said nothing. She felt that he would respond to the call of life and forget that a woman had behaved badly to him before he was half way across the States.

During the following six weeks Winona played the part of a most perfect chanteuse. Never did the personal element enter into the situation. The trip itself was glorious and both Winona and her employer enjoyed the vast grandeur of the mountain roads and the unfolding miles of lovely scenery.

Warden, of course, had known from the very beginning that there was only one road to happiness for him, but he had to keep it all to himself for the time being. When the girl, who had turned him down, wrote a letter in which she said she had changed her mind and would marry him if he still loved her, Warden wrote back telling her very definitely that the past was past.

"We're going home by the straightest and quickest road," he told Winona that day, when she appeared ready, for the final day, that should decide the right to the coast.

Home she questioned blankly.

"Yes, unless you release me from the promise to look upon me as a son, and to care for me and my wife, hold me in romance forever, and the rest of the trifles of the world."

He Wanted a Driver

By DOROTHY DOUGLAS

(Copyright)

Of COURSE things would not have started so badly if Sam Warden had had sense enough to stipulate in his advertisement that he wanted a man driver of it Winona Harwood had had sense enough to suppose that a crotchety invalid was a man and not an old lady.

Naturally, when she read the advertisement, "Wanted, at once, careful, patient driver, who knows the country well and can do all repairs, for touring with crotchet invalid,"

she took it for granted that the advised was a woman.

Consequently, Winona arrived at

Sam Warden's house in the most optimistic frame of mind as well as a natty driving costume.

She was faced by a large young man who was most evidently suffering the very recent loss of an arm.

He looked at Winona and his brow darkened.

"You're a woman," he stated peev-ishly.

"I've always thought so," answered

Winona sweetly, "and you seem to be a man."

"And didn't my advertisement firmly stipulate that I wanted a man

driver?"

"It did not," said Winona, in her turn, showing a bit of peevishness, now did it state whether you were a man or woman?

Warden shaded urly.

"Well, now that we are both disappointed, what are you going to do about it?" he asked, and rather wished he might take his tour with Winona as driver.

"I'm rather fancy looking at your bark instead of one of those drivers with a cap always set at an angle that irritates me so that I want to give it a kick straight."

Winona let out a peal of laughter and for the first time since his accident Warden did the same.

"To tell you the straight truth," he continued, "I am most frightfully frigid and my heart and I want most of all to get away from this environment of aridity and heat and I'm going to marry me down when she looks—I well, one can't blame her. She never said bad things, and I'm going to marry her more, and it's a bit rough on a girl to tie up with a disabled man."

"I hope," said Winona with a laugh

in her voice but seeming neither

tear in her eyes, "that when I go to buy it will not be with a pair of

gloves!"

The second question was tough fall from Warden's lips. He looked at Winona with he said a bit grimly,

"No, I don't think you're the type of girl to this."

Winona turned toward the door.

For the first time in her life her heart beaten to the bark from a man's eyes.

"Well, here I don't happen to be a man," she said, "if you don't happen to be a lady, I'll have to take an other look for someone who wants a driver. But just the same," she added,

"I can't see any fair reason why a man won't engage a girl driver when she knows her job as well as some men."

"I hope," said Winona with a laugh

in her voice but seeming neither

tear in her eyes, "that when I go to

buy it will not be with a pair of

gloves!"

On Sunday evening Mary Astor and Lloyd Hughes will be seen in "High Steppers." Miss Astor's role in this picture is somewhat of a departure from her dual parts, which have been informed with a quiet dignity. The first episode, however, in "High Steppers" shows her ousted from college because of her alleged folly. Lloyd Hughes plays opposite her.

On Tuesday evening "The Strong Man" with Harry Langdon as the star will be shown. Good comedy and good music.

Here comes "Hoot Gibson" for Thursday night when he will be seen in "The Texas Stampede," a real westerner. The picture has few serious moments. With Hoot Gibson in his best comedy mood "The Texas Stampede" is a vastly amusing affair, traveling at a rapid gait, with many more developments of plot, and much breath-taking riding and bouting.

For Saturday evening the offering will be "The Son of the Sheik" with Randolph Valentine as the star. Everybody will want to see this picture, the last one of the popular act produced.

The Penniman-Alien theatre affords a delightful place for an evening's entertainment. Good pictures are shown, the comedies are good and the music is entertaining.

L. W. LOVELL PROVES A ROYAL HOST

Last Saturday, members of the Detroit Livestock Association met at the home of L. W. Lovewell for dinner. Three years ago Mr. Lovewell invited his friends in the livestock business to dinner and at their emphatic request the affair was made an annual one, particular being the third. Arrangements were made to seat 38 at the tables and the full number of invited guests were there notwithstanding the rain and disagreeable weather of last Saturday. After a general round-table dinner was served the good old fashioned wild game the round-robin checker for the greater center of attraction followed the round robin, running about the room in a circle of visit interlaced. The "old" supplies were passed around, heated with mounds of coals, which had to be demolished and then laid aside to make ample room for more and higher up. There were more than 300.

After a hearty meal of the best of the local specialties, the guests adjourned to the lounge, where they were given several opportunities for dancing and other social activities. The entire evening was a success and the men present were greatly pleased with the way the party was so royally rendered as to remember it in the memories of all.

Several from South Lyon and Northville were present and in his characteristic manner Mr. Lovewell extended the hospitality of his home and room to all as all times and particularly for the next year reunion.

Perhaps one of the sincerest praises to the Lovewell popularity was the full attendance notwithstanding the cold, rainy, disagreeable day of the fall equinox and every man was well repaid for braving such weather to the good old time reunion. —South Lyon Herald.

Ancient Lore of Pearls
Pearls have been found in the burial places of ancient man. They assumed a progressively greater importance as civilization advanced to a head. There is scarcely a people past or present which did or does not count pearls among the most valuable of its possessions.—Nature Magazine.

Named by Indians
Both Paraguay and Uruguay are Guarani Indian names. "Duguay" means river of waters, referring to the numerous tributaries; possibly from "gry-guy," meaning a bird's (uru) tail (curu)—resembling a waterfall. "Paragu" means the golden water, possibly from the water fog called paragua.

Babies' Great Need
Muggins—"That seems to be an extraordinarily bright child." Boggins—"Hub! I never saw an intelligent baby in my life." Muggins—"That's where you are wrong. All babies are intelligent. They have to be to understand the language their doting mothers talk to them."

Origin of Derisive Term
Dunce is a word introduced by the disciples of Thomas Aquinas in ridicule of the "disciples" of John Duns Scotus, who although a man of subtle intellect, was held by the more ignorant or prejudiced at the time of the reformation to be a man of inflexible stupidity.

RECORD LINES OF THE ONE

BAD CHECKS

For a longtime Michigan seemed to be a fertile field for the bad check artist. Gangs recruited in Indiana and Ohio swept through the state, leaving in their wake a sadder and wiser individual who had listened to their pleasurable tale about being in need of temporary funds. Due to prompt work on the part of credit associations and the newspapers they have been curbed for the time being. As these fellows apparently move in cycles, going from one state to another.

women voters, to be held in Saginaw November 18th, 19th and 20th, are one of the important items under discussion at the October meeting of the state board of directors in session at the Women's City Club in Detroit. Although Saginaw has the largest and oldest league in the Michigan organization, and was one of the first leagues to be established in the country, this is the first state-wide meeting to be held there.

NOW DRIVE THE CAR!

Only those who have driven a Dodge Brothers Special Sedan—or any Dodge Brothers car BUILT RECENTLY—can fully appreciate all that Dodge Brothers have accomplished during the past few months.

So swiftly has improvement followed improvement, that today the car, to all intents and purposes, is a different and incomparably finer vehicle.

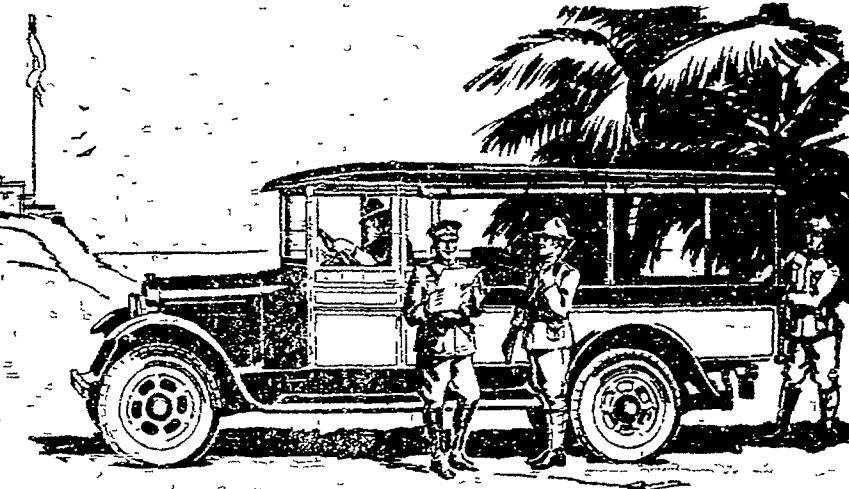

The announcement of smart new body lines and attractive color combinations first attracted general favor. But since then, improvements even more fundamental have been accomplished mechanically.

Drive the car NOW! Observe its impressive new silence, smoothness, and elasticity of performance, and you will then begin to realize just how vital and varied these and other later improvements actually are.

Coffee and Toast

A cup of coffee and a slice of toast may not wholly supply the attractive force that holds a household together, but one wonders what would happen if they were absent—or poorly made.

They should, of course, be made electrically, at the table, for the best effects, the greatest satisfaction. Luke-warm coffee or soggy toast sweetens no home atmosphere. Your electric percolator with its hot, fragrant contents, at one elbow, and your electric toaster shedding slices of brown, crisp, hot toast at the other—what housewife could desire more!

Charmer's Power Is Myth
According to the director of the Master Institute at Colombo, Ceylon, the long-held belief that snake charmers can cause snakes to leave their jungle haunts at the sound of music is myth.

Loser's "Waterloo"
When Napoleon fought the battle of Waterloo he met his greatest defeat—it was a decisive one, which marked the beginning of the end of his career. From this circumstance we use the word "Waterloo" to signify that one has met defeat so decisive a way as to preclude the hope of future success.

Uses of Iridium
The division of mineral technology of the Bureau of Mines says that iridium, as far as it knows, is not used on fountain pen tips. The exact percentage used is a trade secret with individual manufacturers; some may claim to use a very high percentage. However, it is mostly used in an alloy. It is employed in combination with platinum and palladium.

Club-Room Atmosphere

Drop in here at any time. While away a little time looking over the new Florsheims. You'll enjoy them—buy or not, as you choose—all in an atmosphere that smacks more of the club than the store. This is a man's idea of a shoe shop.

We have the popular Walk Over Shoes for Men and Women.

MIGHTY BIG DIVIDENDS

No farmer can afford to let his young animals stay out in wet or stormy weather.

Give them comfortable sheds to eat in and sleep in, and you will find the money you put into such buildings will bring mighty big dividends in the improvement of your stock.

You still have time to build that pen mentioned for your young stock.

We can quote you a price on some lumber for this purpose that will interest you.

MASONS CELEBRATE

trial and efficient service in the interests of the organization.

History of Northville Lodge
Northville Lodge was first organized in 1851 and received its charter in 1852. The early records of this lodge were destroyed by fire.

The jurisdiction of this lodge was large, meeting places were Northville and Plymouth, meeting in Northville for a time and then at Plymouth and then back to Northville, until there came a time when the lodge remained in Plymouth and Northville was without a lodge for a time.

The charge of Plymouth Lodge today reads "Northville Lodge" though it is known as Plymouth Rock, No. 47.

The first record we have of this present lodge is found in the old record book which states that on Thursday evening, Dec. 18, 1863, a meeting of Free and Accepted Masons was held for the purpose of organizing a Lodge of Masons. A. L. Stevens was appointed chairman and J. P. Doggett secretary.

The following persons were elected officers:

Worshipful Master—A. L. Stevens
Senior Warden—P. Hungerford
Junior Warden—E. K. Simonds
Secretary—P. Dorey, son
Treasurer—John Freer

Senior Deacon—J. C. Dorey
Junior Deacon—A. H. Doherty
Tiler—John E. Doty

Their first room was the room used by the I. O. O. F. and Sons of Terreans. A clarinet was loaned by the Terreans on Jan. 11, 1860, and four violins installed by Deputy Grand Master Kellogg.

A. L. Stevens, to those of us who know him is the face that
