AUTOMOBILES AND PAVEMENTS

Every now and again we are amazed—as you must be—to think how the automobile and good roads have revolutionized our lives. We literally live in a new world.

Last Thursday noon the writer said to the rest of the office force: "Well this paper can get along without me for a few days—I am getting out of here right now and going out into the state to look at newspaper buildings to get some ideas for The Record's new plant."

So off we started—alone in the car, which is no fun, since the driver faces two menaces: He thinks too much and he is apt, with much driving, to get sleepy and thus face accidents. North to Kew and out on M-16 we swung along at the rate we like best on the open road—45 or 50 miles an hour—and we were again impressed with the beauty and picturesqueness of this part of Michigan. The patches of woods here and there lend a wonderful charm to the scenery—and we hope the time never comes when the farmers have to cut those trees for wood—too many have been cut already.

Our first stop, at Howell, was a revelation as to the progress the country seat papers are making. We had planned for a few minutes' stay but H. R. Gillette, who is a partner with Wm. Cansfield in the publication of the Livingston County Republican, got us by the coat-tail and kept us for an hour looking over this splendid plant. Into the basement, up to the second floor and all around the first we went. On all sides the last word in printing machinery was around us and marvelous machines that almost think were clicking out their work. Well it gave one a new respect for the printing craft—the art preservative of all arts.

Another hour found us on the campus of the Michigan State college—one of the finest of its kind in the United States—and in the office of Joe Sturgeon, secretary of the Michigan Press association. Here we gained many new slants on the building of newspaper plants. Mr. Sturgeon succeeds the genial "Ien" Feighner, of Nashville, for a number of years the state secretary. Mr. Sturgeon is the owner of the weekly newspaper at Gladstone, in the upper peninsula, and thinks his town is going to have a great boom through the coming of the Ford plant to it.

Stops at Ithaca and Alma filled out a profitable day. The former is the county seat of Gratiot county, one of Michigan's richest sections, and as one rides along the prairie-like area he is impressed with the stability of this county, although conditions right now are much depressed. In spite of this, The Gratiot County Herald, one of the state's best county seat papers, consistently runs 16 pages a week. George and Romaine, McCall, the publishers of the Herald, are brothers-in-law of the writer's brother, and hence we felt no shame in calling down to the office from his home George, who showed us up stairs and down. The Herald had a disastrous fire a few years ago and hence the present plant is modern in every respect and another demonstration of the tremendous advance of country papers. Old Ben Franklin wouldn't know how to act in these plants where linotypes, web presses and automatic machinery perform miracles. The newspaper "world do move."

H. S. Babcock at Alma made our stay very pleasant and profitable. Alma is a fine little city, a college town, with Alma, one of the best small colleges of the state. It brought back vividly the ten years that we spent as editor of the daily paper at Albion, another Michigan college town. Mr. Babcock and his son publish not only the Alma Record but also three other papers at St. Louis, Breckinridge and Shepherd. They have one of the finest plants that we ever saw and a system for doing business that is a marvel. The old time editor who took in wood and cabbage on subscription wouldn't know how to act in this place where they can print 25,000 letterheads on one press in less than two hours.

Ten o'clock Thursday night saw us back in Lansing, tired but full of printing ideas. So to sleep at one minute after we hit the pillow at the hotel. Friday it was a pleasure to "make" Eaton Rapids, Albion and Jonesville, at each of which places we learned something. Editor Robert D. Gifford and son Gayle at Eaton Rapids have about as "sweet" a country newspaper office as one would find in a day's journey. The Horner Bros. wooler mills is the big industry of this thriving town of 2,500 people.

At Albion, our old residence and former newspaper home as well, we were kindly received by the staff of The Evening Recorder, the daily paper. W. S. Kennedy, managing editor, Jack Bedford, business manager, Phil J. Church, superintendent and Mark H. Fall, editor, are in a fine new building and report that business is picking up somewhat. Like other industrial towns, Albion has been in the doldrums but brighter days should be ahead. Albion college, with its splendid advances of the past few years, is right now the biggest industry in town as the student body has held up very well in spite of a slump in attendance at most institutions.

A swing over to Jonesville and Hillsdale brought our "survey" to an end. At the former place Larry Towse, one of the many college young men who have gone into journalism, is making a real newspaper out of The Independent, one of the oldest newspapers of the whole state.

Back home on U. S. 112 and the Canton Center road, we came—more than ever convinced that the newspaper people of Michigan are a fine set of folks and willing and eager to help a fellow publisher.

RUNNING AROUND IN CIRCLES

In this highly organized Northville civilization of ours, we fill the time so full and rush around so much that we think we are surely important citizens—and that the world would hardly wag on without us. The family is all so busy that it is hard to have even breakfast together and as for the evenings, well there just aren't enough to go round. We brag on how busy and rushed we are. We boast of all the things we have to do.

We are "hitting" ourselves when we say this. Telling folks how much work it is to get out a newspaper and all that bragging on how many hours a day we work and of how many miles we drive. Well we just got to laughing at ourselves for taking it all so seriously. What difference would it make, anyway, if we—and a lot of the rest of you folks—would just calm down a bit and take it a little easier? None at all. We are not as important as we think we are and if we missed half the committee meetings and stayed at home twice as much, we should probably be better off.

Will we change our habits? Not at all. We enjoy this rushing around in circles and this excitement. All the old organizations will keep on doing business and we shall start a few new ones, just for good measure.

HOMEMAKER'S CORNER

By MRS. EDITOR

Weren't we women who heard Captain Denniston speak the other day impressed by the responsibility which he placed upon the home influence in the prevention of crime? "How can you expect the House of Correction to cure what the church, the school and the home have failed to cure?" asked the speaker.

Not one mother heard the earnest talk of Capt. Denniston who did not leave the meeting without resolutions in her heart to let her children do real work and to make the home the center of their good times.

Right in line with this thought comes this clipping from a woman who grew up in a family of six children and has raised a family of five children:

FAMILY FUN
Lots of good times together make for mutual understanding, sympathy and love—the children who go out from homes where the dishes are washed and wiped together, where the whole family helps make a garden, build a fish pond, read aloud, gather around the piano and sing, sit by the fireplace and listen to the radio, toast marshmallows, play games together, and often go out for a picnic or off on excursions together—how rich are

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

THE KING AND THE SHIRT

(Birmingham Eclectic)

How does one become happy? Is happiness a static thing, stationary as a statue, or is it something that is always just around the corner? Can money buy happiness, does happiness attend fame?

Listen to the brief yarn of the old King who, desiring to be the earth's happiest man, offered his daughter and half his kingdom to the man who would find the earth's happiest individual, and bring back this happiest individual's shirt.

"All I require is that shirt to make me happy, too," believed the King.

So, after many days of wandering about the earth, a young prince, hoping to win the daughter and half the kingdom, made his report to his father.

"Your Majesty, I have searched far and wide, over the whole earth, for the happiest man. I visited the homes of the mighty, the famous, the rich. I sought in vain for a revealed countenance and a happy smile. I found one."

"Then make haste to give me his shirt," commanded the King.

But the young Prince replied: "Sure, one day I wandered down in the poorest section of a great city, where money, fame and might are unknown as the world knows it. I came upon a one whose voice sang jubilantly of the things that were in a heart that overflowed with some strange alchemy of the soul, whose face was lighted by a fire not of the earth. 'Here,' said I, 'is a really happy man. I will go to him and buy his shirt.'"

"When I brought forth my golden doubloons, and offered him a handful for his shirt I found that he did not possess a shirt. He was so rich in spirit that he had neglected to obtain money enough to buy a shirt."

"By the way just what is happiness, and where shall one find it?"

HOTEL NEARS COMPLETION

Advisers from the east indicate that the new Ford hotel, being erected by Henry Ford opposite the Ford airport at Dearborn, Mich., will be opened soon, and be managed by the L. G. Treadway group which operates under the corporate name of the L. G. Treadway Service Corporation. The Treadway group now operates 10 hotels, most of which are located in New England.

Connecticut has 17 State forests containing 56,253 acres and a wooded area of 1,000,000 acres.

Switchboard Girls

Unless one has lived in a number of small towns you do not appreciate the really remarkable service given by the Bell Telephone girls who so promptly and cheerfully answer the telephone calls here at the Northville exchange.

Did you ever notice that they ask us in pleasant tone for our "number please" and then thank us for the pleasure of serving us? And we—well order our roast, call the police, or make a business engagement with equal unconcern for the patient operator who has been ready to make this call possible.

Sitting at the switch board upstairs in the Lapham State bank building are five girls who take their turns at eight hours of duty with fifteen minutes relief every two hours. There are no minutes of relaxation during the time on duty—it is a job which keeps the operator "on her toes" every second. Remembering a long list of numbers of the subscribers is no small task and very often emergencies arise in which the quick wit of "central" saves a situation. In no case must an operator lose her patience no matter how exasperating may be the demands upon her services.

Supervising these "centrals" is Mrs. Ruth Corvill. In charge of the business office is Mrs. B. DeNune.

All of these girls are experienced in telephone service having been employed for several years. So satisfactory has their work been that it has been said there is very seldom a complaint entered.

Invaluable is their service to business and go other activities of the town and Northville pays due tribute to the faithful girls of the switchboard.

Patrons will be interested to know that for the pleasure and comfort of these telephone girls a very pleasant rest room is furnished with a davenport and easy chairs for their use during intervals off duty. A kitchenette, equipped with a range and dining table, provides a convenient place for hot lunches or little social affairs.

Chevrolet is the world's largest builder of six-cylinder trucks

Wherever you go—on city street or country road—you find Chevrolet six-cylinder trucks very much in evidence. Tens of thousands of these sturdy workers are on the job daily, delivering goods, moving supplies, doing all types of light and heavy hauling.

Large fleets of Chevrolets are covering the nation for prominent public utility firms. Nationally known packers, oil companies and manufacturers are using Chevrolets in steadily growing numbers. Every line of business, every field of industry is coming to rely more and more on these big, powerful Sixes. Indeed, the demand for Chevrolet trucks during recent years has been such that Chevrolet ranks today as the world's largest builder of six-cylinder trucks and commercial cars.

The Orange and Black

OTHER PEOPLE'S PROPERTY

In any public school or private school either, there is, always a very large majority whose respect for the property of others is perfect. But if one or two per cent of the pupils steal when they get a chance, this fact causes a lot of trouble and inconvenience and gives the school a bad reputation.

Whether stealing is a crime or a disease, the first step in the proper treatment is detection. We are therefore asking two things of pupils and parents:

1. Make it hard to steal your property by taking every reasonable precaution.
2. When you have lost anything, report it at once to some teacher, with any additional information or suspicion that you may have.

SENIOR WHO'S WHO

The members of the senior class who receive the honor of who's who this year are two of the most outstanding. They are Lillian Cassie and Ted Cavell.

Lillian Cassie was born in Detroit, Michigan, September 15, 1913. She attended Fairbanks school for two years, later moving to Northville where she has attended school for the past ten years.

She has been one of the most enthusiastic members of the class all through her high school career, always willing to do her best to make class activities a success.

Lillian has become the best known through her dancing career. She has been dancing for nine years, having won 36 medals in contests. She had the honor of being acclaimed the champion of Ohio, winning the cup in 1928.

During her high school career, she has been one of the "star" players on the basketball team for four years. The team was not complete without "Cassie" at guard. She has also been a valuable player on the baseball team for three years.

Lillian was in the cast for "The Flapper Grandmother," and participated in the pageants, "Pandora" and "Cinderella."

Among other activities she has been one of the most popular members of the Northville Band, serving as Drum Major, as well as playing a clarinet.

Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti will claim Lillian as a student next year as she is planning on taking a course in physical education.

Ted Cavell was born in Northville, Michigan, July 4, 1913. He has spent his entire school career at Northville.

Ted has been a "star" player on the football team for four years, during his last year being captain. He also has played on the baseball team three years, basketball team two years, as well as being a member of the track team two years. Ted has had a very successful athletic career in high school.

Among the plays in which he has taken part are "The Flapper Grandmother" and the "Absent-Minded Bridegroom."

Ted is a member of the H-Y club, "N" club and served as president of the T. M. B. club during his sophomore year.

He was assistant editor of the Annual in 1930.

Ted has always been interested in music, being a member of the Boys' Glee-club and of the Boys' quartet, that has become so popular this year.

Purdue University will claim him as a student next year as he is going to specialize in forestry and conservation.

It is, indeed, an honor to graduate two seniors who have spent their entire high school career here and who we feel, have enjoyed attending "Good Old Northville H."

SPRING VACATION

As soon as my friends you will be spending your morning hours in a nice cozy bed, dreaming of all the lovely things you should be doing, such as washing dishes, (ahem!) Did I hear some girl groan then? Cleaning-house or backyards or what have you. Then you will get up with a sigh and after a lot of yawning and yawning back-ward glances toward the abandoned bed you go downstairs, if you're up stairs, and eat some breakfast, or will it be lunch? Then Friend Mother comes in and kindly and lovingly points her finger to the clock, which you had scorned to glance at, (or maybe it was shame) and found you were chagrined that it was nearly noon. Your benevolent parent rather wearily (we know better though) asks you why you did not wait until the twelve o'clock whistle blew and then come down and eat dinner with the rest of the family. This admission makes you groan with inward indignation and you make up your mind to prove the worthiness by doing a double amount of work.

First you decide to clean your room, though if you are a boy, you would not, (thank goodness, I didn't tack my name on this). You make your bed and then start in to straighten out your drawers. Your eye falls on a long lost story or magazine you were sure to read when you had time. Flipping the pages you are attracted by a picture that illustrates one of the stories. Before you know it you have read the whole story and probably all the remaining ones also.

Afterwards a girl friend or boy friend calls on you and before you know it it is supper time. In the end, what HAVE you accomplished by your vacation? Don't think I mean everyone when I say this, maybe I'm referring to myself only.

But that to me people, is Spring Vacation.

BASEBALL YES OR NO?

At a meeting of the students last Wednesday afternoon the question as to whether or not Northville High will have a baseball team this year was discussed.

Coach Hughes stated that she was for running the baseball team, which would include umpires, bats, balls, etc. would be about seventy-five dollars.

The students were then asked to sign a slip stating that they would each buy a season ticket which would cost twenty-five cents. Approximately one hundred and fifty students signed.

Now if the townspeople will also support the team it looks as though baseball, our national sport, will not die out in Northville.

There will be four home games this spring including one with Plymouth, Northville's old rival.

CAMP FIRE NOTES

If you had chanced to wander astray on Saturday, March 7, you might have come upon a number of small arrows and if your curiosity was aroused you might have taken it upon yourself to follow them.

Now let's see where you would have traveled supposedly. The first arrow might have been seen at the corner of Main and West streets, near the high school building. You would go down West street and turn down Cady until you reached the corner of Wing and Cady.

You would be led down the former street and at the end of this, an arrow would be discovered, pointing toward an old road, leading past Springers place. After you had gone a short distance down the road, you would come upon an old broken bridge, but would be able to cross the stream by means of a plank placed there by some thoughtful boys. (For their own benefit probably.) Then is when the fun would begin.

Up steep hills and down again. Over fences and under. In the end you would come out near the Fair Grounds. Here an arrow would point to the latter, indicating that you were to pass through them.

From there you would go through Bear Town and come out on the Plymouth road. Then you could take your own course.

The Nipissimaha Camp Fire group hiked to Plymouth. The Scouts who blazed the trail were: Evelyn Simmons, Mary Jane Junod, and Florence Johnson. The Scouts and the remainder of the group met at Phoenix Park where they ate their lunch and then went on into Plymouth and attended a matinee. It was this night that we had that terrific snow storm, so the girls had to find means by which they could reach home other than walking. They did and arrived in Northville amid shouts and singing which proved that the cold weather did not dampen their spirits in the least. And so we will close this little episode by saying, "A good time was had by all" which is perfectly true.

This group now, a new guardian in the person of Reva Schrader. Mrs. Ray will keep the assistant guardian ship so we will not lose her at any rate, over which we are all happy. With these two people to help our Camp Fire group along, we will hope that everything turns out all right. We have many plans for the future and are doing our best to earn money for our slender treasury.

SUBURBAN LEAGUE BANQUET

On Tuesday, March 10, a banquet for the Suburban League was held in the high school cafeteria. Some of the principals, coaches, and superintendents of the different schools belonging to this league were present. Altogether, around twenty-five men were there.

The meal was prepared by Mrs. Zimmerman and served by the 7th grade cooking class. Right here, we want to say that the board of education thanks

Mrs. Zimmerman and her class for this excellent meal.

The business meeting followed and spring athletics were discussed. That is, the schedules for golf and baseball. But the most important question was that regarding the game between Litchfield Park and Northville. As you all evidently know, this game was considered illegal and many had hoped for another game between the two schools. But at this meeting it was voted to throw the game out as no contest.

Other things were discussed and talked over and then amid a feeling of good will the meeting adjourned.

"Simply wiping with a damp cloth cleans the smooth enamel surfaces of my ELECTROCHEF* electric range"

*A study of one thousand families using the ELECTROCHEF electric range showed a cooking cost of less than one cent a meal a person.

"One of the nicest things about my ELECTROCHEF electric range is its snowy spotlessness. So many of my friends remark that here is a stove you want to keep clean! " "The ELECTROCHEF was designed with this thought in mind. Simply wiping with a damp cloth keeps the white enamel surfaces immaculate. Cleaning the smooth porcelain is as easy as cleaning a china dish. The range itself is so strikingly modern that it helps to modernize my kitchen. " "Best of all, there are no cracks or crevices to collect dirt. All corners are rounded, even inside the oven, and the metal parts of the stove are finished in never-rust Chromeplate. All my friends admire my splendid ELECTROCHEF. " "

ELECTROCHEF'S CASH PRICE IS $105 INSTALLED including all necessary wiring. $10 down, $6 a month, small carrying charge. Sales under these conditions to Detroit Edison customers only.

Union Chapter No. 55 R. A. M.
Wednesday, April 1st, Past and M. E. 7 30.

"TOM SAWYER" WILL BOOST BALL FUND

24 Northville citizens want to support baseball in the local high school; they had best turn out to the benefit show to be given Thursday, April 2 at the Pennington Allen theatre. The picture to be shown will be "Tom Sawyer," starring Jackie Coogan and Buster Brown.

According to H. L. Ruggles, coach at the Northville high school, in order to support a baseball team this year, about $75 00 is needed for the athletic association's treasury. Season tickets have been sold but not half the amount of money needed has been raised and the show is in the nature of an appeal to the people of Northville to help support baseball.

The cause will be a worthy one and the entertainment offered will more than compensate for the small amount asked from each person.

HOME ECONOMICS GROUP HOLDS CLASS

A meeting of the Northville Home Economics Extension group was held Friday afternoon, March 13, 1931. Twelve ladies responded to the roll call.

Our leader, Miss Du Bord, talked to us on the subject, "Eating for Health and Efficiency."

Food habits score cards were passed to the members and each one scored herself on her general food habits. This will give us something to work on. Each lady learned the correction that should be made in her food habits whereby the general health might be built up through the diet.

Miss Du Bord gave us a demonstration of fruit and milk puddings and all were given pamphlets with several recipes for fruit and milk desserts to be before the next meeting.

Attention is called to the change in date of the next meeting. It will be held Tuesday afternoon, April 14, 1931 in the cafeteria of the high school. Any visitors will be very welcome and we hope all members may be able to attend the rest of these instructive meetings.

SESSIONS HOSPITAL

A daughter, weighing 6½ pounds was born Monday to Mrs. and Mr. Frank Freyd at the Sessions hospital. Miss Dawn Granow had an operation for appendicitis Tuesday and is making good recovery.

Douglas McCouski, eight years old, is ill with an attack of pneumonia.

MOTHER'S TEA AT H. S. ON TUESDAY

Invitations have been sent to all mothers who have children in Miss Leonardson's first grade room, asking them to be the guests of Miss Leonardson and Mrs. Ray at a Mother's Tea Tuesday, March 31 at the high school cafeteria from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Miss Ray is very much interested in Mother's clubs and it is certain that an active organized club is one of the most efficient devices in promoting standards of good citizenship.

This is the first of a series of teas and it is hoped this first attempt may be an indication of the community's interest in future Northville citizens.

WATCH LIGHTS, WARNS TROOPER

When a tall rangy state trooper walked into The Record office one day this week it looked like the entire staff was going to take an enforced vacation of approximately thirty days.

However, the "arm of the law" merely desired to tell us that motorists in this vicinity are being requested to pay special attention to the lights on their cars. There is a detachment of six officers under Sergeant Bruce McGlone stationed at Wayne and it has been decided that the roads around Northville are to be assiduously patrolled.

"Motorists should carry an extra set of bulbs," said Sergeant McGlone, "in case of an emergency. We expect to descend pretty heavily on offenders this year."

L. B. CHARTER HAS GARDEN ALL SPADED

To have the garden ready for planting by the last week in March is "soft test" but to have accomplished this task by his own hands, with a spade, as the record of L. B. Charter at the age of 70 years. The garden is a full sized lot off South Wing street and each morning when the weather was favorable Mr. Charter has been at work with his spade, his theory being that ground which is turned up is "sweetened" and better ready for early planting.

Mr. Charter also owns a piece of land on the opposite side of the street where he raises all kinds of small fruits among his apple trees. He is the son of one of the pioneer fruit growers of this section, working with his father when a boy on the eight acre fruit farm on the south side of town on the old "Shutts homestead." At times they employed 50 pickers and shipped one season 20 bushels of large thimble berries, beside quantities of other berries to Detroit.

PREMIUM AWARDS DECIDED FOR '31 FAIR

A. E. Fuller of Northville, board member in charge of the poultry department of the Michigan State fair, conferred with John L. McNamara, secretary of the Michigan State Fair, last Saturday and A. J. Schummel, superintendent of the poultry department, regarding the premium awards for the 1931 fair.

In keeping with the economy plan throughout all State institutions it was decided a very conservative premium list should be drawn up for the 1931 fair. Every precaution has been taken to protect the high standard of the poultry exhibits which have been an outstanding feature at the fair, said Mr. Fuller. Poultry, pigeon and rabbit premiums are as attractive for the 1931 exhibitors as they have been in the past.

During the 1930 Michigan State Fair he said, the poultry show was on an equal with any exhibition of its kind held in the United States and it is with this intention that the officers have started arrangements for the 1931 fair.

MAGICIAN THURSTON THRILLS 500 KIDDIES AT TRAINING SCHOOL

It is doubtful if the famous magician Thurston ever had a more enthusiastic audience than 500 boys and girls of the Wayne County Training school who trooped into the auditorium Monday afternoon.

From the very first minute they were captivated by this man who showed that he loved children. When asked, "How many of you are going to have a good time?" such a shout of "Yes" went up from his young audience and it was certain that they enjoyed every minute of the performance.

Called upon the platform singly and in groups, they responded eagerly to his requests and showed great delight and surprise when Dr. Thurston pulled from the open mouth of a little covered box a new dollar bill (which he gave the boy) and from their pockets, white rabbits. Even their beloved Dr. Haskell submitted to an examination and how surprised they were when the lost guinea pig was found in his vest! The climax came when the magician was taking quantities of eggs from a hat and handing them to the children when one little girl grew so excited that she flung them broadcast into the startled audience.

Thurston was obliged to leave early to fill a broadcasting engagement and scarcely tear himself away from the children who called eagerly "Good-bye, come again" as they waved farewell. The big hearted magician lingered lovingly to wave back repeatedly. His assistant completed the program.

This entertainment is one of several which have been given for the children of this institution by those who have manifested their interest in them by this volunteer service.

Now that spring housecleaning days are approaching closets and attics will be ransacked and their contents will be hung out in the sunshine and air. Among these things will be much to discard because outgrown or out of date. Instead of throwing away clothing or other useful articles wrap them in bundles and notify some member of the King's Daughters who will see that these articles are put where they will do the most good. None know better than these good friends of the needy how to best dispose of these things to best advantage. Please call Mrs. W. H. Safford, phone number 14.

BUSY SEASON OPENS AT FISH HATCHERY

One of the most interesting phases of the conservation movement is being carried on right here in Northville at the United States Fish Hatchery, under the direction of E. L. Shippes, and Superintendent L. Q. Carman says that spring is the busiest period of the year at the hatchery. He states that millions of fish are being hatched and prepared for distribution to the lakes and rivers of Michigan, and that this year alone about a million and a half brook trout and almost as many rainbow trout have been hatched and will be ready April 15 to be shipped north to be planted in the streams of upper Michigan. "Very few of this type of fish are used in supplying the rivers of southern Michigan because the waters are generally too warm."

"Later in the season," Mr. Carman went on to state, "Bass are hatched, and by July or August are of sufficient size to be planted in the lakes of this section of the state."

"At the present time," he went on, "we have on hand two important shipments which will soon be large enough to send to the lakes. They consist of 50,000 Loch-Leven trout and some Landlocked salmon from Maine."

WHEN TO BE OUT OF THE SCHOOL BUILDING

At the regular assembly Wednesday Mr. Amernat made an announcement as to getting out of the building after school.

With a few exceptions students are to be out of the building at 3:30. This gives the student fifteen minutes to do his or her visiting or business.

However, this rule will not pertain to those pupils staying after school also, if there is business to be attended to, the student will see Mr. Amernat and arrange a way to get out of the building when his business is finished.

These rules will help to clear the halls and assembly room of unnecessary talking and noise.

ENGLISH CLASS SHOWS GOOD SELF-CONTROL

Mrs. Chapman was not present Friday, but the ninth grade English class conducted its own recitation. They had their four weeks test without any disturbance.

This is a very commendable feeling for it develops initiative and a feeling of responsibility on the part of the students. In many large schools today the pupils conduct their own classes regularly and help which needed.

This feeling of responsibility will help our school.

JUNIOR CAMP FIRE NOTES

The Junior Camp Fire girls held a meeting Wednesday, March 18, 1931. We had a business meeting and then we decided to go to Cass Beaton park next Saturday.

We are going to meet at 11:30 on Saturday and will take out and back.

We have four new members: They are Jean Robinson; Helen Johnson; Eleanor Grosvenor and Betty Winterstein.

Mary Jane Gregory suggested that we have a paper. We voted and so we will have it. Mary Jane Gregory is Editor. We will call it the C. F. G. NEWS. It will be published every two weeks.

JACKIE COOGAN FILM COMING TO NORTHVILLE

Through the efforts of Mr. Ruggles and the cooperation of the manager of the Penniman Allen theatre Northville high students and townspeople will have the opportunity to see Jackie Coogan in his famous talking picture, "Tom Sawyer."

This film has been secured by special permission and will be run Thursday evening April 2 as a benefit performance for the Athletic fund.

Here is a chance to enjoy an evening of fine entertainment and at the same time help a very worthy cause. Don't miss it.

CLASS ACTIVITIES

MISS B. Ponsford's French class are now using "Practice exercises" in French. The purpose of this book is to strengthen weak places in basal text now in use. To give pupils extra practice on points that are troubling them, to drill on verb forms. The book is mostly drills.

The senior review class has so been arranged that each member spends two periods on his work, daily.

The regular class period the members meet and correct papers, they also discuss any questions. During the rest of the day four or five members meet in Mrs. Cobb's room each period and work their assignments.

HAVE YOU NOTICED?

There must be a large attraction in English class now-a-days for Mary Jane Junod has not been late for class in the past week. I wonder what it could be?

Do you suppose our prominent Mayor or Alex Johnson could possibly have a crush on a girl here in school that would cause him to come early and leave late? Well, we'll leave that up to you to decide.

I wonder why Monroe Weston is coming to school all dressed up these fine days? Can it be spring?

And have you noticed that Evelyn Davis has had her golden locks clipped off?

W. L. Watson Announces Woodmen of World Gathering in Grand Rapids April 26-28

THE state-wide head camp meeting of the Woodmen of the World of Michigan and Wisconsin will be held in Grand Rapids, Mich., April 26, 27 and 28, according to an announcement today by Head Consul William L. Watson of Detroit.

The head camp meetings are held every two years, and according to Head Consul Watson, delegates and members of their families will journey from all parts of Michigan and Wisconsin for the meeting this year at Grand Rapids.

W. A. Fraser

The Woodmen of the World is exceptionally interested in Michigan, and Wisconsin because the national association owns almost $500,000 worth of Michigan and Wisconsin municipal, county and state securities.

Head Consul Watson stated that many new members are now being obtained and will be initiated in one large class at the time of the head camp meeting.

The Honorable W. A. Fraser is president of the Woodmen of the World Life Insurance Association. He is one of the leading fraternalists of the world. He has had more than 30 years experience in the fraternal insurance field. He has been associated with the Woodmen of the World since 1897. For many years Mr. Fraser has been active in the field of public and community service. During the World War he was connected with the bureau of conservation of natural resources and chairman of the advisory board for the division of military and naval insurance.

The Woodmen of the World last June 6 celebrated its fortieth birthday.

Climbing steadily, the Woodmen of the World now is the strongest fraternal organization in existence, recently being declared 104.6 percent solvent, holding total investments in securities of over $98,000,000 with gross assets amounting to over $102,000,000.00. The membership of the society is estimated over 500,000. Since its organization in 1890 the Woodmen of the World has paid in death losses and disability benefits more than $203,000,000.

Two of the largest enterprises that have placed the Woodmen of the World in the fore ranks of progressive fraternal Insurance societies, and made it nationally prominent are the War Memorial Hospital at San Antonio, Texas, and Radio Station WOW at Omaha, Nebraska.

At the present time the Woodmen of the World is constructing a $150,000 Chapel and Bird Sanctuary at San Antonio on the grounds of the Memorial Hospital.

AN OUTING AT YERRES LAKE

By Jessie Roe

The following story contains the names of one hundred and ten Northville people.

Last year, on Summer's day, the sons of three prominent men of Northville, Richardson, Johnson and Thompson started out to have a Regatta. Richard, John and Thompson were English, with Foster parents, and he said, "Ware Wood we go and Watt Wood we do? We might go to Weih."

"No-lets go to some big Lake that isn't Riley, where we can get a boat and Casteline and fish."

Peter's health was poor, he had Hay fever, his complexion was slow and they had thought he Wood Deye, but Stephen's and William's health was fine.

They decided to take a colored lady, Moose, with his Brown dog, Bruno and horse and wagon to carry the provisions. Peter was a great Wheeler of but his dad had just traded his wheel for an Austin Car and Stephen said, "I wish my Nags was broke so I could Ryder-shell go ahead but I can't Turner."

They finally decided on the large and beautiful Yerres Lake. Richard, John and Thompson were in the boat and Richard said, "We're all good walkers and its not a Long way and we'll be back by Knight" so they went.

Went the back-road though it was a great Deal farther, so as not to pass the Parson's who was a devout Christian with a Long beard and might not put his Stamp of approval on the trip. Their first stop was at Heavens the Barbour for a gun as they might see a Bird and Killif, then at Elwood's the Baker said bought their lunch, they fe- Stewards for pop which all fishermen Love-well. THREE MEN NEEDED TO HOLD FIRE HOSE

By Jessie Roe

It takes three men to hold the nozzle of the fire-hose on the big truck of the Northville fire department and that same hose, being an inch and a half nozzle will rip the shingles off the roof of a House 100 feet away.

Rhemhold Kiken, driver and care taker of the truck, explained the complicated mechanism of the huge Ahrens-Fox truck.

"We carry 12,000 feet of hose, an extension ladder, an attic ladder, a roof ladder and three small chemical tanks beside an 80 gallon tank carrying water."

The truck will pump 3000 gallons of water a minute, 1000 gallons for each of the three hose-lines. The average pressure turned on is approximately 100 pounds but it is possible to release a stream of water carrying 400 pounds pressure, providing the men holding the nozzle can manage to control it.

The hose, using an inch and a half nozzle, has proved invaluable in this town. We merely play the stream on the roof, tear off the smoldering shingles as easily as you would peel an apple, and without any risk to the men, the blaze can be extinguished."

Five officers of the Northville department are: Chief, Fred Hicks; Assistant, Gary Deal; Captain, Clayton Walker; 1st Lieutenant, John Raymond; and 2nd Lieutenant, Harvey Van Valkenburgh.

having become tired of fishing after getting a fine haul of muskellunge, pickerel and trout, had gone up on the banks where they were seated under a clump of Alder trees on the north side of a hill eating Biers and discussing the Wickersham report. The boys were hungry and were not at all glib so made a raid on the garden, which contained a wonderful lunch, and were just sampling some Good ale.

Just at this stage of the game the owners of the boat emerged from the State flowers, white as Snow, that were in bloom and found a great deal of business on the overhanging branches. The English boy said, "I wish we had stayed Oim and not got in such a mess."

Just then along came a German, a Scott and a Welshman who had been to the lake to Hunt Snipe but had only seen a few Martins and a Crow.

So the boys went on and finally arrived at the beautiful lake where they discovered an elegant new steam yacht painted Gray with a Cole black canvas and sail surrounding it. They went on deck and it was beautifully furnished with Morris chairs and Reed furniture. No expense had been spared in the furnishings. This beautiful fruit was the property of Dr. Cuthbert Nelson Schrader, who had also chosen this popular summer resort and

PALM SUNDAY
The whole Christian world will pay homage to the Christ King during the whole of next week commencing with Palm Sunday. The pastor will preach next Sunday on "The Triumphant Christ." The Junior choir will sing the processional hymn "All Glory, Laud and Honor," saying that the palms through the aisles as they onward sing. These palms come from the pastor's Florida gardens.

The chancel choir have arranged under the direction of Roy Clarke, a classic of music for the morning service.

Many mothers are bringing their precious little ones for baptism. Let us all come and rejoice in our triumphant redemption.

The church school under the superintendency of Floyd Lanning and Ous Tewsbury, will meet at the close of the service.

Our young people's devotional service of the Epworth League will meet at 6:30.

In the evening let us all remember the united service at 7:30. The Presbyterian choir will take the place of our own and the Rev. H. Gladstone Whitfield will deliver the sermon. Come on folks, let us stir ourselves and show the community as church people, that we believe in the church and our loyalty to our blessed Lord.

GOOD FRIDAY
This church has for the past nine years inaugurated the services for this blessed day in memory of our Lord's crucifixion, inviting the other churches to be present with us. We shall continue to do so on Good Friday in next week, April 3. We have welcomed the King's Daughters to these services, giving them the preeminence asking the community to be present and give their offering for their Christian work "In His Name," which is their motto.

This year the Rev. H. Gladstone Whitfield will be the preacher. We discover that the public has been more interested in our own pastors than the special efforts we have made to secure an outside speaker.

We play for the same interest this year. All the public is invited. The stores will be asked to close from 12:00 noon to 3:00 in the afternoon. The service commencing at 3:30 and closing promptly at 4:45.

Let all the people of our church remember their sacrificial offering in their Lenten boxes. A few pennies a day will mean much during the forty days of Lent with the Passion Week title as a climax. Bring your boxes and place in the Josiah box on Easter Sunday morning which will be placed at the entrance of the church.

Novi Methodist Church
We trust for our normal interest in attendance next Sunday when the pastor, Rev. Wm. Richards will preach at 2:30.

St. Paul's Lutheran

DO YOU KNOW THE LOVE OF CHRIST?

Miraculous is the Father's love to the world in giving His only begotten Son as the Savior, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. No less wonderful is the Son's love, who gave Himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savor. But Christ has done more. In agreement with an eternal divine counsel He founded the Church, that astonishing invisible Temple, outlasting time. Every true believer, no matter where located nor what his antecedents, is a stone in this Temple. What an honor and comfort for Christians to be counted by God as stones in this everlasting Building, His Church! Verily, the love of Christ, who gathered us from the mass of perdition and is still gaining lost sinners for Himself, and His magnificent structure, is knowledge-surpassing, beyond comprehension. Let us daily strive to know and appreciate this love of Christ ever more!

Splendid indeed, was again the attendance at last Sunday's service. "Blessed are they that hear the Word of God and keep it," says the Lord. The theme for this Sunday-morning worship, which will begin at the usual time, 11 o'clock, will be, "Christ the Lamb of God—The Way to Life."

On Tuesday evening, March 31st, at 8 o'clock, the Church Council, all the officers of the congregation will have their regular meeting in the church hall.

Good Friday service will be held at 8 p.m. Theme of discourse: "The Death of Jesus Christ." In connection with this service the Lord's Supper will be celebrated. Registration for the sacrament to be made at the parsonage on Thursday evening, April 2nd.

The Easter Sunday worship will be held in the English language. Theme: "Why is Easter a day of special joy and thanksgiving to all true Christians?"

The Voters of the congregation will have their regular quarterly meeting on the first Monday evening in April, the 5th, at 8 p.m.

The Ladies Aid will meet on the second Thursday of April beginning at 2 o'clock in the church hall.

The Lutheran church of the Massachusetts Synod broadcasts 3 times each week over Station WXYZ. Every Sunday afternoon from 2 to 2:15, every Thursday evening from 10 to 10:30 over the Columbia network, and every Friday noon from 1 to 1:15. Everyone is cordially asked to tune in on these broadcasts.

St. Paul's Lutheran extends the invitation of the Lord Jesus to all. Come in unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest.

First Presbyterian Church

Let us have the church full at the Palm Sunday service held at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning, March 29 at 10:30. Special music will be rendered by the choir. At the close of this service the sacrament of Holy Baptism to infants will be administered. Rev. Walter Nichol of the First Presbyterian church of Plymouth will assist in the services of Christening.

At 7:30 in the evening the union service will be held in the Methodist church.

The annual meeting of this congregation will be held in the church house Thursday, April 9, at 6:30. Kindly have the reports of various organizations ready to submit.

The regular meeting of the Junior Christian Endeavor society will be held Monday afternoon at 3:30 in classrooms 2 and 4.

The Young People's society will hold its meeting on Thursday evening, April 2 at 7:30.

Sunday, April 5th is Easter Sunday. The reception of members and the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be impressive features of this service.

Do not fail to listen in on the Lenten services from Temple theatre, Detroit, over WWJ The Detroit News, from 12:15 to 12:50 daily. Dr. M. S. Rice is the speaker for these last two weeks.

Bear in mind the Good Friday-union service this year to be held on Friday afternoon in the Methodist church. The minister of the Presbyterian church is the speaker.

Our Lady of Victory Church
The Altar society is giving another of its Bake Sales at the Palace Meat Market tomorrow morning, March 28. Day after tomorrow is Palm Sunday.

The palms will be blessed and distributed at the 8 o'clock Mass. The complete ceremonies are in the Missal on Mass Book.

On Holy Thursday, April 2, the church will be open all day for private devotions. The new side altar will be used that day, and will be decorated for the purpose. Many Catholics have the custom of visiting a number of churches throughout the day.

For the first time in the history of Northville the complete schedule of Holy Week services will be carried out on next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. These ceremonies are entirely different from any others in the Catholic church. The Missal explains them, and we shall have other booklets also that follow the complete program.

Thursday commemorates the Last Supper. The ceremonies surround the institution of the Sacrament of our Lord's Body and Blood, as well as its practical application. The services begin at 7 a.m. to enable the children to attend before school. At the beginning of Mass all the bells are rung and then silenced until the beginning of Saturday Mass (A respectful reminder of Christ's entombment). Following Mass is the procession with the side altar. Servers close with the beautiful discharging of the main altar of all its coverings.

We shall close our novena Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. There will be no evening services on Wednesday.

Good Friday services begin at 8 a.m. First, a reading of a number of the Prophecies from the Old Testament concerning the life, sufferings, and death of the Messiah. Prayers are then recited for all peoples of all conditions and states in life, as Christ Himself did. The unveiling of the cross, exposing the crucified Savior is the next impressive as well as significant ceremony. Priest, altar boys, and congregation now take part in grateful veneration of the crucifix, deeply reminding them of the Price at which they were bought. The Passion from St. John's Gospel is read. The ceremonies are closed with what might be called Christ's Funeral Mass.

Special afternoon services beginning at 1:30. None in the evening.

Holy Saturday services begin at 8 a.m. with the striking of the Easter fire in the vesicle. (This designates the flash of the new era in the world's history.) From this fire the triple candle (representing the Trinity) is lighted and carried in procession to the sanctuary. The Easter water is blessed, and the water for Baptism for the year is consecrated with the holy oils that were blessed by the bishop at the cathedral on Thursday.

The Easter or paschal candle is placed on a special stand to be lighted every day until Ascension day. After chanting the Litany of the Saints the first Mass of Easter day is sung with the bells again ringing out the glad tidings of the Arisen Savior!

Question: Are Protestants allowed at Catholic services?

Answer: There are NO rules of the Catholic church forbidding it.

Months of Depression During the Winter Bring Out Heroism in Many Homes of This Community

It is news if we mention that a member of the community has had an accident but it is not considered very startling news to say that right here in Northville have been enacted deeds of real, genuine heroism during the past winter. At the door of more homes than the public would guess has the wolf of want howled.

Unknown to outsiders, economies almost beyond belief, it is said, have been practiced. One merchant tells us that never before have people pinched the pennies so hard. It is not uncommon, he says, for a customer to lay down 15 cents and say, "Please give me the most that will buy." One family of four has lived for months on the $5 which the father was only too glad to have a chance to earn. (This did not include rent.)

Many a brave little mother has gone without necessities, authoritaries say, that her husband and children could go forth to business and school properly clad and fed. Such planning and patching, and twisting of resources as many women have hidden behind a mask of good spirits! Cases are recorded in which wives have stepped into the unemployment breach and have worked outside the home while the husband cooked the food and washed the dishes. Swallowing their pride, some families, bitten too deep by the cruel teeth of poverty, have had to appeal for help who never did this before. Be it said to the credit of Northville that no case of known want has gone unheeded.

The King's Daughters have helped twice as many as ever before in their history and by utmost tact, their visiting chairman has found her way into the confidence of those who would otherwise have suffered. Children have been provided with shoes so that they could continue school and empty larders have been supplied.

But "Cheerio" Spring is here! It has rained for a few days. Buds are swelling, robins are singing. It's better round the corner. And Northville is much better off than many other places.

Baptist Church Notes

Services at this church will continue to draw heart and mind to those events which came during our Lord's last week. The morning discourse will be "The Agony in the Garden," and the evening, "The Crucifixion." These sermons are preparatory to the Easter sermon which will come then on "Jesus and The Resurrection." The hours of service are morning worship at 10:30, Bible school at 11:45, evening service at 7:30 and 8:30. P. M. groups, senior and junior, at 8:30.

Next week we are going to have 35 people journeying to the Highland Congregational church last Sunday evening to render a special service in behalf of missions. All members of this church and congregation are requested to attend the Good Friday services at the M. E. church next week, Friday, April 3 at 1:30 to 2:45 p.m. Rev. Harold G. Whitfield, pastor of the First Presbyterian church will be the preacher.

GOOD FRIDAY WILL BE COMMEMORATED HERE

Very impressive services will be held by the Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist churches at the Methodist church on Good Friday afternoon for an hour from one to two o'clock. At this commemorative service, which is the ninth succession, observance of this significant occasion held in Northville, all three of these pastors will participate. Rev. Wm. Richards will officiate. The opening prayer will be made by Rev. Barker and the sermon will be preached by Rev. Harold G. Whitfield. Appropriate hymns will be sung by the audience with special music sung by the vested choir, both the junior and senior choirs.

Preeminence in this service is given to the King's Daughters whose motto "In His Name" has moved them to many good works. Members of this organization will act as ushers and the group will sit together.

Woman's Club Hears Capt. Denniston Talk

Captain Denniston declared that he had no faith in the reformation of prisoners. The aim of the Detroit House of Correction, he said, was to industrialize the inmates and give them some form of trade to learn, and then used to working, and then when their time was up, try to make them see the advantages of working at their honest occupations. The House of Correction, he explained has its own laundry, maintains a large cannery, a large sewing room where commercial work is done, and other enterprises through which the girls are kept busy.

"People," stated Captain Denniston, "seem to expect that the warden should be able to accomplish what the home, the school, and the church should have accomplished years before the offender is brought to him."

"How many of you women to whom I am speaking today know where your Johnny and your Dorothy will be at ten o'clock tonight or where they have been spending their evenings? Do you know what company they keep? In short, just how close is your supervision over your children? Are your sons and daughters being trained to work or are you letting them reach the point where some warden will be asked to teach them these things years from now?"

The point was raised by one of the members of the club that prisoners were not receiving any real punishment.

"Lady," said Captain Denniston, "deprivation of an individual's liberty is a terrible thing. If I were to shut you in the most luxurious hotel for a period of just 60 days you would become a raving maniac."

Amid much laughter, the lady declared that she doubted it.

Captain Denniston paid much tribute to the efficiency of Mrs. Campbell who has charge of the 396 women who are imprisoned in the House of Correction. The women inmates are domiciled in eight cottages the cheapest of which, Captain Denniston declared, was built at a cost of $67,000. The women have their recreation rooms, each cottage has its own dining room, there are moving pictures, outdoor sports, and practically every modern convenience for living comfortably.

The girls come to us because of two reasons, lack of home training, or lack of industrial training," said Captain Denniston, "but in spite of the fact that they are in prison, they are really just You and I, just human folks."

ENEMIES By Wellington Roberts

An enemy is a greatly underrated individual. We simply haven't learned to appreciate him. He resembles a weed which has been designated as a plant, whose worth has not been found. Of course, too many weeds are an embarrassment as they take up too much of our time eradicating them. In the same way, too many enemies become a burden, a nuisance and prevent us from appreciating our friends.

One good, active, enterprising enemy is a valuable asset to a person who knows how to utilize him. He acts as a sort of range finder. You know from your actions when you have overstepped the boundary of good sense. He keeps you posted accurately on the opinion your neighbors have of you. This is a great value, for how else are you to find out? Your friends certainly won't tell you, even in a kindly way, many of the things you ought to know, or how you are regarded by that large and indifferent group who are neither your friends or your enemies.

A life without an enemy or two would be as flat as candy diet. He adds that dash of social pepper that seasons your daily life until it has some taste. But too many enemies, like too much pepper, make life too hot and unwholesome. Therefore be careful when you select an enemy. You find a good honest enemy. An enemy who will keep you on the qui vive, an enemy who will watch you like a hawk and swoop down on you at the first sign of carelessness on your part, an enemy whom you suspect knows a bit more than he tells. Such an enemy helps you walk the straight and narrow way when your inclinations is to choose the broad way too well lighted. Such an enemy will make you stand guard over your speech lest it betray you into his hands and bring ridicule on you in the house of your friends.

The Bible is right when it says "Love your enemy." He is really doing you more good than you suspect. He may be irritating, but so is a mustard plaster. We are obsessed with an idea that he can harm us, while as a matter of fact, no one can harm us, but ourselves. He may sting us a little like a mosquito, but that is no reason that we should treat him as a mosquito and try to slap him. Besides haven't you noticed that when you slap the mosquito, you strike yourself too? It is in the very nature of things that every man deserves one good enemy.

S. L. BRADER'S STORE STARTS LARGE SALE

One of the big events of the coming week that directly concerns thrifty Easter buyers, is S. L. Brader's huge sale starting Saturday, March 28 and carrying on through until Saturday, April 4.

The sale, according to Mr. Brader, is a profit-sharing one, an attempt on the part of the department store to meet the pocketbook of the public and to give them as large values as they ever received before at greatly reduced prices.

Prices on women's shoes and hosiery, children's clothing and men's clothes have been slashed and cut right down to cost in order to give real bargains.

"If we can just help our customers over the present rough spots," said Mr. Brader, "we will be doing them a great favor and at the same time we will be showing them our appreciation for their steady patronage of the past. Our store is their store and only through the mutual cooperation of the customer and the business man will our store survive. Just a glance at the goods on our counters and the prices marked thereon will convince even the most skeptical buyer that we are offering these bargains with the utmost sincerity."

"MERRY GO ROUND GIRLS" ENTERTAIN

A group of women who have for a long time called themselves "The Merry Go Round Girls," motored to Detroit last Friday to the home of one of their members, Mrs. Cias. Filkins, taking along a delicious pot luck dinner. A very pleasant day was spent by these old friends. The affair was a surprise upon Mrs. Filkins.

$65 IS LOST, FOUND, RETURNED

Mrs. Gladys Smith is feeling pretty grateful that $65 in currency which she lost Monday afternoon was found and restored to her. The money was in a pocketbook in a small handbag and was found by Mrs. Loretta Lanning who found papers inside that enabled her to return the money promptly. The money belonged to Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. John Cooper and was to be used to pay doctor's and hospital bills.
