BRINGS MASS OF DATA FROM TRIP THROUGH EUROPE

E. C. Langfield. Saw Interesting Sights and Secured Information

WATER SUPPLY IS NOW PURE-HEAVY RAINS THE CAUSE

Contamination Came from Surface Water—It's All O. K. Now

Back from a tour of Europe that took them to places that will live tree of all contamination through all history to communities that during the past few years have become commonplace names to American newspaper readers, and through buildings that have amazed the world because of their architecture. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Langfield are delighted to be among their friends and associates after an absence of nearly four months.

Mr. Langfield is a traveler who finds out about things and studies conditions of the countries he visits as well as looking at the beauty spots and places of interest.

If observation didn't reveal to him the information he desired, he asked questions until he found out what he wanted to know, and as a result he has returned to America possessed with a world of information about conditions in the various countries of Europe and what is going on there.

"But the happiest part of the whole trip was the welcome extended to us by our friends and associates here," he said. "All of the springs have been cleaned during the past few days, although it was not necessary as the springs

Members of the Rotary club, of which he was president until he left, have been called upon to decorate and light up various places of business for the annual celebration which will take place August 26 and 27. At the meeting of the Exchange Club Wednesday noon, Rotarians Frank Neal, John T. Tamm, called on Mr. Ford personally a few days ago, and the great automobile manufacturer stated that he would be pleased to do anything he could to assist this community in making its anniversary a success and that he would be glad to send to Northville the car which he has now sold to the city of Detroit.

However, the water came in the house of a neighbor who had just moved into his home. The water was not available over and no place in the country has a reliable water supply.

Langfield, it is planned that the day evening, he will hold a reception for his friends and associates.

The water was put up though, but a

To his amazement, he found a small amount of mud in the water, and played a game with the water in the tub.

He then washed and dried himself. In the intervening time he had a bath and took a walk in the streets of Zurich, and looked back on his vacation with many fond memories, and then went over to play golf.

The last evening in Oxford was a night of fun.

The Belgian people are very friendly to Americans. They give us aid for destroying rats, although their ruler has done wonders in rearing conditions after the war and they do everything in their power to express their gratitude," said Mr. Langfield. "It was this thing which made our visit to Belgium so pleasant."

We were over in Holland a day and saw how they live. We visited one of the big market places. From there we went into Germany. Everybody is taxed there. They seemed determined to get the war debts off their hands as quickly as possible, and you are taxed on what you do and what you eat. Even the bell boys pay a tax to the government on what they make. Tourists are taxed when they pay for their meals, when they pay their hotel bills. Everybody is taxed for everything they purchase, no matter what.

But from what you can see and hear they can begin to see the sun shine a little. Everybody is working. They believe in producing, and when they produce the rest of the story isn't bad. Their great drawback is raw material. We visited many cities in Germany, and among the better classes there seems to be no bitterness toward the Americans. Only the lower classes express any feeling. I heard one taxi driver say it hadn't been for the Americans Germany would have won the war, but he was the only one that expressed resentment.

We visited many German cities, then went up into that delightful country of Switzerland, where everything seems contentment and happiness. The people seem to just radiate contentment from their faces. They do not seem to seek riches. All they desire is just enough to live well on, and they live very plainly. Nearly everything made in Switzerland is made by hand. Everybody is doing something. If they are not employed in carrying out things, they have a little patch of ground where they raise goats and cheese.

Switzerland just seems like the paradise of the world. There is something in the air that makes you feel as though you would like to live there. And the hospitality is won-

BADLY HURT WHEN AUTO IS FORCED INTO THE DITCH

Mrs. B. H. Crouch is suffering from serious injuries received Sunday just this side of Grand Rapids, when the Jewett sedan being driven by Mr. Crouch was run into by another automobile coming off a side road. The car is almost a complete wreck. Mr. Crouch escaped with only a few slight scratches.

Mr. and Mrs. Crouch were on their way home from Grand Rapids, Sunday, and were not a great ways from Portland. They were traveling at an average rate of speed when the left side of their car was caught by the other automobile and caused considerable damage to the ditch by the side of the road and against a telephone pole.

Mrs. Crouch was frightfully cut about the head and injured about the body. She was given immediate attention at the place where the accident happened, and then removed to the home of her sister near Grand Rapids, where she will remain until able to be brought to her home in Northville.

MERCHANTS URGED TO KEEP WINDOW LIGHTS BURNING

Would Have Streets Light as Day During the Big Celebration

Northville merchants have been called upon to decorate and light up various places of business for the annual celebration which will take place August 26 and 27. ### HENRY FORD WILL SEND EXHIBITS FOR BIG PARADE

Community Working to Make Event Greatest in Its History

Practically every detail of Northville's greatest celebration to be staged in commemoration of its 100th birthday has been taken care of, and when the event starts on the morning of Friday, August 26th, the community will be ready to entertain the greatest crowd that ever visited the place.

From the opening hour to 12:00 o'clock on the closing night, there will be one continual round of pleasure and amusement for the thousands of visitors.

Frank Neal, chairman of the program committee, has whipped into shape a series of events for the two days that will be most pleasing to everyone.

Probably the most important announcement that can be made in connection with the celebration is the fact that Henry Ford has personally directed that his exhibition of various modes of transportation be sent to Northville for entrance in the parade that will feature the Saturday afternoon entertainment.

John T. Tamm called on Mr. Ford personally a few days ago, and the great automobile manufacturer stated that he would be pleased to do anything he could to assist this community in making its anniversary a success and that he would be glad to send to Northville the car which he has now sold to the city of Detroit.

PRINTED INVITATIONS FOR YOU

Special invitations containing all the information about the centennial celebration to be held August 26-27, have been prepared and are now in the possession of Milo Johnson, chairman of the invitation committee. These invitations are enclosed in envelopes and if you desire some of them to mail to friends or relatives you would like to have know about the celebration, just call at the office of Milo Johnson and he will be glad to give you some or them to mail away.

It is suggested that if you do not care to send them yourself, leave the names and addresses with him, and he will see that they are forwarded. You had better do this at once, as there is not a whole lot of time left.

From the voting it is significant that there are six people in Northville opposed to a change in the form of its municipal government. The opposition vote was identical at the election creating the charter commission, six having opposed it at that time, three in each precinct.

The vote for it was slightly under that cast at the special election, when the commission was created. The yeses at that time exceeded a hundred by three or four, however the difference is slight.

There were more votes in the second precinct at the first election than at this one.

Members of the charter commission have expressed gratification over the vote in favor of the Charter. The commission spent considerable time in looking up the various systems under which nearby communities face practically the same problems as Northville operates. They voted to have Wayne, Plymouth and other cities, and discussed with the city of Northville the nature of the changes that are to be made.

It is found that the Wayne Charter is an excellent one, and this was carried by a very large extent, though the vote in the second precinct was only 100 to 90. It is also found that the vote in the third precinct is 100 to 90, which is greater than the one in the second.

The 100 to 90 vote in the fourth precinct is 100 to 90, which is greater than the one in the fifth.

The 100 to 90 vote in the sixth precinct is 100 to 90, which is greater than the one in the seventh.

The 100 to 90 vote in the eighth precinct is 100 to 90, which is greater than the one in the ninth.

The 100 to 90 vote in the tenth precinct is 100 to 90, which is greater than the one in the eleventh.

The 100 to 90 vote in the eleventh precinct is 100 to 90, which is greater than the one in the twelfth.

The 100 to 90 vote in the twelfth precinct is 100 to 90, which is greater than the one in the thirteenth.

The 100 to 90 vote in the thirteenth precinct is 100 to 90, which is greater than the one in the fourteenth.

The 100 to 90 vote in the fourteenth precinct is 100 to 90, which is greater than the one in the fifteenth.

The 100 to 90 vote in the fifteenth precinct is 100 to 90, which is greater than the one in the sixteenth.

The 100 to 90 vote in the sixteenth precinct is 100 to 90, which is greater than the one in the seventeenth.

The 100 to 90 vote in the seventeenth precinct is 100 to 90, which is greater than the one in the eighteenth.

The 100 to 90 vote in the eighteenth precinct is 100 to 90, which is greater than the one in the nineteenth.

The 100 to 90 vote in the nineteenth precinct is 100 to 90, which is greater than the one in the twentieth.

The 100 to 90 vote in the twentieth precinct is 100 to 90, which is greater than the one in the twenty-first.

The 100 to 90 vote in the twenty-first precinct is 100 to 90, which is greater than the one in the twenty-second.

The 100 to 90 vote in the twenty-second precinct is 100 to 90, which is greater than the one in the twenty-third.

The 100 to 90 vote in the twenty-third precinct is 100 to 90, which is greater than the one in the twenty-fourth.

The 100 to 90 vote in the twenty-fourth precinct is 100 to 90, which is greater than the one in the twenty-fifth.

The 100 to 90 vote in the twenty-fifth precinct is 100 to 90, which is greater than the one in the twenty-sixth.

The 100 to 90 vote in the twenty-sixth precinct is 100 to 90, which is greater than the one in the twenty-seventh.

MURPHY PROVES REAL BOOSTER FOR HIS COMMUNITY

He Tells Plymouth Kiwanis Club that Co-operation Most Important

Plymouth Kiwanians enjoyed a laugh last Tuesday noon at the regular luncheon when M. J. Murphy, the "First Statesman" of Northville spoke to the members.

Mr. Murphy began his humorous discourse with a treatise on generation of Plymouth to Northville and stated that the only obstacle in the way of such action was a strong opposition.

He recited the names of the four prospects and spring to a city with an encroaching frontier until you take a look at the association of the "First" Irish Nationalists. He referred to the fact that the excellence of Northville spring water as a popular beverage had rendered it impossible for hotel keepers to flourish in this town and charged that the few residents inclined toward strong drink movements were forced to go south for it.

Following his whip-lashing prelude which was generous and laughingly received by the Kiwanians Mr. Murphy adopted a more serious tone and made a spirited appeal for co-operation between the two communities.

He touched upon the need for unity in getting action on their proposed Moreland road paving and other matters of interest to the two cities.

Mr. Murphy was active in the recent testimonial given by Northville business men to Eddie Stinson, and he told how proud his community was of this new and rapidly growing industry.

At the testimonial dinner Mr. Stinson was presented with an acre of land in a field located on Waterford road midway between Plymouth and Northville.

Ward Braud, son of Fred Braud who is visiting Michigan for a few weeks, was introduced to the members, and he responded with a few words regarding California. We adopted state, and business conditions there.

President Freeman Horner announced that another golf tournament will be held at the Plymouth Country Club on Wednesday, August 10th, which would be followed by a picnic dinner at the Plymouth park by R. Hamlin and Sons. The Lumber Lads will prepare the dinner.

DE-HO-CO CONTINUE WINNING—GERMAN VICTORY TWIRLER

Some Good Games Scheduled For Next Few Contests By Farmers

Saturday, August 12, DeHoCo boys never to失望 in their field that have a minute coming game in the time of 12 to 2.

The writer was too late to attend the game, but from the stories that are told and from a brief perusal of the official scorers report, it is quite obvious that the DeHoCo boys have some source of inspiration unknown to the general public. Perhaps it is the antics of Nick Alstroek—V. R. Steele. One would never think to see the expert around that he occupied himself making cement blocks all week. Nevertheless the Farmer boys know their vegetables. That cannot be denied.

Archie Cousineau and Harry German pitched for the Farmers and were opposed by Thorne and Reeves neither of whom caused the Farmers the least bit of trouble.

We wouldn't like to say whether it was a fags' game or not. Suffice it to say the Farmer lads enjoyed their ride over there and would welcome a return match.

On Sunday, August 13, the Redford Merchants came to De-Ho-Co park with a whole bag full of blood thirsty ambitions, but alas, they, too, were doomed to disappointment. Along about the fourth inning, considerable alarm was aroused when the rumor was circulated that the score board attendant wouldn't have numbers high enough to indicate the rapidly rising number of runs the De-Ho-Co boys were stacking up.

Rowland De-Ho-Co's ace pitched his usual air tight game. He was opposed by Cousino and Trombley.

All that can be said about this game is that it was a terrible slaughter, and we imagine that the Redford boys did not feel altogether unlike the handful of soldiers that emerged from the battle of Balaklava, for it surely was a case of the De-Ho-Co to the right, them, De-Ho-Co to the left of them, De-Ho-Co in front of them, volleyed and thundered. As to whether they were dismayed, well, we'll let you draw your own conclusions.

Sunday, August 14th, De-Ho-Co will lock horns with the Brightmoor aggregation. Don't make any mistake about it, the Brightmoor lads are on the same level as the De-Ho-Co boys, and the result will be decided by the skill of the players.

VETERAN AVIATOR TEACHING FLYING

The lure of aviation has invaded the theatricals of Detroit with the result that Monk Watson, master of ceremonies and entertainer extraordinary of the Grand Riviera Theatre, is now taking instruction in flying at the Plymouth airport, under the tutelage of John Koster, well known European pilot.

Taking off from the local field last Monday, Messrs. Watson and Koster flew to Solbridge field, near Mr. Clements and before their return Mr. Watson had experienced every thrill known to the knights of the air.

The day following he enrolled for flying instruction and expects to purchase a two seater plane for his personal use, upon the completion of the course.

Mr. Koster, who is the premier pilot in the Pivorth field, has a splendid record as a pilot both in Europe and America.

He has flown practically every plane operating in the German passenger-service lines and has also had considerable experience in France.

During the war Mr. Koster was taken captive by American forces and acquired such an admiration for his captors that he resolved to come to America at the first opportunity. Six months ago he landed in New York and has been flying constantly since his arrival.

Triangle Flying Service, operating the Plymouth port recently completed the first of two hangars on the field, located two miles east of Plymouth on Ann Arbor road. Messrs. Kay and Diehl are the managers of the port.

F. O. B. Detroit—Full Factory Equipment
4-Door Sedan (Not a Coach)

Few New Cars Have Received a Welcome so Emphatic and Sincere

As Dodge Brothers expected, this brilliant new Four has instantly won a vast and enthusiastic following—is already a spectacular national hit.

Within two days after the first public showing orders were received for $3,250,000 worth of the new Sedans.

Mile-a-minute performance at this unheard-of price is one striking reason—and here are a few of the others:

From 0 to 25 miles an hour through gears in less than 7 seconds!

Longest springbase of any car under $1000!

25 miles per gallon of gas at 25 miles per hour.

19-foot turning radius!

Chic, smart, up-to-the-minute body lines—fashionable pastel colors!

Plenty of seat-room, leg-room, head-room—a big, luxurious interior, richly upholstered!

Built to last long and re-sell high.

And the lowest priced sedan in Dodge Brothers history.

See it—drive it—and you'll deliberate no longer.

NORTHVILLE, MICHIGAN, MICH. FRIDAY, AUGUST 12, 1887.

A YIP YAPPING Denon's book major is doing a lot of yapping right the good old increased taxation flag the state up and is setting upon Wayne town. It has sense enough to realize how the average voter of Wayne county looked upon his associations; he could keep his mouth shut. There is no one any more responsible for the condition that has been brought about than the very mayor of Detroit, and apparently everyone knows of except himself.

His unshining assertion that it was a Groesbeck board that brought about the Wayne tax raise is about as big a fool statement as was ever made by anyone able to use the English language. It was the former Governor who for ten long years fought successfully the battle of Wayne county almost single handed against the upstate element that has long desired to shift the burden of taxation from this part of Michigan. It was this very element that waged such a vicious, falsifying campaign against Groesbeck, assisted by the yapping mayor of Detroit.

Everyone in any way acquainted with state conditions well knows how Governor Groesbeck from the time he became attorney general until he reared as Governor safeguarded the interests of Wayne county against the numerous unjust schemes proposed against it.

But the book major of Detroit can't be blamed for what happened. Old Grandmama Free Press, who fought and cussed old Governor Groesbeck because he favored a two-cent tax, is now swallowing a large cent gas tax from "ITS OWN GOVERNOR." It is not only taking this bitter pill but it is going to pay part of the tax on the $500,000,000 valuation increase that it has been finally responsible for breaking down.

Possibly something may in Wayne county who opposed the former tax will wake up to find out that it was the last friend that received the old major had.

But who is to blame? It's right the major of Detroit and a lot of old-timers to hold up the party that did that. And the reason is simple. Now they have got it so why not?

No greater waste occurs in logging than that caused by leaving high stumps. These usually contain the clearest and highest priced material. The timber saved by cutting low stumps often largely pays for the logging operation.

Whipped cream is not only a pleasantly luxurious addition to a dessert, but a food in itself. It is not needed after a rich hearty dinner, but is appealing and suitable after the lighter type of meals served in summer time.

The Church Too Has A Show Window

The merchant displays his goods for prospective customers that they may be induced to come and select from his stock.

Many merchants make a mighty poor job of presenting their wares attractively or reasonably.

The church has the rarest merchandise that is available. The pearl of great price—the light of the world—a kingdom of godly wisdom—all things of enduring value.

The church has kept up business for centuries and will never, NEVER, DIE. It has failed to make an attractive show of its product, but there are enough fine specimens to make the institution worthy.

The church may be unworthy in many cases but truth will prevail and her glory will never be overshadowed.

To make good iced tea you must first make good hot tea. Use from half to one teaspoonful of tea leaves per cup, according to the kind of tea and the strength preferred. Scald an earthenware pot, put in the tea, pour on freshly boiled water, and allow to steep from 3 to 5 minutes—no longer. Strain, cool and chill, so that very little or no ice need be added at serving time. Pass sliced lemon and powdered sugar.

To eradicate household ants, a syrup poisoned with arsenate of soda is effective where it can be safely used. To make it one pound of sugar is dissolved in a quart of water to which 125 grains of arsenate of soda is added. Use it after boiling and straining on sponges, placed where the ants will find them easily. The sponges are collected several times daily, and the ants swimming on them are killed by immersion in hot water.

A Woman Pays by Check —If She Is Wise

In days gone by, payment was made in an commodity you would accept. Not so many centuries ago a transaction could be made with anything tradeable. It was at that time "I promise to pay upon demand" or similar. The defenseless were demanded to pay often being beaten into a paying mood. In these days of advancement wise people pay by check. The most convenient, safest, cheapest and most sensible way to transact affairs, involving the transfer of money. Employers should pay their employees by check. That's safe. Employees in turn should pay all bills by check.

Come in and let us explain how a checking account is the ideal modern way to handle money.

NEARLY 100 COME TO FAMILY REUNION

The annual meeting of the Am. and Mich. Frankl. Club in Northville, was the scene of the reunion of the club family and the return of the old-timers to their former haunts. More than one hundred members came from Detroit, Flint, Bay City, Williamston, South Lyon, Milford, Plymouth, Novi, Lake Orion, Saline, Highland and Cass Lake.

The meeting was called to order by the president, M. B. Potts of Highland. Minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Miss Lucile Orr of Detroit.

After the business meeting, M. B. Potts gave an account of the sailing of William and Mary Ann Weavers Potts from London, England, March 17, 1829, and after a voyage of five weeks and five days on the rolling Atlantic, reached New York and later Milford, Michigan, where they established a home in the New World. It was a very attentive, interested group of listeners that followed Mr. Potts in his account of that couple and their six children that crossed the Atlantic many years ago.

Tables were spread under the grand old trees on the Luray lawn and a delicious dinner served. Visiting and music filled the remainder of the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wells of Berkley rendered some fine selections.

All passed a happy day with Mr.

Franklin in mind of all the great men who have lived in the state of Michigan after Farmers' Sons and Daughters before us.

Orchard members hope to have a novelty in their 1928 calendar.

IMPROVEMENTS
BEING MADE DOWN
AT FAIR GROUNDS
Directors Already Planning to Make This Year's Event Best

Ever attended the Northville Wayne
County fair?

Well, you are going to miss something this year. But it is one of those "misses" that you will be glad to miss.

Remember that big puddle of water that always stood just north of the fair stand every time it rained?

"Well, it's not going to be there this year. As far back as the days when the fair was first started that puddle of water has proven a nuisance."

There have been one or two years

when it didn't rain during fair week, but as the weather man generally sees to it that it does rain when a fair takes place the directors of the fair association have decided to fool him in his year.

Workmen for a number of days past have been laying a big drain under the grandstand and under the race track, out to the creek. The drain, 3½-inch pipes, will be sufficiently large to carry off the water from the board that is always created when ever it rains.

Not only are the directors getting rid of the puddle, but they are making other improvements at the park all the buildings are being put in first-class shape, and when fair time arrives this fall, Northville will have one of Northville's finest fairs.

The dates fixed for the event are the last weekend in September, including the first day of October, an extended time for a County Fair.

Secretary Floyd Norberg is about the business individual in Michigan

just as at present. In co-operation with the directors he is getting everything arranged so that when the time comes there will not be a mis-happening and a lot to do at the last hour.

He stated yesterday that there is every indication of making the fair

the best the百姓 and best pier held. There seems to be more than the usual visitors in the crowd believed.

FORMAL OPENING OF GROCERY WITH BIG BARGAIN SALE

Elliott & Son Invite You to Visit Store Opening
Saturday

Special prices on groceries and baked goods that ought to appeal to the most careful buyer are announced for the formal opening, Saturday, of W. H. Elliott & Son in their new store at 193 East Main street. "We want our friends and others to come and see us, and in order to induce them to be our guests and patronize our store on Saturday, we have offered a number of special prices that no one can beat. We have one of the finest bake shops in the state. It is the cleanest and most sanitary of any that can be found," stated Mr. Elliott yesterday.

For weeks workmen have been busy getting the big store ready. While customers have been taken care of, the formal opening does not take place until Saturday morning.

Mr. Elliott has been in business for a great many years. He has been one of the substantial citizens of this community and has always been a supporter of every move which has been for the betterment of the town. Some time ago he took his son, Wm. Jr., into his business with him and he is training an excellent assistant to his father.

Mr. Elliott's business growth has been remarkable. A few years ago he leased his building and entered the store. He suffered a loss at that time that would have put most men out of business.

"He isn't a quitter and he went back into business again, under adverse conditions. He has worked night and day aided by his son, until now he has a grocery store and bake shop that is a credit to any town, as big as Northville."

VILLAGE MOURNS:
MRS. CLARK'S DEATH

The passing of Mrs. Ida Clark, daughter of the late George and Emma Clark, came August 2nd, at the home of her brother Roy on Lenox street, where she had the tender care until the moment came, though unexpected so soon.

Roy died over a year ago. His operations of the farm and forest in the house and her care was continuous in everyone. The condition of the heart brought the end quickly.

The funeral was held in Northville on October 1, 1925. The family then moved to Milford, living there until the fall of 1926. They later came to Northville again and Mrs. Clark remained in the house until her death - she married at Northville to Rev. W. Clark, whose wife died before him in the hospital preceding him, on the same date, on Dec. 20, 1926.

For many years she was employed in the Record office of Northville, and later as bookkeeper for the Elco Coal & Ice Company.

This patient sufferer was laid to rest in River Hill cemetery funeral being conducted by Rev. William Richards at the home of her brother Roy, Friday, August 5th, at 3 o'clock. The Rev. J. W. Priest of the Baptist church assisted in the services by leading the family to the Throne of Grace in prayer. Mrs. Clark was a member of the Baptist church up to the time of her death. The floral tributes gave expression to the esteem in which she was held by the community.

If you are planning to build or remodel a kitchen, be sure to arrange for a two-way closet in the connecting wall between the dining room and kitchen. It will save you many steps since dishes can be put in when washed on the kitchen side, and taken out on the dining room side while the process is reversed in clearing the table after a meal.

If you put away left-over cooked cereals in pound baking powder tins or other receptacles which will mold them in good shape for slicing and frying, they will be ready to use as a dinner vegetable in place of potato or rice. Dip each slice in flour, have the fat hot, and cook the pieces on one side until delicately browned before turning over.

Is your kitchen sink the right height? If you find yourself stooping over it and cannot change its position, put a block of wood under the dishpan. Blocks of wood under the legs of the kitchen table, too, will eliminate some of the backache that comes from working at too low a surface.

In marketing fruits and vegetables no one factor is more important than careful grading. It constantly advertises to the public good will and creates confidence.

STINSON PLANE FOR WORLD DASH READY FOR FLIGHT

Has Been Taken from Local Factory to New York
for Final Tests

The Stinson plane that will be used in the flight around the world in an effort to break previous time records has been completed and flown to New York for final tests. It left the local factory last week.

Edward F. Schieffel, president of the Warco Oil Corporation and Warco Air Services, Inc., with William Brock as pilot, will leave Detroit early in August, and their itinerary includes 20,000 miles of flying before they return. They will use a Stinson-Detroit monoplane.

The first leg of the flight will be a 1,500-mile-hop from Detroit to Harbour Grace in the north Atlantic. The next jump planned is one of 2,450 miles to London. There the flyers will go to Berlin, Moscow and across Siberia to Tokio.

From Japan they have mapped out a jump to the Hawaiian Islands with a stop at Midway Island. They would return to the American continent at San Francisco and complete the round trip with a flight from the Pacific coast to Detroit.

Altogether Schieffel and Brock plan to use the same plane and engine throughout the flight if possible, and arrangements have been made for the passengers of extra engine at points en route.

There are a number of suitable garnishes for iced tea. A spray of mint adds a cool summer touch. Sliced orange or lemon peel, and candied pineapple are nice. Slices of kiwi, orange or lime are good. Some people like whole cloves stuck in cinnamon, crystallized ginger or rose geranium leaves with iced tea.

In a good many parts of the country color tablets can be worn out late in the fall. Colors grow darker as the season advances, and materials somewhat heavier, but as often garments can be laundered easily, and are inexpensive they remain popular.

One fourth of the receipts from National forests is, in accordance with federal law, retained yearly by the timber companies where the forest is located in lieu of taxes, for road building and forest development.

The Thoughtless Spark that Costs Millions!

FIRE PREVENTION METHODS

Matches - Be sure your match is out. Break it in half before you throw it away.

Potato skins - Be sure that pipe ashes and cigar or cigarette stubs are dead before throwing them away. Never throw them into brush, leaves or needles.

Makin' Camp - Before building a fire, scrape away all inflammable material from a spot 5 feet in diameter. Dig a hole in the center, and lay it out with sticks. Keep your fire small. Never build it against trees or logs or near brush.

Breaking Camp - Never burn camp until your fire is out dead out.

Brush Burning - Never burn brush or brush in windy weather or while there is the slightest danger that the fire will get away.

No one would knowingly cause forest fires. Yet 725,328 acres of timber land were burned last year, in Michigan alone. Thoughtlessness caused practically all of it.

Every resident of Michigan and every visitor to Michigan enjoys and profits by Michigan's resources. And everybody loses when timber, one of the greatest of these resources, is destroyed.

Three great losses come from timber fires: (1) The timber loss itself, (2) the cost of fire suppression, (3) the loss of beauty - wooded lands are depoiled of their attractiveness, and this in turn causes partial drying up of lakes and streams.

You can help by making these facts more widely understood. Then care will replace thoughtlessness. Our forests will be used and enjoyed but not destroyed.

MAN
MIDNIGHT HOUR

C. W. Wilber, and Party
Back from a Trip to Alaska and the West.

When a lad in the country school C. W. Wilber studied about the land of the midnight sun. His geography said there was such a place. Now the cashier of the Northville State Savings bank knows there is such a place from personal observation. For he was fortunate enough to be up above the Arctic circle during the first of June when the sun never is out of sight day or night.

"I took pictures of the sun at 11 o'clock at night, at midnight, and again at 1 o'clock at night," he said upon his return home from a trip that took Mr. and Mrs. Wilber and Farmington friends over a great portion of Alaska.

"It was an delightful experience and I hope some day to be able to go back and visit some of the places that we had the pleasure of seeing this summer. Some of the time while we were in Alaska the weather was warmer than it is here right now. I took an overcoat along, but the only place I had to use it was in Northern California up in the mountains. Alaska is covered with vegetation. I saw some very good gardens and the government maintains a farm experimental station up there. I believe that the chief business of Alaska will be its mining for and fishing industries. Our boat was stopped an entire day at one port while great loads of fish were taken aboard."

"When we left on our trip we first went to California, stopping at a number of places to see the sights and visit friends. California is a beautiful place and business seemed about the same there as here. We went up the coast to Seattle. On the boat trip to Alaska we were never out of sight of land. Except for a brief period of sea sickness it was a most pleasant trip."

"There is lots to see in Alaska and it is a wonderful place to visit in the summer time. We were in nearly all of the various cities and towns. The Yukon Hotel accommodations are fairly good. There is plenty of evidence of the gold rush days. We all tried to have had the opportunity of visiting Alaska and we are all glad to be home. After all, it's rather difficult to find any place you like better than your own locality."

HAY FEVERITES TO SOON START NORTH

It is beginning to be the time again when the black birds start the "Hay Feverites" to start north together for the purpose of getting away from the rag-weed and the flowers of the midland during winter time. But now it's right now I am in the flock and when we're in about the same with them black birds do it. However if black is in the nest in the tree on which we are sitting.

I composed a lot of the ones who are best at having hay fever, but I can't tell you as has yet. It hasn't got to be the one in the rag-weed to get into his complexion because you don't know.

The charter members Dr. Paul Ayer, Dr. Harry Clark, Frank Perkins and Rev. William Richards, had the first meeting of the season the other day. Not one is yet keeping, but they all tried out to Col. E. S. Green at 10 North Center street to look over the status of the rag-weed there. You see when the rag-weed gets to a certain place in its growth the hay feverites start north just about as sudden as the black birds start south.

Only the possessed of this ailment denoting class distinction can tell when it's just time to start. Anyone else can look at a rag-weed, and it looks just the same from the time it starts growing up the garden until the frost kills it. But not so with the hay fever fan. He can tell from the looks of the rag-weed just the day he should start north. That's the reason they are watching 'em so closely. It's soon time to start.

IDAHO OFFICIAL LOCAL VISITOR

E. M. Porter, commissioner of finance of the state of Idaho, attending the convention of National Association of Bank Examiners of Wheeling, West Virginia, stopped off in Northville for a brief visit with his brother M. A. Porter, a former tax commissioner of Michigan. Other brothers in Detroit and over in Lenawee County were also visited.

Mr. Porter has been a resident of Idaho for a great many years, and he is a loyal booster for the state in which he resides. He states that conditions among the farmers have greatly improved late in the west, and that indications for future prosperity are better than they have been for some time.

NORTHVILLE LAD
WRITES POETRY
IN SPARE HOURS

Following are Two Efforts of Russell Atchison, Local Senior

Following are two poems that have been submitted by Russell Atchison for publication. The young high school student spends some of his spare time in writing verse and the following are samples of some of his productions:

Many a newspaper editor has made a slip or turning down poetry presented for publication by aspiring youngsters. "No good," they'd say and into the waste basket would go the poems. "It's a relief" a lot of searching has been done through the baled-up waste paper by some newspaper offices to the early efforts of Longfellow and others. There is one editor who is going to play safe. Record readers will pass on the following efforts, Father and the editor.

LADIE, OH LADIE
Ladie, oh Ladie of mine,
Do you remember the time,
When we used to play
Among the clover all day.

Catching butterflies on the wing,
And those melodies we used to sing
Ladie, oh, Ladie.

Ladie, oh Ladie of mine,
None so brave and true.
A stout soldier, you went away
To help your native land, they say.

But come home, we are waiting for you,
The cloverfield and your melodies, too.
Ladie, oh, Ladie.

Ladie, oh Ladie of mine,
Your letters come no more;
Haze you fallen by the way?
See you no more the light of day?

Have you crossed the threshold over
Just another victim of war?

Ladie, oh, Ladie.

VICTORY

The sun sets and peace comes over the city. Some linger here, some linger there
A few hurry homeward sleepily
But up in the blue so bright and fair
An aeroplane home, swooped swiftly
Humming America onward,
Forward into victory.

Up and up to the brave youth,
Flight for honor and life.
An example of American life,
Speeding onward through the night
A nation in helping me is true,
And broad of all in her old strength.

Dear, dear, Ladie.

WATER

Water, water, fly by night,
We tost you to the right of your Dreadful net, the right of your
The Adonis, etc., etc., etc., etc., and the like.

Across the horizon at the sky,
A full moon in the east, the moon
An old friend in the teeth of the wind.

It is a good day to the spring
And keep me in the heat from the sun.
There's no one to write and none,
Look some fast elsewhere.

Look some fast elsewhere
And cross the ocean fast
But although he adores the element
This lady has paid her due
And steady was the river when she Went he there above the sky.

YOU CAN SCORCH
THE PAVINGS, BUT

It's not a bad idea to make gas on Michigan highway but it's not a good idea to make it at 100 miles per hour crossing the state's motor laws.

The new regulation becomes effective the week of August 14. The new law removes the speed limit of 35 miles an hour, making the maximum speed that which a driver can operate his car carefully, safely and prudently.

The revision of the speed limit law is expected to prove effective both for the motorists and for the traffic officials, highway officers state. "Drive safely" will be the new law for motorists. The highways will be well patrolled however, and all motorists driving in a reckless manner will be arrested.

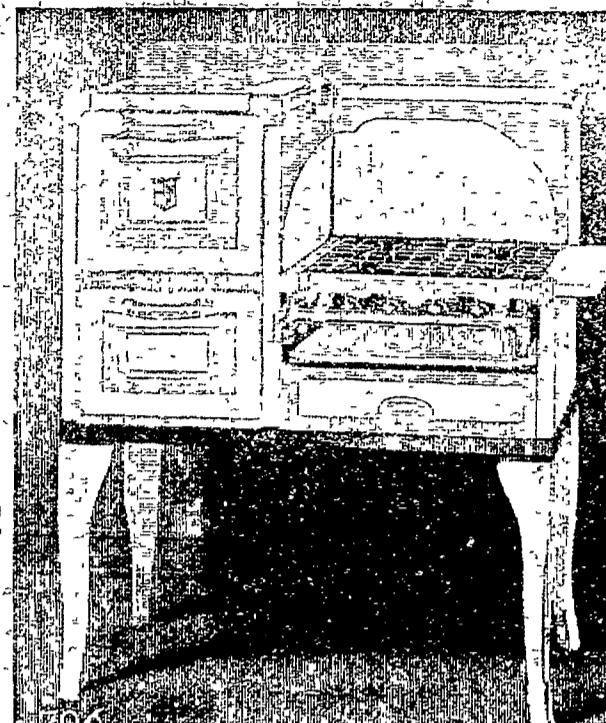

The presence of flies is an indication of uncleanliness, unsanitary conditions and improper disposal of substances in which they breed. Flies are not only annoying but actually dangerous to health since they carry disease germs to exposed foods. Means of ridding the house of flies include the use of screens, fly papers, poison, and fly traps. Information on this subject including explanation of methods of eliminating breeding places may be obtained from the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

In building a poultry house it is safe to allow about four square feet of floor space per bird. The lighter birds, such as Leghorns and Anconas usually require less floor space than Plymouth Rocks, Rhode Island Reds and Wyandottes.

There is no practical advantage in adding water to the grain ration because of the large amount of saliva and other digestive fluids secreted by a dairy cow.

This Dunlop tread is the toughest deven-

A two-course dinner, providing, in addition to meat, one green-leaf vegetable, one starchy vegetable, and a dessert served as a second course, may be considered a completely balanced meal if all five food groups are represented in it. Protein foods, fruits and vegetables, starchy foods, fats and sweets. Soups and salads are not necessary for the home dinner, but salad may take the place of a cooked vegetable, and the soup may serve to use up materials already on hand. By sometimes having such courses and sometimes omitting them, the pattern of the family meals is more interesting and varied.

A monthly census of waterfowl at selected points through the United States is being planned by the Biological Survey of the United States Department of Agriculture. The purpose of the census is to obtain through volunteer cooperators more definite information regarding the numbers, distribution, and migration of waterfowl throughout this country, Canada and Mexico. It will be an aid in administering federal regulations for the protection of birds that migrate between the United States and Canada.

Mineral food for hens is best supplied in the form of oyster or clam shells or limestone, which supply the calcium for eggshell formation. Bone meal may also be used to advantage, especially the phosphates, and is usually mixed in with the mash ration.

TALKS OF MIL. FLOATS, CLASSIFICATION

Monday's Meeting Given
Over to Affairs of Club and its Members

An urgent appeal on the part of President, Don Yerkes, Sr., for members of the Rotary club to turn out and help pull the organization up of theella position in the Twilight baseball league is the, this week, Richardson, chairman of the rotary club, prepare the rotary float for the parade to be held during the centennial celebration and a discussion of club classification. The meeting of the rotary club was held Monday noon. Terry Thompson makes a fine showing in Military Athletics. Terrence H. Thompson, who is in the Citizens' Military training camp at Camp Custer, has been awarded nine honors in two different classes of athletic activities, as shown in the Detroit Free Press. Thompson is first in the 880-yard run of rotary club, having won the award of William E. Hays, Detroit president, E. C. Langford. In the 10-mile pull test, who has been attending the rotary judges stated that as there was no convention in Europe. He has turned home, and the next meeting, flipping of coins to the honor will be given over to him, upon the which Terry did not have good luck suggestion of President Yerkes. It developed after the meeting of the club secured his physical training in the Northville schools, and his success at the camp speaks well of the work accomplished here. And it is always good advertising for the rotary to send out a winner.

LOCAL CUBS TAKE ANOTHER FAST GAME

Northville Cubs Sunday in a speedy game, played at the Athletic park, took the fast Scovill Lumber Co. team from Ypsilanti into camp by a score of 11 to 7. The game was featured by a number of excellent plays, the two Hulburgs, Long and Jesler showing up especially well. In fact, the whole line-up played a good game. The line-up of the local team follows:

H. Hulberg, second base; E. Wood, shortstop, G. Long, first base, B. Kennedy, center field; C. Desbler, pitcher. R. Hulberg, left field, B. Jordan, center field, B. Helco, third base, Calkins, Girarden and Ashburn, were substitutes. Next Sunday's game will be with the Northegeans from Plymouth. This should be a strong aggregation, and the game ought to be a good one. It will start at 4 o'clock at the local park.

NORTHVILLE Twenty-Five Years Ago

From the files of the Northville Standard, to be had at 190 Main Street, Northville, Michigan.

MILO JOHNSON HAS SOLVED CHUNG WAR

With the settlement of Northville's political affairs, the public relations of Milo Johnson's political party have become the talk of the town. The party's chief spokesman, Mr. J. H. Thompson, in a speech made recently, told the people of Northville that the party had no objection to the election of public officials. "We want to have," he said, "as many public officials as we can." Thompson further explained that the party's main object is to secure the election of public officials who are in agreement with the principles of the party. Thompson also stated that the party would not oppose any person who is in agreement with the principles of the party.

LOCAL MAN GETS
FAR-AWAY PAPERS

Walter H. Brown has received copies of a newspaper called The Leader, from Melbourne, Australia, containing pictures and write-ups of the opening of the new federal parliament building at Canberra, Australia. The write-ups of the event in connection with the public improvement are amazing because of the vast amount of detail covered. The pictures cover many pages of the newspaper, and show that Australian newspapers are just as clever as those on this continent in presenting to the public every interesting feature of a big event.

It was surprising to note the vast amount of advertising filling the six pages of one of the issues. One of the big feature ads was in the Graham Brothers Trucks and Buses the ad being of the same size and mate, up of those appearing in recent issues of the Northville Record.

Dozens of ads appeared advertising rabbit-traps, sheep skins and rabbit skins. Farm implements of American make were also advertised.

Football, cricket and lawn tennis seemed to be the prevailing sports in that country just at present.

NORTHVILLE LAD WINS HIGH HONORS IN CAMP CONTEST

Terry Thompson Makes a Fine Showing in Military Athletics

Terrence H. Thompson, who is in the Citizens' Military training camp at Camp Custer, has been awarded nine honors in two different classes of athletic activities, as shown in the Detroit Free Press.

Thompson was one of the first to be accorded in the field of performance, so a new law requiring the ladies to be present at the meeting, flipping of coins to the honor will be given over to him, upon the which Terry did not have good luck.

This is the first showing for the Northville club. The club secured his physical training in the Northville schools, and his success at the camp speaks well of the work accomplished here.

And it is always good advertising for the rotary to send out a winner.
