CONTESTS WILL MAKE ELECTION A LIVELY EVENT

Northville to Elect Village Officials Monday for New Year

Northville is on the way for a very merry village election Monday. While there is only one candidate for village president, four have filed for commissioners and only two can be elected.

Charles Filkins will be unopposed for village president. He is at present serving as a village commissioner and during his term of office he has given to the city unsparingly of his time and effort. When it was announced that he would be a candidate, no one else appeared in the field.

The four candidates for village commission are John F. Walker, C. Ray VanValkenburgh, Thomas W. Higgins and Robert M. Pickell.

A petition was filed by Fred Vanatta for commissioner, but it did not reach the clerk in the time specified in the city charter. If it had been filed one day earlier it would have been in time for the name to appear on the ballot.

There are two candidates for city treasurer. Miss Marion Johnston not being a candidate to succeed herself. The candidates are C. Harold Bloom and John Litsberger.

Thomas F. Murdoch is the only candidate for village clerk and like Charles Sessions' candidate for assessor, he will be unopposed. These two well known Northville residents have served in their respective capacities over a long period of years and apparently they can be elected anytime they are willing to have their names on the ballot.

Village officials are expecting a good sized vote next Monday. It will be the first election under the new city charter.

GAS RANGE SALE STARTS MARCH 15

The Michigan Federated Utilities has announced its regular spring sale of gas ranges beginning March 15th. The company is offering to its patrons bargains of an unusual nature, and has arranged terms that will suit the most careful buyer.

Officials of the company state that the extension of their gas service in this section is very rapid and that they are offering these special bargains in gas ranges so that the newer customers as well as the old ones can have the best and latest there is in gas range equipment.

The half page ad in this issue gives full information about the sale which starts next week.

Prefers Snow To Florida Sun

Frank Boyle Is Now Up in Petoskey to Enjoy A Little Good Weather. Florida Has No Appeal To Farmer From eminent Resident

Twenty-five below zero weather and eight foot snow banks up in Petoskey provide Frank J. Boyle, former Saline resident, with much greater delight than the sunshine of Florida, according to a letter just received by the Record from Mr. Boyle, who has been spending the winter in Florida.

"You will note," he writes, "that I have moved from the warm climate of Florida to the cold climate of northern Michigan. I am back up in Petoskey. Florida did not agree with me at all. I guess it was too near sea level. I liked the climate or the east coast better than on the west coast of Florida."

"I am feeling better up here since I came back, even though it has been 25 below zero. It was that Saturday morning, February 25th, for one day only. We have lots of snow up here. Some places along the roadside, where snow plows have thrown it, there are snow banks from eight to twelve feet high. But most of the main roads are open."

"Kindly send my paper up here so I can keep track of all my friends." And everyone knows that Mr. Boyle could stay in Florida just as long as he desires if he liked it.

Mr. Gregg, landscape specialist of the Michigan State College, will be in Plymouth March 15th, at the Starkweather school. The meeting is called at 1:30 at which time Mr. Gregg will talk on the uses of perennials in landscaping. This is an open meeting for all who are interested in beautifying the home and surroundings. This luxury is primarily a part of the home management course which is being conducted in the country through the Agricultural Extension office but, knowing that this is the season of the year when people are thinking about what can be done with yards and gardens it seems that many others should wish to be present at this meeting.

Superintendent Gordon and Floyd Lansing accompanied Rev. William Richardson, with Rudolph Weant and Louis Tiffi to the Hi-Y meeting at the Central Y. M. C. A. in Detroit, Wednesday evening. Dr. Robinson spoke on "Vocational Training."

Expressed in Calories, four pounds of bacon or twelve pounds of fresh fruit and vegetables are required to equal one pound of pecan meats, which rank first of all nuts in food value.

YOUR DUTY

This Friday evening, at 8:15, there is going to be a special meeting of the school district. The members of the board have wisely decided to place before the voters the question of whether additional ground should be purchased for recreational purposes. The school board is simply acting in compliance with a request of officials of the state department of education and because they believe that the present playground facilities of the school are not adequate. Every taxpayer and every person interested in school matters should be present and assist the school officials in working out this problem. They have called for your aid and whether you agree with the recommendation that will be made or not be present and give your assistance in the solution of this important problem.

After doing your duty by the school district go to the Penniman-Allein theater and see one of the best home talent productions of the year. It is being staged by the American Legion and is worthy of your support.

TOWNSHIP WILL BE BATTLEFIELD NEXT FEW DAYS

Numerous Aspirants for Political Places as Weather Warns

With the calling of both Republican and Democratic caucuses for Saturday this week, there is plenty going on in Northville township politics right now.

It had generally been supposed that the caucuses were to be held a week Saturday, but the notices as sent our Wednesday showed that they had been called by the respective committees for Saturday, March 10th, in order to conform with the state law governing the selection of candidates for township offices.

The Republican caucus will be held in the village hall Saturday afternoon at 7:30 o'clock and the Democratic caucus will be held in the same place Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

There are plenty of contests in view for the Republican caucus. Up until a few days ago it did not look as though Supervisor William Yerkes was going to have any opposition for re-nomination. A few days ago the friends of Will Ely, former supervisor urged him to get into the contest, and as a result the Republican voters of the township will decide Saturday afternoon which one they want to head their ticket. Both have many friends who are trying in their behalf.

Another aspirant of the campaign has been the declaration of Ernest Miller that he will not be a candidate for another term as township clerk. He has served for 15 years, and while there had been talk of other candidates, it was not generally known that he did not expect to be a candidate for another term.

With big withdrawal from the contest Elmer Smith, retiring mayor, announced that he would seek the place as township clerk. The mayor is opening up a new real estate office in the old village hall and he states that it will be convenient for him to handle the work in his new location. It has been stated that Charles Denebaur, one of Northville's prominent citizens might become a candidate for the place, but up to yesterday no definite announcement had come from him.

For highway commissioner there is another little battle on. Joseph Montgomery is seeking the place for another term, and Lewis Stevens, who has been working for the city during the past year on its streets, has announced his desire to be township highway commissioner. Their friends have been very active in the past couple of days, and this looks like a lively battle in the Republican primaries.

Others may develop between now and Saturday. The weather is getting warmer, and, of course, that always brings out the candidates.

So far the followers of Thomas Jefferson have not announced a slate for the township offices, and it will not be decided until Saturday night whether there will be an opposing ticket.

REX DYE ELECTED AS PRESIDENT OF NEW ASSOCIATION

Northville Hills Group Now Formed—Good Talks at Meeting

The Northville Hills Association, long discussed, has at last been formed and at a meeting held a few nights ago Rex Dye was selected president; Carl Ely, first vice-president; Elmer Smith, second vice-president; Wellington Roberts, secretary, and Frank Whipple, treasurer. The organization was perfected at a meeting held in the high school gymnasium, about 150 being present at the session.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. Whipple, who has been active with Mr. Dye in perfecting the early organization of the association. He declared that in his mind it was important for Northville to have some sort of an organization of this nature, to be perfected. The association will not take up the work of a chamber of commerce, but it will work along a little different line, although doing all that it can for the good of Northville, it was pointed out by those sponsoring it.

Following his election as chief executive of the organization, Mr. Dye explained that he believed Northville was in a position to profit much from the activities of such an organization and he was anxious to see it become a real active unit of the community.

Proceeding the business session, three excellent talks were made by the speakers Mr. Dye had secured for the meeting. W. R. Therkildsen of the Green Landscape company of Monroe, made one of the best talks of the evening. He told of the possibilities of Northville, of its exceptional natural advantages and how easy it could be to turn it into an ordinary community into one of the most attractive about here.

"When we take a trip anywhere the things we remember about it are the things of beauty we have seen. A flat country is not attractive although some beautiful places have been developed in flat country. If you will do as they have done in California, and it all can be done here you will have a suburban section just as beautiful as the best they have out there. But it takes spirit to do it. One of our greatest handicaps as the tradition of a community. We have gotten along just as we are so many years have become so accustomed to seeing things in the same way year after year that we do not realize the opportunities before us," said Mr. Therkildsen.

"Every one should help. Community projects is not a one man job. All have got to work at it," he declared.

A. G. Geeks of the Detroit News gave a talk on Advertising and Community Growth.

The great public corporations that serve this and other communities about Northville, belong in the future group of these places. They are breaking their judgement with millions. Alex. Under Dow of the Detroit Edison company, one of the biggest business men of today is spending $20,000,000 for power that is not now needed. He is doing it so as to be prepared for the future. He says that in a few years business in and around Detroit will require all of this additional power he is now creating," stated Mr. Geeks.

"How can you help Northville? Tell everybody you see that you live in Northville, that you have one of the finest little towns in Michigan. The more people that come here the more money will be spent in your local stores. Home produce more taxes then farm lands so till up your farm lands around here with homes. You can do it by every one getting together and boosting for your home town. Show people what you have got. Point out to them that it is a decent place in which to live without all the inconveniences of a great city, but still possessing all the conveniences a great city can offer."

Others may develop between now and Saturday. The weather is getting warmer, and, of course, that always brings out the candidates.

So far the followers of Thomas Jefferson have not announced a slate for the township offices, and it will not be decided until Saturday night whether there will be an opposing ticket.

The next meeting date will be fixed by the president of the association.

Charles Filkins Will Be Unopposed For Mayorship

MET PRESIDENT WHILE ON TRIP TO THE SOUTHLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Lovewell Had the Pleasure of Visiting White House

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Lovewell have just returned from a motor trip to Florida, having gone about four weeks. While in Florida, they visited the Northville of the south, and saw nearly all of the local residents who make up this community each winter.

"In fact, if you want to see most of the folks of Northville, you have got to go south," stated Mr. Lovewell yesterday.

While away they had the pleasure of meeting President Coolidge at one of his morning receptions at the White House.

I enjoyed this more than any other part of the trip. The President looked very tired. However, he had a pleasant word for everyone in line and he said something different to each one.

It was amazing the precautions taken by the secret service men to see that no harm could come to the President.

I seemed that the officers watching the line could almost look right through you," said Mr. Lovewell.

The time we spent in Florida was very pleasant. We went fishing and I even saw the first prize fight I had ever witnessed. It was a wonderful trip both ways. Roads were good.

We did not follow the same route in going and coming. But I am glad to go back home although Florida is a very pleasant place to go during the winter.

Charles Filkins seated and looking seated, coupled with genuine honesty of purpose is what the community sees.

What it will get in the election of Charles Filkins to the office of President for the next two years to come is not yet known.

He is no novice in this job. His two years as President in 1915 and 1916 were several years as trustee on the Village Council has been an experience that the village can well take advantage of in what promises to be an important and eventful two years to come.

People here are better. If we are equipped to serve the village and it is fortunate indeed that he has consented to stand for election to an office of such importance.

He became a member of the Council in 1914 and has been connected with it in some capacity most of the time since.

He has had to do with all important affairs since that time and invariably acquitted himself with credit to the village and honor to himself.

Possessing an even tempered disposition with full judgment problems as the sale of the electric plant to the Edison Co., water problems, wage works, spring and extension work, new paving and lighting contracts, have in no way ruffled his temper and warped his judgment.

He is for progress and development of the community. He is the kind of man needed for the important affairs to

BASE-LINE ROAD
STOPPED STATES
THE DETROIT NEWS

Frank F. Rogers, Claims
Some of Property Holders Ask Delay

A stumbling stone to the development of the Eight Mile road from Northville to the west has developed in the last few days, according to a report in the Detroit News. Frank F. Rogers, state highway commissioner, is quoted as saying that the work may be delayed several years.

The News says:

"A sudden change of mind among the owners of abutting farm properties resulted in the issuance by Frank F. Rogers, state highway commissioner, of an order temporarily to halt construction work preparatory to paving about three and a half miles of the Base Line road from Northville west to the county boundary line."

This part of the road is the last paved under the Covert Act, but when it passes the Detroit Municipal Tuberculosis Sanatorium at Northville and is laid out in a straight westerly direction on a 120-foot right-of-way.

West Base Line road (Eight Mile road west) is already paved from Woodward avenue to Division road, while paving of the road from Division to Grand River avenue is under construction, both parts running on a 204-foot right-of-way.

The part from Grand River to Farmington road, on a 120-foot right-of-way, has a concrete pavement, while from Farmington road to Northville the road is of improved gravel. Six miles of concrete pavement also extend west of the unimproved part into Washtenaw county.

In order to stop construction work on the unimproved part, at least temporary, came as a surprise to the Wayne County Road Commission, according to Leroy G. Smith, its engineer-manager. The order was issued after a conference between Mr. Rogers and a delegation of property owners composed of Frank E. Whipple, John Cleaver, John Wilson and William Taft, all of Northville.

It is true that we all signed a petition to have this part of the road paved under the Covert Act, but when we signed we had no idea that our share in the road tax would run all the way from $5,000 to $12,000 for each of us in proportion of the length of the abutting property we own," Mr. Whipple said.

While this amount of taxes may be spread over a 10-year period, it will nevertheless increase our taxes in such a degree as to make them prohibitive for us. We are all farmers and could not stand an increase of our taxes to $500 to $1,200 a year."

"This is an important road in our net of super highways," Mr. Smith commented. "Not only is it the boundary line between Wayne and Oakland counties and Washtenaw and Oakland counties, but if completed it would be an important traffic artery from the western cities of Michigan to the eastern part of the state, with avoidance of the congested Detroit district. In addition the road would mean a short route to the Detroit Municipal Tuberculosis Sanatorium."

Mr. Rogers' order may result in a delay of improvements on this part of the road for several years, Mr. Smith added.

BUT IT STAYED IN FAMILY

The story is current describing the only sale of real estate John Jacob Astor is thought to have made. He had just watched the completion of his Astor house, about 1830. Next day, he brought his eldest son William, down to see it.

"Father, that's a fine building," said William. "I wish it was mine."

"So," smiled the father. "Well, give me a dollar and you can have it."

According to the story, the dollar was produced, and the two repaired to a lawyer's to prepare the deed.

MARCH

It's usually a dreary old month. It is the time of the year when even one is tired of winter and anxious for the coming of spring. After it seems to be a pretty long wait, because March is one of the long months of the year. We are all anxious to see the beauty that spring brings forth, because spring has a way of making "even the more desolate places look beautiful." It is this anxiety that has something to do with the seemingly long wait for spring.

But did you ever stop to think that we can have much of the beauty of spring during the winter months? The trees cannot have blossoming flowers out doors and the sun does not shine quite so much in winter time as in the spring and summer. But a great look around will find for you, will look almost as green in late winter as in the summer. Then, I suppose, with a blue spruce here and there, and other trees of the evergreen variety, add a touch of beauty to the landscape that I sometimes had to even even in summer.

Let's just jump into your automobile and ride by the attractive Yards here on the Big Laramie road. The grounds have been kept up, and there probably hasn't been a hour of labor spent in the lawn and trees since the first of October. That's right, I did say the only place where you can go to see the beauty of winter kept so good. The Harry Clark place, Carringtons, Hayes, Bunn, and Elmer Smith's residence, and several others in the vicinity are just as pleasing.

Northville, though its location is an attractive place, it can be made up of the most beautiful places in all America. And a little gift and the expenditure of a few dollars for flower seed, bulbs, shrubs, and trees.

The city spring on Fairbrook Avenue could be made to rival the most artistic water garden in the world—and it would cost, would be a few hours, now and then the surprising time of some city employees plus a dozen or so dollars for flowers, shrubs, and trees.

Every year thousands of people from everywhere come to visit the federal government's fish hatchery located on Fairbrook and they all pass directly by this semi-public dump. Do you know of any better way to advertise to the state the beauty of this wonderful little community than by beautifying these spring grounds in such a way that these thousands of people will stop to admire—and then go on their way exclaiming what a beautiful sight they have witnessed?

But the Fairbrook springs not the only place that can be made attractive both winter and summer.

There is so much that can be done everywhere about town. Remember just how the corner at Rogers and Fairbrook looked a year ago? We have in mind the lot on the northwest corner. It had originally been set out as an orchard. Conrad Langfield wanted to do something he thought would please his parents while they were away in Europe on a trip last summer. So he graded off the whole corner, planted it to lawn seed—and what have you now? A beauty spot even in winter.

With rolling hills covered with trees, winding streams, gushing through the town so numerous that some even regard them as a nuisance, wide streets lined with mature trees—do you know of a place possessing greater natural beauty than Northville?

It will not be long now before spring. Why not resolve today to make your lawn, your home, your vacant lot a thing of beauty during the coming summer months? To make the grounds beautiful for the coming spring and summer, will make them beautiful next winter and next March.

The city government or the luncheon clubs or any group can do a world of good by beautifying the entrance to the village. Why shouldn't Plymouth avenue from the Seven Mile road right up to the Stinson factory, be made into one long floral garden? A ploy, a drag, a float plus a team and one man, then some seats—that plus a desire to do—will fill all requirements for this public improvement.

Henry Ford has provided the community with an object lesson as to what can be done with old property. You will all agree that the few dollars he spent on clearing up and beautifying his holdings on East Main street, has worked a wonderful transformation in that part of town. And there isn't a single new building in the entire section.

Why not begin today our plans to make Northville the most beautiful place in Michigan? What we do during the coming summer will go a long way toward making this a reality.

ways to relieve the dreariness of next March

GEORGE WELSH
Arthur Vandenburg of the Grand Rapids Herald, better known outside his home town as "Straddling Arthur," has never been fair with George Welsh, former lieutenant governor and publisher of another paper in Grand Rapids. Vandenburg through his publications has always put Welsh out in a false light to the people of his home community. He has never given credit for even being a respectable citizen.

There's this about George Welsh. When a mere lad, he was left alone in the world to shift for himself. He secured his education in the school conducted by the Grand Rapids Press conducted by the Grand Rapids Press for its newsboys. Without pull and without money he has developed into one of the important men of Michigan affairs.

He has been honest and he has been on the square. And you can say that about everybody else in political life or some of those that would like to be on the inside of things political. Mr. Welsh has stood for the right irrespective of what harm it might do to him politically.

"Braving" Arthur talks a lot about the constitution. You would think the constitution was the issue of the day. But what about "Straddling Arthur" and the constitution? The subject just for a minute? When Wayne Oaklund and George Cough were battling for their just share of representation in the state legislature, as provided under the constitution and was fighting it.

On one side it was Straddling Arthur, the MISREPRESENTED JACOB'S and the misrepresenting question and he did eat him up like a prairie fire to beat the oil out of the leaf.

George Welsh, just one of the ordinary people, for me he is an ordinary type of man. He has not advanced or at all. FOR HONORABLE

A result of Welsh's stand in behalf of the constitution, Arthur has lost a lot of his influence. He has lost his following, lost men and he is again beaten in parliamentary in a false light.

Welsh did many fine things for G. and H. and the people of Michigan in his legislative career at Lansing. But do you suppose Vandenburg would give him the shortest credit for being a whale in it? Try and find a decent word about George Welsh in the files of the Grand Rapids Herald. Welsh did what the constitution said he should do. Vandenburg, now talking about the constitution, has beaten and condemned Welsh for doing his DUTY as prescribed in the constitution.

The present prospects are that both "Straddling Arthur" and Mr. Welsh will be candidates for the United States Senate.

You can bet that voters like fun play and they like responsibility and if by chance these two are the only contestants in the field, Mr. Welsh will get so many more votes than Mr. Vandenburg that the Constitutional whelp-jumper from Grand Rapids will wonder what has happened to the constitution.

THE REPUBLICAN

Has been spending the last few months reading the Charlotte Republican, a truly wonderful newspaper. Possibly from a typographical standpoint it still looks like Civil War days, but from an editorial standpoint, it is so far ahead of most other Michigan newspapers that comparison isn't possible. Muriel DePoe, better known among his newspaper associates as "Doc" is one of the outstanding editors of Michigan and why any one in Charlotte would care to read any other paper than the Republican is hard to understand.

CATTLE AND TOURISTS

The Mio. Telegram says: "Good county has cool summers, good for sheep and cattle. Tourists know this and will come in increasing numbers as soon as our roads are finished." The Telegram apparently places sheep, cattle and tourists all in the same class. It doesn't say whether the weather is good for folks who might not be tourists or Missouri Jacks.

Flowers Missing

He used to send me flowers before he was wed. To get any nowadays he'd have to be dead.

All Broken Out

Sometimes the unintentional jokes are the funniest. There was little Barbara Stora for instance who when the doctor said he'd cure her of measles in a week, replied:

"Now, doctor, don't make me an rash promises!"

Prohibition agents raiding a Chicago tavern were met at the door by a Chinese cook armed with a meat cleaver. First one touched ice box, same dead. No spoons Sunday dinner he threatened. The ice box finally opened contained only meat.

A copy of Fitzgerald's "Rubaiyat," published in 1882 and sold for one cent or about eight cents, is now worth $1,000.

Your support on election day will be greatly appreciated.

WILLIAM H. YERKES

FOR SUPERVISOR

I will greatly appreciate your support at the Republican caucus which has been called for Saturday, March 10, at 2:30 o'clock at the Village Hall.

During my term in office it has been my purpose to try and give you an economical administration and have done what I could to keep your taxes down. If re-nominated and elected I will continue to give you a proper administration of township affairs.

WILLIAM A. JELY

Candidate for Republican Nomination as Supervisor

I will be grateful to you for your support at the caucus Saturday Afternoon, March 10, at the city hall. I am sure that my previous knowledge of this office will be of benefit to the taxpayers of the township.

LEWIS BALFOUR

For Township Highway Commissioner

For sometime past I have been strongly urged to become a candidate for township highway commissioner at the Republican caucus to be held Saturday afternoon. I know I can fill the place to your satisfaction. As regards to the kind of road work I can do I simply ask you to recall the condition of the unpaved streets in Northville before I went to work for the village. I can keep the township roads in just a good condition. Your support will be appreciated.

THOMAS W. HIGGINS

Candidate for Village Commissioner

I am pleased to announce to the voters that I am a candidate for election to the village commission and will be grateful for your support on election day. For the past three and a half years I have been superintendent of the Globe Furniture Co. plant.

I believe in saving as much as possible for the taxpayers of the village and if elected will give to you my best services.

JOSEPH MONTGOMERY

Candidate for Re-Nomination as Highway Commissioner

I will appreciate your support at the Republican caucus Saturday afternoon. During my term in this position I have endeavored to give the township the best possible service and I am asking your consideration upon my record during the time I have had charge of the highway work.

ROBERT M. PICKELL

Candidate for Village Commissioner

Your vote will be appreciated election day. If elected it will be my one desire to serve you to the best of my ability.

It is my desire to express my appreciation at this time for the many offers of support that I have received.

TO THE VOTERS!

I appreciate the many kind things that have been said pertaining to my work during the time I have served as village president. But I find that it will be impossible for me to continue to give more of my time to village affairs. However, I would like to suggest that the voices retain in office the two commissioners, John Walker and Ray Van Valkenburg, who are seeking re-election. They have given their best to the interests of the village, and they are familiar with many of the problems we are now facing. I believe it would be better if a change is to be made to do so at a later time. All of the candidates in the field are good men, but because of problems we are now facing I am sure it would be for the best interests of everyone not to make a change this spring.

HERE MIGHT BE A GOOD THOUGHT OR TWO FOR OUR TOWN

Farmington Mayor Makes Suggestions for Various Improvements

While Northville's civic affairs have always been well managed, there might be some good ideas in the following recommendations that have been made by Mayor Wells Butterfield for his own town. They are printed for what they might be worth.

Seven recommendations on matters of immediate importance to the city were presented by Mayor Butterfield to the city commission at a recent meeting. The proposals for action include improvement in the lock-up cells in the city hall; a change in the present police system; a time-keeper system; provision for maintenance of the cemetery; a "program" for paving, elimination of unsanitary conditions, and a proposal for a joint conference with the school district board, on the suggested athletic field.

Two of the recommendations regarding the city lock-up, and the athletic field proposal, were approved by the commission. The remainder will be considered as a special order of business at a meeting on Monday night. The recommendations in full are as follows:

Farmington, Mich.

To the City Commission,

Farmington, Mich.

At its first meeting of the year I bring to you some suggestions and recommendations for consideration, while not constituting a policy or program for the year even in outline, they will form a basis for present procedure.

Certain matters recommended during 1927, but not finally acted upon are first called to your attention:

No. 1. Recommendation that the lock-up cells be re-located in the east section of the city building and have running water, heating and toilet equipment; that portion of the building to be made fire-proof. The work to be done at an early date under direction of Superintendent Grant, plan to be first submitted to the commission.

No. 2. That a conference of the commission and the board of education be arranged to consider the subject of the athletic field as heretofore discussed—that the public be invited to attend the city clerk to arrange details of the conference.

No. 3. In view of the sheriff's plan for policing Farmington city and township, that a change be made in our arrangement with Policeman Herman Krueger. The present appointment to be terminated March 10, and further that Police Commissioner Glidemaster and the mayor be instructed to report relative to the police needs of the city in addition to the sheriff's deputies—that this report be made not later than the February regular meeting of the commission.

No. 4. That the auditing committee be instructed to perfect and submit a plan for detailed monthly reports to the commission showing labor employed by the city and giving hours, job and wage rate of each employee.

No. 5. That the mayor be authorized to appoint a committee of citizens, two to five in number, to advise concerning the best administrative methods of caring for cemeteries, and also concerning their future development and extension.

No. 6. That the proposed ordinance prohibiting outside toilets be enacted and enforced as expeditiously as may be possible.

No. 7. That the commissioners of sidewalks, sewers and streets be constituted a committee to submit at the next regular meeting a program for paying the program to contemplate an extensive system that will eventually reach the entire city. The plan of having the city do the curbing and the property owners pay for the paving, the cemetery, a "program" for paving, elimination of unsanitary conditions, and a proposal for a joint conference with the school district board, on the suggested athletic field.

There is much to be said in favor of the plan suggested in the recommendation No. 7. It seems to have been satisfactory in places where it has been adopted. Even though the paving is deferred for some time after the curbing is put in the streets are more economically kept in good condition as the gravel is held in place by the curbing.

The cost could be easily determined and spread over a term of years by a small bond issue.

In addition to the above recommendations, I request that each department commissioner prepare a report on the improvements and approximate expenditures he advises during the coming year and that these reports be ready so far as possible by March 1st.

Respectfully submitted,
WELLS D. BUTTERFIELD,
Mayor.

THIS NEWS IS FOR EXCLUSIVE FEW IN THESE PARTS

Only Those Who See Money Once in Awhile will Care to Read This

Be prepared! All you Northville folks who are in the habit of handling real money once in a while, keep in mind the fact that some of our paper money is going to be smaller from now on.

The year 1928 will mark the first change in size of paper money since 1861.

For months the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, the greatest print shop in the world, will be busy making new and smaller $1 bills so that upon fixed day next fall they may be issued simultaneously throughout the country and the old ones retired at one swoop, to be redeemed, of course, upon demand.

Notes of other denominations will be printed and put in circulation probably in 1929.

The new notes will be 3 5/16 by 2 11/16 inches whereas the notes now in circulation are 7 7/16 by 3 1/8 inches

By the change, the government expects to save $2,000,000 annually.

The reduction in size of the bills is expected to increase the capacity of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing by 50 per cent because twelve of the smaller notes can be printed at one impression upon the same press which now prints but eight.

Through the change in size the bills will be made more convenient to handle and will also be more durable.

The new notes will slip into a bill-fold or pocket, it is claimed, without creasing or folding, and for this reason are expected to have a much longer life than those now in use.

The life of the average bill is not more than six or seven months, treasury officials say.

Folding is one of the chief items cutting short the life of paper money.

Designs on the bills are also to be standardized. Many designs now appear on the different denominations and the various kinds of notes. Washington's on the $1 and some $20 bills.

Treasury officials point out that the new notes cannot be so easily "raised" to higher denominations by the crooked gentleman who make this their business.

In addition to standardized designs on the new paper money there will be a relation between the portrait on the face and the engraving on the back, except in the cases of the $1 bill and those above $100.

On the face of the new $1 bill will be the portrait of Washington and on the back will be the word "ONE" in large letters.

On the $2 bill will be a portrait of Jefferson with an engraving of Monticello, his home, on the back.

Lincoln's portrait will be on the face of the $5 bill with the Lincoln Memorial for the back. Hamilton's portrait will appear on the face of the $10 bill and the Treasury building on the back.

For the face of the $20 bill Grover Cleveland's portrait has been chosen, with the White House for the back.

Grant's portrait will be on the face of the $50 bill, Benjamin Franklin's on the $100, McKinley's on the $500, Jackson's on the $1,000, Mahlon's on the $5,000, and Chase's on the $10,000.

All these designs have been approved, although some may be changed later.

No retirement of money-making machinery will be necessitated by the change, it is said.

WATCH IDLE TIME OF YOUNGSTERS IS HIS SUGGESTION

Dr. Burkhardt Believes that Good Can Come from Play of Right Kind

Charles Thornton, Ray Richardson and Dr. H. H. Burkhardt were the speakers at Monday's meeting of the Rotary club. The program given over to the consideration of membership matters developed into something of more than ordinary interest to Rotarians.

It was Dr. Burkhardt who pointed out the necessity of greater attention to the youngsters of the day.

"When a member is taken into the Rotary club it is generally because he is successful in the line of endeavor he represents. Rotarians are as a rule men of mature age and thought. It seems to me that the greater problem we have to face at present is the consideration of the boys of today," stated Dr. Burkhardt.

The home, the school and the church are all factors in his life.

It would seem to me that the matter of greatest importance is the spare time of the boys and girls. We know that when they are in the home they are properly watched and cared for and we know that in our school they are given the attention they should have—and in the church has its wonderful beneficial influence.

"But how about the time when the boy is not at home or in school? Is he spending his idle hours on the streets, or elsewhere?"

There is nothing so important to the youngster as vocational training and supervised play. I want to say a word right here about Coach Deeks.

I know that he is giving much of his time every Saturday to boys off the school grounds and is supervising them in proper kinds of play and endeavor.

For this he receives nothing.

Right now the school board has presented the matter of additional playground for consideration, place where both boys and girls can go during their idle hours and take part in the kind of play that will be beneficial to them. We should give this matter serious thought.

Then I think the gymnasium should be used for the use of the children, of course proper supervision being given them. There is much that can be done and as Rotarians we should give the matter our attention."

Both Mr. Thornton and Mr. Richardson talked of the ideals of Rotary and the importance of Rotary membership. E. C. Langfield, chairman of the special committee appointed to work with other Rotary clubs of the state relative to transportation to the Minneapolis convention, made a report of the action that has been taken relative to this matter.

Edward "Mills" Dr. Burkhardt and Harry Marburger were appointed members of a special committee that will make plans for the visit of the Northville club to Windsor to attend the district Rotary meeting to be held there this spring.

SPHINX PRESENTS

PLAY AT ASSEMBLY

The assembly given Friday, March 2nd, was a play "The Trysting Place," put on by the society of the Sphinx. The trysting place proved to be the lobby of the hotel where the mother met her old beau, the son met his sweetheart. Mrs. Curtiss, a widow, daughter came upon a very dear friend, and Mrs. Curtiss found her last husband.

The play proved to be very interesting to the audience as there were persons concealed in high back chairs and under settees. Following is the cast:

Mother Marjorie Schoultz

Son Rudolph W.

Daughter Edna Martins

Mother's old beau Chas LeFevere

Daughter's Sweetheart Ted Watts

Widowed Mrs. Curtiss Ellen Sutton

Her last Husband Tom Woodbury

ALL-STARS

Northville will shine tonight, Northville will shine, When the sun goes down And the stars come out, Northville will shine.

I'll say it will with its four new stars on the all-suburban football team. More places than any other team in the suburban league received. So Northville has a right to shine.

One thing that makes these stars shine out brighter than ordinary stars is because they have N. H. S. as a background, which is the same as a cloudless sky.

Well, every year in every way we're getting better and better, so maybe next year we'll have eleven places on the "all-suburban." Time will tell. The Northville football team this year took a high stand in the ranks of the different high schools. So its up to the other activities of N. H. S. to maintain our high standing.

Even if you can't honor for Northville high in football you can be a Northville all-star by keeping up your scholarship and the high standing of the school.

JUNIOR CLASS ADVISOR GIVES HOT HINTS IN INTERVIEW FRIDAY

Miss Josephine Horves, faculty advisor of the Junior class made the following statement on Friday, when she was interviewed concerning the J-Hop. "To put it truly, I think the Junior class is working as a whole to make the 1928 J-Hop the biggest and most ever enjoyed by the pupils of Northville. We promise you something novel in the line of decorations, good music by an orchestra of high reputation, refreshments to fill in the breathless moments between dances and a rollicking good time. But perhaps if I told you more, you would have less incentive to come," said Miss Horves.

Ted Watts, chairman of the orchestra committee, said, "In securing Jean Goldkette's Ramblers for the J-Hop, we have secured the best orchestra ever offered at a Northville dance."

JUNIORS SECURE JEAN GOLDKETTE'S RAMBLERS

J-HOP DANCE

The "Jean Goldkette's Ramblers" have been secured for the 1928 J-Hop, which is the most popular orchestra ever offered for a Northville dance.

It is a seven-piece orchestra under the direction of Johnnie Bird.

The Juniors have been slow in getting the orchestra because they wanted only the best which they believe they have in securing the "Ramblers."

The J-Hop will take place Friday evening, March 30, in the high school gymnasium.

NORTHVILLE INTRODUCES SPRING FOOTBALL

For the first time in the history of our schools it has been announced by Coach Doekens, that there will be spring football. It will begin next week.

The purpose of this is for the fellows to get the principles of the game in mind, and will give more time for discussion on the manner of play. So there will be more time in the fall when preparing for the game.

The season will last about two weeks. The players will carefully be passing kicking and general limbering up.

GIRLS' TEAM LOSE FINAL GAME TO BIRMINGHAM

17-17 Northville girls' basketball team played at Birmingham and lost by a score of 47 to 17, last Friday afternoon in a fast exciting game.

The Birmingham team is the best team Northville has played this year, and is a fast clean bunch of players. The Birmingham team having been defeated only once this year, carried off the championship of the league.

The local team played gamely, but were outclassed by larger and better players. The referee complimented the teams on the friendly spirit shown between the players.

Mary Jordan, forward for Northville, played her usual good game. Gladys Ludwig, side center, and Florence Ballo, guard, showed a good fighting spirit.

Former stars, Ruth Sessions and Geraldine Huff, both forwards, played their final game of basketball for high school.

"Both girls showed up good while in the play, but were unable to do much because of lack of practice. Ruth Sessions played her old position as forward, while Geraldine Huff played center up until the third quarter and then replaced M. Jordan as forward. The two girls seemed glad to be able to play again."

NORTHVILLE HI-Y CLUB

ELECT OFFICERS FOR '28

At a meeting of the Hi-Y club held in the Northville high school Tuesday noon, February 28th, a constitution was adopted and officers elected for the semester of '28.

President—Louis Tiffin

Vice-President—Rudolph Weyant

Secretary—Roster Vanatta

Treasurer—Ted Watts

At a meeting of the presidents of the affiliated Hi-Y clubs of Detroit, held in that city last Wednesday evening, Louis Tiffin, Rudolph Weyant and the sponsor, Rev. Wm. Richards, were delegates.

The meeting was opened by Governor Fuller of Massachusetts and the mayor of Boston. The numerous programs were made up of musical numbers from school bands of that vicinity, and community singing.

Philadelphia, Buffalo and Washington were among the numerous cities that were represented by their band.

All the general sessions were held in Mechanics hall, which has a seating capacity of ten to twelve thousand.

The place was well chosen because of its historical background.

Mr. Gordon had the opportunity of seeing the Old North Church, and the grounds where once was fought the battle of Lexington and Concord. He also visited the place of the Boston massacre and tea party.

At Cambridge, the historical Longfellow house was of great interest to the visitors.

About forty miles from Boston is the town of Plymouth and the great Plymouth rock—the landing of the Pilgrims.

A Pilgrim plant was put on by the people of Plymouth Massachusetts for the visitors.

Mrs. E. Lindbergh was also here to receive the visitors and she was even a life member up Mrs. Lindbergh sailed by airplane.

A STUDENT "LETTER BOX"

After reading a few of the letters in the Detroit News' "letter box," I began to think over the probability of the "Orange and Black" having a column like it. Anyone who thinks it's not just a great idea to do a column like it, or doesn't think it's a good idea, or otherwise, if they're not so eager to write it, let me know and I'll put it in the column.

If there is something you do or don't approve, why not air your opinion. This is a school paper and should be used by students. You have the right to approve or disapprove of anything, and if the majority are of your opinion your "pet piece" may vanish.

It's up to the students to endorse or condemn this plan. If you follow, and guys here in the high school haven't got or spirit enough to express yourselves (when many interesting cars are figuratively "hanging" on your words), what will you do when you attempt to make your way in the world? It's the man who expresses himself who gets there—but I'm not advertising a correspondence course for public speaking and I'm not a movie magnet looking for stars—you may or may not have it. Nevertheless,

Any letters for publication may either be taken directly to Mr. Eaton or left on Miss Park's desk.

ORATORICAL CONTEST HELD

IN NORTHVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

Six of our best orators assembled in Miss Draper's room last Monday to try out for the championship of Northville high school.

The contestants were very well matched and their subjects well chosen; it was a problem for the judges to decide the winners.

The judges were Rev. William Richards, pastor of the Northville Methodist church, Mrs. Harmon, a well known citizen, and Mr. Cohn, teacher of science at N. H. S.

The contest began at 2:15 o'clock and continued until 3:00 o'clock. The speeches were ten minutes long.

The judges were then given a few minutes to prepare their decisions and they decided that Elmer Gene Perrin, orator, and Jay Thompson, declaimer, had won by a very small margin.

The winners will go to the sub-district contest at Plymouth on April 3. They will be presented there by dictationaries from the Detroit News. This is a state wide contest.

UNIVERSITY HIGH WINS CLASS "C" TOURNAMENT

Northville loses to Milan high in the first game of the class C tournament at Ypsilanti. University high from Ann Arbor defeated Wayne high with apparent ease though the first half was close, having a score of 12-8, in favor of the Ann Arbor team. But in the second half University high scored almost at will.

In the second game Milan defeated Northville by a small margin of two points.

In the first quarter Milan scored eleven points to Northville's four, but in the second quarter the Northville quintet began playing their regular game and at the half the score was 13-11 in favor of Northville.

At the end of the third quarter Northville was still leading by about five points. But the lead changed again just before the final whistle, with Milan victorious.

In the third game University high defeated Saline by a close score of 16-15. This was a fast game, ending with University high at the top of the score.

The fourth game between Roosevelt and Milan was won by Roosevelt.

Then came the final game for first place in the tournament. University high won by a safe score from Roosevelt, winning first place and wonderful basketball trophy.

MR. GORDON ATTENDS

BOSTON CONVENTION

In an interview yesterday Mr. Gordon discussed the interesting points of the N. E. A. convention which he attended at Boston, February 27th to March 1st.

Mr. Gordon said that over three hundred Michigan men were present at the convention. Michigan had the second largest number of representatives, Massachusetts was first. While there Mr. Gordon stayed at the Hotel Statler and felt quite at home as he often met other men that represent Michigan.

The meeting was opened by Governor Fuller of Massachusetts and the mayor of Boston.

President Charles Sink Announces Program for Great Musical Event

Charles A. Sink, President of the University Musical Society, has announced the following attractions for the thirty-fifth annual May Festival to be held in Hill Auditorium, Ann Arbor, May 16, 17, 18 and 19, 1928. The Festival will consist of six contests, four evening programs and two afternoon recitals. Earl V. Moore will be the Musical Director. On the evening of the first concert the new $2,000 Frieze Memorial organ, which is being constructed in Hill Auditorium, will be dedicated by Palmer Christian, playing a work by Eric Delamarre for organ and orchestra, with Mr. Delamarre in the role of guest conductor.

Soloists engaged for the Festival are as follows: Leonora Cooma, Leone Kruse, Marie Montana, sopranos; Marguerite D'Alvarez, Margaret Mezzena, Merle Alcock, contralto; Paul Althouse and Tudor Davies, tenors; Mario Basola and Raymond Koch, baritones; Chase Baromeo, bass; Benno Rapinoff, violin; Percy Grainger, piano and Palmer Christian, organist.

Jam or jelly tarts made of left-over pie dough and left-over preserves will solve the question what to have for dessert, with very little trouble. Pie trimmings can also be cut into cookie shapes, brushed with egg-yolk, sugar and cinnamon and used for cookies.

Arrows pointing north have been painted on thirteen lighthouses on the east coast to guide aviators.

NORTHVILLE Twenty-five Years Ago

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnies Parmenter have a daughter, born Wednesday, March 14. George Slaght has opened a cigar store and restaurant in the bank building, where meals are served at all hours.

A. B. McCullough has secured a position at a Fisher's general supply shop in Detroit. The family will remain in Northville therein.

Mr. and Mrs. George Walters are to be residents of Northville, and will occupy half of Harley Johnson's house on West Main street.

The High school boys have organized an Athlete association with Ray Richardson as president and track captain, Eddie Perrin, baseball captain, and Supt. Merritt, treasurer.

There have been other signs of summer besides frogs, crows, wild geese and high temperature. A party of our local sportsmen, including Capt. Kurth, Jake Kimmel, Will Stark, Glen Richardson and A. W. Olds have been camping and fishing over along the Huron river this week.

Monday's election was a very quiet affair and an extremely light vote was cast, only 230 of the franchised citizens of our village expressing their right of suffrage via the Abbott machine, which was used again this year with entire satisfaction. The entire citizens ticket was elected with the exception of the assessorship as follows: President, R. M. Johnson; trustees, S. W. Knapp, A. H. Kohler and F. N. Perrin; Clerk, Thomas E. Murdoch, assessor, C. A. Sessions.

FLOWER LOVERS OF NORTHVILLE
TO ATTEND SHOW

North American Display to Open in Detroit on March 17th

Northville lovers of flowers are right now planning on visiting the biggest flower show that is being held during the year in the United States. It takes place in Detroit opening on March 17th and will continue for a week.

The orchid—queen of flowers—will be enshrined once more when the North American Flower Show opens in Detroit on March 17th.

The orchid is lovely among flowers. There are those who prefer the blushing of the perfect rose, America's own flower. Others lean to the chaste lily, the delicate violet, flaunting cineraria, or come-like carnation. The orchid, however, is the pampered pet of flower lovers of the world over.

And what an exacting pet it is! Only an expert can grow them successfully and their cultivation is a painstaking process that requires years of work. They are hard to handle, to market, and to transport.

One firm, exhibiting at the National Flower Show last spring, was compelled to use an airplane for carrying orchids because of their extreme perishability. Despite the handicaps, perfect orchids are raised and considered by ranchers the most coveted of flowers.

They blossom in new and ever more beautiful hues, so that a master painter could spend a life-time in pursuit of their elusive loveliness and never capture it. Like the royalty that they are, moreover, the orchids run "matinée" to purple and gold.

In its native haunts, the orchid lives high in the sequestered, croches of jungle trees, tossed in the wild tropic storms. Its sustenance is drawn from the damp ground and the cool nights, breeding an aerial wonder that shames the mundane earth below. The quest of the orchid in its native surroundings is an engaging adventure for flower lovers and many have lost their lives in fated jungle quests.

An especially large exhibition of orchids is planned for the North American Flower Show. The exposition will be held in Convention Hall and will continue until March 25th.

It often pays to make an investigation of the markets before selling timber from a farm woodland, says the Forest Service of the United States.

Department of Agriculture. As an illustration of this a Forest Service十二 years ago, where they have a son, relates a recent experience in the south. "In one instance," he says,

"while riding along a road with a truck driver, it was learned that the man's father-in-law had approximately 10,000 feet of cedar lumber for sale."

The owner was offered only $25 per thousand for this material, by a local buyer.

Information was sent to him through the truck driver, as to where he could sell the same lumber for $60 per thousand. This meant a saving of $35 on a thousand feet, or a total of $350."

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY FEBRUARY 26

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Jansen was the scene of a very pleasant event Sunday, February 26, when a company of about twenty children, grand-children, great-grand-children and friends from Detroit, Pontiac, and Sylvan Lake gathered there to remind Mr. and Mrs. Jansen of their 50th wedding anniversary, which occurred Monday, February 27. A fine pot-luck dinner was served, which included a beautiful wedding cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Jansen were married February 27, 1872 at Walpole, Ontario Forest Service of the United States.

The latter's maiden name was Alice L. Matice. They came to South Lyon twelve years ago, where they have a wide circle of friends. Mr. and Mrs.

Jansen are the parents of seven children, and the grand-parents of 17.

There are also two great-grandchildren.

Every good wish is extended them with the hope they may see many more happy anniversaries—South Lyon Herald.

Tomato juice from canned tomatoes may be substituted for orange juice when the latter cannot be obtained.

Children may be taught to drink it exactly like orange juice. For a between-meal lunch in winter-time, tomato juice may be heated, seasoned with a little butter, salt and bay-leaf, and served as a warm drink with a cracker.

RECORDS BROKEN

BY CHEVROLET IN FEBRUARY SALES

Company's Business Greatest in History Say Officials

Responding to a demand, unprecedented in its history, and with 15 factory and sales organizations operating at peak efficiency, the Chevrolet Motor Company, February set a new high monthly production record, while retail domestic deliveries were more than 20,000 units above February, 1927, declares Ernest Allison, dealer for this district.

Production for the month just ended was 116,934 cars and trucks. The best previous Chevrolet month, was May, 1927, with an outlet of 115,823 units.

Production this February shows a 36% gain over the 86,817 cars and trucks built last February; and is more than four times the 28,081 units built in February, 1925.

Domestic retail deliveries for this period are estimated at 80,000 units as against 58,233 in February, 1927.

Since introduction of the bigger and better Chevrolet on January 1st, previous records have been constantly shattered before the buying enthusiasm displayed throughout the world.

A large number of cars now being built are going into the export market to meet the demand for the new Chevrolet evident in every country on the globe.

The fourteen domestic Chevrolet plants are operating on full time to keep production on an even keel with potatoes, thinly sliced, instead of rice.

orders piling up. Day and night shipments are going out from the seven assembly plants in the United States to keep dealers everywhere stocked with an ample number to assure prompt delivery.

March promises to outdo even the high figures set during February. As February volume and sales exceeded by wide margin any similar performance for the month in the history of the company.

January retail deliveries in the United States totalled 61,007 cars and 27,487 trucks. In January, 1927 and 1926, the respective totals were 91,584 cars and trucks against 73,676 the previous January.

Up to March 1st the total number of bigger and better Chevrolets built was 244,300 units, 32,778 having been manufactured in December and shipped to dealers so that they might have cars for display purposes when the car was publicly announced on January 1st.

The achievement of building nearly a quarter million new cars in so short a space of time has never been duplicated in the history of the industry.

As a result of the reception the new car is receiving which made possible the new records so far established in 1928, unbounded enthusiasm existed throughout the Chevrolet organization.

Factory officials are more than ever confident that 1928 volume will be con-

the 28,081 units built by the Chevrolet Motor Company.

COMING ATTRACTIONS
at the
PENNIMAN ALLEN

ONE OF DUMAS' TALES

TO BE SHOWN HERE SOON
The author of the world's greatest story, "Monte Cristo," died fifty-seven years ago. Since his death a large number of his works have been made into screen productions. One of the greatest and the most popular of all his stories is the same "Monte Cristo," the screen version of which will be shown at the Penniman-Allen theatre March 11th. Although the scenes are laid in France, the entire production was made in California. It is a splendid picture, according to the almost unanimous opinion of critics all over the world, and the revival of this screen hit is receiving universal acclaim.

STAR OF "SHOOTIN' IRONS"
STUDIED TO BECOME DOCTOR

Jack Ludden might have been patching up wounds made by "Shootin' Irons" today! Instead of that he started his career as a Paramount star in a western picture of that name. Jack would have gotten his knowledge of "Shootin' Irons" from an altogether different angle than on the Paramount lot at Hollywood, had he gone on with the medical course he started.

It took two years at John Hopkins University to convince Ludden, who is 25 years old, and considerable of an athlete, that he didn't want to be a physician. It took Paramount officials considerably less time than that to decide that Ludden met the requirements of stardom.

So he found himself launched on a new career. The doctor that might have been repairing damage done by "Shootin' Irons" has just completed a thrill-packed picture featuring those same "Irons." It will be seen at the Penniman-Allen theatre March 13th.

FRED THOMSON PICTURE HAS MORE THAN SHARE OF THRILLS

One of the most remarkable shots ever attempted in motion picture will be seen in Fred Thomson's first production, "Jesse James" on its arrival at the Penniman-Allen theatre March 15th and 16th. Thirty men climb from horses into the car window of a passenger train, racing at the rate of thirty-five miles an hour.

It depicts a spectacular train holdup by Jesse James. Fred Thomson as the famous outlaw, leads the stunt on his white horse, "Silver King." He had to do considerable experimenting on the speed and his ability to make the transfer before the scene was shot and members of the unit found it necessary to scour the west for thirty cowboys who thought they had the nerve to try it.

GEORGE O'BRIAN IN THE
"SHARPSHOOTER" ON MARCH 17

A gold digger who, in reality is nothing but the type, is the plight of Gwen Lee, who plays the role of Maize, a hard-boiled girl of the east side in Fox film "Sharp Shooter," which will be at the Penniman-Allen theatre on March 17th.

Miss Lee, however, always believes in doing the thing you can do best and as the directors always cast her in such roles, she complies with their wishes and comes through with flying colors.

George O'Brien and Lois Moran are starred in this colorful comedy-drama of the east side and foreign parts.

Besides Miss Lee, a splendid cast includes William Demarest, Jas. Swickard, Tom Dugan and Noah Young. J. G. Blystone directed.

ALGIERS MODERN
CITY DECLARIES
LOCAL TRAVELER

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Foreman
See One of Africa's Most Famous Municipalities

Another interesting letter has been received from Fred Foreman, who is traveling in and about the Holy Lands with Mrs. Foreman. He writes that both are in excellent health and immensely enjoying their trip.

We are nearing the end of a very pleasant three-day voyage on the African seas. We are due at Athens tomorrow at 10 o'clock and are looking forward with much interest to a very busy day in that city.

We anchored in the harbor of Algiers on February 11 and already having read considerable about atrocities and horrors of the Algerian pirates it was with much surprise that I looked upon a city of 350,000 population built upon the side of a mountain with the most modern buildings in design and structure, the most like ours, of any of the cities we have thus far seen.

The streets are well paved and clean and wide, and even the alleys would do credit to our own ideas. The city is under the French rule and plainly shows that it is, under the guiding hand of a class of people far superior in ideals and intelligence than the Arabs and Turks and while the stores are different from our own yet they are very fine and you can buy any kind of clothing, furniture, shoes, hats of the very latest style. It has been said that Algiers is a small Paris. It is an unusual sight to see well dressed Arabs all dressed in white with their fez, cap and the queer looking Arabs all dressed in white with turbans on their faces covered, they are a homely lot and look the best with their faces covered, and not a very cheerful lot.

The botanical garden is very large and contain the most tropical and subtropical vegetation of any place we have visited. Pine, cycas, cedar, almond, orange, acacia, palmetto dates, palm, hibiscus, violets, peacock, geraniums, iris, bananas, pepper trees. The city and harbor are the only two cities so far that we were furnished auto. The high powered autos keep climbing up and up until we had a very fine view of city and harbor. Nine pontoons were tied together and formed a fine passage from boat to dock.

The handy little donkey is used for many things. He carries garbage, coal, fish, water, oranges, gravel, milk and all kinds of vegetables, many times they are hitched to small carts. The city being hilly we see 5 horses hitched to a cart, single file; also 5 horses hitched to a wagon in 3 and 2's. There are several mosques here but you can not very well distinguish them from

POSTMASTER REQUESTS YOU TO ADDRESS PARCELS ON ONE SIDE ONLY—it HELPS CLERKS

The postoffice department advises that it is objectional for shippers to place the address of the person to whom the parcel is sent on both sides of the package. It does more harm than good. Do all the writing and place the tags desirable on the parcel but do it all on the back side, says Postmaster Neal.

Where mail is made a practice of placing an address on more than one side of the parcel there is often cause for delay because of the impression that may be gained that there is no postage-stamps attached or that post clerks fail to see special handling or special delivery or other special service notations on the proper side of the packages.
