

WOODMAN PUT IN CHARGE OF LAPHAM BANK

Former Deputy Treasurer of State is Named as Receiver

Affairs of the Lapham State Savings bank, closed June 30 by voluntary action of the board of directors, for the protection of depositors, are now in the hands of Hoyt Woodman, former Northville boy and graduate of our high school, who for the past 23 years has been connected with the state treasurer's office at Lansing.

In circuit court at Detroit last Thursday, Judge J. A. Moylan appointed Mr. Woodman as receiver of the Lapham State Savings bank, succeeding John D. Morgan, who had been acting as temporary receiver.

The plan of the bank for the liquidation of its assets by its own committee, ratified by unanimous action of the stockholders, did not meet with the approval of the banking department for the reason that they felt it would be establishing a precedent which, with conditions as they have been, resulting in the closing of several banks—would make it a real hardship for the department to administer receiverships.

The appointment of Mr. Woodman as the receiver has met not only with the sincere and wholehearted approval of the stockholders, but with that of all who have known him through the years and respected him for his ability and high character.

Hoyt Woodman, when a boy of six years of age, moved here with his parents, went to grade school here and graduated from the Northville high school in the class of 1903. For the past 23 years he has been connected with the state treasurer's office, so he is eminently well qualified for his present financial post. He is highly esteemed by all who know him. Northville people feel that his appointment is exceedingly fortunate.

Mr. Woodman has maintained his residence here for the past 23 years and always came back to Northville to vote.

Asked for a statement, Mr. Woodman said to The Record:

"Although I regret keenly the reason for my coming back, after 30 years' absence I am glad to be here in Northville. I am more than pleased with the friendly way I have been received, not only by old friends but also by all whom I have met. I have been touched by the willingness of everyone to co-operate in every way possible.

"I wish I might say definitely just how soon a dividend can be declared but this is impossible at this time. I can only say that the assets of the bank will be liquidated in the shortest time possible and with the least expense. Mr. Lapham has very kindly consented to stay with me and assist in every way possible and I feel that his services will be invaluable at this time. With conditions as they are at this time, it is going to be difficult and slow to settle up affairs of the bank but it seems to be the general feeling throughout the country that we are now on the up-grade and we must all be patient and work together. In the end I am sure we shall all be satisfied."

MRS. NEAL WILL MANAGE BABY SHOW

Mrs. Bertha Neal is to have charge of the Baby Show at the Northville Wayne County Fair this year. This is Mrs. Neal's first year as an official of the Baby Show, and the co-operation of everyone will be greatly appreciated by her.

WALLED LAKE PARTY CAUSES ARREST OF 44

Forty-four persons, including 12 girls, pleaded guilty in municipal court at Pontiac Monday to disorderly conduct as the aftermath to a party at a cottage on East Lake Drive, Walled Lake, early Sunday morning. All were sentenced to pay fines of $7.50 or serve three days in jail. Fines were paid by 26.

A squad of deputies made the arrests after having warned the merry-makers to be quiet. An hour later, on complaint of neighbors, they returned and found a six-piece orchestra and a barrel of beer providing the inspiration for the party which neighbors could be heard a half mile away. A bus and four automobiles were used to take the prisoners to jail.

THOUSANDS OF VISITORS MAKE MERRY AT THE BIG TWILIGHT HUMMER HERE

Band Concert, Ball Game and Horse Races
Attract Throngs and Center Street
Is Packed for Dance

What a terrific punch in the solar plexus Old Man Depression received last Thursday night when nearly 6000 people gathered in Northville for the Twilight Hummer.

This was a free celebration given by the City of Northville for Northville and neighboring towns, a program which lasted from 5:30 in the afternoon to midnight. With a night that was ideal in every respect, even to the extraordinary orderliness of the throng that came here for the free "treat," the evening proved to be one of the best that has ever been staged in this city.

Town Is Wide Open
Northville smiles broadly at the remarkable achievement of treating a crowd of several thousand persons and putting it over in such grand style. And although the town was "wide open" there was only clean, orderly fun during the six or more hours that the Hummer lasted. Chief of Police Safford declared that he and his five officers found it was "extraordinarily orderly" and that with such a decent crowd they would not mind having another Hummer in the near future.

The races started off in the spirit of the evening between two horses if such they could be called, who competed for a very doubtful prize of $500 and with the second prize the delectable reward of a bag of peanuts. This race was won by Joe Direct driven by Decamp, with Lady Seymour driven by Markham coming in second.

The second race was the 2 1/2 mile which was won by Queen Pluto driven by M. DuPaul. The next race was the 2 1/2 mile in which Miss Helen Carter, driven by the sixty-year-old veteran of the track, William Hattenbury, came in first. In the free-for-all, Rammer Payne, driven by George Rattenbury, son of W. Rattenbury, won by running the mile in 2:15, the fastest heat on the program. Incidentally the second fastest heat was run by Miss Helen Carter in 2:25.

The official starter of the races was Heamon Hamilton, and the judges were Marvin Sloan, Fred Van Atta and Dr. H. H. Burkart.

Dancers Are Many
A carnival spirit prevailed at the scene of the street dance which took place on Center street, beginning about 9 o'clock and continuing almost to midnight. The area where the street had been roped off to accommodate the dancers and spectators was literally packed with people.

The quot pitching contest under the direction of John K. Nelson, assisted by Don P. Yerkes, Sr., proved to be a very exciting sport, and particular praise went to the two young men, Bobbie Hitt and Arthur Millard, the latter having won the prize.

Four towns competed. Romulus came four strong under the able tutoring of Mr. Johnson, an old master-fighter with many years of experience with the quots.

Plymouth came along with four fine pitchers. Newburg also had four men while Northville was ably represented by four men, Don P. Yerkes and Harley Cole being one.

"The Spirit of Northville," Manned by Joe Spagnuolo and Crew, Appears in Town

By A. L. ANDERSON

Did you know that automobiles are manufactured right here in Northville? Neither did this reporter until he stumbled on a home made product slowly emerging from the alley next-door to The Record office.

Yes, there was an automobile, big as life, and helping it along were a whole staff of motor mechanics and auto magnates. Seated in the front (and only) seat was the manufacturer, Joe Spagnuolo himself, ten year old son of Jim Spagnuolo, local merchant. Proudly Joe gripped the wheel of his recently made motor (less) vehicle as the group of interested colleagues followed him to see that everything was right. They were his brother, Pete, Jim Reed and Tom Martino, all aged 10, Junior McIntyre aged 12 and little Steve Folino, aged 5.

The ingenious vehicle if such it may be called, might well be titled the Pride of Northville, although the boys are satisfied to call it a truck. Apparently it costs but little to build, for all the industrial boys required could be had in the back yard of any local merchant. There was the body, which lacked somewhat the grace of a body

Loan and Building Ass'n

At the annual meeting of the Northville Loan and Building association on Friday, July 31, two new directors were added to the company. They are Miss Jessie Roe and Nicholas Nevison. All officers were re-elected.

The Northville Loan and Building association has proved to be of great advantage to the home owners of Northville. For forty years, this small business concern has assisted the man of small funds to build a home of his own. Many of the homes in Northville at the present time have been built through funds loaned by this association.

Spencer Clark is president and A. K. Dolph is vice president of the Loan and Building association. The secretary is Irvin E. Van Atta and the treasurer is Chas. Dolph. Directors are: John McCully, Roy G. Clark, Carl Schoutz, Marion Johnston, T. R. Carrington, C. M. Frey, A. W. Farmer, Jessie Roe and Nicholas Nevison.

The Northville Loan and Building association was started forty years ago by Rev. William T. Jaquess, Presbyterian pastor in Northville. Rev. Jaquess left here 39 years ago and now resides in Detroit.

354 ENTRIES FOR POULTRY EXHIBIT

The Poultry exhibit at the fair this year promises to be the largest and best in its history. At this early date entries in the Rabbit, Caviar and Pigeon Departments are filled and in the Poultry Department 354 entries have been received. Exhibitors are showing a greater interest in Poultry this year than former years as entries show a higher class of birds; among the entries are several of imported stock and others from some of the best breeders in this country.

This year the show will feature a Bantam village and it is expected that every breeder of high class Bantams will display a few of his choice ones. Good prizes will be offered for these little pets.

In the regular poultry class silver cups will be given for the best cock, best hen, best cockerel and best pullet. In the Bantam class silver cups will be given for the best cock, best hen, best cockerel and best pullet. In the poultry class grand champion ribbons will be given for the best cock, best hen, best cockerel and best pullet. In the Bantam class grand champion ribbons will be given for the best cock, best hen, best cockerel and best pullet.

150 HORSES ARE ALREADY ENTERED FOR THE BIG FAIR

Increased interest is being shown in the Northville Horse Show to be held at the Northville Wayne County Fair. Nearly 150 horses have been entered thus far.

The ring is in excellent condition and the green turf will provide an exceptionally fine footing for the horses. The white show ring with its gay umbrella covered boxes will make an inspiring picture.

Members of the show committee are: Harry Clark, superintendent; Russell Walker, secretary; P. H. Grennan, Mrs. William Rayle, Brown, Stirling, Eaton, Dr. Howard H. Burkart, Albert Holmes, E. W. Richards, Chas. H. Newkirk and Mrs. Howard Whipple.

HENRY FORDS VISIT AT THE DAVIS HOME

Henry Ford, accompanied by his wife, spent a pleasant evening Wednesday at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davis east of town. The occasion of this visit was to bid farewell to Mr. Ford's cousin, Mrs. Thomas Carance, the mother of Mrs. Davis, who with Mr. Carance, has been spending the summer at the Davis home. Mr. and Mrs. Carance left yesterday for their home in Los Angeles, Calif. stopping enroute for visits in Portland, Me., and at Lake Umbagog, Canada.

It is interesting to know that off guard Henry Ford acts like the rest of us. With his customary alacrity he greeted his years and leaped like a boy up the Davis steps several at a time and revelled in a good romp with the three Davis youngsters of whom he is very fond. Glad to know "a man's a man for a that."

ANOTHER STREET DANCE AUGUST 8

Northville is to have a big free street dance tomorrow night (Saturday, August 8) and a large crowd from neighboring towns is expected to attend. The Montgomery orchestra will again furnish the music. To ensure greater ease of dancing on the pavement more corn meal will be spread than on the night of the last dance. Both old time and modern dances will be encouraged.

FOUR TICKETS FOR DOLLAR IS THE PLAN ANNOUNCED BY THE NORTHVILLE FAIR

Price of Grandstand Tickets Is Also Reduced
By Board from 50 Cents to 35 Cents
At Meeting Wednesday

If the Northville Wayne County Fair is not a tremendous success this year it will certainly not be the fault of the hard-working, aspiring group of men and women who have charge of its numerous departments.

Day in and day out these energetic people are striving and planning to make the Fifteenth Annual Fair one that will long be remembered by those who attend it. Undaunted by unfavorable conditions which have prevailed during the past year, they intend to gather together everything that will constitute a memorable fair, and to present to the public from August 25th to the 29th an event that will not only live up to its past reputation but will if humanly possible, surpass all previous efforts.

That the fair board is doing everything in its power to make things easier for the "depression" public, so that they can enjoy the fair with as little expense as possible is to be seen in the action of the board in its meeting on Wednesday night when they lowered the grandstand price of admission from 50 cents to 35 cents. Another action of the board was to announce the immediate sale of 4 tickets for one dollar, thus making an appreciable saving to those who purchase several tickets. Tickets are on sale at all the leading business places in Northville or can be obtained from F. A. Norfrop, secretary.

Work is rapidly progressing on the new stalls which have been erected at the southeastern end of the grounds. The Horse Show committee is supervising the painting of the newly built stalls, and everything will be in readiness on the opening day. It will be remembered that the old buildings were razed to make way for the construction of the new road leading from the Six-Mile road, skirting the fair grounds and cutting across to the Fish Hatchery road.

Entries for all the exhibits, contests and concessions are being received daily by the Fair Committee in charge of the various departments. All free attractions have been booked and these promise to be up to par.

In order to insure a clear fair this year, a severe examination is being made of all applications for all concessions. Only amusements of a clean and respectable nature will be permitted to operate on the grounds.

The race program is particularly attractive this year. Unlike many other fairs which have decided to stand pat on the attractive prizes given in former years, this can only act as an incentive to horse owners to enter their best steeds as they always have done. The Horse Show and Poultry exhibit always a splendid feature at the fair, will live up to its high reputation, according to those who sponsor these events.

Judge Murphy was one of the finest judges that ever sat on the bench of the Wayne county circuit court. He died at the National Military Hospital at Dayton, Ohio, July 29. When I worked in the courts of Detroit as sheriff under George Walters, I got to know Judge Murphy quite intimately. I found him to be a Christian gentleman, always trying to give somebody a sympathetic feeling toward anyone in trouble.

In court he was always mild and dignified, said Chief Safford. "But when he left the bench he became as affable a gentleman. On one occasion he spoke of the splendid orchards around Northville. I feel that Michigan has lost one of its finest gems," said Chief Safford.

Maybury Sanatorium Patients Enjoy Concert By the Northville Community Band on Saturday

Not only does the Northville band play for civic affairs but also contributes its grateful service to others. Last Saturday this band went out to the Maybury sanatorium and cheered the 810 patients there with their music.

As many patients as could walk assembled in the infirmary court where the band played for them and those in the open porches. No beds were able to listen to the music. A fine program of varied numbers was rendered which was received with hearty applause.

After this program the band made its way to the various wards and serenaded those who were unable to leave their beds. Refreshing cold drinks were served and the band as a small expression of the appreciation of their treatment of the appreciation of their treatment of the patients of the sanatorium, Elma L. Ahola, as follows:

The patients of the William H. Maybury Sanatorium take this means of expressing their sincere appreciation for the fine concert so kindly given by the Northville Community band. We are very grateful to Mr. Lyke for bringing the band out and to

DETROIT CITY OFFICIALS SEE PRISON FARM

Mayor F. J. Murphy and the Council Inspect House of Correction

Mayor Frank J. Murphy and members of the city council of Detroit inspected the new prison farm of the Detroit House of Correction, southwest of Northville, Wednesday afternoon. Buildings in the men's division have recently been completed although considerable work is yet to be done on the grounds.

Prior to the inspection the Detroit officials and newspaper representatives were guests of Capt. Edward Demmon, superintendent and Commissioners Wm. Friedman, Jean B. Chamberlain, Walter G. Toepel and John J. O'Hara at an informal luncheon served at 1:30 in the officers' dining room.

Last week the commission threatened for a time to invite the mayor to a "tail cafeteria lunch" with prisoners' grub in the prisoners' dining room. Instead, he and twenty others lunched in the officers' dining room and were served by men-at-arms for crimes ranging from larceny and drunkenness to counterfeiting and larceny.

Short talks were given by Mr. Friedman, chairman of the board of commissioners, and Mayor Murphy in which they set forth some of the principles that are guiding the House of Correction, authorities in open work with the men and women sent to this institution. Most of them are short term inmates. There are 1,100 men and women now confined there.

"We believe in kindness and decent treatment, without coddling," said Mr. Friedman in a short talk before presenting Mayor Murphy. "We have no walls here, not even a fence and further we have no lock-step no stripes and no beatings. Part of the inmates are confined in the cell blocks and others are housed in 16 dormitories, explained Mr. Friedman, as he told in detail of the struggles of years before the institution was finally moved from its old location in Detroit. Here conditions had become deplorable with terrible hazards. The new buildings at the prison farm will make it possible to carry out the newer methods of penology which seek not vengeance but a reformation of men to send them out to become better members of society.

"We have made two mistakes in our treatment of crime, said Mayor Murphy. First we have set up punishment as the way to stop crime and have relied on this idea of vengeance to make society better. Then we have had too many panaceas for crime and have become faddists and then have run amok."

"We must fight crime along all fronts," said Mayor Murphy as he stated that the annual cost of crime in Michigan is $25,000,000. "Our first duty is to educate the public. The new methods of penology as which vengeance will be replaced by more scientific methods of lessening crime."

Sentencing of criminals should not be left to one judge alone, argued Mayor Murphy. He stated that he favored sentence boards, who could pass on punishment of criminals. Such boards would meet the judge and other experts on crime who would seek to find the best way to reform the criminal while seeking to meet his social adjustment to protect society.

Following the addresses Capt. Demmon and the commissioners escorted the Detroiters on a tour of inspection of the new buildings, which are low models of "kinds visits to the dining hall, the scientifically planned kitchen and refrigerating plant—where the temperature was 27 degrees as compared to 80 plus outside—the dormitories, the cell blocks and the administrative offices brought out a vast amount of information about the new institution and its modern layout. One of the company who was able to furnish much detailed knowledge to the visitors was Albert Kahn of Detroit, architect who designed the building.

The Detroit officials were much impressed by the modern plant and with the scientific care which is being used in the care of the inmates.

SMALL COLLEGE FRUIT

Did you notice that the Chicago federal judge who refused to "dicker" with the gang leader, Capone, is a graduate of De Pauw university, a "small college" of Indiana? This country should be grateful for these small institutions that hold to ideals of service and public trust and send out graduates to all corners of the world to spread the leaven of idealism. It is not always necessary to be large to be great.

"THE WORST IS OVER"

"Your guess about business is just as good as Roger Babson's," said someone to us the other day.

So we have talked to a lot of traveling men, some bankers out in the state, some "big shots" in business and they agree pretty much that the "worst is over."

So we'll go on record as saying that business conditions will be measurably better within six months and that a year from now the situation will be very much better than now.

Now what do you say? Another thing: We wouldn't be surprised if the movement of Michigan crops and fruits this fall would put the farmers in better shape.

READY FOR BATTLE

Heard Governor Wilbur M. Brucker out at Salem the other evening and as twice before, we were impressed with his sincerity and burning zeal to be of service to his state.

And we thought this: The critics say the governor will have a fight for re-nomination in 1932; well if they want to battle him, he will be ready.

The youthful governor is eager and alert to give account of his stewardship. He is a good campaigner and his opponents will be in for a good fight. We asked one of our good American Legion friends: "What fault do they find with the governor anyway?" This is what he answered: "Well he hasn't made enough mistakes to suit them; that's why they are after him. He doesn't suit the politicians."

A year from now we shall be hearing more about it. In the meantime the clean-cut governor is taking pretty good care of himself. A lot of folks will reserve judgment on him until he has had more chance to do something.

COMMUTING TO DETROIT

Pontiac and Birmingham rejoice because they get commuter service to Detroit over the Grand Trunk's eight million-dollar right-of-way.

It may be looking ahead a good many years, but will the time come when Northville people can commute into Detroit? Here we have an ideal residence community and if people could have a direct line into the big city there would be a great growth in this area.

One thing is sure. The automobile traffic out Grand River avenue, the main artery of outlet to this northwest section, is getting so congested that it is hard to imagine what the situation will be in a few years. We shall have to find new highways, build an upper floor over the present one or else get a commuting line into Detroit. We came out of the city just a few evenings ago, driving alone out Grand River, and if there is any more nerve wracking experience for a city driver we haven't seen it—and we've driven in several of our biggest cities. With Detroit's auto fatalities reaching a staggering total, the time will come when some of this frenzied traffic will have to be slowed down. The time may also come when there will have to be commuting to take care of the thousands that want to get into the heart of Detroit—and then get out of it again in safety when afternoon and evening come.

So it probably sounds foolish but we ask again: Will Northville ever commute into Detroit?

"THE TWILIGHT HUMMER"

The whole community—and a lot of folks from other places—are grateful to the Northville mayor and the village commissioners, Harry S. German, Dr. H. H. Burkart, Ross B. Dusenbury, George E. Hicks, Dr. L. W. Snow and Merrill S. Sweet, for staging that unique event, the "Twilight Hummer."

It was a spontaneous community event that went like wildfire. Folks were hungry for a good "get-together."

It is good for a town to get the reputation of being a friendly place and one that welcomes the outsiders. From the great host that came from miles around, it must be that they feel that Northville is a good town to visit and a good place to linger for a little time while one forgets troubles.

Our village commission showed real leadership and snappy initiative when they put over this community affair with such great success. The cost was very little, compared with the good time that was spread over thousands of folks.

The co-operation of the other village officials, Chief Wm. Safford, Street Commissioner Earl Montgomery, Officer R. M. Pickell and Night Watch Wm. Wain, was also splendid and they came in for a good share of the community thanks.

Northville is on the map as the "friendly town." That is good for any town.

And as far as we know it is the first place to make the twilight "hum." Let's have a breakfast party some morning and see what the mayor and his commissioners can do at dawn.

Incidentally, The Record has a little scheme for another community event which we may divulge at the right time.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

How do you behave at home?

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

SHOOTING AT BOOTLEGGERS

(Al. H. Webber in Cheboygan Observer)

If Detroit people would show as much concern over the killing of a police or federal officer as they do when an officer takes a shot at a liquor runner or hi-jacker, law enforcement would be more a reality down there, but the wets and that includes a lot of people in high places, make an awful howl every time a police or federal officer takes a shot at a river booze runner, cause who knows, it may be their favorite bootlegger.

THE WEATHER

(Larry Towle in Jonesville Independent)

The cooler weather that followed the blistering days of last week was more than welcome.

Hot weather makes us lazy and we were dreaming too much of fishing and auto trips for the good of our soul and our job. Then along came the cooler days and all was true again.

All of which reminds us of the remark James J. Hill once made: The Empire Builder came of that race of giants who dreamed and then made America's railroads. Such men occasionally used that most expressive of tongue, plain American. If our readers will pardon the exact quotation, we'll give it: Said Jim Hill:

"I wouldn't give a damn for a country where the snow never falls."

AVIATION AND PROSPERITY

(The Dearborn Press)

Automobile production, some economic experts contend, rules the prosperity of our country. Overproduction of cars, with a near-saturation point in the market has had considerable to do with present depression.

But a new industry, an infant now, but destined to become a giant within the next decade, probably will rule the business cycle of our country in the near future. That industry is aviation.

We can trace the beginning of the present back through 1930. The previous year set an all-time record in auto production, with an output of 5,700,000 motor vehicles. In 1930 this figure was cut by more than two million.

Steel mills, in the peak of production in 1929, suddenly found their orders cut off. Rubber factories, glass manufacturers, upholsterers, lumber mills, railroads and other industries, depending to some extent on the automobile business for their orders, were in the same situation. No wonder the country suffered.

There'll come a day, aviation leaders say, when these industries will look to airplane manufacturers for huge orders. Then they contend, the country will have two mighty factors in regulating the demand for raw materials and steady the rocking boat of prosperity.

FOUR-YEAR TERM

(By Fred D. Keister in Indian County News)

Governor Wilbur M. Brucker will be elected Chief Waukegan-Bene-See of the Ottawas at Petoskey on August 14th. Miss Ella Petoskey, full-blooded princess of the tribe will crown the governor with the ancient feather head-dress of the Ottawa chiefs. Judging from the number of tomahawks the boys are uncaring around the state the governor needs to do something of this sort if he expects to keep from getting scalped at the 1932 session. It certainly takes a lot of courage these days to be governor of Michigan, with almost everybody beating tom toms and starting signal fires on the hills. No governor in recent years has succeeded in escaping a second-term scrap, so ambitious are the odds to become "us. What we need is one four-year term and a whole lot of this monkey business would be thrown into the scrap heap where it belongs.

WEARING YOUR RELIGION

"From the pen of Muri H. DeFoe, Charlotte editor, we present some plain and honest comments upon the all-important subject of one's religious convictions." Says Editor DeFoe.

Religion is a relative experience. It serves and satisfies according to the makeup of the individual. A stung and envious person misses it entirely. These attributes preclude a Christian consciousness. Church membership is essential, but by no means final. The Monday attitude is a much more important test. Prof. William Lyon Phelps, the Yale savant preaching at his summer home pulpit at Huron City, likened love to the burning bush, out of which God spoke to Moses, and urged his audience to apply the principle of love to everything. "We can never go wrong if we love God and our fellowmen," he said. "Love is never consumed but the more it is applied the greater it becomes." The love of God is inexhaustible. Religion is also like the burning bush in that the more you use it the more you have. Religion gives us light and inspiration from God, just as the sun gives us light and heat from the sky.

Prof. Phelps spoke of the fine literature given to the world by the Jews. Most of the Bible was written by them and they kept alive the idea of one spiritual God while other nations had many gods. "We owe much to the Jews," he said. He warned against prejudice in our attitude toward the Jews. "Prejudice is the sign of a small and ignorant mind," he declared. Most religions are founded on fear but the Christian religion is based on love.

HOMEMAKER'S CORNER

BY MRS. EDITOR

FUN FOR THE COMMUNITY PICNIC

This is the time of year when picnics and family reunions are ripe. Here are a few suggestions from someone who knows what to do to keep the spirit of fun going when the feast is over and folks crave some fun.

Lobster Race for Men—On all fours race backward.

Button Sewing Contest for Men—Thread needles and sew on certain number of buttons.

Nail Hammering Contest for Women—Drive a certain number of nails. A miss is a foul.

Knot tying or knot untying contest.

Newspaper Race—Give each contestant two newspapers, one for each foot. He must step only on newspapers, lifting the paper after each step and putting it down for the next step.

Sack Race—Run for a goal with a gunny sack drawn over feet.

Obstacle Relay Race—Have two groups of about three couples each. For each side have an umbrella and suitcase containing a man's old hat tie and coat and corresponding clothing for woman.

At a signal each couple opens suitcase, dons clothing, raises umbrella, races to and from a certain spot, deposits clothing as found in suitcase and delivers to the next couple who follows the same process. The side wins whose last couple completes the race first.

Potato Relay Race—Choose sides. Give each side a potato and spoon. The potato must be passed on the spoon without touching it with the hands. Race to goal and back, hand to next in line, who does the same thing. The first side to finish wins.

For small children, the Bran or Bean Bag Race—Choose sides, at head of each pile bean bags. The contest is to see which side can most quickly pick up, pass down the line and drop at other end all the bags. Side winning makes five points. Pass back the same way. Twenty-five is the winning score.

Other games are Drop the Handkerchief, Farmer in the Dell, Fast Couple Out, Pussy Wants a Corner, Quilts, Horseshoe, Base Ball, Hoop jumping and Tag of War.

THE GIFT OF GOOD CHEER

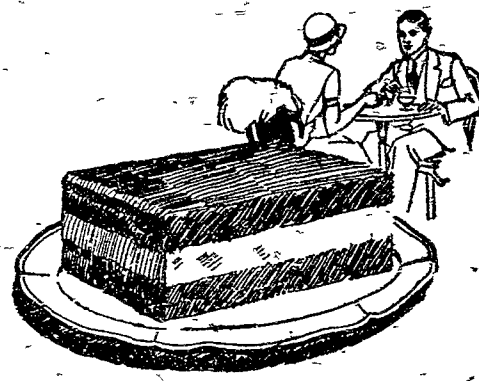

"No, I haven't a single talent," said a Northville woman to us the other day. "I love music but I can't make it. No, I can't do anything smart."

It was a scorching hot day and we had paused in response to a cheery greeting for a chat by the shady porch where this motherly friend sat reading. She laughed and said some more cheery words and we went on our way up the hill back to the "weary grand" and wasn't it strange, the sun did not seem to beat down quite so unbearable.

HE WON'T BE LONESOME While a local physician was dressing a burn for a patient the other day he said facetiously (to take the man's mind off the pain) "Well, now you'll know what it will be like." The man promptly returned the compliment, "Well, there will be plenty of doctors there to take care of me."

SHE NEEDED IT History Lecturer: "Can any of you tell me what makes the Tower of Pisa lean?" Corpulent Lady: "I don't know, or I'd take some myself."

Agreed Pilot (to passenger, after very daring nose-dive): "I'll bet 50 per cent of the people down there thought we were going to crash!" Passenger: "50 per cent of the people up here did, too!"

Milk must be handled with extreme care if it is to be kept as clean as it came from the udder of a cow.

Whether the transportation is over long distances or the short route of the milkman, it must be given careful consideration.

FANATICS STIR UP PHILIPPINES

Leaders Take Advantage of Zeal and Superstition of Religious Sect

Manila, P. I.—The recent battle in the island of Luzon, Philippines, between several hundred religious fanatics known as Calorums and an armed force of the Philippine constabulary caused little surprise to persons familiar with conditions in the archipelago. The Calorums, who derive their name from the Latin words "saecula saeculorum," with which many prayers conclude, have been active throughout the islands for many years, and the leadership of self-styled "papas" or popes, who find it easy to take advantage of their zeal and superstition.

In the troublesome islands of Samar and Leyte, southeast of Luzon, the Calorums are generally called "Pulanes" (pronounced "pullehans"), and in other localities they may, from time to time, assume other designations. But whatever their name, they believe they are true Christians, and their faith is so strong that they think themselves immune to the bullets of their enemies.

Forty-three distinct tribes.

To deal with them is often difficult, partly because of geographical reasons. Adequate policing is almost impossible in an archipelago of more than 7,000 islands, some of which are almost as large as New York state and others mere barren rocks jutting out of the sea.

Large areas are jungle and mountainous—almost inaccessible to a punitive expedition—and always fraught with the danger of ambush.

Forty-three distinct tribes, speaking nearly one hundred dialects, inhabit the group, they range in importance from the Visayans, numbering about 100,000, to the lowest of the Negritos, and others dwelling either in the swamps or high up in the mountains.

American administrators have encountered trouble from various tribes of the island of Luzon.

In the island of Leyte, of the Pulana branch of the Calorums once kept nearly a brigade of United States troops constantly on the march for ten months. These fanatics were not necessarily at war with American soldiers or with the native police. Armed with bolos and spears, they would swoop down on a defenseless barrio, plunder and murder, and then take to the trackless mountains.

Alive and Fighting.

The Calorums believe in immunity to bodily danger as well illustrated during that campaign. The priests gave them certain charms called "antingantings." These were usually cut out of white paper in strange shapes and sprinkled with incense, swastikas, or other designs. In battle one anting-anting was worn over the heart and another pasted over the forehead. Priests wounded and taken prisoner were shown the charms and the dead comrades, but even such evidence was insufficient to shake their faith in the word of Papa Faustino, their "pope."

"Our brothers are dead in Leyte," said one prisoner, "but alive and fighting in Samar."

Perhaps the most famous of all the Calorums activities, was that which had its headquarters at Surigao about five years ago. Priests who appeared in the barter-stalls preached that a great war would begin at Surigao, sweep over the islands, and then over the whole world. Furious fighters were coming to Surigao from all over the islands, the priests said, and every government official, regardless of race, was to be slaughtered. After this massacre the immortal Jose Rizal—the George Washington and Simon Bolivar of the Philippines, who was executed by the Spaniards before America took over the islands—would rise from the dead and make his headquarters on a small island off the coast of Surigao. From there a Rizal ark would take the victors to the large island of Cebu, where they would dwell forever without molestation while a plague would depopulate the rest of the world.

The "Difficult" Tribesmen.

The natives believed the prophecy. They slaved and saved and sold and turned all the profits into the coffers of the priests and leaders. When authorities sent an armed force to break up the scheme severe fighting followed and a number of lives were lost.

The general belief that the Moros, the Mohammedans of the southern islands of the Philippine group, are the most difficult tribesmen to deal with is not entirely warranted. True, they are harder warriors, more courageous and intelligent than the other so-called "wild tribes." But the Moros are becoming educated, while it is next to impossible to go into the jungles and mountains and carry civilization influences among the more remote tribes.

Much of the bad name associated with the Moros is due to their custom known as "juramentado." A Moro gone "juramentado" is a Moro who has sworn to die killing male Christians and sending their souls to hell. Christian women are in no danger, because in the Moro faith a woman has no soul.

Head Hunting Negligible.

The story is still told in Moroland that in the early days of American occupation, when "juramentados" were running amok all too frequently, an American gunboat did a little "juramentado" of its own by shelling several offending villages. When the sultan or headsman complained, he was told that there was no way to prevent a boat going "juramentado" any more than the tribal authorities could prevent some of their own people from doing it. The quick thinking Moro

Senator Vandenberg To Speak

Residents of this community will have an opportunity to hear U. S. Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Grand Rapids on Saturday, August 8, when he will be the evening speaker at the annual mid-summer celebration of the 22nd Ward (Detroit) Republican Club in Edgewater Park, Seven Mile road near Grand River, Detroit.

Legion Notes

(By Leslie Alexander in The American Legion News)

Just home after enjoying the week-end hospitality of Comrade Merrill Sweet and wife at their summer cottage. That boy has some sassy fish on his fish farm and although we did not catch over our limit, we were treated with some healthy spray caused by the brutes jumping at and from us.

The National Convention is drawing nearer to us every day. Have you ordered your uniform yet? Are you appointed on a committee and are you working on it? Are you ready and willing to do your bit when you are asked? Be ready.

I need the rest. Your next regular meeting is on Tuesday evening August 11, and final plans for the Northville fair activities will be laid at that time. Double-up your shoulder and give a push.

If You Were Ill

Would you not be pleased to receive a lovely bouquet of fresh, sweet-smelling flowers, or a plant containing a beautiful blossom? Your friend is ill. Why not send him the kind of gift that will cheer him through the long, lonesome hours which he must spend in bed. A daily bouquet would be just the thing to help him get back to health.

EAST NOVI SCHOOL REUNION DRAWS 80

The eighth annual reunion of the East Novi school was held on Saturday, August 1, at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. James Lapham on the town line.

The wooden school building which housed four or more generations of pupils in this district was torn down about two years ago. It stood on the north side of the Grand River road, one and one-half miles east of Novi, near the Washington West farm.

Every year former patrons, pupils, teachers and friends gather to renew acquaintances and relive the days of yesterday. This year there were more than eighty present from Grand Rapids, Detroit, Pontiac, Ypsilanti, Plymouth, Northville and Farmington.

Three former teachers were present. Mrs. Edna Banks-Bogart of Pontiac, Mrs. Margaret West-Dawson of Ypsilanti and Frank Lamb of Grand Rapids. Mr. Lamb taught the school more than forty years ago and nine of his pupils were present at the reunion.

The oldest patron of the school present was Mrs. John Becker of Pontiac and the oldest guest was David Gage of Northville who is nearly ninety-two years old. Mr. Gage, at one time, was school inspector for this school.

Miss Lulu Becker and Mrs. Edna Banks-Bogart, both of Pontiac, were re-elected president and secretary respectively. The company gladly accepted the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Lapham to meet with them again next year for the reunion on the first Saturday in August.

HOME-NUTRITION CLASS WILL EXHIBIT AT FAIR

On account of the extremely warm weather a small attendance took advantage of the Nutrition class held in the domestic science room of the high school Tuesday afternoon. The lesson on "Computing-Calories" was most profitable and the only regret is that more homekeepers were not able to receive the valuable instruction in food values.

It has been decided that the Home-Economic classes of the county will furnish an exhibit at the Northville fair when each class will have its own project. Northville's class will have on exhibition the "Dietary of the Pre-school Child" when demonstrations of actual meals for young children will be shown already prepared.

WILL VISIT AT CARO

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Yerkes will spend the following week-end in Caro as guests of Editor and Mrs. A. D. Gallery.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our gratitude to the E. N. of A. the L. O. T. HAUVER EXTENDS DAIRY BUSINESS HERE AND DETROIT

Northville has another dairy industry. On July 1st E. A. Hauer ventured into the distribution of the Chaslen Farm Dairy products both in Northville and Detroit. Dairying to him is not a new field, it is a life story. With a background of farm experience and university training in agriculture he produced for several years in Maryland and Florida—a certified milk, the highest quality milk on the market.

Since coming to Michigan four years ago he has had full responsibility for the production of a quality (meaning cleanliness) milk on the thousands of farms supplying Belle Isle and Gabel-Radson creameries in Detroit. With a herd of 150 pure bred Guernseys in Maryland, he often experienced the thrill that every conscientious dairyman strives for, of receiving a report from the Baltimore health department, "no count" in the examination for bacteria, indicating nothing more could be demanded in cleanliness and purity.

Chaslen Farm Dairy products are not new to Northville residents. Not only has this dairy for several years supplied the L. A. Young Spring and Wire Works, the Chevrolet and Chrysler plants in Detroit, but it made a strong appeal here when it was distributed some time ago by one of the Northville dealers. According to one of the officials of the Detroit Board of Health it has a long record of a "consistently low bacteria count," the most important requirement of a dairy product. This reputation it is earnestly striving to maintain. The pasteurizing and bottling plant is located on Mrs. Young's farm on Six Mile road. It is under the direct and constant supervision of the Detroit Board of Health with frequent inspection of the ten farms supplying the bulk and weekly and bi-weekly bacteria counts made by the Detroit Board of Health. It is reasonable to assume the products are of a high quality.

Mr. Hauer gives the business close and individual attention making deliveries in Northville and then proceeding to Detroit where he is building a route in due of the times, sections of the city.

COUNCIL IS GRATEFUL

At the regular meeting of the council Monday night the resolution was passed to write letters of thanks to the horse owners, ball teams and others who gave their services free for the entertainment at the Twilight Summer.

AUXILIARY TO HOLD A SPECIAL MEETING

A special meeting of the Northville Auxiliary will be held at the home of Mrs. L. M. Eaton, 116 Eaton Drive, Mrs. Ada Bloom and Mrs. Mary Harper assisting as hostesses.

Clark Griswold Recalled By Northville Friends

It is always of interest to hear stories of those who have left a heritage of a good life well spent in the community. One of these is Clark Griswold who was called by all affectionately, "Uncle Clark." He was the "grand old man" of his time, many a needy person was given aid and comfort by this big-hearted man and the public never knew it.

Clark Griswold came from Vermont to Ypsilanti in 1926 when the land was uncultivated and bought for $100 the ground where the school house now stands and eighty acres adjoining. Three years later he sold this and came to Northville and settled on the place east of town where he established the home where he spent many years, until his death. One by one this man set out the row of beautiful maple trees along this road which will still be a source of pleasure to passers-by for years to come a living monument to one who loved his fellow-man.

NEVER THE TWAIN SHALL MEET

That east is still very far east and west is still very far west, that eagle must mate with eagle and peacock with peacock, that a white man is always a white man and a native always a native—that in brief is the theme of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer romance of the South Seas, "Never the Twain Shall Meet," which will show at the Penniman Allen theatre Sunday August 9.

The exotic lure of Tamea, vivid and sensual daughter of the South Sea Islands, waves its spell over Dan Richards, son of a wealthy American family. Maisie, his American fiancée, has been the guiding light of his life until the flame of passion for Tamea blinds him to the cooler and more casual ways of the girl of his own race.

Maisie is typical of her type, sure of her ground, easy of manner and free with her assumption that Dan Richards is to be hers. She takes him for granted just as she takes everything for granted.

But the strain on Dan is too much and the fires hidden from Maisie because of her coldness and sureness burst forth when he is thrown into close proximity with the little, vicious passion, flower of the Polynesian Islands. In spite of the warnings of his father and friends he lets himself be carried away by Tamea and follows her back to her South Sea Island home, where he slowly but surely falls into the sly, evil ways of the natives.

Maisie follows him to bring him back to his own kind. Then comes the clash of races, the struggle between passion and love, the proof that east is east and west is west. Leslie Howard, who made such a hit in "Outward Bound" on both stage and screen, plays Dan Richards and Constance Montenegro plays opposite Howard.

The cast also includes C. Aubrey

Smith, Karen Morley, Mitchell Lewis, Hale Hamilton, Clyde Cook, Bob Gilbert, Joan Stranding and Eulalie Jensen.

"THE PUBLIC DEFENDER"

"The Public Defender" is a public avenger, sworn to right wrong no matter what the cost.

The innocent have cause to admire him because he is a modern impersonation of Robin Hood—romantically mysterious—the thief and absconder late him—hardcorely; and the police, jealous of his activities, are after him.

This is the novel characterization portrayed by Richard Dix in his new starring vehicle, "The Public Defender," to show at the Penniman Allen theatre, Saturday, August 15.

Though the role is of a different type from the star's previous successes, "Cimarron" and "Young Donovan's Kid," Dix is again vigorously cast as a fighting, romantic man of ideals.

The film is based on the supposition that there are two kinds of laws one for the poor man and another for the rich.

To equalize this law and to prevent rich swindlers from mulcting the public, Dix assumes the character of a private enforcer of the basic law which declares all men equal under the Constitution.

He is remorseless in his solo campaign against crime.

A beautiful romance has been woven through the story in which Dix rescues a girl from the clutches of her father who has been accused of a bank crime which he did not commit.

Others in the cast of "The Public Defender" are Shirley Grey, Fummi Pratt, Alan Roscoe, Nella Walker, Ruth Weston, Boris Karloff, Paul Hurst and Edmund Breese.

The film was directed by J. Walter Ruben.

SIDELIGHTS ON BIG CELEBRATION

We all know now what is meant by a Twilight Hummer—we might add Donole to the Hummer.

Four on five thousand people enjoying themselves at the fair grounds and street dance made a good spectacle last Thursday.

The seventeen troopers and pacers that took part in the twilight race—also seemed to have a big time. George Rittenbury was the only driver that drew a prize. A bunch of sun flowers in bouquet effect tied with lavender and brown ribbon was presented to him after a fast heat in the free-for-all pace, with Ramey Payne.

And that horse shoe pitching and yet notice the crowd watching the contest? There was more interest there than was expected, and John Nelson is credited with the success of that part of the program.

The committee of the big day cannot speak too highly of the organization that the horsemen gave them in producing a racing matinee at twilight.

The West Point Parkers and the Northville Chiefs demonstrated to the public that they are two tough teams; ball teams to tackle. In fact, that good that they were unable to defeat each other and the score was left a tie. Both of these clubs will take part in the fair tournament.

The Northville High School band made everyone sit up and take notice as usual, when they poured forth volumes of music.

Chief Safford and Earl Montgomery made it possible for a few hundred dancers to smooth off their shoes and the pavement. And what a time all these dancers had, with the music furnished by the Scott Montgomery orchestra and the calling off of old fashioned dances by Louie Salow and Rob Pickett. And by the way, another free dance will be given one week from Saturday night.

What an orderly crowd of visitors during the entire program of the Twilight Hummer. And how nicely our local and added police from the House of Correction added all from mishaps and helped give everyone a good time.

The Northville village commission each wore a broad smile, when they saw the villagers and visiting guests enjoying the twilight entertainment. The commission had given this party and the guests had accepted it well.

To sum it all up, the weather was ideal, cooperation existed, all committees responded, and the big visiting crowd were well entertained and really had a "hummer" of a good time.

Advertising is the lubricant that keeps the wheels of commerce moving smoothly and without friction.

ADVERTISE, SAYS F. N. ARBAUGH, BIG BUSINESS MAN

Here is one from a Lansing man who really believes in advertising.

Frank N. Arbaugh, head of Lansing's biggest department store, told businessmen recently that the increased use of "junior" advertising will increase business despite the present depression. Speaking before the Civic Bureau, the merchant declared that sales at his store had been increased 50 per cent the last two months through more advertising.

ELECTROCHEF

Electric Range

HERE is a complete meal—broiled at one time, quickly and easily in the Electrochef oven.

Potatoes, corn and peas (left-overs from a previous meal) are arranged in an even layer in the broiler pan, and the chops are laid on the rack over them. The entire meal is then broiled at once, giving extra hours of kitchen freedom. The savory juices of the meat mingle with the nourishing vegetables achieving delicious and wholly unusual flavor—and both are perfectly cooked! Electrochef's gentle electric heat browns and thoroughly cooks the chops. There is no dry, licking flame to sear the food, as in an ordinary oven. Electrochef retains moisture in the vegetables, sealing in their natural healthful juices!

Has Your Kitchen Stove these

ELECTROCHEF Features?

1. A clean kitchen, a clean stove—no soot, no fumes. 2. Cool cooking—summer and winter. 3. Full flavor cooking—sealed in healthful food values. 4. Exact oven control—no baking disappointments.

Bigotry and prejudice are frightful monsters with the tenacity of alligators' jaws. Coming from ignorance and sometimes malice it exasperatingly lingers on. All sides have been guilty of it. Be that as it may, the spell of silly chatter that every community must suffer from is disheartening and disconcerting. Judgment that is based upon idle rumor instead of fact is UNFAIR. Ignorance can hardly be a plea when such remarks come from supposedly educated people.

Baptist Church

Every Thursday Night

By "AD" SCHWENGER

ANDY PINCH HITTING

Petoskey, Mich.

Dear Andy:
I've got loads to write about but I'm as lazy as it's possible to be. Just lying around on the beach soaking up the sun and the fresh air. Sleeping until 10 o'clock every a. m. and eating meals large enough for a ditch digger.
Would appreciate it if you came to bat and filled up a column for me.

Best regards to all,
Ad
P. S. See you next Monday—darn it.

"Ad" evidently became so engrossed in vacation vagaries that he failed to send his usual "Thursday Night" observations so we who have always found aberrations easier than anything else, take great pleasure in pinch hitting for him.

You probably remember reading in this column last week about the fight that took place in the immediate vicinity of "Ad's" Adam's Apple. (If you haven't please refer to last week's Record for same.) Anyway the gist of the story is that two dogs dug on a French-German dispute, with "Ad" the border line between them. Lying underneath the fangs and growling "Ad" the two police dogs is our idea of a doggone "hot" place to be. If the melee had lasted much longer and the dogs had got the idea that "Ad" was the whole cause of their trouble, well, it would have made a doggone good obituary.

But then that's enough for Petoskey and environs. We also have some news of local interest. Take for example that accident, if such it may be called, which occurred in the home of a certain Northville resident. It appears that 49 bottles of good home-brew had been stored for future reference. Well, the night of the Hummer, the owner (and probably manufacturer of said beverage) left his house to attend the Hummer when he returned the 49 bottles of "hokey" were gone. The story speaks for itself.

Did anybody tread on your toes the evening of the Hummer? They didn't? Golly, you must have been sitting on a flag pole or something. There were more feet in that crowd than anything else. And the worst of it is, there were two feet to the person.

And how do you like corn meal as a dance floor polish? Kind of scrapey, isn't it? The shoe repair man probably wants a street dance every week from now until snow flies.

Too bad you weren't here to engage in the festivities, "Ad". (You'll like the euphonious sound of that phrase "engage in the festivities.") Put it in your Pet Phrase Pamphlet! But anyway, a good time was had by all, including the soda fountain proprietors.

Hark! Did we hear someone suggesting a harvest festival? Fine idea. Northville needs more public entertainment.
We hate to think of all we have to answer for when "Ad" gets back. Just think what we've done to his comm. Gee whittakers will NEED a vacation when he gets through with us (him and a regiment, we mean).

SIX NOTABLES ARE IDENTIFIED

Again there was a response to the inquiry, "Who are they," made about the group of pictures appearing last week on the front page of the Northville Record.

Number 1 of the group is Spencer Clark, chief draftsman and designer at the Globe Furniture company.
Number 2 is Mrs. Dow Nagle wife of Rev. Dow Nagle of St. Clair and formerly Miss Grace Pierce, one time teacher at the Northville High school. Mrs. Pierce was formerly recognized by one of her former pupils, Chas. Floyd, who declared that she was one of the best teachers he had ever had. Mr. Floyd graduated from the Northville high school in 1916.

George Simmons, son of Fred Simmons of this community, is the person pictured in number 3 of the group. Mr. Simmons and his father operate one of the finest orchards in Michigan.

Number 4 is Charles Hamilton, supervisor of Novi township.
Number 5 is W. J. Thompson formerly president of the Northville theatre, the one which stood next to the present site of the Peninsular theatre.

Number 6 is Dr. Frank Carruthers, dentist for many years in Northville.

VISIT PHILLIPS CAMP

Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Condit, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwin Hill and daughters, Deiphi and Jean and Mrs. T. Glenn Phillips and daughter, Barbara, motored Wednesday evening to the northern part of the state where they will spend a few days at the Phillips camp north of Gaylord. Mr. Phillips is a member of the city planning commission.

MICHIGAN D. A. R. TO MARK STATE FOREST WITH BRONZE TABLET

Mrs. James H. McDonald of Ypsilanti, State Regent of Michigan, accompanied by members of her state executive board, will make a ten day motor trip by way of western Michigan and Upper Peninsula towns where chapters of the society are located, to culminate at Mackinaw and state forest near Rexton, Upper Peninsula and Mackinaw Island where bronze tablets will be unveiled August 15.

The Daughters of the American Revolution state forest of 240 acres was planted last fall and will be marked by a bronze tablet, mounted on a native boulder beside the highway.

The ceremony at Mackinaw Island is being planned by Mrs. Dwight F. Randall, Regent of the Sarah Ann Cochran chapter of the Plymouth and state chairman for the presentation of Historic Spots. This tablet represents a ship stretched to dry on a log wall, a "cendure de bois" standing on the left, a soldier on the right, a flag of arrowsheads across the bottom. The Daughters of the American Revolution insignia and following words will be on the skin, "Mackinaw Island, Michigan's most historic spot, chosen by the D. A. R. of Michigan August, 1931."

Mrs. D. P. Yerkes, who is chairman of the Sarah Ann Cochran chapter, will assist as chaplain in the ceremony at Mackinaw Island. The program at the ceremony will be as follows:
Marking of Michigan's Most Historic Spot chosen by the Daughters of the American Revolution of Michigan, Mackinaw Island, Michigan, August 15, 1931, at 3:00 o'clock.
Bugle Call.

LOG CABIN OF PIONEERS PROJECT OF WALTER WARE

Maybe you don't know it but Northville has an aboriginal "no mean ability" Walter Ware has an exhibition a small replica of a pioneer's log cabin. The tiny logs are set with plaster and the whole make-up is very realistic. The door is hung with the regulation leather and the sun hangs in the doorway. Outside is an enormous wood pile with the saw buck near by and even a cross-cut saw chiseled out of a piece of steel by the patient artist.

Chas. E. Rogers, seeing this interesting representation of the old log cabin, decided it was just the thing for a decoration for the old rock elm beamed mantel piece of his spacious recreation room at his new home north of town. Mr. Ware has been asked to make another just a bit smaller, to fit this mantle where it will be most appropriate.

Dixon Did Humming Business

On Northville "Hummer" Night Surprised beyond his highest expectations, Geo. Dixon beams as he tells us that he and his three assistants did a big business last Thursday evening in his small business place next to the Peninsular theatre when he had assistants to help him serve the thirsty throngs with his cold sodas and pop corn. Mrs. Dixon, Gordon Allen and Geo. Dixon Jr. were pressed into service to help and he believes that they missed not more than two customers.

Pastor Finds Conference A Rest and Inspiration

Rev. W. Roscoe Barbour and Mrs. Vera Horstall returned from the Pastors' School and Conference of Christian Education held under the auspices of the Michigan Baptist Convention at Kalamazoo, Mich. last Friday evening. They report a most happy and profitable time for the eleven days of the conference. Recitations took up mornings from 8:20 to 12:35. Afternoons were devoted to games such as tennis, base ball, volleyball and swimming in the near-by lakes.

There is scarcely an idle minute in the busy life of such an assembly and the result is that one goes home feeling the uplift and power of the experience. Of the various yearly gatherings of the denomination, we know of nothing quite so worthwhile as an assembly similar to that at Kalamazoo. We trust more may go next year.

THOUSANDS ENJOY TWILIGHT HUMMER

team and John K. Nelson and George Shoetbridge being the other team.

Romulus outpointed Plymouth and Northville outpointed Newburg. Mr. Nelson gave the fans a real treat by matching little Bobbie Hu and Arthur Millard, this game being a two-out-of-three 50 point game. But won the first two, the score being 51-50; Millard 47. In the first game each of these youngsters threw 16 ringers and in the second Millard threw 29 to his 28. These young masters gave the crowd a great thrill when they threw 50 ringers, out of four throws at one point of the contest.

Ball game is the hard fought game between West Point Park and the Northville Chiefs ended in a tie, the game being called off in the seventh inning because of the lateness of the hour. The first two innings of the game were pitched by Harry German, Jr. the next three by Rowland and the final two innings were pitched by Mayer German himself. The battle of the diamond set the crowd on their toes during the entire seven innings.

No event in Northville would be complete without the presence of the Northville High School band. They were at the fair grounds on Thursday producing some of the best music so far this season. Gay tunes that put the crowd in a gay frame of mind as the races and games went merrily on.
Two hundred pounds of cornmeal were strewn on the pavement earlier in the evening. That the dance was not strictly a treat for the younger generation was to be seen by the numerous older folks who took advantage of the event to display their ability to "take up their heels and dance."

The music was furnished by the Scott Montgomery orchestra, which is well known in this community. Mr. Montgomery, leader of the orchestra, is not only a talented musician but is known as a fine singer.

Madame Pinera Sings.
A surprise feature of the evening was the appearance of an internationally known concert singer, Madame Pinera, who has sung before the crowned heads of Europe and in such famous European culture centers as Berlin and Paris.

When Madame Pinera reached town Northville was giving a free entertainment she declared to her host, Fred Van Atta, well known Northville resident. "Well, then, I shall give a free concert tonight." Owing to the poor acoustics caused by the open air platform and the crowd that packed both sides of Center street the high soprano voice of Madame Pinera could not be heard at its best. Born in Greenville, Michigan Madame Pinera has risen to eminent heights in the art of singing, and is recognized not only as a singer but also as a teacher of music, having had as her pupils the grandchildren of John D. Rockefeller.

Mrs. Robert C. Yerkes will make an extended stay here with her sister, Mrs. Georgia Yerkes.

PATIENTS HEAR NORTHVILLE BAND

The band led off in the spirit of fun. Starting at the school house they marched to the center of the business district where they played a few numbers and were then followed like the "Pied Piper of Hamelin" to the fair grounds by a crowd to witness the races and ball game.
