$1.50 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

WINS SPELLING HONORS FOUR YEARS IN ROW

Mary Elkington Takes Championship In School "Bee"

For the fourth year in succession, Mary Elizabeth Elkington, twelve year old 8th grade student of the Northville junior-high school, has won the spelling championship of her class but this year she clinched her feat by winning the school championship also. She spelled down 39 other boys and girls Friday morning in the contest conducted under the auspices of The Detroit News at the Northville high school.

The runner-up was Dorothy Vroman, who missed in the word "allergic" spelling it with a "t". The spelling bee was held in the high school room with 99 youngsters, comprising the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grades, all lined up and waiting for Mrs. Ida Barclay Cooke to give them the words, hopeful of winning the large atlas which is offered as the prize.

One by one they were spelled out. Some missed on hard words that many an adult has difficulty with, and others went down on simple words that they knew but were too nervous to remember. Under the rules of the contest, the spellers may not even start spelling a word until they are sure they are correct. For example, if they start to spell a word and start wrong, they may not retract the letter's spoken. Once uttered the letters must stand fast. Starts were frequent and many enthusiastic spellers who began to speak before they were completely ready went to their seats resolved that next year they would wait just a moment longer before talking.

The grade winners had to triumph previous to the school contest and they will receive large dictionaries for their efforts.

The grade winners were as follows: 5th grade, Frances Hamilton, 6th grade, Frances German, 7th grade, Isabelle Tewksbury, 8th grade, Mary Elizabeth Elkington.

District championship will be decided April 27 at Plymouth.

On their way to Angola, Ind. early last Saturday morning, the car in which James Spagnuolo, Paul Martino and A. P. Fabiano were driving was struck by the trailer of a big truck and was overturned three times in a ditch on U. S. 112. Unwittingly, or otherwise, it is said the driver went on his way without stopping to help the unfortunate men who were obliged to help each other and scramble out of their difficulty as best they could.

It chanced that they were near a small four-cornered named Moscow, Plains, five miles east of Jonesville, where medical assistance could be called. None of the men were seriously hurt but are still uncomfortable with wrenched backs and a number of bad bruises. Paul Martino wears a wet wrap on his forehead.

The car was so badly damaged that it was necessary to abandon it and hire a Moscow man to drive them home. The loss to the car is covered by insurance.

"The Stethoscope," Sanitarium Paper Has Interesting History; Editor Anderson Wins Uphill Battle Against Obstacles

There are war correspondents who send their "copy" back to the home newspaper to be published, but few newspapers are published on the verge of the battlefield as is "The Stethoscope," the brilliant, cherry "sheet" of the Eastlawn sanitarium, edited by A. L. Anderson, and published in The Record printing shop.

The sanitarium is the battlefield and many are the tales of heroism, personal sacrifice and prolonged struggle with the grim specter that could be told if those who participate in the contests could be persuaded to talk. But no—they ask no quarter, no favoritism, just an even break with life.

Many win out in their tremendous fight—the mailing list of "The Stethoscope" points to a large aggregate of former patients, now fully recovered and enjoying robust health. The publication reaches into the Orient, Changsha Hunan, and at home it covers half the states in the union.

It all started when A. L. Anderson, the present editor and P. L. Fauslon put their heads together in January of 1930 and decided that a paper with a touch of humor and treating with subjects that the patients would want to know about would find a firm niche in the sanitarium life. The first tustles of the Stethoscope, a single page, the paper rose up on its tiny feeble legs and cried for inspiration.

O. R. Alshire, patient and former journalist came to the aid of "Andy" and the two put out a six page paper that went straight to the hearts of all those who read it.

Impressed with the possibilities of their project, Andy and Alshire gathered a staff of reporters, found an

JUDGE JOS. H. COLLINS DISMISSES THE SUIT TO REMOVE HARRY S. GERMAN

Jurist Holds That Frank N. Perrin Was Not Proper Person to Bring Action Against Mayor

The proceedings brought by Frank N. Perrin to oust Harry S. German from his office as president of the village of Northville, were dismissed by Judge Joseph H. Collins of Corunna sitting in Wayne county circuit court last Monday morning.

The suit was thrown out on the motion of F. J. Cochran, attorney for Mr. German on the grounds that Mr. Perrin was not the proper person to bring quo warranto proceedings since he cannot prove that Mr. German's holding office is of more interest to him than to any other person. The proper person in this instance, according to Mr. Cochran, would have been Charles A. Dolph, the candidate who has opposed Mr. German for the office of mayor in the next election.

Mr. Dolph had already signified that he had no interest in the proceedings and therefore the complaint was not recognized in court as being valid.

When asked for a statement, Mr. Perrin said that he or the party he represents, had nothing to say but that the proceedings would be dropped.

Mayor German, in response to questions declared, "Well, I am still the official that the voters made me elect on day. I said little while I was helpless and the good people placed me back in office. Now that I am in, I shall say little but appreciate much."

During this business depression, it is going to be one of the hardest things in life for our village commissioners to make much of business or municipal improvements. However, they have extreme confidence that they will preserve the high standard of village municipality, keep well intact our village assets and at the same time lower or keep our tax rate at low tide.

German Called to Lansing

Just before going to press, The Record has learned that Mayor German has received a letter from Paul W. Voorhies, attorney general, asking him to appear at a special hearing in Lansing at 9:30 Friday morning.

Mr. Voorhies has been asked, presumably by the same persons who started the quo warranto proceedings, to lend his name to action to remove Mr. German from office pending any movements in this direction. Mr. Voorhies has asked Mr. German to appear for a hearing.

MISS ANNA SMITH HONORED AT YPSI

In response to the invitation of the Ypsilanti Woman's club 18 members of the Northville Woman's club attended an honor luncheon Wednesday afternoon when nine Michigan women were given public recognition for unusual accomplishments.

Following a fine organ recital by Prof. Keller and a splendid address by Miss Elizabeth Downing, Miss Giddard singled out the nine women from all parts of the state who were seated upon the front row, whom Michigan "delighted to honor." Among them were those who had achieved success in finance, in social service, in art and others in teaching. Among this group was our own Miss Anna Smith who was praised for giving herself to generations of childhood. Diplomas were conferred upon this distinguished group and Northville was proud to be represented in their number.

NOTED MEN TO SPEAK AT BIG LEGION MEET

Banquet Monday To Be Brilliant Event

Northville's celebration for Army Day, Monday, April 6, will center around the banquet to be given by the Lloyd Green post of the American Legion at the Presbyterian church house.

Congressman Seymour H. Pearson will be the main speaker of the program and by his side at the speakers' table will sit L. C. Hughes-Roller, British consul from Detroit, Capt. J. E. C. Stanley of the Canadian Legion, Alton J. Roberts, vice president of the 1931 Legion convention, committee of Detroit, Mrs. Ethel Smith, president of the Ladies Auxiliary, Michigan department, and Monsignor Patrick E. Dungan of Flint, who will be the toastmaster.

He had the gift of being able to plead with boys and get results, he could turn on a flow of swift, vitriolic anger that instead of making the player sulk, would arouse him to a fighting pitch that would take him flying through the roughest spots of football.

Radio services that were extended over the allotted time, but added testimony to the fact that the entire nation mourned the loss of a man who could thrill thousands with the aid of eleven football players.

Everyone had something to say concerning his death. Coach Ruggles of the Northville high school gave a short address to students saying, "Rockne was not only the idol of the American boy but his clean spirit and red blooded fighting qualities coupled with his indomitable sense of fair play, appealed to all who had ever heard of him."

Rev. Wm Roscoe Barbour said, "When I was younger, I played football and this helps me to a more personal realization of the great loss that football has suffered."

Chief of Police Wm Safford said, "He was a truly great man and it seems a shame that a man with his ability should be so suddenly cut down in the prime of life."

Rev. Wm Richards declared, "The sense of personal loss felt by the American people is tremendous. It is too bad that Rockne could not have lived a little longer to carry on his great work."

"Football has suffered a terrible blow," said Ted Cavell, high school student, "A long period of time will elapse before the game will see another coach as magnificent as he was."

COTTAGE THIEVES GET JAIL TERMS

George Hagermeister and Russell Ulrich of South Center street who were taken to Pontiac last week charged with breaking and entering into summer cottages in Oakland county, received sentences from seven and a half to fifteen years it was reported here by Chief Wm Safford. The minimum sentence was recommended by the judge.

The men had hidden a part of the stolen goods in Northville, intending to dispose of them in Detroit, which was recovered when they were apprehended.

Clifford Vance of 311 West Brooklyn avenue, Pontiac, who was also a member of the same gang, received a sentence of from five to fifteen years.

Officials are still hunting for more of the goods that were stolen. It is alleged that articles worth several thousands of dollars have been recovered from Detroit pawnbrokers who accepted them from the thieves.

NORTHVILLE'S BUSINESS PLACES CLOSE TODAY FOR GOOD FRIDAY OBSERVANCE

Special Services Will Mark Commemoration of Crucifixion; Easter to Bring Triumphant Hope of Resurrection

Looking forward to the commemoration of the two supreme events of all Christian history, the crucifixion and the resurrection of Christ, churches of Northville, in harmony with all Christendom, are remembering this sacrifice with appropriate services.

Beginning last Sunday with observance of Palm Sunday when the triumphal entry was recalled, special services were held in all the churches. Palms adorned the chancels and in each place of worship appropriate music was sung. "The Palms" predominating. At the Presbyterian and Methodist churches infants were presented for baptism, most impressive observances.

Each church observed the occasion of his own baby daughter, Betty Helen, by Rev. Harold Whitfield who was assisted in the service by Rev. Walter Nichols of Plymouth. The latter also spoke at the union service of the Presbyterian and Methodist church in the evening.

Today, Good Friday, is being observed by all Northville. Business places will close between 12 and 1 p.m. and the noise of trade will be hushed in reverent memory of the sublime sacrifice.

At Our Lady of Victory church special service will begin at 1:30 this afternoon. Tomorrow, Holy Saturday, will be observed with morning mass at eight o'clock.

St. Paul's Lutheran church will observe Good Friday this evening with a sermon by the pastor and communion.

The Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist churches will unite in a service at 1:30 this afternoon when each pastor will have a part. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. Harold G. Whitfield.

Because of their spirit of self-sacrifice the King's Daughters will be especially recognized at this time sitting together in reserved seats and acting as ushers.

Sunday will be Easter, when all the world looks up with the hope of Springtime.

A note of joy rings through all the plans for worship and all the world goes to church on Easter morning.

EATONS RETURN TO NORTHVILLE AFTER CALIFORNIA VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Elton R. Eaton arrived at their home in Northville Tuesday night following a delightful two months trip to California.

Mr. Eaton wearing a coat of tan and a wide cheery smile reported perfect weather on the south and the only hold-up of the entire trip occurred in Colorado when they ran into a snow blizzard that delayed them a couple of days. Mr. and Mrs. Eaton were in Holy Colorado, on the same day that four children of that town were marooned on a side road and frozen to death.

Business Mr. Eaton declares is "as sweet as California" although he says that he expects it to brighten considerably in the north with the coming of spring.

With reference to his trip and the pleasant time that they had, Mr. Eaton said that he and Mrs. Eaton had enjoyed every minute of their vacation and that "it feels pretty good to be back in the harness again."

We had a wonderful time watching the Mardi Gras spectacle in New Orleans and my only regret is that we didn't have more time to spend in that town. You know," he said, "I'd like to spend three or four weeks there. New Orleans is surely one of the most interesting cities in America. It has a large historic background and just to be there and take little trips around the vicinity would uncover immensely entertaining things."

The Rotary Anns were guests of the Rotarians at an elaborate dinner Tuesday evening at the Presbyterian church house. At beautifully appointed tables made festive by potted ferns, a delicious two-course menu was served to the company whose spirits were regaled by the usual laughter and song.

As acting president Fr. Joseph G. Schuler called for introductions of the guests of the evening, the ladies of the Rotary presented the lady at his side, other than his wife, to the company.

Edward Langfield was introduced by Fr. Schuler as chairman of the evening, who in turn introduced Dr. Richard Saley as chairman of the entertainment committee. Chas. Van Valenburgh, with his wife at the piano, led with spirit the singing of old Rotary favorites.

Four of the best story tellers of the party were called upon. Ed Langfield, Chas. Thornton, E. H. Lapham and F. J. Cochran vied with each other in telling the biggest "yarns." F. J. Cochran, though a "lawyer and an honest man" was said to "take the cake."

Dr. Saley then presented the real attraction of the evening, Miss Mary McLaughlin, a sister of E. H. McLaughlin, who is principal of Chicago high school. This lover of historical legend proved how fascinating may become the study of the past when she traced from its earliest stage the growth of the state along its "Old Indian Trail" which is now the most heavily travelled and shortest route from Detroit to Chicago, now U. S. 112.

Touching briefly upon the founding of Detroit by old Chief Cadillac in 1701, Miss McLaughlin carried her hearers by thrilling tales, through the days of the pioneers when congress appropriated $10,000 to make the trail through the forest passable for traffic. Over the trail passed many a historical train among them Daniel Webster is said to have travelled over this road.

Guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McLaughlin and Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Rogers.

NORTHVILLE'S SCHOOL BONDS BRING PROFIT

Issue of $45,000 Sold At Low Interest And Premium

Northville's $70,000 school debt has been reduced to $25,000 which will have all been paid off by 1946 through the medium of fifteen $3,000 serial bonds issued by the school board to the Fidelity Trust company of Detroit last Friday night.

The school had two bonds out, explained Superintendent Frank Knapp, a $50,000 bond that has been reduced to $37,500 and a $15,000 bond of which $7,500 has been paid through a sinking fund established three years ago.

To refund the balance of the debt, $45,000, the school board notified bonding companies that they would accept bids for the sale of Northville school bonds bearing interest under five per cent.

Representatives of five bonding companies met with the school board Friday and as no sealed bids had been submitted, an audible auctioning began.

The representatives competed with one another quoting five per cent interest and a small premium. Gradually the bidding became more spirited until only the Fidelity Trust company of Detroit with a bid of four and one half per cent interest and also a premium of $887 outlasted his competitors.

This, as Superintendent Knapp declared, was an excellent price for the bonds and reflects with credit upon the fine standing of the Northville school system among Detroit financial companies.

The school board received many compliments upon the good bargain they had made and educators all over the state sent messages of congratulation.

The first payment due on the bonds will be $3,800 to be paid on April 1, 1932 and thereafter the same payment will be made each year until 1946 when the debt will be entirely paid off. The sinking fund has been eliminated through this method of financing.

MRS. A. E. WHITEHEAD IS HONORED AT TWO FAMILY GATHERINGS

Showering unusual filial devotion Earl Whitehead drove 327 miles to do honor to his mother, Mrs. A. E. Whitehead on her sixty-ninth birthday anniversary last Saturday, March 22. Earl and his family came all the way from Woodstock, Ill. to be present at a gathering of friends and relatives who met at the Whitehead home on Randolph street for the happy occasion. There were thirty-six present from Detroit, Milan and Virginia Lake and each brought a contribution to the fine dinner which was enjoyed at noon.

The affair was a complete surprise upon Mrs. Whitehead who was liberally showered with gifts and felicitations from her friends Earl and his family were obliged to return home the following day.

Not to confound with this pre-arranged celebration, another group of relatives this time of the Whitehead side of the family, met at the home of A. E. Whitehead's brother, Alfred, next door, where another surprise on the guest of honor Mrs. Whitehead was carried out. At this occasion her three nieces, Mrs. Blanche Leadbetter, Mrs. Pearl Harrison and Mrs. Goldie Rutherford, with their families of Detroit were present. A happy day was spent with a big dinner and a birthday cake as a feature. Altogether Mrs. Whitehead is quite sure she has had a birthday.

We had a wonderful time watching the Mardi Gras spectacle in New Orleans and my only regret is that we didn't have more time to spend in that town. PICTURESQUE NORTHVILLE

Sunday was not a day for picking strawberries, yet we had a very pleasant half hour showing some visitors some of the scenic spots around Northville. We were impressed—as were they—that Northville has very remarkable building spots left for those who wish to get out into the open spaces and to enjoy the outdoors. There is no question that the trend of home building is away from the crowded cities to the smaller places. What finer place to live than Northville? Here we can combine the advantage of the smaller community with the benefit of the big city, right at our front door. "Keep your eye on Northville."

TOLERANT MIND

A lot of people claim to be fair-minded and tolerant. They say they give to every person the right to his opinion. But by the way some of these folks act, talk and write, we simply can't think they are sincere.

We are moved to say this after just having read an article in a well known Michigan weekly discussing capital punishment. The writer gets entirely off the issue of the death penalty and waxes sarcastic at the people and newspapers that don't think that capital punishment is a desirable thing for Michigan. Some very fine Michigan people are fighting capital punishment, yet because they honestly think that killing by the state is wrong and won't act as a crime deterrent, they are held up to scorn and ridicule and called molly-coddles and all that. Is that fair?

We ought to be able to discuss issues and not personalities. And the man who differs with us might possibly be just as sincere as we—and perhaps a little better informed.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

Has the religious depression anything to do with the material depression?

The daughter of Editor Muri H. DePoe of the Charlotte Republican-Tribune raises the question. She is attending college in the East and one Sunday evening recently she went to the Yale Hope Mission to hear an address to "down and outers" by Dr. William Lyons Phelps, one of the "big" men of Yale university. After this unusual experience she wrote home to her Dad about it and the conclusion of her letter was this:

I go rambling on, but I do wish you could have been here tonight when some of the "fellows" stood up and gave their testimonial and praised God. For some reason this type of procedure has always appeared melodramatic, but tonight the simple sincerity of it all, changed my whole attitude. It does seem as if mankind in general, keeps drifting further away from religion and it is a pity that many more couldn't have listened in at that meeting tonight, with one of the outstanding men of the country proclaiming the Christian life, along with the poor, unfortunate, down and outers. After all, without a belief in a God there isn't much left upon which to base or explain life and it seems that a religious depression has paralleled this material depression and I wonder if perhaps the first is responsible for the second?

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

Michigan citizens will go to the polls next Monday and decide whether or not this state will adopt capital punishment for first degree murder.

It is a serious question and every voter should inform himself or herself as fully as possible on the question. If one does not have convictions on the subject, we should say that he should not vote on such an important measure.

Good men are lined up on both sides of the issue. Gov. Wilbur M. Brucker asks for it and most of the police officials want the measure adopted. Jurists are about evenly divided on the matter. The preachers are also divided. In general, university and college professors see little chance of capital punishment being a crime deterrent. The newspapers generally seem in favor of it, although there are some notable exceptions, especially in the weekly field.

This newspaper will have to take its stand with Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing prison of New York—a state with the largest criminal element—against capital punishment. We do not think that capital punishment will do anything to stop our crime wave. For one thing there are too many handicaps to hanging or electrocuting a murderer. It is not going to be as easy for the state to kill as some proponents of the measure think. Many students of the issue are convinced that the ordinary jury will be very slow to convict even a murderer if the jurors realize that his life will be taken. If there is any shadow of doubt about his guilt, he will go free. Then too, after the state takes the life of a prisoner, it is too late to give it back, in case he is afterward found innocent. Again, when a man goes on trial for his life, he becomes a heroic figure to many people and there is so much emotionalism and sensation thrown around him that it becomes hard to convict.

Fear of the death penalty is said to stop murder. We doubt it. The investigations of experts do not bear out this argument. Warden Lawes says: "Executions for murder have never deterred murderers. As a matter of fact, in almost every jurisdiction legal executions have nearly always been followed by an increase in homicides." California is a capital punishment state but in 1923 there were 70 murders in Los Angeles. There were just nine who were convicted of first degree murder and only three of these were executed. Did this stop other murders? No. In 1929 there were 77 murders in Los Angeles. Another point about capital punishment is that there is little swift justice about it. If a man's life may be taken by the state, there will be no hurry about it. There will be a delay all along the line and if the prisoner has any money there will be more technicalities to delay justice. In New York state, we are told, 250 men waited for from six months to two years for the outcome of their death penalty trial. Surely that is leaden footed justice.

Both sides quote statistics to the point of exhaustion. However, there is one fact that is worth considering. Ohio, Indiana and Illinois have capital punishment. Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota do not. What are the murder rates in these two groups? Well here they are for a period of ten years. In the death states, per 100,000 of population, there were 7.8 murders while in the states that do not have the death penalty the rate was only 3.9. Does that indicate that capital punishment throws the rate of the law into the criminal's heart?

Well, asks someone, how are we going to stop crime and free the state from the attack of the gangster, the racketeer, the murderer? To our notion there is just one way. That way is to make punishment sure. The bandit is more afraid of sure punishment than anything else. What we need is fear of the law. What we need is the kind of justice they mete out in Canada and England. We need some of the old time respect for our laws and our institutions. If we make our justice quick and complete we shall put the criminals on the run. As long as we tolerate present conditions we shall have the problem of the crime wave. Capital punishment is not a panacea that is going to work wonders. The problem is too deep for that.

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

THE FIVE-DAY WEEK

M. H. DePoe in Charlotte Republican-Tribune

Base Ford is quoted in a Miami newspaper saying that we are having a five day week and a ten month working year. This is supposed to be good news. But is it?

With the general wage cut now going on, do workers can hope under the ten-month suggestion of Mr. Ford, to maintain the same standard of living he has enjoyed in the past decade. This is going to make for widespread discontent. This far capital has the money but public opinion is still the most effective weapon in this country. Two million dollars yearly salaries for tobacco executives are not going to be so hot "If you get what we mean Hungry men are not so much concerned with balance sheets. The majority, in other words, are not going to stay hungry—not in America."

A WHALE OF A DIFFERENCE (The Dearborn Independent)

Only a minute revolt on the part of the morning public can stop the trend toward higher gasoline taxes. The record of last year is illuminating. The tax was first introduced in Oregon in 1919, with a rate of one cent a gallon. New Mexico established the two-cent tax in 1920, and by 1923 seven states had a three-cent rate. Arkansas introduced the four-cent levy the following year and in 1926 Kentucky and South Carolina raised the ante to five cents. Then in 1929, three states joined to establish the present rate of six cents. Now rumblings are being heard of tax rates of eight for ten cents, or more, to be levied in the future. A large percentage of the legislature's meeting this year are giving consideration to increases.

No other tax has ever increased so fast, and no other commodity has been so heavily taxed. The possible exception of a few luxuries, such as cigarettes, has even the so great a tax levied against it. The high rates are not the end of the motorist's grievance. In various states his money has been used for sea walls, schools, and government buildings, waterways, general tax reduction and even cyclist conservation. All of these purposes, may be laudable, but they certainly should not be paid out of money spent by citizens for gasoline.

No relief will ever come from our legislators of their own volition. They are thoroughly impressed with the idea that the motorist will stand for almost anything. It is up to the public to paraphrase a well-known advertisement to show their officials what a whale of a difference just a few cents make.

INDECENT ADVERTISING (J. E. McMullen in the Linden Leader)

A lot of sobbers continue writing against the death penalty bill, but never a word do they write against the big tobacco trust for dragging semi-nude womanhood that full pages of daily papers in cigarette advertising. Shame on the womanhood of America for tolerating such indecencies in public print. Can you think of the face of your mother or sister being hooked up with such flagrant indecency and have it pushed under your eyes every day?

Nuerburg Ring, in the Rhineland district of Germany, is the world's largest automobile race course. It is laid out in the mountainous country near Adenau and will be the scene of an international automobile competition this summer, in which the United States has been invited to participate.

NO CROP ACREAGE CHANGE FOR 1931

The acreages of spring-sown crops which Michigan farmers reported on March 1 that they intended to plant, when combined with the acreage of winter-grains and tame hay, indicate a total acreage of principal crops amounting to 8,110,000 acres in comparison with 8,010,000 acres harvested last year. This represents an increase of 1.2 per cent, according to the report of the Michigan Co-operative Reporting Service at Lansing. Since there is often some abandonment of plans or inability to carry out fully the reported intentions, as well as abandonment of acreage after planting, the present report indicates little change in the acreage of principal crops for harvest in Michigan this year as compared with 1930.

Increases planned by Michigan farmers on March 1 were: corn, 9 per cent; oats, 3 per cent; barley, 23 per cent; and potatoes, 35 per cent. For field beans an intended reduction of 25 per cent was reported. Because of the loss of new seedlings caused by the drought last year, the acreage of tame hay intended for cutting this year promises to be about 4 per cent less than that harvested in 1930.

For the country as a whole, the report indicates decreases in spring wheat, flaxseed, and field beans. Moderate increases in corn, oats and tame hay, and marked increases in potatoes, barley, soybeans, and cowpeas. The intended increase in potatoes is 10.7 per cent, while the intended decrease in field beans is 15 per cent.

This statement of farmers' intentions to plant is not a forecast of the acreage that will actually be planted. Actual plantings depend upon subsequent weather, price changes, and other factors. The purpose of asking farmers to adjust their individual plans so as to secure normal rather than excessive or greatly deficient acreages, it should be kept in mind that the drought last year reduced the yield of late crops and that, on the average, the same acreages of these crops may be expected to return a much larger production.

An "A" Recitation

The class in public speaking was to give pantomimes that afternoon. One first group when called on, went to the platform and stood perfectly still.

"Well," said the Prof. after a moment's wait for something to happen, "What do you represent?"

"I'm imitating a man going up in an elevator," was the response.

And there is the story of the young speed demon whose best girl, Ruth, rode with him on the back seat of his motorcycle. While going at 55 miles an hour he hit a big bump—but he rode "ruthlessly" on.

SOCIETY NEWS
 Miss Eleanor Eaton, a former student of Northville, has arrived here for a week's visit with friends. Joy Smith, Genevieve Lairs, Marion Murphy were visitors Monday at Northville high school. They are students of Milford High.

Miss Ruth Doris Roberts, a member of the class of 1930, and now attending Albion college, visited Northville high school Monday, March 30. Hester Keller will spend her vacation with her sister in Detroit.

Kenneth and Lena Cole have returned to school, after three weeks absence. Lena has been ill with scarlet fever.

Madeline Haystead will spend her vacation in Detroit.

Miss Edith Whitehead of Chicago spent the week-end with Miss Catherine Staifer.

Miss Geraldine Ferguson entertained the J.C. Club at her home on Wednesday night.

Miss Mary Bennett has gone up North to visit her parents.

Miss Alleen Besenger of Ferndale, Michigan is visiting Miss Frances Bacon of Northville.

Miss Minnie Norris of Detroit will be the visitor of Miss Elvance Grosvenor during the spring vacation.

Eazel Cordukes will spend one day during the vacation visiting her old friends and teachers at the Open Air school in Detroit.

Mr. Amerman has again been quarantined out of his home, due to the illness of his little daughter with scarlet fever.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Lee will spend a few days at Pontiac and Flint visiting their parents.

Miss M. VanVleet spent the week-end visiting at Flint.

Mr. and Mrs. Cobb were visitors of Mrs. Cobb's parents over the week-end.

Mrs. G. S. Lick leaves Saturday for Chicago where she will spend her vacation.

Miss Grace Hawkins will spend her vacation at Dearborn with her cousins.

Miss Mildred Arnet, a last year's high school teacher, is teaching in Wilson's Girl's College at Chambersburg, Pennsylvania.

Bunice and Robert Cousins, George Greenlee and John Steencken attended the Sportsman Show in Detroit last Wednesday night.

Ruth Taylor was absent from school because of illness.

Miss Bonnie MacIntosh will spend the week-end with Miss Alleen Honstinger.

Miss Dorothy Gamble, a former student of Northville, is very ill at her home in Fenton, Michigan.

Miss Eldon is spending part of her vacation in Kalamazoo.

Mrs. Eaton will divide her vacation days between Northville and Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Knapp are motoring to Portsmouth, Ohio and taking a short trip to Kentucky and Tennessee.

Mrs. Babbitt and Miss Jarvis are spending their vacation at home, in Northville.

SPRING IS HERE

It appears to us that spring is at last here. At least everything but the weather indicates that it is. The faculty has offered complaints that spring fever is taking hold of some of the students who once had a reasonable amount of mental ambition in their languages and mathematics are developing more romantic interests. For example, we once again see red, white and blue suspenders and yellow garters and we observe that it takes certain upper classmen at least a half hour longer to walk to and from school. Then our school board has become spring minded and granted the weary students of N. H. S. a vacation. We think ourselves quite free to express our appreciation to the board for the student body as much as the seniors regret leaving N. H. S. even they offer no objections to a week of at least partial mental rest. The staff of the Orange and Black wishes you all a happy vacation.

SENIORS WHO'S WHO

Rose Charge was born near Northville and attended the Base Line school the first eight years, coming to Northville high as a freshman. She is taking a commercial course and has been very active in that field of study. As yet Rose is not certain whether or not she will attend college.

Howard Chickadee, who was also born near Northville, has received all of his education here. During his junior year he appeared in the Junior play, "Happiness for Six." This year he is vice-president of his class and vice-president of the H. V. Howard has been on the football team for two years and has taken quite an active part in all sports. The Boys' Glee Club has claimed him as a member since this year. He is making plans for attending the University of Michigan and taking a business administration course.

It is indeed an honor to graduate two students who have spent their entire four years of high school days at N. H. S.

CAMP FIRE NEWS

The last Camp Fire meeting was held at the home of Frances Hamilton June Denie and Florine Shoebridge were voted in. We now have twenty people in our group and cannot have any more. We went on a hike Saturday and had a very nice time.

SENIOR PROM DATE

There has been some confusion in the setting of the date of the Senior Prom. For various reasons it has been found inadvisable to hold the Prom on any date previously announced. Therefore any former announcements concerning dates are void. The official date for the dance has now been set as May eighth.

GRADE NOTES

The following second-grade pupils have a perfect attendance record for this year: Louie Babbitt, Douglas Bolton, Harold Schoultz, Betty Dundas and Shirley Musolf.

In Miss Jarvis' room they are studying Holland. They made a Dutch village. Frank Bongiovanni has returned to school after being quarantined with scarlet fever.

The second "A" people of Mrs. Conger's room are reading "Bunny Stories" also making characters to represent those in the story.

In Miss MacDonald's room the people are making daily health-inspection charts for health habits.

They have made a Japanese sand table to represent Japanese gardens, in Miss Reinke's room.

Flora May Conklin celebrated her 12th birthday by entertaining the sixth "A" grade. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

In Mrs. Eaton's room the kindergarten people planted beans.

The beans have started to grow and the people hope they are large enough to be taken home for Easter.

Gerald Miller is a new pupil in the kindergarten.

J-HOP ON APRIL 10

Invitations have been given out for the annual J-Hop which this year will be held on Friday, April 10 at eight o'clock. It is expected to be a quite successful event. Plans for orchestra, decorations and refreshments have been under way for some time.

On the occasion Del Delbridge and Ray Goret presented By-Steed and his Comedians. The juniors have put forth every effort to make the evening both pleasant and worthwhile.

CAMP FIRE NEWS

Now gather around my friends, and get the latest information. Sure you'll all here? Well, Saturday night, April 4, 1931, the Nonsimans Camp Fire group is going to hold a dance.

Where? Oh, of course, the high school gymnasium. Time? 8:00 o'clock until 12:00 o'clock. Now, I know what all of you are waiting for, it's the price. The price will be 75c per couple, and 25c for an extra lady. The music will be furnished by the Blue Serenaders.

Come on, folks, and let's see how nice a turn-out we can have.

MANY REPORT FOR BASEBALL PRACTICE
 Mr. Ruggies issued the first call for baseball candidates Tuesday, March 24. Due to the fact that the weather conditions have been unfavorable, practice was limited to the pitchers and catchers and thus had to be carried on in the gym. Several went outside and practiced to loosen the kinks in the arms and legs.

There are several "letter" winners back this year, in fact only one player was lost through graduation. The players who have won letters are as follows: Herbert Berendt, who is the new captain; Charles Dusenbury, Meltinger, Lewis Campbell, Marvin Thibbe, Ted Cavell, Leo Kohler, Den-Hell Dickenson, Forrest Lemmon, Wayne Preston and Alex Johnson.

There is also much new material on hand this year and many of the veterans will be given much opposition in order that they may retain their former positions.

Northville will have an eight game schedule, and the first game will be played at the latter's home grounds.

Season tickets are being sold now at the high school, with the price of the students tickets set at 25c and adult tickets at 35c. Anyone wishing to purchase these tickets may do so by calling the high school, phone 111.

SHORT SLANTS

Have you heard of the efficient person who handles the school athletic equipment? Herb Berendt is that person, and is he efficient? In charge of the basketball equipment he guarded it like a mother hawk. (Example: At the end of the season when the suits were being put away Herb had scared up four more suits than we had started the season with. Efficient as a washing machine. By the way, have you ever operated a washing machine? There's romance behind the suds.

(Land Sakes, now I've lost the place.) Visiting athletic teams have complained that the numerous red and green blinkers (mostly red, though occasionally they turn green just to keep the motorists guessing) have made them late for their engagements.

It would be a smart idea to hang up about life in general lights (then we have seventeen) around town and win all our games up forests.

Well the seniors won the basketball tournament. They should have. They were bigger and could stand the blows. (By "blows" I don't mean a draft from an open window.) Now I'm getting technical.

The camera man came to town last Friday. He went away, too. But not before he had shot all of the seniors. (Don't get excited, I remember distinctly saying "camera man".)

On behalf of the seniors who will soon be leaving us, (Junior go get Grandpa a bromo, he's got the flu-cough) I am entering this excerpt from my "Book of Life": How To Raise A Moustache (Formula). The first of which is: Submerge of iron wire grates. On grates, one deadening. On any grates. Apply freely and wait patiently.

The baseball team has cancelled their Japan tour and I think it's a wise move. You never can tell when they'll have a revolution over there and we don't want our boys in the midst of no shootin' activities, no sun! It would ruin their batting eyes.

Well it's about time I put down a period but I still think General Grant was the war when he appointed my great Uncle to command the Bicycle corps.

TOM ROVER

GOLF AND BASEBALL CAPTAINS ELECTED
 Captains for the coming golf and baseball seasons have been elected. Berendt has been elected captain of the baseball squad while Fredrick Kerr has been chosen to lead the golf season.

Baseball practice is under way and a large squad is out. Everything points toward a good season.

Track practice has not yet started but will be under way right after the spring vacation. Much may be expected of Hinchman in the discus event this year. We recall how in one meet last year he broke the record but the throw was outside.

APRIL FROLIC SATURDAY
 APRIL 4, 1931, AT NORTHVILLE HIGH SCHOOL BUILDERS

"When we build," said John Ruskin, "let us think we build forever."

We are all builders. Everyone is sending out an influence for good or evil. It behooves us to so build character that the influence of our lives may tell mightily for eternity.

The past month we have heard some people speak of capital punishment, the most sacred of all things, the destiny of a soul, as though it is not a serious question at all. This is hard to understand.

In some auditoriums there are "dead spots." If we would hear what is said off the platform, we must move out of the dead spot. It may be that in some lives there are "dead spots." They cannot hear the Almighty when He says "Thou shalt not kill." There is none righteous, no, not one. Unto whosoever much is given, of him shall be much required.

"Let us move out of the 'dead spot.' Let us vote against this atrocious measure, which belongs to the Dark Ages, and should never again be revived in this enlightened age."

"Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul."

CONCENTRATE

A lot of persons have too many irons in the fire at one time. They fiddle around with this, that and the other, with the result that nothing is ever done right. He who undertakes many things at once seldom does any one thing well.

Methodist Church Notes

Our Easter services next Sunday will have a welcome for everybody which means for those having no church affiliation as well as those in the church.

Come and bring your friends and enter heartily with joy on this great festival occasion. The pastor will preach on, "Christ Is Risen; We shall also Rise."

Our choirs of sixty voices will open with the processional hymn promptly at 10:30. All will be joined as they chant up the aisle, "Christ Is Risen; We shall also Rise."

The church choir will render special Easter music. The junior choir will render "Masters, O Lamb of God I Come."

There will be reception of members at this service and we welcome anyone on confession of faith.

Baptism will also be administered at this service. We welcome those to stay at the Holy Communion at the close of the service.

The church school will meet at the usual hour, 12 noon.

The Epworth League devotional service for our young people at 6:30.

In the evening at 7:30 the famous cantata, "The First Easter" will be rendered by the chancel choir to which the public is invited. We trust all our people will avail themselves of this opportunity and not miss this service. Roy Clark will direct the cantata with Mrs. John Tinham at the organ.

The final appeal is for our Lenten and Passion Week, offering to be brought next Sunday asking you to place your Lenten boxes in the Josiah box.

Our people are asked as far as they are able to bring up their back envelopes so the stewards can pay all church bills up-to-date.

Friends make this your special Easter offering.

May Easter bring the hope of immortality more vivid to your souls in the prayer of your pastor.

St. Paul's, Lutheran

I believe that Jesus Christ, true God, begotten of the Father from eternity, and also true man, born of the Virgin Mary, is my Lord who has redeemed me, a lost and condemned creature, purchased and won me from all sins, from death, and from the power of the devil not with gold or silver, but with His holy precious blood and with His precious suffering and death, that I may be His own, and live under Him in His kingdom and serve Him in everlasting innocence, rightness and blessedness, even as He is risen from the dead, lives and reigns to all eternity. This is most certainly true.

Special divine service, commemorating the death of our Lord Jesus Christ, will be held Good Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Theme of discourse, "The Death of Jesus Christ." In connection with this service the Lord's Supper will be celebrated.

Easter Sunday, the day of our Lord's resurrection from the dead, will be celebrated with a special service beginning at 11 o'clock. Topic, "Why is Easter a day of Joy and Thanksgiving to all true Christians?" In this service the newly organized choir, under the direction of Louis Messner, organist, will render a splendid selection entitled "He is risen."

The children's choir will render the joyful strains of Easter hymns at the 8 o'clock Mass Sunday. Both our junior and senior choirs have our appreciation for the faithful efforts. The Lord shall not forget those generous souls who use His gifts to return praise and glory to the Giver.

The senior choir will enjoy a rest from the 10 o'clock Mass next Sunday. An assembly of four male and two female voices with organist from Detroit will be our guests at the Mass Easter morning. The acme of musical expression seemed to be the attempt of the Masters in their compositions for the Mass. One of these harmonized Masses is the choice for rendition at our church for the day after tomorrow.

The Sunday school will convene at the usual time 10 o'clock.

On Monday evening, April 6th, at 8 p. m. the Voters of the congregation will conduct their quarterly meeting in the church hall.

The Ladies Aid will meet on the second Thursday afternoon of the month at 2 o'clock in the church hall.

Do not forget to tune in on the Lutheran broadcasts over station WXYZ every Sunday afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock and every Thursday evening from 10 to 10:30, over the Columbia network.

God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

St. Paul's Lutheran bids all a most hearty welcome.

Baptist Church Notes

Services for the past three weeks have been designed to bring our hearts to a deeper understanding of the Cross and Easter.

Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. W. Roscoe Barbour, will preach on the theme, "Jesus and the Resurrection," and the Communion and receiving new members will follow.

At the evening services, 7:30 o'clock, the Sunday school will present a strong and helpful Easter program under the direction of Mrs. Earl Montgomery. The Victory envelopes containing our Easter offering for missions will be brought in at this time.

The Sunday school meets at 11:45 a. m. and the B. Y. F. U. at 6:30 p. m.

The Sunday morning following Easter will also be a bright day with us and the Pledge Day service with special features will be one long to be remembered.

First Presbyterian Church

Easter Sunday services at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Reception of members and sacrament of Lord's Supper at morning service. Special music at both services. Let us make it a truly great day.

The Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary will hold its regular meeting April 7. This meeting will be held on the 15th and full particulars will be given later.

The Junior Christian Endeavor will hold its meeting Monday, April 6 at 8:30 p. m.

The young people's meeting for next week will be withdrawn.

Second notice is given of the annual meeting of the congregation to be held April 9th, Thursday evening. Cooperative dinner to be served at 6:15.

Our Lady of Victory Church

The public seems to realize that our obligation to Christ is fittingly forthcoming on Good Friday and so a background spirit of fairness causes it to pause the while and consider. Special services will be held this afternoon beginning at 1:30.

Tomorrow is Holy Saturday. These extraordinary services begin at 8 a. m. Holy Communion will be distributed at the Mass.

Confessions Saturday evening, 7:30 to 9.

EASTER SPIRIT SEEN IN STORE WINDOWS

The window of the Shafter Electric Shop has been adorned especially by Northville women lately with its beautifully laid table ready for Easter breakfast. With a centerpiece of a basket of yellow and gold flowers on a cloth of lace over gold and its accessories of crystal and silver it is a thing of beauty. Incidentally it demonstrates the practical use of the electric percolator, egg cooker and waffle iron. You women ought to see it.

In keeping with the spirit of Easter, the Holmes Art Shoppe window is attracting much attention with its display of dainty Easter gifts. Lavender is the predominating color centered by a vase of very realistic Easter lilies, the handwork of Mrs. L. B. Charter.

"Believe it or not," Mr. Holmes was the window decorator.

Northville ladies pause to look at the gay baskets and bunnies which fill the windows of the D & C 5 and 10 cent store and at the Stephens Variety store. In Spagnuolo's window a life-sized rabbit in the midst of all kinds of candy eggs makes the youngsters stare and the bakery windows are tempting with special treats for Easter.

Even the clothing and dry goods stores savor of springtime, for their new attire. And "Hills-Beauty Parlor" is a summer garden. It's spring time in Northville store windows anyway.

MRS. STERLING BATON HONORED BY SISTERS

One of the very charming post-nuptial affairs given in honor of Mrs. Sterling Baton was the personal shower given by her sisters-in-law, the Misses Dolores and Eleanor Eaton, at their home Wednesday evening.

From the unfolding petals of a large pink rose ingeniously improvised from a round hat box wrapped in pink crepe paper, the bride drew forth one by one personal gifts fittingly wrapped in pink and green. The lovely things drawn from this rose would delight any bride and the usual gaily arranged during the interesting unwrapping of parcels.

The tables for the two-course luncheon were centered with pink carnations and snapdragons with green foliage carrying out the color scheme.

Bridge occupied the remainder of the evening when high scorers were won by Mrs. Paul Hayward of Ypsilanti and low honors by Mrs. Jack Taylor of Plymouth. Mrs. Hayward and Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Scott Sturdevant of Ypsilanti were out-of-town friends of the bride present.

DETROIT MEN SEEK TO BRING STEEL DRILL PLANT HERE

Charles Fox, former president of the Central Savings bank of Detroit, accompanied by D. J. Crowley, proprietor of a riding academy on the Seven Mile road and a Mr. Stuart held a short audience with Mayor Harry Gorman relative to bringing a steel drill factory to Northville. The representatives stated that the factory, if located here, would employ about 100 men.

The matter is being taken under advisement by Mr. Gorman and other village officials. Real estate agents have been approached and if terms can be agreed upon the mayor declared that the advent of a new factory in Northville would be an extremely fine thing for the town.

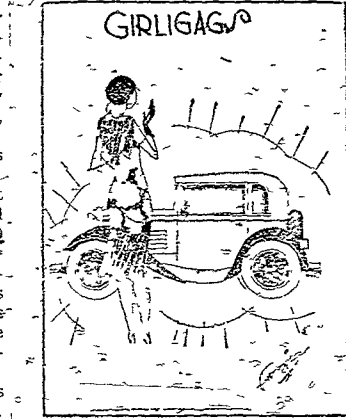

Mayor Gorman is extremely skeptical regarding the outcome of the project since, he explained, the factory representatives are seeking too much of an inducement. The representatives asked for a large sum of money just to locate here, the mayor said, and they also are asking the town to put up a modern factory which would have to be rented to them.

LOCAL GROUP SEES "ARE YOU A MASON?"

A party of Masons with their wives and a few friends went to Detroit on Tuesday evening to see "Are You a Mason" at the Civic theatre, stopping for dinner afterward and a pleasant social time. Comprising the party were Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Chubb Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Green, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coolman, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Sweet, from Northville and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Stubbell, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Gregg and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ludwig of Detroit.

FAMILY NIGHT ON THURSDAY AT METHODIST CHURCH

The Methodist families will gather around the tables in the church house for a big family supper next Thursday evening. A cooperative supper will be enjoyed followed by a speech which promises to be a treat. Rev. C. W. S. Fellowes of Royal Oak will speak on his trip to Europe illustrating his talk with moving pictures.

"The question is," says Soliloquizing, "whether to put my money away for my old age or buy a car and die young."

KNOWING THE TREES

LAUREL OAK

(Quercus imbricaria)

THE laurel, or hingle oak, is a stout tree, 30 to 50 feet high. The bark is thick, roughened by shallow fissures which separate ridges covered by close light brown scales. The leaves are large, thick, tipped with an abrupt sharp point, dark green and glossy above, and pale green and downy beneath.

The oak is more destructively affected by wood and root rot than any other important deciduous timber tree. Many species of fungus cause leaf spots and powdery mildew while the twig bight and Strumella canker cause the death of many oaks in the East.

The laurel oak may readily be distinguished from all other oaks, except the willow oak, by its characteristic leaf. It is one of the most attractive ornamental oaks. The wood is used extensively in the West for shingles.

IN THE DINING ROOM

GOOD form says that dining room equipment and decoration should be very simple. If there are pictures on the dining room wall, they should be few.

If possible avoid using the dining room as a dumping ground for various articles, for which no other place can be found.

The fad for showing an array of silver and cut glass on the top of the sideboard and buffet is a thing of the past. The serving table is often left quite bare, and even the long linen runners are removed between meals.

The buffet should have only a very little by way of adornment, the nature of this depending, of course, on the style of buffet. A pair of silver candlesticks and a dish of fruit is the sole adornment found on one attractive buffet, while another never shows any adornment save flowers.

Originality in dining room furnishing is coming to be more and more sought after by those who can afford to build and furnish their homes to suit their taste.

WINTER MEALS

AS MORE internal fuel is needed to keep up the body heat in winter, one needs to serve more of the heat-producing foods. As these are mostly proteins and are apt when eaten too freely to leave an acid condition, it is needful to serve fruits and vegetables very freely to counteract this consequence.

Eggs are not really appreciated as a food. Made into omelets, fried, poached cooked in the shell—they are good. Try cooking them in potato nests, using leftover mashed potato well seasoned and formed into nests.

Drop the eggs into the nests season with salt and pepper, sprinkle with chopped parsley, after they have been baked until well set. A piece of butter and the parsley will add to the flavor as well as appearance.

Egg Salad.

Take six hard cooked eggs and cook them so that they will be hard but not tough. Use for six eggs, six pints of boiling water. Place the eggs in a deep dish, add the water and cover closely, set on the back of the range where they will keep warm. Allow to stand a half-hour and the eggs will be well cooked and still tender. The eggs should be of the room temperature when added to the boiling water. If taken from the refrigerator, more water will be needed, as it will cool too quickly. Chop the egg whites and put the yolks through a sieve, combine with six or eight anchovies or sardines which have been made into a paste. Toss together and place with finely minced celery in shredded lettuce.

Another nice way to bake eggs with potatoes is to place the washed potato in a baking dish an inch or so deep, and make depressions for the eggs, drop in a fresh egg in each place, sprinkle with salt, pepper, bits of cooked bacon and cover thickly with buttered crumbs. Bake until the eggs are set.

Stuffed Egg Salad.

Cook the eggs hard as above. Cut six eggs into halves and take out the yolks. Fill the yolks through a sieve with one-half cupful of mayonnaise, a few dashes of paprika, a small onion finely chopped, and one tablespoonful of chili sauce or tomato ketchup. Fill the whites and serve on lettuce or water cress.

Eggs furnish us a certain amount of protein and fat as well as calcium, phosphorus, iron and the valuable vitamins which we cannot get along without.

Miss Ruth Yerkes is giving a linen shower in honor of Mrs. Sterling Eaton this evening (Friday) at her home on the Base Line road. Further details in the next issue of the Record.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Green delightfully entertained a group of congenial friends at their home Sunday evening when an informal luncheon was served and a pleasant social time enjoyed.

Fred Simmons, who must have decided that he came back from sunny Florida to a Michigan March too soon, resulting in a threatened attack of pneumonia, is now able to be sitting up after his illness and is making good recovery.

Chas. Ryder, who was a patient recently in the Ford hospital, Detroit, has recovered sufficiently to be moved to the home of his son in Detroit. While in the hospital he and Floyd Shafter kept up each other's spirits, being in neighboring beds.

The Women's club members are reminded that they are invited to join with the Parent-Teachers association on Thursday evening, April 9, at the high school gymnasium when a fine speaker has been provided. Observe notice on first page of this issue.

Attention of the King's Daughters is called to the announcement that the organization is to attend in a body the Good Friday services at the Methodist church this (Friday) afternoon at 1:30. Seats will be reserved for the members and they will also act as ushers. Please reach the church promptly on time.

Robert Masters, foreman of the job department of The Record office, had the misfortune to severely lacerate the thumb on his left hand in the electric saw which is used for cutting type metal Tuesday evening. Given first aid treatment by a physician, Mr. Masters is pluckily "carrying on" minus the use of the offending member.

The Parent-Teachers Association will give a home talent play in the high school auditorium on the evening of April 24 (Friday), when six of the talented actors of the teaching staff and parents will take the roles. The subject of this play will be "The Tenth of the Gift Horse." It promises to be a very interesting program with an additional attraction of special music.

Miss Ruth Yerkes was hostess to a young people's bridge club at her home on the Base Line road last Saturday evening when four couples played. Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Eaton were honored with the guest prize of the evening. Those from Gibson of Detroit, was also a guest from out of town. Refreshments concluded the pleasant affair.

The school nurse, Mrs. Bray, reports that the number of children drinking milk at school is increasing steadily. Even in the short time the children have been having these morning drinks the teachers believe they can observe that some are looking better. Mrs. Bray hopes to have the children weighed this week and a full report will be given later.

James Everett Echart, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Earhart of Northville and Miss Violet Grob of Ann Arbor were married Saturday at the Baptist parsonage by Rev. W. Roscoe Barbour. Mr. Earhart will have work here in this locality and the young couple have begun housekeeping in the Alexander apartments on Main street. The Record extends best wishes to them.

Word has been received by friends here that Ward Pettibone, a resident of Northville for a number of years, died in California after a lingering illness. His wife and six children survive him beside three sisters and one brother. Well known among these is Mrs. Jas. Dubur of Waukegan, N. Y. While in Northville Mr. Pettibone will be remembered as having owned a garage business.

Miss Mae Elden of Lansing, who is well known here having made her home for several years with her aunt, Mrs. E. M. Starkweather, received her diploma and her certificate from the Ypsilanti State Normal college last Thursday and will take a position in a school near Rochester for the balance of the year. Miss Elden spent the weekend at the Starkweather home and was accompanied by her aunt to her new location.

At a special meeting of the King's Daughters at the home of Mrs. Anna Casterline 22 members pled their needles industriously after enjoying together a fine pot-luck dinner. The result of their afternoon's work was 18 little dresses and 67 other small garments for the use of the Children's ward of the University hospital at Ann Arbor. The next regular meeting will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. E. B. Cavell, next Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock.

Two of Northville's rising young musicians, Richard Shipley and Darrell Johnson, will make three public appearances early in May when a recital will be given; one here in Northville, one in Pontiac and one in the studio of W. J. R., where they will broadcast a program. Both of these young men are promising piano pupils of Miss Grace Halverson, who comes each week from Detroit to teach. On this program will be piano solos and one duet.

Braving the handicap of mire through a muddy corn field, a party of hungry Northvilleites made their steady way to the sugar "sh of Carl Schultz east of town last Friday evening. A genuine pioneer feast was cooked in the woods around a roaring camp fire with such delicacies as sauer kraut, big hocks and hamburger topped off with maple syrup on bread and butter. The hamburger, it is said, was cooked by one of these ingenious chefs on a large spoon shovel. Nothing ever tasted better. The hungry party was comprised of E. H. Lap-critical condition at her home on Main, Harry Clark, Frank E. Barden, Main street.

C. A. Ponsford, Milo Johnson, F. J. Cochran, Dr. E. B. Cavell and Geo. Yerkes.

ATCHINSON HOSPITAL

A seven and one-half pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sheel of Salem at the Atchinson hospital Thursday evening, March 26. The boy has been named Raymond John. Mrs. Russell Kirkpatrick of Plymouth had an operation for the removal of the appendix Monday morning and is making good recovery.

SESSIONS HOSPITAL

Owing to the possibility of long continued need of treatment, John Raymond, veteran of the French and Indian war, has been removed to the University hospital for care. Miss Dawn Granzow is leaving for home today recovering from her recent operation.

MRS. HORTON VERY ILL

Mrs. E. S. Horton, continues in a "critical condition" at her home on Main, Harry Clark, Frank E. Barden, Main street.

SHE HAS HEARD THAT—

If a sheba wants her football sheik to do a "Red Grange," she should give him the left hind foot of a rabbit which was caught in a graveyard in the dark of the moon by a cross-eyed darkey—with such a charm, nothing can stop him.

Mrs. Chas. Filkins of Detroit was a guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. B. G. Filkins, on Dunlap street, last Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Cornell House was a busy place Sunday with three large tables full of Detroit folks besides other guests who came out to dine on chicken.

Miss Isabelle Nadeau of Calumet, a former college room-mate while at the Ypsilanti state normal, is a guest of Miss Dolores Eaton during the week.

Miss Elizabeth Bashore and Miss Frances Hall of Detroit visited the latter's mother, Mrs. Geo. Pickell, Fairbrook avenue, Saturday.

Ted Watts, a student at Albion college, is spending the spring vacation at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Watts.

Miss Marjorie Schoultz was home from the University of Michigan for the week-end and had as her house guest, Miss Ruth Neville of Kewanee, Ill., also a student at Ann Arbor.

Guests Sunday at the home of R. T. Baldwin were Rev. and Mrs. I. H. Riddick and son Parker of Albion and Mr. and Mrs. William Maywood of Birmingham.

Jean Meldrum, three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Meldrum, formerly of Northville and now of Detroit, met with a serious accident when she stepped from the running board of an automobile.

There will be no meeting of the Women's club this afternoon, (Friday) in deference to the observance of Good Friday at a union service to be held in the Methodist church. At the next regular meeting, April 10, will occur the usual annual meeting in the conclusion of the year's study.

Smith and Lovewell report the sale of the Wm. Salow property on Thayer boulevard to Wm. Forney, also the sale of ten acres three quarters of a mile road, just west of the C. C. Yerkes home to Geo. Rumford, Superintendent of the Cadillac Motor Car company of Detroit. His son-in-law Mr. Coffin, will occupy the house there for the present. Mr. Rumford is planning to erect a new house in the future.

To submit to quarantine twice within a few weeks, with periods of three weeks each, is the lamentable lot of Mrs. R. H. Amerman. After being liberated a short time from enforced seclusion while their four-year-old son, David, was ill with scarlet fever, Mrs. Amerman is again quarantined with her daughter Edythe, who is ill with the same malady. The pity is these two youngsters could not have had the disease at the same time. Edythe is somewhat sicker than was her brother but not seriously so. Mr. Amerman is again "eating out."

CIVIC THEATRE AT DETROIT TO SHOW "LITTLE WOMEN"

As a request repetition the Detroit Civic Theatre will present "Little Women", by Louisa M. Alcott, next week, opening Monday night, April 6th, for the second time this year. When the play was given during Christmas week so many people were turned away that Miss Bonstelle has decided to repeat it. It has also been requested by the Board of Education.

The cast that played in "Little Women" in December will again be seen in it. Miss Bonstelle will take the part of Mrs. March, the beloved Marmee of the girls and Meg, Jo, Beth and Amy will be portrayed by Emily Ross, Joan Madison, Helen Lange and Elizabeth Dana, respectively.

John Griggs will play Laurie and George Macready, Prof. Baer.

The story of "Little Women" has been a classic for three or four generations ever since Louisa M. Alcott put into a book the everyday happenings of her own family. The dramatization was made by Marian De Forest, exactly 20 years ago, at the instigation of Miss Bonstelle who worked for eight years before accomplishing her purpose, the dramatization and production of "Little Women". It has finally done under the combined production of Miss Bonstelle, Lee Shubert and William A. Brady.

This drama has a universal appeal. It is a simply told story of an American home which has charmed the peoples of all countries.

Rumford, Superintendent of the Cadillac Motor Car company of Detroit. His son-in-law Mr. Coffin, will occupy the house there for the present. Mr. Rumford is planning to erect a new house in the future.

To submit to quarantine twice within a few weeks, with periods of three weeks each, is the lamentable lot of Mrs. R. H. Amerman. After being liberated a short time from enforced seclusion while their four-year-old son, David, was ill with scarlet fever, Mrs. Amerman is again quarantined with her daughter Edythe, who is ill with the same malady. The pity is these two youngsters could not have had the disease at the same time. Edythe is somewhat sicker than was her brother but not seriously so. Mr. Amerman is again "eating out."

CIVIC THEATRE AT DETROIT TO SHOW "LITTLE WOMEN"

As a request repetition the Detroit Civic Theatre will present "Little Women", by Louisa M. Alcott, next week, opening Monday night, April 6th, for the second time this year. When the play was given during Christmas week so many people were turned away that Miss Bonstelle has decided to repeat it. It has also been requested by the Board of Education.

The cast that played in "Little Women" in December will again be seen in it. Miss Bonstelle will take the part of Mrs. March, the beloved Marmee of the girls and Meg, Jo, Beth and Amy will be portrayed by Emily Ross, Joan Madison, Helen Lange and Elizabeth Dana, respectively.

John Griggs will play Laurie and George Macready, Prof. Baer.

The story of "Little Women" has been a classic for three or four generations ever since Louisa M. Alcott put into a book the everyday happenings of her own family. The dramatization was made by Marian De Forest, exactly 20 years ago, at the instigation of Miss Bonstelle who worked for eight years before accomplishing her purpose, the dramatization and production of "Little Women". It has finally done under the combined production of Miss Bonstelle, Lee Shubert and William A. Brady.

This drama has a universal appeal. It is a simply told story of an American home which has charmed the peoples of all countries.

LIBRARY OFFICERS ELECTED FOR 1931

At the annual meeting of the Northville Ladies' library association held March 24th, the following officers were elected: Mrs. F. S. Hamon, president; Mrs. B. G. Filkins, vice-president; Mrs. C. S. Filkins, secretary; and Mrs. E. H. Lapham, treasurer.

Each year since becoming a free library, new members have been added until from a membership of less than 200, it has grown to a list of 1,400 and at the end of this year 15,340 books have been circulated. Mrs. W. R. Robinson

Mrs. W. R. Robinson, who passed quietly away at her home in Northville on Sunday, March 22, at the age of 70, was born in Madison, Ohio, August 26, 1859. She was the daughter of Joseph and Hannah Moxley.

In 1876 she was married to Wm. F. Robinson and from this union came three children, two of whom are dead, and one, Mrs. Florence Cole of Oklahoma, survives Mrs. Robinson.

After the death of Mr. Robinson in 1888, Mrs. Robinson married William R. Robinson in 1890 at Ottawa, Ill. In 1929 the couple came to Northville where they have lived since.

Mrs. Robinson is survived by her husband, her daughter, Mrs. Cole, nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at the home on Rayson avenue, Rev. Wm. Roscoe Barbour officiating taking as his text, "The time of my departure is at hand."

Burial will be at Ottawa, Ill. Saturday at 2 p. m. and Mrs. Robinson was a member of the Baptist church at Ottawa and transferred their membership to the Baptist church at Northville where they both have been active members.

Geo. H. Jackson

After an illness since last fall Geo. H. Jackson passed away at his home on the Base Line road Saturday evening, March 28, just two weeks lacking one day since his wife preceded him in death. Mr. Jackson would have reached his 82nd birthday on April 19.

He was born in Elmira, N. Y. in 1849 and after spending his boyhood here he went to Kansas for a number of years during his youth. Returning to Michigan he settled on a farm near Monroe where he began a new home with his wife, Miss Alice McIntyre, to whom he was married on New Year's day of 1874. To this union were born four children, Clarence, Burton, Floyd and Goldie. Burton, now of Birmingham, and the two daughters only survive their father.

Moving to Birmingham 37 years ago the home was established on a farm two miles east of town. Here the years of Mr. Jackson's greatest activity were spent. His great pleasure aside from his family life was hunting and was door activities. The Jackson home was a place where friends liked to come and the family life was unusually happy and contented. Six years ago they moved to Northville to the present location.

George Jackson was a highly respected Christian gentleman, a member of the Methodist church of Birmingham and a beloved father. Through many years of suffering with rheumatism and through the past months he remained very patient.

Beside the son and two daughters, a sister, Mrs. Wm. Roberts, who lives one-half mile north of his home, survive him. Two brothers, one of whom, A. H. Jackson was at one time Congressman from Ohio, preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the home, with Rev. Wm. Richards as officiating clergyman. Interment was made in the family lot in the Crooks cemetery in Birmingham. Relatives were present at the funeral from Fremont, Ohio, Toledo, Flat Rock, Port Huron, Flint, Pontiac and Birmingham.

Mrs. John Cooper

At the age of eighty years, Mrs. John Cooper, one of Northville's pioneer residents, died after a short illness with pneumonia at the Jackson hospital last Saturday, March 28. All of Mrs. Cooper's life had been spent in this vicinity and many homes there are where she has worked to help those who needed her. Kind to those about her, she won many friends who speak well of her. For many years the home stood near the Pere Marquette tracks and was one of the old landmarks of the village.

Her husband, John Cooper, died five or six years ago. One son, Henry, and three daughters survive. One of these living daughters is Mrs. Clara Smith. The Northville is Mrs. Cooper's home. Her funeral service was held Monday afternoon at the Schrader funeral home with Rev. Harold Whitefield officiating. Interment was made in Rural Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Jerusha Naylor

The death of Mrs. Jerusha Naylor (nee Jerusha Minnick) occurred at her home on Saturday, March 28, at the age of eighty years, following a stroke of paralysis.

Mrs. Naylor was born in Bedford on July 27, 1841. She was married to Geo. H. Naylor of Salem in 1868 and came with him to begin the new home on a farm near Salem where they lived until 1888 when they moved to Northville, making their home on Randolph street where her daughter, Mrs. Van Atta, now lives.

In 1908 Mrs. Naylor went to Anna Arbor where she spent the last years of her life. The funeral services were held from the old family residence in Northville Friday afternoon, March 27, and interment was made in Rural Hill cemetery.

Many friends in Northville remember with gratitude the acts of kindness performed by this motherly woman whose great pleasure it was to administer to others. While living here she was actively associated with the Baptist church to which she gave unstintingly of her time and means. She was also a member of the Woman's Relief Corps. Four children, "rise up to call her blessed." They are Mrs. I. E. Van Atta and Mrs. Effie Simpson of Northville, LeRoy Naylor of Plymouth and John Naylor of Ann Arbor. Twenty-two grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren and one great-grand child survive of her descendants. Among the grandchildren known here are Mrs. Claude Riley and Mrs. N. C. Schrader.

De Witt Card

The remains of De Witt Card, an old resident of Northville, were brought back for burial from his home east of Plymouth where he had made his home for years.

GEORGE DUSENBURY IS HONORED AT U. OF M.

George A. Dusenbury, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Dusenbury on the Base Line road, has been honored by being appointed historian of the Michigan class of the University of Michigan where he has been a student for the past four years. He has also been chosen a member of the "Guard of Honor," an honorary body which acts as escort to the president of the university on state occasions and has charge of various formal occasions. George, who has had a learning to ward, journalism, since high school days in Detroit when he was editor of the "Spectator," is now editor of the "Michiganian." Northville is proud of this outstanding young man.

P. T. A. NOTES

The gay chuckles last Friday evening were just another indication that Miss Alice Macdonald's talk on "Children in the Home" was as humorous, delightful, and sincere as her other talks in Northville have been. Perhaps her talk can best be summed up in the picture she considered an ideal one of a needy district, with furnishings suggestive of a home atmosphere, simple equipment and teachers whose sole desire it is to understand each child.

The pictures for the month go to Miss Reinke's and Mrs. Eaton's room. The association decided to provide milk for the children in school unable to purchase it.

The room exhibit was made by Miss MacDonald and Miss Elden. After the meeting the social committee served refreshments.

The association is sponsoring another play as of last year, which is to be given very soon and it is hoped parents will watch for the announcement.

The next association meeting will be Thursday evening, April 9. A director from the children's museum in Detroit will speak on "Art for Children." She is bringing with her a collection of some fine pictures which will be on exhibit for a day or two. The association is asking the Woman's club and the Plymouth P. T. A. to be their guests Thursday evening at this unusual program.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY DOES SPLENDID WORK

The American Legion Auxiliary is an organization formed for the single purpose of serving. One of its first endeavors is caring for the World War disabled who still fill the government hospitals to the number of more than 25,000. The work which the Auxiliary is doing for these men is something which no other agency could perform so well, something which requires the warm, understanding touch of women, who themselves have experienced the suffering of having their loved ones at war.

The Auxiliary establishes and maintains contact between veterans and their families. It assists the families of ex-service men who are in hospitals and unable to work. It aids disabled men in finding employment and helps dispose of the products made by them in hospital workshops.

For the children of the World War veterans the Auxiliary is also doing a very important work. It is aiding thousands of children every year to receive the necessities of life. Destitute children are placed in homes where they can receive their rightful heritage of a wholesome American upbringing. Assistance is given to widows of veterans and wives of disabled men in keeping their families together.

Units of the Auxiliary throughout the country are establishing community center buildings, maintaining playgrounds, beautifying parks, sponsoring the establishment of libraries and night schools, conducting health clinics, aiding hospitals, aiding Boy Scouts, and sponsoring units of Camp Fire Girls and Girl Scouts. Scores of different activities which build up community and strengthen the bodies, minds and morals of the citizenry are being carried out.

The American Legion Auxiliary is the largest women's dues-paying organization in the world. At the present time it consists of about 400,000 members, the mothers, wives, sisters and daughters of men and women who were in the military or naval service of the United States between April 6, 1917 and November 11, 1918, and who died in line of duty or after honorable discharge. If there is any question as to your eligibility in your own mind, write or ask your local secretary.

During the week of April 6th to 15th we are making an appeal to you women to avail yourselves of this privilege to belong to the Auxiliary of the American Legion, so that you may help carry on this important work.

COUNCIL MEETING POSTPONED

The village commission has postponed its regular meeting, scheduled for Monday, April 6, until Tuesday, April 7. The reason for this is that the council in a body expect to attend the American Legion banquet which will be held on Monday evening.

NORTHVILLE WOMAN'S CLUB WILL JOIN WITH P. T. A.

The members of the Northville Woman's club have been invited by the Parent-Teachers Association to join with them in their meeting at the high school gymnasium Thursday evening, April 9, when an unusually fine fall will be given by Mrs. Margaret Brayton. This speaker is assistant director of the Children's Museum of Detroit which is a part of the Detroit school system. Her subject will be "Pictures for Young People." There will also be an exhibit of colored prints of famous paintings which are used in Detroit schools in teaching art.

This special privilege of hearing Mrs. Brayton is possible only because she is at liberty during this week of vacation of the Detroit schools. The prints will also be displayed at the Ladies' Library Wednesday.

"THE NEIGHBORHOOD PANTRY"

Leavitt's Laddie, of Overlook Farm, head of Meadow Brook's Guernsey Herd.

Three "Little Fellows" from the Island of Guernsey.

There are hundreds of pounds of butter each month, product of the Guernsey herd through the sanitary farm dairy; crates of eggs and dressed poultry going to the same market. Very little grain is sold from the tiled acres for each year Mrs. Wilson purchases young cattle in car lots from Western stockyards to consume all of the surplus raised. Hogs and sheep, however, in addition to the cattle, furnish a year round outlet for the grains produced.

There is now in the making at "Meadow Brook" farm one of the outstanding Guernsey herds in the midwest, the foundation being composed of young cows imported from the Island of Guernsey, England. The sire is Leavitt's Laddie, of Overlook Farm. The pedigreed stock imported by Mrs. Wilson is of the highest type of this breed of cattle and will be shown at the Michigan state fair and other live stock exhibitions during the year.

The live stock at "Meadow Brook" also includes a small herd of Angus cattle raised for best purposes and several car loads of young stock purchased in the fall and fed through the winter. This bunch of young Herefords will be marketed in June.

Hogs are all O. C. I. C. registered stock, including breeding sows producing around one hundred head of young each year. The sheep herd does its part in making Meadow Brook a going industry, a regular food factory twelve months in the year and then there is the poultry, just the regular bi-product of a genuine Michigan agricultural project.

"Farming is a business," is the word passed out by Mrs. Wilson through the farm manager, John Cline, down to the dozens of men who till the fields, look after the livestock and keep this agricultural industry a going concern. So the Michigan State College, the oldest agricultural school of America, will acquire a member of its control board, one who practices what they preach, "Farming is a business."

WEST POINT PARK

Palm Sunday was observed in our church with an impressive service. A large number of people were taken into the church. The young people's choir sang some hymns. Mr. Adams gave an appropriate sermon. A number of visitors were present from Detroit and Farmington.

The baseball club met Thursday evening to make arrangements for the summer's games.

The Pedro club met Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Addis were host and hostess. Those winning prizes were: Ladies, Mrs. Carl Dyer, Mrs. Ray Milburn, and Miss Lucille MacDonald. The gentlemen winning were: Ernest Ault, Clifford Haskins, and Harry Wolfe with Elroy Edwards winning the house prize. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Trapp will entertain the club on the eleventh of April.

The News spelling bee was contested by a large number of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, in person school. The rules announced for the contestants were strictly kept by the two teachers, Miss Dorothy Edwards and Miss Lillian Hohler. Stanley Taylor, eighth grade scholar, won the atlas. Runner-up was Harry Wolfe, junior. Stanley will represent West Point Park in the township spelling bee which will be held in the community hall here on April 17 when our district will be well represented by the victor on Friday.

There was a mistake made in last week's correspondence. The school nurses were here instead of the county nurses. However, no harm was done and everything was ready for the parties that bespoke the hall.

Charles Pierpont and William Zwanlen accompanied Samuel Adams and attended the Men's retreat at Thursday evening at Fort Street Presbyterian Church in Detroit.

Mrs. Hill of Farmington Acres called on Mrs. C. Wolfe and other friends Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Rowe and family, who formerly lived in Windsor, until they can find a vacant house to move into.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dowsett and little son were visitors Saturday evening at the latter's parents' home, on the Base Lane road. Wm. Dowsett will be remembered as the young married man who was hurt so badly near Salem. He is working on his father's farm this summer.

The 4-H club, sponsored by Miss Dorothy Edwards held their achievement day Friday morning in the hall here. Miss Fiola Wolfe, president, of the sewing club, gave the welcoming address. The winner for the first year in sewing was Marjory Henchman; for second year, Margaret Mills. The boys handicraft was taken charge of by Mr. Greene and Mr. Pierson was the judge. Maurice Wolfe won first prize and Junior Pierpont won second. There was some fine work on exhibit, doing credit to those that have charge of this work in the county. They will go to Dearborn Saturday and make comparisons with the other 4-H clubs.

Mrs. John Harlan attended a luncheon at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fred Cook of Farmington. Other guests were Mrs. Martha Warner, Mrs. M. B. Pierce, Mrs. Rufus Crossman and Miss Merle Andrews.

Mrs. A. Travis, Mrs. Earl Ransler and Mrs. Lee Wilcox motored to Plymouth Friday to visit Mrs. Travis' daughter who has been very ill with the flu.

Mrs. Homer Coolman, called on her sister, Mrs. Russell Ault, in the sanatorium at Northville and says she is improving there.

Easter day, Sunday, will be observed in the usual way. Breakfast will be ready in the church dining room at half past seven. Sunday school will be at 10:30 and church service will commence at 11:30. Rev. Adams, the pastor, will talk on the resurrection and victory of our Lord on that day and the choir will sing appropriate hymns.

Ernestine Wolfe has returned home from Harper hospital and is looking and feeling good after being in the hospital one week. She says everyone was nice to her. Ernestine wishes to thank her many friends for their kindness to her and for the flowers and boxes of candy she received the week she was in the hospital.

William Owen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Owen, living in the Faulker subdivision, is quarantined for scarlet fever.

A genuine surprise was given Frances Woodley Friday evening. It was his sixteenth birthday. A few games were enjoyed and a hearty lunch was served by the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woodley. Everyone wished Frances many more birthdays.

HI STEED'S ORCHESTRA WILL PLAY AT SCHOOL J-HOP ON APRIL 10

The J-Hop, to be given by members of the Northville high school junior class in the school gymnasium on Friday, April 10, will be one of the sparkling functions of the year, according to members of the program committee.

The house will be by Hi Steed and his Commodore, a renowned radio orchestra, presented by Det. DeBragge. It is expected that this party crew of music-makers will keep the young people on the dance floor in a spirited and eager frame of mind.

"Reports from the various committees," said Herbert Berendt, class president, indicate that there will be a large crowd in attendance and it is our desire to furnish the best music possible, the prettiest decorations and do everything within our power to assure everyone a good time. The committee members have worked hard and faithfully to make this dance a real success and I feel sure that their efforts will not be in vain.

The invitation committee, headed by Violet Sheppard, chairman, has sent out approximately 250 invitations. However, she says, a special bid to the dance is not necessary and anyone who would like to come but who has not received an invitation is cordially invited to attend.

The decorations committee has decided to convert the gymnasium into a carnival scene for the evening.

As mentioned before, the orchestra committee has secured the services of Hi Steed's six piece orchestra which will play a steady succession of the latest popular music from nine until one o'clock in the morning.

A list of the persons who have consented to act as chaperones has been made up by a committee, with Catherine Stalter as chairman. The list is as follows: Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Koop, R. H. Amerman, Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Cavell, Dr. and Mrs. P. R. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Stalter, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Richardson, Mrs. Farnester, Maurice Lapham and Miss Beth Pensford.

LOCAL EASTERN STARS FETE DETROIT GUESTS

Last Friday evening was a red letter day for the local chapter of Eastern Star when a company of 200 were present to enjoy a supper which was followed by initiatory ritual.

At six-thirty the large company sat down to a bountiful cooperative dinner served by an efficient committee. After dinner the guests retired to the chapter room which was tastefully decorated with flowers and potted plants. Here a drill was given by the Kilwinning commandery in uniform which called forth much favorable comment.

An initiation of two candidates, conducted by advance officers was especially impressive. Following the initiation three members of the Eastern Star were honored by having life memberships conferred by the Worthy Matron, Mrs. Mary Cassie. Those who were thus honorably recognized were Mr. and Mrs. Barton Wheeler and Mrs. Emma Stark who have been members for 35 years.

Attending this occasion were 50 guests from Detroit, members of a sister chapter of Eastern Star, whose presence added much to the interest of the affair. Among these guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Flaherty, now of Detroit, who were former members of the Northville chapter.

OLDEST FORD DRIVER

J. M. Crow, 89, of Ethel, Miss., the oldest Ford driver in Mississippi, traversed the historic old Natchez Trace in a covered wagon eighty-seven years ago.

As rugged today at 89 as the age in American history he so picturesquely typifies, J. M. Crow of Ethel, Miss., is the oldest Ford driver in Mississippi and one of the oldest in the United States.

When as a babe of two years he rode with his parents in one of a train of 30 covered wagons out of Cobb county, Georgia, into Mississippi, the old Natchez Trace followed by the brave little band was still infested by the swashbuckling ruffians whose bloody outrages gave that era its place in this country's history as "the outlaw years."

One of his vivid memories is hearing, as a boy of six, the news of General Scott's victorious assault on the heights of Chapultepec which ended the Mexican War in 1847, and his proudest memory is of honorable service as a Confederate soldier during the Civil War. When the southern cause collapsed, Crow was compelled to trudge 400 miles on foot to the old homestead at Ethel where he settled down to rear a family.

In the intervening years he has seen the lumbering stagecoach give way to the fleet automobile and the comfortable motorbus, the soggy gumbo and rough corduroy roads of his childhood to the wide, paved roads of today, and although he was long past middle age before the modern automobile became commonplace he is as enthusiastic a driver as youngsters who can boast less than one-quarter of his years.

Five generations of Crow's family are frequently seen together in his Model A Ford, the second of its type Crow has owned and driven.

Mr. James Dickie of South Lyon was a Sunday dinner guest in the Geo. Foreman home and afternoon guests were the Misses Dorothy and Ruth Foreman and friend of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Foreman and daughter, Mrs. E. Stambro, visited Sunday in Ann Arbor, calling on Dr. Mrs. E. T. Ward and attended in the afternoon, a musicale in Hill auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stambro and Mr. Lewis Haab attended, Wednesday, a birthday party given in the J. A. Devereaux home in Walled Lake, honoring the 51st birthday anniversary of Perry Austin, on March 18.

The Ladies' Auxiliary society of the Congregational church will have a "Ham and Egg" supper on Friday evening, April 10 in the town hall. The culinary art of the ladies is too well known to say anything more.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Payne entertained for dinner on Sunday, in honor of the birthdays of Mrs. Mary Mankin and Richard Hale. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mankin and family and Mr. and Mrs. P. Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kahler of Cornumna were Sunday guests of their son Vern and family. Mr. Kahler returned home in the afternoon but his wife remained to get ready to have their furniture moved this week to Cornumna.

The "Light Bearers" class of Congregational Sunday school were entertained Saturday afternoon by the Sunday school Superintendent, Mrs. R. W. Kehri. A very delightful time was enjoyed by the boys and girls playing games and partaking of fine refreshments, served by the hostess.

Mrs. Will Millard of Farmington, and Mrs. Tuttle of Detroit, spent Thursday with Mrs. Warren Van Duyn.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Bunn were Detroit visitors, Tuesday and attended the Garrick theatre in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Fuller and daughter, Mary, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fuller and Mr. and Mrs. Russel Fuller of Detroit.

25 YEARS AGO

Several from here attended a "smoker" at Farmington Tuesday evening, given by Mark Seely and Matt Green. Governor Warren was a guest.

Mrs. Kate Hubbard is home from Midland for the spring vacation.

Miss Edith Scott is home from Ypsilanti for the Easter vacation.

The Jolly Euchre club is to be entertained by Mrs. Will E. Ambler.

A table sugar party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Bogart last Friday evening.

Miss Genevieve Clark gave a twelve o'clock luncheon Saturday for Miss Wheeler and Miss Lida Richardson. Miss Lida Richardson entertained friends Monday evening in honor of the same young lady.

The Wait property on Northside which was sold Saturday was bought by Tom Schulte for $300.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Green from Farmington are moving into the E. Wood Knapp house.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson arranged a lovely double birthday celebration in honor of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Galpin of Whitmore Lake. The dinner table looked festive with two fine birthday cakes besides other decorations. Their other children who enjoyed this family affair were Mr. and Mrs. William Galpin of Royal Oak, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Keefe and children of Clawson.

Salem Congregational Church. Rev. Lucia M. Stroth minister.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at the parsonage. Practice for both choirs Wednesday evening in the church.

There will be a Good Friday service on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Judge Geo. W. Cooper of Detroit will bring the message bearing on "Calvary". All the community are invited to this sacred service.

Easter service 10:30 a. m. Sunday, April 5. The pastor will speak on "Resurrection". All our friends are cordially urged to unite in this victorious service. Easter is life challenging the philosophy of defeatism and death. It tells us that on the world's throne is the world's father, that love, not arbitrary chance nor implacable fate rules; that:

"Life is ever Lord of death,
And Love can never lose its own."

The church, as Jesus, Christ invites in the observance of one of the most solemnly sacred and yet radiant joyous anniversaries of the Christian centuries. Let us enter into the services of this day with open hearted sincerity and expectant faith. Well may we sing the glorious Easter anthems and pour out their offerings to carry the Good News of the Gospel to all—even to the ends of the earth. For the grave is robbed of its sting, death of its dread, and immortal hope lifts the soul to ever more exalting heights of spiritual living and deathless aspiration.

"Life and immortality are brought to light through the Gospel—Christ the Lord is risen—Hallelujah!"

An Easter Prayer—O Lord and Giver of Life, who art awakening the earth to the "spring" loveliness of spring, awaken our spirits to the wonder and glory of Easter day. As Christ arose victorious over the shadow of death of the cross and the darkness of the tomb, so may we rise above the things of earth which pass away; through Jesus Christ, our Redeemer and Lord.

The Easter pageant "The Risen King" will be given by the Sunday school Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. Everybody welcome!

HOSTESS AT BRIDGE

Mrs. Arthur Steele was hostess to her bridge club at her apartment at the Wayne County Training school Tuesday afternoon. Two tables of young women played resulting in first prize going to Miss Reva Schrader and second to Mrs. Sterling Eaton. Mrs. Eaton, as the bride, was also honored by receiving the guest prize. A delectable dessert luncheon was served.

AT THE THEATRE

"EAST LYNNE"

The showing of Frank Lloyd's Fox Movietone production "East Lynne" at the Penniman Allen theatre Sunday and Monday, April 5 and 6 is the outstanding event in the cinema history of this city. Of that there can be no doubt, for, in addition to the popularity and the pulse quickening elements of the story, which has, in this instance, been thoroughly modernized by Tom Barry and Bradley King, "East Lynne" boasts the most distinguished cast of stars ever assembled for a single picture, including Ann Harding, Olive Brook, Conita Nagel, Beryl Meyer, Cecilia Loftis, David Torrence and a number of others.

Advance reports on "East Lynne" label it as an entertainment that will undoubtedly win the year's honors. It has been elaborately produced with the story given a treatment that makes it more universally appealing than ever before.

"KEPT HUSBANDS"

From the football field at Pomona College where he carried the pigskin to many hard-fought goals, Joel McCrea gravitated to the screen where he now carries many a fair heroine to romance.

This young giant of the films appears in Radio Pictures' "Kept Husbands" showing at the Penniman Allen theatre Wednesday, April 8, with a cast composed of Dorothy Mackaill, Clara Kimball Young, Bryant Washburn, Mary Carr and others.

McCrea leaped from the obscure ranks of the "extras" overnight with a sensational performance in "The Jazz Age," and has since been consistently starred.

"Kept Husbands" is the story of a young college scholar who marries a rich girl. It was directed by Lloyd Bacon.

"CIMARRON"

"You can't take pictures here. This set is not completed," said a visitor to Wesley Ruggles, when viewing the town of "Osage," constructed at the Radio Pictures ranch for "Cimarron," starring Richard Dix.

"It is completed," said the director. "Why, some of the buildings are only half up, everything is unpainted and there are boards, nail kegs and planks scattered all around."

"That's exactly what I want," explained Ruggles. "The town of Osage in 'Cimarron' was a half-constructed boom town. This is an exact reproduction."

Most of the dramatic action in the Edna Ferber story, showing Friday and Saturday, April 10 and 11 at the Penniman Allen theatre, takes place in the town of Osage. As the story progresses so does the town. In the end it is a seething city of skyscrapers.

You've heard about the boy who, gazing thoughtfully at the small condensed milk can, asked how cows could set on such little things. Those are the kids who grow up to be Senators and get put on farm relief committees and such.

HOMEMAKER'S CORNER

By MRS. EDITOR

Stop! Look! Listen!
For spring is 'round the bend,
And all the wounds of winter
The gladness of Spring will mend.

THE CHILDREN'S EASTER MORN
Children love sentiment. It would surprise prosaic adults who have not kept close to child-life, could they see a bunch of kiddies through Valentine Season, Hallowe'en, St. Patrick's Day or any other special season. And Easter is one of the best of all—the children's own. It is the joyous season, the spring of new life and tender blossoms of aspiration. Child faces are so happy on Easter morning, rivaling the charm of the daintiest Easter lilies ever grown.

It puts poetry into childhood to make a special celebration on these special days. Why be drab and humdrum when it takes so little to please a child—a little forethought, a little money, and a little work? It is up to Mother to be "Easter-Glans" and like good old Santa have a surprise ready for her brood when they open their eyes on Easter morn.

There are a thousand variations of what might be arranged, and the shops are full of appropriate trinkets. The wise and experienced mother of a household has her "Easter-Box" to draw from. At this season she gets it down from the attic and brings out all of the previous years' supplies and adds a new trinket, special for each child; but by ingenuity makes the old serve again.

For variety, spread a white cloth over the table. In the center place a mirror. Cover the frame with green paper grass. If you can't buy it, cut it from green tissue paper with the shears. On this "pond" let the flurly Easter ducks swim with a "biddy" or two standing wisely on the bank. Artificial flowers in small vases may surround your lake. (The children will never worry about proportions and a lily may be as large as a tenth of your lake.) In grass, nests or in baskets or in a broken egg-shell may rest wee candy eggs. A colored hen's egg or two may occupy its place while a bunny scampering around, or sitting on a basket of eggs can never come amiss. Freshen your display with new green ribbon or green candles.

You will be amazed yourself at the Oh-be-joyful look of your work of art when done, and the children—it is very much worth while!

EGGS IN THE DIET

Biddy is cackling her loudest and trying to call our attention to the value of eggs in the diet. They are a concentrated food and should be combined with bulky foods. Eggs are strong in proteins which build up the body; in fats and in mineral salts; iron, sulphur, calcium, and phosphorus are abundant in them. Some delicious claim that no matter what other food a child has, if he lacks phosphorus he will not thrive; then feed him eggs. There is a newer value we have discovered in eggs, the vitamins in the egg yolk.

But how to feed eggs attractively is somewhat of a problem. The people who need them most are generally so prejudiced against them that it is hard to induce them to look an egg in the face. The disguise, then, is the trick!

In maited milk, in cocoa, in custards, cream fillings, salads, sandwiches, scalloped dishes, and souffles, eggs may be lost sight of. Perhaps it is as well to show them up attractively, as cut the hard-boiled egg in two lengthwise, remove the yolk, mince and season with salad dressing. Worcestershire sauce, tarragon, paprika, or any snappy flavor. Then put back into the white and serve on a crisp lettuce leaf or with a nasturtium flower.

Eggs have a "stuck-to-itiveness" which make them valuable in "using left" overs in loaves and croquets. In the spring, when they are especially needed in the system, they should be put liberally into cakes and muffins. Children and invalids need eggs. They are second to milk in value to the growing child. If he does not like them at first, begin feeding only a small portion and presently he will be willing to get away with more. Coddled is the very best way to prepare an egg to get its full digestive value. Put into boiling water and bring slowly to a near-boil. In either case the result will be the egg with the white merely jellyed but not hard. Hard boiled eggs are tough and leathery and difficult for the digestive juices to penetrate.

EASTER TRADITIONS

In ancient England, and Ireland it was believed that the sun dances on Easter morn. Many nations told the children that the rabbits lay gay colored eggs on Easter. A bird is reputed to have sung over Christ's tomb and its eggs were thereafter of bright color. It is a tradition that the land gives which eggs are rolled on Easter will yield abundantly. To have a babe baptized or to have a friend bring a babe into your house, or to become engaged on Easter is good luck, but to put a garment on wrong side out—ah, don't do that. Exchanging eggs at Easter is supposed to date back to the Roman games at this season when eggs were given as prizes to the victors.

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE CO.

Anne Campbell

well-known and beloved Michigan poetess, her laugh the romance to often associated with the telephone and has expressed it charmingly in the following lines, reprinted by special permission of the author and of The Detroit News, which published the poem November 13, 1930. (Copyright, 1930.)

Long Distance Telephone

Over the lonesome miles, your voice meets mine in space,
And in a few short sentences you say
Enough to pull the sun out from his hiding place
And turn my nighttime into glorious day.

In days gone by beneath the window of his love,
The troubadour sang goldenly and long,
His chosen lady listened from her room above,
And drifted off in slumber to his song.

Now in a few crisp phrases flung across the wire
You tell me all that warbler could impart.
The telephone has grown to be the modern lyre
From which the lover sends his singing heart.

NUTTY NATURAL HISTORY

THE STOCKHOLM SKOO

THE skoo, or two tailed straddle bird, presents a curious example of evolutionary development. Fossil specimens found in the mountainous regions of western Sweden show that the skoo had legs fore and aft on its long body to enable it to navigate the narrow mountain passes, but the later changes to city life where numerous temptations made its feet stray from the straight and narrow path, developed the peculiar arrangement of head, feet, and tail, as shown above. The young skoo are called skogdier, in the quaint Swedish tongue. The skoo here pictured trying to follow two primitive paths at once, has a paper-shell body, to which are attached in the middle a toothpick neck and pear-shaped head. The ears are split penitents and the eyes are merely pen and ink. The feet are split almond kernels, the legs gloves, and the tails which steer each foot separately are toothpicks.

Your Home and You

USE LABELS

YOU will find the tea in that cracker box with the dent in the top. And the coffee is in that round tin that held the fruit cake. The rice is in one of the fruit jars and so is the farina. You can tell the difference because a string is tied around the rice.

Doubtless you have sometimes heard some such directions as these when you came to giving instructions as to where the various articles of diet were to be found. Very few of us housewives have all our foods put away in such a way that they can be found without opening some few boxes and cans. You may think you have, but the chances are that here and there in pantry or larger there is a container not properly labeled. You know its contents, so there seems little object in labeling it. But for the sake of convenience and system all such containers should be labeled plainly.

BOY SCOUTS TIE KNOTS

The local Boy Scouts held a very interesting meeting Wednesday evening when they were in charge of two Eagle Scouts, Hodgson and Calhoun, from Troop 1, Rose Garden. The boys reviewed their skill in knot tying and boxing the compass. A knot-board is to be started in which the boys will tie knots and fashion upon their boards. A prize is offered for the best completed job.

LOCAL NEWS

When obstinate persistency the scarlet fever still drags along in this community with no serious cases but just enough to keep it steadily going. Just as the last case, Leonard Snipes, was about out of quarantine and the epidemic seemed all over, up came four other cases. At present those in quarantine are Tom Carrington, Geraldine Ware, Helen Hilder and Doyne Alenmar. None of these are very sick, just taking a vacation from school and enjoying poor health.

With the melting away of the blankets of the beautiful which kindly covered some of the unsightly backyards and alleys the need of cleanliness is again called to the attention of the public. Village health officer J. C. Smith says that as early as the first of April a few weeks make this sound and rather up all refuse. An announcement will be made later.

A beautiful flag is to be presented to the school to replace the old one on the flag staff by the American Legion Auxiliary and the Woman's Relief Corps. The flag raising is to be Monday, April 13 at three o'clock. Mrs. Louise Safford, past president of the Auxiliary and Relief Corps and patriotic instructor of the corps will present the flag. The public is invited.

A community banquet, given by the American Legion and Auxiliary will be held at the Presbyterian church house Monday, April 6 at 6:30. Mrs. Smith, state president, will be one of the speakers. All Auxiliary girls be present. The public is invited to attend this banquet.

The next meeting of the Auxiliary will be held Tuesday evening, April 14 at the home of Mrs. Bertha Peters 522 Fairbrook Ave.

ART SHOPPE

Owing to the late appearance of the "copy" for The Art Shoppe advertisement The Record was not able to insert the fact that Mrs. Holmes is prepared to supply last minute gifts, Easter cards, to belated shoppers at reasonable prices.

The only sports fashion in sight is the ever aughty beret, which has almost ceased being a sports fashion. It looks like a lean year for us.

BEG YOUR PARDON

In last week's Record, in the story about the local fish hatchery, we "mixed up" titles inadvertently. It is E. L. Snipes who is the superintendent while L. G. Carman is the fish culturist. These are busy days at the hatchery.

Shade Trees And Ornamental Shrubs

We are offering one of the most beautiful Shade Trees, the European White Birch, 6 to 8 feet, well branched, at the reasonable price of $1.50.

We are also giving this week a Special Offer of Weigela Rosea at 40c.

Many other Bargains. Watch this advertisement.
