NORTHVILLE ROTARY HOST TO ALBIONITES

Visitors Sound Message of Courage to Business Leaders

Northville Rotary was host to six members of the Albion club and a member of the Albion college faculty who presented a refreshing program at the meeting of the lunch club here Monday noon.

The Albion Rotarians were Wm. C. Harton, principal of Albion high school; J. J. Fisher, Frank W. Roth, manager of the Albion Gas company; George A. Schumacher, assistant superintendent of the Albion Malleable Iron company; and Ray C. Lee, Donald Yerkes, St. Chas. Van Valkenburg, and Prof. Percy Angove gave several numbers which were well received.

The program was then turned over to the visitors. Mr. Schumacher acting as chairman. He told of the difficulties encountered at first in "putting over" the Albion Rotary club, now a wide-awake part of that city and spoke of R. T. Baldwin who is a charter member and was the first secretary of that club. Mr. Baldwin is now an active member of the Northville Rotary club. The first speaker presented by the visiting chairman was Frank W. Koth who, as a member of President Hoover's giant organization which is engaged in combating the hoarding of dollars, spoke on that subject.

"There are two kinds of people," declared Mr. Koth. "There is the kind who, when hoked, lays down. Again, there is the fellow who gets licked but stays on his feet cheerful and smiling all the time. The latter is of the type which eventually returns to win."

The next speaker, Wm. C. Harton, declared that if Rotary friendship means anything, it ought to mean even more during these times. He spoke of the immensity of Rotary which is active in 72 countries, has approximately 2400 clubs and numbers 157,000 members.

Mr. Harton emphasized the point that Rotary in America today is giving its members a new philosophy which is making them better Americans.

He brought out the point that the years 1928-29 were not normal years but were years of inflated prosperity. "We are nearer to Normalcy than we think," he said. "The depression won't end when our bonds come back; when every man now unemployed has a job. Material things are today heavily discounted but virtue, honesty and chastity are 100 per cent as good today as they were at the height of our era of prosperity."

"During the war we sang, 'Where do we go from here, boys, where do we go from here?' None of us today know where we are heading but we do know that the United States is fundamentally sound and that is an all-important fact that we cannot avoid."

Dr. Luebbers, the final speaker on the program, took as his subject, "What is Right With the United States." "We need more stack-up men," he declared. "We need men who will stack up for the United States. We need more roses. We need thinking men—men who'll see that money isn't everything and that's what's right with the United States. We see that the United States has a variety of climate, soil, scenery—that's what's right with the United States. I've never seen a time when there are so many people with their coats off, hard at work—that's what's right with the United States. More people than ever before are attending church—that's what's right with the United States."

"Dream dreams and make them come true—then everything will be right with the United States." Guests, beside those from Albion, who attended the meeting were: Wm. Connor, John Wilcox and Fred Schrader of Plymouth; Dr. H. I. Sparring, H. H. White, Nelson Schrader, Rev. H. G. Whitfield, Maurice Lapham, Ad Schwenger and A. R. Marz of Northville.

YPSI TEACHERS TO VISIT SCHOOL HERE

Northville schools will be the object of observation Friday by Dr. Pittman of the Michigan State Normal at Ypsilanti who will be accompanied by two teachers. They will be the guests of the teachers' club at their meeting at four o'clock when the teachers of the Novi and Walled Lake schools will also be present. "Common problems of the craft will be under discussion while these pedagogues drink tea together."

IMPROMPTU DAY ENJOYED BY CLUB

Exchange club of Northville held a rousing good meeting Wednesday at which good fellowship sat at every man's shoulder. When the evening came, went off in Carl Ely's face as he was listening seriously to what Sheriff Ambler, club secretary had to say, and the trick match banged two inches from the ear of Nelson Schrader, good fellowship increased seven-fold.

No set program was followed, but the impromptu program, not neglecting mention of Dr. E. B. Cavell's cow which emits a sobbing bellow with a turn of the wrist, was thoroughly enjoyed by all. With reference to the serious business held following the pleasant luncheon, Sheriff Ambler suggested that a standing committee of three, with three members of the Rotary club, the entire group to meet with the Northville village commission in order to secure the establishment of new industry here. The three members named were: Sheriff Ambler, N. C. Schrader and Elmer Smith.

Elmer L. Smith, real estate dealer, was called upon by President Orlov, C. Owen to relate the story of his coming to Northville. "I came here in response to a request from my present business associate, Scott Lovell, who established himself here a year before I came to Northville. I was in the automobile business in Howell and if you'll remember, the automobile business just after the war was extremely poor."

"Northville has been extremely good to me and I expect to continue in business and live here for a good many years."

Some songs led by Nelson Schrader and President Owen concluded the meeting.

APPRECIATION

To Citizens and Voters of Northville:

I wish to express my appreciation for the support given me in the election Monday, March 14th, 1932. I further appreciate the return to the Commission of Ross Dusenbury and Merrill Sweet, with whom I have worked in harmony during the past year, and also the selection of a third competent Commissioner in Wm. T. Gregory.

In regards to the vote on the Water situation, in behalf of the Council, I wish to state that we feel this is only another way in which the people of Northville have shown their one hundred per cent co-operation with their Village Commission.

Northville Laundry Saves Clothing and Proves Big Help To Average, Busy Housewife

What happens to clothes when they are sent to the laundry?

Formerly, almost anything might happen to them. In the olden days, would be sent back without collars; R. V. D.'s would get mixed and 250 lb. Joe Brown would try to get into 38 lb. Winthrop Smith's underwear and all manner of queer things would occur in the laundry. But these accidents which might have happened 10 years ago are eliminated in the modern laundry according to Sidney and Cyril Frid, owners of the Northville laundry, located here at 267 E. Cady street. And an examination of the Northville laundry reveals why today clothes washed in a modern plant wear longer than the same clothes hand-washed.

The Frid brothers started in business here seven years ago on the same spot at which they are located today but with a much smaller plant employing less than half the people that today obtain their livelihood there. The plant today is completely equipped with the latest machinery enabling employees to turn out washings and ironings which total several thousand pieces. A walk through the plant with either Cyril or Sidney Frid reveals to the observer why it is safe to send clothes to a modern laundry. Large washing machines are used

CLOSE RACES FEATURE THE NOVI CAUCUS

Simmons and Bernhardt Win; Supr. Hamilton Heads Ticket

Novi township Republicans who packed the town hall to capacity for the annual caucus last Saturday nominated George R. Simmons for treasurer by a vote of 111 to 92 for Frank D. Clark, picked Henry W. Bernhardt as highway commissioner over Wm. Mairs, 114 to 96, made Bernard Kitson the winner over Virgil Gaver in the race for justice of the peace, full term, by a count of 116 to 19 and picked the rest of the ticket unanimously. This was headed by Supervisor Chas. W. Hamilton.

The meeting got under way with the selection of Don P. Yerkes, Sr. as chairman, Fred Durfee, secretary and James Egan and Dan Mathews, tellers. Following a splendid tribute by Loren B. Flint to the work of Supervisor Chas. W. Hamilton on the board and especially his opposition to the Covert road bonding, his nomination was made unanimous and a burst of applause. Those who live on Covert roads are practically ruined," said Mr. Flint, "and every foot of such land is a liability." Part of Mr. Flint's tribute to Mr. Hamilton will be found elsewhere in this paper.

The unanimous nomination of Earl Banks, who has been clerk for eleven years, then went through in quick order. Only one ballot was necessary in the contests for treasurer and highway commissioner. There was keen interest as Marvin Rogart, 92 years of age, came to the front and made a nomination speech for Mr. Clark. The utmost good feeling prevailed and four winners, Mr. Simmons and Mr. Bernhardt, made brief speeches of appreciation.

After Mr. Kitson won the nomination for the full term for justice of the peace, Bert Wilfare was unanimously named to fill the vacancy for justice caused by the failure of Ber Bentley to qualify. Frank Durfee was named for the board of review without opposition and in the same way the following were nominated for constables: George Simmons, Carl Schoultz, Henry Hill and Albert Vedo.

The ticket named is sure of election April 4, as no other has been nominated.

DAVID COOK SAYS MINNESOTA HOPPERS GOOD AS MICHIGAN'S

Speaking about a recent item in the Record regarding grasshoppers in our mid winter, David Cook writes from Minnesota:

I noticed in your valuable paper that William Lincoln brought in "hoppers" to your office. Don't think Mr. Lincoln has anything over these Northern people for they have lots of hoppers up here. When the thermometer runs from zero to 23 below and the wind blows 25 miles an hour, then there are lots of hoppers who hop, skip and jump to get in where it is warm.

DEPOSITORS' MEETING WILL BE HELD ON OR BEFORE MARCH 24

Committee Announces That the State Banking Department Has Approved a Moratorium Plan

Solution of Northville's bank difficulties apparently drew nearer yesterday with the announcement by the second depositors' committee that a meeting of the depositors of both the Lapham and Northville State Savings banks will be held next week, not later than Thursday, March 24, and with the further statement of two representatives of the first committee that they would be agreeable to whatever plan is adopted by a majority vote after both plans are considered.

After nearly two weeks of study, according to the depositors' committee, of which John A. Boyce, is the chairman, the banking department at Lansing has worked out a plan which will provide for the reorganization of the closed banks by means of a depositors' agreement with a moratorium provision. As The Record understands it, this plan, in the main, is the one that is now in effect at Ypsilanti, Saline, Nashville and other Michigan towns.

The committee was unable yesterday to get in touch with Judge Arthur J. Lacy, who has presided at both meetings held here, in order to set the exact date and this detail will be worked out today.

The following statement from Mr. Boyce, chairman of the depositors' committee, tells of the progress being made:

"After a number of conferences with representatives of the depositors' committee and the bank committee, the state banking department has evolved a depositors' agreement with a moratorium provision which is designed specifically to fit the situation in Northville."

"This plan is the latest edition of the depositors' agreement which the state banking department is using in practically all instances where banks have re-opened after a period of suspension of business."

"Under this plan, which is working very successfully in all cases, the state banking department directs the details of the administration of the trust fund with meticulous care and maintains close supervision at all times to see that the interests of all interested persons are properly safeguarded."

"The depositors' committee is unable to complete final details for the next meeting of the depositors on time to fix a definite date, before The Northville Record closes its doors for publication this issue. The depositors' committee wishes to assure the public that a depositors' meeting will be held not later than Thursday, March 24. The exact time and place will be communicated to all depositors by some effective medium just as soon as last minute details are worked out."

Another development of the local banking situation is that the assessment of one hundred per cent stockholders of the Northville State Savings bank, called for by Sidney M. Laddell early in February but delayed by legal action, will be made as ordered.

A hearing in the bankruptcy proceedings, held before Judge De Witt Merriam in circuit court at Detroit Tuesday, March 15, testimony was taken of Mr. Laddell, the receiver and C. W. Wilber, Judge Merriam, under whose jurisdiction the receivership is being conducted, thereupon ordered the 100 per cent assessment, as provided by the statute, to be paid within 60 days from the date of order.

The call for assessment of the stockholders of the Lapham State Savings bank has not yet been made, although steps to that end have been taken.

NORTHVILLE SHOOT TO BE HELD SUNDAY

Northville will be the scene of much shooting on Sunday, March 20, when the Southern Michigan Championship Shoot will be held at 1:30 in the afternoon.

First and second prizes will be awarded for target, rifle, pistol shooting and for fly and bait casting. Rod and gun enthusiasts from all over lower Michigan will be present, Lansing, Flint, Battle Creek, Jackson, and many smaller towns are expecting to send delegations.

All of the proceeds will be donated to Northville organized charity to carry on welfare work.

The shoot will be held on the grounds of the Northville Gun club located behind the Pere Marquette depot.

CHURCHES PREPARE FOR GOOD FRIDAY

Carrying out the custom established for a number of years the three Protestant churches of Northville, the Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist, will observe Good Friday, March 25, in a union service. This day stands out among Christian churches as the most significant of all sacred days and it is expected that a large attendance will be present to join in this service.

The gathering will meet in the Methodist church when all three pastors will participate. As usual it is planned that the King's Daughters will sit together and will take the offering which will be used for the cause of charity.

B. A. WHEELER DIES AT HOME ON THURSDAY

Pioneer Resident, Beloved by All, Had Notable Career

Within only a few months of his eightieth birthday, Barton A. Wheeler, one of Northville's oldest and most highly respected citizens, passed away at his home on East Main street Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock. His passing is a great loss to the community.

Barton A. Wheeler.

himself with community life and was known from 400 to 2400 people. His business life was spent in the grocery business as clerk and owner. He retired from active business about ten years ago.

B. A. Wheeler and Mrs. Elizabeth Wheeler were married May 23, 1877 by the Rev. James Dubois, father of the bride. Their children are Mrs. Charles H. Paul of Dayton, O., and Mrs. Charles L. Blackburn of Northville.

Mr. Wheeler was a member of the Presbyterian church, one of the kind hearted men on the job to do those out of the way services to assistance any group. He was trustee for many years and held other important offices.

In February, 1892 he became a Mason and that fraternity has had his loyal support through all the 50 years of membership. He became treasurer of Northville Lodge No. 186 in 1895 and held the office until December last. He was elected to other offices in the line also. Mr. Wheeler was a past commander of Northville Commandery No. 39 Knights Templar. He held that office two terms and conducted the Commandery affairs through one of its difficult periods. He was next to the oldest official.

In politics Mr. Wheeler was a Republican and was never shy about stating his principle. He was elected treasurer for both the township and village on many occasions.

Mr. Wheeler was an ardent baseball fan and always made a good booster for the home team. The life of B. A. Wheeler is one of the great assets of Northville. He lived to serve his fellow men. He left a trail of kindly words and deeds. Home, business circles and the larger community affairs will miss a keen, kindly soul.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed, awaiting word from Mrs. Paul.

GRENNAN GIVES BOOST

The Community Welfare committee reports that through the generosity of Phil H. Grennan, Farmcrest has this week contributed 30 dozen buns and 80 cakes for the welfare work here.

Northville Man Out of Work Reads Entire Old Testament To Improve Time Profitably

"It's a long lane that has no turning," many have repeated to themselves during this winter of non-employment. Some have resorted to handwork, some to cross word puzzles, one man even took to hooking rugs—anything to "pass the time" until spring with its "eternal hope" should arrive. One Northville man, however, had an unusual inspiration. He said, "I'm going to start in and read the whole of the Old Testament through this winter and see if I can find comfort in my restlessness."

Just as the first robins are arriving he is about to finish this task and his verdict is, "It has been worth while." Judging by his cheer-

INDIANA EGGS NOW AT 7c PER DOZEN

Eggs at seven cents a dozen—this is the story that John A. Boyd of the Yerkes farms gets from "The Pennville Booster," The newspaper at Pennville, Ind., his former home. The item in the paper stated that it was feared the price might drop to five cents. Mr. Boyd says he remembers his mother telling of eggs selling for six cents a dozen. Around Northville the price has been around 15 and 16 cents this week.

TWO PARTIES HOLD TOWNSHIP CAUCUSES

Only 15 democrats attended the party township caucus held at the village hall Friday, March 11. The purpose of the meeting, declared officers, was not to put up a complete ticket for the township election to be held April 4, but to elect an organization which would be an active force in Northville politics.

No nominations were received for the offices of supervisor, clerk, or treasurer, but for the office of highway commissioner, Franklin Van Valkenburg, was placed on the democratic ticket; overseer of highways, Myron Robbins; Wellington Roberts, incumbent justice of the peace; board of review, Adolph C. Balder; constables, Frederick Hicks, Charles Knight, Wellington R. Lanning, democratic committee, Charles A. Sessions, Thomas Murdoch and Frederick Vanatta.

The republican caucus, held on Saturday afternoon, was adjourned from the village hall to the gymnasium of the Northville high school. Approximately 300 people attended the meeting.

Presided over by Dean F. Griswold, veteran leader of the republican party here, the caucus featured only two contests, those for nomination to the office of township clerk and for the office of highway commissioner.

In the contest for clerk, Elmer L. Smith, incumbent, polled 195 votes to win the nomination from Irving Ulrich. Northville insurance man who received 79 votes.

The closest contest of the day was that between Guy Martin and Herman Kreeger for the nomination to the office of highway commissioner. Mr. Kreeger, who held the office during the term just completed, won with 134 votes to his opponent's 115.

Harold White, the nomination as justice of peace and the following were nominated without any opposition: W. A. Ely, township supervisor; Mrs. Helen Morris, township treasurer; Wm. Dingman, highway overseer; Carmo Benton, board of review; Jas. Black, Ute Tibbitts, Frank Perrin; constables; Dean Griswold, Elmer L. Smith, Lydella Ely, Floyd Lanning, Mrs. Leo Lawrence, Republican committee for 1933.

Tellers were Elmer Ferrin, Floyd Lanning, D. J. Stark, Frederick Lyke and Thomas Carrington.

CHILDREN'S DRAMA AT METHODIST CHURCH SUNDAY EVENING

On Sunday evening at 7:30 The Children's King, will be given at the Methodist church. This is a beautiful children's drama and will be portrayed by a group of 25 junior boys and girls.

These youngsters have been organized as the junior league and during the past few weeks have been having a course in week-day religious instruction.

The drama has been developed as a result of their study in bible hymns and stories. The presentation will be under the direction of Mrs. Frank N. Muner and Mrs. Wm. A. Liebfrau.

At this service the boys and girls will be presented with their certificate of achievement.

VOTERS "KILL" NEW WATER PROPOSITION

C. A. Sessions Wins Office of Assessor Over F. Lanning

Referendum on Northville's water situation, as indicated at the polls Monday, proved to be the overwhelming in favor of continuing the improvements on the present source of supply rather than for the plan of sinking new wells. The total vote was 26 in favor of changing the supply as opposed to 312 who were in favor of continuing the present improvements.

Work has been temporarily halted on Barnhart and Hill springs, the two sources which are being improved to the extent of securing more water which would allow for elimination of Fairbrook spring, believed to be the source of contamination.

The vote on the water situation was not a vote on a bond issue, it was indicated; but was merely an opportunity given the voters to allow them to express their wishes in the matter.

The only other feature of the election which was in the nature of a contest was between Floyd Lanning and Chas. Sessions, incumbent, for the office of village assessor. Mr. Sessions won the position with 339 votes to his opponent's 188.

Mr. Sessions has held the office for 30 years and before that, for nine years he held the position of township supervisor.

Dr. L. W. Snow became the village president without any opposition receiving an almost unanimous vote of 507.

Wm. T. Gregory, new commissioner, running for a two-year unexpired term, received 435 votes without any opposition. Ross B. Dusenbury and Merrill Sweet were re-elected to the commission for four year terms with 446 and 468 votes respectively. Mr. one opposing their bids for office.

John Litsenberger will again serve as village treasurer. He having received 460 votes and F. E. Erick Hedge will also be the village clerk for the two year term, having polled 467 votes. Neither of the last two officers were opposed in the election.

The old commission composed of practically the same members, with the exception of former President Harry S. German met Tuesday evening at the village hall and formally ratified the results of the election.

The new commission meets for the first time next Monday night at the village hall.

NOTICE TO LOCAL BANK DEPOSITORS

Northville, Mich., Mar. 16, 1932. To the depositors of the Northville Banks:

Much is being said, and properly, in favor of harmony among the people of Northville. We wish to state that we have this week called on John A. Boyce of the depositors' committee and have asked him to see that both plans for banks in Northville be printed in the Record and later be presented and fully explained in depositors' meeting.

We have further said to him and to C. W. Wilber of the Northville State Savings bank that, if this is done and the depositors are given a chance to express their preference for either of these plans and if a majority of the depositors do favor either one of the plans, we shall be guided by such a majority, whether or not the plan happens to be the one that we personally favor.

H. R. Richardson.

E. L. Smith.

AN APPRECIATION

I am deeply grateful for the splendid support given me in the nomination for township clerk at the Republican caucus last Saturday. It will be hard to thank you all personally but I surely want you all to know that I keenly appreciate your loyal help. I shall continue to give my very best efforts to serve all to the limit of my ability.

ELMER L. SMITH.

WHY STAY IN NORTHVILLE?

Members of the Exchange club at their meeting a week ago answered the question: "Why I came to Northville." The answers were full of interest and paid fine tribute to this community.

"I do not know whether I shall stay in Northville," a local resident said to us the other day. This put us to thinking of the arguments for staying here. What charm does Northville hold for the folks who live here? Have we as much to offer as other towns? Are our people as friendly, as progressive, as united, as loyal, as those of other communities? Are our schools, our churches, our societies, what they ought to be? Are our business people as alert, as up-to-date as those of towns like ours? A little heart-searching is good for towns as well as for individuals.

"Why stay in Northville?" is a fair question and we should be able to answer it fairly and squarely.

GOOD LUCK TO THEM

Northville is to be congratulated on the splendid ticket of good citizens that was elected on Monday to run our village affairs. There is every reason to think that we shall have another year of good government. Holding public office is a thankless job, yet no community gets very far without self-sacrificing effort on the part of competent and loyal public servants such as Dr. Linwood W. Snow, Merrill S. Sweet, Ross B. Dysenbury, Wm. T. Gregory, George Hicks, Dr. H. H. Burkart, Frederick Hedge, John Litsenberger and Charles A. Sessions, who will fill elective offices for the coming year.

Our retiring commission, headed by Mayor Harry S. German, gave us a year of conscientious and capable service, during very trying times and the community is grateful to them for the high-minded and loyal work they have done. They have worked together in a commendable spirit of co-operation and with the best interest of the village. They have given largely of their time and energy and have left a record of which they and the village may well be proud. We thank them. All good luck to their successors.

THE NEWSPAPER CRITIC

The folks who run the newspaper don't hear the unkind things said about it as much as other folks but once in a while we feel the barb of the critic who is unfair or misinformed. As a matter of record, folks have said so many kind words about our newspaper during the past few months, that we shouldn't bother about critics. In fact we keep so busy, that we don't worry over what little criticism comes our way—probably we need it.

But we did get a smile out of this comment on newspaper critics from Jay P. House, which appeared in a recent issue of the Detroit News. Here is what Mr. House said:

I never knew a newspaper that wasn't smarter than the people who pretended to turn up their noses at it.

After all, the home newspaper is a reflection of the home folks themselves—they help make or unmake the paper. A lot of Northville people are entitled to much credit for helping make The Record as good a paper as it is.

"WHEN BRETHREN DO AGREE"

Arriving at the Novi town hall for the annual caucus a little late last Saturday afternoon, we found it jammed but with a reporter's hardihood we went forward until we found a seat on the platform steps, sitting alongside Loren B. Flint, well known orchardist, and right under the gavel of Chairman Don Yerkes, Sr. There we sat for an hour and a half and had the opportunity for a good visit with Mr. Flint. One thing that he said was this: "You won't find any finer men in the state than right here in Novi township." And the way the caucus moved along harmoniously, in spite of a couple of close contests, seemed to bear out his idea that Novi folks live together in peace and harmony.

That one remark of Loren Flint sent us homeward with a little more cheer and good will than we had had all day. We keep thinking this: "Why should it be a problem for sensible, intelligent people to live together in content and peace, without bickerings and friction?"

What a tribute to a community when one of its life long leaders says: "There are no finer men than right here."

If we had as much sense as some of those Novi men we would quit trying to run a newspaper and go out there and go to raising apples.

NO BANK IN NORTHVILLE

Northville has had a bitter experience in going for months without banks. As a result we know now by sad experience what it means to business and community life to go without these institutions. Along with everyone else, probably the very folks who, by their fear and timidity helped close them, are now suffering some of the consequences.

Something we just read makes us wonder if we will help the bank to prosper when we get one again. In Chicago four banks are asking people to come and take away their money so they can close their doors. The last of the quartet—one whose deposits shrank from a million dollars to three hundred thousand within a year—in its notice to depositors said: "There is no sense in being in business if you cannot make money or break even. So we have decided to go out of business. The bank's depositors will be paid in full."

We know what a bankless town means. Suppose our unreasoning fear and suspicion of each other—and spreading of wild, ridiculous stories—stopped everyone from wanting to start a bank here. Suppose responsible men distrusted our community so much they never would help open a bank. What kind of a town would we have in five years?

When the bank does come—as it will—let's be as fair to the bank as we are to ourselves.

MERCHANTS WIN SKIRMISH

Northville business people put labels on their windows: "We have enlisted in the war against depression." You saw them all around town.

Then the stores folks got busy and made the war a reality. They made good on the sign in the windows. They went out and won the first battle in the war by putting on two dollar days. What matter if "Aq" Schwenger's sign across Main street twice broke its cables in the March gales and fell to the street—it was brought up again, to tell the passing world that Northville marches on.

We like this spirit of doing something definite to get business. That is the way other towns are winning and that is the way we must win. If we want business we have to go after it. The business man who has said: "I am going to 'sit tight,'" is still sitting and watching the other fellow get the business.

We know very well that the merchants will make little profit from these two dollar days. A million and a half of locked-up money in two closed banks is a pretty big mill stone on local business, no matter what the dollar day attractions. Men out of work and farmers, with cash as scarce as hen's teeth, are not good prospects for money spending in these times. And yet—and yet—there are a lot of dollars around here that are working and our business men show judgment and courage to go after those dollars. Business goes where it is invited—and these dollar days were surely inviting.

Congratulations, business men. You are out to battle depression and we are with you. 1932 will reward the fighters, just as 1931 did—perhaps a little bit better.

THE ANTIDOTE OF FLOWERS

Do you want to feel and think better? And forget your troubles and the unkind things people do to you?

Go to the North American Flower show which opened yesterday at Convention hall at Detroit and closes next Tuesday, March 22. A little communion with the gorgeous flowers, buds and shrubs there will set you living in a new world. And if you come back home and get a flower garden going you will find a new thrill in living. Some of the most satisfying things in life cost little money. Picking flowers that you raised yourself and taking them to a friend who doesn't have flowers will do you more good than a raise in pay.

Reminds us of an experience we had once in California. The writer's sister, Mrs. Mary Baldwin Wheeler, lives at Arcadia, a beautiful suburb, 15 miles east of Los Angeles. This area was once part of "Lucky" Baldwin's immense ranch, whose fences were the mountains, but now thousands of people live there on their lots and ranches, surrounded by their oranges and lemons, figs and peaches and their marvelous flowers. The Wheelers have an acre of this romantic spot. Just a block or so from them lives a former high executive of a big railroad. We met him one morning as we both waited for an interurban car to take us into the city. He had his arms full of flowers. "What are you going to do with all those flowers?" we asked him. "Well, I'm going to take them to some of my friends who aren't as fortunate as I in having gardens and flowers," he replied, "and I'm taking some to folks in the hospital to cheer them up a bit. Do you know, my traveling days are over and I'm having the biggest time of my life looking after my flowers and garden. Drop over and see it."

You don't have to live in California to raise flowers. Some of the finest in the world are grown right here in Michigan, from May to October. If you want some inspiration, see the flower show at Detroit.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

How long will it be before we have a federal law guaranteeing bank deposits?

(Chet Hewell in Chesaning Argus)

The often heard expression "gimme a coke" has brought a new earnings record to the coca-cola company making the eighth straight year that net profits have increased. Just think, dividends of $11.82 a share. Who said depression. Not when folks want one and the day or evening is hot and a cold glass of beer is taboo—"gimme a coke."

BOOSTS RAILROADS

(Geo. Neal in Orion Review)

Bus travel is crude in all of its forms, and in Detroit it can be found at its worst. Any future legislation should be favorable to continuation of the railroad and not for the irresponsible bus companies. They are arch-tax dodgers and form a menace to the safety of those inside and outside of them. We predict the "lost business" of the railroads will come back to them with interest.

PAYING OUR BILLS

(W. S. Kennedy in Albion Evening Recorder)

Depression's best friend is the man or woman who can wait little or no effort pay his or her bills promptly—but doesn't. During the war it was a serious offense to utter seditious remarks or to commit unpatriotic acts. Today, with the whole world fighting a great economic war, thousands who should be doing their bit by paying their bills promptly are actually aiding the enemy—depression—by letting the grocer, the landlord, the coal dealer, the newspaper, the doctor and others wait for the payment of goods that have been delivered or for services rendered. Payment of these bills—in full or in part—will help re-open old jobs and stimulate business. Slow pay means slower business and more unemployment. If you cannot pay all, pay a part of every bill you owe.

TAKE OFF THE HALO

(Schuyler Marshall in Clinton County Republican-News)

Several newspapers in this part of the state broke out in editorial rhapsody over the fact that Coach Jim Crowley decided to remain at Michigan State college.

The popular Jim was lauded for his loyalty and sterling qualities of character simply because he finally decided to do as he had agreed to do. He had signed a contract to remain at Michigan State—but for several weeks had been flirting with Iowa university where there was a vacancy. More money was offered him. It is sad. Of course, there was precedent for him to break his word and his contract. That has been done often and right here in Michigan. But why put a halo around Jim's head for finally deciding to keep his word and his contract? Is common honesty so unusual among athletic coaches?

DECENCY IN THE MOVIES

(Senator Harry Whiteley in the Dowsagac Daily News)

We don't recall ever agreeing with Senator Brookhart in our conscious moments, but he hit one nail on the top knot when he said in substance the other day that the harlot had taken the place of the gangster in motion pictures and pointed out the moral effects of the glorification of such characters. The old ally is that "we give the public what it wants" is only a half truth. There must for ought to be some controlling factor of decency in literature, pictures, radio and all other forms of news and amusement dissemination.

BRUCKER GAINS FRIENDS

(W. H. Berkey in the Cassopolis Vigilant)

It is becoming more and more apparent that there will be no organized opposition to Gov. Brucker in the coming primaries as sentiment is crystallizing among those who give advance thought to such matters.

This is probably due in a large measure to the fact that our government is conceded to be fundamentally honest, and also in a large measure because it is generally conceded that he made an honest and sincere endeavor to carry out his campaign pledge to reduce the state's budget. In this he lacked the hearty cooperation of Senate and House and an order to redeem his pledge he lopped a matter of a million or two from their appropriations. Then a couple of Senators carried the matter to the courts, where it was decided that he had not the same right to cut appropriations that had been accorded Governors Sleeper, Groesbeck and Green. These things have caused people generally to take the side of Gov. Brucker.

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD

Friday, March 18, 1932

IF

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting, too;
If you can wait and not be tired of waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give away to hating,
And yet don't look too good nor talk too wise
If you can dream—and not make dreams your master,
If you can think—and not make your thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two imposters just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to broken,
And stoop and build them up with worn-out tools.
If you can make a heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"
If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings—nor lose your common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforfeiting minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And what is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

Rudyard Kipling.

Another element that has tended to discourage opposition to him in the primary is the acknowledged necessity for Republican leaders to present a united front against a democracy that has been stirred to renewed activity by the election of a Democratic congressman in the eighth district. With two year experience as Governor, Mr. Brucker should be able to do more for Michigan in the next two years than any other man.

NORTHVILLE, AT MIDNIGHT

By Grace Sprenger

Main street lies all in a shadow,
And here, where the trees grow tall,
A church house, showing the town clock,
And the moonlight over all.

Somewhere, a lone light glistens
A sentinel for the night,
To guard against those who plunder,
When fades the last star's light.

And Northville streets are silent,
The villagers asleep in their beds
Dream not of the morrow's toil
Or the ache in weary heads.

The school yard, too, is deserted,
The children have ceased their play,
And have drifted away, at bedtime,
To dream the night away.

Soon, far over the hazy hills
Dawns will reappear;
Beginning again, another day,
But, what is it bringing near?

Never a whisper is brought to us,
But, working away with a will,
We shall see the sun of our Success,
Rise above the distant hills.

Woman's Club Visits Germany With Dr. Handorf

Continuing their study-travel around the world the Woman's club visited Germany last Friday. It was Dr. Handorf who conducted the party, this time sailing from New York harbor on the lordly "Europa" right to the very threshold of his former home in Hamburg, Germany.

With enthusiastic love for his native land, the doctor described the wonders of Germany. "Germany," said the doctor, "has always had to be 'on her toes,' situated as she is in central Europe, surrounded on all sides by various races. There is always something happening there. Throughout all her history she has never had a chance to quiet down—hence the high rate of intelligence and wit developed through the generations of alert activity in self defense.

The German, Dr. Handorf described as independent, proud and critical. Little does he care for popularity. He works hard when he works and plays equally hard. Every German has his hobby which he takes as seriously as his business.

Especially enlightening in the doctor's talk was the description of the University life with its absolute "academic freedom." Altogether those hearing this most interesting talk felt that they had had a very graphic and honest picture of Germany as she is today when Dr. Handorf had finished his speech.

Interesting Federation reports were given by Mrs. E. A. Kohler, Mrs. J. H. Bolton, Mrs. C. M. Chase and Mrs. Percy Argove.

This afternoon (Friday) the club will visit the Detroit House of Correction. Cars will meet those who wish to go at the library at 2 o'clock.

PARENTS, TEACHERS HEAR SPECIALIST

The March meeting of the Parent Teachers' Association met Thursday afternoon, March 10, when the mothers of children of pre-school age were present to enjoy a special treat. Dr. Tilson of the Merrill-Palmer Institute was present to talk upon the subject, "Parents as Teachers." This talk proved very informing.

Dr. Tilson urged teachers not to underrate themselves as teachers. She called attention to the number of hours children are under home influence as compared to those in school or church. Discussing typical instances of child problems she said, "Educators have recognized for a long time health, sanitation and the advantage of educational environment but only recently have they been interested in the child's social life. Dr. Tilson called attention to a magazine published called, 'Understanding the Child,' which, she said, is an important step in the program of parent training.

The annual election of officers resulted as follows: president, Mrs. Elmer Ward Lester; vice president, Mrs. Richard T. Baldwin; treasurer, Miss Nora Wilson; secretary, Miss Ellen Relicke.

At the close of the business meeting tea and wafers were served during a pleasant social hour.

For largest attendance of parents Mrs. Rene's room won the first picture and Miss Reincke's room the second.

It was announced that school night will be March 31. Glasses from the second grade through the high school are in session from seven to nine in the evening. There will be a place to leave small children if parents wish to visit around various rooms. This is an opportunity for the parents to see school in regular routine and it is hoped parents will respond well.

April 27 and 28 there will be a Parent Education Institute in Ann Arbor. Several interesting speakers are scheduled among them Mrs. Hugh Bradford, the national president of P. T. A., and Mrs. Florence Haas, the National Educational Ass'n president. A program will be printed in another issue of the Record or may be obtained from Mrs. Paul Alexander.

The committee includes A. R. Glancy, former president of the Oakland Motor Car Co., who has been persistently mentioned as probable president of the new bank. The depositors in an announcement state that they realize the impossibility of reopening the old bank under its charter, but believe that a new bank would permit more rapid liquidation of the old bank and thus aid the city's recovery.

MARVIN BOGART IS HALE AND HEARTY ON 92nd BIRTHDAY

Marvin Bogart, well-known citizen of these parts for many years, was receiving yesterday, March 17, the hearty congratulations of his many friends on reaching his ninety-second birthday. Especially is Mr. Bogart to be congratulated on having lived to this remarkable age and to have retained such excellent health throughout the years.

Mr. Bogart is hale, hearty and happy and from his bearing one would scarcely believe he had reached this advanced age.

Marvin Bogart served his country in helping preserve the Union in the Civil War, engaging in active battle on various occasions. With a vista of years Mr. Bogart is able to look upon the present crisis without panic saying with the wisdom of experience: "The nation has always pulled through depressions and can again." This, he admits, however, is the worst yet.

Mr. Bogart's great pleasures these days are reading, and visiting with his friends.

In honor of the occasion Mr. and Mrs. LaRue Bogart of Wixom, with whom he makes his home, joined with another son, Harry Bogart and his family in a birthday dinner at the latter's home in Pontiac.

Besides Mr. Bogart's two sons, sixteen grandchildren and twelve

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Amerman and family will spend Easter and spring vacation in Hillsdale at the home of Mrs. Amerman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Comstock.

"Much of our trouble of today comes from our disobedience of the laws of the Kingdom of God," Rev. Frank N. Miner stated Sunday in his sermon at the Methodist church.

"You have a fine looking town," said John J. Fisher of Albion, one of the Rotarians who was here Monday. He visited the Schrader furniture store and funeral parlors and said: "They are the best I ever saw for a town of this size."

Howard Christenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Christenson, is recovering from an operation for appendicitis in Sheldon Memorial hospital in Albion. Young Christenson is a freshman in Albion college.

Dr. L. W. Snow, who has been confined to his home with sinus trouble, is much improved and hopes to be back at his office Saturday. Mr. Voss Harrell of Detroit was here last Thursday and Friday to visit him.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Sherwin A. Hills that they had landed in New York City and were expected to arrive home yesterday (Thursday). They have been, cruising the Mediterranean for the past six weeks.

Nicholas Delmaris, proprietor of the Red Arrow lunch room, will be assisted by Christ Kakavos who comes to Northville from Detroit having had many years experience in this line of work. He was for five years proprietor of a similar concern in Plymouth.

Rev. A. K. MacRae of Walled Lake, former Baptist pastor here, has been keenly interested in the Lindbergh kidnapping case, as he was formerly engaged in juvenile work in New Jersey. He knows the whole area around the Lindbergh home and he says he fears the child will not be returned alive.

The Record is glad to receive a letter from Mrs. Ella E. Lockwood, Minnetonka, Fla., saying that her father, Edward Lockwood, is very well now. Contrary to the current report here that Mr. Lockwood had died she says, "to say the least, he is a lively looking corpse as he is up and dressed, eating three square meals a day." The Lockwoods hope to return to Northville some time in April.

Mrs. N. N. Allison has moved from Butler, avenue to First street.

Mrs. Heeney spent three days with her son, Spencer, in Farmington.

Mrs. Wm. Fraser, North Rogers street, is nursing a badly sprained ankle.

Miss Agnes Ballantyne of Saginaw was the guest recently of her niece, Mrs. Maurice Lapham.

Miss Laura Trombley and her brother, John, and Virginia Sharp, of Birmingham were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. White, Sr., on Monday night.

Mrs. Phil Taylor and her mother, Mrs. Geo. Ford, of Novi, are spending a few days with Mrs. Ford's sister, Mrs. Wm. White, of North Center street.

After the unexpected cold spell experienced in this locality warmer weather has come with a hint of spring. Next Monday will be the first day of spring.

Mrs. Hugh C. Chapin accompanied her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. MacNicol of Hillman to Ypsilanti, Wednesday, afternoon where they visited relatives.

Readers are reminded to keep in mind that the King's Daughters will in the near future give the hash supper which was postponed. Watch for the date 35 cents.

Ad Schwenger had dinner and spent a pleasant evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orlow G. Owen on South Wing street Wednesday evening.

The village of Plymouth is no more. Henceforth our neighbors will be known as the City of Plymouth, they having adopted the new form of government at the election Monday.

The Dramatics club will give a dance Saturday evening, March 19, at the high school gym from 8 to 12. The Blue Serenaders orchestra will furnish music. The public is invited. 50 cents a couple or 25 cents for single admission.

Clifford Shaden has returned from Northville looking hale and hearty after a six-weeks' vacation in the south. C. B. Turnbull's mother accompanied him from Delhi, Ont., and returned with him. Mr. Shaden stopped in Delhi for a visit with his father who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. MacNicol of Hillman were visiting Wednesday afternoon at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Chapin, Fairbrook street. They returned in the afternoon to Bay City where Mr. MacNicol is at present on jury duty.

Mrs. Manning, who is connected with the Detroit News, was stranded in Northville "between buses" Tuesday afternoon on her way through to Detroit from Lansing whence she had gone on an assignment concerning the death of the society editor of the Lansing State Journal.

M. G. Robinson was called Saturday to the home of his niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Luce Salmon, in Fenton where he attended the funeral of their daughter, Mrs. Quick, who died at the age of 24 years. Her death was caused by other pneumonia following an operation for appendicitis performed in Hurley hospital, Flint. She leaves, beside her parents, her husband and little three-year-old daughter.

George R. Simmons had word Tuesday from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Simmons, who have been wintering at Clermont, Florida, that due to reports of cold in the North they are delaying their start back home. They had planned to arrive the middle of this week. Mr. Simmons writes that the cold wave did great damage to the fruit crop in the South. At Atlanta, Georgia the temperature dropped to 14 above.

The many little friends of Thorne Nogar of Dundee, will be interested to know that on Saturday, March 19, at 5 o'clock, he will broadcast over station WSPD, at Toledo, Ohio. He sings popular melodies and plays selections on the trap drums and tenor banyo. He will be accompanied by Miss Gertrude Nogar, a former Northville girl. Any of his friends hearing him, may send a letter and receive a pin, giving them membership in the "Merry Forty club" of Toledo.

Word has been received from the navy recruiting station, Detroit, that Emory A. Warner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Warner, Route 2, Northville, has been transferred from the U. S. naval training station, Great Lakes, Ill., to the electrical school at the naval training station, San Diego, Calif. The course at this school is 30 weeks. Warner was selected for further training at this school as the result of competitive examinations held while he was undergoing preliminary training at Great Lakes. He enlisted in the navy at Detroit on November 3, 1931.

MANUAL TRAINING CLASSES POPULAR WITH SCHOOL BOYS

Paul R. Thompson, teacher of manual arts in our Northville school, is a busy man directing five classes of busy boys eager to make things.

Eighty-five of these boys pass through his instruction each day with only one vacant period for him to catch his breath.

The boys like this work and very rarely does a problem of discipline mar the happy atmosphere of pride in achievement. And very attractive and useful articles they make, foot stools, tables, bookcases and all sorts of furnishings, many of the patterns being of their own design.

The 3th grade has begun lathe work and pattern making. A class in vocations is helping boys to find their "bent".

Very practical results of this department are some substantial tables built for the Board of Education for class rooms and some sturdy bookkeeping tables.

On school night, this department will be working full blast, and parents who want to see their sons' ability to do things will have a chance when they will be glad to have a glimpse of what one educator who recently visited the schools called "one of the nicest little shops I have ever seen."

A traveling salesman for the Strelinger company says: "It is a much better equipped work shop than those I have seen in towns much larger than this. Mr. Thompson has been teaching in our high school for six and one-half years."

SENIORS ABANDON WASHINGTON TRIP

With only $300 on hand toward the necessary $1500 to take them on their coveted trip to Washington, D. C., the high school seniors voted to abandon this hopeless task at a meeting of the class on Wednesday afternoon. After months of hard work trying to raise this amount, these students sensibly faced the fact that the times are unusual and it is useless to expect the public to patronize their enterprises with their usual generosity. Making the best of their disappointment these undaunted seniors hope to take a less expensive trip, perhaps to Niagara Falls or to some other place to be decided upon later.

SCHOOL IMMUNIZED AT TOXOID CLINIC

Approximately 85 children from the public schools of Northville township and some "babes in arms" were brought to the office of the board of education yesterday morning where they were given the third immunization from diphtheria.

Dr. Wilbur H. Johnson, village health officer, administered the toxoid, and was assisted by school nurse, Mrs. Florence Bray and the county nurse, Mrs. Georganna Reed, with Miss Demetra Mills a high school senior, as clerk.

Very "game" were these youngsters who, bated their arms and marveled up to the doctor with far more composure than their elders would have done. Not a whimper was heard as each in turn felt the hypodermic needle in his arm. One little four-year-old proudly referred to her episode as her "evaporation."

Northville is to be congratulated on the progressiveness of the leaders of this movement, who have been able to thus immunize the public "by the wholesale" from that dread disease, diphtheria.

A small sum of 75 cents has been charged the parents who felt able to pay for it and those who were not, have been cared for by the P. T. A. through the welfare association.

Within three weeks another clinic will be held to give the third immunization to those who failed to appear at this time.

APPRECIATION

I wish to express my appreciation to the voters of Novi township who nominated me to the office of supervisor at the caucus held March 12. If I am elected I will continue giving the same good service to the people that I have in the past.

—Chas. W. Hamilton

ST. PATRICK

By Rev. W. Roscoe Barbour

This most remarkable missionary was born about 400 A. D. in Scotland. He was educated in a monastery in France. When about 1 years old and living at his home in Scotland he was carried off by a band of Irish pirates and as a slave in Ireland had a wonderful experience of the love of God. Escaping from his thralldom he returned home to consecrate himself to missionary work and later to prepare himself for it by his studies in France.

At last he set sail for Ireland, the land of his captivity. Here he centered his teachings about the Lord Jesus Christ. He believed in the one God.

PATRIOTIC PICTURES ARE SHOWN SCHOOLS

At the courtesy of the Wayne county superintendent Monday afternoon the students of all Northville schools and those of rural schools surrounding were given a treat in the way of a motion picture concerning the life of George Washington. These films are being shown in public schools throughout the country in honor of the Washington Bicentennial.

The picture showed the life of Washington from the time when he was a young lad until the time for his retirement and was very educational in every way.

Even the young children seemed to enjoy the pictures exceedingly, especially those of the battles. The older students also expressed their appreciation.

Much gratitude is due to Harry Lush, manager of the theatre, for his kindness in opening the doors to children and teachers. It is estimated that approximately 900 students were present.

MRS. DOLPH FEEDS FEATHERED FLOCK

There is no depression in bird-land if you consult Mrs. Grace Dolph about the question.

Her early morning sleep is disturbed by the plaintive call of many bird-friends who come to her rock garden and wait as patiently as the laws of birdland permit for her to bring the daily offering of food. The feathered tribe come to the rose arbor, the nearby trees and even upon the back porch to be in readiness for their hand out. The other morning the usual group of sparrows arrived and when the bread crumbs were spread for them, empty stomachs a blue-jay interrupted the party to snatch a bite for himself, then a few starlings swooped down for a share and a lone robin, joined the festivities. Finally a blackbird added his presence to the group. There was a swift change of places as various members around the table helped him or himself to a portion. Any given piece of food was thieved by a dozen different birds until it was "all eaten."

As the supply was cleared up the birds retired to their respective domiciles or remained upon the arbor to take an after dinner nap.

Anybody can have a company of this sort if they will take the time to put out the proper friendship tokens.

in which it won world leadership this year. The new 1932 models offer features heretofore considered exclusive to the high price field, as well as a new front end mounting never before shown on any car.

Called "The Great American Value for 1932," the line offers in support of the slogan a twenty per cent increase in power, faster acceleration, top speeds of 40 to 70 miles an hour, new vasher bodies with a modern streamline styling, down-draft carburetion, counter-balanced crankshaft, finger-touch front seat adjustment and many other refinements over the 1931 models, which, from the standpoint of public acceptance, were the most successful in the history of the company.

Twenty standard and deluxe models are in the new line, of which the Special Sedan, pictured above, is the nucleus. The lower view shows the new front end and the massive, powerful appearing hood enclosing the motor.

In addition to interest centering on the cars themselves, the announcement of a new national campaign of significance in that activity brought about by production of the new cars is of great importance. It is estimated to add materially to the buying of 200,000 people throughout the country and before the severe winter season sets in.

The company's 21 domestic plants all are busy producing cars as fast as precision manufacturing limits will be reached. The new cars will be made with the least possible delay, and from 30,000 of the new cars already are on the roads. The new cars are displays and more than that.

As expected to roll off the assembly lines during the present month, the new car is the first in the low-price line to have the combination of silent Synco-Meech transmission with selective free wheeling as standard equipment at no extra cost. A new control button on the instrument panel enables the driver to use the free wheeling device only when he desires, and he is thus able to utilize the full braking power of the engine when desired.

The front end offers a radically changed appearance, with a new type radiator, a radiator grille built integral on all models, a double tie-bar adding gracefully between the tenders, on which are mounted bullet-shaped headlamps and a trumpet-like horn just beneath the left headlamp. All models have a new front end, chrome plated on all the snout and deluxe models, and all have new ventilators controlled from the driver's seat.

With the new streamlined bodies, the external sun visor has been eliminated, and its purpose is now served by an internal visor adjustable to any position in front of the driver. The left front window also has an equalizer built in so that the driver may adjust the window with little effort. On the top rail of the instrument panel is a new control ray for the convenience of front seat-passenger.

Robo rails, silk assist rods, window electric seats and a silk tray on both sides of the rear seat, dome lights, foot rests, large door pockets and many other big car refinements are standard with various models.
