MRS. MORRIS AND KREEGER WIN CONTEST

250 Attend The Northville Township Republican Caucus.

Close to 250 persons attended the Republican caucus of Northville township, held in the high school gym last Saturday afternoon, which was featured by the contests for township treasurer and for highway commissioner. Mrs. Morris and Herman C. Kreeger, candidates for the following offices: Highway Commissioner, treasurer, clerk, overseer, one position on the board of review, and four constables, were elected. The caucus was opened by the chairman of the township committee, Dean F. Griswold, assisted by William H. Safford, secretary of the committee. Four tellers were appointed: Edwin R. Perkins, L. R. Clark, Fred W. Lyke and Frank D. Butler.

The first contest for township treasurer was won by Mrs. Morris, who received 193 votes out of 193 being cast. There were two nominations for the office of township treasurer: Mrs. Morris (Helen) and Mrs. Kreeger. Mrs. Morris received 193 votes, and Mrs. Kreeger received 45 votes. Mrs. Morris held the office of treasurer for two years ago.

The contest for the nomination of highway commissioner was deemed second in importance only to the struggle for the nomination for treasurer. Candidates for the nomination as highway commissioner were Herman C. Kreeger, incumbent, and Leo J. Fawcett. Mr. Kreeger won the nomination by receiving 104 votes to his opponent's 59.

Dean F. Griswold, who presided over the caucus, was nominated for the office of justice of peace by a unanimous vote. There being no one to oppose him, Mr. Griswold was named for the office of township clerk by a unanimous vote. The rules of the caucus were suspended.

In the contest for overseer, Guy H. Martin received 99 votes and William Dismantel received 79 votes and six votes for constables.

Baylon A. Wheeler was elected to the board of review with only 40 votes, most of the voters having left as this office was brought up at the face of the meeting.

The four constables nominated were: Horace S. Green, Frank N. Perrill, The Fibbers and James Black. The crowd gathered early, about two o'clock at the village hall and then adjourned to the high school gym because of lack of space at the hall.

The township committee will have the same personnel for the coming year as it had for the past year. Members of this committee are: Mrs. Bertha Neal, Mrs. Mary Stewart, Mrs. Grace Dolph, Dean F. Griswold and Elton R. Eaton.

DORIS PETTYS GIVEN BIRTHDAY SURPRISE
Last evening Mrs. C. S. Pettys welcomed a group of fifteen members of the Junior Crusaders of the Baptist church at the Pettys county home west of Northville in honor of the tenth birthday of her daughter, Doris. The young folks were brought out by Quincy Carmon about five o'clock and the affair proved to be a complete surprise upon Doris. A beautiful supper was served to the hungry crowd by the hostess with a birthday cake with ten lighted candles as the final course. After supper the young folks played games. Miss Doris was the recipient of a number of tokens of the regard of her friends.

BRADER PLANS SALE
S. L. Brader's clothing store will offer a special 75c sale to be run on Saturday, Monday and Tuesday which will feature a shipment of new, low-cost merchandise that has just arrived.

The merchandise Mr. Brader says, consists of many $8 and $150 values, that will be in sale because the store appreciates the steady patronage of Northville people and because during these times people demand extraordinary values which are represented by the goods that will go on sale.

The store will be open weekdays to accommodate those who live far out in the country and who are unable to get into town during the day.

EXCHANGE CLUB MEMBERS DISCUSS FARM PROBLEM AT MEETING WEDNESDAY

M. J. Murphy, Orlow G. Owen, Carl R. Ely and Superintendent Thad J. Knapp Are Speakers At Interesting Session.

Little Chance Seen for Lower Railroad Freight Rates

A program of speeches, all relating to the existing agricultural situation, was given on Farmers' Day, Wednesday, March 11, before members of the Northville Exchange club. Speakers were: M. J. Murphy, Orlow G. Owen, Carl R. Ely and Superintendent Thad J. Knapp. The point presented by the speakers was that the low prices received by the farmers for their produce and the high freight rates they were forced to pay for transportation of the produce combined to make a formidable problem which as yet had not been solved.

Members of the club discussed the argument pro and con among themselves and reached the conclusion that, although freight rates are high, the railroads could not at this time afford to drop their transportation prices. The railroads, it was brought out, are a distinct asset to the country and if they are allowed to degenerate or be refused size, business in general would greatly suffer.

Rural Exchange clubs have suggestions to various of the larger clubs throughout the country urging them to see if it were not possible in some way to ask the interstate commerce board to reduce freight rates and thus afford the farmers some measure of relief.

The young table discussion was greatly enjoyed by all the members of the club and the general feeling prevailed that the problem had been made more clear and that the resultant discussion had greatly enriched the viewpoints of all who had attended.

NORTHVILLE GETS FINE FALL OF SNOW
After a deceptive start, March gathered momentum and brought a fine snowfall Saturday night and Sunday covering the ground and laid down a mantle of heavy white snow.

Farmers throughout Michigan and the Middle West in general accepted the snowfall as fully promising that it would supply much of the moisture deficiency brought about by last summer's drought.

Lake and a cove of seven men labored all day Sunday and up to four o'clock Monday morning clearing the snow from Northville streets. Mr. Lyke reports that the main roads leading out of Northville were kept in good condition by the county crew who had two large scrapers on them throughout the storm and after it had subsided.

N. C. SCHRADER SPEAKS AT FAIR MEET AT JACKSON
N. C. Schrader, president of the Northville Legion met Tuesday evening and held a lengthy and enjoyable meeting. The business of the assembly was largely taken up by a discussion concerning a banquet to be given some time in April to which a host of famous Michigan men will be invited. Legion men, when questioned concerning the event, stated that the plans had not been entirely completed but hinted that the celebration would be one that will long be remembered.

It is expected that arrangements for the banquet will be completed some time during the coming week and that an announcement will be made which will more fully describe the program.

The Lloyd Green post is known throughout the state as an extremely active organization and it is practicing the plan that if they undertake to open a banquet, it will be of such dimensions as to arouse state wide commendation.

Garald F. Taft Uses New Kind of Snow Plow to Clear 54 Miles in Northville and Novi Townships
After our snowless winter, Gerald F. Taft finally got his chance, Sunday and Monday, to use his new modern Ross snowplow—something new in the way of snow fighting equipment.

Mr. Taft has the contract with both Northville and Novi townships for snow removal on the township roads. Some time back he invested in a Ross plow, a machine that is built on a new plan for snow removal. This is constructed like a farm snow plow and instead of pushing the snow ahead, as the average plow does, it rolls it out to one side, after the manner of a plow on the soil. This machine cuts a track ten feet wide so that by going down one side of the road and back on the other, 20 feet of highway are cleared of snow. Everyone who has seen this Ross plow throw the snow to one side, right up to the fence, says that it does a beautiful piece of work—just like watching a

DEATH PENALTY DEBATE IS HELD TUESDAY NIGHT

Capital Punishment Advocates Lose At Presbyterian Church

In a debate before the Young Men's club of the Presbyterian church, Tuesday evening at the church house, capital punishment failed to pass by a mass vote of 11 to 9. The three judges' decision given by Don P. Carles, J. H. J. Todd, and Thomas W. Moss, favored the negative in the method of delivery and decided in favor of the affirmative in respect to subject matter presented.

The affirmative side of the question was presented by Wellington Roberts, Northville justice of peace, and Dr. William Johnson. The negative aspect was given by Berge E. Larsen and Dr. Brennan, psychiatrist at the Wayne County Training School.

The question debated was: "Resolved, that the capital punishment bill be made law in the state of Michigan." ME Roberts filed the opening speech in the debate by declaring that some individuals are walking on earth in the shape of human beings, but basically they are animals and have only the mentality of beasts. Such animals he would not regard as human beings.

Berge E. Larsen started the first part of the negative side of the debate by asserting that society must be preserved. He cited cases where innocent men were sentenced to death and later evidence reversed the decision. Capital punishment, he said, is a cruel and inhuman punishment.

Dr. Johnson of the affirmative, asked the negative to show a few evidences. Just because the law fails only on the poor, as no person that is no "good" that only means that it should be strengthened. He told of a case in which Michigan thugs had killed an officer in Detroit, fled to Canada, and a punishment was given when caught. He said that because they were afraid of the death penalty, he summed up the affirmative side by stating that the capital punishment bill was a definite deterrent of crime.

The negative closed the argument for the negative by bringing out evidence to prove that Michigan, Detroit in particular, as in the throes of an hysteria wave in which the people are desperately casting about for some means with which to combat crime.

The gangster lives in the midst of shot and shell all of the time and his life is always in danger, therefore what does he care for a hypothetical sentence that is several years away in his belief. The thing to do, he declared, is to inquire into the cause of crime instead of what to do after the crime had been committed.

Following the two minute rebuttals allowed each side, the judges retired from the room to give their decision and the negative discussed the debate and rendered their decision. The discrepancy between the verdict of the judges and that of the audience was accounted for by the fact that the sides taken were so evenly balanced.

SESSIONS HOSPITAL
A seven and one-half pound daughter, Barbara, was born at the Sessions Hospital Sunday night to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. J. Todd. Miss Dorothy Vaganschutz of Plymouth underwent an operation for appendicitis Monday and is making good recovery.

"TWO-TOWN" MAYOR
Jas. Smith of Plymouth had tonsils removed Tuesday. Mrs. Eva Russell underwent tonsillectomy at the Hospital Monday.

MR. AND MRS. BOYD ARE GIVEN SHOWER
A very pleasant social affair occurred last Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Boyd, Base Lane road, when a bridal shower was given to the newly wedded couple Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Boyd.

A large number of their friends were in Northville and from Detroit and Wyandotte gathered with material gifts and hearty good wishes for the young couple in their beginning a new home. Guests present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Gallagher, Mrs. Mary Moran, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Shafford, Mrs. and Jack Moran, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Shover, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Marlin, Miss Dolores Marlin and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kaiser of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Burton Snell of Wyandotte.

For genuine comfort and convenience are provided the shower bath, clothes chute and high ceilinged basement laundry equipped with stationary tub, electric water heater and built-in ironing board.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd wish them many years of happiness in their home. C. J. Bradshaw of Redford is the construction manager of this house.

HARRY S. GERMAN NAMED MAYOR OF NORTHVILLE

Former President of the Village Defeats Chas. A. Dolph by Majority of 111 Votes at Election Held on Monday.

Hicks, Snow, Burkart, Sweet and Dusenbury Also Elected

Succeeding in his fight for what he termed "vindication," Harry S. German won the presidency of the village of Northville by a vote of 531 to 420, a majority of 111 over Charles A. Dolph, his opponent. The special election was held on Monday, March 9, to elect a new commission and president of Northville.

Elected to the village commission were: George A. Hicks, Howard H. Burkart, Linwood W. Snow, for three year terms, and Ross G. Dusenbury, Merrill S. Sweet for one year terms. Those elected must qualify within five days and it is probably that the commission and the president will meet Monday for the first meeting and to take the oath of office.

Mr. German, when asked for a statement and that he was highly gratified by the results, but even more so over the fact that he now stands exonerated before the people of Northville. "It is a wonderful feeling," he said, "and a great source of pleasure to me to know that my many friends and supporters have come forward to aid me when I most needed them. I am personally acquainted with each member of the new commission and I know that they are all men of high caliber. I have every reason to predict that Northville stands on the threshold of a new and efficient administration."

This is as it should be since throughout the state, by reason of which, pro- and contra-given out Northville has been made to appear in a false light. "This is a great affair" that will soon be corrected.

Mr. German has spent most of his life in Northville and during the local high school and first going to work in the Northville State Savings Bank, when his grandfather, L. W. Simmons, was director and the bank was located on the north-west corner of Main and Center streets.

Known as the "oldest bank organization in the state when he was a boy," Mr. German spent much time in the bank of the smaller towns of lower Michigan. He has held many offices, most of which for two years, and another time he was Monroe County treasurer. After 24 years in banking, Mr. German entered the field of real estate and automobile selling, attaining a singular success. During all this time, Mr. German has pitched semi-professional baseball and during one period he pitched for the Toledo Bluebirds of the American Association. First last year he pitched 28 games during the summer season and won a majority of them.

The election results showed a fairly heavy vote cast, there being 951 counted votes, and approximately 75 votes less than were shown out because of improper balloting. Officials expressed surprise that since a heavy vote was cast in view of the fact that the day was so cold, the total number of votes cast last year was about 1100.

CAUCUS HIGHLIGHTS
A quiet orderly crowd—meeting old friends—Hicks Fred to Joe how to things—Candidates lined up in the dress room—our small billers—some are regularizing their opinions hand ballots to them—The candidates craved to get their own ballots—First approach looks a little sheepish and then they both laugh—Candidates included in the crowd—Two men walk whisper together and then one will say away—The crowd adjourns to the high school gym—Dean F. Griswold calls the meeting together. The crowd in the back of the room. Leader pleases. The candidates are introduced by friends. The tellers collect ballots and then count them. After the announcement the crowd buzzes with excited conversation. The young moves a long quietly and quickly. Finally the office is called. The crowd came forward to aid me when I needed them. I pledge myself to give the best of which I am capable in respect to cooperation with other members of the commission and with the president. We will give Northville a clean, orderly, efficient administration. (adv.) GEO. A. HICKS for the election—Monday April 6

C. L. Nash of M. S. C. Tells Rotarians and Farmer Guests That Better Times Seem Ahead
With a number of local farmers as guests, Northville Rotarians had the pleasure Monday noon of hearing the depression discussed from the angle of the agricultural situation. C. L. Nash of the extension section of the department of economics of the Michigan State college was the speaker and Ralph J. Carr of Dearborn, agricultural agent for Wayne county, was also present.

Fundamentally, the resources of the United States are as large as ever, but in the present situation, the desire for a high standard of living is as great as ever, therefore we can look for a slow return to normal conditions," concluded Mr. Carr after surveying the relation of agriculture to industry, viewed especially with regard to the depression, through which the country has been passing.

History repeats itself, stated the Michigan State college expert, in hard times that farmers have been experiencing will be followed in the course of a few months by a revival of business activity and of industrial life. A time of business advance usually, although not always, follows a period of low prices for farmers. This is one of the bright spots of the present situation, said Mr. Carr. One of the troubles of the farmers now is the inability of the "man in town" to produce farm products. With a return of business activity, the "man in town" will in turn be able to spend more and the farmers will see their prices rise.

In spite of all the "gloom" of the government and Mr. Carr the fact remains that due to federal aid and the price of wheat in the United States is from 25 to 30 cents higher than the world level.

Farther Jos G. Schuler was in charge of the luncheon hour and introduced the speaker of the day. Among the guests were: Ralph Pickard, Rev. H. H. Nash, Chas. Kreeger, James Turner, J. C. Durfee, Phillips Anderson, John Chapman, John Burdick, Ralph Gibson, Ross Dusenbury, Wellington Roberts, George Simmons, William Thornton, Wm. McIntosh, Rev. Harold G. Whitfield and Rev. Wm. Richards.

OVER-PLAYING PROHIBITION

The recent meeting of the National Education association at Detroit occasioned another demonstration of the way that some of the metropolitan daily papers over-play the matter of prohibition.

Less than ten minutes of the convention, according to a well known state educator, were given to the proposal of a New Jersey superintendent that the department of superintendents take action to condemn the 18th amendment. Yet, judging from the headlines of some of the papers the educators were going to have a pitched battle over the dry law. Of course the reason was obvious for the screaming headlines—it made a better story, to have the teachers get into a fight over the liquor issue—even though there was little ground for the sensational part of the write-up.

Prohibition as a live issue seems to be with us for awhile so it seems, but after all it gets tiresome to see the dry issue emphasized and over-emphasized beyond all reason. It would be a relief to see prohibition off the first page for awhile. Whether the metropolitan press knows it or not, there are a lot of other matters that people are concerned about—for example Northville has been having an election. In view of the fact that there is nothing we can do about prohibition right now, let's talk about something else for awhile—ways and means to buy a new house, whether or not the family needs a new car and so on.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

Michigan is going to do a lot of debating about capital punishment. Proponents of death for murderers will claim that this is the only way to stop the reign of criminals and racketeers; and certainly there ought to be some way to prevent the defiant lawlessness of a lot of the bandits and morons that are now dominating our big cities. Opponents of the death penalty will say that the state has no right to take a human life—and it must be admitted that capital punishment, by any means is a ghastly exhibit.

Frankly, however, no matter what happens to the capital punishment plan, something else will have to be done before the reign of the crooks, the degenerates, the morons, the gun toters and the murderers is over. That something is this: There will have to be brought about two things. First, a certainty that law breakers, of whatever degree, will face quick and sure trial. Second, a greater respect for law on the part of us all from the man who "runs the red light" when he thinks he can get away with it to the man who thinks he can rob the bank and never get found out.

We do not share the faith of many in the value of capital punishment as a deterrent of crime. The thing that is going to stop your cowardly bunch of crooks, hold-up men and rapers is the certainty staring them in the face that they are going to face a quick trial and that there will be an absolute certainty of some kind of punishment. When the criminal knows that there is no escape from the band of the law, then he will start reforming and not until. We have got to quit fooling with criminals and quit letting money make a fool of the law. When we get something of Canada, and England's quick treatment of criminals into our system then there will be some hope of putting an end to lawlessness.

RAISING A FAMILY ON $1,800 A YEAR

How to make the income reach out and cover the outgo is the problem of every Northville family, with probably few exceptions. "How to Raise a Family on $1,800 a Year" is the subject of an article in the Forum magazine for last December. Well, some of the folks who have been going through months without work, or with work on half time or less, could write some articles right from the heart on "How to Live on Ten Dollars a Week." Telling folks that they ought to budget their money when they have little or none to budget is adding insult to injury.

"Well how I do wish that I just had some of that $10 a day wages that I was getting, back after the war," said a young man to us the other day. "I was making that much every day, but my wife and I spent it all just as fast as it came. Now I wish I had some of it." The depression has been a sad and serious thing for many, but if there are lessons to be learned from the past months, certainly one of them is this: In times of plenty and of "easy money" it is the part of wisdom to plan for the rainy day. We have often said to young men: "If you will start now and save a dollar a week, every week or you will find you are fifty years old and of independence at the age of 30." The sad thing is that few set out to save a dollar a week until it is too late to start, and after life becomes a battle to keep even.

But to come back to the magazine article. The way to raise a family on whatever income you have is to have the courage to face the standard of living that your income calls for, and then rigidly and religiously keep to that standard. You will get your own respect and that of your neighbors. And as a matter of fact, saving money is just as hard for the man with a big salary as it is for the one with a small one. If you can't save on a small one (unless it is too small) you can't on a big one. Every salary calls for something that the lower one doesn't. Small wages or big, will power and lots of it, is necessary to become a saver. You have to "boss" the money and not let it rule you.

SHOWING OFF THE FLOWERS

Twenty-five years ago you couldn't have gone to one; now you can go to Detroit, pay 50 cents and see it—a Flower Show.

Just about a year ago we happened to be at Detroit and "took in" the Flower Show at Convention hall. Maybe it was foolish to feel that way about it but it gave us more thrills than the auto show, and we said: "Well I hope the rest of the family can see this next year, if we are anywhere around Detroit." Now here we are near Detroit and a strange thing happens: A good friend brings us in two tickets for the 1931 Flower Show. The dates are March 14 to 22 and that ought to be time enough for anyone to get to see this wonderful display.

Flowers don't cost much—when you can raise them yourself—so make 1931 the year when you find a new thrill in life raising "posies."

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

CORRUPT OFFICIALS
(By Rae Corlis in Palma News)

Al Capone estimates that the annual liquor bill in the United States is $8,000,000,000 and that six billion goes for corrupting officials, according to a statement made by Albert H. Frank, chairman of the Chicago Civil Safety Committee. And "Scarface" Al is supposed to be in a position to know something about the subject.

As we interpret the statement Americans are drinking two billion of dollars' worth of liquor under a prohibition regime and public officials are pocketing six billion of dollars to overlook the fact. If this is true it is a terrible indictment against American civilization.

It has always been possible to bribe public officials, and it may be many more years before corruption in office has been done away with entirely. And though the totals of hush money may now be on a larger scale than a generation ago, we don't believe there is as much actual corruption now as we have in the past. Figures on the liquor bill at hand. But liquor has always been lawless. In the days of the legalized alcohol bootlegging went on under a large scale. The profession is not new with the adoption of the Volstead Act.

MASONRY'S DARK DAYS
(From The Iowa County News)

Viewing the present prosperity and popularity of Free-Masonry it is difficult to realize that in America 100 years ago the order was almost unmentioned because of popular sentiment against it.

The fierce opposition to Masonry in that day was caused by the disappearance of one William Morgan, who had published what purported to be a revelation of the Masonic secrets. Morgan was never heard from after being spirited away from Canadigua, N. Y. in September, 1826, presumably by over-zealous Masons without authority or approval of the true responsible members of the order. His real fate is unknown.

Although the "arrests" brand and subordinate lodges generally condemned Morgan's abduction and offered rewards for the perpetrators of the outrage, public sentiment was shifted against all Masons by politicians who took advantage of the situation for their own benefit. Several Masons were convicted of complicity in the abduction of Morgan and served jail sentences while others were acquitted. There was formed a strong anti-Masonic movement which spread rapidly. Mass meetings were held and resolutions denouncing all Masons were passed. Churches required pastors and members to renounce Masonry under pain of expulsion, and every conceivable means was employed to crush the order and nearly succeeded, as most of the Masons abandoned their lodges to escape persecution.

This anti-Masonic crusade, continued for nearly 20 years but gradually abated and from 1847 on Masonry revived and again began to spread rapidly. Since then it has become one of the most powerful and beneficent influences in America enjoying practically universal respect and esteem.

HOW FICKLE WE ARE

Jack Dempsey spent last week in Michigan reflecting on his career in a half-dozen towns. Big posters in this section told of his "victorious" engagement Saturday night. Ten years ago he was heralded as our peak slacker.

Over at Lansing the other night Dempsey, probably spilt the box office receipts for the capacity crowd his presence drew for the Veterans of Foreign Wars boxing show. The presidents of the six best-known colleges in New England would have been lucky to have filled the same auditorium at half the charge made by Dempsey. So, day this country will wake up to the fact that we have been putting the emphasis on the cheap and vapory things of life. Dempsey's triumphal march through Michigan is a perfect illustration of "character" building calls for a little more substance. But what we started out to say concerned this shift of opinion towards Dempsey since the time of his "Basin" lesson, however today's lap may be tomorrow's meal ticket.—Charlotte Republican

INCOME TAX TROUBLES
Millions of people who have to pay an income tax with dread on the annual job of making out these returns. They know the penalties imposed for failure to file returns on time and are fearful that they will make something that will get them into trouble. There is no reason for fear, if they try to be fair and honest.

Some returns are so complicated that it takes a tax expert to make them out. Even then, the taxpayer's agent may differ with the government as to certain items. It may take months or years to get a decision in doubtful cases.

The taxpayers of Michigan hope that everything possible will be done to simplify the law, so that there will not be so many of these difficult questions. But it is not an easy matter to get up a law, or codes of instructions that will cover all of the thousands of cases and situations that arise in handling money for a rent.

Bonus for the great majority of people should be a simple matter. It ought to be possible for persons of ordinary intelligence to make out a return and get it somewhere near right. It seems a kind of needless imposition on people, if they have to spend $25 worth of time and money to ascertain that they are subject to a $250 tax.

One reason why so many people have trouble with their tax returns is that they keep amperage records of their money matters. They should consider throughout the year up any transaction they need a record of that document. Such records and all documents relating to such matters, should be kept well organized, so that when they come to them easily. With such preparation it should not take much time or tearing of hair to make out a return that will satisfy the government.—Royal Oak Tribune

WHO IS TO BLAME?

Out little city was much shocked Monday evening by the suicide of Walter Platoon, a fellow business man who was quite generally popular. Drunk had a grip on Walter past his powers to control. He told well realized that it was becoming his undoing. He made a resolve after resolve. But it is reported that his "friends" would even bring liquor to his store for him and the temptation was too strong.

If every one had full control of his appetites and desires, we would never have had the eighteenth or any of the ten commandments. It is not uncommon for any one to develop an excessive liking for some one thing which exceeds his or her best judgment. It is only in such serious kinds of indulgence that the law steps in and tries to legislate to help those who have no control. And remember this, if matters not whether we have complete control or not we must conform to such rules and restrictions as will make it possible for ALL OF US to live together. These present serious problems and in some cases disagreeable restrictions are found necessary for the general good. But are we not mighty poor examples of humanity when we are unwilling to lend our aid and example to a cause which means much to general welfare? What did we go to war for? For what we regard a cause for the general good of humanity and nothing else?

So, then we come back to the first proposition—the man crazed with stuff which he is morally trying to leave alone but cannot because his "friends" continue to help him to it—is he alone responsible when in this brain-fried condition he does such a rash thing as to commit suicide, or are those who

Consider what you get for what you pay

Today, especially, it is wise to consider carefully just what you get for every dollar you pay. Be certain that the automobile you buy represents the latest standard of motor car value. Quality never cost less than it does in the new Chevrolet Six. And in the long run, quality makes a big difference in the satisfaction you get out of the money you spend for an automobile.

NOTE TO TAXPAYERS ON TEACHERS' SALARIES

We hear some people urging a cut in the pay of teachers. There are a number of reasonable arguments on both sides of this question. Here are two points that are not always considered.

Many of our citizens have greatly diminished incomes at present. This may be due to the fact that they have no employment, or it may be because they have not as much business as usual. Another possible cause may be that they are unable to collect rents of other money due them, or that their property is not paying as well as commonly.

The situation is quite different with school business. Teachers have work and plenty of it. They are just as busy as ever, and their work is just as important. Their past investment is real and their present expenditure of effort must be just as heavy and consistent as ever.

On the other hand, if living expenses for teachers have perceptibly decreased, a similar decrease in nominal income would not mean an actual loss.

SENIOR WHO'S WHO

The two members of the Senior class who receive Who's Who this week are: Velma Blake and Mabel Bryan.

Velma Blake was born in Detroit, December 14, 1913. The first four years in grade school were spent at Sand Lake school. The remaining grades and high school career were spent at Northville. During her high school years she has taken a double course, Commercial and Academic.

She has been a member of the Girls' Glee Club and the High School Chorus. Velma has been one of the enthusiastic workers of the Senior Class in earning money for the proposed Washington trip. She is due much credit for her earnest efforts.

Mabel Bryan was born in Charlotte, Michigan, March 25, 1913. She attended Farmington school her first six years while at Farmington she was in the cast of the Junior Play.

The remaining two years of her grade school career were spent at Northville, as well as her four years in high school.

Mable has been one of the active members of the class all through high school.

She has taken a Commercial course and plans to follow that line of work.

ENGLISH STUDENTS TO WRITE LONG THEMES

Mrs. Chapman has announced to the English Literature students that they are to be required to write long themes. These themes, which will be due May 18, are to be on any subject related to English Literature. The articles are to contain at least a thousand words.

Mrs. Chapman told the classes that the main reason for writing these themes is to give students practice in organizing their material. In college very lengthy articles are required and it is hoped that the practice gained in high school will benefit the students later on.

GRADE CAMP FIRE NOTES

Marjorie Chase and Mary Jane Gregory went to Detroit to the Counsel of Awards. Both passed Wood Gathener's Rank. Marjorie Chase passed with special mention.

SEWING CLASS HAS INTERESTING STYLE SHOW

The pleasing results of weeks of toil with a needle and thread were shown by seventeen senior girls of Mrs. Zimmerman's sewing class on Tuesday afternoon, February 24, when they gave a style show in the high school auditorium. Between 75 and 100 people witnessed this colorful event.

The event was as follows: First, Hester Keller made her appearance in a black figured crepe; Velma Blake wore a black satin with cream lace yoke and a belt with rhinestone buckle; Mary Ellen Harbour's dress was of dark blue crepe with a white cow-tone collar; Hazel Cordukes wore a two-tone dress, the top being of light tan and the skirt of brown figured material; Mary Modas had on a red dress; Miriam Richards wore a purple dress with short sleeves; Edith Clark wore a green figured dress with an egg-shell colored collar; Eleanor Westphal wore black crepe with pleats, the collar was of white; Jessa Bell Cross made a blue Challis, and displayed it at the show; Florence Basko wore a lavender crepe; Odette Fosgate wore a blue crepe with white lace collar; Margaret Norton wore a dark red tunic with pleated skirt and the sleeves, from the elbow to the wrist were full with conventional embroidery; Hazel Archbold wore a green dress; Jay Thompson wore a green and white striped dress; Cassie wore a green figured crepe with cream colored collar.

After the style show, tea was served to about sixty guests in the cafeteria at which Mrs. Ray presided. The table was prettily decorated with tallman roses and white lilies.

The tea was given by the 9th grade sewing class.

KRAZY COLUMN

Some students have been roller skating to school lately. This reckless pastime, should be forbidden. When these daring youths add wings to their feet they are placing themselves and those nearby under unnecessary danger. Only last week one of these young daredevils sprained an ankle when one of the bearings of the wheels of his skate while he was performing difficult turns before a hysterical audience.

The dignity of the English Lit students was dealt a severe blow when, after studying Addison, Pope, Dryden and other great writers, the pious and devout construction books were dragged out. Embarrassed students were excitedly trying to distinguish compound and simple sentences. Spinach after Ice Cream.

Hurray! We have new stage curtains. Now everyone won't be so bold as to say that this time we've had a pale but determined person hopelessly tugged the cord that parted the fatigued tarpaulin.

With the boom of bulletin board activity we know how the cliff divers fell as they gathered around Oshchuk while he chiseled out the Evening Gazette.

NEW LIBRARY RULES

Recently a new set of rules was made regarding the use of the library. These rules are not harsh by any means, but since they have been put into effect the results have been surprising.

A regular time was established for taking out books and magazines from the library. This time was designated as most appropriate it being the seventh and eighth hours. Students should then have had the time to get all their studying done for the day.

Perhaps the most important rule is that in order to use the library at all, except for reference one must be on the honor roll. It is interesting to note that there is less confusion in the library now. Honor students do not seem to read so many magazines during school hours which perhaps accounts for their being on the honor roll.

However everyone will agree that the new rules are certainly producing excellent results.

GRADE NOTES

In Mrs. Congo's room the pupils are making posters to show how bread is made from wheat.

The 2-A pupils are learning to subtract.

In Miss Leonardson's room the students are making zoo animals and learning a song, "Mother Take me to the Zoo." They are also making posters of animals in a parade.

Dorothy Frid is a new pupil in the Kindergarten.

Miss Cavell and her Kindergarten visited Miss Renke's room last Friday, to see the two white rats.

The following people have a B average or better in Miss Elton's 4th and 5th grade room: Samuel Aida, Keith Fosgate, Gerald Preston, Louise Alexander, Laura Bolton, Geraldine Johnston, Jean Lake, Lucille Lapham, Helen Van-Sickle.

BEACH IS ELECTED N. H. S. BASKETBALL CAPTAIN

Howard Beach, the tall, fast Northville center, was elected captain Monday night for the 1932 season. Beach has been a steady player all season and plays with real spirit. He out-jumps most of his opponents. Beach is a strong defensive man and his passing helps on the offense. He made few attempts himself to score during the last season. He had but ten points. Nearly all of the team will be back with Beach next season. Dusenbury, Riffenburg, Meininger, Campbell, Robinson, and most of the present second team will be available. Cavell, Johnston and Captain Greenlee graduated.

COMMERCIAL NOTES

The Commercial department is taking shorthand from the new shorthand records, that are in Mrs. Taylor's room.

The purpose of these records is to help each individual to take rapid dictation. The people that are a little behind have the privilege to practice any vacant period or after school, it helps one greatly to improve his work. There are several training in shorthand and typing for the contest which is to be in May at Grosse Pointe high school.

GRADE SPELLING BEES ARE HELD HERE

A "spelling bee" sponsored by the Detroit News is the center of much talk in the lower grades at present. The purpose is to discover the best speller in the grades of the Detroit Metropolitan area. This also includes Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties.

Pupils of any public, private and parochial schools who are not over the eighth grade may compete.

The winner of this Metropolitan Bee will have the opportunity of contesting for the spelling championship of the United States.

Those who succeeded in winning the grade championships of Northville were:

3rd grade: Mary Elizabeth Elkington, standing upon abridgement.

7th grade: Isabelle Tewksbury, standing upon failure.

6th grade: Frances German, standing upon failure.

5th grade: Francis Hamilton, standing upon seam.

EIGHTH GRADE BOYS' ACTIVITIES

The boys of the 8th grade have engaged in many basketball games this season and it is of interest to know the members of the basketball team as well as the baseball team.

Following are the members of the team and the position that they play. Kangaroos Basketball team lineup:

Right forward, Eddie Bender, Capt. Left forward, Henry Hoffman, Jimmy Gifford, Russell Knight, running guard, Dayton Deal, standing guard, Irvin Marburger.

Subs: Jack Moffitt, Herman Hartner, Donald Bray, Billy Duguid.

The team has had a very good year. They wish to thank Mr. Amerman and Mr. Knapp for the high school gym.

Baseball team lineup:

STUDENT COUNCIL HOLDS MEETING

The Student Council met Friday, March 6, to decide whether or not Northville high school would continue the summer sports.

Baseball is not a paying sport in high school any more and colleges and schools are dropping the national sport.

The Council agreed to continue the sport if enough season tickets were sold. A sale price will be set later. Let's everyone buy tickets so N. H. S. will not be the first Suburban League school to drop baseball.

Track and golf will be continued as the costs of running them are not great.

LIBRARY PURCHASES

Seventeen new volumes have been added to the library. The books were purchased from the "Junior Literary Guild."

A variety of subjects is included such as adventure, historical, biographical, natural history, etc.

Among the titles are "When I Was a Girl," "Red-Horse Hill," and "Omni-bus of Adventure." The new books will be added to the book report list.

NEW RECORD FOR THE SOPHOMORES

Warner Neal has made a new achievement and at the same time a new record for the sophomores.

Mrs. Cobb's history classes read a paper called "The Weekly News Review" which keeps them posted on World Affairs. Every four papers all Juniors and Sophomores are given a test (and they are not easy). Warner has earned the highest mark that a Sophomore has ever attained and also wrote the most superior test on this month's paper, Hurrah for Warner and the Sophomores.

ADVICE TO THE LOVELORN

Questions submitted to us will be gladly answered. There is no charge for this service.

Question: My boy friend said my singing was like an alley cat's. Should this be taken as an insult?

Answer: Yes, to the cat.

Question: Do you believe in love at first sight?

Answer: Yes, but not at second.

Question: How can I avoid meeting my in-laws after marriage?

Answer: On your honeymoon go to the "Thousand Isles" and spend a year on each.

Question: I want to marry a strong silent man who will hear no evil of me. Where can I find one?

Answer: Why not try a strong, deaf and dumb man?

Question: Do gentlemen really prefer blondes?

Answer: Yes, if unfortunately they have married a brunette.

Question: A fortune teller told me I would be married within a year, and I'm not. What have you to say to me?

Answer: CONGRATULATIONS!

Question: What is your advice to a young man who is about to be married?

Answer: Don't.

Question: Is it really better "to have loved and lost, than never to have loved at all?"

Answer: Depends on what you lost, your heart or pocketbook.

STUDENTS MEET TO DISCUSS CLUBS

The Junior and Senior high schools were divided into groups last Wednesday. Members of the faculty spoke to them regarding clubs. The students filled out questionnaires, and by these the faculty is going to determine which clubs seem to be most popular.

If the students had more than one preference they indicated them and if there are not enough desiring one kind of club, there may be enough for one of their other preferences. In this way students will have the opportunity of joining clubs which interest them.

SENIOR ACTIVITIES

The Annual Senior Prom dance has been changed again. The dance will be given on April 24, and not on March 27 as advertised before.

Ducks Do Not Always Follow Same Routes Migration studies, carried on by the Game Division of the Michigan Department of Conservation, have proved that all the mallard ducks of a region do not necessarily follow the same migration route. Related birds sometimes migrate in opposite directions, and some of them may go to South Michigan. 36p

The investigation included the release of captive mallards at several of the larger marshes. All of these ducks were of excellent wild mallard stock and were able to migrate long distances as they so desired. Each bird was marked with a numbered leg band and during the hunting season quite a few of these ducks were shot and the band numbers reported to the Department. 36p

For example, it is reported that most of the 100 young mallards liberated at the Mason Game Farm last August remained there all winter, although they often took flight and were temporarily absent from the game farm premises. But not one of them had yet been reported shot south of Michigan. 36p

At least 100 young mallards were liberated in August at the public marsh at Woodford Bay, Huron, and 37 of these locally during the first two weeks of hunting and one was shot at Woodford as late as November. Another was taken near Houghton on the 11th of December but none of them has been reported farther south. 36p

One set of game and mallard birds, shot at the Lincoln Lake Waterfowl Sanctuary near Ludington five were reported by hunters in other states to the south. Two of them were shot by a hunter in eastern Iowa November 19. One was shot in Michigan November 20. One was shot in South Carolina December 13, and another was shot in Tennessee December 20. The fifth was reported shot January 11 near Vicksburg, Mississippi, almost 7,000 miles from home, and in these ducks were from the same breeding stock as those liberated at the Game Farm and at Woodford Bay, none of which has been reported shot south of Michigan. 36p

Similar migration records have been obtained from mallards released by the Game Division during the past two years. Of 70 mallards liberated at the Munising Waterfowl Refuge last April more than 40 were still at the Refuge as late as October. Six of these were shot in southern Michigan in November and December and one was shot December 10 in Ohio the farthest south that any of these Munising ducks has been reported. But none of the mallards liberated in other marshes has been shot as far south as the coastal marshes of southern Carolina, a famous wintering ground for many wild ducks. 36p

The migration records of wild ducks trapped and banded by the Game Division during the past three years likewise give little evidence that fixed routes govern the migrations of these ducks. For example, birds trapped and banded together have later been reported hundreds of miles apart, and some have been shot as far south as Louisiana and Delaware in November while their former companions were still in Michigan. 36p

Although such studies cannot be expected to answer all the important questions as to duck migrations, it is evident that they are helping to solve many problems of waterfowl management, and accordingly the Game Division is planning to continue these studies. 36p

RUPTURE Don't submit to avoidable operations or the use of antiquated trusses, as they all set where the lump is and not where the opening is. The opening is seldom larger than a dime (no matter the size of the rupture), and all cases can be retained with the end of a lead pencil. The Spermatic Shield-Complex in combination with the Retainer-Simplex (Patent No. 747,244) and other patents pending)—a scientific achievement in a highly specialized art. It will not only retain any case of rupture perfectly, but contracts the opening in 10 days on the average case. Infinitely superior to any instrument method or operation and producing results in 10 or other way obtainable. All cases are secure a lifetime as against further trouble or expense. Large or difficult cases or incisional rupture (following operations especially solicited). This instrument received the only award in England and in Spain, producing results without surgery, injections, medical treatments or prescriptions, with distinguished personal patrons of all nations. 36p

Just in time to bump into some real Michigan winter, T. G. Richardson returned from the South to Northville Thursday, March 5. He has been at Clearmont, Florida since October 15.

After a month's illness, most of the time being spent at his home in Detroit, J. M. Blake is again back at his place in the jewelry store of his brother, L. Blake, where he is repair man.

J. J. Flynn of Detroit, who has been a patient in the Sessions hospital during a tonsillectomy operation, has been in Northville during the week expecting to locate near the village for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Showalter and their grandson from Detroit came to attend the shower given for Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Boyd and remained over Sunday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Allison.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dohany of Detroit, accompanied by Mrs. George Fowler, left the first part of the week on an automobile trip to Miami, Florida, where the party expects to stay for the winter.

Trinity Shrine No. 44 will hold a public installation of officers, Thursday evening, March 19th, at the K. of P. hall.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Deed of Detroit were guests of Mrs. Harriet Angel Sunday.

Orlov G. Owen spent the first part of the week visiting his parents at East Tawas.

Miss Annie Richards of Ypsilanti was ill at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Richards over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Johnston and daughter, Beatrice, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Boyd in northern Indiana.

Regular meeting of Mystic Temple No. 156, Tuesday evening, March 17. Potluck supper at 6:30.

Mrs. Geo. Harper with her children, are all in quarantine at their home on Orange drive. The son, Jimmy, has a mild case of scarlet fever. Mr. Harper, who is a patient at the Maybury sanatorium, is reported as improving in health.

Frederick H. Hedge, village clerk, has been suffering the past few weeks from the effects of a torn ligament in his side which has caused him quite a good deal of trouble. The special election threw a large burden upon the shoulders of Mr. Hedge and great credit should be accorded him because he did not dodge this work, although if he had cared to use it, he would have had a valid excuse.

A young man will be on trial at the B. Y. P. U. next Sunday evening at the usual 6:30 session. Not that this young man has committed any misdemeanor but a mock trial will be held in which C. S. Petry, the defendant, is accused of not believing in missions. The prosecuting attorney will be Jas. Christie and the counsel for the defense will be Don Miller. Both of these officials are well fortified in their arguments and a real battle of wits is anticipated. Sunday evening, March 22, this same trial will be held in the Baptist Church at Highland.

The women of the Methodist church at Silem will give one of their famous fish suppers, which have become an annual affair at this church, on Monday evening, March 16, at the church dining room. The price for this supper will be only 50 and 25 cents and a delicious menu will be served. In addition to the supper an unusual entertainment has been planned when "I See Red" of radio fame and Prudence Butterfield will be the entertainers. There will be no extra charge for the entertainment.

George A. Dusenbury, of the Base Line Road, who is managing editor of the University of Michigan year-book, Michiganensis, has recently been accorded a high honor. George will head the committee arranging details of the ninth annual Gridiron banquet. This banquet, held each year by Sigma Delta Chi, honorary journalistic fraternity, is a feature of an all campus party held at the University of Michigan.

Members of the Methodist church motored to the home of one of their members, Mrs. John Snow, who is spending the winter at the home of her niece Mrs. May Hayes, on Snowden Ave. Turin and daughters brightened the room and the color of old Lin was used in the table decorations. An elaborate cooperative dinner was partaken of it and the afternoon was pleasantly spent in visiting. The hospitality of Mrs. Snow was greatly appreciated. She will return to her home here in April.

JUDSON E. TAYLOR DIES

Judson E. Taylor, well known resident of Salem, passed away suddenly early Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Adams of Farmington where he and Mrs. Taylor had planned to spend an evening with friends.

His passing will be mourned by the many good friends that he made here during his 15 years residence in Salem.

Judson E. Taylor was born in New Hudson, February 2, 1898 and spent the early life there with his parents, the exception of 11 years spent in Cincinnati. He was one of a family of 11 children born to Jonathan Taylor and Caroline Christopher, pioneer settlers of New Hudson.

On February 2, 1916 he was united in marriage with Mrs. A. Adams. Soon after they moved to Salem where they have since resided. He leaves three sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Roselle Quick, Alma, Michigan; Mrs. Louisa Taylor, Petoskey; Mrs. Artie Baker, Pontiac, Michigan and E. B. Taylor, Redford and Grant Taylor. Mrs. Myra Taylor, the deceased's wife, is still living in Salem.

The funeral services were held in the Salem Federated church, Rev. J. Holliday officiating, on Monday, March 9. Burial was made in the Thayer cemetery, New Hudson.

CARL BROSE DIES

Carl Brose of Salem, Michigan, passed out of this life last Thursday, March 5 at 6:30 a. m. in his late home.

Mr. Brose was born in Germany, September 7, 1846. In 1870 he married Miss Wilhelmina Gertel, who preceded him in death a few years ago. For over 48 years Mr. Brose has lived in the vicinity of Salem, where he has been highly esteemed by all the community and neighbors.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Philip Widmer of Plymouth, Mrs. Hiram Hauser of South Lyon and Otto Brose of Douglas, Wyoming, one sister, Mrs. Wilhelmina Buers, nine grandchildren and two great grandchildren besides a host of friends.

Funeral services were held in the home Sunday afternoon, March 8, 1931 at 3 p. m. Rev. Lucia M. Stroth, pastor of the Congregational church of Salem, officiated. Interment was made in the Thayer cemetery.

Continue To Tag Trout In Effort To Learn Habits

Continuing its experiments to determine the migratory habits of trout, the practicability of "feeder" streams and to learn other things concerning the life habits of this famous game fish, the Institute for Fisheries Research of the Department of Conservation, tagged 1,026 wild trout during the fall of 1930.

The fish were tagged in streams of Oscoda, Lake, Wexford and Newaygo counties.

Most of the trout tagged last fall were caught in closed streams. They were taken before and after the run from bigger waters. The Institute will tabulate all recaptures made next year by anglers and by the Institute's field men.

During the tagging operations, lasting through October and well into November, many of the fish tagged earlier in the fall were recaptured in the same. According to the records of the original tagging, practically all the tagged fish had not moved from the locality during a period of from two weeks to a month. Twenty-three tagged fish were recaptured and only one had moved any distance. A brook trout was recaptured a quarter mile upstream from where it had been tagged three weeks before.

The most valuable information is expected to be obtained during the summer months when anglers return tags found on fish.

One of the most practical results of the tagging experiments will be to determine the usefulness of closed or "feeder" streams. For years certain streams have been closed to trout fishing with the idea of protecting fish when they most need protection.

Through the tags and the resulting information, the department hopes to determine the usefulness of closed or "feeder" streams. For years certain streams have been closed to trout fishing with the idea of protecting fish when they most need protection.

All of the efforts made by the state to learn of the migratory habits of these fish and other valuable information that could be determined from these experiments will have little result unless active cooperation is given by all fishermen the Fish Division said.

The tags bear only the letters "M-F" and a number. They should be sent to the Institute for Fisheries Research, University Museums, Ann Arbor 10th, or to the office of the Fish Division, Lansing. The tag should be accompanied by a note telling when the fish was caught, its weight and length, if possible, and the exact location where it was taken. If the fisherman wishes to keep the tag as a souvenir, it will be returned to him together with a report telling where and when the particular fish was tagged.

While the Institute for Fisheries Research is not asking anglers to copy the numbers from any tagged fish they may take and replace the fish in the water, several fishermen did so last summer. If the fish are again caught, additional valuable information will be obtained.

Ladies will serve a "pancake supper" to lay public. We invite all our friends in the community to come.

In these days of much affliction and depression, let us all turn to God and come to church to receive strength and courage that God alone can give. "Courage, brother! Do not stumble. There's a star to guide the humble. 'Trust in God and do the right.' Though the road be long and dreary And its ending out of sight Face it bravely, strong or weak, 'Trust in God and do the right.'"

The Lord heareth the cry of the humble Psalm 34:18. "The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart, and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit."

Practice Thursday evening in the church for all those taking part in the Easter Pageant, "The Risen King."

NOVI NEWS

The little Misses Dorothea Jean Munro and Nellie Mae Johnston are the new beginners in the first grade at school.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Andeis of Detroit were callers at Herman Smith's last week, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hines and family moved Saturday to a farm they recently purchased near Hudson.

David Haywood and sister, Miss Frances, of Lansing and Miss Carly Rickett of Brighton, visited the former's uncle, Wm. McWilliams, Sunday.

The Misses Ada Button, Rowena Root, and Joy Thompson attended an association of official B. Y. P. U. conference held at the home of the president, Mrs. Walter Lewis, in Pontiac, Saturday afternoon.

Miss Lotie Damm of Northville was a week-end guest of Miss Esther Fish.

Miss Gertrude Leyder of A. Vonale has returned to the Gaffner restaurant where she was employed before the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Anderson, Miss Rose Pastor and Gus Westcott of Detroit were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tyler, Sunday.

Guy Taylor and Mrs. Hattie Geer of Newberg were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Munro Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stowell and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Granzow attended the food and builders show in Convention hall in Detroit last Friday.

Mrs. L. B. Flint spent several days last week with her sister, Mrs. Shaw and Miss Edwards of Plymouth.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Anna Rice last week Wednesday. An invitation was sent to all former members and several were present. Mrs. Martha Lockwood of Holly, state Supt. of Scientific Temperance Instruction, was the guest of honor, and gave a very helpful talk. She is a veritable powerhouse of information on facts related to the subject in which she is so deeply interested. She is optimistic about the future of the temperance cause and in many ways showed how much that is found in the newspapers is misleading. Thirty-one organizations are supporting the Eighteenth amendment. Our new slogan should be "Fight with light." She said the words of the Galilean a former centuries ago, "Wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business" are not out of date.

Emphasizing the importance of scientific temperance instruction to the youth of our land, she said, "Today they are wax to receive and tomorrow they are granite."

In fulfilling the purpose for which this organization came into being, she felt the words of Queen Esther were quite applicable. "And who knoweth whether this art come to the king-doom for such a time as this?"

A potluck luncheon was served and all felt the day had been well spent. Several from here attended the father and son banquet held at the Walled Lake high school on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Marian Shan who is a senior student at Walled Lake high school, was one of four pupils who brought honors to the school in winning the spelling contest with the Walled Lake school on Monday evening.

The Home Economics club will meet with Mrs. Clyde Johnston next Tuesday afternoon March 17th. The lesson will be on the refinishing of furniture.

MOTION PICTURE PROGRAM

SHE GOT WHAT SHE WANTED

A dissatisfied wife is like the dog with the bone—she always thinks the man she hasn't got would be a better husband than the one she has. "She Got What She Wanted," the James Cruze production, which will be at the Penniman Allen theatre Wednesday, March 18, presents Bette Compson in the role of a wife who is seeking what she calls "the seal of true love." Lee Tracy, Alan Hale, Gaston Glass, Dorothy Christy and Fred Kelsey complete the cast.

Mahyna is the daughter of a Russian peer who married six times in search of true love and died advising his daughter not to give up hope of finding that thing that is as rare as a fabled clover. So Mahyna, wearying of her life of cooking, washing and bed making, harks to the love-making of her two boarders, Eddie and Dave. She decides to run away with Eddie.

Now Mahyna and Eddie made a contract when they married that, should either ever wish freedom, it should be granted on request; the party granting the divorce supplying the terms. So Eddie divorces Mahyna, specifying that she shall be a boarder in their house—but it isn't Eddie Mahyna marries, but Dave!

How this happens and how history repeats itself, getting funnier every time, is told in this northville of merry madness written by George Rosner. It is taken from a stage play that had a great success. James Cruze directed. Sam Zieff produced and RCA Photophone recorded it as a Tiffany release.

THE SUNRISE TRAIL

Working under hot lights in a studio would put the average cowboy out of commission in about three days, declared Bob Steele star of the Trem Carr production "The Sunrise Trail," which is coming to the Penniman Allen theatre Sunday, March 15, and Bob should know! He has been raised outdoors with a saddle for a cradle since his earliest boyhood, and in the past two or three years has put in plenty of time under the blazing arcs of the studios.

After the last day's work on "The Sunrise Trail," which lasted eight hours because of the company's determination to finish on that date, Bob went to bed for fourteen hours. Upon arising he still felt tired, and consequently loaded his horse with a blanket and sufficient provisions, and left home for three days, riding steady day and sleeping on the hard ground at night. He returned rejuvenated and said that he did it for "rest and relaxation."

Supporting Steele in this Western feature are Blanche Mahaffey, Jack Clifford, Germaine De Neel, Eddie Dunn and Fred Burns. J. P. McCarthy directed and the story and adaptation are by Wally Tompkins.

West Point Park

A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by officers of the church, teachers and all those interested in the Sunday school. A pot-luck supper was served by the ladies of the congregation at half-past six. There were visitors from Fort-Street Presbyterian church of Detroit. Mrs. McGovern, in behalf of the Bible class, presented two chairs for the rostrum and received in return, for their kindness, a hearty vote of thanks from the pastor and the church members. The monthly business of the church and Sunday school was attended to by the different groups.

The Community club will give a St. Patrick's dance on Saturday evening, March twenty-first in the community hall. A good orchestra will be there and tasty eats will be provided by the ladies.

Little Suzanne Ruth Gillespie has had a relapse and is not very well at this time. The family and grandmother have the sympathy of their neighbors and many friends.

The Parent-Teacher association met Thursday evening in the community hall. There was not a very large number present on account of flu and other sickness. But those who were present enjoyed the program very much. After the business meeting, the program was presented by Northville talent from their high school. Gifts were presented some fine music, a violin solo by Ernest Racz was enjoyed by all. Evelyn Ambler followed singing a beautiful solo, "The Lilac Tree." The male quartette sang two songs and were encored. A vocal duet by Beverly Ambler and Helen Johnson, every one enjoyed it. A piano solo by Richard Shipley. The clarinet quartet sang two favorite selections. Lillian Casse gave a dance number and every one wanted her to come again. Then the double sextette was enjoyed. Altogether it was a delightful evening's program for West Point Park's music lovers and we give them a strong invitation to come again.

The Base Line Pedic club met on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Robert Jones. Prizes were won by Mrs. A. Travis, Mrs. Earl Ransler and Mrs. C. Waack.

Dr. Travis and Eugene Bachman of Ann Arbor visited Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Travis on Base Line road.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis have returned from Florida to attend the funeral of the latter's sister Mrs. Lily Hake. They were all former residents of this place.

About fifteen of our young people met at the home of Miss Adams to prepare for the Easter entertainment in the church. On that day a number will join the church. Rev. John Adams is doing all he can to influence the young men and women to choose the good way. We wish him success in his efforts.

The Evening News Metropolitan and National Spelling Bee took place Friday afternoon in Pierson school. West Point Park The fifth, sixth seventh and eighth grades, with three teachers, being present. The fifth grade won by Sanino Gatter, followed by Margaret Mills. Sixth grade was won by Viola Wolfe with Rose Gatter second. Seventh grade was won by Mary Gatter and second place by Jane Adams. Eighth grade was won by Stanley Taylor with Harry Wolfe taking second place, also, Betty Randall. The four that won first place will receive a Webster's Collegiate Dictionary. The next Spelling Bee will take place on Friday, March 27, when the four grades will spell in the contest for the atlas. There are a large number going to part for every effort to be the victors in Pierson school.

Livonia township held their primary Monday. The officers for this year will be: Jesse Ziegler, supervisor; John Harlan, clerk; Joseph Grace, justice for full term; Levi Clemens, justice for three year term. Herbert Laverance was re-elected for treasurer and Arthur Trapp was re-elected to the office of highway treasurer.

The Pedro club will meet in the community hall next Saturday evening. Prizes will be given to the winners. Mr. and Mrs. Owen have charge of the evening's entertainment and eats.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Houghland moved to Brown City where they attended the funeral of the latter's father. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson of Detroit were welcome visitors at Mr. and Mrs. A. Travis, the latter's parents.

The BEST Gray Hair Remedy is Home Made

To half pint of water add one ounce bayrum, small box of Barbo Compound and one-fourth ounce of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. It will gradually darken streaked, faded or gray hair and make it soft and glossy. Barbo will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub out.

At the Woman's club meeting this (Friday) afternoon a very interesting program has been provided. Mrs. C. M. Chase will discuss, "A book you should read," and Mr. C. H. Bryan, "A play you should see." A musical treat is in store for those present, which will be kept a surprise. The general topic of the program is "Our Own Club Day."

More than 73,000 miles in a New Ford

THE substantial worth of the new Ford is reflected in its good performance, economy and reliability. Its stamina and endurance are particularly apparent in sections where bad roads and severe weather put a heavy extra burden on the automobile.

In less than a year a new Ford Tudor Sedan was driven more than seventy-three thousand miles over a difficult route. The operating cost per mile was very low and practically the only expense for repairs was for new piston rings and a new bearing for the generator.

The car carried an average load of 1200 pounds of mail and was driven 250 miles daily. "The Ford has never failed to go when I was ready," writes one of the three mail carriers operating the car. "The starter did the trick last winter even at 34 degrees below zero. The gas runs about 20 miles per gallon. At times I pull a trailer whenever I have a bulky load."

Many other Ford owners report the same satisfactory performance. Every part has been made to endure—to serve you faithfully and well for many thousands of miles.

LOW PRICES OF FORD CARS

$430 to $630

F. O. B. Detroit, plus freight and delivery. Bumpers and spare tire extra at small cost. You can purchase a Ford on economical terms through the Authorized Ford Finance Plans of the Universal Credit Company.

FEATURES OF THE NEW FORD

Attractive lines and colors, rich, long-wearing upholstery, sturdy steel body construction, Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield, silent, fully enclosed four-wheel brakes, four fluid-draulic double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers, aluminum pistons, chrome silicon alloy valves, torque-tube drive, three-quarter floating rear axle, more than twenty ball and roller bearings, and bright, enduring Rustless Steel for many exterior metal parts. In addition, you save many dollars because of the low first cost of the Ford, low cost of operation and up-keep and low yearly depreciation.

Church News

Baptist Church

Services at this church hope to stress some of the great events of our Lord's last week before the Cross. At the morning hour, 10:30, the pastor, Rev. W. Loscoe Barber, will preach the second of the series of sermons leading up to Easter, entitled, "The Final Presentation of the King." This event is usually called, "The Triumphant Entry," or Palm Sunday.

Bible school at 11:45 a. m.

B. Y. P. U. is our young people society and meets at 6:30 a. m. The message will be presented as a court procedure.

At 7:30 p. m. the sermon will be "Denying Christ." These services are for all who desire to meet with us.

Novi-Bethlehem Methodist Episcopal Church

Let us all remember the service next Sunday, at 2:30, when the pastor will preach on the "Nearness of God." Everybody welcome.

Wm. H. Maybury Sanatorium

Services in the Auditorium at 9:00 in the morning Rev. Wm. Richards preaching.

First Presbyterian Church

On Sunday, March 15th at 10:30 a. m. service will be held in the First Presbyterian church in the evening at 7:30 the union service will be held in the Methodist church Rev. H. G. Whitfield will preach at both services.

The Junior Christian Endeavour society will meet Monday afternoon at 3:15 in the church house.

The Young People's society will meet on Thursday evening at 7:30 in classrooms 1 and 2.

On Tuesday evening, March 17th the Nellie Yerkes auxiliary will hold its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Ada Bloom, with Mrs. Marjorie Coolman assisting hostess. Mrs. Mae Babbitt will have charge of the devotional period and Mrs. Enid Whitfield will conduct the discussion.

Do not forget the Auxiliary "Bake Sale" to be held at the Palace-Meat Market on Saturday, March 14, at 10:00 a. m. Come early and secure your supply of good eats, cakes, pies, cookies, baked beans, home made bread and other tempting delicacies will be offered for sale.

The response to the appeal for the Benevolence Fund has been quite good. If you have not made your contribution plan to do so on Sunday, March 15. Every dollar is needed in the most worthy cause. Do not fail.

Northville Methodist Episcopal Church

The coming Sabbath will bring us together for worship at 10:30. Let us all come even if we have to put chairs in the aisles like those days when these who today are in the church triumphant witnessed.

The pastor will preach on "Relationship to God how we need it. Come along folk and bring your friends."

Our young people's devotional service of the Epworth League will meet in the church parlors at 6:30.

In the evening the united service will be held Rev. F. G. Whitfield preaching at 7:30 in our church. Let the church be as full as two weeks ago. Speak often to one another about these Lenten services and make no other plans but for the House of God.

Our young married people will have their annual banquet next Tuesday, St. Patrick's Day, at 6:30 Mr. Clarence Davis of Cambridge Road, will entertain us with his Cinema. This great Methodist layman is always willing to help us and I am sure we will have a gracious time together.

Leave the young Methodists with their grandmas and everbody be present. The March circle under the direction of Mrs. Amelia Liska will provide the banquet.

Catholic strangers in this vicinity will find the local pastor living at 234 Thayer Blvd. Telephone 330. Make yourselves acquainted.

Forty-six out of the eighty families in this parish responded to the request to have a private house party for the benefit of the church. Thank you.

We feel that the Irish constituency of these parts will help the committee to make the St. Patrick's Card Party of March 17, a corresponding success. Liberty education is guaranteed by the Father of our Republic and is safeguarded by the Constitution and by the laws of the various state governments. These recognize the fact that the child belongs to its parents. Russia reserves this doctrine and makes the child the ward of the state. Here in America, the state assists only in the education of the child, and provides against neglect on the part of the parents. To preserve this liberty of education, it is our duty to prevent encroachments from over-brought governmental paternalism as well as from encroachments from discriminatory legislation. Equally obnoxious to the American spirit and inherent right of parents are the uncalculated attempts to harass or embarrass recognized methods of education.

FLOYD G. SHAFER AND MARK E. BELL HAVE OPERATIONS

Two of Northville's well known citizens, Floyd G. Shafer and Mark E. Bell are in the Highland Park general hospital this week because of attacks of appendicitis.

Mr. Bell was taken to the hospital Friday and operated on for the removal of the appendix and is reported to be resting quite comfortably. Friends think it probable that he will be sufficiently recovered to enable him to be removed from the hospital back to his home in Northville today.

Mr. Shafer was taken ill Tuesday morning and such an emergency operation was deemed necessary. He was rushed to the Highland Park hospital and an operation performed immediately. His condition was reported Thursday as being unchanged.

The name of no person but an actual resident of the precinct at the time of said registration and entitled under the Constitution, if remaining since resident, to vote at the next election shall be entered in the registration book.

Dated, February 28th, A. D. 1931.

M. H. SLOAN IS AGAIN HONORED

The annual meeting of the Michigan Trotting Horse Breeders' association was held at the Hotel Bismarck, Tuesday, March 4th, 1931, with Mr. M. H. Sloan, of Northville, as the guest of honor.

Mr. Sloan, who is a well known breeder of trotting horses, was elected president of the association for the fifteenth consecutive year.

Mr. Sloan has an interest in a subject with which he is well acquainted, "Saddle Horses and What the Future Holds in Store for Them."

CLUB WOMEN SEE JAS. WOOD AND HIS LABORATORY

One of the most interesting exhibits shown to the Women's club members who went to Ann Arbor on March 6, was that of the biological department under James Wood, familiarly known to Northville residents as "Doc."

Dr. Wood is a graduate of the University of Michigan and has been in the position of professor of zoology at the University of Michigan since 1910.

A much finer position offering a larger salary has been offered to Dr. Wood by one of the noted institutions of the state but he prefers to remain with the state university which first recognized his merit.

PETE SPAGNUOLO TO HAVE BIRTHDAY

Young Pete Spagnuolo, (a recent flag-raising fame) will be ten years old Sunday, March 15th. His sister, Miriam, will give a birthday party for her brother. It is expected that a number of Northville relatives will be present and an aunt, Mrs. Virginia Turko, of Pontiac, will be among those in the party.

Of course a goodly number of Pete's young playmates will be invited in to join in the festivities and to eat a piece of the big birthday cake which his sister says is to be decorated with ten glowing candles. Pete's friends say: "A happy birthday."

NORTHVILLE TEAMS WIN THREE GAMES

The Alumni Girls' basketball team and the Cardinals team triumphed over their opponents Tuesday night in the games played at the high school gym.

The boys played Detroit Northwest at 7:30, and won by the score of 30 to 24 in a last minute spur. The girls won their game by the one sided count of 26 to 10, and their opponents were the girls from the Jefferson team, which, because of a mix-up in the schedule, only had two of their regular players on the team. The rest being members of the Northville senior girls' team.

The Alumni girls played a Farmington team Wednesday and although the game was hard fought and close, our girls won by the score of 25 to 18. The Farmington girls led at half time 10 to 11 but the lead was overthrown in the final minutes of play with the Northville girls, go away for a few short shots close under the basket. Another game will be played with Farmington girls if arrangements to secure the high school gym are successful.

NEW BOOKS GO ON LIBRARY SHELVES

Mrs. T. S. Harmon, president of the Northville library association has announced that a new list of books has been placed in the town library.

There will be 27 interesting children's books available 13 books of fiction, 4 reference books, and one biographical placed on the shelves.

Considerable difficulty has been experienced loaning books to children who keep them over the allotted time. A small fine of a few cents, she said, is imposed on these children but it does not recompense the library nor the other children who wish to read the books, and who must wait over long periods of time before they are able to get them. It is merely thoughtlessness, she declared, and not selfishness, but a little care taken by the children to whom the books are loaned would avoid considerable inconvenience.

The new list includes books by Christopher Morley, E. Phillips Oppenheim, Joseph Hergesheimer, Booth Tarkington, Zane Grey and other famous authors. There are also three excellent books on spring gardening.
