COUNCIL ASKS BIDS ON NEW TEST WELLS

Commissioner Takes Action to Improve the Water Supply

Following seven years of discussion the village has decided to take action relative to the establishment of a new water supply.

A resolution was passed Monday night by the council directing the clerk to write to a list of well-drivers and have them appear before the next council meeting on October 19 and give their estimates on what it would cost to sink a series of test wells.

The discussion got under way when Commissioner Ross B. Dusenbury declared himself to be emphatically in favor of changing the water supply.

As members of the council, they are in the position of being responsible to the people. Dusenbury, who is in favor of getting the water supply as soon as possible, has been considerable agitation among townspeople lately and I am in favor of immediate action.

Options of the various councilmen, medical men and the townspeople who had gathered for the discussion were asked and they responded in favor of a new water supply.

Councilman Geo. Hicks expressed himself as being in favor of a new water supply if the well-water could be pumped directly into the mains and eliminate any need for a reservoir.

Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston was asked for the latest reports on the water supply.

"Fambrbrook springs within the past month," he said, "have reacted negatively to tests, which is to say that they are considered safe because of the state chlorinator which is now in use."

The chlorinator which the village is using is one that has been loaned by the state department of health and may be recalled at any time.

Dr. Johnston later made the statement that he still considered the Northville water supply to be potentially dangerous.

Reports were brought forward to show that the water at the Ford factory has been tested every month and only with the last two reports has it been pronounced safe to drink.

Commissioner Dusenbury declared that despite these reports, there had been previous tests made this year, that the University of Michigan and the state health department, had both considered the water, "that considerable agitation now made it imperative that action on a new water supply be begun."

At this point Mayor Harry S. German criticized the Northville Record for printing a story on September 11 informing the people that the water was "potentially dangerous." Mayor German termed the story a form of propaganda and declared that it was printed before opportunity for a thorough discussion could be held and said that the reporter had written the article before he had become familiar with "both sides of the story."

In response to the reporter's statement that the water situation has been dragging along, according to the mayor's own admission, for a number of years and nothing has been done about it, the mayor made no reply. In reference to the charge of a propaganda report it was brought out that until that evening no one had made any favorable reports on the water supply and that it had been condemned by the state department of health, the University of Michigan chemists and the village health officer.

The report made by State Geologist Richard A. Smith and Director of Engineering E. D. Rich, of the Michigan Department of Health on the possibility of improving the town's water supply, declared to be potentially dangerous, was again reviewed by the council, as the two experts had delivered their opinions only before Commissioners Dr. H. H. Burkart, Ross B. Dusenbury, Dr. L. W. Snow and Village Health Officer Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston, other members of the council and the president being unable to attend the meeting.

Further opinions were then called for.

"Northville water is rotten," declared Dr. Henry Handorf, "and while the contamination can be controlled by chlorination, who wants to drink chlorinated water?"

"From the standpoint of health, the water is safe enough because of the present chlorination, but we will always have poor domestic water, hard, full of chemicals and not at all desirable. Because we have lived the past 40 years without good water."

BACKS HALF MILL TAX

WILLARD A. ELY

Willard A. Ely, capable Northville township supervisor who is a member of the ways and means committee, threw him wholeheartedly into the movement to keep 2,000 men off of the welfare rolls this winter. These township men will aid in furthering Wayne county's better roads program.

TED WATTS GIVES ALBION A VICTORY OVER CITY COLLEGE

Brilliant open-field running by Ted Watts, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Watts of Northville, enabled Albion college to defeat Detroit City college at Detroit Sunday.

The following comments on his work were carried in the Detroit papers: "Free Press: 'Ted Watts, Albion triple-threat halfback, ran 40 yards through a broken field to score the touchdown that gave his team a 7-0 victory over Detroit City College Saturday afternoon at Lyan-der Field.'

Watts not only scored the only touchdown of the game but did all the kicking and passing for the Methodists. He was the only consistent ground gainer on the field."

"Detroit News: 'Watts carried the ball three times in succession to give Albion the only score of the game. His first two dashes were good for first downs and brought the ball to the 35-yard stripe. Watts then squirmed and twisted around his own left end for the touchdown.'

ENTRIES INVITED TO RED TARGET SHOOT

A Fall Chicken and Red Target Shoot will be held on Sunday, behind the P. M. R. Depot and all of the trap shooters in the vicinity of Northville and Plymouth are invited to attend the affair.

A large crowd of shooters gathered two weeks ago when a truckload of peaches was given away to the prize winners. This Sunday, those who break the red targets may collect either 50c in cash or a chicken to take home for dinner.

Sponsors of the shoot are W. Ware, E. Fell, Howard Hall, Wm. Forney and E. Warner.

There is no reason why we shouldn't have it for the next 10 years.

"We should have an A number one water supply instead of the shallow springs we now have and I say, the sooner the better."

Dr. H. I. Sparling stated that he was never personally afraid of the water and that as far as he knew it was safe. He was questioned as to whether he had ever made tests of the water and he admitted that he had not saying that the opinion he had given was based on the fact that he had never run across any cases of illness in Northville which had resulted from contaminated water.

Commissioners Merrill Sweet and Dr. L. W. Snow announced themselves as being in favor of a new water supply but Dr. Snow added that since a special election was necessary before the new project could be developed and in view of the fact that special elections were expensive, one having already been held this year, he was in favor of letting the project go until the March election when it could be placed before the voters.

The discussion was brought to a close with the passage of the resolution which directed the clerk to seek bids on the proposed test wells.

Other business before the council included the passage of a resolution favoring the acceptance of a surty bond of $20,000 covering the village funds on deposit in the First National bank in Detroit.

A resolution permitting the storage of 550 gallons of fuel for oil burners in the basement of any building, providing that not more than 275 gallons shall be permitted in any one tank, was passed unanimously by the council.

Chief of Police Wm. Safford and Village Treasurer John Litsenberger made their reports to the council.

ELY AIDS AS BOARD PASSES HALF MILL TAX

Action by Supervisors Will Give Work to 2,000 Men

The Wayne County Board of Supervisors, Wednesday, passed the bill providing for the assessment of a half mill tax by a vote of 64 to 45. The bill will give work to approximately 2,000 township men who would otherwise be forced to ask for welfare aid.

The tax, declared Willard A. Ely, Northville township supervisor, which will raise close to $2,000,000, was voted for solidly by the county supervisors and also several city members of the board.

The majority of the city members, said Mr. Ely, favored the tax of a half mill tax which had been proposed by the ways and means committee as a compromise solution to the problem.

The motion to levy the half mill tax, said Mr. Ely, was signed by ten members, of which he was one, of the ways and means committee, and was opposed by nine members headed by Wm. B. Bradley, chairman.

The portion of the committee favoring the passage of the bill emphasized the fact that none of the proposed building projects should be deferred. The road commission reported that of the half mill tax was not passed the widening and extension of Jefferson, avenue and Davison avenue and several other county projects would have to be abandoned. This report brought the support of the Highland Park and the down river members to the half mill tax.

Mayor Frank Murphy signed the report recommending a tenth of a mill levy and proposed a fourth of a mill tax, but this was not discussed.

"The birth of the new 'Eastlawn Stethoscope' embodying all of the good features of the old Stethoscope with the addition of several excellent improvements has aroused the open admiration of the merchants and residents of Northville."

The paper is edited by A. L. Anderson, assisted by a staff composed of James A. McDonald, feature writer, Bertha Dallas, circulation manager, Jeannette Caulfield and Kathleen Scheer, reporters, and Jack North, columnist.

Formerly a four-page weekly paper, 13 by 10 1/2 inches, the Stethoscope has been enlarged to a ten-page monthly magazine, 11 by 9 1/2 inches, printed on a high grade of enameled paper.

Following five weeks of "closed" for alterations, Editor Anderson has brought further enjoyment to the patrons of Eastlawn Stethoscope with the new Stethoscope.

Published solely for the patients and former patients of Eastlawn who have returned to their homes, the Stethoscope contains a veritable mine of educational information within its columns regarding tuberculosis. Avidly read by its subscribers, the Stethoscope is distributed from coast to coast and is sought by inhabitants of 23 states.

D. J. CROWLEY'S DISPOSITION WINS AT AUTUMN SHOW

Northville again came into the limelight in the saddle horse world Saturday at the Autumn Horse Show of the Cavalry club of Michigan when D. J. Crowley's Disposition was ranked as the best performer of the meet.

Disposition, a two-year-old, one-second while Capt. W. R. Hazeltine's Jane Wayne had a first, a second and a third. The event was held at the club grounds at Six Mile and Inkster roads. Eleven classes were listed.

Disposition, from the Crowley stables, just off the Sever Mile road, had the following winnings for the day: First in the Novice riding class, first in the hunter class and second in the open jumping class.

DETROIT WANTS COUNTY WELFARE AID

The City of Detroit is attempting, according to a statement made by Willard A. Ely, Northville township supervisor, to shift the burden of taking care of its poor onto Wayne county and the cost to the county townships would be greatly increased over the present cost.

The present amount of money set aside for aiding the needy by Northville township is $1,000 and according to estimates this would be increased to $16,926.25 if the County of Wayne took over the burden of helping the poor. The estimate also shows that Plymouth township cost for helping the poor would be boosted from the present figure of $1,500 to $30,197.31.

The bill for Detroit taking care of its own poor is estimated at present to be approximately $14,000,000 and this would be reduced, under the new plan, to $11,962,087.23, a saving of $3,037,912.77.

The bill, in order to be passed, must have the support of 74 members of the board of supervisors, according to Mr. Ely, and he does not think that they will obtain it.

"There are 51 county supervisors who have organized strongly on this matter," said Mr. Ely, "and there are some seventy-odd city supervisors who will attempt to have the bill pushed through. We're going to fight it all we can and I think that we will undoubtedly be successful in having it killed."

Mayor Harry S. German Closes His 43rd Year of Consecutive Pitching With Successful Season

Mayor Harry S. German has added to his remarkable record in baseball.

The Northville Chiefs made the Liberty A. C. Club of Detroit go to the end of the eleventh inning before winning at the fair ground diamond last Sunday. The final score was 7 to 6—only one run was made by both teams in the last five innings.

At the end of the seventh, the score was tied and German retired in favor of Moore who finished the game. The only pinch hitter for the Chiefs was that their usual line-up was missing and it left the club in a weaker condition than usual. Manager "Grandpa" German was asked when his next game would be and his answer was interesting. He stated in his own words, "I am 'caught up' for this season and my ball uniform is packed away for the winter."

Further questioning revealed that he has had a fairly good season for a pitcher that has ended his forty-third consecutive year. He has pitched 22 games and lost seven and those by narrow margins. In the 22 games played he gave but eight bases on balls and hit three batters.

"I have had another lucky year," he said, "for my weight is normal, my fingers intact and my arm has no kinks in it. It would have to be a very special occasion for me to play again this year."

Mayor German is spending a good deal of time assisting at the State bank at Carleton, of which he is a director.

It appears now that baseball is over in Northville for the season of 1931 and we will have to turn our attention to high school of some independent foot ball team when we like out of door sports.

NEW "STETHOSCOPE" IS NOW TEN PAGE MONTHLY MAGAZINE

The birth of the new "Eastlawn Stethoscope" embodying all of the good features of the old Stethoscope with the addition of several excellent improvements has aroused the open admiration of the merchants and residents of Northville."

The paper is edited by A. L. Anderson, assisted by a staff composed of James A. McDonald, feature writer, Bertha Dallas, circulation manager, Jeannette Caulfield and Kathleen Scheer, reporters, and Jack North, columnist.

PRESBYTERIAN HARVEST FESTIVAL DRAWS CROWD

"Like a veritable country fair the Presbyterian church house was gay with fruits and vegetables at the Harvest Festival, Wednesday. Piles of pumpkins, apples and potatoes, rows of canned yellow peaches, rich preserves and sparkling jellies were attractively arranged on long tables surrounding the room, while baskets of huge dahlias added their touch to the beautiful scene."

Northville women's skill in cookery was so well known from the previous festival, when the late Mrs. Estelle Grennan initiated this unique plan, that many of her friends came again for their winter supply of preserves for their shelves.

Nearly a dozen friends of Mrs. Thad Knapp came out from Detroit to take advantage of this festival and were her guests at luncheon, an additional attraction of the Harvest Festival.

Very well organized was this affair with Mrs. Harry B. Clark as "general." She was ably assisted by Miss Lois Brookman and Mrs. John Flynn. Presiding over the various departments were the following: Covered fruit, Mesdames Hedberg, Llewellyn, Schrader and Milne; jellies, Mesdames Margaret Yerkes and E. H. Lapham; baked goods and candy, Mesdames Sweet, Green, Demme and Hauger, while those serving lunch were Mesdames Georgia Yerkes, R. A. Dusenbury, F. J. Cochrane and Don P. Yerkes.

Other "ministering angels" there were who were less in evidence. When evening came the erstwhile filled tables were pretty well cleared and the hall had that "after-the-ball" look as the enterprising women cleared up the remains and pocketed the well-earned profits, which rounded out over $200.

LINCOLN PARK MEETS N. H. S. HERE TODAY

Northville Gridders Open The Home Season at Four O'clock

Lincoln Park, last year's football champions, engages Northville high in its second game of the year here today.

Many of the faults of last week's game have been corrected and Northville will undoubtedly give a better account of itself today.

The band will be at the game to help the team onto victory.

Let's have everyone turn out for the game.

The game will be called at 4:00 o'clock.

Northville Loses to Wayne

The Northville high school gridironers lost their initial game of the season, 14-0, at Wayne on Friday, October 2nd.

Northville received and lost the ball on a fumble. Later Northville had the ball again and made three consecutive first downs on-line plunges and two nice passes.

In the second quarter McCordie attempted a field goal, but it was blocked. It was in this period that Wayne scored her first touchdown on a lateral pass, and the attempt for goal was successful.

Wayne scored her last touchdown in the last period, and Kingsbury, who scored the counter, also accounted for the point after touchdown, making the score 14-0.

Northville's offense was very good in the first half, but her defense weakened in the second session.

Meininger, Beach and Schrader started for Northville, and McCordie's punting was a feature of the game.

The Northville line-up was: Beach, I. E., Schrader, I. J., Fry, I. G., Robinson, G. Kohler, I. T., Tibble, R. C., Campbell, G., McCordie, I. H., Biery, R. H., Meininger, F. B. Substitutions were: Northville—Bender, Dickinson, Knight, Reed, Meyers, Bray, Steenchen.

PRAY FOR OTHERS, NOT SELF, SAYS REV. F. N. MINER

"Our prayer emphasis should be on what we need rather than on what we want," declared Rev. Frank N. Miner in his discussion of prayer, as a means of service at the Methodist church Sunday morning.

"Pray for individuals first of all," continued the preacher, "they will be helped and in the forgetting of ourselves we shall get near the very heart of religion. We live amid complex social problems and we should pray for society that it may be kept as clean and wholesome as possible. By our prayers for others we shall again forget ourselves and render a real service to the world."

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shieff and son, Edwin returned home Tuesday evening, October 6, from a nine weeks' visit in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Putnam and sister Mrs. John Phelps, returned Sunday evening from Coleman, Mich. where they spent the week-end.

F. E. Saxton went to Detroit Monday, to attend the funeral of his brother who died as a result of a heart attack on the previous Friday.

Mrs. Katherine Hurlburt and Mrs. Jennie Scheafnocker were in Detroit, Tuesday evening, to attend a dinner at the home of Mrs. P. Fitzpatrick of West Boston boulevard.

The first meeting of the L. A. S. of the Methodist church for the year will be held at the home of Mrs. Bortha Neal on Tuesday afternoon October 13. All women of the church are invited.

The village library needs a load of kindling and will be glad for a gift from anyone who feels disposed to thus manifest his appreciation of this public institution, which is at present without funds. Please call Mrs. F. S. Harmon.

Miss Pemela C. Kohler spent ten days at Kintsville, Ont. as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schneider, returning to Detroit and visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Merrill for a week. She returned last Friday, bringing with her Miss Winifred Schneider, who remained for a week.

The Mission Circle, which was to have met with Mrs. Shurtliff, Thursday afternoon, has been postponed on account of two of her close neighbors' families being under quarantine.

The decision of the judges in the B. Y. P. U. contest was in favor of the Stewardship commission. A delegation from each of the losing commissions met Monday evening with Mrs. Warren Rice to make plans for bestowing honors on the honored. The interest created and which continued throughout the eight weeks was splendid and the very unusual meeting which followed last Sunday evening showed they

THEATRE WILL OPEN HERE ON OCTOBER 23

Penniman Allen Installs New Equipment to Improve Pictures

The Northville Penniman Allen theatre will open, announced Harry Lush, manager, of the Allen theatres, on Friday and Saturday, October 23-24, featuring Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell in "Merely Mary Ann."

New projecting equipment will improve the theatre to the point of making it one of the foremost in the state.

Closed because of the infantile paralysis epidemic, which has now abated, the opportunity to install new equipment was taken advantage of and Northville moving picture fans are now assured of the latest first run films shown in a theatre possessing the latest scientific machinery.

The Northville theatre has been the mecca of "fans" in Northville and surrounding territory. During the past month they have felt the loss of one of their most popular forms of recreation.

Northville residents have planned to give the theatre a hearty welcome on its reopening. The Exchange club inviting their wives and sweethearts to be their guests for the evening.

BOB MCGARDIE STARS AS JACKSON J. C. TRIMSPORT HURON

With Bob McGardie, shifty 185-pound halfback of Northville leading the attack, Jackson Junior college opened its football season Friday night under the lights at Jackson with a 28 to 6 victory over Port Huron Junior college.

"The Jackson Tribune gave McGardie a big headline and among other things said this of the Northville athlete's work: "This flashy halfback scored all four of the Maroon's touchdowns and proved the hardest man on the field to bring down."

"McGardie provided the 'biggest thrill of the game, when as the first quarter drew to a close he took the ball on his own 21-yard line and raced through the entire Port Huron eleven for a touchdown. Good blocking by his teammates aided his march."

The Jackson Jaycees will meet Highland Park Saturday.

EXCHANGE CLUB TO AID COMMUNITY LIFE

The Exchange club at its luncheon Wednesday talked over community problems in a heart-to-heart way and decided to make a definite effort to meet the welfare situation that faces the community and also to bring about a renewed interest in village life. Two committees were named by President C. B. Turnbull, Charles A. Dolph was named to handle one that will investigate the welfare situation. The other members are L. C. Stewart and R. T. Baldwin.

The other committees has as its chairman Elmer Smith the other members being Nelson C. Schrader, Orlow G. Owen, Dr. T. P. Brennan and Roy Crowe.

Miss Margaret Tank, accompanied by Charles Ely motored to Grand Rapids Saturday, where they met Miss Tank's mother and sister of Rogers City Sunday, her father and another sister joined them in Grand Rapids. Miss Tank and Charles returned to Northville Sunday evening.

do not intend to get into a rut in the near future. The Service commission in tableaux accompanied with short talks, portrayed vividly to our minds the influence, ideals and results of a Christian home. Appropriate hymns were sung with each scene. Standing at the marriage altar were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Rice pledging their lives to each other and to God; little Jean Munro assumed the role of little daughter at her mother's knee and at the family table; Miss Mary Dutton took the daughter's part when very ill in her teen age; and Miss Marjorie Atkinson, when the daughter had gone out from home as a missionary to the Philippine Islands.

Ronald and Ada Burton, Harold Dutton, George Maurs, Joy Thompson and J. O. Munro gave the talks accompanying the scenes. Misses Mary Munro and Ernestine Grace were the angels who drew the curtains that all might get a glimpse into the sacred portals of this home. Little Elaine Hardy and Betty Osborn sang "Jewels," and thus closed one of the best meetings held in Novi for some time.

LYDIA PINKHAM

Lydia Pinkham died in 1883 but her name and medicine—live on. In 1931 the appropriation for Lydia Pinkham advertising is a million and a half dollars. Write your own editorial.

A CHANCE FOR US

Elton R. Eaton, speaking editorially in The Plymouth Mail, says Plymouth is "One thousand per cent better off than the other fellow." And also that after the "hard times" are over soon, "Plymouth will be leading the parade of civic progress in Michigan."

That's fine. With Plymouth going so strong, surely some of the prosperity will just naturally overflow our way.

Keep your eye on Plymouth and Northville—there's lots of room for both of us to grow great and strong.

WE ENVIED HIM

There are few folks we envy. Yet, Friday afternoon we met one of our professional men and just wished we were in his shoes. He banged the office door behind him and so we asked him: "Where are you going?" "Fishing," was the reply.

Honestly, we felt sorry for himself and glad for him. A warm October sun hung lazily in the sky and the great outdoors called and we had to go back to the office and write foolish editorials. Some days we think we were all wrong to try to run a newspaper when we might have been out raising apples.

COOLIDGE HELPS HOOVER

Calvin Coolidge is as wise and canny as he ever was. It is announced that he will not be a candidate for the Republican nomination against Herbert Hoover. His attitude means that President Hoover will—unless there is some very radical change—run for his second term. Whether Hoover will be elected remains to be seen. He stands higher today than he did a few months ago. Even if times don't improve as rapidly as some would like, the nation may think twice before repudiating his administration. If good times come this spring, Hoover will be hard to beat.

ADVERTISING APPLES

If you had ten thousand bushels of apples on the trees and the apple market was "all shot to pieces"—as it is this fall, what would you do? Let the apples rot on the ground or sell them for little or nothing?

Here is what the owners and managers of the "Ne-Ru-Bar" (where did they get that name?) orchards over at Albion did last week. They took a fifty-inch ad in the Albion Evening Recorder and invited all the people of the community to be "Our guests. See fancy Michigan apples raised by local orchardists on October 3 and 4. See 10,000 bushels of apples on the trees."

Those boys may not sell all those 10,000 bushels of apples but they will sell a lot more than they would had they not done something to live things up a bit.

BUY IT NOW

A good editor friend of ours, whose town has also been hit by a bank closing (not a bank "failure") writes us something like this:

"I wonder if we editors are not exuding too much gloom and grief and forgetting the cheerful side."

All right, brother, here is some good cheer:

"Now is the time to start buying and loosening up the money that you have tied up."

There has been a lot of hysteria and unnecessary tying-up of the purse strings. Some people haven't work but a lot of others have been on regular income and their dollar now will buy more than ever. The other day a big Detroit bank took whole pages of the daily papers to urge people to buy. Well, that's fine advice. Right now in Northville you can get some of the finest bargains you ever could imagine. You can buy furniture at a price that would surprise you. You can get shoes and clothing much cheaper than a few months ago.

What has happened? Just this, prices have reached a new low level and people are starting to realize that these are real bargain days. What will happen? Just this, one of these days—before you realize it—the prices will start rising again and then there will be a grand rush for merchandise. Better start buying now while the dollar does double duty. Higher prices are sure to come.

A CHECK FOR TEN THOUSAND

The widow of a man in Detroit who died recently knew that he had lapsed his life insurance because he had not been able to meet the premiums. Yet she thought that perhaps there might be some interest or a little of something coming to her in some way so she went to the office of the company and asked if by any chance there might be a hundred dollars left to salvage. "I know he couldn't pay the premiums but I thought perhaps there might be some way of getting a little of something," she said.

The officials looked up the policy and said to the woman: "We can give you a check for ten thousand dollars, your husband's premiums had not been paid recently but a 'paid-up' clause in his policy will enable us to give you ten thousand dollars."

The woman just about fainted away. To get $10,000 when you expected little or nothing is enough to make any one swoon.

Think what ten thousand dollars would mean to your family if you were gone and get your insurance while the getting is good.

THE "NEVER-SAY-DIE" SPIRIT

Ionla and Caro are two Michigan towns that each had a bank close. The newspapers of these two places tell what happened afterward. Read a clipping from each newspaper:

(From The Tuscola Co. Advertiser, Caro)

More than 800 people, most of them depositors of the State Savings Bank of Caro, jammed the high school auditorium Tuesday evening, to hear the affairs of the institution discussed, and to listen to a proposed depositors' agreement which, if approved, would pave the way for a re-organization and re-opening of the bank.

In addition to the big crowd inside the auditorium, many people were forced to listen as best they might from the hallways but in spite of the crowded conditions, the utmost good nature prevailed.

It was not long after the meeting had begun that H. P. Orr, state senator and temporary receiver for the bank, asked all those present in the room who wished to see the bank re-opened, to stand. Never was the never-say-die, optimistic attitude of Caro people and those in the entire community more clearly revealed than when, without a bit of hesitation, every person in the room rose to his feet.

(From the Ionla Co. News, Ionla)

Hopes for the successful reorganization and reopening of the State Savings Bank of Ionla, recently closed when steady withdrawals had depleted serious impairment of cash reserves, were given a decided boost when about 1,000 depositors of the bank gathered at the armory here Tuesday evening. The depositors present were estimated by bank officials to represent a high percentage of the bank's deposits.

Definite action, backed by an apparent spirit of whole-hearted cooperation on the part of the assembled depositors, resulted in the naming of a committee of ten men, who in turn, were authorized to select a committee of three to represent the depositors and to work with the bank's board of directors and the state banking commission in formulating plans to expedite the reorganization and reopening of the closed institution.

Both Caro and Ionla are showing the "never-say-die" spirit and unless we are badly mistaken those towns are going to get their banks back. You can't stop that kind of spirit.

The same kind of folks live in Northville as reside up in Caro in the Thumb of Michigan and in Ionla, the home town of the former governor, Fred W. Green. We haven't a bank now but we are going to have one. The Northville spirit will meet the test that is ahead of us—just how many weeks or months, we don't know. But, sooner or later, we shall win.

MOST IMPORTANT ADVICE

(La Grange, Ind., Standard)

A man credited with having unusual wisdom answers the question, "What is the most important advice to give a young man?" thus:

"Tell him to pay his bills promptly and to live within his income, however small."

That is good advice for older people also.

A TIME FOR KINDNESS

(Fred D. Keister in Ionla Co. News)

I don't like the idea of turning a man and his family into the streets because they can't meet the rent, the interest on the mortgage, or the contract payments on the home. I think if there ever was a time when human compassions should be enlarged to meet every situation, that time is right now. Everybody should be willing to bear his fair share of the burden, and this includes the landlord, the holder of the contract, or the man who has the mortgage. This may sound a bit socialistic, but these are unusual times when unusual methods must be adopted.

Only this morning an old man was pointed out to me who had been evicted from the house that he and his aged wife were occupying. I don't want to see the crushed look that was in his face again. It still haunts me. A heartless landlord had employed the agency of the law to regain possession of his property, which, under the law, he had a perfect right to do, but I am wondering if that was true in the sight of God?

PLYMOUTH GOES AHEAD

(Elton R. Eaton in The Plymouth Mail)

Why is Plymouth growing?

Why are business men complaining less about bad business here than in most any other place?

Why do the Plymouth public schools show an increased enrollment when many other schools in communities near here and of about the same size as Plymouth, show a decreased attendance?

Why?

Because Plymouth residents have confidence in their community.

They have confidence in one and the other.

They like to see the other fellow get along.

They are not carrying a chip around on their shoulders and asking someone to try and knock it off if they dare.

They boost for their schools, their churches, their banks and their business places.

They are loyal to each other.

If they cannot say a good word for someone, they say nothing. They see no pleasure in the distress of someone else.

Not only that, but they try to help anyone that needs help.

If by saying a good word, some business can be aided, they say the good word and they say it emphatically.

What is going to be the result of this fine public spirit so manifest in Plymouth?

Just this—

When this depression is all over, when business is back to normal, and it surely will be soon—Plymouth will be so far out in the lead there will never be any question as to its dominance in one of the widest trading territories in this part of Michigan.

Its business houses will be THE business houses of the vast metropolitan district outside the city limits of Detroit. Its banks will be THE banks of one of the most substantial cities in Michigan. Its industries, schools, theatres, churches—everything that Plymouth is proud to possess, will be way out ahead of the procession.

Again why?

Just because the people of this ideal, and progressive, community held their heads and refused to listen to the gossip and blather that seems so prevalent. Wild rumors that have raised havoc in other communities have not shaken the confidence of the people of Plymouth.

Good judgment, cool judgment—the kind that builds substantial, progressive cities, has been manifested here ever since the depression started. As a result we are all ONE.

THOUSAND PER CENT better off than the other fellow.

We are going AHEAD in times of depression while the other fellow is marking time or going backward.

Soon "hard times" will be over and Plymouth will be leading the parade of civic progress in Michigan—happy and prosperous because we haven't made fools of ourselves by listening to the scandal mongers that are born of failure.

We've got our chins up and we are fighting as a unit for advancement and prosperity.

We are tending to our own business. If the other fellows want to fight each other, that's their business. Plymouth presents a united front in its forward march, and no united, loyal, determined army was ever licked since the beginning of the world!

That's why Plymouth is a bit more prosperous, its population increasing and its residents happy and contented over the success they are winning in the battle for better times.

HEARD ON THE STREET

John McCully—"I lived part of my life on a hill and I don't want any more of it."

Leslie C. Lee—"We have been in Northville over a year now and like it better right along."

Charles Smock—"I don't know when we'll start for California. I know one thing—I should just as soon stay here in Michigan."

Local Merchants—"We find that the 'thrift ads' which call attention to a special article for sale bring results. Women read them and take advantage."

Elton R. Eaton—"I have just come back from Newberry, in the upper peninsula, and if you want a fine trip there is one. It is a wonderful country to see. I have been up a couple of times this year and have gotten a 'big kick' out of it."

Editor Geo. H. Neal of Orion—"I always like to stop at the Record office when I come to Northville. You certainly have one of the best and most complete country newspaper offices in the whole state of Michigan."

Northville business man—"This is not the time to hoard the few available dollars on hand. I tell my wife to buy what she needs and keep the dollars rolling—that's the only way to break the tie-up. A trades journal reached my desk lately urging folks to 'limber up'."

Milton Handorf, five-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. H. Handorf, is quarantined with chicken pox which the doctor thinks he acquired on the steamer returning from Germany recently. His little sister, Barbara, has not yet taken the disease. This is the only case in town.

EDITORIAL

After a brief interruption the school year of 1931-1932 is again under way. Never have we seen such a splendid spirit on the part of students and faculty alike. The energetic responses to duties have been remarkable.

Looking ahead, we can see a very successful and fruitful year for the Northville schools. Let us all pledge ourselves to help bring this about.

RUSSELL H. AMERMAN.

JOURNALISM CLASS ORGANIZED

The journalism class this year promises to be a good one. The members of the class are: Audrey Taylor, Florence Johnson, Geraldine Ferguson, Jane Lawrence, Inga Staman, Alex Johnson, Catherine Stalter, Ruth Mary Baldwin, Shirley Preston, Ruth Corey, Dorothy Healey, Helen Fleishman, Winifred McCordie, Donald Ferguson, Eleanor Eaton, Pauline Masters, Dorothy Richardson, Helen Christensen, Eleanor Grosvenor, Sally Richardson, Peggy Blake, Beverly Staman, and Miriam Dundas. Alex Johnson, who is a graduate, will cover the sports. The class meets every Tuesday at 3:15 in room 3 with Mr. Lee in charge.

Mr. Lee has contrived a new method for recording the amount of work done by each member of the class. It is a chart on which he marks the number of columns which are written. Of the ninth and tenth grades, three columns inches are required each week and of the eleventh and twelfth grades four columns inches are required for credit.

TEACHER HOLDS A REGULAR "HOUSE CLEANING"

While the boys and girls were enjoying an extra two weeks vacation many changes took place in the school. The most noticeable was the change of Mrs. Chapman's room. What used to be the store room and cash all is now part of Mrs. Chapman's room brought about by removing a partition.

Another change was the moving of fifteen assembly room seats into Miss Van Vleet's room downstairs in room number one. These seats were taken from the center row in the assembly, leaving a wide center aisle.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB STARTS ACTIVITIES

The Senior High School Girls' Glee club, under the direction of Leslie G. Lee, has started its activities for the coming year. It will be remembered that the Glee club placed first in the District Contest at Ypsilanti last year. The girls are striving to do as well this year.

One member was lost through graduation and two others did not return leaving eighteen. "Old Faithfuls" they are Bernice Clark, Madeline Haystead, Pauline Masters, Mary Louise Boyden, Jewel Clark, Marion Turnbull, Arlene Richardson, Gertrude Deal, Eleanor Grosvenor, Helen Murdoch, Myrtle Lemmon, Avis Perry, Audrey Taylor, Florence Johnson, Winifred McCordie, Marie Lemmon, Ferguson, Eaton and Geraldine Ferguson, accompanist.

Tryouts have taken place during the past week. Several students were anxious to become members. Those who have received the honor are Mary Jane Deine, Margaret Hay, Jane Lester, Shirley Preston, Frances Cousins, Ruth Corey and Mary Elkington.

Practice is being arranged on Wednesday and Friday from 11:15 to 12:00.

The first concert will be presented in November in the high school auditorium. Various other concerts are being planned for the coming year.

SCHOOL BOOK STORE PROVES ECONOMICAL AND CONVENIENT

Although last year's school book store proved itself worthwhile this year's was even more successful.

Mrs. Ray, librarian and personnel, with her assistants, Ms. Lee and Miss Schrader, had the books so arranged in one room that the students desiring books formed a file in the hall and in an orderly and quick manner received their books and supplies.

The book store charges the students five cents for handling second-hand books. This fee is added to help cover the expense of extra help.

Books are sold to the school twenty-five per cent below list price and ten per cent of this price is added to cover the handling, postage and extra help. The rest of the profit books are purchased for the students whose parents have been visited by old man "depression". A few books have been left on the shelves for newcomers during the year.

not international importance. Many of our home town employers and employees should take an interest in this subject and attend the debates.

Debate class is to be held on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays from 3:15 to 4:00 o'clock. Many practice debates are being planned before the first league debate which is scheduled for November 13. Where and with whom will be announced later.

Those who will try out for the team are: Esther Bacon, Katherine McKenna, John Stenchen, Elizabeth Miner, Wilma Rattenbury, Vicci Sheppard, George Beasley, Robert Cousins and Catherine Stalter.

WHAT OUR LAST YEAR'S SENIORS ARE DOING

Well folks, "curiosity killed a cat," but we imagine some of you have been wondering just what our last year's graduates are doing this year. Did we guess right? Of course. Here's an inkling of how our ambitious, used-to-be seniors spend their time. Whether it's college, office work, clerking, or taking a post-graduate course, say they are all worth putting in upon for you to feast your eyes upon.

The college graduates (???) : Velma Blake, Michigan State Normal; Marian Richards, Michigan State Normal; George Greenlee, pre-law course at the University of Michigan; Frederick Kerr, engineering course at Michigan State College; Ivan Ely, liberal arts course at Michigan State College; Ted Cavell, veterinary course at Michigan State; Elmer Perrin, pre-law course at Michigan State; Mary Ellen Barbour, Illinois College; Frank Hinchman, Georgia Tech; Dorothy Green, nursing training in a Detroit hospital; Howard Christensen, Albin; Joy Thompson, Michigan State Normal; Martin Sommer, is studying music at Cass Technical high school in Detroit. Alex Johnson is studying exercising his vocal chords along with his post-graduate course.

There are other ambitious ones in the class besides those going to college. Here's the list of these: Francis B. Rogers is judging eggs at the E. M. B. grocery; Robert Latsenberger is the manager of the A. & P. store; Rose Chargo is a mother's helping hand; Wayne Preston is still supporting Northville; Margaret Norton is "selling" china at the five and ten cent store; Odith Fosgate is running the farm; Helen Strachan has taken up "Good Housekeeping" for her father; Eleanor Westphal is hoping a job is around the corner; Elmer Westphal is taking a well-earned rest at home after his many years of hard labor; Florence Blake and Hazel Cordukes are "holding the fort" at their respective homes; Hester Keller hopes for work in the near future; Ned Junod is the big tie and shirt man you will meet at the Men's Shop; Lottie Damm is attending Curry's Business college at Ypsilanti; Floyd Darling is staying at home as is Mary Mados, who is taking one big vacation before she settles down to college work; Esther Fischer is also at home; Mable Bryan plans to attend a Detroit business college in the near future; Wilfred Stelner is also attending college; Isabelle Cross is staying at home for the present.

Here's the roll call of the class of '31. Can't you see they are all ambitious?

OUR AMBITIOUS HISTORY TEACHERS

We sometimes wonder if the students of old Northville know much about their teachers besides the fact that they teach some one of his or her classes.

This week we are going to give you an interesting fact about Mrs. Cobb. Really folks, she is ambitious, for how else would she continue her work every fall towards a Master's degree at the University of Michigan. Mrs. Cobb's degree is one of "Personnel".

NO MORE BEARDS!

Have you heard the one on how Peter the Great tried to Europeanize the formerly Asiatic Russia? We must admit Peter had quite a system! He made the women shave off their veils and show their smiling faces. To the men, poor things he gave the opportunity of cutting off such a great nuisance as a beard. On Mrs. Cobb's bulletin board in her history room is a cartoon drawn by James Coffey. What an artist he is! This cartoon shows Peter, the Great, about to cut off a subject's beard. You should see the agonized expression on the recipient's face. Students, you just can't afford to miss this one. Come to Mrs. Cobb's room and see it, but don't get stepped on by the crowd.

ACTIONS OF THE CITIZENSHIP CLASS

Mrs. Cobb's Citizenship class has been doing some notable work these last few days, or weeks.

One of the fine things was a debate. The question was "Resolved, People Are Happier Now Than They Were a Century Ago." This debate proved to be very interesting and both sides did such good work that it was hard to decide who won. However, the decision went to the affirmative side.

Anyone attending the debate might have thought they were in the legislative halls by the seriousness of the procedure.

Also on the bulletin board are hung maps of all sizes and descriptions. These are to point out the effect of the geography of a land upon civilization.

Some of the maps show the different products mined or grown in each state. Also they point out how favored, our United States is in natural resources. It would pay anyone to come and see the labors of the citizenship class. Those who have made maps are: Morena Blake, Jack Tinkaus, Thyza Lester and Geraldine Ware.

CAR OWNERS DEMAND VALUES —not Claims!

GUM-DIPPED CORDS

Every cord in Firestone Tires is Gum-Dipped. This patented extra process penetrates every cord—coats every fiber with pure liquid rubber. Gum-dipping increases the flexing life of the cords—minimizes internal friction and heat—increases the strength of the tire body—and gives longer tire life. Only Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires give this Extra Value.

TWO EXTRA CORD PLIES UNDER THE TREAD

This patented construction of Two Extra Cord Plies insures a stronger bond between Tread and Cord Body and greater protection against punctures and blowouts. This new, improved "all cord" construction antiquates the old-fashioned cross-woven fabric construction used by others.

Motorists are finding the Greatest Values in Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires. Ever since Firestone and Firestone Dealers began advertising the true facts about tire quality and construction and actually demonstrating the Extra Values in Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires, distributors of special-brand mail-order tires have, grown bolder and bolder with misleading claims and comparisons and the desperate effort to interest car-owners.

Society Notes

Mrs. Chas. Filkins Hostess To Thursday Bridge

Entertaining in her usual delightful manner Mrs. Chas. Filkins opened her home to the members of the Thursday bridge club last Thursday afternoon. A lunch was served in the course of the afternoon.

Mrs. Du Ratt Entertains Friends at Breakfast

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock Miss Grace Du Ratt of Southfield Park entertained several of her Northville friends at a horseback ride breakfast. The riders, including Mr. and Mrs. Russell Walker, Mr. and Mrs. William Rawle Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Clark, spent about two hours in the saddle before the breakfast was served.

Surprise Dinner For Mr. and Mrs. Marshall

Last Saturday evening P. H. Greenan of Farm Crest gave a surprise dinner in honor of Samuel Marshall and his bride, the former Editor Westervelt of Chicago. Mr. Marshall is associated with the sports department of the Detroit News and was responsible for many of the articles in the Detroit News concerning the Northville Fair.

A buffet dinner was served to twenty couples. Several Northville people were present.

Girls' Club Entertained at Turnbull Home

Miss Marion Turnbull was hostess last Friday evening to the N. S. S. club, a group of eight girls who have been congenial friends since kindergarten days. This club began its history as a sewing club and later was given over to outdoor sports. Now that these young ladies have "grown up" their pleasures take the form of cards and dancing. A dainty lunch was served to the party by the mother of the hostess Miss C. B. Turnbull.

Master David Willis Celebrates Birthday With Young Friends

David Willis, son of Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Willis of Oakwood subdivision, was host to a group of little friends who joined him in celebrating his fourth birthday Tuesday afternoon at his home. Games were played on the lawn and a merry time was enjoyed by the kiddies. A substantial supper was served out-of-doors by Mrs. Willis concluding with a birthday cake decorated with four lighted candles. Each little guest was made happy by favors presented by the young host.

Miss Catherine Given Surprise on Birthday

Friends of Miss Esther Casterline gave her a pleasant surprise Wednesday evening, September 30, the occasion being her birthday. Five hundred was played during the evening after which a tasty lunch was served. Little Vera Briggs bore the lovely birthday cake to her aunt's table.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. D. Briggs and children, Mr. and Mrs. C. Casterline, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lohr and Hugh, Miss Gladys Black, Ross Bush and Howard Dixon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bogart-Dine With Friends on Anniversary

Wishing to celebrate their wedding anniversary near the scene of the event which took place thirty-three years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bogart, formerly of Novi and now of Pontiac, dined with their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark of Novi at the Royal Ann Cafe on Monday evening. On the table was a beautiful bouquet which was presented at the close of the dinner to the "bride and groom" by the Clarks. Mrs. Fred Fry, wife of the proprietor, was also a school friend of Mr. Bogart and a pleasant visit over old times was enjoyed by the party.

Northville Woman's Club Honors East-Residents at Opening Luncheon at Meadowbrook

Honoring the past-presidents who in turn, have performed their duties of responsibility, the Woman's club lunched together at Meadowbrook last Friday noon at the opening gathering of the season.

A perfect early autumn day with the beautiful appointments of the club house made the occasion most pleasant. The affair was in the nature of a Bon Voyage luncheon preceding a trip around the world by moving pictures. In keeping with this idea the long table which seated the guests of honor was centered by a snip while at each end of the table a light house flashed its signal beam.

It was an impressive looking row of past-presidents who took their places at the long table at the dining room overlooking the group of smaller tables where the rest of the party were seated. Those who were honored were: Mrs. E. H. Lapham, Mrs. Della Harmon of Detroit, Mrs. Sophia Benton, Mrs. E. A. Wheeler, Mrs. J. W. Christenson, Mrs. M. Sloan, Mrs. J. B. Tannah, Mrs. F. A. Northrop, Mrs. D. B. Bunn and Mrs. Waldo Johnston. Mrs. Nellie Freydl, the president, and Mrs. C. M. Chase, the vice-president this year, were also honored by places at this table.

Low bowls of gypsophelia tinted in pastel shades and dainty nut cups added an attractive touch to the tables where a delectable two-course luncheon was served.

At the conclusion of the meal the president, Mrs. Nellie Freydl, in fitting words, welcomed the past-presidents who had "guided the destinies of the club to its 29th year."

She also welcomed the new members to the privileges of the club. Referring to the journey, the club listened to an outline of the coming year's study given in interesting manner by the chairman of the program committee, Mrs. E. H. Douglas. The course includes visits to all parts of the world when speakers will be heard who are authorities on the countries assigned to each. A year full of rare treats is anticipated by the club.

Appropriate to the theme a group of songs from Scotland, Ireland and the land of the Indian was beautifully sung by Mrs. Sterling Eaton who chose "I Love A Lassie," "Danny Boy" and "Pale Moon." Mrs. Brennan accompanied Mrs. Eaton and followed with two piano numbers of Scandinavian and Russian composers.

Leaving back comfortably the company was entertained by motion pictures on a comprehensive cruise on board the steamer The Besos of the Hamburg-American line. These pictures were shown through the courtesy of the Michigan Central railroad which sent representatives to extend this privilege to the assembly from New York harbor.

The Resolute steamed through ports along the Mediterranean, India, China, Japan and the islands of the Pacific and back by way of California and through the Panama canal to New York again.

This last glimpse of the wide world whetted the appetite for a more intensive study of other lands for as the introduction to these pictures declared, "He who knows only his own country is like one who opens but one page of a book."

Among the guests present were

Mrs. S. L. McCall and Mrs. C. F. Shurtluff of Milford; Mrs. Henry M. Ballard, Mrs. Margaret Curless, Detroit; Mrs. Charles E. Rogers, Mrs. F. W. Bryan, Mrs. Willis Sr., Mrs. Earl Kidder, Dr. Irene Sparling, Mrs. W. G. Lapham, Mrs. Don P. Yerkes, Jr., and Mrs. Clarence Davis.

Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary Opens New Season

Full of enthusiasm in making plans for their winter season, about thirty members of the Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary gathered for their first meeting after vacation at the Presbyterian church house Tuesday evening. A pot-luck supper, up to its usual high standard began the evening and was followed by the business and devotional service.

Mrs. Marjorie Coolman and Mrs. Katherine Todd had charge of the lesson.

The hostesses of the evening were Mrs. Mae Babbitt and Mrs. Margaret Tank.

King's Daughters Plan to Meet Winter Demands of the Needy

Undaunted by their "frosted assets" the King's Daughters rallied to the problem of replenishing their empty "offers." Tuesday afternoon, when they met at the home of Mrs. Pearl Balch and Miss Ruth Gills, nearly fifty women came together on this occasion, when they piled their needles humming towels for the coming year to be held on December 31st. As they sewed they discussed ways and means of earning money to meet the winter demands on their philanthropy. Some decided to entertain groups of friends in their homes. A "hash supper" seemed the most feasible plan to start the deflated fund, and Mrs. B. C. Stark was made promotor.

A number of the members will attend the state convention of King's Daughters to be held in Flint, October 21-23 among them the president, Mrs. E. B. Cavell, Miss Ruth Gills, Mrs. J. R. Walker, Mrs. Ida Hendry, Mrs. Bertha Neal and Mrs. Edward Mills.

In spite of the women's purpose to economize and have a "simple pot-luck" instead of the usual "fall spread," a very sumptuous supper was served with repeated remarks that "Northville surely has the best cooks."

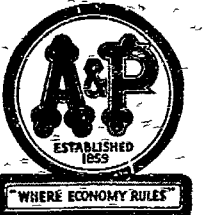

Mrs. Frank N. Miner, wife of the new pastor of the Methodist church, was a guest. Several gifts were received during the evening and the women are hopeful of being able to continue their work which means so much to the community. The proceeds of the evening will more than pay the indebtedness of the society.

Obituary

MRS. WILHELMINA ZIELMANN.

After a period of gradually failing health, Mrs. John Zielmann died Tuesday, Oct. 6, at her home in Novi township, where she had lived for 38 years. Mr. and Mrs. Zielmann made their home on the farm where their son, Fred Balko, also lives. She was the mother of two Northville men, Ed and William Balko. Also surviving are one son, Gust, of Wyandotte, and two daughters, Clara and Alice, of Pontiac.

Mrs. Zielmann was of sturdy German stock, born in the "old country" 22 years ago. She was married to Wm. Balko and later came to America with him and three young children. After a brief residence in Pennsylvania they came to Michigan and made their first home in Greenfield and later in Novi township. In 1908 Mr. Balko died and 17 years ago she was married to John Zielmann, who still survives.

Mrs. Zielmann was an industrious, kind woman, a staunch member of St. Paul's Lutheran church, where the funeral service will be held this afternoon (Friday) at 2 o'clock with Rev. Leo Rickstaedt officiating. A brief service will be held previously at the home. Interment will be made in Rural Hill.

JOHN MUSOLFF.

The Lord called our friend and brother, John Musolff, Jr., unto himself on last Thursday, October 1 at 4 a. m., at the University hospital in Ann Arbor, where he had been confined for 13 days. Our brother suffered a great deal before his going home. In fact he had been ill for a number of years, yet he never complained. He bore his pains with great fortitude and his family and friends recollected his smiling face as he greeted them at every visit.

Mr. Musolff was a very devoted and faithful husband and father. His greatest joy was to come home to his dear wife and two darling children. He endeavored to do everything for their happiness.

Mrs. Wm. Foster on West Dunlap, who has been ill for a week, is reported as better.

J. A. Cranston, formerly of Farmington, passed away at his home in Seattle, Wash., Saturday, Oct. 3, at 8 a. m. Mr. Cranston was a brother of Mrs. Helen Gray and Jewett Cranston of Northville.

While riding on horse back with a party of friends last Sunday Miss Margaret Carlisle, of Detroit, an employee at the Maybury sanatorium, was thrown from her horse and rendered unconscious for two hours. The horses were galloping when they approached a curve in the road near Union Lake. An oncoming car put on the brakes so suddenly that it skidded against the horse throwing the rider. An X-ray shows a broken arm. Miss Carlisle will be off duty for about two weeks while recovering.

thing in his power to make them happy. Mr. Musolff was a real friend to all his acquaintances and relatives; ever ready to do a kind act and favor. He will be deeply mourned and missed by those who loved him and knew him because of his loyalty and faithfulness and cheerfulness to a wide circle of folks.

John Musolff, Jr., was the youngest son of John Musolff of South Lyon and the late Augusta Musolff who preceded him in death five years ago. Mr. Musolff was born in Northville September 4, 1902 and lived part of his life in Lyons township.

On July 23, 1926 he was married to Alice Ledford of Ohio, at Farmington, Mich. To this union God gave two precious little children, a daughter and son. For the last five years the family had been residing in Novi township their late home.

Mr. Musolff is survived by his widow, two children, Alene and William, his father four sisters and four brothers, Mrs. Lena Phillips of Salem, Albert Musolff of South Lyon, August of Stockbridge, Mrs. Lizzie Schroeder of Salem, Mrs. Minnie Eckles of Northville, William of Green Oak, Charles of South Lyon, Mrs. Bertha Schockow of Plymouth, besides many other relatives and friends who will greatly mourn his loss.

The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away. Blessed be the name of the Lord. Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints. I am the Resurrection and the Life. He that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live, and whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die. Amen.

The funeral services were held at the home in Novi Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. Rev. Thompson of the Baptist church officiated, assisted by Rev. Lucia M. Stroh of the Congregational church in Salem.

Rev. Thompson spoke comforting words from the text of Hebrews 9:27.

Mrs. Ivan Speers and Mrs. Lucia M. Stroh sang the two beautiful hymns, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus say, 'Come Unto Me and Rest,'" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus."

This was one of the largest funerals ever held in this community and the large number of floral pieces evinced the high esteem in which Mr. Musolff was held by everyone.

Interment was made in the South Lyon cemetery.

This will be the first of a series of three sermons on the thread of prophecy running throughout the Scriptures.

Bible school, 11:45 a. m. Cottage prayer meeting in the village, Wednesday evening at 7:30.

The Salem Federated church is enjoying a reputation as a church with a message for young people.

On last Sunday over a score of young folks members of a Bible class in a Detroit church visited the church service and one of the Bible classes.

People everywhere in these trying days are interested in the signs of the times and are asking the meaning of "these things." It is hoped that the series of sermons on prophecy will help to answer some of the questions that are being asked and discussed so generally.

Let us bear in mind the rummage sale planned by the South circle, so that each may do his part in helping the ladies with this project.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nichols of Bloomfield Hills and the Misses Ellen and Kit Sherman of Northville were dinner guests of the Misses Floy and Goldie Jackson, Base Line road, Saturday evening.

D. 1931, at 10 o'clock A. M., Eastern Standard Time, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the southerly or Congress Street entrance to the County Building in the City of Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan (that being the building where the Circuit Court for the County of Wayne is held) of the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due as aforesaid, on said mortgage, with the interest thereon at six per cent (6%) and all legal costs, charges and expenses, including the attorney fees allowed by law, and also any sum or sums which may be paid by the mortgagor in the premises. Which said premises are described as follows: All those certain pieces or parcels of land situate in the City of Detroit in the County of Wayne and State of Michigan and described as follows: 55-17 Lots numbered 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100, 101, 102, 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 116, 117, 118, 119, 120, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125, 126, 127, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132, 133, 134, 135, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 155, 156, 157, 158, 159, 160, 161, 162, 163, 164, 165, 166, 167, 168, 169, 170, 171, 172, 173, 174, 175, 176, 177, 178, 179, 180, 181, 182, 183, 184, 185, 186, 187, 188, 189, 190, 191, 192, 193, 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 199, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 205, 206, 207, 208, 209, 210, 211, 212, 213, 214, 215, 216, 217, 218, 219, 220, 221, 222, 223, 224, 225, 226, 227, 228, 229, 230, 231, 232, 233, 234, 235, 236, 237, 238, 239, 240, 241, 242, 243, 244, 245, 246, 247, 248, 249, 250, 251, 252, 253, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 259, 260, 261, 262, 263, 264, 265, 266, 267, 268, 269, 270, 271, 272, 273, 274, 275, 276, 277, 278, 279, 280, 281, 282, 283, 284, 285, 286, 287, 288, 289, 290, 291, 292, 293, 294, 295, 296, 297, 298, 299, 300, 301, 302, 303, 304, 305, 306, 307, 308, 309, 310, 311, 312, 313, 314, 315, 316, 317, 318, 319, 320, 321, 322, 323, 324, 325, 326, 327, 328, 329, 330, 331, 332, 333, 334, 335, 336, 337, 338, 339, 340, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 346, 347, 348, 349, 350, 351, 352, 353, 354, 355, 356, 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366, 367, 368, 369, 370, 371, 372, 373, 374, 375, 376, 377, 378, 379, 380, 381, 382, 383, 384, 385, 386, 387, 388, 389, 390, 391, 392, 393, 394, 395, 396, 397, 398, 399, 400, 401, 402, 403, 404, 405, 406, 407, 408, 409, 410, 411, 412, 413, 414, 415, 416, 417, 418, 419, 420, 421, 422, 423, 424, 425, 426, 427, 428, 429, 430, 431, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438, 439, 440, 441, 442, 443, 444, 445, 446, 447, 448, 449, 450, 451, 452, 453, 454, 455, 456, 457, 458, 459, 460, 461, 462, 463, 464, 465, 466, 467, 468, 469, 470, 471, 472, 473, 474, 475, 476, 477, 478, 479, 480, 481, 482, 483, 484, 485, 486, 487, 488, 489, 490, 491, 492, 493, 494, 495, 496, 497, 498, 499, 500, 501, 502, 503, 504, 505, 506, 507, 508, 509, 510, 511, 512, 513, 514, 515, 516, 517, 518, 519, 520, 521, 522, 523, 524, 525, 526, 527, 528, 529, 530, 531, 532, 533, 534, 535, 536, 537, 538, 539, 540, 541, 542, 543, 544, 545, 546, 547, 548, 549, 550, 551, 552, 553, 554, 555, 556, 557, 558, 559, 560, 561, 562, 563, 564, 565, 566, 567, 568, 569, 570, 571, 572, 573, 574, 575, 576, 577, 578, 579, 580, 581, 582, 583, 584, 585, 586, 587, 588, 589, 590, 591, 592, 593, 594, 595, 596, 597, 598, 599, 600, 601, 602, 603, 604, 605, 606, 607, 608, 609, 610, 611, 612, 613, 614, 615, 616, 617, 618, 619, 620, 621, 622, 623, 624, 625, 626, 627, 628, 629, 630, 631, 632, 633, 634, 635, 636, 637, 638, 639, 640, 641, 642, 643, 644, 645, 646, 647, 648, 649, 650, 651, 652, 653, 654, 655, 656, 657, 658, 659, 660, 661, 662, 663, 664, 665, 666, 667, 668, 669, 670, 671, 672, 673, 674, 675, 676, 677, 678, 679, 680, 681, 682, 683, 684, 685, 686, 687, 688, 689, 690, 691, 692, 693, 694, 695, 696, 697, 698, 699, 700, 701, 702, 703, 704, 705, 706, 707, 708, 709, 710, 711, 712, 713, 714, 715, 716, 717, 718, 719, 720, 721, 722, 723, 724, 725, 726, 727, 728, 729, 730, 731, 732, 733, 734, 735, 736, 737, 738, 739, 740, 741, 742, 743, 744, 745, 746, 747, 748, 749, 750, 751, 752, 753, 754, 755, 756, 757, 758, 759, 760, 761, 762, 763, 764, 765, 766, 767, 768, 769, 770, 771, 772, 773, 774, 775, 776, 777, 778, 779, 780, 781, 782, 783, 784, 785, 786, 787, 788, 789, 790, 791, 792, 793, 794, 795, 796, 797, 798, 799, 800, 801, 802, 803, 804, 805, 806, 807, 808, 809, 810, 811, 812, 813, 814, 815, 816, 817, 818, 819, 820, 821, 822, 823, 824, 825, 826, 827, 828, 829, 830, 831, 832, 833, 834, 835, 836, 837, 838, 839, 840, 841, 842, 843, 844, 845, 846, 847, 848, 849, 850, 851, 852, 853, 854, 855, 856, 857, 858, 859, 860, 861, 862, 863, 864, 865, 866, 867, 868, 869, 870, 871, 872, 873, 874, 875, 876, 877, 878, 879, 880, 881, 882, 883, 884, 885, 886, 887, 888, 889, 890, 891, 892, 893, 894, 895, 896, 897, 898, 899, 900, 901, 902, 903, 904, 905, 906, 907, 908, 909, 910, 911, 912, 913, 914, 915, 916, 917, 918, 919, 920, 921, 922, 923, 924, 925, 926, 927, 928, 929, 930, 931, 932, 933, 934, 935, 936, 937, 938, 939, 940, 941, 942, 9

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

5 YEARS AGO

The members of the village council were guests of the Lloyd H. Green post of the American Legion at a dinner at the Park House.

Messrs. F. J. Cochran and E. N. Mills attended a Rotary convention at London, Ont., last Friday.

All sections of Michigan were visited with a heavy frost Saturday night.

The Record received a post card from Stanley Kestell from Paris. He is touring Italy and France.

Miss Virginia Smith is attending the Normal college at Ypsilanti.

A post card received from Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bogart stated that they were on their way to Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington.

Miss Ada Ely is attending the Ypsilanti Normal.

Morris Lapham is attending Ferris Institute.

10 YEARS AGO

The annual meeting of the King's Daughters of Michigan will be held in Northville October 18 to 21. The meetings will be held in the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Gertrude Swift, the oldest citizen of Northville, died at the age of 95 years. She was the sister of Mrs. Jennie White.

Mrs. Susan Leadbeater died at her home on North Center street at the age of 72 years.

Miss Frances Verkes took her

Every Monday Morning

By "AD" SCHWENGER

An advertising agency in Detroit recently prepared a number of ads relative to classes that were to open at a large public school in 3d writing, layout, etc. Each of the ads had as the main "catch line" the large bannet lettered words, "ENROLL TODAY."

And the advertisement appeared in the three Detroit dailies on Sunday.

Just imagine their embarrassment—public schools aren't open on Sunday.

However, a certain advertising man in Northville (modestly forbids my mentioning who it was) just recently allowed an advertisement to go through which read "Fresh Ham, 11c per lb." when the price in reality was 15c per lb.

And did his ears burn when the boner was discovered? Oh my, yes indeed.

There are two or three classical anecdotes about "boners" in the world of journalism, one being about a cub reporter who typed off the famous line, "The man mounted his horse and rode off rapidly in all directions." Or, the one about "George Johnson, 27, was born in the south and grew up there to maturity."

Whataman, whataman!

Things I like to do—Play a good hard game of baseball so that every bit of poison in my system is sweated out and so that every bit of hard feeling I have against the world is taken out on a rubber ball that can be slammed around and can't hit back. Find a five dollar bill in the pocket of an old suit. Finish a task and know that it has been done right and is worthwhile. Drive along the highway about seven or eight o'clock in the morning when the air is fresh and clean, when the dew is on the ground. Sell a large advertisement strictly on its merits.

All you could hear in Detroit were questions concerning the World Series games.

"What's the score?"

"Who's pitching? Aw, that mug. He couldn't throw one from the box to the plate."

And so on ad infinitum.

From the columns of the Jeffersonian, Jefferson Intermediate school paper we culled this classical excuse written by a student.

"Miss Peck:

"I haven't all my math because the man that rooms at my house dropped dead. And me and my mother had to explain a lot of stuff to some officers."

"If no one else drops dead I will have my math all the time."

"Calantha"

That excuse has everything that a water-tight alibi should.

It's short enough so that "teacher" will take the time to read it, and it's more than plausible.

Many of us would have saved ourselves much grief in years gone by if we could have thought of alibis as good as that one. We might

English class to Detroit to see "As You Like It."

Cecil Frey broke his collar bone in football practice.

Northville high school was granted first prize at the fair.

Fifth grade pupils who have been neither absent nor tardy during the month of September are: Allen Beard, Richard Kerr, Robert McCordie, Merin Raffenburg, Teddy Watts, Loretta Lanning, and Ned Cowell.

Allan Buckley has charge of the second team of football.

25 YEARS AGO

About fifty people were taken by automobile last Friday afternoon to T. G. Richardson's dairy barns at the north edge of the village to see the new milking machines in operation. The sight was worth seeing.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Burgess arrived home yesterday from their trip west.

The Princess rink is to be open next week for roller skating.

Miss Evaline Moore received a handsome new piano from her father as a birthday present.

A pleasant coincidence at the Turner wedding anniversary last week was that it was also the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Sessions who were among the guests and who had been married 55 years ago on the same date.

Misses Lida Richardson and Mae Colburn have kindly taken classes in the Sunday school.

West Point Park

The church well attended Sunday at being the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. The elders were all present and Rev. Adams talked from the verse "God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son that whosoever believeth on him should not perish but have everlasting life." Teachers, superintendents and 85 members of the congregation were present.

Mrs. E. Wolfe gave a talk on temperance and everyone was attentive. We hope a lesson was taught that will influence the boys and girls for life.

The second game at Fowlerville was won by Pleasant Lake Sunday. Plymouth Haggerty and West Point Park had a game on the home diamond. The score being seven to eight in favor of the visitors. West Point will give them a return game in Plymouth on October 11 when we hope our some of our players will be back from their vacation.

Virginia and Don Coolman will sing in the Baptist church next Sunday evening.

Mrs. William Thornton was a visitor with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Dowssett, near Salem.

Three ball games in succession were played by West Point players commencing Friday at Fowlerville fair. Stockbridge and the Parkers played a very close game, the score being 3-2 in favor of our team.

Andy Messenger, former Tiger pitcher, tossed for Stockbridge and Hartner pitched for West Point but was injured and was replaced by Carl Goers.

Sylvia Sheehan, formerly of this place, is the mother of a baby girl, Bonnie Joan. The family now live in Columbia.

An automobile accident happened on Middle Belt and Plymouth roads very early Sunday morning. Reid Dennison and wife were returning from a Saturday night party when their car was struck by another on the corner. The car coming from the north was reported as going through a red light and crashed into the Dennison car. Mr. Dennison died on his way to the hospital and his wife was seriously injured but is still alive. Mr. Dennison leaves behind two small children, Venia, 7 and Francis, 4. Neighbors and friends have done all they could to even save themselves much trouble today if we could make 'em up as sincerely as that one seems to be.

If anyone has a better one, send it in and receive a troupe of framed type hce as an award. These hce are guaranteed to perform the most astounding feats. They're swept off of the type lines fresh every day and they'll prove to be interesting, educational, and they make the nicest kind of pets for children.

HOMEMAKER'S CORNER

BY MRS. EDITOR

IN THE ITINERARY

The train steams into a strange station. What will the new home be like?—the "children of the manse" wonder—always with a thrill of expectancy over the unknown. It's that "night-before-Christmas" feeling. Lots more fun than the actual Christmas day.

Usually it was a rather hospitable, homely old house that awaited us "for better or for worse" according to the financial state of the Ladies' Aid. With cries of eagerness we explored its mysteries calling out, "Let's have this for our room!"

In grand review they pass before our memory this autumn time, those paragonages of our youth, our chosen homes for a temporary period. Temporary, it's true, yet no sooner were our father's books stacked high in the room called the "study" and his old familiar study table against the wall than it was home. Up and down the state had this old desk followed us. On its broad top had we played one by one as babies, amusing ourselves with the contents of a "drawer full of a little of everything," while the big red pen of our father creaked and scratched pages of warnings to the wicked and John Wesley looked down from his frame on the wall.

Then it was home very early. We learned that "home" is where the heart is—and boards and bricks never took very deep root in our hearts. Home went along with us.

What matter if the carpet that fitted the last house lacked a few feet of covering the rough old floor here? Our mother managed some way to make it look all right. Ingenuity was born of necessity.

What though during that especially hard winter in the northern peninsula when a church-building project was on we had to wear hand-me-downs? Prayers at preachers' children? Perhaps, but they were more than made up for by the long procession of really great folks who in turn occupied the "spare room" of the humble parson.

age in the course of years. Silken gowns would have been worn out by this time but the impressions made by sitting on the knees of dignity in childhood can never be lost.

The minister's family can't take a long time to get acquainted—they have no time to lose. It will all too soon be moving time again. Small wonder then if they are sometimes accused of being too forward. Their job demands it.

The real ordeal of the children of the Itinerary is changing schools. Conference is over late in September and school has been started two or three weeks into a new atmosphere they are thrust. New teachers, new methods, new books, new school mates. And worst of all—antimies to be a little "red-headed preacher's girl." Whispers behind books with glances our way make our face as red as our hair. We can guess what they're thinking and "sure as shooting" we hear it shouted at recess on the playground, "Red head, gingerbread, five cents a loaf." Facing a canon would have been easier. That was always our imitation. But it was soon over.

Matching down the aisle of scrutiny that first Sunday at church was another real ordeal but mostly it was kind scrutiny and it wasn't long before we felt the real friendship around us.

With all their faults, preachers' kids can never be provincial. No town is the "only town in the world" to live in.

Share your pity, you who feel it for these families of limited residence. Let's not pity—at's part of the price of their ministry—but let's make haste to be kind before they go on.

TOMATO-APPLE CATSUP

Mrs. Joe Ashley volunteers this timely recipe for a different kind of catsup. With tomatoes and apples plentiful it ought to be popular.

1 peck ripe tomatoes, 1 peck good cooking apples, 8 green peppers, 1 dozen onions, 3 cups sugar, 4 cups vinegar, 2 heaping tablespoons salt, 2 teaspoons each black pepper and cinnamon, 1 teaspoon each of cloves and all spice. Cook all together 1½ hours and bottle.

PLUM BUTTER

Mrs. F. W. Bryan makes this good plum butter which her family likes.

1 lb. plums, 1½ cup sugar, 1 dampen with 2 tablespoonsful of vinegar ¼ teaspoon essence of cinnamon, ¼ teaspoon essence of cloves, (or 1 teaspoon of ground spices). Cook until it jells.

Mrs. Bryan uses green Gage plums which make a nice color.

Legion Notes

(By Lela Alexander in The Legion News)

No column last week. Too much convention to squander my time over a typewriter attempting to bring out lines which you were too busy to read. Wasn't it a honey, though? If we never see another one, we have seen the king of them all up to now and it leaves a hard mark for the other boys to show at. What think you of this old Legion now? We're a big, powerful outfit—and no foolin' and I do not say that in an egotistical way. It's the truth, that's all.

I want to thank everyone who so readily gave me a share of their time on any registration committee. I had plenty of first class help at all times and could not have done the job without such co-operation. I am truly grateful to you all and just let me know when I can repay you.

You have elected your new officers. They have been installed and are ready to go to work. Now it is the job of every member of this post to learn in and lend a hand. The first job you are asked to do is to pass your dues. I have the 1932 cards and have already sold several of them but there is one thing you must do before a new card can be issued to you. It is a department of every member must be examined and recorded before a 1932 card is issued. We have the proper committee for this purpose and you must have their O. K. before I can issue the membership card. Please work with us on this. Bring your discharge to the next meeting and we will do the rest.

Your next meeting is Tuesday, October 13. It will be the first one in a month and much work and play is to be handled. A new constitution will be submitted and passed on, committees are to be appointed for the years work and things are to be arranged in ship-shape for the future. Make it your job to be there and help do some of the big worth-while things this Legion and your post must do.

ORDINANCE NO. 103

AN ORDINANCE TO REGULATE THE USE HANDLING, STORAGE AND SALE OF FUEL OIL, AND THE ARRANGEMENT, DESIGN, CONSTRUCTION, AND INSTALLATION OF BURNERS, TANKS AND OTHER EQUIPMENT FOR THE BURNING OF FUEL OIL FOR HEATING PURPOSES IN RESIDENCES IN THE VILLAGE OF NORTHVILLE.

Section 1. The provisions of this ordinance relative to the storage handling and sale of fuel oil having a flash point above 130 degrees Fahrenheit, shall apply only to the use of such fuel oil for oil burners as specified herein.

Section 2. For the purpose of this ordinance:

(a) "Fuel Oil" shall mean any liquid used as fuel and having a flash point above 130 degrees Fahrenheit.

(b) "Fuel Oil Burners" shall mean any device, including burners, motors, piping, valves and other equipment designed and arranged for the purpose of burning fuel oil for heating purposes.

(c) "Tank" or "Storage Tank" shall mean any container for such fuel oil, having a capacity of more than 25 gallons and directly or indirectly connected with such fuel oil burners.

Section 3. Before any fuel oil burners, tanks and other equipment pertaining thereto shall be installed in the village of Northville the owner of such premises or his agent, shall obtain from the village clerk a permit for such installation. After such installation shall be completed notice thereof shall be given to the village clerk and after the same shall have been inspected by an inspector authorized by the village commission; a tag issued by the village of Northville shall be attached to the fill pipe of the tank of such equipment.

Section 4. No person, firm or corporation shall supply fuel oil to any tank, or containers for oil burners except such permit tag be attached to the filler pipe of such tank or container as herein specified.

Section 5. Fuel oil for equipment installed under this ordinance shall have a flash point of not less than 130 degrees Fahrenheit as shown by test in the open air at a temperature below 130 degrees Fahrenheit. Fuel oil shall not be mixed or blended except at a storage plant under competent supervision.

Section 6. Oil burners shall be equipped with such approved device mechanical or electrical, which will automatically prevent the overflowing or flooding of the burner. Burners shall be designed to prevent excessive carbonization and shall be securely attached and supported.

Section 7. All burners subject to automatic ignition must be provided with permanent automatic device, so designed that oil, upon being turned into the combustion chamber, will immediately become ignited or automatically shut off.

Section 8. Oil storage tanks on the inside of any building shall be located in the lowest story, cellar or basement. A total storage of 550 gallons shall be permitted inside of any building but not more than 275 gallons shall be permitted in any one tank, all tanks shall be connected with the main feed pipe leading to the burner with a manually operated 3-way valve so that not more than one tank can discharge its contents at one time. No tank shall be located less than 3 feet from any fire or flame, or placed on a combustible floor. Fuel oil shall not be forced from storage tanks by positive air pressure. Fill pipes for tanks shall be standardized iron or steel not less than 1 1/2 inches in diameter extending to the outside of any building and shall be properly capped at all times.

Section 9. Tanks located underground shall have the top of tank at least 3 feet below the surface of the ground, and below the level of the lowest pipe leading into the building to be supplied. Tanks may be permitted underneath a building if buried at least 3 feet below the lowest floor, or they may be placed 24 inches below the lowest floor and covered with 15 inches of earth and 3 inches of brick or concrete.

Section 10. Where it is impractical to bury tanks, the inspector may allow them to be installed inside of a building when completely incased in 12 inches of concrete and 6 inches of sand.

Section 11. Underground tanks located within 10 feet of a basement or pit lower than the top of such tank, shall be completely incased in 6 inches of concrete of a 1, 3 and 5 mixture.

Section 12. Measuring devices on tanks beneath buildings and previously described encased tanks, shall be of approved wall gauge type.

Section 13. The use, handling, storage and sale of fuel oil except as when installed in or to heat or serve residence shall be governed by and comply with Act 319 of the P. A. of 1929 of the State of Michigan.

Section 14. Any person, firm or corporation who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not to exceed $100.00 and each day that a violation of this ordinance shall be permitted to exist shall constitute a separate and distinct offense.

Section 15. The above ordinance will take effect on the fifth day of November, 1931.

Passed by the Village Commission of the village of Northville this fifth day of October A. D. 1931.

Approved this fifth day of October, A. D. 1931.

HARRY S. GERMAN, Village President.
FREDK. HEDGE, Village Clerk.
