BAPTIST MINISTER RESIGNS PASTORATE AND PLANS TO LEAVE HERE IN THE SPRING

Announcement has been made that Rev. A. K. MacRae has resigned his pastorate in this place, and that he will leave Northville for another community. He has not decided just where he will locate, but expects to find a new field in the near future. His many friends will regret to learn of his resignation. He has been pastor of the First Baptist church for four years, which is said to be the longest pastorate of the church in over a quarter of a century.

According to Rev. MacRae's record, one hundred and five new members have been added to the church and fifty of these newer members are among some of the most active workers. As an indication of the activity of the newer members, Rev. MacRae says eleven are Sunday school teachers and officers, three are trustees and two are treasurers of church organizations.

He says they have been of great help to those who have for years carried on the work of the church. His report shows that the attendance when he came to Northville was about forty, and that it now exceeds one hundred and fifty.

"Our church building has been modeled at the expense of $7,000, and the parsonage has been modernized. These improvements have all been paid for except about $280," says the pastor.

Mrs. MacRae has always taken a very active part in every department of the church, and both have many friends who will regret to see them leave this splendid community. The resignation becomes effective in three months.

PASTOR'S SMOKE MONEY GOES INTO NORTHVILLE

COMMUNITY REAL ESTATE

"There is some money that did not go up in smoke. I went into Northville recently with a better than average gold mine."

The story is brief, but interesting.

Minister told it, therefore, it must be true.

"When Rev. William Schmid joined Methodist conference, it was necessary for him to leave number of the day he took up residence in the old country home he had left behind.

When financials were reached he discovered that as a result of the pledge he was required to sign at that time that he had saved $1670.

And this $1670 has been used to purchase some land necessary for thriving community of Northville.

Who knows but what in five or six years this $1670 will grow into $16,700.

That isn't far-fetched statement one can take into consideration the tremendous development that has been made in the last few years.

Every one hopes so; as any minister is entitled to all the worldly goods he can glean.

WEEK OF PRAYER BEING OBSERVED.

The meeting at the M. E. church Sunday night, being a union effort between the Methodist and Presbyterian churches was well attended, and the services will continue until next Sunday night when Rev. William Richards will speak at the Presbyterian church. Rev. F. P. Knowles gave a very interesting and inspiring sermon Sunday night and the services throughout was helpful.

These two churches will unite in the evening services for the remainder of the winter.

ORVIS-HARGER

Friends of Mrs. Lizzie M. Harger, daughter of the late Oscar S. Harger, long a resident of this vicinity were greatly surprised to receive announcement of her marriage on Thursday, December 23rd, at Chicago, to Alton D. Grys of that city who was a friend of her girlhood.

They returned last Sunday and are spending a few days at the bride's home, 231 Irving street, preparatory to starting for the western coast returning via San Antonio and New Orleans early in March.

EXPRESS OFFICE TO BE AT DEPOT

Within a few days the express office will be located at the Pere Marquette depot and A. V. Barber will be the agent in charge. This move will, of course, do away with the uptown office which has been at C. R. Horton's store for the past several years. The change will not however, make any change in the delivery service, for the present at least. Frank Perrin will continue to handle the express and collect all outside express as the present.

ROTARIANS TELL OF THE RESOLUTIONS MADE AT BEGINNING OF NEW YEAR

Rotarians of Northville started out the New Year, Monday, with a meeting of more than ordinary interest, even though there was not an outside speaker present to take part in the program. Each member at the meeting was a one-minute speaker, and some of the 75-word talks proved more interesting than the brievity implies.

President E. C. Langfield, in opening the meeting, expressed a delightful New Year sentiment for the club and then called upon each member to tell of his New Year resolutions.

Not one failed to respond. And to say that the various expressions were interesting is putting it mildly.

Rotarians are always good boosters and the fact that each one had something to say, which indicated that he was interested in the development of a better citizenship, a better Northville was not at all surprising.

The Rotary club is planning on a very active year. The entertainment committee will have charge of next week's program.

EXCELLENT CONDITION IS REVEALED HERE BY BANK STATEMENTS JUST ISSUED.

If there is anything which indicates the prosperous condition of a community, it is the bank statements. That Northville occupies a most favorable position is indicated by the statements just given out for publication.

There is every reason to believe that the coming quarter is going to be as good as the past one has been. In fact the prediction is freely made that it is going to be better.

Naturally the pastures are not reflected in this section and the condition of the bank is

The first league basketball game of the season will be held Friday, January 11—Plymouth vs. Northville, at Plymouth.

Don't forget the Senior Prom, the dance of the season, and the events of events, will take place Wednesday evening, January 12th, from 8:30 to 11:30. The music will be furnished by the Sinclair Novelty Orchestra which insures music of the best quality obtainable. The tickets are $1.50 extra lady 50c, refreshments included.

Plans have been put forth every effort to make this evening entertainment one of pleasure for iron disturbances.

Three outstanding concerts will be given during the month of January, in Hill Auditorium, Ann Arbor, under the auspices of the University School of Music. On January 10th, the Russian Cossack Chorus will be heard for the first time in Ann Arbor when Sergey Sosodikoff will lead the band of Singers in a program in the Extra Concert Room. The Russian Cossack Chorus has made profound impression throughout Europe and has performed in America a dozen times and more, far-reaching eminence.

On January 17th, M. L. Tchaikovsky's "Swan Lake" will be presented in the Auditorium, with the Russian Ballet, featuring the famous ballerina Anna Pavlova, who will be in Ann Arbor for the first time, performing in her own right. It is general practice, however, to book just one phone tap at the right address, and so the telephone number is established. This is all done to insure a prompt connection.

On January 24th, the famous violinist, Fritz Kreisler, will appear at the Auditorium, giving his 10th anniversary concert.

On January 31st, in contrast to the youthful Marion, one of the world's veteran virtuosos, who has been heard in Ann Arbor many times and always with great enthusiasm, will reappear, Fritz Kreisler, probably the world's greatest violinist. Kreisler represents the master in every respect.

He plays with authority tempered with sufficient emotion and a delightful personality and stage presence, to such an extent that his concerts are flawless.

The three programs of the month stand out in broad contrast.

SKATING TOURNAMENT TO BE HELD AT WALLED LAKE SATURDAY—MANY EVENTS.

Ogden, Utah—Boasting that she has the largest posterity of any woman in the country, Mrs. Sarah Jane Taylor of Harrisville recently celebrated her ninety-second birthday. She has 308 living descendants, who include 8 children, 25 grandchildren, 184 great-grandchildren and 67 great-great-grandchildren.

She has gathered any women in the country to show all who happen to inquire about her record.

Mrs. Taylor has been married twice, the first time when she was 20 years old. The marriage was with Harry Lake, a fellow Mormon who came to the young girl later on and away to Utah in 1850. They settled in Ogden where four children were born.

When the youngest was still a baby Brigham Young pressed Mr. Lake into service and sent him to Idaho to spread the Mormon gospel among the Indians. With the other Mormon elders at Fort Leavenworth he was attacked by Indians. The little girl, then besieged, sent Lake as messenger for help. He was captured and held in the Indian prison until a few days later he was married to the late Pleasant Green Taylor. Six children, two of them still living, were born from this union.

Mr. Taylor was born in Fort Garry, Manitoba, October 22, 1834. He has the distinction of being one of the few remaining Mormons in the country.

OAKLAND COUNTY BUILDS FOR FUTURE IN 1927 PROGRAM

With the close of the year 1926 Oakland County is able to point with pride to its accomplishments of the 12 months in the way of new and permanent construction. The close of the year finds the new Infirmary and the new Contagious Disease hospital in full operation and work is well along on the construction of the new Tuberculosis hospital which will be ready for use within the next few months.

The Infirmary, built on the county farm just west of the city, cost in the neighborhood of $130,000 with an additional $15,000 for equipment. It will accommodate 200 persons. There are 115 men and women housed there at the present time. The institution was formally opened February 12th. Not only is it the finest county infirmary in the state but it is also a modern hospital with a fully equipped operating room. The E. R. Patterson Construction company built the Infirmary according to plans provided by Malcolmson & Higginbotham, of Detroit.

Equally modern although not as large is the Contagious Disease hospital, also built on the county farm. This structure cost about $130,000 and its equipment valued at $45,000. All will accommodate 85 patients. All kinds of contagious disease cases are cared for. It has a modern operating room and a county laboratory is being set up in this hospital. The Prairie State Publishing Company had the general contract and Fisher Bros. were the architects.

Detroit—Detroit's population at the close of 1926, is 1,430,396, according to a survey by the Newspaper Feature Bureau. This figure represents an increase of 44 per cent over the 1920 total, 952,878.

Lansing—Conservation officers confiscated the carcasses of 110 deer, mostly fawns and does, and one bull during the big hunting days of 1926. All were sent to Lansing and placed in cold storage. As soon as they serve their purpose as evidence they will be sent to state institutions for table use.

Eaton Rapids—Mrs. Carrie Walker, 47, year night operator at the telephone office here, has been retired by the company and given a life pension. During all her years of service, Mrs. Walker has had but two leaves of absence, one a vacation and the other caused by illness. She holds two medals for efficient service.

Hartland Beach—A loss of $75,000 caused by fire in the paste factory of the Harpon Milling company was reported by George Jenkins, manager of the plant. The rest of the building was saved by cutting a path through the flames that threatened to spread through the entire plant. It is expected that the plant will be rebuilt the first of the year.

Marshall—A Booth Fishing Co. accident involving an immense toll of human lives which mounts swiftly from year to year. Nearly 22,000 persons were killed last year in automobile accidents involving contact between automobiles and railroad trains and street cars. The total was 26,627. New York had one death for every 731 inhabitants, and Florida one for every 697.

East Lansing—Construction of the new armory and field house at Michigan State college, far from being halted by cold weather and frozen ground, is being rushed with all possible speed, and it seems certain that the new building will be completed by May 13, the date set for its dedication. The new armory will be 280 feet in length, 220 feet of this will be occupied by the riding hall, with tankard covering. The hall has a seating capacity of 6,800 and can be used for campus gatherings and farmers' week assemblies.

Marquette—A Booth Fishing Co. employee, George Graham, set out from Michipicoten Island, Lake Superior with his husky dog, Prince in a canoe. When 500 yards out he found that his paddles had slipped overboard and that a stiff wind was sending him out into the biggest inland lake in the States. He was unable to swim and saved himself only by throwing his dog into the water after tearing the end of the canoe painter to the dog's collar. The dog made for shore, dragging the canoe and its master. After a half hour struggle, they made it.

Battle Creek—A pet Angora cat prevented a man from attacking Mrs. Fred C. Philo in her home here. The man obtained entrance to her home by posing as a water meter reader. After Mrs. Philo had closed the door, the man grabbed her and drew her to the floor, warning her not to scream lest he would choke her to death. "BLOSSOM TIME" IN SECOND WEEK AT CASS, DETROIT

Friends and music-lovers of this city are to have one more week in which to see that lovely opera, "Blossom Time," at the Cass theatre, Detroit, the final week starting next Sunday night.

This musical play is under the direction of the Veasey Shubert, and is now in its fifth year. They positively announce that this will be the final and farewell tour of this, the greatest of all musical plays of the new century.

As the story of "Blossom Time" is familiar to the millions of readers of the country, no words need be repeated here.

The scenes are laid in old Vienna in the original them with diversified music and vocal biography of the life of the author, Oscar Wilde, his daughter of the crown, power and the trials and joys of that love, again the love-life of a girl in love with her best friend, her in the theater.

An Arbor—The stress and strain of football cited by critics of the great intercollegiate game is not so serious after all, if figures compiled at the University of Michigan are reliable. The loss of sleep and weight throughout the prolonged mental strain of a football campaign seems to be a myth. Only one man of the 40 odd players composing the Michigan gridiron squad suffered any weight losses last season. Figures were compiled daily and are known to be accurate, almost to the ounce.

Marquette—A Booth Fishing Co. employee, George Graham, set out from Michipicoten Island, Lake Superior with his husky dog, Prince in a canoe. When 500 yards out he found that his paddles had slipped overboard and that a stiff wind was sending him out into the biggest inland lake in the States. Indians Without Salt
According to the "Handbook of American Indians," not all of the tribes of Indians were accustomed to using salt; whether from difficulty of procuring it, the absence of the habit, a repugnance for the mineral or for religious reasons. It is not always possible to say salt exists in enormous quantities in the United States, and it was not difficult for Indians to obtain it.

The Northville Record.

E. R. EATON, Publisher

An Independent Newspaper published every Friday morning at Northville, Michigan, and entered at the Northville postoffice as second-class matter.

NORTHVILLE, MICH., JAN. 7, 1927.

THE RECORD PASSES TO NEW OWNERSHIP.

On Monday Elton R. Eaton of Lansing became the owner and publisher of The Record and he was given immediate possession of the business. Mr. Eaton comes to Northville bearing the very highest commendations, as a successful publisher and a citizen for a number of years he was managing editor of the Kalamazoo Gazette, later leaving newspaper work to accept the office of sheriff of Kalamazoo county, a position he accepted for four years. He later engaged in special newspaper work at Lansing, acting as correspondent for a syndicate of newspapers. He attracted the attention of Governor Alex J. Goebel and he was offered the important position of private secretary to the governor and he served in that capacity until last Saturday night his resignation having been previously presented. In re-taking the control of the newspaper the writer is very glad to turn the business over to a gentleman so competent and well qualified to carry on and we bespeak for Mr. Eaton the same cordial and generous support that we have received since coming to Northville. Mr. Eaton has a wife and three children and they will become residents of Northville just as soon as school closes in the summer, one daughter being a Senior in the Lansing High school.

This change has not been made without some very deep feelings of regret, but in instance in others with whom I have been associated in business at Ann Arbor for the past two years I must either withdraw from the firm or dispose of my interests here, and after a great deal of deliberation I have decided to go to Ann Arbor as soon as I can close matters here.

We have enjoyed our work here and our association with the people of this quiet community and it's not an easy matter to sever these friendly relationships, but it must be the very course to pursue. We will always remember with a great fondness the many labors in this field and those who have taught us the value of honest dealing. We have endeavored to make the community and all the varied interests with the happiness and reputation of holding in the building and improving of the village and the portion surrounding Northville. We have praised often and condemned alike and when it is considered it necessary to do so in order that our section might be held in good place in which to live.

I will spend the greater part of this present month in Northville closing my affairs and acquainting the new proprietor in getting acquainted. All accounts for advertising and publishing are due and payable to the undersigned and all subscription accounts are payable to Mr. Eaton.

NO PUBLICITY WANTED

A country editor, while visiting his nearby city recently, was attacked by highwaymen and he put up his pistol in self-defense. Finally he was overpowered and searched. All the bandits found was a dime, and they were satisfied.

The victim, the author of the matter, is a thin, wiry man, and he is a

High-Speed Insect

Suggests Plane Design

Washington—One branch of aviation research has been turned from study of the planing gull and the soaring eagle to scrutiny of tiny fly as holding the possible answer to the next step in airplane design.

Not long ago an American entomologist, standing beside a canyon in the wilds of Brazil, saw a "flesh" of color—a mere blur of orange—fit before its eyes. A search identified the insect-missle as a new variety of deerfly, scientifically catalogued as the cophenomyia, and capable of flight at the speed of 8.5 miles an hour, about half the speed of a rifle bullet.

His report aroused interest of engineers, several of whom are now studying the "stream lines" and motive plant of the new subject. The fly is about the size of a bumblebee.

TWO NORTHLVILLE CHURCHES ARE OBSERVING WEEK OF PRAYER WITH MUCH INTEREST

The call to the week of prayer over the Federal Council of Churches in the United States commenced last Sunday evening with the First Presbyterian and the First Methodist Episcopal churches meeting. A such a congregation of worshippers greeted the Rev. F. P. Knowles, who interested all in his timely sermon on the duty of the church and the keen interest of all evangelical churches in this week of coming together throughout the world.

The interest at Northville has had the attention of pastors and churches where to the most outstanding spiritual characteristics of the hour, namely, that our day is full of unrest.

There are those who believe because they are settled securely and comfortably in their lives, that the world is enjoying a period of manifest quiet. Moreover, the opposite is true. In spite of our efforts toward peace and good-will, the spirit of lawlessness and international suspicion and actual warfare seems to be increasing.

If there ever was a time when all Christians should agree and be at peace among themselves in the interest of universal peace it is now.

There should be a feeling of Christian fellowship among the followers of Christ that rises above and descends beneath, and dissolves all between in the form of denominational loyalty and rivalry. The world has come to the place where it is desperately in need of men who are determined to be Christians first, last and all the time, and are resolved to be Roman Catholics or Protestants or Denominationists last and least.

The week of prayer calls for this approach. Let us do our best.

WILLIAM RICHARDS,

Local chairman.

Northville Ministerial Committee.

POST OFFICE DO'S GOOD DECEMBER BUSINESS

The Northville post office did a busy day during the month of December and especially during the two weeks before Christmas. The total receipts of the office were $2,600. This will make up a total value of about $1,000 in regular sales. The office, however, was closed in the month of October, starting and ending on the 1st of November, and this does not include the period of time between the end of two months.

There were 1,600 letters sent out with special delivery stamps attached, and there were also 12 pieces of airmail registered.

While the records of the office show about the same as last year, the record of the stamp sale shows the office handled in, dispatching more than 10,000 more pieces of mail and parcels than last year. It may be interesting to know that for the few days previous to Christmas the average dispatch of letter mail mail from the Northville office was a little more than 10,000 daily, one day running to 15,000.

During that period of December was also sold 1,686 money orders and there was 2174 paid.

During the Christmas week there was received from 50 to 100 sacks of mail daily, practically all parcel post, and there was dispatched from the office much more than was received, the total amounting to around 600 sacks besides thirty pouches of letters and cards.

THE HOME YEAR

The year 1922 has been prosperous and quiet. There has been work for all, good wages, good crops, good markets, good living, a surplus of pleasure and for investment. It has been an extraordinary year, for building and enjoying homes.

Sometimes one forgets the greatest blessing in the glamour of a great emotion, the fear of a great evil, the toll of a great emergency; just as in the rush of business one may temporarily forget the home.

But home love outlasts the furious passion, bitter hate, fear and toil; it is still a benediction when other things bring only remorse and the memory of dead hopes, lost opportunities.

Just so, the quiet home year 1922 will outlast the storm of war and of retribution late that marks the trying period so lately past. It will go into history and into the national consciousness as a great Home Year.

FULFILL A LONG FELT WANT

It is said that two well known matron ladies in Northville were planning for the proper observance of the holidays.

"Anna," said the one, "would a long stocking hold all you'd want for Christmas?"

"No," Anna responded the other, "but a pair of socks would."

CONSETS

We are closing our entire line of Jane Jackson and College girls' fashions for the winter.

BOWLING TOURNAMENT TO BE ONE OF THE BIGGEST EVENTS

When the tournament has completed plans for the scores of the best bowling teams of Wayne county, when they come here on January 28th to start the fifth annual bowling tournaments.

Manager Harry S. German, who has charge of the event, declares that there will be interest in the coming tournament than he had anticipated, and he predicts that it will be one of the best and most successful ever held in the county.

All details have been arranged for the affair, and the entries are now open. The doubles will be open to all during the tournament, which runs from January 26th to February 12th.

Entries will close on Monday, the 26th of the present month. Manager German has suggested that entries be made at once, as it will be necessary to limit the number to fifty teams.

Afternoon games will start at 2:30, and the evening games at 6:30. There will be at least forty prizes, and the cash rewards offered for five men teams are most attractive and worth going after. In fact every prize is worth striving for.

There is no question but what Northville will be the meet of not only the best bowlers in this part of the state, but hundreds of fans who like to see good bowling.

NORTHVILLE FEDERATED CHURCH PLANS COMMUNITY NIGHT

Rev. J. J. Halliday of Salem has arranged another church night for his community. On Wednesday evening, January 12th, there will be given at the Salem Federated church a program that will be of especial interest.

Following the supper which will be served at 6:15, a number of special musical numbers will be presented by Andrew Carter tenor and Ruth Halliday, soprano.

L. W. Lovewell, prominent auctioneer of South Lyon, will be the speaker of the evening. He is sure to have an interesting address.

Mr. Halliday has joined a General registration and he says he will be pleased to have as many visitors as can be accommodated.

DRUGSTORE STAND TRIAL IN DEATH OF WOMAN

Arraigned before the 11th circuit court of Michigan of Detroit, will have to stand trial in the circuit court to the gravity of the case, of charge of negligent homicide. Schlessinger drove an automobile on the Grand River road in Novi township on June 1st, which collided with a car in which Miss Mabel Terrill, of Detroit, was a passenger. She received injuries which resulted in her death.

She was arraigned in circuit court at Pontiac, Monday. Schlessinger pleaded not guilty and was released on bail pending trial.

Hogarth an Artist

Hogarth, the famous artist and caricaturist, was an advertising writer before he became a caricaturist. He has drawn many cards which bore the name of the shopkeeper and carried wordy pictures to describe his business. A collection of these old tradesmen's cards has been found to have been drawn by Hogarth.
