PRESBYTERY OF DETROIT MEETS HERE

Stirring Addresses Given By Visiting Pastors on Monday

On Monday, September 21, the First Presbyterian church here was the scene of the first full meeting of the Presbytery of Detroit which was admitted by the moderator and members of the Presbytery to be a record meeting.

Only a minimum of business was transacted, allowing most of the time for spiritual contact and fellowship. The ladies of the church served a very delicious luncheon of which some 175 partook. The members of Presbytery and the Rotary listened with much pleasure and interest to a brief but pointed, encouraging and challenging talk by Dr. Benjamin Bush of Detroit at the luncheon hour.

The main speaker of the morning was Dr. Roy F. Vale of Woodward Avenue Presbyterian church, Detroit. Dr. Vale is an outstanding scholar and speaker widely conversant with facts and human nature and capable and persuasive in logic. Having a few years' experience in the teaching of American history in the University, he outlined in brief the major depressions and panics in America since the dawn of the last century, purposefully stressing the causes, durations and results. In the main, making allowances for differences in detail the causes were quite similar and compared to a very large extent with the causes of the present depression. They differed in duration, extending from two to six and a half years, depending upon complicating elements with much attendant hardship and want.

The results in the main were identical, gradual recovery, confidence and in every case a revival of religious conviction and practice.

Outlook Is Hopeful

There was no note of despair, in evidence throughout, but a simple facing of facts showing that this so far, at any rate, has not been the greatest depression the country has known. There has been no hardships yet, compared with some previous panics and to what extent, and length this present depression will go depends very largely on the spirit of the people. Able leadership, staunch loyalty, sane judgment and faith in God will win.

The speaker for the afternoon session was Dr. Fred B. Fischer, First Presbyterian church of Ann Arbor, introduced by Dr. Mele Anderson of the Presbyterian church of Ann Arbor.

"We should be able to see the morning before the darkness is gone," optimistically declared Dr. Fischer.

Nearly 200 hearers, burdened by the baffling depression when in invading all places, drank in with eagerness the encouraging message of one who has lived intimately with pain and sorrow and who bespoke a better day about to dawn.

Dr. Fischer, for 29 years Methodist bishop of India, retired from that pinnacle of ecclesiastical honor to accept the pastorate of the First Methodist church at Ann Arbor.

Full of love for the land of his adoption for many years, Dr. Fischer said that India's three great wonders were first, Mt. Everest, a God-made wonder whose height of six miles has never yet been scaled, second the Taj Mahal, a man-made product of marvelous symmetry, and third, the speaker himself, and that he, the speaker, earnestly, "as Rabindranath Tagore, the God-made man, Tagore the safely, whose soul soared so naturally into sublime heights that he is often heard to exclaim, 'Oh, I forget that I have no wings to fly.'"

Throughout his close acquaintance with Tagore Dr. Fischer saw this sensitive soul respond to joy and pain. It was he who taught India, the down-trodden, sad nation to lift up its head and sing. His verses, influenced by Christian ideals, have struck a responsive chord in India's heart.

With rich imagery Dr. Fischer brought his hearers glimpses of Tagore's verse. Most realistic was the poet's description of those who are "grovelling in the loss of treasure" and, having gathered these treasures to satisfy their physical selfishness are now "prisoners in their own treasure house."

To the preachers present, Dr. Fischer made his plea, in conclusion, that they return from their secular and monetary standards in their church work to a "simple mystic faith in God which can say with Tagore—'make me simple like an open flute for Thee to fill with music.'"

It was a very thoughtful group of men who bowed their heads for the closing prayer by Dr. R. C. McAfee and then left the church to return to their fields of labor.

GOOD MAN GOES

Not only Methodists but all of the community greatly regret the moving of Rev. William Richards to Belleville. In nine years of service here, he and his wife have made large places for themselves in service to Northville.

Rev. William Richards, pastor of the Northville Methodist church, has been transferred to Belleville, Mich., where he will continue his work at the Central church at Detroit Monday.

Rev. Richards has moved only twice in the past 17 years. Both he and Mrs. Richards are large-hearted people who serve their church and community unstintingly. Their departure is a matter of the keenest regret to both church and Northville and surrounding country. During his pastorate here, Mr. Richards added Nov. 1 to his work and he will be missed there as much as here.

As pastor of the local church, Mr. Richards leaves a united and harmonious and loyal congregation whose members are deeply touched by his assignment to another pastorate. His location at Belleville will enable Mr. and Mrs. Richards to place their eldest daughters, Annie and Miriam, in school at the Michigan State Normal college.

Northville village will miss the returning pastor as much as his own church will. His work as a community builder and servant has touched all circles of village life. He was a "man among men" and on all sides are heard the most sympathetic regrets at his going.

"Bill" Richards has been secretary of the Exchange club for the past eight years—an honor that comes to few men, and he did work in this capacity (that will live long) as a great leader in Masonic circles, being chaplain of Northville lodge No. 186, F. & A. M., and also of Union Chapter No. 55, Royal Arch Masons. He served as prelate of the Northville Commandery of Knights Templars and held the same position with the Knights of Pythias. Mr. Richards did a great work for boys. He was chairman of the local council of Boy Scouts and vice president of the Plymouth district and served as advisor for the Northville high school "H. Y." club.

Mrs. Richards was ever a faithful co-worker with her husband and it is due to her self-sacrificing and constant efforts that the women's departments of the church have functioned so well. Sympathetic and helpful, unflinching in her zeal and enthusiasm, she also leaves a large place among Northville people.

The building of the Methodist church house was one of the outstanding features of the pastorate of Mr. Richards.

Northville's new Methodist pastor, the Rev. Frank Miner, comes with very fine credentials as to his standing as a pastor and community leader. Both Mr. and Mrs. Miner are very well known in Methodist circles for their work with young people. They have been at Belleville for five years.

Mr. Miner is a graduate of Albion college and of Boston university and also had postgraduate work in the University of Chicago.

Among the many tributes of appreciation paid to Rev. Wm. Richards by Northville friends are these: "Northville will never have a better community man than 'Bill' Richards."

"We mustn't be selfish and want to keep him always. It is others turn to have him now."

"Mr. Richards was always kind and tactful in every circumstance."

"We Presbyterians will miss him too."

RECEIVER NOT YET NAMED

Until the time the Record went to press, a receiver for the Northville State Savings bank had not yet been named. Some action is expected very soon.

GETS CAR AT LEGION MEET

Mrs. Helen Rieger, of this place, a member of the American Legion auxiliary of Northville was awarded a Plymouth automobile through her registration at the American Legion convention at Detroit this week. Mrs. Rieger is the wife of Fred Rieger, well known here.

LIGHTNING BOLT KILLS MAN AT NOVI

Frank P. Raineri of Novi
Killed While at Work
In Yard

Frank P. Raineri, Novi restaurant man, was struck and killed by lightning Wednesday evening in Novi during the electrical storm that struck this area at approximately 6 p. m.

Mr. Raineri had gone into the back yard of the restaurant which his son owns at 115 Grand River to release a chicken which he had tied to a tree.

His son, Dominick, hearing an unusually loud clap of thunder and noting the absence of his father, ran to look for him and found the elder Raineri lying face down beneath the tree.

The lightning ripped open the side of Mr. Raineri's shoe but had done no further damage to his clothing. A physician was called immediately but Mr. Raineri was beyond human aid.

Mr. Raineri had been a resident of Novi only a few months having come from New York last July to help his son start their new restaurant the Novi Gardens.

A son, Dominick, and a daughter, Catherine, beside a number of grandchildren, survive Mr. Raineri. At the time of going to press, the funeral arrangements have not been completed.

The Raineri family has been known in Novi as a quiet group of industrious workers. Even though he was a newcomer, the people of Novi who patronized the restaurant spoke well of the elder Raineri and respected him as an honest and reliable citizen who was winning to himself an increasingly large circle of friends.

HOWARD MYERS IS CUT AS AUTOMOBILE
CRASHES INTO TREE

The football squad of Northville high school will be minus a good end-man this afternoon at its game with Howell because Howard Myers is minus the use of a perfectly good leg, injured in a peculiar accident last Friday afternoon. Young Myers was cranking his truck preparatory to returning home after football practice when the car jumped ahead and hit a tree throwing glass with such force that his nose and forehead were deeply cut. His friends hurried him to Dr. Atchison's hospital where it was found necessary to take eight stitches.

It is thought that some children had been playing with the truck and had released the emergency brake which Myers had set. Howard is about his work as usual except that it will be necessary to favor the injured member for some time. If he had his way he says he would be in the game today. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers on Beaf avenue.

R. M. ATCHISON TO ENTER
U. OF M. MEDICAL COLLEGE

Northville is proud of the record of one of her sons, Russell Atchison, son of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Atchison, who has recently completed his four-year literary course at the University of Michigan in three years. Russell finished this work late in August having studied all summer. He will receive his degree some time in October with a group of students. The degree of Bachelor of Arts will be conferred upon him at that time and he will soon begin his medical course of four years, which will be supplemented by a further year as junior interne and another as senior interne.

Russell graduated in the class of 1928 in Northville high school. This coming year, due to the fact that much more time must be devoted to his medical course, he will take rooms in Ann Arbor instead of driving home as heretofore.

Barton A. Wheeler, who has been ill for several weeks, is slowly improving.

GAZ COMPANY'S ACCOUNTS
PAYABLE AT SHAFFER SHOP

Arrangements have been made, announced Mr. Croft, manager of the Plymouth branch of the Michigan Federated Trusts company, to have all Northville accounts paid at the Shaffer Electric Shop on North Center street.

The Electric Shop is open every day from the hours of eight in the morning to eight at night and every facility is offered to customers of the gas company that was extended to them formerly.

A little later, announced Mr. Croft, the gas company will place demonstrator gas ranges, heaters, etc. in the windows of the Electric Shop so that Northville housewives may see what products the company has to offer.

DON'T HOARD OLD CLOTHING

The women of the Baptist church are making plans for their rummage sale to be held beginning October 5 in the former location of the Truett beauty parlor on North Center street. While you are looking over the contents of your attic and closets sort out everything you do not need and bring it to this place. If you can not use these things someone else may need them sorely. This coming winter will be a time of real need and warm clothing will be most acceptable to many. The Baptist women say that they conduct this rummage sale as much for philanthropy as for the small profits which they will realize. For further information call either 118 M or 50 R.

Schools Open Monday

Northville schools will re-open on Monday, September 28, announced Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston, village health officer Thursday.

The signs will be sounded Sunday night at 6 p. m., denoting the opening of the schools Monday morning. Unless unforeseen conditions arise approximately 600 pupils of Northville schools will bring to a close their extended vacation, occasioned by the infantile paralysis epidemic which has been the scourge of the state for the past three weeks.

Although Northville and the township of Northville have been particularly fortunate in not having any cases Dr. Johnston emphasized the importance of observing all of the precautions announced previously.

"No attendance of any pupils in neighboring towns where the disease is known to be prevalent, keep the children's hands and faces scrupulously clean; avoid confined crowds; be extremely suspicious of colds and fevers," was the edict handed down by the village health officer to Northville parents for the protection of their children.

Although state health authorities have announced that there are an increasing number of new cases being reported each week, said Dr. Johnston, the percentage of increase has become lower within the last week. Up to September 19, 1931, according to state health department figures, there was a total of 638 cases of infantile paralysis in the state for the year as compared to 77 cases on record up to September 19 of 1930.

BURKART'S WALMART
WINS AT BLOOMFIELD

Northville horses acquitted themselves creditably at the third race meet sponsored by the central racing committee at the Bloomfield Open Hunt meet held last Saturday at Bloomfield. The meet was expected to bring out the best horses in this section of the two flat and four-steep-chase events.

In the third race of the day, a quarter mile open flat race, Dr. Burkart's 4-year-old colt, "Walmart," ridden by W. McHoney, had things pretty well in his own way. Given a splendid ride by Jockey McHoney, the colt broke on top at the starting signal and headed for the finish, winning the event by three lengths. The colt was never threatened by his jockey who was watching the other tight for second place as he crossed the line. Frederick M. Alger, Jr., who rode the fastest pole pony in these parts, was second, two lengths ahead of Mrs. Bartrop's Chief Rye. The time for the event was twenty-five seconds flat.

In the seventh race on the program, a half mile open flat race, the Fairbrook stable, owned and ridden by I. D. Peat, resented the dopesters choice and favoring the two Grosses Pointe horses, "Bully" Owen and Sandy O'Malley, tried hard not to be outdone by his stable mates and managed to pull in second on a length behind Fire Cure, who broke from the starting gate fast and was three lengths ahead at the one-eighth pole. But here Mr. Peat urged his mount and was closing in on the leader when they crossed the finish line. The time for this race was 1:20.

The fourth and final meet of this year will be held tomorrow at the Metamora Hunt club, 4 miles north and one and a half miles east of Oxford.

RICHARDS HONORED
BY CONGREGATION

Giving evidence of their regard for their pastor and his family, nearly 200 members and friends of the Northville Methodist church met at the church house Wednesday evening to bid farewell to the Richards family and to welcome Rev. and Mrs. Frank N. Miner and daughter, Elizabeth.

A bountiful pot luck supper was served and following this a fine program was carried out in charge of Roy G. Clark. Musical numbers by the choir and a male quartet interspersed the following talks. Representing the young people of the church, Ruth Mary Baldwin, speaking for Mrs. E. J. Cobb, and representing the W. H. M. S. Miss Katherine Slater; for the choir Leslie G. Lee was spokesman and Chas. A. Dolph spoke for the "Nine Years With our Pastor," outlining the many results of his efforts and those of his wife.

Welcoming the new pastor, Richard T. Baldwin presented Mr. and Mrs. Miner with a beautiful basket of flowers. Mrs. Bertha Neal, president of the Ladies Aid society reviewed the more personal relations with the Richards family and in conclusion presented them with a loving memento, a chair.

After singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," the company spoke their farewells and greetings to both pastors and their families.

The story referred to in "Every Monday Morning" about the travels of the Stethoscope editor, A. L. Anderson, has been held over until next week owing to lack of space.

EATHERS-SONS HIKE
PLANNED BY SCOUTS

The Plymouth-Northville district of the Wayne County Council has been assigned Camp Brady at North Pontiac for its exclusive outing on October third and fourth.

This is a real opportunity for Scouts, stated Scoutmaster Orlov G. Owen, their parents and friends to take advantage of the two-day outing at a cost which is almost unbelievable.

The cost will be $1.25 per person, he said, which will be sufficient to cover the cost of the meals that the Scouts and their fathers will enjoy on the hike.

A fine program of Scout activities has been planned, said Scoutmaster Orlov, for Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning and those Scouts who find it possible to make the trip with their respective Scoutmasters will find it one of those "hikes" long to be remembered. All the equipment needed will be blankets, to supply fathers and the Scouts, said the Scoutmaster, with a splendid opportunity for real recreation and fun.

Dr. Robert Haskell, chairman of the Plymouth district, an co-operation with William Hodson, District Scout Commissioner, E. J. Heaven, Field Scout Executive, and the several Scoutmasters are planning a program which will be hard for any district using Camp Brady to outdo, and they say to the boys, their fathers and those particularly interested in Scouting, "Be at your starting point, pack on your pack, Saturday, October 3."

GLOBE PLANT CLOSES DOORS ON SATURDAY

Furniture Company Files
Bankruptcy Petition
At Detroit

The Globe Furniture and Manufacturing Co., one of Northville's widely known business institutions, closed its doors late last Saturday. The decision to do so followed a meeting of the directors of the company in the forenoon at which it was decided to file in the district court at Detroit a petition for voluntary bankruptcy.

Uncontrolled prices in all branches of the public seating industry and lack of orders compelled the action. This another business concern falls by the wayside as a result of the severity of the present depression.

The court will announce its representative to handle the company's affairs at an early date.

The force of employees working at the plant has been gradually reduced in recent months until at the last only ten men were employed. The making of church furniture was the great bulk of the Globe's business and naturally the dropping of practically all church building programs throughout the country fell heavily on the local factory in recent weeks the concern had been completing a small government order.

History of the Globe Co.

The Globe Furniture company has its origin in 1873 in the small general foundry of Charles G. Harrington, who manufactured "buzz saws, horse collars, etc."

The presentation was made by John Kalbfleisch, former president who said "One of the bright spots of my life was my association as club president with 'Bill' Richards, our secretary. We shall miss him more than we can tell."

After accepting Mr. Richards' resignation, the club unanimously elected him as an honorary member.

President Clifford B. Turnbull called on Mr. Kalbfleisch after other past presidents had extolled the work of the retiring secretary. Among the tributes paid were these:

C. A. Dolph—"Bill" Richards has always been true to our motto of service."

N. C. Schrader—"We are losing one of the best members we ever had."

Elmer Smith—"Not only our club but all of Northville is sincerely sorry that 'Bill' Richards is leaving."

Scott Lovewell—"He was the greatest secretary we ever had in the Exchange club."

Dr. P. R. Alexander—"He has been a big man for the community in every way."

Sherill Ambler—"Our secretary has been in a large way responsible for the great success of Exchange."

Dr. E. B. Cavell—"Bill, you have been a real Exchangeer always and everywhere."

C. R. Horton—"I don't know of a man I would be more sorry to see go."

M. J. Murphy—"Richards has done more for the Exchange club than any other member. There never was a time when he did not smile with you in your prosperity nor fail to comfort you in trouble. I never heard him say a word against any man."

Sherill W. Ambler was named as secretary to succeed Mr. Richards. E. J. Allison, president of the Kiwanis club at Plymouth, was present and invited the club to participate in the rifle shoot and carnival which will be held at our neighboring city October 7, 8, 9 and 10 to get funds to provide Christmas cheer for under-privileged children. Dr. A. A. Holcomb was named to take charge of organizing a team of ten to compete in the event.

NORTHVILLE CHIEFS
BEAT CARLETON, 4-3

With the score three to one against them in the ninth inning at Carleton last week, the Northville Chiefs went to bat and two hits and two errors accounted for three runs winning the game four to three.

Northville scored first blood in the second inning but the Carleton team came back in the third to score three runs at which point the score remained the same until the Chiefs' winning rally in the ninth.

The game was a pitcher's duel throughout and "Grandpa" Germain and his young opponent "Lefty" Hoppe. The old veteran seemed to have outlasted his much younger opponent as Carleton was blanked each inning after the third. Fans from here who attended the game say that it was an intensely interesting contest with the entire nine men on the Northville team each doing their share on the field or at bat to win the game.

GAINS DEGREE

After winning his degree of Bachelor of Arts at the University of Michigan, Russell Atchison, well known Northville young man will continue his work at Ann Arbor this fall where he begins a four years' course in medicine.

RICHARDS GIVEN
FAREWELL GIFT

With expressions of genuine regret at his leaving Northville for Belleville, members of the Exchange club at their luncheon Wednesday gave Rev. Wm. Richards, their faithful secretary for eight years, a desk fountain pen set.

The presentation was made by John Kalbfleisch, former president who said "One of the bright spots of my life was my association as club president with 'Bill' Richards, our secretary. We shall miss him more than we can tell."

METHODIST CHURCH GETS NEW PASTOR

Rev. Wm. Richards and Rev.
Frank Miner Exchange
Pulpits

Northville this week loses the services of one of the most beloved ministers who have ever lived in this community. Rev. William Richards, for the past nine years the pastor of the Methodist church here, was assigned to Belleville at the closing session of the Detroit conference at Central church at Detroit Monday.

The Rev. Frank Miner will come from Belleville to the Northville church.

In leaving Northville after his nine years of service Mr. Richards closes a pastorate that will be memorable in many ways, since it is very rarely that a Methodist pastor serves one community for that length of time. Although the former "time limit" has been removed the term of services of Methodist pastors seldom exceeds five years.

"Bill" Richards has moved only twice in the past 17 years. Both he and Mrs. Richards are large-hearted people who serve their church and community unstintingly. Their departure is a matter of the keenest regret to both church and Northville and surrounding country. During his pastorate here, Mr. Richards added Nov. 1 to his work and he will be missed there as much as here.

RECEIVER NOT YET NAMED

Until the time the Record went to press, a receiver for the Northville State Savings bank had not yet been named. Some action is expected very soon.

GETS CAR AT LEGION MEET

Mrs. Helen Rieger, of this place, a member of the American Legion auxiliary of Northville was awarded a Plymouth automobile through her registration at the American Legion convention at Detroit this week. Mrs. Rieger is the wife of Fred Rieger, well known here.

Thrift Bargains

Bargains, bargains, bargains. Look on the back page of the Record if you want to see some way to save money.

The Thrift Bargains represent rock bottom values and each Northville merchant has reached into his shelves and pulled out one red-hot bargain which represents a sacrifice in prices on his part and a golden opportunity for the consumer to save money on his own purchases.

In addition, the merchants want to know what keen eyes there are amongst the readers of the Record and somewhere amongst the Thrift Bargains there is hidden one misspelled word. (Editor's note: I hope there's only one.) To the first three adults who enter the Northville Drug Store on Saturday and point out the word there will be awarded three one dollar prizes.

So there you are thrift fans and spelling fans—a double incentive—follow up these bargains and also see if you can find the misspelled word.

It's easy enough to merely "run across" errors while reading the paper but deliberately sit down and try and find one is quite another thing. If you don't think so, just try it.

And those bargains—you won't find any better ones anywhere in the state. Groceries, clocks, ice cream, clothing, hardware, etc. there is something offered at a tremendous saving for each one of these lines of merchandise.

Hard times have made people cry for bargains—here they are and we say to you, "Come and get them."

Members of the Northville Commandery Knights Templar, acted as escorts at the funeral of Geo. W. Burt at Redford Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Burt was a former resident of the village of Redford.

CHEERFUL THOUGHT

We have made some prophecies during past years and some of them have come true. We make one now and will stand by it:

"A year from now we'll all be feeling much better; business will be improved; Northville will be on the up-grade and we will all have gained some things that we hadn't thought about."

NORTHVILLE'S WAREHOUSE

We don't know how it can be done but we just got to thinking about it.

Wouldn't it be fine to store up some of the great abundance of fruit and vegetables for the winter "against" the possibility of hunger that some of our folks may feel. Seems as though we never saw so many apples on the trees. And they say that in some places there are so many potatoes that it will hardly pay to dig them. If there are kiddies that might go hungry this winter, why not fill up some storage room with apples and potatoes as a starter, with carrots and cabbages, thrown in. Add to that good milk and bread later and no family need go hungry.

Is it practicable to do something like this? Maybe the King's Daughters could work it out.

BE GLAD FOR THIS

There is some cheer to be found in the fact that Northville is now without a bank. There is a tangible and splendid thing to be grateful for, even though the doors of our two banks are closed for doing a banking business.

Here it is: There has not been the slightest suspicion of wrong doing on the part of any of our bankers. That has not been true in some towns where banks have failed. Our banks had to close through conditions that no one man or large group of men could control. The readjustment period through which we are going just made some things inevitable and bank closings seem to be inevitable in some cases. Our bankers can well know that their fellow citizens respect them for their many years of loyalty and help to the home community. They have lost a skirmish in the battle of life but they lost it with clean hands. That's worth everything.

"HATS OFF TO THIS MAN"

He came into the Record office just a few days ago with a smile and a word of kindness. He left leaving everyone in the office feeling just a little more "perked up"—at a time when smiles are not as thick as they once were on our streets.

And yet, friends, we happen to know something about this man and if any one in Northville has a good reason for being gloomy and discouraged, here was the man.

This citizen of ours faces difficulty and trials with a smile. He has "stuff" inside him and he faces the world with good cheer and optimism and doesn't parade his troubles—of which he has had plenty. (No two of you will guess alike as to who this man is and this writer is not even going to tell his wife to whom we are referring.)

Folks of Northville, Novi and Salem—and points in between—we say the community owes a deep debt of gratitude to men like this. We can be glad that we have a whole lot of men and women just like our good friends we have mentioned—we picked him just to make our point.

As the poem we read somewhere once said:
"The man who's worth while
Is the man who can smile
When everything goes dead wrong."

TAKING OUR LOSS

A business man in an Indiana town which had three bank failures, not to mention the current depression, gave a talk before the merchants of another city, and made them see things in a little different light.

He actually told, and backed it up with figures, how some of his fellow business men had put on their fighting clothes and gone after business in such fashion that they increased their sales.

Then he said: "We will all have to take our loss."

Now there is a philosophy that will help us out of our troubles. We must all take our loss. The "shake-down" of the whole United States—not to mention the whole world—is making us all take a loss. Well, let's take it and start over. We read the other day of some rich man who had lost a lot of money and yet had $100,000 left and things looked so bad for the poor fellow that he went off and killed himself. What a mistake! What a tragedy! With the dollar buying today more than it has bought almost since the days of '93, one hundred thousand dollars is enough for any man to enjoy life and do a lot of good for his fellow men. If that misguided man who thought money was all—he never saw the sun go down from one of the hills of Northville—had taken his loss and gone out with a smile, what a "kick" out of life he would have gotten. We know a good friend who had over half a million dollars and lost every nickel of it and has started life over and he told us that he never had so much fun in his life. He has just taken his loss.

Take the loss—it is just inevitable the way things have broken. If you paid $7,000 for the house and it's worth only $5,000 write-off the two thousand and forget it. If you used to make $50 a week and now make $25; remember that there are a lot of men in Detroit who have lost thousands and thousands and are glad to get just a job.

Take your loss. Then you will get your gain. See if you don't.

LEMONS VS. SALT

Just looked over two pages of editorial copy and found that both were about the depression or some angle of it. Said to ourselves: "Why not get off that topic for a few minutes and write about something different?"

All right. Here it is: Do you know that it is better for you to take lemon juice before breakfast than it is to take a cup of hot water with half a teaspoonful of salt in it?

Personally—Mrs. Baldwin says this column gets too personal most of the time and we reply that most of us think in terms of ourselves. Here is how it happened. We once heard a former physician to the late President Taft talk on a Chautauqua platform and he said that it was a good tonic for the health to take a cup of hot water as mentioned, with the salt. We thought the physician must "know his berries" especially as he was physically fit and after the lecture decisively defeated us playing quills. So since that lecture we have probably taken pretty close to a barrel of good Michigan salt for our health's sake.

Now we find that the salt business is all wrong. It is all right for Mr. Mahatma Gandhi of India to make his salt and fight the British empire if he wants to but if you want to keep your blood pressure down, just go easy on salt. Further, to replace the salt try a half-lemon-squeezed into a cup of water half an hour before breakfast. The lemon juice puts the old fighting stuff into you.

We are glad to say this good word for the lemon in view of the fact that for one year we published the Upland News at Upland, California, where they have the largest lemon packing plant in the whole world. We once saw down in their basement two solid city blocks of lemons in boxes—just millions of lemons, waiting to go to the ends of the world—the lemon, unlike the orange, can be kept for six months in storage.

Now that is enough for the salt and lemon business.

WHISPERINGS

(Leader, Pipestone, Minnesota)

Psst, Psst, Psst Have you—? You don't say—Well, Well!

And away goes another reputation for his long honest decency, right living

There isn't a more sinister, vicious, evil, advantage-taking method of spreading derogatory propaganda than through the Whispering Grape vine Route

At times it rolls along apparently harmless as idle gossip. Then again as a thistle it turns over and over, gathering more rubbish through malignant contacts with venomous subjects which cling to it, until finally it becomes a giant prairie roller, a compost of all that is filthy and putrid in the community.

Fanned by the gale, the fastest runner cannot keep up with it.

White-livered, black and white striped animals, who in order to further their own interests, or who delight in besmirching decent characters to the aroma of their own, start their whisperings by planting them deliberately at vulnerable peddling points, breathe the breath of life into their monsters, and then all theimps of hell lash them on

The old-time alleged powers of witchcraft were inconsequential, as compared to the possibilities for character-slaying, embodied in the witchery of Dame Rumor, and yet today there are no stocks to fasten these vicious Rumor purveyors in, as objects of public contempt; no lashing posts at which to scourge them, no stakes at which to burn them.

Suicides, murders, bank failures, bankruptcies, home, church and school wrecks are spectacles which rattle at the gate of Dame Rumor. Politicians work her overtime, and even in Washington's day she was so active, he declared he'd rather fight a whole army than one vicious rumor.

The worst enemy of prosperity, the outstanding enemy of progress, the foe of harmony, the greatest enemy of happiness, and the biggest liar in the universe, Dame Rumor is a wanton who refuses to come out and fight in the open.

She is sneaking, cowardly, snake-like; an object for fear and abhorrence; that should be crushed, squelched, choked, and hurled back into the depths of the bottomless pit from which she dared to emerge, because of the satanic efforts of her masters.

BANK CLOSINGS

(Fred D. Keister in Ionia County News)

While this city may have rocked a bit on its foundation Saturday, when notice of the temporary closing of the State Savings Bank was given to the public, it has since that time settled back again and things seem going along in much their old way. It is indeed a regrettable episode when an old and honored institution meets with difficulties, but when those difficulties are not with its manner of operation, but one of present day conditions, it presages the time when those difficulties will be wiped away and a new start made. The closing of a bank in any community is always marked with a certain amount of tragedy, there is, always, that element of uncertainty that adds to its grief. Ionia is, but one of many communities to pass through an ordeal of this kind—there is nothing to prevent our being brave in such a crisis and eventually being able to work much good out of what at first appears to be a calamity. I have no fear but that a program of re-adjustment can be accomplished—we must be patient and bide our days until such a time arrives.

NOW COATS OFF

(Edwin R. Eaton in The Plymouth Mail)

The Plymouth Mail is highly pleased to be able to offer its congratulations to Mayor Robert Mumma and the village community for its decision to officially have Plymouth take some part in the nation wide Washington bi-centennial celebration to be held next year.

It was a mighty fine thing for the commission to do because it means that the citizens of the community will have the wholehearted support of the village officials in whatever form of celebration may be decided upon. Plymouth is one of the first cities in Michigan to take official action upon a matter that the federal government is giving its unlimited support to, and in this fact we find additional reason for gratification. There is but one thing for Plymouth residents to do now—TAKE OFF OUR COATS and go to work. Let us make whatever form of celebration we may decide upon one of the most outstanding events in Michigan. We can do it by working together. It is going to take a lot of work and it is going to take co-operation on the part of everyone in Plymouth.

In whatever we do, we will have the assistance of the government, at Washington. The commission appointed to direct this great nationwide celebration has collected a vast amount of material that will be of assistance to Plymouth and every other city that will take part in the celebration. It is ours to do with it as we see fit. In the name of the Father of Our Country, let us make Plymouth's celebration a tribute that will live through many generations.

Supt. T. J. Knapp of Northville has received an invitation to the convention of the Michigan Conference of City School Superintendents to be held at the Park Palace hotel in Traverse City September 25 and 26. Economics in school finance will be the principal topic of discussion. Aside from their meetings, the superintendents will be guests of the convention and will be guests at the Cedar Lodge golf course on Northport Point for a golf tournament on the second afternoon.

THE PLYMOUTH UNITED SAVINGS BANK PLYMOUTH, MICHIGAN "THE BIG BANK ON THE CORNER"

Every Monday Morning

By "AD" SCHWENGER

The kids kept Earl Montgomery pretty busy with that new concrete step he made for them beside the drinking fountain on Main and Center streets.

Earl put the cement base in, and there wasn't a kid for miles around that would resist the temptation of nice, fresh, wet cement. They fall out their delicate footprints in that block for posterity and Earl to worry about.

Hugh Babbitt disagrees with Editor R. T. B. on the matter of carrying firearms.

"Arm every man on the street," he says, "and thus will think twice before trying hold-ups. You bet I disagree. I'd like to write an article about that."

We're not after him to write that article but we haven't any high hopes of getting it. However, the point is this: anyone who differs or who agrees with the editorial policy of this sheet is privileged to place his opinion on paper and we'll print it.

I pulled a "bomer" the other day and following out the usual custom in this office when and if anyone makes a mistake, I saw the fellow before he came to me.

"He had given me a rush job of printing and in the excitement of one thing and another I had forgotten to put it down in the books. Result—no printing."

I saw him, explained the circumstances, and whereas I expected to have my head taken off, he didn't best a duk.

I'm for that guy strong and if he wants anything done in a hurry again, he'll get it if I have to print it myself. And am I a printer? I can print a form just as well as any disciple of Gutenberg and Ben Franklin ever could.

"Duke" Roberts and my office just came into the office with their pipes. I asked the age of the pipes and the door hadn't been closed two minutes before I could tell. Whew!

Irv says he smokes once a day— all day long but the Duke was more conservative. He takes time out for meals.

Andy Anderson, guardian of the Eastlawn Stethoscope columns, just returned from a vacation in the wilds of Illinois. Because we want him to render a good account of his travels, he has consented to tell you all about it himself. Look for it.

What is this, world coming to, just saw two girls in corduroy pants, knee boots and men's shirts. Pretty soon the only way you'll be able to tell a man from a woman is by the way he gnaws the corner off of a "Mailman's Delight" plug. The ladies aren't quite up to that yet.

Michigan starts off the football season with two casualties. We firmly believe that with ten cripples in the line-up and stocky, barrel-chested Harry Newman in the quarter-back position, the Wolverines could play rings around any other team in the conference. The boy is good and despite the fact that there are plenty of good men out after his post, he'll call signals this fall because the coaches know that he can't be rattled and in a "pinch" he can be depended upon to use his head.

Take the Ohio State game last year for instance. Five yards to go to the goal—last down and every thing depending on the next play. Ohio was sure he'd call a pass but he didn't. He called a play—right through the center of the line and instead of hitting a mass of players in the center, he waited until they had all piled up and then taking a hop, skip and jump he hurdled the pile-up for the necessary yardage. That's using your head.

In the Purdue game, his first big game, he entered in the second half with the score 13 to 0 in favor of Purdue. He heaved a touchdown, scored a place kick for the extra point. In the final minutes of the last quarter he hurried another pass for a touchdown, and the "stano" went wild. All he had to do was score one field goal and win the game. That's all it took to face 11 determined men, with blood in their eyes, 80,000 people looking on, and it was his first game. Well, the rest is history. His team-mates held the 11 men, he booted the goal, the game was won and Michigan was off to another championship.

It took nerve to make that goal and if he had missed you can put it in your little black book that the Wolverines would never have won the little gold footballs.

C'mon you 1931 season!

Epitaph—

It is possible to be too saving for the general good—and even for the individual good. There is an element of warning in the following brief pseudo biography from Punch.

Here lies a man who saved his last For. days when rain and snow should fall; He knew no pleasures, shared no game, And died before the blizzard came.

TIRE VALUES versus TIRE DEFINITIONS

WE KNOW that car owners are interested in real TIRE VALUES, but are not particularly interested in tire definitions which manufacturers and distributors of special-brand mail-order tires had the National Better Business Bureau adopt that they could use to their advantage in their advertising.

When the National Better Business Bureau realized that the public was being misled—and an attempt was being made to keep the truth about real tire values from car owners, they issued a bulletin July 10th which in substance retracted their sponsorship of tire definitions.

Firestone, extra values are the result of great savings in buying—great savings in efficient and economical manufacturing and distributing, plus the patented process of Gum-Dipping—the patented two extra cord plies under the tread—and a more efficient non-skid tread, which makes them safer than any other tire.

We have sections cut from Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires and Special-Brand Mail-Order Tires, and invite you to come in and judge for yourself the extra values we give you—values that you can see and understand instead of "definitions." Then we know you too will buy Firestone Tires as thousands of other car owners have done to the extent that during May, June and July they bought more Firestone Tires than during any like period in history—Drive in today!

COMPARE CONSTRUCTION AND QUALITY

*When the National Better Business Bureau realized that their Bulletin No. 634 was being taken advantage of by some advertisers they issued a Bulletin dated July 10th as follows:

"In our Bulletin No. 634 entitled 'Definitions of Terms Used in the Tire Industry' we published definitions of First-Line—Second Line—Third Line—Heavy Duty and Super Heavy Duty Tires.

"Our definitions pointed out, 'Although each manufacturer's or distributor's first line tire may represent his best standard size 4 or 6 ply tire, there is not necessarily any equality of competitive first line tires as to materials, workmanship or price.' This interpretation also applies to all lines of tires.

"We therefore recommend that advertising to the consumer shall avoid the use of these terms for the purpose of comparing competitive products."

"Why My Next Car will be A FORD"

WHEN you buy a Ford there are two things you never have to worry about. One is reliability. The other is long life.

Here's an interesting letter from a Ford owner in North Carolina:

"My Ford was purchased May 8, 1928, and has been run 121,767 miles. It has never stopped on the road for repairs of any kind whatsoever except punctures.

"The brakes were relined at 101,000 miles. My gas mileage averaged 21 miles to the gallon, and on tires, 19,000 miles per tire. I travel over all kinds of road conditions—mountainous and flat.

"I consider this a wonderful record and I assure you my next car will also be a Ford."

This is just one of many tributes to the reliability and long life of the Ford. A Ford owner in Iowa tells of driving his Ford 73,000 miles in a single year. Another writes of 120,000 miles of good service.

Think ahead when you are considering the purchase of an automobile and consider what it will be like after thousands of miles of driving. Will you still be satisfied? Will you still say "it's a great car?"

If it's a Ford, you know everything will be O. K. It will be taking you there and back in good style, just as it has always done. And you will have saved many important, worth-while dollars in cost of operation and up-keep and low yearly depreciation.

FOOTBALL SEASON GETS UNDER WAY

By Coach H. L. Ruggles

The quantity is fine as far as material goes thus fall out the quality is yet to be determined. Thirty-two boys turned out for practice and have all been found to be physically fit for the game. This is a much larger squad than reported last season.

Last week the boys turned out in two squads. The backfield candidates worked in the forenoon and the linemen worked in the afternoon. Exercises, charging, blocking, tackling, passing and kicking took up the hours of drill the first week and a half. This week plays were given and scrimmage was ordered to perfect blocking and tackling under fire.

The veterans back for work are Beach, Biery, Campbell, Kohler, McCordie, Meininger, Myers, Neal, Robinson, Schrader, Captain Tibble, Wake and Weston.

The new men who are reporting regularly and who threaten to displace some of the older players are Bender, Bray, Dickinson, Dundas, Fry, Knight, Lemmon, Mitchell, Reed, Shipley, Sprenger, Steenchen, Vradenburg and Bulmon.

The spirit is great each boy is battling for a place on the squad to bring victory to Northville high school.

It was a bitter disappointment to the team when the Howell game had to be cancelled due to the closing of school. They have all agreed to forget about Howell now and point for the Wayne game on October 2 at Wayne.

MOTION PICTURE PROGRAMS

"HUCKLEBERRY FINN"

Another rollicking, heart-warming juvenile comedy-drama, the third from the Paramount studio, this year, will show at the Penniman Allen Theatre, Plymouth, Sunday and Monday, September 27 and 28. It is the famous Mark Twain story, "Huckleberry Finn," with Jackie Coogan, Mitzie Green, Junior Durkin and Jackie Searl in the featured cast.

"Huckleberry Finn" is the further adventures of the lovable youngsters who won favor from screen fans of all ages in "Tom Sawyer." Junior Durkin, as Huck, runs away from home, in fear of his angry father. His father follows him, takes him to a deserted cabin, but Huck is rescued by Tom, and, together, the boys decide to embark on a life of adventure. The story tells how they save two young sisters from a pair of roving desperadoes; at great danger to themselves. This adventure brings them great satisfaction and honor.

In the cast of adults are two well-known character players in addition to the talented actors who continue in the roles they portrayed in "Tom Sawyer." Eugene Pallette and Oscar Apfel give a humorous interpretation of the two desperadoes Glara Blaudick and Sam seen as Tom Sawyer's Aunt Polly, and Jane Darwell continues in the role of the good-hearted Widow Douglas.

More than two hundred children were used in the production, a larger number than found employment in either "Tom Sawyer" or "Sisyphe."

"HONEYMOON LANE"

Raymond Hatton, teamed with Wally Beery in a series of Paramount comedy features, for five years ago, became famous as a stirrer-up of laughter. His comedy antics served to bring guffaws and giggles by the million.

When the screen went verbose, Hatton proved himself just as competent a rhymer as he had ever been in the days when deafness was no handicap for the film-goer.

One of the funniest parts he has played was the gangster copy of George Bancroft in "The Mighty Guy" stilt in "Honey Moon Lane." Now he is repeating the "tough guy" stilt in "Honey Moon Lane." The Eddie Dowling opus to be shown Wednesday and Thursday, September 30 and October 1 at the Penniman Allen Theatre, Plymouth, Hatton is seen as the roughneck side-partner of Lloyd Whitlock, big city gambler who goes to Eddie Dowling's hotel in the mountains to recuperate.

As such Hatton gets into a number of farcical situations—aided by the marauding comedy grotesques of George Kotsaros, the former wrestling champ, who also plays a bad man trying to be good.

"DAUGHTER OF THE DRAGON"

One of the feudal lords of a 1931 domain, the unofficial mayor of Chinatown in Los Angeles, doffed his civic responsibilities, closed his office and answered a summons as inflexible as a military bugle call, when Paramount began shooting on "Daughter of the Dragon." Sax Rohmer mystery thriller which will be shown at the Penniman Allen Theatre in Plymouth on Friday and Saturday, October 2 and 3.

Anna May Wong, Warner Oland and Sessue Hayakawa form a formidable Oriental element for this production. Yet was there a call sent out for Tom Gubbins, an American who has lived in China many years, and who has had a technical finger in the plot of the production of all companies which have striven for authentic atmosphere pictures with an oriental setting.

As technical aid to Director Lloyd Dowling, the unofficial mayor of Los Angeles Chinatown had charge of passing on many details of properties used and those most of the character and bit players recruited from Chinese settlements for parts in the story.

These duties have been his on almost every oriental picture produced in Hollywood during the past five years.

The story of "Daughter of the Dragon" is generated by the exploits of a vengeful mandarin and his beautiful daughter, who come to London to rub out a traditional debt of honor, implicit in the alleged slaying of oriental royals several generations removed.

DAUGHTER OF THE DRAGON

One of the feudal lords of a 1931 domain, the unofficial mayor of Chinatown in Los Angeles, doffed his civic responsibilities, closed his office and answered a summons as inflexible as a military bugle call, when Paramount began shooting on "Daughter of the Dragon." Sax Rohmer mystery thriller which will be shown at the Penniman Allen Theatre in Plymouth on Friday and Saturday, October 2 and 3.

Anna May Wong, Warner Oland and Sessue Hayakawa form a formidable Oriental element for this production. Yet was there a call sent out for Tom Gubbins, an American who has lived in China many years, and who has had a technical finger in the plot of the production of all companies which have striven for authentic atmosphere pictures with an oriental setting.

As technical aid to Director Lloyd Dowling, the unofficial mayor of Los Angeles Chinatown had charge of passing on many details of properties used and those most of the character and bit players recruited from Chinese settlements for parts in the story.

These duties have been his on almost every oriental picture produced in Hollywood during the past five years.

The story of "Daughter of the Dragon" is generated by the exploits of a vengeful mandarin and his beautiful daughter, who come to London to rub out a traditional debt of honor, implicit in the alleged slaying of oriental royals several generations removed.

When the screen went verbose, Hatton proved himself just as competent a rhymer as he had ever been in the days when deafness was no handicap for the film-goer.

As such Hatton gets into a number of farcical situations—aided by the marauding comedy grotesques of George Kotsaros, the former wrestling champ, who also plays a bad man trying to be good.

Now he is repeating the "tough guy" stilt in "Honey Moon Lane." The Eddie Dowling opus to be shown Wednesday and Thursday, September 30 and October 1 at the Penniman Allen Theatre, Plymouth, Hatton is seen as the roughneck side-partner of Lloyd Whitlock, big city gambler who goes to Eddie Dowling's hotel in the mountains to recuperate.

The Triple A League teams finished their contests for supremacy. Herman Lau team takes the championship, West Point Park taking second place and Skrzycki Bakery third place. It has been a long drawn out battle. Harry Wolfe was manager of the first part of the season and Earl Wolfe managed the team the second half of the season. Both managers speak highly of the way the boys played. Some of whom have stood by the team since they were small boys. There will be other games as long as this fall weather permits.

The Sunday school was well attended. Pastor officers and teachers all being present. We hope to have a larger number of scholars during the fall and winter months. Our pastor, Rev. Adams, gave a splendid discourse on the Christian life and faith during trying experiences.

John Smith has moved into the house owned and vacated by Mrs. Morgan in Folke subdivision.

Miss Edward returned Wednesday from her vacation and took charge of four grades in Pierson school. Catherine Harlan taught in that room for two days.

William Roy and son from Detroit called on his brother-in-law and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor.

A base ball game between Livonia Center and Rough and Ready teams was played on the Pierson school diamond. The rain stopped the game after the fifth inning when they each had four runs. Howard Johnston pitched for Livonia while Robert Holecross doing the pitching for the Rough and Ready.

The battery for Rough and Ready was Charles Wolfstrom and Roy Clement with Roy Wolfstrom acting as umpire.

The ladies' community club met at the home of the president, Mrs. Ernie Ash on Thursday afternoon and each one was busy making fancy stitches on quilt blocks. The hours went by swiftly with the company enjoying the companionship of one another.

Mrs. Berchen, who was in a collision a week ago, is still bandaged and badly bruised. We are all thankful to see her able to sit up.

A dangerous fire started near Middlebelt and Seven Mile road Sunday in the form of a grass fire. The township truck was called and the township fire had almost gotten beyond control. It was stamped out by the department.

TIME TO BE EXTENDED TO SECURE 1932 AUTO LICENSES

Lansing, Mich.—Motorists will not be required to secure 1932 licenses until March 1, 1932.

Under an act of the last legislature the Secretary of State has authority to extend the time limit for purchasing new plates 60 days and this extension will be made in connection with the 1932 plates, it was announced by Secretary of State Frank D. Fitzgerald.

One of the effects of this ruling is that motorists who purchase plates September 1, when weight tax fees are cut in half, will be able to use the plates six months instead of four months as in previous years.

Despite the fact that there are 81,000 fewer automobiles registered in Michigan this year than last, the amount of money taken from the gasoline tax is larger, than in 1930.

One of the contributing causes of this increase is that many motorists who could not have purchased license plates January 1 were able to keep their cars in operation for two months through the extension of the time limit.

Bert Haywood visited Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cassen in Detroit on Sunday.

Misses Dorothy Foreman and Emma Ryder of Detroit were Sunday dinner guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Foreman and in the afternoon called at the Merrill Renwick home in South Lyon.

Mrs. Ida Corey of Northville visited Mrs. Laura Smith last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Herrick visited in Plymouth and South Lyon Sunday afternoon.

Salem Congregational Church, Rev. Lucia M. Stroh, minister.

Divine worship, Sunday morning at 10:30 a. m., followed by Sunday school at 11:45 a. m. The pastor will again fill his pulpit and hopes to see members and friends out in full force.

Prayer meeting Wednesday at 8 p. m. and choir practice Friday at 8 p. m. in the church.

Again we had the privilege to hear Rev. Mrs. Cooper of Detroit in an eloquent message on "Endurance With Power From on High." Most essential in these trying days of many turning away from God and spiritual life.

God so loved the world that He gave his only begotten Son that whosoever believeth on Him, should not perish, but have life everlasting. John 3:16.

HOMEMAKER'S CORNER

BY MRS. EDITOR

WE'RE "ALL IN THE SAME BOAT"

"These are the times when we women will have to stick together," said a Northville woman the other day.

Financial distress is not an unfamiliar evil if it brings women of all classes closer together in sympathy. Trouble shows no class distinctions. Artistic barriers are burned away in the ties of difficulty.

Not long ago a stirring story ran in a favorite woman's magazine. A great ocean liner steamed out of New York harbor. A typical company of passengers—lounge, in steamer chairs on the deck and met together in the dining room. In this assembly there were "snobs," wrapped in their selfishness, rusty, worldly travelers, talkative botes, others locked in clam-like reserve, young, old, newly wed and disappointed lovers—just a motley mass of human beings thrown together for the length of the trip across the Atlantic. They were utterly indifferent to each other.

"But presto! In mid-ocean a fire broke out in the hold of the great vessel and in that common danger all was changed. Through the long, smoky hours of the night they stayed close together in the cabin each trying to be "game" for the others' sake. While each heart quaked inwardly, lips smiled jokes, sojers and mutual sacrifice proved their courage.

"In the face of danger differences were forgotten and when at length dawn broke and a rescuing vessel came alongside the sinking boat it was a company of real friends who stepped across to safety.

"We women are all in the same boat," right now. No use in asking friends husband for money now—what's money? Can't paper the dining room? Can't have that new piece of furniture we thought we just had to have? Have to ransack attic for clothes to make over? Cheer up, we're all doing it and what will it matter a year or so hence when the tide turns.

Wouldn't we all be far happier to frankly admit that we're "hard up" now and quit straining to "keep up with the Joneses"? It might give courage to that brave little neighbor who is fighting a battle five times as hard as ours.

A Northville physician said recently, "After all if we have our friends and families and they are all well and true to us—what else really matters?"

Let's stick together in the boat, women, if it is rather rocky just now.

TO COLLEGE OR NOT TO COLLEGE

Every year more young people are deciding that it shall be To-College. Colleges are over-flowing. It is therefore time for high school graduates to be laying plans and making application to the college of their choice. It is a mistake to leave this to chance of the last minute.

Every beginner in college should have in sight a good proportion of his first year's expenses, or at least know where it is coming from—but this is not absolutely essential if the student is resourceful, plucky and in sturdy health.

Consider the case of Ann Arbor's football star, Joe Friedlander. He entered the University with just 75 cents in his pocket after he had paid his tuition fees. But he had a violin which he played well, he had determination, and faith in his ability to make good.

By playing in orchestras, making himself useful to the household of the Dean of Men, and doing such other work as offered, he has put himself through four consecutive years and saved $800 to start his post-graduate course in Commerce. He is a member of a fraternity and the boys say he does not indulge in tobacco, swearing nor swagger.

Sunshine Cake
Mrs. B. C. Stark made a delicious sunshine cake for a gathering of women some time ago and we pass it on.

6 eggs—Beat separately
1 cup sugar. Add gradually
1/4 cup cold water
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup flour with 1 teaspoon baking powder sifted in it
Add egg whites last. Bake 1 hour at 350 degrees

Peach Preserves
Our sister-in-law, Mrs. Ben Baldwin, makes this good jam which is a little different and has a good "tang".

24 peaches, 12 oranges, skins of 6 oranges, 8 cups sugar. Cut the orange peel with scissors. Slice peaches. Mix all together and let stand over night. Cook down thick next morning. Pour in glasses and seal with paraffine.

TAKE an INSURANCE ADJUSTER along!

Not as difficult as you might think. Just carry an Auto-Owners identification card. It guarantees Automobile Insurance "adjustments at telegraph speed" wherever you may travel. Ask about it.

A long and faithful ministry characterized by zeal and devotion and a splendid stand for the best things on the part of minister coupled with the love and loyalty of his congregation during these years is a monument worthy of much gratitude and pride. We wish him Heaven's best in his new field of labor and bespeak for his successor the same fidelity which helped make his ministry here a success.
