

NORTHVILLE OFFICIALS
Are eager to serve your needs and desires. Give them your suggestions and make still a better town.

The Northville Record

TELL YOUR FRIENDS
About the advantages of Northville as an ideal home town. You will do them a kindness.

VOL. 61, No. 52. Northville, Michigan, Friday, July 3, 1931. $1.50 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

THE LAPHAM STATE SAVINGS BANK CLOSES

Voluntary Action Taken to Protect Interests of Depositors

For the protection of its depositors, the Lapham State Savings Bank voluntarily closed its doors here Tuesday morning, June 30.

By unanimous vote of the board of directors Monday evening, following an afternoon conference with state banking department officials, it was decided to suspend business, failure of the bank to open as usual Tuesday morning came as a stunning and unexpected blow to the people of Northville.

Decision to close the bank was due to two things: inability to liquidate assets of the bank and the heavy withdrawals of funds that followed recent "runs" on banks at Pontiac and other places. The tragic suicide of Cramer Smith, president of one of the Pontiac banks, which precipitated hysteria among depositors in Pontiac and which spread to other places is blamed as one of the direct causes of the suspension here.

Action Is Voluntary

Action to suspend business for the protection of the loyal depositors was voluntary Monday afternoon, officials of the bank met with Deputy Commissioner M. C. Traynor at Pontiac. "I consider your bank solvent," he told the Northville men. However, he went on to say that in view of the heavy withdrawals by those who had become alarmed by developments in other places, that it might be wise to close to protect those who have left their money in the bank. The reserves of the bank were being heavily depleted by the large amounts that were being taken out. The bank's officials stated would have gone for some time longer, but had the withdrawals continued there would have been a prospect of loss to the depositors. Hence it was felt that it would be fair to close at once and save the assets of the institution. Closing at this time will safeguard all the funds and it is felt that there will be no loss to the depositors. Time, of course, will be necessary to liquidate the affairs of the bank.

The directors were called together Monday evening to consider the developments. "It rests with your board whether you remain open or decide to close," the officials of the banking department said to the Northville men; "we have no right to close your doors, but we feel that it would be for the best interests of all and the protection of depositors if you would suspend business." After thorough discussion of all angles of the matter it was unanimously voted to stop business at once, all feeling that this would be for the protection of the depositors.

After this meeting, some of the men went to Detroit where still further conferences were held in the hope of steadying the local situation.

Closing of the Lapham bank came as a great surprise to the people of Northville. Although banks have been closed in nearby cities, there had been great confidence here that both our local banks were "solid" and would weather the storm of uncertainty that had hit other places. However, the tense situation at Pontiac, following the self-destruction of a bank president—whose accounts were completely honored and covered—caused anxiety to develop here, with the increase of withdrawals as mentioned above.

State Examiner in Charge

Following the closing of the bank the state banking commissioner assigned J. D. Cook, one of the staff of examiners, to take charge of the institution. He is now in complete charge and has three of the former assistants of the bank helping in the work of tabulating its affairs.

The next step in the liquidation of the bank's assets will be the appointment of a receiver by the Wayne county circuit court. Preparation of the assets for the receiver is now in progress. Officials do not know how soon the receiver will be appointed but it will probably be within a few days.

The last statement of the bank strengthens the belief that all depositors should be paid in full, unless conditions get worse. Capital stock of $50,000, surplus of $55,000, and undivided profits of approximately $16,000 should, according to high officials, make a sufficient margin to absorb all loss on loans and mortgages. Banking officials state that the present situation was brought about by a panicky public and the return to normal conditions

DR. AND MRS. CAVELL RECEIVE HIGH HONORS

Friends of Dr. E. B. Cavell, Northville sportsman and owner of one of the finest dog kennels in Wayne county, were pleased to learn that he has been elected president of the Michigan Veterinary Association at its convention in East Lansing last week.

For two years Dr. Cavell has been president of the Northville school board and last year was president of the Northville Exchange club.

Mrs. Cavell was re-elected as president of the Ladies Auxiliary to Michigan Veterinary Association, having held that post last year when the organization was newly formed.

OPERATION IS SUCCESSFUL

Friends of Marvin Sloan will be very glad to hear that he successfully underwent an operation for cataracts at the St. Joseph hospital at Ann Arbor Monday, June 22, and is convalescing nicely. He hopes to be home very soon.

History of Bank

The following history of the Lapham State Savings bank was run in our recent "New Stone" edition.

In February, 1907, Edward H. Lapham was urged by several of his friends to organize another bank in Northville. Mr. Lapham had been with J. S. Lapham & company, Northville's pioneer banking firm from 1891 to 1904 and from 1905 to 1907 was employed by the Union Trust company of Detroit.

The stock was readily subscribed and on March 9, 1907 the Lapham State Savings bank was organized and opened for business April 15, 1907.

The officers elected were as follows: E. S. Harmon, president; A. B. Smith, vice president; Charles Yerkes, vice president; E. H. Lapham, cashier. The above named officers and Rasmus Christensen, Francis G. Terrill and Frank E. Neal, constituted the first board of directors.

The capital was $25,000 and the bank opened for business in the building now occupied by the Royal Ann Cafe, south side of Main street. The present site was purchased from Charles Yerkes in June, 1907 and the contract for a new building was awarded the following September. The bank occupied its new quarters in February, 1908 and it was decided at this time that the cashier needed an assistant. Ernest Miller, who became associated as assistant cashier in the organization.

July 6, 1910, Will G. Yerkes succeeded his father, Charles Yerkes, who resigned as a member of the board, November 3, 1913. Frank E. Bradley was elected a director to succeed A. B. Smith, deceased. Mr. Smith was much interested in the success of the bank and his death was keenly felt. June 1, 1914, Milo N. Johnson was elected a director to succeed Will G. Yerkes whose untimely death was the cause of deep regret to his associates on the board. July 7, 1919, Roy M. Terrill was elected a director to succeed his father Francis G. Terrill, resigned.

The capital stock was increased to $50,000 by resolutions adopted at a special meeting held July 15, 1919, and the bank became a member of the Federal Reserve System during the same year.

The bank building was remodeled during the summer and fall of 1923, the formal opening, taking place November 16.

On January 13, 1925, Alex Christensen was elected a director to succeed his father, Rasmus Christensen, whose death occurred in November, 1924. Mr. Christensen's interest in the affairs of the bank had meant much to the institution and his death was deeply regretted.

At the annual meeting held January 11, 1927, four members were added to the board namely, Carl H. Bryan, Harry B. Clark, Charles A. Ponsford and Nelson C. Schraeder.

Frank S. Neal, vice president and a director since the organization of the bank, died in November, 1928 and E. S. Beard was elected as a director to succeed Mr. Neal. Mr. Neal served the bank faithfully for twenty-one years and his death was a distinct loss to the bank and the community.

Mr. Neal's death left only Mr. Harmon and Mr. Lapham as surviving members of the original board of directors.

The officials and directors are as follows: Frank S. Harmon, president; Frank E. Bradley, vice president; Milo N. Johnson, vice president; Edward H. Lapham, cashier; Ernest Miller, assistant cashier; John Lunsberger, also assistant cashier. Directors are: E. S. Beard, F. E. Bradley, C. H. Bryan, Alex Christensen, H. B. Clark, J. S. Harmon, M. N. Johnson, E. H. Lapham, C. A. Ponsford, N. C. Schraeder and R. M. Terrill.

They Won Their Battle - - Let Us Win Ours!

NEW ROAD PLANNED FOR FAIR GROUNDS

The construction of a paved road to lead from the Six Mile road and Plymouth avenue, through the proposed county park just south of the Fair Grounds and through the southeast corner of the Fair Grounds, work to be started immediately, was announced by Merle Bennett of the Wayne County Road commission Tuesday.

Work on the park has been started, declared Floyd Northrop, secretary of the Fair, and work on the road will begin immediately. The paved road will lead directly to the Fair Grounds and from that point a gravel road will be built through the grounds coming out on Cady street. The paved road will then continue on up to join the Fishery road.

The barns on the south east corner of the Fair Grounds will be moved to the southwest corner of the grounds so as to make room for the road. The road is expected to greatly facilitate traffic during Fair time and to take some of the load off of the Seven Mile road and the Cady street road.

NOTICE OF BIDS

Sealed bids will be received up to noon, July 31 for 55 tons of coal, W. Virginia steam mine run coal, 60 per cent lump. Delivered him. Nov. school board. Board reserves all rights to reject any or all bids.

"The Spirit of '76" Let's match it with a new spirit of '31"

Let's not stand for depression any more than our ancestors stood for oppression! They fought for and won their right to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." Let us stand up for our rights to sound prosperity and plenty.

The colonists united to drive out tyranny. We ought to unite to drive out rumor and hysteria. If each one of us would make a solemn oath to do our part, how much we could accomplish.

Let's get together and put our shoulders to the wheel of better, sounder business. Ours is an easy task compared to that of our Revolutionary fathers. No one doubts for an instant the ultimate victory over the enemy depression.

We all believe in our country. We all know that the foundations are solid. It's time we refused to be unfairly taxed by unreasonable hysteria, business fears and forebodings.

Let's face this thing called Depression with all the courage, stamina and real grit that an American community can call upon.

Let's show backbone!

Hot Weather Stays

"Whew, it's hot!" everyone greets everyone else these days—and then everyone feels better! Old Northville residents say this has been the hottest June Northville ever had. The mercury has run close up to 100 and has stubbornly refused to come down much in spite of several thunder storms.

If you have a chance to sit on your porch and fan, don't complain but think of some of the really hot places around town—the bakery where the red hot ovens send forth

THIEVES ROB PAIR ON EIGHT MILE RD.

As Mrs. Marian Power was coming to Northville with her husband, carrying a sum of money which had been withdrawn from the bank, she was held up and robbed by three armed men at 1 o'clock Wednesday on the Eight Mile road a quarter of a mile East of the Nov. road.

Mrs. Power gave the thieves $25. Detroit police in co-operation with Chief Wm. S. Safford of Northville, are attempting to trace the car and are having the state roads watched.

People carrying large sums of money on their person or keeping money in their houses are warned by police officials that thieves are attracted to such a neighborhood where the "pickings" are easy.

See Harry German's Chiefs play the Brightmoor B. M. S. Sunday at the Fair Grounds. It'll be a 'bang-up' game.

See Harry German's Chiefs play the Brightmoor B. M. S. Sunday at the Fair Grounds. It'll be a 'bang-up' game.

NOTICE OF BIDS

Bids for janitor service for 10 months in Nov. school will be received by the Board of Education up to noon July 9. Board reserves right to reject any or all bids.

—Board of Education, Nov.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL TO OPEN

The Vacation Bible school is all set to begin next Monday at the Presbyterian church house with classes each morning. Following is the capable corps of teachers who will have charge: Primary department, Mrs. E. S. Beard, Gertrude Parmenter, Bernice Clark, Mary Ellen Barbour, Margaret Haskel, Mrs. L. MacCrae. Junior department, Mrs. R. O. Thompson, Mrs. Jennie Cousins, Mrs. Ray Casterline, Miss Barbara Blackburn, Intermediate, Mrs. Leslie G. Lee, Mrs. Ada Bloom, Carl Bryan, Dr. Douglas, Senior department, Rev. H. G. Whitfield. Expressional Activities and Recreation, Mrs. Earl Montgomery and Ronald Button. Pianists, Mrs. F. J. Cochran, Dean, Rev. W. Roscoe Barbour.

Seventy enrolled last Sunday for these classes.

Obituary

Mrs. Thomas H. Turner.

Mrs. Thomas H. Turner, well known resident of Northville, passed away Sunday, June 20 at the age of 70 years after an illness of six weeks at Sessions' hospital where she had been taken for care. Heart trouble was the immediate cause of her death.

The past winter months she had spent in the home of her son, Harold E. Turner in Chicago where she took especial pleasure in the company of her 10-year-old granddaughter, Dorothy. She had just returned here to her home the day previous to her illness from which she did not recover.

Mrs. Turner was born in Jackson Mich. in 1861 and here most of her childhood was spent with the exception of a few years in the East. Returning to Jackson, she was married in 1883 to Dr. Thomas H. Turner and to them one son was born, Harold E.

In 1898 Dr. and Mrs. Turner moved to Northville where the doctor spent years in serving his medical practice until his death four years ago. While here they opened their home hospitably to their friends and loved to entertain them. Mrs. Turner was very energetic and full of interest in life taking great pride in her artistic ability in painting. Her devotion to her home and family was marked.

Mrs. Turner was an active member of the Presbyterian church, the Eastern Star, the Woman's club, the I. O. T. N. and of several social clubs.

Three brothers preceded her in death and the only surviving member of her family is her one son, Harold who is at present in the insurance business in Chicago. The funeral was held at the Schrader Funeral Home Tuesday afternoon with Rev. H. G. Whitfield officiating. Interment was made in Rural Hill.

RETURN FROM ENGLAND

Miss Mabel Sherrier, secretary of the Wayne County Training school and Miss Genevieve Barlett, also of the school, are expected home this week from England where they have been for the past few weeks.

EDGEWATER PARK MAKES FOURTH OF JULY PLANS

What would July 4th be without a gorgeous display of fireworks? Independence Day is a day of celebration and throughout the nation spectacular fireworks displays will climax a day of rejoicing.

Edgewater Park, Seven Mile road near Grand River, Detroit, has made arrangements for the most extensive and novel showing since the opening of this beautiful amusement center.

Starting at noon July 4th, there will be excitement and thrills for everyone at Edgewater Park.

Because of its ideal facilities for picnicking Edgewater Park will undoubtedly be the mecca of holiday pleasure seekers. Hundreds of tables under shady trees and whirled by cooling breezes are available without charge. Parking space enough for 5,000 cars is open to all park visitors without charge.

For those who do not drive to Edgewater excellent transportation facilities are available. Edgewater Park buses meet all Grand River street cars at Lahser avenue, Redford Seven Mile buses stop right at the park entrance.

Owing to the unusual success of the first nickel day at Edgewater Park, Paul Henze, the manager of the park, announces that the policy will be continued during the summer. Nickel days make for the wholesome entertainment for the young and old for a small sum. Nickel prices prevail from 1 to 5 p.m. Wednesdays.

The Tiger Jewelry Store will supply your jewelry wants with the most fashionable line of goods obtainable. Expert watch repairing done in quick time.

SINCLAIR OIL BUILDS NEW PLANT HERE

Northville Will Be Made the Distributing Point for District

The Sinclair Oil company has decided to make Northville the central distributing point for this district serving dealers within a radius of 15 miles, declared H. C. Remert, general agent.

The distributing points, said Mr. Remert, have heretofore been located at Piquette, Northville and Farmington. Due to the fact that Northville occupies a central location and offers several other excellent advantages, officials declare that Northville is the choice spot for a distributing point.

Construction has already been started on a warehouse and six 15,000 gallon tanks to be located just back of the Pere Marquette railroad depot, have also been built.

Four pumps which will empty a 10,000 gallon tank car in a couple of hours declared Construction Engineer Huntington have been installed. A unique feature of the system makes it possible to have a separate pipe line from each of the tanks and thus eliminate any possibility that the various qualities of merchandise may be mixed up.

Company officials said that at first a force of about five will be employed and this force will be increased when conditions justify the change.

FIREWORKS DISPLAY AT THE WALLED LAKE AMUSEMENT PARK

The most dynamic fire works spectacle that has ever been presented in this part of the country will be the feature of the Fourth of July evening program at Walled Lake Amusement Park, three miles north of Nov., when the "Battle of the Clouds" with all its dramatic climaxes, will be enacted in a mammoth fireworks display. Flares, rockets, gigantic comets, torpedoes and other pyrotechnic devices will combine to make a spectacular exhibition. The exhibit will be the most elaborate ever planned by the park management. No admission will be charged.

JUNIOR CHOR WILL SEE FORD VILLAGE, DEARBORN

On Thursday, July 9, the Junior choir of the Methodist church is to be given a treat, being taken to the Ford Village at Dearborn. They will meet at the church at 11:45 a.m. where cars will be provided for their convenience. Some of the mothers will also accompany them to assist in caring for them. The number is limited to 50 in the car. The trip will require about three hours.

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. Walter Ware accompanied her mother, Mrs. Lavina Spaulding, to her home in Calif. after a visit in Northville.

Mrs. Ida Luecht of Carpenterville, Ill., and Mrs. Elbert Myers of Union, Ill., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Balto.

Mr. Clifford Cranson and little daughter Evelyn of Commerce Lake have gone East for a visit with Mrs. Cranson's parents.

Miss Ben Ruskland and daughter, Elaine, left Tuesday for Elgin, Ill., after a two weeks' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Balto.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul R. Alexander and daughter, Frances and Louise had Sunday dinner in Detroit with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Horton. Mr. Horton was formerly the manager of the Detroit Edison Co. The Alexanders left today for a short visit in Kalamazoo.

Mrs. Jennie White was a welcome caller in the Record office the other day and brought good cheer by her presence. With her customary humor she said as she laid down her bundles and rested a bit "I began to think I'm getting old—I can't stand quite so much as I used to." Mrs. White is 91 years old and is the last surviving of her generation. Many Northville people hope that they may grow old as gracefully as Mrs. White does.

How long has it been since you've seen a real light baseball game? See the Chiefs play Brightmoor Sunday at the Fair Grounds. A real action game.

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD

Established 1893

Published every Friday morning and entered at the Northville, Michigan post office as second-class matter

The Oldest Paper in Wayne County Outside the City of Detroit.

Richard T. Baldwin—Editor and Publisher

A newspaper devoted to the welfare of the community in which it is published.
Telephone 209Subscription Rates: Per Year $1.50 6 Months 75c 3 Months 40c
Member Metropolitan Group of Michigan Newspapers, The National Editorial Association, The University of Michigan Press Club and the Michigan Press Association

National Advertising Representatives—American Press Association

CLARA BOW GOES OUT OF THE PICTURE

Clara Bow—she of the red tresses and the figure of gambling stories, jilted "sweeties," and "nervous breakdowns"—is released from her movie contract. Too much bad publicity—that's all. Even the long suffering public gets tired of too much of this kind of living.

THE CHIEF IS RIGHT

Chief of Police Wm. Safford protests to the writer that in our editorial of last week on "Reckless Driving," we were wrong in saying that there had been two "bad accidents here." He pointed out that there have been no serious accidents at all here recently.

The chief—as usual—is right. We meant by "here," this general locality and he is perfectly right in saying that Northville is remarkably free from accidents. He and all of us are proud that this is the case and hope we can keep it up.

THE WORLD

The world is feeling better this morning, thank you. President Hoover struck a mighty blow for the increase of faith and hope in the nations overseas when he proposed his moratorium on debts. Even though France holds back full approval, enough has been gained to set the whole world forward in its morale. Germany is overjoyed and England and Italy are grateful. Now if all the statesmen of all these lands will hang tight to this good will business and forget their hatreds and prejudices, a better day will begin to shine around the globe.

BUSINESS IS GOOD

When this newspaper says that business is good with it, we mean just that. As we write this on Friday there are nearly twenty jobs waiting to be printed and by the time you read this a lot more will be added to them. We are grateful for it.

What we all need right now is to give as much business as we can to the other fellow so his business can be good. If we all do that, this thing we call prosperity will soon be knocking at every door. Commodities are down now so now is the time to spend and by spending help yourself and the other fellow.

THE SMALL TOWN

Now this is strange. We had written the last word on our editorial "The Loneliness of the City" when a man from Detroit came to buy some of our "New Home" papers. And just as though he knew what we had just written he volunteered this:

"You are a good town in Northville and I envy you. I left here many years ago but I have always been lonely for it and as long as I have been in Detroit, I don't get used to its artificiality. You know they say: 'You can take the boy out of the small town but you can't take the small town out of the boy.'"

So there you are again. Why isn't Northville the ideal place to live?

THE STOCK MARKET

The stock market in New York has been going up—a sign that the tide has turned toward better business and more confidence.

Now if we'll all forget the idea that we can get rich overnight on the stock market and quit trying to succeed without good old hard work and lots of it, then we can all fight our way back to the success that we deserve, unaided by any artificial thing like the stock market. Of course, any who want to buy some stock outright and then wait for their legitimate six per cent to come, will be wise. The big thing to be glad about is that the market is looking better and that is said to mean that better days are on the way.

THE LONELINESS OF THE CITY

If you want to know what real loneliness is, just go to the big city—or one not so big—to live. You can stay there a long while and not know many folks. Every time we go to Detroit we find ourselves wanting to nod our head to everyone going by, just so, as to be friendly-like, as we try to be at home. Then we realize that no one knows us and no one cares to stop and look. There are lots of folks there but it takes a long while to find them.

So we are glad to live in Northville. Folks here don't all "fall over themselves" to be friendly but in the main people are cordial and fine and try to meet you halfway. The intimate friendships of the smaller community are wonderful and especially when one feels the touch of sorrow—as all our families do, sooner or later—do we get the kindly pull of the smaller community. If we will do our part such a town as Northville is an ideal place to live.

KIND WORDS

It's sometimes the letters that folks didn't have to write you that cheer you up.

Within a few days we have received them from a New York City newspaperman, a Michigan college president, several editors and a number of relatives and friends, all expressing kindly words about our new newspaper home and our recent "New Home" edition.

Well, that's pretty nice, to have folks say the kind things before the final flowers come. We feel guilty many times ourselves that we don't take the time to write these kind of letters to other folks.

"You can't paint a house with applesauce," we read on a signboard somewhere the other day. No, but applesauce has balanced many a good meal, and "hot air" warms houses. We like our share of both "applesauce and hot air" from good friends as we go along the pike of life. Take out the sentiment from life and it would be a pretty hard world.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

How safe are you going to help make July Fourth?

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

BUILDING TO THE WEST

(Redford Record)

We are informed by one of the largest retail organizations in Michigan that of new homes being built in Detroit, 18 are being built on the west side, for one that is going up on the east side.

That shows the trend. Real estate in this section, while it may be slow now, is destined, because of its many advantages here for healthy living, to have a desirable "hot" spot of other parts of the metropolitan area. Those who can should make their plans now for getting a home in this part of the city, for values, as elsewhere, are at their lowest ebb.

HE WON'T DO IT

(Muri De Foe in Charlotte Republican-Tribune)

"Dick" Baldwin of The Northville Record, entertained his advertisers, bankers, etc., at a dinner at the Northville M. E. church the other evening. Malcolm W. Binsay, editorial director of the Free Press, who wrote that masterful Christmas ing Good," gave the principal address. Baldwin is a crusader and if he'll print what he thinks he is bound to take a high place in Michigan journalism. Frank S. Neel, for years prominent in Michigan politics, was editor of the Record for more than a quarter century. Elton R. Eaton sold the paper to Baldwin.

DESTRUCTIVE COMPETITION

(Eaton Rapids Journal)

When gasoline wars cause the retail price of gasoline to drop to 10c a gallon, including state taxes, the motorist at first thinks he profits. He doesn't at first see the men who have lost jobs with oil companies.

private stations that are closed or the reduced purchasing power of the oil industry and its employees.

When a milk war such as has been launched in New York state offers milk to buyers at nine cents a quart, the consumer does not realize that this cuts a million dollars a month from the buying power of New York's dairy farmers.

These are specific examples of abnormal price reductions which mean unemployment and lowered gratitude.

If Mr. Smith had "possessed at the time he stepped out from under his responsibility the power to think rationally for a second, he must have visualized what his tragic intention meant to a situation already menacing. The faces of both the bankers and customers told of the mutual disappointment.

We owe everything these days to strong upstanding leaders, especially among the bankers.

See Harry German's Chiefs play the Brightmoor B. M.'s Sunday at the Fair Grounds. It'll be a "bang-up" game.

52c

HOMEMAKER'S CORNER

BY MRS. EDITOR

TO THE JUNE BRIDE

"All the world loves a lover," the old folks say. There is no more precious word than the word "love." It is the basis of all our happiness. It is the only thing that we can resist peeping out from behind the curtains in the hope that we may catch a glimpse of you as you come from the front door to the waiting carriage.

In lieu of strewing flowers in your simple pathway, I would drop a few bits of advice which may smooth the road for you later.

If ever you have been sincere and simple in ideals now is the time to give the fullest rein to these admirable traits. Friends in their desire to make things nice for you are apt to influence you to over-elaborateness all along the line, and you will have to be firm and sensible to keep them from setting up standards for you which will be burdensome to live up to.

You and "the dearest boy" are to begin a home. Together you are to start at the bottom of the ladder and together build your fortunes. The task will be much less embarrassing for you, and less difficult for him, if you can creep along modestly, working hard and planning for the long run, saving and sacrificing that the years may grow easier as they will if you "bear the yoke in your youth."

In providing for the new home necessities should be bought first, beginning with the kitchen. A few good pieces of furniture, not "cheap," will be needed, but everything does not have to be complete at first, and the resources of young people can improve many substitutes which will postpone the day of buying much furniture, and thus enable them to get of good quality what they do buy. As to dishes and many other articles "common" kinds will do for awhile and it is pleasant to have something to look forward to in the eventful day when some long-looked-for better grade shall become yours.

Make a study of a few good books on home furnishing before you attempt to buy at all; that everything may be harmonious and you may make the right start. The bare of many housekeepers is some possession which they despise, but because they have it, they must buy the rest to correspond. I know one couple whose first thought in renting a house must always be, "Will the Davenport fit into the living room?" Many a new home has been rejected because it failed to meet this requirement.

Brides and grooms frequently make the mistake of thinking they will always live in one place. When an offer of advancement takes them across country they must sacrifice much of their household to live on only his while assuming the new expense of "furnishing" when children come into the home and the young husband feels that he must provide for all their wants. It is in it, and the young wife, must practice every economy, valuable lessons in business are learned. Such a home is generally as prosperous after fifteen or twenty years as the childless one where money was easily earned and spent.

My advice to the June bride is: Choose the elemental things first and "all these other things shall be added unto you." Choose work, thrift, progress, love, children, comfort instead of show, spiritual and intellectual values instead of material, and service of your community rather than to be a social star; and, while you are "buckling down" to all the demands these choices make to you, go into the tent beside you will creep happiness, and some day you will wake up to the fact that you are blessed among women and have "chosen the better part."

At the Rotary dinner last Monday evening two chocolate cakes made the men smack their lips and the women postpone their plan to begin dieting. One of these was made by Mrs. R. B. Dusenbury and here is the way she made it: (we'll find out later who made the other and give you this recipe later.)

DEVILS FOOD
1 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup butter (rounded)
1 egg, beaten
1/2 cup flour with 1/2 teaspoonful soda dissolved in it
1 cup flour sifted with 1 teaspoonful baking powder
3 teaspoonful cocoa, Vanilla, Salt

This makes a small cake. Double if large cake is desired. Mrs. Dusenbury bakes it in layers with chocolate icing. (Better double it—it won't last long.)

RECORD LINERS PA

UTILAC PAINTS

PAINTS

For The House Inside and Out

For roofs, barns, etc. For general home use. Let us brighten your home—give it that air of dignity.

A. H. VOGTLIN

Painter and Decorator

Phone 353 or 297

116 Main Street

FENDER BUMPING

THEATRE COURT AUTO SERVICE

In rear of Penniman Allen Theatre, Plymouth

NO JOB TOO SMALL

No job too small if it is in the Plumbing Line

Good work all the time

THOMAS M. CARDLE

Phone 369 J 145 East Main St.

Any Ice Today?

Since all that the lady of the house has to do is place her ice card in a conspicuous place to have her ice box filled, the question is really superfluous.

City Service ice is famous for the satisfaction it gives to its customers without noise—unique fuss—or danger.

CITY SERVICE ICE LASTS LONGER

ELY COAL & ICE CO.

136 N. Center Phone 191

Subscribe For The Record

$1.50 PER YEAR

TAXES

Village taxes are due and payable until August 1, 1931 without interest.

Regular banking hours at Lapham State Savings Bank

JOHN LITSENBARGER,

Treasurer.

Watch the CREAM LINE

A deep cream line means that the milk you drink is furnishing your system with a large amount of butterfat. Pure, pasteurized milk is the best balanced food and should form the largest part of your diet these warm days. Our dairy products should form the basis of all summer menus. Phone and ask us to deliver

LLOYD MORSE'S DAIRY

Phone 492

Why Delay Your Building Plans?

Planning on building or repairing your home? Then begin now when prices are lower than ever before. In our yards are the finest grades of lumber and building supplies—just the kind you want for your home—and all at the lowest prices in our history. You can build economically by building now.

QUALITY SERVICE
Grand River Lbr. & Coal Co.
PHONE 30

Bang Up Summer Hosiery

Chiffon Hose $1.00

Exquisitely dainty, deliciously sheer—such hose as you'll want to wear with your prettiest afternoon or evening things, yet with remarkable wearing qualities.

Also Newest Shades of Cafe Biege, May Fair, La Lique, Sandy and White

B. FREYDL

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL DIRECTORY

ARTHUR HUMPHRIES

PAINTER-DECORATOR

Estimates Furnished

Satisfaction Guaranteed

Phone 315

223 West St., NORTHVILLE

DR. E. B. CAVELL

VETERINARY SURGEON

Phone 59 Northville, Mich.

DR. R. E. ATCHISON

Physician and Surgeon

Office hours—10 to 11:30 a. m.; 2:00 to 4:00 and 7:00 to 8:00 p. m. Office and residence, 501 Dunlap street, corner Linden.

X-RAY WORK PHONE 324

Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston

Osteopathic Physician

Office—Penniman Allen theatre building. Office hours—9:00 to 11:30; 2:00 to 4:30. Evenings and Fridays by appointment only. Colorado Irrigations. Phone—Office, 67 J. residence 67 M.

J. H. TODD

D. D. S.

Office hours—1:30 to 5:00. Evenings by appointment. X-ray work. Nitrous oxide gas administered. Phone 398 J. Office—203 E. Main street, Northville.

GRAND RIVER CLINIC

Dr. Ivan W. Day Dr. J. J. Keenan Dr. Paul Lowewell

Dr. Victoria Lovewell

Osteopathy, Surgery, General Practice

8700 Grand River Ave. (near Joy Road)

Phone Euclid 4027

DR. H. HANDORE

Physician and Surgeon

Office—Penniman Allen theatre building, Northville. Office hours: 2:00 to 4:00; 7:00 to 8:00, except Friday evening. Phone, Office 419 J; residence 419 M.

F. J. COCHRAN

Attorney and Counselor-at-Law

Office in Lapham State Savings Bank building.

Wellington Roberts

Civil Engineer

Surveying and General Engineering. Phone 208. Northville, Mich.

W. S. McNAIR

Attorney-at-Law

Room 211 Holcomb Bldg., 22128 Grand River Ave., (Redford Station) Detroit, Michigan.

PAUL R. ALEXANDER

Dentist

Office—Lapham, Bank Building—Room 1

Office hours—8:30 to 12:00; 1:30 to 5:00. Complete X-ray equipment.

DR. H. I. SPARLING

Physician and Surgeon

Dr. Irene Sparling, Women and children. Office hours—2:00 to 4:00; 7:00 to 8:00. Sundays by appointment. X-ray work. Phone 363. Office East Main street.

DR. A. A. HOLCOMB

Physician and Surgeon

Office and residence, 117 North Wing street, Northville, Michigan. Hours—2:00 to 4:00 p. m.; 7:00 to 8:00 p. m. Phone 304.

DR. L. W. SNOW

Physician and Surgeon

Office 508 West Main street. Office hours—11:00 to 12:00; 7:00 to 8:00. Fridays by appointment only. Special attention to Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat. Phone 162.

H. H. BURKART

D. D. S.

107 East Main street Phone 311. hours by appointment.

New Heels and New Soles make a Brand New Shoe. We can make those old shoes you were planning on throwing away into footwear that will last a long time.

Northville Shoe Repair Shop

JOE REVITZER

105 East Main St.

Penniman Allen Theatre

Northville Mich.

MOTION PICTURE PROGRAMS

"WHITE SHOULDERS"

From the pages of a Rex Beach novel comes a story packed with power, jammed with drama and driven through with a motivation that is as fast moving as life itself.

Such a story has been transferred to the talking motion picture screen in a Radio Pictures production that is said to be better than the novel in its scope and in its strong human appeal.

"White Shoulders" will show at the Penniman Allen theatre Saturday, July 11 with Mary Astor, Jack Holt, Ricardo Cortez and Sidney Toler heading a distinguished cast of featured players.

The sweep of its locales is far-reaching, with scenes laid in South American gold mines, Monte Carlo gambling resorts, Monaco villas, Parisian fashion salons and New York pent-house apartments. In spite of these places, the story receives heart-smaking dramatic impetus which carries it through to a vigorous climax.

Melville Brown, ace-director of more than a dozen successes, guided "White Shoulders" into beauty and strength. J. Walter Ruben wrote the screen adaptation from Rex Beach's novel. Henry Hobart, associate producer, supervised the production.

"IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE"

"It Pays to Advertise" the play which probably entertained more people on Broadway and the rafters of our larger cities in the past few years than any other legitimate comedy-romance, will be presented at the Penniman Allen theatre.

HIGH MARKS MADE IN MARZ GAS TESTS

The amazing figure of 34.5 miles per gallon of gasoline was the splendid record made by a Ford Model A standard coupe in the gasoline mileage tests held here last Friday and Saturday by the Marz Motor Sales.

The Ford was owned by E. Denison and has been driven 37,535 miles. Second place was captured by George Pickett driving a two-door Ford which showed a mileage of 33 miles per gallon of gasoline after 3,449 miles of driving.

Miss Margaret Bryan's 1929 Ford roadster took third prize with 32 miles per gallon with a speedometer mileage of 24,435 miles.

Other mileages in the contest were: Fred Lyke, 24.5 miles; H. Blake, 31 miles; J. Woodworth, 29 miles; G. Shipley, 23.5 miles; M. Kucken, 27 miles; W. Mercer, 25 miles; Arthur Schultz, 28 miles; D. Bedore, 30 miles; R. Kennedy, 25 miles; M. Goodall, 29 miles.

W. Brown, 25 miles; Thos. Holmes, 23 miles; C. C. Green, 22 miles; Mrs. Edna Kreager, 24.5 miles; S. Folins, 25 miles; W. Ware, 28.5 miles; M. Potter, 21 miles; E. W. Anderson, 23.5 miles; M. Cluskey, 27 miles; Paul Chargo, 30 miles; Perry Taylor, 30 miles; A. Bender, 30.5 miles; H. Dixon, 24 miles; Geo. Hurrelbrink, 29 miles; Caroline Meyers, 31.5 miles; Geo. Stalker, 29.5 miles.

First prize was $1500 in cash; second prize a Sportlight; and third prize a Motometer. The average mileage per gallon of gasoline for all the cars tested was 27.7 miles.

Mr. Marz attributed a great deal of the success of the mileage tests to the fact that the cars each had the sediment bulb cleaned, the carburetor cleaned and adjusted, and the spark plugs checked and adjusted so as to receive maximum efficiency.

"The Ford mechanics assisting with the tests told me," declared Mr. Marz, "that the mileages obtained here are slightly higher than those from contests being held all over the country. I am highly satisfied with the results of the contest and I believe that there is no more conclusive way in which we could have proved to prospective car buyers, the economies and efficiency with which Ford cars operate."

"Motomats are urged to watch for the next big special week to be held by the Marz Motor Sales some time during July."

SUPERVISOR ELY'S FLOWERS GET INTO DETROIT FREE PRESS

Supervisor Wm. A. Ely of Northville broke into the "Around the Town" column of the Detroit Free Press last Friday in the following fashion:

Supervisor William A. Ely, Northville, brings huge bunches of peonies to the county building when he is attending sessions of the board of supervisors. "I leave the rest of the garden to my wife," he says, "but roses and peonies are my hobby. People think I am queer but I can't help liking to tend them and watch them grow and blossom. My greatest regret is that my roses are in too shaded a place for generous blooming."

Bob—"See any change in me?" Johnny—"No, why?" Bob—"I just swallowed fifteen cents."

CHILDREN AT SCHOOL RECEIVE FIRST HOLY COMMUNION SUNDAY

By Casimir Kardas

Sunday, June 28, for the first time since the opening of the Wayne County Training school, the Catholic children who had not received their first Holy Communion were able to ascend the altar and receive this sacrament.

Giving up their play time, they offered their time to God by studying their catechism and preparing themselves to receive the "Sacrament of Holy Eucharist." Never did they stop until they were fully prepared by their instructors, Miss Downey and Mr. Soleau, with their assistants who came from Detroit to give them instructions in receiving Holy Communion.

The parents were filled with joy when they saw their children receiving Holy Communion, but Dr. Robert H. Haskell was the happiest of all.

After the services Dr. Haskell lauded the work of Mather LeFevre of Plymouth who was the first priest to hold services for the Catholic children. His vacancy was followed by Father Alfes of St. Leo's church, Detroit, who held services for almost a year when he was taken sick and forced to retire.

Following Father Alfes was the late Father Alfes who was present at the school when the new altar was built by Casimir Seabie, a boy in training, and furnished all the material for the altar.

When Father Alfes appeared when the Catholic children had the benediction he was applauded when he made his speech praising the work of Casimir Seabie and Stella Sadowski who did their share on the altar.

Father Alfes was present that day and delivered speeches. Father Kelly has held the services ever since Father Alfes' retirement. He has accomplished much with the help of Mr. Soleau, Miss Downey, Tom Horton, Ed Sweeney, (who now is a life guard) and John Soleau. They have been teaching their children religion.

When Mr. Soleau first appeared at the school he quickly organized a club named the "Benson club." Many boys have entered this club. Others were elected as follows: for a term of six months President, Chas. Alongi, vice president, Steve Wiles and sec. Donald O'Leary. When their term was up new officers took their place, who are: President, Denny Chilla; vice president, Casimir Kardas; secretary, Peter Tyczyka.

The boys who served Mass Sunday, June 28 were Casimir Kardas and Francis Broulette. The latter has just received his training serving Mass from Mr. Soleau. Beside Francis Broulette several other boys are training to become altar boys.

Try a Record Liner. 25c

Legion Notes

(By Lisle Alexander in The American Legion News)

Did you get to the annual picnic Tuesday, June 23? It was a wow. Are you all set for the Department convention at Pontiac? You know that affair this year is a sort of a warning-up process to get you in shape for the big show in Detroit later. But do not let that fool you. There will be plenty doing at Pontiac, and you will be missing something if you miss that.

Coincidentally Bart Connor has transferred from Green Post to the 23rd Engineers Post of Detroit. It is our loss and their gain, but we can't blame Bart for wanting to join up with his old outfit.

Comrade Harry Bolton is the latest member to register himself in a new uniform. Remember the time is getting shorter and we want Green Post to look like a solid blue outfit when we step off in that big parade. Put in your order just as soon as possible.

Fishing days are here again. Some of you lucky stiffs had the fortune to be able to go fishing the warty trout earlier in the season. You had a chase no doubt, but no one threw a meal at my front door and told me to pitch in. Now I am going to do a little fishing for the lowly bass, pike, perch, etc., and when I steam in with the usual string (2), please do not look to me for a fish dinner. I can eat all I usually catch, too.

It won't be long before fair time. Do we know yet just how many things we are going to run? If they will make money, the more the better because we need that.

Are you taking in some of these picnics, barbecues and parties that are advertised in the Legion News? They're all good and everything is furnished for your enjoyment. You won't go wrong.

Next regular meeting Tuesday, July 14, a long time from now, and in the meantime, the department convention and many other events will come and go. You do likewise when possible and we'll cross yarns at that meeting.

Hop-to-it.

Legion Notes

(By Lisle Alexander in The American Legion News)

Did you get to the annual picnic Tuesday, June 23? It was a wow. Are you all set for the Department convention at Pontiac? You know that affair this year is a sort of a warning-up process to get you in shape for the big show in Detroit later. But do not let that fool you. There will be plenty doing at Pontiac, and you will be missing something if you miss that.

Coincidentally Bart Connor has transferred from Green Post to the 23rd Engineers Post of Detroit. It is our loss and their gain, but we can't blame Bart for wanting to join up with his old outfit.

Comrade Harry Bolton is the latest member to register himself in a new uniform. Remember the time is getting shorter and we want Green Post to look like a solid blue outfit when we step off in that big parade. Put in your order just as soon as possible.

Fishing days are here again. Some of you lucky stiffs had the fortune to be able to go fishing the warty trout earlier in the season. You had a chase no doubt, but no one threw a meal at my front door and told me to pitch in. Now I am going to do a little fishing for the lowly bass, pike, perch, etc., and when I steam in with the usual string (2), please do not look to me for a fish dinner. I can eat all I usually catch, too.

It won't be long before fair time. Do we know yet just how many things we are going to run? If they will make money, the more the better because we need that.

Are you taking in some of these picnics, barbecues and parties that are advertised in the Legion News? They're all good and everything is furnished for your enjoyment. You won't go wrong.

Next regular meeting Tuesday, July 14, a long time from now, and in the meantime, the department convention and many other events will come and go. You do likewise when possible and we'll cross yarns at that meeting.

Hop-to-it.

Legion Notes

(By Lisle Alexander in The American Legion News)

Did you get to the annual picnic Tuesday, June 23? It was a wow. Are you all set for the Department convention at Pontiac? You know that affair this year is a sort of a warning-up process to get you in shape for the big show in Detroit later. But do not let that fool you. There will be plenty doing at Pontiac, and you will be missing something if you miss that.

Coincidentally Bart Connor has transferred from Green Post to the 23rd Engineers Post of Detroit. It is our loss and their gain, but we can't blame Bart for wanting to join up with his old outfit.

Comrade Harry Bolton is the latest member to register himself in a new uniform. Remember the time is getting shorter and we want Green Post to look like a solid blue outfit when we step off in that big parade. Put in your order just as soon as possible.

Il Duce Plans to Start a New Gambling State

Paris. While the rulers of Monaco are squabbling as to how to use the gambling spoils, Mussolini has been planning to become dictator of the green tables, according to reports.

It is said that he plans to create an "independent gambling state" of San Remo to rival Monte Carlo.

Creation of this new country would enable San Remo to devise gaming laws of her own, introduce every known kind of "game" of chance, attract big finance and last but not least, probably bring to the new casinos the famed Greek banking concession, which went on a strike more than six months ago against the French government's new taxes on the bacarat bank.

There have been rumors for a long time of an Italian attempt to cut in on the French Riviera's profits by creating a new world of entertainment on the Mediterranean. It is said that the authorities on the other side of the border now consider the time ripe to make war on Monte Carlo and that the incident state of San Remo will result.

Rhymes About Months. Bartlett's "Familiar Quotations" gives several versions of the rhyme "Thirty days hath September, April, June and November," the earliest of which is in Latin and is found in William Harrison's "Description of Britain" prefixed to Holinshed's Chronicle, dated 1577. Other versions are in Richard Grafton's "Chronicles of England," 1569; "The Return From Parnassus," 1591; John 1806, and one current in the New England states. A rhyme said to be current among the Friends in Chester county, Pennsylvania, ran: "Fourth, eleventh, ninth and sixth, thirty days to each are due. Every other thirty-one, except the second month alone."

Be Honest!

You may pay your debts promptly and with care, and yet be essentially dishonest. You may, for instance, pretend you are doing something for a good reason, yet know your real motive is selfish. No man is really honest who deceives himself.—Grit.

Funeral Pieces

We specialize in making up beautiful floral pieces that are really symbolical of sympathy and understanding. To offer solace through flowers is to show delicacy and good breeding to a friend in time of sorrow.

Flowers For All Occasions. Bouquets. Cut Flowers. Plants. Landscaping. Send Flowers! Nothing is more expressive of your sentiment.

ALEXANDER GREENHOUSE

150 Rayson Ave. Telephone 176

Funeral Pieces

We specialize in making up beautiful floral pieces that are really symbolical of sympathy and understanding. To offer solace through flowers is to show delicacy and good breeding to a friend in time of sorrow.

Flowers For All Occasions. Bouquets. Cut Flowers. Plants. Landscaping. Send Flowers! Nothing is more expressive of your sentiment.

ALEXANDER GREENHOUSE

150 Rayson Ave. Telephone 176

Funeral Pieces

We specialize in making up beautiful floral pieces that are really symbolical of sympathy and understanding. To offer solace through flowers is to show delicacy and good breeding to a friend in time of sorrow.

Flowers For All Occasions. Bouquets. Cut Flowers. Plants. Landscaping. Send Flowers! Nothing is more expressive of your sentiment.

ALEXANDER GREENHOUSE

150 Rayson Ave. Telephone 176

Funeral Pieces

We specialize in making up beautiful floral pieces that are really symbolical of sympathy and understanding. To offer solace through flowers is to show delicacy and good breeding to a friend in time of sorrow.

Flowers For All Occasions. Bouquets. Cut Flowers. Plants. Landscaping. Send Flowers! Nothing is more expressive of your sentiment.

ALEXANDER GREENHOUSE

150 Rayson Ave. Telephone 176

Funeral Pieces

We specialize in making up beautiful floral pieces that are really symbolical of sympathy and understanding. To offer solace through flowers is to show delicacy and good breeding to a friend in time of sorrow.

Flowers For All Occasions. Bouquets. Cut Flowers. Plants. Landscaping. Send Flowers! Nothing is more expressive of your sentiment.

ALEXANDER GREENHOUSE

150 Rayson Ave. Telephone 176

Funeral Pieces

We specialize in making up beautiful floral pieces that are really symbolical of sympathy and understanding. To offer solace through flowers is to show delicacy and good breeding to a friend in time of sorrow.

Flowers For All Occasions. Bouquets. Cut Flowers. Plants. Landscaping. Send Flowers! Nothing is more expressive of your sentiment.

ALEXANDER GREENHOUSE

150 Rayson Ave. Telephone 176

Funeral Pieces

We specialize in making up beautiful floral pieces that are really symbolical of sympathy and understanding. To offer solace through flowers is to show delicacy and good breeding to a friend in time of sorrow.

Flowers For All Occasions. Bouquets. Cut Flowers. Plants. Landscaping. Send Flowers! Nothing is more expressive of your sentiment.

ALEXANDER GREENHOUSE

150 Rayson Ave. Telephone 176

Funeral Pieces

We specialize in making up beautiful floral pieces that are really symbolical of sympathy and understanding. To offer solace through flowers is to show delicacy and good breeding to a friend in time of sorrow.

Flowers For All Occasions. Bouquets. Cut Flowers. Plants. Landscaping. Send Flowers! Nothing is more expressive of your sentiment.

MARIE PEARY, 'SNOW BABY', HAD MUSK OX CALF AS PET

But She Found Animal Too Boisterous to Be Kept in City Apartment.

New York—A musk ox calf makes a fine pet for a girl, but you can't keep one in a city apartment. Miss Marie Ahlqvist Peary, daughter of the famous Arctic explorer, tried it, and learned to her sorrow it couldn't be done.

Miss Peary, who was known as the "Snow Baby" because she was born in Greenland on one of her father's expeditions, tells about her musk ox difficulties in Good Housekeeping Magazine. "The calf," she says, "was a fast grower, and when she got him back to civilization, she had to turn him over to a zoo."

"On one of the hunting trips," she explains, "the Eskimos called a group of four musk oxen and were preparing to skin them when my father noticed a small black object about 100 yards away. Going over to it he found a strange woolly little ball, a fawn musk ox calf. The poor baby had gone for a walk while its parents were grazing, and it didn't know it had suddenly become an orphan."

"The calf seemed to think dad was a long-lost friend, for it ran right to the shelter of its legs and accompanied him back to camp. That night they slept together—at least they lay down side by side and tried to sleep. The calf was covered with a corner of musk ox skin, but this did not seem to make him feel at home. He nibbled dad's hair, licked his nose, and pawed his face with his hoofs, which knocking were by no means soft. Altogether it was an uncomfortable night, and dad was glad to get him safely back to the ship, and turn him over to my care."

"I was delighted. We named him Sambo at once, because he was so black, and he was the most cuddly-looking animal you ever beheld."

Miss Peary says in her Good Housekeeping article that the story about Eskimo women checking their husbands' boots to get them soft is no tall tale. She has seen them do it.

Try A Record Liner.

Funeral Pieces

We specialize in making up beautiful floral pieces that are really symbolical of sympathy and understanding. To offer solace through flowers is to show delicacy and good breeding to a friend in time of sorrow.

Flowers For All Occasions. Bouquets. Cut Flowers. Plants. Landscaping. Send Flowers! Nothing is more expressive of your sentiment.

ALEXANDER GREENHOUSE

150 Rayson Ave. Telephone 176

Funeral Pieces

We specialize in making up beautiful floral pieces that are really symbolical of sympathy and understanding. To offer solace through flowers is to show delicacy and good breeding to a friend in time of sorrow.

Flowers For All Occasions. Bouquets. Cut Flowers. Plants. Landscaping. Send Flowers! Nothing is more expressive of your sentiment.

ALEXANDER GREENHOUSE

150 Rayson Ave. Telephone 176

Funeral Pieces

We specialize in making up beautiful floral pieces that are really symbolical of sympathy and understanding. To offer solace through flowers is to show delicacy and good breeding to a friend in time of sorrow.

Flowers For All Occasions. Bouquets. Cut Flowers. Plants. Landscaping. Send Flowers! Nothing is more expressive of your sentiment.

ALEXANDER GREENHOUSE

150 Rayson Ave. Telephone 176

Funeral Pieces

We specialize in making up beautiful floral pieces that are really symbolical of sympathy and understanding. To offer solace through flowers is to show delicacy and good breeding to a friend in time of sorrow.

Flowers For All Occasions. Bouquets. Cut Flowers. Plants. Landscaping. Send Flowers! Nothing is more expressive of your sentiment.

ALEXANDER GREENHOUSE

150 Rayson Ave. Telephone 176

Funeral Pieces

We specialize in making up beautiful floral pieces that are really symbolical of sympathy and understanding. To offer solace through flowers is to show delicacy and good breeding to a friend in time of sorrow.

Flowers For All Occasions. Bouquets. Cut Flowers. Plants. Landscaping. Send Flowers! Nothing is more expressive of your sentiment.

ALEXANDER GREENHOUSE

150 Rayson Ave. Telephone 176

Funeral Pieces

We specialize in making up beautiful floral pieces that are really symbolical of sympathy and understanding. To offer solace through flowers is to show delicacy and good breeding to a friend in time of sorrow.

Flowers For All Occasions. Bouquets. Cut Flowers. Plants. Landscaping. Send Flowers! Nothing is more expressive of your sentiment.

ALEXANDER GREENHOUSE

150 Rayson Ave. Telephone 176

Funeral Pieces

We specialize in making up beautiful floral pieces that are really symbolical of sympathy and understanding. To offer solace through flowers is to show delicacy and good breeding to a friend in time of sorrow.

Flowers For All Occasions. Bouquets. Cut Flowers. Plants. Landscaping. Send Flowers! Nothing is more expressive of your sentiment.

ALEXANDER GREENHOUSE

150 Rayson Ave. Telephone 176

Funeral Pieces

We specialize in making up beautiful floral pieces that are really symbolical of sympathy and understanding. To offer solace through flowers is to show delicacy and good breeding to a friend in time of sorrow.

BRAKES

Stop Now

For Scientific Adjustments, Brake Testing and Relinings

CAR WASH

95c

Firestone OLDFIELD TYPE

COMPARE THESE PRICES

MAKE OF CAR	Our Cash Price Each	KA Special Brand Mail Order Price	Our Cash Price Each	KA Special Brand Mail Order Price	Our Cash Price Each	KA Special Brand Mail Order Price
-------------	---------------------	-----------------------------------	---------------------	-----------------------------------	---------------------	-----------------------------------

CHRYSLER

WANT ADS

WANTED—Lawn mower grinding I grind them same as at the factory. No fluff or tapping. All work guaranteed. Work called for and delivered B. M. Adams, phone 222. —49, 49, 50, 51, 52p

WANTED—I will pay the highest cash price for all kinds of live stock. Sam Pickard, Northville, phone 719 P4.

WANTED—Family washings, rough dry flat work ironed $1.80. Men's white dress shirts 10c. Mrs. Hall, 538 Center st. 51p, 52c

WANTED—Upholstering, refinishing and repairing of furniture. Work guaranteed, prices reasonable. 116 Eaton drive or phone 217. F. J. Sutton 51-52c

WANTED TO TRADE—House in Ann Arbor for one in Northville. Enquire at 316 Randolph St. 52-53p

WANTED—Work in a methanol home in or out of town, by woman with girl 5 years old. More for home than wages. Mrs. Ida Anderson, 1222 Westbrook Ave., Brighton, Detroit. 53p

WANTED—I want a piece of ground, 30 acres or so, a corner of a farm. Must have trees and a creek. Write, giving location and price per acre. Michael, 6553 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Mich. 52c

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Rooms for light housekeeping. Will be vacant July 1. 442 Randolph St. 51-52p

FOR RENT—Nicely furnished front room. Mrs. Abelle Brock 311 Main street. 51c

FOR RENT—Two-room furnished apartment. Apply S. D. Moose at 152 Center street or 319 Randolph. 52p

FOR RENT—Cottage at Spring Lake by the week $15, for two weeks, $25; for week-end $5. Phone 118-311 W. Main St. 52

FOR RENT—All modern 6-room house with bath. Rent reasonable. 107 Nov. Ave. Mrs. Etta Lewis. 52c

FOR RENT—Modern and new 5-room house. See F. R. Lanning at Lanning State Savings bank 1. 442 Randolph St. 51-52p

FOR RENT—Furnished apartment, four rooms and bath all on one floor. Private entrance. W. D. Stark, 124 Randolph St. 51-52c

FOR RENT—House on Cady street, furnace, bath and garage. Cuckoo park and some small fruit. Phone 306. Lester D. Stage, 224 E. Cady street. 51p

FOR RENT—House at 318 Randolph St. Hardwood floors, furnace and garage. $20 per month. Enquire M. N. Johnson, phone 246.

FOR RENT—House with 7 rooms and bath, garage, modern conveniences, good condition on Beal Ave. H. B. Clark, phone 160 J. 45c

FOR RENT—Complete furnished house, 6 rooms and bath. Rent reasonable. Apply 31 E. Main St. Hills Barber Shop. 52c

FOR RENT—Furnished apartment, four rooms and bath all on one floor. Private entrance. W. D. Stark, 124 Randolph St. 51-52c

FOR RENT—New store 18x76. Full basement. Enquire at Record office.

FOR RENT—Nice pleasant room at 531 North Center St. 2 car garage and garden. Enquire at 101 Base Line road. North Center. Cnas Gots. 52p

FOR RENT—Or For Sale, cottage at Spring Lake, E. A. Kohler, 7 Mile road. 52-53p

FOR RENT—Five room flat. Modern. Furnished or unfurnished. Nice location. Apply S. D. Moose, 152 Center street or 319 Randolph. 52p

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Oats and baled straw. Fred W. Durfee, phone 7100 P3. 52p

FOR SALE or RENT—My 7 room home and 5 room bungalow (furnished if desired) in Orchard Heights. L. M. Eaton. 52p

FOR SALE—Cut flowers, delphinium, Madonnas, lilies and gypsophila (Baby's Breath). Flower Acres Nursery, Beck road, Northville. Phone 7139 P3. 52c

FOR SALE—Rockery plants. Sedums and cypripediums. Flower Acres Nursery, Beck road, Northville. Phone 7139 P3. 52c

FOR SALE—Year old Leghorn and Barred Rock hens. Mrs. Gist, Bernhardt, corner Beck and Nine Mile roads. 52p

FOR SALE—Well rotted fertilizer for lawn purposes, also ashes hauled by the yard. Wm. Fraser, 373 N. Rogers. 39p

FOR SALE—5 room modern bungalow, bath, furnace, electricity, gas, water and garage. Only $2750. $250 down. Easy contract. Lovell and Smith. 49p

FOR SALE—Toledo Rex Spray Materials of all kinds in large or small quantities. Prices on request. Ralph F. Foreman, phone 7115 P31. 52p

FOR SALE—Registered American Brown Water Spaniel, puppies bred from hunters and these pups are old enough to hunt this fall. C. Fosgate, 1209 Fishery road, Northville. Phone 7106 P31. 51-52

Miscellaneous

WE THANK YOU

Words cannot express the appreciation we feel for the loyalty of Northville friends in our time of bereavement. We never knew folks could be so kind and we take this opportunity to thank them all for their many acts of sympathy. In particular we would mention the eighth grade and the Sunday school class of which our boy, Harold, was a member, the teacher, Mrs. Cook, the patrons on Harold's paper, the Ladies Aid society, the King's Daughters, the L. O. T. M. and Rev. William Richards, who was a real brother in our sorrow. Mr. and Mrs. Ed D. Balco and family.

How long has it been since you've seen a real tight baseball game? See the Chiefs play Brightmoor Sunday at the Fair Grounds. A real action game.

Floors laid and sanded. Old floors made new. Prices reasonable. STUART I WANKS, 11307 Ingram St. 52-53p

WILLIAM FRASER, Moving and Expressing, 23 N. Rogers St. Northville, Michigan. 52p

MOVING AND TRUCKING, SATISFACTION GUARANTEED, LOWEST RATES, R. M. NIXON, 224 Xerxes St. Phone 209. 52p

AUCTIONEER, Bob Holloway, Anyplace, 244 Ann St., Plymouth. Temporary phone 28. 52p

Society Notes

Shower Is Given For June Bride

Entertaining a company of thirty-five friends of her nephew, Harold Miller, and his bride-elect, Miss Lillian Bulkowski, Mrs. Howard Greer and Mrs. Howard Miller gave a miscellaneous shower at the former's home one mile north of town on the Nine Mile road, June 19. The evening was spent with games and contests with a mock wedding as the feature of interest. Many lovely gifts were presented to the bride. Refreshments were served.

Woman's Relief Corps

Enjoys Picnic Supper

The Woman's Relief Corps held their annual picnic at the home of Mrs. Bruno Freydl last Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon which was planned to have been spent in sewing, but on account of the warm weather the ladies preferred to rest and visit. A pleasant time was enjoyed and a fine co-operative supper concluded the affair which comes at the end of the season's activities.

Mrs. Bray Entertains

L. A. S. May Committee

Treating themselves to a good time after serving a series of good meals to others, including the big Mothers and Daughters banquet, the May committee of the Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church was entertained at the country home of Mrs. Start Bray on the East Line road Tuesday. A delicious co-operative luncheon was served at noon and the afternoon hours were spent in games and contests. Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Richards were guests at the luncheon.

Gladys Schrader Weds

Lyle Prescott June 30

A wedding of interest to Northville friends occurred in Plymouth Tuesday afternoon, June 30, when Gladys, daughter of E. D. Schrader, a brother of Nelson Schrader of this place, became the bride of Lyle M. Prescott of Dixon, Ill. To the front entrance where the guests arrived, a canopy extended, lined on either side with palms. The interior of the home was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Before an altar decorated with palms and flowers and lighted candles the bride and groom were joined by the Rev. Wm. Richards. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Walter Nichol, presbyter minister of Plymouth. The bride wore a white georgette and a white picture hat and carried white roses while her mother of honor a married sister of the groom and the two bridesmaids wore pink and white. The groom and the bride's sister, Evelyn, wore dainty net gowns in pastel shades. The party was preceded by a niece of the groom who carried flowers.

The reception and wedding dinner were given at the Mayflower hotel following which the young couple left on a wedding trip and will be at home in Dixon, Ill., where Mr. Prescott is associated with his father in the oil business.

Those attending the wedding from Northville were Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Schrader and daughter's Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Richards, and children.

Pretty June Wedding In—Clarencetown Lutheran Church.

The wedding of Miss Lillian Bulkowski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bulkowski of Farmington and Harold W. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Miller of Clarencetown, was solemnized at the Clarencetown Lutheran church Saturday afternoon, June 27, in the presence of forty-five relatives and close friends.

At four o'clock the bridal party entered the church and passed down the aisle as the wedding march was played by Miss Finkel Gorgow. The altar was graced with plants and flowers. The bride was beautifully gowned in ivory satin with long veil caught at the forehead with blossoms. She carried white roses. Two sisters, Mildred and Viola, were her bridesmaids and wore dainty gowns of yellow and pale green respectively and carried roses.

The groom was attended by a cousin, Arthur Miller, and a friend, Howard Gorgan.

Presiding the ceremony Mrs. Kreuzer sang impressively. The Lord is My Shepherd which was followed by a personal talk by the officiating clergyman Rev. Carl Grauer, on the serious meaning of marriage and its future obligations. The wedding vows were then spoken which made this young couple man and wife.

Following the ceremony the party repaired to the home of the bride where an elaborate five-course dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Miller then left on a motor tour in their new Michigan car.

They will return and build their new home on the Grand River road. Mr. Miller is employed with the Frederick Stearns Co. of Detroit. The best wishes of the community go with these young people.

Among the guests were Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Richards and Wm. Tsch of Northville and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Greer.

Northville Teacher

Weds Plymouth Man

Friends of Miss Olive Elden, niece of Mrs. E. M. Starkweather, who has been a teacher in the fourth grade of our public school for the past four years, will be interested to learn that she was married last Monday, June 29, to John Anheim of Plymouth. The ceremony was quietly performed at Bowling Green, Ohio, after which the young couple started on a motor trip through the West with Yellowstone Park as their destination. They will make their home in Plymouth and Mrs. Anheim's friends will be glad to know that she will continue her teaching in our schools. The best wishes of the community are extended to them.

Douglas Bolton Celebrates

Birthday at Cass Benton

Celebrating the eighth birthday of their son, Douglas Mr. and Mrs. Cass Bolton, Wing street, entertained a group of friends at a picnic supper at Cass Benton park last Friday evening. Douglas' birthday in reality was the following Sunday but due to the crowds at the park on that day the celebration was held two days early. A fine supper was concluded with home made ice cream and a birthday cake. Those enjoying the occasion with the Boltons were Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Gottschalk and family, Mr. Todd, Mrs. Burch and daughter, Carroll, all of Plymouth.

Beautiful Lawn Wedding

At Pierce County Home

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Pierce, 4 miles southeast of Northville on the Plymouth and Lapeer road, was the scene of a lovely outdoor wedding on Friday evening, June 26, when their daughter, Miss Dorothea Walker of Plymouth and Chas. Knepper of Carnegie, Penn., were united in marriage.

The guests assembled informally on the lawn and at the appointed hour the bride party took their places beneath the boughs of a beautiful maple tree and in this rural setting Rev. Wm. Richards performed the impressive ring ceremony.

The bride was lovely in a gown of lace over pink tulle and a picture hat of pink silk carried tall. Her maid of honor, Mrs. Edith Wood, wore flowered chignon and carried pink roses and Mrs. Francis Pierce was best man.

Following the ceremony and an informal time of greeting an elaborate collation was served at a long-appointed table set on the lawn.

Among the guests present from Northville were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cummings from Cleveland and Mrs. Wm. Brafford, Miss Helen Hacking, Junior and Donald Lecker.

The newly-weds left immediately following the wedding of a four hour tour through Canada.

Rev. and Mrs. P. D. Ennes and two children of the Belgian Congo are expected here July 9 for a visit at the home of Mr. Ennes' brother F. L. Ennes. The Rev. Mr. Ennes who is a missionary in Africa has been on furlough and has been at Yale university for the past year getting a degree.

MISSIONARIES COMING HERE

Rev. and Mrs. P. D. Ennes and two children of the Belgian Congo are expected here July 9 for a visit at the home of Mr. Ennes' brother F. L. Ennes. The Rev. Mr. Ennes who is a missionary in Africa has been on furlough and has been at Yale university for the past year getting a degree.

Furnace

Sheet Metal

Plumbing Work

When you need anything in our line, we shall be glad to serve you and to render that service promptly. Tell us your troubles, and we will be on the job in a jiffy.

PLUMBING OF ALL KINDS.

ESTIMATES FURNISHED

A. M. WHITEHEAD

Shop in Basement of Horton's Drug Store Center St.

GET YOUR

PALLADIUM

Before it is too late

75c a Copy

A Complete Record of Northville High School for the year 1930-1931

See Jane Lawrence

547 Fairbrook Ave. Or Phone 172-W

NO NEED FOR WORRY ABOUT GRAIN APHID

East Lansing—Both the scientists and the humorists say that the wheat crop is lousy this year, but the entomologists at Michigan State College say that farmers of this state need have no serious worries about the presence of unusual numbers of the common grain aphid, or plant louse, on wheat.

Farmers from all sections of Michigan have bombarded the College department with requests for information and advice about this minute insect which is found on the heads of other parts of the wheat plant. This grain aphid is an old resident of the state and is present each year.

It is also known as the apple-bud house and spends part of its time on apple trees, where it does no harm. From the apple, the insect migrates, in April usually, to grass or grain. It sucks juice from the plant, but does not inject any toxic substance into the plant to cause serious injury.

This insect has been observed for the past 30 years by the college entomologists and, during that period of time, natural parasites of the plant have always killed most of the aphids before harvest time. This parasitism is expected to occur again this year and the plant lice will be reduced to their ordinary numbers.

The species of plant aphid which causes serious damage to grain crops in some parts of the country has been found in Michigan only once or twice and no specimens of it have been reported this year. This aphid injects a substance into the plant which interferes with the plant's growth.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks to all the friends who so kindly sent flowers and otherwise contributed to the comfort of our mother in her illness, also to those who sent floral offerings of comfort in our bereavement—Harold E. Turner and family.

The Tiger Jewelry Store will supply your jewelry wants with the most fashionable line of goods obtainable. Repairs—replating—done in quick time. 52c

Bashful Clerk (trying to get up courage enough to ask for a raise). "Why-er-er—the fact is that my wife and I find it very hard for two people to live on my salary."

The Boss "Oh, yeah? Well, just what do you expect me to do—grant you a divorce?"

"How long has it been since you've seen a real light baseball game? See the Chiefs play Brightmoor Sunday at the Fair Grounds. A real action game." 52c

TUNE IN

Every Morning Except Sunday
Colonel GOODBODY'S
Interesting talks on
"OUR DAILY FOOD"
WJR 7-45—WWJ 8-45
A.A.P. Managers Band
Monday Night WJR 7-30

Furnace

Sheet Metal

Plumbing Work

When you need anything in our line, we shall be glad to serve you and to render that service promptly. Tell us your troubles, and we will be on the job in a jiffy.

PLUMBING OF ALL KINDS.

ESTIMATES FURNISHED

A. M. WHITEHEAD

Shop in Basement of Horton's Drug Store Center St.

WHEAT EQUALS CORN IN FEEDING TRIALS

East Lansing—Michigan wheat growers can derive some consolation in this year of low prices for that grain from the results of the feeding trials at Michigan State college which show that wheat is equal to corn as a feed for fattening hogs and that the costs of gains made with wheat are no greater than with corn.

The lots of hogs which were fed wheat ate less tankage than those fed corn and both lots gained equally rapidly. The wheat was fed in self-feeders. Each lot of hogs received alfalfa meal and a supplemental feed of either a mixture of 70 per cent tankage and 30 per cent linseed meal or a straight tankage supplement.

The reports on the hog feeding trials and the results of the experiments with sheep and baby beefs were explained to the 100 livestock feeders who attended Feeders' Day at Michigan State college. The beef cattle which were fed barley gained more rapidly and at a lower cost per hundred weight of gain than those fed corn.

Each lot of cattle received linseed meal, alfalfa hay and corn silage in addition to the grain. The barley-fed lot gained 2.25 pounds per day, the corn-fed lot gained 2.17 pounds daily; the feed costs per hundred weight of gain for each grain were: barley, $7.07; corn, $7.43.

The feeding trials with sheep showed that native medium wool lambs gained more rapidly than western lambs and the gain was made more economically. Feeding corn silage to the lambs increased the rate of gain and decreased the feeding costs. Both barley and corn were superior to oats as a fattening ration. Corn and barley were nearly equal in value.

MYSTIC TEMPLE NO. 156

The members of Mystic Temple No. 156 will hold a picnic at Riverside Park, Plymouth, Tuesday, July 7th. All members are requested to meet at the hall at 6 p. m.

QUENCH YOUR THIRST

WITH THESE SUMMER Beverages

Canada Dry 3 bots 40c
Clicquot Club 2 bots 27c

Hydrox Ginger Ale (plus bottle charge) 2 bots 25c
A & P Grape Juice pint bottle 15c
Stroh's Near Beer 4 bots 25c

Whitehouse Milk

3 tall cans 19c

Domestic Sardines

can 5c

Wet Shrimp 5 1/2 oz can 15c

Cracker Jack 3 pkgs 10c

Pantry Coffee Cream 2 cans 25c

Campfire Marshmallows, 1 lb pkg 20c

MORE HOT-WEATHER VALUES

Campbell's Beans 4 cans 25c

Sultana Apple Butter 28 oz jar 19c

Sultana Peanut Butter 16 oz jar 19c

Sparkle Assorted Flavors 4 pkgs 25c

Sandwich Buns for the Picnic Lunch bag of 8 15c

Bread and Butter Pickles BEST FOODS jar 19c

Rajah Salad Dressing quart jar 35c

Olives Plain quart jar 29c

Quaker Maid Beans 4 cans 23c

Smoked Hams, Sugar cured, whole or half, lb. 25c

Smoked Ham, sliced center cut, lb. 43c

Legs of Genuine Spring Lamb, lb. 29c

Beef Pot Roast, chuck cut, choice quality, lb. 19c

Bacon, sugar cured, by the piece, lb. 21c

Leghorn Broilers, strictly fresh dressed, lb. 29c

Stewing Chickens, strictly fresh dressed, lb. 25c

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC CO.

John W. Dolph Sees Change

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Dolph, who are here from California for a visit, have been treated to some sizzling Michigan weather the past week but say they are greatly enjoying the visit with Northville relatives and friends.

Mr. Dolph was in to see the new Record office and got to reminiscing about the Civil war. He is the only living charter member of the Allen M. Harmon post of the G. A. R. Mr. Harmon, after whom the post was named, was the first Northville man to be killed in the Civil war. The editor of the Record found, in talking to Mr. Dolph, that he enlisted in Co. C. of the 22nd New York cavalry at Brockport, only a few miles distant from Churchville, the birthplace of the former's father, Dr. C. W. Baldwin.

It is Mr. Dolph's first visit here in 13 years. He sees vast changes in Northville and spoke especially of the fact that the first block of North Center street off Main, had been almost completely re-built.

SAVE MONEY

BRAKES

Relined and Adjusted Valves Ground Give Your Car A Thorough Summer Inspection

No matter what sickness your car is suffering from, we'll cure it—and cure it quickly.

Our repair shop is equipped to fix any make of car, any type of trouble, at any time at all.

And all work is guaranteed! Here is service as you want it.

DEAL and GARDNER REPAIRING

126 W. Main Phone Northville 9163 or 77

QUENCH YOUR THIRST

WITH THESE SUMMER Beverages

Canada Dry 3 bots 40c
Clicquot Club 2 bots 27c

Hydrox Ginger Ale (plus bottle charge) 2 bots 25c
A & P Grape Juice pint bottle 15c
Stroh's Near Beer 4 bots 25c

Whitehouse Milk

3 tall cans 19c

Domestic Sardines

can 5c

Wet Shrimp 5 1/2 oz can 15c

Cracker Jack 3 pkgs 10c

Pantry Coffee Cream 2 cans 25c

Campfire Marshmallows, 1 lb pkg 20c

MORE HOT-WEATHER VALUES

Campbell's Beans 4 cans 25c

Sultana Apple Butter 28 oz jar 19c

Sultana Peanut Butter 16 oz jar 19c

Sparkle Assorted Flavors 4 pkgs 25c

Sandwich Buns for the Picnic Lunch bag of 8 15c

Bread and Butter Pickles BEST FOODS jar 19c

Rajah Salad Dressing quart jar 35c

Olives Plain quart jar 29c

Quaker Maid Beans 4 cans 23c

Smoked Hams, Sugar cured, whole or half, lb. 25c

</

GOING PLACES on the FOURTH?

Perhaps your outing will call for a bathing suit. We will sell you a Jantzen at a big saving—Men's, Women's, Boy's or Girl's.

A Wirthmor Dress that is just what the name implies—worth more $1.00.

Chiffon Hose, a special value at, pair $1.00

A floppy brimmed Panama Hat at $3.95 is a good buy and there is style in them too

Shantung Sport Dresses at $5.95

Voile Dresses for hot weather from $1.95 to $5.95

PONSFORD'S

Cutting Of NOXIOUS WEEDS

The owners, lessors or occupiers of land, or any person or persons, firm or corporation having charge of any lands in this state:

Notice is hereby given that all noxious weeds growing on any land in the township of Northville, county of Wayne, must be cut down and destroyed on or before the twentieth day of July, A. D. nineteen hundred thirty-one.

Failure to comply with this notice on or before the date mentioned or within ten days thereafter shall make the parties so failing liable for the cost of cutting the same to be levied and collected against the property in the same manner as other taxes are levied and collected.
Dated, June 29, 1931.

Herman Kreeger

Commissioner of Highways of the Township of Northville, County of Wayne

SAVE WITH SAFETY
at your Rexall Drug Store

RELIEVES

Poison Ivy, Burns and Itches

REXALL Gypsy Cream REXALL

An antiseptic lotion that relieves the skin eruptions so irritating during vacation days—sunburn, insect bites, ivy and oak poisons, moth itch and other irritants. It is sold only at Rexall Stores. 50c.

Quick Relief from Sunburn

The moment you apply Rex-Salvage you can feel its soothing coolness penetrate deep into the skin. In a few minutes you have forgotten all about sunburn. Rex-Salvage is sold only at Rexall Stores. Keep a tube on hand always. 50c

Try a cold drink at our Soda Fountain. Ice cream in bricks and pails.
Priceless Brick Quarts 39c

C. R. HORTON

The Best in Drug Store Goods

The Best in Drug Store Service

Local News

Cherries are ripe

June had its share of weddings around here.

Mrs. P. H. Grennan is seriously ill at her home at Farmcrest.

Mrs. John Phelps of Novi has been spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Clyde Putnam, North Wing Street.

Elizabeth Cushman of Lansing, who has been visiting with Eleanor Eaton for the past week, left for her home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clark and family spent last week-end on the shores of Lake Michigan visiting friends near Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Denton spent a week at their cottage at Pigeon. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Evans of Detroit accompanied them.

Nearly forty relatives and friends of the Jas. Spagnuolo family met at their home and enjoyed a big dinner and spent the day together Sunday.

Misses Ruth and May Elden are attending summer school at Mt. Pleasant Normal college. They will teach in rural schools in Wayne county.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Robinson have returned to their home on Yerkes street following a two weeks' visit with friends in Pontiac, Ovid and Merrill.

The next meeting of the American Legion auxiliary will be held at the home of Mrs. Chas. Murphy, 224 High street on Tuesday, July 14, at 8 o'clock p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Webster, of Madison, Wis., have been recent guests of Mrs. Robert McCully. Mr. Webster is connected with the state fish commission of Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Doyle of Chicago, N. Y., Mrs. Albert Allen and daughter, Edna, and Mildred Porter of Detroit called on their sister, Mrs. Ernest Kohler Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kohler of Dearborn and Miss Donna Balch of New Hudson spent the week-end with the former's parents, E. A. Kohler and family at their cottage at Spring Lake.

Mrs. Lena Daggit brought into the Record office a beautiful basket of Madonna lilies as a tribute to her uncle the late Frank S. Neal. These lovely lilies were raised in her own garden.

Mrs. E. M. Starkweather accompanied by her niece, Miss Ethel and May Elden, motored last week through the east making stops at Gettysburg, Washington and other places of interest.

Chas. Freydl, who underwent an operation for the removal of the appendix last Friday at the Sessions hospital, has made such excellent recovery as to be able to return to his home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Turner and daughter, Dorothy, of Chicago, arrived in Northville Sunday and are spending the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kohler.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Carroll Dubois of Albany, N. Y., arrived Tuesday to spend two weeks at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dubois, Main street. Chas. Jr. is now State Actuary in the insurance department.

Donald Keer, who recently graduated from the medical school of the University of Michigan and who received a life certificate for teaching, has returned to the University hospital where he will hold a position on the staff as technician.

Cecil Wickham, son of Dr. A. B. Wickham, medical director of East-lawn sanatorium, was married to Agnes Durham of Berwyn, Illinois in Chicago on Saturday, June 27. Mr. Wickham is a teacher of science in Michigan City, Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bloom and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bloom returned Friday from a two weeks' trip in northern Michigan. Their farthest northern point was Fort Wilkins where they enjoyed the cool breezes of Lake Superior and had a fine catch of trout.

Mrs. E. A. Kohler and eight sisters attended commencement exercises at Ann Arbor last Monday when their nephew and son, Merrill H. Draper of Plymouth was one of the 1929 to receive degrees from the University of Michigan. He is now a Doctor of Dental Surgery.

The oak floor has been laid and the interior decorating has begun in fitting the new location for the Royal Ann Cafe which will be moved as soon as the work is finished. The exterior is being painted white. These more commodious quarters will help Mr. and Mrs. Fry greatly in their efficiency.

Guests and callers at the W. W. Lockwood cottage were Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Culverwell, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Fenstermacher of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burt and son, Junior, of Highland Park, Mrs. Waterbury, Miss Marion Waterbury, Clara Smith of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lanning and children of Northville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kohler attended a meeting of the Past Matrons' club of 1928 and 28 at the home of Mrs. Anna Silver at Plymouth Thursday. Twenty-nine were present to enjoy one of Anna's delicious chicken dinners. Members were present from Mr. Clemens, Grosse Pointe and Birmingham. Mrs. Kohler is president of this club.

Mrs. Grace Hannah of Benton Harbor, an aunt of Starr Bray, is a guest at the Bray home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Schrader and son, Junior, spent part of the week at a lake near Mio, north of Saginaw.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Brader and little daughter, who have been touring the East, are expected to return today (Wednesday).

Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Ballard and daughters, Margaret and Shirley, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cobb on Grace avenue.

Two Northville fishermen, A. C. Balden and Claud Howell have returned from a fishing trip near Pontiac. The catch was not very heavy.

George and Chas. Dusenbury made a flying trip to Washington, D. C. starting Monday and returning Thursday. They had two days in the capitol city.

Earl Montgomery, street commissioner, and his men spent a busy Saturday afternoon cleaning out the Fairbrook pond, one of the city's points of water supply.

E. B. Forney of Mantua, Ohio, has been spending a week visiting at the home of his son, W. E. Forney. Mr. and Mrs. Forney plan to drive back home with him the last of the week.

Mrs. Bruno Freydl and son-in-law, Garrett Barry, returned Sunday from a motor trip through Pennsylvania. They were caught in a heavy storm while coming through the mountains.

E. J. Cochran has returned from a business trip of several days at Owens Sound, Ont. He reports that crops there are looking remarkably well and that Canadians are feeling optimistic about business.

The Hammeleff Grill has added a pleasing innovation to its place of business. A long table has been placed in the rear of the dining room to accommodate the demand for family dinners and parties.

Wesley Cowell, with his wife and two children of Lansing, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cowell at the Cowell House. Together they all took a trip into Detroit part of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ames of Oklahoma City were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hammeleff. In company with their guests the Hammeleffs motored to Pontiac to visit the family of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Jones.

Leslie G. Lee of the high-school faculty began studies Tuesday at the University of Michigan summer school. He will have a course in school administration which will be part of his preparation for the degree of Master of Arts.

Mr. and Mrs. Margaret F. Meeker and three-year-old son, Junior, of Syracuse, N. Y., are in Northville to spend the summer with Mrs. Meeker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Fuller, while Mr. Meeker who is an instructor in the Syracuse schools, will take part of the summer for Michigan toward his Master's degree.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cassie will learn with regret of their plan to leave Northville and return to their own home in Detroit where their daughter, Lilian, will enter the Detroit Teachers' college in the fall and their son, Harry, Jr., will take up a course in aeronautics in the Cass Technical high school. The whole family will be missed in Northville activities but we are glad they are not going any further away.

Geo. Rattenbury, manager of the meat department of the A. and P. store, is taking one week of his vacation at this time and will finish later. He will enter his fine racing horse in the races at Richmond on July 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Schulte, 115 Thayer Blvd., have left for Hot Springs, South Dakota where they were to attend the wedding of the former's brother, Milton W. Schulte, to Miss Dorothy Beck. The wedding took place June 30.

Warner Neal is working on his thesis in journalism for the Boy Scouts and will make contributions to the Record concerning Scout work. Ad. Schwenger, graduate of the journalism department of the University of Michigan, will be his critic.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Dusenbury and sons George and Chas. enjoyed dinner at the Woman's League building in Ann Arbor on Sunday. While there Mrs. Dusenbury had the unexpected pleasure of meeting an old classmate of the class of 1904.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miles, formerly of 325 East University avenue, Ann Arbor, have moved to Northville and are now residing at 516 Randolph street. Mr. Miles has been confined to his bed as a result of a misplaced vertebra received while lifting a heavy bag of cement.

Mrs. Margaret Safford Moore, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Wm. Safford and baby, Dyanne, left Monday evening for Huntington, West Virginia, to join her husband, John Moore, who is engaged in playing professional baseball with the Huntington team.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly left Monday for a fishing trip at North Bay, Ont., Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Tatz and son, Wilard, of Adrian, were guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lyke.

Joe Blake and Harold will be in Pontiac July 2, 3 and 4 for the state American Legion convention as delegates from the Lloyd Green post.

Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Slater and children of Delaware, Ohio, were guests at the home of Dr. Slater's cousin, Mrs. Carl H. Bryan, Thayer Blvd., the first of the week. Dr. Slater is head of the department of psychology in the Ohio Wesleyan University.

R. T. Trapp, who left here last fall after the death of his wife, to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. O. M. Lewis at South Lyon, was a Northville caller Friday. He looked over the new Record plant and said: "I have taken the Record ever since the days of the first editor, Mr. Little, and remember well when he built the opera house."

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Dusenbury and sons George and Chas. enjoyed dinner at the Woman's League building in Ann Arbor on Sunday. While there Mrs. Dusenbury had the unexpected pleasure of meeting an old classmate of the class of 1904.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly left Monday for a fishing trip at North Bay, Ont., Canada.

Mrs. Margaret Safford Moore, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Wm. Safford and baby, Dyanne, left Monday evening for Huntington, West Virginia, to join her husband, John Moore, who is engaged in playing professional baseball with the Huntington team.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly left Monday for a fishing trip at North Bay, Ont., Canada.

Mrs. Margaret Safford Moore, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Wm. Safford and baby, Dyanne, left Monday evening for Huntington, West Virginia, to join her husband, John Moore, who is engaged in playing professional baseball with the Huntington team.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly left Monday for a fishing trip at North Bay, Ont., Canada.

Mrs. Margaret Safford Moore, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Wm. Safford and baby, Dyanne, left Monday evening for Huntington, West Virginia, to join her husband, John Moore, who is engaged in playing professional baseball with the Huntington team.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly left Monday for a fishing trip at North Bay, Ont., Canada.

Mrs. Margaret Safford Moore, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Wm. Safford and baby, Dyanne, left Monday evening for Huntington, West Virginia, to join her husband, John Moore, who is engaged in playing professional baseball with the Huntington team.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly left Monday for a fishing trip at North Bay, Ont., Canada.

Mrs. Margaret Safford Moore, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Wm. Safford and baby, Dyanne, left Monday evening for Huntington, West Virginia, to join her husband, John Moore, who is engaged in playing professional baseball with the Huntington team.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly left Monday for a fishing trip at North Bay, Ont., Canada.

Mrs. Margaret Safford Moore, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Wm. Safford and baby, Dyanne, left Monday evening for Huntington, West Virginia, to join her husband, John Moore, who is engaged in playing professional baseball with the Huntington team.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly left Monday for a fishing trip at North Bay, Ont., Canada.

Mrs. Margaret Safford Moore, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Wm. Safford and baby, Dyanne, left Monday evening for Huntington, West Virginia, to join her husband, John Moore, who is engaged in playing professional baseball with the Huntington team.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly left Monday for a fishing trip at North Bay, Ont., Canada.

Mrs. Margaret Safford Moore, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Wm. Safford and baby, Dyanne, left Monday evening for Huntington, West Virginia, to join her husband, John Moore, who is engaged in playing professional baseball with the Huntington team.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly left Monday for a fishing trip at North Bay, Ont., Canada.

Mrs. Margaret Safford Moore, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Wm. Safford and baby, Dyanne, left Monday evening for Huntington, West Virginia, to join her husband, John Moore, who is engaged in playing professional baseball with the Huntington team.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly left Monday for a fishing trip at North Bay, Ont., Canada.

Mrs. Margaret Safford Moore, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Wm. Safford and baby, Dyanne, left Monday evening for Huntington, West Virginia, to join her husband, John Moore, who is engaged in playing professional baseball with the Huntington team.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly left Monday for a fishing trip at North Bay, Ont., Canada.

Mrs. Margaret Safford Moore, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Wm. Safford and baby, Dyanne, left Monday evening for Huntington, West Virginia, to join her husband, John Moore, who is engaged in playing professional baseball with the Huntington team.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly left Monday for a fishing trip at North Bay, Ont., Canada.

Mrs. Margaret Safford Moore, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Wm. Safford and baby, Dyanne, left Monday evening for Huntington, West Virginia, to join her husband, John Moore, who is engaged in playing professional baseball with the Huntington team.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly left Monday for a fishing trip at North Bay, Ont., Canada.

Mrs. Margaret Safford Moore, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Wm. Safford and baby, Dyanne, left Monday evening for Huntington, West Virginia, to join her husband, John Moore, who is engaged in playing professional baseball with the Huntington team.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly left Monday for a fishing trip at North Bay, Ont., Canada.

Mrs. Margaret Safford Moore, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Wm. Safford and baby, Dyanne, left Monday evening for Huntington, West Virginia, to join her husband, John Moore, who is engaged in playing professional baseball with the Huntington team.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly left Monday for a fishing trip at North Bay, Ont., Canada.

Mrs. Margaret Safford Moore, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Wm. Safford and baby, Dyanne, left Monday evening for Huntington, West Virginia, to join her husband, John Moore, who is engaged in playing professional baseball with the Huntington team.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly left Monday for a fishing trip at North Bay, Ont., Canada.

Mrs. Margaret Safford Moore, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Wm. Safford and baby, Dyanne, left Monday evening for Huntington, West Virginia, to join her husband, John Moore, who is engaged in playing professional baseball with the Huntington team.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly left Monday for a fishing trip at North Bay, Ont., Canada.

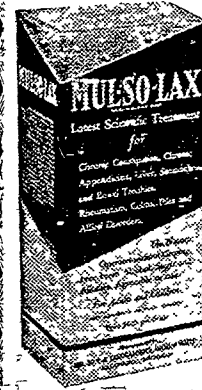

Mrs. Margaret Safford Moore, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Wm. Safford and baby, Dyanne, left Monday evening for Huntington, West Virginia, to join her husband, John Moore, who is engaged in playing professional baseball with the Huntington team.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly left Monday for a fishing trip at North Bay, Ont., Canada.

Mrs. Margaret Safford Moore, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Wm. Safford and baby, Dyanne, left Monday evening for Huntington, West Virginia, to join her husband, John Moore, who is engaged in playing professional baseball with the Huntington team.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelly left Monday for a fishing trip at North Bay, Ont., Canada.

Mrs. Margaret Safford Moore, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Wm. Safford and baby, Dyanne, left Monday evening for Huntington, West Virginia, to join her husband, John Moore, who is engaged in playing professional baseball with the Huntington team.

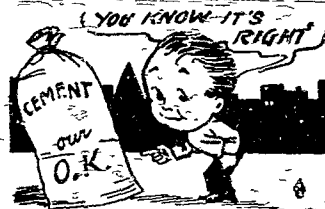

THE REAL JOY OF LIVING COMES WHEN YOUR HEALTH IS BEST

If you suffer with indigestion, headaches, backaches, gas or sour stomach, feel tired out all the time, have no ambition, if the easiest task seems hard, don't lay it to your age or your job, most likely all you need is Mulo-Lax to bring you back to buoyant, vibrant health.

CONSTIPATION IS LARGELY RESPONSIBLE FOR Indigestion, Headaches, Stomach Aches, Colic, Rheumatism, Salivary Complication, Piles, Bad Breath, Dyspepsia and General Run Down Conditions

MULO-LAX
Brings Relief the Natural Way
Take No Substitute

Good Food

In a Good Atmosphere

If you have been hesitant about "eating downtown," just come in to our pleasant dining room. You will like the home-like atmosphere, the wonderfully cooked menus and the deft, prompt service. Start today making this restaurant a habit. You will enjoy it more all the time.

HAMMELEFF'S TEA ROOM

Northville Phone 9163

July 4th
Specials

ICE CREAM
Qt. BRICK
39c

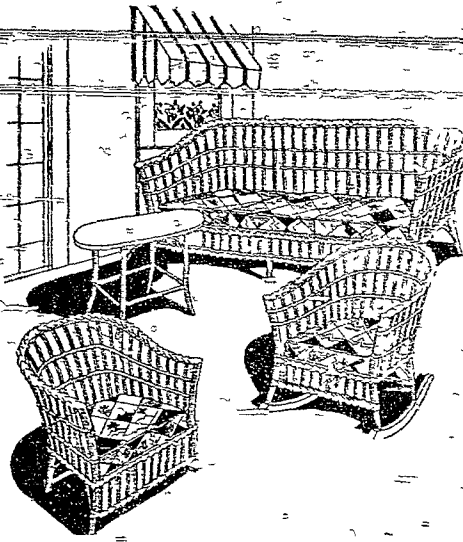

Sodas
Sundaes
Frostbites
Popsicles
Northville
Confectionery

Wicker Furniture

for Home Porches

Make your front porch a delightful place to sit on long summer evenings

Wicker Furniture, Roomy, comfortable and inexpensive

Couch Gliders. Well made gliders with tufted backs, heavy metal frames, link springs and cotton filled mattress.

Wicker Chairs
Porch Rugs

Refrigerators
All Porch Furniture

SEE OUR SUMMER WINDOW DISPLAY

SCHRADER BROS.

"A BIG STORE IN A GOOD TOWN"

NORTHVILLE

MICHIGAN

Going! Going! Going!

THE SALE IS ON

Here are the delicious things that make a sale successful. They are all specially priced; all of finest quality. Select them with assurance of value from our large variety.

Chipso 2 for 35c	Salad Bowl Dressing quart jar 31c
Edwards Ginger Ale 12 bottles 89c	Palmolive and Camay Soap, 3 bars 19c
Quick Arrow Soap Flakes, 2 pkgs. 29c	Family Macaroni, Spaghetti or Noodles 6 pkgs. 25c

Come in and see for yourself the many bargains in this great close out sale.

Elliott's Bakery

West Point Park

The two A. A. A. baseball teams met on the diamond here on June 23. They were Rudson Green and West Point Park. The visiting team was known as a fast team. The score was 10-7 in favor of the home team. Hartland pitched for West Point Park with Hammer-schmidt behind the bat.

Sunday school was well attended though the heat was intense. The children are looking forward to their picnic in July.

Miss Helen Edith Harper, daughter of Mrs. Robert Harper and a teacher in Keeler school is the bride of Charles Edward Friday of Oxford.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Bond and daughter, Ethel, and a friend spent Sunday evening with Mrs. C. Wolfe.

On July 17 a movie program will be given in the church by the senior bible class. Tickets are on sale at the present time.

A number of high school girls attended a theatre Wednesday to see "Daddy Longlegs."

Clarence Witte accompanied by Ralph Arlen of Farmington, attended the banquet Monday evening held in the Lyman lodge. Governor Bricker with a few state officials were guests.

Frederic Laidlaw, Maurice, Kenneth, Harry and Viola Wolfe spent Thursday at Middle Straits lake and enjoyed swimming.

Joseph Smith has returned to his home in Beaver.

Mrs. Isabelle Smith of Detroit accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Alfred Berchem, are enjoying a two weeks vacation trip.

They went through Quebec in lower Canada and then back through Boston, New York and other prominent places.

Mrs. Ethel Middlewood and her daughters, Esther and Barbara, accompanied by Miss Vera Wood were sightseers last week at Point Aux Barques, coming home Sunday by way of West Branch. They visited with the former's daughter, Mrs. Ada Ballinger.

A storm struck West Point Park Friday morning blowing down trees and flattening all kinds of early vegetables and flowers.

Ruth Taylor spent the week-end with Olive Ann and Norma Soper at Salem.

Robert Graham started for Ohio Thursday to try and get work.

Jane Steedman of Detroit is spending a few days with the Misses Demetri and Margaret Mills.

Helen Burger of Redford is enjoying her holidays with her cousin, Gloria Hinchman on Charlotte avenue.

West Point Park's pastor, Rev. John Adams, in the class of liberal arts, had conferred on him the degree of Bachelor of Arts by the school of technology at the commencement exercises held Thursday at Detroit.

A wedding in the day of sorrows church in Farmington united Mr. Virgil Gonnig and Miss Charlotte Strickley in matrimony.

The officiating minister was Rev. James A. Callahan. The bride was formerly a resident of this district. We wish the young couple a happy and prosperous life together.

Everyone is pleased to see Mr. and Mrs. McInnes back home after a few weeks spent with relatives and friends in Foxboro, Mass.

EDGEWATER "QUEENIE"

HAS NEAR-HUMAN MIND

Although just a "yaller dawg," Queenie is a center of attraction every night at Edgewater Park as her owner, George Phillips, puts her through hundreds of clever stunts.

Some idea of Queenie's size is gained when we tell you that jumping through a five-inch hoop is one of her simplest tricks.

Queenie walks, dances, creeps, crawls, wounded, talks, yawns on request, hides her head between her paws, walks a slack-rope, climbs a pole, drops dead at the sound of a shot, plays the piano, wheels a doll carriage and does countless other tricks.

Queenie's a mighty good dog, too. When told to go to bed she walks to the side of her bed, kneels as if saying her prayers and then hops in, pulling the covers over.

Geo. Phillips and Queenie have just returned from Hollywood where they appeared in a number of M-G movies.

Everyone who has already seen Queenie perform marvels at her cleverness and near-human mind.

Visit Edgewater Park, Seven Mile near Grand River, Detroit, and see this remarkable movie dog. Bus service is now available from Grand River and Lahar avenues, Redford direct to the park.

STILL MORE SACKS

OBTAINABLE, SAYS ELY

The enthusiasm with which Northville housewives greeted the distribution of vegetable sacks by the Ely Coal & Ice company has prompted Charles Ely to announce that there are a limited number of sacks left for those who missed getting them the first time.

A telephone call at the offices of the ice company, 151, will bring one of these practical gifts to the house with the compliments of the Ely Coal & Ice company.

Nearly 500 Brighton rooters are coming to the Fair Grounds Sunday to see if their ball team can beat ours. Turn out strong Northville and see a good game.

"NEW HOME" EDITION
RECALLS OLD TIMES
TO L. C. WOODMAN

Vashon, Wash.
June 18, 1931

Dear Editor

Congratulations! Fine and dandy! Of course I am alluding to the admirable issue of the Record of June 12 which came to my hand and which I have read "from cover to cover" and then passed it on to a former Northvillian for further education. My "buzzum" swells with honest pride that the old town can get "out" something really, worth while and reflects the greatest credit on every Record employee and the publisher right down to the ad compositor, linotype, pressmen and proof reader.

I see the ancient and honorable Washington hand press occupies the post of honor on the front page of Section One. This is as it should be. I did some valiant work on the long letter of she old time way back in 1899. We called it then the "Armstrong Perfecting Press" if it certainly took a strong arm and the sweat beaded face to operate it.

In looking at the illustrations I am reminded that twenty-five years have passed into history since I last saw the town I can see the proofing roller near the front of the cut and the old imposing stone that did duty in the old shop.

A certain young woman, while a visiting guest of the village, did an Irish jig on that stone one summer evening after work hours, while the boss was out, but it is beyond that Mother Little was passing the front windows and took to the scene. She laughed and called out to the gathered group, "Well, done! God bless the Irish," and passed on. Wishing you every success in your new home may this milestone be a remembrance in years to come.

L. C. Woodman

FROM THE OTHER SIDE

(Dave Hubbell in The Grosvenor Jeffersonian)

Was in a local store the other night and overheard an episode that covers the case pretty thoroughly. A customer had tendered a $10 bill in payment for a small purchase and the merchant had some difficulty in making the change. He got enough to make $5 with the purchase and then went over to another till to get the other five.

Just for a joke he remarked to the customer, "That is all right I will hand you the other five some day next week." There came a look of surprise over the man's face and he seemed rather nonplussed for a minute, then saw the point and said, "Well that is all right but it sounds differently from the other side of the counter. Come to think of it, how much difference is it to stand a man off for one's change than to stand a merchant off for one's necessities?"

THE MAN ACROSS THE HALL

Mr. McReady was restless. Business was bad. He paced up and down the office. The man across the hall saw him invited him in.

After fifteen minutes of conversation, the man across the hall said, "Oh, I didn't know you handled things of that sort. Maybe we can do business together."

By the following Monday Mr. McReady's plant was producing orders for the man across the hall.

The man sitting next to you in the Pullman smoker, in the one-arm lunch, in the airplane, on the motor bus or within a city block of your home—business is a prospect. Talk to him. Perhaps he may be your "man across the hall."

The first requisite of a good citizen is that he shall be able and willing to pull his weight, that he shall not be a mere passenger, but shall do his share in the work that each generation of us finds ready to hand, and, furthermore, that in doing his work he shall show, not only the capacity for sturdy self-help but also self-respecting regard for the rights of others.

Theodore Roosevelt

Stupendous Free Exhibition Of

Fireworks

July 4th at

Walled Lake

Amusement Park

Boating • Dancing • Rides

FREE PARKING

July 4th at

Walled Lake

Amusement Park

Boating • Dancing • Rides

FREE PARKING

July 4th at

Walled Lake

Amusement Park

Boating • Dancing • Rides

FREE PARKING

July 4th at

Walled Lake

Amusement Park

Boating • Dancing • Rides

FREE PARKING

July 4th at

Walled Lake

Amusement Park

Boating • Dancing • Rides

FREE PARKING

SALEM NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Proctor spent Sunday at Wampler's lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hugg and children moved Sunday to Island Lake park and were guests in the cottage of the former's father.

George Roberts, son of Mrs. Fred Cole, left here on Saturday for Colorado, to take a course at the Summer Mining school there.

Mrs. Don Norton and son Edward, returned to their home in Cohoctah, Thursday, after spending several days with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Tousey.

Sunday dinner guests in the Jay Clark home were Mrs. Clark's father, Mr. Wilson and grandson, Wilton Clark, of near Chelsea.

Mrs. J. J. Vici and children and Miss Viola May Rose of Detroit are since Wednesday only established for the summer months in the W. A. Kahler home and Mr. Vici spent the week-end with his family.

Fred Cole is on the sick list since last week.

Miss Bevia Hale returned Thursday from a few days visit with her aunt, Mrs. Harry Mankin in Strathmore.

Thursday, Mrs. Lucia M. Stroh and Miss E. Wittich were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cooper in their cottage at Lake Orion.

Charles Stanbro was critically ill Sunday and is very low at the time of this writing.

Mrs. Joanne Callahan, of Marquette visited Mrs. Stanley Proctor Friday.

Alpheus Roberts left Saturday for a week's stay in Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Musolf, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schroeder, spent Saturday in Hastings, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Houser attended the New Hudson school reunion last Thursday.

Mrs. Floyd Detlof, of Plymouth will entertain the Ladies Auxiliary society of the Congregational church for their July meeting at Riverside Park Thursday, July 9 in the afternoon and for supper to which the men and families are cordially invited.

John Aspin of South Lyons is at present visiting his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Wetherman.

Friday evening the Ladies Auxiliary society of Congregational church held an ice cream social on the church lawn. The threatening weather and later heavy rains prevented a large attendance.

Friday Mrs. C. W. Payne gave a dinner party in honor of Mrs. Edith Burdeman. Those who enjoyed the delicious three course dinner were: Mrs. L. M. Stroh, Mrs. R. Pennell, Miss Pennell, Mrs. Fred Rider and grand daughter, Dolma May Wooster. Mrs. C. W. Payne, Mrs. La Verne Lewis, Mrs. Frank Buser, Mrs. Chas. Mankin and Miss E. Wittich. The table was attractive looking with its three vases full of gorgeous flowers.

The afternoon passed by quickly in social chat and songs by Mesdames L. M. Stroh and G. W. Lewis, and Misses Kathryn Pennell and Bevia Hale.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyers were Tuesday evening callers in the C. W. Payne home.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mankin and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mankin took supper in the C. W. Payne home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Payne took the latter's mother, Mrs. M. Marvin of Northville to Britton for a few days visit in the Byron Cowell home and then motored to Adrian and were guests of the Freeman Lincoln family.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Roberts and Mrs. Ivah and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Burnham motored to Eaton Rapids Sunday, enjoying a birthday dinner in the Percy Winslow home in honor of Mrs. Winslow and Miss Virginia Bronson of Breckenridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tork, with friends from Detroit were Sunday callers in the Foreman-Dake home.

Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Halliday of Delaware, Ohio, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ryder.

Sunday morning Children's Day was celebrated in the Congregational church by a pageant, "Children of all Ages" of seven scenes depicting the development of religious education all through the ages. Everyone took his part seriously and the result was a splendid performance. The choir contributed their share to a full extent. "Oh a profession of lovely flowers. The whole service was a success and very gratifying to the leaders and enjoyed by a large assembly.

Salem Congregational Church

Rev. Lucia M. Stroh minister.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening in the church. Practice for choir Friday evening in the church. All are urged to come.

Sunday service at 10:30 a. m. in the church. Whittier the host by the pastor. Evening service at 7:30 p. m. opened by a rousing song service. Then the pastor will speak on "The Whosoever Gospel."

"The World on Fire"—a deep into the future. Come and hear these interesting subjects expounded. God said there shall not be another flood, but the best judgment shall be a disolving of the elements, heaven and earth by fire. Come and hear.

Rest is not getting the busy career. Rest is the fitting of self to its sphere.

Tis loving and serving. The highest and best. Tis onward answering And that is true rest.

John Sullivan Dwight. Where there is Faith, there is Love. Where there is Love, there is Peace. Where there is Peace, there is God. Where there is God, there is need.

Mrs. Floyd Detlof, of Plymouth will entertain the Ladies Auxiliary society in the Riverside, Plymouth, on the 4th of July and pot-luck supper Thursday, July 9. Everybody is cordially invited.

GOOD CROP-OUTLOOK

Although rain is needed locally, crops around Northville look promising and the outlook is far more favorable for farmers than it was a year ago at this time. Some sections of the state had heavy rains the first of the week but none fell here.

MOVES ON DUNLAP STREET

The family of R. L. Lee has moved from Orchard Heights - to the Bay Richardson house on Dunlap street, recently vacated by the Jas. H. Laphams, who have returned to their farm.

The Tiger Jewelry Store will supply your jewelry wants with the most fashionable line of goods obtainable. Expert watch repairing done in quick time.

They Get Mileage

The splendid results made in the gasoline mileage contest are shown by these high figures.

First Prize—B. Dennison, 34.5 miles per gal. Car mileage 37,535.

Second Prize—Geo. Pickel, 33 miles per gal. Car mileage 8,449.

Third Prize—M. Bryan, 32 miles per gal. Car mileage 24,435.

First Prize received $15.00 in cash. Second Prize received a "Spotlight". Third Prize received a moto-meter.

The average mileage for model A Fords per gallon of gas as shown by our test is 27.7 MILES

The tests conclusively demonstrated the maximum efficiency of Ford Model A cars beyond the shadow of a doubt

DRIVE A FORD FOR ECONOMY

MARZ MOTOR SALES

PHONE 54

Open On Sunday Until 1 p. m.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE SALE

WHEREAS Ernest C. Mehberg and Elsie Mehberg, his wife of Detroit, Michigan made and executed a certain mortgage bearing date of the 31st day of July, 1928 unto Ruth H. Seaver—now Ruth H. Seaver Coggs, of Fenton, Michigan which said mortgage was recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Wayne county, Michigan on the 25th day of August, 1928 at 12.15 o'clock p. m. in Liber 1793 of mortgages on page 562; and whereas the said Ruth H. Seaver Coggs is now owner of said mortgage;

And whereas it was stipulated between the parties thereto that in default should be made in the payment of the principal sum of interest or any part thereof or in payment of the taxes, insurance premiums or other charges upon said premises or any part thereof at the term and in the manner therein specified for the payment thereof, or in the performance of any of the covenants and agreements therein contained, the entire indebtedness secured thereby remaining unpaid should at once become due and collectable, if the mortgage so elected;

And whereas default has been made in the payment of said interest and in the payment of taxes at the time and in the manner specified in said mortgage; and whereas by reason thereof the mortgagee under the provision above referred to, has elected to declare and has declared the entire indebtedness secured thereby remaining unpaid due and collectable at once;

And whereas the amount claimed to be due on said mortgage at the date of this notice is the sum of $2514.97 including interest computed to the date hereof and an attorney fee provided by the statute of the State of Michigan and stipulated for in said mortgage; and no suit or proceedings at law having been instituted to recover the debt now remaining secured thereby or any part thereof, whereby the power of sale contained in said mortgage has become operative;

Now therefore, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and in pursuance of the statutes in such case made and provided the said mortgage will be foreclosed, by a sale of the mortgaged premises at public vendue to the highest bidder on Saturday, August 1st, 1931, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, eastern standard time, at the southerly of Congress street entrance of the Court House in the City of Detroit, Michigan—that building being the place of holding the Circuit Court for the County in which said mortgaged premises are located; said premises are described as follows: Lands, premises and property in the Township of Dearborn, County of Wayne and State of Michigan, to-wit: Lot nine hundred seven (917) of Westwood Subdivision of Van Alstine Farm, of part of Section thirty (30) town two (2) south, Range ten (10) east, and recorded in Liber 40, Page 30 of Flats—Premises situated on north-west corner of Bayhan and Yale Ave.

Dated May 1st, 1931.

RUTH H. SEEVER GOGIS, Mortgagee.

G. F. MacNeal, Attorney for Mortgagee.

Fenton, Michigan.

Probate Notice

171416

State of Michigan, County of Wayne, ss.

At a session of the Probate Court for said County of Wayne, held at the Probate Court Room in the City of Detroit, on the twenty-fourth day of June in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one.

Present, Ervin R. Palmer, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Robert McCully, deceased; an instrument in writing purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased having been delivered into this court for probate; and Catherine McCully having filed herewith a petition praying that administration with the will annexed of said estate be granted to her, Anne McCully or some other suitable person;

It is ordered that the twenty-eighth day of July, next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon at said Court Room be appointed for proving said instrument and hearing said petition.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published three successive weeks previous to said time of hearing in the Northville Record, a newspaper printed and circulating in said County of Wayne.

ERVIN R. PALMER, Judge of Probate.

Theodore J. Brown, Deputy Probate Register.

COOL... COMFORTABLE COOKING!

My ELECTROCHEF electric range never overheats the kitchen

"I enjoy using my ELECTROCHEF in summer—cooking with this modern range is surprisingly cool! Even baking and roasting do not overheat the kitchen. The semi-sealed oven and double air-space insulation keeps all the heat inside. I don't know of anything that adds more to kitchen comfort than my ELECTROCHEF—it's a stove any woman will appreciate. In warm weather especially, I'd hate to be without it!"

*A study of one thousand families using the ELECTROCHEF electric range showed a cooking cost of less than one cent a meal a person.

THE DETROIT EDISON CO.

Also sold and demonstrated by the J. L. Hudson Company, Crowley, Wilner & Company, the T. B. Ray Company, the Ernst Kern Company and the Good Housekeeping Shop

COOL... COMFORTABLE COOKING!

My ELECTROCHEF electric range never overheats the kitchen

"I enjoy using my ELECTROCHEF in summer—cooking with this modern range is surprisingly cool! Even baking and roasting do not overheat the kitchen. The semi-sealed oven and double air-space insulation keeps all the heat inside. I don't know of anything that adds more to kitchen comfort than my ELECTROCHEF—it's a stove any woman will appreciate. In warm weather especially, I'd hate to be without it!"

*A study of one thousand families using the ELECTROCHEF electric range showed a cooking cost of less than one cent a meal a person.

THE DETROIT EDISON CO.

Also sold and demonstrated by the J. L. Hudson Company, Crowley, Wilner & Company, the T. B. Ray Company, the Ernst Kern Company and the Good Housekeeping Shop

COOL... COMFORTABLE COOKING!

My ELECTROCHEF electric range never overheats the kitchen

"I enjoy using my ELECTROCHEF in summer—cooking with this modern range is surprisingly cool! Even baking and roasting do not overheat the kitchen. The semi-sealed oven and double air-space insulation keeps all the heat inside. I don't know of anything that adds more to kitchen comfort than my ELECTROCHEF—it's a stove any woman will appreciate. In warm weather especially, I'd hate to be without it!"

*A study of one thousand families using the ELECTROCHEF electric range showed a cooking cost of less than one cent a meal a person.

THE DETROIT EDISON CO.

Also sold and demonstrated by the J. L. Hudson Company, Crowley, Wilner & Company, the T. B. Ray Company, the Ernst Kern Company and the Good Housekeeping Shop

COOL... COMFORTABLE COOKING!

My ELECTROCHEF electric range never overheats the kitchen

"I enjoy using my ELECTROCHEF in summer—cooking with this modern range is surprisingly cool! Even baking and roasting do not overheat the kitchen. The semi-sealed oven and double air-space insulation keeps all the heat inside. I don't know of anything that adds more to kitchen comfort than my ELECTROCHEF—it's a stove any woman will appreciate. In warm weather especially, I'd hate to be without it!"

*A study of one thousand families using the ELECTROCHEF electric range showed a cooking cost of less than one cent a meal a person.

THE DETROIT EDISON CO.

Also sold and demonstrated by the J. L. Hudson Company, Crowley, Wilner & Company, the T. B. Ray Company, the Ernst Kern Company and the Good Housekeeping Shop

COOL... COMFORTABLE COOKING!

My ELECTROCHEF electric range never overheats the kitchen

"I enjoy using my ELECTROCHEF in summer—cooking with this modern range is surprisingly cool! Even baking and roasting do not overheat the kitchen. The semi-sealed oven and double air-space insulation keeps all the heat inside. I don't know of anything that adds more to kitchen comfort than my ELECTROCHEF—it's a stove any woman will appreciate. In warm weather especially, I'd hate to be without it!"

*A study of one thousand families using the ELECTROCHEF electric range showed a cooking cost of less than one cent a meal a person.

THE DETROIT EDISON CO.

Also sold and demonstrated by the J. L. Hudson Company, Crowley, Wilner & Company, the T. B. Ray Company, the Ernst Kern Company and the Good Housekeeping Shop

COOL... COMFORTABLE COOKING!

My ELECTROCHEF electric range never overheats the kitchen

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

5 YEARS AGO

Father Jos Schuler was honored by a company of friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Murphy, the occasion being the tenth anniversary of his entering the priesthood.

H. C. Teeples is now completing the masonry work on his second house in Orchard Heights.

Miss Catherine Knowles, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. P. F. Knowles, was united in marriage to A. Elmo Cole of New York at a church wedding at the Presbyterian church Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lanning returned from a honeymoon trip on Saturday.

They are stepping along lively on the Plymouth cement road. They will be past the Waterford road this week.

Guy Phillips left Sunday for Los Angeles, Calif., where he will coach with Wager Swayne of Paris.

Dr. L. A. Ketchum leaves this week for a two-month vacation in Montana. Dr. W. H. Johnston of Kirkville, Mo., will be in charge of Dr. Ketchum's practice while he is away. Dr. Johnston has just completed hospital internship and comes well prepared to practice his profession. Mrs. Johnston and baby, who are now visiting in Arkansas, will join the Dr. in a few weeks.

10 YEARS AGO

Northville will celebrate the Fourth with a ball game, races and a pavement dance.

The Globe Furniture Co., of Northville, made the entire outfit of furniture, including a spring seat for a baby's cradle, and being put out by the General Electric Co.

The marriage of Miss Lena Foss to Oscar Hammond occurred at the M. E. parsonage June 22.

At the annual meeting of the Grand Court of Michigan, Foresters of America held at Ann Arbor last week, Lester D. Stage was elected Grand Senior Woodward. He has been a loyal member for many years.

The sixth annual reunion of the Northville high school alumni association held last Friday evening was a great success.

Marvin Bogart, Wixom, has been in Flint the past week.

Miss Anna Smith of this village was honored at the Plymouth Alumni Association being presented with a purse of $150 by her friends. She has taught in Plymouth 44 years.

Agnes Killeit is touring Europe for three months.

25 YEARS AGO

C. C. Yerkes, Esq., will address the young people's class next Sunday.

Miss Mary Freeman has been clerking in Gardner's the past week.

L. A. Sabitt is the only victim of the Glorious Fourth as far reported. He is carrying a bandaged hand as the result of volunteering to instruct his son in the art of touching off firecrackers. None of the rest of the kids were hurt.

The city reservoir was cleaned last week and users will be glad to know that nothing more terrible than a pollywog was found.

Charles Yerkes has turned his back on Northville and built him a house on the eastern side of Walled Lake. W. C. Yerkes and Miss Grace Yerkes are spending the summer there.

J. S. Haddock's hip pocket was thoroughly relieved of a big contents of cash for thirty dollars in silver while he was enjoying the Fourth in Detroit.

Lester D. Stage went back to Detroit yesterday and found the sack of money under a cherry tree where he had been sitting.

Mr. and Mrs. Thad J. Knapp of Arlington, N. J., are at the J. O. Knapp home to spend the summer.

All who are interested in having their children attend the vacation Bible school at Northville, beginning July 8 and closing July 17, should help their children register on the card given to them Sunday.

The mid-year check-up meeting of the B. Y. F. U. was held at Mrs. Root's cottage at Wolverine Lake Saturday evening. Following a swim and a delicious pot-luck supper the business meeting was opened by the president, Donald Munro. Reports of the different commissions were given and plans made for the services for next Sunday when it is to be young people's day. About 30 were present.

Miss M. B. Root and Miss J. O. Thompson's Sunday afternoon.

The 4-H club met at the home of Burton Munro Monday evening.

H. E. Watson of Detroit is the new manager of the White Star gas station. W. H. Gould closed his week there last week.

Miss Rogers Root and Miss J. O. Thompson left Monday evening for Ypsilanti where they will attend the summer school at the State Normal college.

Miss M. B. Root and Miss Lida McHenry of Dearborn, Mr. M. B. Root and Howard McHenry of Ann Arbor and George Washington of Bay City were callers at the Burton Munro home Saturday.

A pretty church wedding was solemnized at the German Lutheran church in East Farmington last Saturday when Harold Miller and Miss Lillian Burkowski were united in marriage. A shower was given at the home of Howard Greer the Friday evening of the previous week. Mr. and Mrs. C. Hazen were guests at the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Adams of Orionville were guests of the latter's brother, R. O. Thompson, the first of the week. They, with Mr. Thompson, left for Conneaut, Ohio the latter part of the week, where they attended the Thompson reunion on Saturday, July 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carron of Detroit spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Flint. Miss Margaret Smalley of Interlochen, N. Y., has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Flint.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark motored to her brother's, Earl Johnson in Ann Arbor last Sunday. The families ate picnic dinner at Whitmore Lake.

Mrs. Alice Spencer and Mrs. Wm. Mays were guests of Mrs. Kate Simmons and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Simmons at the club at Walters Lake Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lake and children were dinner guests Sunday evening at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Verdun.

E. J. Raine of Detroit has opened a dining place in the Verdun building where very fine dinners are served each evening and special attention is given to week-end patrons.

Novi Baptist Church morning worship at 10:30. Sunday school at 12 noon.

B. Y. F. U. at 8:45. Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at the church.

The B. Y. F. U. have charge of the Sunday services during the absence of the pastor, Ronald Butten will speak for them. It has been decided the loose offering will be given to young people's work. Your presence will lend inspiration and assistance to the young people.

The C. W. C. will meet with the adults next Sunday morning and their regular monthly meeting will be held this week-end.

See Harry German's Chief's play the Brightmoor B. M.'s Sunday at the Fair Grounds. It'll be a "bang-up" game.

See Harry German's Chief's play the Brightmoor B. M.'s Sunday at the Fair Grounds. It'll be a "bang-up" game.

See Harry German's Chief's play the Brightmoor B. M.'s Sunday at the Fair Grounds. It'll be a "bang-up" game.

See Harry German's Chief's play the Brightmoor B. M.'s Sunday at the Fair Grounds. It'll be a "bang-up" game.

See Harry German's Chief's play the Brightmoor B. M.'s Sunday at the Fair Grounds. It'll be a "bang-up" game.

BOY SCOUTS MAKE PUT-IN-BAY TRIP

There were twenty-two Scouts who went to Put-in-Bay from Northville troop No. 2. We left at 7:30 in the morning and traveled on the bus for an hour. While we were riding on the bus, the Scouts sang songs and told jokes.

We finally got to the place where the big boat was at dock. It was a big boat. It was on the first street.

The first event was to try and get all the Scouts on the boat. The boat was crowded with Scouts. There were thirteen events out of the thirteen events.

Scouts of Northville 2 got two of the prizes. We rode on the boat for four hours. What a ride it was! I can bet you that the Scouts that were on the boat walked up and down the docks about 10 times.

We finally came in sight of Perry's monument. It sure is high. It is 300 and some feet high. While we were still on Lake Erie, some of the Sea Scouts sent messages by signaling to the other Sea Scouts that were on the other boat. Finally the boat anchored by the dock at Put-in-Bay. There were lots of people waiting for the boat to come to Put-in-Bay. The people on the docks seemed to be happy to see the Scouts come to Put-in-Bay.

Everybody got out of the boat. It took about thirty or forty minutes before everybody was out of the boat.

The Scouts of Northville went by a tree and ate their dinner. While we were eating our dinner, some of the Scouts of another troop challenged us to a ball game. We played about 5 or 6 innings and the score was 10 to 6 in favor of Northville 2. We sure played a hard game. I was the pitcher and I pitched a good game to help win for Northville 2. Then the first and last team came to play. We chose five of our Scouts and five of the other Scouts. We played four innings when a terrible game, and dropped some messages and ended the ball game, because there was a prize in the messages. But the score was six to five in favor of the First-Ad team.

Then came the big tug-of-war. The tug-of-war was sure as hard as tug-of-war as ever I saw. The tug-of-war was between the east side and the west side. Finally the west side won after a hard struggle. Then the Scouts all marched to Perry's monument and one of the Sea Scouts' captain talked about Perry and said in his talk about the monument. He said, "We have met the enemy and they are ours."

Then all Scouts sat down and we all went to the boat and some of the Scouts' pencil clips to remember Put-in-Bay. Then the boat started back for home. We sailed on Lake Erie all the way to the Detroit river. We sang songs on the boat and danced too. When the boat got just about near the Ambassador bridge it started to rain. Finally the boat anchored and everybody got out of the boat and the Sea Scouts had to clean up the boat.

The Scouts of Northville 2 went to the bus. It was 8 o'clock and then we started back to the school. We ate part of our supper on the boat and the other part on the bus. Here are some of the Scout songs: "Over Hill, Over Dale," "Once I Went Out Swimming," "Let Me Live for Scouting," etc. We got back to the school at 10:30 in the night. All the Scouts of Northville 2 and 3 that went to Put-in-Bay sure had a good time and I am positive the Scouts that are in the Training school are very thankful that Dr. Haskell let them go to Put-in-Bay. Well, you know why they call the place Put-in-Bay, because Perry put the ships in the bay. It really was a big day for the Scouts!

Eddie Zander, Scribe of N. 2.

Nearly 500 Brighton rooters are coming to the Fair Grounds Sunday to see if their ball team can beat ours. Turn out strong Northville and see a good game.

Gran. Mat. Hint

He: "What is more beautiful than a pretty girl to behold?" She: "Such grammar! You mean 'to be held'."

SHIRLEY'S INN

CHICKEN DINNERS

75c

The best cooking you have ever tasted. When you're on a short trip stop in and try one of our delicious dinners.

WE SERVE ALL WEEK

Watch for the signs

3 MI. WEST OF NOVI

ON GRAND RIVER

WE SERVE ALL WEEK

Watch for the signs

3 MI. WEST OF NOVI

ON GRAND RIVER

WE SERVE ALL WEEK

Watch for the signs

3 MI. WEST OF NOVI

ON GRAND RIVER

WE SERVE ALL WEEK

Watch for the signs

3 MI. WEST OF NOVI

ON GRAND RIVER

WE SERVE ALL WEEK

Watch for the signs

NORTHVILLE TREES BROUGHT DOWN BY WINDSTORM, AXE

Two trees that have stood on Northville streets, in all probability for 100 years, came down with a crash Friday.

An oak tree, four feet in circumference, was blown over by the wind storm and landed on the roof of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sonnenberg's home at 220 Wing street.

Luckily, no damage was done but Mrs. Sonnenberg declares that the noise the huge tree made in falling was not a reassuring one.

The other tree that came down was a large maple, which had been the northeast corner of Wing and Main streets. The tree was brought low by St. Clair Commissioner Earl Montgomery and his men partly because it was dying and because it interfered with the vision of automobile drivers.

For the past few weeks Commissioner Merrill S. Sweet, head of the tree clearance department of the Detroit Edison company in Northville, has been supervising the trimming of trees in town which will allow for more illumination from the boulevard lights and also gives the Edison wires more clearance.

SOUTH LYON HAS SLOGAN

(From South Lyon Herald)

"The Best Little City," was judged the best slogan in the Board of Commerce contest for a slogan for South Lyon. It was written by Miss Maude Greedy, and won the $5 prize offered by the board.

Repression AM Still On!

"I've got a new job now collecting for an automobile finance company."

"Gosh, what an uncomfortable occupation. You must be unwell come wherever you call."

"Oh, quite the contrary. Practically everybody asks me to 'call again later'."

On a rainy day, a much-jeweled woman in a sable coat boarded a trolley.

"I don't suppose I've ridden on a tram for two years," she said to the conductor, a gloomy fellow, as she gave him her fare "I ride in my own car," she explained.

The conductor punched her ticket.

"You don't know how much we've missed you," he said quietly.

First came the "realtor," then the "beautician," subsequently the "bootician," then the "pedicure."

And the other day a large motor-truck carried down Third avenue, New York City bearing the imposing legend, "McGee & McGee, Truckologists."

Eastern Cemetery Laid

Out Like Modern City

Travelers in Detroit approaching the city from the east are deeply impressed with the striking appearance of a sandy valley between lines of broken hills of a seemingly recent city, close-built with houses of varying sizes and dominated at intervals with great domes and slender minarets. They are, however, greatly amazed upon reaching the city to find that not a living soul is in it.

Such is the "Eastern Cemetery," or "cemetery of the Sahara," as this strange city of the dead is known. It is far more luxurious than many towns of the living. It has houses, streets, courts, shaded walks, and large, central buildings which are the tombs of the wealthy or great.

The principal structure, under a huge dome, is called the "Mosque of Kaitbey," the tomb of a sultan. There are also the squalid quarters of the poor.

These cemetery homes often contain several rooms, all well furnished and decorated with beautiful oriental tapestries and silk hangings.

SIGNS OF DECAY SHOWING IN WASHINGTON MONUMENT

Engineers and Architects Worried Over Condition of Building Stone.

New York.—The marble of which the Washington monument is constructed is showing rather alarming signs of decay, to the worry of engineers and architects.

There is, of course, no danger to the monument yet, writes D. W. Kessler, bureau of standards engineer, in the American Architect, but the fact that the marble is cracking and dropping architects call it spalling, gives one to think about the material of which structures designed for the centuries should be built.

The old story of frost breaking up the stone is not taken too seriously by Mr. Kessler, although it is pointed out by Mr. Kessler, although it may have something to do with it. He looks upon the spalling marble as simply decaying and proposes no remedies. Among other things, the natural gases and acids which modern cities pour into the air are seen as an important factor in the decomposition of building stone.

There are not enough old buildings in this country for the various kinds of marble stones to have been thoroughly tested. The bureau of standards issues reports of tests under simulated weather conditions but there arises the question of whether these tests really approximate the effect of weathering on building stone.

The tremendous load strains on the stone of the Washington monument may have some part in the spalling of the edges of the stones.

"Many writers on the subject of masonry decay have been inclined to place most of the blame on frost action," writes Mr. Kessler in the American Architect, but he adds:

"Since this does not occur to slate weathering conditions, such tests of materials are not stressed, especially by frost."

Drought Cuts Spinach Crop; U. S. Kids Happy

Washington.—Little boys and girls can thank last summer's drought for one thing.

It reduced possibilities of a large spinach acreage for canning purposes this year.

The acreage of spinach intended for canning in California for 1931 is estimated at 7,027 acres, a reduction of 10 per cent below the 8,270 acreage of 1930.

In Maryland the acreage depends largely upon the market price of the crop. If favorable weather conditions prevail, the acreage used for canning purposes is expected to equal the usual acreage, or close to 1,500 acres.

Scattering His Father's Ashes Gives Him Estate

St. Louis.—Had Samuel Burke failed to scatter the ashes of his father on a creek here, his share in the estate would have been forfeited and the estate gone to the Salvation Army.

The will of Thomas F. Burke provided for the scattering and casting of the ashes on the creek. "From there my ashes many purchases grounds my son and I enjoyed hunting over together," the will said.

Burke left $1 to another son and the same amount to a daughter.

Oldest Retired Man of U. S. Army Is 98

Washington.—The oldest retired officer on the rolls of the War department is Maj. John Wesley Bean, Attleboro, Mass., who succeeded to the title upon the death of Maj. John V. Landerdale, Brooklyn.

Bean, nearing his ninety-eighth birthday, has for his nearest rival Capt. William H. Nelson, U. S. A., retired, Roan Mountain, Tenn.

Mermaid Comedy

News

SUNDAY, JULY 5

Adolph Menjou and Mary Duncan

IN

"Men Call It Love"

A dashing modern Romeo with a zippy roadster and a hot nat.

Comedy—"Hold Her Sheriff"

News

SATURDAY, JULY 11

Jack Holt and Mary Astor

IN

"White Shoulders"

Rex Beach's powerful drama of the strangest marriage ever known.

Comedy—"Don't Give Up"

News

DON MCLEOD LOSES TO LOU SAUNDERS

Don McLeod, Northville's promising midget, lost a close decision Tuesday, June 23, to the lightweight champion of Michigan, Lou Saunders at the American Legion Boxing show at Traverse City.

The torrid ten-round battle kept the customers on the edge of their seats throughout the bout and the fight was declared to be the best ever carded in Northern Michigan.

The Northville boy was the aggressor throughout, but he faced a cool champion who is ring-wise and a good socker. The Jewish little-holder incessantly tried to land a hay-making upper-cut, but McLeod usually met the blow with leather and elbows; and in the latter stages he made Saunders miss often. The Niles boy looked tired of the mixup at various stages and he hung on repeatedly. It was no love-war, for the adversaries did about everything to each other except bite and kick. The falls were frequent, but McLeod never failed to come boring in.

Saunders and McLeod have been re-matched and will fight July 16 at another American Legion show in Traverse City, and if McLeod wins he has been promised a shot at Ray Miller, one of the top-notch lightweights in the country.

The Tiger Jewelry Store will supply your jewelry wants with the most fashionable line of goods obtainable. Expert watch repairing done in quick time.

Nearly 500 Brighton rooters are coming to the Fair Grounds Sunday to see if their ball team can beat ours. Turn out strong Northville and see a good game.

Good For

ONE FIVE CENT DOUBLE CONE

For Saturday, July 4th Only

When Presented At GAFFNEY'S

2 Miles East of Novi on Grand River

M. J. KOLDYKE, Prop.

Phone Northville 106

QUALITY

ICE CREAM

MADE FROM FRESH

COUNTRY-CREAM AND

FRUIT FLAVORS.

Quarts 35c

Pints 20c

DRY ICE PACK AT

SMALL EXTRA COST

FOR PICNIC ORDERS.

5c BIG DOUBLE CONE 5c

Good For

ONE FIVE CENT DOUBLE CONE

For Saturday, July 4th Only

When Presented At

GAFFNEY'S

2 Miles East of Novi on Grand River

M. J. KOLDYKE, Prop.

Phone Northville 106

QUALITY

ICE CREAM

MADE FROM FRESH

COUNTRY-CREAM AND

FRUIT FLAVORS.

Quarts 35c

Pints 20c

DRY ICE PACK AT

SMALL EXTRA COST

FOR PICNIC ORDERS.

5c BIG DOUBLE CONE 5c

Good For

ONE FIVE CENT DOUBLE CONE

For Saturday, July 4th Only

When Presented At

GAFFNEY'S

2 Miles East of Novi on Grand River

M. J. KOLDYKE, Prop.

Phone Northville 106

QUALITY

ICE CREAM

MADE FROM FRESH

COUNTRY-CREAM AND

FRUIT FLAVORS.

Quarts 35c

Church News

Baptist Church

The first Sunday of July brings the Communion season with this church. The pastor's sermon at 10:30 a. m. will be on the theme, "Heavenly Wisdom." The doors of the church swing wide at the Communion service and those contemplating union with the church or profession of faith, by letter or on Christian experience are urged to act at this time.

The evening hour is 7:30 and at this time we will discuss "Christ's Teachings." Regarding "Property" this church begins Monday at 10:30 a. m. in the M. E. and Presbyterian churches at the latter's church house, a two weeks' intensive Daily Vacation Bible school. Your playful interest in this community project is solicited.

Methodist Church

"Be Still, and Know That I am God," is a voice we need in these days to be heard. Let us worship together next Lord's day at 10:30.

Our Sabbath school is doing wonderfully in face of the hot weather. Everybody is interested and doing or send your children for religious instruction at 12:00 noon.

Our Epworth League of young people will meet for their devotion exercises at 6:30.

No evening services during the summer months.

Our Junior choir will take a vacation during July and August. They have brightened the services with their presence in the service of song. All we ask is for them to come to the services, outside of this special way.

The daily vacation Bible school will commence next Monday at 9:00 a. m. meeting in the Presbyterian church house.

The Baptist and Methodist churches are uniting in this effort and we ask all the parents to cooperate.

First Methodist Church

The pastor, Rev. Wm. Richards, will preach at the usual hour at 9:00 in the morning. The ladies worked well in the cleaning of the church and we were glad at its pleasing appearance.

St. Paul's Lutheran

Divine service Sunday morning at the usual time, 11 o'clock in the German language. Text Rev. 2, 10. Theme of discourse, "Faithfulness Unto Death." In connection with this service the Lord's Supper will be celebrated.

Sunday school at the usual time, 10 o'clock in the church hall.

On Sunday, July 12th, our annual church and Sunday school picnic will be held at Stoepele Park, Detroit. Four Lutheran congregations will join in celebrating this occasion, namely the Lutheran churches of Stratford, Brightmoor, Redford, and Northville.

Church service will be held at the park beginning at 10:30. To reach Stoepele Park take 5 mile road to Lathrup, turn right, to Evergreen. Watch next week's edition for further particulars.

Picnic committee meeting at Holy Cross Lutheran church, Detroit, on Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the church hall.

The Ladies Aid will meet on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the church hall.

The Lutheran church of the Missouri Synod broadcasts every Sunday afternoon from 2 to 2:15 over Station WXYZ. Everybody is invited to tune in.

A hearty invitation is extended to all to worship with us.

Roberts Is Rescuer

It reads like a romance, but it is nevertheless true that our fellow townsman, Wellington Roberts, met with the remarkable coincidence of finding a man last Friday whom he had rescued from shipwreck 27 years ago. "Truth is stranger than fiction," and this is the remarkable tale told us by our local justice of peace.

Last Friday Mr. Roberts was called in his capacity as civil engineer to Oakland Memorial park where a number of men were employed under his direction. Among the number was a man named McGregor, bright and unusually interested in his work. At the close of the day's work he said to Mr. Roberts, "In case you have more work I'll be glad to serve you. I've used to all kinds of jobs—I've spent several years as mate on a sailing vessel." Roberts himself, having sailed four years on the Great Lakes in U. S. Lake survey, immediately felt a sense of comradeship in adventure with his new friend. "What boat were you on?" he asked. "On the Frank Siegel," replied McGregor. "Why that's remarkable," that vessel sank in the west end of Lake Erie in 1903 or 1904," agreed McGregor. "It did."

Instantly alert, Roberts asked, "Well, how rescued you?" A crew of Gen. Williams U. S. survey boat, "Why man," exclaimed Roberts, "look you off that sinking boat! A woman was aboard the captain's wife." "Yes," agreed the survivor, "and a woman she was." "Aye," Roberts nodded, "I remember, and a true sailor for she obeyed orders implicitly."

Twenty-seven years ago the Williams survey boat was enroute from Amherstburg, Ont., to Toledo when Roberts, standing beside the captain looking out across the lake, saw a small boat struggling out of the water two or three miles away.

"Look captain! See those masts, where is the boat?" Using his glass the captain said, "Umph, the boats gone down. There are people clinging to the bro's nest and the flag of distress is flying. (In this case the flag was a red table cloth.) And I see a woman in the crew."

Instantly the big launch was ordered thrown over the side, manned by the four best oarsmen. Roberts in charge, breasting the heavy sea they passed around to the windward side of the floundering vessel and drifted to it, then seeing an open space between the wreckage they used great care not to overturn themselves. Throwing a rope, Roberts passed it through the "lathes" and holding this loosely by both ends to allow for the rise and fall of the ship he called to the crew to come down to the "crow's nest" one at a time. The woman came first. Wait till I yell "jump," said Roberts. At a time the six landed safely in the life boat where they shiveringly told the story of how the toward bulk head of the sailing vessel had given way and the rudder had loosened in its high sea if had made a pole in the stern of the boat and though the seam pups had been put to work it was found impossible to check the inflow of water and at three o'clock the crew was ordered into the rigging.

Fortunately the water at this point was only 24 feet deep so that when the vessel sank the crew was able to check the inflow of water and at three o'clock the crew was ordered into the rigging.

The violence of their motion was increased by the "boom" being struck into the turbulent waters below, still attached to the sails. McGregor volunteered to go below and cut away the boom. The captain's wife clung to him begging him to stay but finally gave him a motherly kiss and let him go and the beam was cut and his own safety with it except for the line which his mate, Dick Sims, threw to him. The rest of the night was passed more comfortably with this terrible jerking from below believed and after endless hours down broke and with arms and nerves aching, the sailors went like babies as their rescuers approached.

And through it all a romance was dreamed. Into Toledo sailed the rescuers just in time for a big fall page story to be given to the morning daily when the sailors were played up as glowing heroes.

One of the crew, Jack Dave, had been "in the dumps" for days because his best girl had shamed back his engagement ring. None of his mates could cheer him but presto! When her photo was blown as a hero before the public this frivolous young miss, hoping to bask in reflected glory, sent word to Jack that she had changed her mind and would marry him.

To the alarm of his mates, Jack disappeared for days and a dragging party was about to be organized to search for the "depressed youth" when he suddenly turned up and beamingly announced his marriage.

The tale, however, does not end. They lived happily ever after. And washing were found to be two different things and, like Gnoch Arden of old, Jack later passed his cottage unbecomely.

These and more tales were exchanged by these erstwhile tars and Wellington Roberts promises to offer later more of his varied adventures to our readers.

Look captain! See those masts, where is the boat?" Using his glass the captain said, "Umph, the boats gone down. There are people clinging to the bro's nest and the flag of distress is flying. (In this case the flag was a red table cloth.) And I see a woman in the crew."

Instantly the big launch was ordered thrown over the side, manned by the four best oarsmen. Roberts in charge, breasting the heavy sea they passed around to the windward side of the floundering vessel and drifted to it, then seeing an open space between the wreckage they used great care not to overturn themselves. Throwing a rope, Roberts passed it through the "lathes" and holding this loosely by both ends to allow for the rise and fall of the ship he called to the crew to come down to the "crow's nest" one at a time. The woman came first. Wait till I yell "jump," said Roberts. At a time the six landed safely in the life boat where they shiveringly told the story of how the toward bulk head of the sailing vessel had given way and the rudder had loosened in its high sea if had made a pole in the stern of the boat and though the seam pups had been put to work it was found impossible to check the inflow of water and at three o'clock the crew was ordered into the rigging.

Fortunately the water at this point was only 24 feet deep so that when the vessel sank the crew was able to check the inflow of water and at three o'clock the crew was ordered into the rigging.

The violence of their motion was increased by the "boom" being struck into the turbulent waters below, still attached to the sails. McGregor volunteered to go below and cut away the boom. The captain's wife clung to him begging him to stay but finally gave him a motherly kiss and let him go and the beam was cut and his own safety with it except for the line which his mate, Dick Sims, threw to him. The rest of the night was passed more comfortably with this terrible jerking from below believed and after endless hours down broke and with arms and nerves aching, the sailors went like babies as their rescuers approached.

And through it all a romance was dreamed. Into Toledo sailed the rescuers just in time for a big fall page story to be given to the morning daily when the sailors were played up as glowing heroes.

One of the crew, Jack Dave, had been "in the dumps" for days because his best girl had shamed back his engagement ring. None of his mates could cheer him but presto! When her photo was blown as a hero before the public this frivolous young miss, hoping to bask in reflected glory, sent word to Jack that she had changed her mind and would marry him.

To the alarm of his mates, Jack disappeared for days and a dragging party was about to be organized to search for the "depressed youth" when he suddenly turned up and beamingly announced his marriage.

The tale, however, does not end. They lived happily ever after. And washing were found to be two different things and, like Gnoch Arden of old, Jack later passed his cottage unbecomely.

These and more tales were exchanged by these erstwhile tars and Wellington Roberts promises to offer later more of his varied adventures to our readers.

Look captain! See those masts, where is the boat?" Using his glass the captain said, "Umph, the boats gone down. There are people clinging to the bro's nest and the flag of distress is flying. (In this case the flag was a red table cloth.) And I see a woman in the crew."

Instantly the big launch was ordered thrown over the side, manned by the four best oarsmen. Roberts in charge, breasting the heavy sea they passed around to the windward side of the floundering vessel and drifted to it, then seeing an open space between the wreckage they used great care not to overturn themselves. Throwing a rope, Roberts passed it through the "lathes" and holding this loosely by both ends to allow for the rise and fall of the ship he called to the crew to come down to the "crow's nest" one at a time. The woman came first. Wait till I yell "jump," said Roberts. At a time the six landed safely in the life boat where they shiveringly told the story of how the toward bulk head of the sailing vessel had given way and the rudder had loosened in its high sea if had made a pole in the stern of the boat and though the seam pups had been put to work it was found impossible to check the inflow of water and at three o'clock the crew was ordered into the rigging.

Fortunately the water at this point was only 24 feet deep so that when the vessel sank the crew was able to check the inflow of water and at three o'clock the crew was ordered into the rigging.

The violence of their motion was increased by the "boom" being struck into the turbulent waters below, still attached to the sails. McGregor volunteered to go below and cut away the boom. The captain's wife clung to him begging him to stay but finally gave him a motherly kiss and let him go and the beam was cut and his own safety with it except for the line which his mate, Dick Sims, threw to him. The rest of the night was passed more comfortably with this terrible jerking from below believed and after endless hours down broke and with arms and nerves aching, the sailors went like babies as their rescuers approached.

And through it all a romance was dreamed. Into Toledo sailed the rescuers just in time for a big fall page story to be given to the morning daily when the sailors were played up as glowing heroes.

One of the crew, Jack Dave, had been "in the dumps" for days because his best girl had shamed back his engagement ring. None of his mates could cheer him but presto! When her photo was blown as a hero before the public this frivolous young miss, hoping to bask in reflected glory, sent word to Jack that she had changed her mind and would marry him.

To the alarm of his mates, Jack disappeared for days and a dragging party was about to be organized to search for the "depressed youth" when he suddenly turned up and beamingly announced his marriage.

The tale, however, does not end. They lived happily ever after. And washing were found to be two different things and, like Gnoch Arden of old, Jack later passed his cottage unbecomely.

These and more tales were exchanged by these erstwhile tars and Wellington Roberts promises to offer later more of his varied adventures to our readers.

Look captain! See those masts, where is the boat?" Using his glass the captain said, "Umph, the boats gone down. There are people clinging to the bro's nest and the flag of distress is flying. (In this case the flag was a red table cloth.) And I see a woman in the crew."

Instantly the big launch was ordered thrown over the side, manned by the four best oarsmen. Roberts in charge, breasting the heavy sea they passed around to the windward side of the floundering vessel and drifted to it, then seeing an open space between the wreckage they used great care not to overturn themselves. Throwing a rope, Roberts passed it through the "lathes" and holding this loosely by both ends to allow for the rise and fall of the ship he called to the crew to come down to the "crow's nest" one at a time. The woman came first. Wait till I yell "jump," said Roberts. At a time the six landed safely in the life boat where they shiveringly told the story of how the toward bulk head of the sailing vessel had given way and the rudder had loosened in its high sea if had made a pole in the stern of the boat and though the seam pups had been put to work it was found impossible to check the inflow of water and at three o'clock the crew was ordered into the rigging.

Fortunately the water at this point was only 24 feet deep so that when the vessel sank the crew was able to check the inflow of water and at three o'clock the crew was ordered into the rigging.

The violence of their motion was increased by the "boom" being struck into the turbulent waters below, still attached to the sails. McGregor volunteered to go below and cut away the boom. The captain's wife clung to him begging him to stay but finally gave him a motherly kiss and let him go and the beam was cut and his own safety with it except for the line which his mate, Dick Sims, threw to him. The rest of the night was passed more comfortably with this terrible jerking from below believed and after endless hours down broke and with arms and nerves aching, the sailors went like babies as their rescuers approached.

And through it all a romance was dreamed. Into Toledo sailed the rescuers just in time for a big fall page story to be given to the morning daily when the sailors were played up as glowing heroes.

One of the crew, Jack Dave, had been "in the dumps" for days because his best girl had shamed back his engagement ring. None of his mates could cheer him but presto! When her photo was blown as a hero before the public this frivolous young miss, hoping to bask in reflected glory, sent word to Jack that she had changed her mind and would marry him.

To the alarm of his mates, Jack disappeared for days and a dragging party was about to be organized to search for the "depressed youth" when he suddenly turned up and beamingly announced his marriage.

The tale, however, does not end. They lived happily ever after. And washing were found to be two different things and, like Gnoch Arden of old, Jack later passed his cottage unbecomely.

These and more tales were exchanged by these erstwhile tars and Wellington Roberts promises to offer later more of his varied adventures to our readers.

Look captain! See those masts, where is the boat?" Using his glass the captain said, "Umph, the boats gone down. There are people clinging to the bro's nest and the flag of distress is flying. (In this case the flag was a red table cloth.) And I see a woman in the crew."

Instantly the big launch was ordered thrown over the side, manned by the four best oarsmen. Roberts in charge, breasting the heavy sea they passed around to the windward side of the floundering vessel and drifted to it, then seeing an open space between the wreckage they used great care not to overturn themselves. Throwing a rope, Roberts passed it through the "lathes" and holding this loosely by both ends to allow for the rise and fall of the ship he called to the crew to come down to the "crow's nest" one at a time. The woman came first. Wait till I yell "jump," said Roberts. At a time the six landed safely in the life boat where they shiveringly told the story of how the toward bulk head of the sailing vessel had given way and the rudder had loosened in its high sea if had made a pole in the stern of the boat and though the seam pups had been put to work it was found impossible to check the inflow of water and at three o'clock the crew was ordered into the rigging.

Fortunately the water at this point was only 24 feet deep so that when the vessel sank the crew was able to check the inflow of water and at three o'clock the crew was ordered into the rigging.

The violence of their motion was increased by the "boom" being struck into the turbulent waters below, still attached to the sails. McGregor volunteered to go below and cut away the boom. The captain's wife clung to him begging him to stay but finally gave him a motherly kiss and let him go and the beam was cut and his own safety with it except for the line which his mate, Dick Sims, threw to him. The rest of the night was passed more comfortably with this terrible jerking from below believed and after endless hours down broke and with arms and nerves aching, the sailors went like babies as their rescuers approached.

Every Thursday Night

Turning to our Astonishing Facts department, we find that there are no names beginning with "T" in the Northville telephone directory. It is our recommendation that something be done at once about this.

It was with something very much akin to malicious glee that we watched, from our safe indoor perch, people scurry for cover when that wind and rain storm came up last Friday.

One minute the sky was as blue as anyone could wish. The next time you looked, there was a ghastly yellow color with a deepening gray margin shutting out the light. We have never been in the vicinity of a tornado or a cyclone but from the ominous looks of that storm, which wasn't nearly as bad as the genuine article, we haven't any active curiosity.

Hard a man on the street yesterday, thrashing out problems of national interest.

What there ought to be in any community, is a free market for the farmer. A place where he could sell his produce without paying any license costs, fees or other petty taxes, which would reduce his meagre profits. If we could reduce the middle-man's profit both the general public and the farmer would benefit.

That solution has been proposed before, the only flaw being that we would soon have to open welfare houses for the "middle-men."

In a sense of the word, we're all "middle-men." No one of us absolutely "manufactures" a product. Many people have a hand in the making of any article and each deserves an honest profit for his work.

Do to date we haven't seen anyone cracking eggs on the sidewalks and raving them but we have a suspicion that someone will burst out an "ar" with an "egg-frying" complexion.

Just think of a town in which every person is busy frying eggs on the hot pavement. A campaign

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

Crashing fenders! Exploding tires! Bending bumpers! Celebration of our Glorious Fourth has gone all the way from roaring rockets to racing runabouts. If you would show your independence on the highways, see this agency about good Automobile Insurance.

to get along without them and though you may have silver and gold, summer homes and winter homes, automobiles galore, you won't be happy. Faithful friends that can be depended upon, to back you up in times of stress, are more to be desired than all the material wealth of the world. And so ends today's philosophy lesson.

P. S. I can be reached at any time of the day or night. Just stand on the corner of Main and Center, give a whoop and a holler and I'll come running.

Daily Vacation Bible School

Begins at PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH HOUSE at

9:00 a. m. Monday, July 6

Bible Church Music Missions

Expressional Work Dramatizations

Children from 5 years up. No age limit upwards.

W. ROSCOE BARBOUR, Dean

FREE TO ALL

Fireworks

EDGEWATER PARK

JULY 4th

FREE AUTO PARKING - FREE ADMISSION

Bring the Entire Family - Plenty of Picnic Places

REMEMBER: Every Wednesday is Nickel Day at Edgewater. All Rides, Slides and Shows 5c on Wednesdays, 1:00 to 6:00 p. m. Bus service from Redford.

From Dawn to Dusk

The farmer is always busy but before he thinks of himself he makes sure that his herd of cows has been taken care of and the milk they give has been kept clean and sanitary.

We pasteurize the milk for your safety and protection. We want you to feel that Nature's most nourishing product reaches you in the safest and most sanitary condition.

FOR YOUR HEALTH'S SAKE—DRINK PASTEURIZED MILK

Ask Us To Deliver

THE NORTHVILLE CREAMERY

PHONE 119-J

DON R. MILLER, Prop.

The "completely balanced" Electric Refrigerator

Find out how you can save $50 to $150 yearly with a

Westinghouse REFRIGERATOR