BACKWARD PUPILS

You are anxious to give your child every advantage at school but notwithstanding his eyes. Perhaps he is going to be handicapped for lack of glasses. No child can do well in school who cannot see distinctly. A case of that kind occurred very recently. Teachers said the boy was stupid and dull—he did not do well at his lessons. An Optometric examination of his eyes revealed the fact that he couldn't see the writing on the blackboard in fact his distant vision was equal to only twenty-eight per cent of normal and near vision required even effort and strain. Properly Prescribed Glasses changed everything. He was leading his class.

Most backward children have poor or painful vision. How about your child?

Russell Atchison, member of the Seniors class and one of the students who was a member of the Northville High School debating team during the last year, has been selected to represent "Michigan in Youth" in the state annual contest to be held at Hastings today.

OAK AND COLORS PLEASE AUTOISTS

It is the custom of the autoists to paint their cars in the colors of the season. This year the colors are the Oakland Six.

The recently announced colors for the Oakland Six are shades and tints of blue and green distinctly used in two tone color combinations and trimmed with delicate striping applied to the respective body types.

The four door sedan is finished in Cobalt blue on body, hood and wheels with striping of ivory white on body and wheels, and brown garnish rails. Upper structure, fenders and lamps are in black. The sedan has Trouville blue on body, hood and wheels with ivory white striping. The top, instrument board, lamps, fenders, side shields, radiator apron, headlights, tie rod, lamps and hood sills. The moldings are in Coronado tan.

The roadster finish in Avalon blue over entire body and hood, striped with burnt orange. The natural wood wheels have burnt orange on spokes and hubs. Avalon blue colors the fenders, side shields, radiator apron, hood sills and headlamps, tie-rod make these two of the most colorful cars in the line. Both have walnut garnish rails. The Landau sedan having the black instrument board panelled in walnut.

The Landau Sedan and Landau coupe are finished in Alpine green on body, hood and lamps. On the Landau Sedan, the upper structure is the same. The striping on both is in straw color and burnt orange. Aberdeen green fenders, side shields, radiator apron, hood sills and headlamps, tie-rod make these two of the most colorful cars in the line. Both have walnut garnish rails. The Landau sedan having the black instrument board panelled in walnut.

SALEM MEMORIAL SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Salem residents have planned an excellent program for the annual Memorial services to be held in that community. The program will take place in the chapel of the Salem-Walker cemetery Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, the Rev. Lucia M. Stroh of the Salem Congregational church having been engaged to deliver the address.

Special music has been arranged, and it is expected that a large number will be present from that vicinity. Salem has always conducted an excellent Memorial day service, and the decision to hold it on Sunday this year was for the purpose of meeting the wishes of as many as possible.

NORTHVILLE, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, MAY 27, 1927

OUR GROWTH

Last week there was published the figure given out by Charles Sessions, the village assessor, relative to the increasing valuation of Northville during the past year. These figures show two things first that Northville now has a valuation in excess of $3,000,000; second, that during the past twelve months the increase was something like $200,000. The assessor explains that this increase is due entirely to new values added to the assessment rolls and not due to any increases that might have been made over the assessed value of all property.

Two years ago there was added something like a million dollars to the assessment rolls by increasing the valuations. That does not really show growth, but the figures produced by Assessor Sessions this year show actual growth in the community.

Some two or three months ago this was published in the Record a statement relative to the population of Northville. It was placed at something like 3,650. This figure was reached as the result of an actual count made by the R. L. Polk Director Co. of Detroit. As to its accuracy, there is no dispute.

There is nothing else needed to prove the actual and rapid growth of this community. The expansion of the city is not only rapid, but substantial. All one has to do is to drive about the various sections of Northville to get reasons why there has been a big increase in the valuation of property during the past few months. New buildings have been completed and are under construction in all parts of the town.

Northville is growing. It is going to continue to grow rapidly. There is nothing that can keep the town from it. Some of the more enthusiastic say it will be a city of 5,000 within another fifteen months. If he is not wise to scoff at the assertion "he" may reach that figure within the next twelve months, if the growth begins up at the same rate evidenced at the present time.

HOW TO DIE BEFORE YOUR TIME

Men or women desiring to die too soon—earlier than they would otherwise be likely to do—should follow these rules: Increase your abdominal girth until all you can stuff yourself with several pounds of meat and sugar daily. Take no exercise.

Avoid fresh air. Stay indoors in rooms that shake the phlebitis closed and the arteries.

Burn your candle at both ends especially when tired. Never take a vacation. (Unconscious, thoughts on fatigue.)

Worry from morning till night, and learn to enjoy it. Never play, both inwardly and outwardly be as sour as you can.

Keep constipated. Drink no water, eat no fruit.

If you have infected tonsils or pneumonia, or elsewhere—forgetfulness of such things as rheumatism, heart trouble and Bright's disease do nothing about it.

After the age of forty pay no attention to the sudden appearance of persistent humps or other possible early signs of cancer (which, if taken in time, can generally be checked or cured).

If you get out of breath easily sleep poorly, feel run-down or experience pain, just cling to these rules. Try earnestly to die from some disease that is preventable.

When people say that everyone—whether ailing or well—should have a health examination by one's physician every year, and also visit one's dentist regularly, tell them you don't believe in such stuff. Tell them you want to be uncomfortable inefficient and short-lived.

LOCAL MAN CAUGHT
IN TRAFFIC JAM
AT BATH SUNDAYForace Boyd Tells of Sight
He Witnessed—Autos
from Everywhere

Mr. and Mrs. Forace Boyd were among the many tens of thousands of people who visited the little community of Bath last Sunday to see the ruins of the Bath consolidated school, blown up last week with the loss of 44 lives of children and teachers.

"It took us nearly six hours to go a distance of four or five miles. I never saw so many automobiles in one place in my life before. There were thousands and thousands of machines from everywhere. We left Lansing about six o'clock in the evening to drive out to Bath, located eight miles distant. When, about five miles from Bath, we ran into the line of automobiles from everywhere and it was ten o'clock before we got to the place. It was lighter up so we were able to see what had happened," said Mr. Boyd.

"One unless he saw the ruins can hardly imagine how terrible it must have been. How any child escaped death in the portion of the building that was destroyed is more than I can understand."

According to other reports probably never before at any one place in the state has there been such a traffic jam as existed in that part of Michigan Sunday.

RATHER PLAY NEAR HOME THAN IN CITY

Harry German, veteran ball player of Northville, played his first game with the De-Ho-Co team Sunday, and won the contest. He has had two different offerings to play during the present season, one coming from the Polish News of Detroit and the other from the House of Corcoran farm. Because of the fact that the De-Ho-Co team is peafowl home and he would not have to be away from Northville for very long periods of time, he decided to play during the coming season with the local team rather than to go to Detroit for the summer.

None of his local friends, but Sunday to see him play for the Farmers, and he played an exceptionally good game. Next Sunday the team will go over to Wayne to play and on Monday they will play the Detroit Firemen's team out on the grounds here.

Speaking of the diamond out at the De-Ho-Co, Mr. German stated that it was one of the best he had ever played on. In the first division field in Detroit isn't as difficult to play on as in the field in Northville because the field out here is smaller.

LOCAL TEAM LOST
IN OPENING GAME

In one of the most exciting games of the season, during the opening session, the Northville team were defeated Sunday afternoon in a game played at West Point Park by the score of 1 to 0, and in order to decide the issue the game was tied, it was necessary to play an extra inning.

The game began the story in the fourth was on, of thirds. Harry German Jr. and LeFevre were the stars for the local team, and they played a good game of ball as one could wish to see. The game was hung until the sixth inning when German got a triple.

It was in the eighth inning when West Point scored its winning run. Two errors followed by a hit-and-the-business. While Northville played a wonderful game in the field, the local boys were a little weak on the end of the bat. LeFevre caught an excellent game and German allowed only three scattered hits.

The game was witnessed by a fair-size crowd.

Firestone Round Tread Balloon

MANY Firestone Dealers are prepared to take in your old tires, offering you a liberal allowance on a new set of Gum-Dipped Balloons.

Firestone Dealers are given the advantages of attending Tire Educational Meetings held throughout the country, where tire design and construction are discussed. The sections of used tires reproduced here are a part of this program. Study these two sections and you, too, will understand what Firestone means by tires built for service and tires made to sell.

The Firestone Gum-Dipped Balloon with its scientifically designed tread permits free flexing, easier riding, extra comfort and safety.

The balloon tire with heavy, flat tread design is obviously stiffer and rides harder. The excess rubber, placed for appearance at the edges of the tread, is not only wasted but produces hinging action causing ply separation and "shoulder breaks."

Firestone designed and manufactures Oldfield Tires and Tubes, distributing them direct to Firestone Dealers only, through 148 Factory Warehouses. This efficient and economical distribution assures tire buyers everywhere, clean, fresh stocks of Firestone and Oldfield Tires in all types and sizes, and has helped to make possible today's remarkably low prices—the lowest in tire history. ### HARRY GERMAN IS "ACE" FOR FARMERS IN SPEEDY GAME

Plays Remarkable Baseball in First Contest—Will Play Firemen

With 24 hours after his return from Europe conducted in the air over an ocean by landing a plane safely in the name of Harry German, and hailing from Northville, stepped into the limelight on the House of Corrections Farm Diamond, it being last Sunday, and did a few stunts himself. He had the batsmen of the fast Grosse Pointe Inter-County League team just as much up in the air as Lindbergh, and just as much at sea as the world's "new hero" ever was. December wasn't to be outdone by May in this instance, if Harry German knew it, and when it comes to the question of whether he knew it, the chair wishes to announce that the "aces" seem to have it. And that De-Ho-Co won the game, 10 to 3.

Incidentally, it was a sort of father and son day in the starring line for Northville, L. German, the son end of the combination contributing a kind of Lindbergh to the goings by sending the ball on a non-stop flight, or by making what is known as a home run. It helped put the game on ice, but it wasn't needed because Pa had the Lazaruses of much wealth from the silk-stocked shores of Lake St. Clair doing the crimp eating on this occasion, and that title were incoming out of his hand in a manner that was most pleasing to the proprietors.

It is understood at all times that Mr. German is an old man, only the great national game recognizes "old men." Few men over the 50 line could have matched the game of ball that he did Sunday, and Harry Hunter, who had studied De-Ho-Co behind the bat, gave German excellent support by catching a "perfect" game. Hunter grabbed no less than five foul flies and while on the subject of foulity it might be remarked that he took three of those foul rights off the chicken wire in front of the grandstand.

In Saturday's game, Politegmen of Detroit proved easy for De-Ho-Co. For once, Politegmen proved helpless with clubs and didn't do much running in. In other words there were not there in a pinch, and De-Ho-Co triumphed 3 to 1. At that, Sunday, the visitors struck out 12 of the farm crew.

HIGHLY PLEASED WITH RESULTS OF THE RECORD ADS

One who Knows Expresses His Opinion About Local Paper

I. R. Pattison, merchandising specialist, associated with the National Merchandising System, 407 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, who is conducting the big shoe sale for John McCullough, is a firm believer in newspaper advertising. Mr. Pattison is not a newcomer in this section, but has conducted sales in Plymouth, Dearborn and other nearby communities, and in all of his sales he has been a liberal user of newspaper space. "I have given some attention to the methods of advertising that are employed in this part of Michigan. I believe in the use of plenty of white space with attention propelling cuts, something out of the ordinary that will attract the attention of the reader," he said.

The most important thing to do is to be a constant advertiser. No matter what amount of space you use, don't use it one week and then forget about it the next week. If you do your customers, who follow your advertising, will be inclined to forget about you. You must keep your name and message constantly before them.

"The merchants in the smaller communities would use a few more quarter pages and half-page ads that would be less gaudy in camp."

"People in general would rather trade at home than somewhere else, but your message must be kept before them constantly. If you know anything about the big stores and mail order houses, you know they never stop advertising. They are it is everlasting."

"The public must realize that you want their patronage and that you carry what they want."

As an evidence of what I say look at the sale we have been conducting for McCullough's store. Hundreds of new buyers have come in and all have made satisfactory purchases."

"It is evident that you find a town of this size with a newspaper so fully and moderately equipped as the Record. The large circulation and the low advertising rate have surprised me. Last week we ran a full page ad and because of the exceptional pulling power of that ad we gave up the money for another full page ad this week."

The sale runs until Saturday night and from all indications it is going to prove remarkably successful.

The new Schuyler building on North Center Street has been completed and is ready for business. It will open for business on the Saturday following morning. The building is an excellent addition to the community and its already established in the neighborhood.

The appartment house which is located in the building is a fine one.

With the completion of the Schuyler and the new apartment house in the neighborhood, North Center Street will be one of the most attractive in town.

It is believed that the new

Schuyler building and its place will be as busy as it can be on Saturday.

It is to be expected an opening to Saturday and there is no question but what it will be a big day for him.

Mrs. W. H. McFerregan, wife of the mayor of Waterford, one of the suburbs of Northville, is a passenger or guest who has been in our home during Civil War days. She has served long during all the intervening years in the care of the sick and the wounded in several battles in Virginia who had lost all their limbs and were held as exchange prisoners. The tragic declaration is being made a political slogan.

General Lee's victory, which ends with the statement "Today Mar. 1, 1865, tomorrow Pennsylvania will be ours."

The paper also contains the notice of the capture by Union forces of the Confederates ironclad steamer

"Goliath" on June 22, 1863, and of the burning of Marietta, Georgia, by the federals on June 26th. There is also a reference in the paper to the effect that General Grant has exercised his intention of dining in

Vicksburg on Sunday July 4th and that he would celebrate the Fourth of July there. It ends with the admonition that "Grant must catch the rabbit before he cooks it." In the last column of the paper appears a note dated July 4, 1863, which says that two days bring about great changes and that the banner of the Union now flies over Vicksburg.

"Grant has taken the rabbit," it says, and he has dined in Vicksburg. It ends by saying that "is the last edition of the Citizen" on all paper

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Flinn are called to Ypsilanti frequently, where the former's aged mother lies critically ill.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Bogard and daughter Beryl of Pontiac, spent Saturday afternoon and evening at the Frank Clark home.

Mrs Herman Smith was called last Tuesday at the General Hospital in Highland Park, where she died.

Mrs. John Kincaid is recovering from a serious operation for mastoiditis.

Mrs. L. M. Wright of Detroit, visited Sunday at the home of her daughter Mrs. Clarence Smith. Miss Mary Cayley, who was the nurse in Mrs. Smith's last illness, was also a guest at this time.

Mrs. Maud Newbound and children Helen and Thurman, spent from Saturday to Monday with Lansing friends and visited Bain, where many lives were sacrificed by the demoniacal act of a dynamiter.

Friends will grieve to learn that Mrs. Lester Woodruff, long in poor health, has suffered a serious relapse. She is faithfully attended by her sister, Mrs. Lizzie Coates, and James Peter, Mrs. Archie Kent at the latter's home.

Under the friendly guidance of Mesdames B. H. Leavenworth and Mrs. Ford Brooks, the seventh and eighth grades held their annual picnic at Island Lake, last week Wednesday.

The event was in jubilant recognition of the termination of their school year, brought to a close by the county examinations the preceding week.

E. Hartshorn of Bancroft, was a visitor a few days at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. T. Holcombe. Mr. Hartshorn, Hale and courageous, and in his eighty-sixth year, made this sixty-mile trip, down alone Saturday night, and returned Monday morning.

People who live on Grundy River know that the river is quite narrow at this point, but last Saturday night, the water was quite high.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Johnson, of Franklin, were swimming in the river, and possibly it was the current that carried them out into the middle of the stream. They were unable to swim, and were unable to get out, and were unable to get help.

ROTARY MEMBERS TOLD OF NEED OF NEW CITY CHARTER

Club Decides to Put Candidate Up for Election to Charter Board

If we are going to fill our classification by the admission of new members, it the Rotary club is going to do the things that all Rotary clubs in progressive communities are doing, then we have got to give some attention to the needs of the community in which we live.

"We have got to enable those in charge of our affairs to work out our problems to the best advantage of all," stated Rev. Van Valkenburgh, a member of the Northville council when he addressed the members of the Novi club.

Mr. Van Valkenburgh, chairman of the classification committee, said the program was in charge of Mr. McClintock, and he turned the meeting over to Mr. Van Valkenburgh, who briefly told the members of the club that the classification committee had been completing its work.

Northville is strong in Novi, but we hadn't had a club here for a while.

It would be better to have some new water works, and some new roads, and some new buildings, and some new schools, and some new parks, and some new recreation facilities.

Mr. Van Valkenburgh said that the club should be able to do something for the town.

One of the first things to be done is to have a new charter.

It is much more expensive to the residents of the village than it would be if we could conduct our affairs in a business-like way.

If the present council should decide to vote any streets under the state law pertaining to villages, the property holder would have to pay out his share within five years. Under the proposed charter, the council would have a right to continue the payments over a period of ten years.

It is a very difficult thing to try and conduct the business of the village. It should be under a manager.

Mr. Van Valkenburgh said that the proposed charter would be a good one for the village.

LOCAL LEGION IS STRONGLY URGING DISPLAY OF FLAG

Sends Out Letter Especially in Reference to Flag
Day, June 6th

In a letter sent out to Legion members throughout the country, the display of the flag upon all occasions will be urged on June 6, the first day of the year.

We are also present to you the Uniform Flag System, a patriotic movement being sponsored by the Sons of the American Legion in our City, and after reading same we hope that you will be in sympathy with us and that it will meet with your hearty cooperation and support.

"Several years ago as you know, through the co-operation of the International Legion sponsored and installed on our business streets a permanent system for the proper and respectful display of our Country's Flag known as the Uniform Flag System."

This Uniform Flag System came into use shortly following the conference called by our late President Harding, on June 14, 1923, at Washington D. C. This conference comprised the representatives of 68 national organizations and experts of the army and navy. The purpose of this conference was to draft an authentic code of flag etiquette.

This system has now been installed in nearly every city in the United States, our own town being among the first to do so, this display has received many comments and has helped to beautify our business streets on the various patriotic days and on many civic and festive occasions.

Better still, it has done much to encourage the proper respect and display of our national colors on the eighteen days that our Government specifies that our flag should be flown as an emblem of our patriotism.

"Therefore, as a part of our program for this year for furthering Americanism, we are sponsoring the extension of the Uniform Flag System into the residential districts of our city. What better cause could we sponsor than the glorifying of our Country's Flag, which will further instill into the hearts of our children the proper respect and love for that Grand Old Flag and encourage outward proof of our patriotism."

"It is high time that we banish the indifferent and haphazard use of the flag, such as tacking it on the porch, draping it over railings, wrapping it around posts, etc. and the almost utter lack of the use of it in our homes. This condition is not due to any lack of respect for the flag—but rather to the absence of any means of displaying it properly. This system will go a long way toward the solution of this state of affairs."

"POMPEI" WILL BE PRESENTED JUNE 26

Graham McNamee, the world's most famous radio announcer, has been secured to handle the microphone during the presentation of "Pompeii" at the state fair grounds for fifteen nights starting June 26th. This announcement will be a welcome one to radio fans of Michigan because it will enable them to see in person the man who has become so popular as an announcer for station WEAF whose "Good Evening, ladies and gentlemen of the radio audience" has become indelibly stamped in the memory of all.

The grand stand at the fair grounds will be equipped with a special radio announcing system, so that spectators even in the remotest corner can clearly hear announcements and band music.

Enabling them to know what is going on in the enclosure McNamee will be the informant.

McNamee, in recalling how he started his radio career tells of walking into WEAF reception room at 135 Broadway, New York, in 1923 to take the voice test and of being informed that he was to be "taken on."

Needless to say he made good and his wonderful personality and clear enunciation have made him famous throughout the country. His repertoire has included football, baseball and hockey games in addition to the everyday hour.

His last national assignment was the inauguration of President Coolidge.

Northville and Plymouth
Realtors Tell Advantages of United Action

Their interests, Northville and Plymouth are so closely interwoven, and the development of Western Wayne County means so much to both communities, that it is highly essential that both towns work in close cooperation. The general trend of many talks made at a meeting of the Plymouth Realty Board, held in Northville, last week Thursday evening,

The Plymouth boosters came to Northville upon the invitation of Both are members of this board. J. G. Alexander is another

an Homile Pasteurized Milk so Highly Praised
by Health Leaders

The article by Dr. Evans treating of the subject, part follows: "North and Park have just reported that the methods of pasteurization of milk used in New York City, Chicago and a dozen other cities during the last ten years make the product safe against tuberculosis. They found the margin of safety between the time and temperature used and that required to make tubercle bacilli harmless was sufficiently broad that it is not necessary to heat milk hot enough nor for long enough to destroy the cream line, and interestingly the various attacks, subfebrile infections, on pasteurized milk have not been in the interest of public health."

"To those who are informed this report was scarcely necessary. The best proof possible is the subsidence of glandular and bone tuberculosis during the last ten years, in New York, Chicago and other cities. Collateral proofs are the statements by several health officers of the cities that milk borne contagion disappeared from their jurisdictions several years ago."

"The common type of milk ordinance calls for about six degrees of temperature, and almost 20 minutes of time above the actual requirements. This is what is known as the margin of safety in this case. North and Park both men of broad experience—think this margin of safety ample. It is not necessary to harm the salability of the milk and to deprive the housewife of that standard which means so much to her—the cream line—in order to make the product safe."

"It is a matter of common information that most of the bacteria which cause contagion are killed at even lower temperatures. A margin of safety that is ample for scarlet fever, diphtheria, typhoid fever and septic sore throat. The people can feel secure. They are being protected."

SISTER OF LOCAL RESIDENT PROVES
HEROINE AT BATH

Detroit News Lauds the Courage of Mrs. Harold
White's Sister

Miss Bernice Sterling, sister of Mrs. Harold White of this place, and one of the teachers who became a heroine after the schoolhouse at Bath, Michigan, was blown up last week, received an especially complimentary write-up in the Detroit News a few days ago for her actions during probably one of the worst disasters in the history of the state.

The news article relative to her follows:

Miss Bernice Sterling, teacher of the first and second grades of the Bath Consolidated School, was one of the heroines of the disaster, which claimed 45 lives when the school was dynamited, Wednesday. "Not one of the pupils entrusted to her care was killed nor injured in the blast," Miss Sterling stuck to her post until all of the young charges were safe, paused to shoot out the victrola, for which they had been marching, and then left the building herself.

Miss Sterling's joy over the saving of her young charges was shared by friends a few minutes later when she learned that Miss Hazel Weatherby, a classmate of hers, and her closest friend, had lost her life in the disaster.

Miss Sterling was directing the pupils in a march when the blast came. She reformed the lines and marched them out of the shaken building in perfect order. "I hardly knew what I was doing," Miss Sterling said. "I know I must have done the right thing because everything went off so well. When all the children were safely outside I went over and shut off the victrola. I don't know why. When I got outside I was so weak I hardly could stand."

Miss Sterling is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sterling of Mt. Pleasant. She was graduated from the Central Michigan Normal School at Mt. Pleasant in the June, 1925, class.

Miss Weatherby was a classmate of Miss Sterling at Mt. Pleasant while attending the normal school. She lived in the Sterling home, and after their graduation the two girls took up at Bath so they could not be separated. They roomed together at Bath and were inseparable.

Miss Weatherby's home was at Howard City. She was a graduate of the Lakewood High School and held a grammar grade, like everyone else in the school.

REGIONAL CONTEST

Have Won Right to Play in the State Championship Tournament

Northville high golf players, by winning a decisive victory Sunday at Holton Hills golf links at Ann Arbor, qualified to play in the 16 team state championship contest to be held next Saturday at the Lifton Valley golf links near Mt. Clemens.

The results of the Saturday contest in which the local players emerged victorious was, as follows: Northville, 406; Dearborn, 123; Ann Arbor, 153; Adrian, 450.

The students representing the local school were Norman Corliss, Allen Beard, Alfred Smith and Robert McClellan.

Starting the season late the Northville golfers have, so far in the present season, made an excellent showing. The boys had hoped to be able to play in the finals for the state championship, but it was more of a hope than anything else until a week or so ago. When they saw that they were closely growing the leaders in the regional contests,

Their elimination of a number of close contenders Saturday assured them a place in the state contest to be played Saturday at Mt. Clemens.
