

NEW NORTHVILLE BANK, USING OLD ASSETS, IS POSSIBILITY

FORD WORKERS IN NORTHVILLE GET GARDENS

Crew of Men Clears Up and Flows Two Plots of Ground

Henry Ford is getting ready to provide Northville gardens for his employees, in keeping with his plan to give outdoor work and leisure to his workers, not to mention making a substantial contribution of produce for family use.

Mr. Ford has had a crew of twelve men busy preparing the space back of the Ford plant—this used to be the Yerkes pond—and also what is known as the Ambler pond, near Rural Hill cemetery, for use next spring for gardening plots. A number of tractors have been used in the work of preparing the soil for gardening purposes. Stumps that were in both areas have been removed, stones have been taken off, after the manner of thifty New England farmers; and the land has been plowed. It is the first time that part of this land has been "turned over." When spring comes Northville will see a splendid array of Ford gardens.

Not only will the workers get the benefits of these gardens but the improvement of these spots will add to the attractiveness of Northville. Local officials of the Ford plant here state that men are already applying for gardens for next year.

WM. W. SMITH WILL BRING HUNDREDS OF YULE TREES HERE

As has been the case for many years, William W. Smith, Randolph street, will again supply Christmas trees for Northville people and those nearby. Already he has orders for over 150 trees.

At Smith, in the supply he gets from the upper peninsula will have the community tree, sponsored by the Exchange club, and this tree for the "kids" of the community will rise 25 or 30 feet in the winter air. The village dais have planned to have the individual trees placed in the flag holes in the sidewalks in the business district. This is a fine idea.

LOCAL CONNECTION TO HOUSE OF CORRECTION IS NOW AVAILABLE

Through the enterprise of Roy F. Crowe, district manager of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co., subscribers to the Northville telephone exchange will hereafter be able to talk directly with the House of Correction, instead of paying toll to talk through the Plymouth exchange.

A direct line to the House of Correction from here has been completed and the local number will be 700. Northville subscribers having business with the institution can reach all departments by calling No. 700. Employees living in Northville and our local business people should greatly benefit by this added service.

PLAN TO PREVENT DIPHTHERIA THREAT

Plans are now being laid, announced Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston, Northville village health officer, for the immunization of school children against diphtheria, the mocculation to be given some time next January. "It has been several years," declared Dr. Johnston, "since children have been given this prophylactic treatment in the schools and since diphtheria is most prevalent in youngsters under ten years, I believe that to safeguard the health of the community's children, immunization should be offered again to all those who have not received this protection."

"Parents are urged to take their children to their family physicians for treatment between now and the time we start doing the work at school." All children who have not been immunized by their own physicians by January will be requested to take advantage of the facilities offered by the school.

Dr. Johnston will be assisted in the work by Mrs. Florence Bray, school health nurse.

SENIOR DANCE

The usual bi-weekly senior dance will be held in the high school gymnasium Friday, December 11 in spite of reports to the contrary. The Blue Serenaders will furnish music for the evening.

AIDS BANK PLAN

E. L. Mills is one of the committee of three that is working on a plan for a new bank for Northville. He represents the depositors.

H. S. OPENS COURT SEASON AT YPSI

The Northville high school basketball team opens the season away from home this year Friday evening at 7:30 they play the Lincoln Consolidated high school at Ypsilanti.

Little is known yet about the strength of Northville although Coach Ruggles has some veterans available, such as Capt. Beach, Dunsbury, Kohler, Campbell, Robinson, Meitzinger, Dickinson and Westphal. Several new men such as Bender, Hoffman, Mose and McCord are making a strong bid for a regular position. At first the loss of Ruffenburg, who as meigsible, was strongly felt but McCord, Dr. Ruffenburg should fill his place very well.

There are seven home games this season and the student council is offering season tickets to students for 75 cents and adults for $1.25. This reduces the price of the games about one half to those buying season tickets. Any adult wishing to purchase a ticket should get in touch with the principal's office.

Northville's first home game is on Friday, December 13 with the Wayne County Training school in the afternoon of December 24 at 4 p. m. in the alumni will again come back and try to beat the "school kids."

THERESA SPAGNUOLO BURNED ON ARM

While trying to surprise her older sister, Marian, by lighting the kitchen fire at their home over their store, little eight-year-old Theresa Spagnuolo was quite severely burned on the arm late Tuesday afternoon. In replacing the stove lid the sleeve of her dress caught fire. The little girl rushed in her burning dress, down stairs to her sister who succeeded in beating out the blaze. The suffering child was carried to the office of Dr. Handorf where the arm was found to be deeply burned but it is thought no serious results will follow.

Theresa, who is in the second grade, will be out of school for a while.

METHODIST CHURCH GIVEN "CLEAN-UP"

Descending upon the church with brooms, mops and scrubbing brushes, a small army of loyal members, business men and housewives, of the Methodist church, attacked the job of thoroughly cleaning the building from choir loft to kitchen this past week. Someone facetiously called it the "charge of the dirt brigade" and throughout the entire three days and more of hard labor the best of humor prevailed.

Even higher than the choir the men climbed and cleaned all the ornate beams suspending from the ceiling and wiped the walls with cleanser. To see a boy of aproned women kneeling along the pews with pails of hot suds, washing away the dust of decades, one was reminded of the familiar story of "The Old Peabody Pew."

There is little doubt that when this weary company left on aching limbs, closing the door on a house clean and fit for worship, it was with a deeper devotion to the church of their choice.

Roy Clark was the commander in chief of the enterprise and Mrs. Bertha Neal, Ladies' Aid president, his efficient assistant.

Northville camp, Royal Neighbors of America will hold its annual election of officers Monday evening, December 14 at Foresters hall. A good attendance is desired.

COUNCIL GIVES EXTENSION ON PAVING TAX

Water Report Considered at Meeting Held Monday Evening

Payment of village paving taxes was postponed from December 12 to December 31 by order of the Northville village council which met for its first meeting of the month on Monday night.

A penalty of additional interest charges will be imposed on all citizens who have not paid by December 31, the time limit.

The report of F. L. Hamill, Plymouth engineer, who was appointed to investigate the feasibility of improving the Hill and Barnhart sources of water supply was accepted by the council. Mr. Hamill was further appointed to draw up an estimate which would show the cost of such improvements and present it to the council at the next meeting. Councilmen Merrill S. Sweet and Dr. Ludwig W. Snow together with Mr. Hamill and Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston, village health officer, went to Lansing yesterday to interview officials of the state health department whose approval is said to be necessary before alterations on the Northville water supply can be made.

The village received a formal notification from the state health department this week to the effect that the six months probation period had elapsed and inquiring as to what steps the village had taken to improve the water supply. It was in answer to this query that the committee made its trip to Lansing. A special meeting of the council was called for Thursday night, which it is not possible to report in this week's issue of the Record. The meeting was called to discuss village finances and will be reported in next week's paper.

BOY SCOUT LODGE AT TRAINING SCHOOL TO BE STARTED SOON

A Boy Scout lodge, 36x26 feet in size, set in a wooded site near the Beck road on property of the Wayne County Training school, which will be available for the use of all troops in the Plymouth-Northville district, has been made possible through the enterprise of Scouts in the troops at the Training school.

At the monthly meeting of the executive committee of the district, held Wednesday evening at the Training school, with Dr. Robert H. Haskell, chairman, presiding, plans for the lodge were approved. The Scouts at the school have on hand a fund of $875 which will be used to purchase the material for the building—and back of this is a splendid story of the boys' vision and loyalty to Scout ideals. These Training school lads had, by picking cherries on a fruit farm, earned the fine total of $875 and by their own action they decided to put this aside for the lodge. Then when the boys captured a number of prizes at the Michigan State fair $114 was added to the fund. After hearing of this action the committee unanimously decided to endorse plans for the building and work will be started in the very near future.

Nathaniel O. Gould of Detroit, an honorary member of the committee, drew the plans for the buildings. These plans are remarkably complete and beautiful.

There will be no expense for the work of construction as this will be done by the boys of the three troops at the Training school, supervised by the teachers of manual arts at the school. The lodge will have sleeping accommodations for 30 boys and there will be the unique feature of two fireplaces, one that can be used outdoors and the other inside. There is a water supply near and the lodge will be ideal for week-end hikes of troops of this area.

Other important business transacted by the committee was the re-election of Dr. Haskell as chairman and of the Rev. Walter Nichol of Plymouth as vice chairman for the coming year. Rev. Frank N. Minner of Northville was elected on the committee to succeed Rev. Wm. Richards and Supt. Thad J. Knapp of this place was continued as chairman of the camp committee.

The King's Daughters announce, through the Record, that they will not know definitely until after their next meeting on the evening of Tuesday, December 15, their plans for welfare work in the community.

United Effort to Battle Need Creates Fine Community Spirit, McBroom Tells Northville Group

"It takes sacrifice, pluck and the greater benefit to the sick—and needy," Mr. McBroom brought home vividly the urgent importance of every one in the community being interested in the success of welfare work for those less fortunate. "Any child who contracts tuberculosis because of undernourishment becomes a menace to the child sitting next to him, who may be well fed and with every want supplied."

In spite of the depression, said Mr. McBroom, Lansing the past year raised $186,900 for its community chest—only $2,000 less than in 1929 before the stock market crash. Hundreds of people in the Capital city do their part to make the annual campaign a success.

"You will have to give and take," concluded the Lansing worker "but if you want to do your part as a community you will have to be bridge builders, to put a safe passageway over the chasm of poverty and sickness."

Mr. McBroom was given a very careful hearing and his address was very inspiring to those present. Father Jos. G. Schuler, president of the Rotary, presided with President Clifford B. Turnbull of Exchange at his side. C. R. Van Valkenburg led in community singing with Leslie G. Lee at the piano.

If the Banks Must Liquidate

Near a small town in this state where the one bank had closed and efforts were being made toward its reorganization, there lived a prosperous and influential farmer who had no special interest in the bank and who showed no sympathy in the movement to reopen it. On the contrary, he declared for an entirely new bank and the liquidation of the old.

"Liquidate! Get what can be got out of it and forget it," was his terse advice. A close and good friend of his living on an adjoining farm had been compelled by sickness in his family to borrow from the bank during the past and to secure this money had mortgaged his farm to the bank. As time passed, some payments were made and the mortgage reduced until recently, when farming was so unprofitable, he had been unable to pay more than his interest and taxes. This mortgage among others passed for collection into the hands of the receiver of the closed bank. Payment was impossible and the duty of the receiver was to collect in an endeavor to liquidate the assets of the bank.

The farmer made many fruitless efforts to secure the money to reimburse the loan. He even applied to his wealthy neighbor who in turn attempted, though unsuccessfully, to procure the money to take up the mortgage. To secure a loan was impossible. Foreclosure was inevitable because the bank must at all hazards, liquidate.

He realized then that a bank in liquidation, in the hands of a receiver had but one duty. He saw then that that duty meant the ruin of his friend and the breaking down of as good a family as the neighborhood possessed.

In behalf of the well-to-do farmer it should be said that he went direct to those endeavoring to reorganize the bank with an almost tearful apology and offered his services freely to help in reorganization. He had seen the light.

The foregoing is a true occurrence but with the names suppressed. Our banks must not liquidate now if there is any other way out.

SUGGESTIONS FOR CHRISTMAS MAILING

Mail Early. At least four extra days should be allowed for the delivery of Christmas parcels. Morning mailing of parcels as well as letters should be done which will hasten the mail by eight hours. It must cases Letter boxes around the village will be emptied and brought to the post office several times a day. Mailing early and often will keep the mails moving.

Wrapping. Unusual care should be exercised in the wrapping of Christmas parcels. Thousands of dollars worth of presents are damaged each Christmas due to poor wrapping. Insure your parcels for loss and damage. The cost is small.

Register valuable mail such as money and jewelry. Must be sealed and go the same speed as a letter. All classes of mail having a Special Delivery Stamp on will be delivered on Christmas day in the post offices where they are received if the parties live within the delivery limits.

The local post office will remain open on Saturday afternoon preceding Christmas, deliver parcels and one delivery of mail the Sunday preceding Christmas and while the office will be closed the entire Christmas day, all outgoing mail will be sent out as usual and all incoming special delivery and perishable mail will be delivered within the city limits.

O. H. Brown, a former resident for many years in Northville, died Tuesday, December 8 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Walter Collier, in Detroit. The funeral services will be held at the Neely Funeral establishment on Grand River to day at one o'clock p. m. Burial will be in Uddell cemetery.

Mr. Brown leaves a son, Walter, of Northville and a daughter, Mrs. Collier, of Detroit.

It was with deep regret that the members received the message of B. A. Wheeler, that due to his health, he would be unable to serve as Treasurer another year. It was 46 years ago that Mr. Wheeler first was elected to this office of trust as a testimony of the affection in which Companion Wheeler is held by his chapter the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the members of this chapter be and they are, to extend to Companion B. A. Wheeler, their sincere sympathy and best wishes for his recovery and to urge him to return to his duties as soon as possible.

Whereas, our esteemed and beloved Companion B. A. Wheeler is on account of poor health, compelled to relinquish the position of Treasurer of this Chapter;

Whereas he has held this office (Forty Six Years) from which he now retires, and with great acceptability and universal satisfaction;

Therefore be it resolved, that we hereby express to him our sincere thanks for his untiring labors in behalf of our organization and assure him of our earnest wish that he may have a speedy recovery of health.

And be it resolved, that Companion B. A. Wheeler by a unanimous vote of Union Chapter be elected permanent Honorary Treasurer Emeritus of Union Chapter No. 55, R. A. M.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH HAS 103rd ANNIVERSARY

At the morning service at the Presbyterian church, Sunday, December 6, Rev. Harold G. Whitfield made reference to the day being the 103rd anniversary Sunday in the history of the church. As for his pastorate here, two years have now passed marked by mutual cooperation of people and pastor and there was good reason to look forward to the days ahead for attainment of definite spiritual progress.

With the subject of the sermon, "The Likeness and Unlikeness of God's Ways to Men's" and the text from Isaiah, 55th chapter and verse 8, the pastor made a keen analysis of the similarities and dissimilarities existing, pointing out the attributes which are God's and those which man, in his little degree, possesses and yet which show him, beyond the shadow of doubt, to be made in the image of his Creator.

In the evening the service was featured by the presenting of two sets of colored slide pictures, "Uncle Sam's Family," and "To Keep America Christian," affording both entertainment and information and bringing realization of problems and needs which confront our own United States.

TREASURER 46 YEARS

Barton A. Wheeler resigns the position of Treasurer of Union Chapter No. 55 R. A. M. after 46 years of service. This is a remarkable record.

NORTHVILLE BANK MORTGAGE GOOD

Ruling that the first mortgage held by the Northville State Savings bank against the Globe Furniture company is a lien on all of the permanent fixtures which would include building and all of the machinery attached to the floor, the Michigan referee in bankruptcy upheld the bank's claim in a hearing Monday in Detroit.

The hearing was brought about by the Union Guardian Trust company receivers for the Globe Furniture company to settle conflicting claims on the property of the furniture company.

Workmen who are seeking back wages may get them by realizing on loose machinery, furniture and the bills receivable, if it is said. A possibility that the hearing is not final was mentioned. The case may be taken to court before a final settlement of the claims is made it was stated.

The amount of the mortgage held by the Northville bank against the furniture company is said to approximate $20,000.

KING'S DAUGHTERS BAZAAR NETS $125

As a result of their skillful management the King's Daughters realized a profit of over $125 from their annual Christmas bazaar held last Saturday. Considering the stress of the times and the fact that the bazaar was held only one day instead of two as has been the custom the women are very much gratified with the returns for their efforts. They appreciate the response of the public who gave them good patronage. They wish to express their gratitude to all who helped make the affair a success including the Lapham bank for the free use of the building.

With the generous addition to their funds the King's Daughters are meeting daily new demands for help. On Monday five calls for help came to these philanthropists which they responded to with their customary willingness.

Their next meeting will be held Tuesday evening December 15 at the home of Mrs. E. C. Hindelev Dunlap street. Members and all others interested are reminded to bring gifts for the children who are patients in the University hospital.

TRUCKS WILL "WEIGH IN" AT FORNEY COAL YARDS

Scales at the Forney coal yards have been announced as the official ones at which trucks may be weighed in order to obtain the certificate of weight which is necessary before truck license plates will be issued by the state.

ELRICH WILL SECURE 1931 AUTO PLATES

Northville motorists may secure license plates, without any additional charge, from Irving J. Ulrich whose office is at 109 E. Main street. The service will not cost the drivers any more, said Mr. Ulrich, and will save many the inconvenience of driving to towns where state license bureaus are located.

CANDY SPECIALS

We are offering some fine specials on Christmas candy and nuts, also on cigars and tobaccos (one pound and one-half pound). This is all new stuff and you will like it. Northville confectionery, Jas. Spagnuolo, proprietor.

COMMITTEE OF THREE NAMED BY DIRECTORS

Lapham, Yerkes and Mills
Will Work Out Plan
of Merger

A new bank for Northville is now a definite possibility. Action looking to this was taken Monday evening when the boards of directors of the Northville State Savings bank and of the Lapham State Savings bank unanimously voted to attempt a plan of reorganization for a new institution that would take over the assets of the two closed banks and name a committee to work out details. There were also present at the meeting five members of a local business men's committee—not bank directors—which for weeks has been investigating the possibilities of giving Northville a bank. The meeting was held in the directors' room at the Northville State Savings bank, with Clinton W. Wilber acting as chairman.

Unanimous action to make a limited and vigorous effort for a new bank followed two hours of discussion during which all angles of the local situation were discussed. In a very fine spirit of harmony the possibilities of an entirely new bank that would disregard the assets of the two banks (over two million dollars) and the possibilities of one that would utilize the assets of the banks were considered and compared. Interests of the depositors were uppermost in the minds of the directors and it was felt that these would be best conserved by merging the assets of the two banks the deposits of which are over one million and three hundred thousands of dollars.

Three on Committee
Representing each of the two institutions and the opposi- and general public, who have vital interests at stake E. L. Lapham, Don Yerkes Sr. and E. L. Mills were named as a committee of three to work out details of the new bank proposition.

The plan that will first be investigated by the committee will follow lines that have been and are being followed in Ypsilanti, Caro, Nashville and other Michigan towns that have suffered loss through closed banks. This procedure calls for the raising of new stock, both from the former stockholders of the closed banks and from the general public, and the securing of a depositors' agreement for a moratorium over a period of probably five years. In some towns a "pool" of a part of the deposits is set aside to be paid from doubtful and "slow" paper that is part of the assets.

The committee that was named has gone to work in dead earnest to try to bring about the new bank. No stone will be left unturned to get the institution for Northville at the very earliest possible date although all realize that much hard work will have to be done and that the success of the enterprise depends entirely on a united spirit of cooperation and loyalty on the part of the community.

No concrete plan can be presented to the depositors and the public until the state banking department has been consulted and thoroughly surveys the possibilities here. After the department endorses a specific proposition, then work will be started to make it a success.

Depositors to Meet
A meeting of depositors at which all details of the future organization will be worked out will doubtless be called in the near future. Some banking experts from out of town will probably be called upon to present the plan to the depositors of both banks.

The method of raising stock is also a matter that will have to be worked out by the state banking commissioner.

Members of the committee, accompanied by Fred J. Cochran, spent Wednesday at Nashville where a reorganization plan is being worked out. A stop was also made at Ypsilanti to discuss with people there the project that is being carried out.

The united action of the two boards of directors has aroused a new spirit of hope and enthusiasm in Northville. On all sides is a feeling that the new bank can be established if all will cooperate and have confidence in each other. Business people especially, who have been great losers as the result of weeks of a bankless Northville, are much encouraged.

HOOVER AND HOMES

President Hoover's appeal at the conference at Washington for some way to make it possible for every one who wants a home to get one, has captured the imagination of the whole country.

Whoever gets a home in Northville now and sticks to it will make no mistake.

"KISSABLE" OR NOT

The Detroit News, is the authority for the following quotation from Ernestine Schumann-Heink, the great singer:

Ernestine Schumann-Heink: "Wives who smoke can not expect their husbands to enjoy their kisses."

The cigarette advertisements tell how a certain brand make the women more "kissable." We often wonder if advertising writers don't smile at their own "hokey" when they write such ridiculous stuff. We really didn't need Madam Schumann-Heink to come along to make them look more foolish. Cigarettes don't do any more for women than they do for men—most people think they do less—and certainly no man was ever made more kissable by filling up on nicotine.

"WET AND DRY"

The wet and dry fight seems to be with us again—in Congress.

The drys say they will accept the challenge of the wets for a "show-down." Certainly if those opposed to prohibition take an orderly course in trying to change the law, there can be no honest objection to that. The constitutional way is the fair way to approach it.

One thing is sure. The wets will have to get together on what substitute they propose to take the place of the eighteenth amendment. We can't go back to the saloon—even the vast majority of those opposing prohibition say that would be impossible. What plan will they propose? The Canadian plan or state's rights or what? Or light wines and beer? There will never be any change in prohibition until the wets get together and decide on what substitute they have for the present law. And the "getting together" is not going to be as easy as it looks.

CUT RATES

A Northville business man asked us the other day if we could meet a certain "cut rate" on some printing.

"Yes, we can do that," we said, "if we want to go out of business in two or three years." Then we told him about four printing houses that we knew about where they had gone bankrupt and lost all their machinery because they tried to do business with a fair profit.

One day last week there were eleven people working in the plant of The Northville Record. They were using equipment that cost thousands of dollars. If they had not been producing work at a profit, the time would come when these eleven folks would be seeking work elsewhere.

Fortunately, the average business man in Northville is fair minded and knows the rules of business. He knows that he can't stay in business long without a profit and further he knows that if his fellow business men are to continue to be his neighbors, that they too must have some margin of profit for their work and brains and initiative.

Well to return to the business man. "Of course I wanted you to do this work, I never cut rates to get business and I think it's very foolish to do so," he said.

GOSSIP

"I hear it's tight that this happened."

Last Tuesday a Northville man of standing told us that and then elaborated the rumor that he had heard.

"Well I don't believe a word of it and you will find that it isn't so," the writer answered him.

Then just to get at the actual situation we went right "to headquarters" and got the facts. There was not a word of truth in the story that had been told our friend. In other words, a lot of these stories that are going around about banks and business people and about just ordinary, well behaved folks, simply are pure inventions of some body's mind or more likely, an elaboration of one incident into a distortion that is totally false and misleading.

One wonders how all these stories start and worse still, how they—like a snowball—grow as they are told and re-told. We like to believe that a good deal of this false gossip is not malicious but just passed on from one to another to satisfy the instinct of the average person to be the bearer of new and sensational news. We get a lot of thrill out of being the first to tell that "Mr. — lost ten thousand dollars, ain't it awful?"

This is a good time to believe nothing of what you hear and only half of what you think you see. Seeing from only one side never tells what is going on on the other side of the barn.

CLIFF DWELLERS

Took a walk down a residence street in Detroit the other night and saw story after story of lighted apartments.

Thousands of people must have been crowded together into those buildings. Couldn't help but wonder how a father and mother with children could have much family life there. As the lights twinkled out from rooms here and there up in those towering structures, we couldn't help but think of cliff dwellers, the ruins of whose homes you find in the great Southwest.

Then just a few days later we read in the daily papers that a University of Michigan sociologist at the president's conference on Home Building and Home Ownership, at Washington, condemned the modern apartment dwelling as productive of "family disorganization."

This is what the professor said: "Mental friction is aggravated by too close and continuous proximity. To adults, children often seem boisterous and annoying creatures, who, like animals, need freedom and range. They, as well as adults, also need occasional privacy."

"Range and privacy are not amenities of the small apartment, where people necessarily are huddled together like cattle on the way to market. The impact is too sharp and continuous for sound personal development."

"Small homes," he added, "tend to promote group organization, so that sociability and morale are encouraged."

"On the other hand," he asserted, "apartment dwellers live under a kind of anonymity that is not conducive to wholesome group living."

The sociologist is right. Every family needs its own home, in which to "spread out" and satisfy the urge that comes to every person, young or old, for room in which to develop the social, intellectual and spiritual sides of life. For the Northville folks who know the charm of their own "vine and fig tree," to have to go to live in apartments would be like going to jail.

"No better time than right now to get a home in Northville."

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

What is your big ambition?

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

GETTING THE CAR BACK

(Toledo Co. News)

This may be a good idea, then, again it may not but at any rate when a Charlotte auto dealer went out in the country to repossess an automobile which he had sold to a farmer he found the machine all right, or at least what at one time had been called an auto but which looked as if it had just passed through a Kansas c.c. cone, being sans tires, lights, plates and about everything else that had not been forged into the frame. The dealer was tolerable but under the collar when he viewed the remains, so returning to the county seat he had a warrant issued charging the farmer with malicious destruction of property.

TALKING TO THE GOVERNOR

(Geo. Neal in Orion Review)

A University of Michigan law student has a theory that public men don't pay the slightest attention to the things the common people say to them. At a reception given by Governor Brucker recently the student said "as the governor shook hands with him. I killed my grandmother today." "Very glad to make your acquaintance," said the governor, grabbing the hand of the next in line. The governor had the thing explained to him afterwards and said he preferred to ignore the statement.

NO EASY WAY

(Milford Times)

There is a pathetic note in the story of the Farmington lad who made the mistake of thinking that $5,000 might be obtained in an easy way. Obligated to leave school and go to work before he had completed the eighth grade, he coveted an education. His neighbors, the Smiths, he assumed to have plenty, and he did not doubt that the threat of death would be sufficiently forcible to under them to leave $5,000 at the spot he designated. He did not even possess a gun and did not expect to have to make good the threat. The crime of extortion is a serious one, as Harold Buckelski has since learned.

MURPHY FOR GOVERNOR

(Frank Bryce in Grand Ledger Independent)

Mayor Murphy has spread out his apron and is ready to catch either or both the democratic vice-presidency or gubernatorial nominations. The mayor would get the vote of everyone in the state who would like to live well without work. The mayor is great on doing out other people's money in return for political support. When Ford and some others in Detroit tried to stop the flow of gold to the welfare gratters the mayor at once took the grand stand against curtailment—and was re-elected Mayor. There's the story in a nut shell!

EVER SEE WAYNE?

(Lois Hisey in The Wayne Dispatch)

In reading over the papers of our esteemed contemporaries we see where just about every village and town in the best village and town in the world, Richard T. Baldwin in the Northville Record tells us that Northville has no peer—it is second to none and so forth, and we wonder how Mr. Baldwin ever seen Wayne.

Then we see where Elton R. Eaton says writing in the Plymouth Mail, that Plymouth is a Utopia all in itself—and again we wonder, has Mr. Eaton ever seen Wayne? H. W. Klammer tells us through the pages of the Dearborn Press that Dearborn is the last word in cities, and to Mr. Klammer we ask, have you ever seen Wayne? And there are others too that boast and brag their towns to the skies, and we wonder, too, have they ever seen Wayne. Wayne may not be the best village in the world, but we would like to see one better. It may not have the best government in the world, but we would like to see a better one. The people here may not be the best people on the face of the earth, but we would like to know where there are any better. Wayne may not be the cleanest village there is, but we would like to see one cleaner. We may not have the prettiest village in the country, but will someone show us where there is a prettier one, anywhere.

And we are not bragging either—just facing facts that cannot be denied. We are proud of our village, our people, and our clean government that is untainted with scandal. We are proud and we don't care who knows it—and that's the way we stand, Mr. Baldwin, Mr. Eaton and Mr. Klammer.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Chapin were calling on friends in Carleton Sunday.

NORTHVILLE WINS DEBATE FROM THE EPSILANTI CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

Northville won the second league debate Friday, December 4. The question for debate was: "Resolved: That the State of Michigan should enact legislation providing for compulsory unemployment insurance." Northville defended the negative.

The speakers were: Ypsilanti, Don Stadler, Marlon Howard and George Stabler. For Northville, Catherine Stalter, Robert Cousins and Wilma Rattenbury.

NORTHVILLE FRESHMEN BEAT PLYMOUTH

Last Monday a basketball game was played by the freshmen boys team vs. Plymouth freshmen team to raise funds for the freshmen class. The debts are all cleared up now.

The class president says, "Great team work was noticed with Hoffman being the star of the game." Alex Johnson acted as referee from Northville and W. Knapp from Plymouth. The score was 33 to 8 in favor of Northville.

Northville's line-up was: H Hoffman r f, E Bender c, D Deal, l f, S. Moase r g, D Bray, l g. Subs: B Duguid, I Marouger.

DID YOU NOTICE

Eddie Bender studying the sixth period? We wonder if he is reforming.

Girls talking about the junior dance? Miss McDowell's new specs? Better behave now.

Mr Lee's smiling face? Chuck Ruffenburg scowling? Dayton Deal's new socks? (red, white and black.)

John Steenchen teasing the girls? That Mrs Cooke kept the lower hall clean (of students)? "Piggy" (known as Paul Baldwin) humping?

Florence and Marie talking? G Deal pacing the floor?

John Sprenger giving a speech in the 6th hour algebra class (on citizenship)?

Nine sophomore girls have formed a social club, calling themselves the Frolicking Nine. This club is to meet every two weeks on Monday night alternating with the Camp Fire Girls.

The club held its first meeting at Eleanor Grosvenor's home on November 23. At this time the girls chose old names. The following names received honors: Mary Harper, Jane Lester, Catherine McKenna, Catherine Duguid, Catherine Gibson, Eleanor Grosvenor, Peggy Blake and Beverly Stannan.

The girls are planning to play bunco and dance. Later they are going to learn to play bridge.

Catherine McKenna will entertain the girls at her home on December 7.

SENIOR WHO'S WHO

This week we have Charles Carrington and Bernice Clark for our two young seniors.

Charles Carrington was born in Northville in 1915 and he has lived here all of his life. He has been a member of the band during all of his high school years. After graduating this spring he intends to enter the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor.

Bernice Clark was also born in Northville and has lived here all of her life. In her sophomore year she was a member of the student council. Bernice has also been in the Girls' Glee club for three years and in the Girls' sextette for one year and is a member of the Travel club. In addition she has been student librarian for two years. After graduating Bernice plans to attend the Michigan State college at Lansing to prepare for work in the field of buying.

BASKET BALL PRACTICE GETS UNDER WAY

Basket ball practice has started in earnest. Every night you will find the boys practicing in the gym, being coached by Mr. Ruggles on dribbling, passing, shooting, guarding and other fundamentals.

Capt. Beech, Meininger, Kohler and Westphal are for the time playing as guards, Robinson and Lemon at center and Dusenbury, McCordle, Thompson and Dickerson as forwards.

The boys are working hard, showing excellent form and are learning and going through some snappy plays.

Expecting the squad to come through very strongly in the first game, at Ypsilanti, with Lincoln Consolidated, Mr. Ruggles has a very hopeful and encouraging attitude toward this year's basket ball season, and believes he will have a very fast breaking team that will take a foremost place in the race for the league championship.

BAND MEMBERS RECEIVE LETTERS

At last the members of the Northville band have received some recognition of their faithful services. Letters in the shape of a five with an "N" in the center were given to the members last Tuesday at 3:15. The members who received letters were: Jack McLoughlin, Robert Lyke, Edward Angove, Donald Lanning, Raymond Westphal, Billy Duguid, Arthur Sessions, Jayson Lyke, Tom McLoughlin, Otis Tewkesbury, Herbert Berendt, Glenn Wecker, Russell Knight, Martin Sommers, Roland Morris, Charles Strutz, Charles Knight, Robert Reed, Frank Knapp, Harry Larkin, Louis Campbell, Edna Martens, Robert Angove, Tom Carrington, J. F. Charles Carrington, Mary Elizabeth Elkington, Juanita Elkington, Beverly Stannan, Shirley Preston, Katherine Duguid, Lillian Cassie, Ida Altman, Meryl Fraser, Peggy Blake, George Ulrich, Benny Duguid, Lela Maystead.

FIRST BASKET BALL GAME AT EPSILANTI TONIGHT

Friday, December 11, Northville will play the Lincoln Consolidated high school at Ypsilanti for a real first game of basket ball. This is the first game of the season and everyone should turn out to back the team even though the game is being played away from home. Our team is going there with the determination to win and show Ypsilanti that Northville is alive and on the map. This is a big task for one basketball team and help has got to come from somewhere. There is one and only one place and that place is Northville itself. So let's everyone dig up his school and community spirit and show Ypsilanti that we are not dead by backing up our team.

This year we have in our squad: Beach (Capt.), Robinson, Meininger, Lemon, Dusenbury, Campbell, McCordle, Kohler, Gryslar, Latta, Ware Westphal, Bray, Moase, Marburger, Duguid, Deal, Hoffman and Bender.

Don't forget! Friday, December 11! At Ypsilanti!

GRADE NOTES

The pupils of Mrs. Reng's room won this month's picture for the largest attendance of parents at the P. T. A.

James Ritchie is a new pupil in the first grade. Coleman Christian has moved to Ferndale. The first graders studied the picture of "Baby Stuart" and wrote a story about it. Miss Leonardson's pupils also plan to make a baby book.

The grade school children have been selling Red Cross seals. The pupils in Miss Wilson's room made $12.59 from the sale of these seals. Lome Babbitt won first honors and Billy Long second.

The pupils in Miss Remke's room enjoyed a lovely Thanksgiving party. Janet Stewart furnished pictures from her motion picture machine. Donald Armstrong brought a branch of holly which the pupils plan to mount.

The fourth graders in Miss McDonald's room also had a very enjoyable Thanksgiving party. They had a play, "The Pilgrim Play" written by Maxine Perkins.

I saved the kindergarten news until the last because it seemed the strangest of all. I was informed that they were very busy with some Christmas secrets. They wouldn't tell me anything more, but I bet it's something real nice.

FOOT BALL SQUAD AWARDED LETTERS

Seventeen men were given foot ball "N's" at the assembly meeting Wednesday. Amid cheers, each man received his reward for his good work and fighting spirit during the 1931 season—in the form of a large black "N," with an orange trimming, having a small football in the corner.

There were speeches from Coach Ruggles, Captain Tibble, Captain-elect McCordle and other members of the team.

Mr. Ruggles, telling how the team kept fighting to the very end, even with the odds against them, congratulated them on their splendid spirit.

Captain Tibble added that in all of his foot ball experience, he never had played with a better bunch of fellows and wished the best of luck to Captain-elect McCordle and next year's team. The rest of the team supplemented this by saying that they all enjoyed playing, wished they were coming back next year and wished good luck to the squad of 1932.

More than half of the present varsity are seniors and will not be in uniform next year. They are: Biery, Beech, Tibble, Dickerson, Fry, Meininger, Robinson, Weston and the managers, Berendt and Thompson.

Their loss will be deeply felt but we hope that the present subs and freshmen will fill their places creditably.

The entire squad is as follows: Biery, Ware and Capt. Tibble, ends; Beech and Schrader, tackles; Fry, Reed, Kohler and Weston, guards; Robinson, center; Dickerson and McCordle, halfbacks; Meininger and Campbell, quarterbacks; Benders, fullback.

SENIOR PLAY

The seniors are busy working on a play to be given soon. It is "Seventeen," by Booth Tarkington. The story is about a boy by the name of William Baxter. He falls madly in love with Lola Pratt who talks baby-talk. He has competition in the form of his three friends.

The play is very interesting and amusing all the way through. The cast is as follows:

Mrs. Baxter—Doris Leavenworth, Arlene Richardson.
Mr. Baxter—Duncan Fry, Charles Ruffenburg.
Wm. Baxter—Art Hills, Charles Meininger.
Johnny Watson—Robert Cousins, Wayne Thompson.
Jane Baxter—Jane Lawrence, Isadore Keeney.
May—Parcher—Francis Bacon, Gladys Eckburg.
Lola Pratt—Violet Sheppard, Ruth Mary Baldwin.
Genesis—Alex Johnson.
Joe—Bully—Marion Sommers, Charles Carrington.
Mr. Parcher—Olin Brooks, Ward Van Atta.
George Cropper—Munro Weston, Elden Biery.
Ethel—Bake—Catherine Stalter, Geraldine Ferguson.
Wallie—Banks—Marvin Tibble, Herbert Berendt.
Mary Brooks—Jewel Clark.
The date is not certain yet, but so far it is set for January 15th and 16th.

FACULTY WHO'S WHO

Mrs. Ida Cooke is our next so-called victim of cross-questioning. She first saw daylight in Quebec, Canada. (Good old Canada, almost as good as the one about Iowa.) Three of the family, including Mrs. Cooke, attended a French academy in Quebec where nothing but French was spoken.

A few years later she moved to Free Soil, Michigan, where she finished high school. From here Mrs. Cooke attended Central State Teacher's college at Mt. Pleasant. At sixteen she received her teaching certificate and began teaching at seven in a country school near Free Soil. After teaching there a short time, Mrs. Cooke went to Canada where she taught at Port Arthur for one year and in Fort William for two years.

Northville was the next "station" where she is now teaching. During these last few years Mrs. Cooke has been attending and studying a little more at Ypsilanti, Detroit, City College and Detroit Teachers' college.

Mrs. Cooke is considered one of the best teachers here and is a favorite with all of the students. If you "would be" or "going to be" teachers have as much success as Mrs. Cooke, consider yourself worthy of mention.

LOCAL NEWS

More like winter. Northville appreciates your Christmas shopping.

James Dunbar of Detroit has taken a position in the job printing department of the Northville Record. A group of young women from the Girls' Glee club sang a very pleasing number at the morning service of the Methodist church last Sunday morning.

Evidently a line was dropped out of the article about the sacred drama at the Methodist church last week for it read "Warner Neal and Alex Johnson sang." Now, as a matter of fact Warner does not sing in public—Warner, on the other hand made a very fine talk that evening. Apologies to the speaker.

Mrs. Florence Sackett is at her home at 304 Plymouth avenue again after a two months' stay in Detroit. It is now 47 years since Mrs. Sackett took up her residence on this street. When she first went there there were only four houses on this street.

Mrs. Jas. Pearl, whose husband passed away on November 22 at their home on Rayson avenue, expects to return soon to her home in Clarkston, Kentucky where she will remain with her relatives during the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Pearl had been residents of Northville for the past four years. Mrs. Pearl being an instructor in the children's unit of the Maybury sanatorium while her husband was found in the House of Correction until failing health compelled him to give up.

The curiosity of a bird led it to go into the Methodist church through a broken leaded glass window. The first venture was so satisfactory that the bird comes out to spend the night. Rev. Frank N. Mene, the pastor, saw the culprit leaving one morning and probably thought "if the words of the ancient seer who said, 'I am as a swallow alone on the house top' just now it would be very nice if a lot of folks had a curiosity to see what was in that or any other church in town."

Carrying out a thoughtful custom of remembering those heroes of the Civil war with a token of their esteem at Thanksgiving time, the Women's Relief Corps sent a basket of fruit and other treats to one of the two surviving members of the Allan M. Harmon post, Marvin Bogart of Wixom. Mr. Bogart, hale and hearty at the ripe age of 92, was a pleasant caller at the Record office when he told his enthusiastically of his appreciation of the remembrance. This veteran seems in excellent health and bids fair to reach Father Time and round out the century mark.

American Legion and Auxiliary Dine Together Tuesday

About fifty members of the American Legion and the auxiliary enjoyed a very delightful time at the home of Comrade and Mrs. L. L. Lapham Tuesday evening, December 8. A pot-luck supper was followed by a business meeting.

Mrs. Beard Hostess To Bridge Club

Complimenting the Bridge club whose guest she had been on several occasions, Mrs. E. S. Bearer was hostess to this group last Thursday afternoon at her home on the Base Line road. A delectable luncheon was served at 12:30 and the afternoon was informally spent with bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Bunn Welcome Friends at Dinner

Concluding a series of three dinners Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Bunn were pleasantly and informally welcomed a group of twenty couples at their home on South Rogers street last Saturday evening. Following the beautiful dinner the evening was spent with bridge. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hermans of Rosedale Park were out-of-town guests.

Mrs. Ely and Mrs. Bowden Hostesses At Shower For Friend

It was a very merry group of friends who gathered at the home of Mrs. Claude Ely Monday evening with Mrs. H. A. Bowden as assisting hostess. These were friends honoring Mrs. Alton Peters in a sunbath shower. A dainty crab bed in pink was presented to Mrs. Peters and was found filled with interesting packages.

The evening was pleasantly spent with games and a delectable lunch concluded the evening

"San" Nurses Dine Together With Mrs. Vradenburg

Mrs. Jennie Vradenburg, who is spending the winter with Mrs. Barton Wheeler, entertained last Thursday evening a number of friends and nurses who used to be associated with her when she was a nurse at the Maybury sanatorium. The Royal Cafe was the place chosen for the dinner served on this occasion and for this party a special table was attractively arranged with decorations appropriate to the coming Christmas season. Those sharing Mrs. Vradenburg's hospitality were Mrs. Floyd Northrop and her mother, Mrs. Jessie Welch, and Miss Halsey, head nurse at the sanatorium. Mrs. Ruby Kelly and Miss Ann Green, also nurses there.

Wednesday Bridge Meets At Broad Home

The eight members of the Wednesday Bridge club spent a pleasant afternoon together at bridge at the home of Mrs. Fred Broad last Wednesday. Mrs. J. N. McLoughlin and Mrs. H. H. Burkart carried off the two highest honors. A dainty desert luncheon was served.

Mrs. McLoughlin Entertains Bridge Club

The Thursday Bridge club had a postponed meeting on Tuesday afternoon, enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. J. N. McLoughlin at her home on Rogers street. Dessert luncheon was served and the afternoon was spent with bridge, high honors going to Mrs. Geo. E. Hills and Mrs. L. C. Stewart. Those who comprised this congenial group with the hostess were Mrs. Obas Murphy, Mrs. Lefroy Stewart, Mrs. Edward Mills, Mrs. John Walker, Miss Ann Hack, Mrs. Geo. E. Hills and Mrs. L. C. Stewart.

Old Friends Spend Afternoon In Farewell to Mrs. Lapham

Honoring Mrs. Wm. G. Lapham, who left the following Monday for University, Va., to spend the winter, Mrs. E. A. Shafer was hostess to a group of close friends of the guest of honor last Friday afternoon. A pleasant farewell visit was enjoyed by these long-time acquaintances. Tea was served from a very beautiful laid table centered by a large bowl of Premier roses. These roses as well as several other large jars of Premier and Opheila roses were an appreciative token from Mrs. Lapham. The rooms were lovely with flowers. Mrs. Thad Knapp presided at the tea table.

Young Married Folks Class Enjoys Social Evening

The young married people's class of the Methodist church, taught by Richard T. Baldwin, met at the church for a pleasant social time last Thursday evening. A cooperative supper was well arranged by a committee composed of Mrs. Claude Zimmerman, Mrs. Alex Lyke and Mrs. H. A. Bowden who substituted for Mrs. Leslie G. Lee who was otherwise engaged. Supper was served in the small upper room and was followed by a brief business session when a nominating committee was appointed to report at the January meeting when the election of officers will occur. An informal time of "playing" ghost" was entered into heartily before adjournment.

Woman's Club and Guests Hear Stirring Message

An outstanding event of the season was the Woman's club banquet held at the Presbyterian church house last Friday evening when the husbands and a few other friends were guests of the members. Three long tables, in addition to the speakers' table on the platform were filled with banqueters. Low bowls of baby mums were placed on the tables and a vase of lovely roses graced the piano with baskets of chrysanthemums about the room. These flowers were the gifts of club members. The delicious three-course menu was served by the Neale Yerkes auxiliary.

The invocation was pronounced by Mrs. Frank N. Maier. At the close of the dinner Mrs. B. Freydl, president of the club, greeted those present and introduced the toastmaster, Mrs. John Cleaver.

A short musical program preceded the speaker of the evening. Prof. Percy Angove sang three numbers, "The Three Grenadiers," "Absent," and "Come to the Fair." Mrs. Chas. Murphy sang, "Where My Caravan Has Rested," and "Trees." Mrs. T. P. Brennan accompanied both pleasing groups of songs.

Mrs. Frederick B. Fisher of Ann Arbor was presented to an audience who greeted her with enthusiastic and listened spellbound to her talk on "Madam Gandhi and Modern India." It was especially interesting to hear a vivid description of India by one who had lived for over twenty-five years in intimate contact with its people. Mrs. Fisher in a most charming manner depicted it as "a land far away, a land fascinating in its history, the land which every early explorer started out to find, rich in its rare gems and spices." "India," said the speaker, "is a continent of many nations with a strain of mystic unity beneath it all."

Touching on the condition of the outcasts of India, Mrs. Fisher revealed their drab existence and in marked contrast turned to the extreme luxury of the rich. Of greatest beauty in India she named the Hindoo women the Himalaya mountains and the most beautiful building in the world, the Taj Mahal, as the outstanding features.

All of this part of her talk seemed to be as a preface to the real climax, the clear and intimate picture of Mahatma Gandhi and his wife, personal friends of Dr. and Mrs. Fisher, who were portrayed to her hearers as the highest type of benefactors of their people, sacrificing their wealth, their positions, their comforts to hold up to India the highest ideals and to bring about national unity.

MILK ORDINANCE

ATTRACTS ATTENTION

The village clerk's office has been the recipient of numerous inquiries from officials of other Michigan communities who are framing new milk ordinances.

The Northville milk ordinance which is comparatively recent in origin is looked on by other towns as a model of thoroughness, the numerous inquiries serving as evidence of this fact.

The ordinance was drawn up by Village Attorney F. J. Cochran.

Society Notes

May Circle Spent Wednesday With Detroit Friend

A party of 15 members of the May circle of the Methodist church were guests of Mrs. Madeline Regula in Detroit Wednesday. A pot-luck dinner was served and a pleasant day enjoyed.

Twin Brother and Sister Celebrate Birthday Together

A rather unusual birthday party occurred Wednesday evening when Mrs. A. M. Whitehead and A. K. Dolph, who are twin brother and sister, celebrated together their birthday at the home of the former. With both brothers, A. E. and A. M. Whitehead with their wives and Mr. and Mrs. Dolph present, it was a happy party of close kin who gathered around the table bountifully laid with a fine chicken dinner.

Mr. Dolph and Mrs. Whitehead have been together on this occasion all their lives and have rarely been far apart. They were born among the hills of Wayne county, N. Y. and spent their earlier years in Brookport coming to Michigan in the late seventies. Both are enjoying fairly good health. Northville friends extend to them best wishes for a long and happy life.

Woman's Union Observes Christmas Season Spirit

In anticipation of the coming Christmas tide sixty members of the Woman's Union of the Presbyterian church met at the church house to enjoy together a very delightful observance of the significance of this season. Preceding the program a luncheon was served at tables made cheerful with Christmas decorations. In the absence of Mrs. Frederick Heage Mrs. Harry Clark acted as chairman of the committee which put on the luncheon.

Christmas carols sung by Mrs. Walter Johnston, gave pleasure to the company. Mrs. Waldo Johnson gave a very interesting and comprehensive discussion of the Christmas traditions and customs in many lands. Other members read short stories of "Christmas in Our Mission Stations." Altogether the women felt that the gathering was a most happy preparation for the coming of Christmas.

Ladies Aid Holds Annual Meeting

The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Roy Clark, 11 Linden avenue, for their annual meeting. Mrs. Bertha Neal presided. The election of officers was the important matter of the day. So efficiently have the officers done their work that a number of them were re-elected.

Following are the newly elected officers: president, Mrs. Bertha Neal, first vice president, Mrs. Sam'l Stalter, second vice president,

LOST 20 LBS. OF FAT IN JUST 4 WEEKS

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I'm only 28 yrs old and weighed 170 lbs. until taking one box of Your Kruschen Salts just 4 weeks ago. Now I weigh 150 lbs. I also have more energy and furthermore I've never had a hungry moment."

Fat folks should take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast—an 85 cent bottle lasts 4 weeks—you can get Kruschen at C. R. Horton's drug store or any drug store in America. If not joyfully satisfied after the first bottle—money back.

Mrs. Jas. Lapham, third vice president, Mrs. Leo Lawrence, secretary, Mrs. Otis Tewkesbury, treasurer, Mrs. Clifford Casterline, Mrs. Neal has wielded the gavel with skill for many years—so many that her friends have lost count and are contented to extend this honor another year.

At the conclusion of the meeting delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Nuptials of Miss Marguerite Wood of Plymouth and William Foreman Performed

A simple but impressive wedding ceremony, uniting in marriage Miss Marguerite Eline Wood, granddaughter of Edwin D. Wood of Plymouth and William Addison Foreman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Foreman of Northville, was performed at the home of the bride, 1165 West Ann Arbor street, Plymouth, by the Rev. Edgar H. Hoeckke, pastor of the Lutheran church of that place Saturday evening, December 5, in the presence of about forty immediate relatives and intimate friends.

The bride was lovely in a gown of ivory satin and carried a shower bouquet of peach roses. She was attended by Miss Hazel Rathburn of Plymouth, who was attired in peach georgette and carried white roses. The groom was attended by his brother, Ralph Foreman, of Northville.

Miss Gertrude Penney, the much-loved musical instructor of the bride, played the wedding march, the bride to be entering on the arm of her grandfather, the ceremony being performed under a bower of white chrysanthemums, palms and ivy.

Mrs. Foreman is an alumnus of the Plymouth high school, graduating with the class of 1930 and was very proficient in music and dramatics during her high school career. Mr. Foreman was a graduate of the 1928 class of the Northville high school and is associated with his father in the fruit growing business.

Following the serving of dainty refreshments the happy couple left for a month's motor trip to Florida and other southern points. On their return they will be at home to their many friends in Northville, where they will establish their future residence.

You will find specials on Christmas candy and nuts, also on cigars and one-half and one pound of tobacco. This is all fresh goods and the prices will please you. Northville Confectionery 23c

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Reman Realty Company, a Michigan corporation, of Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan, Mortgagor, to Ralph L. Aldrich, Mortgagor, to Lapeer County Bank of Inlay City, Michigan, of Inlay City, Michigan, dated the 11th day of May, A. D. 1928, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds, for the County of Wayne and State of Michigan, on the 8th day of June, A. D. 1928, in Liber 2149 of Mortgages, on pages 48-51, on which mortgage there is claimed to be due, at the date of this notice, for principal and interest, the sum of Six Thousand Five Hundred Forty-Six and 00/100 ($6546.00). No suit or proceedings at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof, now therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statute of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, notice is hereby given that on Tuesday, the 15th day of December, A. D. 1931, at 10 o'clock A. M., Eastern Standard Time, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale at public auction to the highest bidder, at the Southern or Congress Street entrance to the County Building in the City of Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan (that being the building where the Circuit Court for the County of Wayne is held), of the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due as aforesaid, on said mortgage, with the interest thereon at six per cent (6%), and all legal costs, charges and expenses including the attorney fees allowed by law, and also any sum or sums which may be paid by the mortgagee, necessary to protect his interest in the premises. Which said premises are described as follows: All those certain pieces or parcels of land situated in the City of Detroit in the County of Wayne and State of Michigan and described as follows, to-wit: Lots numbered 244, 246, 248, 257, 261, 272, 273, 275, 276, 277, 278, 279, 285, 305, 306, 314, 318, 320, 321, 327, 328, 330, 331, 332 and 338 of Grand Park Subdivision of the east half of the E 1/2 of Section five, T 1 S R 11 E, according to the plat thereof as recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Wayne County Michigan.

HOMEMAKER'S CORNER

BY MRS. EDITOR

THE FUN OF BEING AN EDITOR'S WIFE

What a mixed-up affair this "corner" was last week. Well, he's in love—that make-up man in the back office—so we'll try to forgive him for juggling the slugs, mixing in a bit of stray church notes and turning it around generally. It surely was a bump to our pride.

Straightway we began to feel sorry for ourselves. All our work spoiled and we are the "goat" when it appears in print. This is a common problem in the business. One day a reader calls up, "I didn't see our article on the front page and we wanted it given prominence." Another day we listen twice to "kindly criticism" from women and take it all with a smile (until they are gone) and then we us to the editor's private "sanctum," oh blessed retreat!

309, 218, 224, 228, 234, 235, 236, 237, 244, 245, 248, 249, 250, 252, and 254 of Askew Park Subdivision of part of east 1/2 of the east 1/2 of the N. W. 1/4 of section 4, T 1 S, R 11 E, Greenfield Township, according to the plat thereof as recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Wayne County, Michigan.

Also lots numbered 519, 520, 521, 522, 529, 527 and 529 of Detroit Gardens Subdivision No. 1, of part of the west 1/2 of the east 1/2 of the N. W. 1/4 of section 4, T 1 S, R 11 E, according to the plat thereof, as recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Wayne County, Michigan.

And now we are planning to give our women readers little glimpses into the reasons other women are glad for their husbands' occupations. Watch for the opinions of the "Dr. Lawyer, merchant."

For a wonder Mrs. Editor made a good cake the other day which someone bought at the "King's Daughter's" sale and called us up asking for the recipe to be published. This cake has been a favorite among the in-laws of the family for some time and is said to be "fool proof" hence our success.

Devil's Food Cake

Bring to boil 1/2 cup sweet milk, 1/2 cup cocoa, 3 tablespoonsful butter (or crisco). Add 1 cup sugar, pinch salt, 1 egg, 1 teaspoonful soda dissolved in 1/2 cup milk, 1 1/2 cups flour with 1/2 teaspoon baking powder. Bake in loaf.

For the icing we add a generous lump of butter to 2 or 3 tablespoonsful hot milk before stirring in the confectioner's sugar. Flavor.

The evening meeting at the church last Friday seemed to be enjoyed by all present.

A good many who enjoyed the supper given by the Mission band, with its special feature of hot biscuits and honey, also stayed to see the minstrel play given by the young people. They realized a neat little sum from the sale of their wares in the candy and novelty booths.

Mrs. Warren Rice led an interesting B. Y. meeting Sunday evening, discussing the subject of magazines.

The unique ways in which the seasons have been presented the past months have added much to the interest. Come next Sunday evening and enjoy the meeting by the devotional commission.

This Week

By H. H. White

The other day I received a letter from a friend who has been living in Paris for a number of years, but formerly lived in New York. He now takes a Parisian edition of the New York daily, and in his letter he made reference to the alarming number of murders committed in cold blood in our United States. He went on further to say that such things were unthinkable on the Continent or in the British Isles. He also asked why gun play was so rampant in our American cities.

This started me to thinking and I have decided to answer in this wise: Today we are reaping the benefits of unrestricted immigration, so long tolerated by our government, and doing this we imported trouble by the shipload. Whether the name of those committing murders were first generation aliens or their children, they were too dull and stupid and too ignorant to grasp the first principles of our democracy.

In the first instance they were not qualified to bring up their children to respect our laws, and in the second instance, the children were the result of that ignorance. I also noted that this nefarious business of gun play was a most damning indictment of our former unrestricted influx of the scum of Europe.

Liberty we all want and that is the precious thing our forefathers fought and died for, but it does not mean unbridled license. It was our capitalists greed that brought them here, a name too obvious fact which we cannot escape.

The writer is not unaware that they have given us splendid citizens in many instances, but there are certain national groups of continental Europe, in coming to this country of ours, make the headlines of our American dailies stark bloody with their underworld affairs.

Whether education, social service methods, churches, Y. M. C. A., and other allied agencies can remedy this alarming situation or in any way combat or rectify it in the future, is a matter of conjecture and the future.

The next meeting of the King's Daughters will be held Tuesday evening, December 10 at the home of Mrs. E. C. Hunkley, Dunlap street, being more centrally located than Mrs. Lilly Angells, as formerly planned.

Idle thoughts of an indolent reporter:

In the first place "indolent" doesn't mean what you think it does. Look it up.

I wonder what John D. Rockefeller, Henry Ford, and a few other of the big moneyed boys are thinking during these days of communitists, riots and unemployed demonstrations. Their ideas, the communists' ideas I mean, run along something like this: "You've something to start a riot maybe I'll gain something—I certainly can't lose anything."

When men are down to "rock-bottom" they begin thinking and disagreeing with old ideas and work out philosophies. They come out of their respective self-satisfied cages and "use their noodles" for something better expensive hats and hair tonics.

All over the country business men and merchants are concentrating on PLEASE THE CUSTOMER instead of telling him that if he doesn't like what they have in stock he can go to Tophet or wherever they send dissatisfied buyers.

This thinking business can't be carried too far. What WAS good for my father and their fathers 40, 50 and 60 years ago is usually the wrong thing today. Because of the telephone, radio and the automobile we have had to change our whole tenor of living.

Which concludes my half hour of "thinking" for the day. Now I can return to that normal condition of coma in which I habitually pace the streets of Northville.

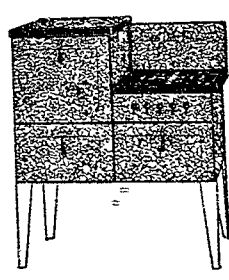

And I'm so fatigued.

Michigan won a part of the Big Ten championship and a much smaller part of the glory that goes with it.

the proceeds of the games but the said receipts weren't anything like what they would have been if the right contests had been scheduled by the moguls who govern the Western conference.

"Alas," Sweet Charity what crimes are committed in thy name." That sounded much too good to be original, so I wrapped a couple of quotes around it.

One of the belated football stories concerns Stan Hoyer of Michigan who, following a line play in the Minnesota game, found himself sitting on the head of none other than that husky fullback, Munn.

Hoyer, no ridget himself, continued to sit on the prostrate player's head and gazing thoughtfully into the blue November sky, amused old. "I wonder when they're going to put this big guy Munn into the game."

Postal laws will not allow me to print Munn's reply to Hoyer.

Another concern Kowalk, capable Wolverine guard. The entire team on nights previous to games, is taken to the Barton Hills Country club where Papa Kipke keeps a watchful eye on his charges. Kipke sees that the boys say their prayers for a good game and a big score (in Michigan's favor) and then tucks them to sleep to while away the hours before bedtime the boys usually indulge in card games.

Dean Bursley, together with his wife and another faculty couple, were having an extremely dignified game of bridge in which they were bending every effort toward concentration.

Kowalk was late to the card room but even so he got there before other members of the team had arrived so the only game in progress was the austere one in which Bursley was engaged.

Kowalk, who on occasion slips into "desé, dem and dose," opened the door to the card room and bawled, "Hey, wait a minute and I'll be wit' you'se guys fer a game o' cards."

Bursley cocked one eye toward the door, Kowalk mumbled something to the startled players and retired in red-faced confusion. All through the game next day Kowalk was told to "Wait a minute and we'll be wit' you'se fer a game o' cards."

And the lowest sign in the window of a Detroit store reads, "Come back Prosperity, all is forgiven."

Church News

St. Paul's Lutheran
GOD'S BUILDING

To build a house, we must hammer, we must trim and cut away. If we would not saw a single board and cut off from a single stone, we could not build a house. By cutting and sawing, we make possible a beautiful home and a wonderful church.

You and I are God's building. God builds us for eternity, for heaven. To do this, God must cut saw break off. We call this "sawing" trouble. We often call these troubles "misfortunes" and "hard luck." But really they are blessings in disguise.

However, though "God" builds through cutting, through pain and suffering, nevertheless, He is very near. He is near to encourage us through His Word. Are we worried? He takes us into His Word and says: "Cast all your care upon Him for He careth for you." Are we troubled in conscience? He takes us into the Word and says: "The blood of Jesus Christ, His Son, cleanseth us from all sin." Are we facing death? He takes us into His Word and tells us of the glorious above.

Thus God builds for eternity. Divine service and Sunday school next Sunday morning, that being the third Sunday in Advent at the usual time 10 o'clock. The pastor will speak on the text: Matthew 11:2-10, choosing as the theme of his discourse: "That Jesus Christ is truly the Messiah who should come."

Confirmation instructions at the usual time, Saturday morning from 9 to 11 o'clock in the church hall. This Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. the Sunday school children will meet at the church for their regular Christmas program rehearsal. All parents please remember and send the children.

The regular half hour of faith and fellowship will be broadcast by the Lutheran church of the Missouri Synod Sunday afternoon from 1:30 to 2 p. m. over station WXYZ. Rev. H. Fegner of Windsor, Ont., will be the speaker.

A hearty invitation is extended to all to worship with us. Come! Hear! Believe!

Our Lady of Victory Church

Several new ushers have been added to the list and have already shown their adaptability for this work.

Our Vincentians are attending a Retreat last night and tonight at St. Cecilia's church in Detroit. It closes Sunday morning at the 7:30 Mass there, followed by breakfast and an interesting meeting.

As this goes to print it appears that the Wednesday night card party is another success. The committee is keeping up the record that has been created this year.

Mrs. T. McCauley, Mrs. D. Merton and Mrs. S. Funke are in charge of the bake-sale at the Palace meat market tomorrow Saturday, December 12.

The relief of poverty and constructive provision against it are only one of the purposes of the St. Vincent de Paul society. Its primary object is the personal spiritual advancement of its members and that of those for whom it works. It strives to produce a moral and personal concern, and an ambition that looks to the better things of this life and the next. The restoration of lost incentive must necessarily accompany the giving of relief. In the Catholic church the St. Vincent de Paul society is the right hand support of the pastor, and assumes with him the responsibility of the parish and its success. This society need not plead for existence. It forms a most consoling associate to any agency that wants to cooperate with it.

The Altar society will have its December meeting next Tuesday, the 15th. The time and place will be announced at church next Sunday.

WE INVITE YOU

We want you to bring your guests during the happy Yuletide season to our Tea Room where you will appreciate the courteous attention, appetizing menus and the dignified atmosphere.

Hammelef's Tea Room has become a watchword with discriminating people. They KNOW and we want you to know, too.

Baptist Church

The interest in the special meetings or mission of the church has been so good that it was decided last Sunday night to hold three more preaching services this week. The last of these will be tonight (Friday) at 7:30 o'clock.

The Rev. Harry R. Morrison preached Wednesday and Thursday nights and the Rev. F. D. Hague will preach tonight. Mr. Hague spoke Sunday evening with great acceptance and power. You will make no mistake in hearing him tonight.

On Sunday, December 13, the pastor, the Rev. W. Roscoe Barbour, will occupy the pulpit both morning and evening. At 10:30 he will speak on "The Christmas Home" and at 7:30 on "The Father's Home and The Far Country."

Methodist Church

Rev. Frank N. Miner, pastor. Sunday morning at 10:30 the sermon theme will be "The Prince of Peace," and at 7:30 the sermon theme will be "The Challenge to Leadership in Service" as growing out of the ideals of Jesus. The Sunday school is at 12 noon and the Epworth League is at 6:30.

The public is welcome to all of these services of the church and it is hoped no one will absent himself from any means of grace because of little or no money to contribute. The church neither charges nor expects admission fees to its public worship services. The church is maintained by those who can support it as a place of worship for all and all are welcome and more especially in these difficult times.

The White Gift Christmas furnishes opportunity for almost everybody to give something to make someone else happy. Fruit, vegetables, linens and money in any sum will help to support the work of our church in its Children's Home at Redford, its Old People's Home at Chelsea and its Bronson hospital at Kalamazoo. Old clothes can be regarved and sent to the Good Will Industries in Detroit or used to help our needy folk in Northville.

The Sunday school workers have been monthly meeting under the direction of Mr. Lee, our superintendent, next Tuesday evening. The first quarterly conference will convene Friday evening, December 18 with the Rev. Dr. Adolph Hammelef of Ypsilanti presiding.

Presbyterian Church
Services of fellowship and worship in the First Presbyterian church are at the hours of 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The minister will preach at both services. The Sunday school orchestra will play at the evening service.

The worship and study period of the church school will meet at 12 noon. Our attendance is increasing. Three classes had attendance percentages of 100, last Sunday. Let's double the number of such classes for next Sunday.

The Nellie Yerkes auxiliary will be guests of their hostesses, Mrs. D. Yerkes, Sr. and Mrs. L. A. Babitt at an Xmas party to be held in the church house Tuesday evening, December 15, at eight o'clock. This party will follow the usual custom of being a fancy dress party, each guest to bring a toy or gift to be passed on to some underprivileged child.

The monthly dinner and program of the Men's Fellowship club will be held in the church house on Wednesday evening, December 16 at 6:30. "Santa Claus" will be the topic for an informal debate. The program committee has provided games to occupy the remainder of the evening.

A. C. WALDRON OPENS WELDING SHOP HERE

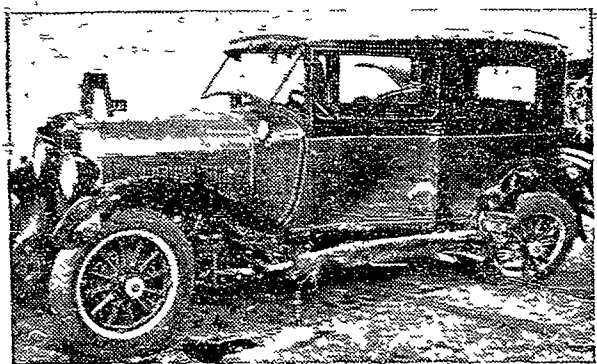

Northville has a new welding and auto service shop. A. C. Waldron, formerly of Wayne, has started such a business in the old Armstrong shop located at 125 North Huron street. Mr. Waldron is already a good booster for Northville. He opened on December 1.

His telephone number is 255.

BEWARE

Smooth-worn tires skid on winter roads

Don't wait for accidents—get new rubber on every wheel now. New tires mean safety—you need them more right now than at any time in the year. It's a fact, good tires show almost no wear in cold wet weather—they'll still be "new" next spring.

SCHRAEDER FURNITURE SALE GOES INTO SECOND WEEK

Going into the second week of activity the Schraeder Brothers Furniture Stock Reduction Sale has attracted Christmas buyers from towns surrounding Northville as well as people from the rural districts. A large variety of dining room, bed room and living room suites make it possible for the prospective purchaser to select from a complete assortment and the holiday sale event gives him the opportunity of saving many dollars on his purchase. One half off on all of the suites just mentioned, says Mr. Schraeder, is just one of the bargains the store has waiting for the approval of Christmas shoppers.

NIGHT COUGHING QUICKLY STOPPED

Night coughing is almost always caused by an irritated, inflamed throat; so is almost all coughing. Ordinary cough syrups do not reach these conditions, but Thoxine, a prescription exclusively for throat troubles does. It relieves the irritation and the cough stops within 15 minutes. And Thoxine goes still further—it eliminates the infernal cause which many times develops into serious illness. A swallow of Thoxine before retiring absolutely prevents night coughing and insures a good night's sleep. It gives the same speedy relief for sore throat too. It contains no chloroform or other harmful drugs and children like it. Relief is guaranteed within 15 minutes or money back 35c 60c and $1.00 bottles sold by Northville Drug Co. and all other good drug stores.

Northville State Savings Bank

To Creditors and Depositors of the Northville State Savings Bank of Northville. Notice To Present Claims.

CLAIMS SHOULD BE PRESENTED TO SIDNEY M. LIDDELL, RECEIVER, AT NORTHVILLE STATE SAVINGS BANK OF NORTHVILLE

STATE OF MICHIGAN
CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY OF WAYNE
IN CHANCERY

RUDOLPH E. REICHERT,
State Banking Commissioner,
Plaintiff,

vs. No. 199,101

NORTHVILLE STATE SAVINGS BANK OF NORTHVILLE, a Michigan Banking Corporation, Defendant.

At a session of said Court held at the Court House in the City of Detroit, County and State aforesaid, on the 26th day of October, A. D. 1931.

PRESENT: HONORABLE DEWITT H. MERRIAM, Circuit Judge.

Upon reading and filing the petition of SIDNEY M. LIDDELL, Receiver for the Northville State Savings Bank of Northville, Defendant in the above cause, praying for an order of this court calling on all persons who may have claims against said bank, to present the same to said Receiver and make legal proof thereof.

Upon motion of Schmalzriedt, Frye, Granse and Frye, attorneys for Receiver.

It is HEREBY ORDERED that all persons who may have claims against said Northville State Savings Bank of Northville, present the same to SIDNEY M. LIDDELL, Receiver within three months from, this date, and the said Receiver is hereby authorized to prepare suitable blanks for proof of claim, and to mail a copy of this notice with said form for proof of claim, to each of the creditors of said bank appearing on the books thereof at their last known address.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that a copy of this order be published once each week for twelve successive weeks in "The Northville Record," a newspaper printed, published and circulated in the Village of Northville, Wayne County, Michigan.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that in default of any creditor filing proof of claim within three months from the date hereof, said Receiver shall proceed with the distribution of the assets of said bank without reference to claims not filed and proven, when dividends are paid or distribution of assets is made.

DEWITT H. MERRIAM,
Circuit Judge.
