FIRST-BANK PLAN

The following is the plan that was presented at the last meeting of the depositors and laid on the table for two weeks.

The following plan is identical for both banks, with the exception, the Lapham State Savings bank calls for a $90,000 setup.

McPherson New Bank Plan
Receiver assesses stockholders 100 per cent, payable as directed.

Receiver declares 10 per cent dividend of approximately $45,000.00.

That a new bank be organized with approximately $45,000.00 capital and $10,000.00 surplus.

That 50 per cent of the dividend of approximately $22,000.00 be subscribed by depositors to the capital of the new bank in proportion as follows: 20 per cent capital stock and 30 per cent paid in surplus and undivided profit.

Per share of 100 shares to be $20.00.

Subscribed price $20.00 per share. Script be issued for fractional shares of stock to which depositors are entitled, any sum over the nearest half to be paid outright to depositors.

That no depositors with a total net claim under $50.00 be expected to subscribe for stock in the new bank. Agreement for rental space in Northville for offices of the new bank.

Each depositor shall receive a full power to interpret this plan and to modify the same to accomplish the contemplated results and determine all details arising out of the plan, into effect said plan, and such interpretations and modifications shall be conclusive.

"Merry Bidders" Meet With Mrs. Shafer

The "Merry Bidders" had another of their enjoyable occasions Thursday at the home of Mrs. E. A. Shafer when an informal tea followed an afternoon with bridge. Guests of the club were Mrs. R. B. Dusenbury, Mrs. Carl H. Bryan, Mrs. E. C. Stahl and Mrs. Waldo Johnson.

Bridge Dinner Given By Mr. and Mrs. Blake

At an attractive spring dinner with Easter colors, green and white, in evidence in the table decorations, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Blake extended hospitality to a group of sixteen friends Wednesday evening at their home on Fairbrook. After the delectable menu bridge occupied the remainder of the evening.

Jefford Friends Gather At Yerkes Home

Like "good old times" it seemed to Mrs. Dan P. Yerkes, Sr. and Mrs. R. C. Yerkes to have a group of former Jefford friends who once formed a congenial club present at the home of the former for a luncheon recently. The occasion happened to be the natal day of one of the number, Mrs. S. A. Arms, so the affair took on the nature of a birthday party, with a real birthday cake to day.

Our so-called world and civilization. Of any such civilization, let me go on record as being unalterably opposed to any such system that can still say that there is a "pleasant side to war" and that that side only can be depicted. Most of us must still have emblazoned on the walls of our memory the savage and terrible holocaust that was perpetrated upon the battlefields of Europe in this last great war that left the cream of our men maimed, crushed and shapeless or deranged in mind or soul for the rest of their lives, to say nothing of the thousands that offered up their lives on the hellish altar of war, that our civilization might continue.

What price civilization that in this enlightened and intelligent age we must kill and murder and consider that it is a "pleasant business" that we might "hand on" to posterity a system of culture, education and refinement for the use and enjoyment of the next generation? Let me repeat with emphasis, "murder, carnage and blood spilling and pain."

The peace essential necessary to "carry on" civilization?

During the War of the Rebellion General Sherman wrote in a very deliberate fashion, "I should not hesitate to burn Savannah, Charleston and Wilmington if the necessities were needed. Of necessity in war, the commander on the spot is the judge and may take your house, your fields, your everything, and turn you out to starve. Our duty is not to build up, it is rather to destroy; to let the rebel army and whatever wealth or property is thus founded as a base of operations."

These statements have not been placed in this article for the purpose of animadverting against any country nor should, at one from an "enemy" take offense. The purpose has been to show that we do not have any "pleasant" side to only one of pillage, plunder, murder and that its essential character is of monstrous cruelty and ruthlessness. If there be a pleasant war of waging war then it is a pleasant hell, but whoever heard of it?

Clara Barton declared that there could be no "civilized war," and the estimable lady was right, undoubtedly so, notwithstanding the fact that our own men went "over there" with the hallucinatory belief that they were going over to fight in a war to "save democracy and civilization." Of all the insane morose ideas to put into the hearts and minds of any fair youth, that such a "vast imbecility" is still the most potent force in governing affairs of evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Foreman. On April 1 Friday evening, the Ladies Auxiliary society will give a ham and egg supper in the town hall, also a spring bazaar. One price for all, 35c.

"An Electric Range was a luxury when we were married

... Now I couldn't be without mine!"

... IT'S AN
ELECTROCHEF

"Only well-to-do families could afford electric ranges when WE started housekeeping—so of course we didn't have one. But nowadays, with the Electrochef so low-priced, and its cooking cost so low, I wouldn't be without it! If every young housewife today knew what a difference this modern stove makes, an Electrochef would be the first thing she'd insist on in her kitchen. It's not only the cleanliness and the beauty of my range that I like, but also the delicious flavor retained by electric cooking. Very little water is needed for electric cooking, and meats and vegetables cook in their own juices. All the healthful food values and natural elements are retained, instead of being lost in steam. Brides today are lucky to be able to start housekeeping with an Electrochef. This lovely range makes cooking a real pleasure!"

WHAT ANOTHER BIRTHDAY!

"A Happy Birthday," say the cards from those who remember, and, "A Happy Birthday to you," sings the family at the breakfast table, but honestly now, does any woman who reaches a birthday in the forties feel very joyful? No! None of these cheerful greetings are balm to the actual hurt which comes from being reminded by the calendar that time is slipping by all too fast. We like to say with Oliver Wendell Holmes, "Hang the almanac's cheat and the catalogue's spite."

Old Time is a liar! We're twenty tonight!

We hate to grow old. It really isn't so much the "silver strands among the gold," that double chin, those tell-tale wrinkles, or even the gray reference the children make, "Did they do that in your day, mother?" No, these bold facts are not exactly welcome, but they are only grim reminders that precious life is passing and the time left is all too short to accomplish half of our youthful dreams.

We think of a cartoon in our father's big scrap book. An old man is sitting in the back seat of a sleigh driven by Father Time who is lashing his horse with his scythe as it gallops down hill. The old man calls out, "Hold on. Father Time, don't drive so fast. I'm in no hurry."

So many things we hoped to do, so many books to have time to read, so many fine folk we hope to have time to know better, so many nice things to do around the house, so many good times with the dear family before they grow up, so many places of interest to travel to after the children are grown up and so they need us, hours of just being "homey" and having time to bask in the warmth of domesticity, planning and laying out a real home garden and watching it grow so that of real worth accomplished for church and community—all these and thousands more of our ambitions beckon to us. How can any folk talk about "passing the time?"

Many women fight old age from the outside, as if cold creams, "flourishes," rouge and such external helps (useful though they may be) could really keep back the years. It can't be done and nobody's going to be fooled.

Many women worry about losing their husbands because of lost physical charms (if they are thus hard to "hold," it is doubtful if they are "worth the holding"). We might suggest that they look honestly in the mirror at their own bald patches and increasing "bay windows."

Radio Pickups

By Jack North

Eddie East and Ralph Dumke, well known Sisters of the Skillet, are not brothers as so many think, and they don't even "own a skillet." Eddie was originally an attorney, and they say his first client is still in the penitentiary. Ralph was the designer of plows in a plow factory. One day the president caught Ralph playing his banjo during working hours, and well you know how presidents are, no sense of rhythm. Right there was where Ralph got his first taste of the unemployment situation.

Illinois sure goes in for producing radio entertainers. That's where Amos 'n' Andy hail from. Em of Clara, Lou and Ben are from Peoria. Alice Joyce from Streator, Ill. Both Gene and Glenn come from Illinois, as well as Jimmie Melton, Frank LaForge and Lee Sims. Nellie Raven says "Opa" may be the mother of presidents but Illinois is the whole family tree.

A new weekly series sponsored by the makers of someone's coffee will be started Thursday night, March 24. The stories told will be those written by Rudyard Kipling, "The Man Who Would Be King," will inaugurate the new series in the near future. "Black Jack" and "The Mark of the Beast" will be heard. Be sure and dial WVVO at 9:30 p. m. Thursday. This will be well worth listening to.

You all know of Gladys Rice, heard regularly over NBC of course. She is the daughter of John Rice and Sally Cohen, famousville legends. Gladys was sent away to a boarding school when she was a young girl, and during her geography lesson one day the teacher asked where a certain town was located. Gladys answered, "I don't know how far it is but I know it's a Sunday run from Des Moines."

And here's one for you rhythm hunters. Set your dial on WGN at Chicago every Sunday at 5:30 p. m. Wayne King will be on for an unforgettable half hour of mean rhythm following which will be Bernie Cummins over the same station until 6:30. This is an hour of blues, chasin' melodies that you cannot afford to miss.

Baby Rose Marie of NBC is the daughter of Frank Curley, who was a member of George M. Cohan's "45 Minutes From Broadway" cast.

George Jessel, the stage comedian who succeeded Eddie Cantor on the Chase & Sanborn hour Sunday nights is Jewish and like all artists is proud of his name. The other day a Jewish made acquaintance exclaimed, "I see Al Jolson's father is a rabbi." By any chance was your father a cantor. "By no chance," replied George tartly, he's a Jew!

West Point Park

The Senior Bible class met at the home of Mrs. Hannah Ault on Tuesday evening. A large number were present. This class is led by Rev. John Adams. The evening was spent very pleasantly together and the hostess served lunch.

Emerson Ault is still on the sick list, having a relapse after the flu. The Girl Scouts met Thursday evening. A number of the officers were changed and arrangements were made to go on a hike in the near future.

Miss Loretta Dawson has started a new branch library at West Point Park, including a new library from the Wayne county library. Anyone in this county is eligible to use them.

Mrs. A. J. Bate and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bare of Okla. were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heichman on Saturday and Sunday.

An Easter breakfast will be served in the community hall Sunday morning at eight o'clock. An Easter program will be given as it has been for the past six years. Sunday school and church will be at the usual hour, commencing at 10:30.

The boys and girls of a Pierson school were taken to the first movie at the Northville theatre. The picture, an exhibition portrayed the life of George Washington. Miss Mary Jameson and Mrs. Fisher of Detroit sponsored the treat and all present enjoyed it greatly.

Miss Elizabeth Mercer has returned to school after having the flu. Mrs. Mary Addis and Mrs. Ethel Middlewood spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gullen.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor have been quite sick this week with a severe cold.

The government appoints no women mail carriers and yet there lives in West Point Park a widow with six children, who has carried the mail for the last nine years her route being number two a very long and paying one starting early in the morning, she is on the job until evening, driving about 60 miles each day. Miss Ethel Middlewood is healthy and enjoys her job. She is paying the way for each child to have an education. We do not think the government has any complaint coming.

Friday was an anxious day for those who were interested in the metropolitan spelling match in Pierson school. Those winning the grade championships are as follows: eighth grade, Mary Gatterer with Marjory Heichman as runner up; seventh grade, Rose Gatterer with Viola Wolfe runner up, sixth grade, Maureen Wolfe champion Virginia as first runner up and Peter Gatterer and Kathleen Taggart as runners up. The contest was so intense and determined that the contestants between seventh and eighth grades did not finish until after five o'clock.

The performance by the kiddies of the Wadsworth School of Dancing at the Wayne County Training school was excellent. The crowd to enjoy this show was of the size of the weather and the apparent fact of two-bit pieces. Net proceeds will be turned over to the Northville welfare committee. The post wishes to thank the performers, the Wadsworth school, Dr. Haskell for the auditorium and Comrade Waldo Johnson and his committee.

Emch was prepared by the committee for the members after the regular meeting, but as the nightingale was not held because of the show there was more lunch than luncheon. All the kids were taken to the post rooms after the performance and did they clear up that lunch?

Comrades Dixon, Hills and Testka are the latest additions to the paid-up membership list. Who will be the next lucky guys?

Here is an up-to-date scoop on the Community Banquet to be held at the Presbyterian church house Wednesday evening, April 6 at 6:30 p. m. The program cannot be announced complete as yet but several prominent Legionnaires have been booked and we expect to have the list completed soon. Music and entertainment are being contracted so that a pleasant and instructive program may be enjoyed by all persons attending. These lines are cordially invited to attend but as 250 plates are all that will be sold we urge you to make reservations soon. The price per plate will be 75 cents and tickets will be distributed to members for sale in the near future.
