ROTARY CLUB OBSERVES TWO ANNIVERSARIES

Birthday Program on Monday Noon Is One Of Great Excellence

Rotary's underlying principle of "Service Above Self," which has established its clubs in 66 countries of the world, took on new significance to Northville Rotarians and guests Monday at the luncheon meeting at the Presbyterian church house as the company observed a double birthday anniversary—the fifth of the local organization and the 26th of International Rotary.

With Father Jos. G. Schuler presiding in the absence of the president, Elton R. Eaton, a splendid program was given under the direction of Edward G. Langfield, R. H. Lapham, and W. C. Langfield. The program took the members back to the historic gathering of Feb. 23, 1926 when 400 men from several cities, both of the United States and Canada, gathered at the high school gymnasium for the presentation of the charter to the local club. Nineteen men were charter members, as follows: A. C. Balgdon, R. A. Brooks, J. W. Bramm, H. H. Burkart, F. J. Cochran, F. S. Harmon, F. S. Mills, E. A. Kemney, E. G. Langfield, D. H. Lapham, J. W. McClintock, John McCull, Wellington Roberts, M. F. Seiler, C. Schults, Father J. G. Schuler, F. Shafer, B. A. Stevens, and C. E. Thonison. During the last five years Mr. Thonison has made the remarkable record of having had a perfect attendance. He once drove 190 miles to "make up" at another club.

F. J. Cochran briefly told of the struggles that had been necessary to found the club and also to keep it going but said that it had been all worth while in service to the members and the community.

The secretary, C. E. VanAlkenburgh, was called upon to tell something of the accomplishments of Rotary here during the past five years. The biggest of these, he said, was the fine friendship that had been fostered and the feeling of loyalty to the community. The sponsoring of the high school band and the establishment of the park on Fairbrook avenue were achievements of lasting worth. With especial feeling, Mr. VanAlkenburgh told of the work that had been done for crippled children—an amazing story of help to sufferers which alone would justify the organization of Rotary. The secretary closed his speech by saying that, after all, there can be no more collective responsibility as a club, but that each individual member has his responsibility to the community and must measure up to it.

Ray Richardson, sergeant-at-arms, told something of the relief work that the club has done the past winter for boys and girls of the community. Here again was the story of a real contribution of service.

Mr. Langfield closed the meeting with a fine tribute to the work of International Rotary and also linked with this a glowing appreciation of the lives of Lincoln and Washington, whose birthdays make February immortal. Selections by the Rotary quartet—pronounced by Mr. Lapham as the finest group he had ever heard at any Rotary meeting, big or little—interspersed the program with selections. Members are: Don Yerkes, St. Leslie G. Lee, Percy Angove and C. R. Van Valkenburgh.

A birthday cake, in keeping with the big event, was part of the historic day.

MRS. CHILSON IS HOME

Mrs. Anna B. Chilson has returned from St. Petersburg, Fla., where she was accompanied by her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Judd Hammond. Of Nov. and spent the winter months in the south. Going down by motor through the middle route, stopping and returning the western route, they had a wonderful trip and saw much of the south. Mrs. Chilson says she is glad to be back home again and that while the Michigan friends were writing about the sunshine up here they were having cold rain down in Florida. While in the south she met old Northville friends, Mark Seeley and Beech Northrop who expect to return home in March.

C. W. HOLMES DIES

L. Bruce Holmes was called to Howland City last Thursday by the death of his father, C. W. Holmes, who has been in poor health for a number of years. Mr. Holmes was well known here having spent two winters at his son's home here. The funeral occurred Monday with interment in Eoward City. Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Holmes returned home Monday evening and it is expected that Mr. Holmes' mother will make an extended stay with them soon.

PETE SPAGNUOLO FIRST TO RAISE FLAG ON MONDAY

Not alone those who can trace their ancestry to the heroes of the American revolution are filled with a spirit of patriotism. Early Monday morning a ten-year old son of Italy gave evidence of the short time it takes to make a real American in this great "melting pot."

Young Peter Spagnuolo was the first to carry out the Stars and Stripes and raise them in the business district of Northville. A passer-by asked, "What's the flag for, Pete?" "Pete's black eyes snapped as he returned, "What for? Don't ya know? It's George Washington's birthday! Don't ya know?" And young Peter's flag led all the others in the line of flags that floated on our streets in honor of our first president.

Peter and his younger brother, Joe, are sons of Jas. Spagnuolo, who runs a fruit store here. He is proud of his two boys and of his 17-year-old daughter, Mariann, who takes the place of the mother who died a few years ago in caring for her little brothers.

WM. H. HUTTON WAS USEFUL CITIZEN HERE

William H. Hutton, who died at his home in Walled Lake last Thursday morning, February 19, was a native of this village, having been born May 16, 1861. He was the son of Lewis W. and Sarah L. Hutton, early pioneers of Northville.

His early education was received in the village school and his business training behind the counter of various stores in town.

In 1897 he was in the grocery business with his father under the firm name of L. W. Hutton & Son. Later he conducted the business alone after moving to the Big B's & Co.

In January 1908 Mr. Hutton became postmaster and held the office for five years. When Orin F. Guller became registrar of deeds in 1909 he appointed Mr. Hutton his chief deputy. This appointment was of several years duration.

Mr. Hutton next went with Walled Lake Bros. & Co. at Pontiac about 1913 and remained with them until his health ended his active career.

Mr. Hutton was identified with the Methodist church as official board member and superintendent of the Sunday school. At one time he was teacher of a bustling young married people's class named the Hutton Bible School.

Mr. Hutton was active politically in all matters of public interest and was especially fond of helping the G. A. R. in their early program.

The Masonic fraternity claimed his services as secretary for some time. The funeral services were held in the Methodist church at Walled Lake, Sunday afternoon and the interment was in Oakwood cemetery at Northville. Rev. Bert Ede was the pastor in charge and Rev. F. A. Blake of Dundee assisted.

Mr. Hutton is survived by Mrs. Hutton and three sons, Louis of Detroit, Percy of California and Charles at home.

EASTERN STAR BALL IS BRILLIANT EVENT

One of the outstanding brilliant social events of the season was the annual ball of the Eastern Star given at the high school auditorium on the evening of February 20. A large number of the order and their guests gathered at the gayly decorated hall. A veritable fairyland it seemed as the beautifully groomed dancers moved rhythmically to the strains of Jean Goldkette's orchestra. From the ceiling hung festoons of orange colored streamers with a large silver star hanging from the center. At the end of each streamer blue stars were hung on the wall and upon the whole lovely scene was thrown effectively a green spotlight.

All took part in the grand march led by Mrs. Harry Cassie and Norman Denny who conducted the long line of merry makers through various steps until the whole line broke into a gay fox trot. Dancing continued throughout the evening. Luncheon was served in the intervals between the dances.

Those having charge of the decorations of the hall were: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bloom, Mr. and Mrs. M. Teed, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wagenschutz, A. H. Vogtlin and Miss Margaret Murdoch.

The luncheon was in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hedge, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kohler and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Van Valkenburgh. A number of guests from nearby cities were present to enjoy with the local members this very successful social evening.

SESSIONS HOSPITAL

Frank Perkins has recovered from his illness with pneumonia and has returned to his home.

W. German of Walled Lake is a patient in the hospital suffering with a fractured hip following a fall.

Detroit Gathering Cuts Attendance At Exchange Club

The smallest gathering, 14 members, ever to sit at an Exchange Club meeting in Northville met Wednesday afternoon. The small number present was accounted for by the fact that quite a few Northville Exchange Club members had gone to Detroit to attend the luncheon given by the Detroit club in honor of visiting educators who are holding their annual convention there this week.

Because of the small attendance, no regular program was given, the members and two guests contenting themselves with a delightfully informal meal.

Indulging in a bit of history, one of the members told of the time when he had become lost and was obliged to ask for a police escort to direct him to the right road. He closed his story by remarking, "That is probably the only time that an Exchange Club member ever enjoyed the privilege of having a real police escort."

WOMEN MEET IN BASKETBALL GAMES

Tuning aside from the cares of home and school for a time, a group of matrons and school teachers renewed their youth on the basketball floor of the Methodist church house Monday evening. This time has been appointed to them for "ladies night" in the schedule of events for the week of activities and the small enthusiasm is manifested by these women who doff their dresses and don basket ball suits of motley variety and enter heartily into the fun.

Mr. Pearl Stark and Mrs. Florence Schultz are captains of the two opposing teams who met in friendly combat Monday evening. So fast and furious did they play that onlookers would never have guessed that these bloomed matrons and pedagogues were engaged in this glowing test. So well matched were the teams that at the end of the game the score stood 39-34 in favor of Mrs. Schultz' team. (Later on these ladies expect to adopt some appropriate names for their teams.)

The members of Mrs. Stark's team are: Mrs. Pearl Stark, captain; Mrs. Jennie A. Lapham, Mrs. Hensinger, Mrs. Edith Herrick, Mrs. Dora Lapham, Mrs. Virginia Smith, Mrs. Virginia Palmer, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Janette Vandenberg, Mrs. Mrs. Litsenberger and Mrs. Harriet Baldwin.

Those playing on Mrs. Fry's team are: Mrs. Maurine Fry, captain; Mrs. Edith Ackerman, Mrs. Rosella Lee, Mrs. Martha Koldyke, Mrs. Helen Leonardson, Mrs. Ruth Cole, Mrs. Ethel Lyke, Mrs. Dorothy McKinnier, Mrs. Florence Schultz, Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Ella Liebetown.

These teams will play again next Monday evening at 7:45.

MRS. DAVID COOK DIES AFTER LONG RESIDENCE HERE

Mrs. David Cook of 242 South Center street passed quietly away at 10 o'clock Monday evening, February 23, after an illness of but a few hours. Mrs. Cook having been about her usual duties earlier in the day.

Rachel Toole was born near Newmarket, Ont., on August 24, 1849, and was joined in marriage to David Cook of Lexington, Mich., Dec. 10, 1871. The couple took up their residence in Northville in 1883.

Two daughters and one son were born of the union; both daughters passed away many years ago.

She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband, David Cook, her son, Ward Cook, who is Superintendent of the U. S. Fishery Station at Duluth, Minn., two grandchildren, Mrs. Derrill Dunham of Warden and Mrs. Harry Clark of Salem and Bert Shafer of Oshkosh, Neb., two brothers, Alfred Toole of Toronto, William Toole of Northville, and one sister, Emma Toole, who for some years has made her home with Mrs. Cook.

As a Christian wife, mother and neighbor, Rachel Cook will long be remembered by those who knew and loved her. Her life was a splendid example, always maintaining the highest standards in her home even to the last. As a neighbor, no birth, illness, or death but received kindly assistance from her willing and capable hands.

Mrs. Cook's long and useful Christian life will be a source of great comfort to those who are left to mourn her loss.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon from the home in which she had lived so happily for over forty years. The interment was at Rural Hill.

ATTEND EXCHANGE CLUB LUNCHEON

Attending the Detroit Exchange Club's luncheon at the Book Cadillac hotel Wednesday noon were: Nelson C. Schrader, Sherill W. Ambler, Fred W. Lyke, Orlo G. Owen, Dr. E. B. Cavell and Superintendent of Northville schools, Thad J. Knapp.

The luncheon was held in honor of visiting educators from all over the country who are holding their annual convention in Detroit this week.

BELL CO. WILL SPEND $15,000 IN NORTHVILLE

Cable Additions Will Add To Efficiency of Telephone Plant Here

Considerable additions in the form of outside underground and aerial cables are being made to the telephone plant of the Northville exchange of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company, according to Roy E. Crowe, area manager. Several crews of telephone line men are engaged in tracing and splicing more than 23,000 feet of telephone cable of various sizes in the exchange, he says. The work will be completed about June 1. It is expected the new cable will replace many who are circuits and render the service practically immune from storm damage besides providing additional facilities for the installation of many new telephones, particularly in the southwest section of the village and along the Fishery road. Approximately $15,000 will be spent in completing the project, Mr. Crowe says.

ROY E. CROWE

During 1930, Manager Crowe says a telephone growth of 491 per cent was noted in the Northville exchange. On January 1, the total number of telephones in service was 898 compared with 556 January 1, 1930.

More than 2,500 telephone calls are made locally every twenty-four hours, in addition to what outgoing and incoming long distance calls reach a daily total of more than 600. The records indicate that long distance calls pass between Northville and points in all parts of the United States and Canada.

Twenty-seven direct long distance circuits connect the local central office with the rest of the world besides direct circuits to seven nearby communities and the Detroit long distance office. These are four direct circuits between Northville and Plymouth, three to Redford two to Farmington and one each to Ann Arbor, Milford and Walled Lake. Twelve circuits are required to carry the messages between Detroit and Northville, and three circuits terminate in the Detroit long distance office, the third largest long distance switching center in the world.

Over these three circuits are established Northville's long distance connections with other points in Michigan and other states, Canada, Europe, Africa, South America, Mexico, Cuba, Australia and ships at sea. Northville telephone use can be compared with any of more than 31,500,000 telephones in use of the world's six continents.

CANDIDATES FILE THEIR PETITIONS

Candidates for the office of president of Northville and also for positions on the village commission were busy yesterday and are still busy today filing petitions signifying their intention to run in the election which is to be held on Monday, March 9.

Mentioned as possible candidates for the office as president are Charles A. Dolph, Harry S. German and Conrad B. Langfield. Possible candidates for the offices of village commissioners are: Dr. L. W. Snow, Dr. Howard H. Burkart, Ross B. Dusenbury, Frank D. Butler, J. W. Perkins, Merrill S. Sweet, Ray Van Valkenburgh, Odis Tewsbury, and Roy B. Larkins.

Up to Thursday noon, only Charles A. Dolph and Odis Tewsbury had filed their petitions with Frederick Hedge, village clerk.

There has been much speculation in town as to the outcome of the election and it is almost a certainty that there will be a large number of voters turning out on election day.

CHIMNEY FIRE

A chimney fire in a house on Griswold street, just outside of town, was put out by the small fire truck yesterday morning.

Farmington Youths Seriously Injured As Car Is Wrecked

Three young men, Will and Henry Pauline and Lloyd Pearson of Farmington are in the receiving hospital at Redford following an accident which occurred while they were driving between Northville and Farmington. A tire evidently blew out and the car skidded on the pavement onto the soft shoulder, striking a pole and badly wrecking the machine. Will Pauline was most seriously hurt and his recovery is doubtful. Lloyd Pearson, a brother of Mrs. Ray-Baker sustained a fractured collar bone and cuts on the face. Henry Pauline escaped with no serious injury.

From the latest report, Thursday we learn that these three boys are still alive although the condition of Will Pauline is very serious. It is believed that his neck is broken and that he can not be taken until he can be moved.

Those who have seen the wrecked car wonder how the boys escaped in such a death.

EUGENE PALMER DIES AT THE UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL WEDNESDAY

As we go to press we learn of the death of Eugene Palmer of this village which occurred at the University Hospital, Ann Arbor, Wednesday. Mr. Palmer had been a resident of Northville for many years, having been employed in its factories during his mature years. At the time of his death he was under watch at the Edson building here.

Mr. Palmer was a man of fine principles and a good friend to his fellow citizens. He was an active member of the Baptist church and of the K. of P. lodge.

Suffering with sugar diabetes he had been a patient in the University hospital twice during the past few weeks. Mr. Palmer is survived by his wife, one brother Frank of Royal Oak and three sisters in New York.

TRINITY SHRINE DINNER

About 50 members and friends of Trinity Shrine No. 44, were entertained at the K. of P. hall, Thursday evening, February 26. Dinner was served at 6:30 and the evening was spent with cards and other games. This was the last social meeting before election of officers.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Harry S. German for President.

George Hicks for Commissioner.

I announce to the voters of the village that the charter and attorney general's word that Harry S. German is eligible to run again for president of Northville village.

Recently some petty and unreliable charges were placed against me after a number of days of solitary confinement on certain commissions, only 41 names were secured out of a possible 1,200 voters. The Commission members were to be the sole judges of my acts and not the people, therefore I was to be tried judged, sentenced and hung (to speak) by the accusers.

Under those conditions and for the betterment of the village I resigned and with me went George Hicks, a loyal supporter who preferred my company. Soon after public sentiment was so great that the balance of commissioners were practically forced to resign people believing that the disturbance in Council was shameful and that they blocked village progress when Hicks and I were trying hard to fulfill the wishes of the public.

The most severe charges placed were that the writer played cards and was in sympathy with various blind pig operators.

I hereby make the following affidavit:

I, Harry S. German, hereby solemnly swear under oath that I have never played a game of poker in any residence or other building in the Village of Northville; further, that I do not even know how to play said game. My pastime at cards is 500, baseball in summer and my pleasure as village president was to keep all pre-election promises, such as prejudice to none, loyalty to all, materially lowering of the taxes and keeping our village free of blind-pigs and other nuisances.

Signed,
Harry S. German.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, a notary public of Wayne county, Michigan, the 25th day of February, 1931.

CLAIR L. SMITH, Notary Public. My commission expires April 18, 1932—Wayne Co., Mich.

I may have failed to be a leader, but I defy any man to rule in such a council without trouble. Place yourself in my humiliated position, brought on by disloyalty, etc., would you not appeal to the voters for their support and good will to vindicate and exonerate you from an injustice that had been made? I have worked with a clear conscience and helped to give you, under a severe handicap, positively the lowest taxes in twenty years and still retain one of the cleanest villages in the State of Michigan.

(Paid adv't)
Harry S. German.

AD RUN IN 1888 STILL BRINGS BUSINESS TO GLOBE PLANT

An interesting incident illustrating the efficacy of advertising has been brought to the attention of the Record office by Charles A. Dolph, president of the Globe Furniture Company.

"Frequently," he says, "we receive orders from people who have picked up old issues of the newspaper containing our ads or who have filed away postal card circulars we have sent them. But the growing case on record is one that came up just recently."

A man in Massachusetts wanted a piece of furniture repaired and looking into the office files, he uncovered an old ad dated back to 1888. He sent us the part to be repaired, addressing the parcel to the Michigan School Searing Co., which was the former name of the Globe Furniture Company, and remarked on the fact that ads which ran 42 years ago are still bearing fruit.

S. L. BRADER'S CAR DAMAGED IN CRASH

While observing a traffic signal in Detroit Sunday afternoon S. L. Brader's car was struck and damaged in the rear by a careless driver.

Mr. Brader, with his wife and five-year-old daughter Natalie and Harry Thimmes in company, was on his way into Detroit to visit Mrs. Brader's mother Mrs. Bertha Simons of Edison avenue. Within two blocks of his destination Mr. Brader stopped at a signal light at a crossing and while waiting for the light to change was suddenly crashed into by an apparently drunken driver who admitted later that he was driving 20 miles an hour. With such speed the impact came that all were badly shaken up, those in the front seat being thrown against the back of the seat with such force as to break it. Fortunately no one was hurt seriously but the body of the car was badly jammed and the windows at the rear were broken.

The driver quickly made his escape in spite of the fact that his own car was much the worse for the collision with radiators smashed in, fenders smashed and one wheel broken. Turning a corner suddenly he was lost to sight. Undoubtedly Brader summoned a policeman who joined him in pursuit.

Although his damaged car, the guilty driver made his way on foot and ran into a strange apartment house where he asked for a room. Following his trail the police and Brader entered the house and found the man hiding. He was taken into custody and compelled to appear in court where Brader testified against him. He is at present in the city jail awaiting trial.

The rest for their visit was gone for the Braders after this unpleasant episode and then made their way homeward in their battered car.

Mr. Brader tells the Record that the loss on his car will be covered satisfactorily by the driver who caused the accident.

WOMAN'S CLUB NOTES

The meeting of the Northville Woman's club for February 20 was held in the library and was observed as the World Day of Prayer with Mrs. Wm. Richards, Mrs. W. P. Barbour and Mrs. H. Whitfield in charge of the program. A number of ladies of the several denominations assisted and Mrs. Grace Dolph acted as organist.

Members will please take note that this Friday, February 27, is the Annual Drama Day, and two one-act plays will be given by students of the Merrill School of Expression of Detroit. Mrs. Maurine Hammett Jones will sing. Each member is privileged to bring one guest.

On March 6 the club members will attend a luncheon at the Woman's League building in Ann Arbor, and the program originally planned for that day will be given on April 3. Tickets for the luncheon will be 75 cents and those wishing transportation will please notify Mrs. C. B. Benton, or any member of the program committee.

175 ARE PRESENT AT PRESBYTERIAN DINNER

The families of the Presbyterian church gathered in a large friendly group, 175 in number, for the first "family supper" at the new church house in Wednesday evening. It is planned to make these pleasant affairs occur each month.

After the beautiful supper a brief but interesting program was carried out. A violin trio played by Mr. Racz and his son, Ernest and Miss Marjorie Consins, with Mrs. Lapham accompanying was much enjoyed.

A pleasing number was sung by the Presbyterian quartet. All joined heartily in community singing and the program was concluded by significant remarks by the pastor, Rev. H. B. Whitfield.

DEPRESSION IS ONE CAUSE FOR DROP IN MILK

Increase in Number of Dairy Farmers Also Causes An Overproduction

The recent reduction in milk prices, local dairymen say, has been brought about by the twin factors of general business depression and the entrance into the dairy field of an increased number of Michigan farmers who have found it more lucrative than general farming.

"There has been a 25 per cent reduction," said Martin J. Koldyke, manager of the Red Rose Farm Dairy. "In the consumption of dairy products as a result of the business depression, and a 20 per cent increase in the amount of milk produced caused by the increased number of dairies in Michigan. The farmers of this state were particularly hard hit by the combined drought and depression and quite a large number of them have started dairies as a means of recouping a part of their lost fortunes."

"The Red Rose Dairy," says Koldyke, owned by W. J. Werre, Lloyd Morse, Danny and the Northville Creamery, owned by Roy R. Miller, all have cut their prices.

"People who have been accustomed to using two and three quarts of milk daily have been told to cut down to a quart and less a day. The same holds good for Werre and Morse dairies. Other dairy products such as butter, cheese, whipping cream and coffee cream.

The prices quoted on raw milk by the dairymen differ some $3.00 that they are able to get raw milk for $1.50 per hundred-weight but they have to add that this milk is usually the surplus milk that the farmer has left over after supplying his regular contract source.

For example, they say a farmer may have 300 pounds to sell every day. He sells 200 pounds at the regular Farm Organization price of $2.06 per hundred-weight to a large bakery or to some other contract source. He will still have a hundred-weight surplus which he must sell at any price he can get in order to feed it to the hogs. Furthermore, they maintain, frequently these contract sources will purchase their milk on only four or five days a week which leaves the farmers with a milk surplus surplus on their hands that they would ordinarily have.

The prices for the surplus milk vary all the way from ninety cents to a dollar and a half per hundred-weight.

Opinion is divided among dairymen as to how long the curtailed prices will remain in effect. Some predict that they will last until late in the summer when pasture shortage will boost the price up again. Others say that the milk surplus is only temporary and that when it is disposed of approximately around June the prices will again rise.

Meanwhile, milk enthusiasts and those lovers of dairy products are taking full advantage of the lowered prices to increase their daily consumption of milk.

"SONGSTERS" COMING TO BAPTIST CHURCH

Of interest to music lovers of the community is the announcement of the Northville Baptist church that they have scheduled an appearance of the "Songs-ters" on Thursday evening, March 5 at 8 o'clock.

The Songs-ters are a Detroit organization who have been, during the past year, making a great name for themselves in the radio and concert field. Their organization is composed of six members, five singers and an accompanist. Their concert is presented after the fashion of a regular radio broadcast with the master of ceremonies acting as announcer and their repertoire includes songs, old and new classical and otherwise. Be sure and save this date if you care to enjoy a musical evening. Everybody is invited to attend. A silver collection will be taken to defray minor expenses.

Following is the personnel of the Songs-ters:

Emma Crook-Arrowsmith, Soprano and Directress.
Nan Findlay, Alto. Charge of Songster entertainment.
George Hoke, Tenor. Librarian.
Bernard Blake, Baritone, Treasurer.

Harry Burdick, Bass, Publicity Manager.

Doris Weisby, Accompanist.

RETURN TO NORTHVILLE

Preferring Northville to Detroit as a place of residence Mr. and Mrs. John Martens have returned and are living on Dunlap street. Their daughter, Miss Lila Martens, will be welcomed by patrons of the Hammett Tea room where she made many friends when in their employ some time ago. She is again serving in her former place.

A NORTHVILLE ASSET

Probably you have thought about it and yet perhaps you don't appreciate this as much as you might. Northville has a wonderful asset in its fine drinking water. We think little about the things nearest at hand and need to be reminded that one of the greatest blessings of life is to be able to get health giving water when you want it—and lots of it. There are—or have been—some towns and cities in Michigan where the residents have to buy water to be sure to get the right kind. No such thing in Northville. The water is one hundred per cent right—on a par with the wonderful air we breathe in this fine locality.

HOME

Life brings its extremes—even in the homes in which we live. In our last town houses to rent were scarce—as they are here, in Northville—and there was little choice but to move into a big house with too much room for the editorial family. Now we come to Northville and Friend W. life says we want no more of big houses so we are glad to move into a cottage-like home, where the whole family has to be systematic to keep things in order.

What we be happy in the smaller home? Yes, we shall be, just as we were in the last big house. Home after all, is not the four walls around us, but the stuff inside the walls—the loyal family, the peace and joy of living together. "Big house" or "little," we find the content of life within our own hearts. It is nice to have all the material blessings of a well organized home, but don't ever get the idea that your ideal home is going to make you happy. It just won't do it.

Some day we want to build another house, and that's a fine thing for families to dream about—even though the day of moving into the new home is far off in the clouds. Probably it's cheaper right now to rent—if you can get the place to rent—than to own your own home. But after all, the man who can look around at his own vine and fig tree gets a thrill out of life that nothing else can equal. The home owner does something for himself and his wife and children that nothing else can bring.

EXIT BASEBALL

Over at Birmingham the other day the athletic authorities at Baldwin high school abolished baseball. Numbers of colleges have been giving the "Great American Game" its death knell the same way. Golf is taking the place of baseball.

The passing of school baseball will be sad news to the old time ball players to whom golf in the old days was a millionaire's game and unknown to the common run of humanity. There may be greater thrills in life than "one old cat" and in "choosing" forms of baseball but you will have to "show us." And there is still one place where baseball is going to die hard and that is out on the "sand lots" and at the country school where the stars got their start for the "big leagues."

If student baseball is in its dying days, how long will it be before the professional game will be extinct? That is a little different kind of a problem and league baseball may go on for some time—just so long as the packed-in thousands of the big cities have to take their sports second-hand.

SYMPATHY IS NEEDED

These are days during which we need to have a lot of sympathy for those who have lost their jobs, their money and their "luck." Some of the finest folks in Michigan have been hit by the depression and have hardly known which way to turn. The other day a farmer's wife came to a business man in the town where she traded (not Northville) and said: "I never did this before, but my pride is all gone and I must do it—can you let me have $1.50 so I can go into the store next door and get some groceries? We have no butter or bread in the house and I don't know what my husband is going to do." Just in passing we might say that drought—and not depression alone—did that. That is only one case of thousands and thousands in Michigan the past few months. Another man tells us: "A woman came to me—and I knew she had been putting up a brave battle alone but I didn't know that things could be so bad with her as she told me." And so on, and so on.

We can be grateful that the robins will soon sing again and that skies will brighten and these days of chastening for many will be over. In the meantime, if there is any way that any of us more fortunate can give a lift to the other fellow, now is the time to lift and to lift hard and often. There was never a better time to use the Golden Rule than right now.

GOOD LIGHTING PAYS

Skippy lighting in industrial plants lowers production, increases spoilage of materials and causes many accidents, according to Charles H. Weeks, labor commissioner of New Jersey, whose department has made an extensive study of the subject. Poor lighting also causes serious eye strain which further reduces the efficiency of the workers.

WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN

"Oft as he jogs along the winding way,
Occasion comes for every man to say,
'This way or that'—and as he chooses then,
So the journey ends, in night or day."

One of the thrills of our life was to cross the Continental Divide out in Yellowstone park a few years ago. To the right all the waters find their way eastward to the Atlantic while just a few feet to the left, all the little streams and the rivers say "Good bye" forever to the East and go on their way to find peace in the Pacific ocean. The little strip of land that says to the waters: "Go that way and this way," commands the destinies of mighty rivers that carry the commerce of the land and that water the fruitful prairies.

That is life. We all have a Continental Divide that shapes our careers, as we blindly try to find our way. Just the other day a young man of much promise said to us: "I was offered a position as a clerk in the navy, $100 a year and there were many things about it that were very alluring. But I decided to 'pass it up' and to go into business for myself." This man has stood on the Continental Divide of his life and has flung his fine future to the right. He cannot go both ways, no more than the rivers can go both east and west. Yet perhaps he will sometimes wonder what might have happened had he gone the other way.

To get very personal, we have been wondering just how it happened that we are here in Northville, the publisher of the home newspaper. We turned our backs on a good position as editor of a daily paper in Michigan to follow the Divide of life to California—and have never been sorry, though some folks shook their heads, failing to remember that it is a free man indeed who can turn his back voluntarily on a good thing. Then—pity by the Californians who had come to know us during a wonderful year in the Southland—we turned our backs on that "unique strip of God's empire" called California and came back "home" to Michigan. Yet sometimes we wonder what would have happened had we stayed in Alhambra and had we never left California.

Could you write this editorial you could tell of the decisions you have made and how you have wondered what the waters that flow east or west will bring you. It probably is for the best that our various destinies come to us pretty much as they do.

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

About The Soldiers' Bonus

If Congress listens to the "penny" junkies who are not being honest. These junkies want the United States to cancel the war debts to the Allied nations so that more commercial credits can be floated and more foreign trade built up. There is money in that for them.

But pay out a bonus and the money market will tighten to the point where further flotation of foreign loans will be more difficult.

We think and hope that western sentiment will hold sway and that the bonus is paid. The times have had their generous feeling from the American people and the world. But many of whom are in Detroit and there and now that a bonus is being paid for what not pay it out while the man is on his way to use it enjoy it. By 1945 a lot of them will be in the land and will be in the land.

We are quick to respond to American relief of a Japanese comic disaster but funds for American drought sufferers are slow to come in. And Washington (it is to laugh) wants to loan these drought suffering farmers some money. That's what all too many farmers now, whether they be in the drought area or not, they already have too much interest to pay.

We are for a little home charity. If we can consider canceling the war debts to help the starving and suffering millions of New York, we ought to be able to pay off a debt already contracted with the ex-soldiers and provide a few titles for the near famine areas of mid-west and south—Redford, Mich.

WHEAT IS GOOD FEED FOR FATTENING PIGS

Tight pigs which were started on a wheat ration at a weight of 36 1/2 pounds per animal and which were fed for 120 days, when the average weights were 188 1/2 pounds, paid $107 per bushel for the wheat which they ate in feeding trials conducted by the animal husbandry division at Michigan State College.

Eight similar pigs were fed an equal length of time on an identical ration except that corn was substituted for the wheat and the second lot of pigs gained a little more slowly than the wheat-fed lot. The cost per hundred weight of gains for the corn-fed lot was a little less than for those fed wheat but the price paid by the hogs for the wheat made them a much better market for this grain than the ordinary sales channels.

Both lots of pigs sold for eight cents a pound and the returns from each ration were computed on that basis.

Speedy Relief for Sore Throat

THIS DOCTOR'S PRESCRIPTION REQUIRES NO GARGLING

No longer is it necessary to gargle and choke with fast-acting medicine to relieve sore throat. Now you can get almost instant relief with one swallow of a doctor's famous prescription. This prescription was registered so often that the doctor who originally filed it decided to put it up under the name, Throatine and make it available to everyone.

The remarkable thing about Throatine is that it relieves almost instantly yet contains nothing harmful. It is pleasant tasting, and safe for the whole family and is guaranteed to relieve sore throat or cough in 15 minutes or money back. Put up ready for use in 50c and $1.00 bottles. Sold by Northville Drug Co. and all other good drug stores.

During the feeding period, the pigs consumed 4114 pounds of wheat and the other lot ate 4711 pounds of corn. The pigs on the wheat ration ate a little more than twice as much and gained a little more than twice as much weight as the other lot, but the difference was only a few pounds in each case.

Pigs receiving a wheat ration should get some form of protein supplement such as skim milk or tankage and this is more necessary with young pigs than older hogs which are being fattened.

THE SCARLET LETTER

ONE day when Nathaniel Hawthorne was discharging his duties as a clerk in the navy docks, he found a mysterious package about which was wrapped a piece of fine red cloth. Upon examination this cloth assumed the shape of the letter "A." Mr. Hawthorne said, "My eyes fastened themselves upon the old scarlet letter and would not be turned aside. There was some deep meaning in the mystic symbol; that the letter was not cloth but red hot iron." This explains how the Scarlet Letter happened to be written. "A romance, grown in my mind," wrote Mr. Hawthorne. He finished the novel in one year. It was published in 1850, the first edition consisting of five thousand volumes which were exhausted within a week. It is the best-known and most widely-read of all Mr. Hawthorne's works. The book is a study in the retributive workings of conscience.

According to the laws of the early Puritans a man who transgressed the marriage law was punished by death. Upon the woman was branded a scarlet letter. It happened upon this occasion that the judges were remote and distant with Hester Prynne and permitted her to substitute for the branding the wearing of a scarlet letter of cloth. Arthur Dimmesdale, refusing to confess his crime, felt something not unlike that pang of conscience expressed by Lady Macbeth: "What, will these hands be clean? All the perfumes of Arabia will not sweeten this little hand."

72% of all Chevrolets are still in use

During the past 20 years the American public has purchased 4,883,865 Chevrolet cars. Seventy-two per cent of these—3,511,651—are still in active service! Such a record demonstrates the soundness of Chevrolet's policy of building the very best car possible for the price. This policy has brought many important benefits to the buyers of low-priced cars, and these benefits find even fuller and finer expression in the Chevrolet Six of today.

NORTHVILLE CRUSHES DETROIT COUNTRY DAY

Northville beat Detroit Country Day school last Thursday 23-22. It started like the second team game, with Northville leading ten to one at the end of the first quarter, but the improvement of the Detroit School from there on was vast. Dusenbury, making most of his shots from the left of the basket made thirteen points. He has developed a very pretty shot. Riffenburg scored six points at right forward. In the last period the Detroit team brought the score up to 20-24. That was their nearest approach to our lead.

The game by quarters follows:

First quarter

Riffenburg made the first score of the game. Harris was fouled and missed his shot. Cavell made a nice long shot. Greenlee got the ball on the jump and passed it to Dusenbury who fouled it in. Greenlee fouled Harris who this time made his shot. Greenlee was fouled by Cavell, who passed it to Dusenbury from the left of the basket. He again made his shot. Dusenbury fouled Henderson, who missed his shot. Riffenburg dropped in a long shot, ending the quarter score, Northville 10, Detroit 1.

Second quarter

Johnson replaced Beach. Knudsen scored for Country Day. Moore went down fast and dropped one in. Dusenbury took another pass in the left corner of the floor and scored. Henderson scored. Riffenburg made a nice shot. Pagan scored. Cavell fouled Harris. Pagan fouled Dusenbury. He made one of two shots. The half ended score, Northville 17, Detroit 8.

Third quarter

Dusenbury fouled Moore who missed both shots. Moore was again fouled and this time made his shot. Beach fouled Moore who missed both of two shots. Pagan scored. Harris scored. Cavell fouled Harris and was put out on personals. Greenlee was fouled and made his shot. Score, Northville 20, Detroit 14.

Fourth quarter

Dusenbury scored and there was fouled and made his shot. Knudsen scored. Riffenburg fouled Moore who made the shot. Pagan made his third basket. Greenlee was fouled and scored. Johnson made a foul shot. Johnson made a pretty shot. Harris made the last score of the game.

Line-up

Northville	Det. Country Day
Riffenburg	R. F. Harris
Dusenbury	L. F. Henderson
Beach	C. Knudsen
Greenlee	R. G. Pagan
Johnson	L. G. Moore

Substitutions: Meininger for Riffenburg, Johnson for Beach, Beach for Johnson, Johnson for Cavell.

WE'RE PROUD OF OUR BAND

There are many things which make a school a progressive one. Of the many of these, one is its different musical showings.

Many schools are more interested in sports alone and neglect the musical end but Northville can be proud of being renowned in both fields. It is unusual for a school in a town of this size to have such a band as we have. Did you ever ask yourself, "How many other schools have a band like ours?" Did you ever feel "puffed up" about it? Well, you have a reason to feel that way. Its size, unity, progressiveness and genius are a part of the making of this fine organization.

The whole high school should turn out to the concerts and show the band how much we appreciate them.

Now for the big handclap!

NORTHVILLE SECOND TEAM DEFEATS COUNTRY DAY

The Northville second team won their game with the B team of Detroit Country Day school by five points. The quarters of the game were short. The final score was 12-7. The visitors made the first score of the game when Cainy bell fouled Martin. They did not score again, however until the fourth period. Campbell and Lemmon were in together nearly the whole game at forwards. Again better team work was shown. After the half, Northville ran its score up to ten before Country Day scored another point. Then they made two baskets and played with more spirit until the end of the game. They received a great number of foul shots but made only three of them. At the opening of the last period it appeared that the visitors might have a chance for victory yet, but this attack did not last long. The game appeared one-sided up to this point.

Line-up

Northville	Det. Country Day
Campbell	R. F. B. Martin
Lemmon	L. F. C. Burich
Robinson	C. C. Martin
Kohler	L. G. Meddaugh
Westfall	R. G. Vanderkoltz

Substitutions: Thompson for Lemmon, Lemmon for Thompson, Biery for Westfall, Beasley for Kohler.

"IT"

By Helen S. Strachan

"It wishes very horses, I beggars might ride."

All of us are more or less familiar with the old quotation, but few of us consider it of sufficient importance to spend much time pondering over its meaning. Most people are too busy occupied with what they consider the more important things of life to devote much thought to the "it" question.

And yet, could they but realize it, "it" has spelled defeat for countless numbers. If nothing so very terrible looking about it, there? But it is not the size of the word that counts, it's the meaning of it.

When we consider what might have been we sigh regretfully, and say, "If this had only been done, or, 'If I had been more careful."

The best way to avoid the "it" thoughts, is to make them unnecessary. Don't let your studies slide by four weeks, and then be regretful when report cards come out. Do your best every day and at the end of the marking period you will have the satisfaction of knowing that any mark which you received, you worked hard for. We can't all be brilliant in every thing. If our work were brilliant there would be no use for school. Strive hard for it, but if a B or a C or even an F falls to you, don't waste time by saying, "If this had been or 'If I had done that.' Do it next time. Whittier tells us that of all sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest are these that might have been. But we are also told, more hopefully, "Of all glad words of tongue or pen, the saddest are these I can't try again."

Adopt the latter slogan but don't depend too much on trying again. The old saying, "Try, try, again," is excellent, but there are some things that we can't try again. If we don't succeed in them at first then the proverbial "it" has us in its clutches.

MUSIC NOTES

Mr. Lee has offered a new harmony class which meets every Tuesday and Thursday, the eighth hour. This class consists of advanced students of music who are interested in learning the fundamentals of music.

The Girls Glee club have entered the state contest for Glee clubs. Northville entered as a Class "C" school because of the small enrollment. The district contest is to be held at Ypsilanti, April 24th and 25th. There are five district contests held throughout the state. The winners of the district contest will enter in the finals which are held at Lansing. The state sends out a list of fifteen songs from which two are chosen to be used in the contest. We wish the girls luck.

The following is the program to be given at West Point Park, March 5th.

1. Girl's Sextette
- "The Dove"
- "Pale Moon"
- "Bendemeer's Stream"
2. Violin Solo, Ernest Racz
3. Vocal Solo, Evelyn Ambler
- "The Lilac Tree"
4. Piano Solo, Richard Shipley
5. Vocal Duets, Gertrude Deal and Florence Johnson
6. Clarinet Quartet
7. Double Sextet
- "Linden Tree"
- "Love Dream"
- "Lovely Night"
8. Boy's Quartet
- "Let Me Call you Sweetheart"
- "Bells of St. Mary's"
- "Kentucky Babe"

It may be impossible for the Boy's Quartet to sing because of the Baskin Ball Tournament at Ypsilanti the same night. If so, the Rotary Quartet will sing. The Rotary Quartet consists of Roy Van Valkenburg, first tenor; Leslie Lee, second tenor; Percy Angove, baritone; Don Yerkes, bass.

CLASS PROJECTS

The students of the industrial geography class are drawing maps of the United States and placing on them the different products of the country. They include Iron, Coal and the different crops of the country.

THE TWO WHITE RATS

Two white rats are being experimented on by Miss Reinke's room. "Snow Flakes" is being fed the whole some food, while "Ruffy Eyes" is being fed the improper food.

"Snow Flakes" has gained over twice as much as "Ruffy Eyes." This experiment is a project in the hygiene.

the meeting of the National Educational Association.

Ruth Corey spent the week-end in Detroit.

Fourteen of our students enjoyed a very pleasant evening at the Prom given by the Senior class of Plymouth high school February 20th.

Miss Reinke visited her parents in Jonesville.

SENIOR WHO'S WHO

Each week a Who's Who article concerning members of the Senior class will be published. The members of the class will be published alphabetically.

The first to receive this honor will be Hazel Archbold.

Hazel was born near Dearborn in 1914. She attended school in Detroit grammar schools and her freshman and sophomore years were spent at Northwestern high. While there she had the honor of playing two years on the Field Hockey Team. She also, was a member of the staff of the "Colt," weekly publication of Northwestern high school.

Her Junior Year was spent at Plymouth where she was a member of the Girls Reserves.

Northville high school has the honor of having Hazel for a Senior and we hope that she has enjoyed her last year at good old Northville high.

Millions Relieve Indigestion This Way

At the first sign of heartburn, sour stomach and other forms of indigestion, millions of people take doses of Rexall Milk of Magnesia. Here's the proof: Each year more than one million bottles of Rexall Milk of Magnesia find their way into the homes of indigestion sufferers. The average family consists of five members. Therefore, it is logical to conclude that the number of people who benefit from the reliable anti-acid power of Rexall Milk of Magnesia amounts up into five or six millions. A number of Northville Scouts received merit awards at this time and three of the Plymouth boys received Eagle Scout badges.

The Record office is indebted to Chas. A. Blair for a number of items of news which are appreciated. Mr. Blair got into the habit of looking out for news when he was reporter of the Northville News many years ago when J. H. Yerkes published this newsy but quite unprofitable sheet in the location now occupied by the Whitehead Plumbing Co. At that time Northville consisted of two papers, The Record being then published by T. S. Neal.

SIMMONS BED
Design 1581
An extremely modern twin bed—charming in
design.
Price $72.75

The famous Slumber King does not sag. It cannot sag. Its construction prevents this—a flat surfaced spring made up of flexible strips of steel in unique non-sag construction that scientifically conforms to the weight of the body. And the price? The same everywhere—from California to Maine—$12. The biggest twelve dollars worth of spring ever manufactured, because Simmons knows how to build sleep equipment.

Now is the time to toss out that sagging, squeaking, comfortless old spring. Give yourself a new sleeping comfort, a Slumber King bed spring, for many nights of service in the years ahead. Because Slumber King will outwear three ordinary springs. We carry a full line of Simmons springs and mattresses.

The BEST Gray Hair Remedy is Home Made

To half pint of water add one ounce bay rum, a small box of Borax Compound, and one-fourth ounce of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. It will gradually darken streaked, faded or gray hair and make it soft and glossy. Borax will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.

Send out ten claims to us for examination and allowance.

Fenniman Allen Theatre Northville Mich. MOTION PICTURE PROGRAM

"THE DAWN TRAIL"
Daredevil riding, stirring action and thrills galore are seen in "The Dawn Trail," the Columbia western, which will appear at the Fenniman Allen theatre Sunday, March 1. Buck Jones, that famous screen cowboy, and his posse, Silver are great—their daring feats will be thoroughly appreciated. The story is built around a scam by a sheep-stealer in the Panhandle district of Texas, and the efforts of Larry Williams, county sheriff, to bring about peace between the two warring factions. Matters become complicated when Matt Denton, his best friend and the brother of his fiancée, shoots and kills one of the sheep-brothers. How the young sheriff succeeds in doling out justice and eventually bringing about peace, supplies plenty of action and a won-of-a-champion.

Here is a western that was produced with as much care as a dramatic vehicle. The supporting cast is great. Milton Seargeant, a pretty blonde and a capable little actress makes a charming heroine. Charles Morton does very nicely with the unsympathetic role of Matt Denton. Christy Cabanne directed.

"THE ROYAL BED"
Delightfully humorous, satirical, splendid dramatic plot!
Thrills are the refreshing elements in "The Royal Bed," which will be shown at the Fenniman Allen theatre Wednesday, March 4.

It is Lowell Sherman at the peak of his directorial art and at the height of his acting career. As the heepped-up king, dominated by his Queen, a pair splendidly played by Nance O'Neil and her displays his keen sense of humor, his nobility and his personality in a manner which eclipses his former efforts in "He Knew Women" and "The Playoff".

The story is a humorous adaptation from Robert E. Howard's stage success. It is laid in a mythical monarchy in the North Sea.

Robert Warwick returns to the screen as Prince Vladimir. Matt Astor is delightful and astonishingly beautiful as Princess Anne. The King's daughter.

Rent Insurance

Your Fire Insurance, if it is adequate in amount, gives you thorough protection against direct loss by fire.
But the man who owns the house he occupies has always needed an additional type of protection—which is now available to him under the name of "Rental Value Insurance".
This insurance pays you the rental value of your own home for use in renting temporary quarters in case your home is so damaged by fire that you are unable to occupy it.

Witich will show some new and interesting pictures of the Moody Bible Institute, the largest Bible school in the world. It is called the "West Point of Christian Education" says President Cook. The government of a country never gets ahead of the religion of a country. Our government rests upon religion. If American democracy is to remain the greatest hope of humanity, it must continue abundantly in the faith of the Bible.

It behooves us to say "Amen" to this prayer as for the future of our beloved country. We are convinced that lawlessness is abroad, especially in the large cities. What is being done about it? Mr. J. B. Witich, in presenting the four-reel motion picture at 7:45 of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, Ill. will reveal to this audience, what devoted Christian young men and women are doing to give that righteousness as a life of action.

Mr. Witich's explanation of the subject points and objectives of this unusual picture contribute to an evening of real value and enjoyment. It is indeed fortunate that this picture will be shown here, as the demand for its presentation is so great. Requests for its coming here are all in. The United States and the film is a really "booked" solid for many months. All in the community and surrounding country are cordially invited.

"HALF A CUP OF WATER is all I need to cook vegetables on my ELECTROCHEF* electric range"

"WATERLESS cooking is healthful for my family, and I use only a minimum of water with my ELECTROCHEF. The natural values of foods need not be reduced by the use of excess water in cooking meats and vegetables. Roasts cook to melting tenderness in their own juices in the ELECTROCHEF oven, and the nourishing values of vegetables are retained. I'm glad I was lucky enough to discover ELECTROCHEF electric cooking."

CASH PRICE $105 INSTALLED including all necessary wiring. $10 down, $6 a month, small carrying charge

*A study of one thousand families using the ELECTROCHEF electric range showed a cooking cost of less than one cent a meal a person

FORD COMFORT

Every new Ford is equipped with four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers

ONE of the fine things about driving the new Ford is the way it takes you over the miles without strain or fatigue. No matter how long the trip, you know it will bring you safely, quickly, comfortably to the journey's end.

The seats are generously wide, deeply cushioned and carefully designed to conform to the curves of the body. Every new Ford has specially designed springs and four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers. These work both ways — up and down. They absorb the force of road shocks and also provide a cushion against the rebound of the springs.

Other features that make the new Ford a value far above the price are the Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield, silent, fully enclosed four-wheel brakes, more than twenty ball and roller bearings, extensive use of fine steel forgings, aluminum pistons, chrome silicon alloy valves, torque-tube drive, Rustless Steel and unusual accuracy in manufacturing.

In addition, you save many dollars because of the low first cost of the new Ford, low cost of operation and up-keep, and low yearly depreciation.

25 Years Ago

Mrs. L. A. Babbitt and her mother, Mrs. Wade, visited in Wayne the first of last week.

Rev. and Mrs. Dimmock entertained Mrs. Dimmock's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lefurges of New Haven, Mich. over Sunday.

The Harmony Whist club members gave Mrs. Ada Ambler a pleasant surprise Monday afternoon in honor of her birthday, taking with them the materials for a delicious supper and a general good time.

Mrs. B. A. Wheeler entertained a party of ladies at 12 o'clock luncheon Wednesday.

Misses Lora Bristol and Bessie Brooks are visiting in Detroit. Miss Edith Bradish of Hudson is in town to attend the Clark-Johnson wedding tomorrow.

A surprise "granite shower" attended by nearly 50 of their friends was given Miss Clara Johnson Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Fred Carpenter. After the guests had assembled, Miss Clara was sent for and was presented with a whole tableful of useful gifts in behalf of the company by Mrs. J. B. Cook who "dropped into poetry" for the occasion. A dainty supper was served and a very pleasant social afternoon was enjoyed by all.

Attorney Clarence D. Clark will have his law office, which is at present at his residence on Dunlap street, in the Bovee building next to the Park House when it is finished.

Miss Margaret Thompson returned Monday from a several months stay in Denver, Colorado.

It is said that W. A. Barrett, who is one of the candidates for township treasurer this spring, among the names mentioned as possible candidates for the supervisors are D. E. Griswold, W. A. Barrett, Sigmund and W. T. Gunn.

HERBERT E. HOLLIS
LOSES HIS GARAGE
AND CAR IN FIRE

The totally destroyed garage and automobile of Herbert D. Hollis on B. Ave. last Saturday at 7 o'clock in the morning.

The fire was thought to have started from defective wiring on the car. The horn on the car sounded when the wires to which it was connected melted and crossed, awakening Hollis who called the fire department immediately. The firemen responded and within four minutes were at the scene of the blaze but the wooden structure was too far gone to be saved.

YOUTHFUL VANDALS

The finest boulevard lights in Detroit are being placed in Roseville Park. The work has been under way for several months, but if the vandalism keeps up it is difficult to say when the lights will begin functioning. All because of a group of youths, bent on playing an "antics" game of collecting the atoms like ends from the lights, some worth $1.50 each, some worth one evening's sleep. Vandalism never before has come to our attention in peace times. In the first place the outbreak shows a "lack of discipline and parental authority in the homes of these boys. The parents of these youths should be forced to reimburse the taxpayers for the loss and the boys should be placed under police probation for at least a year.—Record.

Robert Ames

Handsome Robert Ames of the films, stepped into the pictures from the stock company. He was born in Hartford, Conn., where he received his education. After several years on the stage he went to Hollywood where he has appeared with prominent players. He is five feet ten inches tall, weighs 160 pounds, has light brown hair and blue eyes.

For Meditation

By LEONARD A. BARRETT

LES MISERABLES

IN LES MISERABLES, Victor Hugo portrays the true meaning of life. The book is written for the purpose of answering the question "What is the such devil to our existence?" Here he comes to write the book is expressed in his own words. He says to portray in the form of a novel, his protest against the social injustices of his time. It was an age of the "creeping and crawling" and "slavery." Human labor was on a par with the beast of the field. Excessive taxation and high cost of living created a poverty that became a menace to the government. The poor man was at the mercy of a social system which knew no other sympathy nor concern. Against this condition, the soul of Victor Hugo sent itself with all the fire and passion of his nature. The book is perennial in value. It was published in 1862 and appeared at once in ten different languages. Even adverse critics agreed that Victor Hugo is "far and away the greatest artist in words that modern France has seen."

Jean Val Jean was a sailor's wife. One day he broke the glass of a baker's window and stole a loaf of warm-brown bread, which he gave to his sister to feed her seven hungry children. For this crime he spent nineteen years in prison. He left the prison with a dry eye and a withered heart for during all that time he had not shed a tear.

Failing to find work and with starvation staring him in the face, he shook his fist at the church. With this spirit in his heart he entered the home of the bishop who welcomed him as a brother. After supper, the bishop took a silver candlestick, he had another Jean Val Jean and showed him to his room. Jean Val Jean stole the candlestick that night. The next morning when soldiers led him to the bishop's house and made him a present of the silver he had stolen the night before.

Jean Val Jean started his day with a new heart. He became wealthy and generous and was elected mayor of the town. When dying, the light of the silver candlesticks fell upon him as his face looked toward heaven, for with those candlesticks the bishop had literally bought his soul. The book teaches us the lesson of the Power of Forgiveness.

"We are constantly told that we should try more and more to understand nature," said Mrs. Herbert Hoover at the floral show, "and the advice is good. It would be a boon to the home gardener, however, if the thing could be reversed and nature try to understand the amateur gardener once in a while."

"Why, several weeks ago I planted some bulbs and now I am quite sure the poor things think I buried them."

Emery paper dipped in turpentine and rubbed over steel will remove rust.

Three-cornered wire sink baskets make good receptacles for dusty and oily cloths in the cleaning closet, as they permit a circulation of air and reduce the danger of fire. They take up very little space in a small closet.

FATHERS AND SONS
BANQUET AT SALEM

The Salem Federated church held its annual Father and Son banquet in the church dining room, Thursday, February 19. The ladies of the church served a delightful two-course dinner to 140 men and their sons.

George Hemming of Seven Mile road was a brilliant toastmaster and introduced the several local numbers on the program in a most appropriate way. Music was furnished by a local orchestra directed by William Foreman and a stringed orchestra from Plymouth. Fred Rich gave a fine tenor solo and the church quartette rendered several selections.

Mr. Chas. Smith, himself, the father of eight fine boys, gave a toast to the sons and Walter Cruise, Jr., gave the toast to the dads. George Roberts was down for "Reminiscences."

The main speaker of the evening was Dr. Knudsen of the Salem Park Methodist church. Dr. Knudsen was an ideal after dinner speaker combining his wit and humor with a bit of pathos, sound thinking and timely advice in a way that held his audience interested until he finished.

SALEM NEWS

Ernest and Hazel Merritt spent the week-end at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Merritt.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Curtis entertained Mr. and Mrs. Glen Whitaker and family and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whitaker Saturday at their home for a fish dinner.

Glen Burham was on the sick list last Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bisner entertained Friday evening at West Base Line hotel. Mr. and Mrs. John C. Melow and Mrs. Ernest Revajala and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bauman and family. The guests played 500 and enjoyed a delightful lunch.

Mrs. Tall has been visiting the sister, Mrs. Elmer Marshall of Ypsilanti. She is home with Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Gerrish.

FATHER SCHULER
IS BEST BOWLER

Father Joseph J. Schuler has thus far been able to keep ahead in the matter of high scores at the 5th and 6th members of the Monday night bowling club. The regular members who have attended the first of every week all through the winter are: Thomas McCord, Frank Jentgen, John DeCoti, William Colbert, Father Schuler, Andrew Ludwig, Robert Nelson and Frank Morris.

Father Schuler's total score for six games Monday night was 940. His fellow bowlers now claim they will beat his record but so far they have not been able to accomplish that feat.

Father Schuler is of the opinion that from among the club members he can put out a team which will give any other Northville team, having bowling aspirations, a good battle.

WILL OPEN STORE

A new business place has opened in Northville. L. Stephens, well known here, having been proprietor of a fine fruit grocery for seven years at one time, has returned to the village and will open a variety store in the building owned by Mr. Catermole who has redecorated the entire interior and it will be attractively furnished for the display of the new goods. Mrs. Stephens will assist her husband in his place of business. The new store will be open for business Saturday March 3.

"OH YOU FEBRUARY"

The unreasonable February weather, with sunnier days, no snow and mild temperatures, continues. Wednesday and Thursday were like balmy April days. The big worry, however is that the lack of snow and rain will make the drought situation worse. Unless spring rains are heavy. Dust has been flying this week and if the calendar did not say February one would think April were here. The mild weather has been a blessing to those hit by the depression as fires have been run on a minimum of fuel.

ATTEND CONVENTION

Mr. and Mrs. A. Abrams returned Sunday from the International Council for the Education of Exceptional Children convention at Cleveland. They were there for four days, and attended the meetings at the Statler Hotel in that city. More than twelve teachers of the school attended the convention.
