NOVEMBER 9 LAST DAY TO FILE CLAIMS

475 Depositors of Lapham Bank Have Not Acted Yet

November 9 is the last day on which depositors of the Lapham State Savings bank may file their claims, announced Hoy Woodman, receiver for the bank, and up to date there are approximately 475 accounts for which claims have not yet been received.

The bank should have, by November 9, said Mr. Woodman, about 1,000 claims registered against it in savings accounts and approximately 1,000 in commercial accounts. At present, he said, about 1,500 savings account claims and approximately 825 commercial account claims have been filed.

About 25 of the savings accounts are school deposits which amount now to about $1.75 each, related Mr. Woodman, but when started in 1910 were for $1.00. Also, stated Mr. Woodman, many people have deposited small sums with the intention of building up accounts but have forgotten them and the interest has grown with surprising rapidity during the years that the money has remained idle.

Persons who have deposits at the institution are merely required to present their pass books or other evidences of deposits and fill out proof of claim blanks.

Mr. Woodman emphasized the fact that all persons filing their claims against the institution must have them in before November 9 or all claims which have not been filed prior to that date may be disallowed according to the regulations of the comptroller of currency.

MR. AND MRS. POND WILL GIVE PROGRAM ON SUNDAY EVENING

A treat is in store for music lovers, Sunday evening, November 1, when Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Pond of Belleville will present a fine program in connection with the regular service at the Methodist church. Mr. Pond was formerly organist at the Michigan theatre in Detroit and Mrs. Pond is a vocalist of ability. He and Mrs. Pond are friends of Mr. Miner and come as a special favor to him. Following is the program:

Organ numbers by Mr. Pond.
Prelude.
First Sonata. Baroque.
Scenes Pictoresques. Massenet.
Berceuse. Delbruck.
(offertory)
Marche Romaine. Guonod.
(Postlude)
Solos by Mrs. Pond.
But the Lord is Mindful of His Own. Mendelssohn.
If Ye Love Me—Scott.
Why Art Thou Cast Down—Emerson.

SALEM NUTRITION CLUB MEETS OCT. 21 WITH MRS. KEHRL

The first meeting of the Salem Nutrition club was held with Mrs. Kehrl at her home on Six Mile road Wednesday, October 21.

Mrs. Myra Taylor, chairman, conducted the business meeting and introduced the two leaders, Mrs. Ella Johnson and Mrs. Nina Means. The class is enjoying their third year in the study of nutrition.

The subject for the first meeting was, "Preventive or Corrective Methods of the Body." A feature of the afternoon program was planning a menu for the correction of weight.

A delightful luncheon was served by the hostess.
The next meeting will be held with Mrs. John Melow at her home on West Base Line road, November 19 with luncheon at one o'clock.

EXCHANGEITES GREET REV. WM. RICHARDS

Members of the Exchange club gave a rousing greeting Wednesday to their former secretary, Rev. Wm. Richards, who was a guest for the first time since leaving Northville in September. Edward P. Wilkie of the Brightmoor Exchange club was present and invited members to attend the Detroit Council at the Western Golf and Country club on Thursday, November 5. Seven will attend from the Northville club.

So much of the time of the luncheon hour was taken up with necessary business, including planning for the big community banquet, last night, that the speech of Rev. Frank N. Miner, booked for the day, was postponed until a later date. President C. B. Turnbull presided and N. C. Schrader led the singing of old songs.

NORTHVILLE'S EXCELLENT LOCATION GIVEN PRAISE IN DETROIT FREE PRESS

Miss Helen C. Bower States Her Impressions of This Beautiful Home Community in Special Article

Northville was given some splendid state-wide publicity in a recent issue of the Detroit Free Press.

Miss Helen C. Bower, feature writer, has been writing a series of stories on the beautiful home towns within easy motoring distance of Detroit. The nineteenth of these was a comprehensive study of Northville and our community certainly deeply appreciates this write-up. Here is the article:

By HELEN C. BOWER
Some people of Northville think their town should have a slogan. They suggest, "Detroit's Most Picturesque Suburb."

But Fred J. Cochran, village attorney, says that Northville already has been called the "Switzerland of Wayne County." He declares that this is a perfect description of the setting for this village of 2,566 inhabitants, located 26 miles west of Detroit.

The outsider will agree that a combination of both slogans would not seem too fulsome. The rolling country is a distinct contrast to the level land upon which Detroit is built. The air is fresh, the spring water exceptionally pure. Moreover, the residents of Northville have had the good sense to preserve as many old buildings as possible. While a new residential section has grown up to the northwest, within a radius of a few blocks from the business district, are so many lovely old houses beneath the big trees lining the streets that an air of settled repose pervades the town. Northville has avoided both the raw newness of a booming community and the dilapidation of a pioneer settlement that has not kept up with the times.

Post Office Opened in 1831.
Northville ranks among the pioneers in 1834. Alanson Aldrich, from Wayne County, N. Y., took up a tract of land in Wayne county, Mich., which included a large portion of the present village. The government deed to Aldrich was dated March 10, 1825. However, one John Miller, from New York state, is looked upon as Northville's first settler, since Aldrich also may be claimed by Plymouth Township. Miller chopped out a clearing and put up the first building in Northville. In 1828 he built a grist mill, and when another settler built a blacksmith shop nearby, Northville was virtually on the map.

By 1831 the higher land west from the River Rouge had been cleared, a frame store had been built on the present Main st., and Northville had a post office. Dunlap, Cady, Griswold, Mead and Yerkes are pioneer names in the town; with Thayer and Lapham becoming familiar as the century advanced. In 1867 the village was incorporated, with W. P. Yerkes as its first president.
From the days of the first grist mill, Northville always has been the home of manufacturing interests, although the factories have never been obtrusive in the sense that their presence detracted from the charm of the place as a town of homes, as a home town. The products have been unusual, too, including church and lodge furniture, bells and later, airplanes.

Ponies Give Northville Fame
"But Northville is now becoming known as a saddle horse and pony town," said R. T. Baldwin. "It has probably the finest strings in the State."
Detroiters in increasing numbers have come to live here, while Detroit and Bloomfield society comes out every year for the horse show at the fair. We're proud of Northville's Wayne County Fair, and the $25,000 grandstand on the grounds. In spite of competition from the Michigan State Fair at Detroit, the Wayne County Fair has been a paying proposition."

STARS WILL MEET IN PLYMOUTH SHOW

Arrangements for the All-Star Amateur boxing show which will be staged Wednesday evening, November 4, at the Odd Fellows temple in Plymouth are nearing completion and from all indications the contest will be one with plenty of action from start to finish.

Twenty of the best amateur fighters of the state will be on the program, the first to be staged in Plymouth under the direction of the Michigan Association of the Amateur Athletic Union.

Billy Marone of Christ Church A. C. Detroit City lightweight champion, will be one of the stars. Alex Stewart, also of Christ Church, A. C. Joe Stalnas, Jackie Swartz, C. Mitchell, Joe Skeggs and 14 other good fighters will be on the card. The remainder of the card will be completed by Monday.

A large number of guests from Detroit and surrounding towns came to watch the events during the day and congratulated Mr. and Mrs. Brown on the success of the event.

A Bank for Northville

What is Northville going to do about a bank?
This is a question that is coming close home to most of the people of this community. With both our local banks closed, we realize in a way we never knew before, just what it means to have a bank in town.

There are two things that Northville can do to regain a financial institution to meet our local needs: It can re-organize our two former banks and use their combined assets to start another bank or it can start an entirely new bank on new capitalization. Which shall we do?

The Northville Record has only one "axe to grind" in the matter of getting a bank and that is, the best interests of this community. We appreciate something of the great difficulties that face us in the matter of getting a bank going again. It's going to be a hard task, and no mistake. A few months ago, practically all of the banks of Toledo, Ohio crashed and for three months a committee of four men has been working without pay to find a plan to get banks going again. They have been successful, we are told on the highest authority and will open in a few weeks. What Toledo has done, Northville can do. We just must find the road out—and it may be a slow road.

This newspaper feels that before we try for an entirely new bank we should be fair enough to give the directors of our two banks a chance to work out a reorganization. That is what is being done in some towns where banks have closed in the same fashion as have ours.

If, after a fair and hard effort, a re-organization cannot be brought about, then let's all pull together for a new organization with new capital.

Let us all remember that our bank closings are just part of a worldwide re-organization. With scores of banks of the finest kind closed in Michigan, certainly we ought to remember that the lives of some of our best men have gone into these banks and we should also remember that these banks, through the years, have helped keep our business going. Have built our homes, have financed the worthy and have made community progress possible.

In these two closed banks are a million and a half dollars of depositors' money. It is "frozen" money; it is drawing no interest and is making the whole community suffer. Our town problem is to unlock that million and a half in as short a time as possible. Some of this million and a half is now on hand in money the rest is tied up in mortgages and securities. If we can loosen some of these securities and mortgages then the banks could get together, form one bank and become a going concern. There would have to be some kind of a depositors' agreement to withdraw only at a certain rate—but this kind of an agreement as being made in many towns. Milford, Carp, Ionia and Spaulding are examples of what "pull together" will do. We believe that if the depositors of the two banks here would be called together or interviewed that they would meet the situation in a fair and square way that would make re-opening possible certainly. If there is any way possible, we should try to save something of the work of many years and of many men.

The Hoover plan to help out the banks may possibly—though no one knows yet—be of aid here in Northville. Certainly it should be. Four hundred Michigan bankers met in Detroit this week and started this organization, which is part of a nation wide plan to pledge half a million dollars to ease the banking situation. Before we try for a new bank, with new capital it might be well to wait to see what the Hoover plan will do for us.

The Record understands that the boards of directors of the Lapham State Savings bank and the Northville State Savings bank will meet next week to consider the situation with regard to another bank for Northville. This is a definite move to "get somewhere" about a new bank. All of these men have the best interests of our community at heart. We trust them in this time of great emergency. We feel that we can await their action with a united community loyalty.

This newspaper has no definite plan to sponsor. That is for banking authorities to do. If they will point the way we shall all do our best to follow. The following clipping from a Detroit paper will tell something of what Ypsilanti is doing to bring about a re-organization of its closed bank:

"Ypsilanti Savings Bank, which closed July 24, is open daily from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. to permit depositors to sign agreements as required by the State Banking Department whereby a five-year moratorium will be provided, and as soon as signatures represent 95 per cent of the deposits, the bank will open for business, according to advances from Ypsilanti."

"It is understood, depositors, at two different mass meetings, have signified their approval of such a plan to Chairman E. R. Ferguson, president of the Board of Commerce. There are nearly 5,000 depositors, some of whom live in other cities. Stockholders have been assessed 75 per cent and the remaining 25 per cent may be called later if it is needed, but it is held likely that it will be unnecessary to collect the final levy. Incidentally, it is understood that several of the closed banks in the state may try out reopening on the five-year moratorium plan, which was adopted after a three-year period appeared insufficient."

MIDNIGHT SET BY MOTHERS AS TIME TO CLOSE PARTIES

The proposition to close the parties of high school students at 11 o'clock was defeated in a vote taken last Thursday afternoon by a group of fourteen mothers who responded to a call by Mrs. Martin Ray to discuss the interests of the young folks. In the ballot taken twelve of the mothers voted to continue the parties until twelve o'clock with exceptions made for a late hour on special occasions.

The opinion of the majority seemed to be that these parties were necessary to raise the needed amount for the seniors' Washington trip and that the public would not patronize them sufficiently if they closed earlier. It also seemed to be the expressed opinion that young folks should be given more opportunity to develop "social graces" and it was also mildly hinted that some of the older folks equally enjoyed these parties and would regret their curtailment.

In her closing remarks, Mrs. Ray commended the mothers for their part in the training of their children with whom, she said, she had very few disciplinary problems. In the matter of dress Mrs. Ray stated that in general the girls of the high school were dressed modestly and fittingly for school girls.

Altogether the meeting of these mothers and the school counselor of their children was the means of a closer understanding between parents and the school authorities.

FORESTERS AID

Foresters Aid will meet at Foresters' hall Tuesday evening, November 3. Everyone come and bring a friend.

NORTHVILLE ELEVEN TIES BELLEVILLE

High School Teams Play 6-6 Game Here on October 23

Northville staged a "comeback" against Belleville Friday, October 23 and came out of the conflict with a 6-6 tie. It was a moral victory for Northville and it will give them the needed spirit that has been lacking in the previous games.

Northville outplayed the visitors throughout the game but did not have the necessary punch to carry the ball over until the third quarter.

In this period Mehnzinger threw a long pass to Dickinson for 20 yards and Dickinson ran 35 yards for the touchdown.

At the close of the fourth quarter Belleville brought the ball to the 11 yard stripe but it took them six downs to put the ball over and tie the score 6 to 6.

Dickinson's running featured the game. He ran the punts back for an average of 30 yards.

IMPROVEMENTS AT FISH HATCHERY

Extensive improvements on the Federal Fish Hatchery have been made throughout the summer during the hatchery's slack season, announced Frank L. Snipes, superintendent. The improvements, were made possible through a $22,000 appropriation covering the three stations at Northville, Charlevoix and Alpena.

Some of the improvements are re-arrangement of the heating system so as to practically double the rearing capacity of the hatchery, new drainage system installed, new made for 14 additional rearing troughs and new ones purchased to replace the old ones which will be set outside and used next spring; new lighting system; remodeling of the second floor of the hatchery so as to provide two apartments for two families of men working at the institution; new flooring; two new work rooms made—a feed room and a furnace room; repainting of all equipment; installation of a septic tank for two new public rest rooms; rearing ponds drained, deepened and weeds removed, and plans are being brought to the point of perfection allowing for the breeding of the insect daphnia, a fish food in ponds which will drain directly into the rearing ponds.

This large program, declared Superintendent Snipes, has occupied the attention of workmen since last July and although the improvements are not yet completed, the major part of the work is finished and the rest will be done by December 1, when the fishery's busy season begins again.

At that time brook trout, rainbow and land locked salmon eggs collected in the eastern states will be received in the local hatchery and the rearing of the fish hatched from these eggs will continue through the winter. Lake trout and whitefish eggs are being collected on all the Great Lakes now and being sent to the federal hatcheries at Alpena and Charlevoix for rearing purposes.

The eggs are placed on trays and stacked in the hatching troughs. When hatched the fry remain on the same trays until the yoke is absorbed, which takes about 30 days. Fish which can develop without aid are placed in the nine large outdoor ponds and the others are kept in troughs within the hatchery. The outdoor ponds are supplied with flowing water and the fish are kept there during the winter.

There will be four men on duty at the Northville hatchery during the winter months, eight at Charlevoix and three at Alpena all operating under the supervision of Mr. Snipes who is the superintendent for this district.

These three federal hatcheries work in cooperation with the 12 state hatcheries.

SESSIONS HOSPITAL

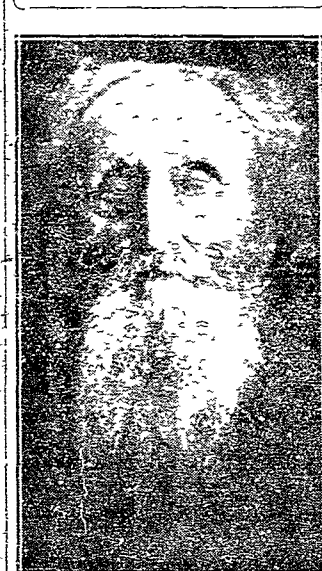

Mrs. Jos Kearney, who underwent a major operation on October 20 has been discharged and has returned to her home in Wing court. Geo. C. Ward has recovered sufficiently so to be able to return to his home.

A daughter Sally Ann, was born Sunday morning at the hospital to Mr. and Mrs. H. Holcomb of Plymouth.

Mrs. Myrtle Switzer of Farmington underwent a major operation Sunday morning.

88 YEARS OLD

George Goodell, one of Northville's two surviving Civil war heroes, who reached his 88th milestone October 16. Mr. Goodell is now confined to his bed after having suffered constantly throughout the intervening years since being wounded in service. Fourteen months were spent in the tortures of Andersonville prison and another period in Libby.

THE EXCHANGE CLUB ENTERTAINS LADIES AT DINNER-THATRE

Wives and sweethearts of the Exchange club "stepped out" with their husbands last Friday evening when they enjoyed a double treat, a dinner and a theatre party, following at the opening of the Penniman Allen theatre.

At the Methodist church house a fine three-course dinner was served at long tables gay with bowls of chrysanthemums. There could be no formality to mar the good time, when Clifford C. Turnbull presided. At intervals, a song-fest, led by Orin G. Owen in the absence of N. C. Schrader, was heartily enjoyed with Mrs. Chas. A. Dolph at the piano.

The real fun of the evening—the for the wives—was the spelling match when the "boys" lined up to spell down with Sept. Thad J. Knapp as announcer. And how did the "mighty fall" as one by one they stumbled in their spelling and took their seats until Dr. Arthur H. Steele remained as victor.

Fortunately for the women the time was too limited for their turn and the party made its way to the Penniman Allen theatre where they enjoyed the refreshing little play, "Merely Mary Ann", played by two reel favorites.

A GOOD POEM FOR DAYS OF DEPRESSION

G. Carmi Benton brings into The Record office a poem that ought to be just the kind of tonic that Northville needs right now. He found the "poem" among some old papers. Read this and cheer up.

Perseverance Conquers All
Genius, that power that dazzles mortal eyes,
Is oft outperseverance in disguise.
Continuous effort, of itself, implies,
In spite of countless falls, the power to rise.

'Twixt failure and success, the point is so fine,
Men sometimes knew not when they touch the line.
Just when the pearl was waiting one more plunge,
How many a struggler has thrown up the sponge!

As the tide goes clear out, it comes clear in,
In business, 'tis at turns the wisest plan.
And oh! how true, when shades of doubt dismay,
'Tis often darkest just before the day.

A little more persistence, courage vim,
Success will draw o'er fortune's cloudy rim.
Then take this honey for the bitterest cup—
'There is no failure, save in giving up!

No real fall as long as one still tries,
For seeming setbacks make the strong men wise.
There's no defeat, in truth, save from within;
Unless you're beaten there, you're bound to win."

ROTARY MEETS MONDAY

The combined Exchange club and Rotary club meeting scheduled for Monday has been postponed until a later date. The Rotary club will meet as usual on Monday noon, announced Ray Van Valkenburgh, secretary of the Rotary club.

BAKE SALE
The B. Y. P. U. will sell baked beans and pumpkin pies at the Palace Market Saturday at ten o'clock.

THEATRE OPEN THREE NIGHTS EVERY WEEK

Penniman Allen to Operate Saturday, Sunday and Wednesday

The Northville Penniman Allen theatre will keep open three nights each week, announced Harry Lush, manager of the Northville and Plymouth theatres. The theatre will be open, he said, on Saturday, Sunday and Wednesday.

Following "an excellent opening night" last Friday the management debated the possibility of keeping the show open on Monday nights also but it was found that the majority of theatre goers attend on Sundays and cannot go on Saturdays because of their work so make it possible to keep the show open on Wednesday nights.

The show's opening last Friday night was attended by a large number of people who came to see the charming Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell in "Merely Mary Ann."

The picture has been conceded by motion picture authorities to be one of the "biggest" smash hits of the year and it was well received by Northville cinema fans.

Tomorrow night the inimitable Will Rogers will be featured in "Young As You Feel," in which he portrays the part of an old-fashioned father who has worked hard for his millions but his sons do not take kindly to the job of taking care of the business he has built up. The sons pursue the "primrose path" until father decides that it is time to do some playing himself and he picks out attractive Patsy Dorsey as his playmate. He makes the rounds of the race tracks, night clubs, and other points of interest until—Well, if you see it and see how it comes out you'll enjoy this comedy more than if the entire plot were told.

Wednesday, Victor McLaglen and Irene Rich are featured in "Wicked" and next Saturday Jack Holt and Ralph Graves star in an adventurous story of an airplane and Zeppelin dash to the South pole. The picture is entitled "Dunglied."

BOGART WELCOMED INTO ROTARY CLUB

E. M. Bogart was received into membership of the Northville Rotary club at a well attended meeting on Monday. Edward C. Langfield made an appropriate address of welcome, stressing Rotary's ideals of service and good will. The president of the club, Father Jos G. Schuler, presented Mr. Bogart with the emblem of Rotary International.

Leslie G. Lee handed out a list of forty famous musicians and had the members guessing as to whether they were singers, violinists, composers or pianists. Prof. Percy Angove and E. M. Bogart, of Northville and Wm. Wood of Plymouth, a guest, guessed 35 of the number. President Schuler gave high praise to the work of Ray Richards in developing the well known at the Pere Marquette springs. Mr. Richardson has had charge of this and the project is very near completion. A number of the Rotarians have helped out at times.

An invitation of the Rotary club at Windsor, Ontario, to meet with them on Monday, November 9 to hear an Armistice day program was accepted with a whoop. Members of the club will leave at 10:30 a. m. for the Canadian border.

SPEAKS AT WAYNE

Father Jos G. Schuler, president of the Northville Rotary club and Richard T. Baldwin were at Wayne Tuesday noon where Father Schuler gave an address "Community Service," before the Wayne Rotary club. He told the Rotarians that courtesy and honesty were two of the big factors in business success.

MASQUERADE AND DANCE AT TRAINING SCHOOL

The Halloween spirit was booked to cut loose last evening at the auditorium of the Wayne County Training school on the occasion of the masquerade and dance. Patterson's orchestra was scheduled to furnish the music. Prizes and refreshments were part of the program. A wonderful time was anticipated.

PASTIME CLUB DANCE

The Pastime club opened a special season with a dance at a school gym when 33 couples were dancing to the music of fets and naire.

THE COMMUNITY BANQUET

The idea of having a community banquet is a good one and the Northville men who thought of this and then went to work and made it a reality have done a public service.

This town loses by not having some central organization to unite its business and professional people. We doubt if the Chamber of Commerce could be worked out right now yet Northville needs some leadership like that. The time will come when we shall have to organize a little more coherently and go after more community achievements. In the meantime the old town is waking up and with the voluntary leadership of some of the "faithful" the community is getting some new inspiration that we all badly needed.

CASS BENTON PARK

A lot of Northville people are missing much by not getting out more into Cass Benton park for a "weenie" roast—or anything to get them out under those marvelous trees. Right at our very doors we have one of the finest outdoor retreats of Michigan.

Went there with the family last Thursday night. It was good to get away from office grief for a little while and to drink in the autumn beauty. A fire in the tourist oven and a gorgeous moon riding the sky, just a touch of zip in the air—what a night to be outdoors. What does it matter if the bunns turn up missing? No wonder that all through the park were parties of nature lovers sitting around their fires and enjoying the dying hours of a glorious Michigan October day. See Cass Benton park when you get tired of town.

ALL IN OUR TIME

This writer thinks he is in just the prime of life. He feels that way. He passed an insurance examination the other day and the company said he was a good risk. Yet we have lived long enough to have seen come to the world all the inventions of Thomas A. Edison—and that should make anyone feel that he has lived a thousand years. For the world has literally gone ahead that much in fifty years.

We said we have seen them all come. That is true. When we were a boy electric lights were practically unknown and we can still remember the first crude phonographs and the time when you paid admission to hear the strange instrument played. The development of the telephone has practically all come since we started school in Monroe county, Michigan. And of course even the younger generation of today has seen the mighty revolution that the moving pictures have brought. Edison made them possible.

There undoubtedly will be no figure of the next half century that will change it as Thomas A. Edison, the genius, has re-made the past fifty years. As Henry Ford has said, "There is only one Edison."

A GOOD WINTER

Here's one resolve we have made. We have quit saying: "It's going to be the worst winter we ever had."

We sincerely feel that it is going to be a better winter than a lot of us have been talking about, right here in the midst of the one of the finest Octobers Michigan ever saw.

It is going to be a hard one for many without work but there never was a time when Northville stood more ready with sympathy and a friendly hand. Who said "hard winter" when everyone is willing to stand by and help those in need?

Look at what the King's Daughters are planning on doing to bring good cheer to those not so fortunate as they once were! Get the picture of those American Legion boys out there digging potatoes just so they can be ready for the calls of winter! Look at the work our churches do to bring good cheer to those who have been having their share of trouble! We are all "set" to make it a good winter.

Why say it will be the "hardest winter yet" when we see in many directions signs that business is actually picking up. From the East come stories that some factories that have been closed for two or three years are beginning to open again. Think what that means. Then right here in the Detroit area there are plenty of indications that point to an increased business. With thousands of men going back to work, what a fine winter that will be for them.

A lot of our "depression" is in the head—just mental. One way to help end this hard times era is to start talking about the blessings we have and not about all the troubles, many of which are real and many of which we like to exaggerate.

Let's get ready for one of the best winters we ever had.

THE LIFE BEYOND

"If a man die, shall he live again?" cried out Job. As he neared the hour of his death Thomas A. Edison, who has re-made the world for all of us, according to his physician, "gazed upward into space, his face illuminated with a smile. He said, 'It is very beautiful over there.'"

For many of us who cling to the hope of immortality there is comfort in the last words of Edison regarding the question whether the soul is immortal. As he neared the end of life he gave up his disbelief in immortality and in his closing years "came to regard the subject from an open viewpoint."

We find this in a United Press dispatch: West Orange, N. J., Oct. 19. (UP)—Thomas Edison had an unshaken belief in the existence of a "supreme intelligence," Arthur Walsh, one of the late inventor's closest associates, said today in denying reports Edison was an atheist or an agnostic.

Walsh, as spokesman for the Edison family, related several instances in which the inventor had indicated his faith in a superior being, although he subscribed to no orthodox religion.

On one occasion Walsh said, he was seated in the laboratory where Edison was drinking milk when the inventor raised his glass to the light and remarked reflectively:

"But the Almighty is the great chemist."

Again, Walsh said when Edison suddenly discovered the key to an invention, he turned and said:

"There must be a supreme intelligence. Often when I'm working and I seem to be lost, the right thought seems to come to me and it has no relation to what I have been thinking about. That makes me sure that there is a supreme intelligence which controls us and gives us the key to thought."

We are glad that Edison lived to the time when, with all his vast scientific knowledge he could reach the conclusion that the soul might live on. A coldly materialistic and often cynical science has tried to rob humanity of this age-old belief in the life beyond, but now the greatest scientist of them all holds out hope to countless millions living and yet to be born that death does not end all.

"This mortal must put on immortality," cried out the apostle Paul. That is the faith that has sustained humanity in all ages and all climes. We may not know where our future life of the eternities shall be spent but all the instinct of our being leads us to believe that there is a life beyond and that human hopes will there be enlarged through a countless eternity. Take away this hope and life will be poor, indeed.

EDISON AND HIS MOTHER

(Mumming News)

Men who are truly great never fail to realize what they owe their mother.

Of his mother, Edison said, "I was always a careless boy and with a mother of different mental caliber I should have probably turned out badly. But her firmness, her sweetness, her goodness, were potent influences to keep me in the right path. I remember I used never to be able to get along at school. I don't know what it was, but I was always at the foot of the class. I used to feel that the teachers never sympathized with me, and that my father thought I was stupid. And at last I almost decided that I must really be a dunce. My mother was always kind and always sympathetic and never misunderstood or misjudged me. My mother was the making of me. She was so true, so sure of me, that I felt I had some one to live for, some one I must not disappoint. The memory of her will always be a blessing to me."

SEN. COUZENS' GIFT

(Clinton Co. Republican News)

Senator James Couzens offered a few weeks ago to give one million dollars toward the relief of unemployed in Detroit. The offer had strings to it, however, and the Senator demanded that other rich people had to give him million in order to get his one million. The offering is still unaccepted, although Mayor Murphy has had conferences with the trouble likely is that the others did not like the idea of putting up nine millions on Couzens' plan—they did not fancy the $1,000,000-a-kill was the $9,000,000-a-kill. Then, too, many of them have their wealth invested in taxable manufacturing while they know the Senator long ago invested his millions in tax-exempt securities. They pay taxes on their wealth. He pays little. For one reason or another Senator Couzens always manages to make his charitable gifts spectacular—he is liberal but he apparently wants the world to know it.

THE REAL QUESTION

(Joe Sturgeon in The Delta Reporter)

Once this writer took the liquor question real seriously. It wasn't that we wanted the stuff, not that we thought others couldn't get along without it. But the abridgement of personal rights seemed contrary to the intent of the Constitution. It looked like a step that might carry along to further statutory regulation of the manner in which people should live.

Now to us the liquor question pales into insignificance when weighed against the unjust distribution of the country's wealth. Too many have made use of the government to protect them in fleecing the public. While honest folks were disagreeing among themselves about prohibition there were the dollar patriots who profited at their Nation's expense. Things are out of balance. THAT is the important question. "Food and not drink is our problem" is the way Will Rogers expresses it.

No column last week because there was no news. This week it is different. The table was well decorated with hungry men preceding the last meeting and lots of important business followed. Two membership teams were chosen with Vice-Commanders Kaletsky and Saley as captains. The contest ends December 31 and the prize is a dinner put on by the losing team. Get busy!

The Armistice Day dance committee, headed by Comrade Merrill Sweet, is hard at work. Something new and novel in decorations, effects and colors. This year's dance promises to go down in history as the biggest and best ever. Be ready to extend a hand when called on and plan to be there on the night of November 11. More details later.

The post has pledged itself to carry out a program this winter which will be a hard one but a worthy one. An appeal has gone out through the Northville Record to all persons who have food, clothing or fuel to donate for the poor and needy. If such persons will call Commander Blake or Welfare Officer Schoutz, the donations will be collected by volunteer members of the post and stored to be distributed to the needy this winter. This is a big program and one which will do much good during the coming months. If you have anything to contribute, get in touch with these men.

Your dues are due and payable. Your discharge must be inspected and recorded before your membership card will be issued. The committee includes all present officers of the post and comrades H. C. White and Norton. Green's forms will be mailed to out-of-town members which they may have attested before a notary public. This is a department mandate and must be done. Please do your bit and help finish this job.

WHAT DOES THE SCORE MEAN?

We referred in our last communication to the fact that there were only two Class C schools in the Suburban League, Farmington and Northville. It was shown to be unreasonable to expect Northville teams to win even half the games when playing almost all the time against teams from larger schools.

What is to be done about it?

Coach Ruggles and Principal Amerman are agreed that it is desirable to form a new and separate league of Class C schools. They will proceed to do this if it is possible. It will take nearly a year to accomplish it and to get the new schedules arranged.

In the meantime, our teams are likely to get good training in sportsmanship, perhaps even in being good losers. They deserve a lot of support in their up-hill battles.

Superintendent of Schools.

DRAMATIC CLUB MAKES FIRST APPEARANCE

The Dramatic club, under the direction of Mrs. Wright and Miss McDowell, made their first appearance Saturday night, October 24, as a special feature of the carnival.

The members of the club appeared in a minstrel show, singing negro spirituals, clogging and putting on a play.

There were several special features on the program, among them being a clog dance by Ida Altman and Tom McLaughlin, also one by Winnifred McCord and Donna Ferguson.

Freshmen give eighth graders a party.

Friday, October 16, the Freshmen gave the eighth grade a party.

The pianist, Mr. Montgomery, played while the members of the two classes danced.

Freshmen sponsors, Miss McDowell and Mrs. Cook, were present while the members of the parents dropped in.

Refreshments were served and a good time was had by all.

JUNIORS AND SOPHOMORES HOLD MEETINGS

The sophomore class held a meeting Wednesday and they elected a new sponsor in place of Miss MacDowell, who was also elected a sponsor of the junior class.

The present sponsors are Mr. Lee and Mrs. Eaton. Mr. Ruggles came in and explained about the League and of the pupils who were satisfied with it.

The juniors are retaining it and are playing with Class A and B schools or dropping out and playing with a league with schools of our own size. The class is also making plans to hold a sophomore party.

JUNIOR CLASS MEETING

The juniors held a class meeting Wednesday, October 21, 1931 to decide on the question of whether to stay in the league or to drop out.

The juniors voted and a majority vote was taken to drop out of the Suburban League. The question of having an annual was also brought up for discussion but was not voted upon. The meeting was then adjourned.

SENIOR CLASS MEETING

A senior class meeting was called to order Wednesday, October 21, 1931 by Ward Van Atta, class president.

The question of dropping out of the Suburban League was discussed and it was voted that the senior class leave it to the faculty members to do what they thought best.

It was understood that if Northville high school dropped out of the Suburban League a new league will be formed taking in smaller schools such as Walled Lake, Belleville, Farmington, etc. The matter of the magazine campaign also came up and it was decided to extend the campaign over until Friday night.

This far in the contest the Navy team, whose leader is Ruth Mary Baldwin, is ahead and if the other team does not hurry up and get more subscriptions the Navy will win the weenie roast. The old question about the Christmas cards again came up and the students decided to try and solicit orders now. The meeting was then adjourned.

HISTORICALLY-MINDED PEOPLE

This last week, or maybe we should say the last two weeks, the history students of Mrs. Cobb have been doing more work than just studying out of text books. These "doings" are interesting, too, and here's a little insight in them.

The work of the United States and Modern history classes and other "historics" have brought in an extensive collection of clippings, editorials, poems and comments on Thomas Alva Edison. These clippings and pictures fill a part of the room on the bulletin board in Mrs. Cobb's class room. Also, a day was taken from the regular routine to turn our thoughts in memory of our famous inventor and American citizen.

Along with the material on Edison are two cartoons. The subject matter of the first, by Robert Reed, is "What is the Colonist Thinking?" This shows a man in colonial costume in deep thought with his head in his hand and his gun left leaning against the chair in which he is sitting. The other cartoon, which is anonymous (somebody certainly is modest; we must admit), carries the title "Who is the Parent of America, Europe or England?" It shows a man in a top hat, looking at Mrs. Cobb's bulletin board. Both of these cartoons fit in with the subject of the Revolutionary period.

Some other outstanding work is a poster by Miriam Dundas showing prints of Braddock's defeat, the birth of Pennsylvania, and Balboa discovering the Pacific.

Robert Angove has been a great help to the Citizenship class which, by the way, is studying different types of churches and missions, by giving a talk on his trip to Canada with pictures to help describe the beautiful things he saw including a famous church. Robert's quite a speaker we must add!

Come on in folks and see these historical events as posted in Mrs. Cobb's room.

FACULTY WHO'S WHO

Our principal, Mr. Amerman is the next in line for "Who's Who" and we might add that he is something to talk about, having quite an interesting background before coming to Northville.

Russell H. Amerman, first saw the light in Ypsilanti, Michigan. The first years of his life were spent on a farm near Ypsilanti when he and his twin brother, (didn't you know that? Quite unusual. Maybe his mother's a principal but we forgot to ask Mr. Amerman that) lived with their grandparents while living there. Mr. Amerman attended the district school and upon graduating from the eighth grade moved to Belleville, Michigan, where he attended and graduated from the Belleville high school. From here he studied (?) at Hillsdale college (Hillsdale, Michigan) and graduated after obtaining his A. B. degree.

The next year was spent in teaching at Montpelier, Ohio. For the next four years Mr. Amerman taught at Mineral Point, Wisconsin, where he was made principal after his first year. Northville was Mr. Amerman's next stopping point and marked the beginning of his fifth year in "service."

For three successive years, this being the fourth, Mr. Amerman has held the office of secretary and treasurer in the athletic league, "Detroit Suburban League." While in college he was secretary and treasurer of a literary society and also had the same office in his fraternity.

Mrs. Amerman, formerly Miss E. F. Comstock, was a product of Hillsdale, Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Amerman met while attending college there.

Students, maybe some day you'll have a biography like this, too, so just wait your turn.

Without fear of flattery we might add that Mr. Amerman has a warm place in the hearts of Northville students.

DID YOU NOTICE?

That Northville scored at the Belleville game last Friday? Did someone say that long silent spirit could not possibly neep? Blossom forth all ye that have coppers, let's buy Don Robinson a button.

The orchestra at the carnival? "Orchestra", someone said.

That Mr. Knapp attended the Carnival? "There is a foolish corner even in the heart of a sage."

The dark circles around the eyes of five of our students? There's no sad story behind it, except the saddest story of tongue and pen—they've been studying too hard. (It's the debate students.)

An uproar in the laboratory a couple of Thursdays back? Who wouldn't be excited at the prospect that maybe the school would burn down? Violet Shppard was the heroine—she dropped a burning match into the waste paper basket.

The new girl who is coming to school? I heard her name is Eddie Bender. She wears the most stunning clothes of a style some time back. The boys say she's "not bad." That's the answer to the question, "Who killed Cock Robin?" Speak up, I can't suppress myself.

The adorable little nigger baby that plopped itself into our midst? Everybody that thinks he's cute say, Oh-Yeah! Those who do not throw out Chucky Meininger.

The bright eyed, blondish, wicked looking judge perched on the bench by chair behind the Kangaroo Court desk? Keep walking, Warner, won't catch you, he's in the flea business.

The new role of our little Junior Dundas? He's posing as a ship lady in Ringling Brothers. Keep up the old fight, maybe you'll get a job as garbage collector some day.

That perhaps this column should be dedicated to someone each week? Someone who has given a minute or two to the betterment of the school. Our football hero, Don Robinson, "He needs no aid who doth his ladies will."

SENIORS TO GIVE HALLOWEEN DANCE

Friday evening, the 30th, marriage will once more reign in the high school. The seniors will be responsible. The gymnasium will be transformed into a place of black cats and witches, and the ever good Blue Serenaders will furnish their ever good music. The admission price is 75 cents a couple, extra lady, 25 cents.

Boost the seniors to Washington.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS HOLD MEETING

The Camp Fire Girls held a meeting Monday evening, October 19 at the home of Florence Johnson. The meeting was called to order by the president, Gertrude Deal. The secretary's report was read by Margaret Hay and approved by all. The treasurer's report was read by Madeline Haystead, who substituted as treasurer for Marie Humphries during the first part of the meeting. Both the old and the new business was discussed by the members. Each member brought a guest with her, making a jolly crowd. After the business part of the meeting, the girls sang familiar camp songs and were entertained at the piano by Helen Johnson and Vera Schreder. A game of bingo was soon under way, followed by a buffet lunch. Prizes were awarded to Eleanor Grosvenor, Jane Lester and Gertrude Deal. The members present were Vera Schreder, guardian; Gertrude Deal, Florence Johnson, Marie Humphries, Madeline Haystead and Margaret Hay. The guests present were Peggy Blake, Eleanor Grosvenor, Jane Lester, Charlotte D. Ler and Mrs. Owen.

Maybury Sanatorium

The Maybury Sanatorium Baseball club gave a masquerade dance at Salem Thursday night.

The nurses at the unit entertained at Tea Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 5 in honor of Miss Katherine Mulhiken, who is leaving to accept a position in Boston, Mass. Miss Ida Blücher presided at the tea table which was centered with autumn flowers in a large pumpkin.

The Misses Mulligan, Keville and Glynn motored to Ann Arbor Tuesday evening to attend the Boston Symphony concert given at Hill auditorium.

Miss Sarah Louise Halsey entertained the Regan-Lide post of the American Legion nurses at a subscription supper Saturday.

Miss Harriet Stodt will motor to Elkhart, Indiana, Saturday. She plans to spend the winter at the home of her parents.

Miss Alice Hunter left Tuesday for Boston, Mass.

Miss Meta Letitz and Margaret Regan were hostesses at a bridge Friday evening. Lighted jack-o-lanterns adorned the mantle and the Halloween motif was likewise carried out in the refreshments.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. William Sestock and Edith Kiener.

A large number of patients of the Maybury sanatorium were pleasantly entertained by the Michigan State Champion Dancers on Friday evening, October 23, 1931, at the sanatorium auditorium.

These versatile juveniles were brought out through the courtesy of E. J. Cornforth, who acted as master of ceremonies and were enthusiastically received by all the patients.

Miss Rowena Root and Glenn Sallow were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Rice last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Link of Plymouth were visitors at the C. C. Rax home last week Tuesday.

Doris Eleanor Shifin celebrated her seventh birthday Tuesday evening.

These talented youngsters will soon be seen in Northville at the Wayne County Trailing school where they will give a presentation for the American Legion. We are sure it will be an equally enjoyable event.

CHICAGO STOCK SHOW TO BE BIGGEST IN HISTORY

Chicago—Early entries pouring into the headquarters of the International Live Stock Exposition, to be held at the Chicago Stock Yards this year, November 28 to December 5, give assurance of one of the largest displays of livestock and educational agricultural exhibits in its history.

So reports B. H. Heide, secretary-manager of the exposition. The coming 32nd anniversary of this world's largest exposition of the meat making breeds of livestock will open its doors upon the mammoth International amphitheatre and 22 adjoining buildings on the first Saturday following Thanksgiving.

Each day and evening will be crowded with events of education, inspiration, and entertainment to the visitors from town and country who combine to make the International Live Stock Exposition the most cosmopolitan agricultural show in the land.

F. N. Perrin and E. C. Hinkley were at Adrian Saturday to attend a luncheon of the G. A. R. drum corps.

LOST 20 LBS. OF FAT IN JUST 4 WEEKS

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis, Mo. writes, "I'm only 28 yrs old and weighed 170 lbs. until taking one box of your Kruschen Salts just 4 weeks ago. I now weigh 150 lbs. I also have more energy and furthermore I've never had a hungry moment."

Fat folks should take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast—an 85 cent bottle lasts 4 weeks—you can get Kruschen at C. R. Horton's or any drug store in America. If not joyfully satisfied after the first bottle—money back.

Society Notes

Mrs. Atchison Entertains Former Sewing Club

The "Old Time Sewing Club" was delightfully entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. E. Atchison. A dainty luncheon was served at one o'clock, covers being laid for eight. Instead of sewing in the afternoon the ladies changed their minds and played bridge.

Mrs. Margaret Tank Surprised On Her Birthday

Miss Margaret Tank was happily surprised on her birthday recently when a group of Northville friends dropped in to spend a pleasant evening together. Miss Tank makes her home while in the village with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ely on Rogers street, her home being in Rogers City.

Young Willis Miller Is Host To Friends at Country Home

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Miller on the Grand River road was the scene of a jolly Halloween party Monday evening in honor of their son Willis. All kinds of pranks suitable to the season were enjoyed and hearty refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Greer and daughter, Betty, of Northville were among the guests.

O. E. S. Gives a Benefit Bridge At Murdoch Home

Around forty guests enjoyed the hospitality of the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Murdoch on the corner of Wing and Main streets last Friday evening when a benefit card party was given by the Eastern Star Ten tables of bridge and 500 were played and a jolly informal time was spent concluding with a delectable lunch. As a novel variation the prizes were groceries, the first prize being a 5 pound box of sugar and the "booby" prize a can of corn.

Methodist High School Group Have First Get-Together

With genuine enthusiasm nearly forty young people of the senior high school group met in the Methodist church house Monday evening for their initial meeting of the year. A fine supper first put the party in good spirits, engineered by the committee Miss Bernice Clark, Miss Katherine Stalter, Miss Elizabeth Miner, Miss Mary Louise Boyden, Miss Ruth Mary Baldwin and Warner Neal.

Methodist Parsonage Welcomes First Gathering of Year

The Methodist parsonage had its "house warming" for the new minister's wife, Mrs. Frank N. Miner, last Thursday when a large group of women of the church assembled to enjoy a co-operative dinner together and to spend the afternoon sewing for the coming Christmas bazaar. The parsonage was attractive with the fresh decorating for the new-comers and the occasion was a pleasant opportunity to become better acquainted with the new "mistress of the manse."

Between-Ourselves Club Guests at Schrader Home

Mrs. N. C. Schrader very delightfully entertained the Between-Ourselves club at her home Monday afternoon when the Halloween motif was carried out in the decorations and in the dainty dessert luncheon served by the hostess assisted by her daughter, Miss Reva. The table was festive with yellow table cloth with black figures. Lighted yellow tapers stood at each side of a bowl of gay chrysanthemums. Covers were laid for eight. Mrs. Dayton Bunn being the substitute guest. Bridge occupied the afternoon.

Northville Women Hear Prof. Trueblood

A party of about forty members of the Northville Women's club went to Ann Arbor Friday afternoon to enjoy a luncheon served in the beautifully appointed Woman's league building and a most interesting travelogue by Prof. Thos. C. Trueblood, professor emeritus of the department of speech of the University of Michigan.

Entirely informal and at ease, Prof. Trueblood carried his audience in rapt interest through many of his travels. Using a conversational style, he answered questions as he proceeded in his description of journeys to Australia and other Pacific Islands. Those who were privileged to hear Prof. Trueblood feel that his talk was a good "appetizer" for the further study of this big world which will continue with the year's course.

Miss Athalie Hough's Engagement Announced at Luncheon

Mrs. Edward C. Hough and her daughter, Miss Athalie Hough, of Plymouth were hostesses to a group of over sixty friends at a very attractive luncheon at Meadowbrook club house on Wednesday afternoon when several Northville women were included among the guests from Detroit and Plymouth. At each cover lay a tiny envelope addressed to the one whose place was indicated and within lay a surprise to the whole party when the names of Dr. Francis Archibald of New Rochelle, N. Y. and Miss Athalie Hough were found engraved upon them. This clever device announced the engagement of these young people. It is thought the marriage will take place in the spring.

Those present from Northville were Mrs. Margaret Yerkes, Mrs. Sherwin Hill and Mrs. Joseph Schlacks. Mrs. L. A. Babbitt was also included in the invitations but was unable to attend.

DR. W. A. HART SUFFERS STROKE

Friends of Dr. W. A. Hart, of Highland Park will be sorry to hear that while attending the funeral of his wife's father on October 19, he suffered a stroke which completely paralyzed his left side. Dr. Hart spent much of his boyhood here and will be remembered as the nephew of Arthur Howard. He is a dentist who was associated with Dr. Root here about 30 years ago and after that went to Lapeer to practice, then to Highland Park. Dr. Hart is a great friend of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Northrop of this place.

WITH THE FOLKS SIXTY YEARS AGO

Chas. A. Dolph was browsing among the files at the Record office the other day and scribbled down the following items which will be interesting reminiscences to our older readers:

The new Holly, Monroe and Toledo railway, had reached Novi. A new depot had just been completed in Northville and the wheat house had been built.

Among the familiar names in business or profession were V. O. Whipple, harness maker, father of Mrs. Edgar Stauffer, E. S. Woodman, attorney, grandfather of Hoyt Woodman, J. S. Lapham, banker, uncle of E. H. Lapham, and such other men as Jas. K. Lowden, builder, A. E. Rockwell, jeweler, John Armstrong, blacksmith.

The Chicago fire and the burning of forests in various parts of Michigan called for contributions to which Northville readily responded. There was over $800 in cash and 105 barrels of potatoes, flour, beans and pork.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Birkhart have gone to attend the Princeton-Michigan football game at Princeton, N. J. While in the East they will visit at the home of the doctor's parents in Newark, N. J.

for the past five years, at present home on furrough. Of very charming personality Miss Fisher brought to her listeners a very vivid picture of life in India. Bringing with her articles peculiar to that country, she displayed these during her talk and this opened a free and open discussion.

As an innovation in the manner of entertainment, those who were present felt that the occasion was very worth while. (Incidentally, a neat little sum was added to the King's Daughters treasury.)

A few lively games were enjoyed by the young folks until 8.30 when the affair adjourned. The leaders appreciated both the hearty response by the young folks and the interest and co-operation of the parents.

Unique Form of Entertainment At Richardson Home

Carrying out the plan of the King's Daughters to add to their resources by entertaining informally four of the members, Mrs. Ray Richardson, Mrs. Chas. Murphy, Mrs. Geo. E. Hills and Miss LeRoy Stewart, were hostesses to a group of about forty women at the spacious home of Mrs. Richardson, just north of the village yesterday afternoon (Thursday).

The afternoon's pleasure began with a musical program in which Mrs. Harry Blake rendered violin solos, accompanied by Mrs. Newman McKinney who also played a piano solo. Mrs. Chas. Richardson sang a group of songs. All of these numbers were appreciated.

Miss Ernestine Fisher of Pontiac, a personal friend of Mrs. Hills and Mrs. Stewart, was then presented to the company. Miss Fisher was dressed in the native garb of India, being a missionary in that country.

MEADOWBROOK WILL CLOSE

Meadowbrook, after a summer of lively activity, will close its doors to the public from now until the robins come back, 98 per cent of its patrons being from Detroit. Only Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dundas will remain for the winter.

FATHER AND SON SENT TO PRISON

Dorsey Benson and son, Chauncey, of Novi, who are said to have stolen $50 from the purse of a woman killed in an automobile accident last Friday on the South Lyon road, were sentenced from three to five years each by Judge F. L. Doty of Pontiac Wednesday afternoon. Benson and his son were the first to reach the car and after removing the body of the woman, picked up the purse which was afterwards found in their home. They were arrested Tuesday noon by Oakland county authorities.

NO PROPERTY DAMAGE, SAYS CHIEF SAFFORD

Although horn blowing, parades and similar celebration pastimes will be allowed on Halloween, said Chief of Police Wm. Safford, property damage by thoughtless celebrants will not be tolerated.

Chief Safford returned runaway Walter Wilson, who was found searching for a place to sleep in the Grand River Lumber and Coal yards Wednesday night, to his parents in Milford.

Walter explained to the chief that he had had a little trouble with his teacher in school and because he didn't like her, he had run away.

HEARD ON THE STREET

Local merchant, "My business has improved. Last week we made a decided improvement over any previous week for some time past."

Business man: "It did sound good to hear the Northville community band on our streets again the other day. I wish it could be arranged that the band would play once a week on our Main street for a short time. Nothing draws people out so well."

Newcomer: "The native sons of any town can often hold it back. A good live town is glad to have people."

Every Monday Morning

By "AD" SCHWENGER

Not to be any different than any one else, I contracted one of the finest little colds this side of the Mississippi during the week.

You're familiar with the kind your voice sounds as though it belongs to someone else and you wish that your nose did belong to someone else.

I got wise this time. I refused every one of the 47 different remedies that solicitous friends offered me and I really think that the cold is broken. So much for this morning's health notes.

I've been challenged, nay, even dared to tell how I broke my "specs" last week and as it happens on an average of about once a month, I perhaps ought to explain.

Sitting in a cozy leather chair reading the evening paper, I felt the presence of Missa domestica on the tip of my right eyebrow. (It's a house fly people, a common house fly.)

I stealthily raised my trusty right arm and let fly (excuse it, please) at the offending insect and knocked my "windows" about 30 feet across the room where they landed in pieces. The so-and-so insect got clean away, too.

So help me Joseph, that's exactly how it happened and on my word as a gentleman, a scholar and a judge of good ginger ale I did not walk into any open doors or doorknobs.

Up to this point there are just 16 "I's" in this column and I (whoops, there goes another one) think that it would be better if some other subjects were introduced.

Northville high has the tightest team on any field in the country. After being pushed all around the lot during the first quarter, they came back in the second quarter to do a little pushing on their own accord. Dickinson returned several punts in nice fashion and the pass from Menzinger to Dickinson that scored Northville's touchdown gave the spectators a real thrill.

Belleville's pass, Wentkauff, to Kotz, and a series of line smashes resulted in the tie score that lasted until the end of the game. Fumbles were costly to Northville on several occasions but Bender, Schrader and Dickinson started and the entire team played with plenty of fight.

And while taking a look at the scores last Saturday, I observed that Michigan took a healthy crack at Illinois when you're sitting in the stands and that long, drawn-out "Meech-I-gan-n-n" rolls across the field, you know the Wolverines are getting ready to claw somebody.

Princeton, Michigan State, Indiana and Minnesota—I extend my heartiest sympathy. You'll find consolation in the fact that you're going to be licked by a good team. Next year's champions, in fact.

We also note that Newman ran 42 yards for a touchdown "behind wonderful interference" after intercepting a pass, according to Detroit papers. Listen, Mr. McDonald, Mr. Rockwell and Mr. Salsinger, what do you want him to do in order to receive a little recognition? Must he walk down the field on his hands with the ball between his feet be-

West Point Park

Mrs. Painter and niece, Betty Randal, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gillespie, Tommy, Jr., Betty and Susan Ruth motored to Rawson, Ohio and enjoyed a very pleasant visit with Mrs. Painter's sister, Mrs. Decker. They started early Sunday and were back home Sunday evening at 10 o'clock.

A number from here attended the funeral of Mrs. Lillian Morrow in South Lyon Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Rose Guinn and four children motored Sunday to Flint and spent the day with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Dowsett of Flint. Mrs. Gillespie of Saginaw spent a few days with her brother, Thomas Gillespie, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morrow, former residents of West Point Park, while motoring near Flat Rock, were struck by a truck. Mrs. Morrow was killed and her eighteen-months-old baby died later. She leaves six children. Mr. Morrow was badly cut and bruised. They moved last spring onto a farm near South Lyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Ault and daughter, Loralin, with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Adams motored to Akron, Ohio and were among the thousands who saw the great hairy thing and witnessed it being put into its cage.

The Base Line Pedro club were entertained at the home of Mrs. William Thornton. Prizes were won by Mrs. L. Wilcox, Mrs. Arthur Travis and Mrs. Carl Whaack. Mrs. C. Barber won the house prize.

Dr. and Mrs. Travis spent Monday with the former's brother on Base Line road.

Mr. and Mrs. James Eastman have returned after a pleasant visit Friday and Saturday with Mr. Eastman's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Fred McGowan of Samia, and also visited with relatives in Ridgeway, Blenheim and Leamington, Ontario.

Mrs. T. E. Slaver, who has been a guest of the Ault families, has returned to her home in Akron, Ohio.

One of the delegates from West Point who attended the Grand Chapter of O. E. S. held at Grand Rapids Tuesday and Wednesday was Mrs. Ethel Middlewood. She was accompanied by Harrison Johnston and Mrs. Reed Webster.

The bazaar held each fall by the Community club will be held December 4 this year. Preparations are being made to make it a success. A dinner will be served from 6 to 7 o'clock to all who come.

Mrs. Mansfield and Mrs. Robert Fredericks spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. C. Wolfe.

HOW DO WE MEET DEFEAT

We believe a man's measure (and a woman's too, of course) is taken by the way he meets defeat. It's no fun to take a "licking"—but "the test of the heart is trouble."

Folks who have seen behind the scenes of football games say that many a huge, husky athlete who has stuck bravely through a hard-fought game breaks down and cries like a baby when defeat comes. This learning how to be beaten—and then go at it again—is what athletics are for.

All around us are "beaten" folks yet how differently they bear it! Some just give up and are downed while others have the air of fighting "till the last armed toe expires." One Northville woman said to us the other day, "I'm not going around with my chin hanging down and make everyone else miserable." She works hard for a mere pittance but cheerfully says, "Well, half a loaf is better than none."

Another woman says, "Yes, my money is tied up—but really things aren't as bad as they ever did before." Very frequently we meet another brave, little woman, who greets us cheerfully and, if we did not know it, we would never guess from her bearing that deep in her heart is a gnawing ache of bereavement. In contrast we see another little widow we used to try to dodge on the street because she always affected us like a passing funeral procession. Upon her loyal bosom she wore a small picture of her deceased companion framed in sombre black and any subject of conversation seemed out of place in this ever-present reminder of sorrow.

Somewhere in some book we have ready the story of a certain army that was always ordered to march off the field of defeat, "wearing their white gloves" in full dress and with heads erect. To such there is no defeat.

"I would look up and laugh and love and live."

MRS. W. D. STARK'S PUMPKIN PIE

The Exchange club invited their wives out to dinner the other evening and the pumpkin pie was especially good. We found out that Mrs. W. D. Stark was the one who made them and here is her recipe—(she made a whole dozen)

1 egg, 1 cup sugar, 1 level tablespoon flour, 1 cup pumpkin, 1 pint milk, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/4 teaspoon ginger, nutmeg and salt to taste. Bake for one hour. Start with a quick oven and reduce heat. Mrs. Stark thinks the success of baking pumpkin pie is in its long slow baking.

P. S. It was not Mrs. Stark who said to a tramp the other day, "Didn't I give you a piece of pie the other day and here you've been sending all your friends here since." "Oh no," said the tramp, "those were my enemies."

APPLE BETTY

Peel and core 6- or 8 apples and cut in slices 1/4 inch thick to make 4 cups of apples.

1 tsp cinnamon
7 tsp. butter (about 1/2 cup)
1/4 cup water
1 cup sugar
3/4 cup flour (pastry or cake)
Butter casserole, add apples, pour over them the water and cinnamon mixed. Work together sugar, butter and flour with finger tips until crumbly, spread over the apple mixture and bake uncovered 30 to 40 minutes at 400 degrees. Serve while warm with whipped cream.

HAWAIIAN BAKED APPLES

Core apples. In the center put:
2 tsp. crushed pineapple
1 tsp sugar or maple syrup
1 tsp butter
Bake in pineapple juice.

Church News

Presbyterian Church

The hours of worship in the First Presbyterian church Sunday, November 1, are at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The speaker at the morning service will be S. A. Probst of Detroit. He is an excellent speaker and is to present the claims of the Michigan Anti-Saloon League. The congregation is urged to hear the facts as they will be presented by a fair and well-informed speaker.

At the evening service, the speaker will be Prof. Percy Angwa. His will be a timely message and we ask the members to show their appreciation by being present. The fifteen-piece orchestra of our Sunday school will assist in the service. Mrs. Sterling Eaton will sing.

Our services of last Sunday will not soon be forgotten. Family day was observed with record attendances. The evening service was a delight and inspiration, with Mrs. Catherine Todd in charge and Mrs. Flora Brennan the speaker. Her subject, "Religious Training of Children," based on the family with which she was most familiar and intimate, was treated in a most masterly and courageous manner.

And the Sunday school—yes, it is doing splendidly. What whole-hearted cooperation will do! Attendance and interest steadily increasing. Boys and girls do you know, some boy or girl who is not going to Sunday school? Bring him or her along Sunday at 12 noon.

The regular meeting of the Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary will be held at the home of Mrs. Lydia Ely with Miss Margaret Murdock assisting hostess on Tuesday evening at 7:45. November 3 Mrs. Louise Bryan will conduct the devotional exercises and the subject "The Bible in Art" will be presented by Mrs. Elizabeth Chapman. This promises to be an unusually interesting meeting. Let all the members plan to attend.

Baptist Church

A state-wide program of evangelism, October 22 to December 6, has already begun in a very large group of Baptist churches in Michigan. At Birmingham last week, Thursday, Dr. A. C. Archibald of Columbus, O. fired the opening gun. The spirit of God was felt in these services and especially Thursday night. In harmony with this program Rev. W. Roscoe Barbour will preach Sunday morning on "Pastoral Evangelism," and at the evening hour on "The Burning Question."

Hours of divine worship are at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Bible school at 11:45 a. m. and B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p. m.

If you belong to the army of non-church-goers, "Come then with us and we will do that good."

Methodist Church

Rev. Frank N. Miner, pastor. The services of worship for Sunday, November 1, are at the usual hours, 9:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The church school is at 12 noon and the Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. In the morning Mr. Miner will preach on the theme, "Paul to the Imperial City," and in the evening the theme will be, "Jesus' Ideal World."

In the evening there will be a special program of music. Mr. William H. Pond, formerly organist at the Michigan theatre in Detroit, will give several numbers on the organ and Mrs. Pond will sing several solos.

The young peoples meeting at 6:30 will be conducted by Miss Catherine Stalter. Friends of the church are asked to date themselves for two special events in November: the chicken pie supper (50c) Tuesday, November 10 and the men's fellowship supper Tuesday evening November 24. Dr. Haskell is to be speaker at the men's meeting.

The pastor, Mr. Miner attended the semi-annual meeting of the Ann Arbor district at the Ann Arbor M. E. church Thursday of this week. The Rev. J. Adolph Halmha-ber is the new district superintendent who succeeds the Rev. John E. Martin, who at the September annual conference became pastor of Oak Park church in Flint. Dr. Halmhauber's residence is in Ypsilanti.

St. Paul's Lutheran

THINK THIS OVER! Hard times—times of trial! Jesus proves your faith and love in such times. Never yet did worthy while changes in the Lord's Kingdom come on easy street. They are achieved by toll by sacrifice and prayer.

The road of least resistance is Old Adam's road and leads to ruin; the uphill road leads to the rough and rocky way, which the Lord has appointed for the New Man and that road leads to sublime and beautiful heights.

Who sends hard times? The Lord. Who alone can relieve hard times? The Lord. With whom are you always safe in good times and in hard times? With the Lord. Why not prove your loyalty to Him as He did to you on Calvary?

If times are hard and you feel blue. Think of others worrying too. Just because your trials are many. Don't think that others haven't any.

Life's made up of smiles and tears. Joys and sorrows mixed with fears. And though to you it seems one-sided. Trouble is pretty well divided.

If we could look in every heart, We'd find that each one has its part. And those who travel Fortune's road Sometimes carry the biggest load.

Lord, teach our lips of Thee to speak.

"Of Thy sweet love to tell, Till they do wander far. Shall seek And find and serve Thee well." Over all the world Thy Spirit send, And make Thy goodness known. Till earth and heav'n together blend Their praise at Thy throne.

—This Sunday morning we will celebrate our annual Reformation Festival with divine service at 10 o'clock. The pastor will speak on the text John 5:39, choosing as the theme of his discourse, "The Open Bible." In connection with this service the Lord's Supper will be celebrated.

Holy Communion will be celebrated in the English language on the third Sunday in November. Registration at the parsonage on the Thursday evening before November 12th.

The half hour of faith and fellowship broadcast by the Lutheran church every Sunday afternoon from 1:30 to 2 o'clock over station WXYZ.

To our visitors we bid a hearty welcome. We ask that you carry a moment after services to meet the pastor and some of the members. Lutheran Christians living in this community are urged to unite with our congregation. Those who have no church home are invited to make this church their church.

Our Lady of Victory Church. A local record attendance can be noted for the 40 Hogs three day devotion of last Saturday, Sunday and Monday. The children's procession on Monday night enhanced the solemn ceremonies of the closing exercises.

Christian doctrine classes tomorrow (Saturday morning) at 9:45. Sunday, November 14 is All Saints day. Masses at 8 and 10 o'clock. Halloween means the eve of All Hallowes, or All Saints.

Monday November 2 is All Souls day. There will be three Masses at 6, 7 and 7:30 a. m. In the Catholic church November 2 is a spiritual memorial day.

desk a copy of A. C. Laut's "Cadillac," the first authentic and complete biography of the founder of Detroit and one of our great early builders of North America.

This book is really a great contribution to our early American history, and since biography is the most interesting and illuminating way of reading history, one is in for a rare treat when he peruses these pages of romance in which sword and cloak go hand in hand. Cadillac's life was replete with thrilling tales of adventure, of fighting with Indians, of intrigue with Jesuits, and he was truly a great founder and builder of our North American continent.

COURT OF HONOR AT THE TRAINING SCHOOL. On Friday, November 13th, there will be held a Court of Honor for the Plymouth District at the Wayne County Training School. The Court of Honor will be called to order possibly at 7:30. This is the first Court of Honor for the season and a good attendance is desired.

TERHUNE WRITES NANCY McLOUGHLIN

There is a very happy little girl in Northville, Miss Nancy McLoughlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McLoughlin, who is treasuring a real honest-to-goodness letter from her hero, Albert Payson Terhune, the favorite author of all boys and girls who love the great out-of-doors and dogs and horses—the city librarian says Terhune's books are most widely read by boys and girls.

Miss Nancy, having poured over Terhune's stories since she was able to read at all, finally wrote the following letter to the writer, who shows by his personal reply that great men have a very human side, and like to have their young readers tell them that their stories are appreciated. It is a question whether Miss Nancy is any prouder of her letter from Terhune than he is of the letter from Nancy. Here are both letters.

Dear Mr. Terhune, I have just finished reading your book, "Lochner Luck," and liked it very well. Besides this book I have read, "Lad," a dog, "Gray Dawn" and several others, "Lad" and "Gray Dawn" are my favorite books. Will you please send me a picture of Lad and Gray Dawn?

Through your books I have learned to like colts, Alredades being my favorite before I have an Alredade, "Lad" and think he is wonderful. I always play that I own the Sunnybank Kennels and have Lad and Gray Dawn for dogs. Thank you.

Sincerely yours, Nancy McLoughlin, 332 Rogers St., Northville, Mich.

The Sunnybank Coll. Kennels, Pompton Lakes N. J. October 24, 1931.

Miss Nancy McLoughlin, 332 Rogers Northville, Michigan.

Dear Nancy,

Thank you for liking my work and for writing to tell me so. It is good to know that my dogs have won so many friends through my stories about them. I shall keep on trying to write the kind of stories which I hope you'll keep on trying to like.

I have a picture of Gray Dawn, but you will find a picture of Lad and Tye, on this letterhead. There are three books about "Lad," "Lad, A Dog," "Further Adventures of Lad," and "Lad of Sunnybank." "A Dog Named Chips," (Harper & Brothers, Publishers), is my latest dog book.

Alredades are splendid dogs. Pat Mike for me, won't you?

With all good wishes I am Sincerely your friend, Albert Payson Terhune.

SCHOOL CHILDREN AIDED BY SCOUTS

Mothers of kindergarten children may send them off to school with calm assurance now. A squad of trusty Boy Scouts have made themselves the custodians of Northville's little ones during the hours of their coming to school.

Guards are placed on the corners of Main and West, West and Cady, Thayer boulevard and Rogers, and Lincoln and Main where it is thought most necessary to protect them while crossing.

Junior assistant Scout Master Ward Van Arta is in general charge. Under him are four patrol leaders. George Richardson, Alfred Parmenter, Sidney Moase and Tom Carrington. Each of these has a patrol of eight boys who take their turn on duty for one week. The entire group of 36 boys will serve their turn.

A fine system has been worked out and the boys wearing their Scout neckerchiefs of orange and black (the Scout colors) stand with dignified authority holding their stop signals which passing motorists are bound by law to obey.

Once before a system of patrols of school children was established but it did not succeed. This is the first time the Boy Scouts have done this service for the school.

Obituary

Judson A. Cranson

Judson A. Cranson, the son of Marcus and Orra Cranson, was born July 1, 1887 in Redford township, Wayne county, Michigan and died at his home at Seattle, Wash., October 3, 1931 at the age of 44 years and three months.

Mr. Cranson was married to Mrs. Marie McHenry of Riley, Colorado, July 30, 1903, and his companion of over a quarter of a century preceded him in death on April 1, 1931. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Helen Gray of Northville and two brothers, Jewett Cranson of this place and Ulysses Cranson of Alhambra, California.

The deceased was a well known Mason, having been a member of Farmington lodge, F. & A. M. No. 151 and later was affiliated with the lodge at Seattle, Wash. He was always of a kind and genial disposition and commanded the respect of his friends and fellow-citizens.

One hundred years ago last spring college was formed in the Ohio wilderness at Granville, 22 miles southeast of Columbus.

October 16, 1931 there was a formal celebration which for dignity and worth is almost without parallel. Some hundred and more institutions of learning sent delegates and Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Brown and Chicago University were among these. Great addresses by such men as Matthew of Harvard, George S. of Chicago University were given and the vesper sermon on Sunday was delivered by Chas. W. Gilkey, dean of the chapel of Chicago University. Denison has her sons and daughters at work all over America and in many lands across the sea.

An example of this fact is seen in Dr. Wallace St. John, president of Rangoon college, Burma, the one great college of that and adjacent lands and Wm. Geer Spencer, president of Hillsdale college, Mich.

Not only do many college men and church men but many men of affairs such as Col. B. A. Deeds, inventor of the Deeds system and chairman of the National Board of Defense during the World war, call Denison alma mater.

Thoughtful men everywhere are realizing the fact that the small college under church control has given for the investment the most to our land and to the world.

Francis Shepleard, long time of the University of Chicago, issued the challenge that anyone anywhere produce a better college, yet endowment, buildings and all would come well under ten million dollars.

FAMOUS COUGH PRESCRIPTION

Almost instant relief from coughs is now guaranteed in the use of the physician's famous prescription called Thoxine. It works on an entirely different principle, having a double action, it relieves the throat irritation and goes direct to the internal cause not reached by cough syrups and patent medicines and the cough stops like magic, usually with the very first swallow.

Taken before retiring, Thoxine absolutely prevents night coughing and insures a good night's sleep. It gives the same speedy relief for sore throat, whooping cough, croup, or harmful drugs. Children like it. Remember—relief within 15 minutes from coughs or sore throat, or your money back 35c, 60c, $1.00 bottles. Sold by Northville Drug Co., and all other good drug stores.

NORTHVILLE PRAISED IN THE FREE PRESS

"This country has every type of natural beauty in miniature," said Mr. Cochran. "It is hilly and well-watered. Northville is only 30 minutes from Ann Arbor and an hour from Detroit. Some of our young people really commute to college at Ann Arbor. Around the town is some of the finest fruit country anywhere."

Five golf clubs are near Northville, including the Women's Country Club of Detroit and Meadowbrook Country Club. The scenic beauty will be increased when the River Rouge Parkway Drive is completed into Northville, as part of the Wayne County boulevard system.

Although Northville is so close to Washtenaw County, the village is actually in two other counties. Tucked into the extreme northwest corner of Wayne County, its limits have now overflowed into Oakland County at the north, though Wayne still claims the town.

Tuberculosis Sanatorium Nearby. Recognition of the excellent situation of Northville is apparent in the presence of the William H. Maybury Sanatorium built by the City of Detroit under the auspices of the Detroit Board of Health. This institution cares for more than 800 tuberculous patients. It occupies the highest point in Wayne County, 996 feet above sea level. Another sanatorium is private institution, also near Northville, while to the south the Wayne County Training School looks after the welfare of more than 800 boys and girls in the 34 fine brick and stone buildings on its 1,000 acres. This institutional life adjacent to the village gives a stable constituency.

As the tourist approaches Northville from the southeast, he notes a rustic well-house standing at the side of the road. This quaint structure recently has been put up under the auspices of the Northville Rotary Club for the convenience and refreshment of the traveler who soon learns of the quality of Northville's spring water.

"The spring never freezes," said the Rev. Father Joseph G. Schuler, pastor of Our Lady of Victory Church and president of the Rotary Club. "Of a Sunday as many as 500 and 600 automobiles have stopped at the well, which is fast becoming a landmark. The people bring five and 10-gallon jugs which they fill with the spring water."

"Fish Hatchery Interesting. 'I have lived eight years in Northville and like it because of the hills and rolling country. There are summer and winter sports which provide healthful activity the year around.'"

Father Schuler has the distinction of being the only one of his faith who has belonged to the Northville Rotary Club, of which he is president.

Another important establishment in Northville is the Federal fish hatchery, which developed from the private hatchery begun by Nelson W. Clark of Clarkston, in the '70's. In 1897 the present buildings were erected and today the hatchery, under the direction of F. L. Shipes, superintendent, supplies bass, sunfish, rainbow, brook and Loch Leven trout to streams in Michigan, Ohio and Indiana.

Under this Federal hatchery are two others in Michigan, at Alpena and Charlevoix. Last year 100,000 whitefish and 60,000,000 lake trout were propagated at the Charlevoix sub-station alone. From the Northville station last April approximately 1,500,000 trout and 100,000 bass were distributed. The Federal stations co-operate in every way with the State hatcheries.

A former executive at the Northville hatchery, Ward T. Bower, was transferred to Washington some time ago, where he is now head of the Alaska Division of the United States Bureau of Fisheries, in charge of all sealing activity in the Bering Sea, as well as the salmon and other fishing interests of the Government.

Among Detroiters who now have homes in or near Northville are F. H. Grenier, T. Glenn Phillips, Julius Forath and Mrs. Iva M. Eaton. Thad J. Knapp, formerly of Highland Park, now lives in his home town where he is superintendent of schools.
