DOGS GO MAD IN TROPICS WRITES POLE EXPLORER

Mark Seeley Receives Letter from Cousin Who is with Byrd

In a letter received by Mark Seeley from his cousin, W. D. Riley of Trufant, who is a member of Commander Richard E. Byrd's south pole expedition, six of the 100 big dogs were mad during their voyage over tropical seas and had to be killed. Riley has charge of the dog teams that will be used on the effort to explore the regions around the south end of the globe.

The vessel passed through the Panama canal September 30th, according to the letter received by Mr. Seeley, which follows:

"Ten days out of Brooklyn we are now in the Caribbean sea and will be in Panama this morn-

"This ship is the Norwegian whaler, one of the largest afloat. She weighs 17,000 tons and goes to the Ross sea to catch whales stays there seven months then goes to New York with the oil. Last year she took 90,000 barrels, and the captain told me it was a poor year. She has a crew of 150 men and we have on board 20 head of two-year-old steers, 60 sheep and 40 or 50 dogs. They butcher every day. She has thirty firemen twelve on watch at a time, one hour watch, then twelve more and so on. Two captains, six mates, four cooks, twelve waiters, two stewards, two carpenters, two blacksmiths, two painters, two wireless men and one electrician and the rest are gunners and sailors."

We will stay in Panama four hours, then sail for New Zealand. It takes thirty-eight days from Panama to Dunedin and there we transfer the dogs to another ship and to the Ross sea, and that will take us 21 days more. The whole trip from Brooklyn is 9,000 miles. There are five us on this ship with the dogs. We left with 100, but I have shot six so far for they can't stand the heat and go mad, but when we get out of the tropics they will be all O. K.

We see lots of whales every day, but this ship does not bother them as they are the sperm whale, and this is after the blue whale.

"Only a few of the officers speak English, as the whole crew lives in Norway. All the clothes, the five men wear is a pair of wooden shoes and a crooked stained pipe. They all got a shot of rum once a day and take it from me, it is real rum. I have never drunk any of it, but I can tell by the way their wooden shoes hit the steel deck after they have had their shot. Of course, the Byrd men don't wear wooden shoes. None of the crew can go ashore in Panama, but we can do as we like as our badge will take us in any port. All of our outfit is on three other ships, one ahead of us and two behind."

Conf. Byrd is in San Pedro, Calif. He takes a liner from there to New Zealand. We will stay in Dunedin about forty days, so be sure and write me as soon as you get this, for when we leave Dunedin it will be two years before we get any more mail.

"We have forty-five tons of dog feed on this ship.

"Now be sure and write me to Dunedin, New Zealand, care of Byrd Expedition."

NOVI COMMUNITY SOCIAL PROVES A PLEASANT AFFAIR

Over 150 Present—Following Dinner Children Present Play

One of the finest community social functions of the year was the school supper given at the new Novi school building last Friday evening. Easier, it would be to tell who were not there than who were for it was a splendid representation of the whole community.

Supper was served to about 150 people, and as the tables were being filled for the last time, the school pupils entertained the audience with a play entitled "Health Program on the Radio."

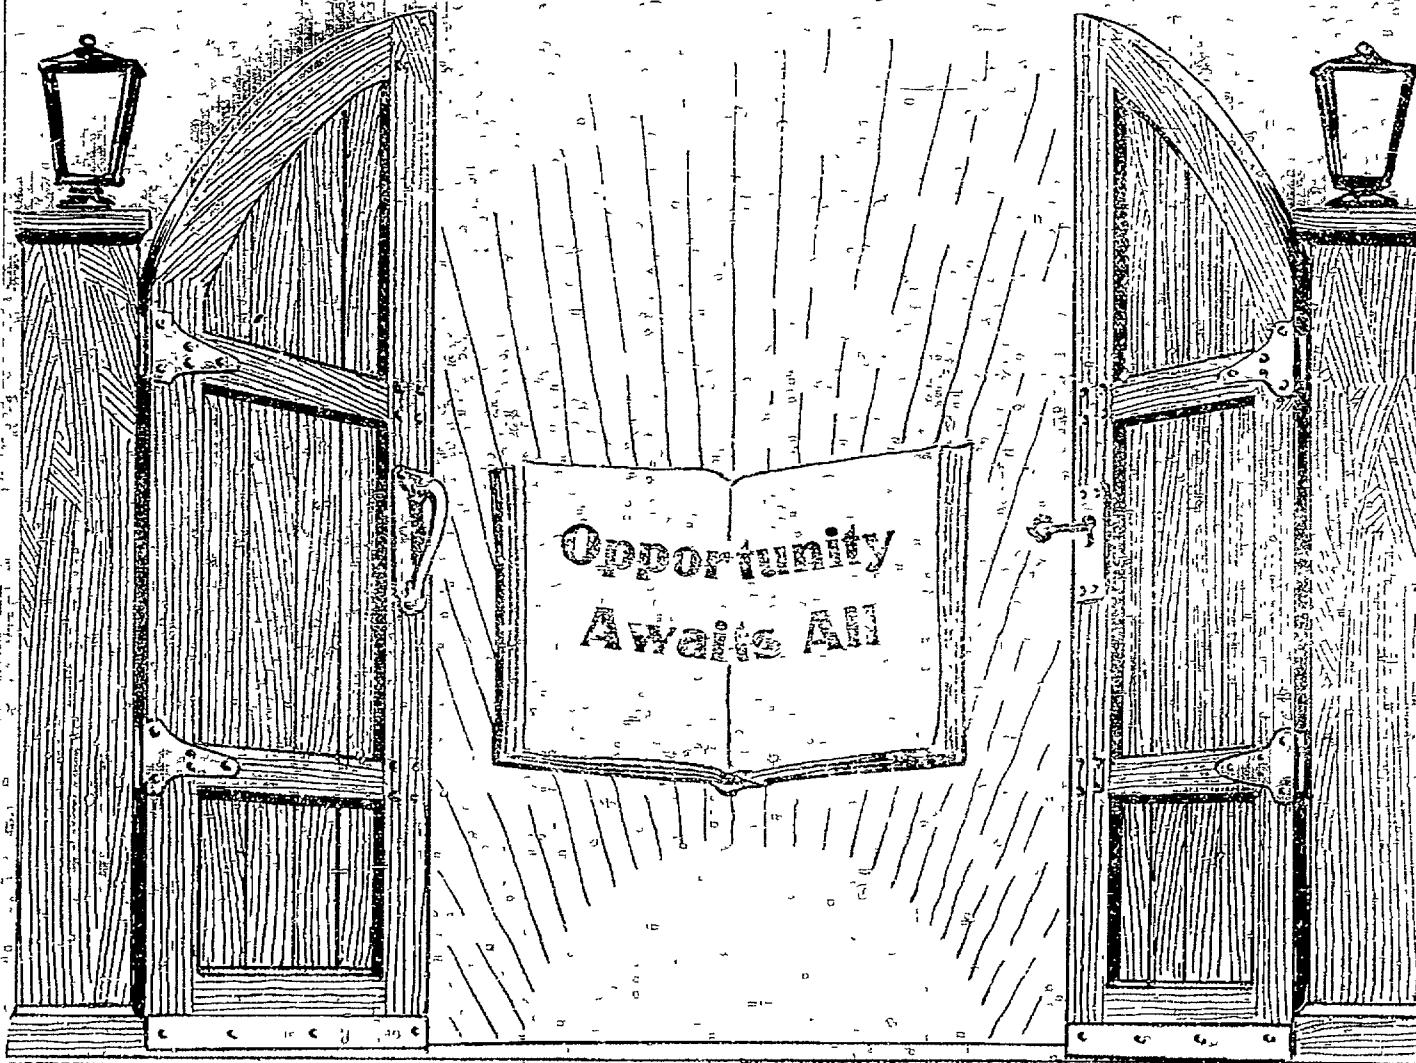

The supper was planned by the Home Economics Club, and the waitresses for the evening were the girls from the home economic class in school.

About $90 was realized from the evening's work. Much credit is due the kitchen committee with Mrs. Granzow as chairman, and the dining room in charge of Mrs. Coates.

The proceeds of the evening will be used in supplying the kitchen with dishes and cooking utensils.

The ladies of Novi community wish to extend thanks to Stewart Drug store, Lykes' Hardware, Huff's Hardware, Kriger's, C. A. Fonsford, Horton Drug store, B. Freydl, John McCully, Shaffer Electric, A. M. Zimmer, A. C. Balder, Elliott Bakery and Schrader Bros., for their hearty support in helping to make the supper at Novi school, Friday, October 19th, a success. The supper was given for the purpose of raising funds to equip the community kitchen.

Members of American Legion Auxiliary will meet at the home of Mrs. Barry Bolton on Linden street, Tuesday at 1:30 p.m., to work for the gift shop.

NEW BRADER STORE WILL BE OPENED DURING NEXT WEEK

Has Sale for Dollar Day, but Formal Opening to be Saturday

Compelling one of the finest business blocks in Northville, Samuel L. Brader will next week formally open his store to the public on Saturday. For the occasion he will provide souvenirs for men, women, and children. A detailed announcement of the opening will appear in the next issue of the Record.

"But to give his many friends a chance to enjoy some real bargains and to cooperate with the merchants of Northville, who are anxious to build up the trading radius of this community, he has secured for next Wednesday many articles that he will be ready to do his part in making Dollar Day a real success."

Associated with Mr. Brader in the future will be Mr. Harry Himmelstein, for the past six years a buyer in the gent's furnishing department of the big Ernst Kern store in Detroit. Previous to becoming associated with the Kern's store, Mr. Himmelstein was an assistant buyer for Crowley-Milner over a long period of years. His special training in buying goods, his knowledge of value and his pleasing personality will go a long ways towards a successful business career in Northville with Mr. Brader. He will be manager of the store for Mr. Brader, although the two of them will work together in the business.

The many friends of "Sam," as he is best known around town, will be glad to welcome him back in business. He has shown his faith in the future of Northville by erecting a business block on East Main street that is a credit to the community.

A big audience was delighted with the musical program provided, last Friday, by Grinnell's Trio of Detroit. The program was given under the auspices of the Woman's Club.

James Swinehart, well known Detroit News writer, was in Northville, Tuesday. Mr. Swinehart is the owner of one of the highly prized big lots in the Northville Hills subdivision on the Baseline road. He plans to build a home there sometime in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Blake and children are leaving Saturday for Silver City, New Mexico, for an indefinite stay. They have rented their home in Northville and plan to return here at some future time. The western trip is being made because of the condition of Mr. Blake's health. His hundreds of friends hope for him a speedy and early recovery. Both Mr. and Mrs. Blake are highly regarded in Northville, and the entire community regrets the fact that it is necessary for them to leave. Fortunately they have many friends in Silver City.

Read every ad in this issue. Northville Merchants have filled their stores with Special bargains for next Wednesday, Dollar Day. You will be surprised at the many dollars you can save by making that your big shopping day. Come prepared to spend the entire day in visiting the stores and looking over the hundred and one different offerings. Never before have such bargains been offered to the economical buyer—it's an opportunity that comes but once a year—and then only in Northville, no other nearby community conducting Dollar Day sales.

PASTOR URGES ALL TO WORK TOGETHER FOR GOOD OF THE COMMUNITY IN WHICH WE LIVE

APPLIES BRAKES, WRECKS MACHINE, ONE BADLY HURT

Accident Near the Griswold Bridge Sunday Afternoon Investigated

Applying his brakes too suddenly on a wet road, John Channells, aged 40, 2794 Belmont avenue, Detroit, hurtled his car over the north bank of the Griswold road just east of the new grade separation. Sunday afternoon, and badly injured Charles Kotobiski, 59, of Evergreen road, Detroit, who was riding with him. The car, a Studebaker, was almost completely demolished. It turned over three times as it rolled down the bank and almost landed on the front steps of a house setting under the hill.

Kotobiski was rushed to Sessions hospital in Northville where his injuries were attended. He was badly cut about the face and injured internally. Doctors say he will recover.

The driver of the car escaped with only a few slight bruises.

Chef of Police Safford investigated the circumstances surrounding the accident. He has not decided whether a warrant will be issued.

"Isn't it better not to say unkind things about our neighbors? Isn't it better not to repeat unkind remarks we have heard others say about some person?

We can all work together and we should. No good can come from little animosities. Forget them. They hurt you just as much as they hurt someone else."

"We should have mutual consideration for one another. I like the Rotary motto of service above self, and I like the Exchange motto of unity for all. It is in unity for community that the greatest good develops."

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Blake and children are leaving Saturday for Silver City, New Mexico, for an indefinite stay. They have rented their home in Northville and plan to return here at some future time. The western trip is being made because of the condition of Mr. Blake's health. His hundreds of friends hope for him a speedy and early recovery. Both Mr. and Mrs. Blake are highly regarded in Northville, and the entire community regrets the fact that it is necessary for them to leave. Fortunately they have many friends in Silver City.

All children of pre-school age are urged to take advantage of this health movement sponsored by the Northville Women's Club, who are deeply grateful to the city commissioners for the splendid facilities available.

WHY NOT SWIMMING POOL IN NEW HOME OF LOCAL LEGION?

Following Article is Both News and Editorial to Think About

For some time past members of the American Legion have been discussing the advisability of putting a campaign to raise sufficient funds for the purpose of erecting their building on the lot the organization owns at the northwest corner of Dunlap and Butler streets.

No definite conclusion has been reached by the members on their plans and it is known that they propose to give thorough consideration to the question during the next two or three months, before finally deciding on just what will be done.

The Legion owns the lot at present. It is an ideal one for the purpose, it was purchased in addition to owning the lot, they have a fairly good-sized amount of cash on hand. From what can be learned it is pretty certain that the Legion is going to do something along the building line within the next year.

The Northville Record has a suggestion to make. It is hoped that it will be given consideration at the right time, and that Legion members will carefully discuss the matter when the right time comes.

The location of the lot owned by the Legion is not in a place where the first floor can be used for retail purposes. Possibly at some distant time business blocks will swing that way but it will be a long way in the future.

Of course, the Legion will want a building that will produce revenue. But the renting of the first floor for business purposes is out of the question.

Doubtless the building will be a two-story structure. Why not turn the structure into a big swimming pool, owned and operated by the Legion, but for the benefit of the entire community?

The second floor of the building can be utilized for Legion and Auxiliary meetings, banquets and dances.

Northville, like many other communities in this part of the state, has no nearby place where kids and grown-folks can go swimming. Southern Europe has moved to the Walled Lake bathing beaches and White Mr. Ford has gladly opened up the shores of Phoenix lake for summer bathing. Northville folks have not felt like crowding out the Detroit hordes who swarm these places just as soon as the summer bathing season is open.

But with a swimming pool in Northville, which can be used summer and winter, Northville mothers can give their kids the nickels and dimes necessary and then send them down to a swimming pool where someone is watching and where there need be no fears of drowning accidents. Then the Legion can doubtless arrange it so that older ones can enjoy the pool certain days and evenings of the weeks during the winter.

This is true, wherever there has been a swimming pool operated in a commercial way, it has been a money maker. Possibly the Legion can provide Northville with something the school board and village officials have not thought they could do. It's worth thinking about anyway.

Songs of Plain Folks

By James Lewis Hays

Hired Man

Hired man, bright-faced, harnessing at dawn,
What'll you see and do ere the day is gone?
I'll see dew sparkle, see it dry away,
I'll see buds open on the wild pink rose,
I'll plow fresh furrows and mow; fresh hay
Where gray mice scamper and the soil-scent blows.

Hired man, dream-eyed, resting after noon,
Do you dream as you seem, of a fortune soon?
No, I think over what to do, that's all,
To make loads lighter for my young black team.
I'll scrape Ned's collar so that it won't gall,
I'll set Nig's traces—there is no time to dream.

Hired man, tired man, at the end of day,
Tell me true, when you're through, does the labor pay?
Well, it pays hunger and good appetite,
It pays real peace when the white stars shine,
The crickets' sawing and the moon's soft light,
And the elm leaves rustling in the dark are mine.

standard, fifty officers, four chaplains, two cures and six hundred men, besides four hundred wounded prisoners, the stores belonging to the infantry and artillery, the largest part of the baggage. Such is the day's glorious result. Officers and soldiers behaved gloriously and bravely. We are still pursuing the routed enemy."

Francis X. Bushman, whose masterful portrayal of Messala in "Ben Hur" was widely praised, enacts the role of General Belgrano. Jacqueline Logan depicts the role of Monica Salazar, daughter of his foe. And this is the love affair between these two, conveyed in breathless episodes of gallantry, intricate plot, counterplot and daring action, which holds audiences enthralled in this massive production of the birth of a republic.

Mary Brian, Bacalova, William Powell, Fred Kohler and Jack Luden head the imposing cast.

The story interest, unusual sets, vivid contrasts and dramatic value of the production entitle it to the rating of a special in the most complimentary sense of that term.

Imagine a picture that starts out with a night hold-up of a fashionable gambling house perpetrated by two crooks in evening clothes, carries on to the grim interior of a penitentiary, shows an attempted prison break, gives intimate glimpses of social life in a home of wealth and culture, and then depicts the terrified reactions of a woman being slowly driven mad by fear.

HOLY LAND TRIP

Members Hear One of Best Talks Made During Present Year.

Members of the Exchange Club were fortunate in having as their speaker Wednesday noon, Fred Foreman, who gave the club one of the best talks that has been heard in some time. During the brief period Mr. Foreman talked he carried the audience with him on a trip from Northville through the Holy Land, and other ancient places that he visited on his trip last year.

In speaking of his visit to Carthage and other ancient cities he described the ruins that he visited as remnants of large cities hundreds of years forgotten, telling of the beautiful background that the mountains presented for the traveler who had never visited the interesting points of the far east. For the Bible student, Mr. Foreman explained that it was most interesting, illustrating by telling of the oils or stones that now marked the place of a city of 7,000 population, where Solomon was crowned king. He told of his visit to Palestine, Bethlehem, Rome and Athens and described Rome as one of the most interesting of the cities.

As an American he described the assets and advantages that the western hemisphere offered over the east. He told of the value of water in Egypt, the scarcity of trees and natural resources, which created a poor class of people in these countries that were forced to offer themselves as slaves in order to live. He said in considering the differences in that part of the world and the place where we live that one hardly appreciated the luxuries the natural resources and financial and mechanical skill at our disposal.

VETERAN CLERK TO POLL GREATEST VOTE OF CAREER

Thomas Farrell Visits This Place in Interest of Candidacy

Thomas F. Farrell, veteran county clerk of Wayne county, and a number of his associates, were visitors in Northville, Tuesday afternoon looking over the political situation. Mr. Farrell, always a strong favorite in this part of Wayne county, will probably poll the biggest vote he ever had in this locality.

The county clerk's office is the safety deposit vault of the vital records, facts and statistics that insure the loyalty of all manufacturers into the industrial, business and social life of the great city of Detroit and Wayne county, and while desired and necessary information (and the daily applications run into the hundreds) might have been somewhere prior to Mr. Farrell's insinuation to "locate the same" made the detection of the needle in the proverbial haystack a snap compared with the dreary laborious and oftentimes futile attempts on the part of attorneys, officials and private citizens when such business brought them to the only available source—the county clerk's offices.

To correct this irritating—not to say dangerous condition, Mr. Farrell completely revolutionized the careless, antiquated system he found in vogue when he took over the reins and today as "voluntarily" manifested by all the newspapers of Detroit, the Detroit Citizens' League, the bench and bar, United States officials, abstract and title firms, and the leading business and professional firms—the Wayne county clerk's office a model of accurate filing—instantly and conveniently available—from the beginning of the court's history, right up to the last tick of the clock, and further—something that every man, woman and child in Wayne County seems to know or desire—information, no matter how seemingly small or unimportant it might appear—but one is assured it will be "looked up" instantly and provided with accuracy and courtesy.

No matter what a voter's preference may be for the new man at the White House in Washington, look for Thomas F. Farrell's name on the Republican county ticket and put an (X) there. We cannot by any manner of means afford to lose the continued services of an official that has always given such high-grade, conscientious and efficient service.

Effort to See That All Vote

At a meeting of the American Legion Tuesday evening, definite steps were taken towards getting out a big vote on election day, and in order to provide some real incentive, it has been decided to give cash prizes to school children who are supposed to help in the effort.

Officers of the Lloyd H. Green post, sponsoring the get-out-and-vote campaign will announce in next week's Record full details for the campaign. The plan will be worked by tags, the child having the greatest number of tags given to voters will be awarded prizes. The first will be $3; the second, $2, and the third, $1.

The method of how the campaign will be worked so that the children will know just what to do in an effort to win a prize will be given in detail next week.

The Legion right now is anxious chiefly to get a big vote out. There is no special candidate or party that has the Legion backing. The only interest is in seeing that everyone exercises his right to vote.

The Legion paper has the following to say relative to the present campaign:

Ten years ago the country faced an emergency—was in the midst of a war. Every good citizen put forth utmost effort for the success of the United States and the cause it fought for. The men of the American Legion went forth to battle and they were victorious because they had the backing of the people back home.

Today there is within every political party a majority who seek control of the government. Professional politicians whose very livelihood comes from trading in the votes of a few people. These few controlled votes are a minor part of the electorate. Not until every good citizen casts his vote will the choice of all the people be known. Only such full expression can give us a true representative government.

The American Legion believes that pose of the organization is to be of citizen to familiarize himself with the right to citizenship, has not been established unless a citizen votes. Members of the Legion gave service to the community, state and nation, while they were members of the armed forces of the United States. With this information well in mind, you will be able to vote intelligently.

The American Legion is non-political; it is non-sectarian; it is made up of men who served in the Great War regardless of belief. The primary purpose of the Legion is to give the same service in time of peace as they gave in war.

Standing upon this platform, The it default? Go to the polls and American Legion urges every good VOTE!

A NEW PACKARD TRIUMPH

The Packard Standard Eight Club Sedan

-the long awaited STANDARD EIGHT

EVERYTHING that was expected and more is found in Packard's newest achievement, the Packard Standard Eight. All of the characteristic grace and distinction of Packard lines are retained, and it is not the Packard policy to depreciate cars in the hands of owners by radical and needless changes in design.

The new Standard Eight powerplant, with its nine-bearing crankshaft, is a marvel of clean-cut and compact simplicity, with a surprisingly low operating and maintenance cost.

And the Packard Standard Eight provides as does the Custom line, the new and exclusive Packard Shock Absorbing System, a unique combination of inventions which are almost magical in their effects. Today's Packard cars are literally, and without qualification, the easiest riding cars in the world—as well as the safest.

We want you to drive the new Standard Eight—experience for yourself its superb performance, and unequalled comfort, the luxury of its deep new cushions and the beauty of its appointments. We know you will then be satisfied with nothing less than a Packard.

We will appraise your present car fairly and we offer a convenient monthly payment plan. When may we serve you? A phone call will bring one of the new Standard Eight cars to your door.

AND HE WAS RIGHT!

One of the big Detroit newspapers a couple of years ago had much to say about the paroling of prisoners by former Governor Grossbeck. It endeavored to lead the voters of the state to think that he had turned the prison gates wide open. Of course, any one knowing anything about prison matters know better. Recent statistics issued by the parole commissioner show that the percent of releases on paroles is about the same now as it was two and three years ago. When a prisoner is entitled to be released under the parole law, he is released, no matter who is governor. But this is not just the point. The Detroit News the other day carried a dispatch from Lansing in which it was stated that Governor Grossbeck had acted favorably upon some paroles because in his mind the sentence imposed was not in accord with all the facts in the case. That is just what former Governor Grossbeck was called upon to do. When he assumed office he found that little or no attention had been paid by the old political parole board to the right or wrong of many sentences that had been inflicted upon prisoners. Some men were found serving five or six years for the very thing that others had been sentenced to serve five or six months for from some other county. Necessarily it was the duty of the governor to rectify as far as possible this condition, but do you suppose the papers that howled the loudest about this condition would print the facts? Not much. And the amazing part of it all is that the correctness of the governor's position in these matters was known to a very large extent by the very ones that wrote much of the criticism.

CAN'T GET HIM!

Ed. A. Nowack runs the Michigan State Digest. It is a Lansing newspaper devoted to the spiritual welfare of the politicians of Michigan. That is most of the politicians and office holders regard it as their Bible. In last week's issue appeared in prominent display on the first page an announcement that Editor Nowack was going to be away for a while and that during his absence Postmaster Muriel H. DeFoe who during her spare hours is also editor of Elton's capital newspaper, would do the editing for the State Dept. There is no end in trying to find out if an editor like that have been that one she is going to put a ten dollar if not a

If you were to make a comparative test of The Hoover and any other electric cleaner you would find that The Hoover unfailingly removes the most dirt per minute—the amount removed by it in ordinary cleaning time being at least 60% to 80% greater.

The Hoover is able to effect this greater dirt removal because of its exclusive beating principle, "Positive Agitation," which gets out the embedded grit which ordinary cleaning fails to remove.

Before you purchase any electric cleaner, see The Hoover in action on your own rugs. The amazing efficiency of The Hoover will be a revelation to you. Telephone for each demonstration. Liberal allowance for your old cleaner. Only $6.25 down; balance monthly.

ROSEDALE PARK

Civic Association Hears of Work Done in the Past Year

The annual meeting of the North Rosedale Park Civic association was held at the club house in North Rosedale Park, Friday evening last.

Officers re-elected to head the organization were Harry M. St. John, president; Donald A. Hayden, vice-president; J. W. Johnston, treasurer; William H. Hudson, secretary. The board of directors for the ensuing year will include these officers along with the three following who were elected for a one-year term: C. L. Weaver, Ralph B. Scott and Horace S. Maynard.

As has become characteristic of the annual meeting, Friday's session was marked by a high degree of enthusiasm and good "feeling." The Secretary's report, recounting the associations achievements during the year and paying sincere compliments to the work of the officers and committees brought forth continued and spontaneous applause. Turning over the chair to the vice-president, Harry St. John, he recited from the floor an accounting of his stewardship during the past year which deeply impressed his hearers. The analytical insight into the association's problems and the well considered language in which the president clothed his thoughts elicited a spontaneous tribute from his predecessor in office, C. L. Weaver, whose remarks brought the assemblage to rising vote of thanks and appreciation. The meeting was concluded with the usual social session and refreshments. Redford Record

Songs of Plain Folks

By James Lewis Harris

Homesteader

Times do not change so very much.

The same sun shines and laughter rings

As always when the morning's touch.

Makes playing children wish for wings.

The young folks always have been kings;

The old folks tired philosophers.

Love still desires the same sweet things

Be said. Life's cycle reoccurs.

We who, when prairies met the sky,

Homesteaded in a wilderness,

In reminiscent moments sigh.

For "good old days" but we'll confess

Our memories are prone to stress.

Past joys while trouble we forget.

We like this modern age no less

Than any age whose sun has set.

The smoky lamp, the candle's flare,

The horse and buggy days are gone;

Who's so foolish as to care?

Or chide the world for trying on?

For after all, life varies not.

Cycle of laughter, love and tears.

Changeless, no matter what is wrought

Into the pattern of the years.

Will See to It That Laws
Are Enforced in This Section.

An announcement was made the early part of the week of the appointment of Frank Durfee as resident conservation officer by the State Conservation Department. Mr. Durfee will have complete charge of the game preserves east of Northville.

The same preserves now extend from the Pere Marquette Railroad along the Nine Mile road to the Ridge road, far north almost to the South Lyon road.

Mr. Durfee will see that the law is not violated on the two preserves. The fact that Northville now has a game warden should be a reason for all local sportsmen to be well informed as to the boundaries of the game preserves in this territory. Additional guards will be put on for the pleasant season which is from October 25th to 31st.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Nielsen will be pleased to know that they have decided to continue their residence in Michigan, and they will not move to California as had been planned. Mr. and Mrs. Nielsen made a trip to the western coast early in the summer. While they liked the western country very much and planned to go there to live this fall, he has decided that Michigan is a far better state from a business standpoint and he can see no advantage except climate in moving out to the golden west. He had several offers to manage dairy farms in the west, however.

Reports of business on the coast that have floated back east during the past few weeks have been done too good and the owners of the big farm that Mr. Nielsen has managed for the past few years have induced him to remain on the place.

He has started working up another high class Jersey herd and while he will not go into the business so extensively as he did in past years, he will have a herd that will be one of the best small ones in the state. He has already purchased several imported full-blooded Jerseys, and expects to have a few more on his place in the next few weeks.

THAT LIGHT POLE
STILL BLOCKS WALK

It's right there yet.
Six days have passed since it was discovered that one of the bright lights of the ornamental system of the village sets right in the middle of the sidewalk on Hutton street—and no effort has been made to move it.

No one ever paid any attention to it because of the fact that much of the sidewalk on Hutton street wasn't a sidewalk. Folks walked on the paving instead.

Then the owners of the Exchange hotel, in a moment of excitement, built a new cement wall along their property on Hutton street. Now folks are using the wall and smashing right into that pole.

On the side of the pole there are about six inches to walk on and on the other side there might be six.

Wonder how long this misplaced and obnoxious light will be permitted to remain in its present location is a question pedestrians using the new walk on Hutton street are now asking.

The light post was set in a good piece of walk that adjoins the Exchange property to the east so the construction of the new walk has nothing to do with original mistake made in placing the pole.

(The chairman of the village sidewalk committee is expected back from a long vacation tomorrow.)

Sidewalk Committee has Problem to Fix up Sidewalk on Dunlap

Whether to slope the sidewalk down so that there will be no quick rise in it along the new Edison building on Dunlap street or erect two conspicuous steps in the walk is a question for the village sidewalk committee to decide within the next few days.

The Edison company finds that the street grade at the east end of the building is 18 inches above the sidewalk. A new walk has got to be laid and the question is now as to how best to take care of the raise.

Steps in a walk, it is pointed out, are not only dangerous, but forever spoil a good sidewalk. It is understood that the committee is going to Roy Larkins' property into two assess-try and work out some plan whereby the walk can be made a gradual raise instead of placing two dangerous steps in it.

PHONE COMPANY PLANS BUILDING FOR WAYNE PLANT

Community Growth Makes Necessary Action Says Crowe

Wayne's growth and the desire of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company to be fully prepared for any service that may develop have resulted in an announcement by R. E. Crowe, local manager for the company, to the effect that considerable expansion of the local telephone plant will be made here at once. The company plans to establish a new central office in a modern office and store building, that will be leased from the owners and will add considerable outside plant facilities, the cost to be in the neighborhood of $70,000. The work will be completed during the next ten months.

Mr. Crowe says: "The company plans to establish a new central office in a modern office and store building, that will be leased from the owners and will add considerable outside plant facilities, the cost to be in the neighborhood of $70,000. The work will be completed during the next ten months."

The company will lease approximately 5,000 square feet of space for the new office in an office building that is to be erected at once by Dr. Edwin R. Lee and George Gerbstadt at the junction of Park, Biddle and Monroe avenues, opposite the city hall and the Wayne City park.

The owners announce that the new structure will be two stories in height, with basement and will be built of brick with limestone trimmings. The telephone company will occupy the basement and the most of the space on both floors, with provision whereby additional space can be had when the telephone demand and growth of the city warrants.

The company's business offices and the plant room will occupy the first floor, facing the city hall. Local and long-distance cables will terminate in a specially constructed cable vault in the basement. The battery room and space for miscellaneous equipment also will be located in the basement. The second floor will accommodate the operating room, an operators' classroom and operators' quarters that will include a well-furnished rest room and a modern kitchen and dining room of ample size to accommodate employees.

The telephone company will change the type of equipment it uses in the Wayne exchange from the present magneto type system to the common battery system. With the new type of equipment, a subscriber will signal the operator merely by lifting the telephone receiver from its hook.

equipment, which will cost in excess of $30,000, approximately $40,000 will be spent during 1929 in extending the outside aerial and underground cable plant in various sections of the community, where additional growth is anticipated. Telephone plant additions made here last year and to date this year cost approximately $98,000. The present central office equipment consists of five sections of switchboard, with a capacity of 100 lines and 1030 telephones, whereas the new equipment will include eleven sections of switchboard, with a capacity of 1,000 lines and 1,500 telephones. There are approximately 930 telephones in use here at the present time.

The residential and business growth of Wayne during the past few years is reflected by the telephone growth.

During 1928 a total of 138 telephones were added, and last year the number was 139. It is expected that the 1928 increase will equal that of last year.

Building operations will be commenced within the next 30 days and will be finished about March 1st.

Equipment installers are expected to complete their work about July 1st.

It has been found that the soil, as well as the plant, has an "appetite" or affinity for fertilizer, and is not merely a receptacle to hold fertilizer until it is needed for the crop, although the exact reactions that take place between soil and fertilizers are not fully known.

Further knowledge along this line will undoubtedly do much toward improving fertilizer practices, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Dr. Robert Haskell Elected President of State

Dr. Robert H. Haskell, medical supervisor of the Wayne County Training School, located at Northville, has been elected president of the Michigan State Conference of Social Work, an annual meeting of the organization being held at Ann Arbor last week. The distinction comes to Dr. Haskell because of his interest in welfare work. He has long been regarded as one of the leading members of the organization and his election to the presidency is not a surprise to those who know something of his work and standing in the state.

The conference passed a resolution calling upon the state legislature to give some consideration to the care of the insane and feeble-minded of Michigan at its next session.

During the past few years the Michigan legislature has refused to pass appropriations to take care of the rapidly increasing population of insane people in the state. The Lapeer School for Feeble Minded has long been overcrowded and there are known to be many hundreds on the waiting list.

Both the insane and feeble minded who are permitted to run at large provide a distinct menace to the state and welfare workers as well as state officials who know of conditions are going to make a determined effort to have some action taken at the coming session of the state legislature to relieve conditions.

There are no household methods of setting the color in a dyed fabric. The use of salt, vinegar, and other substances has been found to do absolutely no good. Dyes, however, are so much better now than they used to be, that it is usually satisfactory to try a sample of the goods you think of buying, and if it does not run when you wash it or fade too much when exposed to sunlight, it may be considered reasonably fast color.

South Lyon Mourns Passing of Mrs. Charles Cox in Hospital

Death claimed a young mother of two children at St. John's hospital on Avenue F, South Lyon, on Sunday night, when Mrs. Charles Cox, aged 22 years, passed away following an illness of but a few days. Death was resulting from an infection in face and neck.

Mrs. Cox was taken to the hospital Sunday night where everything that could be done to save the life that was so rapidly slipping away. All these things proved of no account as the end came about 11 o'clock, as above stated, on the night of October 16th.

Mabel Wright spent the greater part of her years in and near South Lyon, where many are saddened by her untimely demise. The sympathy of the community is extended to the family, where two little children, aged two and three years, are left motherless.

Besides the husband and children, death claimed leaves her step-father and father, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Mackay, a brother, Claude Mackay, half-brother and half-sister, George and Lucille Mackay, and many other relatives.

Funeral services will be held at the Mackay residence this Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock and will be in charge of Rev. C. F. Wolfe, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. Burial will be in South Lyon cemetery.—South Lyon Herald.

In selecting corn for seed or breeding, farmers in the southern states are advised to choose ears having husks that are at least long enough to cover the tips of the ears and that close tightly around the silks. Very long, tight husks are an aid in preventing injury from the corn earworm and the weevil and also from birds.

If fattening hogs are "pushed" from weaning time to market, the most economical plan is to have them on good pasture with free access to shelled corn and tankage, or fish meal in feeders. Muddings on shorts of good quality, or old-process fished meal, may be fed instead of tankage or fish meal!

NO WINTER JOBS
IN CALIFORNIA
WRITES RESIDENT

Orion Review Publishes Letter Telling of Conditions on Coast

If there are any workers around Northville expecting to go to California to get a job for the winter, it would be well to read the following letter published in last week's issue of the Orion Review from a resident of Gendale, California:

"I see by the Review that you have already had your first snow and hail storm of the season reminding you of what is in store for you in the near future."

"Well, we are not looking forward to any of that, but I would like to see some rain fall soon just to lay the dust and brighten up the lawns and cause flowers to take in new life, as water for lawns is very expensive as it takes a lot of it to keep grass green and shiny, especially when it is hot.

"We have just been having a lot of rain, and are not dependent on day labor for existence. I would invite them to come to California, but if you are depending on a job, don't come, as we have enough job-hunters at present. You can get furnished apartments at $30 to $50 per month and plenty of vegetables any month in the year. Would be glad to see any of my Oakland county friends in Glendale for the winter. Would say that it is only 30 minutes ride to the heart of Los Angeles and 25 cents buys a return ticket."

"We have just been having a lot of forest fires that have burned over a vast area of territory and destroyed much timber, but they are now pretty well under control."

"My son, Lynn, belongs to the batless club, as I have not purchased a hat or cap for him since coming to California. In fact, he never wore one for twenty months."

"Politics are getting pretty warm here at present. They are forming what is called the Democratic Patriotic Cities all around Southern California, and men who never voted anything but Democrat's ticket are out for Hoover again. They say it is no case of party this year, but a case of the best man for the place. They are not ready for Tammany to turn this country yet while nor Al Smith and his little Europe to control the affairs of state in the United States, and as for himself, I will be very much disappointed in the women of our land after getting the franchise to vote, regardless of party, if they allow Alfred Smith and his Tammanyites to destroy the 18th amendment, which they certainly will do, as he has done everything he could, do in his slate to hurt the temperance cause. Let me say to my old Oakland county friends, who have affiliated with the Democratic party, it is a good time to be above party and stand for the American nation and let Tammany stay in New York and not at Washington."

Respectfully,
George H. Seeley

Temperature is a very important factor in the successful fermentation of vegetable foods, such as pickles and sauer kraut, say chemists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The foods should be kept as close as possible to 82 degrees F. at which temperature the bacteria essential to fermentation are most active. This is especially important in making sauer kraut.

Why lose valuable plant food from the soil, when much of this loss can be prevented by a winter cover crop? According to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, soil erosion removes 20 times as much plant food as is taken out of the soil by crops. A winter cover crop to prevent waste is especially important in the south.

Attorney Recalls Fate of Conductor in Salem
Train Wreck

Went over to Lansing Friday night to help celebrate the founding of the Zack Chandler club. Dozens of folks looking for votes, state offices holders present and potential, and newspaper editors galore were there. Sen-a-Tor Arthur Vandenburg of Grand Rapids was the first to arrive from the last to leave. Vern Brown, editor of "The Mason County News" was the toastmaster of the evening. Vern is going to be elected a member of the state legislature. When he writes of legislative activities next winter, he will know what he is writing about. There was one mighty fine thing about the banquet. The toastmaster didn't give a lot of aspiring candidates a chance to talk. He had them stand up for inspection, but that was all.

Met Attorney Latting of Grand Ledge, at the banquet. It was Mr. Latting, who represented the train crew of the ill-fated train that was wrecked near here 21 years ago last June, killing some 34 people and injuring twice as many more. He said he remembered Northville well. "The inquest was held down in the cold skating rink. I remember that when it was on the merchants of the town closed their stores and kept them closed during the hours of the inquest. The justice of the peace, great big fellow named Chas. M. Joslin did not need a gavel. He had a sort of grade, law respecting mayor of Flint, and there was a two by four railing around it, draped with bunting and flags. When it was time for proceedings to begin he would rap with his few Michigan men who ever served in hand on the top of his home-made desk. It would make a bigger noise than any gavel I ever heard. He was so big and he didn't let any power go to waste when he was trapping for order either. You remember that the jury decided that the responsibility for the wreck was placed upon the dispatcher's office of the railroad, but the poor old conductor that I represented couldn't get a job after that anywhere. He went over on the Michigan Central and picked up work, but in a few weeks it was found out that he had been in this wreck and he was fired. Then he drifted west where he got another railroad job and he was fired out there when it was found that he had been in this wreck at Salem. After that he went out on a ranch in Montana and in a few years died. I always felt it was due to the way he was treated after the wreck," stated Mr. Latting. The Grand Ledge attorney is part owner of the Grand Ledge Independent, an excellent newspaper published over in Eaton county.

Editor Beach of the Fenton Independent, was over to the affair. Mr. Beach publishes a very high-grade newspaper, one of the best in that part of Michigan, but he does not conduct an editorial column. His explanation of this is "one, easy to understand. In this day the Fenton editor has been known as a general all-around scrapper, and he has so much "vitrol" running through him that he dares not open up a place in his newspaper where he might discuss transpiring events. I see so much going on that could be cut wide-open that I dare not get into the fracas knowing my disposition, as I do," he says. It's a safe prediction to make that if he did ever "cut open" there would be a lot of fur flying over in Genesee county. In fact, he might stand fixed up in one end of the room and there was a two by four railing around it, draped with bunting and flags. When it was time for proceedings to begin he would rap with his few Michigan men who ever served in Zachariah Chandler was one of the few Michigan men who ever served in a president's cabinet. He was secretary of the interior for a few years, having been appointed in October 1875. He was also one of the outstanding United States senators from Michigan serving during the entire Civil war period. He religiously supported the policies of Abraham Lincoln during the war.

Surprising what a change in administration of the state will do. Out of the four or five hundred at the banquet, there was possibly three or four dozen present who were active in state affairs during the administration of Governor Groesbeck.

Hens should have water in the morning as soon as they get off the roosts to eat scratch feed and mash. In cold weather some arrangement should be made to keep the water from freezing. On the government poultry farm at Beltsville, Maryland, a home-made electric water heater, consisting of a wire coil in a metal tube, does the trick. An electric light with a carbon bulb placed in a pail of water may also be used. The bulb should be tightly covered with a piece of black cloth or painted black so that no light will be thrown into the pail.

It is well to wait at least two weeks after turning under a cover crop before plowing the next crop, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The rate of decomposition determines the time that should elapse between the turning under of a cover crop and the seeding of the next crop.

Official

Prospects for the continuation of the Six Mile road going west from the Farmington road to the Northville-Plymouth road during the coming year are not so bright according to an official of the Wayne county road commission who were in this part of the country looking over road improvements a few days ago.

He stated that the present traffic conditions did not warrant the building of the road next year, and unless there was a big change there would be no necessity of constructing the road in the immediate future.

This statement is just the good news that has been anticipated. It was generally hoped that the Six Mile road would be constructed through from Farmington road to Waterford during the coming year. The statement was made, however, that if residents living along the road desired to have it constructed by petition under the Covert act that it would be built, but not unless the taxpayers living along the road desired to carry a portion of the burden.

JUST A FEW NEWSY NOTES FROM DEARBORN AND FORDSON—MUCH DEVELOPMENT GOING ON THERE

Over in Dearborn the other day, a candidate for representative as Dr. Congressman Grant Hudson spoke at a meeting of the Dearborn Rotary Club. The Kiwanis and Exchange clubs of Dearborn and Fordson were invited as guests for the event. Postmaster Neal of Northville was also a guest at the meeting. Congressman Hudson made probably one of the best talks heard around here in some time. He has many strong supporters in that part of his district who predicted a big vote for him in the coming election.

Residents of Dearborn and Fordson are all interested at present in the new charter that is being formed for the two cities. It will be ready for submission to the voters in the next few weeks. The charter commission is made up mostly of residents of Fordson, who are said to be nearly all candidates for some city job under the charter they are framing.

Mr. Ford will pay over three-fourths of the taxes of the newly organized city. No wonder they are planning such remarkably fine buildings.

Right now there seems to be a spending urge on in Dearborn as well as Wayne. The newly created city will be required to take over all the obligations of the two independent municipalities when the consolidation becomes effective. The other night Dearborn added 16 policemen to its present law-enforcing branch of the city government. It would be a difficult job to find work for two good officers in the place.

The new charter provides that the consolidated city shall have two peace justices whose salaries shall be $7,000 per year each. A couple of pretty nice jobs these are going to be.

It is planned to elect a mayor who will give all his time to the job. The salary has been fixed at $8,000 per year. Must be the charter commission thinks it is more important to dispose of some drunk case before a police justice than it is to have some honest-to-God official in the mayor's chair, whose duties involve the welfare of all the people of the forthcoming city.

Voters over in Pontiac are pretty liberal with public salaries. They have a welfare worker over there who gets something like $4,000 a year. He has numerous assistants as well as several clerks and stenographers. The total cost runs many thousands per year. The same work is carried on in Northville by the King's Daughters and no one gets a cent out of it.

Met Dr. Fisher, the Republican candidate for representative from this district. Dr. Fisher is a very worthy successor to our own L. E. Johnson. If Northville and Plymouth cannot have Mike Johnson or Lawrence Johnson, there is no more acceptable member for representative than Dr. Fisher. He is the type that will properly represent this district in Lansing. Of course this part of the district is sorry to lose 'Larry,' but we are indeed fortunate in having such a good

SCHOOL FAIR BEST EVER HELD BY NEW HUDSON STUDENTS

Exhibits Surpass to Last Year and More Interest is Shown in Event

More interest than ever was displayed this year in the New Hudson School Fair held recently at the Consolidated school. There were more exhibits, and they were by far the best ever shown. Exhibits of the Boys' and Girls' club was also better than ever before.

The potatoes exhibited by the club boys were excellent size, shape and quality. Howard and Arnold Musolf easily led in honors with several other samples close behind.

In front, Howard Musolf and John Butterfield took most of the honors. The apple exhibit was the best ever shown, and all varieties had close competition.

A goodly number of vegetables were exhibited. Prominent among the winners we find Ralph Hopkins Howard and Tandy, Howard Musolf, Donald Clapp and John Clark.

A fine class of grains and poultry was shown and some very fine work was on display in the manual arts room.

In the evening the program was well attended. The Kindergarten band played two numbers, followed by the Girls' Glee club. Both were very good. The music was followed by a three-reel farm picture, Prof. McGee of the farms crop department of M. S.

PLYMOUTH SENDS LETTER TELLING OF APPRECIATION

Aid of Local Fire Department Did Much Says Manager

Members of the Northville fire department are greatly appreciative of a letter that has been received from A. J. Koenig, village manager of Plymouth, over the aid the local firemen gave Plymouth two weeks ago, when fire threatened one of the big industries of that place.

The letter says:

Plymouth, October 18, 1928
Chief of Fire Department,
Northville, Michigan.

I must take this opportunity to express to you and to your capable fire department the thanks and appreciation of the Village of Plymouth for the splendid assistance rendered us in conjunction with the brothers bid fire which we had to contend with last Friday afternoon. Because of the conditions existing at that time and place of fire, it is certain that it should have proven far more disastrous than was the case had it not been for the able assistance of the village of Northville fire. The assistance rendered, and the spirit in which it was given, are thoroughly appreciated by the Village of Plymouth, and we trust that you will think of us first whenever the opportunity offers to return this compliment. Any assistance or cooperation that the Village of Plymouth can at any time render the Village of Northville will be cheerfully furnished upon request.

Very truly yours,
A. J. KOENIG
Village Manager

BASKETBALL HIGHLY ATTENDED

About 8:30 last Friday evening the gymnasium of the high school was all lighted up with smiles and laughter. It was all ready for the forthcoming matches and there were more wealthy than poor, who was sure to attend the basketball girls' games. There are to understand that this was strictly a Scotch party, and at that everyone had a good time judging by the smiles of the patrons and the money by the girls' smile.

At 9:30 they called an intermission. At the end of the year he will no longer be here. He has been to see the games to the parents room to see the games that were to take place on the platform. Perhaps you think that the games were not unique, but those games were unique, and how funny they really were.

"I'll bet you can't guess." Most of the men teachers didn't, but one did bring a girl to the party and she had a rather expensive to import, but this one teacher is a carefree generous fellow, and was willing to share with someone.

About the next thing that happened was the punch bowl out. The girls had made enough to last all evening, but for some reason or other the junior high students were more inclined to drink.

ADVANCED SHORTHAND

STUDENTS TO WORK IN OFFICE

School patrons their money's worth, so they served it in great big glasses! The crowd around the punch bowl was so dense that it attracted the attention of the girls in charge, and they soon substituted small glasses for the large ones. The attendance on the punch bowl dropped some 50 degrees from then on.

The party broke up at 11:30, but everyone had done so much that they were tired and went happily home without a racket or damaging the orchestra. By the way the orchestra was good. I have a hazy idea that they enjoyed the dancers as much as the dancers enjoyed them.

Enough money was made to furnish the first team with new suits, so the party must have been a success for them.

GRADE NOTES

KINDERGARTEN

The Kindergarten, taught by Miss Cavell, are making plans for their Halloween drawings. One is a mask with eyes, nose and mouth either cut or drawn on black paper; at the sides are pieces of string.

Three pupils have moved away. They are Raymond Vickerman, June Trickey and Richard Barker.

FIRST GRADE

Mrs. Christ's section of the first grade has a new reading table. It is red with a dark top. This table is used when the pupils have to read or look at pictures. A new cupboard has been moved into their room, and all their material is to be put into it. Miss Christ would be glad if the mothers who have my old card table that wish to dispose of would contribute to the first grade's reading tables.

FIFTH GRADE

The five pupils who are studying French up to the subdivision of their teacher, Mrs. Dotter, are as follows: Mary J. Blyden, Leanne Lee, Bernadine Ferguson, Ida Altman and Tom McLaughlin.

Miss Eiden's section of the fifth grade have a collection of foreign money which includes coins from India, Persia, Sweden, Germany, Finland and Canada. Mr. Fred Lyke has a box with a glass cover so they can exhibit the money.

EDITORIAL

The Time Waster (By L. B.)

Wasting time is about the easiest thing the human race can do and do perfectly. It requires no effort, on the part of the you, who is throwing your time away carelessly, and you, really tire yourself because you haven't done anything that uses your brain or physical strength. And some still believe that they have accomplished a great deal in the way of getting their studies done.

Do you happen to know any of these people? If you don't, and wish to, just sit in the assembly room any period of the day, and you can pick them out as easy as you please. Then if you wish to find out just how these people act, show much they know and how much they think they know, sit with them or somewhere near them and listen to their silly chatter on subjects of trivial matters. Their minds are so busy with small matters that they are unable to cope with the more important, more interesting subjects of universal interest.

If they knew how many seconds, minutes, hours, weeks, etc., that the time they waste amounted to, no doubt they would be surprised into some kind of reform. But since the time is never recorded by them or anyone else, they never think of correcting themselves. Now this is a serious matter, and in some cases amounts to the same thing as a disease, and even a contagious one if that person associates with someone a good share of the time.

About the best way to avoid catching this time wasting disease is to keep away from such people. Let them be uncouth fools themselves, but please don't let them make a dance out of you. Use your common sense and I'm sure that your better self will keep you on the right path to a reward of a better mark and more respect from your teachers.

SCHOOL SENDS FAILURE SLIPS TO PARENTS

During the present six weeks period Mr. Gordon, superintendent, will send failure slips to the parents of the children who are doing failing work. Mr. Gordon believes that by doing so, he may have better understanding with the parents, and he may be able to tell them how to help their children to overcome their failing work.

Some parents have very faint ideas of the reason their children fail, but receiving these slips they will know that they must keep their children off the streets and help them a little in their home work.

Mr. Gordon sincerely hopes that by company that furnishes lights for the village has sent the village dads a bill for light in that street.

When Clerk Ambler read the bill at the meeting Tuesday night, Mayor Charles Fultons said he had never heard of the street.

Harry German, who is known to have chased baseballs on every lot in Northville, didn't know where Canal street could be found, and John Schultz, who was here when they laid most of the streets, doesn't know anything about Canal street.

The commission will probably turn the bill over to Chief of Police Safford, who will have him make a search for Canal street.

NORTHLVILLE PLAYS DEARBORN

IN 6-0 GAME SATURDAY

Northville high and Dearborn battled in a 6-0 game last Saturday morning on the fair ground field. Both teams had chances to score, but did not succeed in doing so.

Dearborn has the reputation of having a strong team and was expected to win as they had already downed Western and Eastern high schools of Detroit this season.

The Northville team was somewhat injured by having four 15-yard penalties, which helped to prevent Northville from scoring. Dearborn was also penalized 15 yards once, but the greatest fault of Dearborn was their fun-ning, but this cost them little as Wolfrom, tackle, and Huff, end, played fine games. Captain Leavenworth, hands served as shovels, and football jerseys served as sponges; a few of the teamsters washed their jerseys in the shower room.

Throughout the first half and most of the third quarter, Northville ran positions with much credit.

Then Leavenworth, Tiffins, Urlat, Hansen, L. E. Ziegler, and Tiffins, full back, played their positions on their own feet.

Purchase Site Along P. M.
To Start Operations
January First.

The following is taken from last week's issue of the Plymouth Mail: We are glad to announce this week that Plymouth is to have another industrial plant added to her list. The National Window Shade Company of Detroit and Minneapolis broke ground last Saturday for a new factory building on a site which they have purchased just north of the plant of the General Machine & Iron Works, Inc., and the Toledo division of the Pere Marquette Railroad.

The first unit of the new plant will be 50x40 feet, with a wing 10x40 feet, the whole to contain 15,000 square feet of floor space. The building will be of concrete and steel construction and will be modern in every particular, with ample space for offices, laboratory and work shop.

The company will manufacture the nationally known Hobas brand of window shade cloth, which finds a ready sale over the entire country. The company operates sales branches in Birmingham, Flint, Minneapolis, St. Paul and Detroit.

The owners of this new industry are Oscar A. and Fred W. Sabom. The Mail takes pleasure in welcoming these gentlemen to the industrial circles of Plymouth.

The bringing of this new industry to Plymouth was brought about through G. A. Bakewell, Plymouth industrial realtor. Mr. Bakewell has worked indefatigably upon this project and to his own personal efforts Plymouth is largely indebted for the bringing of this new industrial enterprise to the village. Mr. Bakewell is a go-getter and he is deserving of much credit for his efforts.

Roy Streng, general building contractor, has the contract for erecting the new building and he has a large force of men rushing the work to an early completion. Mr. Streng has erected a number of splendid homes in Plymouth and vicinity and his work has been highly satisfactory and he is to be congratulated in securing the contract to erect this modern factory building.

The General Machine & Iron Works, has the contract for the steel work. It is expected that the new plant will be ready to commence operations by the first of the year.

Open-kettle rendering of offal and blood from livestock slaughtered on the farm will solve the problem of disposal of these products and make them safe to feed to hogs. A 65-gallon caldron, or open-kettle cooker with a stove, can be used, and by boiling the fresh offal and blood for several hours, a wet "larding" can be obtained that can be fed directly to swine.

GOVERNORS OF MICHIGAN

JOSIAH W. BEGOLE

Some of the first houses built in Flint were erected by Josiah W. Begole, a New York man who left his home in the east to seek his fortune in this state. Born in 1814, he came to Michigan in 1836 after receiving good education in the east. There were only four or five houses in Flint when Begole arrived.

Soon after his arrival in the city he married and took up a farm near there. He cleared it and soon enjoyed the distinction of having one of the best farms around Flint.

He served as a township official seven years, and in 1838 he was elected county treasurer, holding that office for 10 years. He also served in Congress and as state senator. During his term in Congress he deserted the Republican cause and supported many Democratic measures.

In the election of 1832, he endorsed the governorship of both the Democratic and Greenback parties, defeating Jerome, who sought re-election, by a fair-sized vote.

At the time a forest fire swept over a large section of northern Michigan in 1831, Begole wrote to a local agent in the northern part of the state and told him that he could draw on his (Begole's) personal account until it was exhausted if necessary to relieve the fire sufferers. He refused a re-nomination, and died in Flint in 1895.

CHARTER FOR NEW CITY OF DEARBORN
NEARLY FINISHED

Voters Will Soon be Asked to Give Approval of Basic Law

According to members of the charter commission, the completed charter will be ready for the signature of the governor in about two weeks. It was decided that regular meetings held on Monday evening will be dispensed with hereafter, and a meeting held on Thursday night.

With the completion of the charter near at hand preparations are being made for its check by the attorney general and signatures by the governor. Then it will be submitted to the public for approval at a special election.

The committees appointed to designate the duties and powers of the historical commission submitted a report in pamphlet form. This was discussed and laid over until next week. Considerable discussion followed the reading of the chapter on general obligation bonds. The matter of the dedication of property to the city for public use, such as streets, etc., and of its subsequent taxation caused the greater part of the discussion. The situation, which has presented itself before the Dearborn commission lately relative to military avenue, was cited. It was the consensus of opinion that such property, or more particularly, property adjacent, should not be relieved of taxation, and this provision was voted down five to three.

Eastern Standard time will be the official time of the new city. This will correspond with the present time and that of Detroit.

The matter of the succession of government and the merging of the two cities was read in a special charter prepared by Attorney Austin. A lengthy discussion followed and it was finally decided that the attorneys for the commission were to meet in private and discuss this matter before submitting it to the commission next week.

The chapter as prepared provided for the carrying on to completion all work under way in Dearborn, Fordson and the township. It further provided that upon the acceptance of the charter by the voters and its certification by the secretary of state, the mayor will temporarily appoint officers to fill the positions until regular appointments are made. All officials will continue in office until the new system is installed and ready for use—Dearborn Press.

The importance of legumes in adding nitrogen to the soil is far greater than is commonly realized, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture. A two-ton crop of vetch, if turned under, will add more than 100 pounds of nitrogen to the soil. Vetch should be planted early enough so that the plants are well established and firmly rooted before winter begins. Delayed seeding is a frequent cause of failure in this crop.
