Plans Being Rapidly Per-fected for Mail Delivery in Northville.

Plans are being rapidly perfected for the inauguration of city mail service in Northville and it is expected that by January 1st, everything will be ready for the delivery of mail direct to the residences. Congressman Cran- shan, who secured the mail service for Northville, in a letter to Postmaster Frank Neal urges that there be no delay in making proper arrangements for the inauguration of the mail service.

It is understood that so far there have been very few making inquiry relative to the civil service examination for the two carriers to be appointed. Postmaster Neal states that he will be glad to provide anyone with information about the examination. There have been some inquiries from men living in Detroit and other nearby communities, but few from Northville.

Before the service starts it will be necessary for each house to be equipped with a standard mailbox to be attached near the front door, or else a slot made in the door through which letters may be inserted by the carriers.

Eleven public mail boxes will be placed about the village where letters may be mailed and will be picked up and taken to the postoffice by the carriers. Parcels will have to be mailed at the postoffice as at present. Large parcels will not be delivered by the carriers to start with but notices will be left at residences advising of the arrival of packages at the postoffice.

People should confine now to advise their correspondents of their house or business address, as this will be necessary so that carriers may know where to leave mail.

Mail for business places will be left inside the offices or at a place designated by the manager or owner.

The deliveries will be made daily, one in the morning and one in the afternoon, just like it is in big cities.

FINGER CUT-OFF,
DOCTOR Sews IT BACK—MAY SAVE IT

A young boy, 12 years old, of Mrs. J. H. Hendon's on the second floor of the Hendon Building of Northville, cut his finger off while working with his father in a basement with Hendon, the boy the plasterer, had cut his finger off a few days ago. He is not strong enough yet, but it will be sometime before he will be able to use his hand.

CHICKEN THIEVES
NOW USE GAS WHEN MAKING ROBBERIES

Chicken thieves have hit Northville with a new scheme. To keep the chickens from squawking and making a general commotion when the chicken coop is entered at night time, they are now using some sort of gas or drug to quiet them during the theft.

The latest victim of the new fad in chicken stealing is Eugene Root, over in Noyd, township. A few nights ago chicken thieves entered his coop and took $50 worth of chickens destined for the Thanksgiving market.

Four dead ones were left, these apparently having been killed by the gas used to stupefy them.

PICTORIAL SERVICES AT FEDERATED CHURCH EACH
SUNDAY PLEASES MEMBERS

Considerable interest is being manifested in the series of pictorial services, which are being held in Salem Federated church every Sunday evening at 7:30. The Rev. A. J. Parker, minister of the church, is taking the congregation through the Books of the Old and New Testament. Commencing with the Book of Genesis the studies have proceeded now as far as the Book of Deuteronomy, and the studies will be continued through the whole Bible. Upon a large screen erected in the church, pictures are projected showing the actual scenes of many Biblical events. New pictures and a new study is presented every Sunday evening and large congregations are being attracted to the meetings.

Illustrated solos and duets are rendered by the choir, and the services promise to become increasingly popular during the winter months. On Sunday last the study included a visit to the strange and mysterious city of Petra, and views were shown of the temples, homes, tombs and public buildings, which a lost race of mankind cut out of solid rock and the mountain side.

In addition to the studies of the Books of the Old and New Testament, other subjects are being dealt with in the services. On Sunday evening November 27th, a pictorial lecture showing the world-renowned Passion Play of Oberammergau will be given by the minister, and illustrated solos will be contributed by the choir. Addition to the lectures is quite free, but a collection is taken in the meetings, dividends will be well repaid for making a special effort to attend these Sunday evening services.

Mrs. Long, Kolhoff, and sister Mrs. Armenia Bryson have joined the Pictorial Services.

LOYLE GERMAN BRINGS HOME THE
BACON TO FAMILY

Went Over to Plymouth to
Rotary and Came Home
With Plenty

Loyle German went over to Plymouth to make up a Rotary meeting he had missed last week. When he got Northville or the neighboring city he didn't realize that he was going to walk into a venison dinner and he didn't know that he was going to bring enough bacon home to last his family all winter. But he is just what it is.

After a serving of a delicious venison dinner at the New Maybury hotel—the deer having been provided by one of the members who had been fortunate in a hunting trip to Canada—the Rotarians of Plymouth proceeded to provide everyone present with turkey, geese, quails, bacon and ham for Thanksgiving day. If you didn't get a turkey or a duck you were sure to get something else. That is a good thing—and Loyle German happens to be one of the lucky boys.

As a result he won bacon at every dish of the cucking. There was no drawing or no raffle—but it just happened that he wore a horseshoe around his neck that day.

Now if some one will provide Loyle with a few spuds and a sack of buckwheat flour, he will be pretty well taken care of for the winter months to come.

NORTHVILLE, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY NOVEMBER 25 1927

CONSISTENCY — Let's get busy and by the time the first airship next year have this the newspapers' offices of eastern cities being flooded with telegrams cleanest era—neatest as well as the most attractive community in all America. Michigan Evergreen for it? YOU BET

SHOP RIGHT HERE. — Next week will begin the Christmas shopping period. From now until Christmas time everyone will be buying souvenirs for their friends and relatives—something to remind them of the fact that it is Christmas time and they have not been forgotten. The Christmas spirit is a wonderful thing. It keeps fresh old friendships. It brings families closer together. The improvements the sponsors have planned to develop the water power of the dam is forced to carry on. This through great business system has been developed a wonderland for everyone in selecting the little things so badly needed at Christmas to be used in carrying the message of good will. Stores are filled with little reminders. Fortunately in recent years she has grown a tendency for arts making Christmas gifts beautiful.

Up to the present time no one has seemed overly anxious about this of business to the smaller printing shops except the owners of these community business places. If the power interests and other great organizations had in the past shown sympathetic support for the publishers' cause, how much more respectable would be their appeal for our aid at present.

THE PAVING JOB.

Workmen this week finished the paving of all the streets that the city commission planned to have improved during the present year. The job was started rather late in the season but good fall weather enabled the contractor to complete the improvement with a delay. Naturally there has been and always will be some discussion as to the advisability of paving the streets. But no one can dispute the fact that the "rubbishy" city of Northville has been transformed in thousand fold by the paving.

The Department of Agriculture has kept a record of average monthly farm price of eggs from 1919 to 1924 and finds that the price is lowest in the month of April, returning fairly steadily until July and then begins to increase, until December although through January the price still remains at a fairly good figure. From January to January, therefore, is the season of highest price, and if the production is good during that period prices of egg production are increased greatly. Unfortunately, however, in most towns and especially in agricultural country, it is during the fall and early winter months that the market is at its lowest. Thousands of farmers lose large sums of money simply because they do not catch their profits early enough so they will beat "time" to the high price during the following winter months. They fail to realize that prices are highest at only source of eggs at that time of the year because we are short of eggs and they may take from 30 to 90 days to renew the complete flock.

Parents do this by withholding or denying to their children the benefits of public worship.

The power of public worship to mold and fashion youth cannot be estimated. They who deny themselves or their God-given charges do vast injury.

Public worship is a steady force—an uplifting power—a mind-and-spirit building process. Neglect of it is robbery.

Isaiah the prophet said that folks should worship and that they should come to the courts of the Almighty with clean hands and open hearts. Benefits of great worth would then flow in.

Junior McLean, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLean of Detroit died of influenza in last Sunday evening at a Detroit Hospital after an illness of only two days. He was a bright young man of seven years and died by the side of his wife. Besides his parents he is survived by one brother, Paul, 12, and two sisters, who were held in New York City in December. Rev. W. J. McLean, pastor of the McLean Church, died in Northville last evening at a number of his relatives from the community in their 80s.

The band concert at the high school auditorium Tuesday night by the newly organized "Choir Band" was a splendid one. The members of the musical organization have certainly made exceptional progress.

There was only a fair crowd present, and it is probable that another concert will be given in a later date when there are not so many conflicting events.

E. O. Langfield, who was the leading influence back of organizing the band, was present and gave a brief review of its organization and development. By the end of another year, the band will be among the best in the state, in the high school class.

Tuesday, November 29th, at their home in this place, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Keyser will quietly celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. Because of the fact that Mrs. Keyser's health is not the best, there will be only the immediate relatives of the family present.

Mr. and Mrs. Kerser were married in Cornell, New York and came directly to Michigan, where Mr. Keyser was in the lumber business at Cadillac. He was one of the pioneer lumbermen of the state and had much to do with the early development of that business. In the years they have lived in Northville they have endeared themselves to everyone who has had the pleasant opportunity of meeting them.

A number of friends assisted George Simons in celebrating his birthday anniversary recently. The evening was featured by games and the serving of refreshments in keeping with the present season.

He was presented with a most attractive smoking stand—but there is a bit of mystery connected with it. It happened to be an old smoking stand that he threw away some months ago. He took it way down into the woods so as to be sure and get rid of it. Someone collected up the parts during the summer and known to Mr. Simons and made it a pretty nice set which could be secured anywhere and when it was presented to him he thought it must have come from the same old吸烟者.

LOGICAL REASONS FOR BUYING NOW TOLD BY HINCHMAN

Paige Dealer Points Out the Benefits of Early Winter Buys.

Five reasons why prospective new car purchasers may buy motor cars in November at this season are enumerated by Claude Hinckman, local Paige dealer. Mr. Hinckman explained the many reasons put off the purchase of a new car until spring, not realizing that by buying in the fall they are often saved considerable expense.

Here are his reasons for present buying:

First, your present car will undoubtedly require some re-conditioning to fit it for winter use. Save this expense and apply the money towards a new car.

Second, winter driving of worn tires is unsafe and changing tires in cold weather is a real hardship. If you do not buy a new car you will need new tires. The cost of these will help pay for the new car.

Third, your present car will be safer as a year older by spring. By trading it in now you will profit by a better allowance.

Fourth, these fall days are ideal for breaking in a new automobile—no excessive heat, fewer greasing trips and plenty of time in most parts of the country to have the car well worn or before cold weather comes.

Fifth, if you happen to be driving a car with two-wheel brakes and high pressure tires you cannot afford to risk your safety and that of your family during a cold winter. Paige hydraulic four-wheel brakes with balloon tires, are much safer, especially in snow and slush.

Sixth, unless your car is a fairly recent model, you have probably had trouble in past winters with frozen oil lines, or at least improper lubrication which sooner or later causes motor trouble. Oil lines in the Paige are encased in the motor, protecting you against freezing or congealing of the oil at any ordinary winter temperature.

Seventh, the new finish used on Paige cars is not affected by winter weather like the old stripe paint jobs. You need not wait until spring just to be sure of having a good looking car.

Eighth, after all, the big advantage of having a new car for winter use is the greater comfort, security and enjoyment it affords. Why go without all that when you can obtain such high values in motor cars at present?

SIX MILE ROAD WILL BE PAVED EARLY IN SPRING

With the active season for road building over, the Wayne County Road commission is clearing up odds and ends of county work prior to the setting in of winter and in preparation for an early spring start.

On Six Mile road at the River Rouge bridge, county road trucks are busy making the cut. This work is being done now so that it will have time through the winter to settle. The road commission will then be able to put a crew on Six Mile road immediately after frost is out of the ground.

In the meantime, the road commission is working on the road building between Grand River avenue and 12th street, a couple of blocks west of the bridge.

The concrete road was brought east from Madison Beach to this point west of the bridge this year and is now in use between Telegraph road and Abbot's Beltr road.

TWO NEW FORDS DELIVERED, NOT ON EXHIBITION

Much interest was aroused here by the arrival of two new Fords. While not ready for exhibition purposes the Fords have been observed by several and much approval of their fitness and finish have been voiced. Their bodies are finely lined and graced with pleasing curves. Their color job is of a quality that shows a richness and well-being, and their lines in general are wholly fitting for the work desired of them.

Probably not without reason, the design follows that of former models, but there are individual differences. They are generally quiet, but there is considerable sound under heavy stress of action. Their speed and durability have not yet been tested but their fuel consumption at least at the present time is surprisingly low.

While formed on the same general principles there is minor difference between the two models received here. This is not surprising when it is considered that one is a boy and the other is a girl born to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ford. The babies have not been named, but they and their mother are reported to be doing well.

ROSEDALE PARK CIVIC ORGANIZATION HONORS ITS RETIRING PRESIDENT

A memorable meeting of the Rosedale Park Civic Association, Inc., held at the Club House, Friday night, when G. L. Weaver, retiring president, was presented with life membership and a chest of sterling silver tableware. The chest contained 66 pieces in etruscan design and was accompanied by a small tastefully bound book bearing the signatures of more than 175 members.

The presentation was made by President Harry St. John at the close of the regular business meeting. In a short but well chosen speech Mr. St. John paid a fitting tribute to the achievements of his predecessor during his term of office. He emphasized the point that the presentation was not simply to honor a retiring president and establish a precedent, but came about as the result of a widely expressed sentiment among the membership that G. L. Weaver's services to the community called for a substantial and enduring expression of gratitude and affection. Mr. Weaver was surprised and deeply touched by the tribute and limited his reply to a simple and sincere spoken acknowledgment of the gifts.

TAKEN IN AUTOMOBILE DIES WHILE ON WAY HOME

Last Saturday evening while riding with her husband and children, Mrs. Roy Bell was taken suddenly ill, and before Mr. Bell could reach home he had passed away. Aapple was the cause of death.

Mr. Roy Bell, age 65, a bachelor, was born in Plymouth, Michigan, February 7, 1889. He was a student from Plymouth High School in 1909, and was married to Mrs. Roy Bell December 11, 1911. Mr. Bell lived at 4111 Franklin Street in Plymouth, following his son, a decorated World War veteran, who is married to her daughter, Dorothy, wife of Kenneth E. Miller, and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Miller, of Plymouth. His sisters, Mrs. W. W. Millman of Adrian, Mich., and Mrs. K. D. Seckinger of Michigan City, Ind., and his brother, Warren J. Bell, of Plymouth.

The funeral services, conducted by Rev. William Nicol, took place from her late home, 21 Fairway Avenue Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. The attendance was very large and the many beautiful floral offerings attest to the sympathy and esteem of a host of friends—Plymouth Mort.

A copy of the Independent Chronicle and Universal Advertiser, dated January 4, 1784, and published in Boston shows Paul Revere living at that time a comparatively quiet existence and advertising "an importation of metal goods, door locks, shot, playing cards, Irish linens, German serges and so on at his mart."

FIRE DESTROYED SMALL RESTAURANT BUILDING IN PLYMOUTH FEW DAYS AGO

The Famous Restaurant conducted by Harry Kokinos, opposite the Pere Marquette depot, was practically destroyed by fire at an early hour last Sunday morning. When the fire was discovered, the flames had gained considerable headway and the fire department did well to confine the fire to the one building. The interior of the restaurant was gutted. The restaurant closes at 10 o'clock in the evening and occupies the building at night. How the fire originated is not known. The building was partially covered by insurance—Plymouth Natl.

NEW PARTS PLANT
Ernest Allison Tells of the Company's Plan to Aid
Car Owners

Ernest J. Allison, Chevrolet dealer for this part of Wayne county, has been advised of the opening of a new $625,000 parts and service building in Flint, Mich. This structure marks the completion of a two million dollar parts and service program, extending over the last year and a half, and involving in addition the construction of four major supply depots, and a complete reorganization of those at Oakland and Tarrytown.

The new first building is a three-story steel and concrete structure with a total of 225,000 square feet of floor space. Railroad docks for 12 freight cars have been provided to expedite shipping.

Made necessary because of the great increase in Chevrolet ownership during the year, the new warehouse is one of the finest in the industry with the most modern conveyors and the latest equipment for handling parts, and promises to provide Chevrolet with the most complete facilities for the efficient handling of parts distribution.

The structure becomes the central Chevrolet warehouse, the major portion of which is devoted to the storing of parts to insure good service to Chevrolet owners. More than two million dollars worth of parts will be kept on hand at all times.

The plant is equipped to handle the vast export business now being done by the Chevrolet Motor Company. Shipments leave the plant daily for Chevrolet foreign plants and representatives in all quarters of the world. Since the first of the year, Chevrolet has established complete warehousing operations at Des Moines, Memphis and Kansas City, with a new warehouse to be completed in Los Angeles, February 1st. The four major supply depots built in the last year and a half are at Janesville, Wis.; St. Louis, Mo.; Cleveland, Ohio; and Buffalo, New York.

FARMINGTON TRYING TO BUILD UP LIBRARY; THE MAJOR DIRECTING WORK

The movement for a better library gained a step early this week, when two committees to represent the township and city were appointed by officials of the governing bodies. The citizens were appointed in each committee, the township committee consisting of five men, and the city committee having three men and two women.

Those appointed by Mayor Butterfield Tuesday evening are: Sup't of Schools, Archibald Leonard F. A. Finlay, justice of the peace, Mr. Clinton Wilber; William N. Miller, former publisher of the Farmington Enterprise, and Mrs. William Irish.

The committee appointed by the township board last evening is as follows: Charles H. Clark, Farmer Engros, R. D. Chapman, Ward Eagle and Supt. of Schools, J. A. Kutter of Glendale.

None of the citizens appointed are on the city or township's governing boards. Mrs. Wilber has been among the most active workers in the library, and the other represents the large body of citizens interested in, but not actively connected with the management of the library up to the present time.

The committee will make a thorough survey of the situation and make their recommendations to the commissioners and township board, for the establishment of the library on a plan in keeping with the size of the community and its requirements in the immediate future. Farmington Enterprise.

The railroads are the main factor in the production of grain in Argentina. In 1923 the crop was barely 200,000 tons.

Farms in Argentina are growing nearly 22,000,000 acres of wheat this season, the "resting land" for the harvest accounts for nearly 5,000,000 acres. This is more than the combined acreage of oats, barley and rye.

The Landing of The Pilgrims

Contributed by an 11-year old Sophie

It was a dark and stormy night when a little ship came in view on a new land. It anchored near the shore. They started from England and came across the Atlantic to the new world which is known as America. When they landed there were no houses to live in so they used the boat which was the Mayflower to sleep in.

There was a little girl about 11 years old and her mother and father were on the ship one day and she was on land. She had some blue beads on which her grandmother gave her before she left, and she did not want to lose them. So she held onto them while sitting near a tree, a painted face looked around the tree and frightened the little girl and she held onto her beads for fear he would take them. The painted face, which was an Indian, was still motioning for her beads.

He showed her a fur blanket which she liked very much, but did not want to give up her beads. The Indian was still motioning for them, so she finally gave him her beads and took the fur blanket. She gave the blanket to her father and he sent it back to England.

BUILD VIADUCT UNDER MICHIGAN AVENUE FOR USE OF SCHOOL CHILDREN

The construction of the viaduct for the school children at the intersection of Cassonia street and Michigan avenue, which was under the supervision of Charles Gandy, is now completed and will be ready for use as soon as this part is paved.

This tunnel under the main thoroughfare of the village is similar to many others which have been built in Detroit and suburban towns for the safety of its school children. It is 16 feet 6 inches high and 6 feet wide inside measurements, and is built entirely of concrete. The electrical equipment necessary for light was installed by Otto Thom and the Wayne county road roads co-operated in supplying the gravel. It is strongly constructed, and will be tested for strength when the concrete has fully settled.

A boy appointed by the school will have charge and see that the gates are locked every evening and opened every morning. School children who have to cross Michigan avenue will be required to use this passageway which will greatly decrease the danger of accidents.

The construction of such an aperture further shows the progressiveness of the present village and the expense involved was very little in proportion to needs that it fills.—Wayne Weekly.

ARE YOU A BACK-SEAT DRIVER?

By Randolph Weyant
Everyone knows what a back-seat driver is—the mother, maiden aunt or grandmother who shouts from the back seat, "John, that frightful man in that red car just missed us by an inch! John! that child—you will run into him," until poor John becomes either a heartless man or victim of insanity.

Have you ever heard of the human-nature back-seat driver? Well, it's the person who always says, "Now if I were done that I would do it thus and so," and "Why, didn't they put me in that? You know I could do it better than he." Not always does he use those words, but his manner and words imply that back-seat driver attitude.

The human-nature back-seat driver is the worst enemy of the true school soul. He is discouraging the fellow who is doing his best and needs lots of encouragement. If he really can do it better than the fellow in the wheel, his place is in the front seat driving, not in the back seat. And tell someone to get out of the back seat.
