YOUTH FOUND DEAD IN HIS CAR FROM GAS

Fred Thornton Victim of Monoxide Gas, Late Wednesday

Fred Thornton, 27-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Thornton, who resided with his parents between Northville and Farmington, was found dead in his automobile late Wednesday afternoon on the Ridge road part way between the Seven and Eight Mile roads by Miss Frances Crum, who lives at the corner of Eight Mile and Ridge roads.

His car stood in the middle of the road with the engine running when found by Miss Crum. She noticed that the young man sat apparently helpless in his car. She hurried to her home and called her brother, Charles, who notified Chief of Police William Safford of the condition.

When Chief Safford arrived the young man was dead. Everything indicated that he had been overcome by gas from the exhaust pipe.

The body was brought to the Schrader Undertaking parlor in Northville and the car removed to the Armstrong garage. As soon as it was found out who the young man was, the parents were notified.

They came to Northville immediately, both being nearly overcome by grief at the untimely death of their son.

Fred was born on the old Thornton homestead just north of Northville, and had always lived in this vicinity. Recently he had been working for a fire extinguisher company as salesman. He attended the Farmington schools and was in the twelfth grade when he quit to work with his father on the farm. This was at the time when the government was urging farmers to produce everything they could during the latter part of the war period. Later he was a student at the Michigan State College, taking the Michigan State College, taking

POSSESSES OLD NOVI TOWNSHIP ELECTION TICKET

There Was a Royal Battle for Offices Back in 1864

In 1864 election was a royal battle over in Novi township, like it was in northern communities. An evidence of the political fight put up in that township back in the closing days of the Civil War is in the possession of Leo Lawrence of Fairbank avenue.

The other day when looking through some old papers that came to him at the death of his father, one of the early political leaders of Wayne county, was a campaign ledger used over in Novi.

It was headed "Oakland County Michigan Novi For the Union."

Then came the campaign emblem of that year bearing the name of Lincoln & Johnson.

"No Compromise with Treason Rally round the flag, boys rally once again," was the slogan under the party emblem.

Henry H. Crapo was the candidate for governor on the Republican ticket. Ebenezer D. Grosvenor was candidate for secretary of state. James B. Power for state treasurer. John Owen for auditor general. Albert Williams for superintendent of public instruction. Oramel Hosford, for commissioner of state land office. Cyrus Hewitt for member of the state board of education. Witter J. Baster for associate justice of the supreme court to fill vacancy. Rowland E. Trowbridge was a candidate for Congress from that district. John G. Crawford was running for state senator. Abram Allen was a candidate for the legislature. Zephaniah E. Knight was running for probate judge over in Oakland county. John Hall was a candidate for sheriff. Henry Miller for county clerk and Jefferson Tindall for county treasurer.

STRONGLY FAVOR A-SCHOOL-NURSE

Members of the Parent-Teachers association held a meeting Thursday, February 14th, in the high school gymnasium. The speaker was Super George Smith of the Plymouth schools, who gave an interesting talk on the need of a school nurse and the benefits derived from the work of one.

After his talk a few minutes was given to the discussion of the subject. Wellington Roberts, a member of the school board, expressing his disapproval of the plan.

Some of the members of the association expressed themselves strongly in favor of the nurse and told of the advantages of this work in the schools.

An expression was taken as to the side of those present, and the same was favored by over 98 per cent. The present. One of the suggested the calling meeting to consider this

What Librarian Is Paid

In view of the question here has been some public discussion during the past few days pertaining to the salary of the librarian of the Northville Public Library, the Northville Record has been requested to publish the correct information on the subject.

The librarian, Mrs. Jennie Cousins, works three days a week. For the time she puts in she is paid 35 cents per hour.

During the course of the year the salary will average only between $300 and $400 per year.

The total income of the library is only $1200 per year. Out of this amount all new books must be purchased, the building must be heated, the subscription for all periodicals must be paid, in fact the entire expense of the library must be met out of the $1200.

GUY TAFT WINS PROMOTION WITH LIGGETT STORES

Former Northville Boy Will Manage Chicago District

William G. Taft, better known to his Northville friends as Guy Taft, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Taft, who for several years past has been district manager for the Liggett Drug stores in Michigan, has been transferred to Chicago where he will become district manager of the Liggett Drug stores in that city.

The change is an important promotion to the former local resident and carries with it a salary in keeping with the importance of the position.

Mr. Taft's rise in the Liggett organization is nothing less than remarkable. He started with the company at a salary of only $12 a week.

By attending to business and working when the other fellows were sparing it, he has won promotion after promotion until now he holds a most important place with the Liggett company.

He has been residing in Birmingham but will move to Chicago during the present week where he will take his future home.

ROTARY CLUB LADIES' NIGHT WELL ATTENDED

Washington's Birthday Party is One of Best Given by Club

Members of the Northville Rotary club and their ladies were entertained at a Washington's birthday party held Monday evening in the Prebyterian church parlor. Dr. Saley had charge of the affair and made it one of the most interesting parties that the club had held in a long time.

A brief program was held after the dinner and the entertainment was furnished by Northville talent as an appropriate address for the evening. Superintendent William H. Gordon of the high school gave a short talk on the life of George Washington. Music for the evening was furnished by Miss Joan Dokter of the high school, who rendered two whistling solos. Miss Isabelle Keeney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keeney, played two delightful piano numbers, and vocal selections were given by Miss Ida Rose Cavel and Wayne VashDyne.

The feature entertainment of the evening was presented by Dr. Saley when he announced that he had as his guest, Mr. McCandlish, cartoonist for the Detroit Free Press. After a brief talk the well known Northville artist passed the remainder of the evening by drawing portraits of various Rotarians and guests.

The program was one of the most successful and largest attended that the club has ever had. About fifty members and their wives and guests were present.

DWIGHT DAVIS IN NEW CORPORATION

An interesting brief history of the Northville W. C. T. U. was given a few days ago by Mrs. Bertha Kerr at the 50th jubilee anniversary of the organization held in Plymouth, where the first district was organized.

The next scheduled debate will be held in the local high school with Trenton Thursday night, February 28th. Members of the team are hoping that a large number of Northville students and supporters will be at the debate to help defeat the team.

Mrs. Hattie Greene, joined in January, 1888, and has been an active member all these years, but could not tell how long before that it was organized. I think in about 1879.

At that time the ladies owned a room in the building now owned by Mr. Alexander. It was furnished with an organ, one hundred Windsor chairs, a bookcase and other things.

"They met once a month and gave teas and socials to meet their expenses. Mrs. VanZile was president at that time."

"For some reason meetings were not held for some time, but in 1906 was reorganized by Mrs. Jenny Spencer of Detroit, with Mrs. Brock as president."

"The furniture and room was sold for $200."

"Meetings have been held continually since that time" in the homes of the members, always meeting their obligations to the state and district. We have 29 active members and twelve honorary members."

Fred Balden of Plainwell is the guest of his brother, A. C. Balden, a few days.

NORTHVILLE SUFFERS COLDEST WEATHER IN OVER SEVENTY YEARS

FIRST ROBIN ARRIVES

Here is the first robin story of the season.

Monday morning, at the hour when bankers and plasterers usually go to work, E. E. Warner, 343 Essex street, Northville, plastering contractor, started down town.

He turned his machine from his driveway into the boulevard, and just as he did, saw the first robin to visit Northville during the year 1929 flew across the street in front of his car and lit on a limb in front of the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Elly.

Monday was February 18th. Last year's first robin story appeared on February 27th.

Now, I know that spring is on the way, the robin sign is the only one I believe in. I never did take any stock in the groundhog business, but you can always depend on the robins," stated Mr. Warner.

He has spent the rest of the week in reading seed catalogues.

Mrs. George Rattenbury, 51, was the second person to report seeing a robin this week. She saw one out at the Rattenbury farm, Tuesday.

According to Mr. Warner, the thermometer is around 22 degrees below zero.

That is the official government weather conditions that existed in this section Wednesday morning of this week.

The coldest weather in 70 years—that is also government records.

Northville Carries Full
Page in Sunday Free Press Issue

A full page containing write-ups and numerous ads telling of the many advantages of Northville appeared in last Sunday's issue of the Detroit Free Press.

The write-up, which tells of the many advantages of the community follows:

"Studied about 20 miles from town directly on the highway in the vicinity of Northville, it provides a picture of the gateway to northeast Detroit. During the years of the dynamic growth of the Motor City, Northville has attracted hundreds of families who have built homes and shared in the general community life of the city."

"But just an hour's drive from the busier sections of downtown Detroit, Northville provides a welcome antidote to business worries. No city is an ideal place for the protection of heavy traffic here.

"Instead, a community of homes in which neighborly is a happy description. Many of the family heads are Detroit commuters, many Northville business men other retired farmers. They all enjoy the summer shade of the thickly wooded trees. They enjoy the winter sports that snowy hills provide far away from city confusion. They enjoy planning together an enthusiastic but constructive way the brilliant future of Northville is verifiable when mentioned in a group of neighbors."

The industrial section of Northville has an area of 1000 acres clean air and spring water that attracted 500 manufacturers to Northville one of Detroit's institutions controlled by the Detroit Department of Health, and the other privately owned and directed by DR. A. B. Wickham. Through the efforts of the Northville Exchange Club Northville has become a center of aviation. These members were responsible in gaining one of the finest airports in this part of the country. Major Laphier of Selfridge Field, William Maybury and Harry Graham, all well acquainted with the landing field, refer to it as one of the best that have been built in this region. The field covers more than 80 acres of land and provides four runways for planes. Now the City Exchange and Rotary Club members are looking forward to the entrance of a new airplane factory, either the Curtis Wright company or a competitor promoted by Detroit Orthopaedic Device.

There are two banks in Northville, one of which is the Lapham State bank. The Detroit Edison company has expressed its faith in the future of the city by agreeing a beautiful new building on Center street. The Globe Furniture and Manufacturing Company brings annually to Northville hundreds of visitors who come direct to the factory to purchase over-stuffed furniture.

Among the Northville advertisers on the page who made possible this excellent publicity for the city was the village officials, the Palace Meat Market, C.R. Horton Drug Store, Elmer Reid, Hoy, Vandeveer and Reid, Smith and Spurts for South Bend and South Western over the ice and snow by auto. This group met the boys in the Indiana city early in the morning and early for home the same day. But now comes the joke or not a joke as they may have taken if they stopped for gas down in a small village south of Sturgis not knowing of course that a hold-up had been made at the gas station the night before and that the entire town was looking for some desperadoes who made the getaway in a Studebaker sedan. When the Northville fellows drove up to the gas station the young man who had been hijacked was there together with his captor. As the boys got out of the car for the first greeting that reached them was from the fellow who had been robbed. Those are the guys, he said to the police and the officers thought they had the victim.

We can imagine the looks and feelings of our townsmen one hundred miles from home in a strange town at two o'clock in the morning and in front of two police officers and the third party telling them those are the guys.

Although our boys appreciated each other's innocence it made it still harder circumstances when the police asked again if the young fellow was cor-

A GOOD JOKE
YET NOT SO GOOD

Last Monday German & Son ordered four Studebaker cars from South Bend, Indiana, and the same were to be released Tuesday at the factory.

To do this quickly and save time Louis German rounded up H. F. Elmer Reid, Hoy, Vandeveer and Reid, Smith and Spurts for South Bend and South Western over the ice and snow by auto.

This group met the boys in the Indiana city early in the morning and early for home the same day. But now comes the joke or not a joke as they may have taken if they stopped for gas down in a small village south of Sturgis not knowing of course that a hold-up had been made at the gas station the night before and that the entire town was looking for some desperadoes who made the getaway in a Studebaker sedan.

When the Northville fellows drove up to the gas station the young man who had been hijacked was there together with his captor.

As the boys got out of the car the officers decided they had the wrong parties.

So the Northville boys just stayed and waited nearly an hour for the party to resemble room

burglars.

This was just another case of the "good guys" not caring and there is no doubt but some innocent parties today along with evidence given by some unsophisticated, ignorant or evicted person. Anyhow our boys are all back home and feel better than when they did last Tuesday morning at two o'clock down in northern Indiana.

EGGS ALMOST AS BIG AS LEMONS

Innocent or guilty, the auto drivers knew they could be held, put in jail and what not, especially after reading the Wood-Holt case of late, if they could not produce sufficient evidence to prove that they were harmless, good individuals, simply going late after autos.

And, for my to think if held in a jail house when in a hurry, also what bother for five to be telephoned their friends in the middle of the night their predicament in order to release on bonds, etc. Then comes the embarrassment of having to tell the relatives of the Lengs, Gertrude, Minnie, Reds, and Vanantes traveling to another state to visit the courted up innocent quartet.

At a half hour's questioning, searching thoroughly the season, not having any guns in their possession, and seeing four sets of dealers automobile parts in the car the officers decided they had the wrong parties.

So the Northville boys just stayed and waited nearly an hour for the party to resemble room

burglars.

A common cause of poor growth and immaturity in chicks is contaminated soil. To keep the chicks free from disease, do not let them run on land where old stock has been allowed to range. Chickens should never be housed on bare land, a good grass range is essential. Treat the land immediately in front of the brooder house with lime or acid

PUBLIC HEARING IS EXPECTED ON TAX ROBBER BILL

If House Passes Amusement Tax, Senate Expected to Kill It.

By Len Beighner

Michigan Press Association

Lansing Bureau

The first stiff enough controversy of the session developed Thursday afternoon in the House over the Amusement Tax bill, introduced by Speaker Ming and introduced by Rep. Shirley of Saginaw. It is the main method of raising the necessary money to finance the proposed rebuilding and rehabilitation plan for state institutions which is undoubtedly necessary. This proposed tax goes farther, however, in providing that a million dollars of the money raised each year shall go to the helping of the poorer school districts of the state. It would be a permanent tax unless repealed by some subsequent legislature. Under the bill a five cent tax would be levied on each ticket under one dollar and an extra nickel for each subsequent dollar or major fraction thereof. Ten cent admissions are exempt. The bill was considered in committee for the whole Thursday and was finally passed with some minor changes. A determined effort was made to exempt admissions under fifty cents, but in vain. The bill is now on general orders for consideration after February 19th and will then have to be voted on by the Senate if it passes the House. A public hearing is planned.

The ways and means committee of the House and the finance committee of the Senate have given much attention and time to the study of other methods of raising money and its committees are also giving grave consideration to various plans. The conservation committees think that there are as many ideas about changes in existing game and fish laws as there are people in the state who are at all interested. Petitions for and against delaying the opening of the fishing season for and against the proposed zoning system for and against a closed season on deer, for and against protection of ducks, and so on. to make everybody happy. A bill introduced by Rep. McBride would license and bond all milk and cream dealers.

Senator C. M. Howell has introduced a lengthy bill tightening the motor vehicle law, providing for physical and mental examination of applicants, making parents or guardians of minor drivers liable for all accidents, provides that drivers must be sufficiently familiar with the English language to be able to read warning signs, and licenses would be renewed every three years.

Senator Condon proposes a crime commission of seven members, two members of which shall be appointed from the House, two from the Senate and three others, to be a permanent commission without salaries to the legislature.

An appropriation of $750,000 was recommended for the rehabilitation of the soldiers' home at Grand Rapids, in a report made by a committee of representatives which recently visited the home. Deplorable conditions were described by the committee, which pleads for immediate action.

Senator Wood proposes a constitutional amendment providing for a bond issue of $24,000,000 for state institution rehabilitation. The bonding proposition, however, seems to be unpopular with many of the legislators, who prefer some method of financing under the "pay as you go" plan.

A proposed hearing on proposed capital punishment bills now pending in the Senate is booked for February 26th, as announced by Senator Condon, chairman of the Senate judiciary committee. The hearing will continue throughout the afternoon and evening.

Senator Skinner proposes a constitutional amendment providing for appointment of commissioners instead of electing them as at present.

Rep. John Espe has introduced a bill which would take over all state roads.

Rep. John D. Kestrel proposes to exempt farm tractors road rights.

Rep. Thompson introduced a bill Friday to license gas stations.

Rep. Alfonso Palmer introduced in the House a proposition for a crime commission of seven, to report to the 1931 legislature. This bill is somewhat similar to the one introduced in the Senate by Senator Condon.

A bill introduced by Rep. Claude H. Mulligan of Iron Mountain, would permit two or more counties to cooperate in establishment and maintenance of hospital infirmaries, to reduce expenses to the poorer counties of the state.

Senator Peter B. Benson is up again with his proposal for a tax on tobacco, cigars and cigarettes. He got out on a similar proposition in 1927, but he wants the state to have the five million he says such a tax would raise.

President of the four normal schools are asking for additional revenues to allow raising salaries of instructors. They claim they are unable to find good teachers at present prices.

Senator Broadhead has introduced bills which will permit trust companies to do a general banking business and making some other changes in the banking and trust company laws. This measure is said to have the support of State Banking Commissioner Reichart.

A public hearing was held Wednesday for the proposition of taking judges, of courts or record out of politics, making them appointive instead of elective, and giving them long terms or life tenure. This measure would require an amendment to the constitution.

The Espie anti-fireworks bill has passed the House by unanimous vote and is now in the Senate for consideration.

The Lennon bill requiring a court judgment before garnishment proceedings can be instituted passed the Senate by a vote of 26 to 5 and is now in committee in the House. A lot of opposition to the measure.

Give the range a chance to recuperate, says the Forest Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. An ideal pasture arrangement for livestock where the range is grazed the year round is to divide the range into two units, one for summer and the other for winter grazing, using smaller pasture for the poorest animals. Such a system provides good winter grazing for the herd and also allows part of the range to recover during the growing season each year.

REV. RICHARDS TELLS DELIGHTS OF SOUTHLAND

Northville Pastor Enjoying Few Days Among the Roses

The following interesting letter has been received by the Northville Record from Rev. William Richards, of the First Methodist church, who has been enjoying a couple of weeks in Florida, as the personal guest of T. G. Richardson.

February 14, 1929

It was certainly good to feel this warm air after the ice and snow of Michigan. I had a very comfortable journey down in the Royal Palm Deluxe, where T. G. treated me like a prince sharing his drawing room compartment. It is certainly convenient for those who wish privacy of accompanying the sick for the railroad to design such quarters. This was my first experience in such.

We arrived at Orlando's new station; Spanish in architecture, and you would imagine you were entering Madrid, the capital city of Spain. It is in the vicinity of Clermont, T. G.'s home, the most beautiful section of central Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simmons met us and the greeting I had was like a relative. It is good to have kind friends, if it fits.

I left the bus and arrived in the middle of the trees on the banks of the Indian River where Scottsmoor is located. I have been in a meditative mood all the time. I could not fail to make three sermons the first on the "Mountains," the second on coming to me as the cold weather changed me to their sun.

I will preach this sermon Sunday, February 24th, for Father and Son. You may mention this to you in the Sunday notes.

The other on "Seaweed," which is the other "Emblems of God's Presence."

The jungle life is extremely interesting. I never saw such a variety of birds, all colors, filling around in natural and virgin forest; among them storks when standing as tall as a man. The vegetation is marvelous. No hot-house collection compare with it. The snakes are sleepy; the poisonous blue incense, as well as the rattlers. Of course you will have to watch your step and keep close to your guide with his sword.

I met Mr. Moore here who is very good and fond of finding rare vegetation. With pig skin boots and over your knees, you are safe. Safer than an airplane landing or rather it feels so. Of course it is hot summer, you would not dare to risk travel as the snakes are out of hibernation.

The Clermont folks came to Scottsmoor and had a picnic dinner with me. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murphy - we certainly had a good time together an unforgettable few weeks ago. How things do come about!

F. G. thinks I have a fine prospect in this little place which providentially came to me for the future. A little bit of Heaven I hope when the church is through with me in old age. After a pleasant time spent together in picture taking, they left with the hope of seeing each other again, when the palm comes to the Michigander.

No one who can possibly afford it, in sickness or old age need to fear winter in this warmth or sunshine. Of course, if you remain in the cold where ailment is aggravated before you start south, you cannot expect the climate to work instantaneously, because it takes time for recuperation.

Now, I guess I have written enough so will close with best wishes, hoping to see all the end of this week.

WEST POINT PARK

February 22nd is our father and son banquet. The ladies are preparing a lovely dinner and the committee are arranging an unusual program. Dean Kirchbaum will be present. Mr. McKnight of Hudson school will deliver the address. There'll be a fun feast and service.

Miss Bernice Hudson was a guest of Mr. Merrill in Rochester over Sunday.

Jeanne Hinds of McLeod was a dinner guest of her grandfather and sister, Bernice, Tuesday.

A surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. Roger Whipple at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Millburn, Friday evening. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all present.

The other on "Seaweed," which is the other "Emblems of God's Presence."

The jungle life is extremely interesting. I never saw such a variety of birds, all colors, filling around in natural and virgin forest; among them storks when standing as tall as a man. The vegetation is marvelous. No hot-house collection compare with it. The snakes are sleepy; the poisonous blue incense, as well as the rattlers. Of course you will have to watch your step and keep close to your guide with his sword.

I met Mr. Moore here who is very good and fond of finding rare vegetation. With pig skin boots and over your knees, you are safe. Safer than an airplane landing or rather it feels so. Of course it is hot summer, you would not dare to risk travel as the snakes are out of hibernation.

The Clermont folks came to Scottsmoor and had a picnic dinner with me. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murphy - we certainly had a good time together an unforgettable few weeks ago. How things do come about!

F. G. thinks I have a fine prospect in this little place which providentially came to me for the future. A little bit of Heaven I hope when the church is through with me in old age. After a pleasant time spent together in picture taking, they left with the hope of seeing each other again, when the palm comes to the Michigander.

No one who can possibly afford it, in sickness or old age need to fear winter in this warmth or sunshine. Of course, if you remain in the cold where ailment is aggravated before you start south, you cannot expect the climate to work instantaneously, because it takes time for recuperation.

Now, I guess I have written enough so will close with best wishes, hoping to see all the end of this week.

INKSTER DOESN'T WANT TO BE VILLAGE

A petition signed by more than 500 persons has been filed with the state clerk of the Village of Inkster asking that the proposal to incorporate the incorporation of the village be submitted to the voters of the village. It is regular as special election. The petition was received by the council on January 28th, and the date for the special election has been set for March 14th.

It is understood that the petition bore 535 names and that 255 were found to be qualified electors. This is sufficient, it is understood, to bring the matter to a vote of the people.

The charter of the village requires a two-thirds majority vote to dissolve the incorporation. According to advice, the proposal was sponsored by residents of the eastern portion of the village. That portion of the village is in Dearborn township and the residents hope that this will open the way for annexation to the Greater City of Dearborn.

The regular primary election of the village will be held March 4th, and candidates must file their petitions with the clerk on or before February 15th.

A fitting period of several weeks is necessary for the farm work horse if he is to be in good condition for heavy spring work. Changes in kind and quality of feed and in amount of work should be made very gradually. Put the horse on a smaller ration of finer-quality hay early in the spring and start him on a light feed of grain three times daily.

TO 400 SUFFERERS

From Unnecessary Colds

We are not doctors, but we have expert medical opinion to back up our statement that most colds are caught at home!

Unevenly heated homes—a stuffy hot room here, a chilly room there—with colds as a result, are the penalty you pay for an inefficient heat system.

We are specialists in correcting heatingills. Pipe and boiler insulation; proper regulation; heat control devices; humidifying apparatus—these are the "remedies" which we prescribe for these home-caught "colds." Incidentally, we save you money, too.

Let us call and inspect your heating system—no obligation to you.
