SHIRTS

A plain white broadcloth, silk or oxford weave shirt is sure to please. For some men, color, stripes and patterns may be more desirable.

LOUNCING ROBES

The man who takes pleasure in lolling leisurely at home will be elated with a luxurious silk lounging robe, or a bathrobe or house coat.

HOSIERY

Almost every man is playing golf, so a pair of all-wool golf stockings is first thought. Then there are silk sox, of course.

PAJAMAS

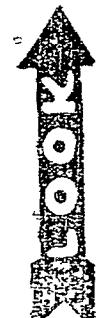

In the selection of pajamas, this sophisticated age permits taste to run riot in colors. Many bright colors and attractive patterns from which to choose.

The men enjoy buying their needs at this store. Isn't it then, the logical place to shop for the gifts to place under the Christmas tree for them? We shall be delighted to assist any woman in her selection of gifts for the men folk.

Man Can't Sleep Gets Nervous, Hates People

"I could no sleep and got so nervous I hated everybody. Since taking Viol, I can sleep 10 hours and feel full of pep all day." —Miss Bindel. For 30 years doctors have prescribed Viol because it contains important funeral elements of iron, calcium and cod liver oil. The very FIRST bottle brings sound sleep and a BIG appetite. Nervous, worn-out people are surprised how QUICKLY Viol gives new life and pep. Taste delicious. Northville Drug Company

These debaters of Northville, mysterious darts, competing police forces and a game will be sessions purchased by the Orange and the Purple. It turned cold last week. Is that seriously considered dropping Charles Meiningen out the back window? It would have been good for two columns at least.

Don't miss "Take My Advice." I have it from reliable information that it will knock the audience cold. Oh yes, I almost forgot, we have no school this Thursday or Friday.

DETROIT AMUSEMENTS

WYRWDNE

"The Golem's great laugh and whispering friends" is on another week at the Detective Theatre in its first engagement. The principle roles in this deliciously funny comedy are taken by Milian Sears, alternating with Madame Clara Clemens, and George Blackwood. Eight months at the Hudson theatre in New York gave this play a good send-off and it has won lasting applause throughout the country.

A young insurance broker marries a rich young widow. His friends suspect he is after her money and test his affections with a practical joke. The result is a mixture for all concerned, and a farce fit for the onlookers. Speed and meriment are important ingredients in this happy farce which is an outstanding "laughslide" and the best of theatrical fun.

An unusual attraction will be the first presentation on any stage of Dennis Skinner's new play "Dr. Seduced" in two more special Wednesday performances. It matinée and evening January 19. Eric Ward, Vera Allen and George Blackwood bear the leading roles. This is a stirring dramatic story of eastern occultism, the story of a great love and a great hate. The theme is as fascinating as it is timely, and the action is gripping and tense. This is a rare offering outside of New York and an unusual and compelling drama. It is being considered for New York production.

"Blossom Time" the highly popular and beautiful operetta based on the life and music of Franz Schubert will be at the Cass Theatre for another week, commencing next Sunday night. This celebrated musical play goes on and on year after year with unimpaired popularity and seems quite as attractive and as lovely this past week as it did when it first visited us six years ago.

The Shubert firm have very wisely given it an all-new and beautiful production this year and it is said that its present tour thus far has proved more successful on the road and in Chicago than most of the late and lavish modern musical productions. This seems to justify its managers in calling it "the immortal operetta" for it is a safe bet that "Blossom Time" will be popular just as "lively" as its producers keep its production up to the high standard that it manifested in this year's presentation, for as they while definitely about an individual and on certain points unique to it, yet, like a true classic, it can stand comparison with any other play of its period.

The Blue Sky Laws and The Securities Commission

WHEN the Michigan Blue Sky Law was enacted and the Securities Commission appointed, it was a step in the right direction. The Commission's work has been conscientious and commendable, and they have, no doubt, kept many fraudulent securities out of Michigan. By complying with the statutes and rules of the Commission permission may be granted to sell securities in this state.

This does not mean, however, that because permission is granted to sell a security that it is necessarily a desirable investment. The Commission states clearly that while they have passed on a security they do not recommend it. Bad management and many other things might later make a security worthless, even though passed on by the Commission.

Do not be misled by the glib stock salesman when he tells you that the Securities Commission recommends his stock. The chances are they do not. Come to this bank for information.
